OBITUARY - On reference to our obituary list of Monday it will be noticed that another old settler has passed away from amongst us in the person of Mrs. Matthew Sweetman, sen., at the advanced age of 73. Mrs. Sweetman shared the toils and dangers of the early settlers along with her husband, who located his habitation in Guelph Township in the year 1827, and has been privileged to witness the immense strides in settlement which has characterized this district, along with the country generally, during the intervening period. Mrs. Sweetman is survived by her husband, and by a family of five daughters and two sons, the melancholy death from a railway accident of a third son, Mr. John Sweetman, Township Assessor, being still fresh in the recollection of most of our readers. Mrs. Sweetman was a native of Kerry County, Ireland.

HERNDON'S OPERA COMPANY - The Town Hall was thronged on Monday evening, on the occasion of the second appearance of the Herndon Company, who played Dion Boucicault's famed play of Rip Van Winkle, founded on Washington Irving's novel of that name. The drama was well put on the stage, and admirably acted. "Rip" found an excellent exponent in Mr. Herndon, who is a careful and capital actor, and whose personation of the somewhat Dutchman was life-like, expressive and correct in taste. The other characters were also well portrayed, and, altogether, the acting was such as we rarely see in Guelph. The acting throughout was heartily applauded by the large audience. This Company have made a most favorable impression on our playgoers, and we are glad to hear that they intend shortly to return to Guelph, when they may remain for a week or so, and produce some of the most admired plays in their repertoire.

HOSPITAL STATISTICS - Now that our own General Hospital is in a fair way of being an accomplished fact, anything pertaining to its management, cost, &c., must prove interesting; and for the following valuable memoranda we are much indebted to Dr. Keating, who has all along been one of the most active and zealous of the promoters of this invaluable institution. The Dr. has taken the trouble to ascertain the cost per day of the patients at the respective hospitals of Hamilton, London and Ottawa, and has found it to result as follows: - Hamilton, 38 cents per day; London, 68 cents per day; Ottawa, Protestant Hospital, 46 cents per day, or an average of 49 cents per patient. For the sum of $1,800 per annum, ten patients could be supported at the Hospital for a year, or, taking the average time a patient remains under Hospital Medical treatment, 170 patients would be dealt with for the same pecuniary outlay in the course of the same period. From these statistical facts it will be seen that a comparatively small sum annually, a large amount of suffering humanity may be skilfully relieved, and perhaps permanently cured through one of the most benevolent agencies that any community can be called upon to support.

Missionary Meeting.

A missionary meeting of a congregational character was held on Monday evening in Chalmers' Church to hear a Presbyterian deputation consisting of the Rev. Messrs. Middlemiss and Macdonald of Elora, and a General Assembly representative, Dr. Waters, of St. Mary's, on the cause of missions. The Rev. Mr. Wardrope occupied the chair. The attendance was pretty fair, but nothing like what the importance of the occasion and the superiority of the speakers demanded. After devotional exercises, the Rev. Mr. Middlemiss introduced the subject of the Church's duty to the world, and the Scriptural principle involved in its discharge. Mr. Macdonald spoke of the cause of missions generally, with a special reference to the promotion and maintenance of Foreign Missions. His remarks on Home Missions Mr. Macdonald made a somewhat impressive statement, namely, that whilst 10 years ago congregations would not object to their pastor being absent several Sabbaths in supplying destitute mission fields, where the administration of ordinances was few and far between, yet now-a-days an absence on the part of a settled pastor would scarcely be tolerated, so much more exacting are the demands of congregations now. Mr. Macdonald told an amusing story of how at one meeting he had held some years ago in the west on behalf of missions, one good man's liberality was touched by the eloquent appeal of the speaker that he walked up to the table and deposited a cent, and departed with the self-gratulatory consciousness that he had nobly done his duty in the good cause! The Rev. Dr. Waters followed, and spoke eloquently and forcibly on behalf of both the Home and Foreign Missions, and concluded by stating that as the Canadian Presbyterian Church was circumstanced her great mission field was the home one. He showed very clearly that one great reason of Presbyterian defection in many places was owing to the failure of Presbyterians to occupy the fields, and consequent absorption of considerable numbers of hereditary Presbyterians into other bodies; and much as he regretted this from a Presbyterian standpoint, yet it were ten thousand times better that such absorption should occur than that these persons should be converted to other faiths by associating themselves with no church. Dr. Waters mentioned as a pleasing instance of fraternal intercourse that upon recently visiting Sault Ste. Marie, where there was a few Presbyterians without a church, he was permitted to preach in the English Church there, a christian court, he heartily recognized. He showed very clearly that there were numerous stations which could not possibly be self-sustaining for years to come, within Canadian bounds, and yet where the people were most desirous of having a settled minister; it was incumbent therefore for the Church to help in such cases, by touching instance of one small, poor struggling handful who were desirous to retain a settled minister amongst them, and in order to keep faith with him as to the amount they promised to give, sustained themselves and their families on the "table" of the water, and kept what little cash they had for the minister's salary. He also strongly commented on the utter inadequacy of the great majority of ministers' incomes to keep them in that position, socially and intellectually, and the consequent respect of them. What might have been a fair salary some years ago, was now-a-days, from the enhanced cost of living. A liberal rectification of this must take place at once or the consequences will be serious to the intellectual power and growth of the Church; indeed we have already ominous signs of this in the removal, actual and possible, of some of our best men to the U. S. States, where their worth, pecuniarily at least, is not intellectually seems better estimated. He then paid a glowing tribute to the value and efficiency of the Toronto and Montreal Theological Halls, and the great abilities of the Professors, who he was glad to say had recently received an augmentation of salary from $1,600 to $2,000 a year. Coming down to what was of great moment he would briefly refer to the some statistics of the Church. The membership of the Church immediately after the union in 1862 was 30,000, in 1872 it is 50,070, or an increase of 20,000 in ten years; the number of settled ministers in 1862 was 221, in 1872, 307, increase 81; sum raised for all purposes for the last ecclesiastical year, $473,115; the average sum raised per member, throughout the Church is $9.78; Chalmers' Church average per member is $22.04; Stipend Fund, Church, $4.21; Chalmers' Church, $4.74; congregational purposes, Church, $8.38; Chalmers' Church, $21.08; Church Building, Chalmers' Church, $13.63; All Schemes, Church, $1.00; Chalmers' Church, $8.05; College of the Holy Cross, $1.00; St. John's, $1.00; Home Mission, Church, $1.00; Chalmers' Church, $8; Foreign Missions, Church, $18; Chalmers' Church, $4; Widows' & Orphans, Church, $6.59; Chalmers' Church, $4; French Work, $15.26; Chalmers' Church, $16. The Rev. Dr. concluded a stirring address with an eloquent exhortation in favor of the universal spread of the "Good Tidings of Great Joy." A vote of thanks was cordially passed to the speakers, and with the pronouncing of the benediction the meeting separated.

Strike in London.

The Paris Troubles. Opening of the Swiss Assembly. Mr. Greeley's Funeral. The Vote for President.

London, Dec. 3. - All the strikers employed by four or five of the largest gas companies in the city have struck work, because two of their number were discharged. The Directors of the Companies warn the public to use as little gas as possible until the trouble is ended.

Paris, Dec. 2. - Two Cabinet Councils of long duration were held yesterday, and after full deliberation upon the situation, M. Thiers finally agreed to remain in the Presidency, if the Ministers who tendered their resignations yesterday would withdraw them. The latter consented to the proposal of the President. It is reported that Gen. Ducrot has been summoned to Versailles. No reply to the reports accusing him of preparing his troops to act in an hostile attitude to the Government in case of a crisis, and of issuing circulars to the gen' d'armes in his district, ordering them to make enquiry into the political opinions of the inhabitants.

Berne, Dec. 3. - The session of the Federal Assembly of Switzerland opened yesterday. M. Roquier, of Lousaine, was elected President, and M. Kopp, of Lucerne, Vice-President of the Republic.

Vienna, Dec. 2. - It is reported that Count Von Longway, Minister of Finance of the Empire, has tendered his resignation, which has been accepted. The other Ministers remain in the Cabinet.

New York, Dec. 2. - Elaborate preparations are being made for service at Dr. Chapin's Church, on the occasion of Greeley's funeral. Miss Kellogg and other leading singers have offered their services for the choir. The Common Council to-day adopted resolutions eulogizing Mr. Greeley, setting apart the Governor's Room in the City Hall, as the place where the body should lie in state to-morrow, that the members of the Council attend the funeral in body, wear mourning thirty days, that the flags on the public buildings be displayed at half mast, and that the vessels in the harbour and private citizens do likewise. A committee was appointed to request Gen. Shaler to furnish proper military escort for the President on his arrival. Mr. Greeley's will leaves all his property to his daughters.

New York, Dec. 3. - John Cochrane, Chairman of the State, and Ethal Allan, Chairman of the National Liberal Committee, wrote letters advising the Democratic Electors to vote for Grant. On the other hand Mr. Schelle, Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, says in a published letter that it is deemed inadvisable that this Committee should make any recommendations to the electors concerning the casting of their votes, and they do not regard it as within the scope of their authority.

Town Council.

The Council met on Monday night. Present the Mayor in the chair, Messrs. Kennedy, Snider, Stevenson, Bell, Elliot, Coffee, Bruce, Mitchell, McMillan, Robertson, Massie, Allan and Howard.

The following petitions were presented. By Mr. Kennedy from Geo. Welsford for remission of dog tax. By Mr. Howard from A. S. Hardy asking a reduction of taxes, his income being put at too high a figure.

These reports were referred to the Finance Committee.

The Council went into Committee of the Whole on the By-law for appointing Returning Officers. Mr. Coffee in the chair. The blanks were filled in as follows: - Returning Officer for East Ward, Geo. M. Todd; South Ward, Francis Gauthier; West Ward, Edwin Newton; North Ward, W. J. Armstrong.

The By-law was then read a third time and passed.

Mr. Massie presented the report of the Finance Committee. In reference to the petition of John Griffith, it appears that the same matter had been reported on some time ago, and the Treasurer instructed to pay him the amount due, which he refused to accept. The Committee can only confirm the former report, instructing the Treasurer to tender him the amount previously offered. They cannot recommend that John Tyson be exempt from the tax for watering St. George's Square, that portion of the Square having been watered in accordance with a petition presented from a majority of the ratepayers. They consider the Council should not be called on to pay the account of Lemon & Peterson with the exception of the last item, which they recommend to be paid. They recommend that Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Caskey be refunded the amounts paid for their licenses, which the Town receives of that sum, and that the following accounts be paid, T. W. Cooper $6, G. Bruce $32, and the members of the Council for expenses to Hamilton $80.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Mitchell presented the report of the Road and Bridge Committee. They recommend that the portion of the petition of James A. Thore, referred to the Committee, be granted. That the petition of the Church Wardens of the Episcopal Church be granted, with respect to that portion of which was referred to the Committee, upon their de-positioning with the Town Clerk to the credit of said Committee half of the amount necessary to make the sidewalk graded for.

The report was adopted. Mr. Elliott presented the report of the Market House Committee. They report that with respect to the petition of the butchers, they were told when the market was fitted up that the shutters provided for the fronts of the stalls were useless, and they had been placed in the cellar. In regard to the increase of light the Committee are prepared to recommend the putting in gas pipes, so that each stall may have its own light, the consumption of gas to be at the expense of the tenants, as soon as they are agreed on the subject. They cannot recommend any appropriation for double sash. In consideration of an increased rent put on the office of the Wellington Mutual Insurance Company, that Company requires that the office be painted and papered, and others repairs made. The Committee recommend that such be done, and that the office be leased to the Company for a term of years, reserving the right to terminate such lease on six months notice being given, if the same is required for Corporation purposes. In reference to the Market By-law the Committee have carefully watched its working, and are of opinion that it seems to have worked satisfactorily in securing to the householder a supply of farm products before the dealers and exporters; but respecting the article of butter some complaints have been made, as to the hour at which dealers are allowed to buy, the Council have considered these complaints and have reported By-law to amend the By-law in this respect. The Committee recommend that the rent of the butcher stalls in the Market be as follows: - No. 1, $10; 2, $10; 3, $8; 4, $6; 5, $8; 6, $6; 7, $8; 8, $8; and that the rate be charged from the third Monday in December.

The report was adopted. Mr. Elliott presented the report of the way in which the West Ward appropriation has been spent. The total amount expended on the different streets is $198.67, having a balance in the hands of the Committee of $1.81.

The report was received. Mr. Elliott presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to consider and report on the complaint of Mr. Chipchase against Chief Constable Kelly as follows: -

That after a lengthy examination of witnesses, the evidence of whom was taken down in writing, they find that Mr. Chipchase was acting as a Constable in the employ of the Town at the Fair Ground, on the occasion of the late County Exhibition in October last; that acting in that capacity he arrested one Lovell for a breach or supposed breach of the "Lottery Act," delivered his prisoner to Chief Constable Kelly, who authorized his being sent to jail. On the next morning at the Police Court the prisoner was brought from jail and placed in the lock-up, and removed there during the trial of some other prisoner, during which time Chipchase was present in Court. Shortly afterwards, when Chipchase was absent temporarily on duty, the prisoner Lovell was brought out of the lock-up, and was discharged by the Magistrate on Chief Constable Kelly stating there was either no charge or not sufficient evidence against him.

Your Committee in considering the evidence, acquit Chief Constable Kelly of any corrupt or improper motive in procuring the discharge of the prisoner, but certainly think that he acted imprudently and improperly in undertaking to form an opinion of the evidence, which should have been submitted to the Magistrate for his opinion, whether there was a case or not; and as the arrest was made by another Constable, and he alone present when the arrest was made, Chief Constable Kelly should have procured the statements he did, and procured the discharge of the prisoner when the Constable who made the arrest, was temporarily absent from the Court, or without his concurrence.

Your Committee would further remark that, in their opinion, it would be better that parties have been arrested by a Constable that before they are discharged a full enquiry should be made by whom they were arrested, and the circumstances which led to their arrest.

The report was adopted. On motion of Mr. Elliott, a By-law was submitted with a view of amending several clauses of the By-law for regulating the market. The Council went into committee on the By-law. Mr. Kennedy in the chair.

The following are the alterations proposed in the By-law: - That section No. 10, amended by the Council of 1871, in the words, "under the direction of the Mayor, or, in his absence, one of the Reeves, That Section No. 12 be amended by making the hour at which hucksters and dealers may purchase dairy products, 9 o'clock instead of 10, as before provided, from the 1st of January to the 1st of November, and 10 o'clock instead of before 11 o'clock, from 1st of Nov. to 1st of May. But nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to butter exposed for sale in firkins, kegs, or tenns, which which may be purchased by dealers at any hour. That all firewood brought into the market on waggon or sleigh shall be brought on a rack having a square frame. This section not to take effect until the 1st of January, 1873.

Then follows a new section to take the place of section number 40 of the old By-law, which it repeals, providing a special clause, and giving the Police Magistrate power to inflict a fine from $1 to $50 of a fine for breach of any of the provisions of the By-law.

The By-law was read a first and second time, when the Committee rose and reported.

Mr. Kennedy gave notice that at next meeting he will move that Northumberland be made a Town street.

The Council then adjourned.

SOUP KITCHEN - This useful institution has now been in operation for two days, in the engine house behind the Market House, and it must prove very gratifying to its promoters to find that it has been so well patronized. We have no doubt that to-morrow being Fair Day, the ladies will be largely patronized for any quantity of their superior soup, especially as the price, five cents, for it and a large slice of bread is marvellously cheap. We understand that a large number of poor people have been willing recipients of the ladies' benevolence in connection with the soup kitchen.

NASSAGAWEYA RAPE CASE

Arrest of the Perpetrator, Emanuel Kemp, at Welland.

Subsequent Escape and Recapture!

SAFE FOR THE PRESENT IN GUELPH JAIL.

The paragraph which we inserted in Monday's Mercury, regarding the arrest of Kemp, was purposely worded cautiously, for we were in possession of more information than the paragraph contained, but withheld it in the interests of justice. It will doubtless be remembered that, in broad daylight, and near the village of Eden Mills, Kemp committed an atrocious outrage upon the person of Mrs. Anthony Bardwell, the wife of a respectable farmer in Nassagaweya, and who subsequently managed to evade the vigorous efforts of constables, and others of the neighborhood who had turned out to assist to capture him. To-day, all reserve is unnecessary, and we now proceed to lay before our readers an account of the arrest and how it was made. Chief Constable Kelly, we may say, has been ceaselessly on the watch for his man, and has traced his movements from the time of his escape until his arrest. It appears that it is quite true that, as reported at the time, Kemp was in Galt, thence he went into Beverley, from there he returned to Fulsehill, about five miles from Guelph, where he met his sister, who was employed at some tavern on the Brock Road, according to appointment. This she denies, however, asserting that on the night in question she was visiting her sick mother; but this has been ascertained to be false. Kemp then visited Dundas, Ancaster, Caledonia, St. Catharines, Welland, Stoney Creek, &c., making the circuit of the counties of Welland, Lincoln and Haldimand. As, from time to time, the Chief Constable learnt of Kemp's whereabouts, so he advertised him by means of the telegraph and handbills, and Kemp, who was assuming the name of John Hudson and sometimes that of Robert Kemp, thus perceiving, he shifted his camp accordingly. We understand that at Ancaster two months ago had the police authorities there displayed the requisite acumen Kemp might have been arrested, but they managed to let him slip through their fingers. Our own Chief having reason to suspect from certain communications which have passed between Kemp and some of his friends that he was still in Canada, kept up his watch, and visited frequent counties, and being at last persuaded that this modern "Invisible Jack" had at length finally located himself in the town of Welland, informed the Chief of Police there where he could be "spotted" and enjoining him to be particularly careful how he made the arrest, as Kemp was a noted character for effecting an escape, and was without so expert a runner that once away he would probably be difficult to recapture. Nor were these hints unnecessary: Kemp, on his arrest by the Welland "Chief," asked to go upstairs in order to change his coat; the permit was foolishly granted, for another state communicates with Kemp's room, which he at once made use of, and descended with lightning strides and ran with eager speed along the highway. The constable, thinking his permission unwise, immediately followed him to his room, only to find the bird had flown! A keen enquiry was immediately raised, and hot pursuit given, but the fugitive was now a long way off his pursuers, and stood a good chance of his escape, when a team happened to be passing, and the constables jumped into the wagon and managed to head the prisoner, who arising the deadly aim of the officers' rifles, preferred an unconditional surrender. Kemp states that if he had been sure that the ice in the canal would have sustained his weight (and which it appears it would have done), he would have crossed it, and had he done so, Chief Constable Kelly states it is highly probable that his recapture would not have been effected, a bush being in the immediate vicinity. Chief Constable Kelly went down on Monday and brought up Kemp by the evening train on the Great Western Railway, and landed him safely in his quarters at the jail, giving the jailer strict injunctions to be constantly on the alert lest the prisoner should escape - a hope that we, on behalf of the public, would as earnestly endorse - as Kemp is such a determined and accomplished scoundrel, that he will leave no means untried to secure his own liberation. Kemp, we understand, asserts his innocence, and likewise states that when he gets out of this scrape he will lead an amended life. He will be brought up to-morrow morning at the Police Court for examination.

We cannot conclude without expressing great satisfaction at the very admirable manner in which Chief Constable Kelly has worked out the case from first to last, and we hope, in the interests of public safety, that no link will be missing to convict Kemp of the atrocious crime with which he stands charged.

The Clinton News Era speaks very favourably of the success and popularity of the plan adopted there of inspecting and branding butter. The desired effect has been attained - an improvement in the quality of butter.

Guelph General Hospital.

To the Editor of the Mercury. HOSPITAL SUNDAY. Sir,—As it appears to be settled that in Guelph we are to have a General Hospital, and a goodly number of gentlemen have promised to subscribe to its funds, allow me to suggest that, as there are in Guelph and its vicinity very many who take a deep interest in this matter, so circumscribed that they cannot contribute largely towards it, but are, nevertheless willing to assist as much as they can in establishing and sustaining such an institution, we have an annual Hospital Sunday in Guelph, and special collections taken up in aid of the funds of the Hospital in each of the several places of worship, as is the case in many towns in England, where such institutions exist.

I see in an English paper lying before me, that in Birmingham, on what is called Hospital Sunday of 1872, collections were taken up in aid of the Queen's Hospital, varying in amount from 357l 18s 9d to 1117s, making altogether the handsome sum of 4891l 7s 11d, or nearly twenty-two thousand dollars.

With reference to the Guelph General Hospital, I have thought that the managing committee of the hospital would have very little difficulty in obtaining the consent of the several churches in the Town to constitute the first Sabbath of 1873, and of each following year Hospital special collection in aid of the funds of the proposed benevolent institution, which I doubt not will be both an honor and a blessing to the Town.

Submitting these thoughts to the consideration of my townsmen, and especially to those who have the affairs of the proposed hospital in their hands, and trusting that with the grace of God they will be able to bring it to a successful issue, I subscribe myself, Yours, &c., A CITIZEN OF GUELPH.

Chancery Court.

The Court resumed its sittings this morning, when the suit of Homan vs. Horgan was heard. This was a Bill filed to compel defendant to re-convey property conveyed to him by the plaintiff, to secure the defendant for his liability on a bond, and intended to pay a mortgage made by plaintiff to Mr. Ball of Galt. Defendant refused to re-convey on the ground that he contended that under the bond he was not compelled to re-convey until a liability of the plaintiff to him of about $170 was paid. Plaintiff, through his attorney, tendered the bond and demanded a re-conveyance. Defendant refused, and hence this suit to compel him. The chancellor awarded the plaintiff a decree, with costs. Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. J. P. McMillan for plaintiff, Mr. Drew for defendant.

On Saturday evening, Mr. J. E. Dawson, who has been for five years past station-master on the G. W. R., Hamilton, was presented by his friends and co-employees with a handsome silver tea-service, consisting of five pieces, and valued at six hundred dollars. The presentation was made by Mr. John Hall on behalf of the Committee. Mr. Dawson is now stationed at Windsor.

The snow storm was very severe in London on Saturday, and it now lies to the depth of eighteen inches.

CHAPTER XXVIII. THE DEATH OF WALLY.

"Now, my friends," he whispered, "now is the cloud to be dispelled, and your name and family restored. I am proud to stand by your side at this moment, George—proud to share your joy, and rejoice in the good fortune which I am sure awaits you."

"Thanks, Harry—a thousand thanks," was all that George had time to utter ere they were within the threshold of the sick chamber.

Manby entered first, and Wally's eyes suddenly gazed past him with a deeply expectant look.

"Is Georgey there?" he eagerly asked.

The doctor directed a backward glance at the others, as much as to say, "You see how impossible it will be to do as we desire." Then he answered—

"Georgey is quite safe, but he—"

"Oh, yes, I know; he is asleep. Let him sleep, poor dear. He will awake to sorrow soon enough."

"Has he no other friend but you?" asked the doctor—"no relations?"

"Ah! none that know of his existence, or that will prove kindly when they do, I fear."

"But he has relations, has he not?"

"Yes, his father's relations."

"Ah! and who are they?—where are they?"

"No, in Jamaica."

"In Scotland! Then—"

"Yes," interrupted Wally, hastily; "but he must not be given up to them, for he is the heir, now his father is dead, and they will look on him as cutting them out, and perhaps not be good to him. I will take care of him; I will protect him. He knows and loves only me now. No one shall part us; promise me that, gentlemen—in the name of God, promise me that!"

"Yes," cried Harry, breathlessly. "Be assured that we three shall do our utmost to secure for him his rights; only tell us who his family is, who his father was, his name, and all that!"

Wally opened his mouth to speak, when suddenly a deadly paleness came over his face, his eyes closed, and he seemed like passing into a swoon.

"Nurse, the drink—quick," cried the doctor.

They lifted him up, and held the bowl to his lips. For some moments it seemed as if all power had gone out of him, but at length he drank and was revived, though they all noticed that his features were assuming a strange sharpness, and that nameless but unmistakable expression which is the precursor of death.

"Now," said the doctor, "tell us the name and rank of the boy's parents."

"His father was—"

"Yes," and they all bent breathlessly forward to listen.

"How strange I am," murmured Wally. "I feel very—very—unwell. My head swims—and—a—sinking—is—"

"You will recover in a few moments," said Manby.

"Oh, heaven, should he die ere he tells us," whispered George, in an agony of suspense.

"Hush he will not die yet. It is a passing weakness. The potion will bring him round."

"I am better again," said Wally, in a stronger voice, and looking up with a clearer light in his eyes. "What was it? I was about to tell you something."

"You were," said the doctor. "You were going to tell us the name of Georgey's father."

"Oh, yes, so I was. He was my master. His name was Mr. George Morrar."

Very quietly and in a passionless tone were the words spoken, but the effect—how electrical. The three eager faces, bent forward in breathless expectancy, started back simultaneously, and gazed at each other in dumb petrification.

"Did you say George Morrar?" repeated the doctor. "Was he Georgey's father?"

"Yes; he is dead too, is he not? Have you found his body? I saw him washed from the ship. I was holding Mrs. Morrar at the time, and kept her from going into the sea too."

"My God!" gasped Harry, in bewildered horror. George was too stunned to be able to speak. Manby alone had power of mind, and he saw the necessity of wasting not a moment unnecessarily.

"And was the lady who was found dead beside you on the rock the wife of George Morrar?"

"Aye, his wife, though his friends in Scotland did not know he had been married; no one knew it, even in Jamaica—no one but me and Milley and Garrett. There was a reason for that. Oh, and my poor master and mistress are gone, both gone, when they had come to get the estate. When will Georgey wake? I want to see poor Georgey—fatherless, motherless."

The last words were muttered in a dreamy tone, and he was again sinking into semi-unconsciousness, when Harry, in the violence of his bursting excitement, cried with loud vehemence—

"Rouse, man! Rouse, and tell us more. We must know all about this. There is some terrible mistake, or—or—worse—some—"

"Harry," said Manby, laying his hand firmly but gently on his shoulder, "moderate your excitement; keep silent, or you will defeat your object. Leave it to me, and I shall get the information you seek. See, you have done harm already."

Startled by the sudden vehemence of Harry, the dying man raised himself to his elbow, and was staring in suspicious alarm at those round his bed.

It seems that the long-talked-of railway from the Mediterranean to India will soon be commenced; but there is a difference of opinion as to what route it ought to follow. The Oxus and Euphrates valleys are both eligible. The former is the shortest, while by the latter no special engineering difficulties will be encountered. It is proposed first to build 800 miles of railway at a cost of £9,000,000, from Alexandria in Egypt to Konait on the Persian Gulf, which is close to Bombay. This would pay for itself while the remaining portion was being constructed.

CASH!

TREMENDOUS SUCCESS!

Ready Pay Principle Victorious!

THE NEW STORE

"CASH" is now doing Double the Amount of Trade for Ready Pay than any Credit Establishment in Guelph is doing.

WHY?

Because for Ready Pay a small profit only is asked, the money is turned over five times when Ready Pay is made, but the credit system entails an extra per centage added in marking goods, in order to guard against bad debts. The man who gives credit cannot buy his goods as well as the man who does not.

WHY?

Because he has to buy his stock on credit, and is thereby deprived of the large saving to be made by buying for cash, but the man who sells for ready pay has the money in hand when he goes to market, and can take every benefit that the trade will offer. Such being the case, who can wonder at the great rush there is going on at present at the new store. "CASH" is creating quite a panic among the slow coaches who have been living at their ease on large profits, and he is now going to make a shaking among the dry bones. Hurry up with your money. Don't forget the spot.

A Scotchman's Trip through Canada. The Rev. Mr. Stobo, of Glasgow, travelled through Canada last summer, and returned with a glowing report of the progress now being made in bringing out and settling children from Great Britain to this country.

On Thursday I visited Guelph, of which I had heard so much on the way, and to Canada as being a fine prosperous town and the centre of a fine country; and, truly, whosoever laid out the town deserves well of his fellows, for a more nicely-planned one is not to be found in Canada.

At the breakfast-table I had the pleasure of meeting some of the members of the Ontario Government, and this speaks of two of them:—The Hon. Mr. Mackenzie is a native of Irvine, and left the old country 30 years ago, a stonemason; now he is the head of the Reform party in the Dominion Government, and one of Canada's best men—certainly he is the most respected as a statesman.

Breakfast—Epps's Cocoa.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills.

Save your Doctor's Bill.—When Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure coughs, colds, bleeding at the lungs, and arrest the fell destroyer, Consumption, it does more than most physicians can do.
