COMPROMISE ON VETO BILL IN AIR

Will Asquith Accept Amendment By Newton? POLITICAL SUICIDE

Unionists Now Realize Lords Are Riding to Great Fall in Present Course—Plan to Accept Inevitable and Hope for Opposition Return to Power

(Canadian Press) London, July 8—Talk of compromise on the constitutional question is filling the air today. The Unionist newspapers at the eleven-hour conference that the king has no alternative but to create sufficient peers to carry the veto bill if the premier recommends and say therefore that the House of Lords will commit political suicide if it compels the government to take that course.

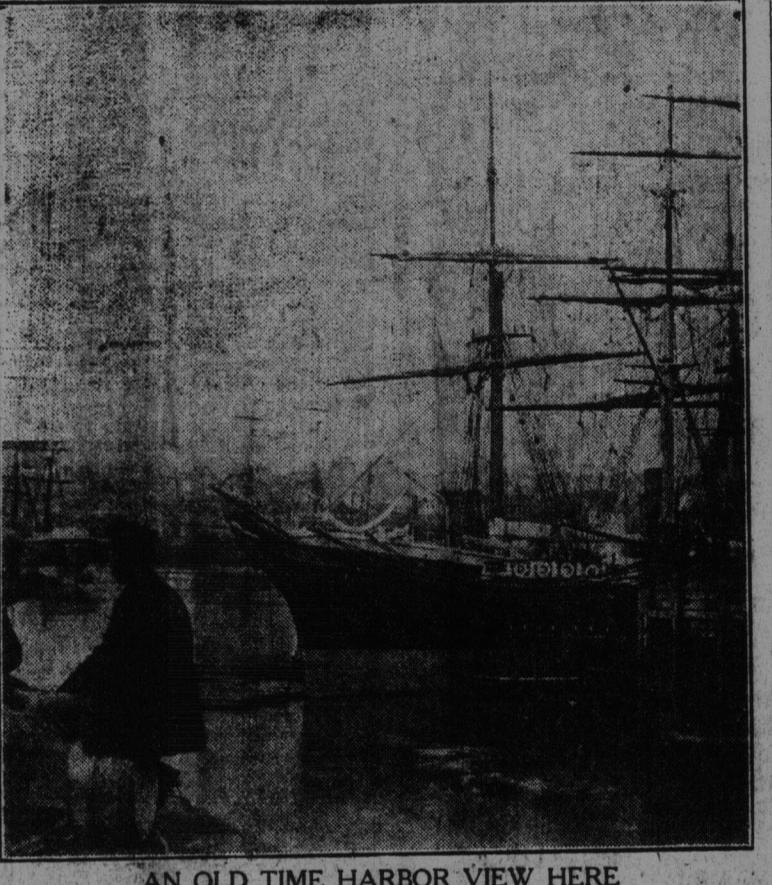

MRS. JOSEPH CRANDALL OF MONCTON DEAD

Had Lived in Railway Town Probably Longer Than Any Other Resident—First Car Built in Moncton Outside I. C. R. Shops

Moncton, N. B., July 8—Mrs. Joseph Crandall died about 1:30 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Rogers, Pleasant street. She suffered a stroke of paralysis about two months ago. She was in her 84th year, and had resided in Moncton probably longer than any other citizen. Her maiden name was Frances Steadman, a sister of Judge Steadman of Fredericton, who is now the only surviving member of the family.

IN THE DAYS WHEN ST. JOHN BUILT FINE SHIPS FOR WORLD'S COMMERCE

Memories of by-gone days of ship-building and of great activity along the harbor front will be recalled by many of the older citizens of St. John at a place at the accompanying picture, a photograph of an old-time pier, presenting a view of the St. John harbor with masts of one or two "square-riggers" prominent in the foreground.

AN OLD TIME HARBOR VIEW HERE

Why I can remember the two-dozen or more shipyards about the city and vicinity just as well as I can the time the first iron steamer came into port, when there came nearly being a riot because of prejudice against the new building and use of these iron-bound steamers.

loaded in the harbor, and the method of loading was entirely different from what it is now. Although there were a few tugboats in existence, they were not in any great demand, and the most of the towing was done by big, stalwart men, who were expert scullers and rowmen.

There have been fourteen fires in the vicinity of North and Smythe streets in the last month or two, and it is believed that some of them were of incendiary origin. Pacific Liner Ashore, is Swung Broadside to Sea and Begins to Break up—Only Hundred Yards From Land, But Life Boats Fail (Canadian Press) Surf, Cal., July 8—Twenty or more passengers and sailors of the steamer Santa Rosa of the Pacific Coast steamship line were drowned yesterday afternoon in the surf while trying to escape from that vessel, which stranded near Point Arguello. In two lifeboats they left the ship, plunged into the roaring surf and soon were foundering in the boiling waters. The lives of some were pounded out against the rocks while others sank to the bottom.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

MR. G. VASA HEARD FROM. The Times' new reporter received by mail this morning from Mr. G. Vasa, of Cristobal, Canal Zone, Panama, a warning to unload his C. P. R. stock and thus preserve his wealth. Mr. Vasa gives as a reason for thus advising the new reporter that when the Panama Canal is finished "it is quite certain that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company will lose practically the whole of its through traffic from Montreal to Vancouver and vice versa."

Not being of a selfish nature the new reporter hastens to pass the news from Cristobal on to other large holders of C. P. R. stock. We must get them over and done with before the cyclone arrives from Panama. Persons having claims against the corporation should press for immediate settlement. Doubtless the company will send George Ham to Panama to reason with Mr. Vasa, and it may also try to buy up the Panama canal, but it is much better for the public to be on the safe side and get real money before the crisis arrives. Mr. Vasa says the canal is fast approaching completion.

Narrow Gauge in Chile is Next—Peru Line Passes Through 57 Tunnels—Mexican Lines Traverse Lofly Heights for Greater Distances

Latin America claims the highest railway points in the world. The highest point reached by rails is on the back-bone of the South-American continent, the Maracocha branch of the Central railway of Peru.

The second highest railroad in the world is in Chile to Puerto Montal, in the narrow-gauge system. It is the narrow-gauge line from Antofagasta to Copiapo, in a width of track.

TORONTO SLUMS

The city of Toronto is confronted by a serious problem. Here is an extract from the report of the medical health officer, who made an inspection of slum conditions in that city:—

"The inspectors found 447 people living in basements and 22 in cellars. Most of the basements are damp, and in the cellars and back kitchens hens, ducks and dogs are sometimes kept. Three hundred and ninety houses were found unfit for human habitation, 77 in the Eastern avenue district, 186 in the Central district, 9 in the Niagara street district, 197 in other districts. In these, 2,133 people live. The central or City Hall district is the most densely populated. 3,051 families were visited here—11,645 persons living in an area of 162 acres; of these:—

1275 families live in 4 rooms or more.
348 families live in 3 rooms.
387 families live in 2 rooms.
129 families live in 1 room.
81 families live in basements.
1 family live in a cellar.

"No less than 108 of these houses are unfit for habitation. In these districts where there are 5,292 families there are only 1,001 baths. In one house nine children were found sleeping in three rooms.

The inspector found among the 4,096 houses inspected that in 43 were families afflicted with tuberculosis, 337 had filthy surroundings, 2,397 had outside closets or privy pits, 718 had unsanitary closets, 208 had filthy conditions inside, 109 had overcrowded rooms, 406 had 4-roomed dwellings, 846 3-roomed, 411 2-roomed, and 108 1-roomed. In these 4,096 houses were 26,412 persons, including French, German, Italian, Hebrew, Polish, Russian, Swedish, Finlander, Macedonian, Greek, Slav, Armenian, Chinese and negroes.

The report says that the following conditions peculiar to great cities, are found to be present to a lamentable extent: High rents are being collected for rear houses, dark rooms, tenement houses, houses unfit for habitation; inadequate water supply; unpaved and filthy yards and lanes, sanitary conveniences so-called, which by their position, and the conditions, or for various other reasons have become a public nuisance, a menace to public health, a danger to public morals, and in fact, an offence against public decency. Some houses were so inaccessible that they were at first missed, even by experienced inspectors. One house could be reached only by a curious tunnel-like passage from the street, down a dark and precipitous stairway, and up again into a back yard, where the house was found thus concealed. Two houses were found built over stables with no evidence of any drainage.

Dr. Hastings, the medical health officer, makes this recommendation:—

"We require, first, a good housing by-law, with provisions for its adequate enforcement. Secondly, we require suburban garden cities, with rapid transportation facilities at single fare, such as they have in Germany and England, where the mechanic can get a ticket for 25 cents good for six round trips six miles from the heart of the city, or for thirty cents for nine miles."

Toronto cannot afford to have these disease breeding centers within its bounds. The health officers must be backed up by such civic legislation as would enable them to clean up the slums. To have more than 20,000 people living in conditions so unsanitary is a menace to the whole city. It is more. It is a disgrace.

CONCERNING THE FARM

The report of the Canadian field crops for May shows favorable conditions all over Canada. The acreage in grain in New Brunswick is somewhat larger than that of last year, but less in hay and clover. The figures for this province are:

1911 1910
Spring wheat (acres) 18,469 19,529
Oats (acres) 212,900 212,900
Barley (acres) 3,199 3,979
Peas (acres) 2,193 2,739
Mixed grains (acres) 4,599 4,500
Hay and clover (acres) 43,889 85,991

The condition of these crops in May was reported not so good as in May of last year, but there has since been very fine growing weather, which has doubtless greatly improved the conditions.

An interesting statement in the report is that showing the increased area sown with wheat, oats and barley in the western

"It is my firm belief that every woman should take 'Fruit-a-lives' if she wants to keep herself in good health.
"Before taking 'Fruit-a-lives' I was constantly troubled with what is commonly known as 'Nerves' or severe Nervousness. This extreme nervousness brought on the most violent form of Sick Headache, for which I was constantly taking Doctor's medicine.
"Constipation was also a source of great trouble for which the Doctors said 'I would have to take medicine all my life.'
"But 'Fruit-a-lives' has relieved these troubles and I am a well woman.
"When I start taking 'Fruit-a-lives' I took four at a time, but have reduced the dose so that it is not necessary for me to take one in a week, and that one 'Fruit-a-life' tablet overtook me well."

Pain relief.

After a little space,
Mary, his dearest daughter, covered up his face
And stayed her tears,
For her own task it was, she knew, to face the years,
And live through as he had always led—
The life whose every thread,
Made part of the plain coat called Sacrifice.

A coat without device
But one which many, many hearts have blessed
For its warm love, and pressed
Its rough folds to their lips and wept.
For she remembered how her hand he kept
Within his own, and with her walked abroad,
And watched the sunsets, his last glory yield.
All this came back to her,
All little things that were,
And every dear remembrance on her heart
Laid its rich sorrow and its mortal smart,
Too exquisite bereavement to be borne.

Yes, after the long night the austere morn,
Smiling upon her, said with gentleness:—
I am the living, and I am no less
The dead. For they have entered into me:
Today, not yesterday, is their eternity.
Your past must die with him you loved
So much.

He is part of me, and you must touch
My hand with the warm love of a young child,
For I, the living world, am reconciled
To God's un pitying plan; and all my hours
My tasks, my needs imperative, and my bright flowers,
Are fashioned from the souls of those who worship God.
Nothing God made is underneath the soil!
I am Today, my daughter, and I need your love!

Look up above—
The sky is leaden, and the cheerless rain
Makes its own misery and pain
But you and I can only bear to hear,
Deep in our hearts, the joyous clear,
Brave music of the soul that sings
Of coming day and living things!

IN LIGHTER VEIN
Each day the Standard represent Sir Wilfrid Laurier as giving another hack with his little axe at the painter which fastens Canada to the Empire. The people of Canada are preparing to welcome Sir Wilfrid as a great imperial as well as a great Canadian statesman. The Standard is not in touch with the sentiment of the people.

THE BELLES.
O! the belles!
Summer belles,
What a plentitude of heartaches their giddiness compels!
How they giggle, riddle, giggle,
In the sea-breeze-laden night,
How their victims squirm and wriggle
In an ecstasy of fright,
How they hurt
When they flirt,
When you should be glad they gloat
On the squirming of a fellow when they have him by the throat.

O! the belles!
Brazee belles,
How they conjure, scheme and plan
To entrap the Summer-man,
The ribbon-counter gentlemen who masquerade as swells.
O! the belles!
Greedy belles,
How they wring, wring, wring
Soda water, everything,
From the pockets of those "Cash!" exclaiming swells.

O! the belles!
Foxy belles,
What a wealth of hints they fling,
To compel the pleasant ring
Diamond ring,
Ah! the heart-enraging ring,
Of the golden wedding bells, bells, bells,
bells, bells.

O! the belles!

Arthur Fomard, 19 months old, of Lowell is thought to be the youngest swimmer in the world. Sunday, to the amusement of a crowd of several hundred people, he swam about for 20 minutes in water 15 feet deep, at Mountain Lake, near Lowell. His father taught him to swim in the bathtub several months ago, but Sunday was the first time he has dared to let the youngster enter water over his head in depth.

Elephants, like other animals, lie down to sleep in their native jungles, but in captivity never. Their standing sleep is brief—about three hours—and all the rest of the night they stand rocking from side to side in the darkness. The reason for this, the keepers say, is that the elephant never reaches the point of complete confidence in his keepers and is ever grieving for the jungle.

You Can't Leave the Beard Behind

So Don't Forget the Gillette

The hearty open-air life seems to make the beard grow as it never grows at home. To the man without a GILLETTE it becomes a downright nuisance. Cleanliness, comfort and self-respect demand the morning shave. But baths, trains, summer resorts and camps provide scant shaving facilities.

That's where the man with a GILLETTE Safety Razor is in his grip of his pocket. In lurching cabs or swaying Pullman in the back porch or beside a convenient stump—wherever the moonbeams find him—he can enjoy his regular trim GILLETTE shave in solid comfort with a ready independence of place or circumstance.

Pack your grip with discrimination. Travel light. Leave out the "unnecessary" of life. But whatever you do don't discount your holiday by starting out without "The Razor of To-day."

THE CROP OUTLOOK IN CANADA PROMISING

Reports to Montreal From Gulf to Rockies are for Generally a Large, Satisfactory Yield

(Montreal Gazette)

While it is yet too early in the growing season to make an authoritative estimate of what the harvest will be, it is satisfactory to note that the advices generally are promising, and that unless upward conditions prevail during the rest of the season the return for the farmer's toil and courage will be fairly liberal as to quantity and fairly good as to quality. This is the inference drawn from a study of reports sent to the head office at Montreal of the agencies of the Mountain Bank, which now cover practically the whole of Canada from the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the Rocky Mountains.

to benefit from climatic conditions. As in Quebec it has suffered from insect pests except where the farmers have been active with their spraying work; and generally the best that could be looked for is a moderate crop. Ontario, however, produces so great a variety of crops that when some fall short others are sure to make up for the loss; and there is nothing disclosed to suggest that a fair all round harvest will not be general.

In the prairie provinces the co-operation of all bank agencies was invited and the reports are from some three hundred places. In so great a country there is, of course, room for wide differences in conditions. The general tenor of the remarks is, however, hopeful in the extreme. A greater acreage is under crop, in Manitoba as well as in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Generally in Manitoba the situation is favorably regarded.

A big yield—splendid—good—bright—very good—excellent—such are the expressions used to describe the situation at the close of June, which is a critical month. Generally also the grain is further advanced than usual, which means that the harvesting will begin early. The expectation of a record-breaker in the way of a crop has rarely had a better foundation. It is interesting that in Manitoba as a rule, the number of cattle and hogs on the farms is increasing, which is a good thing in itself and a sign of general improvement, justifying a claim that the farmer of the province is holding his own or making headway.

What is true of Manitoba in this regard is true also of Saskatchewan and Alberta. In those latter named provinces the area of new land is larger, and a greater extent of new land is coming into use from year to year. It is but to be said of them that it would be hard to expect better general conditions than are now noted.

In Alberta, perhaps, the outlook is described as better than in Saskatchewan; but there is little difference to note. In those provinces also there is in many places an increase noted in the numbers of cattle and hogs on the farms. In conclusion it is only to be said that if the realization is nearly equal to the promise the harvest of 1911 will be a memorable one.

WAITING

A St. Louis travelling man, making his first trip through North Dakota, woke up one May morning to find the ground white with snow.

"For heaven's sake," he asked the hotel clerk disquietedly, "when do you have summer out in this Godforsaken country?" "I don't know," replied the clerk, "I have only been here eleven months."

"Ed" Dugan, a back driver, after a very busy day Monday, stopped in front of the lemonade stand kept by Harry Blumentstein in New York City and bought a one-cent glass of lemonade. The glass contained only about half as much as an ordinary tumbler and Dugan complained: "I could drink 40 of them," he said. Blumentstein was incredulous and a bystander, who knew Dugan had once won a bet by eating 40 bananas, offered to pay for all Dugan would eat if he did not drink 40 glasses. Dugan started in and succeeded in drinking 47 glasses at Blumentstein's expense.

PRACTICAL RECIPROcity

To the Editor of the Times-Star: Sir—If Mr. Pugsley's latest information on reciprocity is found to be correct in practice, we think our own experience of what it means for the benefit of all peoples should stop further futile argument on what has been a very long-continued subject.

In reciprocity we are following the lines of Britain's free-trade policy, a policy that has made her the most prosperous of all the nations of the earth, and that is trading with every country on the globe where it is possible to reach trade and business free from tax and tariff oppression. By such free-trading all the people concerned are relieved of the extra high prices—the extra being the tariff tax.

All the arguments in the world by the most learned of politicians against free trade are completely silenced by the common sense thought that to get an article cheaper is plainly a real saving to the rich or poor, but the human greed of the globe is satisfying her people with the lowest prices for all her inhabitants.

The present desire of Mr. Borden is to succeed, if possible to sit in Laurier's place. He is a conservative, and that means, as known in the past, holding for the few all the privileges, and placing on the many the sweat and burden of heavy tax and tariff for the benefit of trusts and combines, as proved in their past career, when in power for eighteen years.

Talking with a German street business man the other day reciprocity was introduced, and our serious minded friend said he could not understand a newspaper he subscribed for, in one issue had reciprocity would lower the prices and in a succeeding issue that it would raise prices. We replied that we might go on for ever in argument and still be puzzled, but the true and only satisfaction in anything is the practical proof thereof, and that simple and clear proof is the fact that Britain for the last fifty years, by her free-trade policy has succeeded beyond all others on the globe in satisfying her people with the lowest prices for all her inhabitants.

END OF A GREAT CAREER
(Toronto Globe)

A great Canadian, yes, an imperial figure, passed from public service with the retirement of Lord Strathcona. From a poor Scotch boy, earning his living as a servant of the Hudson Bay Company on the remote Labrador coast, Donald A. Smith rose to membership in the Canadian parliament, to a commanding place in the financial world, and in his ripe but wonderfully useful old age he has been Canadian High Commissioner in London and a member of the British Peersage.

It would require a volume to enumerate the many spheres of activity and avenues of public service of this wonderful citizen of the empire. In the quelling of the first Red rebellion alone he scored for the government by the very confidence the Indians reposed in him. He was a pioneer builder of the western empire, and one of the founders of the Canadian Pacific Railway. In 1890, just at the close of his brief career in politics, he was a delegate to try and settle the Manitoba school question, and soon thereafter became High Commissioner. Montreal knows him as her leading financier for years, and president of the Bank of Montreal. In Britain he has championed the cause of Canada with unflagging enthusiasm, and in the highest circles.

Lord Strathcona has ever been liberal with his wealth, and hundreds of deserving institutions can testify to his generosity. That old age would some time compel his retirement was of course inevitable, for he is now 91, but Canadians will wish him still years of leisure in which to enjoy his honors and his friendships in the old world and in the new.

CANADIANS HAD GOOD VIEW POINT

sent various phases of Canadian national life, such as farming, fruit-growing, sports and mountain climbing. There is also a fine fresco of the Château Frontenac in Quebec. A supplementary attraction is an immense panorama of Canada, sixty feet long, by Charles Sheldon, the painting depicts a bird-eye view of the north-western portion of the American continent, and shows the Hudson Bay and the Gulf of St. Lawrence from the Atlantic to the Pacific. In the windows the arms of various provinces of the Dominion are reproduced.

On Thursday, many of the Canadian Senators and members of parliament now in England in connection with the coronation are to visit the Royal Agricultural Show at Norwich, which is one of the biggest institutions of its kind in the United Kingdom, and which is to be honored by the presence of the king on Wednesday.

Naturally, such a popular feature of the agricultural interests of a portion of England is an excellent medium for publicity for the various corporations desirous of attracting settlers to Canada, and the C. F. R. has an exhibit there which illustrates a "ready-made farm" house such as may be seen in various parts of Alberta associated with Sir Thomas Shaughnessy's scheme.

The building has been erected in perspective, but is so designed with a landscape painting in the background, that the visitor has an impression of a natural full-sized house standing out on the prairie and surrounded by fields of golden grain.

Mr. P. Bull, K. C., of Toronto, proprietor of the Brampton Jersey herd, has been invited by Earl Carrington, president of the board of agriculture, to show and also to the king's dinner there. Earl Carrington is greatly interested in farming conditions, and emigration conditions in Canada, and had a long conversation with Mr. Bull on the subject in Whitehall.

The news that Mr. Bull possesses the Jersey heifer which holds the world's record for milk production was a surprise to Earl Carrington, as indeed, it has been to everyone on this side. Mr. Bull was one of the Canadian present at the Duchess of Sutherland's reception. The Duke of Sutherland manifested an eager interest in the Canadian northwest, where both he and Mr. Bull are heavily interested.

Smelter Eng'nd

In the course of an interview today with your correspondent, Col. J. Carson, president of the Crown Reserve Mining Company, made an interesting suggestion. He said that although London is the largest silver market in the world, there are no silver smelters in England, and the purchasers have to buy bar silver on which they make a profit. He suggested that the Crown Reserve Mining Company, which has a mine in the form of bar silver, should make fifty per cent of the output of the mine into silver bars, and ship them to London, where they would be sold at a profit. STRATHCONA HAD SEEN HARD DAYS

Hardships of Pioneer Work in Canada's Northland Sixty or Seventy Years Ago—Incidents in His Wonderful Career

(Toronto Mail and Empire).

Canada is never likely again to have such a High Commissioner as Lord Strathcona, whose early retirement is announced. The conditions of life in this country today are not calculated to produce such men. Strathcona has seen this country develop from a wilderness to a great nation. He has witnessed the transformation, while those who follow him will see only the growth. Chances there will still be for young men to obtain almost fabulous wealth. Some led now working on the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific may rise to be the financial driver of lines, and one of the great influences in the British Empire. But the days of the wilderness have passed away forever, and his life is a hand full of the pioneer work, like Strathcona, helped lay the foundation of this nation. Of those who survive, the retiring High Commissioner and his predecessor, Sir Charles Tupper, are the most distinguished. Both have passed their sixtieth birthday.

The Exile in Labrador

In his "Remarkable History of the Hudson's Bay Company" Professor George Bryce writes as follows of Lord Strathcona: "Most notable of the officers of the firm rank who have conducted the fur trade in Labrador is Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, the present governor of the company. Coming out at eighteen, Donald Alexander Smith, a well educated Scottish lad, related to Peter and Catherine Grant and to the brothers John and James Stuart, prominent officers, who made their names in the North-West Company, are still remembered, the future governor began his career as a young Scot on his way to Labrador in 1838, was dispatched to Moose Factory, and for more than thirty years was in the service of the Hudson's Bay and Labrador. Rising to the rank of chief trader for fourteen years of laborious service, he desired of every aspirant in the company, the rank of chief trader, at Rigolito, in the north of Labrador, at Rigolito, and his subordinate stations were most laborious."

A Good Stroke of Business

If Sir Edward Grey's argument has been correctly reported, what he looks forward to is that in the event of a war between Great Britain and any continental power (Great Britain's chief dependence for an uninterrupted food supply would be upon the United States, and he counts that under the new policy now being adopted any money that proposed to seize American cargoes bound for England would have to be paid to the American navy as a ransom, as with such commerce protectors as Great Britain could spare from her own. If it works out that way the Declaratory of London is a pretty good thing. With Great Britain wanting to receive and the United States wanting to deliver cargoes, it would be rather more force than any presently possible enemy of Great Britain can command to seriously interfere with the commerce of the sea.

THE PROOF

"You say he has untold wealth?"

"Hain't filed a tax statement for years."

—Washington Herald.

Tranquilizing the Indian

When Rupert's Land was transferred by the Hudson's Bay Company to Canada, it would be rather more force than any presently possible enemy of Great Britain can command to seriously interfere with the commerce of the sea.

THE FLOOD TIDE IS TO CANADA'S SHORES

Boston View of the Immigration Rush From All Lands to The Dominion—A Record in History Made

(Boston News Bureau.)

Debate on reciprocity has focused the spotlight on the great trek across the border, to the newer and rival prairies, sweeping northward nearly 150,000 persons and $200,000,000 in possessions a year. Whether it portends, for those left behind a hostile competition or rather a friendly co-operation, it certainly ranks as one of the great features of economic and political history.

But years of cheap land calls across the sea as well as over the border; and with it goes a welcome. Canada has been called the great national campaign of advertising invitation ever known—lavish, efficient and almost universal. Placards and pamphlets are sent to public places, have informed and attracted the resolute and ambitious labor of the old world. These returns are less well-to-do than our expatriate farmers; but their prairie proprietorship is simply deferred to European agents, for the agricultural and domestic shipped, goes a bonus of $1 on each adult and 10c on all under 18, just as commissions of 25 per cent are made known by men. The response has been (calendar years 1897-1908):

TOO DANGEROUS

In the struggling days at Tuskegee, Booker T. Washington found that he would have to use an old chicken-house for a school.

"Uncle," he said to an old colored man, "I want you to come down at 9 o'clock for tomorrow morning and help me clean out a hen-house."

"Law now, Mr. Washington," the old man exclaimed, "you'd don't want to begin cleanin' out no hen-house room 'ere in de day time!" (From "Success Magazine.")

WE INVITE EVERY THIN MAN AND WOMAN HERE.

EVERY PERSON IN ST. JOHN AND VICINITY TO GET FAT AT OUR EXPENSE.

This is an invitation that no thin man or woman can afford to ignore. We'll tell you why. We are going to give you a wonderful discovery that helps digest the foods you eat—that puts good, solid flesh on people who are thin and underweight, no matter what the cause may be—that makes brain in five hours and blood in four—that puts the red corpuscles in the blood which every thin man or woman so sadly needs. How can we do this? We can! This new treatment, which has proved a boon to every thin person, is called SARGOL. Don't forget the name—SARGOL. Nothing like it has ever been produced before. It is a revelation to the women who have never been able to appear as they wish. Now, thanks to SARGOL, I look like a man. I am 22 pounds heavier than I was when I was 16. I am 22 pounds heavier than I was when I was 16. I am 22 pounds heavier than I was when I was 16. I am 22 pounds heavier than I was when I was 16.

REV. GEORGE W. DAVIS

"I have made a faithful record of my treatment and must say it has brought to me new life and vigor. I have gained seventy pounds and now weigh 170 pounds. Here is the statement of how I have been freed from the gripes of my childhood. It has been the turning point of my life. My health is now fine. I don't have to take any medicine at all and never want to again."

Mrs. A. I. RODENHEISER writes:

"I have gained immensely since I took SARGOL. I only weighed about 100 pounds when I began using it and now I weigh 130 pounds, so really this makes twenty-four pounds. I feel stronger and am looking better than ever before, and I carry my ribs chest, which is so relieved."

COME EAT WITH US AT OUR EXPENSE

This coupon entitles any thin person to one 50c package of Sargol, the concentrated Flesh Builder (provided you have never tried it), and that 10c is enclosed to cover postage, packing, etc. Read our advertisement printed above, and then put 10c in stamps in letter, with this coupon, and the full 50c package will be sent to you by return of post. What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heaviness" behind the eyes, and general listlessness, eating, stomach (sour or burn), food being "slimy" or poor or variable appetite, nausea at times, and kindred symptoms?

If you have one or more of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dropsy.

Dr. Fieser's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver purgative, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve stimulant.

WOMEN MAY AVOID OPERATIONS

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Book will prove how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Here is her own statement. Paw Paw, Mich.—Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement of the uterus. I could not walk, and my feet for a long time. My physician was to do me several months, but without much relief. At last last sent me to Dr. A. A. Abbot for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it.—Mrs. Orville Book, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women. Why don't you try it?

THE MOSQUITO WORSHIP PLANT IN INDIA

Praying to the mosquito plant in India. Sir George B. Howard is convinced that certain sub-tropical plants keep a way mosquitoes, and has advanced various proofs to show that they do so. Writing recently to state his belief in the power of the plant, he remarked that one of the two facts of present pertinence is "the presence of the plant, set upon, or planted into, the four-sided altar within the courtyard, or the front garden of every Hindu house... where every morning the Mother of the House is to be seen performing prostrations, or the worship of the plant, by circumambulating it with the right hand always next to it—the whole she over and over again invoking the blessing of the Lord Vishnu on the Father of the House and on the Holy Family of their sons and daughters—that is, pray for less and less malaria and more bonanza."

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN

Tennis and golf are the popular sports in St. John at the present time. In fact any entertainment that provides society, what remains of it in town, is sure to be largely attended. Warm weather does not affect the ardor of either golfer or tennis player. On the contrary the higher the mercury the more energetic their endeavors, so goes without saying that notwithstanding the hot days of the past week the links and courts had many visitors, and the Wednesday and Thursday teas were well patronized. At the tennis court on Wednesday the tea hostesses were Mrs. W. A. Spring, Miss Portia McKeague and Miss Nancy Kingdon. Among those present were Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. Mabel Shaw, Miss Clara Schofield, Miss Lydia Kimball, Miss Langstroth, Miss Mollie Robinson, Miss Gladys Hines, Miss Edith Sawyer, Miss Young, Miss Ethel Penneck, Ottawa, Miss Nora Robinson, Miss Winnie Hines, Halifax, Miss Jean MacLaren, Jack, Miss Vera MacLaurin, Miss Jennie Bridges, Miss Vivian Barnes, Miss Schofield, Miss Kathleen Stinson, Miss Alice Green, Mr. D'Arcy, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Joy, Mr. Hugh McLean, Mr. Cyril Jones, Mr. W. W. Taylor, Mr. Don Skinner, Mr. Rigg, Hagar, Miss Kit Schofield was the winner of the ladies' singles.

On Thursday, tea was served at the golf club on the veranda, a delightful innovation the warm summer days. Yellow iris decorated the centre of the table. Clock golf was played, the prize winner being Mrs. Andrew Jack. Some played bridge, but the majority spent the afternoon in the open air. Among those present were Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Mrs. Keator, Mrs. Fred Sears, Mrs. George West Jones, Mrs. George McLeod, Mrs. J. S. MacLaren, Mrs. Walter Foster, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. R. Keltie Jones, Mrs. George P. Smith, Mrs. George McVitty, Mrs. Lucien subbery, Mrs. Madisson, Mrs. Louisa Baker, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Clarence Allen, Dr. Margaret Parks, Mrs. Portey, Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. Sadler, Miss McMillan, Miss Sidney Smith, Miss Edna MacLaren, Miss Sara Hare, Miss Nellie Jack, Miss Lou Jack, Miss Lou Park, Miss Shidbolt, the Misses Taylor, Miss Young, Miss Lydia Kimball, Miss Muriel Sadler. Dominion Day, last Saturday, was most joyfully observed. The holiday falling at the weekend, many took occasion to spend a couple of days fishing or visiting friends in the country. A great number of automobiles, carrying many parties, left the city for out town. Others enjoyed yachting on the rivers and lakes and, happily, the weather was adapted for all kinds of outdoor amusement. At Westfield sailing boat races were held under the auspices of the Westfield Outing Association. There were also races at Kenforth. At the Cedars, which was formally opened on Saturday, a number of people from the city were guests at the hotel, among them being Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McLellan, Miss Jennie Webster (Schofield), Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Macmillan, Dr. and Mrs. A. Pierce Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. Carritte, Dr. and Mrs. Merrill, Mrs. W. A. Gibson, Miss Marion Gibson, Miss Dorothy Brown, Mrs. C. A. Miller and son.

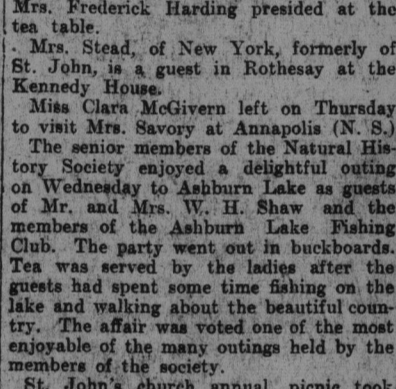

At Rothsay there were numerous yachting parties on the holiday. The Dahinda had a party on board, guests of Mr. Fred Taylor. The chaparrone were Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holly motored to Shediac on Saturday, returning to the city on Sunday. They had as guests Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bonillon. Colonel H. H. McLean and the officers of the Canadian contingent gave a dinner in London, June 15, to one hundred and fifty guests including officers from the Overseas military forces in London. Ponce Leopold of Battenburg was among the guests. The Canadian Boy Scouts, in charge of Scoutmaster Lindsey, were also present.

At Andover on Wednesday of last week, at the surprise of Miss Everett and Mr. Spike, Miss Louise Knight, of this city, niece of the groom, sang O Love Divine at the conclusion of the ceremony. Mrs. R. Downing Paterson was hostess at tea this week at her cottage in Rothsay. On Friday afternoon of last week Mrs. Murray MacLaren was hostess at a tea given for the visitors in town. Mrs. J.

THE FREDERICKTON CATHEDRAL
J. D. Phinney, K.C., returned to Fredericton last evening after attending to some legal business in the city. Speaking of the fire in the Cathedral he thought that the reports have over-estimated the damage. The congregation were very much gratified that the walls are still standing, otherwise there would be fear of transferring the cathedral to St. John.

THE SMITHS HAVE EASILY PLACED ALL OUT OF THE RUNNING

Directory Shows 236 of That Name in St. John—Interesting Facts Which 1911 Edition Presents

The Smiths of St. John have easily left all behind. The city directory for 1911 just issued by E. McAlpine, shows 236 bearing that name. Compared with 117 in the 1909 directory it will be seen that they have doubled.
If the directory system can be taken as a guide the time is coming when Smith will become a generic name finally displacing all other surnames. The second initial is rather overworked to distinguish the twenty-eight Williams and the thirteen James who bear in common the surname of Smith. There are also eight Johns, eight Georges and six Joseph Smiths in the city.
The Murphys are a pretty good second with a list of 198. The increase since 1909 is twenty-four. The list of names totalling more than 100 are as follows:—Brown, 122; Johnson or Johnston, 120; Wilson, 128; Campbell, 117; McDonald, 111; Clark, 110; Thompson or Thomson, 102.
Something may be judged of the nationality of the people by the frequency of certain distinctive names in the directory. Those whose ancestors no doubt lived in the Emerald Isle include 98 Murphys, sixty-one O'Briens and 86 O'Neils or O'Neills.
The descendants of the Highlanders of the bonny hillsides of Scotland include the Campbell clan with 117 representatives.
The McLeods number fifty-six and the Fraser clan contains twenty-six.

The directory is neatly printed and well bound by the Daily Telegraph job printing department and bindery. It contains the names of 10,200 people, an increase of 109 over last year. Multiplying by three gives a population of 57,600.
Mr. McAlpine says that his information merits the statement that there are only 88 houses and fifty-seven shops unoccupied. The advertisements in the edition are bright and attractive and the appendix dealing with the government of the city has been revised up to date.

JULY 12 AT THE BORDER

(St. Croix Courier)
Wednesday next, July 12 is being eagerly anticipated by Orangemen and their friends in Carleton Place, Sunbury, St. John and Charlotte, when one of the largest gatherings of the order on record will be held in St. Stephen's. Excursion trains and boats will come from all directions and it is estimated that at least 5,000 people will gather in the border town.
The Orangemen to the number of 2,000, will form at the fair grounds and the parade will start promptly at 2 o'clock with the half a dozen bands in the line. Returning and to the fair grounds a number of speeches will be made by prominent members of the order.
In the afternoon, two good horse races will be held on the trotting park, sufficient entries having already been secured to make two good classes a certainty. In addition a ball game will be held at 8 o'clock, the contestants being the "Blues" and "Marathons."
The ladies of the Loyal True Blues will serve dinner and supper in the cutting rink.

In the evening, St. Stephen L. O. L. will conduct a moonlight excursion to St. Andrew on the steamer Grand Manan, leaving here at 8:30 and returning about 1. The Maple Leaf band will furnish music and the event will be a fitting close to a day of great enjoyment.

THE TAXI CAB LIKELY HERE THIS SUMMER

Probable That One or Two Will Be Put In Commission

AUTO LIST GROWING
There are Now 450 in New Brunswick, the Greater Number of Them in St. John—What it Costs For a Holiday Spin

The growth of the automobile in favor in St. John, and in fact throughout the entire province of New Brunswick during this last couple of years has been remarkable. Only a few short years ago the now familiar honk-honk of the buzz wagons was but occasional, but nowadays one can hardly cross the streets without having to dodge an auto. At the present time there are about 450 cars in the province, and there are more in this city than in any other place in the provincial borders.
The little runabouts are being adopted more and more every day by the business men of the city, who find them very convenient for transaction of business outside their offices. The price of these cars has been greatly cheapened since the auto was first introduced into the city, and it is predicted that there will be many more of them in the city before the year closes.
The touring cars are numerous, and the country roads in the vicinity of the city are dotted almost every night with cars. Only a few days ago two new commercial trucks were purchased by the city and are now in commission. This is another branch of the business that is expected to grow during the next year.

In the city at the present time there are two auto garages and both are doing capacity business. Messrs. J. A. Pugh & Co., who were the first to establish in the city, intend to greatly expand their business in the next few months. They will build an addition to their present building in Canterbury street, which will be fitted out in up-to-date style. Another branch of the business that is looked for an opening here is the taxi-cab. The auto season in St. John extends all the year round, and it is believed that the taxi business could be made a profitable one here, if a competent chauffeur attending to the purpose of fixing up the roads in the vicinity of the city.
The local members of the association have planned several trips for the summer, the first one of which will be held to Lepreau this afternoon. These trips are always very enjoyable and it is expected that a good many cars will make the run.

The city of St. John is getting more and more up to date each day, and with the advent of the taxicab and commercial autos, another step will have been taken in our onward march. The auto, recently a luxury, is becoming a necessity. Each year the cost of the cars is getting cheaper, and within a short time, it is expected, will be in the reach of many more people.

ST. JOHN MEN AT PETEWAU

The members of the 3rd Regiment C. A. in camp at Petawawa recently played an interesting game of cricket with the regular soldiers under canvas and emerged from the fray victorious, the tally being 55 to 37. The local team was composed from men from the advance party which left St. John on July 1, and they proved themselves superior to the picked team from the regulars. They lined up with the following men: Martin, Campbell, Conley, Wallace, Jennings, Chip, Connor, Dodge, Dalzell, Clark and Brennan.

The St. John men had a stiff fight against a sand and rain storm this week, when the wind swept the sand over the camp, and threatened to blow down some of the tents. The men had to hold to the ropes to save the tents from falling. Some of their clothing was blown away.

THE MARITIME MERCHANT

The Maritime Merchant, the trade journal so well known throughout the lower provinces, has with this week's issue entered its twentieth year. The Merchant has proved that a successful trade journal, one of the most ably conducted in Canada, can be produced in these provinces. The present issue, which is an ordinary and not a special one, contains 124 pages. Mr. J. Stewart, who was without previous journalistic experience when he assumed control, has achieved a remarkable success in this special field. He combines the faculties of a keen observer and interesting writer with those of a clever business manager, who knows good advertising and how it should be displayed. The Merchant is not less appreciated by the practical printer and advertising man than by the man in the store.

ONLY FIVE DEATHS

The statement of the board of health shows that there have been only five deaths in the city during this week. Following is the list:—Tuberculosis, two; peritonitis, rupture of thoracic duct and heart disease, one each.
