HAS AN EDISON LIST FOR GIRL PRISONERS

Head of Bedford Reformatory Uses Questionnaire to Determine the Mentality of Inmates—Must Name Days of the Week.

Bedford, N. Y., May 18.—Major Amos T. Baker, Superintendent of the State Reformatory for Women, in Bedford, made public this week the questions he puts to the women and girls there in tests to determine if those who do wrong can be held accountable for their behavior.

Major Baker has ruled that a prisoner of Bedford who has a mentality of a normal twelve-year-old child, or superior, should be made to answer for her department and punished if she misbehaves.

Major Baker asks his charges questions adapted to the mental ages of 6 to 16 years inclusive.

Here are some questions a girl must answer to be credited with a six-year-old mentality or superior: What is the thing to do if it's raining when you start for school? If you find that your house is on fire if you are going some place and miss your car?

In seven-year-old tests an inmate is asked to tell the difference between: A fly and a butterfly; a stone and an egg; wood and glass.

She is also required to name in proper order the days of the week.

In the eight-year-old test a prisoner is asked: What is the thing to do when you have broken something that belongs to someone else? If a playmate hits you without meaning to do it?

The inmate is required to give similarities between wood and coal; apple and peach; iron and silver; and a ship and an automobile.

In the nine-year-old mentality test, the inmate is required to give three words that rhyme with "day," with "mill," and with "spring." She must give the months of the year and tell how to make change in denominations of money not to exceed a quarter.

Inmates having a mentality of ten years must tell the absurdities in such statements as:

"An engineer said the more care he had on his train the faster he could go." "Yesterday the police found the body of a girl cut into eighteen pieces. They

MARTIN HARVEY FOLLOWS IDEAL OF PYTHAGORAS

Actor Knight in Interview Set Forth Views on Essence of Wellbeing.

(Ottawa Journal.)

Sir John Martin Harvey, the eminent actor, believes implicitly in the ideal of the great Grecian philosopher Pythagoras. During a delightful interview which he accorded a reporter for The Journal, Sir John stated that he believed in the principle of harmony set forth in the teachings of Pythagoras, in which harmony of the least with the greatest is the underlying principle, a principle which enables him who understands to get in touch with the highest forces surrounding the plans of physical action.

"I firmly believe that the essence of well-being, wherever found, lies in the ability to properly sense the harmony existing between the cosmogony of the universe as a whole and each individual unit of this cosmogony," said Sir Martin. "There is no doubt in my mind that surrounding the known physical factors of life there are astounding though unseen forces of immense power. And it is undoubtedly the realization of this fact which enables the great writer to express so vividly that which he aims to portray. Dickens, for instance, in his wonderful work, 'The Two Cities,' has practically lived over the characters and scenes which he depicts with such truthful ardour and interpretation.

In Touch With Nature. "I cannot but think that the great author is born with a receptivity to wonderful, if indeed unseen, forces which enable him to get in touch with nature in a surprisingly accurate manner. He has as it were become so harmonized with the great truth of natural fact as to be able to portray accurately those things which most nearly touch his soul. This accounts for the great writers, the great scientists, the great experts, all of whom of nature's realm.

believed that she killed herself." "There was a railroad accident yesterday, but it was not very serious—only forty-eight people were killed."

A problem put to inmates to determine if they have a twelve-year-old mentality is to properly arrange a dissected sentence, such as: "A defends dog good bravely master."

The fable of Hercules and of Wagoner is read to the inmate and she is asked to give the moral lesson it teaches.

The inmate is required to give similarities of "book, teacher and newspaper, wool, cotton and leather, rose, potato and tree, and snake, sow and sparrow."

CHORAL SOCIETY SCORES SUCCESS

Congratulations and hearty thanks were showered on the members of the St. John Choral Society last night after they had rendered their excellent concert programme in Cemetery church. The concert was a feast of music of great beauty and the thirty-two members of the society—twelve men and twenty women—who took part formed a perfectly balanced chorus and evidenced in their harmonious renderings of a delightful programme not only the skilled training they had received but their own musical appreciation and ability. James S. Ford wielded the conductor's baton in his own inimitable and able manner.

HAMILTON GIRL ENDS HER LIFE

Dies in Terrible Agony After Taking Carbolic Acid. Hamilton, Ont., May 18.—Drinking carbolic acid, Miss Clara Wren, twenty-three years of age, died in terrible agony on Saturday evening at her home, 4 Main street, west. No reason for the young woman's rash act has been discovered. She was employed as a waitress at the Manhattan Cafe. At quitting time she purchased a vial of carbolic acid at a corner drug store, and then apparently ran to her room and drank the poison. Another boarder heard her cry for help and ran to her room, but she was beyond assistance. Dr. G. S. Rennie, chief coroner, is conducting an investigation.

REFERS TO MIXED MARRIAGES

Strong Charge to Synod by Archbishop Worrell at Halifax Yesterday. (Canadian Press Despatch.) Halifax, May 17.—In the course of a vigorous declaration on the question of mixed marriages, the Most Rev. Dr. Charles Worrell, Anglican archbishop, during his charge to the synod today said: "Let it be distinctly understood that mixed marriages, however undesirable they may be, are perfectly legal. I have often thought that it would be well in this new country if we could be free from the organizations which arose in the old world and marked the bitter struggles of another period, but circumstances that have recently occurred point in another direction and it will be necessary to meet organized aggression with organized opposition in some form or other."

ITALIAN ELECTIONS

Rome, May 17.—The national coalition party, supporters of the ministry of Signor Giolitti have elected 266 members in the new parliament, according to the latest compilation on returns from the elections held throughout Italy on Sunday. PLANES TO FIGHT FIRES

Aircraft patrolling the clouds in the dead of night will detect forest fires in the great reserves of Western Canada this year. A squad of planes have been obtained by the Dominion Forestry Branch. Two main flights will be made daily over the southern Alberta districts. Enough night pilgrimages will be made to spot the smallest outbreak of fire. These flights are made in the timbered foothills of the Rocky Mountains west of the rich agricultural country of southern Alberta, now being rapidly settled. Besides adding protection to the forest products, the new aerial patrols will minimize danger of fire in the vast grazing section of the reserves, where thousands of heads of cattle and sheep feed.

MADE A DEEP IMPRESSION

Address of Sir J. Martin Harvey to Canadian Club One of Great Patriotism.

Yesterday's meeting of the Canadian Club at luncheon was one of more than usual interest made so by the presence of Sir John Martin Harvey. He raised his audience to a fever pitch of patriotism by his impassioned rendering of the "Chant of Love for England" written by an American in 1915 in reply to the German Hymn of Hate. President Horace Porter was in the chair and introduced the speaker who began with some humorous stories and then recited a composition written by his manager, Frank B. O'Neil entitled "Trans-Canada, a Lightning Impression" dealing with the different cities visited in a tour across Canada.

In referring to the war, he spoke of the various attempts to break the British Empire, that of Philip of Spain, that under Louis XIV, that by Napoleon, and finally the German stroke. After each attempt, successfully resisted, the empire always expanded. Today the British Empire is stronger and more unified than ever in its history, a statement which, like many others, brought warm applause. Then he came to Britain's appreciation of the aid given by the overseas dominions, and referred to a conversation he had with Lloyd George just before leaving England in which the British prime minister spoke at length of the great work of the Canadian army, referring in reply to a question by Sir John, to four outstanding achievements by the Canadians: the secret battle of Ypres, the taking of Vimy Ridge, the breaking of the Hindenburg line, and the great stroke before Amiens which, as Lord Lansdowne had confessed, brought final defeat to the Germans. Sir John dwelt upon Britain's gratitude to Canada, referred to the German Hymn of Hate and then declared the answer to it. Helen Gray Cone's verses, published in the Atlantic Monthly in 1915, entitled "An American Chant of Love for England."

A song of hate is a song of Hell;
Some there be that sing it well;
Let them sing it loud and long,
We lift our hearts in a loftier song;
We lift our hearts to heaven above,
Singing the glory of her we love—
England!

Glory of thought and glory of deed,
Glory of Hampden and Runnymede,
Glory of ships that sought far goals,
Glory of words, and glory of souls,
Glory of songs mounting as birds,
Glory immortal of magical words,
Glory of Milton, glory of Nelson,
Tragic glory of Gordon and Scott,
Glory of Shelley, glory of Sidney,
Glory transcendent that perishes not,
Here is the story, here be the glory,
England!

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Patchell Remembered on the Fiftieth Anniversary of Marriage.

Hundreds of friends called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Patchell, at the corner of Winter and Stanley streets yesterday afternoon and evening. Presents continued to be brought in late in the night to extend to this popular and happy couple their congratulations upon having reached the fiftieth milestone of their wedded life. The home was beautiful for the occasion, countless bouquets of flowers, which were the gifts of friends, setting off the simplicity and neatness.

Mr. and Mrs. Patchell were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts, among them being a beautiful gold watch, suitably engraved, and a silver egg service which was a gift from the Club of Ten. There were ten children born to Mr. and Mrs. Patchell, five sons and five daughters, and five of the children were present yesterday. For forty-two years Mr. Patchell has conducted a grocery business at the corner of Winter and Stanley streets.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES SHOOT TO KILL

These Orders, With 20,000 Automatics, Go Out to U. S. Employees—Get $5,000 Reward.

Washington, May 18.—"Shoot to kill!" These are the orders which, with 20,000 automatic pistols and thousands of riot shotguns, have gone out to postal employees throughout the United States by order of Postmaster-General Hayes.

"We simply have to go back to the old Wells-Fargo ways and put an end to mail robberies by the drastic methods then in vogue," the postmaster-general asserted. Referring to the fact that in the past few months, four mail employees have been murdered and thirty-three major robberies have taken place with a known loss of $6,000,000, Mr. Hayes declared that half-way measures will not cope with the situation.

But while postal employees by the new order are instructed to take no chances in protecting their lives and the mails, the government is captaining handouts will be more profitable. An additional order of the postmaster-general provides a reward of $5,000 to any post office employee, civil officer or citizen who delivers a mail robber into custody.

Money for Future Delivery

HERE are many things for which you desire money. Maybe it is to pay the mortgage off your home; to give your children an education; to provide a fund to care for your wife and family if you should die; or to support yourself in your old age if you live.

Or perhaps you are endeavoring to extend your business credit; to retire a bond issue; to create a reserve to offset the loss by death of some member of your firm, or to pay off the widow of your partner.

Life Insurance provides the only means of delivering the necessary money at the time it is most needed. Over six hundred million dollars have been paid out by the life insurance companies in Canada for these and similar purposes, and over two and a half billions are pledged to-day for future delivery.

SIR MARTIN HARVEY

The best traditions of the English stage are honored and observed by Sir Martin Harvey, the great actor who is now delighting St. John audiences and who at the Canadian Club yesterday attracted its members to an extraordinary degree of patriotic fervor.

The Gleaser also prints a report of Hon. Mr. Wigmore's address at Rusiagonish, that metropolitan community in York-Sunbury whose people clamored for his coming.

"Referring to his own selection for a position in the cabinet, Hon. Mr. Wigmore said that it was to him not so much a personal gratification as the recognition of the right of his native province to representation and the opportunity it afforded him to secure for his beloved city and province its just share in the progressive development that must assuredly come to Canada."

The St. John reader can easily hear Mr. Wigmore thus deliver himself in his best voice, and see the Rusiagonishers rise and cheer the noble sentiments so solemnly expressed. It would not occur to them at the moment to draw apart and ask each other what Mr. Wigmore had secured for his beloved city and province.

THE SOUTH END LEAGUE

The South End Improvement League finds itself at the end of its year with a fine boys' club as well as its play ground, and a slight balance on the right side of the ledger. One wonders if the people of the south end, who take so little part in its work, have any proper conception of what this League may be made as an instrument to promote community welfare.

ART AND THE CRIMINAL

A Russian painter in Chicago, whose exhibit now hangs in the art gallery there, declares that jails should be filled with beautiful paintings and other products of art, in order to make the prisoners forget their evil ways. His assumption is that the appeal of art is universal, and that all persons are moved to higher thoughts and aspirations by "the culture of the spirit," to which art is a contributor.

PERSONS DIE IN RAIL WRECKS

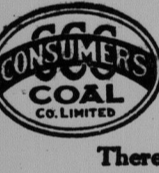

French Trains Jump the Track Near the Same Spot.

Moulins, France, May 17—Twelve persons were killed and fifty injured in a two express train crash today near Moulins, France. The train from Paris jumped the track with a few miles to go. In each case the engines were derailed and the locomotives and their tenders remained on the tracks. The Minister of Public Works ordered an investigation into each instance the coupling between tender and the first coach snapped. Delmas, a member of the Chamber of Deputies, who was on board one of the trains, informed M. Le Troquer that he would bring up the matter in the Chamber of Deputies. The first train left Paris at 10.23 a.m. Saturday morning and jumped the rails near Uzerche, thirty-one miles northeast of Limoges. Five persons were killed in this wreck and twenty wounded. Owing to the derangement the express was diverted to another station in leaving at 7.25 a.m. to arrive at Périgueux Junction. It went on to the ditch a few miles beyond that spot.

Stole a Dead Man's Spirits

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Windsor, Ont., May 17—Scarcely had the funeral of Francis Miermickie, who was killed in a motor accident on Saturday night, left the house on Riverside Drive this morning, when six men forced the front door of his house and took therefrom forty cases of liquor, escaping with them in a motor boat across the river to Detroit. Before the procession had moved off the boat docked a few hundred feet away from the house and the six occupants disembarked and waited about until the party had left. They then coolly entered the house and ransacked the place for the liquor. No clue as to their identity is held by the Windsor police, to whom the affair was reported.

BODY ON ROOF OF FLOATING CABIN

Barge Lost in Lake Superior and Crew of Six Believed to Have Perished.

Sault Ste. Marie, May 18—Six men, members of the crew of the barge Mistic, are believed to have lost their lives early on Saturday when the Mistic, with a smaller craft, the barge Peshtigo, broke loose from the steamer Zillah, of the O. W. Blackett Line, of Whitefish Point, Lake Superior. The barge broke loose during a terrific snow and wind storm. A message from the Whitefish Point life station late on Saturday stated the Peshtigo is safe at anchor about a mile off shore. The Mistic is believed to have been broken up. The Zillah was six miles above Whitefish Point when the barge broke away, the steamer getting in the lee of Whitefish Point. A coast-guard cutter took up the search for the missing Mistic.

Officers of the steamer Renown, which locked down on Saturday afternoon, reported seeing the body of a man on the roof of a floating cabin, believed to be from the Mistic. As the Renown was approaching the wreckage the body was washed into the water and sank. No other bodies were sighted.

Names of members of the Mistic crew are not known here. The Mistic carried a cargo of salt and was bound for Superior. The barge Peshtigo was going up light and was to have been dropped at Muncie.

The Mistic was in tow of the steamer Myron when that vessel sank off Crisp Point, November 22, 1919, with a loss of eighteen men.

The storm came with little warning to shipping men. About eight inches of snow fell and the wind blew a gale. All other craft on the lakes is believed to have weathered the storm in safety.

Captain of Buffalo, N. Y., is in command of the barge Mistic. It is believed the entire crew of the Mistic shipped from Buffalo.

The barge Peshtigo, that also broke from the Zillah and brought here. The Peshtigo lay to after breaking her tow.

Cost guard were patrolling the Whitefish Bay shore tonight in search for bodies from the Mistic.

A heavy north-west gale was whipping Lake Superior tonight and snow was falling, but no drifters were reported in danger.

Loss of the Mistic was the first lake disaster of the present season.

SAYS TREATMENT WORSE THAN DEATH

Experience of a Communist Who Served Four Months in Russian Jails.

Rural, Esthonia, April 25—(Associated Press by Mail)—The worst phase of imprisonment in Moscow is not the possibility or probability of execution, but the daily attempts made to bring confessions from the prisoners, says Dr. Morris Zucker, a Brooklyn Communist, who arrived here this month after having served four months in the Russian jails. Some of his experiences and observations have previously been made public. Zucker was sentenced in New York in 1919 to sixty years imprisonment for sedition but was deported instead.

Speaking of the life of the prisoners in the principal political prison at Moscow, which is called the "O. V. V.", he said, "the daily third degree to which prisoners are subjected if they are suspected of a serious political crime is worse than execution. These prisoners think there is a chance of wringing a confession from them into the questioning room. There, whether they have anything to confess or not, they are commanded to reveal the truth."

"The communique puts a revolver to the prisoner's head, 'confess, or I'll shoot' he says. The prisoner waits for the shot. He never knows whether it is coming or not.

"This process is often repeated until the prisoner will confess rather than undergo any further ordeal, in which case he is shot anyway."

"The mental condition of these prisoners becomes such that they would prefer death, said Dr. Zucker. The Brooklyn Communist says that he met in the various prisons of Moscow twenty of the radicals deported from America and that he could well understand why the Bolsheviks arrested them for they were chiefly anarchists who did not believe in any government, particularly in a government so dictatorial as that maintained by the Bolsheviks."

Zucker said he found in prison also the president of the Turkestan Soviet republic, Mohammed Hadjis, General Alex Gertor, once commander of the Russian South Western front, eight members of the executive committee of the Social Revolutionary Party, three members of that party, including Mayorieff, who was commissioner of agriculture in 1918, and also a former minister of ecclesiastical affairs, M. Camanau.

Zucker described the summoning of prisoners for execution in such the same way as did Schwartz, the San Francisco Communist, who came out of Russia some months ago. He added that executions were going on as late as March 27, and declared that he had been no diminution of the "red terror" in Russia.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Charles Woodbury, a well known farmer and lumberman, occurred at his home in Utopia, (Charlotte Co.) early this morning, after an illness lasting six weeks. He leaves a wife and six children, Merrill, Reginald, Hazel, Harold, George and Dorothy. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. G. L. Bowman, of New Harbor, (Me.). He was fifty-six years of age and his loss will be keenly felt in the community in which he lived.

The death of Mrs. Samuel Givan, sister of the late Charles Nevins, occurred yesterday afternoon about 4.30 o'clock at her late residence, 17 Esplanade street. She had been in ill health for some time, having recently suffered a stroke of paralysis and she never fully recovered from the shock of her brother's death. A devoted member of St. Mary's church, she will be greatly missed by the congregation as she always took an active interest in church affairs. She leaves one brother, Charles F. Nevins, immediate relative, Charles F. Nevins, Miss Elizabeth Nevins and Frederick Bryden, all of this city, are cousins. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2.15 from her late residence to St. Mary's church.

The death of Mrs. Mary A. Fletcher occurred yesterday afternoon at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John M. Jenkins, 290 King street east. Mrs. Fletcher was the daughter of the late James V. WOMAN WANDERS IN HER NIGHTGOWN

Unable to Tell Name or Where She Lives.

(Boston Globe.)

An aged woman, evidently suffering from amnesia, and clad only in a nightgown, was found wandering in Rutland square, South End, at an early hour this morning, by a policeman attached to the East Dedham street station.

When the policeman accosted her she was unable to tell her name, her address, or why she was wandering the streets in dishevelled. At the station house the superior officer thought it impossible to get information from her. A matron wrapped her in blankets and she was removed to the city hospital for medical treatment and observation.

We are announcing the second break in prices at Bassen's 14-16-18 Charlotte street. Some interesting news from Lessers in this issue, see page 5.

The King of the Road

ALL DOMINION TIRES are GOOD TIRES. All Dominion Tires are popular because of their serviceable treads, their superior quality and workmanship.

But—if there can be one tire in all Canada that is the national favorite, this tire is "NOBBY TREAD."

Everybody likes "NOBBY TREAD"—the proud possessor of a lordly limousine as well as the happy owner of a Ford, Chevrolet, Overland, Gray-Dort or McLaughlin.

The big, tough, long-wearing, springy nobbs are proof against punctures, blow-outs and road-cutting. They simply wear and wear and wear. And when your speedometer gets up in the thousands of miles, you begin to appreciate the sound economy as well as the easy comfort of these famous DOMINION TIRES.

The big nobbs, however, do not account for all this popularity. It is the workmanship—the perfect materials—the faultless construction throughout—that make "NOBBY TREADS" the KING of the road.

When you consider their greater mileage, their wonderful durability, their freedom from ordinary tire troubles and their greater ease and comfort in driving, "NOBBY TREADS" are sound economy, no matter what size or make of car you use.

There are DOMINION TIRES for every car, for every purpose, business and pleasure. The Dominion Tire DEALER will show you the different treads and explain the special features of each. He also carries DOMINION INNER TUBES and DOMINION TIRE ACCESSORIES. Have a tire talk with him—he knows.

Dominion Tires are GOOD TIRES

When his lease on a building on the west block in Wichea, a city of 2,000 inhabitants, expired and he was told he would have to move in thirty days, the Goldsmith, of the Goldsmith and Stationery Co., had a vision of heavy losses and an enormous amount of work to build up his trade in a new town.

Days passed and he was unable to find a location near the building he occupied, his worry increased. Only two days before his lease expired he had not been able to get a suitable location. Then he closed for a building on the street three blocks away, almost the street three blocks away, almost the street three blocks away.

He was desperate and he took the building as a temporary location, feeling that it would never do as a permanent location. A few weeks there was a good deal of pessimism in the store. The store was arranged more or less haphazardly because every one thought that more would come soon. Business was predicted that the store could pull business to a side street, and Goldsmith believed them. But he did not find another location.

When the sales forces began asking for improvements to enable them to take care of stock shelves and better cleaning up. Gradually the store began to change and look more active. The great amount of room clerks found, enabled them to save because the entire stock could be arranged and made easily accessible. It was easier to wait on customers because there was no mad rush for the merchandise.

Interior of the store was actually more improved. The interior of the store was actually more improved. The interior of the store was actually more improved. The interior of the store was actually more improved.

Flourish Adds Candy

to His Flowers.

A gift which comes from the heart, which carries with it the good taste of the sender, which serves equally well the festive year, has been evolved by George Prokos, general manager for Blackstone, Inc., florists, in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Prokos has made a study of the needs of the particular public for a gift which cannot be duplicated elsewhere than in the store of which he is general manager. Having behind him years of experience with customers who desire to make their gifts at once distinctive and dainty, he has finally developed a plan which is taking the city by storm.

Blackstone's, having more space in the store than was really needed by the florist department, last October opened the Rosemary Candy Shop, using a part of the extra space for that purpose and making their own candies. Their flowers have been known for years in Washington and their customers include the highest class of the city.

Prokos noticed that many customers of the flower shop went from there into the Rosemary Candy Shop to purchase candy. He inquired casually until he learned that for the most part the candy was quick to see the advantage of such an idea, and gave him a free hand in his development of the plan.

Each box is made up as ordered, thus assuring only the freshest and best, both of flowers and of candies. The bouquet consist of a corsage bouquet made up of violets, orchids and a mixture of small white flowers, but should the customer designate any particular flowers, Blackstone's make the bouquet to suit the individual taste.

The candy consists of the best grade made by Blackstone, and this, too, will be made up to suit the individual taste. The $5 box contains one pound of candy, while the $10 box contains a two-pound box, while the size of the corsage bouquet is much larger for the $10 box than for the $5, but they are both of the highest class of flowers.

Rome, May 2.—(A. STREAK OF HARD LUCK

A car which arrived in the city from one of the outlying districts this morning was concerned in a series of accidents in Prince William street, one following fast on the heels of the other. First of all the owner, in turning, backed into a pole, had twisting one of the rear fenders. While he was manipulating to get out of this difficulty there was a whistling sound and a moment later one of his front tires was flat. Then the engine stopped and it was only after continual cranking that he finally got it going and drove off.

THE MEMORIAL SHOP

Excellent progress is being made by the men who are finding employment at the City Memorial Workshop in water street. About fourteen men are now steadily employed and the business is increasing daily. Screens for windows and doors are being turned out to order in large numbers, and several pieces of furniture have been repaired satisfactorily. The washing of motor cars was started on the lower floor of the building and this industry promises to be a popular one. The first car to receive attention at the shop was that of Commissioner Thornton, of the public safety department.

32ND ANNIVERSARY

In the police court this morning the fragrance of sweet spring flowers was in evidence, for today is the thirty-second anniversary of the appointment of Hon. R. J. Ritchie as police magistrate of St. John, and some of his friends in remembrance of the day sent him bouquets. He also received a large box of flowers from friends in St. Stephen and congratulations were extended to him this morning by all who visited the court. Hon. Mr. Ritchie is 78 years old, or, as he himself says, 78 years young, and after his long term in the service of the city his faculties are still keen. He has made his name honored and his presence on the bench feared by wrongdoers for many years.

PLEASANT TIME IN ST. PATRICK'S HALL

The Men's Society of the Church of Assumption, in West St. John, were hosts last evening at an enjoyable social and bridge in St. Patrick's Hall. Owens, Miss Marion Farren, Fred Joyce and Joseph Moore. All were forced to respond to encouragements. A dainty supper was served under the patronage of Mrs. J. Frank Owens, who was assisted by Mrs. Walter Morris, Mrs. Thomas Morrissey, Mrs. George P. Hennessy, Mrs. Walter Ring, Mrs. John M. Driscoll, Mrs. W. E. Scully and Miss Agnes G. Donovan. The ladies who assisted at the tables were Miss Louise Driscoll, Miss Hilda McPeake, Miss Maud Sweeney, Miss Josephine McKenna, Miss Jean Cormier, Miss Josephine Vetrovinsky, Miss Frances Irvine, Miss Mamie Donohue, Miss Kathleen Morrissey, Miss Sadie Kane, Miss Hazel Kelleher and Miss Mollie Tobin. Miss Susie Murphy welcomed the guests. All proclaimed the event a most enjoyable one.

POLICE COURT

A youth, who gave his name to the police as Edward Furlong, in court this morning charged with converting to his own use and stealing certain goods entrusted to him for sale. From the evidence he appears to have traveled under several names. It was said he has been known under the name of Ritchie and that he gave his name as McLaughlin to the complainant, Alfred Munk.

The latter testified that the accused undertook to dispose of a military great coat, an overcoat, a leather jacket and a tunic for the sum of $14. The witness said he had given the articles to the defendant about the middle of April and the defendant said he would bring him the money on the same evening, but afterwards told him that the friend to whom he was going to sell them was in charge, but that he would get the money soon. He said he had not been able to find the man since. He identified the defendant as the man who gave his name to the police as Edward Furlong and also went under the name of Ritchie. "What were his initials when he went to the name of Ritchie," asked the magistrate, "Robert J.?"

The case was postponed until Saturday morning to procure further witnesses.

J. LeBerton was charged with being drunk and with using profane language on Long Water street night. He was fined $24 or six months in jail.

E. Roy Mealey charged with lying and parking in the New Brunswick Power Co. power house, was allowed to go.

THE INCOME TAX

Although April 30 was the last day for submitting income tax returns for the Federal assessment, the money is still continuing to pour into the local office. The returns now being made are for the most part the result of correspondence which was commenced at the office of the Inspector of taxation, following the closing date for the receipt of returns. Some of the amounts now being received are from taxpayers who made a return but enclosed no cash payment while others come with a variety of excuses for the delay in sending them in.

The staff at the local office is working now on the straightening out of some of the faculty returns over which there is a great deal of correspondence necessary. In many cases taxpayers deducted various amounts, claiming exemption for the support of all degrees of relatives, many of which will not come within the category of exemptions at all.

N. P. MacLeod, the local inspector, said this morning that a good proportion of the returns made were correct and it would appear that the public had become acquainted generally with the law. Many expressed satisfaction with the stipulation calling for part payment of the tax at the time of making the return.

LOYALIST DAY

One hundred and thirty-eight years ago today, May 18, 1783, a band of patriots from the United States, under St. John and founded a colony truly British in the fullest sense of the word. They were the United Empire Loyalists and the anniversary of the date of their landing has been observed as a public school holiday for more than a hundred years. Many people in the city and throughout the province at the present time are proud to trace their descent back to that sturdy band. It is a date of which the people are justly proud and it is fitting that it should be observed. Yesterday in the public schools the children were told the significance of the date and the history surrounding it. Today is a holiday in the city schools and many of the business houses and private residences are bedecked with flags in honor of the occasion.

KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED

Doctor Called on Fake Errand and Attacked in Alley.

To be summoned to attend a man ill to be badly cut and then to be knocked down and robbed was the experience of Dr. W. F. Ester last evening. The doctor, who is staying at a local hotel, had been in the G. W. V. A. headquarters in Wellington Row, and as he was leaving the building was accosted by a man who asked him if he was a doctor. He said a friend had been badly cut and asked if he would like to see him. He told the doctor that his friend was just around the corner and had fallen on a bottle. The doctor went to a secluded part of Carleton street to an alley, where he saw one man standing over another who was lying on the ground with something dripping from his arm. The report is that as he stepped down to examine the man, he was struck by the other and partially stunned. His pockets were then turned out and sum said to be about $65 taken. The man then ran down the street and disappeared.

DIVISION OFF N. S. COAST; NO DETAILS YET

Halifax, N. S., May 13.—Up to an early hour this afternoon there has been no details of a collision which occurred off the Cape Breton coast in a tug boat last night between the British steamer Holly and an unknown ship, thought to be the Lady of Gaspe, which sailed from Halifax on Monday night. The Holly, a 1,200-ton tug, is not equipped with wireless and probably will not be heard from until her arrival at St. John's, where she is due tomorrow morning.

At railway headquarters it is felt that no improvement in conditions can be expected for some time.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN.

SCORE BIG HIT AT OPERA HOUSE

Ed. and Mae Ernie Give an Astounding Performance—Clever Acrobatic Offering and Good Comedy Sketches. Ed. and Mae Ernie, "The Merry Monopde and the Dancing Girl," scored a big hit in the Opera House yesterday afternoon and at both performances last evening. They are brilliant performers and give a variety of dance steps which are hard to excel. The male member was in a British regiment and during the great war lost his left leg. This apparently does not handicap him for both with the aid of a crutch and without it he gives an astounding performance. His high kicking was a feature. Milton Pollock and Company entertained with a bright comedy offering "Speaking of Father." They all gave clever interpretations and won rounds of well merited applause. Fred and Al Smith also were popular favorites in a thrilling acrobatic offering. They performed numerous difficult feats with an ease which was astounding, and also gave an exhibition of strength and balancing. Anita and O'Neil entertained with a number of pleasing vocal solos and whistling selections. One of the members can give almost perfect imitation of numerous song birds and she received well earned applause. Mack and Stanton, in a comedy skit "Home Sweet Home," also won a good share of plaudits. The tramp impersonator, who while seeking admittance to his former home "the prison," both sang well and their act was well received. In addition to the vaudeville offering there were another episode of the serial drama "Fighting Fate," featuring William Deane, and "The West," with current events. This programme will be repeated tonight and again on Thursday afternoon and evening.

IMPERIAL RESUMES FILMS TOMORROW

A Big Society Feature for Thursday and "Alf's Button" for the Merry Weekend. Imperial Theatre will doubtless continue to be the very centre of things tomorrow as it resumes its picture policy with a Senitz production of Les Femmes de Alcazar, the noted picture featuring Elaine Hammerstein, the noted comedienne. This has been a monstrous success everywhere and, though St. John is a bit late in getting it, it will nevertheless be a surefire hit. The Imperial's special price scale will apply to this engagement, excepting Saturday afternoon when the school children will be admitted at the usual rates.

Basball fans throughout the city are clamoring for news about the proposed City League. He said that a meeting has been set for today at 7:30 p. m. at the home of the executive. If nothing definite was forthcoming he would arrange for an outside team for the holiday.

GERMANY AND CHINA CANNOT GET TOGETHER

Difficulty in Restoring Diplomatic Relations—Unlikely Until After United States Makes Move.

BEIJING, MAY 13.—(Associated Press by mail)—

China and Germany are apparently no closer to an actual restoration of diplomatic relations than they were six months ago, in spite of the fact that unofficial delegations are being sent to both countries trying to perfect a treaty. Her, von Borch heads the German delegation which is working in Peking, and Dr. Chang is chairman of the Chinese delegation which is living at the Chinese legation in Berlin.

WHEN CHINA ENTERED THE WAR IT WAS AS AN ASSOCIATED POWER, AND NOT AS AN ALLIED POWER OF THE ENTENTE.

And now it stands with the United States as non-signatory to the Versailles Treaty and critical of the provisions of that treaty. China is a member of the League of Nations, however, having gained admission to that body by signing the Austrian Treaty.

CHINA AND GERMANY HAVE NOT EXCHANGED MINISTERS.

Chang has the same uncertain position in Berlin that Ellis Loring Dresel, the American commissioner, holds. Both the Chinese and German governments are in Germany merely through the courtesy of the German government. And Dr. Borch is in Peking merely as a recognized negotiator without any diplomatic rights or privileges.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, MAY 13, 1925

CITY AUTHORIZES USE OF T RAILS ON DOUGLAS AVENUE

It was decided at the regular common council meeting yesterday afternoon to permit the New Brunswick Power Company to lay the T rails in Douglas avenue. The company will pay for the difference in cost of the granite blocks for the rail sections, amounting to $2,600, but the city will give it one year in which to pay this amount, also for a concrete foundation. The proposition will be presented to the company for acceptance. Mayor Schofield was in the chair and all commissioners were present.

In regard to the application of the N. B. Telephone Company for permission to lay a conduit in Duke street west, Mr. Frink moved that the application be granted, provided that the conduit of the present type be eliminated and that the street be placed in as good a condition as it now is. The motion carried.

Douglas Avenue Proposals

The following resolution in regard to the Douglas avenue matter was then presented to the council by Dr. Frink, who moved that it be taken up section by section:

Whereas, the common council has had under consideration a communication from the New Brunswick Power Company dated May 12, 1925.

And whereas, it is desirable to expedite the construction of Douglas avenue as much as possible; and

Whereas, it is desirable to facilitate every possible way co-operation between the city and the New Brunswick Power Company for this purpose.

Be it therefore resolved, that the common council permits the New Brunswick Power Company to lay a T rail of 6 to 8 inch diameter, such rails to be of standard pattern, standard fish plates bonding, welded bond concealed.

The city will, further the work, delay the collection of cost to the company of the various items heretofore mentioned, together with the company's proportion of the concrete base, such delay to be for not more than one year and at the rate of 6 per cent per annum on all such deferred payments.

This resolution of council to be made effective upon the receipt of a communication from the New Brunswick Power Company accepting the terms thereof.

Wanted T Rail

Mr. Thornton made a strong protest against the laying of T rails. The company had agreed to lay U rails, tenders had been called and accepted with the understanding that U rails were to be laid. The U rail, he said, had been recommended by all prominent engineers and was a big benefit to the street. He said that the company had offered to pay for the U rail providing the city held off on the hydro project. He characterized the action of the company in the matter as a hold-up. The trouble was that the company was not willing to give up the U rail as it claimed to wish. He said that it had lost faith with the public. The U rail could be laid as readily as the T rail. When the council had decided to spend a large amount of money the company, at the last minute, had attempted to hold up the work.

Mr. Jones said that if the council assented in the views of Mr. Thornton there would be no payment. If the company could be forced he would concur with Mr. Thornton. Mr. Bullock said that rather than hold up the work in Douglas Avenue the majority of the council was convinced that it had better take the T rail. He thought they were setting in the best interests of the city at large in adopting this section.

THE YORK-SUNBURY CAMPAIGN AIRED IN PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, May 17—(Canadian Press Dispatch)—Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the Progressives, today made his awaited speech on the budget. For the last couple of parliamentary days the debate has dragged along with all the monotony of the three-toed tale and, on occasion, without even a quorum.

Crerar's contribution aroused attention and filled the house. In his speech on Friday the prime minister made biting comments on the party "angulosity" in reference to the geographical position which "progressives" occupy in the house. Today, Crerar, retorted by referring to Mr. Meighen's speech as "an exhibition of cheap political vaudeville occupying two and a half hours."

York-Sunbury Election.

Again, while referring to the York-Sunbury election, Mr. Crerar broke lance with the prime minister. He first said that the government candidate was appealing to religion. "Are you going to vote for the man Catholics are voting for?" Mr. Crerar quoted the candidate as saying. Mr. Meighen demanded quotations. Mr. Crerar retorted that the prime minister could secure a score of witnesses. He then accused the prime minister or his agents of having approached the "Catholic minister of public works in New Brunswick with a view of his coming into the cabinet."

"That is absolutely false as far as I am concerned," the prime minister flashed back—"or as far as anyone is concerned with my authority."

He added that the government candidate categorically denied ever having made any such appeal to prejudice.

GOVERNMENT WILL FIGHT INJUNCTION

Attorney-General in City to Make Arrangements—Contention is That Law Does Not Cover the Present Case.

Hon. J. P. Byrne, attorney-general of the province, arrived in the city last evening from Bathurst and immediately went into consultation with Dr. W. B. Wallace, K.C., in regard to the injunction that had been served on the attorney-general and chief inspector restraining the liquor inspector or his assistants from seizing the liquor present in bond in the C. P. R. yards and consigned to J. J. Bradley, Limited.

The best method of fighting the case in the courts was considered last evening and the government attorney made application to have the injunction set aside. The contention of the government is that no person can lawfully have or keep liquor in any place whatsoever in the province of New Brunswick other than (a) His private dwelling house in which he resides; by wholesale or retail license under the act authorizing him so to do;

(b) Except he be a brewer, distiller or other person duly licensed by the government of Canada for the manufacture of spirituous, fermented or other liquors;

(c) In a bonded warehouse for export sale.

It is claimed by the provincial authorities that J. J. Bradley, Ltd., does not comply with any of these conditions and, therefore, it is perfectly legal to seize the liquor so soon as it is removed from bond.

"HANDY GRIP"

The Refill Shaving Stick

When you buy a shaving stick see how much SOAP you are getting, and whether you can use all of it.

The Thrifty Shaving Stick

The most economical form of shaving soap is the stick—we make Shaving Stick, Powder and Cream, so we are in a position to give this disinterested advice.

The "Handy Grip" is the Thrifty stick that gives a plentiful, softening lather, using up but little soap. No waste in Colgate's—you can unscrew the last half inch and stick it on a new stick, as illustrated.

DECIDES RAILROAD WAGE REDUCTION IS NECESSARY

The announcement which affects labor on practically every road in the United States was entirely unexpected, as the board only began formal consideration of the case yesterday. The board declared it would hand down its final decision in all wage disputes docketed prior to April 18 on June 1, to be effective on July 1. Disputes filed since April 18 will be heard on June 6, "it being the purpose of the board to make its decision of the disputes heard on June 6, effective on July 1."

POWER COMPANY AND ITS EMPLOYEES

A meeting was held yesterday afternoon between the directors of the New Brunswick Power Company and representatives of the employees' union. Several matters in dispute were discussed yesterday, including the new wage schedule of the company and the recent discharge of the two union employees.

The president of the union said last evening that he had announced that he intended on June 10, to place before the men the new scale of wages and the new set of rules which he expected to have ready by that date. He said that all those who agreed to accept the new policy would be kept in the service of the company, but that any who objected to the new scale and policy would be dismissed.

The president said last night that he had certain proposals to place before the men at their regular meeting today. He expected to have the final decision of the men at the meeting which would govern his action for the next meeting with the directors of the company. He could not announce a definite nature of the proposals which he intended to bring before the men until after the meeting.

The manager of the New Brunswick Power Company said yesterday that the men had requested the company yesterday afternoon to reinstate the two employees who were recently discharged. He said that Mr. DeLoraine had been given the men yet, but the directors had promised to take the request under consideration.

REV. T. MARSHALL ADDRESSED W. C. T. U.

Rev. Thomas Marshall gave an interesting address on temperance before the meeting of the W. C. T. U. held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. O'Brien, 72 Manawagonish road, with the president, Mrs. David Hilwell, in the chair. Mr. Marshall complimented the W. C. T. U. on its work and hoped that its membership might increase. A prohibition law, however poorly enforced, he said, was better than the licensed liquor traffic. He felt sure the day would come when there would be a bone-dry Canada, Mr. Marshall answered many questions regarding prohibition enforcement in New Brunswick.

Mrs. Hope Thompson gave an interesting report of her hospital work and Mrs. Hennigar told of the flowers which had been taken of a special case where assistance might be given and she was authorized to extend help where it was needed. Mrs. W. H. Humphrey read a helpful paper on "Flower Missions." Little Margaret Stout sang a missionary hymn, Mrs. Marshall accompanying her. Mrs. C. H. Purdy of the United States, was a well-known visitor. Heartly thanks were extended to Mrs. O'Brien, her daughter,

With The Majors
(New York Times)
There are days of much elation for the baseball fan of Manhattan Island and for the partisan follower of Giants or Yankees there are times of many stringing arguments. The two New York entrants in the major league pennant stakes have been stepping along so fast of late that the fan is giving way to the old dream of two pennants at the Polo Grounds and a world's series that will be an all New York affair.
It is too early by several months to become serious over pennants, but with all expected as part of the season now only a month under way, and on these tricks of fate the final decision will rest. It suffices, however, to know that each Manhattan club has shown sufficient strength through the early stages of the race to be looked upon as a strong contender by critics throughout the country.

That the Yankees are in first place in the American League would not occasion surprise under normal conditions, since the club was generally picked to be a one-two runner all the way. Behind its success, however, is something that makes the achievement somewhat remarkable. Bob Shawkey led the American League in effectiveness last year, and was counted upon as a big help this year, but in the first month of the race he pitched one game, and that was a losing effort. Holding the lead in the pennant parade without getting any help from Shawkey in the first month of play is something that few would have predicted when the campaign opened.

When Shawkey sounds to form he should be easier to hold the pace. The team has won eight of its last nine games on the road, a good test of pennant caliber.
The Yankees, as they line up at present, are probably the strongest all-around combination that ever represented this city in the American League.
The Giants have been upsetting all op-positions in their league since the return of Ebbets Field almost three weeks ago.
Since April 28 the McGrawmen have played thirteen games and won eleven, both defeats being by close scores. The Robins won a 2-0 game from the Giants and the Cardinals won a 7-0 score.
While the Yanks have won eight of their nine on the road, the Giants have won eleven of their twelve games at home.
The McGrawmen have also been operating under handicaps, as Young has been out of many games and Douglas has been on the hospital list for some time. To succeed under adverse conditions stamps

the club as stronger than even the optimists had figured it.
Both clubs have had all the advantage that goes with a good start. Each is imbued with confidence for the future and the attendance at the home games shows an interest never before reached in either club. Unless all signs fail this will be a bigger season in baseball than New York ever has enjoyed.
White Sox Built Up.
Chicago, May 18.— Jeff Stafford, a right-hand pitcher attending Southwestern university, Georgetown, Texas, has signed a White Sox contract. He will report to Manager Gleason the first week in June, along with R. Olergard, a shortstop, who was obtained by President Comiskey in the spring. Leslie Miller, an infielder, who came from Casa
Grande, Ariz., reported to Manager
Gleason.
Gleason today was rejicing over more encouraging developments on the club than the clean sweep of the four-game series against the Athletics, for his Pacific coast league recruits appeared to have hit their stride.

Went Britton's Way.
Des Moines, Iowa, May 18.— Jack Britton of New York, welterweight champion, outpointed Johnny Tillman of Minneapolis here last night in a ten-round bout.

MACDONALD'S
CUT BRIER
MACDONALD'S "BRIER" has become a Canadian institution. Smoked by the men who made history. In the bush, on the trail, in mining camps, prospectors' huts, factory yards, on trains, steamships, in the luxurious homes and downtown clubs of our Canadian cities—Macdonald's has always been recognized as the smoke.
MACDONALD'S CUT "BRIER"—the same tobacco
but in new form—maintains every Macdonald tradition since 1858, and gives to smokers—more tobacco for the money.

Delegates to Good Roads Convention Enjoyed Trip to Land of Evangeline.

(Halifax Chronicle.)
 "I shall live all my life in the memory of the wonderful things I have seen today." This was the earnest tribute paid by one of the women in the party of delegates to the Canadian Good Roads Convention who went to the Land of Evangeline yesterday, had lunch at Kentville yesterday and motored through the Cornwalls and Gasperau valleys and visited the shrine of Evangeline at Grand Pre. With this tour through the far famed land of romance and song and orchards, came the final close of the convention, a gathering made memorable in the annals of Halifax by the large attendance of representative statesmen from almost every province of the dominion.
 The party which visited the valley numbered about thirty, while a number of delegates remained over in Halifax to spend another day with their new made "Bluenose" friends. They leave today, the majority of them this morning for their homes in New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario, the Middle West, and the far western provinces of Canada. It is evident by their enthusiastic expressions of appreciation that they are taking with them many long enduring memories of their visit to the Eastern Gateway. They came amid cold winds and belated snow flurries, they leave with the memory of the glorious sunshine of the Atlantic skies, and with full knowledge that a Nova Scotian spring can really be beautiful. That they go away with broader conceptions of what Canada really is by having seen the maritime provinces and their people was expressed last night by one of the delegates when he said, "No man can be a 'little Canadian' after he has breathed the spirit of these provinces which moulded the nation."

 It was an enthusiastic party of "climaxed Bluenoses" that returned to Halifax last night from their Valley trip. It was evident that the trip to almost all of them had exceeded their expectations and not a few converts. For as is natural to all Canadians to believe that their own province is best, some of the delegates had gone more through historical curiosity than expecting to see a land of such incomparable beauty and such outstanding evidences of prosperity. One prominent gentleman was heard to say that this part of the country could not compare with Ontario, but after a three hour trip through the valleys from Kentville, he earnestly declared that "it is magnificent. I would like to live in Nova Scotia." Many similar conversations were reported.

UMBRELLA FIEND AT WORK AGAIN
 Seized Rare Opportunity Presented to Ply Wicked Trade — Many Losses.

(Montreal Herald.)
 The season for losing umbrellas was officially opened yesterday, Friday, the thirteenth, and it would appear as if a very promising start was made in the matter of numerous losses and dishonest annexations. No less than five such cases came to the notice of The Herald, and they form only a small portion of total disappearances. It would seem that people here, having enjoyed a good long spell of warm and safe weather, had

Ritz-ordered a baked apple and so-called cream, planked the stuff on the mud guard and started to tuck in. Having demolished the whole in three minutes, he clutched out for his umbrella and grasped a handful of nothing.
 Such instances were no doubt numerous, and the moral of it all is "be lucky with your umbrella." Carry a chain and padlock on your left arm when entering a bank or post office, and watch your prized possession with an eager eye. Don't carry your implement so that it gets between peoples' legs or pierces their faces, for while a slight friction of the handle assures you its possession a little longer a severe bending is sometimes fatal. A cheap, unsightly umbrella lasts longer.
 One erstwhile favorite source of loss in umbrellas has now disappeared, with the disappearance of the brass rail. Men who used to hand their umbrellas and their arms over the glistening rod used often, especially after taking several shots of hooch, to leave them there to add to the bartenders' already large collection.

UNEASY LIES THE MAN WITH LIQUOR IN HIS CELLAR
 Hamilton, May 18.—Liquor always was a source of trouble and anxiety. In twenty-four hours no fewer than four calls were received at the central police station from citizens either advising that liquor had been stolen from their cellars or that attempts had been made to effect an entrance.

BEER DRINKERS UP AGAINST IT

Thin Juice and Second-hand Sandwiches Don't Appeal.

(Montreal Herald.)
 Beer drinkers of the casual glass type lament that their present lot is a hard one. They speak about being up against a double disability when entering certain lounge rooms which, by a stretch of syntax, are called cafes or restaurants.
 It is hard enough to have to drink this beer, they point out, even with the waiter's cold consolation that when the present feeble fluid runs out new supplies will be brought in which will have more bite. But it is rough, indeed, having to purchase second-hand sandwiches or salads with each order. These "solids" are, of course, brought back and forth to each new entrant; and a fresh payment for them to the house is made at each passage.
 Alas! — the poor consumer! Will things ever come his way?
 Such are the heart-rending exclamations and questions heard on all sides; and always without a definite answer.

GIRL FORGETS ENGLISH

Surprises Mother on Return After Eight Years' Absence.

New York, May 18.—Meeting her sixteen-year-old daughter Mercedes after a lapse of eight years, when the S. S. Antonio Lopez of the Spanish Line arrived here, Mrs. R. Keseminski of 810 Adams street, Brooklyn, was surprised to find that the girl did not understand English, although she had attended school here prior to 1912. Mrs. Keseminski changed her greeting to French and Mercedes replied in the same tongue, but with a Spanish accent.
 Mrs. Keseminski brought Mercedes here from Belgium when she was a baby, and later Mercedes attended school in Brooklyn. For eight years she has been living with an aunt at Tenerife, Canary Islands. In Spanish the girl said she had forgotten all the English she had known, but was anxious to study it anew.

Fine Silverware
 Rich Lustre Combined With Rare Beauty and a Charm That Lasts—

WOMAN'S pride in her home expresses itself in the setting of her table. Is it any wonder then, that silverware of such beautiful pattern and brilliant lustre as "Holmes & Edwards" is so highly prized?

More lavish in their use of silver, "Holmes & Edwards" craftsmen have also added a new charm to fine silverware—a hand-burnished lustre that gleams and flashes like a diamond.

Fine linen serves but to enhance the brilliance and distinction "Holmes & Edwards" lends.

Exclusive patterns are a further source of pride.

But most welcome feature of all is the fact that the charm of "Holmes & Edwards" silverware lasts. It is protected against wear.

In "Holmes & Edwards" SILVER-INLAID you get silverware that nothing short of sterling silver can excel. Solid blocks of pure silver are fused in on the back of the most-used pieces—just where friction mars ordinary silverware.

In "Holmes & Edwards" SUPER-PLATE these points are protected by a heavy extra deposit of pure silver.
