Some Queer Ways of Loving By RUTH CAMERON

THERE are a great many ways of showing affection in this world. And some of them are very queer ways. For instance, there is the person who loves his family very dearly, is very anxious when any of them are not well and shows his anxiety by being cross and touchy.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY Lord Haldane's Elevation to the Woolsack — New British Minister to Central America

Few people are aware of the real reason which led Lord Haldane to be transferred from the secretaryship of state for war to the office of lord high chancellor. It is said that it was brought about by a bitter quarrel between him and Sir Edward Grey, the foreign minister, and that, had Lord Haldane been compelled to give up the secretaryship, the Woolsack, Sir Edward would probably have resigned.

It may be remembered that some months ago Lord Haldane went to Berlin, on what was generally understood to be a mission from the king and cabinet to the Kaiser, in order to confer about ways and means of settling the existing Anglo-German differences, thus relieving the tension between the two powers.

Lord Haldane spent a week in Berlin, and several exhaustive conversations with the Kaiser, Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg, and the foreign minister, Kiderlen-Waechter, in the course of which suggestions were arranged on which England and Germany were to negotiate.

Lord Haldane took this matter as a referendum, promising that within eight days the British cabinet would intimate its view on these proposals to the German government.

A fortnight passed, however, without any answer, whereupon a quiet confidential mission was despatched to the English foreign office from Berlin about the matter.

The reply was altogether amazing—for it was to the effect that neither the secretary of state for foreign affairs, nor yet the British cabinet, could give any expression to their views, since Lord Haldane had been to Berlin without their knowledge, authority or warrant; in one word, that his mission was self-assumed, and that whatever he had done in Berlin had been done in a purely private capacity.

This disclaimer of Lord Haldane is taken to confirm the report that while in Berlin he committed England to opinions that did not meet with the approval of his colleagues. What rendered this action particularly disconcerting, and a disavowal imperative, was the fact that he was secretary of state at the time.

RHEUMATISM AND LUMBAGO

If you have any doubt as to the value of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as a means of regulating the kidneys and thereby curing rheumatism and lumbago, you will find here the proof of what was accomplished in one case. Mr. John Bellard, carpenter, Hamner, Ont., writes: "I was entirely cured of kidney disease and rheumatism by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. For about twelve years I was troubled with the kidneys and suffered a great deal from rheumatism and lumbago. I consulted three different doctors, and, as they failed to cure me, I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, because a friend of mine had been cured by their use. Altogether, I have used ten boxes, and was entirely cured over a year ago. I can recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as the best cure for kidney disease, backache and rheumatism."

ONE-THIRD OF A CENTURY

F. W. Woolworth Co., Ltd. Hold a Great Sale in Their 628 Stores

A Remarkable Business Event in Connection With a Remarkable Commercial Anniversary—The Like Never Before Attempted

In celebration of Thirty-three and one-third years of successful business enterprise, the 628 stores of F. W. Woolworth Co., Limited, situated in all of the principal cities of Canada, Great Britain and the United States, are to hold a record-breaking sale during the week of June 24th to 27th, inclusive. This is to be known as "One-Third of a Century Sale," and during the week this firm proposes to offer to their friends and customers an array of special values in every department that will completely eclipse all previous efforts.

The business of this company was established by F. W. Woolworth in Utica, N. Y., just "one third of a century ago." He began with a few hundred dollars worth of merchandise, starting an exclusive store in the Old Arcade building, the first store of its kind ever opened. His next store was first established at Lancaster, Pa., where the firm of S. H. Knox & Co., F. M. Kirby & Co., C. S. Woolworth & Co., E. P. Charlton & Co., and W. H. Moore & Son were established in the same business.

These firms always maintained a friendly relation to each other, their proprietors being intimate personal friends. It was but natural that eventually the interests of these firms should be merged together, as was done last March, the new firm taking the name of F. W. Woolworth Co., Limited.

During all these years this firm has faithfully followed the original plan of adhering strictly to the popular price of 10 and 15c. During recent years, while the price of nearly all commodities have been constantly advancing, the variety and value of merchandise offered by the Woolworth stores has been constantly increasing. This has been made possible by the enormous purchasing power of this firm. Every new store opened meant increased buying power and this resulted in better values for the public.

Manufacturers who find it necessary to quickly turn their over-production of stock into ready cash, find in this firm with its unlimited purchasing power, an opportunity to dispose of extraordinary quantities of merchandise. This explains some of the values that will be offered during this sale.

You will do well to carefully watch the windows each day to see some of the special values offered during the week of the sale, and in addition to items advertised in the windows, there will be placed on the counters a large variety of other bargains of which no previous announcement will be made.

No such gigantic sale has ever before been attempted by any mercantile organization and it is the purpose of this firm to make this sale fittingly celebrate the auspicious event which it commemorates. They wish to invite their patrons and the public generally to visit their stores during the week of this unusual sale that they may secure some of the exceptional bargains that will be offered.

ENGLISH TEAM POOR

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, June 8—England's chances of bringing back the international polo cup which Harry Payne Whitney and his team won for the United States three years ago and which an English team failed to recapture a year ago, seem to grow slimmer as time flies by.

It probably will be remembered that the Hurlington club, which sent the English team of last year to America, failed to meet expenses and was saved from a serious financial loss by the action of the Duke of Westminster, who came forward and not only paid all the expenses, but undertook to supply the money for the next assault upon American polo supremacy. The duke took over the fourteen ponies which were the property of the polo fund and with them as a nucleus started to collect the finest aggregation of polo horses in the world. All his enormous income was placed at the disposal of such experts as the Miller brothers, famous horse dealers, who some years before secured for Harry Payne Whitney some of his finest animals.

The result has been that the duke is now the owner of almost 100 first class ponies, and so far as animals are concerned, is more than a match for his American rivals. The duke's real troubles are in a different direction. Now that his horses are ready his players are not. The Eaton team, composed of Cecil Nickols, C. D. Miller, Captain R. G. Blason and Lord Rockavase, which it was proposed to send to the United States, has despite its great advantage in ponies, met with some disastrous defeats recently.

Besides being beaten by the Old Canada, a strong combination under the captaincy of W. L. Burkmaster—the best polo player in England today, whom many regard to see absent from any English challenging team—the Eatons were severely thrashed by a scratch organization of Englishmen from the Argentine Club, who have thrown a bombshell into the English polo world this season by playing "ring" around the best local talent that could be pitted against them.

It is realized that there are few polo enthusiasts in England capable of shouldering the financial burdens incident upon an attempt to re-capture the international cup. Therefore, while there is no end of criticism of the duke and of the make-up of his team, there are no offers to relieve him of the burden. It is felt, however, that before Eaton finally decides to cross the Atlantic they should prove their worth against the strongest team of English players that could be selected, mounted upon ponies of at least equal calibre.

WOMEN IN GERMANY.

The National Women's Congress in Berlin this month is said to have been a great success from beginning to end. Women's position and progress in education, in the professions, business and art, in philanthropy and in politics were discussed, and it is reported that the most absorbing feature was the question of woman's legal rights. A writer in one of the leading German magazines says: "They have conquered the universities, the professions and trades; they have gained a high place in offices pertaining to the common weal, and now they are striving with quiet persistence to obtain the franchise." The wife of the Imperial Chancellor entertained the six hundred delegates at the palace.

BEIN' USHER IN A MOTION PICTURE SHOW. There's lots o' things I like to do; go swimming, shoot and camp. And ride a horse, and row a boat, and play football, and tramp. But of all the fun ago more than anything I know, I'd like to be an usher in a motion picture show.

To wear a uniform of blue and walk on up the aisle, And show the people to their seats, and boss the crowd in style. And look around as if I owned the whole damn thing, you know. Gee! I wish I was an usher in a moving picture show.

But best of all about it is to see each photoplay, And never miss a single one, but see them every day. The cowboys riding round like mad, the soldiers, Indiana—oh, I'd give a lot to usher in a motion picture show.

And think of all the things I'd learn; and lots of history. Geography and such—oh, my, the foreign lands I'd see! I'd learn more than I do at school of all such things, I know. All just by bein' usher in a motion picture show.

Fred White, he says, when he's growned up, he'll be a millionaire, And Tom says his ambition is to fill the president's chair. I've got one wish, beside it any other would seem slow— I want to be an usher in a motion picture show.

The Evening Times and Star

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1909.

There was an election yesterday's verdict at the polls was decisive. The Liberals of New Brunswick chose to defeat themselves, and they did it in a manner to satisfy the veriest political glutton in the ranks of the Conservative party.

The schools It was a pretty and an inspiring sight this morning to see the children, many of the little girls in white or pink dresses, trooping through the streets to the closing day exercises.

Perhaps the older folk do not give as much thought as they should to the affairs of that child-world which is a part of the larger world, and it may be because of this parental absorption in other matters that so many children develop tendencies which are not good, and gradually drift into the delinquent class, or at least go out into life without the equipment which might have been theirs.

But we all think of them on closing day, and perhaps wonder what we shall do with them and their abundant energy during the ensuing nine weeks. The public playground will help to solve that problem in the case of those who cannot go to the country or do not take up some kind of work; and the sooner the city is supplied with neighborhood playgrounds in all sections, with vacation teachers in charge, the more quickly a heavy burden will be taken from the shoulders of hard-working parents, and the less tendency there will be for the little ones to acquire bad habits.

A correspondent in yesterday's Times replied to some reflections made by another correspondent upon the course pursued by teachers in the schools in the matter of grading. Another very thoughtful letter on this subject appears in today's issue. It is fair to say that there is no more earnest and conscientious group of workers than the teachers in the schools, and that none receive less recognition from those whose interests they serve to the limit of their ability.

The dignified manner in which the Tory party celebrated a victory shows how deeply it is impressed by its sense of the responsibility that goes with power, and also the fine quality of mind which extends courtesy to an unsuccessful opponent.

Unless the province gets better growing weather very soon, and plenty of it, this will be a year of poor crops in New Brunswick. Oats, potatoes and other crops are very backward for this season of the year.

From yesterday's defeat the Liberal party has learned the lesson of organization. The fact remains that man for man the Liberal candidates were quite as able as those of their opponents, and that they had a policy which if carried out would be of enormous benefit to New Brunswick. The fact also remains that Mr. Copp, in defeat, has nothing with which to reproach himself, for he conducted his campaign with ability and vigor.

Meanwhile all of us will feel something of the spirit of happy freedom which pervades the child-world today, and all of us will wish that the holidays may be fully enjoyed, and the young folk return to their tasks at the end of the summer with bodies strengthened and minds more alert.

When a political party is strongest it has most to fear from influences within itself. A healthy and vigorous opposition is good for the party in power as well as for the country at large. The noisy element of a party, which does not think, would rejoice in a victory which left no opposition; but the cooler heads, and those citizens who know that no party in any country may safely be trusted with unlimited power for a prolonged period, do not regard with satisfaction such a result.

When does an unmarried lady become an old maid? This question is answered in the extraordinarily funny farce comedy, "Green Stockings," the vehicle which has lifted Margaret Anglin to the very highest notch of popularity, and in which, with her entire New York Company, she will be heard here, matinee and evening, July 1, and the following two evenings. There would probably be no exaggeration to state that never have the public been so concerned in any amusement event as the one now in prospect, which promises to be more interesting, socially and otherwise, than any previously held in St. John.

Four of the sweetest words in the English language begin with the letter H, they are Heart, Home, Happiness and Heaven. Heart is a home place, and home is a heart place; home is that virtue which makes us look forward to our only real home, which is beyond the grave. Happiness is found in doing one's duty each day, and by safely guarding one's sense against evil. Heaven is the good to which we are tending and only by a good heart, the blessings of a good home lit up by the hope of the future reward, and doing all in our power to live up to the teachings of the holy faith, shall we reach that only real happiness in Heaven.

THE DIFFERENCE Res: "What's the difference between a bird with only one wing and one with two?" Res:—"I give it up." Res:—"Merely the difference of a pinion."

IF WE HAD THE TIME If I had the time to find a place, And sit me down full face to face With my better self, that stands no show In my daily life that rustles so, It might be then I would see my soul Was tumbling still toward the shining goal.

IN LIGHTER VEIN SOON CORRECTED Arthur was home in his native village for a holiday and he was greatly taken with a neighbor's daughter. His father, who had noted his admiration, remarked, casually, one day: "Have you noticed, my son, how old Joe Thompson's girl has sprung up lately? She's getting into a real pretty girl!"

THIRSTING FOR KNOWLEDGE The youngster had that half-expected expression on his face which denoted he wanted to ask another silly question, and thus add one more to the long list of children's "brain benders." His father saw the expression and "cleared," but was at last cornered.

THE VITAGRAPH IN COVOTE CITY One day we were drinking in Harrigan's place—the Swastika crowd and the rest. You could tell by the look upon everyone's face that the outlook was none of the best.

When a nice little fellow came in through the door, an "I described a salute with his hat. "Amigos!" he said, with a bright, cheery laugh. "All han's up to Harrigan's!"

Now Harrigan's place is the devil's own lair, and the roof has been recently loosened. But the shout that went up from the cat-bunch on mass, exchan with visions of wealth.

"You all knew Bill Hickok," the little man said, "an' how, with a knife an' a gun. He fought with twelve men, an' left eight o' them dead! We'll do Bill tomorrow at it!"

The big fellow (pointin' out Red) will be Bill. We'll get all the scenery right. An' then, after two or three trials for drill, we'll put on the terrible fight!"

So one day it's matters, an' one day it's "Use 'em, turn 'em, an' dim 'em every day. The work is excitin', the salary suits, an' the West is revived, anyway. If someone says "cow'd" down at Harrigan's place, the boys at the bar always laugh.

Applicant—"I have been a letter of recommendation from my minister." Head—"That's very good so far as it goes, but we won't need your services on Sundays. Have you any references from anybody who knows you the other six days of the week?"

BOSTON HEIRS TO MILLIONS

Distribution of Blake Estate, Over Which Many Legal Battles Have Been Fought, is Expected Soon

Boston, June 21.—The final distribution of the great Blake estate, held in chancery by the British crown for thirty-six years, which now amounts to more than $4,000,000 and over which many great legal battles have been fought, will soon take place, a great part of the money falling to some fifty heirs now living in and about Boston.

Thomas H. Mahony, a Boston attorney, represents these fifty heirs who have at last landed in common cause and are prepared to prove their claims to a fortune over which blood has been spilt, duels been fought and attorneys sentenced to prison for presenting bogus claims.

From the beginning the estate has been linked with strange romance. It was in the beginning the property of General Robert Dudley Blake of the famous Irish house of Blake, in the county of Galway.

While a lieutenant in the army and while staying at the Trawley Inn at Castlebar this proud peer fell in love with the niece of the innkeeper, Helen Sheridan.

He eloped with her and was pursued by her father, Michael Sheridan, and her uncle, the innkeeper. They escaped to Scotland.

General Blake's will, made immediately after his marriage, to which a codicil was added just before he died, made no mention of any issue of the marriage. He died before his wife, who passed away in 1776, leaving no will. The heirs, therefore, are amongst her sisters or their heirs.

One of her sisters was Mary Sheridan, whose heirs, many of them, are now living in Massachusetts and have laid their case in the hands of Attorney Mahony. Two years ago the British crown signified its desire to have the rightful heirs proceed against the crown for the fortune.

Since that time the heirs of the general's wife have been preparing the proper evidence. In the years since Mrs. Helen Sheridan Blake died, many bogus claimants have appeared. One attorney was sent to jail and others discredited. Today an important factor will be the birth date of Mary Sheridan, the sister of the general's wife. The page in the birth register in the Irish town where she was born was torn out and much depends on the exact date.

It was proved during some of the legal battles that parish birth registers had been tampered with by bogus claimants, making it difficult for the real heirs to establish their rights.

TO CONTINUE THE WORK FOR TEMPERANCE

At a meeting of the St. John County Temperance Federation last night the result of the election was discussed and it was decided that the federation would still work for prohibition legislation in this province. The following resolutions were adopted:

"This federation upon the evening when the prohibition candidate has secured a temporary reverse, places on record: "First—its confidence in the prohibition candidate, J. W. Keirstead, who has the moral courage to pledge himself to prohibition and ally himself to the temperance forces, conducting in every way a honorable campaign.

"Second—It records also the regret it has that when prohibition is made a straight issue and the liquor party to a man rallies its forces in antagonism, there is found so many voters whom party interests predominate over the principle of the kingdom of God, as evidenced at the polls today.

"Third—it further resolves that this temporary defeat becomes a challenge to more aggressive and determined action, and its plans will be at once made for either a local option or a Canadian Temperance act election.

MARRIED IN NEWCASTLE.
In St. Mary's church in England, at Newcastle, on June 20, a very pretty wedding took place, when Percy W. Lindon and Miss Ruby B. Wright, both of Newcastle, were united in marriage by Rev. W. O. Raymond. A large crowd of friends gathered to witness the ceremony. The bride was nicely attired in a handsome suit of cream serge with white satin and cream lace trimmings. She wore a large black picture hat trimmed with pink roses, and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Tess Quigley acted as flower girl and was dressed in pink silk. After the wedding the bridal party drove to the home of William Quigley, 8 Brindley street, where luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Lindon will leave on Monday for Sydney, and on their return will reside in Newcastle.

A dandelion plant dug at Buckland, Mass., last week had 240 seed stalks and its root was 2 1/4 inches in diameter.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The schooner J. Arthur Lord, Capt. Smith, from St. John for New York, ran ashore last night on East Cove, Vineyard Sound, but sustained no apparent damage, and was floated.

Mrs. Thaw, wife of Harry Thaw, in the proceedings in White Plains, N. Y., yesterday gave evidence that in 1904 her husband asked her to commit suicide with him.

The Nova Scotian Methodist conference yesterday opened in Amherst with a large attendance. Rev. John Anthony Hawksbury, was elected president, and Rev. W. I. Croft of Pugwash, secretary.

Three children were drowned and 1000 tons of coal were lost to navigation yesterday when the government steamer Le Canadienne struck the gate of the locks at Thorold and carried them away.

The steamer was carried into the lower reach where she struck the rock walls and the children—Willie Wallace, Willie Kacka and Leonard Brethrick—all aged five, were swept from the bank and drowned.

Budapest, June 20.—A Hungarian river steamer has been burned off Caravada, on the lower Danube. Twenty-three passengers are missing and it is feared that they are dead. Two of the crew were burned to death while fifty-seven persons were rescued.

Toronto, June 20.—Dr. Battie Nesbitt was today committed for trial on four charges of making false returns of the Farmers' Bank to the government.

Baltimore, June 20.—Former Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, was today elected (by the committee of arrangement) temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention which meets here next week.

Living Conditions in Berlin

(American Contractor.)
Our friends in Germany have been credited with very advanced living conditions, but the extract below shows that even in Berlin there is plenty of room for improvement.

"A meeting recently held in the Reichstag Building, Berlin, to discuss the overcrowding of the tenement population in that city, and Germany in general, revealed surprising conditions by investigators of recognized standing. Of the 3,000,000 inhabitants of so-called Greater Berlin, it was shown that fully 600,000 live in apartments with five or more persons in each room. A very considerable portion of the working families of Berlin, as reported by the investigators, live in a single room.

Many of these, to increase their meagre incomes, let out a portion of the floor space for sleeping accommodation to single men.

"It was also mentioned that 333,000 school children in Greater Berlin have no playgrounds."

FIRST BAND CONCERT.

The City Cornet Band, under the direction of Professor Waddington, gave the first band concert of the season in the King Square last night. There was a great crowd and the concert was much enjoyed. The band played a very excellent programme, including fine Scotch and Irish selections and descriptive pieces. These band concerts will be given every Tuesday and Thursday nights in the future.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mosher of St. Martins observed the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Monday last. In the evening at a gathering in the home of James B. Hodson they were the recipients of a purse of gold and an appropriate address. Speeches were made by J. P. Mosher, Mr. Hodson, Councillor Black, George Mosher, S. G. Osborne and others.

SILVER DEPOSIT IS FOUND

An expert silver miner, lately returned to his home at North Shore, Cape Breton, from the west, is said to be about to undertake the examination of what appears to be a valuable silver deposit in which W. A. McKay of North Sydney, is interested.

The deposit is in Newfoundland not far from tide water. The shipping facilities are excellent and a river capable of yielding 4000 horse-power for electricity for use in the mine milling of the ore and smelting on the ground is available on the property.

The ore occurs in a highly materialized vein which can be traced by its outcrop for some considerable distance along the surface and where opened by these exposures it shows an average workable width of about ten feet. An analysis of some of this ore has yielded twenty-three ounces of silver besides gold, copper and lead.

There are three varieties of the dog that never bark—the Australian dog, the Egyptian shepherd dog and the "lion-headed" dog of Tibet.

BOSTON NEWSPAPER MAN DEAD

Boston, June 21.—John Henry Holmes, aged sixty-nine, who was for many years editor-in-chief of the Boston Herald, is dead at his home in Weyland yesterday, after a protracted illness. During his newspaper publishing career he was one of the most popular and best known men in his line in the country.

He became ill early in the spring, but it was not until recently that it was believed that his illness was of a serious nature.

WHITE NET ONE-PIECE COAT

WOMAN'S STATUS IN CHINA

The Republic of China has astonished the world by not only admitting women to all political rights conferred on Chinese men but by providing for a woman member of parliament as well. For some time past a strong equal suffrage sentiment has existed among the educated women of China, a "feminist" league was organized, and a newspaper published in the interest of women for women. When the revolution broke hundreds of these women declared their intention of fighting and formally organized their own forces, going wherever they were allowed to fight, and were commended for their patriotism.
Many of them saw hard fighting, but others were in Red Cross work and various departments of the revolutionary forces for women. When the revolution ended as well as the men, and went fearlessly to the front.

JOHNSON AND HIS WORDS

IS 83 BUT IS SUED FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

New York, June 21.—At the age of 83 years, former Alderman Samuel R. Myers, of Brooklyn, finds himself the defendant in a breach of promise suit.

Six years ago he took a second wife, but Mrs. Charlotte Frances Law, a widow, who says she is "about 50," declared that ten years ago Myers was engaged to marry her, wrote her more than 300 letters and often renewed his promise to wed her, up to 1906, when he married "another person"—a retired school teacher from Massachusetts.

Mrs. Law wants $30,000 damages for being jilted. The case is being tried in the supreme court.

GRAND TRUNK OPPORTUNITIES

Montreal, June 21.—The practice of designating the several vice-presidents of the Grand Trunk Railway by numbers, will be discontinued.

The following appointments are made to take effect on June 17.—Wm. Wainwright, vice-president; M. M. Reynolds, vice-president in charge of financial and accounting departments; M. Donaldson, vice-president and general manager of line west of Fort William, and in charge of construction, transportation and maintenance departments; J. E. Dairmple, vice-president in charge of traffic.

NEWS OF SUSSEX

Sussex Record.—The inspection of Major R. H. Arnold's and Major G. S. Kinross's squadrons of the Eighth Hussars, was held at Sussex and Collins, respectively, on Saturday last. A full complement of men and horses were offered at both places. The horses were a fine lot, and the Eighth will make a splendid appearance in camp this year.

A number of local shots have been practicing of late on the local rifle range. The coming of the Militia will interfere with work on the range, and the Sussex shots are desirous of getting in as much work as possible before then. There will be a good representation from here at the P. R. A. meet this year, and a number of men will get in as much work as possible on the targets.

A petition is being circulated asking that a half-holiday be granted in all Sussex stores on the Saturdays during July and August. While a number have signed the petition, the larger stores will hardly accept the suggestion for Saturday afternoon. The first proposal was for a half-holiday on Wednesday, and later Friday or Saturday was suggested.

MABEL HITE IS VERY ILL

New York, June 21.—Mabel Hite, an actress, who was operated on for appendicitis, is not likely to recover, according to a statement from her physicians. The statement says that "very little hope is held for her recovery, as peritonitis has set in."

Mrs. Hite is Mrs. Mike Dowlin, wife of the ball player. Her attack of appendicitis was sudden.

Wall Street Notes

New York, June 21.—Americans in London irregular, Union Pacific 1/2 higher. Reading is higher, Steel 1/2 higher. Lehigh Valley for May gross decrease $1,218,864; net decrease $842,303.

Hocking Valley increase in dividend, benefits C. & O. $53,000.

Reported that Southern Pacific is being bought for foreign account on belief that Mexican situation is O. K.

Bullish items on Southern Railways are efforts not much of stock offered.

Some day that Lawson and his bearish following are caught short of Steel and Union.

Government crop reports next month are expected to show bullish conditions as Great Northern and Northern Pacific, and will help St. Paul. Some people call this a Reid advance.

Bonds are moving rather slowly; the investment of the July money may make some change. The activity of the market yesterday is ascribed to various causes, one the elimination of Roosevelt; another, shorts were anxious buyers, and agreed conditions are regarded as favorable, and professional traders bought. Information on the market is rather more optimistic. Naturally a continuance of the bullish tactics of yesterday would look feasible, as the short interest is still large in Union, Steel and Smelters. Copper stocks all look good. At the same time there are some things that might bring about a limited selling movement. Good profits should not be ignored.

TAFI OR A THIRD MAN IS NOW THE OUTLOOK

would please all parties. The platform is a little rotten—it can be made to fit Teddy's bluffs. His bluffs are stepped on from behind in their own states. They are dead and they are having a lot of fun in their dying moments. They have held the fort for Taft with all the tricks they know and some of them they learned from Teddy himself when he was captain of the steam roller. They have yielded points to make Teddy come to a show down. They have said he would be well come to speak at the convention but Teddy has passed two psychological moments without putting in an appearance. They have offered to give him a green out of the forty-two contested delegates whom he claims, but Teddy shuns the offer. The bluffing has been very good but it has caught Teddy sitting in with a bobtail.

ROOSEVELT'S JAW WEAKENS

According to the Roosevelt newspapers the colonel's jaw was set and his strength were bared. His jaw seems to be loosening at the hinge and his teeth are losing their grip. His terrible reputation for Guggenheime has been badly punctured. Why does the Rough Rider stand with reluctant feet when the look and river need? Because he is afraid of getting his feet wet. Why doesn't he rush in where other dark horses like Cummins, Lafford and Root fear to tread? Because the convention is not considering any dark horses that have shown an eagerness to go after it. What the convention wants is a comparatively unmentioned man who will have greatness thrust upon him.

People who have been seen waiting around for the lightning to strike them, gazing up to the sky for Elijah's mantle, are likely to keep their hands over their eyes like that need not apply. The office must seek the man.

The colonel is not sure of his supporters. At most he could draw away from the convention only about 300 delegates—California, Kansas, Maine, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, West Virginia might bolt for principle; Illinois, Massachusetts and Ohio for expediency, but the other progressive states would split. Add to those the 200 steam roller delegates who are hanging around Chicago and the colonel would only have a full sized national convention at that. It does not seem to him to be his own and honor, the newspaper badges that are now being presented at the Columbus it is because he is no Paul Piper of Hamlin to pull everything his way. He will give his cause time to grow and come out as the candidate of a third party at the end of his own say in August.

If he does not hold a convention within the convention it is because the police will not let him. The police are all Roosevelt as brute force is everywhere but the police are under Taft orders and the most they can do for their hats is to pick out the mildest looking men in the crowd and hit them on the head with a club for being disorderly. The Rough Rider is balled up every step he takes. His followers are not all the neck-and-neck sort.

On Wednesday afternoon there was a demonstration in the convention; thirty members of Governor Hadley of Missouri, twenty minutes for Roosevelt. Since that moment Governor Hadley has not thought of his head. Like the other delegates who overtook the jack-rabbit, he feels like saying, "Oh, get out of the way and let somebody else run that car."

On Wednesday night some of the Roosevelt hot-spurs like Francis J. Heney, bolted to the credential and resolution committees. "Come on boys," said Heney to the newspaper men, for no bolt is successful without good reporters, and he made his dash. When the bolters reached the Executive room in the Congress Hotel, Senator Borah, Senator Dixon and other cool advised advisers were very much disgusted. The Roosevelt campaign managers are not like Bill Flinn, who gets red in the face and stammers like a carter of soda when he gets mad, but contributes nothing to the intellectual end of the debate. Rose Flinn has been a great loner. Borah and Dixon and men like that are not in his class, for which Heaven be praised.

There was a stately conference at which the colonel, ambiguous as tin gods always are, uttered words which might mean that he was in the hands of his friends or that they should go and be slain on the field of battle for his sake. Some were cruel enough to hint that what he said was: "You stick to the ship boys, I'll save my life." At any rate Borah and Dixon and Perkins told the delegates to go back and attend to business, which they did tamely enough.

FOR PASSIVE RESISTANCE

On Thursday morning and all day yesterday there were conferences—in fact the conference lasted about once an hour. Out of it all came the doctrine of passive resistance. The Roosevelt delegates would bolt. They would sit at the convention but they would not vote. This is a mighty come-down for the dragon killer who started out with blood in his eye. This paragraph is in no sense a prophecy.

FAIRMOUNT

The Magee Property

The Choicest East St. John Subdivision— which will be Placed on the Market within the next Few Days

From every standpoint, FAIRMOUNT is the most attractive spot in the Courtenay Bay District, offering the same unparalleled advantages to investor and homeseeker. Beautifully situated on the Red Head Road (which is destined early to become the main thoroughfare of this important section of the city), it is but twenty minutes walk from the present car line and five minutes from the corner marking the city limits. Land in this section is already feeling the effect of developments now in progress, and its values will further increase by enormous strides, enhancing its now great attraction as

A Safe, Sane, Profitable Investment

FAIRMOUNT lies just between Tisdale Place and Courtenay Bay Heights. The land slopes gently towards the bay, commanding a magnificent view of the New Harbor, the Great Railway Terminal Station and historic old Fundy Bay. The ground, which is easily workable in every section, is wholly free from low levels and ditches. FAIRMOUNT has been planned along strictly modern lines, and improvements are being carried out at considerable expense. Streets have been broken, temporary sidewalks put down and the lots staked off. The fine, up-to-date buildings already on the property are completed and occupied. Still another advantage is the clear, cool spring water which can be found anywhere in FAIRMOUNT. Negotiations are now in progress between the City and the landowners relative to the City water supply.

The Lots Are of Generous Size and the restrictions are moderate, bringing FAIRMOUNT prominently to the fore as the Choicest Residential Subdivision in this new wing of Saint John.

A Lot in Fairmount may mean the beginning of your fortune—It will assure you of a home.

Today's events may change it. When you think you know what the colonel is going to do next you don't. That's what makes him the colonel.

Meanwhile the hesitation of Teddy shot Thursday's programme all to pieces. Under ordinary circumstances the credential committee would have presented its report and there would have been a certain amount of oratory of the Henry Clay type grafted on the modern yellow newspaper style. Then the resolutions committee would have presented its report, outlining a policy of social and industrial peace, after which the meeting adjourned until four in the afternoon to give the prayer a fair chance. As it was an anxious day, full of tense suspense, the marching clubs went down town again to feed up and get into heated arguments in the hotel lobbies.

Then the marching clubs who have visited the marching clubs with their freak hats and their noisy brass bands, which furnished the only close harmony in this campaign. The marching clubs a glitter with badges like scales on a lizard with porcupine knit button holes coats to stick Teddy buttons in, the marching clubs who take anything home from the convention but a sore head, a sea-breezed taste and a pocket full of hotel toothpicks; the marching clubs who are also the marching clubs, because the Chicago sun is hot, the Chicago wind sticky and the Chicago dirt grays down their noses and sets up the chills in a not quenched; the marching clubs whose mem-

FEARFUL ACT OF CRAZED MOTHER

Mind Unhinged by Death of Another Child, Woman Murders Three Year Old Daughter

Elizabeth, N. J. June 21—Mrs Maude Henry, wife of Chas. Henry, a licensed farm plumber, is held on a charge that she murdered her own child, Mary Louise Henry, three years old. The little girl's body was found in bed, her throat cut from ear to ear. The authorities later came across a blood stained aluminum fruit knife.

According to an alleged confession, Mrs. Henry took the child to the bedroom, crooned her to sleep, tied a handkerchief across her own eyes, covered the child's eyes with one hand, and then cut the little one's throat. Then she pulled out a bureau drawer and left it in such a position as to make it appear that robbery had been committed, and went out on the lawn to sprinkle flowers.

The death of another child had unhinged her mind.

NICE AFFAIR THIS

Ball Ammunition Served Out To Soldiers in Practice in Ontario—A Dangerous Blunder

Kington, Ont., June 21—There was nearly a panic at the Barrfield Camp yesterday when it was found that ball ammunition had been served to the 8th and 9th brigade regiments for tactical exercises. When the men began to fire, bullets whistled through the camp grounds and there was great alarm. Finally the tactics were temporarily stopped and the ammunition was recalled.

The Hon. Sam Hughes was in camp just as the troops were starting their manoeuvres, but left almost immediately, else Canada might have been without a minister of militia had one of the stray bullets come his way.

It is thought that the ammunition might have been issued through the stores by a misreading table, or that volunteers might have used some of their range cartridges. A board of inquiry is looking into the matter. The wonder is that there were not some casualties.

WATER PRESSURE IS MADE BETTER

Effective Work Being Done and More Planned—Another Leak in Conduit

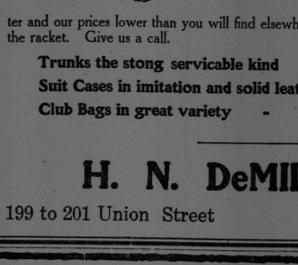

A noticeable improvement in the water pressure throughout the city has been effected by the commissioner of water and sewerage since he took charge of the department. With Mr. Doig in charge of the operations the distribution system throughout the city is being gone over thoroughly, and every stopcock tested. By a rearrangement of the valves in many sections the pressure is being equalized, and in places where it has not been sufficient for the demands, more water has been diverted to the sections needing it.

The work has to be done very carefully, as many of the old pipes will not stand the full pressure, and the improvements have to be gradually until it even how much they will be required. The work is not nearly complete, the pressure has already been greatly improved on some of the larger levels, and many householders are enjoying an adequate supply of water for the first time in several years. This is not only a great convenience to the citizens, but will give much better protection in case of fire. When the work is completed, it is said, the improvement will be still more noticeable.

Another reform which is being hastened is the overhauling of the pumping station at Silver Falls. Two new pumps are to be installed immediately, in order to cope with the situation if the Loch Lomond extension should ever break down or have to be shut off. Employees of the water and sewerage department are also being trained to cope with this emergency, and when the system is in working order, only a short notice would be required to make the changes in the distribution system in the city and at Silver Falls necessary to give the city a service such as that now maintained by the Loch Lomond system, at present if anything should go wrong the higher levels of the city would be left without water.

These precautions are said to be made imperative by the condition of the concrete conduit on the extension system. Leaks have been appearing, and as they have been repaired others have made their appearance. The latest weak spot is a section about 100 feet long, where the top of an arch section has slipped over to one side, making a leak for the entire length. To repair this properly it will probably be necessary to shut off the water, and this cannot be done until the Silver Falls station is in working order.

The small leaks at Ferris have not been repaired yet, as the department has been awaiting permission from the cemetery authorities before opening up the trench.
