MAYOR PLEADS GUILTY ADMITS MAIN CHARGE

Writes a Letter to Mr. A. E. Ames, Notable For Its Ingenious and Indefinite Wording.

NOW THE PUBLIC MUST JUDGE.

Driven By the Press of the City, He Makes a Tardy Apology.

Mayor Howland has written a letter to Mr. A. E. Ames. The letter is printed below. It is the outcome of his welcome to the city of the Iron Moulders' convention on Monday afternoon.

He admits the main charge made against him by every paper in Toronto, namely "that the leading spirit in the committee was well-known to be so interested as to be in sympathy with the company, and in that sense a representative." Thus he names Mr. Ames, who was the leading spirit of the arbitration committee of the Board of Trade that did such valiant work in settling the recent car strike.

Mayor Howland pleads guilty.

Furthermore, he has discovered that he has put himself into a box, and forthwith sets about to pull himself out again. The evening papers of Monday were full of his onslaught on the Board of Trade committee; the morning and the evening papers of Tuesday went after him hot foot. The atmosphere became close. Mayor Howland writes a letter beautiful in its vocabulary, ingeniously worded and landing you with the belief, "Mayor Howland pleads guilty."

Squirm as he may, he must take the responsibility of his reported speech and interview. Had he so desired the columns of the evening papers were open to him yesterday to put himself right. But he was silent. The storm of indignation has driven him to letter-writing at the eleventh hour. Why? The public will judge.

Mr. Ames' Statement.

Mr. Ames, who had addressed and had delivered at 8.30 p.m. a short letter to this paper in reply to the remarks of the Mayor as reported in the various newspapers of the city, withdrew his letter last night at 9, substituting a letter to himself, received from the Mayor last evening.

In handing in the Mayor's letter Mr. Ames stated that the motives of the members of the Board of Trade committee were with the single purpose of serving the community. His own offer of $10,000 made to the men to start a pension fund was neither made "on the impulse of the moment" nor was any mention or hint of it made to anyone until it was made at the meeting. It was made as a last resort, just before the vote was taken, with the hope that his willingness to make a personal sacrifice as a citizen might have some little effect with the men in helping the mto a mood where they in turn would be willing to sacrifice the comparatively small difference tnen between them and the company for the sake of preventing the evils of a strike.

Mr. Ames said he was not so foolish as to wish to insult such a body of men by proposing to them anything in the nature of a bribe, and his motive was thorolv understood by many of the men at the time, and, he was pleased to think, by most of them, if not all, at a later stage.

Mayor Pleads Guilty.

The Mayor's letter is as follows:

July 8, 1902.

My dear Mr. Ames,—My relations with you have always been most friendly, and I should be the last to desire to interrupt them. I therefore take the earliest opportunity of expressing my surprise and regret at the appearance of the "interview" reported in The World of this morning, and also at the emphasis laid upon a sentence in my speech to the Moulders' Convention on Monday.

The remark in my original speech was entirely incidental, and, in fact, parenthetical, and I intended no such prominence and attached no such importance to the matter as has been given it by a portion of the press.

I was then called on in my office by a gentleman who announced that he was a reporter on The World staff. He stated that he was reporting the Moulders' Convention, and that he wished his report to be accurate as to the remark reported in the evening papers, that the Board of Trade Committee was "a committee of the Street Railway Company." I think the gentleman was not with me for more than three minutes.

I replied to the reporter's question, that by my remark (a purely incidental one in the course of a long extempore speech) I had no intention of being understood that the Board of Trade Committee was literally a committee of or appointed by the Toronto Railway. I said I meant only what I thought was generally understood, namely, that the leading spirit in the committee was well known to be so interested as to be in sympathy with the company, and, in that sense, a representative. This, I supposed, ended the matter. I made no reference to other members of the committee.

I think the remark, as I actually explained it, goes little, if any, further than your reported statement at the meeting of the employes at the time you made the $10,000 offer. The reporter, not I, made some reference to that offer as a confirmation, in his opinion, of your having an interest in the matter. The language on that subject put into my mouth was not mine, nor, so far as I can remember, was it the language of the reporter to me.

Having answered the reporter's question for the purpose of his report, I had no expectation that any further conversation (in which he bore the principal share) would be made the basis of an "interview." You will see that my reply was for a purpose and in a spirit exactly contrary to the spirit of the reported "interview."

I repudiate entirely the black framed passage headed "Mayor's Charges." Referring in my speech to an opinion often previously expressed by others, and in public, cannot be construed into making charges, nor do I deem it a "charge" that you should have actively intervened in a matter in which you were believed to have a strong personal interest. At the same time I

WANTS AN EARLY CROWNING

King Edward Declines to Agree to Any Other Plan Till It is Over With.

ANOTHER OPERATION PLANNED

Court Physicians Say Royal Patient Must Suffer More Surgical Probing.

London, July 8.—The bulletin regarding the condition of King Edward, posted at Buckingham Palace at 10 o'clock this morning, says: "The King's progress is all that can be desired. (Signed) Treves, Laking, Barlow."

The news that the coronation of King Edward was to be held before the middle of August was published in the United States and Canada before it was known here. The London Times and other papers this morning confirm the Associated Press announcement. From the same excellent source, the Associated Press learns today that the pressing forward of the coronation was due to the personal insistence of the King. His doctors were at first opposed to such an early date, but the King declined to agree to any other plans until he is crowned, and the doctors, finally realizing that more danger was likely to arise in opposing His Majesty on th's point, agreed to it. They now see the King was right, and that it is far better for him to get thru the turmoil of the coronation as soon as possible than to have it hanging over him for months. King Edward has determined not to break up the court at Buckingham Palace until after the coronation. He may go on board his yacht for a few days' cruise, but he is more likely to remain in London till the affair is over, and than take a prolonged holiday.

ANOTHER OPERATION PLANNED

Chicago, July 8.—The Record-Herald's correspondent in London cables anent the fixing of the coronation for August that there are some who ascribe this change to an earlier date than planned last week to a clamor by the people for a coronation as soon as His Majesty will be well enough to bear the strain of this important function. Tho there is no danger of a fatal termination, it is known that the royal patient must submit to another surgical operation, as the primary cause of the ulcer has not yet been found. It is believed that the removal of the vermiform appendix may be necessary.

This fact naturally causes constant apprehension, so it is considered an act of wisdom to crown His Majesty as soon as possible.

The King himself also desires an early crowning, so as to be able to gainsay the many prophecies of ill-omen that have been circulated of late.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN

St. John, N.B., July 8.—At to-day's session of the National Council of Women the financial statement was read, showing receipts of $1007 and expenditures of $782. A message of greeting was ordered to be sent to the International oCuncil, now in sesion in Copenhagen. Lady Aberdeen was nominated for president of the International Council.

An invitation from the Toronto Council to hold the National Council of 1903 in Toronto was accepted.

To-night a public meeting in the interest of the Victorian Order of Nurses was held, the speakers being Miss Teresa Wilson of Ottawa, Mrs. D. Maclennan of St. John, Mrs. Griffin of Ottawa, Mrs. Willoughby Cummings of Toronto, Mrs. Machar of Kingston, Ont., Miss Elizabeth Scovil of New York, Mrs Hoodless of Hamilton, Ont., Dr. Thomas Walker of St. John and Dr. Worcester of Waltham, Mass.

Hon. J. G. Forbes was the presiding officer.

SOUTH AFRICAN GARRISON.

Permanent Force of 50,000 Men Under Lieut.-Gen. Lyttelton.

London, July 9.—The Daily Mail this morning says the permanent garrison in South Africa is to be 50,000 men, under the command of Lieut.-Gen. Lyttleton. Besides this force the system of having a large number of reservists scattered thruout the country, either on farms or in official positions, will be extensively followed. The reservists could be called upon for service in case of an emergency.

CZAR TO MAKE COTTONSEED OIL.

New Orleans, July 8.—Mathlen de Vicouline of St. Petersburg and Walter Stendel of Moscow arrived here to-day after an examination of the cottonseed oil plant at Natchez. Mr. de Vicouline is the manager of the cotton department of the imperial domain of Russia, and Mr. Stendel is at the head of one of the largest cotton mills in Moscow. They are visiting the South for the purpose of arranging for the introduction of the cottonseed oil industry into their country. Heretofore the seed has been used as cattle feed.

The Czar's own cotton domain produces 11,000 bales annually, and the first Russian oil mill will be erected to handle the seed from it.

CHOATE FOR WHITE HOUSE

Don M. Dickinson Names Him as a Possible Presidential Candidate in 1904.

THE ANGLO-AMERICAN ENTENTE

United States Have Ceased to Boast They Are Alone the Champions of Liberty.

London, July 8.—Speaking at the annual dinner of the Hardwicke Society in London to-night, Don M. Dickinson of Detroit, who was counsel for the United States here before the International High Commission on the Behring Sea claims in 1897, referred to Joseph H. Choate, the United States Ambassador, as a possible candidate for the presidency of the United States. The company consisted of several hundred members of the English bar, law lords and judges. The Earl of Dysart, Sir Charles Tupper, formerly Prime Minister of Canada; Sir George Clarke, formerly Solicitor-General; Justice Bartlett of New York; Lord Hardwicke, Under Secretary for India, and other members of the government and a number of colonial judges were among the guests.

Mr. Dickinson took Mr. Choate's place as the guest of honor. He prefaced his proposal of a toast to the English bench by a tribute to Mr. Choate. "Mr. Choate does not belong," said Mr. Dickinson, "to my party or my government, but it is very near the heart of the American people he shall go from the Court of St. James to the presidential chair, and I wish he may get there."

Mr. Dickinson eloquently voiced the sympathetic joy of the American people at the certainty of the recovery of the "illustrious and beloved King of England." "We rejoice," continued the speaker, "with you in your joys and sorrow with you in your grief. That feeling has been expressed by no one more truly than by President Roosevelt, who is as close to the people of America as has been any President in the history of the republic." Mr. Dickinson compared President Roosevelt amid the enthusiastic cheers of those present to Sir Philip Sydney, "Sans peur et sans reproche."

Dealing with international feeling, Mr. Dickinson said: "We of the United States have long since ceased to boast that we are alone the champions of liberty. Wherever the British flag floats to-day it stands for liberty." He cited the recent despatch of Joseph Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, declaring that the constitutio nof Cape Colony should not be suspended as an instance of Great Britain's love of liberty. He declared that America deeply sympathized with Mr. Chamberlain in his recent accident, and concluded: "Great Britain and the United States can make the words freedom wider yet, not by alliance, but by an understanding that we, the English-speaking nations, mean well by the rest of the world, and that the other nations must not attack either one of us."

Mr. Dickinson was loudly cheered.

Lord McNaghten, Lord of Appeal-in-Ordinary, replying to Mr. Dickinson, declared that American legal decisions were no wheld in respect in England equal to that which the old English legal precedents were held in the United States.

MUTINY ON THE HIGH SEAS.

Crew Clamored for the Blood of Their First Mate.

Pensacola, Fla., July 8.—A sensational story of mutiny and murder on the high seas is told by Captain McDonald of the American schooner Mary Sanford, which has arrived here after an eventful voyage from Bluefields, Nicaragua. During the voyage one man was killed and the crew were in constant mutiny, clamorous for the blood of the man who murdered their shipmate. The murderer, First Mate Nicholson, was placed in jail soon after the arrival of the Sanford in this port.

The Mary Sanford left Bluefields June 24, and when four days out Cass G. Nicholson, the first mate, killed Fred Reed, a negro, because he did not perform some duty to suit the ideas of the mate.

When Captain McDonald saw what had happened he overpowered Nicholson, took the pistol from him, and threw it overboard. The mate was then placed in irons and kept under strict guard until the vessel reached Pensacola quarantine station, when the United States marshal's office was told of the murder, and Nicholson was brought here and locked up. He will be given a preliminary trial before U. S. Commissioner Tunison.

One of the ship's crew said that immediately after the killing four West Indian seamen, countrymen of the dead man, openly resented the murder of Reed, and threatened to hang Nicholson, from a yardarm. The captain, two mates and steward were the only white men on the vessel, and the combined watchfulness of this quartet prevented a marine session of Judge Lynch's court.

BARBER COULDN'T SEE KING.

Washington, July 8.—Henry Lewis, the aged colored barber who went to London a month ago to return to Edward VII., King of England, the lock of hair clipped from the head of Edward, Prince of Wales, when the Prince visited the United States in 1860, returned to Washington to-day. Lewis, who is about 90 years old, is nearly heartbroken over the postponement of the coronation, and the fact that he did not see King Edward, and could not return to him the precious lock of hair which he has all these years kept in a little vial.

In 1860 Lewis was a barber on one of the river steamers, and gave the Prince of Wales a haircut and shampoo on the trip of the royal party down the Potomac to Mount Vernon. Lewis is poor, and spent the savings of a lifetime on his journey across the sea with the little lock of hair. He is happy, tho, except for the fact that the coronation was postponed, and says England is a fine country and London the greatest city in the word.

MORGAN COMBINE SHIPS TO SERVE GREAT BRITAIN

Promoter of Giant Merger Offers to Place British Ships at the Disposal of the Admiralty for the Next Fifty Years—England's Commercial Supremacy.

London, July 8.—In the House of Commons the Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty, H. C. Arnold-Forster, replying to William Redmond, the Irish leader, confirmed the report that J. Pierpont Morgan had offered to place all the British ships in the new combine at the disposal of the Admiralty for the next 50 years, on certain terms. Mr. Arnold-Forster added that the offer had not yet been accepted, because it could only be dealt with in relation to British shipping generally and the Atlantic trade position, which was being carefully considered by the government.

Pay for a Reserve.

Lord Brassey (Liberal) initiated a discussion on naval matters in the House of Lords to-day, during the course of which he deplored the fact that Great Britain had lost the place she once held with her mercantile marine. The question of subsidies, he thought, must depend on the action of the other powers. All the naval powers of Europe, the speaker asserted, gave liberal subsidies, while President Roosevelt and ex-Secretary Gage had recommended the policy. It was contrary to British policy to foster industries by bounties or protection, but to pay for a reserve of auxiliary vessels would certainly be to the public advantage.

Referred to Combine.

Lord Selborne, the First Lord of the Admiralty, in the course of a reply, referred to the Atlantic shipping combine. He said it seemed to him that the balance was one of disadvantage to the combination, because it necessarily placed very large powers in the hands of a few men. The government disclaimed any sort of jealousy of the intention of the Americans here. They had an American marine of their own, and they had a perfect right to a full share of the Atlantic trade. It was to British interest that they should have it. It should not be an almost British monopoly.

Attitude of Anxiety.

On the other hand, Great Britain could not afford to see herself squeezed out of the Atlantic trade. The attitude of the government, therefore, was not one of hostility, but of anxiety, and not until they had formed a final opinion of the whole question could they wisely or fairly enter into agreements with one party or the other. It would never do to rely in time of war on merchant ships of other nations for the purposes of British carrying trade.

Special Subsidies.

Great Britain had fallen behind in regard to vessels of high speed, because she had not given heavy subsidies like other nations. The expense of so large a subsidy policy was so insidious that in his opinion the subsidizing of commercial corporations should and must be confined to a limited number and for a special and definite purpose. While merchant cruisers had their proper place in time of war, they could never be substituted for naval cruisers, nor would the possession of merchant cruisers ever diminish the shipbuilding vote for the navy.

TROLLEY LEFT THE RAILS

Car Was Rounding the Curve at the Red Bridge on Dundas Creek.

PASSENGERS ESCAPED INJURY.

A Broken Flange on One of the Wheels Caused the Accident.

Dundas, July 8.—The passengers on car No. 20 on the H. & D. Railway, which left Hamilton at 11.15 this morning had a miraculous escape from death. The car, in charge of Conductor Beckton and Motorman MacDonald, made the trip safely until the curve at the Red Bridge on the Dundas Creek was reached, when the car left the rails and pitched as if it would turn over, but luckily did not.

The passengers were thrown from one side to the other, but none were seriously injured. Traffic was delayed until 4.30 p.m., when the car was got on the track and taken back to the repair shop in Hamilton. There is a heavy grade just east of the bridge, and had the accident occurred there, doubtless there would have been a serious fatality.

A broken flange on one of the wheels caused the accident.

THE C.N.R. STRIKE.

Strikers Confident, But Company Says Everything is O.K.

Winnipeg, July 8—The Canadian Northern strike has now entered upon its second week. Both sides are claiming ultimate victory.

Mr. Broatch, chairman of the strikers' committee, said this morning that there are still hundreds of men out on strike. There were probably over a hundred section gangs out.

Mr. D. B. Hanna, on the other hand, said that the company was operating as usual. The shops were all going full blast and all trains were on time. So far as the company was concerned, the strike was over.

TEAMSTERS WON'T GO UT.

STRIKERS GAINED NOTHING.

Pawtucket, R.I., July 8.—The Street Railway employes' strike, which has been in force since June 3, was to-night declared off by a vote of 43 to 14, after a session lasting nearly four hours. The strikers gain absolutely nothing. Excepting five, who have made themselves objectionable, all the men will be taken back on the basis of an 11-hour day at 18 2-3 cents an hour.

LONDON AWAITS KITCHENER

Victorious General Will Be Welcomed to the Metropolis at Noon on Saturday.

WILL DINE WITH PRINCE OF WALES.

Congratulations of County Council Adopted With Only a Few Dissenting Votes.

London, July 8.—The program for the reception of Lord Kitchener upon his arrival from South Africa is similar to the one carried out upon the occasion of the home-coming from South Africa of Lord Roberts, the Commander-in-Chief of the Forces.

After his elaborate welcome at Southampton, Lord Kitchener is expected to reach London at noon on July 12. He will be escorted to St. James' Palace, where he will be entertained at luncheon by the Prince of Wales. The Prince will act for the King, and it is said that His Majesty, were it not for his illness, would have honored Lord Kitchener by entertaining him at luncheon, as he did Lord Roberts when the latter returned.

The resolution adopted by the London County Council to tender Lord Kitchener the congratulations of London upon the successful termination of the South African war was opposed by labon members of the Council and by Lord Russell (Liberal), who remarked that he could not forget or forgive the judicial murder of Commandant Scheepers.

The resolution was passed with only a dozen dissenting votes.

THE HAY CROP.

Ontario never before had such a hay crop as this year, but, unfortunately, the weather has been the worst possible for the cutting, curing and stocking of it. For four weeks or more now it has rained more or less nearly every day. The consequence is that while the crop has been very satisfactory in every respect, the opportunities for harvesting it have been of the poorest, and we are sorry to learn that a great many fields that have been cut and where the hay was on the ground for curing have been damaged to such an extent by the wet that the hay will not bring more than half its value, even if it brings that. In some sections of the country, where the hay had been put in the barns it was found necessary to have it taken out, on account of over-heating. Those farmers who have been fortunate enough to have a late crop will probably be in the best position, altho there is uncertainty even yet that the wet season is completed, for all yesterday there was more or less thunder in the air around Toronto and in other portions of the province. Some of the advices received by The World yesterday are to the effect that between here and Barrie quite a number of hay fields are totally under water. The prospects of $4 a ton hay for feeding purposes next spring are not so bright as they were 10 or 15 days ago.

TRACY ALWAYS GETS AWAY

Half a Hundred Deputies Had Him Surrounded But He Escaped as Before.

BLOODHOUNDS NOW ON HIS TRAIL

Man He Kidnapped Found Tied to a Tree—Whole Country Can't Find Convict.

Seattle, Wash., July 8.—Harry Tracy was this afternoon at a farmhouse one and a half miles east of Renton, a suburb. The news was sent to the city at 2 o'clock by Charles Jerry, who lives at Renton. Tracy and the man Anderson, who has been with him since Sunday night, came to Jerry's house shortly after noon to-day and gave him two of the watches which they had previously taken from others, and told him to go out and dispose of them. Instead of doing this, Jerry came at once to Renton and telephoned the news to the sheriff's office. Posses were at once organized in the vicinity, and it is thought that Tracy is again fairly surrounded.

Some time between Saturday night and Monday night Tracy reached the City of Seattle. A boat, identified as the Johnson boat, in which he left Port Madison, accompanied by the man Anderson, on Saturday night, was found to-day with a chain attached to it, thrown over a boom of logs at the wharf at Newell's mill, south of Seattle.

Half a hundred deputies had Tracy surrounded in the Gerald House, at Renton, but he gave them the slip, and was gone 10 minutes before the deputies knew it. The sheriff then closed in, and found Anderson, the man he kidnapped, tied to a tree back of the house. Bloodhounds are now on his trail.

All summer tourists know David Fife, mine host of the ideal shady Muskoka retreat at Windermere, where one so soon forgets the heat and bustle of July city life. With Mr. Fife the safety and comfort of his guests is always a first consideration, and hence every season sees some new addition to the accommodations of his hotel, or some radical improvement on old resources. This season Mr Fife has installed the famous Siche Gas System throughout his hotel, at once doing away with the fearful danger of kerosene lamps and providing a means of illuminating his premises unrivalled for its softness and brilliancy.

We are advised by the Siche Gas Company that the danger element in kerosene lighting and electric lighting is now so fully recognized by prominent hotel people that the demand for the absolutely safe Siche system is daily growing; as many machines have been sold in the past month as in six months of 1901, and further arrangements are now in hand for increasing the possible output of the company to overtake orders in time. UNION WOULD HAVE SHARE IN PROFITS

The Wage Scale is High, They Think They Should Benefit From Prosperity.

Industrial circles of the world have been amazed at the extraordinary advances made in the manufacture of iron and capitalization of steel corporations in America during the last three years, but the history of those colossal combinations is no more startling in its way than the increase in membership of the great organization which enrols among its numbers so many of the iron moulders of North America.

During the past three years the Iron Moulders' Union of North America has made a net gain in membership of 22,107. This is exceptionally interesting in view of the fact that the union has been in existence more than forty years, and during the three years in which the iron and steel industry has assumed such importance in the commerce of the world this organization has nearly doubled its size. This is especially extraordinary when it is recalled that the union has something less than 55,000 members. In other words, 22,107 of these moulders have been enrolled as members of the union since the manufacturers of iron and steel began their plan of capital combination which has resulted in the formation of the United States Steel Corporation, with its hundred million dollar capital.

Ready for an Emergency.

This relative increase in the number of men seeking the labor unions is significant as portending a titanic struggle if ever the great steel magnates of America should try conclusions with their men to handle their molten metal and make their millions possible.

President Fox made public his reports during the session of the International Iron Mouders' convention yesterday. The delegates knew that the membership had increased since the last convention of three years ago, but they were not prepared for this amazing evidence of the organization's progress. It elicited a general comment among the delegates. President Fox said he attributed this extraordinary growth to the interest iron moulders are now taking in the principle of organization.

The sessions to-day will begin to attract the serious attention of the delegates, and they will get down to business. To-night the members go for trolley ride. After the reports of sev-

DELEGATE TO THE YUKON.

Dr. S. M. Wickett Will Try to Open Up New Avenues of Trade.

Dr. S. M. Wickett, who has been appointed by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association to visit the Yukon and look into the prospects of trade there, will leave on his journey on the 17th inst. To-day he goes to Montreal, where he will interview the manufacturers and return here on Saturday. On his way to the Yukon he will visit Sault Ste. Marie, Fort

Dr. S. M. Wickett.

William, Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver. At Winnipeg and Vancouver he will attend meetings of branches of the association.

Dr. Wickett, who has made a study of trade matters, hopes by his visit to permanently establish a demand in the markets of the Yukon for Canadian goods. This he believes is possible, as the people of the Yukon have very little products of their own, but he realizes that the American manufacturer, who was first to enter the field, has to be competed with. In the matter of American competition there is, says Dr. Wickett, the tariff which protects the Canadian producer.

Once the trade is developed the lines of transportation and communication will be opened up, and with these will come increased business.

Dr. Wickett is well known in Toronto business circles. He is connected with the firm of Wickett & Craig, leather merchants, and has been a member of the Executive Council of the Manufacturers' Association for three years. In 1894 he graduated from Toronto University and obtained the degree of Ph.D. in Leipzig. Since his return he has lectured on political economy at the university.

The Elektrish uBreau is an old established house and has supplied the electrical equipment for the civic telephone plant in Glasgow, in Tunbridge Wells, Portsmouth and other places in the Old Country, which have been successful municipal telephone systems.

Barton Township Council Practically Accepts Proposition of Hamilton-Caledonia Electric Road.

TEACHERS' SALARIES INCREASED

Inspector Ballard Now Receives $2200 a Year—W. W. Charters Resigns Position.

Hamilton, July 8.—Barton Township Council held a special meeting tonight, when the bylaw for the Hamilton and Caledonia Electric Road was discussed. The council practically accepted the conditions of the company as laid down by its solicitor, J. G. Gauld. The company is to get free right of way and will give six tickets for 25 cents for trips from any part of the township to the city. No readings were given the bylaw.

The Cemetery Board met to-night for a few minutes, but no business, except the passing of accounts, was transacted.

Salaries Increased.

At the meeting of the International Management Committee of the Board of Education to-night it was decided to increase the salary of Inspector Ballard from $2000 to $2200, and an increase of $100 was granted to A. M. Overholt, assistant mathematical master at the Collegiate Institute. The salary of Caretaker Stewart of the Barton-street School was increased from $350 to $400. W. W. Charters, head master of the Caroline-street School, tendered his resignation, and it was decided to recommend that John Robinson be transferred from the West-avenue School to the Caroline-street School, and that T. J. Hill succeed Robinson.

There was a fire at the Puritan Laundry, Walnut-street, to-night. Not much damage was done.

Mr. Carscallen is not worrying at al about the action taken by the Grits, and said that there would be cross petitions filed in both East and West Hamilton. He also volunteered the information that the Grit candidates in both ridings, as well as several prominent members of the Grit party, would find themselves, personally, in rather uncomfortable positions when the cross petitions came to trial.

STUDIED FOR HER HUSBAND.

Wife Was Proxy While He Worked and It Helped Him to Degree.

Chicago, July 8.—Studying for a bachelor's degree by proxy is the unique plan practised at the University of Chicago by Robert Gordon Jeffrey. His wife has been taking the summer course at the college for her husband, while he has taught school in another part of the city.

The morning the summer term opened Mrs. Jeffrey registered for her husband, paid his tuition bill and obtained from Dean James H. Tufts permission to attend classes in his stead until he could finish up his school work. She explained to the Dean that necessity demanded that Mr. Jeffrey continue his work. His ambition was to take his bachelor's degree and their means did not permit him to abandon the work.

The instructors watched Mrs. Jeffrey and helped her in her studies as proxy for her spouse. She took copious notes, with the result that, when her husband, his school work at an end, came to the college this morning to take up his studies he was enabled to add three months' senior credit to his bachelor degree. He had studied the notes which she has taken.

Army and Navy Veterans.

The monthly meeting of His Majesty's Army and Navy Veterans, held last night in Occident Hall, was well attended. President J. W. Collins occupied the chair.

Lieut.-Col. J. Elliott of Queen's Park was elected an honorary member, and Thomas McOwens of the Royal Canadian Rifles a benefit member.

A letter was read from Major Martin of Lindsay, enclosing a copy of a communication received from England, in which it was stated that he is entitled to a pension for service in the Crimean war. Major Martin is very ill, having contracted a cold while attending the laying of the corner stone in Memorial Park here on Dominion Day. A resolution of sympathy was drafted and ordered to be sent to him.

Rev. Mr. Brookman, late of the Indian Navy, occupied a seat of honor beside the chairman.

Summer in the Yukon.

Woodstock, July 8.—Registrar G. R. Pattullo this morning received letters from his sons, J. B. and Duff Pattullo, dated at Dawson City, June 19. At that date the Yukon people were right into their summer, but so far, from a business standpoint, there was great disappointment. A great many people are going out of the country, and the annual abundance of money displayed in previous years is lacking. The Pattullos report the return to Dawson of Governor Ross, after an excursion to Ottawa, and refer to the big reception given him.

The New Sale Ring.

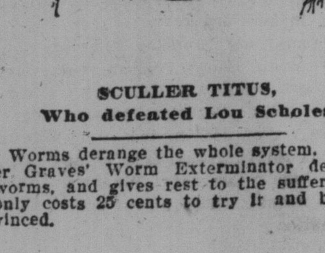

The opening auction sale at Walter Harland Smith's new repository, Simcoe and Nelson-streets, was held yesterday, and was well attended. About sixty well-broken young horses of all classes were sold at fair prices. Mr. Smith invited all present to luncheon in one of the rooms of the new buildings, and about 400 responded to the invitation and enjoyed the refreshments provided by the Harry Webb Company. Everyone is enthusiastic over the splendid arrangements for the convenience of buyers and sellers in the new premises.

FATALITY AT EAST TORONTO.

Thomas Berry, G.T.R. Section Man, Killed By the Midland Train.

Thomas Berry, a Grand Trunk sectionman at the East Toronto yards, was instantly killed about noon on Tuesday by being struck by the Midland train. He had just gone over to the G.T.R. boarding-house for a drink, and was returning to the station when the train, which was some time overdue, struck him. It was going at a good rate of speed, and threw him several feet. He was picked up, and Dr. Walters was on the spot in a few moments, but life was extinct. The body was removed to Hunter's undertaking establishment, Danforth-road.

Coroner Johnson issued a warrant for an inquest to be held at the Morgue tomorrow afternoon.

Deceased was a widower, about 60 years of age, and three children are left to mourn their loss.

CHOLERA IN PHILIPPINES.

Washington, July 8.—Not since 1882, when the native population of the Philippines was decimated by a virulent epidemic of Asiatic cholera, has there been such an attack of the disease as is now ravaging the archipelago. Officers just returned from the Philippines have expressed the fear that the mortality will approach the figures attained twenty years ago. Because the natives are ignorant of the simplest rules of hygiene and sanitation, the epidemic seems bound to increase during the hot weeks to come, and the only immediate relief is the rainy season, which is due in August or September.

The disease has made great inroads in the army and has scored fully a hundred deaths. But these have been due to the disobedience on the part of the victims to the orders of officers regarding what they should eat and drink. The total number of deaths is, 7713; number of cases, 10,332; cases in army, 104. All this from Nov. 2, 1901, to July 4, 1902.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

From The Westminster Gazette.

God save the King. No chair of state
Receives him now. He lieth low.
No sentinel could keep the gate
Inviolate 'gainst the common foe.

Lithe Indian, tropic's sons, and youth
Grown hardy 'mid Canadian snows
Here vainly guarding, point the truth,
Kings are our kin in nature's woes.

Not lifted up, but stricken down;
Not throned, but couched, with chastening smart,
Yet here, O sufferer, find thy crown,
For manhood is thy kingliest part.

Thou wert a King, and, needing naught,
Thou art a man, 'neath heavy stress;
They who but of thy kingship thought,
Now think of thee and fain would bless.

Or be it his, or be it ours,
Life is to all a sacred thing.
God send all sufferers happier hours,
God save us all. God save the King.

Won $15,000 on Dramatist.

The Waterloo turfman, Joseph E. Seagram, at last put a good thing over the line in his 2-year-old colt Dramatist, touching up the ring for close to $15,000 on the race. Mr. Seagram personally attended to the distribution of his commission from a vantage point at the edge of the ring by the foot of the stand.

Not a few "pikers" waited near the gentleman from across the border, but they got weary at signs of "nothin' doing," and sought elsewhere for the winner. Had they waited longer, however, their patience might have been rewarded, for when Dramatist's price touched 8 to 1 the object of their solicitude sent his commission in, and it was soon felt in the ring. As good as 3 to 1 a place and 7 to 5 to show ruled, but it was not in sight long.

The Dramatist commission was offset by so much Joe Cobb money, however, that 6 to 1 was laid against the Seagram colt at the post. J. E. McDonald, M. Corbett, W. Barrick and H. Blumenthal "lumbered heavily" on Joe Cobb, the last-named placing $500 a clip, with eight or ten of his fellow-layers.—New York Telegraph.

Barrow of the Toronto Baseball Club will to-morrow make application to the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues for the blacklisting of Frank J. Bonner, Nicholas Altrock, Perry Bemis, Robert Schaub and Patsy Flaherty, all of whom deserted the Toronto club at the opening of the season. Bemis is now with the Cleveland American League team, while Bonner, Schaub, Flaherty and Altrock are connected with other American teams.

Garden Hose Stolen.

Detective Forrest is looking for an owner for a quantity of garden hose, stolen from a house on George-street between Wilton-avenue and Gerrard-street. The hose was found last night in the possession of James Ball of 166 Mutual-street, who is now under arrest. Policeman Reburn caught him in the act of trying to effect a sale on East Queen-street.

High School Board.

The High School Board last night appointed a committee to report upon the proposal to issue a history of the collegiate institutes in this city. The caretaker of the Jarvis-street school was voted $10 for extra services rendered on the night of the Pavilion fire. The attendance in the schools for the month of June was 919. The expenditures of the board this year to date have been $44,644.18. It is estimated that $24,100 more will be spent before the end of the year.

MAYOR PLEADS GUILTY

thought it right that the public should know that other efforts had been made, and that other acts to which little justice had been done had had their share of influence towards the result in which we all rejoice.

You are at liberty to make any use of this letter you see fit.

Yours sincerely,
O. A. Howland, Mayor.

Mr. A. E. Ames, president the Board of Trade, city.

Interview Absolutely Correct.

Statement of The World reporter who called on the Mayor: I called at the Mayor's office late in the afternoon. Being unacquainted with His Worship, I introduced myself as a World reporter, explaining at the same time that I had called to ascertain the correctness of the remarks attributed to the Mayor touching his speech before the Moulders' Convention, in which he was quoted as questioning the Board of Trade Committee's motives and methods in their negotiations in the street car strike. I did not tell the Mayor he was being interviewed. I took it for granted that he recognized that I was there for that purpose. The interview was brief, involving more time than three minutes, however. The Mayor said he had not seen an afternoon paper. I then quoted to him the substance of the alleged speech, as contained in the several papers. He said he could not recall exactly his remarks, as they were extemporaneous, but he thought the quotation about correct.

The Mayor's remarks were made with the greatest freedom. That there could be no mistake, however, as to whom he meant when he said the "leading members of the committee," I asked him pointedly if that meant Mr. Ames, and his reply was specific: "Yes, and others." It is true that I asked the questions that drew out the Mayor on the different phases of the interview, but he replied with such volubility that I did not consider a mistake possible and his language was unmistakable. I refrained from mentioning the fact that the Mayor said the "leading members of the committee were partially responsible for watering the company's stock," because I could not recall with sufficient accuracy the figures mentioned by the gentleman. The interview with the Mayor printed in Monday's World was absolutely correct."

CORN CORNER IN CHICAGO

Gates Crowd Forces Prices Up to 85½ Cents.

Chicago, July 8.—The grip of the Gates crowd on the local supply of contract corn and the plight of shorts were again made evident to-day, when July corn broke the records of recent years by going to 84 3-4 cents. The next sale was at 83 3-4 cents. The market opened with corn wanted for this month's delivery all the way from 77 cents to 79 1-2 cents. All forenoon bids hesitated below 80 cents, later reports of further precipitation in the West frightened shorts, and the price shot up by leaps and bounds. Little corn was sold, however, even at this advance. The close was at 84 cents, seven cents higher than the previous close last Thursday.

A month ago corn for delivery in July was selling around 61 cents a bushel; to-day it was worth 84 3-4 cents. The firm of Harris, Gates & Co, for some wealthy customers, supposed to include John W. Gates, J. A. Drake and a few other speculators, have, as is generally supposed, bought about 20,000,000 bushels of corn for delivery this month at between 59 cents and 65 cents a bushel. Their profit at 84 cents, if the average cost of their purchases was 62 cents, would amount to $4,400,000.

That is the stake now being played for by these big Board of Trade plungers, and the advance in price of July corn from 77 cents at the opening of the market to-day to 85 1-2 cents, as it stood at one period of the session, was the result of some of the short sellers trying to get out of the corner in which they now find themselves. There was no great excitement in the pit, the victims of the corner taking their medicine quietly.

Saturday's Orange Walk.

Orangemen are looking forward to a record-breaking demonstration on Saturday next, the 221st anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne. It is expected that between 4000 and 5000 will be on parade, including members of the Prentice Boys' Association, Loyal Orange Young Britons, True Blue Association and the Loyal Orange Orangemen from Rochester will take shard Association. A representation of the Orangemen from Rochester will take part in the demonstration here, and probably brethren from other American cities.

The procession will form in Queen's Park, in the vicinity of the Parliament Buildings. At 10.30 o'clock the parade will move off by way of Grosvenor-street to Yonge-street, to Queen-street, to Dufferin-street, and thence to the Exhibition Grounds. The procession will be marshalled by R. J. Armstrong, County D. of C. He will be assisted by James Law, W. H. Harper, J. Edwards, E. Will and N. J. Harrison.

On the grounds a program of games will be run off, and speeches made. The speakers will include County Master Harry Lovelock, E. F. Clarke, M. P., W. J. Parkhill, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of British America, and Lieut.-Col. J. H. Scott, Past Grand Master of the Black Chapter of British America.

Funeral of Thomas Tinning.

Many relatives and friends attended the funeral of the late Thomas Tinning yesterday, which took place from his late residence, 11 Harbord-street, to St. Thomas' Church, thence to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The service were conducted by Rev. Mr. McCausland. The pallbearers were: Fred Rose, Richard Tinning, C. Baxter, C. Irwin, R. Birmingham and J. Tinning, jr.

Among the many beautiful floral tributes placed on the casket was a pillow from Thomas Swinyard of New York, which bore the words, "In Loving Memory of Kindly Service Rendered in 1870." On that occasion, Mr. Tinning received the bodies of several members of Mr. Swinyard's family, who were drowned in Hamilton Bay.

Railway Employes Reinstated.

Those employes of the Toronto Railway Company, who were temporarily suspended by a roadmaster of the company, were granted an audience yesterday morning by President Mackenzie and General Manager Keating. Some of them were re-instated pending a fuller enquiry into the circumstances leading to their suspension, while others were confirmed in their complaints. The railway officials gave them every opportunity to state their case.

Twenty-Four Watches Stolen.

S. E. Shyeck & Co., dealers in peddlers' supplies, were the victims of a couple of cool shopbreakers on Monday evening. The firm had just secured new premises at 131 West King-street, and the employers had gone out for supper, between 7 and 8 o'clock, when the place was visited by the thieves. A rear door was forced, and a case of 24 watches, valued at $120, was carried off. The police are investigating.

Threw Stones at a Train.

Henry McCarthy of 508 East Queen-street, a 14-year-old lad, was arrested last night at the foot of Eastern-avenue by Constable Mackenzie of the railway service for throwing stones at a passing train. The officer was prompted to go to this particular crossing by the many complaints made by the company within the past few days.

LOCAL TOPICS.

A party of 20 tourists from Pittsburg are registered at the Walker House. They are on their way to Muskoka.

Lawrence Coyle of 9 Chestnut-street fell yesterday and fractured his right forearm. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital.

The city is being flooded with a certain brand of medicated cigarets, which have come under the notice of the Morality Department. An analysis will be made, and the sale probably prohibited.

While cutting pork in the Park-Blackwell factory yesterday, a knife which Charles Foster of 53 Niagara-street was using slipped and inflicted a deep gash in his knee. The wound was dressed at the Emergency Hospital.

A Model Apartment House.

Commenting on the fact that an apartment house is to be built in a suburb of Chicago this year, upon a new model, Construction News, among other things, says: "The building will be in three sections around a garden containing rustic bridges, ponds, streams, waterfalls and walks, surrounded with a cordon of shrubbery and trees. . . . Each apartment will have a miniature summer garden, convertible into a conservatory in winter. In the basement will be telephone, gymnasium, billiard rooms, dance halls, Russian and Turkish baths. Dumb-waiters will send up to the apartments everything required. But in this alluring scheme there is a fatal defect. The occupants will have to do their own cooking. . . . The most serious defect is that the most oppressive evil in American housekeeping will be inserted in an otherwise admirable structure. The servant evil is the worst of American housekeeping; it is an evil which gains every year in perplexity and malignity. If there were in this model apartment structure a restaurant whose management would relieve the tenants of culinary duty the design would be symmetrical and complete. Men servants are not in favor in small families, and the old-fashioned man-of-all-work is rapidly becoming extinct. In a restaurant furnishing meals to twenty or thirty families, both men and women could be employed profitably. In the kitchen operated on the plan universal in Europe, cooking could be done by experts and favorable prices on supplies could be secured in consideration of the large quantities needed. . . There should be but one kitchen in an apartment house, and it should be on the highest floor."

Americans will surely soon be brought to see the waste in present methods of living, and by systematic co-operation bring to pass a system in which the servant evil will be reduced to a minimum and advantages gained thru buying the necessaries of life on a large scale, not to mention the great saving brought about by present duplication of kitchen apparatus.

In Paris several large apartment houses of the American type are being built from plans by American architects, Messrs. McKim, Mead & White, of New York. These houses will do away with many inconveniences of which Americans have long complained, notably the dispensing with the services of the concierge, whose tyranny has become a household story, but who will now be displaced by a janitor. Some Americans of experience will wonder where the advantage comes in such a change. Elevators of modern construction have been ordered and billiard rooms and swimming tanks are included in the basement. The rent will include heat, light, taxes and janitor service. The experiment is regarded as having important bearing on future building in Paris, but it is thought that it cannot succeed, owing to the restrictions placed upon the height of buildings there.

How Scholes Was Beaten.

New York, June 8.—Scholes was overanxious to get the better of the start, says a special to The World, in describing the first heat for the Diamond Sculls, and left the stakeboat once before the word. He took the lead, rowing 37 to the minute. Titus, following his example. There was little between them at the quarter-distance, but at the half Scholes led by a length. They did half the distance in 4 min. 6 sec., the fastest time of the day.

When they reached the mile, 530 yards from the winning post, Titus collared the Canadian, and, in the last 200 yards, extending himself in a splendid spurt, Titus drew clear and won in fine style by 1½ lengths.

From the time Titus seriously challenged at the mile post, Scholes, tho he stuck doggedly to his work, was a beaten man. The judgment shown by Titus won as much applause as his perfect style and powerful rowing.

The time was 8 min. and 32 sec., the record for the course being 8 min. 29 sec., with a favoring wind. What wind there was today was not favorable.

The oldest Henley frequenters say they never saw a better sculling contest. Titus, who was warmly congratulated by Scholes, who drew alongside and shook hands, landed his own boat and seemed perfectly fresh, while Scholes almost collapsed on getting out of his shell. He said to The World correspondent:

"Whoever beats Titus must be a corker."

After the race Titus said: "I went to the post with my mind made up to match Scholes at any style he set. When I saw he was not leaving me at the quarter, I hung on about half a length behind, and felt I could hold him easily. When I looked around and saw that he was having truble with his wind, I was taking in good and easy, tho the water was very heavy and the sun very hot. My plan was to nip him out at the finish. In the sprint, when about 300 yards from the finish, I started to go after him. I had the sprint in me, and didn't let it all out to beat him, but slacked off a little when I held the race safe. I am feeling fit and am confident of making a good showing, tho I am still rather bilious after my sickness at Putney. Having won this heat, I have now each day to meet a fresh man. The three best, according to opinion here, are Field, Blackstaffe and Kelley, so it will take some hard work, but I feel ready for anything. I scaled 143 pounds after the race, having lost two pounds."

Toronto Methodist Cyclists' Union.

A large number of members and friends of the Toronto Methodist Cyclists Union attended the first run of the season last evening. After a pleasant wheel around town an adjournment was made to the beautiful lawn of the Broadview Athletic Club, which was specially illuminated for the occasion, and the games of ping-pong, croquet, etc. were thoroly enjoyed, after which refreshments were served.

John J. McGraw has been engaged by New York at a salary reported to be $10,000 a year as manager, and will take charge of the team in a few days. It is considered likely that Wilbert Robinson will soon follow McGraw from Baltimore, as the New York team is very much in need of strengthening behind the bat.

Storm in New York State.

Sodus, N.Y., July 8.—A most terrific storm struck Sodus last night. The transformer in the Rochester and Sodus Bay sub-power house station, in this village, was struck by lightning and destroyed. It will be nearly a week before the damage can be repaired. Cars were run irregularly this morning on power distributed from Ontario. The Empire State telephone system, out of town, is completely wrecked.

New York, July 8.—In a hurricane finish, C. F. Dwyer's Ethics won the Jamaica Selling Stakes by a nose to-day at Brighton Beach. The race was at 1 1-16 miles, and Tommy Burns rode his best finish of this year. Kilogram was favorite, and Wonderly let him go to the front. Aladdin Annexed Another.

Chicago, July 8.—Aladdin, winner of the Oakwood Handicap and the Sheridan Stakes, added the Drexel Stakes to his list of victories this afternoon, when he defeated a small and rather ordinary field at Washington Park. The best three-year-olds eligible for the event, Alladin excepted, failed to accept the issue, and perhaps the heavy track was responsible. Aladdin was a 3 to 5 favorite, but he did not look like such until the stretch was reached, inasmuch as he was back in the bunch until that part of the race. In the run home, however, Aladdin responded to the whip, and passed Jack Ratlin and South Trimble without difficulty. Hunter Raine also came fast thru the stretch, but or swerving badly, which necessitated Lyne pulling him up, he might have given Aladdin a stout argument at the finish. He captured second money easily from South Trimble. During the fifth race a rain storm came up, and once more drenched the track. Summary:

First race, ¾ mile—Hanover Queen, 102 (Fisher), 4 to 1, 1; Zibia, 106 (Mathews), 4 to 1, 2; Rubus, 110 (Donnelly), 5 to 1, 3. Time 1.18. Maty Pine, Lady Alberta, Viola Allen and Cute also ran.

DOMINION LAWN BOWLING

First Round in the Competition for the Walker Cup Commenced at the Island.

MATCHES KEENLY CONTESTED

Draws for Second Round in Walker Cup and First in the Association Competition.

The first day of the Dominion lawn bowling tournament was brought to a successful conclusion last night on the lawns of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club. The committee entertained the visitors last night at a moonlight on the Chippewa, while to-night a smoking concert will be held at the town club.

All entries for the singles and doubles close at noon to-day with the secretary. The Ada Alice will leave the foot of Bay-street for the Island lawns at 8.45, 9.30 and 11.30 in the morning.

EASY FOR THE ARGONAUTS

Beat Oxford's University College By 2 1-4 Lengths, Despite an Accident.

MANY HEATS DECIDED AT HENLEY

Titus, the New York Sculler, Won From Field of Oxford—His Stock is Up.

Henley, July 8.—Given a continuance of the fine weather now prevailing, the coronation Henley Regatta promises to be a record from the viewpoint of those who regard it as a society picnic. Launches, drags, motor cars and trains emptied a great concourse of people at the riverside to-day, and the town accommodation was taxed to the utmost. The club enclosures occupied the choice positions on the Bucks shore, while below the picturesque houseboats, lavishly adorned with flags and flowers, made a capital show. Ladies were present in great force, all in their brightest and airiest summer costumes.

In the first heat for the Grand Challenge Cup, Leander Rowing Club beat the Kingston Rowing Club easily by a length and a quarter. Time, 7 min. 34 sec.

In the second heat the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto beat University College, Oxford, by two and a quarter lengths. Time, 7 min. 25 sec.

In the third heat for the Grand Challenge Cup, London Rowing Club beat Thames Rowing Club by a length and a quarter. Time, 7 min. and 58 sec.

In the fourth heat for the Diamond Sculls C. S. Titus, Union Boat Club, New York, beat W. W. Field of Oxford.

Leander, on the Berks Station, led from the start, and, rowing a slower stroke thruout, won without much exertion. Kingston was much done up at the finish.

Started and Finished Ahead.

The second heat for the Grand Challenge Cup, in which the Argonaut Rowing Club of Toronto beat University College, Oxford, by two and a half lengths, in 7 min. 25 sec., was a good race for a mile. The Argonauts, stationed on the Berks shore, jumped off with the lead, but Hardisty slipped his seat, and University led at the half-mile. The Canadians, however, gradually overhauled their opponents, and ultimately easily defeated the Oxonians, who were the head of the river (leading crew) at Oxford this season.

The Argonauts will row Third Trinity, Cambridge, to-day.

The final heat for the Grand Challenge Cup for the day resulted in the London Rowing Club beating the Thames Rowing Club by a length and a quarter in 7 min. 58 sec. London had the favored position—the Berks shore—and an easy task. They were clear after a couple of minutes' rowing, were two lengths ahead at Fawley Court, and thence took matters easily.

In the fourth heat (first of the day) for the Diamond Sculls, C. S. Titus, Union Boat Club, New York, beat W. W. Field, Exeter College, Oxford, by three lengths, in 9 min. 17 sec.

Titus Won Easily.

Titus' easy victory over Field, who is the holder of the Oxford University Sculls, increases the American's chances for the Diamonds. Titus, who was on the Berks station, had the measure of his opponent from the first. The Oxonian stuck to his work manfully for three-quarters of a mile. At Fawley Court (half the course) Titus, whose time up to that point was 4 min. 26 sec., was only a foot ahead, but thence the American drew farther and farther away, Field being completely exhausted.

Titus' performance made such an impression that even money was laid on his winning the Diamond Sculls.

In the fifth heat for the Diamonds, J. Beresford of the Kensington Rowing Club had the Berks station, and led his opponent, St. George Ashe of the Thames Rowing Club, from the mark. Beresford kept some lengths ahead of Ashe thruout, and paddled in the easiest of winners in 9 min.

In the sixth heat for the Diamond Sculls, R. B. Etherington-Smith beat H. T. Blackstaffe easily. Time, 9 min. 1 sec.

Etherington-Smith, who belongs to the Leander Boat Club, won his heat in the Diamonds with such surprising ease that he will almost certainly figure in the final. The veteran Blackstaffe of the Vesta Rowing Club, after keeping on a level with his competitor to Fawley Court, dropped astern of Smith, and the latter won by paddling home.

In the seventh heat for the Diamond Sculls, F. S. Kelley, Balliol College, Oxford, beat A. H. Cloutte, London Rowing Club. Kelley won easily. Time, 8 min. 54 sec. This was the last heat of the Diamonds for the day. Cloutte ran into a boom marking the course immediately after the start, and Kelley thus secured the lead and maintained it to the end, winning by a length and a half.

For the Thames Cup.

In the first heat for the Thames Challenge Cup, Thames Rowing Club beat London Rowing Club by three lengths. Time, 8 min. 16 sec.

In the second heat for the Thames Cup, Trinity College, Dublin, beat Molesey Boat Club by a length. Time, 7 min. 45 sec. It was a very fine race. The Irishmen got the best of matters at Fawley Court, and won by a bare length.

In the first heat for the Silver Goblets, Ward and Taylor, Third Trinity, Cambridge, beat Somville and Crombrugge, Club Nautique of Ghent. Ward and Taylor won easily. Time, 8 min. 45 sec. Owing to a mishap to the Belgians, who ran into a punt and took little further part in the race, the first heat for the Goblets was an easy victory for Cambridge, whose pair won by several lengths.

In the first heat for the Ladies' Challenge Plate, Radley College Boat Club beat Jesus College, Cambridge, by a length. Time, 7 min. 37 sec. This was a great struggle. Jesus College led over a considerable part of the course by the smallest margin, but towards the close Radley made a magnificent spurt, and won by a bare length.

In the second heat for the Ladies' Plate, University College, Oxford, beat King's College, Cambridge, by four and a quarter lengths. Time, 7 min. 36 sec.

Titus will row Kelley of Balliol College, Oxford, to-morrow.

The idea that Titus will win is increasing at Henley. Certainly the American's work this morning, when giving a proved man like Field 28 pounds, under conditions against Titus, was a great performance.

Toronto 8, Worcester 3.

Dust From the Diamond.

Beaumont and Tenney lead the National League batters with .365 and .361, respectively. Willie Keeler is coming fast, and may yet repeat his performance of a couple of years ago, and regain the championship honors.

Delehanty and Lajoie, the two former Philadelphia players, are tied for first place among the batters of the American League with an average of .407. Bay, who was released by Cincinnati a few weeks ago, comes next with .377.

Cy Young, the battle-scarred veteran of a dozen seasons, continues to be the wonder of the baseball age. He has pitched 20 games for the Boston American League Club, and won 17 of them. He easily leads the twirlers of that league.

Denny Connors, who played left field for the Torontos in the days of the old International League, is one of the ironmouder delegates from Pittsburg now visiting here. He hasn't played for many a day, tho he looks young enough to jump into a game any time.

That shutout victory at Pittsburg on Saturday was surrounded by a number of peculiar features. It was the first time this season that the Superbas whitewashed the Pirates. It was the first defeat sustained by Sam Leever. It was the third time this season that the champions were blanked. Chicago and Boston were the other lucky teams, and the victory broke another attempt on the part of Pittsburg to make a record for successive victories. They had eight straight to their credit up to Saturday.

Amateur Baseball.

The Independents would like to arrange a game for Saturday, July 12, average age 14 years, the Spruces or Northern A. C. preferred. Addess H. Hodge, 80 Mackenzie-crescent.

The Marlboros are requested to report at 6.30 to-night at Bayside Park to play a practice match with the St. Andrew's Athletic Club.

Ford Gallow of the Senecas has moved into faster company, and will play third base for the Tadenacs, leaders in the Queen City League. He is a good fielder and reliable hitter.

Members of the Phoenix baseball team are requested to turn out for practice to-night on Garrison Commons, after which there will be a meeting held. The following are especially requested to be present: Ward, Valliear, Spence, Robb, E. Simser, Usher, Stoneham, White, Ford, Kitson, Blume, Granam, Milligan, Bevis, Binnie.

Cohen Bros.' B.B.C. would like to arrange a game for Saturday with any factory or independent team. Address H. Roberts or D. Losee, Cohen Bros.', 24 West Adelaide.

A game was played on Stanley Park last evening between the Bolt and Knife and Bar Department of the Massey-Harris Company, resulting in favor of the Bolt and Knife team. They played a tie game last week of 4 to 4 in seven innings. The feature was Freeman's long hit. Umpire—Doc Sheppard. Score: R.H.E.

Knife and Bolt 3 0 2 0 *—5
Bar Dept. 0 0 1 2 0—3

Batteries—Douglas and Defoe; Brophy and Murphy.

Torontos and Cornwalls Saturday.

The Toronto Lacrosse Club expect to celebrate the Glorious Twelfth with a victory over the Cornwall team at the Island on Saturday. The team were out last night at the Island, and indulged in some hard training. The season is well under way now, and the players do not require as much work as at the beginning to keep in shape, yet they did not waste a moment last night while in uniform. Most of the senior players were out and some new home plays were tried under Field Captain McFadden's able direction. The Eastern critics, after seeing the Torontos play against the Nationals, complained that the local team's weakness was a one-man home, and the Torontos intend to demonstrate on Saturday that this is a fallacy. The home as at present constituted is one of the fastest in the Senior League, and there seems to be no good reason why it should not be a quick-scoring combination. The home on Saturday will show some new tactics.

HER HUSBAND'S POCKETS.

A St. Louis, Mo., judge has decided that a married woman possesses the right of "visitation and search of her husband's pockets." In other words a wife is justified in "going thru" her good man's clothes.

In the case in question the head of the house was inclined to spend his substance in riotous living, and the court held that in order to keep the pot boiling she could visit his trousers as they hung upon the bedpost and transfer therefrom necessary household appropriations.

Nothing was said by the learned judge of the rights of the wife of a stingy man, but we think that he would probably have accorded her equal liberty with her who was wed to the wine-bibber. Any man who won't buy his wife an Easter bonnet, or a Stitt gown everytime she demands one, deserves to have his pockets picked every night.

AMERICANS AND AMERICANDERS.

The pretension of the people of the United States to the exclusive right to the word "American" is a backneyed topic of newspaper discussion, and we again referred to it the other day merely to show that our cousins to the south of the forty-ninth parallel got out a patent on the term chiefly because none other was available, and that the other peoples of the two continents, unwilling to see the citizens of the Republic go nameless, tacitly agreed to the assumption.

But upon further investigation we find that neither Uncle Sam nor any other person of European origin possesses any right to the term. As Mr. J. Mothersill, an Oshawa correspondent of The World, points out, Mr. Justin McCarthy, the eminent English historian, in discussing the Boer question, referred to the dark-skinned people of Africa as Africans, and to the Causcasian natives as Africanders. Proceeding by analogy the red-skinned native of America is the only true American, and all the rest of us are Americanders.

MORAL EFFECT OF HEROISM.

Examples of bravery such as that displayed by the rescuers of the Paris well digger, Sanford, are a good thing for the community, and particularly for the rising generation. They serve to exalt the manly virtues and to incite others to courageous conduct. We doubt not that many Ontario boys and youths have been deeply impressed with the tragic episode on the Skelly farm and with the daring of those who risked their lives to save another, and that as a result of the impression thus fixed upon their minds some of these very youths will be themselves some day nerved to deeds of heroism, of self-sacrifice for others.

As the influence of these men's examples is wholesome for the community, the wider the area over which it is felt the better. And it is in the direction of spreading the knowledge of brave deeds abroad that the suggested Massey Hall meeting for Sanford and his rescuers would be useful.

GOOD COMMERCIAL CONDITIONS.

All interested in the prosperity and welfare of Canada will be glad to learn that the business failures occurring in the Dominion during the first six months of 1902 were exceptionally few in number and remarkably light in character. According to Bradstreet's Canadian failures from Jan. 1 to June 30 totalled 608 with liabilities of $5,103,000, against 717 with liabilities of $6,412,000 in the same period of 1901.

Taking Canada and the United States together the returns are equally favorably. Only once in nine years have the June failures been fewer in number than last month, and the same remark is true of the quarter's returns, while only twice since 1888, in 1900 and 1899, were there fewer failures for the half year than there were in the six months ending June 30.

CABLE NOTES.

The Wiener Tageblatt yesterday revived the rumor that former Queen Natalie of Servia intends to take the veil.

The Madrid express was derailed yesterday owing to some unknown cause, near Guarda, Portugal. Nearly all the cars were wrecked, six persons were killed and 27 were injured.

The Commercial Cable Company is advised that the cable between Santa Cruz, Teneriffe, and Tejeda, has been interrupted since July 4. Messages for Senegal are subject to a delay of 26 or 36 hours, owing to the service being done by express between Tejita and Teneriffe.

The Baldwin-Ziegler expedition relief steamer Frithjof, having on board Mr. W. S. Champ, secretary of the expedition, and Dr. G. Sburkley, which sailed from Tomsoe, Norway, on July 1, and touched at the Island of Vardoe, off Finmark, in the Arctic Ocean, sailed from Vardoe for Franz Josef Land on Sunday night.

During a discussion in the French Chamber of Deputies yesterday the Minister of Finance said he was occupying himself with reorganizing the finances without having recourse to a loan, and would draw up the budget with true equilibrium, hoping to introduce it when the chamber reassembled in October.

A special despatch received in London from Rome says that socialist riots occurred at Orte, on the right bank of the Tiber, during the municipal elections held there yesterday. The polling place was wrecked and several policemen were stabbed. The police and militia fired on the mob. Over 40 persons were wounded in the affair, and half of this number were among the carabineers. Troops have been ordered to Orte from Rome.

BULLET-PROOF SHIELD.

Rome, July 8.—The bullet-proof shield invented by Signor Benedetti was successfully tested at Villa d'Oria to-day, in the presence of the war minister, General Count di San Martino; Major John P. Porter, U.S.A., of the Judge Advocate General's Department.

DOUBT ANDREE MURDER YARN

Kins of Sweden Says He Has No Special Reason to Believe Esquimaux Did It.

STORY OF THREE YEARS AGO RETOLD

Hudson Bay Official Sayts That It Has No Foundation, in Fact.

New York, July 8.—The Tribune features the following:

Stockholm, Sweden, July 7.

To the editor of The Tribune:

By His Majesty's order I have to say that His Majesty has no special reason to suppose murder of Andree by Esquimaux. Wrangel.

(Count Frih. Carl Justaf Wrangel, chamberlain to King Oscar II. of Sweden and Norway.)

The above is in answer to a message asking King Oscar his opinion of the latest story from Winnipeg about the alleged murder of Andree, the explorer, by Esquimaux in Northern Canada. The story as told in despatches from Winnipeg last Saturday was to the effect that the Rev. Mr. Farlies, an Episcopal missionary, had heard and investigated the statements about Andree's murder two years ago by Esquimaux, and was satisfied as to their truth. Mr. Farlies was quoted, furthermore, as saying that relics of the Andree expedition had been secured. As set forth in last Sunday's Tribune, there were reasons for doubting this oft repeated version of Andree's fate.

The King of Sweden naturally takes a deep interest in all efforts to trace the explorer, who dropped out of sight five years ago. Andree was a native of Sweden, and the King personally helped to defray the expenses of the expedition.

The Hudson Bay Company has tried hard to run down the various rumors regarding Andree's landing in Northwestern Canada. A query to the company's manager in Winnipeg as to the latest one brought forth this response by telegraph:

Winnipeg, Manitoba, July 7.

To the editor of The Tribune.

A story of three years ago, retold, for which we have reason to think there is no foundation in fact.

ANDREE MURDER TALE DISCREDITED

Arctic Authorities Give No Credence to Story Lately Revived.

New York, July 8.—Little credence is placed here by Arctic authorities in the reported death of Andree, the explorer, at the hands of natives 800 miles north of York, Northwest Territory.

The world has grown used to the reported death of the intrepid man who left one of the Spitzbergen Islands in 1897 with two companions, in a balloon, in quest of the North Pole. At least half a score of times word has reached New York of Andree's death. Each report has been proved false, and the fate of the daring aeronaut remains a mystery.

Last March from Winnipeg came the report of his death at the hands of natives. A Mr. Alston, an agent of the Hudson Bay Company, was the author of the report. Afterward it was denied.

Two years ago wreckage of the balloon was said to have been found about 300 miles northwest of Fort Churchill on Hudson Bay's west shore.

Six months before a similar report placed the finding of the wreckage a few hundred miles north of Behring Strait.

The last authentic news of him, two days after his departure, was sent by carrier pigeons. The report of the latitude and longitude showed that he had gone 150 miles.

Search parties have looked for Andree in vain on the east coast of Greenland, in Spitzbergen, Franz Josef Land, Siberia, and the New Siberian Islands.

BRICKLAYERS IN DEMAND.

They Are Being Offered 55 Cents an Hour to Go Buffalo.

According to circulars read at the meeting of the Bricklayers' Union last night in Richmond Hall, men of this trade are greatly in demand in many American cities and also in Canada. A Philadelphia firm which is erecting buildings in Buffalo wishes to secure 50 bricklayers and offers to pay them 5 cents an hour, 13 cents more than is paid here. Montreal builders offer 45 cents an hour. At the meeting ten new members were initiated, eight were admitted by card and four propositions were received. The following officers were elected: President, D. McCurdy; vice-president, G Hill; financial secretary, H. Jennings; corresponding secretary, J. Claxton; treasurer, Isaac Thomas; inside guard, Jas. Phillips; trustees, James Adam, W. Giles, F. Ockley; auditors, J. Vick and W. Steen; delegates to the Building Trades Council, Thos. Izzard, J. Claxton and A Raynor. It was arranged to hold a special meeting next Tuesday night for the purpose of amending the bylaws.

The Painters and Decorators' Union met last night and arranged for their annual excursion to St. Catharines on July 19. Charles March, a member of this union, has gone to Chicago to attend the biennial conventon of the International Painters and Decorators' Union of America. Mr. March is the fourth general vice-president of the International Union.

At a meeting of the Bread Salesmen's Union last night, W. Edis, A. Mitchell and G. Brown were elected delegates to the Trades and Labor Council.

The plumbers, steam and gas fitters returned to work yesterday morning, after an idleness of three weeks caused by the strike.

HELD THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

Toronto Presbytery Rejoices in the Recovery of the King.

The Toronto Presbytery met yesterday afternoon and held a thanksgiving service for the recovery of the King. Prayers were offered by Rev. Principal Caven, Rev. Dr. Carmichael and Rev. J. McNair. Rev. Dr. Miller, formerly of Price, Ont., and Rev. Dr. Wilkie of Indore College, India, were admitted as members on certificate. Rev. J. M. Duncan, associate editor of the Sunday School publications, and Rev. R. C. Tibb, clerk of the Presbytery, were placed on the roll of members in good standing. Rev. Charles A. Wookey, former pastor of Zion Congregational Church; Rev. Alexander Ewing of the United States Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Henry Graham of Algoma were also received. Resolutions of sympathy were adopted with the families of the late Principal Grant and the late Prof. Halliday Douglas of Knox College.

THE KAISER IS A GREAT MAN

—J. PIERPONT MORGAN.

Financier in Germany Praises Emperor and Says He Was Very Courteous.

KAISER ADMIRES MORGAN

And Thinks America Good Country to Model After, Says Mr. Clement Griscom.

GERMAN CAPITAL IN GREAT FLUTTER

Presence of the "Great Herr Morgan" Causes Tremor of Excitement Among All Classes.

A WARNING TO WILLIAM.

"I have seen the Kaiser, and I like him."—J. P. Morgan.

William, William, take a word
Of warning from a little bird.

A little bird that always knows
Everything that comes and goes.

And now that you have met J. P.
You had better climb a tree,

For he says he likes you, and
What he likes, on sea or land,

He Morganizes on the spot,
If it wants him to or not.

You may think that you are it,
But Morgan murmurs, "Aber nit."

That's enough, and in you go
With his Crown and Sceptre Co.;

A new consolidation he
Is getting up on royalty;

A saving scheme, of wise intent,
To rule the world for ten per cent.

William, William, climb a tree
Out of reach of Morgan. See?

And when you're up it, watch J. P.,
Or sure as fate he'll swipe that tree.

W. J. Lampton.

KAISER A GREAT MAN.

New York, July 8.—The Herald's Berlin man cables: Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan's arrival here caused a great stir. When Mr. Morgan, accompanied by his daughter, sauntered thru Unter den Linden he was easily recognized by his resemblance to the pictures and cartoons with which the German public have been almost daily entertained.

At one of the news stands Mr. Morgan lingered long enough to see a cartoon of himself in Lustige Blatter, showing him lying at full length over a map of America and stretching out his hand to England and Germany.

Mr. Morgan certainly enjoyed his first day in Berlin. He was amused by the unusual interest and excitement caused by his presence, but the genial Herr aBlin, director general of the Hamburg-American line, who is conducting the Morgan party at the expense of his company and at the suggestion of the Kaiser, did not give Mr. Morgan much time to inspect the city and determine what part of it was worth buying.

Traveling suits were changed for evening dress, and again all Berlin gaped, openmouthed, in wonder when a long line of elegant vehicles conveyed the Morgan party to the Zoological Garden for a dinner given by Herr Ballin.

The Morgan Party.

Those who came with Mr. Morgan and party from Kiel were Mr. and Mrs. Clement Griscom, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Griscom, Mr. P. A. B. Widener, Mr. W. L. Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. Marker, Mr. R. Bacon, Mr. Nardus, Mr. J. B. Waterbury, M. L. A. Duhring, Miss Morgan, Miss Wetmore, Miss Douglas, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Nat Goodwin and Miss Griscom. In the party are also a number of attending physicifans and a large retinue of servants, valets and other attendants. In all forty-one rooms are occupied in the Hotel Bristol by the party.

At the Zoological Garden Herr Ballin was seen having a talk with the bandmaster, and the military Kapelle struck up lively Sousa and other patriotic American airs.

The public also obtained a knowledge of the presence of the "great Herr Morgan" and waited to see the party come out. It was late in the evening when the party returned to the Bristol.

I endeavored to obtain Mr. Morgan's impressions of the Kaiser during the evening, but Mr. Morgan said: "I am very sorry, but I cannot say anything about the Kaiser. He was exceedingly courteous to us. He's a great man, for a fact!"

That is all Mr. Morgan would say for publication.

Kaiser's "Marvelous Grasp."

Mr. Griscom, who was with the party which was on board the Meteor, said: "The Anglo-Saxon countries—the United States, Great Britain and Germany—are destined to rule the sea and commerce. Germany is a growing nation. The Kaiser is fully acquainted with the relations between the transatlantic shipping company which Mr. Morgan has formed and the German steamship companies. In fact, the Kaiser is acquainted with all the details, and shows a marvelous grasp of current affairs.

"While we were on board the Meteor he assumed command and directed like a lifelong seaman; in fact, he would have led the Meteor in as winner of the first prize except for the large handicap given the boat.

"The Kaiser sympathizes with our efforts in doing away with unnecessary competition between the various transatlantic lines and effecting economy. Isn't that true, Mr. Ballin?"

The director-general of the Hamburg-American Line, who was just passing, stopped.

"The Herald's correspondent wants to know whether the German lines are satisfied with the agreement made with the new company, and whether they have kept their independence," added Mr. Griscom.

"Decidedly," replied Herr Ballin. "But that is all history now."

Emperor Becoming More Popular.

Continuing, Mr. Griscom said: "I have no doubt the Kaiser is becoming more and more popular, not only among his own people, but in other countries. When Prince Henry visited the United States a member of the New York Yacht Club decided to make a return by coming over to the meeting at Kiel. I am sure that the attendance of an increasing number of American yachts at Kiel is now certain."

Mr. Griscom volunteered a piece of information to the effect that the Imperial Yacht Club of Kiel intends to revise its sailing rules and regulations according to the rules of the New York Club. He said that the handicap given the Meteor was in excess of what it should have been.

"The Kaiser expressed admiration for Mr. Morgan," continued Mr. Griscom. "I think he believes that the United States is a good country to model after. This is such an old country, and it needs the fresh vigor of a young country like ours. There is no reason to fear rivalry, either, between Germany and the United States from a commercial standpoint. All may work together for a common end."

Mr. Morgan informed me that there was no business significance in his visit to Berlin, but that he had just come for pleasure.

TORONTO MAY FURNISH MOULDERS A PRESIDENT

tral committees, resolutions looking to amendments to the constitution will be received. In just what particular this instrument will be amended has not developed yet, but it is understood to be along the line of giving more scope to the international officials. At present home rule controls everything in the organization to an extraordinary degree. Each local union is largely a law unto itself. Several amendments are expected to be proposed.

As to New Wage Scale.

During the convention some important action is likely to be taken touching changes in piece work of iron moulders generally in North America. This change will practically amount to an increased scale, because it involves both a reduction of the working time and an increase in pay for certain lines of work accomplished. The result of this discussion is calculated to have a bearing on steel and iron manufactures thruout the United States and Canada, and in fact thruout the world, as an increased wage scale in North America for iron moulders will change the scale of European workers. This will mean an increased cost of iron manufacture and may result in serious labor disturbances provided the managers of iron industries could not see their way clear to meet the advances demanded.

Want to Share Profits.

It is the consensus of opinion among these delegates that, while the iron moulders are receiving a high scale for their service, the increased cost of living, coupled with the higher prices for iron manufacturers are receiving for the products of the mulderos' labor, their compensation should be increased. It is no secret that the iron industry in the United States during the past few years has been the source of enormous profits. Now the moulders propose to discuss the question of how to secure their share of this prosperity.

Presidential Possibilities.

An interesting feature of the present convention will be the election of a president. Numerous candidates are coming forward, and the selection of the men who will direct the affairs of the fifty thousand moulders of North America for the next three years will arouse the keenest rivalry.

President Fox of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has occupied the position of chief executive since 1890, says he will under no circumstances accept the responsibilities of the office for another term. His health is rather frail, and he has determined that a rest is absolutely necessary This leaves the field open for a warm contest.

Martin Fox was elected president at Detroit in 1890, succeeding P. F. Fitzpatrick. Prior to his elevation Mr. Fox was chief clerk of the organization, to which position he was elected in 1878. He served as chief clerk to President Fitzpatrick, and in 1886 Fox was made secretary of the order. He discharged the duties of this office with such a marked degree of ability that he was made president four years later. At present his health is much shattered, the result of confinement to the duties of the office. During his twelve years as president, Martin Fox has handled many strikes, in themselves sufficient to break down a strong man, and in the 24 years he has been officially connected with the Iron Moulders' Union he has done a great deal of the hardest kind of work.

President Fox Talks.

Discussing the question of the selection of his successor with a World representative, Mr. Fox said: "No, I could not consider the question of accepting another term in office. I do not know what candidates there are but the organization numbers among its members many able men, and there will be no difficulty experienced in securing a successor to me who will handle the business of the union in a conservative manner. It is necessary for me that I should get out of the harness. I have seen the union grow from a membership of a few hundred to nearly 50,000. It now ranks among the great union organizations of the world, and is a power in maintaining proper relations between capital and those who make great steel corporations possible. The fact that the presidency has never been filled by a man west of Detroit, or from among the ranks of the Canadian members, don't imply necessarily that a president may not on this occasion be selected from those sections. I was elected secretary in 1886 at London, Ont., and I have the warmest feeling for the men in the business on this side of the line. In fact, our organization knows no state lines or national borders. I attribute the selection of our chief officials by the middle eastern districts to the fact that the centre of the iron industry leans in that direction, and, of course, these men vote to get the office as near their immediate friends as possible. I would really not like to mention any names as prominent candidates, because it might prejudice their chances. I can only say that I could not accept the office if it were tendered to me again, as it is most imperative that I have rest."

Where Presidents Come From.

There is every indication that President Martin Fox could succeed himself if he desired. His conduct of the affairs of the office has been first-class, and he is very popular with the rank and file.

A president is elected every three years, and the indications are that a man from the list of delegates is just as likely to receive preference as the lesser members of the International official staff.

William Rea of Pittsburg was the first president. He was elected at Philadelphia in 1859. He was succeeded by Harmon Alstyne of Philadelphia, when the convention met at that city. I. J. Neal of Pittsburg was the next president. Philadelphia again secured the presidency at the next convention. William Sylvis died in office and Vice-President William Myers of Baltimore filled out his unexpired term. William Saffin succeeded Myers. President Saffin was a resident of Nashville, and he was elected at the Pittsburg convention. P. F. Fitzpatrick succeeded the Nashville president, and in 1890, on the expiration of his term, President Fox, the present incumbent, was elevated to the office.

Toronto Has Some Timber.

Canada will put forth a candidate for the presidential honors at the present convention, in the person of Mr. William Worrell of Toronto, chairman of the local Reception Committee, president of the Toronto branch and a leading member of Local Iron Moulders' Union No. 28. Mr. Worrell's friends insist that he become a candidate, tho he protests. They will, however, submit his name. They urge that it would not be altogether out of place to grant this honor to the Canadian membership, in view of the ardent support the international organization is receiving from this section of North America. The local union is likely to name one international officer.

The Toronto branch was organized in 1859, when W. H. Sylvis was president. He came here in person and assisted in the installation of the Toronto branch. John Monteith was the first president of No. 28, and the following charter members of the pioneer organization still survive: Joseph Opferkuch, Toronto; Charles Rodar, Detroit; William Clark, Toronto; Alexander Faulkner Cleveland; Thomas McMullen, Toronto.

Helped Toronto Moulders.

Within six months the moulders of Toronto received an advance of 30 per cent. in wages as a result of the efforts of the union, and this made the idea very popular. No. 28 grew rapidly after that. To-day the International Union has many thousands of members in the Dominion, and many delegates from the States are inclined to concede the presidency to the Canadian branch. Among other members of No. 28 who are prominent in the work of the organization are: W C Reid, J H Barnett, secretary of No. 28; J H Ravelle, J V Grieve, B Geary, Horatio Goodes, Edward Joyce, William Irwin, A W Woodley and Thomas A Haight.

William Worrell, president of the local branch, is a man who has taken a great deal of interest in the work in the past ten years. He is very popular with the delegates. Vice-President Edward Joyce is another Canadian moulder who is highly regarded as an influential factor in the affairs of the local organization.

Candidates From the States.

From the States a number of influential candidates are already being talked about among the rank and file. E. J. Denney of Cincinnati, the present secretary, because of his long and excellent service with President Fox, is receiving a great deal of support. First Vice-President Joseph F. Valentine is a prime favorite. John G. Weaver, R. H. Metcalf, John Campbell, J. P. F. Frey and John Barnett are influential members from different sections of the States who are being spoken of as presidential possibilities. Mr. Barnett, who has been an iron moulder for 25 years, is from Pittsburg. He is the business agent of the Pittsburg district, which is famous for having furnished more presidents than all other districts combined. He is likely to become a strong factor when the question comes up for final settlement. He is a man of great vigor and a hard worker in the interest of the organization.

The selection of the chief executive is usually the last feature of business to be considered at each session, so it will be at least two weeks before the election will probably be held.

Yesterday's Proceedings.

The delegates believe in working hard. In spite of the heat they put in six hours' work in the two sessions yesterday. The Credentials Committee reported early and sent 525 members, without protest.

The president's report was read, requiring nearly three hours. Tho a voluminous report the members desired to hear each sentence read. This is the way these iron moulders do business. The report referred to the many increases different branches of the organization thruout the country had received in their wage scale. This was the subject of much satisfaction. The question of the referendum vote called for an exhaustive discussion, and the president advised that the subject be given at all times the most careful attention of the members. In conclusion the president pointed out the marvelous progress made by the organization, and declared that the union was keeping pace with the advance made by the manufacturers of iron and steel.

Figures and Facts.

The exact figures concerning the membership and financial resources of the organization came from the report of the financier, Richard Metcalf. During the three years' term ending June 20, 1902, this report showed the following membership gains and sources:

Gain—

From initiations	19,608
From re-instatements	19,358
From old honorary cards	246
Total	39,302
Loss—
From suspensions	16,131
From expulsions	132
From death	932
Total	17,195
Net gain in membership for term	22,107

The financial resources of the union are large. For instance, the sick benefits from June 20, dating back to January, 1896, amount to $458,785. Thus the union has distributed among its sick members in this period nearly a half million dollars.

Amounts realized from various levies, up to June 20, 1902, amounted to $57,911.30. Out of this fund the following disbursements were made: To sick benefit relief fund, $19,318.65; to strike fund, $12,000; to index cards, $1174.35; to clerk hire, $811; official expenses, $70.60. Total, $33,374.60. Balance on hand June 20, 1902, $24,536.74.

The out-of-work fund is in the following position: Balance on hand June 20, 1899, $4098.57; receipts for term ending June 20, 1902, $47,531.70. Total, $51,630.27. Disbursed for out-of-work stamps, $12,110. Balance on hand June 20, 1902, $39,520.27.

Editor Black's Report.

Mr. David Black, editor of The Journal, the official organ of the union, rendered his report for the period. It did not show a financial gain in any respect, but it is fairness to the editor to say that The Journal is not expected to be a source of revenue to the organization. It is intended to circulate among the members and advance their interests wholly regardless of expense. Subscriptions to the amount of $17,615.70 had been received; advertising, $4469.52. Total, $22,085.22; expenditures, $33,625.41; excess of expenses over receipts, $11,540.19. Mr. Black has been editor of The Journal since 1895.

After the regular business session in the afternoon the delegates appointed a committee to try and improve the acoustics of the convention hall. They hope to accomplish this by a rearrangement of the flags in the rear of the speaker's stand, the fluttering of the bunting interfering with the sound to a disagreeable degree.

A group photograph of the entire delegation was taken at 5 o'clock, with the City Hall as the back ground of the picture. The International officers were in the centre, with the delegates massed around them in a semi-circle.

In the evening some of the committees held brief sessions, but most of the delegates sought the cool of the parks and breathing places around the city.

Boy Shot By a Companion.

Owen Sound, July 8.—Robert Watson, a 13-year-old boy of Balaclava, received a charge from a shot gun in the face. Fred. Wright, a companion, was examining the gun at the time it was discharged. The boy was taken to the Marine Hospital, where he received aid. The boys had the weapon at the barn preparing to shoot a rat.

A WIDE SPHERE OF USEFULNESS.—The consumption of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has grown to great proportions. Notwithstanding the fact that it has now been on the market for over twenty-one years, its prosperity is as great as ever and the demand for it in that period has very greatly increased. It is beneficial in all countries, and wherever introduced fresh supplies are constantly asked for.

A Combined Treatment

That is Proving Wonderfully Successful in the Cure of Complicated Ailments.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is most powerful as a system-builder and nerve restorative. As it is only mildly laxative, some people find it advisable to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in conjunction with the food in order to secure proper action of the kidneys, liver and bowels. Here is an instance:

Mrs. John Shanahan, 319 McDonnell-street, Peterboro, Ont., states: "I was troubled with pains in the back and dropsy, and was subject to fluttering and palpitation of the heart. In order to set my kidneys right I began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and I also used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at the same time.

"The combined use of these two preparations has done me a world of good. I used to have rush of blood to the head, dizziness and headache, but I am thankful to say that all these symptoms have disappeared and I have been cured by Dr. Chase's remedies.

Trained Animal Show.

For the past fifteen years the name of Norris & Rowe has been a household word from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts. Each succeeding year these enterprising amusement managers have brought out for the delight of the public a greater and far better entertainment.

The season of 1902 of the Norris & Rowe shows will mark a new and distinct departure in the trained animal line. In magnitude and grandeur the Norris and Rowe shows stand without a parallel.

Among the leading features are the great triple baby elephant act, in which Fargo, Duke and Hero are actors. Sultan and Sultana, the two lions, are the only animals of their kind in the world which have been trained to perform feats upon horseback while riding at full speed around the ring. Ben Hur and Sadi Ali, the two Siberian camels, are grotesque creatures of the desert, which perform with Bos Indicus and Llamas.

The new school of seals are unquestionably the most wonderful of the kind ever seen.

This wonderful exhibition will be in this city next week, opening Monday, July 14. The tent will be erected at King and John-streets.

Cure for Sunstroke.

John Trotter of Hanover writes The World concerning the strange phenomenon reported on Monday wherein a photograph of a house was imprinted on a man's arm during an electrical storm. He speaks of a man who slipped and fell on a dynamo and was unconscious for half a day. He was stripped and laid on the bare ground, and the earth soon restored him. It would do so with Klinck, he thinks. In the case of sunstroke Mr. Trotter offers this remedy: Make a strong tea of black currant bark and add half as much sherry wine. Take a wine glass full three times a day until relieved; it has seldom failed to revive.

HOW TO ESCAPE THE HEAT

Take a Trip on the Lake as Thousands of Other Torontonians Do.

ALL THE LINES DOING GOOD BUSINESS

Excursions Held or About to Be Held That Will Bring Pleasure.

Thousands of Torontonians escaped the torrid heat of the city yesterday by indulging in a trip on one of the steamers to some recreation point. There was a big rush to the Falls, the steamers Chippewa, Chicora and Corona going out on every trip with all their space occupied. The Lakeside and Garden City were popular with the excursionists. These boats carried big crowds to Port Dalhousie, where many boarded the cars and went thru to St. Catharines, Niagara Falls and Buffalo. The reduced rate tickets went into effect yesterday on these boats.

The Modjeska and Macassa to Hamilton had a fair share of the traffic, carrying also several big excursion parties. The White Star had several picnic parties to Oakville and Lorne Park. These two points are decidedly popular with excursionists this year.

The crowd that went out on the steamer Kingston was the largest of the season. She had a full complement of passengers, including many American tourists en route to Montreal, Quebec and the Saguenay.

The Argyle brought up a big party from Whitby, Oshawa, Bowmanville and Newcastle.

The annual excursion of Carlton-street Methodist Church to Niagara Falls yesterday was well attended. Over 500 were in the party.

The employes of the Fensom Elevator Works will hold their annual excursion on Saturday to St. Catharines, via the steamers Garden City and Lakeside.

The Oakville Navigation Company are meeting with great success in their Monday moonlight excursions. These excursions will be run every Monday night during the season.

There will be championship bicycle races at the Point to-night, in addition to the vaudeville show.

The Dovercourt-road Baptist Sunday school picnicked at Centre Island yesterday.

EIGHTY-FIVE THOUSAND BOERS.

New York Tribune: The most surprising revelation made by the ending of the war in South Africa is that concerning the strength of the Boers in the field. It compels a complete revision of former estimates. Before the war, it will be remembered, the Boers, or their friends, talked menacingly of an army of 50,000 burghers, which would sweep the British out of South Africa. On the other hand, there were those who reckoned, upon the basis of the census and the ordinary proportions of sexes and ages, that the entire fighting force of the two Boer States, between the ages of 18 and 60, could not at the utmost exceed 40,000. Later, when the war was actually on, the friends of the Boers in this country declared that there were in all not more than 25,000 to 30,000 burghers in the field to cope with nearly ten times that number of British, while the British and their friends began to think they had underrated the number of Boers.

We have now, however, definite data for calculating the numerical strength of the Boers. From April, 1899, to the end of the war almost exactly 50,000 were taken prisoners by the British. In September, 1900, some 2000 surrendered to the Portuguese. Since the conclusion of peace more than 16,000 have surrendered. Here we have a total of 68,000, or considerably more than the highest estimate ever before made. But, of course, these are not all. Since April, 1901, Lord Kitchener reported 2200 Boers killed in battle. Before that date we had no definite reports of their killed. The bulk of the heavy fighting in the war was, however, before that date, and, judging from the number known to have been killed in some engagements, and from the number of British killed, it seems not unreasonable to estimate the number of fatalities at 10,000. These figures swell the grand total to more than 80,000. If, finally, we add the number of those who have escaped from the country, or who are avoiding observation in Cape Colony, we may not extravagantly assume that the numerical strength of the Boers in the war was not less than 85,000.

This, as we have said, confuses and upsets all former calculations, and leaves us wondering how it was possible to recruit such an army out of a total population of scarcely 250,000. We can explain it only on the theory that the proportion of males is much larger than one-half, and that recruits were received much younger than 16 and much older than 60 years. Such a revelation of Boer strength is, in a way, creditable to both sides. It speaks volumes for Boer patriotism and devotion that about one-third of their entire population took up arms and went into the field. We have yet to hear of a nation that ever exceeded that proportion of fighters in any war. On the other hand, there is added explanation of the difficulty of the British task. Instead of outnumbering the Boers ten to one, the British did so by only about three to one—a very different matter. Of course, three to one is heavy odds. But when we consider that the three were fighting 7000 miles away from home, in a strange land and climate, in absolutely novel fashion and on the aggressive, while the one was right at home in all respects and on the defensive, the difference does not seem so great. In such considerations we may find corroboration of the German military expert testimony that no other soldiers in the world could have done better in the circumstances than the British did, and of the Austrian field marshal's statement that the war has added greatly to British military prestige.

CROSS APPEAL DISMISSED

Counsel for Mr. Madole in Lennox Did Not Make Any Argument at Osgoode Hall.

NORTH GREY APPEAL STANDS OVER

But Mr. Justice Maclennan Was Disinclined to Take It Up—Several Protests Drop.

The Lennox cross-appeal by Mr. Madole, the defeated Liberal candidate, was heard by Mr. Justice Maclennan at Osgoode Hall yesterday, and dismissed, so that T. G. Carscallen now holds the seat. Hon. S. H. Blake, K.C., and Eric Armour appeared for the Conservative candidate, and George H. Watson for Mr. Madole.

Counsel for Mr. Madole did not offer any argument. In any event, he said, he could hope for but two ballots, so he would, therefore, not argue the cross-appeal, and thereupon the judge dismissed the case.

On the question of costs, Mr. Blake claimed them, because he had been successful in both the appeal and cross-appeal.

Mr. Watson, however, held that his opponent had only been partly successful, because ballots had been allowed to both sides.

The judge said he would consider the question of costs later.

Cross Appeal in North Grey.

Mr. Watson then brought up the cross-appeal in North Grey. By the appeal of the Conservative candidate, A. G. McKay, the Liberal member-elect was confirmed in his seat by a majority of two, but Mr. Watson wanted the cross-appeal of the latter taken up. He thought that Mr. McKay's majority would be increased.

Mr. Justice Maclennan was not inclined, however, to take the matter up, and Mr. Blake objected to it being heard because of the absence of W. D. McPherson. It was finally decided that Mr. McPherson should be consulted, and if either of the counsel desired the matter to go on His Lordship would give an appointment.

Protests Were Dropped.

The time for making the necessary $1000 deposit in the protest against Mr. Kribs, the Conservative M.L.A.-elect for South Waterloo, has expired, and, as the money has not been forthcoming, the protest has been dropped.

J. P. Downey, who successfully contested South Wellington in the Conservative interests, is also safe. A protest was lodged against him some time ago, and yesterday was the last day for the deposit of $1000. The money was not put up.

The protests in Lincoln against Dr. Jessop, and in North Waterloo, against Dr. Lackner, were filed at Osgoode Hall yesterday.

New Election Regulation.

A new rule in connection with the Ontario elections has been passed by the Court of Appeal. It is explained that provision is not expressly made for the case of an electoral district situate, or partly situate, in a provisional judicial district, and it is desirable to remove doubts in regard to this. It is, therefore, ordered that in cases arising in provisional judicial districts presentation of a petition shall be made by delivering it to the Local Registrar of the High Court for the provisional judicial district in which the electoral district, or any part thereof, is situated. It is further ordered that a Local Registrar of the High Court or Deputy Clerk of the Crown receiving a petition shall proceed in the same manner as a Local Registrar of the High Court for a county is required to proceed in the case of a petition received by him. Also, in all cases not otherwise prescribed for, presentation of a petition shall be made by delivering it to the Registrar of the court, who shall proceed in the same manner as in case of other petitions delivered to him under the Ontario Controverted Elections Act.

SELLING ARMY REMOUNTS.

Largest Sale of Horses Ever Held in Canada.

As was to be expected, there was an attendance of several hundred persons at the auction sale of horses which was commenced yesterday morning by Auctioneer C. M. Henderson at the Exhibition grounds. This is the largest sale of horses ever held in Ontario, 650 animals being on hand for disposal without reserve. The horses were purchased in the Southern and Western States as British remounts, and were shipped here at the latter end of May. Lieut.-Col. Dent was ordered to dispose of them, as they were not needed when the war was over.

Place of the Sale.

A low fence has been erected on one of the avenues between the horse stables, and here Auctioneer Henderson put the horses up one by one. The sales went on with remarkable activity. There was no delay in disposing of the animals, and some persons realized decided bargains. The terms were cash down, and the horse purchased was delivered immediately after the sale.

When Mr. Henderson took the stand, an old gentleman near-by remarked that he did not look five years older than when he sold the horses for the 13th Hussars, some 30 years ago. The auctioneer said he believed all the horses he was about to sell were sound. Lieut.-Col. Dent was present, and he corrected what he considered a scandalous and scurrilous report which had been published, to the effect that some of the horses were suffering from infectious diseases. The veterinary authorities had stated positively that there was no ground for the rumor.

Duty Must Be Paid.

Frank Somers of the Customs House had a space beside the auctioneer's stand, and took note of all prices. This was done because the British government will be called upon to pay duty for all animals that are not shipped to England.

The horses were not a bad looking lot at all, altho they wanted trimming up a little bit. The first one offered was bought by Mr. J. M. Patterson of Paris for $20.

A Good Average Price.

The first fifty sold brought a total of $2145, an average of $43 each. A stylish light bay, broken to the saddle, was bought by Capt. Haines for $132.50. The highest price paid was $140, by Mr. Kilgour, and the lowest $12.

Up to the close of the sale yesterday, 160 horses had been disposed of, the average price being about $40.

The sale will be continued sharp at 11 o'clock this morning, and the most valuable horses are yet to come. Some splendid animals are to be found in the collection, and no horse-lover should fail to attend, even if only to see the sale, which is conducted on thoro lines, with none of the unnecessary comments which are usually a prominent feature at a horse sale. There is no delay in bringing the horses up for bidding, as may be judged from the fact that 160 were disposed of in the short space of five hours yesterday, and Auctioneer Henderson and Manager Harkness are to be congratulated on the systematic manner in which they are disposing of the animals.

QUIET DAY AT THE CITY HALL.

Proposed Reorganization—Laundry Case Comes Up Thursday.

Things were very quiet around the cool corridors of the City Hall yesterday, excepting when the iron moulders' delegates were passing in and out. There were no civic meetings beyond a session of the Court of Revision to discuss a few local improvements.

That Reorganization.

The proposed reorganization of the City Commissioner' department on the lines laid down by Ald. Richardson and the Property Committee will come before the Board of Control again this afternoon, the committee having sent on a report almost identical with the last one, which was referred back. Considerable warm discussion is anticipated.

The Laundry Tax.

The proposal to tax laundries will come before the board on Thursday, when the Chinamen will be heard. The Controllers do not seem friendly to the $50 tax recommended, the feeling being that it is too much, and that a nominal fee which would pay for the inspection of laundries would be ample to meet the objects for which the by-law was drawn up.

The Property Committee will meet this morning to discuss some hitch in the arrangements for leasing the cyclorama property on Front-street.

Toronto a Very Healthy Place.

Dr. Sheard says Toronto is making a remarkable showing as to typhoid fever this year, only 27 cases having occurred in the six months ending June 30. The number of cases for the same period last year was over 200, and in 1890, when the conduit burst, it was 900. People going to summer resorts should be particular about the water supply, in order that they may not bring typhoid fever back with them to the city.

City Hall Notes.

The legal department has applied for a postponement of the C.P.R.'s application before the Railway Committee for permission to expropriate the strip of land in the old Grape Sugar Company's property, owned by the city, at the foot of Princess-street. The city wants more rent than the company have been paying.

The Court of Revision will commence the hearing of about 150 appeals from the 1903 assessment of Ward 2 to-day.

Commissioner Coatsworth is elated over the increase of business at the cattle market. Ninety loads were received yesterday.

The new brick pavement on Lansdowne-avenue north of Bloor-street is causing complaint, and Controller Graham says it is faulty. He will take steps to have the contractor relay it.

The work of reconstructing the asphalt pavement on Bay-street was commenced yesterday, and it will be rushed along with all haste.

POPE CRACKS A JOKE.

Rome, July 8.—The answer of the committee of Cardinals to Governor Taft's recent note on the subject of the Friars' lands in the Philippine Islands, was presented to the Pope today by Cardinal Rampolla, the Papal Secretary of State. The Pontiff expressed his pleasure at the celerity with which the business had been despatched, and said, jestingly: "We are teaching the Americans the renowned art of hustling."

WASH IT ALSO.

Ottawa, July 8.—The Public Works Department is preparing plans for the alterations in the Toronto postoffice. The safe, which is now situated in the centre of the ground floor, will be removed, also the wall which extends across the floor. The accommodation for the public will be improved, and an elevator will be introduced on the west side of the building.

No Proselytizing Allowed.

Washington, July 8.—Complaints have been received at the War Department that certain teachers in the Philippines have been trying to influence Catholic children to become Protestants. The complaints have been forwarded to Acting Governor Wright with instructions to have the practice, if it prevails, stopped. The teachers will be informed that it is no part of the policy of the government to have any religion taught in the schools.

Ottawa, July 8.—Mr. Cheal, Fellow of the Royal Horticulture Society, England, and head of the Society of Nurserymen and Fruit Growers, has arrived here from a visit to the Niagara peninsula. He reports an opening for Canadian plums and early apples in England by reason of a shortage in fruit there.

Although the medicine business should, above all, be carried on with the utmost conscientiousness and sense of responsibility, the unfortunate fact is that in no other is there so much humbug and deception. The anxieties of the sick and their relatives are traded upon in the most shameful manner; impossible cures are promised; many preparations are absolutely worthless, and some are positively dangerous to health.

THIRTY MORE EARTHQUAKES.

Salonica District in Panic, Inhabitants in Fields.

Salonica, July 8.—Since Saturday's earthquake thirty more shocks have occurred eight of which were violent.

One-third of the city's inhabitants left their homes and are camping in open fields in tents furnished by the military authorities. All the factories, offices, schools and shops are closed, offering a spectacle of desolation.

An icy north wind blew violently last night, causing much suffering in the encampment.

At 1 o'clock Sunday morning there was a violent shock, which was felt over a large radius and caused serious damages in villages near Langaza and Serres. In the village of Guvezno 150 houses were destroyed.

Eight hundred persons are without shelter or food, and the frequent recurrence of the earthquake shocks has terrorized the entire population. The temperature continues extremely low.

Six Killed in Railroad Accident.

Lisbon, July 8.—The Madrid express was derailed to-day, owing to some unknown cause, near Guarda (Portugal). Nearly all the cars were wrecked. Six persons were killed and twenty-seven were injured.

IT WILL NOT HURT THE FAIR

President McNaught of the Industrial Exhibition on Delay in Building New Quarters.

BLAMES THE CITY COUNCIL ALONE

Declares This Year's Entertainment and Instruction Will Surpass All Others.

W. K. McNaught, president of the Toronto Industrial Exhibition Association, does not like the way in which reference has been made to the delay in the completion of the new manufacturers' building as being partially due to the negligence of the Exhibition management. "On the contrary," he said yesterday, "no blame can be attached to us at all. The Exhibition Association has nothing to do with the erection of new buildings whatever, beyond making recommendations to the City Council and drawing up the plans. As a matter of fact, the plans for this new building were prepared by the association, specifications completed and everything in readiness to commence work when the bylaw was first submitted to the people in June of last year. The bylaw was defeated then, but when it carried last January work could have been started the next day, as far as the Exhibition Association was concerned. That was six months ago, and we are not responsible at all for any delay that has been occasioned since that time."

Lest any impression should get abroad that the success of the Fair this year will be interfered with owing to the non-completion of the building, Mr. McNaught enters a vigorous denial to the probability. It is unfortunate, of course, but will act rather as a spur to the association, than as a knock-out. The arrangements that had been made to accommodate exhibitors will have to be entirely recast, but this can be done satisfactorily. The new art gallery will be ready, and so will the dairy building, the finest of its kind on the continent, with an amphitheatre to seat 600 people, where demonstrations will be given daily. For two months past manufacturers have been canvassed concerning exhibits, and the response has been so hearty that indications are that these exhibits will be far and away better than ever before. The special attractions will also surpass all previous efforts, and the great Kiralfy has been secured to manage the spectacle at an expense of nearly $25,000. "Don't be afraid," said Mr. McNaught, "the Exhibition will be of such a nature that the city will be proud of it, and it will draw people from all over."

APPLICATION FOR A PARDON.

Extenuating Circumstances in the Case of Marshall Colby.

Rev. William Sparling of the Metropolitan Church and a number of citizens have interested themselves on behalf of Marshall H. Colby, who was sent to the Central Prison for a year on Saturday night. Colby kept a purse containing $156, which belonged to Mrs. Boyden of Cleveland, and which she left in his hack. When spoken to by the police, he told where he had hidden the purse and money. Thru T. C. Robinette, K.C., an application for a pardon will be made at once. It will be urged on Colby's behalf, that he had a previous good character, and that there were extenuating circumstances connected with the case. Colby's family are at present being cared for by Staff Inspector Archibald of the Morality Department.

PREMIER DUKE'S SON DEAD.

London, July 8.—The Earl of Arundel and Surrey, only son of the Duke of Norfolk, died this morning at Arundel Castle, Sussex. This heir of the Premier Duke and Earl was an idiot and a cripple since his birth, in September, 1879. On one occasion he was taken on a pilgrimage to Lourdes, France, in hopes of benefiting him.

None Quite So Good.

There is no trip that is more delightful or more refreshing than that made five times every week day by the steamers of the Niagara River Line. Leaving Toronto at 7, 9 and 11 in the morning, one can arrive back in town the same evening, after visiting Niagara, Lewiston, Queenston, Buffalo or the Falls. On Wednesday or Saturday afternoon a special rate of 75c return is given to Niagara, Lewiston or Queenston. These trips are largely patronized by those who delight to spend a pleasant afternoon with their friends.

The trip leaving Toronto at 4.45 and arriving back in town at 10.15, is becoming more popular every day, especially with those who are unable to leave their business at an earlier hour.

In the Police Court.

In the Police Court yesterday, Albert Anderson was fined $5 and costs or 30 days, and John Anderson, $10 and costs or 30 days, for assaulting Mounted Constable Wood. Four other youths were discharged. John Brennan will be tried to-day on a charge of stealing a quantity of curled hair. A charge of theft against Harry Meredith was withdrawn. John Moore, who admitted that he assaulted a man who had wrecked his home, was allowed to go. Austin Barlo, charged with stealing $5 from Lizzie Brown, will appear again to-day. The woman wanted to withdraw the charge.

Bourinot Better.

Ottawa, July 8.—Sir John Bourinot underwent a change for the worse yesterday, and his son, Egerton, was summoned from Montreal. The sick man, however, passed a good night, and this morning was pronounced out of immediate danger by the attending physician.

IMPERIAL PROBLEMS.

Duke of Devonshire Declares Imperial Defence Can Not Wait.

London, July 8.—(Telegram Cable.)—The British Empire League had a large meeting yesterday at which questions of concern to the empire were discussed.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and those of his Ministers who are in London were entertained at a complimentary banquet at the Constitutional Club last night. They were given a grand reception, and the applause which followed Sir Wilfrid's utterances was most pronounced. He said nothing about the Imperial conference. He observed that while some thought the British empire must be preserved by measures of war, he believed it could be well defended by the arts of peace. Britain, Sir Wilfrid declared, is the one nation in Europe which can never be carried away by the spirit of militarism.

Referring to the conference at the meeting of the British Empire League last night, the Duke of Devonshire said it was almost impossible that definite results should be obtained until further opportunity is afforded the representatives to consult with the respective colonies. He thought the commercial relations would be solved in accordance with those economic laws which we now disregard, but which will inevitably assert themselves. Regarding Imperial defence, that was a question which could not await the conference. Consideration must be given to the state of the colonial forces; whether they are as now organized of the greatest value to the empire, or whether the present empire is to remain inviolate, or the colonies become independent states providing for their own security.

DALLIE HAD THE NOSEBLEED

But the Little Lady in Crinkly Skirt Did Her Stunt Just the Same.

The little girl who does the back somersault on the big white horse in the middle ring at the circus was walking behind the entrance gate at the eastern end of the garden waiting for her act to be called, says Lindley Dennison in The New York Sun. Her feet were thrust into thick-soled resin-dusted ring sandals. She had a brand new ballet skirt which stuck out as crinkly and straight as tho it had been cut from white tissue paper, and down on the shawl which she held about her bare shoulders her hair hung in two long braids with pink ribbons at the ends.

"No, it's not Dolly," she said very gravely. "It's Dallie. It is only Dolly on the bills." And then while she held the shawl with one hand she counted out with the forefinger of the other the six letters. "Like this," she said: "D-a-l-l-i-e. Dallie Julian."

Suddenly the little girl leaned forward, saying quite despairingly: "Oh, dear me, this is twice to-day."

An immaculate gentleman in evening clothes whipped out a handkerchief from his coat, one of the lady riders drew another from the bosom of her low-cut gown, and they held them out solicitously to the little girl with the braids.

"What's up? What's wrong?" said the canvasmen and the boys holding the heads of the big white horses. The immaculate gentleman turned around.

"Dallie's got the nosebleed," he said. And then, while the little girl was leaning over to spare her spotless new skirt and was laughing in despair as she held the handkerchief to her face, and everybody was gathering round and saying sorrowfully, "O-O-O-O!" the great entrance gates swung open and the band in the gallery changed its tune.

The audience saw a smiling little lady trip into the arena with her skirts bobbing up and down, and saw her smile and throw kisses to the gallery, as the fat white horse went clupety-clup around the ring, and they wondered very much why she should choose to carry that handkerchief in her hand. But behind the entrance gates were the French acrobats who do stunts in their evening clothes and the man who rides on one wheel up and down the spiral tower, and there was a crowd of canvasmen and stable boys who were looking with quite another sort of interest thru peep-holes in the fence. They knew it is no fun turning somersaults when one has a nosebleed and particularly that it isn't an easy thing to do on a horse's back, where, if you "take off" a few inches too far forward of the horse's haunches you'll lose your spring, and if you start a few inches too far back the horse will go from underneath you and you'll land on the ground.

Round and round the sleepy horse ambled, while the band in the gallery boomed, and still the little girl stood straight and motionless with her hand held most curiously to her face. All at once she took it down and her fists clenched. Up and over she went and down light as a thistle on the horse's broad back. A round of applause came down from all over the house, the fat horse slowed up and the immaculate gentleman handed the Queen of the Arena and the riding star of the Forepaugh-Sells Brothers' shows to the ground. A moment more and the entrance gates had closed behind her again, and smiling and flushed she was slipping her feet into the thick-soled ring sandals. A crimson drop showed on her bare throat. There was a curious pinkish place on the white horse's mane just where her hand had gripped it. The little girl looked herself over critically.

"It never touched my dress!" she said, and she gave to the immaculate gentleman in the top hat two very damp and very sorry looking handkerchiefs, which had been wadded up in her hand.

Reduce Bisley Team.

Ottawa, July 8.—To consider the advisability of reducing the Bisley team from 20 to 15, there will be a meeting of the Dominion Rifle Association Executive on the 11th inst.

RUSSIA HOLDING MANCHURIA

The Reported Evacuation is Now Said Not to Have Even Begun.

9 PATERSON STRIKERS SENT TO JAIL

Sarah Bernhardt Will Play Romeo to Maude Adams' Juliet Next Year.

Miss Danforth, the cripple, who shot Andrew Emery near Boston, is thought to be insane.

A sand storm has caused damage estimated at $1,000,000 in the Indo Valley of the Southern Pacific Railroad in the Colorado desert.

In contradiction of the recent report that Russia had already practically evacuated Manchuria an official despatch from Kharbin says the evacuation has not even begun.

Colonel William Hayne Perry, who was from 1885 to 1891 a representative in Congress from the Fourth South Carolina District, died last night aged 63 in South Carolina.

The Buffalo grand jury has indicted Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer for murder in the first degree, for the murder of her husband, Dr. Jacob F. Meyer, in his office on the evening of June 20.

Lieut.-Col. Charles R. Barnett, Quartermaster's Department, committed suicide July 5 by jumping from a fire escape on the fourth storey of a sanitarium at Battle Creek, Mich.

Nine striking dyers' helpers of Paterson, N.J., were arrested and sentenced to ten days in jail each on the charge of having stoned non-union men who entered the Augbr and Simon silk mill.

Sarah Bernhardt definitely announces that arrangements had been completed for Maude Adams to play Juliet to Mme. Bernhardt's Romeo during the visit of the French actress to America in 1903.

In ignorance of her husband's whereabouts for twenty-two years Mrs. Burnett W. Pyle has found him lying dead from a self-inflicted wound in an undertaking establishment in Chicago.

Charlie Wee, charged with the murder of little Marian Murphy at Buffalo, whose body was found in a pond in Forest Lawn Cemetery, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday. He pleaded not guilty.

In a fight at a church in Virginia between members of the families of Hendricks and Jarrolds, between whom a feud had existed for some time, Peter Hendricks, the postmaster of Orange, was killed, and several others were fatally injured.

Herbert Hill of Boston shot and killed his sister Alice at their home in Roxbury, and then attacked his mother, who had come into the room to protect the daughter, inflicting probably fatal injuries. Hill escaped. He is considered crazy.

William Clark, the prominent thread manufacturer of Paisley, Scotland, passed away on board his yacht Cherokee off Southampton.

He was born in Paisley, Scotland, in 1841. After being graduated from a grammar school in Paisley, he entered the thread mills founded there by his ancestors. He mastered the details of every department of the business, and then accompanied his brother, George A. Clark, in 1860, to this city, where a general American agency of the firm had been established.

In 1864 William Clark joined his brother, George A., in Newark, where a branch of the Paisley mills had been founded in a small way. In a few years extensive mills were built in Newdrk, and fifteen hundred hands Newdrk, and fifteen hundred hands employed. George A. Clark died from heart disease in 1873, and William Clark became sole manager of the business the brothers had built up. Later mills were built in Kearny, on the east bank of the Passaic River, opposite the Newark mills, and now more than three thousand men and women are employed in the two plants.

A few years ago the Clark Company, the Coates Company and other big concerns in this country united, and the mills in Scotland and England were take into the combination. The Newark mills are now managed by William Clark's eldest son, J. William Clark W. Campbell Clark, a nephew of William Clark, manages the Kearny mills.

William Clark married in Newark the daughter of the Rev. Dr. Waters, formerly pastor of the North Reformed Church and built a fine house in Mount Prospective, where he lived for years. He was active in charitable work and gave a part of his grounds, known as Clark Park, to the city, to form part of the present middle divi- form part of the present middle division of Branch Brook Park. He became a director of the Howard Savings Institution and a director of the American Insurance Company and other Neward financial institutions. He was a Republican.

Injunction Applied for.

An application for an injunction was heard at Osgoode Hall yesterday by Chief Justice Meredith. Mrs. G. V. Peake has an action for damages against her father, David Kennedy, and her brother Robert, for trespassing on the lands held by her on leasehold in Janes-street, Toronto Junction, and she seeks an injunction to restrain them from selling part of the lands named Fenivell to the Highlands Golf Club. Mr. Kennedy claims that he never leased the lands to his daughter, and that if he did it was a mistake. The application was adjourned for a week.

Chief Justice Meredith granted an order to wind up the Ottawa Transfer Company on the application of E. E. A. DuVernet, acting for George McGillivray, a judgment creditor for $900.

F. X. St. Jacques is president of the company, which had a capitalization of $24,000, of which $9500 was paid up. The assets are about $8000. E. N. Larmouth of Ottawa was appointed provisional liquidator.

ADA GRAY IS DEAD.

Famous Star Ended Her Days in Dire Poverty.

New York, July 8.—Ada Gray, aged 60 years, the noted actress who made the play "East Lynne" famous in every corner of this country and in England, died yesterday at her home in Brooklyn, after a long illness. Her last days were spent in dire poverty. Ada Gray was born in Boston, Mass., and was not 11 years old when she saw her first play. Her father, a journeyman mason, had died a few years before and left his family in poor circumstances, so at the age of 14 little Ada found a chance to earn a small sum of money each night at the Boston Museum and gladly accepted it. The play in which she made her first appearance was "The Hunchback." At 16 she was playing principal characters. She went to Ben DeBar's theatre, St. Louis, as leading actress, and next to Louisville.

Ada Gray played "East Lynne" for 40 years. No actress ever became more closely identified with any one play than did she with the popular drama, which she played upwards of 5000 times. The character of Lady Isabel was to her what Rip Van Winkle is to Joseph Jefferson, and for more than four decades theatre-goers knew "East Lynne" for Ada Gray and Ada Gray for "East Lynne." The play and its leading character were never separated, and there are few large cities in the country in which audiences have not wiped their eyes while the noted actress gave her portrayal of the sympathetic part to which she was so inherently devoted. She was married to Charles F. Tingay when she was a member of Sir Henry Irving's company.

MANITOBA CROP PROSPECTS.

They Will Be Fully as Good as Last Year, Says Agent Hartney.

James Hartney, agent of the Manitoba Immigration Office, was interviewed to-day in regard to the prospects of the coming season's crop. He said: "I saw Mr. Greenway, ex-Premier of Manitoba, who left his home in Crystal City in Southern Manitoba on Saturday last. He says that in his district prospects were never better, and the crop will be fully as early as last year, judging from present indications. He stated that he had wheat headings out a week ago. Going further west my information is that at various points they are a week later than last year, and consequently the ripening will come out on the twelfth of July, or about a week later than last year." Mr. Hartney further stated that he has heard of no damage thru rain, except in one district, and this at Sifton, near Lake Winnipegosis. There the people say they have had too much rain with the effect that the yield will be reduced. In all the other districts they have had just enough rain, followed by most desirable weather, making the prospects fully as good as last year for another immense yield.

Buried Child in Earth.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 8.—A child struck by lightning, apparently dead and terribly burned, was placed in a grave last night by Russians at Glen Lyon and half an hour later was taken out conscious and with no other effects of the lightning except the burns. It is alive and doing well. The strange custom comes from Russia and so much faith had the parents of the child in it that they were with difficulty persuaded to have the little one sent to the hospital.

Bennett, General Agent, 2 East King-street, Toronto, Ont. 246

Tested by Time.—In his justly-celebrated Pills, Dr. Parmelee has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alterative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicines.

Cafe Car Service—Toronto to Burk's Falls.

The Muskoka Express (Buffalo section), leaving Toronto 11.30 a.m. for Penetang and Georgian Bay points, Huntsville and Lake of Bays, Burk's Falls and Magnetawan River, carries cafe parlor car Toronto to Burk's Falls. City Office northwest corner King and Yonge-streets.

LORD ROBERTS' APPEAL.

Asks British Public Not to Treat the Returning Troops.

London, July 8.—Much has been written of Lord Roberts' appeal to the public in behalf of South African veterans, but this is his letter:

In response to a request which I made to you in a letter from Pretoria on Sept. 30, 1900, you were good enough to enable me, thru the medium of your paper, to publish an appeal to my fellow-countrymen and women on a subject which I had then, and have now, very much at heart.

That appeal was with reference to the character of the welcome which I knew awaited our troops in their native land when the time came for them to return to it.

One of the most happy results of the peace, for which we are all so profoundly thankful, is the fact that, ere long, the bulk of our army will be coming back from South Africa, and I am confident that all classes of the community desire to give our brave soldiers the hearty welcome they so well deserve.

Some of them are expected to reach these shores in a few days. May I, therefore, claim the indulgence of the public if I once more urge upon them the necessity for being careful in the nature of their welcome, so that it may not be the means of sullying the fair fame of my gallant comrades, of whose stainless reputation I am as jealous as I am proud.

My sincere hope still is that the welcome may not take the form of "treating" the men to stimulants in public houses or in the streets, and thus lead them into excesses which must tend to degrade those whom the nation delights to honor, and to lower the soldiers of the King in the eyes of the world—that world which has watched with undisguised admiration the grand work they have performed for their Sovereign and their country.

I would again point out that, from the very kindness of their hearts, their innate politeness, and their gratitude for the welcome accorded them, it will be difficult for the men to refuse what is offered to them by their generous friends.

I once more, therefore, most earnestly beg that the British public will refrain from tempting my comrades, but will rather aid them to uphold the splendid reputation they have won for the imperial army, and thus show their appreciation of the gallantry and humanity of our troops. I would entreat my fellow-subjects, in return for all these grand men have done for them, to abstain from any action that might bring the smallest discredit upon those who have so worthily upheld the credit of their country.

Roberts, F. M.

The World's Greatest Corporation.

From the N. Y. World.

As an exhibit of its own and an index of the nation's prosperity, the United States Steel Corporation's report for the first six months of the current year, showing net earnings of $64,407,153, is a most interesting document.

The yearly net profits of this single corporation are now double the amount of the total revenues of the United States government in the year Lincoln was elected. Its wage-roll carries on an average of the round year over 158,000 names—an army of employes larger by 45,000 than serve the national government in every branch of its civil service, classified and unclassified, excepting only fourth-class postmasters; outnumbering by 55,000 the total number of enlisted men in the American army and navy, and slightly exceeding the total peace strength of the entire British army at home and abroad.

This one corporation's wage payments for last year—the current year's will be greater because of the recent 10 per cent. increase—aggregated nearly $113,000,000, more by $13,000,000 than the huge annual city budget of Greater New York. The selling value of its products for last year, which will certainly be larger for the year current, was $460,000,000, exceeding the total value of either the cotton crop, the wheat crop or the hay crop by an average of over $100,000,000 a year.

Ten million tons of steel, or 67 per cent. of the entire production of the country, are annually produced by this one corporation. Its freight payments for the last round year (1901) footed up $54,147,567.

That such figures as these should state the operations of a single corporation, managed nominally by one small board of directors, and for practical purposes by one man, is the most extraordinary concrete example of the new era of industrial organization.

Will Meet Again in August.

The Board of Arbitration between the Standard Chemical Company of this city and the Rathbun Company of Deseronto had another sitting yesterday and adjourned to meet again in Judge McDougall's chambers on Aug. 28. The case has been before the board a long time, and is one of the most expensive arbitrations ever held here. Much expert evidence has been taken.

Radial Lines Coming.

President Mackenzie of the Toronto Street Railway said yesterday: "The question of suburban lines depends upon their right of entry into the city, and we are awaiting a settlement between the Metropolitan and the city. As soon as these negotiations are satisfactorily concluded the company intends to immediately either create or extend a complete radial system."

To the Weak

Dr. McLaughlin's Message to Weak Men and Women.

Electricity, as furnished by my Belt, cures by giving back to the weakened nerves, muscles and organs the vitality they have lost, reducing inflammation, developing the full vigor of health, and removing the effects of overwork, exposure to weather and long-continued sickness. You can be cured if you will grasp the opportunity. My Electric Belt has restored to health and strength thousands of nervous, debilitated and pain-worn men and women. It fills your nerves with electricity while you sleep. Its power goes into the body in a gentle stream, saturating every nerve and charging them with its vital element until they are as strong as steel.

SPEAKS FOR ITSELF.

I received the Belt all O.K. It is worth many times its price, as I have found it an instant cure. ESTELLA E. GORDON, Staples, Ont.

I am a blacksmith and horse-shoer by trade. Since I began the use of your Belt my back never bothers me. L. E. WORMWORTH, Mountain Grove, Ont.

I don't experience any coldness as I used to. The drains have stopped and I have gained in weight. JOHN FINCH, Seaforth, Ont.

Your Belt has done for me what all other remedies have failed to do. I can safely say that it is all that you recommend it. W. J. DOANE, Red Head, Shelburne Co., N.S.

I received the Belt. It is just what I wanted. My wife is using it, too, and finds it is doing her a great deal of good for constipation. C. F. BURROWS, Swan Lake, Man.

Everything that I complained of to you has vanished. Before I wore the Belt I was taking medicine every day. I am stronger, eat heartier and sleep better than I have for the last twenty years. B. VANSICKEL, Lynden, Ont.

After you have read the above, write to me, explain your case, and I will at once tell you if I can cure you or not. To prove to you the confidence I have in the curative power of my Belt, I am willing to accept your case, then after I have cured you, pay me. All I ask is, give me reasonable security. You may then use my Belt at my risk and THERAPION No. 2 for impurity of the blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swelling of the joints, secondary symptoms, gout, rheumatism, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of sufferers' teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPION No. 3 for nervous exhaustion, impaired vitality, sleeplessness, and all the distressing consequences of early error, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated.

A Sure Cure for Headache.—Bilious headache, to which women are more subject than men, becomes so acute in some subjects that they are utterly prostrated. The stomach refuses food, and there is a constant and distressing effort to free the stomach from bile which has become unduly secreted there. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a speedy alterative, and in neutralizing the effects of the intruding bile relieves the pressure on the nerves, which cause the headache. Try them. ed

AMERICAN STOCKS STRONG

Advances Yesterday Checked By Profit Taking—Prices Close Higher.

General Steadiness in Canadian Issues—Dominion Bank Higher—Market Quotations, Notes and Gossip.

World Office,
Tuesday Evening, July 8.

A generally firm undertone was apparent at this morning's session of the local stock exchange, and, with the exception of Dominion Coal, values were firm, with some fractional advances. C. P. R. was somewhat more active, with a business of 3500 shares, the price holding extremely stable at 135⅞ to 136. Dominion Coal eased from the opening at 134¾ to 134¼ at the close. The liquidation was caused seemingly by a rumor, sent out from Boston, that a bear attack was being arranged against the proposition. There does not seem to be the slightest foundation for such an article, but timid holders will, no doubt, scare to a certain extent by such attempts at manipulation. Twin City was quieter to-day, but closed at a fractional advance from yesterday,and the new stock sold up to 116. General Electric held quiet and easier at 206. Sao Paulo sold steady at par. N. S. Steel sold up ¼, to 106½, and closed at that figure, bid for more. Toronto Railway brought 120; Dominion Steel, pref., 94; Cable, 164½; Rogers, 104½; Dominion Steel bonds, 90½, and Packers', A, 101¼.

Banks were a little more active, with Dominion very strong, at an advance to 248. Hamilton sold at 232; Imperial, 248½, and Commerce, 156½.

Business at Montreal was quiet to-day, and, on Friday, the members will vote on a proposition to close the afternoon and Saturday sessions. There were only small dealings in C. P. R., which held steady, at 135¼ to 136, the latter being the closing sale. Dominion Steel, common, was stronger to-day, selling up to 53⅜, from 52¾, and closing at 53. Dominion Coal was dull and lower, at 134½. Toronto Railway brought 119½; Dominion Steel bonds, 90½, and Richelieu, 110½.

* * *

On the Standard Exchange, C. P. R. sold up to 136½, but closed ¾ lower, at 135¾. Twin City exchanged at 119¾; War Eagle, 13½, and North Star, 19.

There was considerably more activity on the New oYrk market to-day, and the granger, and Pacific stocks made higher prices. St. Paul and most of the higher-priced railroads received strong support, and profit taking in the afternoon left prices well above the opening. The weekly government crop report was good, and helped to hold the market. The feeling among the big interests is still said to be very bullish, and a further marking up of prices seems generally expected.. The price of exchange weakened to-day, and the call loan rate closed easy.

At Boston, to-day, Dominion Coal closed, offered, at 134, with 133½ bid, and Dominion Steel, 54 to 53. At Philadelphia, Lake Superior closed at 29 to 29⅛, with a very dull market for the stock.

The sales of farm lands by the Canada Northwest Land Company in June were 245,481 acres for $1,021,218, and for six months they were 328,918 acres, for $1,444,900.

The buying of Atchison is understood to be for Berwind interest, which, it is said, are predicting par for the stock. Much of this is on bright outlook for corn crop, Atchison being one of the largest carriers of this cereal.

* * *

Joseph says: Average Atchison, Missouri Pacific and St. Paul on any recessions, and buy Tennessee Coal and Iron on moderate scale. Crop conditions continue good. DesMoines and Fort Dodge is going higher. Excellent buying of Union Pacific Consolidated 4's.

* * *

Dow, Jones & Co.: Crop outlook on Atchison considered exceptionally good. Talk of early retirement of Hocking Valley preferred. C. Depew says Pennsylvania control of Reading is the inevitable sequence to their other purchases. Rumors of Rock Island purchase of Des Moines and Fort Dodge, on basis of 3 for 1. Good demand for Missouri Pacific, St. Paul and Atchison in the loan crowd.

A Boston despatch says Dominion Iron & Steel earned its first net money in May. Up to May, its expenses exceeded income, and, in some months, cost of pig iron per ton was twice the original estimates. Only two furnaces now in operation, but when four furnaces are going this fall, it is hoped original estimates of cost per ton can be approached. Company is exploring for new ore supplies, and has just bargained for an ore supply near home for $600,000. Broker Forget of Montreal is credited with making $200,000 in breaking D. I. & S., from 72 to 52. Some people believe that a similar attack is being planned on D. C., as soon as it is known how soon new stock will be available at 120.

Failures in Canada and the United States, as reported to Bradstreet's, whether for the past month, the quarter, or the half-year, are in a high degree favorable. Only once in nine years have the June failures been fewer in number than last month, and the same remark is true of the quarter's returns, while only twice since 1888, in 1900 and 1899, were there fewer failures for the half year than there were in the six months ending June 30. Canadian failures number 603 for the first six months, with liabilities of $5,103,404, and assets of $2,247,210, a decrease of 15 per cent. from a year ago in number, and of 20 per cent. in liabilities from a year ago.

In an analytical discussion of the Union Pacific Railway's affairs, W. C. Ashwell of the stock exchange house of Ashwell & Co., presents the conclusion that, while "it is doubtful if the dividend on the common stock will be increased at the next meeting, it is certain (if earnings keep at their present magnitude), that dividends must be increased or rights given before long, and that Southern Pacific, as well, must join the ranks of dividend-paying stocks."

Mr. Ashwell, analyzing net earnings for the first ten months of the present fiscal year, declares that the company is now earning more than 15 per cent. on its outstanding common stock, and that, even if all the company's convertible bonds were turned into stock, available earnings will still equal more than 10 per cent. on the volume of stock so increased. Mr. Ashwell says:

"Some comment has been made on the fact that the company is showing larger increases proportionately, in net than in gross, in that not enough is being expended on the property. But there should be some saving when it is noted what is done in the way of benefiting the property. In the last two years, the company has expended about $21,000,000 in this way, laying 758 miles of new track, and having ballasted 2680 miles, in addition to new equipment.—New York Times.

Railway Earnings.

Soo Railway—Fourth week June, $169,953; increase $35,713.

St. Louis & San Francisco—Fourth week June, decrease, $18,630; increase for fiscal year, $2,215,521.

Southern Railway—Fourth week June, increase $106,061.

On Wall Street.

J. G. Beaty, 21 Melinda-street, received the following from McIntyre & Marshall at the close of the market to-day:

The increased activity and strength the stock market showed to-day was the result of continuation of movement started yesterday by the principal influential interests, acting in conjunction with the bull leaders, in a movement to advance prices and create broad and more active market. One group of stocks was taken in hand after another, and bought and bid up, driving in shorts. St. Paul, leading off a point rise from opening, and likewise Union Pacific, Atchison and Missouri Pacific. Bull speculation shifted to the trunk lines and soft coal dealers.

Reports of serious trouble to all railroads entering Chicago from freight handlers' strike of 10,000 men spreading, so as to lead to a congestion of freight, together with a report that gold shipments are to commence Thursday, with $2,000,000, to go out then to Paris, and very little demand for stocks in loan crowd tended to accelerate this selling, and the closing tone was irregular and rather unsettled.

Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co. wired A. J. Wright & Co. at the close of the market to-day:

Market was more active to-day than it has been for a fortnight. There was some increased commission business, but trading was largely professional manipulation, room traders joining in for turns. The soft coal stocks were prominent, and especially the group allied to the Pennsylvania Railroad. The announcement that one firm had contemplated exporting gold had a decidedly unfavorable influence. There was evidently considerable profit-taking on the advance, and, in the last hour, a drive at the market was successful. Conservative houses generally concur in the belief that the market had advanced too fast, and we think that it should not be bought, except on recessions. The rise was engineered very largely by a group of speculators, newcomers to this city. The chances of gold exports have been lessened, but it is by no means certain exports will not occur later in the week. London sold about 15,000 shares. Money market was comparatively easy.

Warrington wired McMillan & Maguire as follows:

The market is doing well enough, and all indications are bearing out my theory of higher prices for the month, at least. Reactions are, of course, likely to occur, but will be of small extent and of short duration. It is a doubtful question, in case you take part of your profits in expectation of some reaction, whether you can buy again as cheap as you sell, and, if my suggestions and advice have been followed, there is no need to worry over a little setback, and my advice is to hold the railway stocks, especially those mentioned in these letters of recent date, for better prices, or until advised to close out. Sugar and A.P., under the circumstances, and in view of recent adverse developments, I advise to close above 129 and 65, respectively, and wait for further advice. Hold T. C. I. and N. S. Steels for a moderate advance of 2 to 5 points from present prices. There is nothing better in the market than Atchison. Keep a fair margin at all times, and buy more in case a 2-point reaction occurs, but do not close out former longs till advised. It should react some to-day. Selling out Missouri Pacific in hopes of reactions has not been profitable. It sold yesterday at better than 113 plus the dividend, and I stated, when it was around par, to buy, and not think of selling until around 112 or 115. Take profits if it sells at 115 on Tuesday or Wednesday. B. & O., Eries, G. W. and Wabashes can be held for further profits. Your patience will be amply rewarded in these stocks. Buy some Pennsylvania or Central on any little reaction of a point or so. Refrain from selling short, even if it does look high.

JULY CORN IS CORNERED

Further Advances Yesterday to 90 Cents, With the Close at 87.

Government Crop Report—Liverpool Cables Higher — Grain, Produce and Cattle Markets, With Comment.

World Office,
Tuesday Evening, July 8.

Liverpool wheat fixtures closed at an advance of ½d to-day, and corn futures advanced a like amount.

Lard advanced 1s 3d and bacon 6d to 1s at Liverpool to-day, and cheese is quoted 6d lower.

At Chicago to-day July corn advanced under the squeeze to 90c, but closed 3c lower. Wheat options were easier, July closing 1⅛c below yesterday and September 1c lower.

The July government report will be issued Thursday, and will give, besides the condition of spring wheat and the condition of spring and winter together, the amount of wheat still in the hands of the farmers. Last July this was announced as 5.85 per cent., or 31,000,000 bushels. That same percentage of last year's crop would mean now 43,582,000 bushels. So far there have not been enough state announcements to give any line on the forthcoming government announcement. The Ohio July state report advances the winter wheat condition to 78 from 75 in June, and the Iowa July document makes the winter wheat condition 96 and the spring wheat 97. The government spring wheat condition was 95.4, and as the Northwest has had thru June the conditions which are supposed to make crops up there, the chances are the July condition will be as high. Last month's winter wheat percentage was 76.1, and it is likely the July percentage will show some advance over this. Statistician Snow reported recently a very general and considerable improvement for winter wheat thru June.

Government crop report:

Under highly favorable temperatures there has been a general improvement in condition of corn thruout central valleys, and the outlook in principal corn states is encouraging. In Kansas bulk of crop is laid by, and much is silking and earing. In Nebraska corn is rather small, but growing nicely, altho needing cultivation. Outlook for spring wheat is generally very promising.

Liverpool receipts of wheat during the past three days, 158,000 centals, including 65,000 American. There was no receipts of American corn during the same time. Weather dull.

London—Close—Wheat on passage, firm but not active. Cargoes No. 1 Cal., iron, arrived, 30s 7½d, paid; parcels No. 1 Nor. spring, on passage, 28s 6d paid; Aug., 28s 7½d, paid, both Manitoba inspection. Maize on passage, buyers withdrawn; spot, American mixed, 27s 3d. Flour, spot, Minn., 24s 9d.

Paris—Close—Wheat, tone steady; July, 24f 45c; Sept. and Dec., 20f 95c. Flour, tone steady; July, 31f 35c; Sept. and Dec., 28f.

Antwerp—Wheat, spot steady; No. 2 R. W., 17⅝f.

A Lesson for Shorts.

Chicago, July 8.—Shorts in July corn were squeezed again to-day, and the cornered delivery went to 90 cents, the highest price since 1892, when the market touched $1. July closed at 84c yesterday, an advance of 7c over the previous close. Opening bids to-day were from 84c to 85c. Shorts were the bidders, and, by running the market up to 90c before noon, they got approximately 250,000 bushels. It is estimated that in selling this much the manipulators of the market made a profit of $60,000, as most of their line, estimated at 15,000,000 bushels, was purchased between 61c and 65c.

No excitement was evident in the pit, altho all are interested as to how far the Gates coterie will let the price advance before easing their grip. The price is already far past the maximum at which Phillips allowed shorts to settle in his first and most successful deal. Shorts who have covered have paid heavily for the privilege, and those who are still on the wrong side of the market are generally believed to be in the most serious predicament of a decade. The price at the close was 87c.

Chicago Gossip.

J. G. Beaty, 21 Melinda-street, received the following from McIntyre & Marshall at the close of the market to-day:

Wheat started in weak this morning, influenced mostly by better weather thruout the country and on heavy selling by the Northwest and Southwest, large quantities of stuff being dumped and market assuming a very sick appearance, but later in the day reports of rains both northwest and southwest induced some buying, and there was a little rally, prices advancing and holding fairly steady in spite of the liberal selling. Later selling movement, however, on publication of government weekly report, causing another dip, and market closed weak and about 1c lower. Cables were higher following our advance of yesterday, and seaboard reports good business done for export, 50 loads up to the closing of our market. Local sentiment especially among the best element is inclined towards bull side of market.

Corn—July corn sold up to 90c, with but little business being transacted; shorts and receiving houses were buyers. Other options were lower early on weather and selling by Armour and commission houses with southwestern connections. Local crowd was bullish and took the offerings; commission houses also did some buying, and market gradually strengthened, but on the advance there was good selling again, and market sold off to the low point, closing ⅝c to 1⅛c under yesterday's close. The July was the all-absorbing feature, and kept the whole floor in a state of excitement.

Oats—Reports of serious damage to oats in Iowa checked declining tendency early, and market rallied, but broke again with wheat and corn, closing weak and lower. Selling free early on better weather, with demand rather light, but later reports commenced to come in of more rains and damage to crops; market strengthened, but gain did not hold.

Provisions—Early strength did not hold; under liberal offerings from Cudahy, prices declined under yesterday's close. Early there was a good demand, due to strength of hog market and small receipts. The trade was good, and the stuff sold went into good hands.

A. J. Wright & Co. had the following from Chicago at the close of the market to-day:

Wheat was held quite firm early by local bulls. Offerings were light, and the strength in July corn aided. The southwestern markets were weak, as weather there was favorable for crops and harvesting. Cash demand locally is decidedly poor. No. 2 red offered at very small premium over July. New wheat is beginning to arrive in fair quantities, and with any ordinary weather from this on are likely to show an enlargement. Market is rather soft towards the close, and looks sale on all hard spots.

Corn has been influenced by manipulation. Far futures are easier and look a sale. Trade is decidedly small. The manipulative operations driving business away from this market.

Oats, after some firmness early, eased off from realizing. Country shows more willingness to sell since weather has changed for the better, and offerings have increased for August shipment.

Provisions were strong early because of light receipts and high price of hogs. Packers were generally talking bullish, but on swells there were offerings, supposedly for their account, which eased market off considerably.

LOCAL LIVE STOCK.

The run of live stock at the cattle market to-day was large, 88 carloads all told, composed of 1420 cattle, 555 hogs, 800 sheep and lambs and 75 calves.

While there were many lots of well finished cattle, both butchers and exporters, there was still a larger number of unfinished, rough mixed lots, that were not in demand either for export or butchers's purposes, not being suitable, having been marketed too soon.

Trade was good for all choice, heavy well-finished shippers as well as butchers. But for all unfinished cattle the market was dull, with buyers and sellers wide apart in the early morning.

While last week's prices for choice loads and lots of the best butchers and exporters were fairly well maintained, still there was an easier feeling even for these. And medium to common and rough mixed cattle were much easier, and sold at lower prices, as will be seen by the many sales we have given below.

Feeders and stockers are becoming more plentiful and prices are not quite as high as they have been. But the demand is still good, and all of choice quality are quickly bought up at quotations given.

Milch cows are plentiful, especially the poorer grades. The demand is not as brisk nor prices generally as high, as will be seen by quotations and sales given below.

Prices for sheep, lambs and calves are easier, altho the deliveries were not as large as they have been for some time past. This may be accounted for partly by the fact that the consumption of fresh meats of all kinds is not as great just now, owing to the cheapness of strawberries and other seasonable fruits.

The run of hogs was light, about 600, and prices have again advanced 25c per cwt. all round. Mr. Harris paid $7.25 per cwt. or selects and $7 for lights and fats.

Export Cattle—Good loads of heavy shippers are worth $6.25 to $6.75; medium exporters, $5.65 to $6 per cwt.

Export Bulls—Choice heavy export bulls sold at $5.25 to $5.75; light export bulls, $4.75 to $5 per cwt.

Export Cows—Export cows sold at $4.25 to $4.75 per cwt.

Butchers' Cattle—Choice picked lots of butchers' cattle, equal in quality to best exporters, 1100 to 1150 lbs. each, sold at $5.60 to $5.85; choice picked lots of butchers' heifers and steers, 925 to 1025 lbs. each, sold at $5 to $5.25 per cwt.; loads of good butchers sold at $4.50 to $5; loads of medium butchers, $4.40 to $4.75; common butchers' cows, at $3 to $4 per cwt.

Exporters and Butchers, mixed—Loads of mixed butchers and exporters sold at $5.30 to $5.60 per cwt.

Feeders—Feeders' steers, weighing from 900 to 1000 lbs. each, sold at $4.50 to $4.75 per cwt.

Stockers—Well-bred, thrifty young steers, 400 to 600 lbs. each, are worth $3 to $3.50 per cwt.; steers, 800 to 900 lbs. each, are worth $3.75 to $4.25 per cwt.; off-color, ill-bred steers and heifers are worth about $2.75 to $3 per cwt.

Milch Cows—Milch cows and springers sold at $25 to $47 per cow.

Calves—Calves sold at $2 to $8 each, or from $4 to $4.50 per cwt.

Spring Lambs—Spring lambs are worth $2.50 to $3.75 each.

Sheep—Prices, $3.40 to $3.60 for ewes, and bucks at $2.75 to $3.

Hogs—Best select bacon hogs, not less than 160 lbs. nor more than 200 lbs. each, off cars, sold at $7.25 per cwt.; lights at $7, and fats at $7 per cwt.; sows, $4.50 to $5 per cwt., and stags, $3 per cwt.

William Levack bought 400 butchers and exporters at $5.75 to $6.80 per cwt, the latter quotation being the highest given for exporters, and for mixed loads of good butchers and exporters $5.35 to $5.60; picked butchers, 1100 to 1150 lbs. for export, $5.65 to $5.85; picked lots of butchers' heifers and steers at $5 to $5.30 per cwt.

Joseph Gould bought 300 export cattle, 1200 to 1450 lbs. each, at $5.90 to $6.75 cwt. Mr. Gould is shipping 19 cars export cattle via Boston per G.T.R. to-day.

A. McIntosh bought one load exporters, 1100 lbs. each, at $6 cwt.

Coughlin Bros. bought six loads exporters at $6 to $6.60 cwt.

Messrs. Coughlin are shipping 14 loads export cattle by C.P.R. on Wednesday.

J. K. McEwen bought 20 stockers, 700 lbs. each, at $3.35 cwt.; 9 heifers, 800 lbs. each, at $3.50 cwt., and 2 springers at $35 each.

Zeagman & Sons bought 60 feeders, 900 to 1000 lbs. each, at $4 to $4.50 cwt.

Wesley Dunn bought 450 sheep at $3.50 per cwt., 275 lambs at $5.25 per cwt. and 40 calves at $6 each.

P. Curtis sold one load of 19 shippers of choice quality, his own feeding, weighing 1300 lbs. each.

James Ross of Tilbury brought in two loads of choice, well-finished exporters, 1445 lbs. each, which were purchased by Joseph Gould, the price of which was not made public.

Whaley & McDonald, commission salesmen, sold 20 exporters, 1190 lbs. each, at $6.35; 22 exporters, 1200 lbs. each, at $5.50; 4 exporters, 1195 lbs. each, at $5.55; 1 export bull, 1070 lbs., at $5; 21 butchers, 1025 lbs. each, at $4.25; 18 butchers, 955 lbs. each, at $6.12½; 8 butchers, 1065 lbs. each, at $5.40; 16 butchers, 990 lbs. each, at $4.15; 9 butchers, 1010 lbs. each, at $4.80; 3 butchers, 1063 lbs. each, at $3.75; 5 butchers, 1050 lbs. each, at $4.60; 31 butchers and feeders, 850 to 1075 lbs. each, at $3.75 to $5 cwt.; 5 milch cows at $30 each; 2 milch cows at $33.50 each, and 40 sheep at $3.50 per cwt.

THE CORN CROP IN ESSEX

Damaged By Rain, Will Result in Less Than Usual Yield.

Windsor, July 8.—The heavy rains have done much damage to the corn crop in Essex County. Reports from some places are that it will be almost a complete failure, but in other localities it is thought that if the weather proves fine from now on,from one-half to two-thirds the usual yield may be secured. Considering the great amount of rain, the crop generally looks very good from present appearances. Oats are a fair crop, and will likely result in about 40 bushels to the acre. Hay has suffered very severely from the bad weather, and is said to be rotting in the ground on the low lands, while many farmers who cut before the recent rains have lost their entire crops. Wheat is above the average, and will yield perhaps 20 bushels to the acre. The fruit crop seems to be good. Apples look remarkably well, strawberries were good and cherries look fair.

They are compact and portable, they are easily taken, they do not nauseate nor gripe, and they give relief in the most stubborn cases.

Hamburg Paper Says Two Companies Will Supply Great Britain.

Berlin, July 8.—The Boersenhalle of Hamburg prints a despatch from St. Petersburg to-day which says the Standard Oil Company and the Russian Oil Company have signed a contract dividing the British market, two-thirds going to the Standard and one-third to the Russiant Company.

The correspondent of The Boersenhalle avers that similar contracts in connection with other countries are being arranged, and he assumes that Germany will be partitioned.

PASSENGER TRAIN DERAILED.

Washout Shook Up the L.E. & D.R. Yesterday.

Windsor, July 8.—The heavy rains yesterday afternoon caused a washout on the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway near Leamington, and the passenger train that left Leamington for Windsor early this morning ran into the depression and was derailed. The passengers received a severe shaking up, but no one was seriously injured. The train was going at a slow rate of speed.

Ruthven Macdonald, the principal soloist, will be supported by a picked choir.

GOT THREE NOTED CROOKS

Police Have Been Prying Into the Records. Men Arrested on Dominion Day.

SAFE BLOWER ONE OF THE TRIO

Thomas Lewis Served 15 Years in St. Vincent De Paul for Cool Job in Montreal.

Detective Forrest was right on the night of Dominion Day at Munro Park when he sized up William P. Brown and George McGee as pickpockets. The individual who calls himself Brown is none other than "Sam" of Posen," alias Samuel Hall, who has been in trouble in Baltimore, Pittsburg, New York, Chicago, and who last came under the notice of the American police at the McKinley inauguration ceremonies at Washington in March, 1901. His pal, George McGee, is known to the fraternity as the "Chicago Kid," a professional pickpocket.

Of Thomas Lewis, who was arrested the same night on a general charge of vagrancy, Detective Forrest has found out that he has many aliases. He has been convicted in Grand Rapids in 1897; in Chicago in July, 1898; in Buffalo in November, 1899; and in Detroit in October, 1900. Lewis is well acquainted with the inside of St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary, where he served 15 years for safe-blowing in Montreal. One night in the winter of 1884 Lewis and two pals hired a sleigh and drove to a business house there. They coolly secured the assistance of the policeman on the beat and removed the small safe from the building. Then they drove out on the St. Lawrence River, which was covered with ice, and blew the safe open with dynamite. The three prisoners will appear before Magistrate Ellis at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

OLD COPS WILL BE DROPPED.

Significant That They Were Not Measured for New Uniforms.

No further meetings of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held until Col. Denison and Chief Grasett return from England, where they went to attend the coronation ceremonies. The only business before the board is the charges made against certain constables who did duty in Yorkville during the strike riots, and these the commissioners are disposed to leave to Chief Grasett for investigation.

Certain members of the force are watching with interest the progress made by the 22 recruits who were taken on the force a few weeks ago. It is stated that when these men are qualified to take the beat there will be a number of the older members of the force put on the superannuation list. The fact that certain police officers were not instructed to call on the department's tailor recently is regarded as significant.

Rules for Handling Explosives.

Cars to be placed on sidings at stations where powder or other high explosives are loaded, should always remain attached to the engine and under direct control of the engineman until finally placed in position. Other cars must not be allowed to strike a car containing explosives, and such a car must be placed in a yard or at a station where it will be subject to as little handling as possible. Under no circumstances should a car be cut off and run in under control of hand brakes, except that where cars are placed on or taken out of a spur siding and it is impossible to keep the engine attached, a rope or pole must be used to move the cars sufficiently ahead to permit the engine coupling on and placing the cars in permanent position. Cars containing explosives should be handled near the middle of the train, and should not be placed within five cars of either the engine or the cabin, if the length of the train will permit, and must not be placed next to a car loaded with oil or other inflammable material. Trainmen having cars containing explosives or inflammable material must, at every point where the train stops, make special examination of cars for hot boxes. The cards, "Explosives—Handle Carefully," must be tacked on each end of every car containing explosives, in addition to the two cards on sides of cars, and conductors will refuse to move any car containing explosives not so carded. If necessary to set off a car containing explosives short of destination, the conductor must advise the agent at station where car is set off, and also the superintendent from first telegraph office. The agent where car is set off must use every precaution to prevent accident to the car. In case of a wreck involving a car containing explosives the most important precaution is to prevent fire. Before beginning to clear a wreck in which a car containing explosives is involved, all unbroken packages should, if possible, be moved to a place of safety, and as much of the broken packages as possible gathered up and likewise removed. With all explosives, mixing them with damp dirt renders them safer, either from fire or concussion. Trainmen will understand that these rules are intended for their individual safety, as well as for the safety of others.

Will Oppose the Tax.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon of the Executive Committee of the Toronto branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association the proposal of the City Council to charge manufacturers an extra fee for the removal of garbage was strongly condemned. It was pointed out that in many cases manufacturers do away with their garbage, while others have no more refuse than the average dwelling house. The meeting decided to recommend to the new executive, which will be elected at the annual meeting of the branch next Tuesday afternoon, that the proposal be strongly opposed.

Sentenced to 25 Years.

Eldorado, Kas., July 8.—Jessie Morrison, convicted June 28 of murder in the second degree for killing Mrs. Olin Castle at the latter's home here in June, 1900, by cutting her throat with a razor, was sentenced to-day to 25 years in the penitentiary.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Several Changes Adopted at a Meeting of Toronto Junction School Board Last Night.

MAY DISCONTINUE VERTICAL WRITING

J. Herbert Colvin Appointed Substitute Principal of Annette-Street School.

Toronto Junction, July 8.—The Public School Board held its regular meeting in the Town Hall to-night, and suggested several changes to take effect during the fall term. The Management Committee made the following recommendations: That Miss Walker be paid $20 in recognition of the services rendered as a student kindergartener, that for the autumn term Miss Cherry teach a junior fourth class, composed of the pupils who have been promoted to that class at the recent examination, together with such other junior fourth pupils as may reside east of Pacific-avenue, and also that a new class be formed for first book pupils in the Western-avenue school, the division of pupils between said new class and Miss Barnes' class to be made by Principal Wilson; that the north room upstairs in Western-avenue school be fitted up for the use of the student teachers' class of 1902, and that Principal Wilson be requested to arrange for the work of observation and teaching by the students to be performed in all the schools of the town. Clause 4 was amended, by adding: "And that for the purpose of carrying out this arrangement, the principal of the Model School be given supervisory powers over all the schools for the town, with full authority to direct the work of all the principals and assistant teachers, and also that the principal of the Model School be requested to revise the limit table of work in the schools, and to prepare a set of questions for the promotion examination in December, with a view to having a promotion examination in the town, independent of all other places."

J. Herbert Colvin was appointed from eight applicants, to act as substitute for Mr. Wilson, principal of Annette-street school, during the fall term. Mr. Colvin holds a first-class professional certificate, and previous to attending the Normal College, was a student of the Toronto Junction Model School. John Marr was given the contract for fencing the Western-avenue school and building a platform in the rear 66x50 feet, at a cost of $375. Mr. Harshaw was given the contract for grading. Trustee Rice stated that the residents of S.S. No. 22, York Township, are anxious to resurrect the Elizabeth-street school.

Trustee Goedike gave notice that at the next meeting he will move to have the vertical system of writing discontinued in the schools of the town.

Rev. E. A. Henry of Brandon, a brilliant speaker, and one of the strong men of the west, will preach morning and evening in Victoria Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

Weston.

Magistrate Cruickshank has issued a warrant of commitment for Edward Bell, an old resident of Weston, now in his 78th year, who has during the past five years developed signs of lunacy. He does not know his own children, and has frequently threatened to kill his wife.

The four-pound bread bylaw has been so amended that loaves of any weight can be sold, provided they are correctly stamped.

The village constable is on the hunt for tagless dogs these days.

Rose Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place at Walnut Farm, Township of Scarboro, the residence of Mrs. Thomas Johnston, when her only daughter, Dorothy Anetta Johnston, was married to Mr. John Toms of the same township. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. B. Macdonald of St. Andrew's Church. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Powell of Toronto, and Miss L. Powell was bridesmaid, while John Nicholson, nephew of the bride, was best man, and Miss Ruby Wallen was flower girl. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white silk, the bridesmaid and flower girl wearing white organdie. About 80 invited guests were present. The wedding presents were many, all of them beautiful and useful, consisting of silverware, china dinner and tea sets, also furniture of the latest style. The happy couple left on 8.45 p.m. train for Parry Sound, where they will spend the honeymoon.

York County Notes.

Invitations have been issued for an at home in Victoria Hall, Unionville, on Friday evening, July 11. D'Alesandro's Orchestra will furnish the music.

James Ley, the well-known and popular East York representative in the County Council, will erect his new barn this afternoon on lot 23, con. 5, Markham.

An evidence of the prosperous times prevailing among the farmers is the numerous barn raisings now in progress in York County. J. Forrester, a short distance south of Victoria Square, has invited his neighbors to a barn raising to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckle and Mr. and Mrs. Pearson, residing a short distance north of Aurora, were waited upon a few evenings ago and presented with two magnificent rocking-chairs as a kind remembrance of the party given in Mr. Buckle's barn on the evening of June 24.

The members of C.O.C.F., Temperanceville, will picnic at Wilcox Lake on Saturday.

North Toronto.

Fifty-three appeals have been made against York Township's assessment this year, principally on vacant lots. The Court of Revision of the Council will discuss the objections this morning.

The children of the Eglinton Methodist Sunday School and friends spent their annual outing yesterday at Bond's Lake.

Town Treasurer Douglas disposed of a number of lots in arrears for taxes yesterday afternoon at the Town Hall. The bidding was spirited for those lots not withdrawn by payment of the arrears, and all found ready purchasers.

THE WONDERFUL KIDNEYS!!

How to Know When They Are Out of Order.

The kidneys play such an important part in the health of every man and woman that we should be constantly on the watch for the first symptoms of trouble. If the kidneys are out of condition the whole system is deranged and a general break-down is merely a question of time.

It is a very simple matter to test your kidneys, and everyone should do it quite often. Put a little morning urine in a glass or bottle and let it stand over night. If it appears cloudy or contains a reddish, brick-dust sediment, or if particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased and you should at once begin to take Warner's Safe Cure, the world's greatest remedy for all diseases of the kidneys, bladder, liver and blood. Warner's Safe Cure is purely vegetable and contains no narcotic or harmful drugs. It does not constipate, is free from sediment and is pleasant to take. It is a most invaluable, strengthening tonic, and a stimulant to the digestion. It purifies the blood, driving out uric acid, which causes rheumatism; awakens the torpid liver, and invigorates the whole system.

The proprietors are so positive that Warner Safe Cure is the greatest known kidney, liver and blood cure that they will send every reader of The World a large sample bottle absolutely free. All you need to do is to send your address to Warner's Safe Cure Company, 44 Lombard-street, Toronto, Ont., and they will send the bottle free by early mail.

A trial bottle often effects a complete cure. Write to-day, it may save you hundreds of dollars and years of suffering.

When writing please say you saw their free offer in The Toronto World.

VICTORY FOR CAPE COLONY

Other Premiers is London Congratulate Sir John Gordon Sprigg on His Successful Fight.

CONFERENCE TO STRENGTHEN EMPIRE

Premier Barton Advises Hearers Not to Expect Too Much in Way of Written Bonds.

London, July 8.—Speaking at different banquets in London to-night the Colonial Premiers now assembled here congratulated the empire and Sir John Gordon Sprigg, Prime Minister of Cape Colony, on the victory for constitutional government gained in that colony by the decision of the Imperial government against the proposal to suspend the Cape constitution. The Premiers also referred with great regret to the accident to Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary.

Mr. Edmund Barton, Prime Minister of the Australian Federation, said he felt sure that every self-governing portion of the empire had been in sympathy with Sir John Gordon Sprigg, who had fought so strenuously against the suspension of the Cape constitution, as otherwise the colonies could not have been so enthusiastic in helping the empire in the South African war.

Mr. Barton advised his hearers not to expect too much, especially in the way of written bonds, from the colonial conference. Nevertheless, he said, the outcome of the conference will be the strengthening of the empire.

Sir John Gordon Sprigg, speaking at the same banquet, thanked the other colonial Premiers for having helped him to fight the battle of constitutionalism. He expressed the greatest satisfaction with the manner in which the rebels are laying down their arms in Cape Colony, and the progress toward peace and pacification.

Died in Presence of Hypnotist.

Quebec, July 8.—A woman named Lapointe died suddenly this afternoon, at the office of Mr. Ernest Trudel, who is an amateur hypnotist, residing on Dorchester-street, St. Roch. The woman's husband is at present absent from town on a hunting expedition. The district coroner, Dr. A. G. Belleau, will hold an inquest on the remains to-morrow morning.

A motion was made at Osgoode Hall yesterday to discharge the petition filed against Hugh Clarke, the successful Conservative condidate in Centre Bruce. Mr. Justice Osler will hear it on Saturday. The motion has been applied for on the ground that there are certain irregularities in the petition.

It is understood that a petition has been filed against Mr. Cameron, the Liberal member-elect for Fort William and Lake of the Woods.

RICE ABANDONS ALL HOPE

Has Arranged With His Counsel for Disposal of His Few Personal Effects.

DECLARES HE WILL NOT BE HANGED

Which Is Taken to Indicate That He Contemplates Suicide—Strict Watch Kept Over Him.

Fred Lee Rice, the murderer of County Constable Boyd, has abandoned all hope. A few days ago he arranged with his counsel, T. C. Robinette, K.C., for the disposal of his few personal belongings and is now paying particular attention to everything that his spiritual adviser, Rev. Robert Hall, has to say. He reads his Bible constantly, and is carrying out the wishes of his mother, who wrote recently: "If you have to die, my only hope is that you will be prepared for the end."

One week from Friday is the day on which he has been doomed to die. The death watch are keeping a close guard on him, as Rice is said to have declared that the authorities would never put the rope around his neck. This is taken by the guards to mean that he contemplates suicide. An official of the city sheriff's office stated yesterday afternoon that no arrangements had as yet been made for the execution.

E. GUS PORTER, M.P., COMPLAINANT

Charges Two Men With Stealing a Horse and Rig.

E. Gus Porter, M.P., of Beleville, the well-known lawyer, who was prominent in the trial of the Napanee bank burglars, will appear in the Police Court this morning as complainant in the case of J. F. Morrow, 485 Sherbourne-street, and Henry Smith, 428 Wellesley-street, charged with horse stealing. Mr. Porter had some business in the city yesterday and last night went for a drive. He stopped at the Lakeview House and left his horse in the care of one of the prisoners during his absence inside. When he came out the horse and rig were missing, and Mr. Porter communicated with the police. A short time afterwards Morrow and Smith were arrested by Policeman Moffatt with the outfit in their possession. The prisoners declared to the officer that they had no intention of stealing the horse and rig.

Why He Wanted to Go Camping.

"So you are going camping?" said the bank clerk to the young lawyer on the next floor.

"Going to start for Muskoka to-morrow; how did you guess it?" was the rather surprised reply.

"Why, I happened to see a book on your desk entitled 'Camping; or, How to Live Outdoors,'" said the bank clerk.

"I think I got some good points out of that book," answered the lawyer, as he pulled a set of tablespoons out of his pocket. "There are about a dozen of us in the party, all men, and we are going to be gone about three weeks."

"Shouldn't wonder if you find that long enough," said the bank clerk. "Twelve are too many. I have tried the experiment, and know whereof I speak. In such a party you are bound to get two kinds of men, one being the nervous man and the other the lazy man. The nervous man is up in the morning before everybody else, and is so exhilarated with the crisp, cool air that he has to sing and wake up all the rest. Then, if he gets into some difficulty, the nervous man starts up a row by blaming some other one of the party for his stupidity. He never wants to stay in one place more than a few hours, and keeps the camp on the move and at a qui vive the whole time. The lazy man, on the other hand, has for his motto, 'Never do for others what they will do for you.' He is always shirking his work, wants to go to bed before the rest, and then swears if the others keep him awake. Accordingly, you had better have a small company, and well picked, than too great and indiscriminate a crowd."

"Sounds like good advice," said the would-be camper, as he took a hammer out of his hip pocket and some nails from his waistcoat.

"Have you got a wash for your face and hands to keep off the mosquitoes?" asked the bank clerk, after he had looked over the various utensils which his friend had laid in stock.

"Yes, and I have some cholera pills, as well as some whiskey and quinine, to take against malaria."

"But how did you happen to think of going camping this year, instead of spending the time at Cacouna?" at last asked the bank clerk.

The lawyer looked as if this question had at last cornered him, and then he said:

"You see, our family is going to Hamilton to live after next month, so I thought I'd learn how to rough it in advance."

A Reading Man.

From The Spesker.

I am reminded of a Scotch country gentleman, now dead, who could never comfortably read his morning paper without a pencil in his hand. He had a library which would have been worth a fortune to a journalist or an acrostic solver. Every work of reference, from the National Dictionary of Biography downward, was to be found in it. He could never bear to be a year behind with his Burke or his Dod, and even his Crockford was kept up to date, altho he was a strict Presbyterian, and had few dealings with the Established Church across the border. Every one of his books was read.

His literary opinions were heterodox, but unabashed. His pencilled scorn for the works of Mr. George Meredith exceeded the bounds of courtesy; his admiration for those of Mr. S. R. Crockett left scarcely a page without an underlined passage. He had written just what he thought of Sir Walter Scott, and a copy of Paradise Lost was annotated as if it had been issued the week before from Messrs. Constable's press at Edinburgh. I had the curiosity to take down from his shelves an early experiment in fiction of my own. Its undergraduate's humor had been carefully weighed, and, for the most part, approved, but there were occasional rows of notes of exclamation in the margin, and, in one place, a marginal comment, "Oh, this is too much I I" At the end of the book was a sort of index of marked pages, with a few words of explanation as to why they had been marked. The whole represented an amount of attention which a very careful reviewer might give to the important book of the year, and every other book in his library had been similarly treated.

Pros Play Golf Match.

An interesting match, between the golf pros of Montreal, took place recently on the Dixie links, Montreal. The work of all three men was of a high class, and Murray of Westmount, late of the Toronto Hunt, won out after a hard struggle.

All three men played a very even game, Murray's driving being greatly admired by the small gallery of enthusiasts who followed the players. The Westmount man constantly outdrove his antagonists, but being more familiar with the rather slow greens at Westmount, he lost on the Dixie greens a great deal of the advantage he gained in his long game. At the 17th hole, the three players were all even, and it was not until they had holed out at the home hole that the contest was decided.

The three drives were pretty even, and Black of Dixie made a beautiful approach. Murray's, however, was even better. He was almost hugging the cup in 2, and, when he holed out in 3, the match was his.

Headry of the Metropolitan links took 4, while Black missed his put and went down in 5.
