THINK ST. JOHN HAS MORE PEOPLE

Citizens Disappointed At What Census Shows

FAVOR ANOTHER COUNT

Growth in Prosperity, More Business Being Done, Few Vacant Houses, They Say, and Yet Only a Trifling Increase in Population

Surprise and disappointment were among the emotions with which the announcement of the census returns were received in St. John. There have been indications in recent years that the city was gaining in population at a fair rate and it is felt by citizens that the figures should be larger than those that are credited to St. John.

Some of the business men who are anxious that another census be taken at once and others, more cautious, advocate an inquiry by the board of trade of some other body into the census figures and their comparison with other available figures. Here are the views of citizens:

Hon. R. J. Ritchie was of the opinion that if the present figures are correct that the city must have been over-rated at the last census taking. If the figures submitted are correct, then I think it is up to the board of trade and the common council to start another boom, and interest industry to locate in St. John. St. John has forged ahead much in the last ten years, but the people seem to be leaving the town. If we are going to lose our seats, it is a serious matter, and I think another census should be taken in order to prove the figures. All the expenditures that have been made in the city do not seem to have been any good. I think there must be some mistake in the figures, and they were very thickly inhabited at the present time.

G. A. Henderson, president of the Canadian Club, said that he knew positively that there were several people in the city who had not been interviewed by the census commissioners. "It seems a pity that after such a large amount of money has been expended on the city within the last ten years that the population has not increased more. I think if a more careful census of the city were taken, the result would be more gratifying.

"Look at the many new houses that have been erected and which are now being occupied. All the boarding houses in the city are practically filled, and still we make a gain only a little more than a show last ten years that the population has not increased more. I think it would be a good idea to have another census taken all over the province.

George McAulay, of the following companies, Limited, said that he, with many others, had been under the impression that the city had a population of 20,000. The census figures so far as they affected St. John would indicate either that we were going behind or that there were inaccuracies, and he was inclined to think the latter.

Looking about at conditions, buildings, operations, etc., there was a serious ground for belief that St. John was showing a marked advancement. It is a pity that it was not familiar with the system employed in getting the results but he was inclined to the view that there must be some thing wrong in the figures.

B. R. Macaulay, of Messrs. Macaulay Bros. & Co. said that he had always believed that St. John had a population of 20,000 and still thought so. He favored a different method of census taking than the one adopted at the present time. He is of the opinion that the information being sought was for the purpose of levying taxes, the result was, naturally, that correct information in many cases was not obtained. Commissioner Berton did the work well under the circumstances but there were too many questions asked, all of which tended to frighten people.

Mr. Macaulay favored the citizens taking the census themselves and if every one took hold and worked together the results could be obtained in one night. Each street or section of a street could be patrolled and the information collected in the morning. Circulars could be sent out warning it clear that any information obtained would be confidential.

The judge stopped the argument and decided to admit the evidence and reserve the question of law.

Mr. McLeod said that the dying man told Chief Kelly that he knew the was all in," and that Matron Lane told him that he was going to die. This had happened before he made his dying statement. During the argument between counsel on the points of law, hot words passed between the provincial secretary, and Mr. Carvell. The latter told the former that he was no gentleman. Mr. McLeod said he was tried at all times to be a gentleman, but the conduct of Mr. Carvell was everything else but that of a gentleman.

CHINESE TROOPS AND REBELS FIGHT BATTLE AT HANKOW

General Engagement is Fought With Some 12,000 Troops Engaged

Rebels Fail to Prevent Landing of Imperial Forces to Re-inforce General Chang Piao—The Fighting Spirited—Japan Fears Trouble For Outside Nations

(Canadian Press)

Hankow, Oct. 18.—A general engagement between the revolutionary army and the imperial forces was precipitated at the water front here early today by the attempt of Admiral Sah Chen Ping to land a large body of troops for the re-inforcement of General Chang Piao.

Chang Piao, although officially dismissed by the government, still retains his command and was reinforced with several hundred of the old provincial army at a point in the native city close to the foreign concession.

It was just daybreak when Admiral Sah ordered his cruisers to disembark their soldiers near Chang Piao's position. The revolutionists on the Wu Chang fortifications immediately detected the movement and opened a hot with their artillery.

The cruisers and gun boats in the river applied with a rain of shells which diverted the attention of the Wu Chang revolutionists and eventually covered the landing of the troops.

Scattered bodies of revolutionists on both sides of the river joined in the fighting and by mid-afternoon it was estimated that 2,000 imperial troops and nearly 10,000 rebels were engaged.

The warships used a large quantity of ammunition but the effectiveness of their fire was hampered by their fear of endangering the foreign concessions. All the foreign warships in the river sent landing parties ashore for the protection of the foreign interests.

Tokio, Japan, Oct. 18.—Despite the fact that the rebels have been driven both by the Chinese and the revolutionary leaders in the central Chinese provinces that the rights of the revolutionaries will be respected.

The government is likely to develop plans referring to outside nations. The provincial secretary, and Mr. Carvell. The latter told the former that he was no gentleman. Mr. McLeod said he was tried at all times to be a gentleman, but the conduct of Mr. Carvell was everything else but that of a gentleman.

Some feeling against Japan has already been noted at Peking, where Chinese merchants and financiers have freely asserted that Japan incited the revolution in order to create a crisis which would prevent the European-American loan. In revolutionary circles, on the other hand, reports are being circulated that Japan is aiding the imperial government and this impression has already created an antagonism against the Japanese in the south and it is said to have resulted in the beginning of an anti-Japanese boycott in South China.

Still another Chinese rumor is to the effect that the United States encouraged the revolution by its insistence upon the halted railway loans.

Every indication, official or otherwise, points to the determination of Japan to remain absolutely neutral. It is declared in official circles, that the Peking government has advantages to Tokyo with a view to securing assistance against the revolutionists. But Japan replied explicitly that she would not interfere as long as her interests were not attacked.

The revolutionists have been notified, however, that the iron works at Han Yang which are under Japanese ownership are to be regarded as distinctly a Japanese interest.

Despatches from Manchuria seemed to indicate that the province has thus far shown no signs of uprising. The only action being exercised, however, by officials from Mukden northward.

Shanghai, Oct. 18.—It is reported here that the rebels have captured both Nanking and Kiu-Kiang, but official confirmation is lacking. It is said that there have been a number of missions from the government troops. The British cruiser Newcastle arrived at Nanking yesterday. The government is having trouble in securing transports for the movement of troops.

Hankow, Oct. 18.—The British consul general at Hankow telegraphed his legion here last evening that the women and children were forced to leave Hankow.

NEW DANGER IN EXPLOSIVES FACTORY

Important Report to Canadian Government on Fatal Explosion in Dominion Company's Works

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—An important report has been made to the department of mines, by one of its experts, J. G. S. Hudson, who investigated a recent fatal explosion in the Dominion Explosives Company's works at Beloit, near Montreal. It has been found that the cause was a spark from an electricity charged belt on one of the machines.

It has been found to be the curious fact that practically everything about an explosives factory tends to become magnetized, even to the copper rivets in the workmen's shoes. A special report will be made on this discovery.

THE RAILWAYS IN ENGLAND AND THE WORKMEN'S UNIONS

London, Oct. 18.—It is expected that the railway commission will recommend the recognition of the railwaymen's unions in working the conciliation boards established at the instance of Mr. Lloyd-George, but while the labor members of the commission desire that recognition be given unconditionally, the remaining members stipulate that it should entail corresponding duties, involving penalties in case of non-fulfillment.

FAMILIES MAY HAVE TO UNITE

Not Enough Coal to Permit Fires In Every Home

CONDITIONS IN WEST

Coal Shortage Applies to Remote Parts of Saskatchewan, Due to Closing of Mines in Spring Because of Labor Trouble

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—(Canadian Press)—The families in remote portions of Saskatchewan, may not be able to maintain their fires in their separate homes during the coming winter now appears to be the case as a result of the scarcity of the coal supply there. D. B. Bowling, a geological survey expert, who has just returned after a geological examination of the Jasper Park coal field in British Columbia, says the supplies of fuel will be so short that small groups of neighbors may be compelled to huddle up. In parts of the country it will be clearly impossible to maintain fires in every house, and the only recourse will be to assemble two or more families in one residence.

The deputy minister of the province has issued a statement in which he says it will be necessary to employ unusual precautions and to take extraordinary steps to prevent loss of life. Hundreds of posters have been hung in every part of the province setting forth the facts of the situation.

Trouble in the province is due to the closing up of the mines in Alberta and British Columbia in the spring when trouble between miners and operators occurred. Since April last, practically no coal has arrived in Saskatchewan from any of the larger mines. There are however deposits of low grade coal from which the coal has merely to be stripped to allow of being used as fuel. It is believed that it will be possible to secure the fuel where ever they exist.

BOGUS COPIES OF THE OLD $4 NOTES PLACED IN CIRCULATION ON THE BORDER

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—Inspector Smith of the Dominion immigration staff, on the border between the United States and Canada, reported that counterfeit $4 bills are being circulated in border cities, presumably by a gang working from the American side.

The fake bills are copies of the old style note and pretty clever ones. The new $4 note, so far as known, has not been counterfeited. One of the bogus bills was passed on the inspector at Niagara Falls, Ont.

SACKVILLE MAN KILLED IN NEW YORK

Sackville, N. B., Oct. 18.—(Special)—A telegram received here this morning announced the death of Mark Snowdon, of Sackville in Brooklyn yesterday. While getting off a trolley car he fell and his skull was fractured. He was hurried to an hospital, where an operation took place, but he died soon afterwards.

Mr. Snowdon left Sackville a week or two ago. He leaves his wife and four children here. He was about fifty years old.

FARMER WAS KILLED AS HE LAY SLEEPING

Wakefield, R. I., Oct. 18.—While sleeping with his son Joe, Brigham, a farmer, 43 years old, was killed by a shot fired through the window of his room. The son was uninjured. He at once called Sheriff John R. Wilcox and a small posse went on the trail of the murderer.

A short time afterward Biennin Cravager, who was employed on the farm of Joe Brigham at Boston Neck, was arrested as a suspect and taken to the Kingston jail.

Brigham was a woodchopper and lived with his wife and family on McSharran hill, an isolated district near Wakefield. The police believe the shot was fired at Brigham's head and caused instant death.

THINK ST. JOHN HAS MORE PEOPLE

(Continued from page 1.) Upon by the city's census enumerators. Having thus determined exactly what the city's population is, it is not surprising that the figures would then be in order for various public bodies like a commission, the board of trade, and others to consider ways and means for keeping our people at home and perhaps for inducing others to come here.

One of the chief officers of the city, who happened to be officiating out of town at the time the census commissioner was around would be glad to tell you that if he had not, of his own initiative, sought out the census officer and reported the existence of himself and his family, he would not have been so surprised.

From what he knew of the increase in the number of homes in the city and from reports of the census commissioner, it is not surprising that the census returns as he had not observed anything that would show a decrease in the population during the last ten years.

W. Frank Hatheway, M. P., said that he was much surprised to note that in ten years of apparent prosperity the population of St. John had not increased.

Thomas Gorman. When asked this morning as to his opinion of the census returns, Gorman, who has been in the city for about ten years, observed in St. John during the last ten years, he was surprised and disappointed.

W. M. Jarvis, speaking of the results of the census said: "I am not greatly surprised that the increase was not greater than was shown. While we know that the population of St. John is increasing fairly rapidly this increase commenced only four or five years ago.

H. A. Deberry. H. A. Deberry of the Royal Hotel, expressed surprise at the population figures for St. John. "Why, he said, I always thought the population was 6,000 or more, but when I saw the figures in the morning paper I was greatly taken back.

AROSTOOK CUT MUCH SMALLER

Falling Off of About 70 Per Cent in The Timber Harvest REASONS ASSIGNED

Dull Market, Repeat of Pike Law, and Low Water of Last Season Given as Causes—Figures From the Operators

In the northern part of Maine along the St. John river, and in Aroostook county generally, there will be a falling off in the lumber cut this season of about 70 per cent.

The repeal of the Pike law which went into effect in August, and which puts a duty of $1.25 a thousand feet on American lumber manufactured in St. John, instead of allowing it to come in free in competition with the mills in the states.

The Ashland Co., which has a mill at Ashland, will operate on the Aroostook river, and will probably cut from 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 feet.

Arthur J. Nobles, of Fredericton, N. B., will operate on the upper St. John waters above seven islands, and will cut about 3,000,000 feet for the Stetson, Cutler Co.

W. H. Canfield's Sons, of Fort Kent, operators for the Stetson, Cutler Co., will have an operation in the Allagash in the vicinity of Long Lake, and will cut about 3,000,000 feet.

Nazareo Pelletier, of St. Francis, will cut less than a million feet for the Stetson, Cutler Co. on the St. John this season.

The bulk of the cut in that section will be less than 28,000,000 feet this season, while in an ordinary year there is anywhere from 75,000,000 to 100,000,000 feet cut.

Joseph T. Mison of Houlton, who operates for the St. John Lumber Co., of Van Buren, is to cut in the vicinity of 5,000,000 feet for that concern on the upper St. John.

Robert J. Potts of Hartland, N. B., another operator for the St. John Lumber Co., has an operation on the Big Black, a tributary of the St. John river, and he will cut 3,000,000 feet.

Flavien Choismard of St. Pamphile is also operating on the Big Black, and he will get out about 2,000,000 feet for the St. John Lumber Co.

Charles E. Jones, of St. Francis, is also operating for the St. John Lumber Co.

IN THE GRIP OF COCAINE.

Victims of the Drug Are Declared to Be a Fast Growing Army. A FEARFUL MASTER. Drives Away All Sense of Shame and They Will do Anything to Get it—There Are Cocaine-Selling Druggists.

(Toronto Mail and Empire). Cocaine, says an authority, is now the great looming danger of civilization, and despite determined efforts to prevent its use for other than medical purposes, the consumption is rapidly increasing. So common has the practice of snuffing cocaine become that the slang term "snobbirds" is well understood in the underworld to apply to the cocaine "bends."

Since its victims revel in the white powder, the term is not ill chosen. What inroads the habit has made in Canada it is difficult to say, but it is fairly safe to assume that any fed or vice that claims many votaries on the other side of the line is sure to have some following here, the number usually preserving a constant ratio to the ratio of population in the two countries. There are druggists in Toronto who could tell a tale about the "snobbirds" who are among their customers, and doctors who could speak of their fights to help some poor unfortunate break the terrible chains of the habit.

A Habit of the Great Cities. An authority is Dr. William Jay Schiefelin, president of the National Wholesale Association of the United States, president of the United Federation of Churches, the Laidy League, the American Missionary Society, chairman of the Citizens' Union, the most powerful non-partisan political organization in New York state, and chairman of the New York Committee of the Laymen's Missionary Movement.

He is a great social reformer, although his name does not get into print as frequently as that of some others, but more important in the present case, he is one of the best authorities in the United States on all questions relating to the drug business. Dr. Schiefelin says that only one-eighth of the cocaine consumed in the United States can be traced through doctors and dentists, who alone are qualified to properly administer it. This estimate applies to the whole of the United States, but as the great majority of the cocaine "bends" live in the larger cities, the proportion is much greater there. In Philadelphia, for instance, it has been calculated that 600 times as much cocaine is used by the victims of the drug as by the doctors and dentists.

The Cocca Leaves. Cocaine seems to possess the qualities of both narcotic and stimulant. As used by medical men, it is a valuable local anesthetic, especially helpful in minor surgery for treatment of the eyes, ears and throat. Its effect as a stimulant was well described by Charles Kingsley in "Westward Ho." As used by the South American Indians it satisfies hunger, deadens fatigue, and makes breathing in high altitudes easy. The Indians obtained the drug by chewing the leaves of the coca plant, which is a small shrub that grows wild in the mountains of Peru and Bolivia, and has been cultivated, recently, in other parts of South America.

It has the romantic plot which appeals to a large class of patrons—especially the matinee audiences—and on that account may be considered a diplomatic choice for the stellar debut of Mr. Koller, who gave much promise in St. John some years ago.

Blanch Walsh who has starred successfully in such plays as The Test and The Resurrection, and Robert T. Haines, leading man, have both harkened to the alluring voice of Martin Beck and will soon be in the houses controlled by the Orpheum Circuit in vaudeville. Miss Walsh has a one act play called The Thunder God, in which she will be seen as an Italian queen. The piece is by Arthur Hopkins. Her season will open at the Columbia Theatre St. Louis. Mr. Haines, for his part, will appear in a play called The Devil's Deal.

What Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt Has Done For Others IT CAN DO THE SAME FOR YOU

Mr. Wm. McKay, 244 Gloucester St., Ottawa, Ont., tells his experience with my Belt. Dear Sir, I should have written you ere this, but I was waiting to find the results of my experience with your Belt. When I ordered it, I really expected to be 'taken in,' but I was agreeably surprised to find the wonderful effect it had on my system in even one night's use. The next day I found such wonderful difference in my spirits and my movements that it surprised me, and it kept on improving my health until I felt just as well as I ever did in my life.

Do you doubt it? If so, any man or woman who will give me reasonable security can have my Belt with all the necessary attachments suitable for their case. PAY WHEN CURED. If you feel tired and stupid, with no ambition to get out and hustle; if you have spells of despondency and a desire to give up the fight, you need my Belt. The Belt is to the strong, slow me a firm, steady, and I'll show you a weakling, lacking in courage, strength and ambition, three essentials to the make-up of a successful man.

DECLARES WAR ON THE POLICE OF WINDY CITY

Chicago Mayor Orders That the Force Be Cleaned Up Or Out

TWO DISMISSALS

Fully Thousand of 4,296 Policemen May Have to go—Defence Fund of $100,000 Being Raised—Grant $9,000,000 a Year

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 17.—Mayor Carter H. Harrison has declared war on the Chicago police. As commander-in-chief he has ordered the city civil service commission to train its heaviest guns on the force and not to cease firing until the department is cleaned up or cleaned out.

It is just such a battle against corruption as the Lexow committee conducted in New York seventeen years ago. The early promises are for results as far-reaching as those in the metropolis. Mayor Harrison has directed that the inquiry be exhaustive, no matter where or whom it may reach.

As was the case in the New York investigation two subordinates are the first to fall before the fire of the Civil Service Commission. Charles J. McClellan, a patrolman, led the way as a victim. Lieutenant William Walsh followed soon after. Both have been dismissed from the force.

Those men were found guilty of permitting open gambling on Labor Day at the American League baseball grounds while the Gotsch-Hackenschmidt wrestling match was in progress. They were charged with having closed their eyes to gambling in violation of an order issued by Chief McWeeny that the law should be strictly enforced.

Walsh and McClellan testified that they did not see any gambling at or near the ball park, although thousands of persons saw it and hundreds took chances at the games. The most damaging evidence against the police was in the form of a newspaper photograph. The Record published a picture showing the gambling tables in full operation, with scores of persons looking on.

Reporters saw policemen walk by the busy tables with no effort at interference. They saw collectors go from table to table to collect tribute from the gamblers in charge. They even saw the number and denomination of the bills which passed from hand to hand and heard most of the conversation between payer and payee.

It was proved that McClellan was not thirty feet from one of the tables, on duty and in full uniform. It was shown that at least thirty policemen were in a trap set for him in a leading hotel. It was proposed that he should meet a witness who would give him valuable information. He first willingly consented, but later suspected a ruse to discredit him and decided not to keep the engagement. It developed later that a trap had been laid for him.

John L. Spellman, a newspaper man, was the most important witness for the commission in the early stages of the inquiry. On the strength of his testimony, and of the pictures of gambling which he helped to procure, Lieutenant Walsh and Policeman McClellan were dismissed. Counsel for Walsh sought by witnesses to prove that Mr. Spellman practiced opium smoking, and therefore could not be a credible witness. A woman was deputed upon to testify against him. She made an affidavit that she has been questioned by detectives and dragged to the stand against her will. She testified on the stand under a great deal of duress, and Mr. Spellman said that she never had seen him use an opium pipe. Counsel for the defense thereupon quickly recalled her.

Another attempt to impeach Mr. Spellman was made when a male burglar testified. He testified that Mr. Spellman was an opium smoker, and prompted the attorney for the commission to ask out the fact that Mr. Spellman had promised the witness two years ago for assistance. At this stage the commission forbade further questioning to discredit the reputation of the reporter.

It is generally believed that the men in the ranks are merely the tools of their superiors who receive the ill gotten gain and divide it with ward politicians and the "kings" of the vice districts. Other queries which the commission has set itself to answer are: How have certain police officers whose salaries are not above $21,000 a year become independently wealthy in a few years of service? Who, since gambling is illegal, have recently made large fortunes in the downtown or elevated loop district been allowed to operate and who permits it?

He took them to central police station and on holding a sort of trial, gleaned a confession from the boy who made the theft. He allowed them all to go with a severe cautioning.

In the police court yesterday afternoon hearing was resumed in the case of Henry Dolan charged with selling to an intoxicated man. After hearing evidence of Pauline McLeod and MacLachlan the case was postponed till Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Who, since gambling is illegal, have recently made large fortunes in the downtown or elevated loop district been allowed to operate and who permits it? It is now apparent that the police are preparing to resist the investigation. Men in the ranks complain they are being "held up" for contributions to a defence fund of $100,000. Many forces are at

METHODISTS AND UNION

Ecumenical Conference Speakers Endorse Organic Amalgamation—The Closing Sessions

Toronto, Oct. 17.—The ranks of the Ecumenical conference showed signs of heavy defection at the last morning session. A good stroke of policy on the part of the programme committee was shown in bringing on the discussion of Methodist union at the last sitting, when the feelings of the delegates were mellow with the prospect of farewell.

"Organic union is one thing and actual fusion is another," said Rev. W. Reffers in a paper on Methodist union. "Sectionalism has largely ceased to be harmful to the spirit of fellowship. The idea of a larger union in England is going to be realized sooner or later. The lessons of the great divisions must not be overlooked."

"The Evangelical churches everywhere," said Rev. Enoch Salt, of London, "ought to act together as far as they honestly and honorably can—but they don't." The coronation ceremonies were participated in by only one church while half the churches in England and more than half of Protestantism stood and looked on.

Rev. Homer B. Tuttle, D. D., of New York, gave a breezy address on "Economy in the use of Forces and Means." He said: "This question should have been discussed long ago. It must be faced now even if it causes the name of some denominations to disappear. The situation in some places at home is heart-breaking. We should not," he said, "put in two or three men where common sense and reason call for one."

"The colored brethren have five denominations where two at most would do. The situation is not only bad economy but sin. The local church is a means to an end. The programme is the whole gospel for the whole world. The M. E. church spends $35,000,000 for home work and $2,000,000 for foreign. It sustains 17,500 ministers at home and 1,600 abroad. 'The age in which we live,' said Dr. Scott Lidgett, 'is an age of reunion.' He approved all the sentiments expressed in favor of union among the various Methodist branches. Rev. Dr. Haigh, president of the Wesleyan church, made a parting address expressing most cordial sympathy with union. Rev. Dr. Carman made the last speech in the discussion. He said: 'If you want to see the spirit of Christ manifested we must move on and make sacrifices and lose our names.' Rev. Dr. Carroll read a statistical report for universal Methodism. There are 55,898 ministers; 8,708,000 members; 8,000,000 family school scholars; 32,500,000 adherents. 'I am an actor and work. Can you give me employment on your farm?' 'I can. But a day on a farm is no twenty-minute sketch.' 'I understand that.' 'All right. Vendor is your room. When you hear a drum beat about 4 a.m., that's your cue.'—Chicago News.

GIANTS TOO ANXIOUS IS VERDICT OF MATHEWSON Athletics Won Second of the Series By 3 to 2 But It Took Eleven Innings—Some Sensational Plays

(Canadian Copyright by J. W. Bolton. Copyright United States by the New York Herald. All Rights Reserved. By Christy Mathewson, the Giants' Star Pitcher.) New York, Oct. 17.—Generally speaking the defeat of the Giants by Brooklyn today was due to over anxiety, both at the bat and in the field, and specifically Snodgrass' mistake in the tenth inning.

Snodgrass Too Anxious. Had Snodgrass been less anxious to get a big lead, he would have reached third base on the passed ball. If he had taken a moderate lead, he would have been on his toes and going toward third as soon as he saw the ball get away from Lapp.

Spiked Baker. In trying to reach third base on this play, Snodgrass slid into the bag and he was spiked by the Athletics.

BOMB PLOT OF BOYS AT HAVELOCK

Wrecked Part of Magistrate Alward's House After he Had Fined One Lad—Five Now on Trial

When a group of boys plan a bomb plot and carry it to a successful conclusion in a quiet little country village the case is one of more than ordinary interest, and the motives which prompt the act demand attention.

The explanation given is that the magistrate had previously fined one of the boys, who had been caught playing baseball in the public street. The lad, it is charged, employed their time in a conspiracy to seek revenge for the steps that had been taken against one of their number and the result of their plot has been told before the police magistrate.

On the night of August 16 Magistrate Alward and his family were aroused from their sleep about midnight by the noise of an explosion and a shock which shook the house. Hurrying downstairs the magistrate found his front parlor looking as if the house had been through a bombardment.

The next morning an investigation of the lawn showed the instrument with which the damage had been done. It was a crudely made bomb manufactured from a two-foot length of iron pipe, about two inches diameter, which had been loaded with powder, closed at both ends with wooden plugs, planted securely in the lawn pointing towards the house and discharged with a fuse. Parts of the fuse still remained, wound around the pipe, and the smell of gun powder indicated the explosive used.

One of Mr. Alward's daughters had been in the habit of sleeping in a hammock on the veranda of the house all summer, but had not done so on that night. If she had she would have been in the line taken by the missile. As it was the case of sufficient importance and seriousness to warrant prompt measures, and Mr. Alward communicated with the attorney-general.

The latter sent a detective to the place to investigate and learn the identity of the perpetrators. It did not take long to discover about a gang of boys, and after some questioning the whole story came out. The boys were now very much frightened by what they had done and were in a repentant mood. They wanted Mr. Alward to come to some settlement, but in view of the circumstances he could not see his way clear to do so.

Accordingly, information was obtained against five boys, who were believed to be the offenders. These boys are Ora Keith, Leonard Alward, James O'Grady, Frank Mullins and James Coates.

The lads were brought before Police Magistrate H. W. Folsom, at Sussex, Monday last, and their preliminary examination began. The witnesses heard was on a bureau. The rest of the family were just arising when they heard sounds of distress coming from Mrs. Till's room. They hurried to her, medical assistance was summoned, and all possible was done to save her life, but without avail.

Mrs. Till had been in poor health for about a year and a half. She was around the house as usual this morning, and while laboring under excitement, drank by mistake, from a bottle of carbolic acid which was on a bureau. The rest of the family were just arising when they heard sounds of distress coming from Mrs. Till's room.

ANOTHER DOG DAY

Names of More Citizens Who Have Not Secured Licenses for Pets

Dog Day in the police court has come but once a year in former years, but this year is to be an exception. A dog day was held in the court a couple of months ago, and several people were fined for not taking out licenses for their canines.

On the subsequent day the violators in the city proper will have to appear and likewise those in the West End. It is declared there are altogether too many unlicensed dogs in the city, and the police are trying hard to have everyone who owns a dog take out a license for it.
