Judgment on the Legality of the New Brunswick School Law.

Judgment on the Legality of the New Brunswick School Law.

Lord Justice James:—Their Lordships have been unable to entertain Lay doubt whatever upon this question. The point is a very short point and depends upon the construction of a very few words in the Act constituting the Dominion of Canada. The question alone to which we desired the fire was a thought, by the careless a thought, by the careless and or others about New Brunswick under the Public Schools Act which existed there be Tuesday.

Queen Victoria has determined to pay the debts of the Prince of Wales. They amount to about £600,000, or $3,000,000. She is to pay them in Juny doubt whatever upon this question and depends upon the construction of a very few words in the Act constituting the Dominion of Canada. The question alone to which we desired the prince of Wales. They alone will be the Prince of Wales. They alone to about £600,000, or $3,000,000. The Cliaton Insures only Isolated Property and is subject to not more than Twe Thousand Dellars in any Risk. This Company Effects insurance as follow that .—On the PREMIUM NOTE PRINCIPLE, that is, a small payment each year. In this branch for the past 15 years, a trific more than one-half the notes have oeen sufficient to defray the expenses and pay the losses.

2nd.—On the Short Date Note Principle, that is, the amount to be paid in full at any time within six months at the option of the Applicant.

3rd.—On the Cash Principle, that is, all down at the time of insurance.

By the two later methods the amplicant knows Picture Frames, Matts, Cord Nails, and and is prepared to fill all orders for the City and Country with promptitude.

By the two latter methods the applicant kn conce the amount to be paid, and by the Premi ote Principle, the applicant is liable only for mount of the Note and the good fortune of ompany tends to lighten his payments. CHARLES C. CARLYLE, ESC., BHEDIAC, has been pointed General Agant for the Maritime Province, through whom we hope to secure a fair share one Insurance patronage. ROWLAND HILL, Manager.
