STATISTICAL INFORMATION CONCERNING ONTARIO.

Industrial and Social Condition of the People—Growth and Development Since First Settlement.

Ontario is situated between latitude 41 degrees 30 minutes and 50 degrees 25 minutes north and longitude 74 degrees 25 minutes and 93 degrees 30 minutes west.

The first white man to visit Ontario was Champlain, who came here in 1603.

In 1871 Perrot took possession of a district around Lake Huron.

The old settled district of the province is the Niagara peninsula.

Ontario was largely founded by the immigration of United Empire loyalists, who came here after the declaration of Independence in the United States.

It was made a separate province and called Upper Canada in 1791.

The first Parliament of Upper Canada was held in 1792.

Since 1823 the Legislative Assembly met in 1823.

The Government of Ontario is administered by a lieutenant-governor appointed by the Governor-General of the Dominion assisted by an Executive Council of eight members, one being without a portfolio.

Since 1873 the Liberal party has held the reins of power in provincial politics.

In the Dominion Parliament Ontario has 22 members of the House of Commons.

The area of the province is 197,000 square miles.

Iron, copper, lead, plumbago, apatite, antimony, arsenic, gypsum, gold and silver are found in Ontario.

The nickel mines in Ontario are the most extensive in the world.

Our petroleum and salt wells seem inexhaustible.

In 1882 there were 76 iron and investment companies doing business in Canada, with a total capital of $80,278,277.

In 1883 it is estimated that there were 36,023 manufacturing establishments of various kinds with an invested capital of $182,603,340.

Ontario has 95 members in the Legislature or a representative to every 23,236.

The Federal Government has paid in subsidies to Ontario 219,550 square miles of land and 2,850 square miles of water.

The mean temperature in Toronto last year was 47.7 degrees Fahrenheit.

In 1882 rain fell on an average in Ontario to the extent of 26.47 inches.

The Crown lands in Ontario include an area of 39,389 miles and under the management of the Dominion Government.

Ontario 636,422,425 feet of pine timber were cut.

The receipts from these licensed lands totaled up to $2,156,793.

The area of forest and woodland is 213,620 square miles.

The population of Ontario by the last Dominion census was 2,114,321, showing an increase in ten years of 9.7 per cent.

Of these 1,060,457 were male and 1,053,864 females.

Of these 1,439,744 were born in Canada and 430,211 in other countries.

In Ontario there were 101,123 French-speaking Canadians.

The deaths registered numbered 28,809.

There are 5,680 people employed in mines, 1,421 as fishermen.

An acreage of 1,949,185 was sown in wheat and the yield was 27,406,310 bushels.

The Indian population of Canada numbers 17,567. They cultivate 76,434 acres.

HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL.

A Sensible Talk on the Best Care of the Body—The Hygiene of Perfumes.

Not by lotions, ointments or powders; these are sometimes aids, but they often destroy rather than add to beauty.

Ladies must understand there is no beauty without health. Salubrity of the skin is often the product of dyspepsia or disordered liver.

The coloring matter of the bile has become mixed with the blood and dyes the complexion.

Indie color, purpleness or blueness of the skin is often the result of some internal malady, which is interfering with the velocity, quantity or composition of the blood supplied to the fine blood vessels of the skin, and so on.

Then, why do ladies not consult the doctor rather than write for receipts to some irresponsible paper? We believe it is the duty of every woman to be as beautiful as she can, but in striving after physical beauty, our sisters must keep in view the force and effect of perfumes.

The essence of smell so complex that of sight that woman who claims to be beautiful often employ perfumes to add to their charms, but not always to absorb and responding to her style of beauty just as she would choose a color.

The lady who is so fond of perfume is the latest thing out; it may commit the same sin against the laws of good taste as the woman who wears a large and noisy hat.

The selection of a perfume is also a health consideration, for the action of scents upon the various organs is marked and variable.

The odor of certain flowers will cause faintness in some people, while other perfumes produce more or less headache or nausea.

Do perfumes purify the air? Some do so by the well known affinity they have for oxygen and their power to absorb and decompose.

We have a remarkable proof that certain gums and resin preserve from putrefaction in the results shown in the embalming process of the Egyptians.

Benzoin and camphor are also antiseptics, and they are invariably found in the Oriental incense jars.

Lemon and orange oils their cleansing power over the human system.

SOME RECENT SCIENCE.

Experiments made by Prof. F. Cohn regarding the cause of the so-called "spontaneous combustion" of masses of cotton, grass, tobacco, etc.

It is a woman must select a perfume invariably due to a fermentation caused by bacteria.

No perceptible rise in temperature is observed, because the heat is so small that it is lost in the air.

When the bacteria are saturated with oil, when bacteria are carefully excluded, no such fermentation occurs.

The action of scents upon the various organs is marked and variable.

The odor of certain flowers will cause faintness in some people, while other perfumes produce more or less headache or nausea.

HOW CRANBERRIES GROW.

A Description of Their Planting—Women Pickers.

Did you ever see a cranberry bog? Imagine a broad, level surface, winding in and out among the low hills like a lake, but green as a meadow.

From a swamp of low cedars, such as had once covered the site of the bog itself, there came the plant.

At intervals banks of earth crossed the bog at right angles to this stream, in which ditches were set, so that the ditches that divide each section like a chess-board, could be filled on the whole bog turned into a field of flooded compartments.

McSwatters—I hear that Skipky is going to settle in New York? Skipky's father—I wish he had settled here first.—Yonkers Post.

Patience—I'm the doctor at home? Madam—No, I have not to a football game.—For pleasure or professional?—Yonkers Statesman.

Mr. Gamble—Would you like to take a chance in a lottery, Miss Overage? Miss Overage (blushing)—This is so sudden, sir.—Yonkers Statesman.

Hurry—I understand she gave you a flat refusal? Jack—Yes; nothing under her. For pleasure or professional?—Yonkers Statesman.

"No," said Mrs. Fisher. "I don't call myself a lady, but simply a plain woman." "Well," said Mr. Candor, "you're plain enough; that's a fact."—New York Press.

The old lady—Would John be a good card for Mary? The old man—Splendid! He's in the football business and his life is insured for $10,000.—Atlantic Constitution.

Florence—How did that dab of a picture Nellie received for a birthday gift impress you? Artie—Very well, when I finished painting it.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

He—Do you think blondes have more admirers than brunettes? She—I don't know. Why not ask some of the girls who have had experience in both camps?—Littell.

"I'm not queer," said Maude. "I've never seen my chance." "What! Never seen him?" "No," said Maude. "I've never seen him. He's never asked me."—Harper's Bazar.

"We should be thankful for small mercies," said the boarding-house mistress, as she gazed at the diminutive turkey.—Truth.

Returned bride—Nobody thought you were a bride couple, friend—No? How did you deceive them? Returned bride—We tried to act as though we were.—Truth.

"I hear so much about your beautiful pictures, Mr. Cadman; do you think you could paint my portrait? "I don't think so. You see I only paint from nature."—Boston Budget.

When a woman is jostled by the man who goes out between the sets, her one regret is that he isn't sitting on the bench, as he is at the Washington Star.

Bella—"I wouldn't marry a man who I thought knew less than I did." Blanche—"Nor I; but I wouldn't mind if I merely thought that he thought so."—Kate Field's Washington.

Mrs. Fogg (looking out at the window)—Mr. Gray shoving off with his sidekick. Mr. Fogg—"The deuce he is! Wonder what office he is going to run for."—Boston Transcript.

Fine weather at Alexander Island—A. Alexander Island, Dec. 6.—If a north-easter, was to pay a visit to this city and see the weather that is existing at present, he would be greatly surprised, as it is more spring-like here than anywhere else. Another good card was on for to-day, and that consisted of the pleasant weather, brought out another large crowd to the track. There was another increase in the drawing. The bookie is worn on Jack White, the well-known horse man, has applied for a license for seven horses. It was discovered this morning that Wynne did not carry his full weight in the fourth race yesterday, and at a meeting today the horse was disqualified and first, second and third money will be given to the owners of the runner-up and the winner. J. Underwood, the owner of W. Wynne, has made a protest, but it will probably do him no good. Summary: First race, 4 1/2 furlongs—Bob 1, Link 2, Van 3, Time 55. Second race, 3/4 mile—F. R. Hart 1, Con 2, Lacy 3, Time 1:16. Third race, 1 1/2 miles—Senator 1, North 2, Lyle 3, Time 4:48. Fourth race, 6 1/4 furlongs—Ben Volo 1, Ontario 2, Grand 3, Time 3:15. Fifth race, 6 1/2 furlongs—Detroit 1, Frodoose Lass 2, Flashing 3, Time 1:22 3/4.

A Case of Fervent Interest—New York, Dec. 6.—The Board of Review of the National Trotting Association contained its winter session today. A case of particular interest to the public was brought up by the application presented by James McNeill of the Fall River Agricultural Society. The society wanted authority to make certain deductions from the premiums of a winning horse. The board ruled that the society had a right to take the same percentage from the one winner that the same percentage from the four runners-up. The application of P. L. Church of Bellville, Ont., for release from expulsion by the board on May 30 last for fraud was denied.

Three Favorites and Two Outsiders—Chicago, Dec. 6.—Three favorites in succession won at Roby today, and the two outsiders came to the front. Both of them, La Gartin and Law maker, were strongly backed, however. Summary: First race, 4 1/2 furlongs—Marden Pet 100, Sherwin 3 to 2, United 7 to 1, Wallace 1 to 10, Alice C. 100, Gay 10 to 1, 3, Time 1:12. Every Bone
In my body ached with the dread rheumatism which followed a severe cold. My sufferings were awful. I could not dress myself or comb my hair. My husband had to carry me up and down stairs. I was scarcely able to nurse my child. It was two weeks after I began taking Hood's Cures that I was able to walk up and down stairs without help and pain. My sufferings thought I was dying, but now I feel like a new man.

Football Kicks
The financial report of the Yale-Princeton football game played Saturday afternoon shows that the receipts of the game were $5994.50 less than last year. The expense, however, were more than $2000 more than last year. The total receipts of the game were $33,468 and the expense $9,259.83, so that each college was left with $24,208.17. The receipts of the game were $24,208.17. The receipts of the game were $24,208.17. The receipts of the game were $24,208.17.

THE EASTERN LEAGUE.

East Toronto cricketers' average for the season—won 24, lost 10 and had 5 draws, the latter mostly in favor. Several of the matches were by a very small margin, three of them being by less than 5 runs. The club made a total of 3050 runs during the season, or an average of 85 per innings, while their opponents made 1947, or an average of 60 per innings. They were the only club in the city to engage a professional, and they got a good many in C. Attwell of Nottingham, as his analysis will show. From start to finish of the season he bowled consistently, and was always on the spot. No batter could take any liberties with him, and against stronger opponents he did his best work. To him the club owe most of their success, and are using every endeavor to secure his services again. With this object in view, a grand entertainment will be held in Massey Music Hall on Christmas day, under the joint auspices of the club and Queen's Own Rifles, when the best local talent obtainable, assisted by Miss Nellie Gwynne, the great English entertainer, a la Grosmith, and Miss Jessie Alexander will take part. In addition, the members improved very much under Attwell's coaching and played with more confidence and vim. Finally, the club is considered the most promising bat on the team. It is to be regretted that he could not give most of his valuable assistance. J. C. Snyder, as usual, is near the top, and has made some long stands, and has proved himself the mainstay of the batting strength. Asson has done remarkably well during the season, and his improvement is due to the coaching of the Pro. Larika has kept up his reputation as a strong bat, and with Snyder has done his best work against good bowling. The old standbys of the team, Ed. Smith, G. B. Smith, A. Van-dyke, C. Macneil and D. J. Lester, all well up in double figures. In bowling, Berry, who did the bulk of the work last year, did not come off quite so well this year, but it is only fair to say that he was followed throughout the season by a streak of bad luck, as more catches were missed off him than all the other bowlers combined. Attwell's analysis speaks for itself. The following are the names of the club's players: J. C. Snyder, captain, A. F. Hatch, second, E. Smith, third, H. Hatch, fourth, Ed. Smith, fifth, G. B. Smith, sixth, D. J. Lester, seventh, C. Macneil, eighth, G. B. Smith, ninth, A. Van-dyke, tenth, E. Smith, eleventh, H. Hatch, twelfth, Ed. Smith, thirteenth, G. B. Smith, fourteenth, D. J.
