UNANIMOUS IN SUPPORT OF VALLEY RAILWAY SCHEME

Municipal Union Also Discussed Export Duty on Pulp, the Care of Pauper Lunatics, and Other Subjects of General Interest

MONCTON, N. B., March 11.—Endorsing efforts to have a railway constructed down the valley of the St. John River, consideration of the maintenance of pauper lunatics, and the pulpwood question were the subjects which comprised an exceedingly busy session for the Municipal Union convention in session here this morning. The first matter taken up was the question of exempting industries, the following resolution being introduced:

"That we memorialize the provincial legislature to amend the towns and municipalities incorporation act so as to provide that assessments may exempt from taxation any industries after a plebiscite of the electors has been taken, a majority of the valid electors being favorable to the said exemption."

This was moved by Mayor E. R. McDonald, of Shediac, seconded by Mayor Murray, of Campbellton, and carried after a brief discussion. The matter of maintenance of pauper lunatics, left over from last evening, was next brought up, the following resolution being introduced:

"That this convention do urge again upon the government of New Brunswick the necessity of carefully considering the question of maintenance of harmless pauper lunatics who have not gained a rational mind, in their town or municipality in the province. After a desultory discussion the resolution passed.

A vote of thanks was moved to Ald. Reilly for his paper on debenture programs was taken up. The first was the pulpwood question under the heading "Benefits to be derived from an export duty on pulpwood." Resolutions passed by the York and Northumberland councils were introduced. Dr. Shingler, of York, moved that they be endorsed, seconded by Mayor McLellan, of Chatham. That of York County provided for a prohibitive export duty on pulpwood, and that of Northumberland urged prohibition of the export of pulpwood. Delegates from Charlotte contended that such action would be detrimental to industries in their county, other speakers contending that the prohibition of pulpwood export would force Maine mills to move into New Brunswick. The matter was thrashed out at length. Councillor Ackerman, of York, finally introducing an amendment that the convention place itself on record as being opposed to the export of both pulp and pulpwood, and memorialize the government to that effect. Other delegates thought that was going too far and Councillor Read, of Port George, moved another amendment that the resolution of Northumberland County Council be endorsed. Finally it was decided to have the delegates endorse and prepare a resolution which was done. On motion of Mayor Bullock, of St. John, the regular order of business was suspended while the question of the St. John River Valley railway was taken up. Mayor Chestnut, of Fredericton, moved the following resolution:

"That this convention is heartily in sympathy with the efforts being put forth by the residents of the St. John River Valley to obtain railway communication between the lumber towns of the valley and the lumber towns of the St. John and the St. John and St. John on the said river, and would respectfully urge upon the federal and provincial governments the desirability of granting any reasonable aid in connection with this project." This was seconded by Warden McNally, of York, both he and Chestnut supporting the resolution in strong addresses. The motion passed unanimously.

GOMPERS BEATEN IN COURT OF APPEALS

Judgment Against the Federation in the Bucks Store Case is Upheld.

WASHINGTON, March 11.—The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia today modified and affirmed the opinion of Judge Gould of the Supreme Court of the district, ordering the American Federation of Labor, Samuel Gompers and other defendants from publishing in the "We don't patronize" list the name of the Bucks Store and Range Company of St. Louis.

The opinion which was handed down by Justice Robb, holds that the decree of the labor organization and the other defendants from "Mentioning, writing or referring" to the business of the Bucks Store and Range Co. or its customers. Otherwise the decree is affirmed. The court holds that the "combination" and boycott in furtherance thereof and the publication in the "We don't patronize" list in aid of the boycott is illegal.

THE DAMAGED STEAMERS ARE IN BAD SHAPE

The Heraldic Hall Under Water and the Dimock Piled on the Rocks.

CHATHAM, Mass., March 11.—A rousing sale from the northwest at sunrise today was sweeping the scene of yesterday's collision between the steamers H. F. Dimock and the Heraldic Hall. Clear weather disclosed the upper deck and pilot house of the Heraldic just above the water in Pollock Rip Bay, with the steamer North Star of the same line, and the revenue cutter Gresham standing alongside the sunken vessel.

Fifteen miles away on the back side of the Cape Cod lay the stranded steamer Dimock, her stern awning broadside to the beach and the morning tide flowing through the great gap in her starboard bow.

The passengers of the two steamers and the crew of the Heraldic Hall who were landed through the surf yesterday by the life savers with six passengers from the Dimock, who came ashore early this morning, took a morning train from Orleans for their destinations, leaving the two steamers in the hands of wreckers.

With the Dimock ashore on Nauset Beach, the Heraldic Hall in Pollock Rip Bay, the steamer Massachusetts ashore on Martha Vineyard and the barkentine Ladyman on the beach at Fishers Island, it was apparent that the fog yesterday was unusually baffling to navigation and that there would be some serious operations for some weeks to come.

KILLING THEMSELVES IN THE SIX DAY RACE

More of the Runners Give Up the Struggle—French Team Still Well in the Lead.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Ten teams were still in the running today, the fourth day of the international go-around race at Madison Square Garden. Only four of the original teams remained intact, the others being bot and Orphee, of France, were the leading pair, with Davis and Melius second, Dinesen and Frantz third, and Loeblin and Kluberthal fourth, and Peegan and Curtis in fifth place, to which they dropped back at 8 o'clock this morning. Early today David Hartley, of Kansas City, who was one of the original Canadian team, and had been shifted three times through reconstruction, dropped out of the race, and Julius Edelson was substituted as Pellant's partner but Pellant lost a lot of ground through the penalty following reconstruction. A few minutes later Alexander Stirling, of St. John, came disheartened as they were far in the rear, and Quackenbush was suffering from a bad knee. They decided to retire.

The score at 8 a. m. was as follows:
Cibot and Orphee . . . 453 4
Lynn and Melius . . . 427 4
Dinesen and Frantz . . . 416 7
Loeblin and Kluberthal . . . 411 1
Lynn and Curtis . . . 408 8
Corey and Hegelman . . . 407 7
Shelton and Fraser . . . 382 3

NEGRO ESCAPES AFTER BEATING I. C. R. AGENT

Serious Assault Took Place at Harcourt—Lynch Thinks He Will Do Well Tomorrow Night.

MONCTON, N. B., March 11.—All Lynch, of Quebec, arrived here this morning from Quebec, and is making final arrangements for his bout tomorrow evening with O'Keefe Geovoy of Maine. Lynch says he is in better condition than when he fought young Ramsay here and although not overly confident of winning, feels sure that this bout will exceed the previous one. John White (colored), made himself unpleasant at Harcourt yesterday, when he attacked the I. C. R. station agent at that place, beating him quite badly, after which he stole a revolver and has not been heard of since. Officer Dryden went to Harcourt, but could find no trace of White.

EDINBURGH, Mar. 11.—Lord Guthrie, who yesterday granted a divorce to Alexander Stirling from his wife, who had been an American actress, has allowed Mrs. Stirling the expense of her action. He has decided also that Lord Northland named by Mr. Stirling as co-respondent, should pay the cost of the husband's action. Mrs. Stirling is to have reasonable access to her child, which is to be placed in the custody of the husband.

NEVER MISSED HIS WAD OF $25,000

Clerk Picked It Up and is Now Trying to Learn the Identity of the Careless Owner.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.—That some one in this city is so careless of his wealth that he can lose $25,000 without making any inquiry for it, was the astonishing discovery of J. L. Samuels, who two days ago picked up a package in the dry goods store with which he is connected, containing a small fortune in negotiable securities. Just as the store was about to close last Monday night Samuels' attention was called to a large envelope which had been left on the counter. The contents of the envelope consisted mainly of mining shares in paying concern and as several of them are unregistered they could be easily negotiated.

Samuels waited for two days before announcing his find in the belief that the owner of such valuable would certainly advertise his loss. The shares are now in a safe deposit vault where they will be until an owner appears and proves his property.

SUCCESSFUL SEED FAIR OPENED AT SUMMERSIDE

Legislators Aboard—Erans and Coleman Boats Last Night by One Lap.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., March 11.—The Provincial Seed Fair which opened at Summerside yesterday was the most successful ever held, interest being sixty per cent. more than in the previous years. The pure seed movement has now assumed gratifying proportions. A number of buyers from N. S. and N. B. are present. The legislative adjourned for the fair and all the members are.

At the provincial institute convention held in connection with the opening of the National Agricultural College, Premier Haszard and others spoke, also R. Robertson, Superintendent of the Marine Department, and J. H. Evans, St. John, second; 460; Smith and Redlin, Charlottetown, 489; Gaudet and Doyle, Charlottetown, 489. The ice was very soft. The ring is thirteen laps to the mile.

STRUCK SEAM OF COPPER ORE IN GLOUCESTER

Rich Strike Made on Property Owned by North Shore Men—Full Extent Not Yet Known.

CHATHAM, N. B., Mar. 11.—Word was received here this morning that a large seam of copper and the drill has gone four feet eight inches in the vein but has not yet revealed the full diameter. The mine is owned by a syndicate of Bathurst and Miramichi men and the proprietors feel jubilant.

POWERS LOOKING AFTER HIS LONGBOAT INTERESTS

TORONTO, March 11.—E. Powers, of the Eastern League, arrived in town yesterday on the Longboat matter. He has "opened up" law offices at Ottawa and Montreal, and is here to start another one. All of which means that he is guarding against any possible interference with the Indian by would-be promoters. If Longboat runs in Canada without Powers' consent, there will be law suits. Powers stated that he would see Longboat personally before the end of the week, and did not anticipate trouble with him. Longboat is at present at Preston.

COCKFIGHTING MADE LEGAL

HAVANA, March 11.—The House of Representatives yesterday passed the bill legalizing cockfighting, but with many restrictions. Cockfighting will only be permitted from November to May inclusive, and only on Sundays and holidays, in regularly licensed pits. The license fee will be paid to the municipality. Cockfighting will not be permitted in the capital cities of the various provinces. The bill will now go to the Senate.

MINERS AND RAILROADS TO DISCUSS NEW AGREEMENT

SCHOOL INSPECTOR
DROPPED DEAD

David L. Mitchell, Who Succeeded Nelson Brown, a Victim of Heart Disease.

FREDERICTON, N. B., March 10.—David L. Mitchell, public school inspector for the district comprising York-Sunbury and Queens, dropped dead last night at the residence of John Buchanan, Nashwaak, while on an official visit to that locality. The deceased, who was a cripple from his birth, was also the victim of heart disease, which was the direct cause of his death. He was a native of Lincoln, Sunbury County, son of Hiram Mitchell, who died at Victoria Hospital here, last summer, and is survived by a mother, two brothers, George and Wesley, and a sister, Lizzie.

Mr. Mitchell graduated B. A. at the University of New Brunswick, in 1891. He afterwards took a post graduate course at Harvard and taught in the grammar schools at Gagetown, Chatham and Bathurst. He was appointed school inspector last September, to succeed Nelson W. Brown, who was removed from office by the Hasen government. Deceased was about 46 years old and unmarried. His remains will arrive here by train this afternoon, and will be interred at Lincoln. Louis Ralph Phillips, twin son of Louis Phillips, commercial traveller of this city, died this morning, aged nine months.

W. T. Whitehead's condition is slowly but steadily improving. The last curling match to be played with outside clubs this season, by the Fredericton men, took place last night when the home team trimmed Marysville by 39 points. The slips and scores were:

Fredericton	15	Marysville	8
Yiddell	15	Pickard	8

DR. CHOWN HORRIFIED AT SOCIAL CONDITIONS

Describes the Red Light Districts of Western Towns—Series of Meetings to Stem the Tide.

TORONTO, March 11.—Rev. Dr. Chown, head of the Temperance and Moral Reform Department of the Methodist Church, returned from a trip to the west last night. His route covered 3,000 miles, and addresses were given at forty-five meeting places. The magnitude of the social evil in the west and coast centres was a shock to Mr. Chown.

In one community where there is a population of only 2,500 people, there are a large number of immoral resorts, containing over sixty dissolute women. This life of shame in some instances has been copied by ever-larger numbers of ministers.

In the new centres of the west, people are made for the location of "red light" districts, and reckless people have even gone to the limit of advertising business lines to dens of infamy as "all red lines." A series of meetings, the Methodists and Presbyterians joining have been arranged for at which Mr. Alexander is to take part, in the hope of stemming the tide of evil and driving it out.

W. H. McLAUGHLIN, WELL KNOWN MASON, DEAD

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Mar. 11.—Wm. H. McLaughlin, a prominent resident of Ballis, died at his home in that village this morning, after an illness of about ten days with gall stones. He was sixty years of age and is survived by a widow and four daughters. He held a well kept farm at Ballis and in winter took charge of lumbering crews, in recent years having been employed with the Haddock concern in Arcook Co., Maine. He was a prominent member of the Orange Order and a member of Sunset Lodge, F. and A. M. and will be buried by these orders, Friday afternoon. He had represented his parish at the county council for the past three years and was a citizen of integrity and worth.

Although the Companies Declared They Would Not Grant Demands Made, the Outlook is for a Speedy and Satisfactory Settlement

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 11.—With a keen desire to reach an early decision and thus avoid a suspension of work, the representatives of the United Mine Workers of America and the presidents of the coal carrying roads met today in the Reading Terminal Building here and began negotiations for a new agreement to go into effect at the expiration of present working arrangements on March 31. It is said to say that not since the Pennsylvania organization of miners became active in the anthracite regions of Pennsylvania have the workers and the employers entered upon negotiations with a better feeling and understanding and with better prospects of reaching a settlement without resorting to radical action.

The demands of the anthracite men as drafted at a convention in Scranton last October and approved by the National Convention in Indianapolis in January are as follows:

First.—That an agreement shall be negotiated between the representatives of the miners and the operators of the anthracite region and all disputes arising under the contract shall be adjusted as provided for in the said agreement.

Second.—We demand the complete recognition of the United Mine Workers of America as a party to negotiations to a wage contract and that the United Mine Workers of America shall be recognized in its right to provide any method we may adopt for the collection of revenue for the organization.

Third.—That we demand an eight hour day with no reduction in wages. Fourth.—That all coal shall be mined and paid for by the ton or 2,000 pounds.

Fifth.—That we demand a definite and more uniform scale of wages and that all classes of labor of the anthracite region and that all employees paid $1.00 or less per day shall receive a ten per cent. advance, and employees paid more than $1.00 and less than $1.50 per day shall receive a five per cent. advance.

Sixth.—That the system whereby a contract miner has more than one job or employs more than two laborers be abolished.

Seventh.—That the employers be required to make uniform pay statements designating the name of the company, the name of the employee, the colliery where employed, the amount of wages and the class of work performed.

Eighth.—That the contract shall be made for a period of one year, designating the name of the company, the name of the employee, the colliery where employed, the amount of wages and the class of work performed.

Ninth.—That the contract shall be known to the operators several months ago they made public a statement through their New York agents that the demands would not be granted and strongly intimated that they would ask that the present three year agreement be renewed. The present agreement is the same as the working arrangement made by the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission in 1902.

MADE ONE GOOD GUESS; PEOPLE FEAR HIM NOW

Spanish Scientist Predicts a Shock for March 20th and the Peasants are Frightened.

ALICANTE, Spain, Mar. 11.—The prediction of Emilio Marchand, director of the Observatory on the Flo Du Mid, in the Pyrenees that an earthquake would occur on February 21, having proved correct, the inhabitants of this district are now in a state bordering on panic, as a second severe shock is predicted for March 20. Many people are leaving the city and others have already begun to offer up prayers for deliverance in the churches.

The authorities have obtained a letter from Director Marchand pointing out that his predictions are only based on probabilities, but the lower classes are most superstitious. They believe that this letter is a forgery and they are convinced that the prophecy will come true.

APPEAL FOR AID FOR

BRINKLEY, Ark., March 19.—Mayor T. H. Jackson today issued an appeal for aid. (In a review of the destruction wrought by the tornado Monday night he places the number of dead at 35, the injured at more than 200 persons, and he says there is not a house in the city, either business or resi- dence, that was not damaged. The en- tire business portion was lost and only three buildings were left stand- ing. He asks for contributions of fur- niture, bedding, tarpaulins and roof- ing material. The latter is in urgent demand because there is not a dry roof in the city to protect the wounded and homeless.)

REASONING IN CAPTIVE ANIMALS

(By William T. Hornaday, S.D., Di- rector of the New York Zoo- logical Park.)

I have never considered that the question as to whether animals are capable of reasoning is debatable. The men who have had the most to do with wild animals, either in a state of nature or in captivity, believe that the animals think, and that among individuals of the same species there are quick-witted individuals and dullards. I have made what I might call the personal acquaintance of 100 species, ranging from the elephant to the mole, in the wild, and I have known between 200 and 300 species in captivity. I certainly credit them with powers of reasoning. My views are based on a correlation of the behavior of these species in their natural state and in captivity. It does in the life of men. The ability to reason differs in different species of animals, and I think that for the highest places in intelligence, the ape and the elephant run a dead heat.

REASONING IN A BEAVER

Some persons talk of birds teaching their young to fly, but that is nonsense. Here in the park we have reared young loons and other water fowl by hand, and when they were turned loose they performed a considerable number of the functions of their kind, although they never had an opportunity to learn any of these functions by observation. That was a case of instinct or inherited habit, not of reasoning.

Let us take the case of a beaver. A beaver is a very intelligent animal, and he has been caught by one foot in a steel trap. Occasionally a beaver in that predicament will gnaw off his foot, and then escape. Before he resorted to that extreme the beaver in each case tried to break the trap or sever the foot. At last he reached the conclusion that he must injure himself, the pain of amputating his foot. I look upon that as an instance of reasoning.

Another proof of reasoning powers is furnished whenever a bear that has just been captured is placed in a box for shipment. He has had previous experience with boards or planks, but he searches the sides of the box carefully until he finds a knothole or a weak plank and then he begins to try to scratch and bite his way out. Lions and tigers show a lower grade of mind, for they bite at the iron bars of a cage, but they do not try to break out through the wood.

THE CHIMPANZEE'S LEVER

As an animal genius I might mention Donhong, a chimpanzee we had at the park about three years ago. He discovered the principle of the lever just as truly as did Archimedes. There was a trap in his cage with a three-foot bar suspended by long chains. Also there were horizontal bars attached to the sides of the cage for his use in exercising. He often tried to tear off these bars, but was not strong enough to do so. Finally, one day as he was swinging about on the trapeze bar the trapeze bar caught between one of the horizontal bars and the side of the cage. In trying to clear the trapeze, he accidentally used the trapeze bar as a lever and its power tore the horizontal bar from the wall. That was an accident of course, but he had grasped the idea, and at once started to apply the new principle. With the trapeze bar he tried to pry every horizontal bar in the cage.

He did not stop there, for when we put up stronger horizontal bars, supported by a skeleton bracket, he tried the lever principle on them. Failing to dislodge them with the trapeze bar, he tore off a strip of tongue-grooved board about seven feet long, from the wall, thrusting this long lever through one of the skeleton brackets, and tried to pry it off. He failed and summoned a smaller female chimpanzee in the cage to help him. All of this was in keeping with the character of Donhong, for he was naturally inventive and differed from the average individual of his species by avoiding imitation.

DIFFERENCE IN INDIVIDUALS

I don't want to steal any of the thunder of Mr. Hagerty of Harvard, who was experimenting with the mental qualities of monkeys at our Primates House last summer, but I might say that some of the most interesting tests were with two orang-utans. He placed a banana in the middle of a lead pipe, about four feet long and gave the orang-utans the opportunity to get at it. One of them pushed out the banana. The other did not grasp the idea and within a few minutes he had thrust in the banana and pushed out the pipe. The other did not grasp the idea and within a few minutes he had thrust in the banana and pushed out the pipe. The other did not grasp the idea and within a few minutes he had thrust in the banana and pushed out the pipe.

IRISH CROWN JEWELS SAFE AGAIN IN DUBLIN CASTLE

Discovered in an English Pawn Shop— Restoration Brought St. Patrick Knight- hood to Baron Pirrie, Belfast.

DUBLIN, March 19.—The comedy of the theft of the Irish crown jewels more than a year ago from the safe in Dublin Castle, has had an amusing sequel. As announced at the time there was never much doubt about who had taken the jewels, and it was soon discovered that they were reposed in an English pawnbroker's shop. The question was how to get them back. It is true that the authorities might have taken them by force, but the pawnbroker was not disposed to lose his money without a fight and he threatened revolutions if they might be quietly reclaimed. It took a week of negotiations, but the jewels were returned to the pawnshop. It was about $150,000 and it could not be taken from the public without more awkward inquiries.

It will now be necessary to go back a couple of years to the beginning of the trouble. At that time there was J. Belfast a Mr. Pirrie who was head of the great shipbuilding firm in Belfast and who had raised himself from the position of a penniless farmer's boy to that of a millionaire, and at the head of the greatest shipbuilding firm in the world, and he was anxious for further honors. Soon after the Liberal Government came to power, Pirrie, who, like most Belfast business men, had been an Orangeman, suddenly saw his great light and declared himself a Liberal. He induced his brother-in-law to stand as a Liberal candidate for one of the divisions of Belfast and he secured the defeat of the Tory, and a few weeks afterwards his name appeared in a list of new peers of the realm, and he became Baron Pirrie.

Lord Pirrie, however, was anxious for more honors. He became an employer of the vice-royal household and he cast his eyes on the Knighthood of St. Patrick, which is the highest honor that can be bestowed on an Irish nobleman. His opportunity came when the crown jewels were discovered in the pawnshop. He provided the money to take them out of pawn, his reward being the promise of the next vacant Knighthood of St. Patrick, and he received the honor a few days ago. The bargain was so distasteful to the other members of the order, who had won their knightships by distinguished service to the state, and not one of them would consent to the new knight, who is usually a most gorgeous ceremony, and the Lord Leinster was forced to invest the new knight with the insignia of the order in private.

It is also known that it has been arranged that Lord Pirrie shall be related to an earldom and shall succeed Lord Aberdeen as viceroy should that nobleman decide to retire into private life during the existence of the present government.

WANT LEMIEUX ACT EXTENDED

OTTAWA, March 19.—A deputation representing the Canadian National Association of Builders, waited on the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Minister of Labor, at 7 A. Adams, deputy Minister, this afternoon, to ask that industrial disputes act be extended to include building trade labor disputes, that the government arrange for some form of industrial insurance and that various provincial acts respecting compensation for employees to workmen for injuries received while at work be consolidated in a federal act making the law uniform for all provinces.

J. H. Laver of Montreal, general secretary of the association, in presenting the requests, urged that uniformity in respect to provincial workmen's compensation acts. He noted that the Quebec and Manitoba governments were now considering a revision of provincial acts in other provinces constant changes in the law were being suggested. A present there was no definite basis on which compensation for injuries was awarded and employers were largely at the mercy of jurists usually sympathetic to the victim. Mr. Laver suggested that a general federal law be enacted allowing a compensation based on the earning capacity of the victim for three years. In respect to the widening of the scope of the Lemieux act to include private industrial labor disputes, as well as disputes affecting public utilities, he said that the success of the act had been so successful up to the present that its extension to other lines of industry was not justifiable. The association represented building contractors in all parts of the Dominion and an annual trade business of over $100,000,000. They were unanimous in approval of the principle of the Lemieux act.

Mr. L. Nesbitt of Ottawa, representing the Builders' Association of that province, and G. A. Crain of Ottawa also endorsed the request.

Mr. Lemieux in reply stated that the federal government had no jurisdiction over the questions of civil liability of employers, but that as far as the provincial governments to deal with, and he had no desire to interfere with the provincial governments in respect to extending the Lemieux act to include building trades. The Minister of Labor said that the success of the act justified the request of the deputation for its extension. He pointed out that when any amendments to the act were made it would be in the direction of widening its scope as suggested by the industries other than public utilities.

ABE ATTELL SCORES KNOCK-OUT ON YOUNG PIERCE

Jack Dorman Fought With Broken Arm--Important Decision Regarding Boxing In New York Court.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 10.--Abe Attell knocked out Young Pierce colored, of this city, tonight in the sixth round of what was scheduled as a fifteen round bout, before the Olympic Athletic Association at Essington. The best Pierce could do was to jab light lefts to the face and these blows had no appreciable effect on Attell.

NEW YORK, March 10.--The bout between Jack Dorman and Johnny Dwyer at the Sharkey A. C. here tonight, was cut short at the end of the sixth round by the discovery that Dorman had broken his right arm. The fifth and six rounds were fought by Dorman with his right arm hanging limply by his side useless.

NEW YORK, March 10.--A decision which many believe will seriously affect the future of boxing in New York was rendered today in the court of special sessions, when Leach Cross, the pugilist, Bert Keyes, Joseph Hungaria, Gus Bagley and seven other defendants, were convicted of conducting a prize fight in the rooms of the now defunct Grant Athletic Union in the Old Star Theatre a year ago. Each of the eleven defendants was allowed to go on suspended sentence. The Grand Athletic Union at the time of the arrest of its promoters and managers, sought and obtained an injunction restraining the police from further interfering with the boxing matches which it then contemplated holding. But the validity of this injunction was never tested, the union disbanding without any other matches being held.

HARTLAND MAN CHARGED WITH THEFT OF LOGS

HARTLAND, N. B., March 10.--Today Constable James W. Wolverton arrested H. N. Boyer, a prominent business man of this town, on a warrant issued from the court of Police Magistrate Dibblee of Woodstock. The warrant charged theft of logs on the river and was sworn out by Louis H. Ellis, secretary treasurer of the St. John River Log Driving Company. The preliminary hearing will be held at Woodstock on Saturday. A. W. Clark and G. C. Watson went bail for the accused.

Boyer's side of the story is that he was made aware that the raft was made up of logs that had escaped the booms of the Tobique Manufacturing Company at Plaster Rock. He said he bought the logs so tauled them away. The raft was made at the mouth of the Tobique and Mr. Hilyard seemed to figure in its construction, though the logs bore the marks of different lumbermen. Mr. Boyer excused himself from wrong doing under the belief that the parties from whom he bought the logs had perfect right to sell. The case is somewhat complicated and will doubtless prove interesting.

MALOY TAKEN AT VANCEBORO

VANCEBORO, Me., March 10.--After nearly three months of freedom, enjoyed with the funds which it is alleged he had absconded from the town of Mattawamkeag and from the American Express Company, John H. Maloy was arrested here today by Deputy Sheriff John W. Haskell of Lincoln. He offered no resistance. When arrested Maloy said that he had but little remaining of the several thousand dollars which he had when he left Mattawamkeag in December. Maloy was employed by the American Express Company as its agent in Mattawamkeag and was also treasurer of the town. Most of the funds which the authorities say he took away with him belonged to the express company. Under custody of Deputy Sheriff Haskell, Maloy was taken to Bangor and lodged in the county jail tonight to be held for trial.

THE WAY HE FELT ABOUT IT

While several young ladies were discussing novel plans for a church bazaar a new member of the committee proposed to have the pastor's photograph reproduced on pillow tops and "chance" them off. All the girls voiced their approval at once, but when the plan was suggested to the parson he objected. "I really cannot consent," said he. "I've been sat on enough as it is."

FLORENCE KIRRADE CLOSELY QUESTIONED AT THE INQUEST, BUT SHE ORDERED FROM ROOM

TORONTO, Mar. 10.—At the Hamilton inquest tonight T. L. Kirrade, the head of the family, was the first witness. He told how his daughter and wife helped him collect rents from his houses and how his son built some of his houses for him. His wife was liable to fainting spells, he said, and had been operated on several times. There were no estrangements in the family. Florence went south without his consent in the first instance. She got his approval on the second occasion. She finally came home because of the marked attentions shown her by Baum. She preferred to remain, but her parents thought she had better return. Dehl, the dead girl, was always opposed to her sister's stage career. The two girls were at their brother, Ernest's, home, at a birthday party the night before the tragedy, but Kirrade did not know on whose birthday.

It was eleven-thirty when Florence Kirrade, the sister of the dead girl, was called. The room was so crowded that the witness came in from the corner's private room and took the chair to the witness box. She is tall and slender and wore only black clothing, including a black chiffon hat. She was accompanied by a nurse in uniform and by Mr. Wright of Victoria College, Toronto, to whom she is engaged. The nurse carried a large sash with medicine and stood behind the witness in the box. "Before I proceed I must ask that the nurse leave the court room," objected Blackburn. "I understand," replied Hobson, counsel for Kirrade, "that Miss Kirrade's health makes the presence of a nurse necessary. I leave the matter to you, Mr. Coroner."

Coroner Anderson ruled that the nurse should leave the court. Wright left also, and the examination began. At first Miss Kirrade's replies were scarcely audible, but after a time were made more clearly. "Mr. Blackburn," Miss Kirrade, "we learn from your father that you were some time in the south."

"Yes."

"And you went to take an engagement as a soloist in a church at Richmond?"

"Yes."

AFRICA AWAITS THE COMING OF ROOSEVELT

MOMBASA, British East Africa, March 10.—Mombasa is preparing already to welcome Theodore Roosevelt when he lands here the latter part of next month on his much-heralded African trip. The coming of the former President of the United States has given a decided impetus to the interest in the present hunting season. The governor of the protectorate, Lieutenant Colonel Sir James Hayes Sadler, is getting up a programme of welcome and entertainment for the distinguished visitor, but notwithstanding these arrangements the greeting to Mr. Roosevelt will be more to the great sportsman whose fame is well known to local hunters than to the former President of the United States.

East African sportsmen were highly gratified to learn that Mr. Roosevelt had refused the offer of the authorities to grant him a special hunting license that would have permitted him to kill game to an unlimited extent instead of confining himself to the two elephants, two rhinoceros, two hippopotami, etc. of the regular license. Lions and leopards are classed as vermin and consequently no license to kill them is required. The white population of Mombasa has heard much of Mr. Roosevelt's personality and in a joking way frequently refer to the "big stick" as being made of the "big stick" of the rains are late this year and a heavy fall is expected. (The regular season for good hunting this year is from the end of January to the end of April.) The prospects for good hunting this year are considered excellent. Many of the settlers in the outlying districts, realizing the increasing interest in the sport because of the coming of Mr. Roosevelt, are voluntarily sending in information about the movements of game. According to a Campbell trophy case prize for the winner of the contest.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Off in an endurance race 45 Boston automobiles started from Columbus Circle in this city today with the Chester I. Campbell trophy as a prize for the winner of the contest. The cars were sent away at minute intervals by A. L. McMurtry, and with a police escort from the Motor Cycle Squad to accompany them to the city limits, headed for New Haven, the first checking station of the run. From New Haven the route lies through Hartford and Worcester. The first car was due to arrive in Boston at 6:30 p. m. The finish of the run will be in front of Mechanics Hall, where the Boston Automobile Show is in progress.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., March 11.—As some of the spectators in the run from New York to Boston were passing through Fairfield this morning, a horse attached to the carriage of that town, was riding, took fright and ran for a short distance. HAMILTON, Ont., March 11.—Miss Florence Kirrade was last night put through a searching examination by Blackburn. She told how she had met a Montreal woman at Church in Hamilton, Mar. 10. She had travelled for a couple of weeks with her in Northwest Ontario, singing at friends' houses. Then she got a letter from a friend of Miss Elliott's from Syracuse and went to stay with her at her private house. She sprained her ankle and Mrs. Brown took her to Rochester, but could not tell where she stayed. From Rochester she travelled to Buffalo with Miss Elliott, who had intended to meet her at Syracuse, but failed to do so. They met in Rochester and travelled to Buffalo where Miss Kirrade was persuaded to stop overnight.

The chief topic of discussion along the north side of King Square this morning is a case in which P. McDevitt the barber, pleaded not guilty for $20 which he claimed to have loaned. On the other hand McDonald claims that McDevitt owes him $20. The case took up some time in the civil court and was adjourned until next Thursday.

In the police court this morning James Fitzgerald, an old member of the chain gang, pleaded not guilty when he was charged with stealing a bear skin coat and a rubber coat, property of George Barle. The alleged theft was committed on December 15th and the coats were taken from a house on Brussels street. Fitzgerald was remanded to jail and the case will be heard this afternoon.

SACKVILLE WOODSMAN WAS BADLY INJURED

Entangled in Chain and Dragged by Horse—Bank Charges—J. E. Aikin—son Dead.

SACKVILLE, N. B., March 11.—While in the lumber woods near Beech Hill on Monday, Gifford Hicks, of Upper Sackville, met with a bad accident which resulted in the breaking of his collar bone, serious injury to one of his wrists and hands and various minor bruises. Hicks was engaged in making logs when the horse which he was driving started suddenly, and Hicks' wrist was caught in the chain which was in use. He dragged some little distance until he struck an obstruction. The blow broke the collar bone but it also had the effect of freeing him from the chain though as this happened his wrist and hand were badly torn.

CHIPMAN TRITES IS DEAD AT MONCTON

MONCTON, Mar. 11.—The death occurred here this morning at the hospital of Chipman Trites, aged 67, he having been brought here Saturday to undergo an operation, but owing to the physical condition of the patient at that time, the physicians in attendance deemed it unwise to perform the operation, death resulting from gangrene. Deceased was well known in city and country, having for many years been a representative of Moncton parish at the county council. He once conducted a meat stall in the market here. He is survived by a wife, five sons and two daughters.

SLIGHT FIRE AT GIBSON

FREDERICTON, N. B., Mar. 11.—A fire at the residence of John Gibson, Maryville, early this morning, badly gutted one of the parlors and its contents. Mrs. Gibson was awakened at three o'clock by the smell of smoke and gave the alarm. The blaze was quite brisk, having originated from a Franklin stove in the parlor, and the house had a narrow escape from destruction.

TWO MORE TRAMPS ARE DUMPED ON ST. JOHN

One Has a Sore Leg, the Other is Only Tired—Both are Undesirable.

The central police station, which is becoming a resort for tramps who, on application, are given comfortable quarters, has two boarders today. One is James Bell, who says he is a native of Halifax, but has resided in Maine for eight years. A short time ago he was discharged from a Maine hospital where he was treated for a broken leg. Bell arrived in the city yesterday and is without home or money. He says that he is very sore and he is attempting to get in the General Public Hospital.

The other tramp is a 21 years old English lad named Gard, who was arrested last night for vagrancy. He informed the court that his home is in Montreal and that he arrived here three weeks ago as a cattleman. He says there is no work here and there is nothing to do in England. Some nights he stopped at the Salvation Army shelter, but other nights he stayed in box cars or sheds. The young man is a healthy and strong looking fellow, but has the appearance of a person who would rather beg for food than work for it. The magistrate said there were too many of these tramps being dumped in on St. John and he gave instructions to the officer to make further inquiry regarding Gard and to see if the C. P. R. would take him out of the city.

ST. JOHN MERCHANTS' SUCCESS IN BOSTON

H. W. DeForest Went There With Exhibit Two Years Ago and Quick Growth of Business Has Kept Him There.

An example of the success which St. John business men achieve both at home and abroad is found in the big trade which H. W. DeForest has in the last two years built up in Boston.

A couple of years ago Mr. DeForest went to Boston with a display of his goods in the city of Boston, which was held there. The demand for his goods which arose from the exhibit made it necessary for him to spend some time there looking after his interests. Since then the business has grown so steadily and so rapidly that he has found it necessary to devote almost his entire time to it. At present his time is being sold in over 2,000 stores in Boston and its suburbs. The growth of the business around Boston has been so rapid that he has not had time to make further extensions, but it is expected that this will come in time.

The firm also carried on a large business in Maine. This is directed from St. John, but the firm has a large warehouse at Portland for distributing purposes.

At the same time the business in the Maritime Provinces has been growing steadily.

IN THE COURTS

In the county court chambers this morning the matter of the claim of M. S. Brown and Company, the Montreal jewellers, against the estate of T. L. Couglin, an insolvent, was again before Judge Forbes. A compromise was effected and the matter now finally settled. The claim was for over $1000 and the compromise was $600. J. King and Kelly appeared for the assignees and L. P. T. Tilley for the claimant.

In equity court chambers yesterday an argument was heard by Referee Charles F. Sanford in the case of Earle vs. Harrison. The lawyers interested were D. Miller, K. C., J. A. Barry, Bush and French and C. F. Innes.

The referee will shortly present his report to his honor Chief Justice Barker.
