CONFESSIONS OF CICOTTE AND JACKSON IN BALL SCANDAL; WEAVER AND FELSCH DENY

LIVELY SESSION OF UTILITIES COMMISSION

Matter of Telephone Contract and the New Rates

F. A. Dykeman and H. P. Robinson Exchange Compliments - Farmers' Telephone Application - Request for Increase in Capital Stock of N. B. Telephone Co.

At this morning's session of the Public Utilities Commission a lively tilt took place between F. A. Dykeman and H. P. Robinson, manager of the New Brunswick Telephone Company.

Mr. Dykeman pointed out that the contract entered into between the telephone company and himself be continued. He went on to explain that he formerly paid $65 a year for a service, but last January a representative of the company advised him to sign a five years contract, as there was every likelihood of an increase in rates.

Charges Withdrawn. Orangeville, Ont., Sept. 29—Charges that the U. F. O. had sent financial aid from the central body to Dufferin county to help in the election of Thomas E. Slack on October 20 last were withdrawn at the election trial here yesterday by Gordon Shaver, one of the defeated Conservative candidates in Dufferin.

INDICTMENTS FOR GAMBLERS LIKELY FEATURE OF CASE

More Ball Players May Be Involved—Cicotte Says There Was Double Cross and Only Three Got Money—Jackson's Statement—Players Offered Now to Help Comiskey Carry On.

Chicago, Sept. 29—Indictments against five or six gamblers were considered today by the Cook county grand jury investigating "throwing" of baseball games, according to H. Reppie, assistant state's attorney, in charge of the inquiry.

Charges of Attempt to Lose for White Sox - Player, Unnamed, Says Action May Be Taken.

Chicago, Sept. 29—Charges that some of the players who are accused of "throwing" the world's series to Cincinnati last year, have used their efforts to prevent the White Sox from becoming pennant winners this season, were made today by several members of the Chicago White Sox, who have not been mentioned in the grand jury testimony.

Double Cross, Says Cicotte. Cicotte told the jury that he understood the eight players were to get $80,000, but that they were double crossed by the gamblers and so far as he knew, only three—himself, Jackson and Williams—ever received any money from the series.

Cicotte's Confession. Cicotte said he was not promised anything in return for their confessions, and he is not liable to prosecution the same as the other players named in the eight indictments returned.

More to Confess. Chicago, Sept. 29—Further confessions by some of the seven White Sox players, who with one former player, were indicted yesterday in connection with the alleged throwing of the 1919 world series, will be made within a day or two, so A. S. Austrian, attorney for the ball club, announced today.

Argument Begun in Premier's Office.

Hugh Blain, for Wholesale Grocers, Says Better Government to Pay C. P. R. Deficit Instead of Granting Increase.

Ottawa, Sept. 29—Argument of the appeal against the judgment of the railway board increasing freight and passenger rates, was commenced this morning in the office of the prime minister.

WHOLESALE GROCERS

Hugh Blain, representing the wholesale grocers, started the argument with a vigorous speech in which he declared that if a business man were to advance his prices by forty per cent, the government would put him in jail as a profiteer.

ROBINSON'S CLOTHES SHOP TO OPEN ON SATURDAY, OCT. 2

Robinson's Clothes Shops, Limited, the pioneer upstairs clothes shops of Canada, with branches in Halifax, Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Kingston, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Regina, Moosejaw, Saskatoon, Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver, have secured the entire second floor of the McPherson building and will open, as soon as alterations are completed, with the largest exhibition of men's clothes ever seen in St. John.

H. RUTENBERG, Location Manager of the Robinson Chain

Mr. Merton C. Robinson, the president of the company, started his first store in Montreal seven and one-half years ago in a small upstairs room fifteen feet square, his idea being that by low rent and low operating costs to sell the latest and best in men's clothing from $10 to $20 less than the downstairs stores could with their higher rents, charge account losses, delivery service, etc.

The policy of selling clothes for $10 to $20 less being steadfastly adhered to, in a short time the business outgrew the premises, and since then has developed until the present Montreal "Head Office" occupies a floor space of 8,000 feet and shops extend from Halifax to Vancouver in all the larger cities.

The enormous number of suits sold in their chain of stores has materially reduced the cost of manufacture, and today the Robinson Chain stands as the largest men's clothing establishment in Canada. It has always been a policy of Mr. Robinson's to have every one of his customers entirely satisfied with his purchase, and the Robinson Shops at all times advertise the guarantee to return the purchase price of any suit that could be bought in downstairs for less than $10 more.

BROKE RECORD IN WINNING AIR CUP.

Etampes, France, Sept. 29.—Lecointe by winning yesterday's air race, gives France possession of the Gordon Bennett Cup, as this was the third consecutive victory by the French.

Lecointe left all the Gordon Bennett cup records far behind. He also lowered the world's record for the distance flown, although faster time has been made over shorter distances. The pilot failed to duplicate his time average of 174 1/2 miles an hour made on last Saturday's trial. He averaged 169 and a fraction miles.

Performance Before Promises

All fair minded men and women can appreciate "Business Government" particularly if they have lived under the "Other Kind." Small wonder is it that the fair minded men and women of New Brunswick, irrespective of Federal Politics, stand firmly behind the Foster Government, now appealing to the people on its record of the last three and one-half years. A very large majority will surely agree that the following summary of concrete accomplishments warrants an extension of power to this business-like government.

1. The government has maintained the financial credit of the province in the markets of the world, reduced the debt on the Valley Railway by $685,412.66 through sound financing and introduced an independent system of audit which does away with political juggling of financial statements.
2. The revenue from Crown Lands has been increased from $544,191 in 1916-17 to $1,425,000 in 1919-20 and vigorous steps have been taken to prevent the forests from fire destruction and the game from extermination.
3. By funding from motor vehicle licenses sinking fund and interest for Bond Issue for permanent highways were provided and stretches of durable road have been completed, this plan also relieving the ordinary road expenditure and making possible attention to many branch roads and roads leading to remote settlements, hitherto long neglected.
4. Agricultural education has been greatly encouraged through increased grants and the provision of special courses and the dairy industry aided by the establishment of co-operative creameries.
5. Through providing credits and conducting an educational campaign the number of sheep has been increased from 140,000 in 1917 to 280,000 in 1920; in fact during the last five years New Brunswick led all Canada in the increase of live stock and this was largely due to the policy of the present government.
6. The government has provided for the erection of a modern limestone powdering plant with the object of making available at a price lower than from any other source ground limestone which is greatly needed on many farms of the province.
7. Through the creation of the Workmen's Compensation Board the laborer is no longer obliged to seek redress in the courts in case of injury and free hospital and medical treatment are also assured him.
8. Far-reaching benefits have been secured through a new Jury Act and amendments to the Succession Duties Act, County Court and Probate Court Acts.
9. Through the addition of a Department of Public Health, the government has brought New Brunswick from a backward position to the very forefront of Canadian provinces as respects the combating of social disease, the gathering of vital statistics, medical examination in schools, has cleared the province of smallpox, rendered nearly the whole school population immune to the disease and established public health as a most important and vital interest of the people.
10. Government grants to teachers have been increased in the interest of education and a Vocational Board created, making possible the opening of Vocational schools in different centres throughout the province.
11. The water powers of New Brunswick have been investigated by a government-appointed commission and tenders for the work on the Musquash and Shogomoc have already been advertised. Reports on other water powers are already available.
12. The government has put in force the Prohibition Act of 1916 and, as provided for by that Act, granted a plebiscite, the result of which may be construed as warranting only changes which make the Act more effective.
13. The government has granted the full provincial franchise to women and has kept in touch with the progressive labor legislation of the present day.
14. The Valley Railway has been completed from Centreville to Westfield and handed over to the C. N. R. for operation according to agreement, the government, however, pressing upon the dominion government their duty to take over this burden upon the province as a federal undertaking in the same way that Nova Scotia and the western provinces were relieved through the absorption of the Canadian Northern into the government system.

The foregoing is the record of performance; what of the future? The platform of this capable government is briefly set forth in the concluding paragraphs of Premier Foster's manifesto as follows:

- To give the greatest possible assistance to agriculture in every shape and form: To lend most vigorous support to hydro-electric development and to further the same by using the credit and resources of the province in order that the people may have the cheapest power and light for their use:
- To continue our policy for the improvement of all the roads of the province, back roads as well as front, farmers' roads as well as those for the use of automobiles, giving an equal policy of fair play to everybody no matter where they live:
- To give further encouragement to education, not only in the common schools of the province, but to vocational education and to agricultural education, so that the young people of New Brunswick will have equal opportunities with the youth of any other province:
- To provide such labor legislation within provincial jurisdiction as may be called for by the findings of the National Industrial Conference and the International Labor Conference:
- To conserve energetically and carefully our timber resources and to give every encouragement to the development of mining areas:
- To continue our policy of protection of public health and give such assistance as we can to hospitals and institutions necessary to provide for those unable to fend for themselves:
- To guard the interests of the people at all times:
- To maintain provincial rights:
- To inquire into the best methods of inducing immigration to the province and to make such arrangements with the other maritime provinces as will be conducive to this:

In appealing for your support, I do so, confident that the record of the government will meet with your approval. I have endeavored to carry out every promise made to the people and have carefully guarded the interests of the province, administering its affairs prudently, honestly and with such impartiality as will, I hope, commend itself to you.

It was necessary, because of some transactions during the period of the preceding administration to hold certain inquiries and investigations. The findings, so far as possible, were dealt with by the legislature and actions arising out of the findings are still before the courts of the country. I hope the days of investigations and royal commissions are over in New Brunswick and the fair name of our province will never again be smirched in the eyes of the rest of Canada.

Reconstruction is going on here as well as in the rest of the world. All must do their parts as best they can. Good government is essential; honest government imperative; economical government necessary. It will be the aim of my colleagues and myself to carry out these ideas and so administer provincial affairs as to win your approval.

I am,
Yours respectfully,
W. E. FOSTER.

MAKE IT A SOLID VOTE.

No personal or merely partisan considerations should influence the people in their choice of representatives for the legislature. Broadly speaking the contest is between the new government and the old.

THE CONTRAST.

If the citizen who ordinarily does not take an active interest in provincial politics will take time to contrast present conditions with those existing four years ago, he or she will have no difficulty in arriving at a right conclusion as to the course to be pursued on Oct. 9.

FRAUD IN SPORT.

Everyone interested in baseball is interested in the following revelations now being made in the United States in relation to gambling and the charges made against the personal integrity of players who have been popular idols.

The opposition leaders would like to convey the impression that a victory gained by the farmers in any constituency would improve the chances of making Mr. Baxter leader of a new government.

Premier Foster and Hon. Dr. Roberts made an excellent presentation of the government's past achievements and future policy, in their addresses at the meetings of women yesterday.

A gentleman in Victoria county is not feeling well. Hence he says to the Standard: "When a government gets so putrid that the stench becomes so offensive to the nostrils of some members of the cabinet that they resign in order to get clear of it, it is time to place a new party in power."

If the action of organized labor last evening is final the contest in St. John will be a straight fight between two parties, and on the side of the government it should be pushed with the utmost vigor, for this city should declare itself emphatically in support of the policy of the Foster government.

Mrs. E. Atherton Smith will take the platform in St. Stephen tomorrow evening in support of the government candidates. There are other women whose voices would also be heard with appreciation, and they have as much right as the men to voice their sentiments regarding the conduct of public affairs.

Less than ten days remain for the active work of the campaign. The people of the province want a continuation of good government. It is worth taking some personal trouble for in the short period that remains. Those who show no interest can have no right to criticize should things go wrong.

The people of Kings county have now an opportunity to put the stamp of their disapproval upon three men who stood by a discredited government through thick and thin, and who for their conduct in that respect ought to be retired to private life.

The farmer candidates will cut heavily into the regular opposition vote in York county. Three of those candidates are Conservatives. The government ticket there appears to have excellent prospects.

The government party in this city has perfected a good working organization. The essential thing is to get out the vote. In that every supporter of the government can help.

Hon. Dr. Landry, a farmer candidate in Kent, was provincial secretary in the Fleming government. Of course he would be provincial secretary in a tory-farmer government. Well?

Give Hon. P. J. Veniot another legislative term at the head of the public works department and the highways of New Brunswick will be the envy of other provinces.

The farmers of New Brunswick are not going into politics to help in bringing back the kind of government we had prior to 1917. They had enough of that sort of administration.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Dominion Happenings of Other Days

THE INDIAN WOMAN.

With the Indians of the old days in Canada, woman was a drudge and a slave. She was the mother of warriors; that was the greatest honor that could come to her.

The care of the lodge, the dressing of skins, the cutting and gathering of the family firewood from the near-by forests were her daily duties. She and her children gathered nuts and berries in the fall and summer for the menu of the lodge, where the husband and father lived on the best she could procure.

News Notes About Prominent Baptists

(Maritime Baptists)

The homes are so plentiful from which two sons have gone forth into the ministry of the Baptist churches of these provinces. But this is the proud record of the Whitman home in New Albany, N. S.

Rev. P. C. Reed writes in glowing terms of the west with its millions of acres of wheat, to say nothing of the oats and other grains. But after all we have a suspicion that his heart is in the east and that he might be persuaded to take up pastoral work again.

Rev. Mr. Trites, pastor at Hartland, is being assisted by Rev. E. W. Keynon, of Spencer, Mass.

Dr. C. H. Day, of Watertown, Mass., who annually spends his vacation at his summer home at Brown's Flats, has this year found his vacation period unhappily lengthened. Some time after arriving at Brown's Flat the youngest son, about eighteen years of age, was stricken with meningitis.

The Bradstreet average of prices for the important commodities for cotton, reduced 14 per cent. between February 1 and September 1. In its classified list, wholesale prices for textiles had fallen 21 per cent. since the year's highest scheduled breadstuffs 16 per cent., leather 11 per cent.

Yesterday's wholesale markets showed existing prices to be 32 per cent. below the year's top figure for cotton, 50 per cent. lower for coffee, 37 per cent. lower for sugar, 30 to 50 per cent. lower for corn and oats.

What is to be the further course of events, in the matter of cost of living? The trend of things this winter and next spring seems to be clearly enough foreshadowed. As a whole, the action of prices during 1920 embodies the quite inevitable recoil from the orgy of inflation, extravagance, and speculation which prevailed in the twelve months after the war.

The reaction in prices has not been confined to the United States; it has been world-wide. Even in Germany, whose economic conditions would seem to be as different from our own as could be imagined, precisely the same rapid fall in prices has occurred, and at the same moment.

The three-masted schooner Fred. W. Ayer, well known in St. John, is a total loss on the south side of Ship Island, Miss., as a result of the tropical storm which struck parts of Louisiana and Mississippi. The schooner has been engaged in carrying lumber from this port to United States ports.

POPS UP AGAIN IN ENGLAND

Currency Notes of Confederate States of America Being Circulated — Runs in Waves.

London, Sept. 11—(A. P. Correspondence)—The old swindle of passing currency notes of the Confederate States of America which has been working in England for years, is flourishing again. Reports of the victimization of shopkeepers at ports have been reaching the American embassy here in increasing numbers recently.

don railway stations gave a Swiss waiter eleven English pounds for a $50 Confederate note, but became suspicious before the waiter had gone far and had him detained. The police were in a dilemma as they could not distinguish the note from good American money, and finally had to appeal to the American embassy. The Swiss said he obtained the note from an American, but declined to say how much the transaction cost him. The police believed his story that he had acted in good faith with the ticket seller.

Tuxedo, Sept. 29.—Relatives of Miss Ada Utter of Warwick reported that, while eating molasses candy she had bought in a carton, she found a diamond in a piece of the candy. It was taken to a jeweler, and, it was said, appraised at $400.

CASE OF GAMBALS
BLUEBEARD ENDED

Doubt of Conviction in Case of Frenchman Accused of Disappearance of Eleven Women.

(Associated Press Correspondence.) Paris, Sept. 2.—The "preliminary investigation" in the case of Henri Landru, whom the police refer to as the Gambais Bluebeard and hold responsible for the disappearance of eleven women to whom he had promised marriage, has just been concluded. It has lasted 18 months.

All the documents in the case, amounting to over five thousand, have been turned over to the Prosecutor General of the Republic by Judge Bonin, who conducted the preliminary investigation. The judge immediately left for a delayed vacation. He was accompanied by the good wishes of Landru, who told the judge that it had been a great comfort to him to make his acquaintance and that he hoped the feeling was mutual.

Landru has consistently refused to answer the questions of Judge Bonin and has made the investigation as difficult as possible for the Magistrate.

It is the feeling in court house circles that the case against Landru is weak and much doubt is being expressed as to the chances of conviction for murder against him. The 11 women have simply vanished into thin air. The "corpus delicti" is lacking in the case. Bones were found in the villa occupied by Landru at Gambais and the prosecution will contend they are human bones but the defense will call experts to swear they are rabbit, lamb and dog bones.

Landru is confident of acquittal and is already considering offers from moving picture concerns in the event of his being freed.

Will Release Prisoners.

Vienna, Sept. 9.—Austria's promise to amend her treaty with the Russian Soviets so as to conform with the peace treaty with the Allies has evoked from British and French representatives the announcement that their governments would release credits for the return of Austrian war prisoners which were held up to the Wall Street catastrophe.

TO PSYCHOMETER ALL THE CRANKS

Suggestion of Head of New York Children's Court Clinic — Are Menaces to Society.

New York, Sept. 29.—Psychometer all cranks!

Such is the recommendation of Dr. Max G. Schlapp, head of the Children's Court clinic of the New York Post-graduate Medical School, where neurologists have made a special study of the criminal aspects of mental abnormalities. Cranks, says Dr. Schlapp, who makes his recommendation in an effort to avoid any more disasters such as occurred at Broad and Wall streets, are persons not necessarily insane, but organically powerless to check strong waves of feeling. Such a wave brought into play by a desire to "get even" with the "moneyed interests of Wall Street" may very easily have been responsible, the physician holds, for the crazed actions which led up to the Wall Street catastrophe.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 29.—Charles S. Hardenburg of Trenton, N. J., formerly a student at Princeton University, returned to civilization this week after living a hermit's life for ten years on Watts Island in Chesapeake Bay.

Mr. Hardenburg is a brother of Dr. Daniel S. Hardenburg of Jersey City. He went to the island primarily to regain his health, but incidentally to win a wager made with a friend that he could live ten years on an island without the companionship of man or woman.

He leaves the island much improved in health.

LIFE STORY OF JACOB SCHIFF

Noted New York Financier
and Philanthropist

Began Business Career as a
Bank Clerk and Before 50
Years Old Was Dominant
Undertakings.

Jacob H. Schiff, whose death in New York was reported this week, the New York Times says:
Jacob Henry Schiff was born in Frankfurt-on-the-Main, Germany, on Jan. 10, 1847, and, coming to this country at the age of 18, started to work, and worked to such purpose that long before he had reached the age of 50 he was known only throughout this country but throughout the world, as one of the greatest of financiers and one of the greatest of philanthropists.
His interests and sympathies were so diversified that thousands of persons who knew him in one of his fields of activity, where he won prominence and respect, sometimes quite forgot that there were many other fields in which he was regarded quite as highly.
The life of Jacob H. Schiff may be divided into three phases, the first phase as a financier; the second as a philanthropist, and the third as an idealist. It was the idealistic side of his character which colored both of the other phases of his existence and finally so dominated his activities that all great movements looked to him for some expression of opinion.
In his business he was dominated by idealism and he was led by idealism to undertake the great work of philanthropy which benefited so many thousands of afflicted persons of all races and aided in the education of so many thousands of students of all ages.
With the training he had acquired in the schools at Frankfurt, Mr. Schiff went to work as a bank clerk upon his arrival in this country, but it was not long before he sought a career in the finance. Tiring of the routine work of a bank clerk he became a junior member in the new brokerage firm of Dodge, Schiff & Co., and there laid the corner-stone of his career as a financier.
Disatisfied with his meagre education, Mr. Schiff went back to Europe to study financial methods there. Upon his return in 1872 he married Theresa Loeb, daughter of Solomon Loeb, head of the banking house of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and Mr. Loeb was so well pleased with his son-in-law that he took him into the firm and gave him a prominent place in its councils.

Mr. Schiff made such swift progress in the firm and displayed so much native acumen in financial affairs that he was made head of the firm in 1885, when Mr. Loeb retired. From that time on the firm not only held its place as one of the great banking houses, but so expanded its business that it became known all over the world.

Hardly a great financial transaction or merger in that period of American financial history that saw the swift rise of so many leaders, the sudden rejuvenation of so many great corporations and railroad systems, failed to make some prominent mention of the name of Jacob H. Schiff.

Backed Harriman Venture.

Backed by foreign capital, Mr. Schiff and the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. supported the late E. H. Harriman in the great financial adventure by which the Union Pacific Railroad was reorganized in 1897 and in the subsequent transactions by which the Union Pacific obtained control of the Southern Pacific and other railroads. This operation is regarded as one of the most important in which Mr. Schiff engaged as a banker. It involved a vast sum of money possibly hundreds of millions of dollars and gave Mr. Schiff a prestige among New York banking houses which endured for the remainder of his life, and it contributed to make E. H. Harriman the best known railroad organizer in the United States.

Although he had taken part in the financing of the Union Pacific and other of the Harriman enterprises, Mr. Schiff also was one of the warmest personal friends of the late James J. Hill, who was the bitter foe of Harriman through the long chapters of the railroad war for the control of the trans-continental lines. Mr. Schiff never omitted to call upon Mr. Hill on his birthday when the railroad builder of the Northwest was in this city or to send him some message if he were in his railroad capital.

When E. H. Harriman first began to dabble in railroad properties he had little experience or capital, but Mr. Schiff saw that the earnest young man had a vision that would affect the fortunes of the entire country if it could be backed with capital. Kuhn, Loeb & Co. furnished the capital and Harriman went out to build up a great fortune of more than $70,000,000 to stamp himself as the master railroad builder of all time.

Union Pacific shares were selling then for almost nothing. Both Harriman and his bankers acquired great blocks of the stock, and within a decade the railroad went out to build up an annual dividend of greater size than the original cost of the stock. This was the fruit of the genius of the master railroad builder and the master financier. Southern Pacific and other railroads were brought into the to repurchase these bonds and a majority of them came back.

Kuhn, Loeb & Co. have done heavy-weight financing also, for such railroads as Baltimore & Ohio, Chicago & Northwestern, Delaware & Hudson, Illinois Central, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, &c.

Floated $200,000,000 Japanese Bonds.

Another of his great financial achievements was the floating of a bond issue of $200,000,000 for the Japanese Government to aid in purchasing the war against the Russians. His sympathies, deeply affected by the oppression of the Russian peoples, he took this opportunity of aiding the foes of the old regime, but in later life he is said to have regretted this action, not so much because of the assistance given to the war against the Russian Government, but because he thought he had aided in raising up a greater peril in the Japanese people.

He had declared that Russia was the enemy of all mankind, and at the beginning of the war he so regretted seeing the Mikado's Government on the side of Russia and in apparent design to put the Chinese nation in permanent vassalage that he resigned from the Japan Society. In doing so he broke the tradition that had long stood that his banking house was the personal supporter here of the Japanese Government.

As Mr. Schiff's interest in philanthropy began to increase his work as a financier gradually began to be overshadowed by his new and superior interest. The story was told of him that when Kuhn, Loeb & Co. were frantically seeking him during the height of the Northern Pacific panic in Wall Street they were unable to find him at his house or at any of the other places where they had been accustomed to look for him in crises that needed his attention. Finally they located him at a meeting of the staff of the Montefiore Home and his message then was:

"Tell them to wait. I think these people here need me as much as they do downtown. I will finish here."

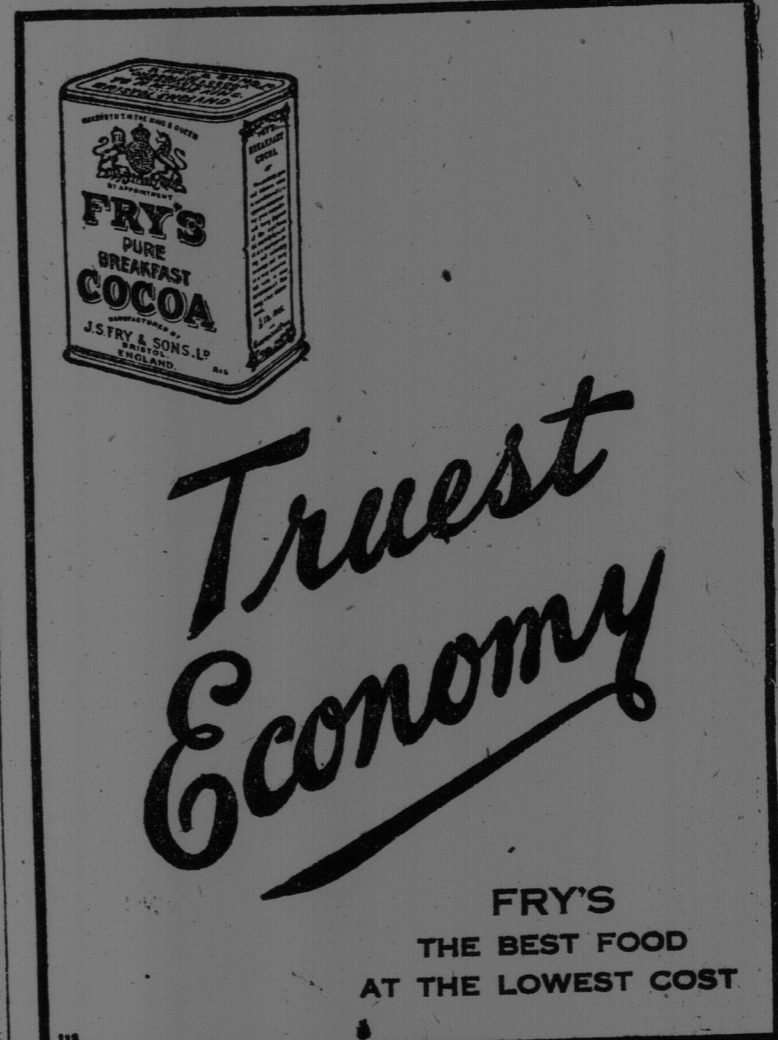

Director in Various Corporations.

Mr. Schiff was an active director in several corporations and trust companies, among them being, of course, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., his first and primary interest; the Central Trust Company, Western Union Telegraph Company, Wells Fargo & Co., and several others. His interests were represented in many other companies by his son, Mortimer L. Schiff, and his son-in-law, Felix M. Warburg, who, in later years, had taken many of the burdens from his shoulders, as Mr. Schiff devoted more and more time and energy to his charities and philanthropies.

From his primary interest in the Montefiore Home for Incapables, which he helped grow from small beginnings to one of the most modern of institutions in the city, Mr. Schiff gradually expanded his support to institutions and schools so that his subscriptions and contributions each year ran into the millions. On his seventieth birthday he sent out many checks—some of them being for $100,000 each. Within a few days after this day of quiet giving, at least $500,000 was counted up by his friends, although Mr. Schiff would give them no aid whatever in forming an estimate of his contributions. He was always reluctant to tell of his own aid to charity or education and most of his gifts were made anonymously.

A New England Outlook.

Boston, Sept. 29.—Reports from all over the country indicate a falling off in general business, and at this financial centre it is believed that this is bound to be accentuated in the weeks and months that are before us.

A NOBLE EXAMPLE.

If you should chance to be in Providence, R. I., and knew where to look you would find a little shop in which some beautiful things are made by a man in a wheel chair. Although his left side is paralyzed, he has learned to make one hand and arm do the work of two.

Twenty years ago this man was a first class woodworker and carpenter. Then he woke up one morning to find himself a paralytic. At first he was utterly disheartened, but his mind was clear, and it was not long before thinking gave place to experimenting. He began at his old work under the new conditions. He found working with one hand difficult and discouraging, but he would not give up. His ideas were high, and it was three years before he succeeded in making anything with which he was satisfied. Then he bought a 25 cent piece of mahogany and fashioned it into an inkstand, which he sold for $5. That money made him one of the happiest men in the country, for it assured him that there was a place in the world for him.

He had found his work. Orders came for other inkstands. Then he tried his hand at picture-frames, later attempting serving-trays, and desk sets. It was slow work, with many failures, but he expected these and so discounted them in advance. Today he is kept busy filling orders and his work goes into some of the best homes in the country.

His creed is, "Make something useful. Make it simple, substantial and beautiful. Let it show the enjoyment that has gone into the making. Then let it rest on its own merits. Expect in payment only what it is worth." With such ideals, it is natural that the articles he makes should find a ready market.

He asks no favors. He wishes nobody to buy his work out of charity. If he can make something good enough to sell on its own merits, something as good as a similar article made by a man with two hands, then he wants to sell it. He does not wish any one to buy because he is obliged to work with only one hand. Having proved that there really is a demand for his work, he is happy.

WHAT THE BLIND HAVE DONE.

Perhaps there is no physical affliction that acts as a greater handicap than that of blindness, and yet in every age the blind have distinguished themselves. Among the poets we have such illustrious names as Homer and Milton. In military annals, Zisca, the blind Bohemian general, who though totally blind led his troops in eleven battles, figures most conspicuously. Laura Bridgman and Helen Keller, who though not only blind but deaf and dumb as well, both graduated from college with high honors. Milburn and Cuddin, though blind, were chaplains of the United States Senstate and House of Representatives, respectively.

One of the most successful postmaster-generals Great Britain ever had was the late Henry Fawcett, who was blind from his youth.

One of the two senators from the state of Oklahoma, and one of the ninety-six comprising the senate of the United States is blind.

Thomas P. Gore, though totally blind from young manhood, has several times been re-elected from his state and is among the most distinguished senators of the United States.

In Halifax we have Sir Frederick Fraser, principal of the School for the Blind, to say nothing of the musicians and musical instrument tuners who abound in every country in the world.

SEPTEMBER BRIDES
Springer-Wetmore.
At 6 o'clock this morning in St. David's church Emily Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Wetmore, became the bride of William White Springer, of Houlton, Me., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Springer, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. MacKelgan in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. The bride entered the church with her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Edith MacFarlane. She was attractively attired in a traveling suit with hat of French plush with sand trimmings and wore grey squirrel and ermine furs. She carried a shower bouquet of cream roses. Mr. Springer left for a honeymoon trip through Maine. They will reside in Houlton where Mr. Springer is connected with the Hatheway Drug Co. Both bride and groom have many friends who wish them much happiness. Their popularity was shown by many beautiful and useful gifts received.

Carlin-Brown.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at 4:30 in Canaan Street Methodist church when Rev. Ernest E. Styles united in marriage Miss Edna Dwinell Brown, daughter of Mrs. H. S. Brown, 286 Britannia Street, with Isaac Ronald Carlin son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Carlin of West St. John. The bride entered the church with her brother to the music of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Myrtle Fox. The bride was attired in a traveling suit of navy blue with hat to match, wearing a sable stole, the gift of the groom, and carrying a bouquet of Ophelia roses. During the ceremony she sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" and Miss Estelle Fox pleasantly played Schubert's Serenade. Numerous and beautiful gifts were received including a lamp and a chest of silver from the firm of Northrop and Company, with whom the bride was employed. Mr. and Mrs. Carlin left for Montreal where they will make their home.

Dupres-Milan.
The marriage of Miss Helen Lillian Milan of this city and Peter Bernard Dupres of Moncton was solemnized this morning at 9:15 in the Cathedral by Rev. P. Allen. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of navy blue with seal stole, the gift of the groom, and navy blue hat, and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Herminie M. Dupres, sister of the groom, who was gowned in Alice blue with hat to match and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom was supported by H. J. L. Nixon. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home in Albion street. Mr. and Mrs. Dupres left for a wedding trip through the maritime provinces. On their return they will reside in Clarendon street. The gift of the groom to the bridesmaid was a pendant and to the groomsmen a tie pin. Many gifts were received including a check from T. Rankine & Sons where the groom is employed, also a check from the bride's mother and brother.

Lawney-Coffey.
The marriage of Miss Pauline Alma Coffey of St. George and James Frederick Lawney of Waterville, Me., took place in St. George yesterday morning, Rev. J. W. Holland performing the ceremony. The bride, who is a graduate nurse of St. Michael's hospital, Toronto, was given away by her uncle, George O'Malley. She was attended by Miss Anna Gratton of Toronto. The groom was supported by T. Louis McGowan of St. John. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lawney came by automobile to St. John and will visit Fredericton and points in Maine before leaving for North Carolina, where they will reside. Among the out of town guests were Mayor Kennedy of St. Andrews, Bertin M. Hill of Fredericton and Miss Mary McGrath of St. John.

Irving-Allingham.
The Carleton Methodist church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 12:15 today when Miss Grace Eleanor, daughter of Magistrate William H. and Mrs. Allingham, 840 Duke street, West Side, became the bride of Robert Bruce N. Irving. The bride, who was becomingly attired in a tailored suit of navy blue tricot with picture hat and beautiful fur neck-piece, the gift of the groom, was given away by her father. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white roses. The wedding march was played by Miss M. Bennett. There were no attendants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jacob Heaney, B. A., in the presence of relatives and friends. The groom holds the position of claims officer with the Workmen's Compensation Board of New Brunswick. The bride has been teaching in the King Edward school in the city. The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful and included some substantial checks. Mr. and Mrs. Irving left for a wedding trip to Halifax and other cities of the maritime provinces. On their return they will reside at 160 Princess street.

A ROUGH TIME IN UNION ALLEY

Property Destroyed in Melee, Detective Fires Shot — Philip and Ernest Bushfan Taken.

A case which sitting Magistrate Henderson described as "the worst for some time," was before the police court this morning, as a result of Philip and Ernest Bushfan being given in charge by Mrs. Agnes Higgins of Union Alley, on charges of being drunk and breaking and destroying furniture in her house last night. An additional charge was laid against Ernest, that of violently resisting the police. The arrests were made by Detective Saunders and Policemen Storey and Dowling.

Policeman Storey told of hearing a noise of breaking glass and a woman screaming. He investigated and so telephoned to central police station and Detective Saunders and Policeman Downing came. When they went into the house the policeman said the plaster was on the walls, the furniture was broken and glass shattered. There was some struggling going on.

Detective Saunders said that there was considerable damage done to the house and that the accused were drunk. While putting them under arrest, he said Ernest Bushfan kicked him and ran away, but he caught him in Peters street. As he was about to put the bracelets on him he said he struck him, but the detective knocked the accused down. Detective Saunders said he fired a shot at the ground when the accused were about to escape.

Both accused were fined $20 each or two months in jail for creating the disturbance and for destroying the furniture, and $20 damages was assessed against them with an order that they be kept in jail until it is paid. For resisting the police Ernest Bushfan was fined $50 or six months in jail.

Two men charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty and were each fined $8 or two months in jail.

GET ON WELL WITH ORGANIZATION

Government Campaign Executive Meeting at Noon — The Soldiers' Vote.

Progress in the work of organization was reported at a meeting of the executive of the provincial governmental party held in the Furlong building at noon today. Several committees reported and it was the general opinion that the work both of the ward committees and of the central organization was already showing good results.

In discussing the matter of voters' lists the question of returned soldiers was brought up, and it was pointed out that the act provided that a soldier, domiciled in the city and existing here, could not on his discharge papers or certificate of service any time within the calendar year following the declaration of peace. Therefore, returned soldiers whose names did not appear on the list could vote in this election.

The name of Stanley H. Taylor was added to the executive and he was appointed a member of the publicity committee.

The speakers' committee reported that arrangements were being made for public meetings both in the wards and for the city as a whole.

A. F. Bentley, government candidate for the county, was in St. John this morning and said that good results were following the campaign in the county.

STRIKE AGAINST TAXES IN THE OLD LAND PROBABLE

London, Sept. 29.—(Canadian Associated Press).—A general strike against the rising rates is not improbable. The rising rates, especially in London, have been enormous and public indignation is reaching such a pitch that resistance by refusing to pay is being strongly supported.

Soaring prices, the extravagant social policy of the municipal labor governments, and the cost of parliament's schemes of progress are the main causes of the intolerable rates, which, in some of the poorer London districts, are about twenty-three shillings for every hundred of rateable value. Conferences of ratepayers are being held to decide on a general line of action.

PULPWOOD SHIPMENT.

It is announced by the local office of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine that the steamer Canadian Sillor, which is expected in port tonight of tomorrow morning will be put on a regular service between this city and Portland, Me., carrying pulpwood. Canadian pulpwood cannot be shipped into the United States in Canadian cars, and foreign cars cannot be obtained, so recourse is had to the water route. Much pulpwood has been shipped from north shore points by water but with the coming of winter this will have to cease and it is expected that large shipments will be made from this port.

Pledge Loyalty to The King

First Resolution Adopted by Provincial Convention of Self Determination League.

The New Brunswick provincial convention of the self-determination for Ireland league held its opening session in the auditorium of St. Vincent's theatre last night, when about 105 delegates attended, with a good representation of St. John members and visitors.

In a well worded speech Mr. Agar, as president of the St. John branch, extended hearty greetings to the delegates. He said it was the desire of the members of the association that Ireland should have the right of self-government according to her own choice and that the league had been organized because it was felt that other members of the empire were unworthy of the privilege which they enjoyed if they did not endeavor to have their own government.

An invitation to express views having been given, several speakers were called upon, among them John Barry, W. W. McMonagle and J. D. O'Connell. Mr. O'Connell, who is known as the "orphans' friend," said that, unlike Judge Carleton, he had been in almost every spot in Ireland and that his name alone would carry him without cost through the length and breadth of the land.

The committees appointed last night were as follows: Permanent organization and rules, Judge Carleton, Woodstock; J. A. McKenna, Bathurst; T. H. Whelan, Newcastle; F. P. Murphy, Moncton; J. A. Barry, St. John. Publicity, B. P. McCafferty, St. John; John McInaney, Woodstock; W. E. McMonagle, Grand Falls; M. F. Haley, Chatham. Resolutions, C. F. Gallagher, Bathurst; J. L. Sugrue, St. John; W. P. Higgins, St. Stephen; C. T. Reynolds, Millstream; Hugh O'Neill, Fredericton. Auditors, F. A. McManus, St. John; G. T. Feeney, Fredericton; Mrs. Paul Doyle, Jacquet Rivers; James Byron, Norton; Mrs. Katherine Bell, Moncton. Ways and means, Miss Hennessey, Newcastle; J. D. O'Connell, Sussex; Mrs. W. J. Carrott, Milltown; P. C. Sharkey, St. John, and Frank T. Lavoie, Rogersville.

No Labor Ticket is Nominated

Several Suggested as Candidates But All, With One Exception, Declined and Meeting Adjourned Without Taking Action.

A meeting for the purpose of nominating an independent labor ticket for St. John in the coming provincial election was held last night in the old Congregational church building, Union street, but though many names were placed in nomination all declined with one exception, and the meeting adjourned without taking any action in the matter.

Speeches were made by Michael Kelly, of St. Patrick street; T. V. Williams, of the Fredericton Trades and Labor Council; W. F. Hatheway, of St. John; William Sharp, Thomas Boyce, Michael Donovan, G. C. Langheim, J. L. Murphy, John McKinnon and Fred A. Campbell. Upon suggestion of Mr. Hatheway the matter of nominating a candidate was taken up. There was a difference of opinion on this point, some wishing to have a nominating committee and others in favor of proceeding with nominations from the floor.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS Mothers' pensions formed the subject of much discussion at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. yesterday afternoon when the president was in the chair. The meeting was strongly in favor of legislation, but it was decided that since the legislature was not in session that it would be advisable to wait until a later date to draw up a resolution on the subject.

FARMER TICKET IN SUNBURY CO.

Burton, Sept. 28.—In Sunbury county this afternoon James Harding, of Maugeville, and Herbert H. Smith, of Blissville, were nominated as United Farmers' candidates. Mr. Harding is a strong Conservative and, it is said, the ticket will be practically an opposition ticket as the official opposition is having hard sledding against Robert Smith and David W. Merseureau, the government candidates.

KINDERGARTEN ASSOCIATION IN ANNUAL SESSION Gratifying reports of the four kindergartens were received at the regular meeting of the association held yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. building with Mrs. F. E. Holman the president, in the chair. Reports told of suitable quarters being had to obtain. The North End kindergarten had had to change from the Morgan building to the Simonds building in order to have room to accommodate the large number of children. The resignation of one of the directors was received with regret and was tendered because a private kindergarten was to be opened by her. Mrs. A. F. Robinson submitted her first report as a supervisor and it was very well received. Details were given of a thorough canvass being made throughout the city for the purpose of gathering in as many children as possible to help the enrollment as the average enrollment since the beginning of the term had been twenty-five for each kindergarten.

THE CONSTRUCTION ENGINEER Never before has he played so vital a part in progress. This is an age of Achievement in construction—buildings, bridges, tunnels, railroads, ships and machinery. Like the Elgin, that miracle of precise construction and dependability, the engineer must be exact—exact down to the most minute detail of science, skill and seconds. The safety of men on land and sea, in the air and underground, depends on the Engineer's ability to bring things to pass on Time. With construction work based on the Elgin schedule, operations synchronize and success is sure. Let the Elgin, allied with your ability, crown your efforts with Achievement. There is a Jeweler in your vicinity who carries a pleasing selection of Elgin Watches—faithful guardians of Time.

Government Campaign In Charlotte Co. Rousing Speeches Made by Foster Candidates and Big Meeting is Called For Thursday Night. St. Stephen, Sept. 28.—The government campaign opened Monday evening with rousing meetings at both ends of the county. Two of the candidates, J. W. Scovell and H. W. Mann, addressed large audiences at Little Ridge, while Frank Kennedy and Hugh R. Lawrence spoke to a most enthusiastic gathering at Mace's Bay. Tonight they will address the electors at Pennfield and Scotch Ridge. Everywhere they are being met with encouragement. Many farmers are indignant over the action which they say betrayed them into the hands of the Conservatives. So far the opposition has only gained the suspicion of the farmers. Thursday, the 30th inst., Premier Foster, Hon. Dr. Roberts and Mrs. E. Atherton Smith will address a meeting in St. Stephen in the interests of the government.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS MEET The executive of the St. John county Sunday School Association held the opening meeting of the season in the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday afternoon and planned for a county Sunday school convention and a Sunday school teachers' institute to open in October. The meeting, which was presided over by Rev. A. S. Bishop, had an exceptionally large attendance and at it even greater interest than usual was evidenced in the work being undertaken. It was felt that everything favored a good season with all denominations co-operating most harmoniously and successfully. It was decided that the county convention should be held next month and a programme was adopted for its sessions. An inter-church teacher training institute to be held for five weeks was also planned. Although no definite date was fixed for the opening of the institute it was thought that it should commence some time at the end of October. The institute last year was most successful. The committee appointed to take charge of this year's institute was as follows: Rev. A. S. Bishop, dean; Rev. A. H. Crowfoot, Anglican; C. R. Watson, Baptist; Rev. J. C. B. Appel, Christian church; Rev. George F. Dawson, Methodist; Robert Reid, Presbyterian; L. V. Simms, Sunday school association; and, if possible, the girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. and the boys' work secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

George Kent then came to the rescue and erected an open air rink. More rink talk was heard early this summer and the "hub is still shimmering." However, should nothing be done as to building a rink, the men composing the team are willing to play their games either in Halifax or Oxford providing they are admitted to membership in the proposed Nova Scotia Amateur Hockey League.

SCHOOL COSTS, 1920.

By W. Randolph Burgess, Russell Sage Foundation. (1) It will be necessary to pay teachers and other school workers twice as much in 1920 as was paid in 1915 to secure the same grade of ability. (2) A 100 per cent increase is fully as necessary to the higher paid as in the lower paid positions. (3) The cost of school buildings is three times as great as in 1915. (4) It is estimated that text books and supplies and building maintenance will show increases of 100 per cent, and of fuel, water, and light an increase of at least 50 per cent, over 1915 prices. (5) To buy the same amounts of educational service in 1920 as in 1915 will be necessary to double the school budget. (6) No large recessions in prices or wages are to be anticipated immediately. We are on a new level of expenditure.

WORLD IS NOT GOING TO THE BOW-WOWS BUT IT NEEDS NEW CODE OF ETHICS

From An Address by Principal F. H. Sexton, of the Technical College At The Halifax Rotary Club.

The present time is one that calls for the acceptance and practice of a new code of commercial ethics. It may be thought that the question of morals is merely a matter of geography or worthy rules of conduct set forth by clergymen and practiced if convenient. Through all the ages there have been generally accepted standards of right and wrong in business as well as in other phases of life which have changed from time to time and have slowly improved. Industrial development has gone ahead at such a tremendous pace in latter days that commercial and business ethics has hardly kept pace.

The application of the joint stock company to vast corporations, the constantly greater massing of capital, the stronger class consciousness of wage earners, the growing interdependence of individuals and communities call for changed rules of conduct. There has been a strong materialism abroad and there have been monumental abuses and exploitation of natural resources and under-privileged human beings. There have been outstanding examples of the recrudescence of pirates and robber barons who have stolen portions of the national heritage within the shadowy limits of imperfect laws and now live unmolested with the fruits of their sharp practices. There have been conscientious profiteers as always who have wronged golden rewards from the misery and agony of a nation in its life and death struggle.

The Trouble Makers.

Some of the wrongdoers and misdeeds have been proclaimed in public places by "muck rakers" until the common people tend to consider all men in high public positions as grafters and all large aggregations of capital and industry as dangerous to society. On the basis of all the ill-will, suspicion, and misunderstanding, the radical socialists and revolutionary reformers are trying to stir the masses to overturn the established order of things even if violence is necessary.

This is the present state of affairs following a war that has shaken a whole planet to its foundation. There is a great need, therefore, for one or many organizations and movements which shall restore human beings to their normal sanity and courage and promote the co-operative good will without which our civilization cannot continue. There is a need of codifying ethics to comply with new requirements and put them into actual practice. Rotary with its fixed determination to daily follow the Golden Rule and its eyes on the motto of "Service Above Self," is becoming one of the greatest dynamic forces in the world toward the restoration of an equality of ethical and industrial evolution.

Should we be misanthropic about the outlook for the future? Should we join in pessimism with the hardened lawyer who thinks most men are thieves and liars just because his office is filled all day with people who either want him to get them out of the consequences of their misdeeds or tell them how far they can go along crooked lines without getting into jail? Shall we get the blues with the discouraged social service worker who has almost impossible problems presented to him day after day in dealing with the improvident, the ignorant, the incompetent, the vicious and the feeble-minded? A thousand times, No. A fair and sane consideration of the average man gives us hope and optimism. A whole cross section of human nature as it exists and functions today gives us faith which clears up any jaundiced opinions based on continuous contact with the classes that are deficient or depraved.

Not Going to the Dogs.

The world is not going to the bow-wows even today. Civilization has been sorely stressed but it is not breaking down. The world is not rotten to the core. Business is not based on dishonesty, fraud, and sharp practices. Great corporations are not organized for plunder and do not grow to immense size by financial juggling and chicanery. Business houses do not continue to deal with the same people for thirty, forty, or fifty years on any other basis than fair dealing and honesty. We get alarmed and panic-stricken at times because we do not consider the soundness and sane-ness and steadfastness of most people. Unusual experiences unduly influence us and we are not impressed with the commonplace. The modern press blazes forth the bizarre, the unconventional, the miraculous, the scandalous and even colors these with fancy. Do we need more assurance in people than we get in the cold figures that 98 per cent. of the people who are bonded for honest performance of responsible duties fulfill every expectation and that losses from bad debts averages only one-tenth to three-quarters of one per cent. in most businesses. No, the world is sound and better in the main than it ever was before. Do you remember how some of the patriarchs in the Old Testament are evidently commended for what we would refrain from doing today. In Homer's Iliad the cunning deceit of Ulysses is lauded as a virtue. Theft was the only form of dishonesty recognized in the Roman law.

Progress is More Rapid.

However, during the last hundred years through invention and machinery and novel financial devices and the ability to increase the productivity of an individual many fold, we have progressed materially more than in the preceding years. Latterly, the acceleration has been even more rapid. A whole new set of social and economic forces have been loosed without a corresponding evolution of moral principle and restraint. This is due in large measure because the community has not given enough consideration to the ethical aspects of the breathless changes to formulate definite acceptable rules of right conduct to meet the new conditions. Our laws have lagged still further behind and not infrequently offer inducements to violate moral principles which have been already accepted.

There are a few wrong-doers who are restrained in their actions only by fear of legal penalties. These selfish men pursue their selfish interests as far as the forms of law will permit and even violate statutes that they think are not actively supported by the community. These are the men that society has to fear. They are stronger and their ability and resources give them more power than the weak and poverty-stricken red socialists and Bolsheviks. The reaction of the masses against the injustices effected by the capitalist, promoter, and employer unrestrained by any penalty except a jail sentence that induces the misguided anarchist to try to seek redress in the assassin's bomb.

The Code of Honesty.

If we define honor as constituting the principles of action in conformity with the highest standards of duty and obligation, we can fairly designate honesty as that conduct in business in conformity with the conventional standards of duty and obligation. The ordinary man will act toward his family, his kinfolk and his real friends according to his conception of honor. To his acquaintances, to these people with whom he has common interests and direct dealings, to those of his profession or trade group, he will usually conduct himself in compliance with the rules of honesty. With the general public with other grounds in another economic relationship such as is represented by produced and middleman, employer and employee, and with the government itself he will probably be content to satisfy himself with conduct that is compelled by law. With the progress of human moral relations, some of the standards of honor are being recognized as belonging to common honesty and some portions of the codes of honesty are being incorporated into law.

A Code of Ethics.

Rotary itself has adopted a policy which will mean much in pulling commercial morals up to the advanced position of industrial and business development. If adopted and proclaimed a code of ethics which is supposed to be accepted and practised daily by all of its 60,000 members. This is based squarely on the Golden Rule and gives as a business religion. Rotary has for one of its chief aims the promotion of personal friendship and fellowship among leading business men and employers of all kinds. Thus it naturally tends to widen the application of sentiments of honesty and honor which are practised easily and naturally among men who know each other. The emphasis that is placed on service above self, the wholesome attitude that ultimate profit will follow this rule of action, the confidence and self satisfaction of Rotary men in giving themselves to community service will do much to elevate business standards. The highest form of business and the highest form of living is in service.

"Business is Magic that toils for man, Business is True Romance."

"And those who make it a ruthless fight have only themselves to blame if they feel no whiff of the keen delight in playing the Bigger Game. The game that calls on the heart and head. The best man's strength and nerve; Business is Business," the Big Man said, "And that Business is to Serve!"

"COST OF HIGH LIVING."

What the Testimony in One Case of Increased Wage Demands Showed.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Workers in the packing houses at the stock yards here, who are asking for an advance in wages of $1 a day, are doing so on the grounds of the high cost of living. The workers claim that the cost of living has increased and witnesses have testified that they could not live on $1,600 a year. One witness who testified to this effect was shown to have received $38.09 weekly for four months. In one week he earned $106.49 for sixty-six and one-half hours' work. He admitted earning the money, but declared his average was only $2 a week. The living cost is being discussed generally. Within the last three years wage advances have been such that the higher mode of living has changed and the majority of workers are living on a higher level than ever before and spending more money.

Young boys and girls are getting so much money that they have had to re-adjust their ideas of spending. They can be found nightly at the most expensive resorts, especially after payday, when money flows out like water.

"Help! Help!" cried an Italian laborer near the mud flats of the river. "What's the matter there?" came a voice from the construction shanty.

"Queek! Brings da shoe! Brings da peek! Giovanna stuck in da mud."

"How far in?"

"Up to his knees."

"Oh, let him walk out!"

"No, no! He no canna walk! He wronga end up!"—The New Majority.
