The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Seminary of Quebec
Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol ➡ (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Séminaire de Québec
Bibliothèque

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole ➡ signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE BRITISH-AMERICAN REGISTER.

QUEBEC, SATURDAY, 18th. DECEMBER, 1802.

PROSPECTUS.

A FEW Gentlemen in different parts of the Province, have for some time past, shewn a disposition to support a Periodical work, which should convey to the Inhabitants of this Country, all the Information in which they are interested in a collective capacity; and which should infill into the minds of individuals, sound Principles, a love of learning, of order and propriety. It was thought at the same time, that a work of this kind, though more particularly calculated for Canada, would naturally become a repository of every useful information, concerning the British Provinces in North America, and would thereby be not altogether uninteresting to Foreigners. It was therefore, resolved to attempt the publication.

BUT it was soon discovered that in this Country, where the circulation of such a work must be circumscribed for some time to come; where almost all the Inhabitants are engaged in trade and necessary public or private duties, and where learning is far from being generally diffused, it would be equally difficult to procure, either sufficient patronage to maintain an expensive establishment, or an Individual possessed of sufficient abilities and learning, who would devote his time to an occupation at once so laborious and unprofitable.

To abandon the design altogether, was a matter of serious regret to its friends. It was suggested that a portion of those intervals of leisure, which the most urgent public or private duties necessarily allow, would willingly be dedicated by intelligent and public spirited men, for the purpose of furnishing information and materials, for a work having such objects in view: and in the hope that this suggestion is not unfounded, the SUBSCRIBER has been induced to commence the work.

IN order to point out the nature of the assistance required, it has been thought necessary to draw up a list of the different articles, which it is wished the work should contain; and it is here respectfully submitted to the Gentlemen who are inclined to favor the undertaking. It may appear to some Gentlemen, that it embraces too many objects; but it is trusted they will consider, that it would have been highly improper, to confine to narrow limits a work to which every Gentleman of learning and abilities throughout the Province, is invited to contribute.

THE Subscriber must of necessity be responsible for every thing that may appear in the work; and that responsibility he is ready to assume in the strictest sense. In a publication which embraces subjects so various, and of which it is an essential quality that it should be equally free to all the King's subjects, some differences of opinion will undoubtedly exist; but it is hoped when these are expressed with decency and candour, he will find a ready indulgence in the liberality of the public: and he trusts that no one who would express his opinions otherwise, will consider himself as invited to assist in this work.

ON the part of the Subscriber, surely no effort will be wanting to make the work worthy of the public favour; but he must be permitted to express his sentiments on the probability of its success, in the words of one of the most amiable and public spirited men of the close of the last century, on an occasion somewhat similar: "It will flourish or fade according as the activity or remissness of the public shall promote or obstruct its growth. It will flourish if men of information and learning throughout the Country will commit their observations to writing and send them to the Publisher; it will languish if such communications, be too long intermitted; and it will die away, if they shall entirely cease; for it is morally impossible that such a work can be carried on without the most assiduous and eager assistance."

2] THE BRITISH-AMERICAN REGISTER.

J. NEILSON.

List of the different articles which it is wished the work should contain, and of which communications will be thankfully received:
