German report that British warships have bombarded the Town of Vurla near Smyrna, of which the population is mostly Greek, and almost completely wrecked it, altho it is unfortified, may be taken as a fiction intended to stir up Greek opinion against the allies. The Germans have been working desperately to achieve this object ever since the war began and their efforts at least have been partially successful, for King Constantine was able to dismiss Venizelos and proclaim Greek neutrality in the face of a solemn treaty to assist Serbia when attacked by Bulgaria without a protest being uttered by Greeks, inside or outside of the country. Not even a resolution was passed by a Greek society anywhere giving moral support to the policy of Venizelos.

The Dutch steamer Tubantia was sunk by a mine or torpedo in the early hours of yesterday morning. The vessel floated for sufficient time to enable the passengers and crew to be saved. It is probable, it is said, that she was a submarine victim. Unable to do much sniping of British and French steamers, which are now well protected, the piratical craft, which neve escaped destruction from the British navy, probably by hovering in neutral waters, turn their weapons against neutral ships and get away with their crime. Dutch indignation will probably again rise to boiling point at the loss of this fine steamer. An American consular officer and his wife was on board and this again involves Washington in the controversy unless Washington can evade it.

Altho the British official communiques are few in words, it must not be taken as a sign that the British army is sitting still, doing nothing. That army is all the while exerting tremendous pressure against the German lines and it is firmly established in a number of jumping-off places which are a source of constant annoyance and wastage to the enemy.

* * * * * The Italians, who have been conducting a new offensive which seems designed, not to give immediate spectacular results, but to wear down the strength of the Austrians spent yesterday in repulsing strong counterattacks intended to win back the important key position which had been wrested from them in the San Martino zone. The fighting was intense, but the Italians resisted the most stubborn attacks. Along the rest of the Isonzo front, Italian detachments spent the day in wrecking the Austrian trenches with hand grenades in the course of which operations they inflicted large losses and caused many explosions. Artillery duels and minor infantry actions also ended favorably for the Italians in the Lagarino Valley, on Astico Heights, and in the Sugano Valley. Owing to the ountainous nature of the frontier, the Italians are unable to make rapid dvances, and so they are sanely setting about the task of bleeding Austria death.

On the written request of General Logie, the Ontario license board, back-ed by an order-in-council of the gov-ernment, has ordered that all hotels and liquor shops in Hamilton be closed at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, March 18. A parade of 8000 soldiers is to take place, and General Logie wants to make sure of its success. Under ordinary cir-cumstances the hotels and shops would remain open, until seven o'clock. At the night session of the legislature, Hon. Mr. Ferguson explained the efforts being made to obtain farm laborers from the United States. Michigan, he said, afforded the best facilities tary training in Canada. This was for securing labor. Because many of decided when a report of a special for securing labor. Because many of these men could not afford train fare to Canadian farms the government proposed advancing this money. The minister said the province required 20,000 farm laborers.

Continuing the discussion, Sam Carter, South Wellington, said that it was difficult to get satisfactory farm help from the old country. Most English-men, he said, went to the cities. He advocated that no money be spent on European immigration this year. Mr. Wigle, Essex, also declared it a mistake to bring married Englishmen and their wives out to Canadian farms. "They are the most impracticable people on God's earth when it comes to farming," Sam Clarke, West North-umberland, declared. He advocate getting as many as possible from the The Salvation Army, he said, States brought out good women, but poor men.

Hon. Mr. Ferguson ended the discussion by promising government action concerning European immigration which would be approved by the house. Government House Cost.

When the committee reached the Government House item of $72,918.83, C. M. Bowman (West Bruce), said the opposition could not allow it to go unchallenged and moved that it be struck out.

"It is the biggest piece of bungling, spending over a million on that place, that the country has ever witnessed," he declared,

Because the government members found themselves in the minority, Hon. Mr. Macdiarmid and Hon. Mr. Fer-guson were forced to talk against time. The opposition appreciated the situ-ation and called for the vote.

The minister of lands, forests and mines talked for fifteen minutes on the subject, which was unfamiliar to him. prompted on occasions by the provincial treasurer and minister of public works.

any organization such as the Citi-zens' Recruiting League should not in any way embarrass recruiting by forwarding such a resolution on national question, but on the contrary the league should assist the government in every way to deal with important war measures. For over three hours members council debated and criticized the action of the Dominion Trades Con-

The Irish Fusiliers, 208th Overseas Battalion, concert in Massey Hall last night drew a good attendance, and the splendid talent was worthy of even better representation of the citizens of Toronto. The band of the battalion pened the program with a selection of rish and patriotic airs. The pictures of anada's leading military men those of the men who have won glory and distinction at the front, were ceived with such applause as is seldom heard in a Toronto house. Miss Brenda MacRae, the Canadian mezzo-contralto, was the first singer, and it is to be regretted that the audience was not in the warm mood of later in the evening, as her singing was very finished and nothing petter than her rendering of "The Floral Dance" has een heard for some time.

"The Two Songs of Kerry," by Free-man Wright, in Irish costume, pleased the audience immensely, but it remain-ed for Jules Brazil to reach the people's hearts. In his piano humoresque on the present houby of song composing, he gave the apparent methods of composing patriotic and comic songs, with all the humorous irony of one who has suffered from the epidemic Romanelli has lost none of his mastery of the harp, and last night his selec tion of Irish airs was well chosen and

Hon. W. J. They Would Not Look Nice Climbing on Top to Fix Pole, Says Manager.

Manager R. J. Fleming when asked esterday if he intended employing vesterday women as motermen or conductors or the street cars, stated that this would only be done as a last resort. He thought the positions really required men. The hours were long and the early and late hours would cause a woman to break down after a short Besides he did not think it would be nice to have women climbin while the car ran thirty or forty yards when there was line trouble. Asked if the women could not run the cars he thought not. Sometimes it was nerve racking enough for men Then there were the rigors of the climate to consider. The Canadian cli-mate was too severe for women to endure for the long periods required street car service. The system in the old country, where women were employed, was different. Buses were used there and the street cars-do not travel as fast. While he did not believe women could do this work, strict rules had been laid down that men who looked fit for military service should not be employed. He thought that the men who enlisted should give the company more notice. Too many of them had quit immediately after coming in from a run.

TO MUSIC OF BAND

Was Feature of Drill Period of Grenadiers' Parade Last Night.

Physical exercises to the music of the band again featured the drill period at the parade last night of the 10th Royal Grenadiers. There was the largest turn-out since the spring parades were com-menced, about 600 being present, and there was marked enthusiasm thruout for the physical drill. Toward the end of the parade Col. J. Cooper Mason, D.S.O., addressed the regiment and again impressed upon the members the desirability of each doing whatever lay in his power to bring up the regiment to strength by the first of May. He asked every man to bring at least one recruit.

the regiment to strength by the first of May. He asked every man to bring at least one recruit. The new bugle band marched around the armories several times in order to show the rest of the regiment the stage at which it has arrived after a month's practice. Before going home, the men wiches.

The recruit classes are growing rapid-ly. They took part in the physical drill and appeared to enjoy it very much.

Treating the subject generally, I say this is the psychological moment for investors, large and small, for when the ice and snow is gone the mining campa of Northern Ontario will be hives of industry. Large amounts of money will be spent in the purchase of equipment, in surface improvements, in underground exploration, and the results of this industry are absolutely inevitable. ### ACTIVE STOCKS

This is the period in both Porcupine and Cobalt camps when the companies, big and little, bend all their energies getting ready for spring and summer This work is of a character that has little if any effect on market quotations. It is, however, fully as important and necessary as underground development. There is always a "lull before the storm" and that is the condition prevailing up north during the month of March. ties, may in time rival Hollinger in rich-ness and productiveness. Don't forget that the largest profits, made in mining enterprise are at the time when it is passing from the de-velopment to the producing and the dividend-paying stage. There was a time when Hollinger and Dome gave ho better promise than McIntyre. But Hollinger in 1910 sold at $3.80, only to sell this year at $30, and Dome a year ago sold at $5.55, to sell since around $30, having sold as high as $43 in 1913. of any metal in the world. This state-ment is based on the estimate of $100,-000,000 in gold values above the 675 level. If there is any mine anywhere which can muster a greater showing I would like to hear from it. I doubt if any of the great copper mines of the United States—the porphyries or deep shaft mines — with their great ore reserves, can surpass the Hollinger, which is younger than the youthful Utah Copper, Chino, Nevada Consolidated or Ray Consolidated Copper Mines. $30, having sold as high as $43 in 1913. DOME EXTENSION—During the past week this stock has been the feature on the mining exchange. Thousands of shares have changed hands and nearly as many rumors have been circulated as to the causes thereof. The "rumor-in-chief" was to the effect that the Big Dome ore dipped into the Dome Exten-sion property. Another rumor has it that Dome Extension has proven large bodies of high grade. Still another that a deal has been made with Big Dome. I attempted to verify these rumors, but like all rumors these had no findable source, so I am of the opinion that investors will do well to wait for more reliable information. Mines. The Hollinger management has proven that the values at Porcupine "go to the deep." Geology teaches us that the formation of the Porcupine belt is the formation of the Porcupine belt is the oldest known and the values are deep-seated. The formation is similar in age to those of the great gold fields of South Africa, Australia and India. The Hollinger has now 100 stamps dropping, and in addition the manage-ment is installing the Hardinge Ball & Pedal Tube Mill, which effects consider-able saving in values, and at same time handles more ore. With the completion of this new equipment the output will be VIPOND-Vipond has a capital of 1.-500.000 shares. $46.000 shares issued. Par value of stock is $1, and a high price

Par value of stock is $1, and a high price of $9c was made last year. It is now selling around 65c, and at that figure is an undoubted purchase. The company has an estate of 120 acres, adjoining the Hollinger group proper, on the southeast, in a territory of great demonstrated value in gold pro-duction. The company's output during 1915 averaged approximately $30,000 a month, and there are estimated ore renancies more ore. With the completion of this new equipment the output will be more than doubled. On the basis of earnings, ore reserves and prospects of expansion in proven gold-bearing ground and earning power, Hollinger is worth $50 a share, and its control could probably not be acquired from the present interest at double that rom the present interest at double that

DOME-There are many people who

DOME-There are many people who believe this to be a greater mining prop-erty than even Hollinger. Dome has tremendous ore bodies and its reserves are ample to keep its present mill run-ning 20 years. Within the past year it has materially reduced its mining costs. The company last October paid its initial dividend of 10 per cent., calling for disbursement of $400,000, establishing a rate of 20 per cent. annually, altho it is expected that an increased rate or an "extra" will be paid this year. Dome differs from Hollinger in so nitction. The commany's output during 1915 averaged approximately $30.000 a month, and there are estimated ore re-serves amounting to $650,000. The com-bany has speet $250.000 in equipment. It may be the next stock from the Por-cupine district to he placed on a per-manent dividend-paying basis. Pay-ments should be inaugurated during the year 1916. WEST DOME CONSOLIDATED-Plans are said to be proceeding satis-factorily for the reopening of this pro-perty. with W. J. Trethewey as general manager, and Dick Ennis of McIntvre as consulting engineer. The mine had a splendid outlook prior to closing down in July. 1911. following the fire that devastated the entire camp. The first point of attack in resumption will be the Foster vein at the 200 level. The recent financing undertaken will, it is believed, provide ample funds for a milling plant, and the development of the property below the 600 level, at which dentify the adjoining Re fire and the property below the 600 level, at which depth the adjoining Big Dome opened up its largest and richest ore body.

COBALT.

Dome differs from Hollinger in so many particulars as to make compari-sons inapyropriate. Development work at Dome has been confined within a zone of 400 x 1500 feet and a "glory hole" of 250 x 300 feet has been opened up, making it the showplace of Porcu-pine. An ore shoot now under develop-ment on the 400, 500 and 600 levels is reported to be the richest ore body en-countered in the north country. Estimated ore reserves at the end of 1915 were $30,000,000, but it is thought that the management will have over $50,000,000 in gold ore blocked out by the end of 1916. The Dome mines are located in the eastern section of Tisdale Town-ship, while the Hollinger group lies in the same position towards the west. I expect to see Dome go back to its high price of 1913-$43 a share. There has been very little activity ir Dome shares of late, as the New York TIMISKAMING—The policy of Beaver and Timiskaming, which are under the same management and closely affiliated, of sinking to greater depth to develop the lower contact in Cobalt, which is known to be in existence, will be watch-ed as it progresses with great interest, because it means nothing more or less than a new lease of life for Cobalt, Timiskaming declared a dividend of 3 become February 18.

The almost universal use of magnesia by physicians and specialists in the treat-ment of stomach troubles, is due to the fact that it stops food fermentation and neutralizes the acid—the direct cause of nearly all stomach troubles. surated magnesia, a teaspoonful of which in a little warm water immediately after eating will instantly neutralize the acid, stop fermentation, and thus ensure pain-less normal digestion. Care should be taken to get bisurated magnesia, as its action is infinitely more effective. It is also, by the way, usually stocked by druggists in convenient compressed tab-lets as well as in the ordinary powder form. Stomach sufferers and dyspeptics who follow this plan and avoid the use of pepsin, charcoal, soda mints, drugs and medicines are invariably astonished to find that the stomach, relieved of the irritating acid and gas, soon regains its normal tone, and can do its work alone without the doubtful aid of artificial di-gestants.
