KRAFCHENKO WILL GO TO THE GALLOWES

End of a Long and Sensational Trial in Western Canada.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] MORDEN, Man., April 11.—Three months from last Thursday, on July 9, John Krafchenko is to be hanged at Winnipeg, for the murder, on Dec. 3, of last year of H. M. Arnold, manager of the Bank of Montreal, at Plum Coulee, Man. The close of a long and sensational trial came at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, when the court met after a two-hour intermission, which followed the jury's verdict of guilty. When the court resumed Krafchenko made a statement to the court, in which he did not deny that he had been connected in the hold-up of the bank, but in which he asserted positively that he was not the man who killed Arnold. Then Chief Justice Mathers imposed sentence. From the moment of the reading of all, the prisoner preserved the same steady attitude and he showed little or no emotion even when the death penalty was pronounced.

Maintains Innocence.

The prisoner said: "I am positive there were three different men connected with the crime, and gentlemen of the jury, I was not the man who shot Arnold. The Chief of police of the City of Winnipeg, Chief McPherson, might tell you a little story if he liked, if he was not so afraid of losing his position. I worked under him two or three different times. He wanted me to be a stool-pigeon, and I would not stand for it. But when a man's life is at stake, I did not think a man like the chief of police would have acted as he has done. I think, your lordship, that in that quarter, there is need for a little investigation."

Evidence Led Verdict.

The prisoner remained standing and his lordship said gravely: "John Krafchenko, you have been found guilty of wilful murder by the judgment of your peers, upon evidence which amply justified the verdict, and I pronounce the extreme penalty of the law. The evidence, with my charge, will be forwarded to the secretary of state at Ottawa, to be considered by the governor-general in open council at Ottawa. When action will be taken I am unable to say. At the same time I want to avoid holding out false hopes over what action will be taken."

This ended one of the longest trials known in Western Canada, a trial which opened on March 18 and ended on April 9.

FEAST OF THE PASSOVER OPENED AT SUNSET

Eight Days Celebration Begins—Ancient Customs of Hebrews.

The setting of the sun last evening synchronized the advent of the festival of Passover (Pesach), which is observed by Hebrews in commemoration of their ancestors being delivered, by the means of the Ten Plagues, from their bondage to Pharaoh. The past weeks have been busy ones for the Jewish people, for they have been "spring-cleaning" preparatory to this holiday, and by noon must expurge all "chometz" or commodities of every-day use from their homes, as it is imperative in orthodox families that everything must be strictly kosher.

In families where the first-born is a male it is customary for him to "fast" for a half day in commemoration of the slaying of the male first-born of the Egyptians, the final plague, which eventually compassed their deliverance. A pretty ceremony is the "Seder" service conducted in the homes around a table bearing articles symbolic reminders of the hardships experienced by their forefathers. The duration of the festival is eight days, during which time "matza" or unleavened bread replaces bread as the staple food.

EDUCATED AT OXFORD.

NEW YORK, April 11.—A cable from London to The New York American says: To the ever-growing number of Oriental royalties who have been educated at Oxford or Cambridge of recent years, will shortly have to be added a most interesting figure. This is the crown prince of Japan, who is to be sent to Oxford after the summer vacation. There are already two sons of the King of Siam at Oxford.

Admiralty Confronted With German Eipronage

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW YORK, April 11.—A London cable to The Tribune says: The British naval authorities are at this moment confronted with a position made peculiarly difficult by an "unprincipled system of espionage on the part of Germany," which is being engineered just now with great activity. The system embraces an effort to take advantage of the known difficulties under which many British officers labor on account of the smallness of their pay by procuring under the guise of commercial enquiries such information of the financial status of individual naval officers as will guide German agents to the means of placing temptations in their way.

Quite recently the British naval authorities received information from a firm of London private detectives which has convinced English government enquiries at times has been entrusted by an ostensible German commercial enquirer with a mission of the kind mentioned, and but for the fact that the suspicions were aroused the information requested might have been innocently supplied.

MAY STEWART SCREAMER TOO

Magistrate Throws Up Hands at Ball of Paper Thrown.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, April 11.—May Stewart, the militant suffragette who a case of valuable porcelain in the British museum on April 9, created such a disturbance when charged to-day that the police magistrate was compelled to adjourn the trial.

On the public prosecutor opening the case against her, Miss Stewart shouted, "I have not come here to listen to you to-day."

The magistrate remonstrated with the prisoner but she declared she would not desist so long as Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was being "tortured" under the cat and mouse act—the devilish work of Reginald McKenna.

The real name of the ball of paper at the magistrate upon which he and the public prosecutor gave up in despair, and ordered the hearing to be postponed.

"May Stewart" was later in the day identified as Catherine Wilson, who was arrested on April 9, 1913, in the lobby of the House of Commons. She was then dressed in men's clothing and carried a concealed dog whip and was sentenced to six weeks' hard labor as a suspected picketer.

The real name of the prisoner is understood to be Clara Lambert and she is an organizer for the Women's Social and Political Union and was convicted of suffrage outrages on several occasions.

THE PURE GAS BILL WILL BE PASSED SAYS MAYOR SPENCE

Believed That W.S. Brewster Has Put Up Winning Fight at Toronto.

"It looks as if we will get the gas bill through the Private Bills committee and if it gets through committee it will go through the House and be adopted," declared Mayor Spence to-day. The bill which was introduced by Mr. W. S. Brewster and which aims to make the company supply pure gas was considered Thursday afternoon and was supported by a strong deputa-tion including Mayor Spence, City Solicitor Henderson, Jld. Pitcher, Robinson and Messrs. Fred Mann and A. B. Burnley. The bill was laid over until next Wednesday and a strong fight is being put up against it by the gas interests.

Mayor Spence to-day complimented Mr. Brewster on the fight he is putting up to get the sulphur nuisance eliminated in this way. "I believe it will be a winning fight," said the mayor.

MORE BILL BOARDS

Movement on Foot to Erect Hundred or So in the City.

That new billboards have been erected in the city without permits from the proper authorities and that it is proposed to increase the billboard nuisance in the city to the extent of 100 or more new boards, was the statement made by a member of the City Council to-day. The regulation of bill boards comes under the building by-law and it is said that the by-law has not been enforced in this respect. Whether the restriction will be removed so as to allow the construction of new boards will be a matter for the council. There is said to be a strong feeling against the proposal and in all likelihood the park commission, who have ideas for the city beautification will vigorously object.

Fine Start In the West

Saskatchewan Farmer Says Ground Conditions For Seeding Are Excellent.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] SASKATOON, Sask., April 11.—Hon. W. C. Sutherland, one of the best known farmers in the province, began to-day barrowing on his large farm here and expects to seed 650 acres to wheat about April 15. He expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the condition of the seed bed, saying the cold weather of the past two weeks had caused the moisture to sink well into the ground, and in consequence the loss of moisture by the surplus water drying up or running away was at a minimum this spring. "A good start is very important in the west," he said, "and this year we have one of the best."

TERM IS EXTENDED

Colonel Fraser of Burford Will Continue in Command of the Second Dragoons.

Lieut. Col. J. Z. Fraser, of Burford, one of the best cavalry officers in the country, has had his active term extended until August 1, 1915, by military orders of recent date. Col. Fraser will continue in his command of the Second Dragoons. Thomas R. Sloan and P. P. Powis have been named as provisional lieutenants.

Under the orders issued, Norman Virtue and Alan Mair Jackson, are also made provisional lieutenants in the 26th Brant Dragoons.

THIEVES SET FIRE TO PLACE TO COVER UP

Incendiaries at Work on Rawdon Street Last Night.

Thieves are at the present time in active operation in Brantford. Last night the small provision store of Mr. Alfred Taque, 324 Rawdon St. was entered and about four or five dollars worth of goods taken. Not content with plundering the contents of the place the deprecators proceeded to destroy all traces of their work by setting fire to the establishment. When Mr. Taque arrived at his shop this morning, he noticed that it was smoking thickly and he found that it had been soaked with paraffin, which had been set alight. A cupboard in the back apartment, had been burnt out, but fortunately, the rest of the small building did not take fire. Damage estimated at $40 was done. The work was apparently that of two amateurs, who entered by a lobby window, which was smashed. Footprints denoted two intruders, apparently well aware of the actions of the proprietor, for they did not attempt to trifle with an empty till. A pile of tobacco and cigarettes were untouched and the only things taken were eatables, which would suggest that the thieves were out-of-work. The attempt to hide a minor crime by committing a much more serious one of a glaring character, lends colour to the supposition that the looters rank amateurs. Investigations are being made.

Amunition is Seized on Ships

NEW YORK, April 11.—A Dublin cable to the New York Times says:

The 10,000 rounds of ammunition, believed to have been intended for Ulstermen, which were seized Tuesday night at Kingstown on the arrival of the steamer Anglia from Holyhead, are still in the custody of the local customs officers. It is ordinary sporting ammunition and said to be of American manufacture. The authorities refuse to say who were the consignors of consignees.

PAINTERS ARE CONFIDENT OF WINNING OUT

No Word Has Been Received From Headquarters—Situation as Seen by Men.

The Painters of the city have not yet heard from headquarters with regard to their proposed strike, but already some good has been affected. Messrs. Ballantyne and Chave have increased the wages of their men appreciably though not quite to the extent asked for by men of the union. This is looked upon as a very good sign. The statement of some of the masters that if the local painters' strike their places will soon be filled is ridiculed by the men who claim to have the best mechanics of the city in their union. These men are irreplaceable as far as Brantford is concerned, and could not be got on short notice. The split between the master painters and the men is said to concern principally one painter who holds out from the rest.

A Good Prospect

A Courier representative who spoke to a number of farmers in the city to-day in reference to the crop prospects, was informed that they were excellent in the County of Brant. The Fall wheat is in splendid condition. There are few, if any, reports of winter killing.

Canadians Invading New York At Easter

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW YORK, April 11.—That New York is the Easter mecca of fashion for the people of Canada is apparent again this year, for the city is being invaded by ten thousand persons from all parts of the Dominion. In the restaurants last night the most popular air played by the orchestras was "The Maple Leaf Forever," while the red ensign of Canada hung side by side with the stars and stripes.

The visitors for the most part were women, who came to see and purchase of the wealth of fashionable attire, which only the metropolitan modistes and milliners have to offer. As the several special trains arrived and the thousands scattered to the hotels, residential arrangements were hurriedly completed, after which the women went to the shopping districts.

Their rosy complexions and athletic bearing revealed the nationality of the Canadian girls. Their appearance told of life in the open, and the brisk winter exercise on the ice which they have just relinquished to make their trip to New York.

From Toronto, Montreal, Hamilton, Ottawa, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and even far Alberta they came. Statesmen, professional men, business men and merchants with their wives and families arrived by the hundreds to see New York in her Easter finery.

LAST HOUR ATTEMPT TO SAVE GUNMEN

Motion For a New Trial Will be Heard Before Judge Goff.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW YORK, April 11.—Relatives and friends of the four gunmen sentenced to die in the electric chair early Monday morning for the murder of the gambler Rosenthal, and the convicted men themselves to-day based their hopes for a respite on the hearing which began at noon before Justice Goff on a motion for a new trial.

It is doubtful if the hearing before Justice Goff can be concluded to-day, in which event it is expected that District Attorney Whitman will join with counsel for the gunmen in requesting Governor Glynn to grant a respite. Unless such results are received by Warden Clancy of Sing Sing prison before the time set for the execution of the four men, he has made it plain that the program for carrying out the mandates of the courts will be followed.

Warden Clancy stated his position in a reply to a request from Charles G. F. Wable, counsel for the gunmen, that the executions be postponed until Thursday to provide against the contingency of having to continue the arguments on the motion for a new trial beyond to-day.

Until word of the eleventh hour fight being made in the courts was carried to the men in the death house at Sing Sing late last night, the four gunmen were preparing for death. The news caused them to rejoice, each showed that he expected an hour-a-postponement of the execution day. At first the men refused to believe that a hope remained for them to escape the electric chair, but as the meaning of the news brought to them by Warden Clancy was explained, they became more cheerful.

The evidence upon which Mr. Wable bases his motion for a new trial came to him only yesterday. W. E. Burwell, of Waterbury, Conn., a pool and billiard player, swore to an affidavit that he saw the murder of Rosenthal; that he saw the man who shot the gambler and that this man was not one of the four gunmen. Burwell declared that he could identify the murderer if he could see him again.

Carl Dresner, a bartender, is the other witness upon whom Mr. Wable relies to make good his motion for a new trial. Dresner swore in an affidavit that he had previously known Jack Rose, Bridgie Webber, Harry Vallon and Sam Schepps and Herman Rosenthal. On the morning of the murder Dresner swore that he saw Vallon and Webber in the grey car as it was leaving the scene of the murder, and Schepps was standing on the running board. Burwell and Dresner must appear before Justice Goff to-day; they will be cross-examined by District Attorney Whitman or his assistants, and their testimony will be a matter of argument. If Justice Goff decided that the testimony of the two new witnesses open a fresh line of defense, he can set aside the former verdict of guilty and grant a new trial to the four gunmen, but if the motion is denied all hope for the condemned men will end. Governor Glynn having refused to reconsider his refusal to interfere.

THE CRUCIFIXION

Very Clever Rendition of Stainer's Work at Grace Church Last Night

A large congregation observed Good Friday evening by attending at Grace Church, a very impressive rendition of "The Crucifixion," a meditation on the sacred passion of the Holy Redeemer.

This well known devotional work of the late Sir John Stainer, Doctor of Music of Oxford and the noted organist for so many years of St. Paul's Cathedral London (the words of the work selected and written by Rev. J. Sparrow Simpson, M. A.) has been done many times in Brantford before, but never to greater advantage than last evening.

The soloists last evening, were Mr. E. J. Chevens, tenor narrator, Mr. J. Whittaker bass narrator, Mr. J. Grensted, High Priest and Impenitent Thief, Mr. J. Foote, Penitent Thief. Mr. Chevens has a particularly pleasing quality of voice and he rendered the many difficult solos and recitations which are apporportioned the tenor narrator, in a very finished manner indeed. In the solo "King Ever Glorious" and the Recit "When Jesus therefore saw his mother" he especially gave a very fine exhibition of even and intelligent singing.

Mr. Whittaker, the bass narrator, was heard to great advantage. He sang most effectively the solos "Could ye not watch" and "There was darkness over all the earth" whilst a number of recitatives were admirably interpreted. Messrs Grensted and Foote both have pleasing voices.

There are some big choruses in "The Crucifixion" notably "Fling wide the Gates" and "From the Throne of His Cross." These the choir rendered with fine attack, taste and expression. All the sections are well balanced, the tenors especially, being noticeable for a purity of tone not often heard in church choirs. An unaccompanied chorus "God so loved the world" was a particularly good bit of work, whilst the male chorus, in "My God! My God! why hast thou forsaken me" was very effective. A number of hymns interspersed through the work were joined in congregationally.

Not a little of the success of the rendition must be vouchsafed the work at the organ of Mr. Thomas, who played and accompanied throughout in a masterly manner. His playing was devotionally thrilling and inspiring. His voluntaries too, were greatly enjoyed.

Archdeacon Mackenzie, previous to the rendition of "The Crucifixion" conducted a shortened Evensong. Altogether the evening was a thoroughly profitable and enjoyable one and demonstrated that Grace Church choir is quite capable of interpreting high class devotional works without any outside assistance—certainly a commendable position to have attained.

INCREASE IN SALES The total sales of the "Salada Tea Co. last year amounted to as much as the total business during the first twelve years they were introducing Ceylon tea into Canada and the United States. Their increase alone in 1913 over 1912 amounted to more than the total business done during the first five years of their existence, and during the first three months of 1914 their ratio of increase is the largest they have ever had.

Huffman; male chorus, "The Earthquake"; "O Death Where Is Thy Sting" choir; quartette and tenor obbligato, "Fear Not Ye," the Misses Huffman and Messrs Earthy, Scruton and Currie; Rejoice and Sing Praises," choir; solo "Our Saviour Lives," Mr. A. Fresh Eggs Were Selling Today at 18 and 20 Cents per Dozen.

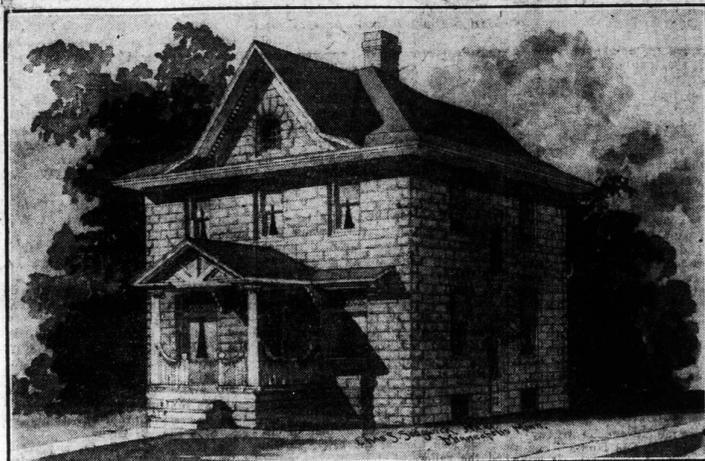

There was only a fair attendance at the Easter Market to-day. Compared with last Saturday the prices remained about the same. Apples of which there was an abundance sold at from 35c to 50c a basket. Of other vegetables there was an abundance, but the prices remained the same as last week. In the ladies' department butter sold for 30c and 31c a pound. Chickens sold from 75c to $1.50 each but sales were small. Meat remained the same as last Saturday. Beef roasts sold at from 16c to 20c, a pound and boiling prices at from 12c to 14c a pound. Fish remained unchanged.

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY
as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the nose. Be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces of the system. It is the only safe and sure cure for Catarrh. It is taken internally and acts by destroying the germ. It is sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A PLAIN CEMENT BLOCK HOUSE.

DESIGNED BY CHAS. S. SEDGWICK, ARCHITECT.

On the inside, they will keep out all moisture. The illustration shows a very plain and economical house, with a frontage of 28 feet and a depth of 26 feet. An eight room house, full basement and good attic for storage. It is estimated to build this house, exclusive of heating and plumbing, for $3,000. The first story rooms to be finished in red oak with oak floors and the second story finished in yellow pine or Washington fir, floors of oak and fir.

TRADE IN WOODEN SHOES

The cost of the wood from which the shoes are made is about six dollars a cubic meter, but of which one hundred pairs of shoes are manufactured. The wholesale prices of the shoes range from ten to fifteen cents. Few of the shoes are produced by machinery, nearly all of them being made by hand by the poorer peasants of Holland.

The attic stairs extend up over the main stairs with a door at the foot. The outside trimmings should be painted white and the roof shingles stained or painted red.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and nobody can tell Brush it Through H.Hair.

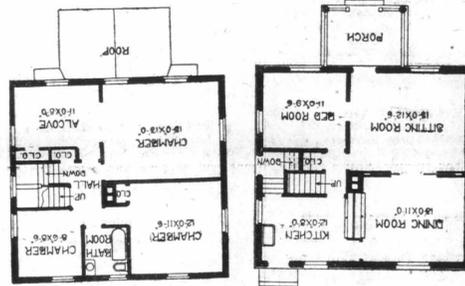

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantage of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger. Agent T. Geo. Bowles.

Pleasant Recital At Wellington St.

A very enjoyable recital was given at Wellington St. Church yesterday afternoon, and a large audience was present. The program was composed of seven numbers of pleasing variety. Mr. Thomas Darwin, the well known organist, played the following selections in his usually capable manner: "Fugue in G Minor," Book 4, Peters (Bach); "A Spring Song" and "Berceuse" (Hollins); "Moment Musical" (Schubert) and Overture to "William Tell" (Rossini). Mr. Chas. Darwin, baritone, favored the audience with "The Trumpet Shall Sound" (Handel's Messiah), "Serenade" (Schubert) and "Absent" (Metcalf). His rendition of each of these numbers was all that could be desired. Mr. William Darwin, violinist, rounded out the program with two dainty numbers played with good technique and expression. They were "Minuet in G" (Beethoven) and "The Swan" (Saint Saens). It is to be hoped that the Messrs Darwin will furnish music lovers with any other treat in the near future.

HOLIDAY TRAFFIC BREAKS ALL RECORDS

Special Trains on All Lines Are Packed With Week-end Excursionists.

Cheap rates and fine weather made the holiday traffic the heaviest in the records of the railway companies since Christmas. Hundreds of visitors came into the city on every train, the heaviest traffic strain coming on the Toronto trains, which were jammed. From all points in Western Ontario swarmed the incoming holiday-makers, and there were almost as many strangers among the promenaders on the streets as there were citizens. Extra coaches were added to all the outgoing trains to handle the exceptionally heavy local traffic, and most of the incoming trains were a great deal larger than usual to handle the unprecedented increase. Despite the large crowds, the railroads handled all the trains satisfactorily and kept them close on schedule.

Building Permits Issued.

Weary Sufferers Welcome

Dr. Stohr's Kephaldol

THE GREAT UNFAILING PAIN RELIEVER

In all cases of NEURALGIA, NEURITIS, SCIATICA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, etc., especially in acute form where maddening pain makes life almost unbearable, KEPHALDOL offers that which will evoke heartfelt gratitude—relief, prompt and certain, with speedy cure ahead. KEPHALDOL is no injurious drug, no charlatan nostrum—thousands of medical men all over the world, including all representing the clinical opinion of Vienna (to which City belongs Dr. Stohr, KEPHALDOL'S famous discoverer) have pronounced this remedy to be a means not merely of alleviating, but of stopping pain without risk of injury to the heart or other organ of the body.

MRS. A. E. TURNER, 52a, Willoughby Street, New Lenton, Nottingham, writes—
"I must say Kephaldol seems to charm away the pain like nothing else does. I have tried a great many things for Rheumatism, but Kephaldol eases the pain quicker than anything I have ever had."
A letter from MRS. BEATRICE COSSEY, Brookfield, Eng., is worth repeating—
"My experience of Kephaldol as a pain-killer is absolutely marvellous. I had a fearfully acute attack last year of Neuritis, Sciatica, and Lumbago, and it did wonders for me. I shall always feel most grateful for what it has done, and I am most happy to let others know of its wonderful effects as a pain destroyer."
MR. LAWRENCE WINDLEY, Cranleigh, Dane Road, Luton, Eng., sends the following letter:—
"I had rheumatism in my leg, and had to go about with the aid of a stick. I took two Kephaldol tablets at 10 a.m., and by eleven all trace of pain had disappeared and I have not had it from that day to this."

BRANTFORD IS IN THE LEAGUE

Western Ontario Magnates Failed to Fix a Salary Limit.

BERLIN, Ont., April 11.—The Western Ontario Baseball League, which was composed of four teams this season, including Stratford, Woodstock, Hymans London and Wabash St. Thomas was reorganized here yesterday afternoon with six teams. The enlarged league will consist this year of Stratford, Woodstock, Berlin, Galt, Guelph and the Stars of Brantford. The meeting was largely attended by delegates from the various cities and there was great enthusiasm manifested in the proceedings.

President M. A. Humber, Stratford, presided and reported that the league proved to be a success last season, conducted along semi-professional lines. All the teams did their own financing and broke even, playing one game per week during the season. He intimated that in view of the enlarging of the league he consulted with Secretary Farrell of the National Baseball Association asking for protection of the association if the league was enlarged. Secretary Farrell replied that no protection can be provided unless there is a salary limit of 500 per month, that there are no two teams in the same territory and where games are played each week.

The delegates after considerable discussion decided not to accept the conditions as laid down by the National Association this season and no salary limit will be fixed, each team taking its own gate receipts. Two games will be played each week, Wednesday or Thursday and Saturday, and all holidays. The drawing up of the rules governing the league will be drawn up by the Executive-elect next Saturday afternoon in Berlin. It was the consensus of opinion that the league will develop into a class D or class C league next season.

The officers elected for the ensuing year were—Hon. Presidents, H. Guthrie, K.C. (Guelph), Mayor J. H. Spence (Brantford), A. R. Lang (Berlin), F. Stewart Scott (Galt), and R. Patterson (Stratford); President, M. A. Humber, Stratford; Vice-President, Dr. F. H. Kallbelsch, Berlin; Secretary-Treasurer, M. G. Duhange, Guelph; Executive Committee, Jas. Hamell, Guelph, Harry Dakin (Galt), W. J. Williams (Berlin), Frank Reed (Brantford), J. P. Connolly (Woodstock), A. Johnson (Stratford).

The meeting was attended by many prominent baseball men in Western Ontario.
John Krafchenko was sentenced at Morden, Man., by Chief Justice Mathers to be hanged on the 9th of July next for the murder on December 3 last of H. M. Arnold, manager of the bank of Montreal at Plum Coulee, Man.

Fraternal Day

Enthusiastic Meeting On Thursday Re Old Home Week.

The general fraternal committee of Old Home Week held a large and enthusiastic meeting in the city hall Thursday night when about 50 members were present. Ald. Geo. Ward, chairman of the executive, and General Secretary F. S. Blain were present, and both spoke along the line of the fraternal day program.

The boy scouts of the city applied for and were granted permission to participate in the parade and give an exhibition of life saving, camp work, etc. in front of the grand stand in the afternoon.
The sub-committee recommended that prizes amounting to $325 be given for the parade. That a prize of $100 be given for the largest society turnout; $100 for the best appearing society. That each lodge have a mounted marshal and that three prizes be given of $25, $15 and $10. That prizes of $50, and $25 be given for the best float in the parade.

With all these prizes the different societies will no doubt be represented by large numbers and keen competition will result.
The invitation committee reported that already they had received a large number of acceptances, which will help make the parade a huge success.
The sports committee brought in a programme, but as the general committee did not think they have sufficient sports, the matter was referred back to them again. One of the chief features of the program was a competition for drill corps, for which three prizes not yet named, will be offered.

The finance committee recommended that the day be given in Lloyd's against rain.
The question of an evening's entertainment came up. One of the features of that programme being the band competition. After some discussion it was decided to refer the matter to the finance committee to see if they have funds to back such an enterprise.
The next meeting of the committee will be held on Friday, April 17.

Carpet Ball

Bricklayers Won.
The Bricklayers or "The Dicksards" as they have been designated by their opponents, defeated the Champions of the City Carpetball League, the Liberals, by a score of 10 to 104 on the Borden carpet on Thursday evening, after a pleasant game. The return match on the Liberal carpet will be played in a few days and keen struggle is anticipated.

"MY CHANCES ARE ON WINNING SIDE"

Yachtsman Thinks New Shamrock Best Boat He Ever Brought Across the Atlantic

BOSTON, April 11.—Sir Thomas Lipton, in a letter received in Boston, expresses supreme confidence that the new challenger he is building will lift the America's international yacht cup. The letter sent from France to Winfield M. Thompson, says:
"I think this time I have the best boat that I ever crossed the Atlantic with, and I think my chances this year, are on the winning side."
"I thought I would manage to get the Shamrock launched by the beginning of April, but I have received a letter from Mr. Nicholson, the designer, saying he is afraid it will be the end of April or the beginning of May before she is launched."
Sir Thomas is going to ask the New York Yacht Club to permit towing the challenger across in calm and against head winds. He writes:
"Towing cannot help the boat. The strain could not possibly do it any good and might do it harm. The reason I am anxious to have her towed in dead, calm weather is because it would give me so much more time in America to get my boat in fit condition for the race."
"I might be becalmed two or three weeks at different times; there is no saying what might happen. I shall make this request of the club at a later period; I should think after the boat is launched."

The committee in charge of the program for the local musical comedy production "A Night in Dreamland" have turned over the big advertising program to the job department of the Courier office. Mrs. G. Bruce Gordon is at the head of the advertising committee, and Mrs. Gordon J. Smith has been prominent in the work. The programme will be made up of sixteen full pages, with advertisements and courtesies from our leading merchants, and if it is possible for a program to foretell the merit of a production, the program now under construction in the Courier office, with its professional arrangement and attractive design, compels us to believe that "A Night in Dreamland" will be one of the most ambitious productions ever staged in Brantford. The advertising committee feel deeply grateful to the merchants who have made so fine a programme possible.

The "Courier" Will Print "Dreamland" Programmes.

The entire company will meet for rehearsal to-night at the Collegiate Institute. Director Wellington is much pleased with the progress made by each member of his company of sixty adults and several hundred children, but to the end that greater finish may be attained he urges every member to be present at seven o'clock to-night.
"The Loveland Dance" is one of the big features of the coming local talent production "A Night in Dreamland" which will be presented at the Grand on Monday and Tuesday, April 20th and 21st.
Miss Adelaide Montizambert, with the director will present this dance, also the "Brantford Hop," an original dance, arranged especially for this production. Miss Montizambert also appears in "The Dance of the Models" in the Mandala Dance, and is the principal in the rollicking song number and dance, "O You Rah! Rah! Boy." Her natural grace and manner together with the instruction received from number of dancing masters has prepared Miss Montizambert for the important part she will play in this production. No local dancer has ever appeared in dances so professional as she will be seen in. The dancers are made up of steps from Donald Brians big dancing hit, "The Siren," also the "Pink Lady" and "Merry Widow." The gowns of latest mode to be worn by Miss Montizambert will add much to the artistic effect and professional finish of her work.
When Bobbie notified Rube to get after Worfel he did not know Deneau would not be head of London's 1914 team. When he did hear this it was too late. Rube had been negotiating with the pitcher and had sent him a contract.
Worfel signed up and he will turn out with the Brantford club.

How Red Sox Got Mr. Worfel

MARIETTA, Ohio, April 11.—Had Bobbie Heck known that Rube Deneau would not manage the London club in 1914 London would have secured Pitcher Worfel, who will play with the Brantford Red Sox this season. Worfel was recommended to Deneau by Heck last fall when the Rube was manager of the London team. He is a right hander, and according to Bobbie, a promising twirler.
Thought Deneau in London

Local News

Ask for Information
Brown Bros. of Toronto, have written the city asking them for the population figures of this city, taken at the last census for insertion in their daily journal for 1915.

Quote Prices on Novelties.

The Gold Stamping Co of Montreal are evidently of the opinion that the City Council is running the Old Home Week celebration. They have written the city clerk quoting prices for novelty badges and buttons for the celebration.

At the Citadel.

The members of the S. A. Band held their annual band league tea and musical festival in the citadel last night. There was a very large attendance, and fully 200 persons sat down to the well-laid tables, which were ably presided over by a number of the bandsmen's wives. After the tables had been cleared the following program, which had been arranged by Bandmaster Newman, was carried out: Marches and selections by the band; selections, Miss Annabell Ryerson; Bible reading, Bandsman Brown. On Sunday night the Army is giving a Service of Song in the Victoria Hall. From the Manger to the Cross.

The Lure

Will Not Be Seen in Toronto or Montreal—It's Too Fierce.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)
MONTREAL, April 11.—"The Lure" will not be seen in Montreal or Toronto. This play which proved startling even for New York was taken off by orders of the police until certain scenes were changed. Had been booked for the Princess Theatre here for the week of April 20, but Lou Solmon who controls the lease of the local house and the Royal Alexandra in Toronto, saw the play and cancelled the booking for both cities. "The Lure" is on a theme that is old and widely known, but the topic is not considered proper for the young or the unsophisticated while a great many people of older generations consider it unfit for stage purposes.

They Want to Come.

The Walpole Island Indian Band have written to Secretary F. S. Blain of Old Home Week for an engagement to play here that week. They quote a very reasonable price of $4 per day and expenses for each man. They claim to have a splendid attraction and one that will draw the crowds.

The Public Be Pleased!

This is an age of education and enlightenment!

Underground methods of yesterday are supplanted by open and above-board methods of to-day.

Public demand has created a revolution in business methods. And it is a revolution that has not alone benefitted the public, but the business world as well.

You no longer trade at the shop that serves you with one price and your neighbor with another.

You demand a standard, fixed price upon very nearly every article you buy.

And you demand a standard KNOWN quality for the money you pay.

You prefer to buy your clothes in modern, well-lighted shops; your groceries in clean, sanitary stores.

Merchants spend thousands of dollars in store equipment—in fixtures, in lighting facilities, etc., so that you may readily see and feel and KNOW what you buy.

In addition to full merchandise value for the price you pay, you demand fair, courteous, considerate SERVICE.

It took many years for the business world to adopt the "Public-be-Pleased" policy and to maintain it.

But it HAS BEEN adopted and IS BEING rigidly maintained. It is remarkable to note that the last flourishing survivors of the old regime are the numerous foreign, unsanitary, careless laundrers.

Their methods of laundering are as strictly guarded as they are obsolete.

Their clothes-destroying manner of cleansing would be a revelation to you, were they to open for your inspection.

The reeking, unclean atmosphere of their "shops" would be highly offensive to you.

And how largely do such conditions contrast with those existing in the Brantford Laundry—a thoroughly modern laundry.

Here, our entire plant is always open for your thorough inspection and approval.

Here, you are greeted with fresh air and sunshine. You are delighted with the cleanliness and sanitary conditions that prevail throughout.

You marvel at the wonderful and expensive modern machinery that performs every function of laundering most perfectly.

The happy, cheerful, enthusiastic air of our workers is contagious. And you forget worldly worries for the many minutes you spend as our guest.

Even long after you have gone, the pleasant impressions here may linger in your memory.

Then, too, you wonder, as your guide freely explains and describes our various methods and machines to you, at the complete frankness of our policy.

There is nothing mysterious or hidden here.

Having a plant that is a source of great pride to ourselves, we are only too glad that you may be fully acquainted with it.

We have been told by many who have travelled the length and breadth of our land that the Brantford Laundry, in modern equipment, in sanitary conditions and in careful cleansing methods, ranks among the foremost in Canada.

The Brantford Laundry firmly believes in the policy of the "Public be Pleased."

And this firm belief is simply reflected in every article laundered the BRANTFORD LAUNDRY WAY.

Why not experience the pleasure of having your laundry done here this coming week?

Just phone 274. Our wagon will call and deliver PROMPTLY.

The Ottawa Free Press says that none of the teams except London has an experienced shortstop for their teams this year. London, they say has a man who comes well tooted to this circuit in the person of Roy Whitecraft. They also say that Deneau has a fast man, but he is only an experiment. Well, he's some exper- iment, because the "Rube" knows a good ball player when he sees one, and he hardly ever makes a mistake. This man Honeck has had considerable baseball experience and he comes here well recommended. This is what the Free Press says.

"A ball club without a good shortstop is like a ship without a rudder. To date few clubs in the Canadian League can show anything in the shape of a real live shortfielder, other than recruits to be experimented with or experienced men who are shy of Class B standard.

Ottawa hasn't a shortstop at all, though there are three youngsters who will be tried out at the position, and Shag is 't entertaining hopes of any of them sticking. At Brantf-r Rubie Deneau claim: a fast man for the position, but like Ottawa, he, is only an experiment. London has an experienced shortfielder in Ray Whitecraft, who has been down in the Virginia League for a couple of seasons, and is well tooted. The Cockneys are really the only club that can show a man there of alleged standard. Eric has Pettie Behan, a veteran with a wonderful arm, but only a fair fielder. Peterboro has lost Brant, her star shortstopper. St. Thomas can't boast of any big leaguer at that position.

We have overlooked Eddie Holly of Toronto, however. Eddie for three season was one of the best shortfielders in the International and could hit in addition. He fell off in his clouting last year, which, no doubt, resulted in him being shunted to the Canadian. With the lacrosse Club willing to do all in their power to help the new school league, Canada's national game promises to boom in this city next season. Hope so, it will live in this old city up a bit. Since the close of last season Gil Forgue, the brilliant shortstop of St. Thomas has had appendicitis, typhoid and just now is undergoing an operation for nasal trouble. Forgue with those injuries might well qualify for a place on the Brantford team.

To think that we had Linneborn of London for a while last year and might have bought him outright and that we had a chance to get Dunlop who went to Cleveland, but took Tesch.

It may be of interest to know that Johnny Nelson of last year's Red Sox had one, if not the best fielding and batting average of any third baseman in the league, and yet Deneau is doubtful about Nelson's ability to make good this year.

There is gloom in Toronto. Memphis walloped the Leafs 12-0 on Thursday. The Hamilton Herald remarks that with Lamond catching and Connell six foot two pitching, the Red Sox will have a Mutt and Jeff battery.

Red Fisher of Hamilton, another hold out has come into the fold and has signed up. A good many of these fellows would pay real money for the privilege of playing but they will pull off that Ty Cobb stuff every winter.

Whether the hour of 3.30 or 4 o'clock is the better at which to start

Baseball is as full of uncertainties as a startled penguin is replete with squawks but unseasonably late before Mack's team is headed in this jubilee year of 1914. Either that or Mack's club will have to loaf on the job about five months of the six.

For here my brethren is a ball club what is a ball club—the greatest one in the game to-day if not for all time. Here is a ball club with a fine catching staff the greatest infield of the decade a fast hard-hitting outfield, two star veteran pitchers and a flock of first-class youngsters.

Canadian League News Notes

Petes Will Meet White Sox. PETERBORO, April 11.—Manager Carley Blount has all arrangements completed for the training season, and transportation will be sent to the players on the Petes' roster this week. The players will be ordered to reach Youngstown, Tuesday, April 14th, ready to commence training on the following morning. The Peterboro players will be quartered at the Tod House, Youngstown, and the training will be carried on at Wright park, a splendid grounds with comfortable dressing rooms, equipped with shower baths and other conveniences for training. The Petes will spend three weeks at Youngstown, and in that time will play six or seven exhibition games, including one with the Chicago White Sox, if Manager Blount's plans go through.

The new leader of the Petes is decidedly businesslike, and he has taken hold of the preliminary work in a manner that is delighting the local directors. He has everything ready for the training camp, and will undoubtedly drive the Petes at top speed through the three weeks of the training. This is the longest spring workout the Peterboro ball club has ever undertaken, and the players should be in fine shape when they face the barrier in Erie on May 7th.

Incidentally the presence of the Petes in Ohio for nearly a month will be a big publicity boost for this city. —Ottawa Free Press.

The Senators are badly in need of a shortstop, more so perhaps than any other club, as they will have a youngster at second. Manager Shaughnessy is not banking on any of his recruits to fill the gap, though young Tesch may shape up well. He has a great amount of speed, but like most collegians, has a reputation of blowing in tight places. The primary reason of the Ottawa leader's trip to Indianapolis and Fort Wayne is to secure a good man for the position. A couple of speed boys are in view, either one of whom should star on this circuit this season.

The baseball club stated no word had been heard from New Orleans regarding Outfielder Cochran the fence buster whom the Senators are seeking. Such wall-poppers are not permitted to run around loose very long. With a good healthy snow storm in progress, work on the ball park is again put back. The season opens May 7th in the west and only seven days later in the Capital, so that it means a lot of hustling to put things in shape for the blow-off. —Ottawa Free Press.

(Peterbo Examiner) Much of the beauty has gone from the Canadian League in the passing of Knotty Lee and Connie Murphy. Red Fisher is demanding more money from the Hamilton Ball Club. Another case of a man higher up wanting his bit.

Dr Yates, the new Hamilton manager, is a dentist. He will probably have a better pull than Knotty had. Favorite songs of well known people: "You'll Want Me Back"—Davy Rowan. All this Home Rule agitation only makes us weary. We'll not be happy till the Petes take three games at Erie. "We'll miss Rowan because he was always pulling off something," said a local bug yesterday. "What d've mean. The only thing Davy ever pulled off at Riverside Park was his cap."

The London Advertiser hands out a stiff roast to Rube Deneau who is the speed merchants of the Canadian can be gathered from last year's base running record as follows:— S.B. Kopp, St. Thomas 63 Linneborn, London 46 Wright, Guelph 39 Bierbauer, London 39 Shaughnessy, Ottawa 27 A Wagner, Brantford 24 Rogers, Ottawa 25 Harris, Ott-Guelph 25 Burns, Berlin 24 This fellow Wilkinson, a young twirler of St. Thomas, who tied a lot of teams in a knot, should not be overlooked this season. Last year he was in eight games which is better lots of stuff just the same. The Saints will have a pretty fair looking staff with Wilkenson, Clements, Baker and Howick.

Cresswell, the emaciated pitcher, of Peterboro, got two hits in 41 times at bat last year. There is still hope for Joe McManus.

When Mrs. Page, the wife of the American ambassador, spent a week-end at Windsor Castle recently. She had an amusing experience when she lost her way in mazy passages of the historic castle. She was a little late for dinner Saturday night. The place in some wings is intricate, leading up here, down there or nowhere. In despair Mrs. Page put her head out of the window and called to a sentinel, but, of course, he dare not leave his duty. He managed to hail a gardener who got the distressed lady out of her predicament.

Mrs. "Lulu" Harcourt as wife of the Colonial Secretary, will make the presentations of colonial women at the courts of this year. She has had some amusing experience among women who write and ask her all sorts of questions. Some have fancied that Mrs. Harcourt is herself a paid official to be of use to them. One lady wrote: "You can name your price if you are in a position to introduce my daughter into real good society—I mean that of dukes and earls." Mrs. Harcourt, who has a keen sense of humor, was immensely amused and laughed heartily over it. Mrs. Harcourt says some day when her husband is no longer a cabinet minister, she will write her reminiscences.

Nowhere in the world is there to be seen a more animated throng of well-dressed men and women than in the Rue de la Paix Paris at 6 o'clock in the evening, the hour at which shopping in the beau monde is at its height.

To Parisians and to foreigners who love the gay French capital, this is indeed, the pre-eminence moment when the shadows of evening descend on shops blazing with color and light, present to the onlooker a scene of magic splendor, the most striking evidence of the wealth and luxury of Paris. The incomparable jewellery in the shop windows where almost priceless stones sparkle and scintillate under the dazzling brilliance of the electric lights. The unimpeachable hats and bonnets and the pearl necklaces of the wearers, all add individual touches to the picture in which the luxurious motoring cars stationed at the edge of the pavement bulk conspicuously. The very dogs, decked out and carefully brushed and combed, are themselves objects of no mean value.

Sacha Guitry, who at twenty-five is artist, playwright, actor, theatrical manager, and owner of his own theatre in Paris, although he is handicapped by being the son of the most powerful actor on the French stage, he already occupies a place in the front rank of French lightfoot favorites. Even if he had failed as an actor, he would still be the author of two remarkable successful comedies, "The Night Watchman," and "The Taking of Berg of Yoom." He is, moreover, a clever cartoonist, originals of his drawings fetch high prices; he produces his own plays and manages for himself, and he is not yet 25 years old. The young actor, author, manager, is also the husband of his leading woman, whose stage name is Charlotte Lysses. Their recent tour in Italy where the audiences are keenly critical, was a great success. In Rome, Milan and Florence the theatre was packed and the ovation tremendous. Sacha Guitry says: "Do not go about with a long face and look glum, as long as you can buy a dinner and digest it. Laugh yourself and make other people laugh. It's the easiest thing in the world, and it will make you good looking intelligent and happy. Sacha Guitry was asked what he thought of English actors. "Well, replied the modern moliere, there's one good actor in England, Charles Hawtrey, but the rest have got neither the art which conceals the absence of art, most Frenchmen are born actors. Look at two men or women talking on the street, their whole bodies are eloquent. There's life in every movement. You Anglo Saxon nations are made for sport and business."

Essentially the feast of the young is Easter, as Christmas is the feast of the old people and of the children. Everything speaks of youth and hope, life and the joy of living. It would be hard to have to die at Easter time, when the sun is dancing and the sap runs in all nature, trees, flowers, animals, man—to close your eyes, and say good-bye to all the bursting bloom, the promise of creamy summer days, the joy of the gardens abloom—to close eyes ever so tired, and be put away down deep in the heart of the dark earth—cold, lovely, forgotten. No, the Fall is the time for dying—to go with the whirling leaves—blown with them—Whither? A pretty legend goes that the Easter sun danced for joy because Christ was risen. In Devonshire, some country folk get up to-morrow, in the belief that they will see the lamb and flag in the centre of the sun's disc, looking through darkened glass.

The Golden Age! How Easter brings it back. Easter always falls on the Sunday after the full moon, next after March 21. The idea in fixing this standard, was that Easter might always occur at the Spring full moon, at which time our Lord's resurrection took place. "He is risen." All the earth is awakening. That amazing miracle, the yearly rejuvenation has begun. Why should not some breath of it again touch with its ward of gold lives grown gray and careworn in the streets? Why should we not in sheer gratefulness for the joys that remain, see with the eyes of the soul—the sun dancing on Easter morn? "

HER SMOKING TOGS HAVE A PIQUANT DARING

That there are women who indulge in cigarets is proven beyond dispute by the captivating "smoking suits" ready for milady's wear in her sanctum sanctorum. One of the latest notions in these feminine "smoking suits" has recently come from Paris and is pictured here. It is an informal, graceful affair of deep red Egyptian silk with hands of narrow, dull gold braid at the edges. Its slashed slipper skirt reveals the red silk stocking and Oriental slipper which replace the buttoned walking boot when milady plans to rest for an hour or two. Over the head—to protect the hair from smoke—is wound a gay silk kerchief matching the suit.

listed in the new organization. The two upper floors of the Vienna Cafe Building on Dorchester street have been rented and decorated and furnished as at present hard at work on the fitting out of the premises.

The club is neither for the emancipated blue stocking nor for the ultra-Bohemienne. It is the ladies' club after the fashion of the social clubs of men with every accommodation except the bar and the billiard room. On the upper floor—is a bedroom where guests of their friends may spend the night and on the lower floor there are two dining rooms. Although it is not the intention of the organizers to encourage smoking, it will not be absolutely forbidden. Men are not excluded and may—when especially invited—make use of one of the dining rooms, while Saturday has been picked for the regular "men's day." In one room only—the large lounge room—are they forbidden to enter.

Members' Social At Park Baptist

Very Pleasing Event Was Held Last Wednesday Evening.

On Wednesday evening, the members of the Park Baptist church held their annual social. A large, happy company enjoyed together the beautiful repast in the Sunday School room, then they repaired to the audience room where a good programme was rendered. The pastor, Rev. C. W. Rose acted as chairman, and in his own happy way, heartily welcomed the people. After an opening hymn and prayer, the choir sang an anthem. Mrs. Barber recited "The Legend of the Organ Builder." Mrs. Baird and her daughter, Miss Dorothy, sang beautifully three short selections pertaining to spring time and the Easter season. Mr. Sweet, representing what he termed the "members-in-law," gave an excellent address. He outlined both the difficulties and the encouragements of the Christian church, and urged men to be as earnest in speaking out to the world about this best and most important thing, salvation, as they are to speak of the commodities they have for sale.

He closed with a poem that was a glowing testimony to the value of the Saviour to the personal life. Dr. Stanley extended a welcome for the seasons. He feelingly referred to those of their number who, since the last annual social, who had passed to that home where they feast in the paradise of God. Mr. Southworth sang a pleasing solo and responded kindly to the encore. With undivided attention the audience then listened to a selection from the "Bonny, Brier Bush," given by Mrs. Wright. She was heartily encored and responded with a bright little poem "I'd Been Dreaming." The closing number was a short address by Rev. M. Kelly, vice-president of the Ministerial Alliance, who spoke in felicitous terms of the church and the pastor and wished them all prosperity and a long continuance in this helpful relationship.

POLITICAL ROMANCE

Mr. Noel Buxton's engagement to Miss Lucy Pelham Burn came as a surprise to those who knew that some time ago they were sworn enemies. Miss Burn belongs to a well known Unionist family in Greater Toronto. When the frames of the Unionist party were at low ebb, Miss Pelham Burn infused new life into the local party by a series of meetings, with the above object of ousting Mr. Buxton from the representation of North York.

It was not long however after this sharp collision that a bond of sympathy arose. Miss Pelham Burn took up the cause of the suffering non-combatants in the Italian war, and while Mr. Buxton was superintending relief in Thrace, she successfully organized lectures and relief agencies in the constituency. It was this association in the cause of oppressed nationalities—the cause in which Mr. Buxton has labored for many years—which led, it may be presumed, to the happy denouement.

A SUNDAY SERMON BY PASTOR RUSSELL

CREATION DRAMA IN AUDITORIUM THEATRE

Chicagoans Astonished --Seats Free--No Collections.

PASTOR RUSSELL IS HERE

In Forenoon Discourse He Discussed That Part of Creation's Drama Which Relates to the Typical Feature of the Passover Lamb—Typically, He Says, It Has Spoken the Divine Plan For Centuries—Blessings For Christian Church—Blessings For Jewish Church—And For All Nations and Kingdoms, Tongues and Peoples—Kingdom Soon to Be Established.

Chicago, Ill., April 5.—Pastor Russell is here for the purpose of inaugurating his Photo-Drama of Creation at the Auditorium Theatre, the name of which is a guarantee that the Drama of Creation is not to be respected first class.

One of the remarkable things in connection with this Drama, which is now running in thirty cities and witnessed by about 30,000 people daily, is that the best theaters are used—and all seats are free and no collections lifted.

Asked for an explanation, Pastor Russell declared that the Photo-Drama of Creation merely presents the Gospel of the Bible, and is always to be free. He said he has no objection to other people taking up collections, but has found no authority in the Bible for doing so.

The Photo-Drama of Creation, he said, is financed by Christians who by it desire to re-establish faith in God and in the Bible as a Divine revelation.

Pastor Russell's address was in the forenoon and evening and is to continue for some time. The text of the Pastor's discourse was "Christ our Passover is slain for us; therefore let us keep the feast." (1 Corinthians 5:7, 8.) He said: "For thirty-five centuries the Jewish people, Jewish and Christian, have with more or less directness, and more or less understanding, celebrated the Passover. The Passover has recognized the form, few have looked deeper—into its real import. Those who see the real meaning of the Passover have great cause for gratitude toward God for confidence in the Bible, 'the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever.' To understand the Passover means to understand the Plan of God in respect to humanity.

St. Paul reminds us that God's first intimations respecting His glorious purpose of man, were given to Abraham. After God had tested his faith and obedience, He called Abraham His friend, and revealed to him in part things to come. The essence of the Divine Message of Peace was, 'I will bless all the families of the earth through thy Seed'—thy posterity. (Galatians 3:8.) This God's sure Word of Promise, was afterward confirmed with an Oath, because the time would be long, and therefore it would be necessary that God and His salvation should exercise faith in it.

Pastor Russell reviewed to his hearers the institution of the Passover. He reminded them that the children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were in bondage to Egypt, and God commanded Pharaoh to let them go, sending chastisement after chastisement upon the Egyptians, to compel his obedience. God's mercy in lifting one plague after another merely hardened Pharaoh's heart, until the tenth plague. By this plague all the first-born of Egypt died in one night; while the first-born of the Israelites living in Egypt escaped because passed over. The Passover, therefore, memorializes the favored of God.

The first-born of Israel were subsequently exchanged for the tribe of Levi, which thereafter was counted especially the Lord's—some of the Levites serving as priests, sacrificing at His altar, and some of them doing an inferior service—assisting the priests in the work of instructing and blessing all the other tribes. Moses and Aaron were members of this priestly tribe, all of whom became leaders of God's chosen people in their subsequent experiences, particularly in their crossing of the Red Sea and, later, in crossing the Jordan—both typical events.

The Pastor explained that before the first-born of Israel could be passed over, a certain sacrifice was necessary, according to the Divine arrangement. A lamb without blemish was sacrificed, and its blood used to sprinkle the door-posts and lintels of all the dwellings of the Israelites. Each family or group repeated the same picture, sprinkling the blood of the lamb upon the door-posts and lintels, roasting the flesh, and later eating it with herbs and unleavened bread—ready for departure from Egypt for the land of Canaan. As the morning broke, the journey out of Egypt began. Later, all the host crossed the Red Sea, the waters of which returning engulfed the Egyptians, who had started in pursuit of them.

The meaning of all this to the Christian is that God has promised deliverance from the power of Satan and the slavery of sin to all who are truly His people. These were under the bondage when God sent forth His Son, Jesus, to be their antitypical Lamb—to die, 'the Just for the unjust,' and thus to give His flesh for the life of the world. As a result of that redemptive work, His Father highly exalted Him to the spirit plane, where He was before He was made flesh. Indeed, His resurrection was to a still higher nature—the Divine, far above men, angels, principalities, powers, etc.

The blood represents the life, as the Bible tells. 'The blood of the passover lamb thus typically represents the life which Jesus gave. The sprinkling of the blood upon the door-posts and lintels represents the part which must be taken by all who belong to the Household of Faith. All such must trust, not in works of their own for justification before God, but in the work, the life, of Christ, who died for us, 'the Just for the unjust.' Not only must we exercise faith in the sense of entering into the Household of Faith, but additionally we must be of those who partake of the Lamb, who appropriate the merit of Christ's sacrifice by faith. All such are entitled to being partakers of Christ's life, and are sharers with Him to the sufferings of this present time, and prospectively His joint-heirs in His Kingdom to come.

That God the Pastor, has changed the Passover from a typical to a spiritual feast, is a fact which the Pastor found its antitype throughout this Gospel Age. From the time that Jesus died, as the Lamb of God to take away the sin of the world, to the present time, there has been a feast spread for those who are able to appreciate it. There has been a covering with the merit of Christ's sacrifice, and the feast is now being spread for those who are able to appreciate it. All such are counted members of the 'Church of the First-born,' whose names are written in Heaven' (Hebrews 12:23.) This feast is not yet complete. Thank God, we may still wrinkle the blood of the Lamb upon the door-posts of our hearts, may still be invited to partake of the feast, and still have the privilege of becoming members of the Church of the First-born.

But the Morning is near at hand. The First-born will soon be recognized as the 'Church of the First-born' in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye.' By resurrection power they will be made like unto their glorious Lord, and will be seated with Him to reign with Him in His great Messianic Kingdom. These with the Redeemer will constitute the Spiritual Seed of Abraham, through whom God's blessing is to come to Natural Israel, and ultimately to every nation, people, kindred and tongue.

Behold the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world.' It is well that we should notice the difference between the taking away of the sin of the world and the taking away of the sin of the Church. The Church is described as the 'Church of the First-born,' leaving the world to have the blessing of the after-born members of the same family of God. Only by close scrutiny can we discern the deep things of God. The Spirit was promised to guide Jesus' followers into an understanding, not merely of the outward, or superficial, features of God's arrangement on man's behalf, but also into the deeper parts.

The sin of the world is the Adamic sin. By one man's disobedience, sin entered the world. The penalty of that sin was not eternal torment nor purgatory. But, as the Apostle explains and as we also read in Genesis, the curse, the penalty for sin, is death—'Dying, thou shalt die.' No one could be thoroughly released from that penalty of death—and completely resurrected out of death—except by the payment of a ransom-price—the payment of his penalty. No member of the race could pay the penalty because every member was under that penalty himself. Hence God's disposition manifested itself in providing the Redeemer—a Ransomer. One capable of satisfying the claims of Justice and thus legally setting Adam and all of his race free from the death penalty—the curse.

But while the Lamb of God was to take away the sin of the whole world and give all an opportunity for resurrection, He will not be the Passover Lamb for the world. Jesus is our Passover—the Church's Passover Lamb. This shows the difference between the deliverance of the Church during this Age, and the future deliverance of the world during the Millennium. The Church is delivered or passed over by faith—through the imputation of the merit of the Redeemer. The Church class may, therefore, even now speak of sins forgiven and of having passed through death into life.

The Church of the First-born has special privileges and blessings, as well as special trials. In the Passover type, the lives of the first-born are in jeopardy while the lives of others of Israel were in no danger. This signifies in the antitype that the Church of the First-born will be liable to death at a time when the remainder of the world will not be thus liable. The reason for this is clear, in the light of other Scriptures, as we shall see.

The call of the Gospel Age is the Antitype of the 'high calling,' a Heavenly calling, because the Church is not under a Law. Rather, a Heavenly reward is laid up before the minds of some and they are invited to enter into a Covenant with God, to follow such a course of life in the present time as will eventually bring them to the glorious prize set before them in the invitation. That prize is sometimes styled the Kingdom, and sometimes the Divine nature—and it includes both.

But if the reward is so great that Jesus called it the 'pearl of great price,' and St. Paul declared that he counted all other things as loss and cross in comparison, we should not be surprised to find the conditions, or terms, for obtaining it very stringent. Notice the stringency of the call: 'Gather ye together, My saints, unto Me,' saith the Lord, 'those who have made a Covenant with Me by sacrifice.' (Psalm 50:5.) Again, notice Jesus' words, 'If any man will be My disciple, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me.'

From the foregoing Scripture, it will be noticed that the condition upon which any may become a member of the Church of the First-born is that he shall sacrifice his earthly nature. Only by faithfulness in thus sacrificing can he obtain the Heavenly nature. Unfaithfulness would hinder him from ever obtaining the new nature. As for the earthly nature, such give up up right in order that they may run in the sacrificial race for the spirit nature. Hence it is that the First-born are represented in the type as being exposed to death—annihilation.

Not so the world; for the world is only under Adamic condemnation. God has promised that through Christ that curse shall be removed. Hence of all the people in the world, the only ones who at the present time are in danger of going into extinction are those who have made a covenant to be the followers of Jesus.

Look back again at the type. There we see the lamb provided for all. There we see the blood upon the door-posts for all. But we see the first-born the only ones in danger. In the antitype, these, if passed over, will become the Church in Glory, the Royal Priesthood. How solemn the thought of our opportunities and privileges, and responsibilities corresponding!

Lamb Let by Lit Candle. A quaint device was employed at Buxton, near Boston, England, to determine the letting of a piece of meadow land. A candle was lighted and a pin stuck in its side. Then burning commenced. The candle burned until the flame reached the pin, which fell out, and the land was then declared let to the last bidder prior to the pin falling.

No Breakfast Fad Is Old. Few people realize that the meal "breakfast" did not become recognized until late in the seveneenth century. The earliest period to which the word can be traced is 1463. In the days of the Tudors the higher classes dined at 7 and supped at 5, and the merchants seldom took their meals before 12 and 6 o'clock.

Terrible Torture From Chronic Indigestion, Short Treatment With "Fruit-a-tives" Completely Cured The Whole Trouble.

C. T. HILL, Esq.

Chatham, Ont., April 3rd, 1913. "Some two years ago, I was a great sufferer from indigestion. I treated with a prominent physician here for some time, but I did not get any better so I went in to see him one day and said 'Doctor, what do I owe you? I am not getting any better and am going to quit you.' I paid him his bill and he remarked to me, 'Charlie, you have a case of chronic indigestion that will be hard to cure.'

I left his office and as I stepped out on the street my eye caught a bill board advertisement of "Fruit-a-tives"—that big "Fat Man and Thin Man" and I said to myself, "If Fruit-a-tives will build me up like that, it's good enough for me." I walked directly over to Park's Drug Store and bought a box of "Fruit-a-tives." After taking these wonderful tablets for only three weeks, I found myself greatly improved. I continued taking them for a short time longer and cured myself entirely. My case was no light one either, for many times when I was on the street, I was compelled to go into some store or business place until the acute spasms were away. Gas would often form in my stomach and I was in daily fear it would get around my heart and kill me. To-day, I have no such fears. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only remedy for indigestion, Dyspepsia and Stomach Troubles.

Perhaps your case is exactly like Mr. Hill's. If so, do exactly as he did—take "Fruit-a-tives" and cure yourself. "Fruit-a-tives" will prevent the formation of gas in the stomach by making digestion complete. It will insure the food being promptly digested by providing an abundance of gastric juice in the stomach. It keeps the stomach sweet and clean, not only by helping the digestion but also by regulating Kidneys and Bowels and toning up the system. If you suffer with indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Belching, Gas on the Stomach, Heart Pains after Eating, take "Fruit-a-tives." 50c a box. 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, at all dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

EASTER IN JERUSALEM

At Easter time, when throughout Christendom the suffering, death, burial and resurrection of Christ are so vividly described, the thoughts of many millions are concentrated upon Jerusalem. After all these centuries many doubtless wonder what care is taken of the actual tomb of Christ. And how does it appear?

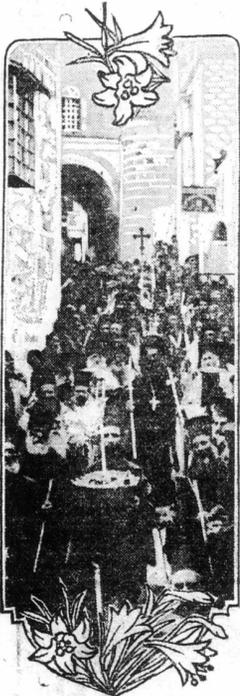

Although in a land ruled by Mohammedans, the holy sepulcher is never without its guard of Christians night or day. In this task four faiths—the Catholic, Greek, Coptic and Armenian—are represented by monks. While the Copts, as Christian descendants of the ancient Egyptians are termed, are not so numerous as the others, they have their chapels in the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, and their priests live in an adjoining monastery.

By three of these guardian bodies the sacred liturgy is celebrated every day, beginning at midnight. The Greeks officiate first, the Armenians next and the Franciscan Catholics last.

Each has numerous chapels in the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, and each concentrates every effort toward preserving intact the rights acquired through centuries of occupation.

Yet over all these rules the Turk. It is he who holds the key to the sacred door, exacting tribute from all who enter except at certain hours of the day. Even the monks are obliged to pay.

Moreover, never a festival is celebrated that Moslem soldiers are not stationed in the vestibule "to preserve order" in the church, as they view it. These guards never fail to make their presence felt.

In spite of the humiliation heaped upon them, however, the Christian guardians remain at their post of duty, never ceasing their vigilance, that the tomb of the Lord may be preserved.

The most impressive Christian procession in Jerusalem is seen when the Greek patriarch in all the splendor of the insignia of his church enters the holy sepulcher on Easter Sunday. As the procession arrives at the entrance to the sepulcher the bells stop ringing, a profound silence overtakes the multitude of pilgrims, and then the patriarch says his first prayer, the Turkish soldiers present arms, and a few minutes later the procession enters the church.

CONCERNING EASTER EGGS.

What They Symbolize in Various Countries—Blessed in Italy.

There are many superstitions in connection with Easter, and each country has a custom of celebrating it peculiar to itself; but, while each varies, they all unite to observe the spirit of spring-time, and all Christians rejoice that the Lord of life forever won victory over death. Among the many quaint superstitions is the old Aryan one which typifies the return of the sun of springtime by a golden egg—eggs being distributed at the early equinox by priests to strengthen the hopes of the people that the bleak, cold days of winter might soon cease and a brighter time ensue.

The Persians believed that the earth was hatched from an immense egg on Easter morning. The Aryans also believed the sun to be a large golden egg which was constantly rolling nearer to the earth.

With the Jews, says the Delineator, the egg became a type of their rescue from the land of bondage, and in their feast of the passover eggs occupied a conspicuous place in the services. It was their connection with the latter that finally caused them to be used by Christians the world over in celebrating Easter—the egg of resurrection into a new life—bringing a message of life from death, as it were.

The Tyrolean Easter eggs are similar to our valentines, for, besides being most beautifully tinted, they have in unique lettering mottoes representing appropriate wishes for the recipients.

The priests of Italy bless all eggs brought to service on Easter morning, and each person carries his back home, where they are placed on a kind of altar arranged for the purpose, surrounded by lighted candles and offered flowers.

The members of the family and any guests abiding with them eat these holy eggs as a safeguard against disease and danger. They are hard boiled before they are taken to the church.

PASSOVER AND EASTER.

Why It Is That They Do Not Always Correspond.

Since the events of holy week and the resurrection took place during the Jewish passover it seems strange that the celebration in the synagogues and in Christian churches should not always be at the same time. Some years the times coincide, but they are often a week apart. The explanation is that the Jewish calendar, which dates from the creation of the world, is regulated by the rabbis. Their system is based on the lunar month, which is often nearly two days shorter than the month of the Christian calendar. Corrections are made, but instead of a day such as is added in leap year a month is added, so that some Jewish years consist of thirteen months. As Easter always falls on the first Sunday following the full moon next after March 21, this additional month in certain years causes a variation between the passover and the Christian festival.

Easter In Old Chester, England.

In old cities old customs are kept up much longer than anywhere else. The people retain some of the characteristics that distinguish their homes. Especially was this true of the city of Chester up to a few years ago. Almost from time immemorial the mayor, the corporation and members of the twenty ancient guilds of the city used to put aside their accustomed dignity and devote themselves to football on Easter day, while their edified townsmen looked admiringly on. After the match was over, the two sheriffs of the city marched out of the town to the field and competed with each other in the noble and skillful science of archery, the prize of which martial match was a dinner of calf's head and bacon! In 1640, however, such remuneration seeming unworthy of the mighty efforts they put forth for its attainment, the two incumbents of that office refused to shoot for their dinner, and the high magisterial consent was obtained to substitute a foot race for the archery trial and a silver plate for the dinner—that is, instead of the dinner. After that they had to pay for all their meals on Easter.

Red Blood

AN EASTER CAROL

The Master walked where lilies grew,
So fair, so pure, so white,
So glorious in Judah's land,
So lovely to the sight.

His eyes saw beauty in their form
As, folded to his breast,
He lingered o'er the sweet perfume,
The flowers he loved best.

What causes such unseemly restlessness this morning, child?
Miss Jessamine asked, busily threading a needle.

Betty's lovely face became dyed to match the flowerpots, and she stitched rapidly at the rent.

"I trust William has not asked you to drive again, for he has had you to Bradbury twice this week, which is quite often enough."

Judge Trimble and his family occupied the home adjoining the Sands cottage, and William, their eldest son, had been Betty's playmate ever since the little girl first came to live with her aunt.

"Aunt Jessamine, Phoebe Blakemore teased me about wearing the same Sabbath frock for two years and said it was a shame that I was not allowed to purchase a new one now and then since I am supposed to be an heiress."

"Phoebe is a gossip to talk to you of such things, and I disapprove of her frivolous ways. Your father left you well provided for, and I dare say you always appear genteel and neat when you walk abroad, and that is all that is required of a maid."

"Aunt Jessamine, next Sabbath is Easter. All the girls have new silk Easter frocks and bonnets to match. I am past seventeen, and never have you given me a dress of silk. If I have means of my own I desire, above all things, to visit London and buy the loveliest flowered taffeta I can find. Please say we will go."

"Since you are no longer content with the wardrobe selected by me I suppose we will have to purchase some London finery. Master William will think no more of you with all your life toggerly than he would if you attended church in your simple muslin frock."

The Easter morning chimes awakened Betty. By the time the last bell summoned the tardy worshippers to divine service she had donned her flowered taffeta trimmed with frills of lace and tied beneath her chin the broad ribbons of her poke bonnet. The vain little sinner gazed at her reflection in the mirror, and a smile of satisfaction radiated her countenance.

Aunt Jessamine could not conceal her astonishment and pride when the fair vision descended the stairs.

"Well, well; fine feathers have certainly made my Betty lovely! Hasten, child! Do not stop for posies!"

William walked home with Betty from the church, while Aunt Jessamine remained to invite the pastor to dinner.

When they entered the garden William boldly clasped her hand between his own, saying: "Betty, dearest, I want you to know that I love you. This morning when your song floated into my heart I knew you were the one I can love me!"

The dainty maiden's frank blue eyes gazed into the brown ones as she archly said, "Was it the bonnet, William, that made you care?"

"No," he answered; "it was the girl beneath the bonnet."—Jean Douglas in New York Press.

Easter In Russia.
Throughout Russia the Easter ceremonies are impressive because of many solemn details. Thus on the midnight preceding Easter the priests leave the church as if going out to seek the body of the dead Lord. The congregation wait in the sanctuary with bowed heads, in silence and in darkness. Then the listening multitude is aroused by the ponderous knockings on the door of the church. The priests have returned, and as the doors swing open a great chorus of voices fills the air with the chant, "Christ is risen!" The priests file in with upturned faces and singing lips, each bearing a lighted taper. Fire is quickly communicated to the candles of the suppliants throng. In a twinkling the church is ablaze with light and incense, where only darkness and silence had been before.

AN EASTER POEM

Miss Lillian Van Brunt had quite made up her mind never, under any circumstances, to speak to Mr. Frankfort again. William Frankfort could deny all he pleased. Miss Van Brunt knew.

And when Miss Van Brunt knew anything there was nothing would change her opinion. Miss Van Brunt had seen the verses in the magazine herself. As she read them she realized at once that Mr. Frankfort had written them. She remembered how she had talked to him of the new gown she was to wear at church on Easter and the creation from Paris that was to adorn her head. And then what a despicable thing Mr. Frankfort had done! She read the hateful lines:

Not from a moss grown garden,
Nor from a forest hill,
Nor from flower stand,
Nor forist's hand,
Doth come my Easter lily,
But fresh from the shop of the milliner man
And the ladies' tailor really.
In flounces and ribbons and satins and silks,
She comes, my Easter lily.

Miss Van Brunt read the poem again and then tore it up and cried. The usher at St. Mark's did not know the feeling that Miss Van Brunt entertained for Mr. Frankfort or he would INSISTED ON FINDING THE PLACE certainly not conduct that gentleman post a half dozen vacant seats to put him beside Miss Van Brunt at the Easter morning service. Mr. Frankfort seemed unaware himself of the feeling which Miss Van Brunt had for him and smiled and spoke softly to her as he entered the pew and insisted on finding the proper place for the responsive readings in the prayer book.

The sermon was unusually dry. Miss Van Brunt tried to amuse herself and keep from turning her head toward Mr. Frankfort by scribbling on the front page of the hymnal. She wrote: "Not with saintly grace, but grinning face, in clothes so loud and silly, No piety, but a boutonniere, He comes, my Easter Billet!"

She was suddenly conscious what she was doing and dropped the hymnal down by her feet and stared intently at the rector. Mr. Frankfort listlessly picked up the hymnal, and it opened of its own accord at the first page. Mr. Frankfort read, looked somewhat surprised and then also inscribed some lines in the hymnal. Miss Van Brunt quite accidentally picked up the hymnal a short time afterward and read:

She is so radiant, fair and sweet,
Yet she spurns me and is chilly
Because of magazine verse
Four months old or worse,
Write before I knew my Lillie.

It is said to be a sin to steal a pin, and a much more heinous offense is it to carry away a church hymnal securely tucked under one's jacket. Yet that is what Miss Lillian Van Brunt did at that Easter Sunday when she walked home with Mr. Frankfort.

THE LILY BELL IN PUREST BLOOM
Is spotless as the snow,
Dear emblem of a risen life
And heavenly afterglow.

Our Jesus died and rose to life,
Forgetting there shall be
A blessed resurrection day
And immortality.

The risen Lord has conquered death,
We only die to live;
We sow the seed the sower gain,
So Christ new life shall give.

This holy Easter we will sing
New songs to the Son,
Who took away the sting from death
And victory o'er it won.
—Mrs. C. E. Lord.

EASTER FESTIVITY.

"Something new" is the keynote of Easter.

Each guest must bring something new.

It matters not what the new thing may be.

The originality and fertile brain of the guest decide the problem.

Each endeavors to secure something unknown to the rest of the party.

One may describe a new invention; another tells about a new dish.

New styles of hairdressing may be displayed; a new book may be discussed.

Some will choose to wear novel articles of dress; others will concoct new jokes.

New games, new tricks, new music, new recitations, are all included in the program.

The idea may be happily utilized by arranging that "something new" shall be represented by each guest (by pantomime or otherwise), the others to guess what is the new thing that is represented.

SEE IF THE CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, undigested food, and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50c. bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. To be sure you get the genuine ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Red Blood

is good blood—blood that nourishes the whole body, and enables every organ to perform its functions naturally. Many people owe it to HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA, which relieves scrofula, eczema, psoriasis, and all blood humors.

AN EASTER CAROL

The Master walked where lilies grew,
So fair, so pure, so white,
So glorious in Judah's land,
So lovely to the sight.

His eyes saw beauty in their form
As, folded to his breast,
He lingered o'er the sweet perfume,
The flowers he loved best.

What causes such unseemly restlessness this morning, child?
Miss Jessamine asked, busily threading a needle.

Betty's lovely face became dyed to match the flowerpots, and she stitched rapidly at the rent.

"I trust William has not asked you to drive again, for he has had you to Bradbury twice this week, which is quite often enough."

Judge Trimble and his family occupied the home adjoining the Sands cottage, and William, their eldest son, had been Betty's playmate ever since the little girl first came to live with her aunt.

"Aunt Jessamine, Phoebe Blakemore teased me about wearing the same Sabbath frock for two years and said it was a shame that I was not allowed to purchase a new one now and then since I am supposed to be an heiress."

"Phoebe is a gossip to talk to you of such things, and I disapprove of her frivolous ways. Your father left you well provided for, and I dare say you always appear genteel and neat when you walk abroad, and that is all that is required of a maid."

"Aunt Jessamine, next Sabbath is Easter. All the girls have new silk Easter frocks and bonnets to match. I am past seventeen, and never have you given me a dress of silk. If I have means of my own I desire, above all things, to visit London and buy the loveliest flowered taffeta I can find. Please say we will go."

"Since you are no longer content with the wardrobe selected by me I suppose we will have to purchase some London finery. Master William will think no more of you with all your life toggerly than he would if you attended church in your simple muslin frock."

The Easter morning chimes awakened Betty. By the time the last bell summoned the tardy worshippers to divine service she had donned her flowered taffeta trimmed with frills of lace and tied beneath her chin the broad ribbons of her poke bonnet. The vain little sinner gazed at her reflection in the mirror, and a smile of satisfaction radiated her countenance.

Aunt Jessamine could not conceal her astonishment and pride when the fair vision descended the stairs.

"Well, well; fine feathers have certainly made my Betty lovely! Hasten, child! Do not stop for posies!"

William walked home with Betty from the church, while Aunt Jessamine remained to invite the pastor to dinner.

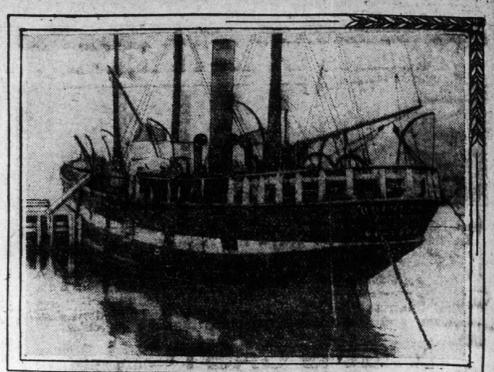

When they entered the garden William boldly clasped her hand between his own, saying: "Betty, dearest, I want you to know that I love you. This morning when your song floated into my heart I knew you were the one I can love me!"

The dainty maiden's frank blue eyes gazed into the brown ones as she archly said, "Was it the bonnet, William, that made you care?"

"No," he answered; "it was the girl beneath the bonnet."—Jean Douglas in New York Press.

Easter In Russia.
Throughout Russia the Easter ceremonies are impressive because of many solemn details. Thus on the midnight preceding Easter the priests leave the church as if going out to seek the body of the dead Lord. The congregation wait in the sanctuary with bowed heads, in silence and in darkness. Then the listening multitude is aroused by the ponderous knockings on the door of the church. The priests have returned, and as the doors swing open a great chorus of voices fills the air with the chant, "Christ is risen!" The priests file in with upturned faces and singing lips, each bearing a lighted taper. Fire is quickly communicated to the candles of the suppliants throng. In a twinkling the church is ablaze with light and incense, where only darkness and silence had been before.

SEAL STEAMER LOST IN NEWFOUNDLAND WATERS

THE SOUTHERN CROSS IN BATTLE HARBOR, LABRADOR. After days of anxious waiting and exhaustive inquiries from all portions of the Newfoundland coast, where it was hoped the steam sealer Southern Cross might have found refuge, hope for her safety has been abandoned and she has been given up as lost, with all on board, consisting of 170 men.

There is still faith in many quarters that the Southern Cross, the stout vessel that Lieutenant Shackleton, the British explorer, used on one of his Antarctic expeditions, weathered the lizzard. No wreckage has been reported anywhere along the coast. These optimists call attention to the fact that the Southern Cross is a very slow vessel, able to steam only five knots under the best conditions, and that if driven far by the gale it would take her some time to work back into communication with the rest of the fleet.

AGONY ON OPERATING TABLE

Did Not Remove Stone in Bladder GIN PILLS Passed it.

"During August last, I went to Montreal to consult a specialist as I had been suffering terribly with Stone in the Bladder. He decided on an operation and was assisted by another doctor. They said the calculus was larger than a bean and too hard to crush and they could not take it out.

I returned home suffering greatly and did not know what to do but was recommended by a friend to try GIN PILLS. I bought a box, and found relief from the pain at once. I took a second and third box of GIN PILLS after which I went back to the specialist. He told me the calculus was reduced in size, still he could not relieve me of it although he tried for two and a half hours.

I returned home again and continued to take GIN PILLS as they reduced the pain very much, but I did not expect that they would relieve me of the stone but to my great joy, I passed the stone on October 2nd, and an now a well man and very happy.

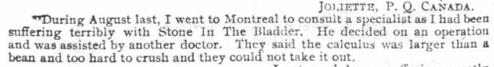

I am sending the stone in to you so that you can see for yourself what a great work GIN PILLS did for me. GIN PILLS are the best medicine in the world and because they did so much for me, I will recommend them all the rest of my life."

NG TABLE

For the wise woman who prepares her Summer wardrobe in the early Spring days this frock offers a charming suggestion for embroidered crepe. A deep lace frill hangs from beneath the tunic of the skirt and narrow frills trim the blouse. The little silk collar and the bow are of pale blue moire and the small crocheted buttons are also blue.

A frock of rose-colored silk crepe attractively draped over the hips and having the underskirt embroidered along the hem on each side with heavy floss in shades of rose and black. Lace edged with black net trims the front of the blouse and turns down in the back of second figure.

Here a vest of emerald green and white silk offers a striking contrast to the white moire of the suit. The waistline is rather pronounced, the fullness being held in with narrow bands of the material. Buttons are covered with green silk.

A quaint dancing frock of white taffeta and shadow lace. The latter forms the entire waist and the deep girde and is made over a foundation of net. Narrow blue ribbon is run through the lace around the neck and sleeves and is then tied in small bows. The smart little taffeta ruffles are piped with blue.

FORECAST OF THE FASHIONS

Paris, February 23, 1914.

ONLY a few weeks in which to decide on the raiment we are to blossom forth in for Easter. For who does not have the desire with each Spring to be daintily and becomingly clad in new garments? We may talk of we will of economy during the penitential days of Lent, but let our breath of Spring and shall I say, identify one glance at the bewitching array offered by the clever and ingenious couturiers and let our poor resolutions be broken and our bills for Spring apparel are appalling! But the satisfaction of wearing the latest and of course the most becoming mode amply repays every squint about the size of the bill, hateful thing, which is presented to Monsieur by yourself, unparalleled in the Spring effusion, will bring forth a smile of approval rather than the frown usually occasioned by this usual blight.

Simplicity or Ruffles.
 The Eastern influence with its straight, simple lines or the ruffles, ruffles and frills of the days of the Regency? Have you decided yet? Well the conservative person will not as usually compile herself until the styles are tried out. But goodness knows! one has plenty to select from; it is not necessary as formerly to dress like the English dress emulいた has rarely had a better opportunity to display her individual taste than in the variety offered for her selection during the past season. And it is true she has been unusually charming in her bouffant drapery and slinking pose.

Change of Pose.
 Is the pose to change? Surely the bustle and the stouch are not both to be adopted? Either one or the other, but say not both! And these bonch panniers are certainly newer than the bonches, however welded we are to them. The panniers are looped at the sides or the back or as in one exploited by Pairet which has the pannier draping developed in pleats. But he still clings to the straight lines as shown in a gown sent to America, the striped

Noose of which shows a strong Russian influence.

For Country Wear.
 Stripes by the way and awning stripes at that, are shown in the Spring cotton materials. These will likely be strongly favored by the American for country wear, together with the silk knitted coat, the sweater, you call it 'tweeds, too, are good.

Soft silks, the new taffetas and moire fashion the separate skirt, which will be worn with the transparent blouse of lace or tulle. It is said speaking of houses, that many of them will be of organza. This material, too, will form many of the new collars and vests.

The new collar is certainly replacing the becoming feminine frills of the past couple of years. However true, the new collars, Normandy, Byronie, Mediel or Robespierre will be found quite becoming and one need hardly regret the frill.

MARIE LOUP.

RESUME OF SPRING SUIT STYLES

Elephant grey and midnight blue are predominant colors. No longer are strange and violent combinations of color used. On the contrary the designers strive to create an impression of perfect harmony.

The most recent news is that the same harmony in blues, browns and purples are further enhanced by some delicate color used in contrast.

The semi-tailored suit is to be seen to the exclusion of the tailored suit of a few years ago. The lines of the present couple fashion cannot be carried out in a strictly tailored suit. So we are to be dressed on all occasions this spring. Consequently coats are to be of various lengths and sleeves, buttoned, collars, cuffs, have a wide range. Rarely have the styles been such that almost in every case can they be individual.

The bolero type coat is very popular with tails of varying lengths, and the cutaway coat is a close second in popularity.

The peplum of the latter stands out from the figure. Tunic and tiered skirts are as much to be seen as the draped models.

Sleeves are of many varieties. Some are set on a very long shoulder line coming well down on the arm; some are of the kimono variety; more recent ones are cut-raglan style, and the latter admits of many variations of "set in" forms.

Many of the new sleeves start from the waist line and many are of the bat wing variety.

Modest yokes are to be seen either in the front or the back of the new coats and the skirts, too, show the same idea in the yoke effect for many of the tunics are set on the skirt, four or five inches below the waist line. These skirt tunics are circular in shape, fitting where they are applied to the skirts.

The bustle effect is certainly the latest tendency to be noted and the fulsome drapery which we have become used to seeing below the waist on sides of the figure no doubt will move slowly but surely to the rear of the skirt.

Vests and yet again vests, for we are to have them in many forms and styles.

FOR TANGO COSTUME

Whatever pertains to the tango costume appeals to the girl who dances. Beginning with the dancer's feet, which are of most importance, since, lacking them, she would be wholly out of the running, there are for the satin, suede or kid slippers attachable heels in silver or gold color, which flash fascinatingly as she whisks along. The pearl, crystal, rhinestone or cut steel encrusted heels which came in for evening slippers a few years ago, are again in high favor, but chiefly for tango occasions, and to go with them come sets of ten buckles through which may be laced ribbons that wind round about and support the ankles.

Better than the slipper and ankle lacing, however, are the high boots in kid or satin, these, while very soft and pliable, support the ankles and prevent them from turning in the swift, sudden movements of the more complicated figures of the tango. With these new boots, which are without trimmings, are worn tango "wings" made of jewel-encrusted gauze or of tiny ostrich plumes rooted in a little cluster of flowers, a bowknot or a buckle in brilliants.

Many girls discard the corset when dressing for a tango ball. But for the figure that is too rounded to go unrestrained there are corsets in French kid, having a single bone at either side, which are the acme of comfort. Usually the tango girl is so slender that her figure is most graceful when confined merely by a "brassiere" of moderately heavy linen over which she wears a bodice in all-over duchesse or Valenciennes lace, in set or shalms, with ribbon shoulder straps, which is actually the lining of an equally sheer waist.

Because the tango girl across gloves she breaks the long line of her arm, from elbow to wrist, with several bracelets. None of them are expensive, since Dame Fashion is now on cordial terms with imitation jewels if they are set in precious metals. If the tango girl is wearing jeweled heels or wips on her slippers, one may confidently expect to find the same sort of jewelry on her forearms, and nearly always she wears a bracelet watch—the well-bred tango girl sets a limit to her dancing hours in coral, blue, sea green, many-colored or maize-toned enamelling, encrusted with brilliants.
