Miramichi Advance.

CHATHAM, NOVEMBER 2, 1882. A Cherry Night-Year-Older. With the present number the ADVANCE closes its eighth year. Although its first few years of existence were marked by some discouragements, a fair degree of prosperity has since attended it and we have the satisfaction of knowing that the paper is now fully established as a commercial enterprise. In 1874 the town of Chatham, with nearly five thousand inhabitants, was without a paper, the Gleaner, which had been for some time, edited by Mr. Tracy, having ceased to exist. The ADVANCE being established and failing to please a number of gentlemen who are rather peculiar in their ideas of what a newspaper should be, the Herald was called into existence. It lingered for a while, but lacking sufficient support, soon went to join the innumerable train of unsuccessful and defunct journals. For a while the ADVANCE had the local field to itself, but in a weak moment a few citizens, chiefly of Newcastle, encouraged the transfer of the late Star from Fredericton to Chatham. Although that paper came with a great flourish of trumpets and promised to do much which the ADVANCE would like to see performed, it brought only disappointment and loss to those who were interested in it, and like the Herald, ceased to exist before any announcement of its publishers' intentions to retire from the field were made. The experience of the public with these papers was calculated to damage journalism on the Miramichi, for the people naturally formed their notions of newspapers from what they knew of them, personally, and it is a matter of regret that those who encouraged Mr. Tracy and Mr. Collins to start papers in opposition to the ADVANCE did not more fully realize their obligations to the public in the premises. Of course they were not good judges of the requirements and qualifications necessary for a successful editor, but having encouraged and endorsed the persons named as they did, those citizens were morally bound to see that when the Herald and Star could no longer live, the editors should not be forced to run away from their creditors. It has been against newspaper ventures of the Herald and Star kind that the ADVANCE has had to make its way to a sound business standing, and our business people, who know what it is to compete with rivals who never stop to pay their bills, can sympathize with us in the struggle we have had. Some of our Newcastle opponents have succeeded in inducing others to join them in founding a new journal, partly on the ruins of the Star, but as it was, evidently started "for spite" we cannot wonder that it has met with very little more encouragement than its predecessor. We would not refer to the World, but for the fact that after we welcomed it to the Miramichi, in the expectation that it would not do discredit to the place, it fell almost at once into the ways of the Star and forfeited the respect we should like to entertain for every newspaper published. The three papers we have mentioned, then, and the ADVANCE have been candidates for popular favor during the past eight years. Those three papers and the Advocate have been rivals—and rivals who did not stick at trifles in manifesting their rivalry—against those efforts we have attained our present position, and we would not, to-day, change places with them if they could all be combined. We have endeavored to do no discredit to the Miramichi, to reflect the best sentiments of its people, to promote its business interests, to assist in clearing the way for whatever might benefit town or country and keep them abreast of the times. In taking part in this work, we have been encouraged by a host of friends with whom we have acted all along, in the hope of uniting the intelligence, the moral and business forces and the more tangible elements of general well-being, in order to secure for the Miramichi and its people the position they should occupy in the estimation of other portions of the country, and that the claims of Northumberland upon those who may be called upon to rule in both our local and federal politics, might receive more just recognition than they have done in the past. Our efforts in this direction have frequently been misinterpreted and misrepresented by those who imagine their interest lies in keeping the Miramichi divided against itself and one of the most unpleasant duties we have performed has been the exposure of the acts and motives of the few men among us who have lived so long in and by party strife that they seem incapable of recognizing that there is a more excellent way of promoting their own and the community's welfare. Taking, however, the bitter and sweet together—our discouragements and successes—we have reason to be thankful that we have passed through the most trying and damaging of the elements that could be opposed to our success and either removed them or left them so far behind that their faint echoes are but reminders of the victories we have achieved. The ADVANCE has reached a period in its history when it can afford to be magnanimous in its treatment of those who have endeavored to destroy it. There are those in high places whose throats to exterminate us are of quite recent date, but if they have not grown ashamed of such silly and uncharitable utterances, we can only pity them with a sincerity that disarms resentment. Those who wish to have had occasion to differ and who have pushed matters to extremes have, we hope, learned that while we may reluctantly give hard hits we are not given to whining over such returns of the same sort as they have been able to make. At any rate, we shall start our new and ninth volume next week with more to encourage us than we ever before experienced on the similar occasion, feeling that we have fewer enemies and more friends than ever and that we are better than ever prepared to render to each according as they may deserve at our hands.

THANKSGIVING.—Thursday, 9th inst., is proclaimed as a day of Thanksgiving by the Governor-General and the Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick. In reply to Sir Robert Buxton (Conservative), he said the Sudan and Upper Egypt had been recently disturbed, but the newspaper reports were exaggerated. He also stated that Great Britain had not been concerned in regard to the appointment of Baker Pasha, but the government would respect its appointment. Mr. Gladstone, moving a vote of thanks to the commander, officers and men of the British army in Egypt, said he would not ask the House to commit itself to the Government's policy. Mr. Gladstone said the Indian contingent was most worthy of the honours conferred on it. It would be the duty of the Government to propose suitable honours for Admiral Seymour and General Wolseley, who, he believed, had been severely wounded. He also mentioned the names of other officers and men who had distinguished themselves. The motion was carried by a vote of 354 to 17. The Parliamentary Secretary, Mr. St. John, moved to amend the vote of thanks by omitting the words "Indian contingent" and inserting "British army in Egypt." The amendment was rejected by a vote of 225 to 25, and the vote of thanks was then agreed to.

THE DEBATE ON THE CLOSURE QUESTION, adjourned to the 11th inst., was resumed. The House, by a vote of 202 to 114, rejected Sir Henry D. Wolf's amendment, excluding the chairman, when the House in committee, from the power which the rule proposes to confer on the speaker. In the House of Lords, Lord Granville, Foreign Secretary, moved a vote of thanks to the British army in Egypt similar to that moved by Mr. Gladstone in the House of Commons. Lord Salisbury seconded the motion, and it was carried with a division. The Duke of Cambridge, on behalf of the army, acknowledged the vote, and in flattering terms, thanked Lord Granville and Lord Salisbury for proposing and supporting it. The House then adjourned until Nov. 10th.

MR. H. McCAW, Custom House Toronto, writes: "My wife was troubled with Dyspepsia and Rheumatism for a long time; she tried many different medicines, but did not get any relief until she used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. She has taken two bottles of it, and now finds herself in better health than she has been for years."

General News and Notes. The advance in the price of iron in England has caused the leading dealers in the House of Lords. Lord Granville, Foreign Secretary, moved a vote of thanks to the British army in Egypt similar to that moved by Mr. Gladstone in the House of Commons. Lord Salisbury seconded the motion, and it was carried with a division. The Duke of Cambridge, on behalf of the army, acknowledged the vote, and in flattering terms, thanked Lord Granville and Lord Salisbury for proposing and supporting it. The House then adjourned until Nov. 10th.

WOLESELEY REACHED DOVER AND LONDON on Saturday and was enthusiastically welcomed in both places. In London, an immense multitude awaited his arrival, and he was met by a large number of the British public. He proceeded to Balmoral to pay his respects to the Queen. For some time to come he will be a lion of the first order.

THE NEW YORK TIMES has inquired Mr. Langtry was to have made his first appearance in America, but on Monday, a couple of hours before the hour at which the performance was to begin, the police were ordered to effect a strict point, and this accident will be made a part of the sensationalism of the advertisement, and will help to still further advertise it.

IT IS REPORTED THAT A BANK CASHIER recently applied for a two months' leave of absence, which was granted him. A short time after he returned, and the directors were amazed by the singular correctness of his balance sheet. An expert was at once employed, who made a careful examination of his books, and discovered everything to be all right. This is a remarkable case, and nearly caused a run on the bank.

THE DRY GOODS CLERKS OF TORONTO have formed a mutual benefit association. Several gentlemen in addition to becoming patrons have given liberal donations to the fund. John MacDonald & Co. have donated $200. One clause of the by-laws is to the effect that any member whose illness may be the result of intemperance or immorality will not be permitted to derive any benefits from the association. It is their intention in time to establish a "savings bank" in which the members may spend a spare hour.

MR. SMITHERS, President of the Bank of Montreal, was waited upon to-day by our reporter in regard to the half-yearly dividend of 5 per cent. declared yesterday, which, though equally as large as the last dividend, was a little disappointing to some parties, who for some reason expected more. "It is just as large as last year," said Mr. Smithers. "If anyone expected more, we cannot help it; we never said anything to lead anyone to the belief that it would be more."

"AS THE PROFIT ACCRING FROM THE C. P. R. bonds included in this dividend?" "I do not know that that is any concern of the public. I may say, however, that they were not included in it."

"ARE THE FIGURES PUBLISHED IN A contemporary (the Witness) as an unofficial statement about correct?" "They are not correct. I wonder what is gained in publishing such garbled and misleading statements."

"IN REGARD TO YOUR STATEMENTS LAST June as to the enormous discount of bank bills and the dangerous influence on trade, do you still hold the same opinion?" "I do, and even more so. I would not only say the same now, but would make it much stronger. The total of loans advanced by banks is swelling still higher and our imports are heavier than ever and still more overbalancing exports.—Montreal Star.

AMOS HUGHES, Toronto, writes: "I have been a sufferer from Dyspepsia for the past six years. All the remedies I tried proved useless, until Northrop's Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspepsia Cure was brought under my notice. I have used two bottles with the best results, and can with confidence recommend it to those afflicted in like manner."

EGYPTIAN MATTERS. A Cairo despatch of 24th ult. contains the sensational statement from Khartoum that the False Prophet, at the head of the whole aboriginal population of the Sudan, reinforced by cannibal tribes of Central Africa, recently defeated Abd-el-Kader and Gheglar, Egyptian Governors, in seven sanguinary pitched battles. The Egyptian loss in killed and wounded was 8,000, with a stand of arms, including 5,000 Remingtons. The remainder of the Egyptian army took refuge in Khartoum, and was being besieged there. All the provinces south of that city are lost to Egypt, and Khartoum is in danger of being captured. The prophet permits the pouring of boiling oil into the eyes and ears of captives, and otherwise treats the prisoners with the most barbarous cruelty. His man-catchers in some cases actually devour the prisoners for refusing to recognize him as the true prophet and caliph. Dr. Schweinfurth states that the Egyptian Government is now sending a large force of Islam, comprising Afghans and Moors, and the doctor is confident the movement will embrace Khartoum. The prophet's adherents increase like wildfire, and the prophet himself is said to be marching toward Cairo. Abd-el-Kader is known to be in the command of the Forty thousand. Scherwinfurth's communication also says the capital of the Egyptian Government is being besieged, and its capture is expected. "This is all very high-colored and, therefore, not to be credited as reliable."
