URBAN LEAGUE BOARD MEETS

Prominent National Figures Confer on Negro Welfare.

The Executive Board of the National Urban League held its fall meeting on Wednesday last to hear reports on progress during 1925 and to make its plans for 1926.

A. S. Frissell, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Fifth Avenue Bank, who has been the treasurer of the league for more than 15 years, tendered his resignation on account of advanced age, although remaining on the board, and was succeeded as treasurer by Lloyd Garrison, the grandson of William Lloyd Garrison.

The executive secretary, Eugene Kinckle Jones, rendered his report on developments in the league's work in additional cities requesting the establishment of the league's program and of progress being made towards expanding work already inaugurated. Charles S. Johnson, editor of "Opportunity" Magazine, and T. Arnold Hill, director of the Department of Industrial Relations, presented reports on the accomplishments in their respective departments.

The treasurer's report showed that the league had received for its national work to date the sum of $51,000 and that with pledges and probable income would expend over $60,000 during the current year.

Resolutions were passed expressing sorrow at the death of Mrs. Booker T. Washington, who had been for nine years a member of the Executive Board. A budget of $60,000 was authorized for the year 1926. Announcement was made of the Urban League Conference on Industry planned for New York City, February 2nd to 5th, 1926.

There were seventeen members of the board present, among whom were Dr. George Cleveland Hall, of Chicago; Dr. James H. Dillard, Mr. C. C. Spaulding, of Durham, N. C.; Mr. L. Hollingsworth Wood, president of the board; Mrs. Albert S. Reed, Dr. E. P. Roberts, Mr. Fred R. Moore and Miss Evangeline Brewster Johnson.

The National Urban League seeks to co-ordinate social service activities in cities in the interest of Negro welfare and specializes in securing better industrial conditions for Negroes. Its 45 branches, as well as the national

Native Students May Have Hotel

Appeal to Negro Members of American "Y" for Building in South Africa.

New York, Oct. 10.—Construction of a hotel for native students in South Africa at a cost of $20,000 has been made the subject of an appeal to 32,000 Negro members of the American Y. M. C. A. by Max Yergan, an American Negro, who pioneered in organizing associations in Bantu Land. The proposed clubhouse would be located at Fort Hare College, Alice, Cape Province.

Officials of the Colored Work Department of the Y. M. C. A. National Council here expect other men to be sent soon to South Africa to aid Yergan, who in his four years there has organized almost single-handed 26 associations throughout the native wildernesses and travels a circuit of 3,000 miles to keep them in operation. Yergan's request will be referred to the Conference on Colored Work, which will be held in Washington, D. C., October 21 to 23.

The pioneering movement was conceived and has been supported entirely by Negroes in this country, to bring about "the spiritual, moral and social uplift" of their 5,000,000 South African brothers.

WM. C. MATTHEWS OF BOSTON RECEIVES NEW APPOINTMENT

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—William C. Matthews, of Boston, Mass., formerly Harvard University football and baseball star, was today appointed a Special Assistant to the Attorney-General of the United States and immediately ordered to proceed to Lincoln, Nebraska, to represent the Government in certain Federal prosecutions.

Mr. Matthews was at the head of the Colored Division of the Republican National Executive Committee during the presidential campaign of 1924. He is a graduate of Tuskegee and has been a successful practicing attorney in Boston, Mass.

organization, are governed by leading white and colored citizens and promote better race relations. It has been in existence 15 years and maintains headquarters at 127 East 23rd Street, New York City.

British Take Steps To Remove Last Vestige Of Slavery

Geneva, Oct. 24.—The last spot on the British Empire's map where human slavery exists is said to be the Hukawing Valley in the upper portion of the Indian province Burma. By next May Britain hopes to have removed the last vestige of degradation from the dominions and colonies directly under her control, and from those bordering as well.

It is said that the local potentates have agreed that a fixed price shall be set for each class of slave in the Hukawing Valley, and once it is fixed the bondsmen in question shall immediately become free and enjoy all the rights and privileges of other free men. According to the proposed plan, the slave is then to work out the purchase of his freedom by paying easy annual installments.

NEGRO LEAVES A FORTUNE TO HELP CHILDREN

Aged Proprietor of Candy Shops—
Invested Pennies Found to Have Accumulated $125,000.

Mays Landing, N. J., Oct. 28.—For over a score of years a kindly little colored man greeted youngsters of the city in a worn, but dignified, shop, where he sold delicious edibles that were always sure to satisfy their appetites—from lollypops at two cents a piece to huge chocolate bars at 10 cents each. The candy shoppe of John W. (Dad) Underhill was known to the school children far and wide.

But today the quaint little shack bears mourning, for the passing of its proprietor, and its many youthful patrons turn away from its heavy closed door in sadness.

Not all is grief, however, for it was revealed Tuesday in the reading of Dad Underhill's will that the amiable candy salesman had left a good sized fortune to the school children. The will, filed at Mays Landing, N. J., left an estate of nearly $125,000 to be used toward aiding the school children.

In designating the disposal of the estate the Underhill will read "spend it so that the children may enjoy the fruits of my years of labor."

Underhill had no known relatives. He lived as a hermit.

CONTRIBUTE TO STREET DEFENCE

Colored people of Washington, D. C., through the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P., raised $464.50 for the Sweet defense fund, at a special meeting held Sunday, Oct. 25th, at which the chief speakers were Walter White, assistant secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., and Samuel A. Browne, colored Staten Island postman, who has successfully resisted mob attempts to oust him from his home.

With Neval H. Thomas, president of the Washington N. A. A. C. P., in the chair, the meeting contributed $548.50 in cash, of which $464.50 goes to the N. A. A. C. P. legal defense fund. Pledges as yet unpaid bring the total amount from the meeting to $705.11.

In addition James A. Cobb, chairman of the legal committee of the Washington branch, reports that the organization of oldest inhabitants voted on Monday night, Oct. 26th, to give $100 to the defense fund, and that Messrs. McKinlay and Mortimer Harris have given $25 each. John R. Hawkins, financial secretary of the A. M. E. Church, gave $100, $25 each for himself, wife and daughter and $25 in memory of his son.

A. Aug. Marquis, assistant secretary of the Trade Union Committee for Organizing Negro Workers, has sent $32 to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, for the defense of Dr. O. H. Sweet and ten other colored people charged with murder for defending Dr. Sweet's home from a Detroit mob. Mr. Marquis writes:

"The Amsterdam News of the 21st inst. carries on its front page an appeal from the association which I read with great pleasure. Feeling a deep sympathy towards this noble action to vindicate Dr. O. H. Sweet and others who are charged with murder for defending the doctor's home, I made a personal appeal to my comrades in the cigar factory where I am employed, to which they have responded in a liberal way. The spirit with which they received the appeal was evidently sympathetic and I trust that all whom your appeal reaches will give the support necessary to defray the expenses for the defense of the doctor and the others."

THANKSGIVING FOR THE BIBLE Rev. F. O. Stewart.

There is nothing in this world for which we should be more thankful than for the Bible. God has spoken to man in many ways through many words. "At sundry times and in divers manners." Heb. 1:1. What He has given us composes a library of sixty-six volumes. Though they were written by about thirty-six different men and in a period of time covering about sixteen hundred years, God Himself is the Author of every volume. "Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." This set of Books bound in one cover we call the Bible. It contains a mine of inexhaustible and unfathomable wealth. Its laws and regulations for the governing of a nation in the first five books far surpass anything the world has ever formulated. Its history in the next twelve books gives not only an account of the people of Israel from about fifteen or sixteen hundred years before Christ, but the Gentile nations get many facts from the book they so much despise that they can no where else obtain; even what is brought forth from old ruins, and what men term discoveries, only substantiates the facts of the Bible. Unbelievers and scoffers read the five books of poetry — Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Songs of Solomon—for the sublime thoughts and the beautiful language they contain. And who can say that the books of prophecy are not divinely written? What man or set of men ever could write history before it was fulfilled? But God has given scores of plain facts that are yet to come to pass, while others that were predicted have already been fulfilled. Between seven and eight hundred years before Jesus was born Isaiah foretold His coming (Is. 7:14; 9:6; 52:13-15; 53:1-12; 61:1) in the manner in which He came. Others prophesied in like manner as (Mic. 5:2) will show, even stating the place He should be born. Yes, without the New Testament there is sufficient Gospel in the old, in figures and types, that a man may believe and be saved. The first book of the Bible is quoted a great number of times in the New, in various portions thereof.

Then think of the message the New Testament contains. The Revelation of God's love in the death and resurrection of Jesus. Though in His wisdom He has withheld the biography of the life of Jesus, He has given us snatches here and there that we may know Him, and have eternal life. The letters of Paul and Peter and James that have been preserved for nearly two thousand years have saved many souls from shipwreck and guided a great number into the harbor above. It will stand though heaven and earth pass away. "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path," exclaimed the psalmist. Let us then, in this season, lift up our hearts in gratefulness and thanksgiving for the precious "Holy Bible".

Letters to the Editor

Dresden, Ont., Oct. 7, 1925.

Editor Dawn of Tomorrow:

Please allow space in your valuable paper for me to let the general public know the reason, or my reasons, for giving up my charge with the people of the Union Baptist Church, 11th con. Chatham Township. I find them to be altogether indifferent to what they profess to be when they were after me to come here and pastor them. They told me of the condition of the church and asked me to start with them at $40.00 per month and just as I worked the church up they would increase my salary until it was sufficient for a decent living. I agreed with them and began my work, and all of them have conceded that I worked the church up stronger than it has been, both spiritually and financially, yet there has not been one cent raise given me, and I find it an insult to them to ask them for any help whatever. I have a family of five, that is, there are 5 of us in the family, and out of $40.00 per month they expect me to buy food, clothing, wood, coal, pay doctor and medical bills and all the necessities of life for my whole family. They have given me one-half ton of coal since I have been here and not one penny toward a suit or a pair of shoes.

I was advanced $100.00 to move and get straightened out with. They were going to pay that back before the time came to pay it. They said to me, "Let us put on a rally and raise money to pay off that little debt." I said, "All right." So I put on the rally and raised more money than they had ever raised before. Then there came a meeting to decide what they would do about the money. Remember, the rally was to pay off that $100.00 debt, but in their business meeting, if any intelligent person had come by and stopped in that little church that night and heard those illiterate people throwing out insults about that $135 and some few cents they would have been made to think that some one was trying to hold them up for it. I told them to put it in their treasury.

Then I put on my installation. In this meeting we were honored with the presence of Mr. J. F. Jenkins on the 14th, and he can tell the public whether I had a full house or not. We raised $88.86 in this installation. I had solicited $9 from the public, and in some unknown way to me $5 were lost from my pocket. I had then to deduct $5 from that great big $10 that they were paying me per week to replace the $5 that was lost from my pocket. That only left me to draw $5. I asked the deacon to see the brethren and get them to let me have $10 of the amount that was raised and I would put on something and raise it and return it to them. I needed the money as my wife was sick, also one of my little boys. I had the doctor to see them, and only had $5 to pay grocery bills and the doctor, so you see what shape I was in. They held another meeting and would not let me have the $10, but rather some of them hurled some very abusive insults at me for asking for that amount. Others said that I was a crook because I asked the deacons to see the brethren and get them to let me have $10 for a while out of my installation funds. This meeting took place in a private home. Next they promised to give me a conveyance in getting around, that is, they were going to give me a horse to drive. If I were a cartoonist I would gladly give you a sketch of the horse that they gave me, and then they came and took him away from us. They rented two acres of land for me to make a little corn on. There were three apple trees on this land, and one of the deacon's wives sent up and stripped one of the trees without asking any questions about them. The house they gave us is the worst-looking shanty in the community, both in and outside.

I find them to be a set of nickel-starters and penny-finishers, a few grafters and tightwads, with no respect for the ministry and but precious little for God. I can give to the public a complete statement of every cent they have given me in any way in three moments' time.

The fourth annual meeting of the Home Service Association was held in the B. M. E. Church on Monday evening, October 26th, 1925. There was a goodly number in attendance despite the very unfavorable weather. A detailed report was submitted by the treasurer, also reports by the secretary and the social worker, all of which were unanimously received. The speaker of the evening was Miss F. Held, associate secretary of the family division of the Neighborhood Workers' Association. Miss Held's address was very interesting, telling of the problems that so often confront the social worker and how best she can solve them. Social work is defined by Miss Held as the developing of personality, and charity as the graciousness of living as expressed in ourselves towards other people. A hearty vote of thanks was extended Miss Held, not only for her excellent address, but also for the kindly interest in and help she has given our organization.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. president, ex-Controller W. P. Hubbard; hon. vice-presidents, Rev. C. W. Carpenter, Rev. A. McEwen Williams, Rev. F. Stewart; president, Dr. I. H. Lewis; vice-president, Mr. A. C. Bryant; secretary, Mrs. V. E. Deas; treasurer, Mr. Francis Simpson; executive board, Mr. M. C. MacLean, Mr. F. N. Stapleford, Mr. C. L. Burton, Mr. F. L. Hubbard, Mr. Frank Simpson, Mr. W. A. Branch, Mr. S. S. Scott, Mrs. W. E. Thompson, Mrs. A. Smith, Miss L. Wandle.

At the close of the meeting there were expressions of regret and deep sorrow in the loss we as a people have sustained in the passing away of Mr. R. J. Fleming. There was a minute of silent prayer followed with prayer by Rev. Stewart.

A reception tendered Mrs. Dr. Hughes, of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Caroline M. Foreman, of Washington, D.C., Wednesday evening, 14th inst., brought together an assemblage of the leading citizens of Toronto, the occasion being coupled with the birthday anniversary celebration of Mr. James R. Brown, who tendered the reception to the ladies. Addresses of welcome to the ladies and congratulations to Mr. James R. Brown were delivered by Mr. G. R. Carter, Mr. F. L. Hubbard, Dr. I. H. Lewis and J. W. Montgomery, of Osgoode Hall. Mr. G. R. Carter was quite happy in his remarks and besides complimenting Mr. Brown upon his kindness in affording the ladies an opportunity of meeting former friends while living here, interspersed his remarks with some quite interesting anecdotes pleasing to those present.

A handsomely decorated table was spread with the delicacies of the season, where the guests assembled from time to time.

A fine orchestra furnished music for those who cared to trip the light fantastic, which they did into the sma' hours.

The handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Brown, 198 Beverley St., was thrown open to the guests, all of whom expressed their great pleasure and admiration of the same.

TORONTO B. M. E. CHURCH

A splendid congregation assembled at 11 o'clock Sunday morning for the first Love Feast and general class service held in connection with the first quarterly communion for the new Conference Year. Bro. George Coates, local preacher, began the day with a timely message, speaking about the life and times of Moses and the children of Israel. The Holy Spirit was poured out upon the meeting and filled the whole place. At 3.30 p.m. the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed after the large audience had sat patiently listening to the wonderful message delivered by Rev. Herbert D. Wright of our Brantford church. Subject, "The Church—What It Is, and Its Mission in the World." Text I. Tim. 3:15. The speaker strongly emphasized the thought that the church is a very important institution in the world and said that men and women cannot get along very well without the church. He claimed that when every other source available had been exhausted, men turn to the church for help and always find her equal to the occasion. This was by far the best in the way of quarterly meetings and afternoon attendance that has been enjoyed for many days. About 40 communicants participated in the meeting. A number of the ladies served a light collation at the close of the afternoon meeting for those who desired to remain for the evening service. A brief song service was conducted by the pastor previous to the opening of the evening service. Promptly at 7.30 the devotional period began in the presence of a large audience. Rev. H. D. Wright was again introduced as the speaker for the occasion. The speaker chose for his text, Matt. 24:35, subject, "Imperishable Words". A very beautiful picture of Jesus was portrayed by the speaker in showing how, by speaking a word, wonders were performed, miracles were wrought and new life given. "Never man spake like Him, before or since, and the peace of the world is hanging upon these precious words of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

The Stewardesses' Board has already begun to plan for Thanksgiving dinner, Monday, Nov. 9th. The union Thanksgiving service will be held in the B. M. E. Church this year. Rev. A. McEwen Williams will be the speaker.

The Queen's Contest under the direction of Miss S. Stanfield is looked forward to with much hope and anticipation. Tuesday, Nov. 24th, is the date.

The Japanese Tea given at the home of Mrs. C. N. Sharp on Friday, Oct. 16th, was a decided success. A good time was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. L. Lacey and her son, Robert, are residing with Mrs. R. Richardson at 222 Lippincott Street. Mrs. Lacey is attending the Christian Missionary Alliance School in preparation for home mission work. Mr. F. Lacey, her husband, is one of the famous C.M.A. quintet which is traveling in the United States.

Mrs. Edith Jackson has been on the sick list, but is improved at this writing.

SHERIFF WITHSTANDS MOB

Marshall, Texas, Oct.—Sheriff John C. Sanders, of Harrison County, has again demonstrated that a courageous officer, determined to stand his ground, is more than a match for the average mob. Some days ago two Negroes killed some white men in a controversy in an adjoining county. Mob violence was threatened and the prisoners were brought here for safe keeping. A mob followed and started to storm the jail. Sheriff Sanders urged them to disperse and all but thirteen left. These persisted, however, and the plucky sheriff arrested the whole thirteen and locked them up.

This makes five cases in Texas this year in which mobs bent on lynching have been successfully defied by faithful sheriffs, backed by public opinion. In one case, that in Dallas, a member of the mob was killed by officers who were defending their prisoner.

BOMB PLACED IN NEW ORLEANS THEATRE

Associated Negro Press

New Orleans, La., Oct. 14—Unidentified parties are responsible for the placing of a time bomb in the property room of the Lyric Theater which damaged the structure to the extent of approximately $2,000. The Lyric Theatre is practically the only theatre in New Orleans catering to colored patrons.

Labor troubles are supposed to be the cause, as for sometime past the white stage hands have been barred from employment by the management on account of a disagreement of wages, it is said.

TORONTO B. M. E. CHURCH

Sunday, November 1st, being a bright, beautiful day, caused a splendid congregation to emerge from their homes and attend divine service throughout the day. At 11 a.m. the pastor spoke from the text, Ps. 107:30, subject, "Sailing Heavenward." This proved to be a very vivid picture of the Christian's journey to the heavenly land. The emotion of the worshippers was greatly stirred. A fairly good attendance greeted the pastor at 7 p.m., at which time he chose as his subject, "The Mystery of Godliness." His text was selected from I. Tim. 3:16. At the close of the service many special comments were heard regarding the message.

New Invention Saves Millions

A Lamp that Burns 94% Air.

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U.S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. W. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 day's FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him to-day for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

Hair Clippers, $1.25; Pocket Knives at one-third savings to you; Opera Glasses, Field Glasses at cut prices.

WILL DRAW NO COLOR OR CREED LINE FOR CITY HIGH SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

There can be no line of color or creed or class or race drawn in Toronto in the matter of high school attendance.

This was the emphatic statement of Supervising Principal W. C. Michell to The Star today.

"I do not intend to allow exceptions to the rule," he said. "If there is one exception there should be 827, for there have been 827 transfers. The children of all must be treated alike. I intend to be just as careful of the interests of a little Negro girl as of the daughter of the most prominent man in the city.

"We cannot begin to allow race or color or creed to affect us in drawing up the boundary lines for the high school districts."

Asked as to the statement of Chairman W. C. McBrien that one of the main objections of certain parents to sending their children to Harbord or Jarvis was that there were so many Hebrew children there, Col. Michell had this to say:

"It would be a good thing for some of those complaining Christians, perhaps, to go up against some of these bright Jewish children and see what they can do in competition with them."

"Is there any basis for the suggestion that there may be a special high school for Jewish children?"

"None whatever. Why, down in Riverdale there are three Chinese children, and where do you think they stand? At the head of their classes."

Under the rearrangement of the boundary lines in the city there will be fewer Hebrew pupils in Jarvis Collegiate, and also fewer proportionately in Harbord. This means that there will be a larger proportion in the other collegiates.—Toronto Star, Sept. 29.

MEMPHIS PAPER PRAISES NEGROES FOR PROGRESS

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 28.—The editor of the Commercial Appeal pays a fine tribute to the thrift, ability and industry of the Negroes of Memphis and vicinity. The editorial follows:

"We went out to the colored fair. It was amazing. The progress the Negroes have made in this territory in the last 25 years should be of immense joy to them and it should be gratifying to their white fellow citizens."

"We saw samples of needle work, dressmaking, quilting and the like that hark back to the day of excellence in work by the hand. One of the most remarkable exhibits was that of the farmer, named Davis, who lives in the northern part of the county. Every variety of things grown in this territory were shown by him, and there were other individual exhibits of almost equal worth."

"The Negroes have gone largely into poultry. The poultry show was made up of exhibits from this county. By the way, the wife of Farmer Davis, we are informed, did a business of about $1,100 in chickens and eggs and wound up with a net profit of about $600. When a colored woman can attend to her household duties, give attention to her children and her husband and then clear $600 to boot she stands out as among the remarkable personalities of this or any other community.

"The work of the school at Woodstock, as shown by the exhibit, makes that institution worthy of the heartiest support of the taxpayers."

"The colored fair suffered just as the white fair did; both had bad weather."

COLORED LAD HERO IN SAVING SICK WOMAN FROM FIRE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—Rushing into a smoke-filled stairway to the fourth floor of an apartment house, Arthur Robinson, a sixteen-year-old boy, who was delivering groceries to Mrs. Charles Nelson (white), whom the boy knew was ill in bed on the fourth floor, helped the woman to the ledge of a window, from which place she was carried to safety by firemen.

Young Robinson discovered the fire in the apartment house, he turned in a fire alarm and then went to the rescue of the customer of his employer's store.

APPOINTED R. R. INSPECTOR

Washington, D. C., Oct. 28.—As a reward for many years of faithful and efficient service, Clarence Hammond, waiter on the Sea Board Air Line, has been given a position as inspector of the road's waiters. He is the first Negro to fill this office for the line. He will receive a salary of $165 a month. Hammond will be required to travel many thousand miles to fill his new duties.

THINKS WHITES ARE "MISSING LINK"

Clarksdale, Miss., Oct. 28.—Two white boys found on the Delta plantation who so closely resemble apes have been engaged by the Ringling-Barnum Circus as freaks. The discovery was made by Dan Brewer, local attorney, who claims they are the "missing links" and is writing a treatise on the subject.
