Newspapers Now Receive Pictures Transmitted Over Wire

RAY'S SCIENCE TELLS SCOUT SYSTEM

PROCESS HAS BEEN PERFECTED

First Pictures Were Sent Successfully From Cleveland Yesterday. WHITE RAY DOES IT Scenes at Political Convention Will be Sent by the New Method.

(United Press.) New York, May 20.—New photographs of the Republican National Convention will be transmitted by wire the same as news dispatches, following successful tests of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, between Cleveland and New York. Fifteen photographs, including pictures of President Coolidge, groups of men, business buildings and landscape scenes in Cleveland, were sent by wire to New York in two hours, the first successful transmission of photographs by wire. The pictures, produced in newspapers of New York without finishing touches, are clear.

White Ray Does It A tiny white ray pressing down upon a revolving cylinder, somewhat similar to a phonograph, made the pictures. It was operated from Cleveland. The size of the ray varied constantly, making the different characteristics of the pictures. A total of 418 lines were made in producing the picture of President Coolidge which consumed 216 seconds.

The telephone company has been working more than a year attempting to commercialize sending pictures by wire. The radio corporation of America is working on a similar device by radio, as are other radio electricians. The mechanism for sending pictures is installed in Cleveland now and will be used during the Republican national convention. Pictures from the Democratic national convention here probably will be sent out in the same manner.

New York, May 20.—(Canadian Press).—Actual transmissions yesterday showed that photographs could be transmitted to New York and made ready for producing newspaper plates within ten minutes from the time the original photograph was placed on the transmitting machine. A photograph of the Cleveland laboratory was transmitted to New York in four and one half minutes, exceeding the time required in developing the original in Cleveland and the few minutes required in the developing and printing in New York. The pictures transmitted were five inches by seven inches in size. Messages in handwriting also were transmitted, the copy received being a facsimile of the original message.

How They Do It In sending a picture the original is placed around a cylinder within which there is a photo-electric cell. On another cylinder in the receiver an unused film is placed. Both cylinders revolve in synchronization. During the operation a very small but intense beam of light is thrown on the original photograph, passing through the film to the photo-electric cell with an intensity proportionate to the lights and shades of the original picture.

By the aid of a new device known as a light valve, a beam of light, varying in intensity in exact correspondence with the original beam received by the photo-electric cell is thrown on the film onto which the picture is being transmitted. As the receiving cylinder revolves, the ray of light moves gradually from one end of the cylinder to the other end. When the end is reached the film is ready for development. Officials of the telephone company said the method could be used on any distance because it is necessary to amplify at various stations the current used in transmitting the photographs. Tests have demonstrated it was announced that photographs can be transmitted by radio by the same method when atmospheric conditions are favorable.

Workman Gets News of Fortune

Sheffield, May 20.—Harry Taylor, of Fox street, Sheffield, has received the news that he is heir to $200,000 left by his uncle, Martin Arthur Burke, who has died in Australia. He noticed the news of his uncle's death in a newspaper, and was one of a hundred applicants who made claim to the money. The bank has told him that his credentials are satisfactory and that the money will be transferred to him. "I was always a nomad," said Mr. Taylor. "I was born in Sheffield, went to sea, have traveled twice round the world, joined the Royal Engineers and was for some time in South Africa. I work for a firm of motor engineers in Sheffield. I think I shall live at Scarborough, where I can hear the sound of the sea."

TALK OF MINISTER AT WASHINGTON

London Hears Canada Wants One—Irish Situation Cited. (By Harry N. Moore.) London, May 20.—(British United Press).—Another step in the vexing problem of the appointment of a separate Canadian minister at Washington, which has been debated for several years, has just been taken, according to the usually well informed London Daily Telegraph. It announces this morning that the Canadian Government has decided that the appointment of a minister from Ottawa as a member of the British Embassy does not go far enough to meet their wishes. This decision, says the Telegraph, follows the concession granted to the Irish Free State, which has been allowed to appoint its own minister plenipotentiary. "The Free State concession," says the Telegraph, "is bound inevitably to have the most far-reaching consequences. The unity of imperial representation in foreign countries is bound to be a constitutional problem of considerable gravity and if the precedent spreads the control of imperial foreign relations will become impossible."

RAY WILL WITHER ALL IN ITS PATH

Is Declared Most Terrible Weapon of War Ever Invented. (United Press.) London, May 20.—Grindell Matthews, inventor of the "death ray," has gone to Paris where he is reported negotiating with a French syndicate to develop the invention. Meanwhile Admiral Kerr, in a speech here, declared Matthews had given his word of honor not to divulge the secret of the ray until it can confer with members of the British Cabinet. "The 'death ray' is believed by its inventor to be the most terrible weapon of war ever perfected, a death dealing beam which will wither everything in its path."

FEAR STRIKE BREAKERS MURDERED

Many Emergency Workers in Mines of Ruhr Section Have Disappeared. ARRESTS MADE In Lockout and Strike, Now Complete, 600,000 are Declared Involved. (United Press.) Bochum, Germany, May 20.—Many emergency workers in Ruhr mines, where a general strike is in effect, have disappeared and the authorities fear they may have been murdered as part of a campaign of sabotage which daily is growing more desperate. The police today arrested several leaders of the "union," the Ruhr Communist miners' organization, and afterwards searched their headquarters. Reports from all districts declare the situation is most serious. The missing men were employed as pumpers to keep the mines from flooding and in several instances they are known to have been attacked by strikers, the later being urged on and sometimes led by their wives. Communist and Syndicalist attempts to stir up outbreaks of sabotage have increased since an arbitration award, considered favorable to the owners, was issued. In some parts of the Ruhr free bread is being given to miners' families. At Gelsenkirchen, 600 maddened miners' wives entered the Kommande mine and drove off emergency workers. The Communist "union" at Essen is urging use of force by the strikers, while the regular miners' unions are instructing their followers to desist. The lockout and strike are now complete and it is estimated that 600,000 are involved.

A CAVEMAN DIET RECOMMENDED

Professor Richet Has a New Way For Curing of Tuberculosis. Paris, May 20.—His new method of treating tuberculosis by feeding the patients pure dried juice from raw meat was described to the Academy of Science last evening by Professor Charles Richet, famous physiologist and winner of the Nobel prize for medicine in 1913. Professor Richet applied his method in hospital work during the war with most encouraging results. One hundred patients treated by the professor steadily increased in weight for two months, their gain being attributed to reconstitution of muscular tissues wasted by tuberculosis. Professor Richet has long advocated a "caveman diet" as the only one according strictly to the dictates of physiology. His experiments with dogs have shown that those fed exclusively with raw meat flourish, while others, fed cooked meat, decline and die within a relatively short time. As it is impossible for tubercular patients to take raw meat in sufficient quantities, it must be replaced with the juices, which he says possess the same therapeutic qualities and can be taken in large doses without inconvenience. He administers about one hundred grams daily to a patient. The treatment, he claims, is equally good for anaemic children and in cases of convalescence.

SHE ROBS IN JAIL

Flapper Is Said to Have Stolen Necklace on Eve of Sentence. Los Angeles, Cal., May 20.—Pearl Redmond, "flapper bandit," convicted of holding up and robbing a real estate man, was sentenced to serve from five years to life in San Quentin prison, but not before she had added an alleged $15,000 pearl necklace robbery to her criminal record, according to sheriff's deputies. Mrs. A. E. Rickenback, also known as Mrs. Marie Tomblin, formerly prominent in Pasadena society, who spent the night in the county jail, complained she had lost the necklace when she was arraigned on a charge of defrauding a hotel. She was ordered held pending trial on May 22. Jail attendants made a thorough but futile search of the quarters she had occupied. Then Mrs. Gladys Ellars, sister of the "flapper bandit," who had visited the jail with her little girl, telephoned the jailer to ask what disposal to make of a string of pearls the little girl had brought home with her. They were a gift of the "flapper bandit," the girl explained.

Indian Woman is Arrested—Little Girl is in Bathurst Hospital. (Special to The Times-Star.) Newcastle, N. B., May 20.—Acting upon advice from Bathurst, Town Marshal Ashford on Saturday arrested Mrs. Peter Paul of Bathurst and a female companion. Mrs. Paul, who is an Indian woman, is charged with unmercifully beating her adopted child, aged seven years. The child is now in the Bathurst hospital in a dangerous condition. The woman's companion is held as a material witness. They were taken to Bathurst yesterday to stand trial.

Millions at Stake In New Oil Cases

New York, May 20.—Two more suits involving oil properties, Henry Doherty and Henry Doherty & Co., and in one of which William H. Vanderbilt and Benjamin F. Youkum are plaintiffs, have been filed in the Supreme Court here. One action is brought to recover damages of $8,387,718, and the other, in which Vanderbilt and Youkum are defendants, is for $2,153,232. In the other suit Ernest Langley Bentley and a group of British oil men are plaintiffs. The suits, which are almost identical, grew out of the organization in 1916 of the Empire Transportation and Oil Company, its purchase of the assets of the Empire Corporation and the purchase of its assets by Henry L. Doherty, through the Cities Fuel and Power Corporation. The plaintiffs in both suits charge Henry L. Doherty, Co. with fraud and manipulation, with purpose to deprive the Doherty concern of its possession of the assets of the Empire Corporation at a low figure, when in fact, it is charged, the value of these assets was about $25,000,000.

WANT COMMISSION ON PROBE OF BESCO

North Cape Breton Communities at Mass Meeting Pass Resolutions. Sydney, N. S., May 20.—The demand by North Cape Breton communities for a show-down in connection with the operation of the Scotia coal areas by the British Empire Steel Corporation assumed more tangible lines yesterday. A mass meeting unanimously adopted a line of action and adopted three resolutions. One was directed to the Government at Halifax and the Department of Labor at Ottawa. Another was directed to the Nova Scotia Government, and the third to the British Empire Steel Corporation. The main resolution, in its preamble, sets out that the trusteeship of the British Empire Steel Corporation in connection with the Nova Scotia coal areas, and the latter corporation's subsidiaries, has been a distinct disadvantage to the general welfare and business prosperity of the communities of North Cape Breton. The resolution then asks that the Department of Mines at Halifax and the Department of Labor at Ottawa be requested to appoint a commission to inquire into the following:— The cost of operating the Scotia coal areas. The general policy of the sales department. The solvency of the corporation. The salaries of officers of the B. E. S. Co. and of its employees. The various interest charges on the holdings of Besco and what portion is charged against coal production. The manner in which the commission be given power to hold inquiries at stated periods or at any time. Advice as to the broadening of the policy of the corporation. Recommend to the Government the amount of reserve to be provided for the carrying on of the corporation out of profits to enable the corporation to carry on its business in an inviting and as a protection for the investors and for the workers, assuring them of a more important employment.

RECALLS "SCRAP" OF PAPER" QUERY

Sir Edward Goschen, Ambassador in Berlin at War Outbreak, is Dead. (United Press.) London, May 20.—"Will Britain make war, just for a scrap of paper?" Historic words of Bethmann Hollweg, spoken August 1, 1914, were recalled today when Sir Edward Goschen, who was British Ambassador to Berlin when war was declared, died at his home here today. It was Sir Edward who presented to the Imperial German government an ultimatum demanding that the neutrality of Belgium be respected and who subsequently saw Bethmann Hollweg and received the famous "scrap of paper," query. Sir Edward was a veteran of the British diplomatic service, which he entered in 1869. At the outbreak of the war he was British Ambassador at Berlin, taking a prominent part in the negotiations there in which the German Chancellor vainly tried to ensure Britain's neutrality in the impending conflict. In 1921 Sir Edward was secretary of the British Embassy in Washington and the following year acted as chargé. Later he served as minister to Serbia and Denmark and as Ambassador to Austria-Hungary, going to Berlin in 1908. He was born in 1847, educated at Rugby and Oxford and was created a Baronet in 1916.

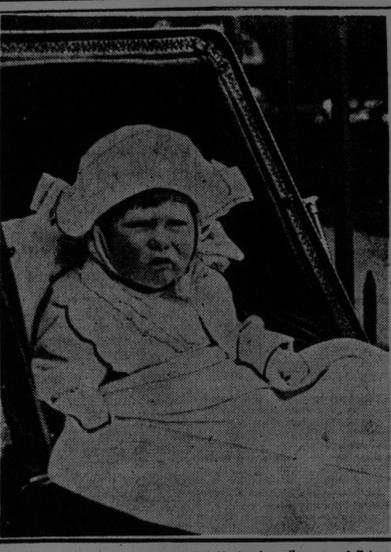

HALIFAX ELEVATOR TALKED OF IN HOUSE

Ottawa, May 20.—Intentions in regard to the proposed government grain elevator at Halifax will be stated when the vote for the elevator is taken in the House today. The appropriation for the elevator is one of $200,000, the same amount as was appropriated the previous year. The elevator matter came briefly before the House last night in supply and trade and commerce estimates. "Was that Halifax by-election grain elevator partment" questioned Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition. "There is an item in the estimates for the Halifax elevator," replied Hon. T. A. Low, Minister of Trade and Commerce. Mr. Meighen: "Is that under the Trade and Commerce Department?" Mr. Low: "Yes, and later on I am sure there will be ample opportunity to discuss it."

HANEY IS RAKED BY LAWYER

Is Given Drubbing Before Commission in Home Bank Matter. ALLEGES PADDING Says Bank was Losing Millions Each Year and Haney Knew. (Canadian Press.) Ottawa, May 20.—R. A. Reid, counsel for directors, continued his argument before the Home Bank Commission this morning, Hon. H. A. McKeown presiding. Mr. Reid submitted evidence that showed that the stock of the bank from 1916 to 1923 was worthless. Indeed that it was worse than worthless because its holders were subject to imposition of the double liability in the event of the bank's failure. Mr. Reid referred to the part which Mr. J. Haney had played in the story of the Home Bank. A book had been written entitled Great Impostors of History, he said. If the author had known of the Home Bank affair, he probably would have included something in regard to it in his work. He said Mr. Haney had constantly made false and fraudulent statements in regard to the condition of the bank; his annual statements were "padded." When the bank failed the shareholders, the depositors and the public with reports of improved condition and encouraging prospects. "The bank," he said, "was losing millions of dollars every year, and Haney knew it. He had been connected with the bank ever since 1908, and he was not a fool by any means." Mr. Reid referred to "a frame-up" going on between Haney and T. A. Low, secretary of the Home Bank, to reduce the capital of the bank when these encouraging statements were made to the directors. Haney, he said, was leading depositors. Haney, he said, was (Continued on page 2, sixth column.)

Chief on Way to Fire Nabbed For Speeding; House Burns Down

Oakland, N. Y., May 20.—Fire Chief Robert Daitell was convicted here of exceeding the speed limit in driving to a fire. Judge Irving Valentine held that the limit of twenty-five miles an hour applied to fire-fighters as well as to others. "The law gives you the right of way," he said, "but not the right to exceed the speed limit of twenty-five miles an hour. That, he said, 'applied to fire-fighters as well as to others.' He let the chief off with a reprimand. The arrest of the fire chief was brought about by Village President William H. Jackson, who said there had been many complaints about fire-fighters speeding to fires. The fire department is made up of volunteers who get nothing for their services. Their right to race to fires never before had been questioned. They contended that Judge Valentine and President Jackson were the first persons in the world's history to think of the idea of making firemen go slow to fires. Chief Daitell was hurrying to a fire at the residence of Fred Purdy in Oronoquo when he made the speed which caused his arrest. The Purdy residence burned down. The police asserted that the house could have been saved if the firemen had not been delayed. President Jackson, who started the campaign against firemen hurrying to fires, is an automobile agent in Oakland.

LECANADA SPEAKS ON PREFERENCE

Says, Like Charity, it Should Begin at Home—Discusses England's Act. Montreal, May 20.—Le Canada, French-Canadian official Liberal organ, commenting editorially on the British preference, says that in Montreal and in other parts of the country, industries that complain of the tariff have nothing to say about the present budget, but demand a revision of the British preferential tariff. It says that England has given the example in abolishing without the slightest scruple, the few privileges that Canada possess of selling some of her products in the United Kingdom and England has also, says the paper, never hesitated to lay embargoes on Canadian cattle when in competition with her own. Le Canada adds: "We shall be wrong not to imitate her. Properly regulated, preference, like charity, ought to start at home and be exercised to the profit of our own production."

PADLOCKS IN SIGHT FOR 600 N. Y. CASES

Federal Authorities Are Preparing Injunctions Against Saloons and Cabarets. New York, May 20.—Padlock injunctions are being prepared against 600 cabarets, restaurants, former liquor saloons and drug stores in this city. It is announced by Assistant United States District Attorney Lyman Ward. If the Federal officials obtain the padlock injunctions they will have succeeded in a large measure in fulfilling the promise that by the end of the summer "Broadway will be as dark as Tenth avenue." "We have started a landslide," declared Assistant United States District Attorney Ward. "As soon as we can get a judge to hear the cases we will present a calendar with more than 600 cases on it. Our efforts have been hampered somewhat by the lack of federal judges in this district. However, we hope to get a judge on June 1, when the padlock proceedings will be pressed with all possible speed. "In the meantime we shall proceed exparte against all liquor violators, securing wherever possible preliminary injunctions restraining the sale of liquor. Should any of the places so enjoined violate the prohibition laws we will proceed against them for contempt of court."

KNEW NOT COD FROM HERRING

That is Tale of One Trade Commissioner for the Dominion. FARCE, SAYS LOGAN Whole Method of Appointment Should be Changed, Minister Asserts. (Canadian Press.) Ottawa, May 20.—Hon. T. A. Low, Minister of Trade and Commerce, in the House last night, questioned the method under which Canadian trade commissioners are appointed by the Civil Service Commission. "I cannot say that I can agree with the way they are appointed," he said. The qualifications were that applicants must be university graduates and under 32 years of age. Mr. Low referred to one case of a graduate of a Scottish University coming to Canada and after only two years residence here securing an appointment as trade commissioner. Mr. Low did not think such a man possessed the requisite knowledge of Canadian business conditions. He thought applicants should have business knowledge and not be debarred by the present age limit.

Ambrose who has been in charge of St. Mark's Church here for the last five years, has resigned to become district secretary of the Canadian Bible Society for Nova Scotia and Newfoundland, with headquarters at Halifax.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Anglin arrived in Ottawa yesterday, having been abroad for several months. FAREWELL TO PASTOR.

At the entertainment given recently by the Sunday school and choir of the United Baptist church at Underhill a farewell presentation was made to the pastor, Rev. Mr. Griffiths, to whom an address of appreciation was read by L. R. Steves.

The address expressed deep regret at the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths after three years of residence in the community. Deacon W. A. K. Underhill made the presentation of a handsome clubbing to Mr. Griffiths, who made a suitable reply. Rev. Mr. Greshorn spoke and the evening closed with the National Anthem.

ESTATE LARGE, SAYS REPORT. Miss Mary Eaton, who died recently in California, was a native of St. Stephen, but for some time has made her home in Boston. It is understood that she left an estate of quite a size, valued at $500,000 to $1,000,000. No will has yet been found and it is believed to be the case, the property will be divided between her brother, Bradley Eaton, of New York, and three nephews and a niece. The latter is Mrs. F. B. Edgcombe, of Fredericton, and the nephews are C. H. Eaton, C. H. Me. Albion Eaton, of Princeton, and Frederick Eaton, who lives in Vermont.

Imitations. The combination of emeralds and black pearls is an original one quite effective in imitation as in genuine stones.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

HE BELONGED TO IRVING'S COMPANY

Nigel de Brulier, former member of Henry Irving's company, and the Don Claude of the Universal production, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," which opens a limited engagement at the Imperial Theatre on Monday, is a student of ancient history and eastern theology. His natural quiet and unassuming demeanor admirably suits him for his part in this drama, but his work stands out in any company he may be cast with. It was he who played the symbolical character of Toheroff in "The Four Horsemen," John the Baptist in Nazimova's "Salome" and "Pir Kahn" in Kipling's "Without Benefit of Clergy." De Brulier was noted as a gifted actor almost from the first day he stepped foot on a stage.

WAS BIG NIGHT FOR N. Y. FIREMEN

Seventy Men Overcome—Battery Pier Goes in Second Blaze.

New York, N. Y., May 20.—One of New York's oldest steamboat piers, that of the Iron Steamboat Company, was almost completely destroyed, and a barrage of smoke was spread over the pier, located at Manhattan Island early today in the second fire of the night which taxed the resources of all available fire-fighting apparatus.

The pier, located at Grand street, famous as the boarding place for boats used by Coney Island pleasure seekers. Twelve land companies, four fire boats and a score of railroad tugs fought the flames.

This fire occurred only a few hours after one in a building at Grand street and Broadway, in the fighting of which seventy-six firemen, Battalion Chief David Oliver and acting Deputy Chief Patrick Walsh were overcome by smoke or injured.

FIRST SHEET OF PAPER.

It was Made by Ts'ai-lun of China in 75 A. D.

The credit for making the first sheet of paper, according to the American Forestry Association, is due to a scholarly Chinese named Ts'ai-lun of China, King of the dynasty of the Han, who achieved, in the year 75 A. D. for his achievement, Ts'ai-lun forty years later was raised to the rank of Marquis.

He is said to have believed that old bamboo tablets and stylius had outlived their usefulness, set for himself the task of making new writing material. After thirty years he produced the first hand sheets of paper, and it was made from the bark of a mulberry tree.

Prior to Ts'ai-lun's day, leaves of trees and various barks used in crude form had served the Egyptians, Romans and other nations as paper. Ts'ai-lun did not use the crude inner bark of the tree as the final material on which to make his records. He did use the mark, merely as a raw material which he produced a finished sheet of paper by a series of processes which, crude as they may seem, were the forerunners of paper manufacture as it is known today.

For eight centuries after Ts'ai-lun's discovery, China monopolized the art of papermaking. She managed to keep the process secret until it was captured by the Arabs, who improved upon it by forsaking the mulberry tree and using linen or cotton rags instead of the wood, as a raw material for papermaking, passed into oblivion until the dawn of the nineteenth century.

Most authorities on papermaking date the first wood pulp process from 1840, but the American Forestry Association cites evidence to show that it was forty years earlier. A quaint little volume, devoted to George III, was printed in London in 1808. The writer of the book was one Mathias Koops. Most of the pages on the book are made from wood pulp forty years before the ground wood process was officially discovered.

The following lines are printed on paper made from wood alone, the product of this country, without any intermixture of rags, waste paper, bark, straw or any other vegetable substance.

What wood Koop used, or what process he employed, is not known, but it is now historically conceded that he made paper from wood pulp forty years before the ground wood process was officially discovered.

PROHIBITION FOR KISSES IN SPAIN

Madrid, May 19.—Kissing is going out of favor among Spaniards. The league against the promiscuous kissing of children, formed several years ago, has decided to extend its efforts and to start a campaign against the kissing prevalent among women when they meet or take leave of each other.

The leaders of the movement assert that much hygienic good has been done by the restriction of the osculation of children, and they express the opinion that women generally will welcome a similar measure for, as they argue, in most instances kissing does not mean friendship.

MAYOR ADDRESSES GYRO. C. Marlin Merritt presided at the weekly luncheon of the Gyro Club today at the Dunlop Hotel. The speaker was His Worship Mayor F. L. Haney is Raked By Lawyer

A cunning trickster, but he was doing his fraudulent work in such a way that he should have been found out. For this reason the depositors and shareholders had a claim against the government. Mr. Haney should be put on trial, he declared. If he was too sick to appear before the commission a deputation should go to an examine him at his home.

Attacks Crerar

Hon. T. A. Crerar and M. J. Haney were the two conspirators in the Home Bank, said Mr. Reid. Mr. Crerar had been elected a director in 1910 and continued in office until 1918. During the period from 1918 to 1918, Mr. Crerar is said, had been writing letters in an endeavor to improve the condition of the bank, but the time came when Mr. Crerar said the bank going down and he, as a director of the bank, counsel charged, he was just as much a party to the false annual statements issued in 1916-17-18 as any of the other directors.

Then Mr. Reid referred to a letter which Mr. Crerar wrote to M. J. Haney on April 8, 1916. In this letter Mr. Crerar said he might be necessary to reduce the reserve and capital of the bank, and then wrote as follows:

"If it would have a serious disturbing effect in the way of destroying confidence and causing a substantial withdrawal of deposits, it seems to me much better to work out an amalgamation with the public, since we would be in a much better position to dispose of our assets prior to the loss of confidence of the public than after that had taken place."

This letter, Mr. Reid submitted, constituted an attempt at a "frame-up" between Crerar and Haney. Mr. Crerar, he said, had seen the storm coming and knew that both reserve and capital of the bank were in a perilous position. And so Mr. Crerar said now we'll get out of the getting of the good. Never mind the public, we have the information and we'll use it. And so Mr. Crerar said now we'll get out of the getting of the good. Never mind the public, we have the information and we'll use it.

At the outset of his argument on behalf of the government, Eugene Lafeur, K. C., said that he "wished to dissociate himself from the very savage attack on Mr. Crerar."

"It is true that Messrs. Crerar and Haney conspired to wreck this bank, what becomes of the claim of the depositors?" He asked. Where does the responsibility of the minister come in? Mr. Lafeur also objected to the "ferocious attack" made by counsel for depositors on finance editors holding office since 1914 to the time the bank failed.

WHAT IS A SHOE WORTH?

This question is easily answered: A shoe, just as any other article of merchandise, is worth exactly in proportion to the quality of material used and the workmanship put into it. If you pay Five Dollars for a pair of shoes, you simply get Five Dollars worth of quality and workmanship. All the high pressure arguments in the world will not make the shoe any better.

Webster says: "Worth is the quality which renders a thing valuable." We guarantee your money's worth whether you pay $5.00 or $15.00. WATERBURY & RISING, LTD.

MAYBE THEY GREW IN EDEN

Flowers that bloomed thousands—perhaps millions—of years ago can be seen today in the Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago. They have been reconstructed by Dr. B. E. Dahlgren of the museum staff. They are of the cycad family, the nearest living relative of which is the sago palm. The flowers are the result of discoveries of fossils of the original buds in the Black Hills of South Dakota. They are older, Dr. Dahlgren believes, than the bones of any dinosaur.

The Efficient Mr. Biffkins

(Chapter Two)

As the bookkeeper hung his hat up on the hook, Mr. Biffkins noticed that he looked a trifle depressed.

"Trouble at home, Doc?" he asked.

"Nothing much," replied the bookkeeper, "but the kid is getting a little bigger, you know, and now I've got to buy a baby carriage or a go-cart or something and, to be frank, money is a little scarce in our house just now."

"Well," said Biffkins, "you know what I always say when a man is looking for a bargain—read the want ads in The Times-Star. I'll make a little bet that you will find at least one go-cart advertised this very afternoon."

Biffkins was right—and the bookkeeper smiled again.

SIR WM. STAVERT PRESENTS PLAN

Former St. John Man Has Government Bank Inspection Project

The Ottawa correspondent of the Montreal Gazette says:—There is no longer any doubt that the argument for government inspection of banks finds much favor, not only in the eyes of members of Parliament, but in those of banking experts. When those favorable to the proposal drew from George Edwards, the Government's adviser in banking, a statement that he would recommend Government inspection, if super-imposed on the existing system, they did much to make good their case. Nor did subsequent examination succeed in changing Mr. Edwards' opinion.

Sir William Stavert

Of equal importance was the testimony of Sir William Stavert, of Montreal. Few witnesses who have appeared before the banking and commerce committee during the last two sessions have made as good an impression. Coming with a reputation for a thorough practical knowledge of banking, his manner was impressive. Not only had he decided opinions, but he expressed them in such a well-balanced way that they carried weight. Sir William's proposal for a kind of inspector-general with a staff that would receive the reports made by banks to the Government, was the first concrete proposal along the lines of inspection that has been made. It manifestly had been carefully thought out; the system of appointment by the Chief Justice, acting in consultation with the presidents and general managers of banks, being the only part of it that, off-hand, aroused much criticism. Miss Comben, who was a teacher in King Edward school, had great ability in her chosen profession and was held in warm regard and esteem by a wide circle of friends and by her pupils. She was a daughter of the late Rev. Charles Comben, Methodist minister in the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island

FOREST FIRE IN CHARLOTTE CO.

First Blaze of Season Breaks out at Basswood Ridge, St. Stephen Reports

St. Stephen, May 19—The first forest fire occurring this season in New Brunswick broke out on Sunday morning at Basswood Ridge, Charlotte county, on lands held by the Eastern Pulpwood Company, about 20 miles north of St. Stephen.

The blaze, which was discovered about 11 o'clock, covered some 200 acres before it was placed under control, destroying a barn, the property of a private farmer named O'Grady. Large crews of residents who were summoned as fire fighters, were rushed to the scene of the outbreak from neighboring districts. Considerable difficulty was experienced in controlling the fire, which had gained a good start. This morning the fire was under control, the fire lines being patrolled by a crew of 20 men. The origin of the fire is attributed to a party of fishermen who are being art Brook, near the point where the outbreak was first noticed. Five tons of hay which were stored in Mrs. O'Grady's barn were destroyed, while his residence was saved with difficulty. A warm drying wind which prevailed yesterday and which has continued today has produced conditions of dangerous fire hazard all over New Brunswick.

Widow of Hon. James Mitchell.
Harvey Mitchell, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, Fredericton, has received word of the death of Mrs. James Mitchell widow of Hon. James Mitchell for some years premier of New Brunswick. She died in New Glasgow, N. S., on Sunday night, at the home of her daughter Mrs. Gordon M. Graham of New Glasgow. She was aged eighty-three years and formerly was Miss Mary Ann Ryder of St. Stephen. The body will be taken to St. Stephen for interment on the arrival of the train from St. John on Wednesday morning. Hon. Mr. Mitchell died in 1907.

DRAW UP CONSTITUTION.
At a recent meeting of the executive of the St. John branch of the University Women's Federation, presided over by Miss Helen Smith, president, a constitution was drawn up, to be presented for the approval of the club at its next regular meeting. At the request of the Federation for a member of the committee to represent it on International Relations, Miss Ganong, principal of Netherwood Girls' School, Rothesay, was appointed. Mrs. Douglas White was appointed membership secretary, and Miss Hazel Morse, press representative.

Child's Eyelids Inflamed Stuck Together and Bled

Mr. E. P. FABLES ON HEALTH "Spring Fever"

For some days Mr. Mann of Anytown had noticed stealing over him that indefinable dullness, sleepiness and lassitude that betokened the arrival of spring. Spring fever, he was inclined to call it—as are many others. He often wondered what brought about that "spring feeling". Generally what happens is this:— During the winter months the appetite is a little keener; there is a likelihood that you have taken on a few pounds of weight, or you have been taking an extra food fuel to keep the body warm. In any event you needed extra food. And the chances are, if the winter was cold and you stayed indoors, you took little exercise.

MR. M. M. CAMPBELL Well Known Montreal Criminologist Highly Pleased

Claims he is rid of Constipation, Indigestion and Poor Appetite since he took Dreco. "I have recommended Dreco to a lot of my friends in Montreal and many are taking it since they know what it did for me," stated Mr. M. M. Campbell, of 17 St. James Street, well-known Criminologist. "I recommend Dreco because of the results obtained. Constipation has been a curse with me for some years, and I suppose I have spent at least one dollar a week in various so-called remedies, with little or no permanent results. My appetite is picking up wonderfully and I expect that with another bottle or so I shall tip the scale to my wanted weight. I bless the day that I met the genial representative, Captain G. A. Strubbe, and I gladly recommend Dreco to all in need of a tonic per excellence."

Advertisement for DRECO medicine. Includes an illustration of a bottle of Dreco. Text: "The keen analytical mind of a man in the position of Mr. Campbell was quick to grasp the significance of the benefits he received from Dreco. He realized that the corrective properties that helped restore his system came from the natural herbs, roots, bark and leaves from which Dreco is compounded. That is why he recommends it so heartily. Dreco contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs. Dreco is being specially introduced in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 100 King Street; Moore's Drug Store 106 Prince Edward Street; F. W. Munro, 37 Main Street, and in West St. John by Watson R. Dunlop. It is also sold in Fairville by T. H. Wilson, and by a good druggist everywhere."

Lady Roberts Chapter, I. O. D. E., held an informal but delightful dance at the Venetian Gardens last evening with Miss Phyllis Kenney, vice-regent, receiving the guests in the regrettable absence of Miss Olivia Gregory, regent, who is recovering from a severe illness. Miss Kenney was prettily gowned in black velvet with creamy lace garniture. The chaperones were Mrs. Hugh McLean, Jr., who was very dainty in a gown of raso rouge crepe of simple design; Mrs. W. L. Caldwell, in very pretty orchid gown, and Mrs. Dodge Hankline, in becoming green Canton crepe, softly draped. The committee in charge of the refreshments was convened by Miss Hortense Maher and

Miss Doreen McAvity, who were assisted by Miss Margaret Page, Miss Jean Angus and Miss Allen Branscombe. Boys of the R. C. N. V. B. in their natty uniforms attended to the tickets and otherwise helped to make the dance a success. Although the dress was informal, many pretty gowns were seen, one of the most attractive being that worn by Mrs. Frank Wilson, who was in a stylish gown of jade green. Mrs. Frank M. Ross looked well in black Spanish lace over satin and Miss Mary Armstrong was charming in a soft blue georgette, made with slight drapery at the left side. Miss Winifred I. Blair wore a robe of red with Grecian effect and there were many informal gowns of every shade. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McLean, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Angus Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Dykeman, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Malcolm, Dr. and Mrs. F. In New York

New York, May 20—He lives in a small and exclusive apartment building. True to the New York manner, he does not know even his next door neighbor.

Delayed several moments, waiting for the elevator the other morning, he rang and rang for the operator. When the lift finally appeared he rebuked the operator without giving the man any opportunity to explain.

Several days later a dignified gentleman got into the car at the floor below.

"I beg your pardon, sir," he said. "But I am the one responsible for your delay the other morning. I heard your admonitions to the elevator man. It was not his fault."

"I live in the apartment beneath you. My young daughter was dead. On the morning you were delayed we were burying her."

"In fact, while you were ringing so frantically for the elevator her casket was in the elevator being taken to the hearse."

"I am sorry to have inconvenienced you, but I know you will realize that it could not be helped."

That was all.

"Love covers a multitude of faults," preached a sidewalk barker to his ever-changing audience.

"Just because I can't see straight is no reason I can't go straight in New York," he shouted, pointing to an affliction of his eyes.

"Those cabarets, the stock market, gambling games and Broadway theatres can't swerve me," was his boast.

No wonder! His face is grimed with the dirt of days, his clothes spotted and ragged, his collar smudged and his tie antiquated.

It's easy for him to be good. Temptation detours on approaching him.

In a vaudeville theatre the other day I saw a real "strong woman." She flung a man about with the ease and grace of a baseball pitcher throwing a ball. She was billed as "So-and-So and Partner," her male assistant's name garnering none of the glory of electric lights.

With all her strength she was an clumsy as an ox as she scampered about the stage with trick steps and bows in response to applause. But she packs a Jack Dempsey wallop.

THE HOUSEHOLD

Baking Corn Bread.
Dredge the pan in which you are going to bake corn bread in with meal before you pour in the batter. This will not only keep it from sticking to the pan, but will give it a rich, brown crust on the under side.

Desk Ornaments.
If your desk is of the delicate type with slender, carved legs, do not put heavy ornaments upon it. Keep your fittings in keeping with its lines.

Whipped Cream.
Whipped cream will stay whipped longer and will have a distinctive flavor if sweetened with honey instead of sugar.

Soup Foundation.
A tablespoon of cooked cereal such as oatmeal or cream of wheat may be used as the foundation for a bowl of soup, combined with tomato sauce and possibly a few vegetables.

Picnic Sandwiches.
Sandwiches for picnics and children's lunches are kept much fresher and are more appetizing looking if they are wrapped in wax paper.

Vegetable Sandwiches.
Vegetable sandwiches are delicious, being made of finely chopped cooked and mashed vegetables. Celery and asparagus combine with others and give a distinctive flavor.

Varnishing Furniture.
When furniture is to be given a new coat of varnish, scrape off all the old varnish before attempting the new varnish.

String for Beads.
A good quality of fishline makes a good string on which to string your beads and it will stand severe strain without breaking.

They are picturesque, the people of Raghistan, a republic in the Soviet Federation. Like the Georgians on the south slope of the Caucasus, they wear long, tight-waisted outer garments, decorated across the chest with shining cartridge cases. On their heads are large, woolly, brimless hats.

Some of their villages are as much as 2,000 feet above the valley floors, on almost perpendicular cliffs, and can be reached only by several hours of climbing.

The houses are built of rough stone stuck together with clay. The roofs are of hard beaten clay, but in many cases are covered with rugs, the roofs of the lower one serving as courts for those above.

Deep among the higher Daghestan mountains the traveler finds his calendar turned back hundreds of years. The port-hole windows of the houses have neither glass nor sash.

The Story of "Annie Laurie"

From whom did the world get "Annie Laurie"—surely one of the most popular songs in the minstrelsy of the English-speaking people? Sung on the hillside, at the plow, and on the harvest field, it is also popular in the brilliant concert hall and a favorite in every musical assembly. It has touched the heart of the miner, the sailor and the soldier, writes A. M. E. in the Christian Science Monitor. Bayard Taylor, the American poet, in "The Song of the Camp," has told of an actual incident in the Crimean War, when the soldiers on the eve of battle sang this song, each with his own significance.

"They sang of love and not of fame; Forget was Britain's glory; Each heart recalled a different name, But all sang 'Annie Laurie.'"

But, despite the widespread popularity of this sweet and tender song, very few people know the circumstances of its dual authorship.

In its final wording and its music, the song is the work of Lady John Scott, one of Scotland's sweetest singers and truest patriots—a genuine daughter of the Borderland, that story-haunted region peculiarly saturated with the historic past and where a subtle sweet melancholy lingers amid the pastoral glades. Alicia Anne Spottiswoode belonged to one of the oldest families in Berwickshire. She was the daughter of John Spottiswoode of Spottiswoode; her mother was Helen Wauchope, daughter of Andrew Wauchope of Niddrie-Mains, near Edinburgh. She married on March 11, 1836, Lord John Douglas Scott, son of the fourth Duke of Buccleuch. Following her only brother, Lieutenant Andrew Spottiswoode, Lady John in 1870 succeeded to the family estate and added the name of Spottiswoode to that of Scott, becoming Lady John Scott Spottiswoode.

Some time before 1834 Lady John composed a tune with the intention of setting it to an old ballad known as "Kempye Kaye." But in the year named, or in 1838, being on a visit to Marchmont, the seat of Sir Hugh Campbell, whose wife was her sister, she met with Allan Cunningham's collection of the Songs of Scotland, in the library there, and was greatly taken with the words of a rude old fragment, the work of William Douglas of Fingland, written in honor of Annie Laurie. This lady was one of the four daughters of Sir Robert Laurie, the first Baronet of Maxwellton in Dumfriesshire. It is impossible to say exactly when the first song was written. As Sir Robert Laurie was created a Baronet in 1685, it is probable that Douglas penned his verses about the end of the seventeenth or the beginning of the eighteenth century. But the Laird of Fingland did not win the hand of Annie Laurie. The promise that was declared to be true did not endure; and Bonnie Annie Laurie gave her heart and her hand to Alexander Ferguson of Craigdarroch, another young Dumfriesshire laird.

Lady John Scott liked the old song so well that she adapted the waiting music to it. The first stanza of the old version, beginning "Maxwellton's braes are bonnie," she took practically as it stood. The second stanza she altered. The third stanza—far and away the most beautiful and fascinating of all—she made entirely.

"Like dew on the gowan lily
Is the fa' o' her faery feet,
An' like winds in summer sighin'
Her voice is low and sweet."

The refrain, breathing an unreturned constancy and devotion, she took over entire.

So on the wings of her lovely melody the poem, work of two hands, was wafted out into a world which welcomed it warmly and has cherished it unwearyingly.

Throughout her lifetime of ninety years, Lady John clung lovingly to the picturesque Scottish past. Her mottoes were "Lead to the Border" and "Hadst Fast by the Past." She admired old ways and old things entirely for their own sake, and because they appealed to her nature more intimately than the new. Of a keen antiquarian turn, she formed a very extensive private collection of "auntie-nackets" connected with Border life, and nothing about her estate which served to keep alive the memory of the past in any outstanding manner was allowed to be molested. Old farm place-names were rigidly maintained. A farmer who rented "Houle's Ha'" thought to change the name to its English equivalent, "Owl Hall"; but Lady John, hearing of it, demanded an immediate return to the old designation, and she was at once obeyed. On gates placed on roads within or near the "policies" she wished to be kept closed, the legend was printed: "Stick the yea" (Close or fasten the gate.) She was an ardent Jacobite. As a child she had talked with those who had been "out" with Prince Charlie "in the Forty-Five" (1746), and all the ardent loyalty of her nature went out to the ancient royal line of Scotland.

"Annie Laurie" was not her only contribution to the poetry of Scotland. She wrote several fine lays of the Borderland, in which the characteristic features of that song-haunted region are vividly brought out, and the subdued note of its muse sustained. The "Comin' O' the Spring" is one of these:

"There's no a mair in my ain land
but's fu' o' sang the day,
Wi' the whaup, and the gowden plover,
and the liltle upon the brae.
The birk in the glen is springin',
the rowan-tree in the shaw,
And every burn is rinnin' wild wi' the meltin' o' the snaw.

"The wee white clouds in the blue lift
are hurryin' light and free,
Their shadows flein' on the hills,
where I, too, faintly see,
The wind frae the west is blawin',
and w' it seems to bear
The scent o' the thyme and gowan thro' a' the caller air.

"The herd on the hillside's linkin'. O,

Here is added beauty for Washington's diplomatic circles. She is Mrs. Y. Mura, bob-haired bride of the secretary of the Japanese embassy. The secretary married her in Japan and has just returned to Washington.

FIRE LOOKED BAD.

Owing to a thick volume of smoke in the vicinity of Indiantown early last evening the report that the Miller sawmill, on the northern side of the river, was on fire caused quite a number of people to visit Indiantown to witness what they believed was a serious conflagration, but which proved to be a brush fire in the vicinity of Blue Point, near Pokokok. The fire at one time was raging fiercely and it was thought would reach camps situated on the hill. In finally died down, however.

And so do the children

Some Families Are Never Ill

FORTUNATE are the children whose parents fully realize the seriousness of constipation. Hospital records prove that 75 per cent of all disease originates in bowel obstruction, or constipation. Young children cry because of it; school children are hampered in their studies; grown people are made 25 per cent less efficient; elderly people's blood pressure increases 25 per cent. Clara M. Smith, Big Valley, Alberta, recommends Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin for all, and especially for children and old folks; Mrs. Bettles, 8 Napanee St., Toronto, keeps it always in the house for family use.

Largest Selling Laxative
Every up-to-date family medicine chest should contain a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, a compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and palatable aromatics, a prescription written 30 years ago by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who practiced medicine 47 years. You can buy a bottle in any store where medicines are sold, and the cost is less than a cent a dose.

Use it once and you will never again take coal-tar drugs in candy form, calomel or salts. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is a vegetable laxative free from opiates and narcotics. It can be safely given to infants, yet it effectively moves the bowels of adults. It acts gently; does not cramp or gripe. Keep it in the house and use it for any indication of bowel obstruction such as constipation, biliousness, torpid liver, dyspepsia, pimples and like skin eruptions. Give it early and it will break up a fever or a cold overnight. A spoonful proves it.

The great enemy is film

Film is the teeth' great enemy—that viscous film you feel. It causes most tooth troubles.

It clings to teeth, becomes discolored, forms cloudy coats. No ordinary tooth paste can effectively combat it. It makes teeth dingy and unclean. Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Few escape such troubles under old ways of teeth cleaning.

Modern science has found better

Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel. Never use a film combantant which contains harsh grit.

TRADE MARK
Your life is spent in bed

Insist on seeing the label that proves it's a genuine Simmons

The special qualities that make the vital difference between a Simmons bed and any one of the numerous "substitutes," are revealed only in service. It is important, however, that you make sure of these qualities at the very moment you are considering your purchase.

Simmons lasting finishes, reproducing the beauty of walnut, mahogany and other fine woods, can be suggested in substitute beds. So can Simmons color effects and the general features of Simmons design. To a large percentage of the public a bed is still just "a bed."

Varied types and styles

But the Simmons range of styles in authoritative and spirited designs, exclusive construction features, scientific methods of finishing, and long years of specialized experience are things far beyond the reach of any imitator. They are the qualities which warrant you and thousands of other critical buyers and users of bedding in insisting that your bed be no other than a Simmons.

Yet these qualities are not instantly noticeable and it is easy for you to make the mistake of thinking that a bed is a Simmons when it really is not made by Simmons.

The trade-mark guide

Unless—you look for the Simmons label! There's your evidence. If the bed before you has the Simmons label on the crossbar at its foot, that bed is a Simmons. If it hasn't such a label, it is not a Simmons. Spare twenty seconds now to find the label: you'll be glad you found it for many years.

Challenge any and all "substitutes." No matter what style you fancy or the price you pay, insist on seeing the label that proves the bed, mattress, or spring you want is a Simmons—before you buy!

Quebec, May 20—Juliette Tremblay, aged eight, and Marie Tremblay, aged five, are dead and the house in which they lived, together with their parents, is now a mass of ruins as the result of a disastrous blaze which broke out last night at Roberval, Lake St. John county. The other members of the household, Mr. and Mrs. Tremblay and their eldest daughter, Josephine, as well as two others, had great difficulty in effecting their escape from the blazing house.

RULE VIOLATIONS HOLD ITALIANS

Father Curran's Statement at Halifax is Repudiated by Immigration Officials

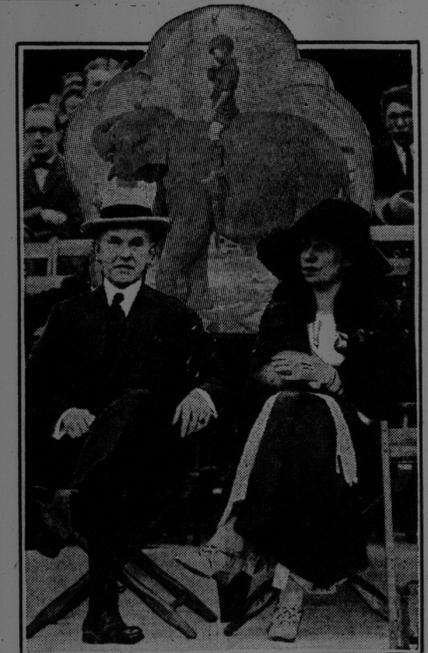

Ottawa, May 19—The Immigration authorities here state that four hundred Italian immigrants held up at Halifax for some days, are detained because they cannot comply with the Canadian Immigration laws, which permit the entrance under existing regulations of only bona fide farmers and domestics. The ship on which the immigrants arrived is an Italian boat, and the gist of the whole matter seems to be that an attempt is being made to secure the entry of Italians without proper examination at the port of departure in Europe, according to the present policy of the Immigration Department.

Arrangement Made. An arrangement was then made with the Italian Commissioner, here, Mr. Bonardelli, under which he would issue only those applicants approved by the Department of Immigration, and that only such would be allowed to come forward by the Italian Government.

INDIANS PREFER RED. Washington, May 20—The red man's fondness for gaudy colors has long been known but it has remained for Dr. T. R. Garth, of the University of Denver, to ascertain their color preferences. Full blood Indians were found to prefer red to all other colors; then blue, violet, yellow and white in the order named.

NO GREAT RUSH AS ALBERTA GOES WET

Brewers Inaugurate the New Regime by Announcing Lower Prices. While all Albertans, says the Calgary Herald of May 13, were authorized to "purchase spirits, wine, beer and malt liquor for beverage, medicinal and culinary purposes," on Monday morning, when the downtown vendor's store, at the corner of Tenth avenue and First street west, opened for business, there was no rush on the part of the citizens to avail themselves of the privilege.

On the other side of the store the clerks were kept busy wrapping up samples of the government's bottled goods. By noon the shelves were beginning to look depleted. However, there is a big enough supply of liquor bottles in the city to assure even the most nervous.

There was much merry jesting among the gay throng that besieged the vendor. Some of the applicants in merely to purchase their permit and their friends with great glee, but the majority stayed to look over the stock and take away some samples. Along First street west, it was a new spectacle to see a man tramping home with the familiar brown pack-trail, trade was at least half a dozen bottles. The more opulent loaded their purchases into waiting automobiles.

East Calgary Store. It is probable that the East Calgary store, which will be conducted by Captain Fred McCall, will be opened before the end of the present week. The hours for the vendors' stores are from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the cities and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the towns.

Few people took the "beer only" permits which cost $1, as against the $2 for a general permit for the purchase of both beer and spirits. Calgary, along with the rest of Alberta, woke up "wet" on Monday morning, after an alcoholic drought of eight years, all but two months.

Something May Develop From This

People who daily pass the head of King street have watched the genial "Andy" Duffy deftly and smilingly keeping the streams of vehicular traffic separated from the passing throngs of pedestrians. From now on they can be prepared to have the quiet intervals between spasmodic rushes of travel brightened by the delivery of epic gems from the lips of the picturesque blue-coated landmark. For Andy found a book of poetry—a mine of rich literary promise. While he would not be quoted on the matter, it is the earnest belief of his associates that Mr. Duffy is hoping the owner does not use too much haste in reclaiming the volume.

PRISONERS TELL LOS ANGELES OFFICERS WHAT THEY THINK OF "COPS"

Los Angeles, May 20—(Associated Press)—Chief of Police August Vollmer and his police captains instituted a new form of conference when they held a round-table discussion on crime, its causes, and means for its prevention with the inmates of the Lincoln Heights jail here. At a luncheon in the jail the prisoners, at the invitation of the chief, told the arms of the law just what they thought of policemen, courts and law enforcement in general. Chief Vollmer said he learned much from the conference, including the following: "The character of men arrested should be more closely investigated by the arresting officer. A court should be established to handle vagrants exclusively. By a sympathetic officer should be appointed to hear the pleas of these vagrants and those arrested on other petty charges. Some of the remarks by prisoners that led up to these conclusions were: 'If one prisoner, called by his comrades, Sam: "These cops pinch us because that's their business and they don't care if we're innocent or not. If they get nothing real against us, we're canned on a charge of being vagrants and a boob judge gives us 90 days for having an empty stomach.' By an educated prisoner, who said he had made it his business to study crime from both sides: "There is, apparently, only one thing for a man to do when he is broke and hungry, and that is to 'knock somebody off.' I believe that the majority of small crimes is caused by that reason and no other." The character of the highest inmates, whom all saluted as Vincent: "Conditions are not going to be a bit better until the public is taught to place trust and confidence in the police department, and they will not show that trust and confidence until the department merits it. How Backache and Periodic Pains Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Leslie, Sask.—"For about a year I was troubled with a distressing down-bearing pain before and during the periods, and from terrible headaches and sickache. I hated to go to a doctor, and as I knew several women who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with good results, I finally bought some and took four bottles of it. I certainly do recommend it to every woman with troubles like mine. I feel now as well as I ever did. I will keep my medicine on hand at all times, as so many women ought to be without it in the house."—Mrs. OSCAR A. ANDERSON, Box 15, Leslie, Sask.

Mrs. Kelsey Adds Her Testimony
Copenhagen, N. Y.—"I read your advertisement in the papers and my husband induced me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to get relief from pains and to help me to walk at times. Now I can do my housework and help my husband out doors, too. I am willing for you to publish this letter, as I feel it will help others."—Mrs. HERBERT KELSEY, R.F.D., Copenhagen, N. Y.

MANY PRESENT AT "CADETS' BANQUET"

Strong Appeals Made by Speakers for Support of Movement.

The banquet held by the First Battalion of the St. John Cadets at the Armories last evening was attended by 400 cadets and was an unqualified success. Captain D. V. Palin was in charge of the cadets and to him much credit was given for the success of the evening.

Following the banquet, which was served by a committee of ladies, the toast to the King, proposed by the chairman, Major William Yassie, M. C., was honored by the singing of the National Anthem.

Colonel E. T. Sturdes, in proposing a toast to the cadets and schools, spoke of the benefits of cadet training and expressed the wish that he were a boy again so he could enjoy the privileges offered the boys now. He asked the support of the members of the Board of School Trustees for the cadet movement.

Cadet Training.
In reply, Lieut.-Colonel Snow explained the meaning of the words "cadet training" and told the cadets present that this training was productive of strong bodies and good citizenship and showed by examples how soldiers, who were members of cadet corps in their school days, proved themselves efficient in the later war.

Colonel Snow asked the citizens present to support the cadets financially and he urged them to seek the support of their fellow citizens.

Mayor Fotts addressed the cadets and said that if the people who were continually talking of juvenile courts would lend more support to the cadet movement there would be no need for these courts. The Mayor said he was proud to see so many boys present and promised them his support.

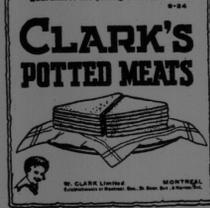

Mrs. G. Heber Yroom, regent of the Municipal Chapter of the I. O. D. E., said the conduct of the cadets was a credit to their instructors. The money raised at the New Year's ball of the I. O. D. E. was to be given for cadet work.

Entertainment.
The programme as presented by the cadets was attractive and entertaining. Miss McCullum, a pupil in Albert school, was accompanist for the solo numbers. The West Side corps contributed to the programme by giving a demonstration of their military training. Drum Sergeant-Major Burton gave a splendid number on the bass drum. The training of the drum corps has been in his charge.

The instruments were presented to the members of the band last evening by Mayor Fotts, assisted by Mrs. Yroom, and were presented by the united efforts of the headquarters staff and members of the I. O. D. E.

The Armories were decorated for the occasion, flags and bunting being hung from the balconies. The platform was tastefully arranged with flags and

MRS. WM. PHILLIPS IS NEW SECRETARY
Succeeds Miss Greany as Social Hygiene Secretary—Convention Here.

A public health convention is to be held in St. John on May 27, Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, Minister of Public Health, announced at the meeting of the St. John branch of the Social Hygiene Council yesterday afternoon in the Health Centre with W. A. Lockhart, president, in the chair. He also made public the appointment of Mrs. William Phillips, of St. John, as provincial secretary of the Social Hygiene Council, succeeding Miss Katherine Greany, who left the city a few months ago. The meeting was called to extend the organization of the local Social Hygiene Council. Dr. Roberts said that he had been informed by Dr. J. A. McCarthy that in the last year 5,000 cases of venereal diseases had received 25,000 treatments at the St. John clinic.

Having spoken of the toll of human suffering venereal diseases caused and after explaining the nature and scope of the Social Hygiene Councils, federal, provincial and local, Dr. Roberts told how effective organization to combat these diseases had been carried out in Toronto.

Committee Named.
The local Council for Social Hygiene in Toronto had secured the interest of all sections of the community and had organized each group of citizens to undertake some part of the work for which it was specially suited. Such organization was what Dr. Roberts hoped to see established in St. John. To that end the meeting approved of the appointment of a special committee to name representatives of each group of citizens, these representatives to become members of the St. John Council. The committee named consisted of H. Usher Miller, Eli Boyaner, Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson, Mrs. J. H. Doody and Mrs. G. Wilford Campbell, with Dr. Roberts ex-officio. The committee will submit a report at the next meeting of the Council, Thursday afternoon, when the representatives chosen will attend.

In Other Places.
Dr. Roberts hoped to be able to have similar lay organizations formed in each of the provincial centres where social hygiene clinics are established, Moncton, Chatham, Bathurst, Campbellton, St. Basile, Woodstock, Fredericton and St. Stephen.

At the public health conference on May 27 which will be attended by delegates from all provincial centres, it was proposed to reorganize the two provincial bodies, the New Brunswick Social Hygiene Council, of which W. B. Snowball, of Chatham, was president, and would continue to hold office and the New Brunswick Child Welfare Association, of which Mrs. W. A. Ferguson, of Moncton, was president, and to organize a provincial Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. Dr. Roberts deplored the fact that there was no organization outside of St. John to combat tuberculosis and he expressed the opinion that there were continuously from 2,000 to 3,000 active cases of tuberculosis in New Brunswick.

Judge George A. Henderson said he was appalled by the conditions Dr. Roberts had spoken of as existing in St. John. Both personally and officially he was prepared to give all the service of which he was capable in the endeavor to stamp out venereal diseases. Dr. Hutchinson said he was equally surprised although he had gained some knowledge of the prevalence of the diseases when he had served as a governor of the Maritime Home for Girls at Truro.

NEWS NOTES GATHERED FROM THE WORLD OF STAGE AND SCREEN

MOVIELAND LOOKS FOR GOOD TIMES; BIG PRODUCTION PROGRAMME IS PLANNED

Hollywood Again Cheerful With Hope of Prosperous Season.

(By HAROLD E. SWISHER.) Hollywood, May 20.—(United Press)—Hollywood is out of the trenches of pessimism and peering over the horizon to greet the sunrise. The barometer of production, largely raised or lowered as directed by Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, is registering fair weather ahead. Hollywood is happy.

Vice-President Jesse L. Lasky has returned to the West Coast studio from the sales department convention of the organization, held in San Francisco, bringing with him the announcement that "Paramount will launch at once the most extensive production programme ever attempted in the history of the organization."

Naturally studio-land is looking up while real estate dealers, automobile salesmen and other vendors who haunt the movie colony are growing cheerful again. Forty pictures will be released by Paramount between Aug. 1 and Feb. 1, 1925, according to Lasky's announcement. In order to supply this demand, eighteen pictures, more than have ever will go into actual production during the next thirty days at the Hollywood and Long Island studios of the organization.

Only a few of the forty pictures required for the autumn release have been made to date, Lasky said, requiring that both Paramount plants run to capacity for the next ninety days. "We believe the next season will be the most successful in the history of motion pictures," Lasky said, announcing the programme. "Therefore we are planning the most ambitious production we have ever essayed both in number and quality. The public's taste in motion picture entertainment we shall release the most interesting pictures we have ever made."

"We are bringing to the screen a number of new personalities; a small army of writers has supplied story material; several new directors have been created in the belief they will bring fresh inspiration and new ideas to the screen; some of the best fall classics of the modern stage will reach the screen for the first time in this group. The public always the final judge of screen entertainment, has ordered from us more and better pictures. It is our business to fill this order."

"The Covered Wagon" is one of the Paramount productions scheduled for fall release. This classic has just ended a record-breaking run of 65 weeks at the Criterion Theatre, New York, but has never been exhibited in the country in regular picture theatres.

Every Auction A Revelation

Three days of the Ferguson & Page one-in-a-lifetime Jewelry Auctions—and the surface of opportunity hardly scratched yet. An Auction is an Auction and a Ferguson & Page Auction a rare one. All bids stopped well within the bargain point and the quality of every article vouches for a firm whose character extends through generations. Gifts—that last at every price.

Without imposing on the privacy of purchase prices, several bids of outstanding success on Saturday now follow. A magnificent Tea Service was possessed around half priced. So with a heavy Silver plate Tray. One $60 Watch in particular went quickly for $82. A very valuable Urn was won for $17. While the final fortunate bids vary, none are allowed unless the bidder benefits in a way to reflect favorably on our precious good name.

Priscilla Dean Scores a Triumph in "Drifting"—Local Scenes Also.

Priscilla Dean is the star of "Drifting," which opened yesterday at the Imperial theatre, and in view of the essentially dramatic character of the story, a better actress for the role of Cassie Cook in John Cotton's famous stage play could hardly be chosen. Dean has always been strikingly emotional and intensely dramatic in her portrayals.

"Drifting," a story of a white woman alone and friendless in China, and not the China that the tourist knows, of Shanghai's shadows and "eking" palaces, but the heart of China, the hills, the country villages and the people of the scarlet poppy fields that produce the world's greatest vice curse, opium.

Thrilling with the humanness of characters that are not "touched up" with romantic thrills but simply presented as moving figures in a powerful drama, "Drifting" has the quality expected of a Dean vehicle.

A complete Chinese village perched picturesquely on a hillside and in a ravine is the centre of dramatic episodes climaxing in a fire that cleanses this one spot of the drug-dream shame of China. Scenes of Shanghai are interesting and alluring.

Opposite Miss Dean is Matt Moore and also Wallace Beery, screen villain de luxe. Anna May Wong, who has been "spiced" by leading magazine critics as an emotional "find," plays a sympathetic but tragic role with sincerity.

In addition to the Universal feature, which proved grippingly interesting, the Imperial showed pictures of the corner stone laying of the new Stella Maris church, East St. John, on Sunday week ago. The movies were clear and of much local value, showing the clergy during the ceremonies, the laying of the stone and a close-up view of the whole crowd. It was a splendid bit of publicity for St. John, and its new and important adjunct, East St.

Dress Salon Make Inroads On Feminine Supply For Chorus

London, May 20.—A West End theatre manager ruefully complains of increasing difficulty in recruiting suitable ladies for stage purposes. He says the rivalry of the film studio was bad enough, but the growing competition of the dress salon is even worse. It is becoming a near-breaking task to muster a really beautiful chorus nowadays. Girls of the type required, used to have serious stage ambitions as understudies, are much more attracted to the fashion ateliers of Piccadilly and Hanover Square, and now even the big suburban dress establishments are enlisting mannequins too. The superior charm of the mannequin's calling are manifest. The pay is quite as good, the hours better, the work easier, and the surroundings infinitely more agreeable. Moreover, the prospect of posturing in beautiful gowns and the latest mode before select gatherings of their own sex appeals to the subtle cruelty in feminine human nature. To be successful as a dress mannequin a girl requires a fashionable slim figure, a genteel carriage, a polite accent, and preferably an attractive face. She must at all events not be ugly or commonplace in features, and the most famous West End mannequins possess a very special sort of fashion-plate beauty.

Extremely fashionable assembles, in which masculine onlookers are increasingly found, are drawn to the dress salons. Queen Mary and Mrs. Asquith are among the regular visitors at Revilla's, for example, so that the mannequin does not lack distinguished patronage. And, of course, the relations of the fashion salon are much more intimate than those of the stage and the theatre audience. The one triumph that remains to crown the growing popularity of the mannequin's profession is a notable Debut marriage. And that is fairly certain to be achieved in good time.

QUEEN SQUARE HAS UNUSUAL PICTURE

"Human Wreckage" is Gripping Story of Narcotic Evils.

All humanity should give thanks to Mrs. Wallace Reid for giving to civilization her much discussed anti-narcotic photoplay, "Human Wreckage," shown for the first time yesterday at the Queen Square Theatre. By all odds the most predominant feature of "Human Wreckage" is the sincerity of Mrs. Reid. This courageous little woman who has just come through an ordeal of medical men and surgeons in the social tangles in which they sometimes find themselves innocently enmeshed.

The story has to do with the brave plights of a famous attorney to fight off the dread habit of addiction, an attorney who succumbs to the affliction and the whole world not kin but kink. Such was the situation that faced P. T. Bates and his party, bred to the luxurious ease of New York, who were the victims of a mad, mad civilization when their boats burned sixty miles from the nearest town on the fringe of the Maine woods; and about such a situation the play from "The Cave Girl" have built a wholesome story that just bubbles over with mirth. It has a charming romance intertwined which lifts the play from the realm of farce and makes it satisfyingly inbred.

After the excellent production of "The Cave Girl" appears light, but it is a delightful change, and the presentation last night, while it might stand a little more polish here and there, was on the whole well done.

Miss Preston was particularly at home in the name part, and the capable manner in which she handled her tenderfoot visitors from the outside world brought many a hearty burst of laughter. Opposite her, Mr. Coats gave an excellent portrayal of the part of the youthful New Yorker who was human enough to shake off the shackles of convention and become resigned to the emergency which he was chiefly instrumental in creating.

Miss Odeon, as the erstwhile petulant fiance of Divvy, played her part with grace and finish and helped materially in developing the comedy situation. Miss Kelton, as her amorous mother, had a good character part which she handled in good form.

The part of J. T. Bates was well placed in the hands of Mr. Franklin. Outwardly brave, yet inwardly something entirely different, he demonstrated both attributes to perfection. Mr. Swift had a highly humorous role of which he took every advantage. Mr. Gordon, in the part of a French guide, demonstrated in true fashion the characteristics of the race and was particularly effective, while Mr. Broderick, as a very theatrical professor, and Mr. Pinckney, playing the role of the county sheriff, were both good.

The stage settings were particularly appropriate and were well done. That portraying the scene outside the professor's cave-home was a masterpiece of stage art.

This being the last week of the Carroll Players, Messrs. Broderick and Pinckney delivered farewell speeches in which both thanked the St. John people for their kindness during the company's stay here and expressed the hope of returning at some future date.

Miss Odeon will make her good-bye speech at this afternoon's matinee, while Mr. Coll is slated to say a few words tonight. The City Opera Band has volunteered to give Mr. Coll a send-off and will parade from the head of King street before the show and play a 15-minute overture before the rise of the first curtain.

Trouser Skirts. Trousers skirts are being introduced for golf and sports. They are of kasha cloth, buttoned in the front, so that as much freedom as is desirable is afforded while still keeping to the popular straight outline.

Is a Long Way From the War Dance

Chief Red Eagle danced a mean war step and shook a wicked rain dance, but that was long ago. Once he had left the plains for the "bright lights" of the city, the chief changed his step. The one-step, fox-trot and tango have taken the place of the tribal dances. He is shown ready for a jazz interlude with Edith Nash, dance artist.

ANOTHER PRODUCER QUILTS EQUITY FIGHT

Winthrop Ames Capitulates—Miss Jessie Bonstelle Joins Association.

New York, May 20.—The list of players who have quit the Equity strike has been further reduced. It was learned that Winthrop Ames' production of "Beggar on Horseback" would continue at the Broadway Theatre. It was reported that Mr. Ames had transferred his interest in the play to Lee Shubert, already a half owner, but the report could not be officially confirmed.

Particular interest centers in "Stepping Stones." Fred Stone, star of the production, is also part owner, but it was said by Equity members that he had nevertheless served notice of closing on Charles B. Dillingham, the show's producer. Mr. Dillingham called for Europe on the 14th and in his absence it is not known what action will be taken. Both Mr. Dillingham and Florenz Ziegfeld are partners of A. L. Erlanger in various ventures, and Mr. Ziegfeld's statement that he would keep his productions running has led to repeated reports that a way would also be found to keep "Stepping Stones" from closing.

An announcement was made by Mr. Dillingham six weeks ago that the entire lower floor for "Stepping Stones" had been purchased for the month of June by a "prominent Democrat," whose name was not given. Equity announced that Miss Jessie Bonstelle had joined the association. Miss Bonstelle is a well known actress and producer who conducts two stock companies every season, one in Buffalo and one in Detroit, as well as making important productions in New York.

WAS STRANGE PERSONALITY

Marie Corelli, Noted Writer, was a Rebel in Many Things.

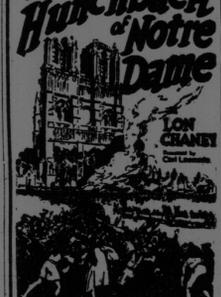

Miss Marie Corelli's death at Stratford-on-Avon removes a strange personality. To the eager votaries of Miss Ethel M. Dell she is probably almost unknown except by fame, but in her day, when "The Sorrows of Satan" and "The Mighty Atom" were household words, at any rate in the boudoir and the kitchen, Miss Corelli reigned supreme. Her age is given as 60. I should have thought it much more. She claimed to be half Italian and half Scotch by birth. Eric Mackay, a poet, was her adopted brother, and Charles, a song writer, her adopted father. Miss Corelli had a great feud with all critics and photographers, chiefly because the newspapers never placed her literary status so high as she did herself. She was a rebel in many things, including summer time, which she refused to recognize, requesting that her death might be announced in "God's time." She amassed a considerable fortune, and lived almost a recluse.

No Advance in Prices. Wednesday and Thursday Art. 10c, 15c; Night 25c. "GARRISON'S FINISH"

Change is Favored in Report to the Gathering in Springfield.

Springfield, Mass., May 20.—The committee on amusements of the quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church provided for a unanimous report which advocated repealing the law that a Methodist cannot dance, play at games of chance or attend theatres, horse races, circuses, dancing parties or dancing schools, and leaves it with the individual conscience of a Methodist "to take only such amusements as can be used in the name of the Lord Jesus."

The report included a solemn warning against a widespread form of amusement which heretofore has not received an official rebuke from the Methodist Episcopal Church—the movies. It does not propose to prohibit attendance at theatres and movies, but "lifts up a note of solemn warning and entreaty, particularly against attendance upon immoral, questionable and misleading theatrical and motion picture performances."

The report is taken to mean that Methodists can go to good theatrical plays and "movies," but not to "immoral, questionable and misleading amusements."

New Rules Proposed

The committee recommends that Paragraph 289 in the Book of Discipline be amended to read: "In cases of neglect of duties of any kind; imprudent conduct; indulging in simple tempers or words; taking such diversions as cannot be used in the name of the Lord Jesus; or disobedience to the order and discipline of the church; on the first offense, let private reproof be given by the pastor or class leader; and if there be no acknowledgment of the fault and proper humiliation, the person may be borne with. On further offense the pastor or class leader may take with him one or two discreet members of the church. On continued offense he may be brought to trial, and if found guilty and there be no dissenting vote, Copies of the resolution favoring a federal law against child labor was adopted by the Methodist Episcopal General Conference without dissenting vote. Copies of the resolution will be sent to President Coolidge, the president of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The resolution declared that the conference viewed with deep concern "the persistent practice of exploiting childhood for mercenary purposes," and asked for an amendment to the Federal Constitution to protect the future of the nation and the proper development of its children.

The services of four effective bishops were terminated by action of the conference. Bishop William A. Quayle of St. Louis, and Homer C. Shum of Omaha were granted the retired relation on account of illness, and Bishops William Burt of Buffalo and Frank A. Bristol were retired on account of age.

By special resolution Bishop George H. Bickley of Singapore was given the supernumerary relation, on account of ill health. He was relieved of his episcopal duties for the coming quadrennium, with the privilege of selecting his residence for that period. The Board of Bishops may assign to him any work which he is able to perform.

DECISION IS FOR LOUIS DONOVAN

Committee Awards Boxer the Cup for Armory Bout.

As a result of a decision reached at a meeting of officials of the Y. M. C. Y., who staged the New Brunswick boxing championships in the armory some weeks ago, Louis Donovan has been awarded the silver cup emblematic of the championship. It was brought out at the meeting that every effort had been exhausted to have the judges and the referee, who were officiating at the bouts, decide the issue and as the matter had to be settled one way or another they based their action on a statement made by the referee at the time that Donovan fell to the mat and claimed that he had been fouled by his opponent, Eric Snow. At that time the referee is said to have announced that if Donovan was not injured he would award the bout to Snow. As the committee received a letter from the doctor in charge of the boxers on that occasion saying that he had found an injury on Donovan they decided to award him the cup.

WILL CONSIDER TARIFF MATTER

Board of Trade Also Asked to Urge All Year Boston Boat.

The Board of Trade today received from the Regina Board of Trade copies of resolutions recently adopted by that body calling on the Dominion Government to appoint a permanent commission, along the same lines as the Board of Railway Commissioners, to study tariff and taxation matters, and make recommendations from time to time for changes; and for the more vigorous development of Canadian natural resources and their manufacture into the finished article. The resolutions will be placed before the council of the Board at its next meeting. A communication from a local firm asking the board to urge an all year round steamship service between this port and Boston was also received this morning.

BABSON'S VIEW OF OUTLOOK HERE AND IN CANADA

In a recent report in which Babson, the leading American authority on business conditions deals with Canadian affairs, in speaking of the Eastern provinces he places St. John among the cities which are in the most favorable position, along with Montreal, Quebec, Kingston and Peterborough. In dealing with the expectation for the near future, and using 100 to represent business a year ago, this authority ranks St. John at 110, and Chatham, Fredericton and Moncton, at 100. All of these places are given higher ratings than the Nova Scotia towns and cities. In fact St. John is the only city in the Maritime Provinces placed at 110, and in all Eastern Canada the only place receiving as high a marking as Montreal, Fort William, North Bay, Windsor and a few mining towns in Northern Ontario. No western city is given a higher rating than St. John, and few stand as high in this survey concerning expectation of business for the near future. Babson's circular speaks of St. John's shipping trade as a bright factor in business conditions and says the outlook for a large tourist trade New Brunswick is favorable. He refers also to the Grand Falls development and to increased activity in various lines of business.

REPRIMANDED AND FINED $8

Boy in the Police Court on Charge of Furiously Driving.

A severe reprimand and a fine of $8 was imposed on a juvenile who appeared in the police court this morning charged with furiously riding a horse in Lansdowne avenue last Sunday afternoon. Special Constable McBride testified that he saw the defendant on horseback galloping at a furious rate of speed out Lansdowne avenue and continuing to beat the horse with a whip. He said that the boy had also given him wrong information when questioned as to his place of residence and where he had hired the horse. Magistrate Henderson pointed out that it was not the first time the boy was before him, and confessed he did not know what to do with him. He then struck a fine of $8 and in default of payment was told he would have to go to jail for two months. The boy's mother paid the fine.

One pleaded for another chance, but was informed by Magistrate Henderson that he had too many chances and so long as he persisted in getting drunk he could expect no leniency. He went to jail.

McQuade, provincial tax inspector, reported this morning that the number of licenses issued for automobiles to date exceeds by a large number those issued for the same period last year. He says that, while difficulty is experienced in some cases, on the whole the automobile owners of the province are fairly well convinced now of the advisability of securing their licenses as early as possible.

DINGLEY HAS 70 ON FIRST TRIP

Boston Boat Resumes Service Between Here and the Hub.

The summer steamship service between Boston, Eastport, Lunenburg and St. John was inaugurated for the season by the Eastern Steamship Line Governor Dingley, which arrived in port this morning with 70 passengers and 110 tons of general cargo. The large liner presented an attractive appearance and she steamed up the harbor with the Union Jack flying from the mast head in the bow and the Stars and Stripes floating in the breeze at the stern. She has been repainted and decorated and looks in first class condition for her season's activities.

A large number of people were on the wharf when the steamer arrived to welcome the resumption of this popular service and incidentally to see if there were any acquaintances on board. The Governor Dingley will return to Boston tomorrow morning via Eastport and Lunenburg.

NOT DAMAGED SO MUCH AS THOUGHT

Vilda A. to Resume Voyage to New Haven Soon.

The two-masted schooner Vilda A., which went on the rocks at Manawagonish Island last Friday evening in a dense fog and later was pulled off and towed to North Market wharf, was not so badly damaged as first thought and her captain, Claude Winters, expects to sail the latter part of this week for New Haven with his cargo of lumber. The owner of the vessel, Oliver Allen, of Port Greenville, N. S., has arrived in the city to take charge of affairs until the vessel sails. Mr. Allen says the schooner itself is not insured but is not sure about the cargo. The lumber is valued at $3,500. A careful survey of the hull, said Mr. Allen, showed no breaks. He says that the water in her was taken on because of the heavy list of the vessel to port after she struck and while being towed into the wharf here. The schooner lost both her anchors at Manawagonish Island and an effort will be made today to locate them. They are not very far under water at the island and Mr. Allen believes he will not experience any difficulty in recovering them.

NOVELTY SHOWER.

A novelty shower was tendered Miss Very Gardner, who is to be married next month by members of Thorne Lodge I. O. G. T. in the lodge hall last evening with about 50 present. Music and games comprised the programme and the evening and refreshments were served. Miss Gardner was the recipient of many useful gifts.

DIGGING COMPLETED.

Excavation for the foundation of the new wing for the Protestant Orphanage in Manawagonish Road has been completed. H. O. Clark, the contractor, said today, and work on the forms will be commenced at once.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "are there any two-headed trout in the lake this spring?" "Yes, sir," said Hiram, "an' I seen one with three tails." "Good," said the reporter. "I wanted to be sure that I could visit the lake and return with a story that would qualify me to meet my friends without loss of prestige. The big trout story has been around, and it is necessary to break new ground in order to command the respect of those who, like myself, go fishing and never wet a line." "I seen somethin' in the paper about three an' four-legged chickens," said Hiram. "I am not surprised," said the reporter. "No," said Hiram, "I ain't nuther. Beats all what feller's 'll see when they go fishin'. They kin see double an' thruple—By Hen!" "It is in the atmosphere," said the reporter. "No," said Hiram, "I wouldn't say that.
