SEVENTH YEAR
TRIUMPHANT

briefly what the National Policy complied for this island.
The following address was presented to Cape Breton In this, your advent to Cape Breton in 1878, you visited this county, bringing with you the principles of the Liberal-Conservative party at the forthcoming election, we desire to extend to you a most cordial and hearty welcome. Words fall us when we attempt to convey our feelings of pride in having the privilege of greeting you as the future leader of the great Conservative party, that party to the principles of which we so strongly attached. Many of us still remember when in 1878, you visited this county, bringing with you the glad tidings of coming wealth and prosperity. Business was then in a depressed state, our manufacturers languishing and enterprise stifled. Then were borne to our ears for the first time the principles which were to lead us from a state tending towards penury to one of happiness and contentment. The National Policy, in the framing of which you were so important an agent, became the policy of the country and to-day it has accomplished. Confederation found in you not only a supporter, but a father.
You found us a mere bundle of states, between which there existed prejudices of race and creed. Now we are an harmonious people and able to complete successfully with the world of the earth. True, in the province of Manitoba, Liberal rule has caused discontentment by depriving us of the rights of that province of their rights by forcing upon them a school system entirely at variance with the policy of the Conservative party, always mind-strong or weak, has induced the settlement of this trouble in a way that should meet with the approval of all unbiased Canadians. It is impossible to look upon any part of Canada without coming to the conclusion that the industry and activity, foremost in the promotion of every work for the advancement of the Dominion, you have contributed largely towards. This vast continent, extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, is being united with a band of steel. At all times you showed your readiness in expending money in the interests of public utility, being always full of faith in the future of Canada, and knowing well that without these works we should be at a great disadvantage as compared with our neighbors to the south of us. Many things would you wish to say to thank you for the honor you have shown us by consenting to become our representative at Ottawa, but that we shall leave till election day. Sufficient it is to say that in you we shall have a representative acknowledged by the friends and foes of the Liberal-Conservative party of extraordinary mental strength and of an intellect sharp enough to cut through the thicket of the diamond and to cut in conclusion, permit me to renew the assurance of pleasure
I afford to welcome you and Lady Beatrice to Cape Breton. Presented at the Liberal-Conservative of Bosdale, Cape Breton.

THE MINERS WERE THEN POVERTY-STRIKEN AND DEPENDANT—THE NATIONAL POLICY HAS MADE THEM CONTENTED AND PROSPER-ING—EVEN LIBERALS ADMIT THAT PUBLIC FEELING IN THE COUNTY IS WITH SIR CHARLES'S LEGISLATION WILL BE ADHERED TO.

Sydney, C.B., Jan. 22.—Enthusiasm as was Sir Charles Tupper's reception at the chief towns along the Intercolonial Railway during his trip down, it was nothing to be compared to the whole-souled welcome extended to him by the people of Cape Breton County. Notwithstanding the drifting snow, at every station along the line from Grand Narrows to Sydney, throngs of people had gathered to cheer the train as it swept by, and to catch a glimpse of the man that the Liberal leaders so dread and fear and hate and abuse.
At Grand Narrows, Bosdale, North Sydney, Leitch's Creek and Sydney address were presented, and the replies of Sir Charles were cheered to the echo. At some places the stations were decorated, torpedoes exploded, volleys fired, and at Sydney the assembled throng joined in singing "God Save the Queen" with a vim that was never heard before, amid falling snow and rain.

The Weather on Fire
Only those who appreciate how generally the heather is on fire in this county, and to what a pitch the enthusiasm of the Cape Breton people has been raised, it is particularly appropriate that the Christian should seek the sufferance of the Cape Breton County on his return to public life, for it was at the international meeting the shipping business, which in 1878 that he fired the first gun of the campaign that reverberated across the continent and resounded in the North of the Pacific. It was then that he in-folded the National Policy, which he dictated what it was destined to do for Cape Breton and for Canada. That year the mines were in a state of semi-starvation, and despair and dismay were written upon the faces of the people. That year only 14,000 tons of coal were shipped from the great pier on which he spoke of the National Policy in 1878, and in 1894 was only one million and a half tons. Last year 1,200,000 tons of coal were shipped from that same pier. Canada's home consumption has increased from 1,000,000 tons, and 300,000 tons of 1,000,000 tons crowded the harbor of Sydney. The mines are being developed to their full capacity; the hum of industry is heard on every hand; there is full work, with good wages, and the people were never as prosperous as now.
Realizing that the people owe this to Sir Charles Tupper, and that no other man, it is no wonder that the welcome extended to Nova Scotia's first Governor-General, and his extraordinary mental strength and of an intellect sharp enough to cut
and to cut in conclusion, permit
me to renew the assurance of pleasure
I afford to welcome you and Lady
at the Liberal-Conservative of Bosdale, Cape Breton.

THE LIBERAL PARTY

support their party, brother-in-law of an ex-Cabinet Minister in Mr. Macdonald's Government, and in 1878 general, characterizes it as factious and senseless. J. W. Peppert, one of the most prominent Liberal leaders in Sydney, and Dr. Thomas Smith, of the same town, who had been elected delegates to the Liberal-Conservative convention, and who were the only Liberal delegates to the convention, and who declined the proffered honor, and will to-morrow attend the Liberal-Conservative convention, and who were the only nomination of Sir Charles Tupper.
Even the leaders, who were full of indignation, and who were the only nomination of Sir Charles Tupper.

berg, who was taken ill while accompanying the British expedition against the Ashantes, died of fever from his return voyage from Cape Coast Castle to Sierra Leone.

THE QUEEN DEEPLY AFFLICTED London, Jan. 22.—The Court Circular, referring to the death of Prince Henry of Battenberg (Hesse), and to the fall of the Queen's youngest daughter, Princess Beatrice, then follows details of the illness and death, after which the Queen is most deeply afflicted by seeing her youngest daughter's happy life crushed and her young and affectionate son-in-law, to whom she was most devotedly attached, bearing the awful shock with great fortitude and resignation.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—The Governor-General has received the following message from the Queen in reply to the telegram of sympathy which she had addressed to Her Majesty this morning in reference to the death of Prince Henry of Battenberg:
"Osborne, Jan. 22, 1894.—Many thanks for kind sympathy in the grievous sorrow which has befallen me and my daughter and myself. (Signed) V. R. I."

BRITISH ARMY
Both Home and Field to Be Rained to Fall Strength.

London, Jan. 22.—The Marquis of Landow, Secretary of War, in a speech at Salisbury, county of Wilts, this evening said that both the home and field forces of the British Army were being reduced as rapidly as possible to the full strength, making a total of 318,000 men, besides the army reserve.

THE BANK STATEMENT.
Nothing Particularly Startling, But Some Reasons Given for a Feeling of Encouragement.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—The monthly statement of banks under review becomes of interest, more owing to its compliance of the year 1894 than from any startling facts or unusual changes revealed in its columns. The changes shown are of a downward tendency, although that is not a cause for surprise, as it is more the rule than the exception. But where we find encouagement is when comparing the statement with that for the same month of 1894.

Ottawa, Jan. 22.—The Parliamentary old-timer, Mr. M. C. Cameron, the newly elected member for West Huron, took his seat to-day. The manner of his introduction to Parliament life created some amusement. He was not seated by the Speaker, but by Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. McMillan, and in marching up the floor, did so in a hesitating way, as if not knowing where to go to the Ministerial or Opposition benches. Having shaken hands with the Speaker, he stood in front of the dia for a moment and then, at the invitation of the Speaker, he took his seat on the Opposition benches.

Dare Do It.

The Herald from Washington says: "It can be authoritatively stated that the Administration does not yet see its way clear towards giving recognition to the Cuban insurgents. The Presieign Relations Committee of both Houses on this subject."

POLICE STATISTICS 1893.
REPORT OF CHIEF GRASSETT SUB-MITTED TO THE COMMISSIONERS.

An Improvement Noted Over Former Years in All Felonies Have Murder—The Work of Detectives Favorably Commented Upon—Condition of the City's Moral-Financial and Other Matters Pertaining to the Department.

The official report of Lieut.-Col. H. J.
Graslett, Chief Constable, for the year ending Dec. 31, 1893, has been prepared and was forwarded to Mayor Fleming, chairman of the Board of Police Commissioners, yesterday afternoon.
Through the courtesy of His Worship, The Mayor is enabled to furnish his readers with the most complete and interesting report, which is as follows:

Jan. 21, 1894.
The Chairman Board of Police Commissioners, Toronto:
I have the honor to present my report upon the department of Police for the year 1893, accompanied with following statistical returns relating to crime, etc.

Judging from the figures given in the following comparative statement, Toronto may fairly be said to show an improved Police record:

Comparative Statement.

Nature of offence.	1894	1893	Inc. Dec.
Murder	1	7	6
Housebreaking	218	188	30
Robbery	11	10	1
Horse stealing	111	80	31
Larceny	1,624	1,423	201
Missed	3,014	1,747	1,267
Cases attended	2,751	4,430	71
Occurrences re-	4,774	4,430	344
Committals	688	793	105
Police force	$22,095	$18,200	$4,895
Arrests made	709	657	52

Seven persons were placed on trial for murder, but none were convicted of the Capital charge, nor was homicidal intent proved, against any of them.

In the case of a woman who had confessed to the cold blooded murder of a young man at his father's door, the jury returned a verdict of acquittal.
Two men, twice arrested for murdering an employee after effecting a large robbery on his life, were disgraced in the first instance and admitted them in the second. The other four were acquitted in return of the charge to manslaughter or acquittal.
The bodies of two children were found in the water, and were buried after being murdered in 1894 by a man since convicted of a similar offence in the United States and then sentenced to death.

Highway Robbery.
Though the cases recorded were not so numerous by 6 as in 1894, they succeeded in getting more money $106, almost entirely from drunken peddlars.

Pocket Picking.
Women, to the number of 79, and 3 men, were taken between them a loss representing $365.

Horse Stealing.
Four cases were reported under this head, two were really genuine; the others merely technically so.

Housebreaking.
This class of offences showed a decrease of 30 cases and $168 in value stolen. A comparison of the figures for the holiday season, from July to December, would seem to indicate that the frequent visits of the Police to temporarily occupied houses, may account for the improvement in the criminal returns for that period. Lead pipe stealing has almost ceased.

Finances.
Imposed,

Disorderly houses... 59 39 4 59 1495
Liquor cases... 115 129 245 1345

Miscellaneous... 387 369 531 801

Total... 851 638 4733 32612

Regularly established houses of prostitution seem to be numerous. The competition from women living singly so as not to come within the scope of the law may be one explanation of the cause. Frequenters of houses of ill-fame do not relish the possible visitation of the Police, and avoid those places likely to be raided.

Solicitation on the street is not rife, though there were some cases seen on the thoroughfares after nightfall.
An attempt was made to run a gambling resort by a man who had been of a Club Charter. The place was... The effect of reducing the illegal sale of liquor very materially.

to replace another during the current year. A new wagon house adjoining No. 4 Station is nearly completed, and will be leased for a term of years.

Headquarters and No. 1 Station have not been cleaned or painted for some years now present a most neglected and shabby appearance, to the discredit of the department and the City.

The year 1925 has been a busy one for Toronto. It was visited with two disastrous fires and in March was followed by a third. The origin of the fire remains a mystery.

Despite the efforts of the Police, the influence of the Humane Society and the publicity given to the case, the number of animals continues to show an increase.

A female inspector of shops having been appointed under the Medical Health Officer has been arranged that she shall report any violations of the Shops Regulation Act as may come under her notice.

The Lord's Day Act has been generally well observed, the only infringement being some minor shopkeepers who persist in selling to children on Sundays and a few foreigners working at their trade.

Sunday concerts at the Island being considered by some to be illegal, many of the people in order to have the joint decided by a superior court.

For the details of the work done under the direction of the Chief of Staff Inspector Archibald, I beg to refer you to his report transmitted herewith.

MAN AND WIFE IN TROUBLE

CHARGED WITH STEALING A LARGE AMOUNT OF GOODS. They Were Laid Upon as Good Citizens in Hamilton, Where Both Had Employment in a Large Dry Goods Establishment - Arrived in Windsor Large Amount of Goods in Their Possession.

Hamilton, Jan. 22.—Nelson Cornell and his wife, Mrs. Margaret Doherly, formerly a fascinating widow, were arrested last night in Windsor, charged with stealing dry goods from this city, and having caused something of a sensation here, as Cornell was well known and looked upon as a successful business man.

Mr. Augustin Daily announces the repertoire for Mrs. Potter and Mr. Bell. The opening bill will be "Charlotte Corday," also for the Wednesday matinee. Tuesday night they will present "The Stoops to Conquer."

A large audience should greet Miss Jennie O'Neill, who she will present her artistic entertainment, entitled "Flirt and Folly." The play is recommended by the New York press.

The largest theatrical company in the city, the "Cotton King," which ran for 100 nights at the Victoria Theatre, will be produced here.

Yesterday, both afternoon and evening, the Crystal Theatre was again filled with enthusiastic audiences, and departed fully satisfied.

The Toronto Philharmonic Club held its last rehearsal of the season last night, and it was pronounced a grand success.

The Caledonian Society concert, which takes place at Massey Hall tomorrow night, promises to be one of the most successful of the season.

$30,000 GONE UP IN SMOKE

YESTERDAY MORNING'S BLAZE THE MOST SERIOUS FOR A YEAR.

The McIntosh Flour and Feed Establishment on Front-street Damaged More Than $30,000 Worth—The Park, Blackwell & Co. Parkery Narrowly Escaped Total Destruction—Firemen Had a Hard Battle for Suppression.

The most destructive fire Toronto has experienced since the conflagration of last winter occurred yesterday morning, occasioning a loss of over $30,000.

A few minutes before 4 a.m. Police-man Allen saw a blaze in the warehouse of P. McIntosh & Son, wholesale flour and feed merchants, 109 Front-street east.

The cause of the fire is unknown. The policeman who discovered the fire seemed to originate near the engine room, and it is thought probable that some defect in the boiler or heating apparatus may have given the fire its origin.

Notes of the Fire

Three firemen who were on a ladder directing a stream of water through the upper windows had a narrow escape from injury through the fall of a cornice.
