Berlin Again Admits the Strength Attacks.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, April 10.—Hallowed by its baptism in past years of the great war in the blood of at least 150,000 French and British soldiers. Vimy Ridge, dominating France's richest coal fields, was firmly in British hands tonight. Thru more than a year its slopes have been reddened by the blood of French and Canadian soldiers striving to gain the heights. But Field Marshal Haig's offensive swept these same Condian debters over the these same Canadian fighters over the op in a tremendous punch that car-ried so stinging a blow at the enemy that the British casualties were be-

Of all the rejoicing tonight over the success of the British offensive, no single advance was more lauded than this taking of Vimy. Not only has it this taking of Vimy. GERMAN DRIVE ON Haig's Offensive Is Credited With Upsetting Enemy's Plans of Invasion.

FOE SHIFTS SUPPLIES

Concentration of Heavy Guns to General Byng: and Other Preparations Prove Futile.

By John H. Hearley, United Press Staff Correspondent. Rome, April 10 .- Italy thinks Gen. Haig's mighty offensive has stopped German plans for a drive toward Italy's northern provinces. It was earned tonight that the Italian army staff has long known of a great concentration of big guns and or military supplies which have steadily been piling up on this northern front. and it was hinted that the suddenness of the British "push" had resulted in abandonment by the Germans of these plans, with a hurried transfer of these supplies.

Germany ras had three possible roads for the drive on Italian territory. One lies thru the Carso, the second thru the Trentino and the third thru the Pass of St. Bernard The last-named was the historic way of Hannibal and Napoleon. But it was to be reached only thru eastern France or Switzerland, and military France or Switzerland, and military authorities here have dismissed it from calculation.

They held the Germans would risk an attempted invasion by the Tren-tino rather than the Carso route. Field Marshal von Hindenburg was said to have been impressed by the Austrian advance last spring and to have made a special study of the loute in this direction.

today in the shrapnel building of the Eddystone Ammunition Corporation at Eddystone, one mile from this city. Many of the injured were mortally hurt, and it is feared the final death list will reach 150, while others probably will be maimed for life.

How any of the 300 or more employes in the building, in which was stored approximately 30,000 shells, escaped is almost beyond conception, as there was scarcely a fragment of the structure left intact. Fire added to the horror, and most of the bodies were so badly charred that identification was impossible.

The explosion, which was felt in Philadelphia, a distance of 15 miles, occurred about 10 o'clock in what is known as the "10-F" building, a two-storey structure. 75 by 300 feet. In this building time fuses were prepared, more than 30 per cent. of the workers being women and girls. "Canada Will Be Thrilled" HINDENBURG LINE HAS BEEN TURNED London, April 10.—Fremier Borden gave the Canadian Press tonight Large Forces of British and Canadian Troops Are Pressing Beyond That Barrier, Canadians Having Cleared Vimy Ridge of All Germans, After Flaying Enemy With Big Gun Fire.

With the British Armies in France, via London, April 10,-The British weep east of Arras today turned the northern pivot of the famous Hindenburg line, and large forces of British troops tonight were pressing far beyond the top of that German barrier, which was prepared after endless months of labor.

The manner in which the British have advanced over the scores of German trenches, which the Germans must have believed would protect them indefinitely, has been little short of miraculous. The Germans themselves have been amazed at the audacity of the invaders, and have surrendered with an air of complete mystification.

to prove the fact that the artillery has finally solved the problem of entrenched warfare. It has taken months and years of preparation, but when the guns were finally massed against the German front they hammered it into submission.

It was this hammering which demoralized the German lines on M somme during the winter and brought about the recent retirement to the Hindenburg line stretching from Arras southeastward to St. Quentin. the entire distance. The meaning of the aeroplane activity last week, when the British filers deliberately set out to clear the air of Germans, has been revealed in the new attacks.

Today the intrepld airmen were covering the advance everywhere, keeping the troops advised of enemy movements and enabling the British artillery to shell every area where concentrations appeared to be taking place. The day was anything but ideal for flying. It was blustery from sunrise to sunset and furious snow squalls were in the air at half-hour intervals. During these the machines were completely submerged by the Canadians Clear Entire Ridge. Tonight the Canadians triumphantly announced that the famed Vimy ridge had been cleared of all Germans. Vimy ridge has been an historic battle ground in this war. The country on either side is dotted with graveyards, in which lie tens of thousands of French and German soldiers, who gave up their lives in the fight either to take or to hold this imposing position. The British, too, have tasted the bitterness of the battles there, and the Canadians had been holding on to a slender posisuccess achieved yesterday by the Canadians. With deepest interest and tion on the western slope all winter only by the display of most tenacious

> In connection with the new offensive it was determined that Vimy must fall. The ridge positions had been flayed by an incessant bombardment for ten days and nights, when yesterday at dawn the Canadians climbed out of their lowly trenches and began moving toward the top of it. They fought their way from the foot to the crest before mid-afternoon yesterday; today they swept down the farther slope, and now dominate the enemy remaining in the Douai Plains.

> Vimy was one of the vaunted German field fortresses, and the British find it difficult to imagine any strategical reasons which would call for giving it up. More than 3000 Germans in the Vimy garrison, including 100 officers, fell into Canadian hands before sunset last night.

> Germans Begged for Food. The Canadians did not for a moment under-estimate the seriousness of the task before them in taking Vimy. They knew that the artillery had paved the way to success, but were frankly surprised when they saw what the guns had actually done. They found hundreds of Germans holding up their hands over the bodies of their fallen comrades and begging for something to eat. These men said they had been cut off for days from all supplies by the steadiness of the artillery fire. They could not retire and no relief supply columns from the rear ever reached the neighborhood of where the shells had been falling in continuous showers. Some of the stronger redoubts, manned by machine gun detachments.

> in which were found men of the highest morale in the German army, resisted for several hours. But, closing around them during the night. the Canadians silenced all resistance.

Surrender Was Precipitate. The final bombardment had sent most of the German defenders into the deepest of their dugouts and they did not dare venture out until the British called upon them to surrender, which they did precipitately.

Among the officers captured on the ridge were seven lieutenantolonels, and also several doctors, who surrendered with all their staffs. Some of the officers were inclined to be sulky, blaming their predicament on the failure of the supports to come up as promised. They were told that the British artillery "had attended to that." Others of the officers were deeply depressed. Hundreds of prisoners taken were found lying in the assembly tunnels, from which they had attempted to reach the front line, but could not emerge on account of the shell fire.

* WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

in France, the British advance east of Arras and the Vimy ridge has turned the new and powerful Von Hindenburg line at its northern pivot, and large British forces are now pressing beyond its northern part. If this is true, it means that the British army is proceeding to win the greatest victory yet won in the war, for if they have turned the Von Hindenburg line, they have made it untenable for the enemy, and the Germans must either launch a big offensive or retreat at an extremely rapid rate to escape envelopment. The British official communications WAR HERO'S WIFE DIES yesterday laid claim to no such results, but they recorded the capture of another strong zone of the German defensive system, so that they appear to have made a breach in the German front. In brief, the British advanced their new front to a line passing thru Moncy-le-Prex, five miles east of Arras, Fampoux Village and its adjoining defences north and south of the Scarne River, and Farbus Village and Farbus Wood, east of Vimy. The Canadians also ejected the Germans from their last remaining pos tions on Vimy ridge, at its northern end. Sir Douglas Haig reports taking 11,000 prisoners in the two days of fighting, while press correspondents, after inspecting the prisoners' cages, say that they contain fully 15,000.

The loss of the northern pivot of the Von Hindenburg line probably accounts for the fact that the kaiser has ordered an immediate special report on the German defeat. The German higher command, according to a Cologne report, has issued an official communication threatening to lay waste northern France and Belgium if the allies compel a retreat. They had evidently counted that the wholesale destruction in evacuated territories would deter the French from pressing an offensive or from permitting the British to press it. If the British keep up their advance a few days longer, the enemy will have to retreat so rapidly that he cannot have time for the carrying out of his wholesale destruction policy. The taking of 100 big guns is one proof of the swift and deep penetration of the British storming columns.

A big element of surprise plainly contributed to the rapidity of the British success. That element was probably the unexpected British strength in big guns. Since December, it is said, heavy masked batteries lay in waiting behind the British and Canadian lines for the present occa-The British artillerist unmasked these with great effect a short period before the advance.

Fuller details of the advance of the Canadians show that they did the hardest work of the forces engaged. This is what is called occupying the place of honor. Vimy Ridge, which they have now completely carried in resolute fighting, had ranked first in strength amongst the German fortresses so far captured on the western front. The enemy had fur-growed, burrowed, and barbed-wired it past all comprehension. Ten days' bombardment, however, had not only shattered its defences, but had cut off the Germans from their commissariat and had greatly shaken their nervous systems. The Canadians did not find such a tough resistance as they expected, and the effect of their artillery fire actually astonished them, Three thousand Germans of the garrison threw up their hands, surrendered, and asked for food. Here and there machine gun emplacements and redoubts with their garrisons held out for several hours. These the Canadians stalked and captured in the night.

Outside of the western theatre of the war the only important military developments are proceeding in Mesopotamia, where both the British and the Russians are pressing on with their operations before the coming of the really hot season makes fighting on these plains impossible. The Russians have begun another advance from Persia at a point almost due east of Mosul, and the British have advanced another stage on the railway from Bagdad to Samara. On this line they have just captured Balad and Herbe stations, 50 and 54 miles north of Bagdad. A British official communication also records that the Turks who retired on Kifri are now apparently contemplating a converging movement on the British, with the support of other Turks on the left bank of the Tigris.

Brazil has broken off diplomatic relations with Germany, and she will probably declare war for the sinking of a Brazilian ship by a submarine An unofficial report from Buenos Aires, of doubtful reliability, says that the Argentine will follow the action of the United States. No government official or member confirms this story. The chief value of any South American intervention would consist in the seizure of many interned German vessels lying in Latin-American ports.

The meaning of the declaration of Russia's foreign policy, made by the provisional government at Petrograd yesterday, is in brief that Russia will adhere to a defensive policy. This, in short, was the policy of Russia before the war, and plenty of evidence exists to support the thesis. The Russian military plans called for a defensive war, and as a result r withdrawal into the interior under superior attack by the enemy. In a hering to a defensive policy Russia is merely adhering to the general policy of the allies. They did not enter the war for conquest or the sprea of their culture to alien strands. No evidence exists in this declaration of policy to show that Russia has foregone her claims on Constantinople as some press correspondents hastily and rashly assume, for the posses sion of Constantinople in modern times is essential for Russian defence and security.

NATIONAL GOVERNMENT

Says Country Demands Temporary Elimination of the Party System.

In Britain, France, Italy and Ausalia party government had been su-

It is claimed that it is a scandal for part of the criminal code to have been amended to enable the lockey clubs to conduct disorderly houses on their premises for revenue. The amending act was passed in 1910 at the instance of the jockey clubs. "Aristocratic ideals are those which require a sacrifice by the individual to maintain, not for his own use, but to keep up a standard," said Prof. Brett, who held that these ideals often had essentials of good in them, and that democracy was a broadening of those ideals found in the narrower organizations. Education he held to be growth and at the same time a means of growth. The Marshall is composed of 1,000 small springs, each enclosed in cotton pocket or cylinder, and each acting independently. These springs are covered with sterilized hair or fluffy cotton and enclosed in blue and white striped tick of good quality and properly tufted. The Marshall Mattress is practically a big fresh air cushion, which by readily conforming to the curves of the body gives perfect rest. It does not get hard, lumpy, or does not sag. It is always fresh and cool because there are wire gauze covered ventilators at each end which allow fresh air to circulate through the springs. The Marshall Mattress is used in many hospitals. Chintzes Specially Interesting For Thursday Being New Effects at 25c, 65c and $1.75 Yard

Even the windows along one side of the Drapery Department have been given over to a display of these brilliantly designed chintz materials, and with the bright sunshine of the past few days streaming through the fabrics, the effect is rich, indeed, and opens up new thoughts of decorative improvement in the home. Immense buying at intervals when we could profit through market conditions, and saving for this great chintz week, should be your cue to come on Thursday, to the Fourth Floor, where thousands of yards are displayed on pillar, post, table, counter and platform, and the section is alive with extra salespeople to help you choose and shop in comfort. Following are brief descriptions of three specimens of the values:

BRIDGE PROPOSAL FROM CIVIC GUILD

Makes New Suggestion for Crossing of Reservoir Park Ravine.

ABANDONS DOUBLE DECK

Would Build Separate Structure for Foot and Vehicle Traffic.

The Civic Guild, which took quite a hand in the modification of the a hand in the modification of the plans of the Bloor street viaduct, has taken up the proposal of the double-docked railway bridge on the Canadian Pacific over the Reservoir Park ravine, immediately east of the new North Toronto station. For some months a proposal for such a double deck bridge has been before the railway. Works Commissioner Harris and the people in the vicinity with the object of using such a double deck bridge as a public highway and crossing of the ravine for vehicles, and for the proposed Mount Pleasant municipal street car service from North Toronto across the ravine and up thru Mount Pleasant and Moore Park and on up north. The civic guild, however, have submitted a scheme to the railway commission, which proposed to attain the same object but to abandon the under deck of the Canadian Pacific bridge, and in place of it to build an entirely separate bridge just north of the Canadian Pacific tracks across the ravine and to connect it up with a subway going under the railway tracks on the east side of the ravine, which bridge, if erected, will carry Shaftesbury avenue and Summerhill avenue across the ravine and then north in the direction of Mount Pleasant rad and southerly into a subway under the railway to a connection with Summerhill avenue, immediately south of the railway, across plans of the Bloor street viaduct, has tion with Summerhill avenue, immediately south of the railway, across

The CavicGuild gave out a map yesterday of their proposal and reproduced in the cut above. It shows a lot of new roadways, which will very materially improve the situation. The guild also claims that this scheme of theirs will work out in a such a way that a considerable portion of the cost will be met by a local temporarement tax and by contribution of the cost will be met by a local improvement tax and by contributions in the way of a subway by the Canadian Pacific.

Landholders Approve.

The scheme certainly works out all right for getting the Mount Pleasant street car line across the ravine and up the hill; and both of the railways and some of the landowners are willing to make free contributions of the land involved. A new independent bridge will cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $200,000.

What attitude the city will take was what attitude the city will take was not disclosed yesterday. Commissioner Harris, however, is willing to sit down with the Civic Guild and the railway to see how things can be worked out, and the whole matter will worked out, and the whole matter will cemper last.

discussing the matter for nearly a year the city rejected the scheme in December last.

OWNED BY CANAD be up at a sitting of the railway com-mission on Friday, when the commit-tee will have a meeting for dealing with this very question.

The following summary of the new plans of the whole question is repro-duced from The Star of last night: Mr. Jas. B. O'Brian, president of the Civic Guild of Toronto, informed The Star today that an alternative proposal will be presented to the railway board by the guild. Under the guild's scheme it is proposed to construct a subway a few hundred feet east of the east end of the railway bridge instead of at the level crossing at the west end, as passed by Works Commissioner Harris. And then to build a bridge for vehicular traffic from the tracks into the present opint where the three roads north of the level converge to a point on the bed of the ravine about 100 yards north of the east end of the bridge. From this point the highway would Y, one arm passing southeasterly and the subway to Summerhill avenue and the street which is being laid out on St. Andrew's College grounds leading south to Highlands avenue and the street which is being laid out on St. Andrew's College grounds leading south to Highlands avenue and the street which is being laid out on St. Andrew's College grounds leading south to Highlands avenue and the street which is being laid out on St. Andrew's College grounds leading south to Highlands avenue and the street which is being laid out on St. Andrew's College grounds and the street which is being laid out on St. Andrew's College grounds leading south to Highlands avenue and the street which is being laid out on St. Andrew's College grounds and the street which is being laid out on St. Andrew's College grounds and the street which is being laid out on St. Andrew's College grounds and the street which is being laid to would extend northerly along of the Y would extend northerly along of the Y would extend northerly along of the Canadian Racing Association. The other arm of the Y would extend northerly along the edge of the ravine to the junction of Clifton road and Inglewood drive.

As a result the land has remained on their hands, and no part of it will be used for yards, as the company intend to have their yards west of Yonge street. The result of the city's action means that the radiways require more tracks on the C. P. R. line. Over a year ago they intimated that they wished to lay two more lines of radis across the layed from. At this point the city is senior. This involved the reconstruction or addition to the existing railway bridge across Reservoir Park. The city apparently realized that this would make the accommodation for travel from Moore Park district to the district south and test of Government House still more difficult and dangerous, and the idea of cooperating with the railways to build a double-deck bridge originated. It was proposed that the lower deck should be for vehicular traffic. Engineering difficulties arose, and after volved the reconstruction or addition

The C. P. R. then made formal application to the railway board for approval of its present plan to build a two-track addition on the north side of the present bridge, and to lay these two tracks over the level crossing at Summerhill avenue, with a raise of grade at that point of two and a half feet.

HEAVY INCREASE IN COMPENSATION

Workmen's Compensation Board Anticipates Little Rate Increase.

Accident compensation for 1916 mounted to $2,423,385, or an average of $7800 for each working day of the year, according to the report of the Workmen's Compensation Board, published yesterday. Of this amount $1,971,675 was for cases coming unier schedule I.
"This is a heavy increase over 1915."

says the report. The compensation for schedule I. for 1915, was $1,091,020. The reason for this is given as activity in industries stimulated by war and more complete reporting of accidents.

Compensated accidents happening during 1916 amounted to 16,192, of which 256 were fatal, 1418 permanent disability, and 12,896 temporary; in 1915, 9829 occurred. In addition, 7672 other accidents were reported. Total assessments in schedule I. amounted to $1,948,040, contributed to by 15,200 employers on payrolls aggregating $183,000,000. Little raise in rates is anticipated.

Average wages increased from $13.27 to $15.29, while duration of average disability decreased from 20.86 days to 19.51 days. The average age of workmen injured was 33.29 years, the oldest $1 and the youngest 11, the latter fatally.

Judge Denton yesterday allowed the appeal taken by the crown attorney, under the direction of the attorney-general, from the judgment of Police Magistrate Denison, who dismissed the charge of illegal selling of liquor laid against Philo Lamb. Lamb, who is the proprietor of a Yonge street hotel, was charged with selling sloe gin, containing more than six per cent, alcohol. He pleaded that he had bought the gin as a temperance drink and did not know it was over-strength. Judge Denton found him guilty and fined him $200. Additional evidence was heard, and the judge declared that if the magistrate had heard all the testimony which was submitted on the appeal he would have found Lamb guilty.

The case reported here was a most severe one, as is indicated by the hysterical condition, the pains in the back of the head and the futility of the many treatments used.

A Stroke to Free the World. Vimy ridge. It must gratify the hearts of all who have sent their loved ones to the great struggle to feel that after these long dark days comething is being achieved in the work of liberation, and that they who have gone to the front have had a hand in the lristoric actions which our children and our children's children will learn about in the story of the war that vest the world free.

Vimy ridge has been a bloody ground.

In one battle 60,000 Germans shed their blood to hold it. Again and again the French tried the assault and failed. But what they did was part of the great plan, and every stroke told. It was an honorable task that our Canadian troops were entrusted with. It was known that they could not dare to fail. If their task proved lighter than was anticipated it lakes not one jot from the honor of the commission. The finest German troops were placed to confront them, and there lighted by the flames from the burning

"Fixing" the Tax Rate.

Our amiable contemporary. The News, has waked up to the fact that our tax rate is not all that it ought to be. We regret that the awakening had not come a, little earlier, before the legislature opened, in fact, instead of just after it closed. But better late than never. We may be pardoned, perhaps, for suggesting that more might have been effected rad we been supported in our efforts months ago to have attention directed to the mistaken policy of cutting out essential and indispensable expenditures, instead of readjusting their incidence and devising new sources of revenue.

One flagrant example of what we mean we have pointed out again and again, yet we do not recollect any occasion of the flagnes began, to leap above in which one of our contemporaries supported us in it. In placing a war tax on the municipalities the provincial government was quite within its rights, but the levy of the tax should have been on an equitable basis. The government knows, for it has had it pointed out, that the incidence of the war tax on Toronto is iniquitously unjust and inequitable. We have not objected to pay it, for we are patriotic and desire to set good example, but this is no reason why the government should impose on good nature. The average assessment in province is not much more than half that of Toronto, and the result is that a levy of one mill in Toronto gathers in a dollar for every fifty cents collected elsewhere. In other words we are paying half a mill war tax more than our neighbors. As we lead the record in voluntary and charitable contributions this is not a square deal for Toronto, but The News has nothing to say to the government about the matter. Half a mill on the tax rate would count at this time. Or, on the other hand, if we are to pay the full rate, then the government should see that the other municipalities make a proportionate contribution. The government did talk about issuing a commission for the equalization of the asment, but there has nothing come of

It is in the assessment that we get at the basis of the tax rate. Unfortunately the municipal politicians have made the tax rate instead of the assessment the standard, with the result that the law, the revenue, the citizens, the necessities of the case, and everything else suffer in all directions. If we had a proper assessment according to the act our tax rate, instead of being 27 mills, as apparently it ought to be this year, be given them. should be under 19 mills. If the odious and inequitable exemptions were done away with the rate would be very much lower. The News does not appear to concern itself with these fundamental aspects of the case, but we have hopes that having waked up it will get its eyes fully open in time. The next source of our high tax rate is time and the non-appearance of lov the evil system advocated by The Tele-gram and its myrmidons, of a low tax

Canadian Victim. rate, the most expensive policy the city can adopt. If we had had a tax rate of 20 mills annually for the last ten yearssome people think for the last twenty years our tax rate would this year not be above 22 mills. In Mayor Geary's administration, sanctified by the benedictions of the saint of Bay and Melinda, four million dollars were charged to capital which should have some in the taxes. and half a million overdraft was left for those who came after in order to make good the boast of a 16 or 17-mill tax rate, was taken into custody. Chester and the surrounding country tonight resembled a miniature battlefield. Occasionally flares from the ruins were flung against the sky. An occasional shell whined as from an ambushed battery and screeched an ambushed battery and sc thru the blackness to spread its dead-

Petrograd Expects Announce ment of Policy to Placate Soldiers.

Special Cable to The Toronte World.

London, April 10.—Democratic Russia has abandoned the demand voiced by autocratic Russia for domination of Constantinople.

sia has abandoned the demand voiced by autocratic Russia for domination of Constantinople.

This action, indicated by the formal manifesto issued at Petrograd tonight, aroused the most favorable comment. The proclamation was received gratefully, as it is believed it will relieve, a dangerous situation, threatening internal disorders.

The policy meets the demands of the council of workmen and the soldiers' delegates. It assures the army's continued enthusiasm for war.

Announcement of the new policy also indicates the defeat of those in the provisional government who were seeking to line up the Cossacks and other troops for purposes of division in resisting the demands of the council. Whether the council desires an early formation of a constituent assembly to consider internal problems, such as land reforms and other matters, is not yet known.

Not to Humiliate Foe.

The proclamation, as signed by Prince Lvoff, premier, said:

"The government deems it a duty to declare that free Russia does not aim at domination of other nations, nor to occupy forcefully foreign territories. She does not lust to strengthen her power abroad at the expense of other nations. The government does not aim to subjugate or humiliate anyone. These principles constitute the basis of our foreign policy."

On January 22, when President Wilson made his "peace speech" before congress, one of the principles he then enunciated was that every nation should have "free outlet to the sea."

Russia, thru Minister Pokrovsky, promptly accepted this view as that animating Russia, and announced the war could not end until Russia dominated the Dardanelles.

A few days ago Foreign Minister Milukoff, in an interview printed in London, said regarding the Dardanelles:

"In the event of neutralization of the Dardanelles, the entry of foreign war-

"In the event of neutralization of the Dardanelles, the entry of foreign warships into the Black Sea would force Russia to think perpetually about fortifying the Black Sea coasts and to maintain a powerful navy. Such a condition of things would be worse than what existed before the war.

"While closing the Black Sea ports to the warships of the other powers, Russia preferred to allow the straits to remain in possession of a feeble and crumbling Turkey. If this situation becomes impossible, it is due to the fact that Germany laid claim to the heritage of the Turk and taised "In the event of neutralization of the the heritage of the Turk and raised the question as to whom the straits were going to belong to Germany or Russia."

is not a cure-all but has proven a wonderful remedy for that tired, worn-out feeling. It acts directly on the nerves and blood, thereby relieving and curing neuralgia, rheumatism, chronic headache, nervous dyspepsia, indigestion and constipation. It beautifies the complexion by improving the circulation and curing those diseases which make the skin brown, coarse, withered, wrinkled and orematurely aged.

It is as much a necessity to good looks as skin preparations because it goes to the root of the evil. Write us for Free Booklet C, describing all the Princess Preparations for Particular Women.

FOOD DICTATOR IN U. S. NEEDED TO CURB PRICES

Accused of Inflating Cost of Living.

New York, April 10.-State Markets Commissioner Dillon wants a national food dictator at once. Dillon, recognized internationally as in San Francisco, since the American a first-rank expert on foods and ardeclaration of a state of war with kets, today charged speculators, bank-Germany. In the last two weeks the ers and dealers with deliberately issue of marriage licenses increased boosting the cost of living, because of the war, and called upon the government to take over all food supplies in the country at once.

"I've been investigating since war was declared," said the commissioner.
"I find the price of onions, without reason, jumped from $2 to $11 a hundred pound bag today. Potatoes advanced $1 a bag at the same time.
"The government should at once the price of the price step in and stop speculators who shout patriotism out of one side of their mouths and give orders for the buying and storing of vast stocks of our much-needed foodstuffs.

It is small wonder that the British air losses are heavy, seeing that they are over the enemy ground all the time. "This scouting work and the artillery fire which followed made possible the results already achieved by our infantry. Our heavy guns were first brought there three days after Christmas. They were put in position in the morning and began firing the same afternoon. They have gone on ever since, so there is some idea of what is meant by artillery preparation. It is safe to say the Canadian advance, so britiantly opened, is still going on.

Casualties Quite Small.

"There is not the least doubt the south of the latitude of Mosul, according to today's war office statement. The Turks have been driven out of the defences they had been holding there for some time, and the Russian offensive is being continued. Southwest of Khaniki Southwest of Ragdad. The statement reads:

Alexander Stewart, Minto Town ship Farmer, Will Be Sentenced Wednesday Morning.

tice Sir Glenholme Falconbridge at the spring sittings of the Supreme Court for Wellington county, which opened at the court house this afternoon, was the charge of sedition against Alexander Stewart, a prosperous farmer from Minto township, near Harriston. When the court opened the room was taxed to its intmost capacity, and a great deal of interest was manifested in the case, as it was the first of the kind to be tried in Wellington county. A Monro Grier, K. C. of Toronto, represented the crown, assisted by Col. MacDonaid, county crown attorney. His lordship in addressing the grand jury referred to the seriousness of the offence, which was an unusual one, and stated that it only differed from treason, in that no overt such had been committed. The facts in the case were recited to the jurors, and in less than half an hour a true bill was returned against Stewart.

Stewart was later arraigned, following a consultation of counsel for the crown and defence, and pleaded guility to the charge. His lordship stated that the would pronounce sentence at 9.30 Wednesday morning.

The charge against Stewart was that the uttered seditious words at Harriston several weeks ago, when he called German groups which appeared before RUSSIANS CONVERGE

SWEDEN'S MILLS MAY HAVE TO CLOSE DOWN

Without Importations From America Raw Material Will Last Only Four Months.

Stockholm, April 10, via London—As a result of America's entrance into the war, representatives of Sweden's cotton mills, who already had been considering such a step, have decided to restrict production sharply in order to afford employment as long as possible to the operatives.

Even with the new restrictions it will probably be impossible to keep the mills going for more than four months without importations of raw material from America, of which it is feared there is the smallest probability. Ten thousand workers are affected.

Break With Germany Announced by Brazil

German Minister is Handed His Passports as Preliminary to Formal Declaration of War -Decision Acclaimed by Crowds.

By H. B. Robertson, United Press Correspondent.

Rio Janeiro, April 10.—Brazil tonight broke off diplomatic relations with Germany.

German Minister Adolph Paolis was informed that relations with his government were severed, and was handed his passports.

Brazil intends to declare war against Germany; not to adopt benevolent neutrality toward the allies, if indications tonight are a guide.

Every preparation, bespoke war. Foreign Minister Muller, an anti-war adherent, was reported to have resigned. Certainly he hurriedly concluded all pending routine work and cleared the way for a possible successor. The German minister had apparently expected to receive his passports any moment. He was fully packed up and ready to leave. Requisitioning "for government service" of the steamship Rio de Janeiro was believed to indicate that the government will use this vessel to transport the dismissed minister back home.

Wall Street was originally admittedly shocked by the government's idea of a "people's" bond issue.

Only the conference which Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo held yesterday with J. P. Morgan in Washington enacled the street to get its breath again today, after preceding days of consternation over the government's plan for financiare the way.

Street is now firmly behind the government.

"Street" Dislikes McAdoo.

It is an open secret that there has been considerable feeling in Wall Street against Secretary McAdoo since the latter became a member of the cabinet, and the government's various financial measures, including the federal reserve system, were put thru. One clique in the street has charged that McAdoo favored another. Some have charged especially that McAdoo held some bitter feeling against the Morgan and National City Bank group. The fact that Morgan was called in by McAdoo to discuss war financing plans has wiped this away, however, it was declared today, and the fullest co-operation can now be expected. Take Over Munition Plants.

The belief was generally expressed today that one of the first steps of this government will be to take over munition plants, which are now virtually controlled by allied governments.

There are now several plants in which foreign governments have practically taken an interest in order to speed up munition manufacture. Russia, especially, owns the munition manufacturing end of several big factories, or has them

LONDON STOCKS.

London, April 10.—Maturing bills over the holidays caused a large turnover, and kept the money market steady, while discount rates were firm on the fifty-million treasury bill issue next Friday.

America's actual war declaration since the previous market day and good war news sad a further strengthening effect, especially glit-edges, which were in demand Maxican and South American securities also joined the upward movement while the French loan was active and firm, but Spanish bonds were weak Rubber shares were firm, and American stocks were adjusted to a lower parky. The close was uncertain and inactive.

EXAGGERATED STATEMENT ON THE DOME DIVIDEND

The comment of The New York mmercial on Dome Mines, Ltd., atnot at present earning the dividend paid, was evidently put out for the stock. In this comment it was even stated that the issued capital of the stock. In this comment it was even stated that the issued capital of the stock. company was $4,500,000 instead of $4,000,000. The dividend requirement at the present rate is $800,000 a year, and as the net earnings under present adverse labor conditions and high costs machinery and milling costs are ing close to $1,000,000 a year, it be seen that the criticism is far-led and unwarranted. The moveent to clean up numerous margina counts is timely, and the article hould be so read in this connection.

Effort Being Made to Locate Further Ore Bodies.

An official has just returned from a visit to the Davidson Mines in Porcupine and reports that developments on the property are progressing very satisfactorily. The big diamond drilling campaign was started on Saturday last, and within one month, the first hole, driven at an angle of 65 degrees from the horizontal should place the one hody. angle of 65 degrees from the horizontal, should pierce the ore body, which has afready been opened up on the 300-foot level at about 500 feet depth. This exploration work at depth should be closely followed by investors. When it is considered that the main vein, which was 400 feet long on the surface and 12 to 15 feet wide, widened to 20 feet at the 100-foot level, to 40 feet at the 200-foot level, to 40 feet at the 300-foot level, there is every reason to hope for great results at the 500-foot Var Loan, 1925 97 was Loan, 1931 9634 wide, widened to 20 feet at the 100foot level, to 40 feet at the 200-foot

HIGH-GRAD IN BAGS READY FOR SHIPMENT

Ore Taken Out in Development More Than Paying Expenses.

The Hargraves has now some 150 bags of high-grade ore sacked at the mine ready for shipment, and as there are several tons additional in sight the number will be increased daily. The company has made rapid progress and is doing considerably better than paying development and op-erating costs while carrying out the scheme of underground exploration, which is counted on to pave the way for future extensive shipments. Manager Shaw states that the under-ground work is giving splendid satisfaction and that a rapid progress is being made in development. Within a short time the winze from the 375-foot level will reach the 425-foot level and a drift will then be run in un-der the vein from which high-grade

NEW YORK COTTON.

J. P. Bickell & Co., 302-7 Standard Bank Eudding, report New York Cotton Exchange fluctuations as follows:

Newray Strong in a Weak Market

Newray came in for a good deal of attention from investors in Tuesday's market, the stock rising 6 cents to $1.40, which is equal to the high record for this year and carries the price to within a point of the high in history. Favorable news concerning the new vein picked up on the 400-foot level has been received from the property during the last few days, and the stock is undoubtedly being bought in anticipation of favorable developments in this connection. Meantime the company, it is expected, will join the list of producers next month and substantial earnings are promised:

earnings are promised: Newray is capitalized at only a little over $1,000,000, and as the holding comprises 321 acres, being one of the largest estates in the camp, the market value of the company is viewed as comparatively low. Newray shares have always been well thought of as an investment, and the rise in yesterday's rather depressed market is an indication of the fact that they are still highly regarded. Newray will be the next mine of the Hollinger-McIntyre section to arrive as a shipper.

VEIN AT NEWRAY WIDENING OUT

Good Progress Being Made in Diamond Drill Campaign.

At the Newray the vein which was intercepted in the crosscut has widened considerably, and is now the full width of the drift, according to advices from the property received last night. The ore is stated to be of a very promising character, and it is expected that the values will be in keeping with those indicated by diamond drilling, when the cores ran above $20 in gold to the ton.

The diamond drilling campaign on the western part of the property is making rapid progress, something like 1800 feet having already been accomplished. The first hole, known as No. 5, was put down 550 feet, the No. 6 plished. The first hole, known as No. 5, was put down 550 feet, the No. 6 down 350, and the No. 7, which is the third hole on this part of the claims, nearly 1000 feet. The proving up of the McIntyre and the Jupiter on the 1000-foot level, which has demonstrated the existence of probably the highest grade ore bodies in the camp at depth, fully justifies the Newray management in carrying out deep drilling operations and the results of this promise to be of much more than usual interest.

New equipment for the mill has arrived at the property, and the necessary changes are now being made in order to enable the plant to be put into operation early next month. It is anticipated that a very satisfactory production will be maintained, as a high percentage of extraction was shown under the former management, when an output of about $212,000 in

Two months ago we drew your attention to the remarkable opportunity afforded by NEWRAY, then selling at $1.05 a share.

A month ago, when NEWRAY had risen to $1.18, we again strongly urged you to buy in anticipation of a further big rise.

NEWRAY sold yesterday at $1.40, within a point of its record high level of four months ago.

Much Higher Prices Promised

NEWRAY on its merits is worth intrinsically at least $2.00 a share, and we believe that it will reach that price in the not far distant future.

Gardening Theories in Our Books and Practical Tools In Our Basement

You can't plant "spuds" without a spade, and they will grow a lot better by coaxing with a rake. To keep the inquisitive hens off that precious patch, you will need to mark their boundary by some galvanized wire, and even the luxury of a small green lawn will need these, and a lot of other garden tools we are showing in the basement.
