Kitchener's Appointment Means Farewell of Slatin Pasha—Hon. John Burns as Authority on Old Masters—Pontius Pilate Born in Scotland?

(Copyright, 1911, by the Brentwood Club.)

Lord Kitchener's appointment as the English lord paramount in Egypt and the Sudan, is destined to mark the disappearance from the Land of the Nile of one of its most picturesque and interesting figures, namely, the Austrian Baron Slatin, Pasha, who holds the honorary rank of major general in the English army, bestowed upon him by the late King Edward, with whom he was a great favorite.

Popular as Slatin is with everyone in so many quarters, he has never been liked by Kitchener, and although the latter has at no time vouchsafed any explanation of his sentiments with regard to Slatin, yet he had never made any concealment of his dislike, which is manifestly tinged with a certain amount of contempt.

Slatin was, at the outbreak of the Mahdi rebellion, governor of the province of Gondokoro, and was in that position when Gordon was appointed by the English government to proceed to Khartoum. Gordon relied much on Slatin's holding Darfur. But Slatin surrendered the capital of the province, and his entire army, to the Mahdi in the early part of 1884, almost without a fight, and from that time forth, until eleven years later, when he effected his escape from Egypt, was, first with the Mahdi, and after his death, with the Khalifa, at Khartoum.

General Gordon's "Journals," even in their edited condition, contain a number of very derogatory references to Slatin, showing that his hero of Khartoum was filled with resentment and contempt towards him. Perhaps it is this that has influenced Kitchener. Possibly, too, he has mind the fact that Slatin became a convert to the Mahdiist form of Islam, renouncing the Christian creed; a fact which did not commend itself to Kitchener as worthy of an officer holding a commission in the reserve force of the Austrian army. Then, too, there has always been a certain amount of question as to the precise role played by Slatin, during the eleven years that he spent at Khartoum, according to some, and by his own account, he was a misused, maltreated captive. According to others, he was the honored and trusted military adviser of the Mahdi, and of the Khalifa.

Possibly Kitchener, who is the safe repository of many a secret, both official and personal, has some definite information on the subject, which he has never seen fit to reveal. True, he employed him in the intelligence department of his expeditionary force, after his escape, and in the operations concluding with the battle of Omdurman, where, according to some, Kitchener found definite proofs of the honesty and trusted military advice given during the eleven years that he lived with the dervishes.

Since then Kitchener has had little or no use for Slatin, and has shown his dislike for the man, in such a fashion as to have earned for him the epithet of "the Egyptian spy" as inspector general of the Sudan, a matter of impossibility. It is now on the point of being dropped, has been followed by Slatin's resignation, and by the announcement that he is to be sent to Egypt to spend the remainder of his days in Austria, the land of his birth.

Degree for John Burns

Birmingham University, in bestowing the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws on the Right Hon. John Burns, M.P., president of that great department of the General Public Hospital about a year ago, and under an operation, but other complications set in and proved fatal. He died last few days, it was apparent, that his end was fast approaching, and death came not unexpectedly.

Mr. Cameron was sixty-nine years of age, and was born in Perthshire, Scotland. He came to the city when quite a young man, and entered into partnership in the dry goods business. He later was a member of the large dry goods firm of Lively, Cameron and Golding. He then went into the millinery business, and has continued in such ever since, starting before the fire. He first did business in Gray street, but for at least a quarter of a century he has been doing business in King street, being one of the oldest business men in that street. He was a man of sterling character and genial disposition, qualities which endeared him to his friends, of whom he had so many. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Frances Quinton, sister of the late James Quinton, and aunt of W. A. Quinton, of Fairville. He leaves no other near relatives. He was a prominent member and past president of St. Andrew's Society, a member of Clan Mackenzie and other organizations. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from his late residence in King street east.

THE CROW, THE FARMER'S FRIEND

If I were to say that the crow is a helpful hand about the farm, many farmers might think I lived in the city, writes William L. Finley in "Success Magazine." Many might prefer to be without such help. The crow has a reputation as black as his coat. He has been charged with causing great injury to the corn crops, stealing fruit, robbing nests of poultry, and eating young birds.

In an interview with the Biological Survey, the real economic status of the crow, the scientists of the Biological Survey examined nearly a thousand stomachs of crows killed in every month of the year and throughout the country. The crow was proven guilty of these charges, but it was also shown that most of the corn that had been eaten was waste corn and the part destroyed while growing was only three per cent. of the total food. The destruction of fruit and eggs was only trivial, while on the other hand the amount of harmful insects and mice eaten rendered the final verdict in favor of the crow. It was proven beyond doubt that he was of more real economic value than harm.

If misery loves company it's up to everybody to get married.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

A MOST charming gift for an exile came to my attention the other day. It is much along the same line. The difference is that this friendship calendar made up of daily quotations or typewritten on little slips, for a Christmas gift. This is much along the same line. The difference is that this friendship calendar made up of daily quotations or typewritten on little slips, for a Christmas gift.

The plan of the little calendar which came to my attention was being gotten up by a jolly young crowd in a country town for one of their number who had been sent away to another climate fight the white plague.

The pad used was about five by eight inches. The date was written at the top. Then the leaves were distributed among the girl's friends—one or two to her more casual friends, and three or four to those who had been nearest to her.

Some of the young people pasted snapshots of themselves the crowd, or family spots on the leaves. Others, who were clever at jingles, wrote nonsense rhymes. The artistic ones did little pencil or water color sketches. Some simply contributed cheery quotations or wrote letters telling the girl how much they loved her and how glad they were to hear from her. SAVED THREE 200-POUNDERS

Ex-Welterweight Towed 646½ Pounds of Woman Ashore—Notice Modestly Directed Mr. Carnegie's Way

The record rescue from the deep for the summer season of 1911 will undoubtedly be ascribed to James J. Judge, better known in earlier days as "Jim" Judge, welterweight, but now retired from the strenuous occupation of training in water polo, says the New York Evening World.

Mr. Judge's rescue, performed at Rockaway Beach in view of scores of water-lickers, bathers Monday afternoon, was weighed Wednesday and tipped the beam in the aggregate at 646½ pounds net. No, dear reader, there were not six bearded maidens included in this total, but five plump damsels of strikingly wavy hair, who were rescued from the sea.

WHICH WAY FOR CANADA?

British Way of Freedom in Trade is Open or American System of Wealth Aggrandizement

(Toronto Globe)

Shall Canada take the approved British way of freedom and give to Canadian farmers the privilege of exchanging their products in the nearest markets and buying and selling as suits them best? Or shall she follow the American way, which means that she must take the American way and make it unnecessarily difficult and expensive for the men who produce wealth by their own labor to get for themselves the honest returns for their toil?

If loyalty to British methods and examples is to be counted in this campaign, it is the men who would prevent Canadian selling where they please and buying what they want who are the real traitors to the British tradition.

It is the great British way to leave all citizens free to trade where and how they please. Britain imports from foreign countries the surplus of the goods she needs, and exports to other countries the surplus of her own goods. This is the British way, and it is the way that has made Britain the greatest power in the world.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

Genuine Merit Required to Win The People's Confidence

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the people did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself as like an endless chain of testimonials. It is recommended by those who have been cured, to those who are in need of it.

In an interview with the prominent local druggist, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows immediate results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfills every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder disease, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

A free trial bottle will be sent by mail, absolutely free. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and mention this paper. Regular size bottles sold at all druggists in Canada—75c and $1.25.

WISER YOUTH

Johnny had been naughty, and his mother told him that he could choose between a whipping and being shut up in the cellar.

"Who will whip me—you or papa?" queried Johnny.

"Your papa was the reply.

"But papa is in the cellar for mine," rejoined the wise youngster.

NICE GIRL

"Dick—There's one thing about Louise, she never repeats stories about her women friends."

"Ethel—Repeats! No, indeed; she starts them."

'Let well enough alone,' says Mr. Borden. But does the census show that it is well enough with the maritime provinces?

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY Are the people of the maritime provinces content to go on seeing the west outstrip them in the race? Are they content to see more and more of their own sons and daughters drifting away to the prairie and the Pacific provinces?

Redemption comes at an opportune time to give a new impulse to the development of natural industries, by opening a wider market. Must the opportunity be ignored because some gentlemen desire to take the places of some other gentlemen on the treasury benches at Ottawa?

A WEAK MANIFESTO The manifesto of Mr. Borden to the people of Canada is a notoriously misleading document. At the outset he says: "It is clear that the late parliament never received any mandate to surrender to the United States the complete fiscal autonomy which Great Britain endowed this Dominion, a consequence which follows from the reciprocity compact."

Mr. Borden further says that reciprocity "shatters the ideal and the hope of reciprocity within the Empire". When was there a prospect of such reciprocity? Sir Wilfrid Laurier says that free trade within the Empire is the ideal system, but the Tory protectionists would never consent.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN WITH A ROUSING RECEPTION

VISIT TO CAMPOBELLO

Hon. Mr. Pugsley and Liberal Candidate at the Field Day and Picnic—Important Public Works Carried on By Government

St. Andrews, N. B., Aug. 15.—Politics was mixed with pleasure today at the annual field day and picnic on Campobello Island, attended by Hon. William Pugsley, minister of public works, F. Todd, who is the Liberal candidate for re-election, and other Liberal workers.

The minister was joined here by Mrs. Pugsley, Mrs. Gilbert Pugsley and J. A. Pugsley, who came from St. John by automobile, and the business over a large party embarked in F. P. Todd's hands some yacht Katherine for Campobello.

On arrival at the island, where the boat races were in progress, the party were met by a band and escorted to the home of H. M. Merriman, manager of the Campobello Corporation. Mr. Todd, who is the Liberal candidate for re-election, was accompanied by Mrs. Todd, who is the Liberal candidate for re-election, and other Liberal workers.

Mr. Todd appeared to be much in demand and received a large number of requests for support from men who have voted Conservative all their lives but who are wide-awake to the advantages of reciprocity as applied to their business, and fully realize that a vote for Todd is a vote for better times.

Mr. Todd is believed to speak at Pomeroy Ridge, twelve miles from St. Stephen, tonight, and it was necessary for the party to leave the grounds early in the afternoon, so that the idea of having speeches was abandoned.

The Katherine made a quick trip from the island and on arriving here the minister left in his motor launch. Before leaving he expressed himself as highly gratified at the hearty reception given him at every point where he landed, and also that he could not fail to be impressed with the prospects for a great Liberal victory in this constituency.

At the public meeting at St. Stephen on Monday evening Hon. Dr. Pugsley stated that he was inclined to believe that the votes received by Mr. Todd for public works and improvements in the three years since he was elected in 1908 were greater than the total expended in the thirty-two years between Confederation and Mr. Todd's election.

Speaking first of the dredging Mr. Todd said it will be of interest not only to Charlotte county but to the whole province to know that arrangements have been completed for a breakwater at Castle and plan to add a block of 200 feet to the North Head breakwater.

"Coming up along the coast you will find a large new wharf at Beaver Harbor, new wharves at Woodlands, and at Travers Cove; a wharf breakwater at Lepreux basin and an appropriation has been made for a wharf at Mill Cove.

"We have aimed always at protecting the lives and property of the fishermen," continued Mr. Todd, "and have constructed an up-to-date life saving station and look-out at Two Islands with all the necessary buildings and equipment. Gannet Rock has been connected with this station by cable.

"We have also placed many buoys and guards for the protection of the fisheries, and hope to do even more of this in the future. My constituents know that I tried to persuade the light-house board of the necessity of a light on Clam Cove Head on the St. Croix, and I will not rest content until this dangerous point is marked out.

"Generally, the county has been favored by the Dominion government grants," concluded Mr. Todd. "The first vote has been made for a public building at St. George and before the next four years roll around I hope to get public buildings in both St. Andrews and St. Stephen."

FLOOD CANADA WITH MONEY TO BEAT RECIPROcity

American Trusts Make up Campaign Fund of Millions to Keep Market Across Border From Dominion People

Montreal, Aug. 15.—A special to the Herald from Washington today says: "Definite information that a final report to the use of a huge campaign fund of $1,000,000 to save the $125,000,000 of the paper trust, a light official of the administration circles here, the paper trust, and the beef trust, are in the field with any sum that may be deemed necessary to buy the Canadian electorate.

"Again, specifically, the lumber trust will spend $1,000,000 to save the $125,000,000 of the paper trust, a light official of the administration circles here, the paper trust, and the beef trust, are in the field with any sum that may be deemed necessary to buy the Canadian electorate.

"The headquarters of the boodle funds will be in New York, not far from the offices of the paper trust, a light official of the paper concern will be in charge of the campaign. And so certain is it that these facts are beyond dispute that an investigation is already under way, intended to trace the money back from the point of its expenditure, in Canada to its sources in New York.

"The Montreal Herald correspondent learned these facts today upon indisputable authority. A plan of campaign has been mapped out, not ingenious only, but astutely planned, and it is a plan of absolute forgery of public utterances, that is, it is concealed behind President's staff's reciprocity plan a purpose, later on to force Canada to become part of the United States.

"Newspapers are to be supplied with 'Special correspondence' from the States to help along the propaganda. A special corps of cartoonists will be engaged, and there will be a literary bureau, from which will emanate the articles, and the press will be so near to the editors of country newspapers. In addition, money will be used to place where it will do the most good.

"These facts are known to administration circles here, and there is good reason to believe that they have been communicated to the officials of the Laurier administration at Ottawa.

"For instance, it can be said that both the president and Speaker Champ Clark have been informed that a boodle fund is being raised. Other officials and congressmen know it, and the boodle fund is being raised in the hotels here.

"And, a most significant fact is that of the great lobbyists who are at work here during the reciprocity fight, not one now remains. They have winged their way to the States, and the boodle fund is being raised in the hotels here.

"In this connection it is interesting to note that the officials of the Laurier administration in Ottawa are being informed that a boodle fund is being raised. Other officials and congressmen know it, and the boodle fund is being raised in the hotels here.

"Dredging is to be done at Welchpool this week and following this the work at Wilcox's Beach and Lord's Cove is to be finished up.

"When asked concerning the wharves, Mr. Todd called attention to the important work at St. Andrews in addition to what the C. P. R. are doing and also mentioned a substantial wharf at Cumming Cove, the appropriations of money to take over the Fairview wharf and to build the Boyde wharf, all on the St. Croix.

"On the islands," said Mr. Todd, "we have built a new breakwater wharf at Seal Cove, Grand Manan, a fine wharf at Leonardville, Deer Island, and the new wharf at Welchpool. We have an appropriation to build a breakwater at Castle and plan to add a block of 200 feet to the North Head breakwater.

"Coming up along the coast you will find a large new wharf at Beaver Harbor, new wharves at Woodlands, and at Travers Cove; a wharf breakwater at Lepreux basin and an appropriation has been made for a wharf at Mill Cove.

ROUSING RECEPTION IS ACCORDED THE PREMIER

Addresses Nearly 8,000 People in Opening Meeting of His Campaign—Reciprocity a Benefit to All The People—Annexation Talk Not Worthy of Contradiction by People of Sense

St. John, Aug. 15.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier opened his campaign here today by addressing a gathering estimated at from 6,000 to 8,000 people, in the town park.

There was no doubt of what Sir Wilfrid had come out to discuss, at the opening meeting of his campaign in St. John. It was reciprocity from the drop of the hat, and it was what the people wanted.

The premier was in the happiest of moods, and when he said that he was in better health than ever, there was a burst of cheering that was as sincere as it was spontaneous. There was not a sound in the crowd, the most perfect attention prevailing, broken only some times by short applause. No time was lost in clearing the way for the speaker.

One of the biggest "hits" which the premier has made in a long day was the climax of his history of the reciprocity negotiations.

"Now the question is for you to answer. Do you want to see the United States put an end to the trade relations being created in Quebec by certain factions?"

SIR WILFRID LAURIER.

city for one or five years, or ten years, and we do well, but the United States should then desire to terminate the agreement. Are we to believe that the manhood of Canada would clamor for annexation? No. If they desire to do this, I know the manhood of Canada would go, let them go their way and we will go ours.

"I know a great deal has been made from some utterances on the floor of the American senate and house of representatives. Some men in the United States undoubtedly desire annexation, but there are men in Canada who do not want annexation. (Cheers.)

"I was today addressing a meeting on the south side of the lake. I would tell my audience: 'We want trade with you, but if that trade involves the loss of our manhood and independence, I say we will have none of it. Remember your own history. When the convention met at Philadelphia, and passed the declaration of independence in 1776, they did it in honor of the memory of the British government at that time. Today, however, we have nothing but thankfulness for the British government. Today we are a free nation.

"The talk of annexation is beneath contempt and beneath the attention of a thinking people. It is funny to learn that the Conservatives are so zealous for preferential trade with Great Britain, and that they are so zealous for the enlargement of preferential trade with England. The Conservative party took the stand in the matter of the declaration of independence in 1776, and they are now in the same position. They are now in the same position. They are now in the same position.

"I say more, there is still another reason. If the American people did take objection to our giving a preference to Great Britain, we would say 'Very well, then, take your course.'

"Remember this is not a treaty. It is only an agreement and it can be abrogated at any time. There is another consideration. If the Democrats come into power and there is a rebellion of tariff, it will be given to the United States. We would meet there the competition of all the world. Under the present agreement the preference is given to Canada alone. Which is the better for Canada?

"You have been told, with walls and banners, that in giving this government to the States we have opened our doors to the world. What does such a statement mean? They say it is because of some old treaties entered into by Great Britain in barbarous days of favored-nation privilege. There is no country to which we will be compelled by this agreement to apply the same tariff terms as to the United States.

"There is first of all, Bolivia. I don't think the name Bolivia will strike terror in your breasts. If there is a man here who knows anything about Bolivia let him raise his hand. No one knows anything about Bolivia? We have never sold anything to Bolivia and have we ever bought a thing from Bolivia?

"Then there is Argentina. But what did we buy from Argentina? We bought nothing mentioned in this agreement. Well, you see that the competition we have from me and the policies we have announced is ridiculous to say that we need to fear them at all.

"I feel then that, however, I took into consideration. At the imperial conference I pointed out that these old treaties might some day be an obstacle to future trade for Canada and I moved a resolution which was passed unanimously, and at any time we are in a position to terminate any one of these nations, his majesty's government stands ready to enter into negotiations to render assistance.

"The agreement I have announced is a feeling of hostility between the States and Great Britain. There was a talk of Yankee treachery on the one hand and British arrogance on the other. But thank heaven such expressions are no longer heard. We have seen the dawn of a new era. Our better angels on both sides of the line have led us into better ways. We have learned in real earnest that blood is thicker than water.

"This agreement I offer you today is an advance towards that higher civilization which at one time was considered impracticable but which we see now is coming closer every day.

RUSSELL COUNTY LIBERALS CHOOSE HON. CHAS. MURPHY

Political News Notes — Sussex Liberals Organize for the Campaign—Borden Has Little New in His Opening Speech

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—Hon. Charles Murphy, secretary of state, was again tendered the unanimous nomination of the Liberals of Russell county at the party convention held at Vars this afternoon.

Sussex, Aug. 15.—The Liberal committee rooms here were visited tonight by Senator King, Major O. W. Wetmore, F. E. S. and Dr. King. There was a large attendance and the speeches were heard with great interest. George Horlock also spoke briefly.

Senator King discussed the benefits of reciprocity and Major Wetmore gave details to the number of the rank of the Liberals on account of reciprocity. He declared that he had been approached by Conservative leaders with the view of getting him to change his political faith. He saw no reason why he should do so, and he would therefore give all the support in his power to Dr. McAllister.

London, Ont., Aug. 15.—R. J. Borden began in earnest last night his uphill fight to convince the people of Canada that reciprocity means the severing of the imperial tie, the commercial and political absorption of the dominion and—but not incidentally to convince a skeptical people that their crying need is a Tory regime at Ottawa.

Little time was lost in preliminaries. William Gray, Major Beattie and Hon. Adam Beck spoke briefly. Mr. Borden broke little new ground, his address being largely a continuation of his western speeches and his recent manifesto.

Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 15.—F. B. Carvell is meeting with roasting receptions through Carleton county, his meetings during the last week were largely attended. Many Conservatives are ranging themselves on the side of the government because of the reciprocity pact. A particularly fine meeting was held at Peal with Dr. Ross, president of the Peel Lumber Co., in the chair. Rev. J. H. Puddington was a speaker. On Saturday a large meeting was addressed by George Upham, M. P., and Mr. Carvell. The latter was a speaker. On Saturday a large meeting was addressed by George Upham, M. P., and Mr. Carvell. W. C. MILLNER STATES THE FACTS. In a letter to the Halifax Chronicle in December, 1910, before the reciprocity proposals were made, Mr. W. C. Millner admitted to be all right but some of the hay are rotting in the barns. One market is too small and the removal of the duty on hay would result in a loss of dollars in the pockets of the farmer's country.

It is stated, said Mr. Fawcett, that hay does not rot in Boston even as it does in the States. The duty on hay is not so high as it is in the States. He had sent two cars of Tantrania to the American market. The quality admitted to be all right but some of the hay are rotting in the barns. HERE'S WHAT THEY SAY

Means Extended Business—Bigger Wages Outlay for—Sackville Farmer Sees Market for His Hay at Advanced Price

At the Liberal convention in Montreal last week, says the Sackville Tribune, Liam B. Fawcett of Sackville, moved a resolution in favor of reciprocity, said being a farmer, he looked at reciprocity from a farmer's standpoint. He said that the farmer was a little bit of a man, but he was a man of sense. He was a man of sense. He was a man of sense.

Up to three months ago Mr. Fawcett said that he did not think that there was an election to decide the matter of the manufacturing and financial interests. He was a man of sense. He was a man of sense. He was a man of sense.

Since the United States has a free access of our natural products to its markets, the speaker thought that it would be nothing short of a public duty if the offer were accepted. He was a man of sense. He was a man of sense. He was a man of sense.

What makes money a little tight? Mr. Fawcett. It is because at present eastern Westmoerland thousands of dollars of hay are rotting in the barns. One market is too small and the removal of the duty on hay would result in a loss of dollars in the pockets of the farmer's country.

The Annexation Bogey

"How can this policy lead us to annexation? Let us discuss this matter calmly and with common sense. How could such an annexation be brought about? Either by force of arms or by persuasion. But no one ever heard of the United States trying to conquer Canada.

"That is the question. Shall we be seduced or not? Now I tell you as plain as I can. If he will answer for the Tories, I will answer for the Grits. (Cheers.) You have heard about this annexation bogey. If the farmers are to be benefited, the rest of the country will benefit. For we all know that agriculture is the basis of prosperity. Suppose we have reciprocity.

THE ANNEXATION BOGEY

When, however, annexation is thrust forward with the kind of holy horror as the natural and necessary consequence of reciprocity, we fully agree with Sir Wilfrid Laurier in saying that it is difficult to treat such a train of reasoning with anything like respect. Reciprocity is simply and briefly an endeavor—by removing or reducing certain custom duties—to increase the trade between the two contracting parties for the benefit of both. It is purely a commercial question, and has nothing whatever to do with altering or upsetting the constitution or government of either country, so that to bring forward annexation in connection with it is not only preposterous but absolutely cowardly, for it is as though we thought so little of our country as to suppose our neighbor has merely to hold up his finger, and we must fall on our knees and do his bidding. Is this our inheritance of manhood?—Montreal Witness.

REV. J. J. McCASKILL GIVES VIEWS ON RECIPROcity

When asked by The Telegraph for his views on the campaign Rev. J. J. McCaskill replied as follows: "I consider the reciprocity issue far above all other questions of the first importance to the maritime provinces especially. I have decided to speak in favor through the province during this campaign. It would mean a new era of prosperity to all our industries. Hundreds of thousands who now earn a living because they have access only to uncertain, limited and distant markets will, under the advantages of reciprocity, experience a new prosperity.

"The young people have gone to the States and they will return to the homes and our deserted farms and hamlets will thrive with new life. This is a related measure of justice to the farmers and toilers who in the past have taxed themselves so freely for the benefit of special interests. Increased prosperity will enable them to continue to the manufacture without feeling the burden so grievously. It will remove many of the disabilities which the lower provinces have inherited since Confederation and in this manner will prove of inestimable advantage to the whole of Canada."

Give the farmers, the lumber men and fishermen their due. Whatever makes them prosper helps the cities, towns and villages.

Shubert, of the famous firm of managers, had his stage director were in Toronto to see the first performance of any stage of a comedy adapted from the German, named Modern Marriage, which was presented by the favorite artist, Percy Haswell and her latest company at the Royal Alexandra.

It is debatable whether the joke in the production of a romantic play was then rehearsing with her company. "The secretary sat him down with a trinket in his usually solemn eyes, and when Miss Haswell received his note she found it contained a message granting the favor. The condition was that since the armor was of such great age and such inestimable value to the club, he must ask her to 'observe' the greatest caution in its transportation."

"Miss Haswell sent a property man, an electrician and a sleuth engaged from the local detective agency to convey the precious relic to her presence. "The man were gone for two hours. When they arrived the armor was in rusty circular sections. The plume was a tuff of quills from a feather duster. The shining helmet had taken on the semblance of a sugar cone. A few strands of hair and a few shreds of paper were scattered about when the club took possession of them and fashioned it into the semblance of ancient armor."

When the season closed this year, Mr. Hackett says that Mr. Brady refused to pay him any share of the profits.

Under the terms of the contract, which was made in 1907, Mr. Hackett says he was to be started by Mr. Brady for five years for the first two years he was to receive a salary of $500 a week and one-third of the profits. During the last three years he was to receive the same salary but was to get one-half the profits. The season was to be from September 1 to May 1, and Mr. Brady guaranteed it is alleged, that Mr. Hackett's share of the profits would never be less than $100 a year.

SAM LANGFORD EASILY THE MASTER OF O'BRIEN

SAM LANGFORD

New York, Aug. 16.—(Special)—Sam Langford, the Nova Scotian negro, with an advantage of about ten pounds in weight, fought Philadelphia Jack O'Brien to a standstill in four and one-half rounds last night at the Twentieth Century Club. Referee Charlie White prevented a knockout, when he stepped in between the men in the middle of the fifth round and stopped the bout. O'Brien was practically out from the effects of a hard left hook on the jaw and had to be helped to his corner.

It was the old story of a clever, game boxer pitted against a hard hitting fighter, and from the start the Nova Scotian was weight had O'Brien's measure taken.

Langford's blows were of the sledge hammer order, while some of O'Brien's swings and hooks had sufficient steam behind them to bother the colored man. The pace was fast from the beginning, and O'Brien showed clever foot work as he dodged the blows.

At the end of the second round, O'Brien was bleeding from nose and mouth, and was cautioned frequently for holding Langford out O'Brien twice to the floor in the third round. O'Brien taking a second on the second fall, O'Brien was weak but managed to stall along until the bell gave him a respite.

There was no question as to O'Brien's progress, as he took a lot of punishment in the fourth and was fighting hard in the fifth until Langford landed the stunning blow.

First local presentation of "Baby Mine," Margaret Mayo's "extremely funny" play at the Opera House soon. "Baby Mine" is now in its second year at the Vaudeville Theatre, London, where seats are selling four months in advance and the production is a smash success.

Jack Morrissey is making a big hit with Gem patrons in his rendering of popular songs today. He has a jolly sunny humor and "Mime, All Mine. The orchestra has some new pieces also. In the picture program the leading feature is a middle dramatic production by the Selks of "The Tale of the Eskimo," a story of a frozen northern land, where a man and a woman, the quaint customs of the settlers of that territory, and of added interest through the adventures of a white hunter and his Eskimo guide.

"The Fiddler's Requiem" is a tender heart-warming story of old times, presented by the Kalam Co. showing the power of music over the mind to whom the strains of his violin narrate a pleasing but sad tale.

A glance at the amusement column will show that the Unique Theatre has an excellent array of features for the mid-week. "Love is Best," "The Tale of the Eskimo" and "The Fiddler's Requiem" are the human qualities which the lay people are apt in picturing. In some story or accepting a chance to see for her living in New York, and in some time of success losing her, and after suffering a week's hard work returning home.

"Greater Love Has None" is a story of an unrequited love and devotion, with the heroine, "Nicodemus," a hand-colored and costumed in keeping with the times. Miss Gertrude Mann's number, "Janes Dear," is an excellent feature. Her offering for tomorrow will be the hit, "Put Your Loving Arms Around Me."

In introducing Till's Marionettes to the public, the management is confident that they would prove a most pleasing diversion, and scarce plenty of enjoyment to those who attend. The fact that this act has scored one of the biggest hits of any variety act presented at the popular theatre for some time justified the announcement. The eccentric troupe of mannikin comedians were the principal feature at Coney Island last season and a big treat will be missed if lovers of amusement do not see them. P. R. A. MEET ON THE RANGE AT SUSSEX

Weather Conditions Make The Scoring Below The Average—The Result in Yesterday's Matches

Sussex, N. B., Aug. 15.—Weather conditions were again bad on the range this afternoon for the P. R. A. meet and the scores were not up to the average. The wind was very tricky and kept the best men on the range guessing. In the provincial shoot in the morning results were posted this afternoon and winners proved to be J. B. Powers, Grand Falls, who won with the low score of 83. The match was at 500 and 400 yards. The scores were:

MORNING LOCALS C. Stewart Everett, provincial manager of the North American Life Assurance Company for New Brunswick for years, has been promoted to the position of superintendent of agencies and W. F. Godard, who has been connected with the Great West Life, will succeed Mr. Everett. The maritime convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Fredericton commencing Aug. 29. Mrs. R. Morison Smith and Mrs. David Hipwell will be the delegates from St. John, and Mrs. Thomas Bullock, Mrs. Joseph Seymour and Mrs. C. H. Dearborn, officers of the local division, will also attend the sessions. The Petville fire department were called out about 10:15 last night for a fire in a refuse heap on the pipe line at Spruce Lake. While Robert Myles was digging a trench in Fairville yesterday afternoon, it caved in. He was caught by the legs and it took some time to extricate him. On the Westmorland Road about 10:30 last night, James Smith, while driving to the city, collided with a train containing two men. Mr. Smith was thrown violently to the ground and the other two badly hurt, one being taken to the General Public Hospital unconscious. A large number enjoyed an excellent band concert by the Carleton Cornet Band in King Square last evening. Bandmaster Hayes was complimented on his musician's playing. Foreclosure proceedings in the matter of the Royal Trust Co. vs. the Miramichi Lumber Co. were commenced before Chief Justice Barker in the chancery court here yesterday afternoon. The defendants' counsel agreed to foreclosure, and a decree was made accordingly. F. R. Taylor was for the plaintiff, and M. G. Reed for the liquidators. Hammond Corey was hurt yesterday afternoon at a large number of his fingers coming in contact with a saw. Dr. Pratt attended him. There was a rumor yesterday that Wm. Carswell, formerly manager of the St. John Postage Co., and now of Vancouver, had been killed there. The report could not be verified. The machinists held a largely attended meeting last night. Routine business was transacted. One of the city horses ran away in St. Patrick street yesterday, throwing the driver, Wm. McKinley. The man was slightly hurt. Many a man starves today while reading on the hopes of tomorrow.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN: WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

THE OPERA HOUSE. It takes a wise manager as well as a good play to meet the exacting requirements of the theatre-going people of today. Arthur C. Astion has been recognized as one of the most successful managers and producers, and he attributes his success to his ability to grasp what the people want in the way of plays, and how they can be best presented. Among the most prominent of his attractions now making its twelfth annual year, is the beautiful romantic drama, "At the Old Cross Roads," a story of the south, dealing with a theme that has appealed to the masses, played in five acts and interpreted by carefully selected and trained players, unique as well as true-life characters. Mr. Astion has equipped the attraction with all new scenery and effects for a season and has secured in addition a troupe of real Southern plantation negroes who will amuse and entertain with a varied programme of the old time songs, dances and musical novelties.

This play will be the attraction at the Opera House commencing Thursday night and the sale of seats is now on. At noon each day there will be a street parade. Wm. A. Brady, Ltd., announces the

TIME FOR ACTION IN ELLEN HAYES' CASE

Physician Declares Her Mentally Unsound — Crown Authorities Responsible for Keeping Her in Jail

It appears that the crown authorities are responsible for keeping Mary Ellen Hayes, whose case is being tried by the Times yesterday, in the common jail. Last evening the commissioners of the Municipal House sent the physician, Dr. Christie, to examine her. He reported that her mind was unbalanced and that she should be in the psychiatric hospital. Enquiry at police headquarters brought the information that the girl was in the hands of the crown officers and until they took action she must be kept where she is. The attorney-general will be appealed to.

Victorian's Staff Submit to Orders and Regret Incident of Friday Last

Montreal, Aug. 16.—(Canadian Press)—A scene unique in the varied incidents which mark the daily work of the police courts, was witnessed yesterday afternoon, when the fifty-seven stewards of the steamship Victorian filed before Captain Edward Outram, commodore of the Allan Line fleet saluting him and thereby acknowledging their regret for the occurrence of Friday last, together with their submission to future orders. HERRING SUPPLY AT EASTPORT IS GOOD

Eastport, Me., Aug. 16.—Never before in the history of the herring business in Eastport have the little fishes been so plentiful as at the present time, thousands of hogheads having been received at the factories here and in Lubec during the last week and all indications point to an unlimited supply. On Saturday so many fish were received that many hogheads were taken to the fertilizer plant, the factories not being able to properly take care of them over Sunday.

CAMPBELLTON BOOM IN BUILDING CONTINUES

(Campbellton Graphic) The building inspector's report for July shows that the building boom is still holding out, and that we can congratulate ourselves that there is no danger of Campbellton dropping back. We are going forward and our rate of progress is being well maintained. During July thirty-three building permits were issued, the total value being $122,000. Of these buildings twenty-six are wood and seven either brick or concrete.

VAIN SEARCH OF ROCKWOOD PARK IS MADE

Mounted Policeman Attacked and Cut With Knife Last Night—Assailant's Coat and Vest Found But he Gets Away

While doing duty in Rockwood Park about 9 o'clock last night Mounted Policeman McLeod was attacked by a man carrying a large sheath knife and received several minor cuts about the legs. The assailant wore no coat, vest or hat and had his sleeves rolled up. As the policeman was riding along one of the dark roads the man sprang out of the woods and made several slashes at him. One of his leather leggings was cut and he received a cut about two inches long in the right leg. The horse took fright and started prancing and before McLeod could do anything the man ran back into the woods.

Word was sent to the central police station and Policemen Sullivan and Marshall went out to the park. They searched the woods in the vicinity but could not find any trace of the man. They found, however, a blue serge coat and vest with Scovill Bros' trade mark on them and a black Derby hat which had apparently been purchased at the store of J. B. Bardsley in Union street. The coat and vest were soaking wet.

A small piece of paper was found in the pocket of the coat with the words "I have got something to eat." Outside of this there was no clue to the identity of the owner.

The policemen stayed in the park till 6 o'clock this morning but were unsuccessful in their search. Policeman McLeod will go to the park again this afternoon to seek him.

Prior to last night the police had received reports that a man frequenting the park lately was acting in a strange manner. On one or two occasions he was seen running about scantily dressed.

ST. JOHN GIRL AT HOME ON DECK OF FATHER'S SCHOONER

Miss Hazel Phipps of Main Street is Quoted By Baltimore Newspaper on Joys of Life at Sea

It will be of interest to friends in St. John to know that Miss Hazel Phipps, of Main street, North End, is in Baltimore, Md., with her father, James W. Phipps, captain of the schooner "Rothesay." While in that city recently she chatted entertainingly to a newspaper man about her experiences on the seas, saying she was perfectly at home on her father's vessel, and "just loved to promenade on the deck during a storm. Girls who stay home do not know what they are missing," said Miss Phipps. "I clothe myself in a long sea coat, and a big nor'wester cap, and don't mind the weather a bit. I relieve father on the quarter-deck, and it is just simply great to be in command of the big ship. I feel like a full-fledged captain when I shout orders through the megaphone to the men. I can sail her free in a running breeze or reef her down in a squall. On our last visit to St. Thomas I was invited to a banquet aboard a Danish training ship and had several dances with a Danish prince. It was one of the most enjoyable evenings of my life."

Miss Phipps is an Acadia graduate of 10 and well known in St. John, particularly in North End. She joined her father last January in New York.

DR. DANIEL'S REGIRA (Fredericton Mail) Dr. Daniel, who comprised about seventy-five per cent. of the New Brunswick Tory contingent in the last parliament, will not oppose Hon. Mr. Popley in St. John City, but will seek election in the city and county. "He who fights and runs away will live to fight another day" is a good old adage. Dr. Daniel has run away without fighting.
