ARITHMETIC GEOGRAPHY

Papers Are Very Difficult and Astound Collegiate Aspirants.

The 600 boys and girls who are writing on the entrance examinations at the Collegiate struck a couple of very hard papers yesterday morning, in arithmetic and geography. If reports can be relied on, fully 50 per cent of the pupils writing will be "plucked" on these papers. The arithmetic paper is particularly severe, and many complaints were heard concerning it.

Several businessmen who are considered well-educated took a fall out of it this morning, and struck innumerable difficulties before they had gone very far. The geography paper is also a hard one, and is seemingly more appropriate for the third form of the Collegiate than for the entrance pupils. Inspector Edwards is presiding, and admitted this morning that the papers were very hard.

The maximum marks to be made on the arithmetic paper are 100 and on the geography 100.

The papers are as follows:

- Geography.
- (a) Name, beginning with the largest, the six most important cities of Canada. (b) Give the exact location of each. (c) Why is each so important?
  - (a) Draw a map of Ontario. (b) Trace on it the chief waterway and indicate four important commercial centers benefited by it. (c) Trace on it the main line of the Grand Trunk, and locate four important commercial centers through which it passes. (d) Trace on it the main line of the Canadian Pacific, and locate four important commercial centers through which it passes.
  - (a) What is meant by longitude? (b) Traveling from Ottawa to Vancouver, how would a passenger's watch indicate the time at Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver? Explain clearly.
  - Mention three of the strongest inducements that Canada, Argentina and South Africa can offer to emigrants from the British Isles.
  - Give three reasons for England's commercial supremacy.
  - State the most important industry of Oregon, of Pennsylvania, of Florida and of Australia.
- Arithmetic.
- An oil merchant has three grades of oil in three tanks containing respectively 2,567, 3,977 and 4,797 gallons. He wishes to ship the oil in barrels of equal size and the largest possible to contain exactly the contents of each tank. How many gallons in a barrel and how many such barrels in each tank?
  - (No marks to be given unless the result is correct.) Find the amount of the following bill: 23 yards silk at $1.35 a yard; 14 yards lining at 17c a yard; 7½ yards muslin at 29c a yard; 12½ yards muslin at 15c a yard; 5 dozen buttons at 27c a dozen; 31 yards flannel at 43c a yard; 8½ yards ribbon at 48c a yard; 9½ yards embroidery at 99c a yard. Total $14,000, and its contents $10,000. What will it cost to insure both house and contents for 80 per cent of their value if the premium be ¾ per cent, and the agent's commission be ¼ per cent of the risk?
  - A land agent buys a 50-acre farm adjacent to the city for $11,000. He sets apart 2-5 of the farm for streets and a park, and divides the remainder into city lots each containing 1-5 of an acre. If he sells these lots at $75 each, what is his gain?
  - The simple interest for 4 years on a sum of money invested at 5½ per cent, is equal to the annual income from a city house rented at $33 a month. How much money is invested?
  - What will be the entire cost of opening up a new street 4 rods wide and 80 rods long, only the following items being considered:
Trunk sewer, the entire length, at $1 a linear foot.
Leveling and grading, at $1 12½ a square rod.
Paving roadway, 36 feet wide, at 55 cents a square yard.
Sidewalk, 6 feet wide, on both sides, at 10½ cents a square foot.
Erecting a telephone line, on one side, at the rate of $150 a mile.
Planting trees 16½ feet apart on each side of the roadway (a tree to be at each end of each row), at 50 cents each.
  - A farmer sold four loads of hay, averaging 2,835 pounds each. With the proceeds he bought a seed drill at $65, a set of harness at $12, a string of sleigh bells at $5 15, 30 pounds breakfast food at 12½ cents a pound, and 7 yards suiting at $2 50 a yard. The balance, $10, he deposited in the bank. At what price per ton did he sell the hay?

PROROGATION SEEMS IN SIGHT

Premier Laurier and Mr. Borden Reach Understanding on Election Bill.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, June 25.—Indications now point to prorogation of Parliament in time to allow members of the Government to get away to the Quebec centenary celebrations. It is understood that the Premier and Mr. Borden have practically reached an understanding on the election bill, by which mutual concessions have been made on both sides, and the measure will be no longer made and excuse by the Opposition for any further obstruction in the House. An announcement of the nature of the agreement reached will probably be made to the House shortly. Members on both sides are anxious to bring the session to a close as speedily as possible, and there is a feeling that in justice to the ministers themselves an effort should be made to relieve them of the strain of sessional work, which for the past seven months has entailed almost unremitting attention to executive and legislative duties.

The wonder among parliamentarians is that the health of members of the Government, who have had to work on an average of about 14 hours per day since the session started, has stood the strain so well up to the present.

There is a humane desire on both sides of the House not to continue the session longer than is absolutely necessary during the hot weather, and an effort will be made to reach prorogation by July 18.

MAN'S HEAD FOUND ON RAILWAY TRACK

Cleanly Cut From the Body—Probably a Circus Employee.

Cobalt, June 25.—Engineer Morgan, on the Cobalt express, was started Tuesday morning looking out of his cab window at a point on the line midway between Temagami and Letticeford, by observing the glassy eyes of a dead face looking up at him from the side of the track.

On backing down, the terribly mangled body of a young man about 20 years of age, of splendid physique, was found lying in the ditch. The head had been carried about 50 yards from the body, having been cut off with an axe, showing hardly a bruise, and with its shock of curly black hair presenting a peculiarly gruesome appearance.

No one on the train could identify the face, and it is surmised that the man had been attached to Cole's circus, which had crossed the special about half an hour previous. Coroner Field, of Haliburton, was notified by wire, as were the circuit authorities at North Bay.

ANTI-BETTING CONTEST

Defendants in the Sheephead B.
Case Both Dismissed.

New York, June 25.—Justice Bischoff, in the supreme court today, discharged Melville Collins and Joseph Loewy, who were recently arrested at the Sheephead Bay racetrack for alleged violation of the anti-betting law.

Brooklyn, said under a recent decision of the court of appeals both commitments were illegal and could not stand.

MR. SHERMAN'S CONDITION

Condition of the Vice-Presidential Nominee is Favorable.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 25.—At 9:30 today the physicians attending Congressman Sherman said his temperature had fallen slightly and that the condition of the patient continued favorable.

BIG BEEF HOUSE BURNED.

Philadelphia, June 25.—The large abattoir and an adjoining beef warehouse, owned by D. B. Martin & Co., were destroyed by fire today. The loss is placed at $150,000. The fire began in the cookhouse of the abattoir, and is believed to have been caused by an explosion.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 23.—Three-year-old Mona Hughes was burned to death in her grandmother's home here yesterday, while her relatives were in the field washing wool. The little tot was a passenger on board the W. W. Ferry, from Boston, which recently stranded, and was taken off safe.

HAMILTON FAVORS NEW POWER.

Montreal, June 24.—Mayor Stewart, after a conference with the hydro-electric authorities in Toronto over the long-distance telephone, declared in favor of turning down the Cataract offer and signing the commission's contract on the ground that Hamilton would lose $109,000 by waiting five years.

Pleaded Guilty.

Mrs. Martha Markle today pleaded guilty to the theft of several small articles from a Dorchester hotel, and was remanded until Saturday for sentence by Judge Elliott.

FIVE COUPLES SOUGHT DIVORCE EXPENSE FRIGHTENED THEM

Police Court Clerk Moule Pours Oil on Troubled Waters and Smooths Out Domestic Infelicities—All the Parties Had Been Married Less Than Two Years.

That the way of some young married couples is hard, is apparent from the fact that no less than five young couples, all of whom have been married less than two years, have applied to Police Clerk Moule, in the last ten days asking him to make out divorce papers.

Yesterday afternoon, while Mr. Moule was busy writing, he heard a gentle rap at his door, and a pretty little blonde girl said she wanted to see Mr. Moule.

He informed the lady that he was the desired one.

On Monday about noon a highly-excited young man walked into Mr. Moule's office in a hurry, and demanded divorce papers at once.

Mr. Moule told him that he could give him the papers, but that they would be worthless, as the Government had to legalize them, and the process involved considerable expense. "I don't mind that," said the man. "I've got a hundred dollars, and I'll give every cent of it before I'll live with that woman again."

Baseball Pitcher Fooled With Snake

Hamilton, Ont., June 25.—Cy Doremus, the giant pitcher of the Niagara Falls team, was unable to play in yesterday's game on account of blood poisoning. He was sent home for medical attendance by Manager Murray.

It is supposed that Doremus' condition is due to handling a small yellow and black snake he caught on the mountainside while out walking Monday morning. The snake was handled by a clerk at the Commercial Hotel, and his hands are also badly crippled.

Doremus' chest is also swollen.

Toronto Man Objects To Small Silver

A Toronto traveler, Mr. Jos. Taylor, of the Canada Paper Company, is not enamored of London's street railway service, and he wrote a letter to Mayor Stevely this morning, in which he states his objections very plainly.

Mr. Taylor had occasion yesterday to take a car to the east end of the city and not having any change, he tendered the conductor a $2 bill.

The conductor handed him back $1 in small Canadian silver, and then added 95 cents in American nickels.

He remonstrated with the conductor and declared that it was a shame to compel a man to carry such a lot of silver.

The conductor replied that silver was the only change he was allowed to give him, and that he must either take that or nothing.

Mr. Taylor had to take it. He informed Mayor Stevely that such treatment of visitors was not at all considerate, and that the company should be compelled to give a man proper change.

Furthermore, he states that the conductor could have given him a bill at least in change, as he had plenty of them.

Mayor Stevely will probably send the communication to the council.

To Consult Solicitor Re Another Vote

The water question continues to excite considerable interest in the city at present, and there is a good deal of discussion on the subject.

The water commissioners have not yet met to discuss the situation, but the opinion prevails that no vote will be taken until the municipal elections in January next.

Whether the same scheme that was submitted on Monday last can be voted on again or not has not been answered definitely.

Mayor Stevely is not certain regarding it, and will ask the city solicitor's opinion at the first opportunity.

He thinks, however, that it can be submitted, if not in its entirety, at least with slight modifications.

Vote in January.

"I think the scheme can be voted on in January, with slight modifications," said his worship. "It cannot be submitted again this year, but I think perhaps there could be no objections to it in January next. I am not certain on this point, but will consult the city solicitor as soon as possible."

Mayor Stevely and Ald. Beattie will be the delegates from the city council.

WILL BOTTLE UP THE NORTH SEA

New Move By British Admiralty
—Talk of Changes in the British Cabinet.

London, June 25.—There was a rumor last night that the resignations of Lord Tweedmouth, president of the council, and Lord Loreburn, lord high chancellor, were imminent, and that Mr. Haldane, secretary for war, and Winston Spencer Churchill, president of the board of trade, would be appointed lord chancellor and secretary for war, respectively.

The rumor that King Edward, disappointed at the fete displayed by his race-horses, intended to sell his stud and abandon the turf, is authoritatively denied from Buckingham Palace. The Daily Express announces that the admiralty has decided next year to organize new divisions of the fleet to be stationed off North Scotland, with a view to guarding the northern entrance, thus bottling up the North Sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould were married in 1901 at the home of the bride's mother. They have two children, Helen, aged 5 and Dorothy, aged 3 years.

FATAL SCRATCH

How Donald Johnston, of Harwich, Came to His Death.

Chatham, June 24.—Donald Johnston, a wealthy Harwich farmer, aged 66, died this morning from what at first was a trivial wound. Some time ago he scratched his hand on a thorn bush. The wound festered a bit, then, pained, and blood-poisoning set in. In spite of all that could be done death occurred.

Mr. Johnston was a prominent Liberal and Presbyterian, having been one of the founders of St. Paul's Church, for which he gave a building lot on his farm. He was esteemed by all for his large charities. He was for many years a school trustee in Harwich, but never sought higher office, though he often could have had it.

MAYOR OF GALT WON'T SIGN CONTRACT FOR NIAGARA POWER

Claims That the People Did Not Give Him a Mandate To Bind
the City To Buy Power at Any Price—Interesting Situation Has Developed.

Galt, June 23.—A somewhat peculiar situation has developed here in connection with the signing of the agreement with the hydro-electric commission in regard to Niagara power.

Last January a vote of the citizens approved of taking the power at $22 per horsepower or less, but the agreement which the town is asked to sign makes the ratepayers liable for any amount over $22 which the carrying out of the work may cost.

Under these circumstances, Mr. Thomas Patterson, mayor of Galt, has declined to sign the agreement unless it is amended to make the citizens liable for only what they voted for, and he claims that he has no right or authority to sign anything which may make them liable for 30 years for a larger amount than they voted for.

He called a public meeting to consider the question on Friday evening, the 12th inst.

About 200 attended. Both sides were represented.

This Is Different.

Among others ex-Ald. Alex. R. Goldie, of the Goldie, McCulloch Company, was called upon to speak, and he said that he had made a calculation on Niagara power at $22, and found that, so far as their establishment was concerned, and taking heating and everything into consideration, it would cost them $3,000 more per year to run the establishment than their present system.

The meeting showed considerable change in public opinion, and a resolution was carried on a division, asking the council not to sign the agreement until the question was again submitted to the vote of the citizens.

Council Takes a Hand.

A majority of the council have introduced a bylaw to instruct the mayor to sign the hydro-electric agreement, and in some way so as to avoid letting the people of Galt finally decide the matter.

But the mayor, who is a man of much force of character, will not sign its agreement in its present form.

Here is an agreement making the town liable for about $216,000 for a transmission line, and which may make the cost per horsepower over $22.

The people have not sanctioned this, and Mayor Patterson says he won't sign the agreement unless it is amended in agreement with the popular vote or the people have another chance to vote upon it.

PLENTY OF ACCOMMODATION AT QUEBEC TRICENTENARY

Railway Agents Say That Ample Precautions Are Being Taken
To Look After the Thousands of Visitors—Single Fare Rates on Railways.

Local ticket agents report that many citizens are likely to visit Quebec during the tricentenary, and say that they have received a great many inquiries.

"We think there will be plenty of hotel accommodation," a ticket agent told The Advertiser this afternoon. "For awhile it was feared that many might not find quarters, and it had been suggested that the railroads should have a number of sleeping cars on the track switches, so that people who found themselves homeless at night would be able to find some place to rest."

"It is not thought, however, that it will be necessary to do that. A great many people who go to Quebec will go there just the same, leaving on the evening trains."

"This will relieve the congestion to a certain extent. The great majority of the visitors will, however, likely want to spend some days in the city, especially those coming from London and other distant places, but the railway agents think that with the Tent City, the hotels and the ships in the harbor, and other plans that will be carried out, that all will find accommodation."

Single Fare.

"All the Canadian railways will issue a one-fare return ticket from every point in Canada. The American railroads intend giving a fare-and-a-third rate to the boundary, from which points the Canadian roads will handle the traffic."

On one of the boats, the Empress of Ireland, passengers sailing on July 24 may be assured of accommodation at Quebec for two or three days at least, and it has been arranged that they shall have the use of their staterooms and be provided with meals for the days immediately preceding the sailing, thus getting a good opportunity to witness the fete.

The steamboat companies running boats on the river and in the gulf also have plans by which they may afford accommodation during the rush days at the end of July. The Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company have decided to put the steamer Beaurap on the Montreal-to-Quebec service as a special, giving lodging and meals during its stay at Quebec. It is understood that many other boats will adopt a similar course.

"Local Option" Beer Is the Latest Contains 1.66 Per Cent Alcohol

And Comes Within the List of Temperance Beverages.

Local option beer is the latest. Several breweries have solved the problem of developing a beverage minus the intoxicating powers of the common or garden variety of beer.

And the way this liquor is being sold in town in the "dry belt" is said to be really amazing.

Large quantities are shipped out of London every day, and the breweries cannot keep pace with the demand.

The new beer looks like the old kind, collar and all, and it so resembles it in taste that the most seasoned consumer can scarcely tell the difference.

That difference is merely in the after-effects.

Common beers contain 3 per cent or a trifle more of alcohol. The new beer contains less than 2 per cent, or, to be exact, 1.66 per cent of alcohol.

That allows the beer to be sold as a temperance drink. The act now reads that anything under 2 per cent alcohol is a temperance drink, and as the local option beer is well within the mark, it must be classed as a temperance beverage.

This is a fast age.

With horseless carriages, smokeless powder and many other things of that nature, comes "jagless booze."

I. O. F. Doesn't Fear Injunctions So Says Supreme Auditor F. J. Darch

London Man Is "Mum" in Regard To Supreme Treasurer's Job.

Nothing to Say.

"What about the rumor that you will be elected supreme treasurer?" was asked.

"I have nothing to say on that subject just at present," he answered.

"Dr. Millman, the medical health officer, has been made temporary treasurer to sign checks until a permanent treasurer is appointed. The executive will meet next month, when a successor to the late Harny Collins will be named for the quadrennium before the next meeting of the supreme court of the I. O. F."

Post-Mortem Praise for Cleveland "One of Nation's Greatest Citizens"

Roosevelt's Testimony To His Sterling Qualities—His Pa- triotic Career.

New York, June 24. — President Roosevelt, who is now staying at Oyster Bay, has issued the following proclamation in connection with the death of Ex-President Grover Cleveland, who died yesterday at his home in Princeton, N. J.:

Proclamation.

"The White House, June 24, 1908.

"To the People of the United States:

"Grover Cleveland, president of the United States from 1885 to 1889 and again from 1893 to 1897, died at 8:40 o'clock this morning at his home in Princeton, New Jersey. In his death the nation has been deprived of one of its greatest citizens. By profession, a lawyer, his chief services to his country were rendered during a long, varied and honorable career in public life. As mayor of his city, as governor of his state, and twice as president, he showed signal power as an administrator, coupled with entire devotion to the country's good, and a courage that qualified before no hostility when he was convinced where his duty lay. Since his retirement from the presidency he has continued well and faithfully to serve his countrymen by the simplicity, dignity, and uprightness of his private life.

"In testimony of the respect in which his memory is held by the Government and people of the United States, I do hereby direct that the flags on the White House and the several departmental buildings be displayed at half-staff for a period of 30 days, and that suitable military and naval honors, under the orders of the Secretaries of War and the Navy be rendered on the day of the funeral.

"Done this 24th day of June in the year of our Lord 1908.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

William J. Bryan's Tribute.

Lincoln, Neb., June 24. — The following tribute to former President Grover Cleveland was written this evening by W. J. Bryan, and will appear in next week's issue of his paper:

"The death of ex-President Grover Cleveland brings to sudden end the phenomenal career of one of the strongest characters known to the political world during the present generation. Like every commanding figure, he had zealous supporters and earnest opponents, but those who differed from him were as ready as his warmest friends to concede to him the possession of elements of leadership to an extraordinary degree.

"He was deliberation in action, firm in conviction, and ever ready to accept responsibility for what he did. Few men have exerted a more positive influence upon those associated with them. We are not far enough from the period in which his work was done to measure accurately his place in history, but the qualities which made him great are a part of the nation's heritage, and universal sorrow is felt at his death."

Sentiments of regret were expressed by Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo, N. Y., who was visiting Bryan when news of Cleveland's death was received. Mack, who knew the ex-president well when he lived at Buffalo, pronounced him a leading citizen and said his death was a loss to the nation.

The Ex-President's Career.

The deceased was born in Caldwell, Essex County, N. J., on March 18, 1837. His father was a clergyman and removed with his family to Onondaga, N. Y., in 1841, and there Grover was educated in the public and high schools. He helped in a store, and for one year taught in the institution for the blind in New York. In 1855 he went to Buffalo, entering a law office, and in 1859 he was called to the bar. In 1862-66 he was district attorney for Erie County, sheriff of Buffalo. His vetoing of extravagant expenditure brought him to the front, and the following year he was elected governor of the state of New York. In 1884 he was elected president on the Democratic ticket, defeating James G. Blaine by 27 electoral votes. In 1888 he was defeated by Benjamin Harrison, Republican, but in 1892 he in turn defeated Harrison. When the Democrats in 1896 adopted the free silver platform he opposed his party. He married Miss Frances Polson in 1886.

attitude of demanding a further investigation of charges of over-classification and have wisely concluded that the quietest way out of the mess is the best.

The evidence will therefore be reported to the House in the regular course.

Niagara Falls, June 25.—Percy Webber, an employee of the Niagara Falls Hydraulic Power and Manufacturing Company, who is an expert canoeist, intends to court fame and wealth by shooting the lower rapids, below the whirlpool, in a canoe. Webber has had considerable experience in navigating dangerous streams, and he is confident that he will come out at Lewiston safely. Webber has assured a number of his friends that he will perform the feat any time between the 1st and 5th of July, if the railroads will put up a reasonable sum.

STEAMSHIP SUNK MANY LIVES LOST

Spanish Steamer Larache Went On the Rocks in a Dense Fog.

Paris, June 25.—A special dispatch received here from Corunna, Spain, says that the Spanish steamer Larache went on the rocks in a fog near Muros, where the cruiser Cardinal Cisneros was wrecked in 1905.

The Larache sank rapidly and a panic followed. There were 97 passengers and 54 of a crew aboard. These took to the boats, but up to the filing of the dispatch only 47 had landed.

Defective communications made it impossible to obtain complete details, but latest reports state that 17 women were drowned.

It is known that 17 survivors were landed at Muros, but that two of them have since died. Fifteen others were landed at Leon.

According to the official lists the Larache carried 98 of a crew, including passengers.

SAILORS TO JUDGE

NEW PLUG TOBACCO

Bluejackets To Help in Choosing Tobacco for United States Navy.

Washington, D. C., June 25.—The comfort, for a long time to come, of every jackie in the navy who occasionally bites off a "chew" of mule's ear twist or who a few times a day stows in his cheek a luscious slice of Kentucky plug is to be left to the hands—or, rather, the palates—of a select board of tobacco chewers soon to be convened in the New York navy yard.

One hundred thousand pounds of chewing tobacco will soon be purchased, and the board of navy paymasters is to convene at New York to make scientific tests of the different brands entered by the dealers. A board of real tobacco chewers, blue-jackets is to be appointed to assist the paymasters in arriving at a conclusion as to what brands to buy.

This board will not consist of the genus man-o'-warman who occasionally nibbles the weed, but the real, simon pure "eater" who takes his chews before breakfast, as many as possible during watch hours, and invariably a chew and a half before climbing into his hammock.

Bluejackets in the navy like tobacco which is sweet. For many years a special brand has been manufactured for their special use.

Tobacco chewing in the navy, however, is said to be on the wane. Sailors seem to be turning toward cigarette smoking. The surgeon-general of the navy, in a recent official report, said that cigarette smoking in the navy was becoming so widespread that steps would soon have to be taken to restrict it.

THROW AWAY LINIMENTS

Here's the Prescription to Cure Rheumatism.

Liniments only reach the skin and the muscles directly under the skin. Now, liniments can't cure Rheumatism. They simply deaden the nerves for a time. When the effect wears away, the pain returns worse than ever.

If the bowels do not move regularly—if the kidneys are strained or weak—if the skin is dry or harsh—the blood is sure to be filled with impurities or urea. This urea is changed into uric acid which is the poison that causes rheumatism.

Now, the only possible way to cure rheumatism is to prevent uric acid from being formed. Logically, the only way to do this is to keep kidneys, bowels and skin in good working order, and prevent the stomach from being too acid. And the only way to do this is to take "Fruit-a-tives."

These marvelous tablets of fruit juices and tonics act directly on the three great eliminating organs—bowels, kidneys and skin—and put them in perfect condition. At the same time, they prevent the formation of uric acid, and their great success in curing rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

50c a box—6 for $2.50. "Fruit-a-tives," Limited, Ottawa.

LIBERAL POLICY

TO NEW BRUNSWICK

Announcement Made by Hon. Wm. Pugsley—Harbour Items Passed.

Ottawa, June 24.—The House passed a considerable number of items this afternoon for harbours and rivers work in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. During a discussion on the former Hon. Mr. Pugsley intimated that he was prepared to go farther than his predecessor in building wharves on the St. John River and its tributaries. This led to a somewhat lively interchange between the minister and Mr. Fowler. This is the last Wednesday night of the session that the members will enjoy a recess.

From now on three sittings will be held on Wednesday as on other Parliamentary days.

Hon. Mr. Aylesworth's bill to restrain the use of tobacco by young persons was passed without discussion.

The items of public work under the harbour and rivers bill for Nova Scotia that were not passed were almost held up by the obstructive tactics of Mr. Martin. Prince Edward Island, whose questionings and little speeches lasted until 6 o'clock, and the request of Mr. LeFevre that some of the items stand, as he wanted to make some remarks.

His Two Sisters Also Injured—Six-Year-Old Girl May Die.

Barrie, Ont., June 24. — During a heavy electric storm, which passed over this locality yesterday morning, the house of Michael Hayes, of lot 13, concession 3, township of Oro, was struck by lightning.

Three of Hayes' children, a son aged 9, and two little girls, aged 6 and 4 years, were playing on a lounge in the dining-room at the time.

The 9-year-old boy received a severe shock and died in the greatest agony at 6 o'clock in the evening.

The older girl was also badly injured and is not expected to live.

The third child had the calf of her leg burned, but it is not otherwise hurt.

The boy had been kept from school owing to the storm.

None of the other occupants of the house were injured.

Rochester Member of the I. O. F. Takes Legal Steps—Mr. Collins' Successor.

Rochester, N. Y., June 25.—A temporary injunction has been granted by Justice G. A. Benton, restraining the supreme court of the Independent Order of Foresters from increasing its insurance rates, pending the action brought on that point by Henry J. Simmeling, of this city.

The matter of increasing the rates for insurance in this fraternal order was taken up at the convention at Toronto last week.

Under the present order it will be impossible for the order to put the increase into effect.

Two Offices in One.

A Toronto dispatch says: When the position of treasurer fell vacant, it was decided to wait until the council meeting in July before filling the vacancy.

In view of the notice of motion to have a secretary-treasurer, instead of secretary and treasurer, the consummation of which is likely to take place when the supreme court meets three or four years from now, a member of the present staff will be instructed in July to discharge the duties of treasurer, but without drawing the full salary of the office.

When the supreme court next meets Mr. Matheson, the supreme secretary, may be made secretary-treasurer with probably an additional $1,000 of salary. At the recent meeting his stipend was reduced to $5,000, and the treasurer's to $4,000.

LONDON, THURSDAY, JUNE 25

THE HUDSON BAY RAILWAY
PROJECT.The bill to amend the Dominion Lands Act introduced in the House of Commons on Tuesday by Hon. Frank Oliver, is mainly important from the fact that it will afford the Government a means of raising the money necessary for the construction of a railway to Hudson Bay.Parliament, which recognizes that the growing needs of the Canadian West demand a new outlet to the markets of Great Britain, has already approved the railway project, and the Government, by this measure, proposes, if it is found necessary to pledge the country sufficiently to build or aid in building the railway, to provide a new source of revenue under which the country will not run the risk of loss.The old way of granting aid would have been to give the promoters 12,900
acres of land per mile, but the Government has rejected for all time the policy of land grants. The new way will be to give settlers and homesteaders the right of pre-empting certain lands at $3 per acre and thus create a fund to aid in financing the road. For this purpose there will be set apart 28,000,000 acres of land in Southern Alberta and Saskatchewan,
in what is known as the semi-arid belt. A settler or homesteader in this area can pre-empt 160 additional acres
at the price named and can get his patent after he has resided six years on his homestead.An unofficial estimate places the cost of the railway at $30,000 a mile,
or $15,000,000 for the 500 miles of road.
With 28,000,000 acres available there should be no difficulty in disposing of 6,000,000 acres at $3 an acre, which would produce the amount required.
As to how the proposed railway will be built is as yet a matter of speculation, the Government's policy not having been announced.The country's experience of Government-owned railways has been unhappy, and in this case there are exceptional difficulties in the way of making it a national enterprise. If it were only 500 miles long it would be at the mercy of the Canadian Northern, and to connect it with the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Pacific it would be necessary to extend it 250 miles further. Only by that means could the new road be brought into touch with the business of the more settled portions of the west. It would also be left to the Government to arrange for the handling of freight during the few months each year the bay and straits are open. There would be needed in addition large storage elevators and a line of steamers to carry freight, and arrangements would have to be made at Liverpool for a fleet of steamers to leave for the bay on the opening of navigation.All of this work, together with the making of necessary commercial arrangements for distributing the freight on the other side of the Atlantic, is more than any Government should undertake. Besides it would be to the interest of the three big railway systems to keep traffic from a Government line.Another suggestion made is that the Government build the road and lease to a company by an arrangement of similar to that made with the Grand Trunk Pacific in regard to the lines from Winnipeg to Moncton.Still another plan is that the Government aid a company to build the railway, and in return for such aid be given the right to control rates and intervene generally for the protection of the shipping public. The Canadian Northern or any other company may be expected to look for more than a guarantee of its bonds. Unlike the prairie systems of other western roads, the proposed railway would have no immediate prospect of traffic along its route. Everything would depend on through trade to Britain,
and years might elapse before it proved profitable. The company would doubtless expect a guarantee of its bonds to be supplemented by direct cash assistance.The fact that Mr. Oliver spoke of the Government giving "adequate aid"
to such a railway would seem to indicate that the Government does not contemplate either building or operating the road.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Grover Cleveland was for years before his death the only surviving ex-president of the United States. He was the only Democrat who had filed that high office since Buchanan's retirement in 1861. He was first elected over Blaine in 1884, but was narrowly defeated by Harrison four years later. He retained his hold on the confidence and affection of the Democratic party, and was again its successful standard-bearer in the fall of 1892. He was succeeded by Mc-Kinley in March, 1897.Cleveland was indisputably the most notable public figure in the United States, and the greatest president since Lincoln. He was not a brilliant man, but he had character and moral courage. During his first administration he curbed extravagance, reformed
many abuses, and immeasurably raised the tone of politics. His outstanding act was his attack upon protection.
He carried his party with him in his crusade for a revenue tariff, and it was his winning cry in 1892, after his exclusion from office for a term. He kept the faith, but was betrayed by a clique of Democratic senators, who mutilated the tariff measure of the House of Representatives in behalf of the protected interests. He refused to sign the amended bill, terming it party
perfidy and dishonor, but he allowed it to become law.During his second term he came into conflict with the larger section of his party on the silver question. He resolutely repelled every attack upon the gold standard, and with voice and pen
waged war on the free silver heresy.
To Cleveland more than to any other man, or any influence, the United States owed its escape from financial shipwreck. Even a portion of the Republican party had become infected with the silver craze. His opponents and former friends united in heaping
obloquy upon his head, and no president since the civil war was more execrated by large numbers of his countrymen.The industrial depression due to the currency agitation was attributed by the protectionists to the mild measure of tariff reduction, and the responsibility was also laid at the door of Cleveland as the champion of tariff reform. When he finished his second term in 1897 he appeared to be disgraced and discredited in the eyes of the majority of the American people.
But he was vindicated by time and events, and his old prestige and popularity revived before his death. For the past few years he held a unique place in public estimation. No man's voice was more eagerly listened to,
not even Roosevelt's—or carried greater authority. His countrymen came to recognize at last his courage, his probity, his patriotism, and his lofty ideals of public life and duty.The Cossacks had a hand in the butchery at Teheran. Is Russia behind the bloody work?Three Rivers, Que., has three rivers
in the neighborhood, but it is a safe
wager that it had no high-pressure system.The Ottawa Opposition has decided to drop the Hodgins charges. But will it take back the slanders for which the charges were made a pretext?Premier Whitney wants another imperial conference called at once. It was said of the historian Gibbon that he came to believe he was the Roman Empire. Perhaps Mr. Whitney thinks he's the whole British Empire since his famous victory.Our local contemporary pretends to be something inconsistent in The Advertiser's advocacy of a water scheme in which "filtered river water is the chief feature." Filtered river water for what? For fire protection only—not for drinking. The Advertiser has never contended that filtered river water was not fit to put out a fire with. Why cannot our contemporary be straightforward in its discussion of this question? A few months ago it denounced high-pressure as a fad and said the last had been heard of it in London.
Now it claims that high-pressure was the strong point in the bylaw which was defeated on Monday.THE ALTOGETHER.

leave off all that the law allows.REASSURING HIM.
[Chicago Tribune.]
Cholly-Doctoh, have I any symptoms of brain fog? Not at all, by
dear fellow; nothing but fog.A DISTINGUISHED AMATEUR.
[Toronto Telegram.]
Assuredly Lord Alverstone ought to be a good judge of amateurs, his lordship
having proved himself the rankest kind of amateur in diplomatic conflict with the Yankees.A ROMANY RIOT.
[Standard of Empire.]
The gypsies who gathered at Epsom for the Derby from all parts of the country,
in accordance with their annual practice,
showed that they had lost none of the fighting instinct which distinguished Jasper Petulengro, Tawmo Chikno and the old race of fifty years ago, whose prowess
is told in Borew's immortal works,
"Lavengro" and the "Romany Rye".
Several families who were returning from Epsom in nine caravans had a dispute about money matters on the road. At Coulsden, in Surrey, the procession came to a halt, while the gypsy women exchanged taunts and insults in Romany.
Eventually the men were worked up to aterrific pitch of excitement, and a general fight broke out. Both men and women joined in the women scratching and tearing at hair, and the men using knives and clubs. When the riot had lasted for twenty minutes the landlord of a local inn formed a phalanx of villagers,
and charged at their head into the midst of the melee. The riot was eventually suppressed, and it was found that 84 men and women had received cuts, bruises and other injuries.PRETTY GOOD MEN.
[Toronto Globe.]Speaking on this subject in a Toronto church on Sunday last, Rev. Dr. Shearer, secretary of the board of moral and social reform of the Presbyterian Church, testified that, after extensive and close-range dealing with the large majority of the politicians of both parties, not only in the Dominion Parliament, but also in all the Provincial Legislatures, his deliberate judgment is that the typical Canadian politician is above the average of our citizenship alike in caliber and in character.A GREAT OUTLOOK.
[Montreal Herald.]Five million acres under crop, half of it in wheat, the promise of the best crop
in history, present worth for 25,000 more men and 5,000 more women. That is the cheerful budget from the Canadian West.
They may keep the bulletins coming as fast as they like.

ONE EXCEPTION.

"I think," said the merchant, "I'll have to fire your friend Polk. I never saw anyone quite so lazy."
"Slow in everything, is he?"
"No, not everything. He gets tired quick enough."

EMPIRE DAY.

[Alfred Noyes, in London Daily Mail.]
There was a queen of the seas "ere the world was made."
Her robes were fairer than rainbows, her crown was brighter than gold;
The cliffs of her sunlit island were white
as the clouds above;
The light of her scepter was Freedom, the base of her throne was Love.And roundabout her porches, clustering warm and close,
Children and children's children like olive branches rose.
And they listened the deep sea music that brought their souls to birth,
And their sails broke out in adventure as the flowers break out of the earth.They left the land that nursed them, and ever the wandering foam,
With the strength that their mother gave them in the old fair days at home,
With the faith that their souls might then when they clung around her knees
They builded them cities and nations beyond the sunning seas.She watched them growing in honor, and her soul increased in pride,
And whenever a fathom threatened, her
sword flashed out at their side;
She watched them growing in stature till
they needed her now no more;
And her wise men said: "They have left thee! Now close and bar the door.""Close it; for these are thy children," a bitter and thankless name,
A serpent's tooth in the darkness, a jest
in the sun's broad shine;
Close it; for they have left thee, as children will at the last;
Come, set your house in order, and let the past be past!"She said: "I was young and they loved me,
and now I am growing old;
I have yet a dream of fulfillment, ere the
gray quite cover the gold;
I have dreamed of the end of battles, and
a kingdom of love to be;
When the poor and the weak shall be
holpen, if my children stand by me,
I have dreamed of the end of battles, and
a world made fair and good,
When the great confederate nations establish their brotherhood;
Yea, now, that my children desire it, that deep old dream comes true,
For, with half the world united, the world may be made anew."A sound like the sound of an ocean that yearned through time and space, an ocean of worshipping faces that surged
to her glorious face,
An ocean of rolling thunder that swelled
to the full and was dumb;
"Mother, England, our Mother, speak,
and thy children come!"

TOBA.[Canadian Cor. Forest and Stream.] Hunting for young covotes is all the rage here now. The method of securing them is to take a collie dog and go to the haunts of the covotes here, generally in thick, scrubby undergrowth. When the old covote sees the collie she runs to the den where the young are, and the collie follows and barks at the den. Then the hunters dig out the young.Alexander Almo and his son dug out fourteen from two dens one day last week.
Another man got 35, and this man has brought in all in 94.There is a bounty of $2 on each covote paid by the Government.

THE FOREST FIRE.

[Walter Dunn Davis, in Denver Post.]
A lighted match and a careless man,
And a noble forest's grave!
And wild winds every flame to fan—
Is there no power to save?Mark how the frightened deep-wood things,
Shrink back as the monarchs fall!
And the doe's shrill voice with distraction rings
As she bellows her warning call.Great pines that have stood for a hundred years
Go thundering down to doom,
And the wood things, stunned by a thousand fears,
Stand crazed in the crash and boom.The red glare grows and the terrors spread—
As only such terrors can;
And the blame should fall on a single head—
The head of the careless man.

WHERE BRITAIN SCORES.

[New York Tribune.]
The most significant incident of the last twenty years has been Great Britain's masterful re-entry into continental politics and diplomacy under the lead of King Edward. The close relations between Great Britain and the four Latin powers—especially close was the great alliance of the British rapprochement with Russia, make a striking contrast to the days when Great Britain was in splendid isolation. France also was isolated, and Germany was allied secretly with Russia and openly with Italy and Austria-Hungary, and enjoyed an unchallenged supremacy in continental
councils.INSTANTLY KILLED
BY LIVE WIREHamilton Carpenters Meet a Swift and Horrible Death
at Work.Hamilton, June 25.—A swift and horrible death overtook Albert E. Scotney and George Bambrick, two carpenters, yesterday, both men being electrocuted and horribly burned by the electric power wire at B. Greening's wire works on Queen street. They were erecting a shed in the rear of the Queen street mill,
and the guy wire attached to the power pole interfered with their work. They had released this, and were carrying it away, when it crossed over the wire
which carried power to the transformers
and a current of 2,000 volts passed through them. They were dragged a short distance and fell into a pool of water, and while they lay on the ground
the swinging wire, charged with the deadly current, kept touching their bodies, causing long streams of flame to fly
out. They lived but a very short time after the first shock.
There were no witnesses of the accident, but some workmen who were near were soon on the scene, and knocked the wire away with a pole.
Dr. Gilrie and Coroner Anderson were quickly called to the spot, but the unfortunate men were beyond human aid.Mr. Scotney was 23 years of age and resided at 115 Florence street. He is survived by a wife and two-weeks-old baby.
Mr. Bambrick was at 187 Canada street. He was 25 years of age, and is survived by a wife, who is in a delicate
condition.CHAIRMAN GIBBONS
HAS RETURNEDFrom a Meeting of the International Waterways Commission.Mr. George C. Gibbons, K. C., chairman of the Canadian section of the International Waterways Commission, has returned from Toronto where he has been attending a meeting of the joint commissions.
The discussion was largely about the boundary between Canada and the United States along the St. Lawrence River, and as far west as Lake Superior.The meeting was just one of the many meetings "we have held," said
Mr. Gibbons. "There is nothing for publication. We are making as rapid progress as we can with a very difficult problem, and it will be some time yet, perhaps two years, before the final award is made by the joint commission. There is a great deal of ground to be covered, and a vast amount of material to go over, so you see it is impossible to hurry the matter to a conclusion."A treaty between Canada and the United States will be based on the final award of the commissions.

LATE MRS. GRAHAM

Funeral at Glenoe Was Very Largely Attended.The funeral of the late Mrs. Duncan Graham, which was held from the family residence at Glenoe, June 24,
was largely attended by relatives and friends of the deceased.The cortege, which was over a mile long, gave evidence of the high esteem
in which the deceased was held.
The end came very unexpectedly,
and was a great shock to her relatives and friends, both around Glen-oe and Dorchester station, where she spent her girlhood days.She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, of this city.
Mrs. Graham has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in his sad bereavement.She is survived by her husband, her father and mother, of Dorchester Station, and sisters, Mrs. James Duncan, and Miss Mary Bell, of London; Mrs. Chas. Busby, of Sarnia, and Miss Addie, of Dorchester, and six brothers, Edwin and Ewen, of London; James and Milton, of Dorchester; Ephraim, of Calgary, and Benjamin, of Detroit.

WRIGHT-DREW

Pretty Wedding Performed by Rev.
Canon Hague.One of the prettiest of June weddings was that performed by the Rev.
Canon Hague, of the Memorial Church
last evening when Miss Ethel Drew, daughter of Mr. Alfred Drew, of 720
William street, became the wife of Mr. Geo. E. Wright, of 739 Richmond street.The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents at 8 o'clock.
Miss Harriet Drew assisted her sister and Mr. Wright was attended by Mr. A. B. Smith, of this city.
The happy young couple will reside
on Grosvenor street.ST. HYACINTHE BANK
TAKEN BY MONTREALThe Latter Will Guarantee Depositors Against Loss.Montreal, June 25.—The Bank of Montreal has taken over the Bank of St. Hyacinthe, an action that will satisfy the depositors.This decision was reached yesterday afternoon during a conference between the St. Hyacinthe directors and the Bank of Montreal management.Today the latter will open a branch in St. Hyacinthe, occupying the premises of the defunct institution.
Heavy advances to the southern counties railway, which went into liquidation, and a steady run caused by the alarm following La Banque de St. Jean suspension were the causes that led to the closing of the St. Hy-acinthe institution. Hon. M. E. Bernier of the railway commission and Senator Desaulles are the heaviest stockholders.

A Day of Picnics at Springbank
River Park Is Very Popular NowLocal People and Outsiders
Enjoy Themselves Down
the River.Springbank Park seems to be coming to the front as the ideal spot for holding picnics in this part of Middlesex. People from all over the country gathered there yesterday, no less than eight picnics being in progress
during the afternoon, to say nothing of innumerable little family parties
who had their suppers by the river bank or under the trees. A great many citizens came down after tea and spent the evening.The park probably never looked prettier, the recent rains having imparted to the trees and shrubs that delightful invigorating green that is so pleasing to the eye.
Many of the older people from St.
Johns, Hyde Park and other places,
who were picnicking there and had not seen Springbank for many years expressed themselves as much surprised at the beautiful appearance of the park.

The Maccabees.

One of the principal picnics of the day was that of a party of Maccabees
made up of the different local lodges,
and some out-of-town visitors.
This party arrived early in the afternoon, and the visitors, especially the children, were delighted to find that London had such a beautiful park.The local Maccabees took them in charge, showing them the reservoir, Byron, the pumphouse and other points of interest.A programme of sports was arranged and carried out on the grounds
west of the ball diamond.
In the standing hop, step and jump,
first prize was won by Mr. C. B. Adkins, and second by Mr. John Ballantine.In the standing broad jump, Mr.
Adkins also won first, and Mr. Ballantine second.The most amusing feature of the programme was a baseball throwing contest in which the ladies took part.
Miss Long, of London, winning first prize and Mrs. Mann, of Aylmer, second.

Prizewinners.

The other prize-winners were:
Men's race, 100 yards—Sir Knight
W. King, Aylmer, 1; Sir Knight C. B.
Adkins, Springfield, 2; Sir Knight
Alex. Wootton, 3.Married ladies' race—Mrs. M. Morrow, 1; Mrs. Bartlett, 2; Mrs. Hutchinson, 3.

Lyon, 1; Mrs. Lyon, 2.
Supper was served in the rear of the pavilion, after which a musical programme was rendered, including numbers by Miss Stewart, of Springfield;
Miss E. Long, Miss M. F. Hewer and Miss M. Hewer. Provincial Commander Trussler, of Camlachie, gave an address of a fraternal nature and the programme was brought to a close by a fancy drill, in which the ladies of the Springfield, Forest City and Aylmer hives took part.

Butchers and Grocers' Picnic.

A large party of the local butchers and grocers spent the afternoon at the park, and made things lively for quite a while by engaging in a keenly contested baseball match.By some good hitting the grocers succeeded in winning out, the score being 9 to 5. Messrs. Russel and Simon were the batteries for the

Hyde Park Methodists.

Early in the afternoon about fifty of the members of the Hyde Park Methodist Sunday School arrived, and spent a most enjoyable time for the rest of the day.Shortly after their arrival they were joined by another party from the Methodist Sunday School of St.
John's.Both churches are under the pas-torship of Rev. John Mayham, who with the assistance of the Sunday school superintendents, arranged many games for the younger people.Many of the adults visited the pumphouse, the reservoir and other points.

Red Men, Too.

In the evening a number of Indians who are picking berries on the farms nearby, picnicked in the park,
many of them taking in the show in the evening.The theater appears very popular.
Manager Stoddart giving the people
their money's worth.

St. Andrew's Sunday School.

The members of the Sunday school orchestra of St. Andrew's Church also held an outing in Springbank Park yesterday afternoon.About forty of the members were present, and an enjoyable time was spent. Baseball and other games were indulged in, but no programme
of sports had been arranged.

Askin Street League.

The Epworth League of the Askin Street Methodist Church held its annual picnic down the river yesterday afternoon and evening.It is estimated that at least 200
members and their friends turned out.
The boys' branch of the institutional department picked teams, and played a very fast game of baseball.A good programme of sports was

THE CRIMSON BLIND

BY FRED M. WHITE

"I don't want to be a premator," he said. "Yes, you'd make a lovely chaplain's pet, but I can't spare you. I'm going to smash that 'ere wily brain of yours, so as it won't be useful any more. I'll teach you to put the marks on a poor chap like myself."

"Merritt, I swear to you that I never—"

"You can swear till you're black in the face, and you can keep on swearing till you're white again, and then it won't be any good. You gave me away to Taylor because you were afraid I should do you harm at Littlemer Castle. That Daisy Bell of a girl there told me so."

Henson groaned. It was not the least part of his humiliation that a mere girl got the better of him in this way. And what on earth had she known of Reuben Taylor? But the fact remained that she had known, and that she had warned Merritt of his danger. It was the one unpardonable crime in Henson's reckoning, the one thing Merritt could not forgive.

Henson's time was come. He did not need anyone to tell him that. Unless something in the nature of a miracle happened, he was a dead man in a few moments. He had never seemed quite so sweet as it tasted at the present time.

breath on his neck. And he was breathing heavily and distressfully himself, while he could hear how steadily Merritt's lungs were working. He could see the lights of Longdon Grange below him; but they seemed a long way off, whilst that steady pursuit behind had something relentless and nerve-destroying about it.

They were pounding through the village now. Henson gave vent to one cry of distress, but nothing came of it but the mocking echo of his own voice from a distant belt of trees. Merritt shot out a short, sneering laugh. He had not expected flagrant cowardice like this. He made a sudden spurt forward and caught Henson by the tail of his coat.

With a howl of fear the latter tore himself away, and Merritt reeled backwards. He came down heavily over a big stone, and at the same moment Henson trod on a hedge-stake. He grabbed it up and half-turned upon his foe. But the sight of Merritt's grin was too much for him, and he turned and resumed his flight once more.

He yelled again as he reached the lodge-gates, but the only response was the barking and howling of the dogs in the thick underwood beyond. There was no help for it. Doubtless the dead old lodge-keeper had been in bed hours ago. Even the dogs were preferable to Merritt. Henson scrambled headlong over the wall and crashed through the thickets beyond.

Merritt pulled up, panting with his exertion.

"Gone to cover," he muttered. "I don't fancy I'll follow. The dogs there might have a weakness for tearing my throat out, and Henson will keep. I'll just hang about here till daylight and wait for my gentleman. And I'll follow him to the end of the earth."

Meanwhile Henson blundered on blindly, fully under the impression that Merritt was still upon his trail. One of the hounds, a puppy three parts grown, rose and playfully pulled at his coat. It was a sheer play, but at the same time it was a terrible handicap, and in his fear, Henson lost all his horror of the dogs.

"Loose, you brute," he panted. "Let go, I say. Very well, take that!"

He paused and brought the heavy stake down full on the dog's muzzle. There was a snarling scream of pain, and the big pup sprang for his assailant. An old, gray hound came and seemed to take in the situation at a glance. He gave a deep growl, he bounded at Henson and caught him by the throat. Before the ponderous impact of that fine free spring Henson went down heavily to the ground.

"Help!" he gurgled. "Help! help!"

The worrying teeth had been firmly fixed, the ponderous weight pressed all the breath from Henson's distressed lungs. He gurgled once again, gave a little shuddering sigh, and the world dwindled to a thick sheet of blinding darkness.

CHAPTER LVII.

Hide-and-Seek.

Bell's professional enthusiasm got the better of his curiosity for the moment. It was a nice physiological problem. Already Steve was impulsively busy in the conservatory pulling the pots down. It was a regretful thing to be sacrificed, David shut his teeth grimly and proceeded with his task.

"What on earth are you doing?" Bell asked, with a smile.

"Pulling the place to pieces," David responded. "I daresay I shall feel pretty sick about it later on, but that thing has to be done. Cut those wires for me, and let those creepers down as tenderly as possible. We can't get the little pots until we have moved the big ones."

Bell coolly declined to do anything of the kind. He surveyed the two graceful banks of flowers there, the carefully trained creepers trailing so naturally and yet so artistically from the roof to the ground, and the sight pleased him.

"My dear chap," he said, "I am not going to sit here and allow you to destroy the work of so many hours. There is not the slightest reason to disturb anything. Unless I am greatly mistaken, Van Sneek will lay his hand upon the ring for us without so much as the sacrifice of a blossom."

"I don't fancy so," Van Sneek replied. "I can't remember."

"Well, you are going to," Bell said, cheerfully. "Did you ever hear of artificial memory?"

"The sort of thing you get in law courts and political speeches?" David suggested. "All the same, if you have some patent way of getting at the facts I shall be only too glad to spare my poor flowers of this garden."

Van Sneek obeyed quietly, remarking that the scent was very pungent. The Dutchman was restless and ill at ease. He seemed to be dissatisfied with himself—he had the air of a man who has set out with two extremely important matters of business, and who has completely forgotten what one of them is.

"You needn't distress yourself," David said, kindly.

"I beg your pardon," Bell said, tartly. "He is to do that very same thing. Mental exercise hurts nobody. Van Sneek is going to worry till he puzzles it out. Will you describe the ring to us?"

UPRISING IN SUMATRA

The Rebellion Alarming in Its Proportions—Three Battles Fought.

The Hague, June 24.—A rebellion has broken out at Padang, on the west coast of Sumatra, which has reached alarming proportions.

According to telegrams from Batavia, Java, almost the whole native population is reported to have risen under the leadership of fanatical priests.

Thirty European settlements are spread over a wide area and there are only 2,400 Dutch soldiers available to defend them.

Three battles have been fought, resulting in considerable loss on both sides.

Preparations are being made to embark all the Dutch women and children from the west coast of Sumatra to places of safety. The dissatisfaction arose over the tax regulations.

FLOWER SHOW IS VERY ATTRACTIVE

Exhibits Are More Beautiful and Numerous Than in the Past.

The flower show held by the Horticultural Society in the city hall was opened last evening with as fine a collection of flowers as has graced any exhibition held by the society.

The hall is well filled, there being but very few empty spaces on the tables.

Last night there was a steady stream of visitors, and all expressed great satisfaction at the display of flowers.

The number of exhibitors is larger than formerly, especially among the amateurs. As the show is particularly to encourage the latter, this fact is the source of much satisfaction to the officers of the society.

The Roses.

Roses make the best showing of any variety. This spring has been particularly good for this beautiful flower, and the result is shown in the exquisite collection at the show.

"It is as fine a showing of roses as I have seen in a long time," said Parks Superintendent Pearce.

Mr. R. Puddicombe has an excellent collection, especially in the reds. Mr. John Stevenson and Mr. C. J. Gamme have splendid lots. Mr. W. W. Gamme shows some really beautiful buds.

An exhibit that attracted a great deal of attention last night was the collection of wild flowers of Professor Bowman. Among the number were some fine specimens of wild orchid, "ladies' slippers," as they are known. They were very pretty. Professor

THE REASON

Why Anderson & Nelles, Our Local Druggists, Continue to Recommend Vinol.

First: Because it is not a patent medicine and it contains besides tonic iron all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach, and retard its work; therefore, wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good.

Second: Because Vinol acts first upon the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, strengthens and tones up the digestive organs, purifies and enriches the blood, and, in a natural manner, restores health and strength.

Third: Because Vinol contains no injurious drugs to rest upon the system; every ingredient being named on the label, a patient knows exactly what he is taking.

Fourth: Because we never sold anything in our store that gave such universal satisfaction for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and to build up the system after a severe sickness, and for relieving hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

Try Vinol on our guarantee. Anderson & Nelles, druggists, 268 Dundas street, first store west of Wellington street. Sign, Big Red Cross. Phone No. 20.

Bowman also had some lilies and other varieties of wild plants.

The Asylum exhibit is a credit to that institution. It is particularly strong in Canterbury bells. "The Asylum is showing the finest collection of Canterbury bells I ever saw," said Mr. Pearce.

There is a strong class of delphiniums on exhibition. The Asylum, Springbank Park, Mr. C. J. Fox and others have some good ones.

Mr. C. J. Fox and Mr. P. H. Good show many foxgloves of much beauty.

Other Exhibits.

Mr. George W. Winterbottom has a grand collection of sweet peas. He has them all properly named, which assists the visitor a great deal in appreciating the exhibit.

Mr. Edgar Jeffrey shows some beautiful English iris, and Dr. A. O. Jeffrey has a fine collection of columbines, a very rare pink flower being one of the best.

The showing of pansies is rather disappointing, very few of this popular little flower being on exhibition.

Among the exhibitors are Messrs. R. W. Puddicombe, C. F. Compin, T. J. Leitch, David Sare, F. H. Good, W. H. F. Bartlett, H. W. Givens, W. W. Gammage, J. Stevenson, W. Moore, James Luttman, Edgar Jeffrey, C. J. Fox, Dr. A. O. Jeffrey, Professor Bowman, J. H. Gramlich, R. A. Jones, W. E. Saunders, George W. Winterbottom, Mrs. A. J. Morgan, Miss E. McMechan, H. V. Smith, London Asylum, water commission, O. Ellwood, R. A. Ross, H. Barty, A. E. Roberts, R. Southam, F. J. Reed, Miss Fleming, Miss Irene Russell and others.

The show is free to all, and is being well patronized.

Such efforts on the part of the Horticultural Society should be well patronized.

The hall is open today from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC RE PRINCE RUPERT.

A notice with the above heading has appeared in the Vancouver World, signed by the Prince Rupert Townsite Company, 43 Fairfield Building, Vancouver. A statement is therein made that their property is the original and only legal Prince Rupert, and the railway company own 4,000 to 5,000 acres of arable land immediately surrounding the same.

The above statement is misleading and incorrect as the only townsites registered are: South Prince Rupert, owned, it is understood, by the company who signed the above warning, and the townsite of Prince Rupert at the terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, situated at the north-west portion of Kaien Island. The distance between these two townsites is over eleven miles, and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company is not in any way interested in South Prince Rupert, nor is it the intention to have a station at that place.

East Prince Rupert, so-called in various reports which have appeared in the press, is not registered; the sub-division referred to is situated over 16 miles from the terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway and is not on the line of that railway.

The Prince Rupert at the terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is now being surveyed, and it is expected the lots will be placed in the market in September or October next, due notice of which will appear in the public press.

Any further information the public may require can be obtained by addressing the Land Commissioner of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway at Winnipeg.

LONDON PASTOR WAS HONORED

Rev. James B. Freeman and Wife
Tendered a Farewell Reception.

Richmond Street Methodist Parsonage was filled Tuesday with a host of friends and admirers of Rev. J. B. and Mrs. Freeman, on the occasion of a farewell reception, and presentation to them before their departure for their new field of labor.

After the guests had assembled a pleasing musical programme was rendered, and lunch was served, consisting of ice cream, lemonade, cakes and sandwiches. On conclusion of this, Mr. John Belch, president of the league, stepped forward, and on behalf of the league and young people of the church, read an address of appreciation of both Mr. and Mrs. Freeman, and Miss Edith Nelson and Miss Grace Holt presented Mr. Freeman with a beautiful silk, gold-headed umbrella. Mr. Freeman replied, speaking of the great interest he had always felt in the young people and of the great help they had been to him in the church.

After the presentation to Mr. Freeman, Miss Florence Barnes read an address, in behalf of the choir, to Mrs. Freeman, referring to her work as organist, teacher in the Sunday school, help in the missionary cause and other departments of church work. Mrs. Mary and Miss Tilly Le Monte then presented Mrs. Freeman with a handsome morocco shopping bag, to which Mrs. Freeman replied in a very feeling manner.

After these presentations to Mr. and Mrs. Freeman separately by the league and choir, Mrs. Theodore Gelsler, in behalf of the Ladies' Aid, and Mr. Hugh Young, as the oldest member of the congregation, came forward, and while Mrs. Gelsler read an address, Mr. Young presented the pastor and his wife with a purse containing $66. Both Mr. and Mrs. Freeman were greatly affected by the splendid testimony of the love and esteem of their people, and they said that they could never forget their great kindness, and it would ever prove an uplift and inspiration to them in their work for the Master. In all their ministry they had never met with truer and nobler co-workers in the Master's vineyard.

Mr. Freeman has been in London three years, and during that time has been eminently successful in his own work, and has also shown a commendable public spirit, especially in charitable work, and open air meetings. His departure will be a loss to the city as well as to his own denomination.

Rev. James B. Freeman, M.A., B.D.: Dear Pastor and Family.—It is with feelings of deepest sorrow and regret that we, the members and adherents of Richmond Street congregation, have met together this evening to say farewell to you as our pastor and spiritual adviser, for the past three years.

During that time you have gone in and out among us as a true follower of our Lord and Master, and as a faithful servant of the Methodist Church. As a pastor you have been a careful and constant visitor to our houses, ministering to the sick and the afflicted, the poor and the needy, the tried and the tempted, and by your prayers and sympathies at the sick bed and with the dying, you have left behind you many sweet and hallowed memories.

As a preacher we feel that we have been greatly favored in being privileged to listen to one who has had the best training that the Methodist Church can give its ministers, yet learned, yet simple, discourses of divine truth being always found an uplift and an inspiration to us.

As a leader and administrator of the affairs of the church, while you have been kind and forbearing, you have been faithful and firm, ever true to your calling and your trust.

Under your wise care the finances of the church have prospered as never before. Each year of your ministry showing a splendid advance over the preceding, while the fine new parsonage is a last big tribute to your energy and perseverance.

And while you have thus looked after our own interest you have always maintained the most cordial relations with sister denominations. In all these spheres of labor we would not forget the untiring zeal and noble self-sacrifice of your faithful helpmeet, whose services in the choir, in the Sunday school, week-end meetings, and missionary cause, have been invaluable to us.

It was our earnest desire and expectation that you would remain with us another year and fill out your full term, and we cannot but feel that a great wrong has been done both to you and to us, by the board of the First Church in inviting another man, before your term had expired. We can only hope that a kind Providence will overrule all for good, and that in your new field, a larger opportunity will be afforded for the exercise of your superior talent and untiring zeal.

In conclusion, please accept the purse of money, not in any degree, as a measure of our regard for you, but only as a poor token of the love and esteem to which you and your beloved family will ever be held by us.

Signed in behalf of the Ladies' Aid, Mrs. Jack Barnes, president.

On behalf of the congregation, Hugh Young, oldest member; Thos. Gillson, choir leader.

BASELES CHARGES OF THE OPPOSITION

In Regard to the Furnishing of Supplies To Government Departments.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, June 24.—The transactions of L. S. Macoun, son-in-law of Sir Frederick Borden, in connection with the furnishing of supplies to the militia and railway departments, were again threshed out in the public accounts committee this morning. The evidence this morning emphasized the fact that the relationship of Mr. Macoun to the Minister of Militia was the only basis for the wild charges of Opposition members that the former was making undue profits out of sales made to the Government.

This morning he was questioned at considerable length by Mr. Crockett as to supplies sold to the Intercolonial Railway, with the result that in one year it was shown that he had made a total profit of only $22 74 on all goods supplied. Then there was a long series of questions as to the sale of the transaction had to do with millions of dollars, so determined was Mr. Crockett apparently to get at the bottom of the transaction. But Macoun's evidence and the verities produced narrowed the transaction down to comparatively few dozens, and showed that the witness narrowly escaped making 61 cents profit on it. In the end, however, there was a net total loss to him of a few cents.

The supply of copper to the Dominion arsenal at Quebec was once more taken up, and the witness showed that on this transaction, involving $75,000, his profit was only $217, he having taken all risks, having to pay freight to Quebec. It was once more emphasized in the evidence brought out by Mr. A. K. Maclean that Macoun's quotations to the departments for goods are prices given him by the firms whose agent he is, and that these firms quite frequently quote prices to the departments direct, allowing him commission on sales. The sales made through himself or direct by firms to the Government were equally as cheap as the latter. He was not a middleman, but a manufacturer's agent.

When concluding his examination, Macoun said he had other statements as to profits that he was prepared to put in if the committee desired. He did not want to be paraded around as a get-rich-quick man, which some "scurrilous yellow press" (claiming an evening paper in Toronto, and papers in Halifax, Calgary and St. John, N. B.) were trying to make him appear. The thing had got to such a pass, and he was being so caricatured that he had even been compelled to change his hat.

Finally he was informed that the committee was through with him and "honorably discharged," he said as he left the stand.

W. C. T. U. PASSES RESOLUTIONS

Regarding the Liquor Traffic, Camp Removal, Women's Rights, etc.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of this city held its regular semi-monthly session, and in addition to much interesting business disposed of, the following subjects were discussed and resolutions passed: "The cigarette contention having proved in five of our provinces that age-limit laws are practically valueless, resolved, that we consider the cigarette law just passed by the Dominion Government no response whatever to our appeal for help in the fight against this modern curse of the young; for if a provincially enacted regulation cannot be enforced, much less can that brought into being by an outside body, having no machinery, whereby it can compel the citizen to observe it."

Press Superintendent, W.C.T.U. STARTED BY A CANDLE

Mines That Were Set on Fire in 1899 Are Still Burning

Butte, Mont., June 24.—General Manager Gillette, of the Amalgamated Copper Company properties, has issued an official statement concerning the fires in the Anaconda and St. Lawrence mines, regarding statements which were sent out from this city yesterday.

Mr. Gillette says that the blaze, which has been raging continuously since 1899, is no worse than it has been several times before, and that there is nothing alarming in the situation.

The fire is supposed to have been started from a miner's candle. For nine years it has fed on the timbers of that part to which it has been confined, spreading slowly. The sulphur in the ores also tends fuel to the smoldering flames.

DIED AT 105 YEARS.
Rochester, N. Y., June 24.—Mrs. Mary Dean, aged 105 years, died at her home in Brockport yesterday. She was born on Dec. 20, 1802, on the coast of New Jersey. For about 100 years she smoked a pipe every day. Two years ago burglars tried to rob Mrs. Dean's house, but she hurled a lighted lamp at the robbers and frightened them away.

Removal of the Military Camp.
"While a section of the military men of this country have steadily countenanced the violation of the canteen regulations for the summer camps of instruction, by refusing to aid in their enforcement, and by loudly denouncing them, we were not prepared to find the department at Ottawa seconding this determination to escape the espionage of the Temperance people by removing to Godrich, at the officers' request, and, according to their statement, on this plea, the camp formerly held at London."

"Canada is not Russia, nor even Germany. Our soldiers are as amenable to law as our civilians, and it will be a sorry day for this country when such is not the case."

"There is no more reason for a canteen at the London barracks than at

"Resolved that we call upon our Dominion Government to so reorganize the military service as to bring it into line with the advancing temperance thought of this new century."

Women's Franchise.
"We recommend that every Woman's Christian Temperance Union give special attention to this topic."

"Every year deepens our sense of the injustice of forcing a woman to pay taxes and denying her the right to a vote in the election of those who dispose of these taxes, and of insisting that she shall obey laws that she, with the minor, the idiot and the criminal, had not the remotest hand in making. Every year also adds its testimony to the mass already accumulated, proving that the beautiful and supposedly powerful influence of woman—about which our lawmakers have so much to say whenever we want something tangible—is as light as vanity in comparison to the much-longed-for ballot. Nothing has more pointedly illustrated this fact than the cigarette campaign."

Mines That Were Set on Fire in 1899 Are Still Burning

Butte, Mont., June 24.—General Manager Gillette, of the Amalgamated Copper Company properties, has issued an official statement concerning the fires in the Anaconda and St. Lawrence mines, regarding statements which were sent out from this city yesterday.

Mr. Gillette says that the blaze, which has been raging continuously since 1899, is no worse than it has been several times before, and that there is nothing alarming in the situation.

The fire is supposed to have been started from a miner's candle. For nine years it has fed on the timbers of that part to which it has been confined, spreading slowly. The sulphur in the ores also tends fuel to the smoldering flames.

DIED AT 105 YEARS.
Rochester, N. Y., June 24.—Mrs. Mary Dean, aged 105 years, died at her home in Brockport yesterday. She was born on Dec. 20, 1802, on the coast of New Jersey. For about 100 years she smoked a pipe every day. Two years ago burglars tried to rob Mrs. Dean's house, but she hurled a lighted lamp at the robbers and frightened them away.

Removal of the Military Camp.
"While a section of the military men of this country have steadily countenanced the violation of the canteen regulations for the summer camps of instruction, by refusing to aid in their enforcement, and by loudly denouncing them, we were not prepared to find the department at Ottawa seconding this determination to escape the espionage of the Temperance people by removing to Godrich, at the officers' request, and, according to their statement, on this plea, the camp formerly held at London."

"Canada is not Russia, nor even Germany. Our soldiers are as amenable to law as our civilians, and it will be a sorry day for this country when such is not the case."

"There is no more reason for a canteen at the London barracks than at

Gas is liable to puff out of the front door of any furnace unprovided for gas escape.

"Sunshine" Furnace has Automatic Gas Damper directly connected with smoke-pipe. Gas pressure sways damper sufficiently for it to escape up chimney (see illustration), but heat doesn't escape.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" Furnace? Means protection to the furnace parts against evil effects of gas.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" household? Means furnace can be operated without fear as to "puffing" gas; furnace can be left without doubt as to whereabouts of gas.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" coal account? It means, instead of owner with "ordinary furnace" fear having to keep check-draft indefinitely closed to "let off" gas—when there's two-thirds parts of heat-energy to one part of gas passing up chimney—draft can with all safety be opened, and coal saved for another day's duty.

St. Thomas, June 25.—London took revenge on the Saints in yesterday's game, defeating the locals 5 to 3. Sterling was on the rubber for St. Thomas, and Payne for London, the latter having the better of the argument. His control was good, and he was particularly effective in tight places. London scored three runs in the first, three in the second, and two in the third, being responsible. In the fifth Keenan scored on a wild throw by Allan to the home plate. Another tally was made in the seventh, Jeffries hit scoring Zenger, who got to first on a pass and stole second. The score:

Robinson Has Another Field DayGreat Going at the Matinee Races—Largest Crowd of Season Present.

Despite the fact that a number of local horsemen were at St. Thomas yesterday, and that the fields at Queen's Park were rather small, the matinee races were fast and interesting.

Will Robinson had another field day, plotting two winners, and coming in third in the last event on the card.

Owing to the lack of entries, Billy D., J. Darch's entry, was moved up a class.

Best of the Day.

The Class III race was the best of the day, and in fact no better contest has been seen here this summer.

Dr. Hughson's speedy Bobby Burns looked to have a walkaway in this event, but the veteran James McCartney pulled off a surprise package on the doctor in the second heat, winning hands down, after one of the nearest drives shown at the park in a long time.

On London Bowling Club GreensStratford Trundlers Entertained
By London Devotees of the Great Summer Game.

The London Bowling Club entertained the Stratford trundlers here yesterday, and incidentally defeated the visitors by 13 shots. The bowling was good.

The best battle of the afternoon was between the famous old bowlers, Ned Waddell and Tru. Both skippers were in good form, and were well assisted by their leads. When the time limit had expired the two skippers found their scores equal, with 29 points each.

Dr. "Jeff" Was There.

Dr. Jeff Wood was there with a good rink, and won from Skip Steele, of Stratford, by a fair margin. He was ably assisted in his defeat by Frank Love, Alex. Gillean and Andy Scott. Skip Steele made "Jeff" hustle. In the last end he drew a beautiful shot into a whole cluster of Wood's shots, cutting off six, but falling by a narrow margin to get the counter. It was good work.

Skip Frame Won.

for Tigers—Mullin Pitches Fair Ball.

Detroit, June 24.—Waddell had the satisfaction of again beating the Tigers after a long, long lay-off in his former pastime. There was a day when the Rube could always beat them, but this time passed and now it is a rare occasion. Yesterday he had it on them again. While the Tigers made seven hits, the Reuben one had them scattered and they could do nothing. Mullin on the other hand was easy for the Browns, being touched up often. The men of McAleer brought home seven runs, while Waddell permitted Detroit to have but one.

One Bad Session.

One awful first inning put the Tigers in wrong and they never got over it. Hoffman hit the first ball pitched by Mullin for a single over third. He was forced by Hartzell. Williams hit a screeching liner to right that Cobb sprinted for and got his hands on it, but it got away from him and Hoffman scored, Williams moving over. Wallace banged one down third base line and Williams scored. Schweitzer followed with another through short and after Tom Jones had advanced them by his out, Ferris scored them both by a smash to center. Waddell, a weak hitter, was fanned, ending the slaughter.

CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

BY SOUTHPAW

Each week some man, of all the men I know, and like, says "Lend me ten." I give it him, and sadly say, "I lose another friend today!"

POPULAR JACK MCHUGH has gone the way of Glanville and Klineck. In other words, he has been released from the London team. The reason given by the local management is that Jack was not in shape. The move will hardly be received with joy by local fans, for the big fellow appeared to be as fast as the average International League player.

THIS SPORTY "LIFE" IS SUMTHIN' fierce. One day it is the Times which is camped on our trail. The next day the Spec. jolts us in the region of the wind-tank. Now the Hamilton Herald is amusing itself.

The following is the latest offering from the city of Tigers and mountains:

"Our friend, Harry Meyer, of the London Advertiser, is glad that the races are over in Hamilton. Looks as though a man can be hung safely on a hard 12 miles away as he can at the track.

"Judging by the way the London papers speak of the Hamilton races, some of the scribbles up there must have been the work of Julia Genterberger."

PRIZES FOR THE Dominion Day regatta will be played on the exhibition in Ward's jewelry store today. The local oarsmen are working faithfully to get into trim, and the time for the various events, especially the fours, should be the fastest yet.

AS A LONG-DISTANCE CRITIC, the Hamilton Spec. says the artist is entitled to everything in the dough factory. He offers criticism of events which transpire in London, Ontario, England, and the Transvaal, with an abundance that, to say the least, is amusing.

AND LIKE SHERLOCK HOLMES, he is always deducting something that no one else would ever dream of figuring.

BRIGHTON STAKES OFF

Almost $200,000 in Big Purse Is Thus Wiped Out.

New York, June 25.—The Brighton Beach Racing Association has decided to cancel all of its stake events for this year. The purses for these events amount to nearly $200,000. This action was made necessary, it is said, by the great decline in the daily attendance at the racetracks since the anti-betting laws went into effect.

The midsummer meeting of 22 days will be held at Brighton Beach, as planned, with over-night sweepstakes to take the place of the stakes.

Jockey Club Will Censor Reports.

Spanish Naval Vessel at Havana First One To Arrive Since Late War

Event Hailed With Delight By Spanish Colony—Unique Demonstration.

Havana, June 25.—The schooner Nautilus, the first Spanish naval vessel to enter a Cuban port since the relinquishment of Spanish sovereignty over the island, came into the harbor of Havana yesterday and was hailed with enthusiastic expressions of delight by the entire Spanish colony of the city, many thousands of Cubans joining in the demonstration.

inal Cuban flag which replaced the Stars and Stripes on the birth of the Cuban republic on May 20, 1902.

Doves of Peace.
As the Nautilus came abreast the historic fortress, for centuries the emblem of Spanish domination, she broke out a single-starred flag at her main mast, thundering forth a national salute. At the same moment was released from the committee steamer of the Spanish colony a flock consisting of scores of white doves. Attached to their tails were streamers of crimson and gold which swung in the air as the birds flew hither and thither in the smoke of the cannon. Some of them took refuge on the yard arms and rigging of the ship. Surrounded by the escorting fleet, the Nautilus slowly passed Habana, whose batteries returned her salute and proceeded to her anchorage in the harbor within a few hundred yards of the wreck of the Maine.

Extensive preparations are under way for the entertainment of the visitors who will remain here for about ten days, during which time the city will be en fête.

Mr. McCallum Will Be Reappointed

The new law governing the sale and inspection of bread will go into force on July 1.

As the new act will invalidate the one at present in force, a bylaw will have to be brought in at the next meeting of the city council to reappoint the present inspector, or appoint a new man to the position.

It is the opinion that Inspector McCallum will be reappointed for the position, as his work has been eminently successful.

In Toronto Medical Health Officer Sheard has been appointed as inspector of bread.

The programme yesterday was an event for prizes, and a team shoot. The long-delayed match was also expected to have been shot off, but something went wrong in the words of that famous song, "somebody lied."

The team shoot between teams captained by Day and Glover, was won by the Day team. One of Glover's men got won right.

In the prize event the first was won by Clinger, Parker second and Day third.

Big Grist of Cases at Delaware Court

A number of London lawyers attended a sitting of the Delaware division court yesterday. The sitting was the biggest one that has been held at Delaware in some time. Judge Edward Elliott, of London, presided.

One of the most interesting cases set down was an appeal by Mr. John Williamson, a Caradoc farmer, from the award of some London fence views. Some fifty years ago Mr. Williamson's father gave to the township of Caradoc a strip of land at one end of his farm, to be used as a road.

About a month ago the owner of the property on the opposite side of the road asked that Mr. Williamson be compelled to assist in building and maintaining a fence between the petitioner's property and the road mentioned. The viewers decided that Mr. Williamson should bear a portion of the expense of building the fence.

But Judge Elliott decided that Mr. Williamson could not be held responsible for the fence, for the reason that the road had long since become township property and was no part of his farm.

Mr. John Macpherson, of London, appeared for Mr. Williamson.

Other London attorneys who attended the court were Mr. J. C. Judd, Mr. E. W. Scatcherd and Mr. Alex. Stuart.

Mr. Turfitt, "I did not say that hon. gentleman knew that what he said was absolutely untrue and false, but I think I might have gone as far as that."

Mr. Speaker ruled that such a suggestion should not be made, and it was withdrawn. Finally, Mr. Turfitt concluded with the statement that he had grown quite used to misrepresentations on the part of Mr. Foster, and he knew now not to expect anything in the way of fairness from the honorable gentleman. The statements made by that member, and which he complained of, were, he reiterated, absolutely false. It was an outrage against the honor of Mr. Foster, and when Mr. Foster had found these statements were false he should continue to send out the speech containing them. He was surprised that the leader of the Opposition, who was a somewhat different character, and of a somewhat different character, than the member from North Toronto, should allow that speech to go out on a campaign literature. (Liberal cheers.)

HOLLAND'S CLAIM ON VENEZUELA

Two Sloops Stopped By Shots and Detained at Curacao.

London, June 25.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent at The Hague learns that Holland has made a claim against Venezuela for redress for the seizure of Dutch ships and mails. A recent dispatch from Willemstad stated that two Dutch sloops plying between Aruba, a Dutch island near the coast of Venezuela and Curacao, were detained by a Venezuelan coast-guard vessel on the high seas off La Vaia de Coro, a seaport of Venezuela. The sloops were stopped by shots from the Venezuelan vessel and forced to go to Curacao, where they were detained for two days. All letters, the dispatch stated, "except those in mail bags on board the sloops, were retained by the Venezuelan authorities."

BREEZY TIME IN THE HOUSE

Mr. Telford Scores Mr. Foster
in Connection With His Campaign Roorbachs.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, June 25.—Before the Commons got down to work this morning an hour was spent with "motions of privilege" raised by Mr. Telford and Mr. Turfitt, who called attention to the misrepresentations being circulated in Tory campaign literature. Mr. Telford called attention to 405 resolutions, which were church organizations, women's Christian temperance unions, and similar bodies, recommending the passing of an act relative to the use of cigarettes by youths, and which was passed yesterday. He had understood that Mr. Turfitt had made use of by the Opposition press and speakers, and recently referred to in the House, the effect of which was that the registrar of North Grey had spoiled ballots in a provincial election. That was a falsehood, he declared. Opposition members raised points of order, and the speaker ruled that Mr. Telford could not discuss the matter. Mr. Telford, however, managed to utter the statement that was untrue. "The court," he said, "is a judge, and the ninth commandment, 'thou shalt not bear false witness,' is against the statement." (Laughter.) Mr. Turfitt, on question of privileges, said his attention had just been drawn to the statements in a speech delivered by Hon. George Foster on Feb. 6, 1908, of which were now being franked from the House of Commons (Liberal cheers) and being sent all over the country. That speech contained statements respecting himself (Turfitt) that were absolutely false (Liberal cheers). That was shown by the evidence on the timber lease matters given before the public accounts committee and by Mr. Turfitt's statements in the House.

At this point there followed considerable cross-firing, resulting in more or less confusion and disorder over the point raised by Mr. Foster, that Mr. Turfitt had declared that the member for North Toronto knew when he made the statements that they were false.

Mr. Turfitt: "I did not say that hon. gentleman knew that what he said was absolutely untrue and false, but I think I might have gone as far as that."

Mr. Speaker ruled that such a suggestion should not be made, and it was withdrawn. ## MARKET REPORTS

[Special from Harris, Winthrop & Co., New York, June 25.—The action of market this morning has reflected clearly the over-sold state which existed. There was really no aggressive buying in any quarter, the volume of business being very light. On the scarcity of stock was attributed largely the firmness and improvement of prices displayed during the forenoon. There was very little of interest in outside news. Sale, 178,200.

VETERANS' FLOAT IN PROCESSION

Will Take Prominent Part in the Old Boys' Celebration.

At the meeting of the Veteran Firemen's Association in the Oddfellows' Hall last night, it was decided to take over a float in the Mardi Gras celebration, and decorate it for the occasion befitting the history and achievements of the veterans.

The details of the arrangements will be worked out in the meantime, and will be presented at the meeting of the association on Tuesday evening next in the city hall. The idea of the veterans taking over the float was accepted with enthusiasm, and the opinion was expressed that the old-time fire-fighters would make as good a showing as any association in the parade.

The question of uniforms was also discussed, and a report will be made at the next meeting regarding the cost, and other details.

Mr. Walter Fairbairn reported that the Grand Trunk officials had been interviewed for the purpose of securing the old-time engine used by the veterans many years ago, and the company had agreed to allow the association to have the engine for the week.

It was decided to hold a meeting next Tuesday evening to discuss ways and means of raising funds for the celebration. Every veteran is requested to be present. The meeting will be held in the city hall.

Mr. Fairbairn acted as chairman. There was a good attendance of members.
