THE NIHILISTS' PLATFORM.

It is a wretched party that cannot produce a platform if necessary; and this is true of the Nihilists of Russia, as it is of the Globe Critics of Canada, or the Blair malcontents in this Province. We have a copy of the Nihilists' lately published platform before us, and as our readers can see, it is little, if any, worse than the system which Russia calls the Government of the State.

1. "A regular representative Assembly elected by universal suffrage.

2. A full local self-government of all provinces, districts and townships.

3. The village commune, an independent economical and administrative unity.

4. The land to be declared State property.

5. A system of measures aiming at the transmission of all factories and workshops to co-operative associations of working men.

6. Full liberty of conscience, of speech, of the press, of associations and meetings.

7. Universal suffrage without limitation as to class or property.

8. Abolition of the standing army and institution of a national militia.

All the clauses, except "3" would pass muster in the most enlightened State on the globe. The means whereby it is hoped to gain these, are revolting, including terrorism and murder. Emboldened by their success in killing the Czar, the society has resolved to organize all over the Empire, to kill spies, and Government agents set to watch them; to murder all the prominent officers of the Government they can lay hands on, and never cry hold till the country is reclaimed from the hands of the oppressive nobles.

One thing seems certain to us, Alexander III. may as well try to control the ocean tides, as the spirit for freedom and the desire for equality with the subjects in other nations, which are every day growing in Russia. His best course now is to give the people a liberal education, then when they are prepared, give them a constitution like that which other civilized nations enjoy. Give them a national assembly and let nothing be supreme in that assembly but the will of the people. Alexander may resist this, but resisting it, what might be accomplished in peaceful ways, will come through revolution and bloodshed.

LOCAL AFFAIRS—OUR STREETS. (No. 5.) The management of the Public Square is one of the most incomprehensible things in our town affairs. We see by the list of parish officers, that three gentlemen have been appointed a committee for this square. What their duties are we have been unable to learn. They seem to be a kind of ornamental appendage to the beautiful park, with its gushing and sparkling fountain, its shady trees, gravelled walks, and flowery avenues, which are the pride and glory of Chatham town management.

That the town should keep a public cow pasture, and fence it in such a manner as not to give too much inconvenience to the cattle in getting in or out, may speak well for the kind feelings of the people to that very useful animal, but is a striking commentary on the bogus bye law lately published, which sought to banish the cow from our beautiful streets forever.

As to the lamps which light our streets at night we do not care to say much. They are not very plenty. They can be seen, sometimes, the one from the other. They may serve to show that lighting the town is possible, and that with proper management lighting the streets might be successful.

This service costs the town three hundred dollars a year. It is part of the police tax, we believe, and is paid to the gas company. We can certainly see no benefit in having these lamps as they are now, lighted during the winter. Then they are of no practical use; they serve no purpose; they are not required. In the summer time, they are insufficient. Then why not increase the number of lamps and by discontinuing the use of them during winter, the sum we pay at present would give us twice as many lights during summer!

If the piece of land adjoining No 1 Engine House belong to the town it might certainly be fenced in or rented. But as this property is a part of our fire department we will not deal with it at present.

The Prince and Princess of Wales have gone to St. Petersburg.

HOME AGAIN.

"Home again, Home again, From a foreign shore, etc."

Our member Mr Snowball is either on his way home or has arrived. Other men would be ashamed to come, but it seems he is not. Yet he knows he was elected to serve the people; and that he has served only himself. He knows when an old gentleman in Aluwick said "He will do like Hutchison beyond," that he promised on his word he never would, and said that if he ever did he would give the people the liberty, and they had the right to call him a Deceiver. He said if his interests ever clashed with the peoples interests, his should give way. He knows he has broken his word, and that his interests did clash with his duty to the people—and that the peoples interests had to go to the wall. He knows that having broken his pledged word the people will never believe him again.

He was in Ottawa when the House first opened, but then no business was done. After the Christmas holidays he returned to England, and when he resumed the work of the session was over. All the other members had told before the House what their counties wanted and had obtained their grants. Sir Leonard Tilley had set his item list before Mr. Snowball got back, and so nothing was got for Northumberland save a small sum through the pity of a friend of the county.

But when he returned, though the work was over, he might have informed the Commons that we wanted a telegraph line from here to Escuminac, but he never opened his mouth upon the subject; he might have said a word for the Escuminac breakwater, but he was still dumb; he might have pointed out that Newcastle wanted a new post office, but still the oracle was silent; he might have said we should have an extension of the steamer mail service to Chatham, but never a word did he say; he might have pointed out that our oyster beds are becoming rapidly denuded and ought to be aided by a Government grant, but he kept his mouth shut. He merely got up and made a splash about Crab Island Light, and an incoherent and ignorant reference to the fish hatchery. This is Mr Snowball's seasons work, and still his friends say, "He has not made up his mind whether he will run again or not!"

RUSSIA'S WOES. Russia is full of strange rumors. The peasant goes home to his cot at night and tells of direful plots to extinguish Royalty, and overthrow established government. It is whispered that the genius of revolution is abroad, telling men to get up and throw off the yoke. Every day reveals dynamite, or trains—so they say. And there is perhaps not much reason to doubt the stories, for telegraphic communication has been stopped, in several places, and fast as wires are put up, they are cut down by unseen hands. The new Czar's life is threatened, and now for the first time young Alexander feels the truth of the Shakespearean saying, "Unseen lies the head that wears a crown."

CLOSING OF PARLIAMENT. The Parliament of Canada was closed by His Excellency the Governor General at one o'clock Monday. The speech was a mere piece of formality, and we are sure our readers will pardon us for not troubling them with it. Though several members had gone home before the closing, out of regard for the interests of his County, Mr. Snowball remained till the very last moment! He is something like a representative!

A PROPOSAL. Ireland's sympathizers in Montreal, offer to build a house for Davitt, and present him with a purse, if the Government will let him come to Montreal. If this should be granted, then we have little doubt but the next election Davitt goes into the Dominion Parliament, and takes the place of Thomas D'Arcy McGee.

It is now believed that it was the policemen themselves who put the 40 lbs. of powder under the Mansion House. Those who hide find, saith the proverb.

Mr Lawson of the London Telegraph has Mr Labouchere of London Truth in Court for assault. Labouchere met Lawson on the street, and pounded him.

Sir John A. McDonald paid off Mr. Snowball on Saturday, so we may be sure he will not be very long in Ottawa now.

The new Czar will be crowned at "Imperial Moscow" when the period of mourning is passed.

Barones Burdett Courts is very ill.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We have another letter on hand referring to Mr Geo McLeod's late howl in the papers, but it is not worth while publishing it. We believe the public know as well "what manner of man" Mr McLeod is, as the STAR or its correspondents can tell them. We never shall introduce private matters into newspaper discussion, but so far as Mr. McLeods commercial dealings are public, he is known to be one of the most cross-grained gentlemen in the country. He will never pay a rate, or a tax without "contesting it," and the fact is that the officers prefer letting him go to bothering with him. We believe he is the most contrary person Hoc Mr Adams has to deal with, and he has given every Surveyor General yet with whom he has had business, no end of trouble and worry.

We have received copies of the various Departmental Reports of the Dominion, and as we have time in future issues, shall give digests of important matters contained in them.

We learn from Fredericton that Mr Black says the Local Legislature is too circumscribed now for the exercise of ability. He probably intends returning to his Habiting School.

There were 33,000 persons exiled to Siberia last winter. There is a humane Czar for you!

The Local Legislature will probably rise to-morrow, if not then some other day this week.

It has leaked out from Russia that the officers are now torturing Russakoff the regicide.

The King of Sweden is dying.

OUR LOCAL LEGISLATURE IN SESSION.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

CONCLUSION OF GRAND SOUTHERN DEBATE.

WILLIS—Followed from where we ended in our last, but he said nothing of any consequence.

BLACK—We notice was not satisfied with Mr. Hazen's too good report of his speech, so he wrote it out himself and had the entire dose to re-appear in the Telegraph.

BARBARIE—Who tried to persuade members of the Government at the opening of the session, and when he thought the Solicitor Generalship was dangling that he had never voted against them, and never would again, followed the St. John member. He said the House was not to determine the points of law; the question was between the Gov't and the country. This was argument well worthy of the Opposition's policy. But Mr B. is rather a joker than a reasoner. The house likes to hear him and do what is fair between man and man as far as New Brunswick was concerned. He trusts she would keep the skirts of her garment free from the defilement of such a doctrine for ever and ever. (Applause.)

The Governments amendment to the amendment was then carried 24 to 12.

FRIDAYS PROCEEDINGS.

There was a discussion in committee on the St. John Bridge Bill. Much of the objectionable matter had been eliminated and progress was reported.

A Bill to incorporate the St. Croix Cotton Company was agreed to. The cotton manufacturing will give employment directly and indirectly to hundreds. The annexation organ of St. John, opposes it. The old story of the cur jelping after the chariot wheels of Progress.—Ed. Star.

A Bill to authorize Gloucester County Council to exempt certain industries—starch factories etc, from taxation for a certain period passed.

In supply the item providing for a provincial assayer came up. Hon Mr Wedderburn said it rested with the house whether they would grant it or not.

White, who is in opposition, because the government did not care about purchasing him before the session, thought the government should have taken a stand on the question.

After other discussion $250 was granted.

On the item for contingencies Gillespie thought the government might make some satisfactory arrangement about the public printing.

White thought the members ought to buy their own stationery; but the sentiment of the house is not yet quite as mean as White is.

On the item for a Librarian coming up, Mr Blair asked if the government would provide a building for the books; to which Hon Mr Wedderburn replied that the government would ask for a suitable grant next summer. Some members thought new books should be purchased; and some that many of the present books were trash. So they are we say because the library committee are in a large measure without taste and culture, and it is scandalous to have such old foggies catering to the tastes of the province. Why are there not two or three young men, say College graduates on the committee? are the tastes of young people to be judged by people who prefer a work on misanthropy, on gout, or on tombozo to what young people want to read? Let young and old be represented; but first some five or six hundred of the volumes on the shelves should be burnt. Of the modern authors there is scarce a for libais amendment? But why need they be told about it, he would ask, in a special way. The Debutures were issued under authority of law, and there was the end of it. But the House was not ignorant of the payment for a full statement of the issue of the Auditor General's Report. We believe this statement was in answer to an insinuation drawn out of Mr Blacks satchell. And speaking of the appeal to the 16 who voted against the extension of the charter, he said:—

He was struck with the pathetic reference to the 16 who voted against renewing the charter last year. The time had not long passed when some of these were accused of being weak kneed and he could not understand by what transformation they had become vested with such dignity by the opposition. The leader of the Opposition talked about the 16 sustaining the rights of a free people and the echo from Westmorland repeated the sentiment. Last year among the 27 were Willis and Ritchie who like Gesta with his dagger sent the mantle of New Brunswick despite the tears of speakers on the question, while on the other side the leader of the Opposition gave a silent voice. He was surprised at the references to Mr. Davidson for if there was a man whose course in the House had been outspoken it was the member for Northumberland, at whom the stone was thrown by one whose position for two years was known by no one.

A Voice—Do you mean Mr Elder? Hon. Mr. Wedderburn—No. When it suited their purpose the Opposition stated Mr Elder's eminent abilities qualified him for a seat in the Government, but now they hurl an insult at him by their whip across the floors of the House. Mr Elder's course has been most honorable and consistent. The member for Westmorland rises the great luminary of the age, and the members listened to him.

The wonder grew That one small head could hold the all he knew.—(Applause.)

And though the question is before the courts he would have decided on his own unaided illimitable common sense. Only a few days ago the same member voted his entire confidence in the Government, though he knew, as he since stated, they had mis-spent $224,000 contrary to the principles of responsible Government. Touching the payment of subsidy and the Governments "legal advisers" he said, There is no foundation in the charge that the Government acted under the advice of an American lawyer, but they acted in the first place under that of the Attorney General whose interpretation of the law was the same as that contained in the judgment of Mr Justice Palmer. And then with emphasis and indignation he denounced the doctrine that because a Legislature cannot be sued it may refuse lawful payments with impunity; that because it is above the reach of the law, it therefore may shut its eyes to justice. These are his words:—

The doctrine that because a government cannot be sued it should refuse to do justice and equity would be a disgrace to any Government, but it would be the duty of the government to throw off that imaginary divinity that doth bedge a king and do what is fair between man and man as far as New Brunswick was concerned. He trusts she would keep the skirts of her garment free from the defilement of such a doctrine for ever and ever. (Applause.)

The Governments amendment to the amendment was then carried 24 to 12.

Let young and old be represented; but first some five or six hundred of the volumes on the shelves should be burnt. Of the modern authors there is scarce a standard word there, and the results of modern arts and sciences, are simply ignored. We are too disgusted with this matter to write about it further.—Ed. Star.

Mr Leighten explained that the Government had purchased the Woodstock Bridge. He was followed by Mr. White who complained about the expense for repairing that bridge, and said it would always be a leech, and the Government had better build a new one, etc.

Leighten followed and said all the money expended on the bridge had been serviceable. Mr White and Mr Leighten, though both from Carleton, are always squabbling. If one support the Government, the other must eventually drift into Opposition. They remind you of two farmers quarrelling over a "line fence" or a "paster," and who are always telling mean little things on one another. We like neither of these men. They are positively obnoxious to us.—Ed. Star.

Mr Leighten moved the House go into committee on a bill to provide for building a railway from Woodstock to a point at or near Harvey Station. This he contended would shorten the distance to St. John by 30 miles and develop a fertile tract of country. A long discussion followed as to the mode of dealing with the bill. The first section passed and progress was reported.

ABOLITION OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL. The following is a copy of the Provincial Secretarys bill providing for the abolition of the Legislative Council:—

Whereas, by the provisions of the British North America Act, 1867, it is enacted that in each Province the Legislature may exclusively make laws in relation to the amendment from time to time of the Constitution of the Province, except as regards the office of Lieut. Governor;

And Whereas, it is desirable that in this Province there should be an amendment in its Constitution by making provision for dispensing with the Legislative Council;

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieut. Governor, etc., as follows:—"That from and after the passing of this Act the Legislative Council of this Province shall cease to exist, and the Legislature shall thereafter consist of the Lieutenant Governor and of one House, to be styled the Legislative Assembly of the Province shall, until otherwise prohibited, be composed of forty-one members as at present, who shall be elected and returned in accordance with the provisions of chapter 4. of the consolidated statutes of election to general assembly, etc."

The House of Assembly existing at the passing of this Act shall, unless sooner dissolved, continue for the period for which it was elected, and during the time of its existence be the Legislative Assembly referred to in the first section of the Act. The next section provides that an Act passed after the passage of this Act be declared to be enacted by the Lieut. Governor and Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick, notwithstanding all the Acts passed during the present session shall be declared to be enacted by the Lieut. Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly.

SATURDAYS PROCEEDINGS. After a mass of the usual St. John work had been cleared away the Surveyor General's bill to erect a new pier in Nelson came up. Hutchison thought a new polling place would be sufficient; Mr Davidson thought if the people wanted the pier divided let it be divided. The Survey or General said they did want it divided and he could see no reason in principle or in practice why it should not be divided. A lengthy discussion followed, Mr Blair putting in his "oar" though he knew nothing about the matter.

Progress was reported. The South West Boom Company's bill praying for an extension of their excision privileges came up. The Surveyor General opposed it so did Mr Davidson. The bill has passed.

We will publish the discussion in next Progress was reported.

There was further discussion on the Harvey railroad, and the House not having a quorum, the Assistant Clerk counted the members out.

MONDAY. Mr Elder moved a resolution. Its substance was the desirability of Geo. E. Fenet, Esq, further continuing his "Political Notes," and providing that the Government guarantee him an assurance of indemnity against possible pecuniary loss.

We are glad that the resolution has been brought in, but with a member of the Government had brought it in. Is it in order? Does it not provide for a possible expenditure of money; and has a private member the right to bring in such a measure? The speaker ought to hunt up the rules, though we notice he has always been timid about questioning the propriety of Mr. Elders motions. This is we suppose because Mr. Elder has the Telegraph at his back. We feel glad to see the people stand in awe of the editor, but at the same time rule and precedent ought to be followed even though an editor try to violate both. Perhaps we are wrong in our view of this matter. Let us say, however, we hope the resolution will pass.—Ed. Star.

The collection taken up at the Cathedral on St. Patricks Day for the benefit of the Hotel Dieu reached $1100.

To Advertisers

We are obliged to hold over our Sutherland and Creaghs advertisement of spring and summer goods next issue.

Hurt by a Birch Limb

A young man named Swete who for Messrs Murray in the lumber was engaged chopping in one of the storms; a dead birch limb, blown down struck and fell him to the earth. He was severely injured.

Jubilee.

We see it stated by some of our changes that the Pope has issued Encyclical letter proclaiming a jubilee to extend from March 15th to 1st of November in Europe, and to the end of the year in the rest of the world.

The Streets.

Now then surely, snow or ice would be a luxury on some of our streets. Parties of men too, coming from woods, cover the foot-paths and cut and insult ladies, and jeer at the old as they pass. Last fall something ever come into town, they ought to prevent at least the grassed induce from taking place on the open streets and in the open day.

Games in the Lumber Woods.

Lumbering parties from the Reservoir that foxes were plenty there winter; and that several brought into the camp of Lynch and Carthy. Beaver is also plenty now from where the parties operated, little attention is given to hunt. There are a few hunters camps to found here and there on the waters of the Miramichi, and in general some hunter who goes in fall with his gun and traps, and does come out till the spring.

Venor and the Weather.

Much as Venor has been ridiculed his predictions have been not far from the mark several times this winter. He predicted heavy snow-falls for Sunday and Monday, and in some quarters there have been heavy snow storms. He there will be "one cold dip" yet; that, "March will end with rain slush."

A Lecturer.

A Fredericton paper says "Mr R Adams a lecturer on Ireland past and present, in Chatham, Patrick's Eve, is to have been quite a triumph for young gentlemen."

All true with this difference, that Adams did not lecture in Chatham or anywhere else on St. Patrick's Eve.

Nelson Griffin

Mr Griffin is building a fine residence. He will use the building when finished also as a business stand.

Mr Daniel Baldwin of Douglasfield putting up a building for business purposes. It will soon be completed.

Daley's Hotel is filled with people coming out of the woods. Mr Daley a popular hotel keeper.

Business Notes

Mr Peter Loggie has commenced to up his mill.

Mr Alex. Morrison is also repairing and improving his mill.

Mr J. Forest of Chatham is fitting up Hutchisons mill for next seasons operations.

Mr Jas Desnoes intends opening general business store in the Winn building coming summer.

Mr Mober of Halifax, will open variety store here in the early summer is said.

Messrs Staples & McAllister Newcastle intend opening a variety store in Chatham in a few days. We are sure these gentlemen will get their share of public patronage.

Lower Newcastle Notes.

A correspondent writes us from Lower Newcastle: There was a very interesting entertainment in the School House, District No. 5, Wednesday evening last. The programme consisted of songs, reading, recitations, & reading by Mr Robert Snow "The Political Jokers" recitation by Master J. Currie; song by W. J. Nugent, "America;" song by John McHardy, "Andrew Irving;" "The Beautiful Town Song and clog dance by John Currie; song by John Cassidy, "Larry O'Connell;" There was a large audience present and the performance was very well appreciated and applauded throughout.

Provincial Tobacco

A number of Frenchmen from Ketchicougan, Kent, were in town yesterday, and went into Mr Strangely by enough tobacco to bring them home. They did not like the "best tobacco" they said as well as "own raising." On being interrogated by a STAR reporter they stated that along French River they raised their tobacco, plant the seeds in spring, in the autumn pluck and dry the leaves. Thousands of pounds of excellent tobacco leaf is so raised, and when it is dried it is equal in strength and flavor to the best imported tobacco. Very few of the people spoken of chew—and "own raising" supplies the smoking demand.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. E. E. Phair of the Kent Northern R.R. is in town on Railway matters.

Messrs R. D. Southwood of Newcastle, are manufacturing fish freezers for J. C. Loggie & Co., of Chatham.

The collection taken up at the pro-Cathedral on St. Patrick's Day for the aid of the Hotel Dieu reached $140.

We are obliged to hold over Messrs Sutherland and Creaghan's advertisement of spring and summer goods till next issue.

Hurt by a Birch Limb

A young man named Swete working for Messrs Murray in the lumber woods, was engaged chopping in one of the late storms; a dead birch limb, blown down, struck and felled him to the earth.

We see it stated by some of our exchanges that the Pope has issued an Encyclical letter proclaiming a jubilee to extend from March 15th to 1st November in Europe, and to the end of the year in the rest of the world.

Now then surely, scows or canoes would be a luxury on some of our streets. Parties of men too, coming from the woods, cover the foot-paths and corners, and insult ladies, and jeer at the decrepid as they pass.

Lumbering parties from the Renous say that foxes were plenty there this winter; and that several were brought into the camp of Lynch and McCarty.

Messrs Moran & Grattan got out a million and a half of lumber on the North Branch of Renous for Mr. Alex. Morrison, this winter.

Mr. E. A. Strang purchased nearly two hundred bushels of oats from down river parties within the past two days.

Mr. Gorman is building a fine residence. He will use the building when finished, also as a business stand.

Mr. Daniel Baldwin of Douglasfield, is putting up a building for business purposes. It will soon be completed.

Daley's Hotel is filled with parties coming out of the woods. Mr. Daley is a popular hotel keeper.

Mr. Peter Loggie has commenced to fit up his mill.

Mr. Alex. Morrison is also repairing and improving his mill.

Mr. J. Forest of Chatham is fitting up Hutchisons mill for next seasons operations.

Mr. Jas. Danson intends opening a general business store in the Winn building the coming summer.

Mr. Maher of Halifax, will open a variety store here in the early summer, it is said.

Messrs Staples & McAllister of Newcastle intend opening a variety store in Chatham in a few days.

A correspondent writes us from Lower Newcastle: There was a very interesting entertainment in the School House, District No. 5, Wednesday evening last.

JAMES A. HARRINGTON

CARRIAGE BUILDER

Light Driving waggon, Concord, Boxes, Express Carts, etc. Trial and repairing a speciality. Best stock always on hand. Come and inspect.

I have also the sole right to use Young's New Axle Carriage

Patented in the United States and Dominion of Canada. We would call the attention of all owners of carriages or waggon to the Machine and the benefits derived from use. All waggon axles after being more years in use become worn till become loose, requiring the use of washers to take up the lateral play washers soon filling with sand, the axles to wear much faster, and axle is soon ruined, or nearly so.

THE REMEDY.

By the aid of this very simple use the shoulder for the axle nut is out but the thread extended, allowing the nut to be screwed farther on, causing the wheel to run as evenly as when new.
