CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS. Arabi Strengthening His Position - His Military Movements - Affinity - Pact Near Cairo - Trip by Tarnar - Lord Dufferin's Diplomacy. LONDON, Sept. 4. - Though Gen. Wolseley does not require a third division the government is determined to strengthen his hands by sending three battalions of infantry, so that General Wood may be set free without leaving a garrison of less than 5000 at Alexandria.

THE STRIKING POLICE. A WOMAN FATALLY WOUNDED IN A STREET CHARGE. The Special Constables are Tapping - The Police Returning to their Duty - Quiet Being Restored. At the meeting of the town council the lord mayor stated that he had abstained from enrolling special constables, as requested by the lord lieutenant, because he did not think it advisable to accept the services of strangers. He had, indeed, offered Mr. Spencer the services of tradesmen of various localities, but he had received a reply that the authorities themselves had obtained a sufficient number of special constables. He stated the specials were now on duty and the police will be reserved for night service.

ENGLISH VIEW OF THE SALVATION ARMY. Since the time of Wesley no revival movement has been watched with more attention or been more seriously discussed in the weightiest organs of British public opinion than has the Salvation Army.

INSANE ASYLUMS. The superstition that insane persons were possessed of devils was slow to yield to scientific knowledge. The chain, the whip, the dark cell and starvation were resorted to as the means of curing the mad.

this country. There, in every corridor of an inn, a way, is placed a desk containing writing material and near the desk is an iron letter-box, which can be opened by a government official. By this means every inmate has an opportunity of laying his grievances before the proper official.

THE DUBLIN OUTBREAK. The troubles which have been agitating the Dublin police and the constabulary of Ireland generally for the past few days, appear to be coming to a definite conclusion.

THE LATEST FIND AT POMPEII. The other day an excavation at Pompeii yielded a beautiful inlaid marble table; two Egyptian statues, covered with a patina of green glass, which is very rare.

THE POPE'S LIBERALITY. ROME, Aug. 29.—Pope Leo XIII. has instructed the pontifical almoner to distribute 6000 francs among the poor of Rome on the festival of St. Joachim, his patron saint.

BLIND POOLS. Sir: You will inform a blighted reader what is the result of the New York politicians are now talking about so much.

NICHOLAS WITH A KEY. Sir: In your paper of this morning I notice a little article on the "city of unnecessary fences."

CAB EXTORTION. Sir: You do well to call attention to this subject. Why can't Toronto cabmen be made to do what Paris cabmen do in France, viz., put up conspicuously in their vehicles the real rate of fares.

THREATENING THE TELEGRAM. Sir: You have been so mean and unkind as to refuse to publish several important articles which I sent to you at different times, without any good reason.

THE DUKE OF NORFOLK'S ENFORCEMENT. How had recently visited the Duke of Norfolk at Arundel castle, where his grace and the duchess are still staying with their only son, the Earl of Arundel, who, though nearly three years of age, is still unable to see, speak or walk.

concluded his sermon, a brilliant light is said to have shone down from the roof immediately above the figure of the suffering sinner, and to have descended on to the head of the figure, the eyes opened and rolled from side to side, the hands moved, and the figure assumed the attitude of blessing the congregation. Yesterday morning the thoroughfare near the church had become impassable.

A New Treatment FOR THE RAPID AND PERMANENT CURE OF CATARRH OF THE NOSE. Which is not a patent medicine or advertising doctor's humbug, but an honest remedy, discovered by an English Physician of forty years standing, and which absolutely cures this heretofore incurable disease in from one to three treatments, no matter whether standing one year or forty years. To be had only of A. H. DIXON & SON, 307 KING STREET WEST, TORONTO, CANADA. WHAT IS CATARRH?

Catarrh is a mucous-purulent discharge caused by the irritation and development of the vegetable parasite ameba in the internal lining membrane of the nose. This parasite is only developed under favourable circumstances, and these are: morbid state of the blood, the bright corpuscle of tubercle, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury, trichinae, from retention of the effluvia of the skin, suppressed perspiration, badly ventilated sleeping apartments, and other poisons that are germinated in the blood. These poisons keep the internal lining membrane of the nose in a constant state of irritation, ever ready for the deposit of the seeds of these germs, which spread up the nostrils and down the fauces or back part of the mouth, causing ulceration of the throat; up the eustachian tubes, causing deafness; borrowing in the vocal cords, causing hoarseness; rupturing the proper structure of the bronchial tubes, ending in pulmonary consumption and death.

A great variety of symptoms are present in this affection, which are modified by the specific poison which gives rise to it; to wit:—fibrous, syphilitic, mercurial, suppressed function of the vegetative system of the nose, morbid state of the blood, the bright corpuscle of tubercle, the germ poison of syphilis, mercury, trichinae, from retention of the effluvia of the skin, suppressed perspiration, badly ventilated sleeping apartments, and other poisons that are germinated in the blood. These poisons keep the internal lining membrane of the nose in a constant state of irritation, ever ready for the deposit of the seeds of these germs, which spread up the nostrils and down the fauces or back part of the mouth, causing ulceration of the throat; up the eustachian tubes, causing deafness; borrowing in the vocal cords, causing hoarseness; rupturing the proper structure of the bronchial tubes, ending in pulmonary consumption and death.

These poisons are a dangerous, subtle, and insidious cause of great nervous irritation, which promotes its return. It may be cured by the multiplication and duplication of the parasite in the blood. The best case of Catarrh is cured by the use of the parasite in the blood. The parasite in the blood is cured by the use of the parasite in the blood. The parasite in the blood is cured by the use of the parasite in the blood.

FACT AND FANCY.
"A woman of anxiety." The head of a turbulent river.
The boy who sincerely loves his mother will never disgrace himself.
It has been a short "season," but many long purses are sadly depleted.
A Kansas joker has had to pay $5000 for destroying a man's eyes with an explosive cigar.
It is at Birmingham, Conn., where Clara Prima Louise Donna Kellogg has succumbed down.
Mrs. Lajeanne, widow of Baron Lajeanne, Marshal Barriere's aide-de-camp, died this month at Pau, aged 102.
Man receives more ounces for what he does not accomplish, than prizes for what he actually does.—Hiram Green.
A hyena which escaped two months ago from a menagerie in India has been doing its best to have its neighborhood of that city. It tore to pieces a shepherd and several children.
Prof. G. E. Day of Yale Divinity school, in a late address admonished his brethren to study "the Bible more for themselves and less for the amusement of the laity and others about the Bible."
Mr. Moody has expressed his preference for outdoor preaching places wherever they can be had. He says that those who build churches have a better idea of reaching an audience than those who build churches.
A French father scolded his son for his numerous youthful errors. "Really, father, you were once young; did you never frolic?" "Never," said the father, with a melancholy sigh; "when I was young I had no money, and when I became rich I was too late."
The Rev. Thomas Moxley recently wrote of Herbert Spencer's system of philosophy as being "several yards of shelf in public libraries." The author, apparently shocked by the irreverence of the statement, wrote a note declaring that less than two feet was the actual space covered by his thirty years of philosophical work.
The historian Bancroft's home in Washington is a double three-story brick house, with high granite steps. Inside is a hall running through the centre; the rooms are large and lofty, furnished with heavy articles, prominent among them being a life-size portrait of the Emperor William, given by his majesty. Upstairs are four rooms devoted to literary work, papered with pamphlets and newspapers, and furnished with 12,000 books.
Canon Brozman, of Cahirciveen, Ireland, is urging among the Roman Catholic nationalists a project for the erection of a memorial church to O'Connell in the parish of his birth. It is proposed to place in the church an ancient stone altar of penal days which "Tom" Steele the "head-pitcher," rescued from destruction and placed in the front of the church. O'Connell visited him in the county Clare.
Johnny Sullivan, the pugilist, is to be the chief attraction of a theatrical show which soon starts out from Boston. In many cities laws against any form of sports exhibitions are rigidly enforced, but the manager expects to overcome the prohibition by means of a brief play, in which Sullivan will appear as a prizefighter. The show will appear in many boxes as actors in a mimic struggle. The authorities can't get back of that.
In accordance with ancient custom the lord mayor of London is to wear the crown of state on the 4th of September, Windsor park, and other city officials have been remembered. The venison warstons had their origin in the guarantee to London citizens that their hunting in the royal parks and forests should be secured to them. This one of the ancient formalities which seem trivial, but in an Englishman's eyes stands for the integrity of chartered rights.
The belief is firm in Ireland that both the judges and the landlord partisans, in their denunciations of the Irish jury system, did not aim at its utter destruction, but at what they called its reform. The verdicts of guilty would be obtained without injury to the judicial office.
There is a good deal of illusion about the rise of the Nile. It seems to be thought that for a few weeks the Nile rises and falls, and that the Nile is a lake, and that they are a muddy swamp. The water of the Nile flows into canals; from thence it is pumped, every morning, as long as the Nile rises, into the fields, which permeate the fields, which are thus irrigated every morning. The water evaporates every day, leaving in the water evaporated, there is never an excess of water or mud.
The English are studying a report on oyster culture in France, an industry which the French have succeeded better than they. The industry is hardly twenty years old. The districts in which the production is on a large scale are limited to Arachon and the Morbihan, the former land-locked and the latter a climate of exceptional desirability. In 1885 ten million oysters were exported from Arachon, and in 1880 two hundred millions. In the Morbihan, the production has increased in five years from a quarter of a million to three million.
In England the ministers have a better way of taking their summer vacations than that which prevails among our dominions. Instead of all going out of town at the same time, they arrange with each other, so that out of half a dozen one or two are always on hand to attend to urgent business. The ministers are also called to pastoral visits among the sick or to calls for large numbers of letters without gospel ministers. If such systematic provisions were made in the churches of our large cities the summer state of religion would be a very different affair from what it now is, with most of the large churches closed nearly all summer.

READABLE PARAGRAPHS.
The fastly folded scarfs worn by gentlemen are much used by ladies with their Norfolk jackets and tailor-made cheviot dresses. Those of fawn or pique are most liked for the present season.
The injurious effects of alcohol on the brain and nervous system relieved and cured by the use of Dr. K. C. West's Nerve and Brain Treatment.
Captain Von Eisenacher, who has just left the post of envoy from Germany to Tokyo, is to be transferred to Washington, name and all.
What Every One Says Must be True. All unite in praise of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry who have tried its efficacy in curing Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Dysentery, Nausea, and Stomach and Bowel Complaints generally in children and adults. Every person should keep a supply on hand.
The great-grandson of the author of "Robinson Crusoe" is in indigent circumstances, and a penny subscription is to be started for his relief.
Mr. R. C. Winlow, Toronto, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is a valuable medicine to all who are troubled with indigestion. I tried a bottle of it after suffering for some ten years, and the results are certainly beyond my expectations. It assists digestion wonderfully. I digest my food with no apparent effort, and am now entirely free from that sensation which every dyspeptic well knows, of unpleasant fullness after each meal."
Fratry Girl.—"How much is this a yard?" "Dry goods clerk—'Only one cent.'" "Pretty girl—'It is so cheap I will take three yards and grandma will pay you.'"

Quick transit from a state of feebleness, bodily languor and nervous irritability—induced by dyspepsia or a condition of vigor and physical comfort, follows the use of the standard regulating tonic and stomachic, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspepsia Cure, which speedily cures all forms of indigestion, bilious complaints and female complaints, purifies the blood and reinforces the vital energy.
Scotchmen's Straws Superseded. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the best remedy for infant teething. It is safe, pleasant and reliable, and cures promptly all forms of Bowel Complaints. For Canadian Cholera or Cholera and Dysentery of either children and adults there is no better remedy.
Two colors are especially popular for Scotch gingham dresses, viz., very pale blue, with white Hamburg embroidery for trimming, and the quaint dark red shade that is called "branded strawberry," with extra Irish point embroidery. These dresses are very simply made, as they are to be laundered, so that they may be always fresh, and their dressy look is given by the showy embroidery used upon them.
Persons of weekly constitution derive from Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda a degree of vigor obtainable from no other source, and it has proved itself a remedy of either children and adults there is a hereditary tendency to consumption. Mr. Bird, druggist of Westport, says: "I knew a man whose case was considered hopeless, and by the use of three bottles of this Emulsion his weight was increased twenty pounds."
Would Not be Without It. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, though projected against proprietary medicines, is not a rival, writes: "I would not rest without this reliable remedy for sudden attacks of Cholera, Cramps and Cholera Morbus so prevalent in the summer season. I keep a bottle ready at hand."
The most elegant collars are of sheer linen, with a straight band, with a pattern of drawn-work near one edge and Venetian lace turned up on the other edge. Where the ends meet in front the lace is gathered into a deep, full and tied by narrow ivory-white ribbon that gives the effect of a lace bow. There are straight linen cuffs also, with a wide lace bow, to be worn outside the sleeves.
Deep colors of white Hamburg embroidery are pretty with light-colored gingham dresses for young children.
P. M. Maxwell, West Jeddore, N.S., writes: "I wish to inform you of the wonderful qualities of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. I had a horse so lame that he could scarcely walk; the trouble was in the knee and two or three applications completely cured him."
A Hard Task. To find a better remedy for dyspepsia, indigestion and impurities of the blood, than Burdock Blood Bitters. Price $1.00, trial bottles 10 cents.
The primitive palm-leaf has been substituted by the decorator and artist, and is now colored in green or in dull blue, and ornamented with arabesque lines and the "gaudy" leaf pattern.
Robert Lubbeck, Cedar Rapids, writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil both for myself and family for dyspepsia with the very best results. I regard it as the best remedy for this disease, and would use no other."
A Wretched Long. A score of years is a long time to look upon, but when attended with continual suffering, it seems almost a century; and all this pain could have been avoided if, when your liver commences to trouble you, if you had taken Burdock Blood Bitters. Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents.

Correspondence between the Premier and the Governor-General.—Mr. Capreol Returns a Carpet for the Princess's Feet.
CANAL OFFICE, VICTORIA HALL, Sept. 1, 1882.
SIR: I have the honor to request that you will present this enclosed letter of invitation to His Excellency the Governor-General Marquis of Lorne and Her Royal Highness Princess Louise, to the office of the Huron and Ontario ship canal, if possible before leaving Toronto. I am, sir, your most obedient servant.
FRANK O. CAPREOL, President of the Huron and Ontario Ship Canal, and promoter of Canadian railroad interests and the acknowledged father of the Northern railway, presents his respectful compliments to His Excellency the Governor-General Marquis of Lorne and Her Royal Highness Princess Louise, and as the late Lord Elgin honored the inception of the Northern railway, Lady Elgin having traced the first sod thereof, so Mr. Capreol begs the honor of a private visit from His Excellency and Her Royal Highness to the office of the Huron and Ontario ship canal, and to view a working model of the hydraulic lift-work by means of which the great project of the Huron and Ontario ship canal can be realized, and hopes that this enterprise will meet with His Excellency's approval, as it has already received that of His distinguished predecessor, just named, who declared that "Canada's water way was unrivaled in the world to be improved by art."
Mr. Capreol requests the honor of an early reply.
Clarence Square, Sept. 1st, 1882.
TORONTO, Sept. 2, 1882.
DEAR SIR: I am desired by the Governor-General to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 29th inst., in which you express to me your great regret that it will be impossible for him, owing to his short stay in the city, to accede to the request it contains. WILLIAM BAIRD, A.D.C.
F. C. Capreol, Esq.
TORONTO, Sept. 2, 1882.
SIR: To show you and the public I lose no opportunity to bring into notice the Huron and Ontario ship canal, I send you the following correspondence, as you would be pleased to see that the capital can be found by a syndicate of high class men, provided the grant of land is given as suggested by the Hon. Mr. Tupper in his evidence before the house of commons, 9th June, 1869.
I have made suitable arrangements for a proper reception of His Excellency and Her Royal Highness, if they should be graciously offered by Mr. John Kay to-day from his warehouse, Front Street East, the address and hall to this office. Your obedient servant,
FRED. C. CAPREOL.

MATTERS THAT ENGAGED THE ATTENTION OF OUR CIVILIAN SOVEREIGNS.

The Esplanade Constable and the Baths—
The Esplanade Constable and the Baths—
The Esplanade Constable and the Baths—
The Esplanade Constable and the Baths—

The city council met last evening, Alderman Clark in the chair, in the absence of Mayor Murrich.

Communications were read from John Alexander respecting the construction of a cedar block pavement on Henry street. From Mrs. Morrison acknowledging the receipt of an engraved copy of a resolution of council passed on the occasion of the death of her late husband, ex-Mayor Morrison.

From John McLelland a notice of appointment of arbitrator to determine the value of land taken in extending Eastern Avenue.

From Mrs. Morrison, Ernest & Costwell claiming compensation on behalf of Mr. Benjamin Rothwell for injuries sustained through falling into an unguarded opening on the sidewalk on Queen street east.

From John Matthews, in which he made application for the partition of constable in High park.

The council then went into a committee of the whole to consider the reports of the committee with Ald. Taylor in the chair.

Ald. Kent in reply to report No. 20 of the committee on works respecting the sewer in addition to his usual vocation of esplanade constable, asked what the hours of this office were.

He was several times to the baths and seen no one in charge.

Ald. Evans enquired if it were possible for Williams to hold both duties.

Ald. Ryan requested that Ald. Evans should withdraw his motion, which was done.

Ald. Manning moved that the clause of the committee on property respecting the appointments of Henry Williams as constable of High Park be struck out, as he had heard that the applicant was not a fit person to fill the position.

Much discussion then ensued and it was finally resolved to refer the matter back to give the executive committee time to consider the ability of the applicant for the office.

Ald. Taylor then moved, seconded by Ald. Davies, that as a deprivation from St. Lawrence ward were treated to state the grievances, these deprivation should be heard.

Mr. Henderson, who was appointed spokesman by the delegation, then stated the grievances which were the subject of the complaint.

The Young men's christian association of Toronto held an excursion to the shore yesterday, which was attended by over 200 people.

Edward Lawlor, an inmate of the St. Nicholas home, was arrested by the police yesterday for stealing jam from Mowat's shop.

The chief and justice justices of the common pleas will sit as an appellate court to hear appeals from county judges to-morrow in the common pleas court room.

The Freeman for September appears in a brand new dress, and is in every way improved. It is a reliable journal for the craft. Brother Cowan knows his business.

Jennie Fair, only 16 years of age, was so helplessly drunk at the Northern station yesterday afternoon that she had to be taken to police headquarters in a cab.

St. Thomas Police. The long suffering Canadian public will be sorry to hear that the Holman English Opera company has been thrown out of St. Thomas.

The Indians will be at the zoo all the week. An additional number of braves has been added and they will introduce a new selection of their "rings and dices."

The court of revision met yesterday afternoon for the purpose of confirming the assessments made for the construction of cedar block pavements and other improvements.

Rolland's tobacco store on Adelaide street, opposite Victoria, was burglarized last night. A reward is offered for the capture of the thief.

The following gentlemen have been awarded scholarships by the benchers as the result of the recent examinations: First intermediate—A. C. Macdonald, J. A. S. Low, J. A. B. McBride, second intermediate—J. Geo. Morehead, J. T. C. Short, J. A. W. Ambrose.

The effect of the new sewer laid in Sultan and St. Thomas streets is to dry the wells in that locality, much to the inconvenience of the residents. There are no water mains in those streets. Cherry street, between Front and Front streets, is in a similar position.

Since Madam Delfot has been holding forth at the amphitheatre, three watches of the night, the police have been ordered to keep a close watch on the theatre.

An exciting runaway occurred on Yonge street at 5:30 last evening. Two young men were driving on that street in a single buggy near Adelaide, when the horse suddenly became frightened and dashed away.

These old Toronto favorites were greeted with a large audience at the Grand opera house last evening on the production of their new play entitled Max Muller.

Mr. Baker as Max distinguished himself as a very clever artist, especially in the last act, where he retraced after his escape from prison as a lunatic.

Mr. Farron as Daniel O'Connell's Mission afforded great amusement and set the gobs in the gallery almost wild with his funny remarks.

The songs were mostly all new and took well. The Cuckoo-duet was very pretty. Mr. Farron in his ever-welcome song "The German Fish Girl," received a hearty encore. The support was good.

A Hot Bed House.

No. 68 Sherbourne street has long had a bad name with the police. It is a rickety old building and has of late years been the resort of depraved characters and the scene of many rows.

THE FEMALE FAIR.

Hic Crowds—Pulling Teeth and Restoring Withered Limbs—To be Presented.

There was another large crowd up at the amphitheatre yesterday. The women in attendance numbered more than on any previous day.

Madame was attired in a red silk robe, gold embroidered. She wore much jewelry, and a massive hair ornament.

Her interpreter spoke some English, but not a large number of teeth were given. Thomas Smith, 181 Centre street, has been booked for fourteen years with a bad set of teeth.

On Saturday madam pulled some of them but left the roots there; yesterday she took out the roots. She took out eight for one woman and she wanted more.

About 5 a woman with bad teeth and a bad leg was taken up. Madame fixed her teeth and then exhibited the legs of her patients to the wondering throng.

The sight of the withered scrawny limb was not a refreshing one. Madame then applied her medicine in order to make the women work.

It is reported that County Attorney Fenelon intends to prosecute Madame, on what grounds is not yet known. She will know. It is the duty of the editor of the Globe, who thinks there ought to be free trade in medicine and in quackery.

(To the Editor of the World.)
Sir: We all feel very sorry for the three distressed corporations, viz., doctors, dentists and druggists. Why don't they do more for the poor? Any one looking at these crowds will feel that there are many who need help, who could get better help elsewhere if those who could really give it to them would do it, and save some of the victims of a hallucination as in many instances now.

As to animals and magicians, it is not respectable people want to try its power there is at least one reliable practitioner in this city, I am told, though I have never seen him, who has done good work.

If the dentists club together and employ a good brass band, say in an amphitheatre, for the purpose, they will find out whether the nervous systems of their patients are charmed by it. If it makes them more manageable and tranquil it will be a good thing all round. The operators themselves, at least, some of them, more popular.

AN OBSERVER.

LOCAL NEWS PARAPHRASED.
Since Jan. 1 of the present year 1200 new water services have been laid.

Nearly 300 immigrants who came over on the Polynesian arrived at the sheds early this morning.

There was no boat running to Lorne park yesterday. The Rupert has gone to the thousand islands.

The employees of the street railway company intend taking a "rail" on the lake on Sept. 17.

THE GREAT FAIR.

Preparations for the Opening to-Day—This Year's New Features.

Much progress was made yesterday by exhibitors, and things have now assumed a ship-shape appearance. Every foot of space has been taken up. What will make the exhibition which opens to-day different from all former years is the many novel features that the board will present for their patrons' instruction and amusement.

There is the grand hurdle race by the hunt club, the bombardment, the electric light, lacrosse matches, the school children's day, and several other attractions. The weather is considerably cooler than it has been for the past two weeks, and people can visit the grounds with a little degree of comfort.

Every facility has been arranged with the railroads for cheap and rapid transit to the grounds. There is every reason to believe that the exhibition which will be most successful ever held in Canada.

The Royal.
Miss Ada Gray, supported by C. A. Watkins' Fifth Avenue combination, gave a very excellent rendition of the emotional and ever favorite Est Lyne. The house was very full indeed, and it is not too much to say that Miss Gray's performance attracted the attention of all eyes. Her playing was splendidly acted and well received. The plot of the piece was story without a hitch.

The part of the injured husband, Archibald Carlisle, by Mr. J. V. Melton, was likewise well sustained, and the acting of the gay Lothario, Sir Francis Levison, (Mr. Frank Roche) was excellent. The general public was very much pleased with the play.

At Wednesday last Paulina Lake was visited by a picnic party of coloured people from the neighbourhood of Dundas and there they met a Lutheran picnic party from Waterloo. The two parties fraternized very nicely together.

The Kingston-Whig referring to the fact that there were eighteen applications for work in the office of the Toronto Board of Education, says that the salaries asked ranged from $350 to $600. The majority asked between $400 and $450. School teaching is retrograding in the eyes of the public, and there are no better than those received by labourers.

THE SPORTING WORLD.
A 25 mile bicycle race took place yesterday in New York between J. S. Prince, the professional rider of Boston and Mile Louie Armando of Montreal. Prince won the race by 34 seconds. The time was not good, being thirteen minutes behind the best record.

"Well, what do you hear about the key-drive?" said a last chance man yesterday in front of the post-office.

"He's having quite a picnic as near as I can get at it. Old gum-arabic and the kerfide have had a set-to; it seems, at Alexander," said a man from the Oregon shore line.

"Well, now that Arabi Bey has scored on the khedive, I suppose we may look for perdition to the poppy party plenty," said the fat man from Council Bluffs.

"I suppose the khedive is the High Tycoon the Big Injun; the High Mucky-Muck of the Ranch." "He's the governor and Arabi Bey has scored on the khedive." "Well, what did he want to throw off the cow steer?" "Well, he wanted to get the cow steer out of the North Park branch.

The employees of the Midland Railway of Canada, all over the line, had a picnic on Saturday at Summit station.

Mr. S. Munson left Madoc last week for his home in Mentor, Ohio, not having succeeded in his mining investments in that neighbourhood.

Prince Arthur's Landing is struggling under the weight of its name. One citizen proposes to take the three initial letters and add "port" to it, making the name Palport.

There's trouble on the Toronto and Ottawa Railway. Mr. Wood has disappeared, and the conductors of the train are supposed to be in the hands of the police.
