In the meantime there is Kentville that also wants the poor house located in its vicinity, and it seems that they have about one hundred acres of land, a part of their memorial park which they don't need, and think it would make an ideal location for the poor farm. The fact that the property would enjoy town water and eletric light is a factor in their theory that Kentville is the spot.

HOCKEY NOTES

There has been some confusion regarding the game which the Wolfville boys played at Canning last week. As reported in the Halifax papers the game was a tie as a win for Wolfville by the score of 4 to 3. To show that our account of the game was correct we have secured from the referee a statement as to the result, statement follows:

'To any it may concern:
As referee of game between Wolfville and Canning, at Canning on the night of Jan. 9, 1922, I declare that, acting on ion of the goal judges at the said Wolfville to have won by a score

MRS. EVANGELINE BOWLES.

We deeply regret to announce death last Sunday at the Westwood Hos-pital, after a long and painful illness, borne with remarkable patience and fortitude of Mrs. E. P. The fun which took place on Tuesday from he recently purchased home on Main street was largely attended and was held at St. John's (Anglican) Church, the Rector were laid beside those of her husband in the adjoining burying ground. The pall-bearers were Messrs. T. L. Harvey, J. D. Sherwood, Bishop and Geo. Munro. Special music was rendered by the choir. There were a number of wreaths.

It seems but the day before yesterday when the deceased, a beautiful young girl. came to Wolfville as the bride of Dr. Edward P. Bowles, then one of the leading medical practitioners in the County of Kings. In the early bloom and vigor of life and possessed of a charming personality, she soon gathered around her a large circle of friends. She became a prominent figure in the social life of the town. A member of the Anglican Church, she took an active part in its work, but was always ready to extend a helping hand to other religious bodies in the town. Her bright cheery disposition, to which was added a strong sense of humour and a brave indomitable spirit, which never deserted her to thelast conscious hours of came to Wolfville as the bride of Dr. Eder faculties, and so as able to give minut directions as to the settlement of her affairs. VOCAL THERAPY

In two of his letters the Apostle Paul recommends the ministry of singing to his fellow-Christians. It is not perhaps the sort of counsel we should expect from this robust and intellectual apostle. We scarcely imagine the gift of song as part of our conception of his marvellous equipment.

It is probable that we get a true image of the man if we think of him toiling along his exacting roads in the mood of song. The man who broke into singing at midnight in the prison of Phillippi when a few hours before he had been beaten with Roman thongs has a very active sort of minstrelsy in his soul and it would wake into music at the lightest touch of events.

At any rate he strongly urges the use of singing as one of the inspiring helps in the the principal obstacles in the way of a spititual life.

And who has not known the inspiration of song? Who has not known the stale flatness of some depressing scene lifted way by the ministry of song?

Sometimes a light surprises
The Christian while he sings. Yes and when the light breaks upon the oul like some shaft of sunshine breaking rough on a cloudy day the bird is ap sing all the more with the result tha wilight passes into glorious day.

Sir Frederick Mott gave an admirable cture some time ago to a society which ears the attractive name of "The Vocas Therapy Society." He told a fascinating tory of how music is now being used i the ministry of healing. At the Maudesley lospital it has passed far beyond the experimental stage and is in confident and constant practice. It is being used in neryous disorders and in restoring menta powers to ex-Service men. The distracted resciousness is being led back into unity and peace. Lost memory is being recovered The holy healing Spirit of God is broodng over the stricken spirits of men and is storing their broken estate through the eductive and mollifying ministry of musiand song. Is this a neglected gift in the aspiring ife of the soul? It may be that just here many a one will find the magic secret which gives wings to leaden feet and changes weariness into strength.—British

BUSINESS OUTLOOK BRIGHTER

TORONTO Jan. 14-In a review of industrial conditions and the outlook for 1922 in the January issues of Industria Canada the official publication of the Cana lian Manufacturers' Association 150 prominent Canadian manufacturers take optimistic view of the situation. It is the opinion of the majority that Canada has seen the worst of the depress on and from now a slow but steady improvement is anticipated. Opinions differ argely according to lines of industry as to when normal activities will be resumed.

In some industries the change for the better has already taken place; in the others the turning point is placed about March or April; in a limited number no appreciable betterment is expected until the fall. High freight rates and low prices for agricultural products are regarded as more rapid recovery.

Internal Baths Check Deadly Effects of Hardening of Arteries

High blood pressure, meaning harden-ing of the arteries and heart disease, is a condition which frequently becomes dan gerous after the age of forty. As is well known the blood pressure is regulated by the state of the artereis. Hence it shoul be our aim to keep our arteries as young as possible.

Dossible.

The best means of reducing blood pressure and preventing hardening of the arteries lies in taking sufficient outdoor exercise and in keeping the system well regulated. Constipation must not be permitted to exert its harmful effects. It is the cause of auto-intoxication (or self-poisoning) with many attendant ills—headaches, biliousness, lack of energy, sleeplessness and indigestion.

The one means of effectually reaching the seat of these ailments is the Internal Bath. Pure warm water, applied with the J. B. L. Cascade cleanses and purifies the intestinal tract and removes the poisonous waste which accumulates there. The use of medicines for constipation is harmful. The "J. B. L." Cascade will be shown and explained to you by A. V. Rand, Druggist, Wolfville, N. S., who will also give you free on request an interesting booklet by Dr. Charles A. WINDSOR WON FROM CANNING

WINDSOR N. S. Jan. 13-The Windsor team played its first home game to-night in the Valley League and succeeded in beating the Canning aggregation by the score of 9-2. Windsor had the best of the play all through and the score is a good indication of the game. About a minute after the face off the home team went through playing nice combination and placed the puck in the net for the first score. Canning came right back but were not able to bag a goal until near the end of the session. Windsor scored two more before the bell rang and the first period came to an end with a two goal advantage t

After ten minutes of slow play in the third period Windsor found the net for number seven and five minutes later they repeated. Canning made some desperate efforts to score but the home team kept them well bottled and they did not get past centre with the puck. One minute before the bell Windsor finished their scoring with a pretty run that netted the rubber for the last counter of the game which finished 9-2 for Windsor.

The game was late starting as the special train form Canning did not arrive until ten o'clock. About 200 spectators accompanied the team form Canning

LOVELY LAKE WINDERMERE

Lake Windermere district, just west of the Canadian Rockies, seems well on the way to become one of the most popular summer resorts in British Columbia, or in fact Western Canada. It lies in a Valley, the stillness of which had not been broken by the sound of a locomotive until five years ago, like some beautiful thing slumbering and knowing nothing but a few scattered settlements. Fort Kootenay, it is true was constructed as far back as 1807, but David Thompson, the explorer, who built that fort could foresee no more than the Indians with whom he traded what the Valley could give to mankind. The Kootenay Trail, commonly known as the Old Whiskey Trail ran from Fort Steele to Windermere, then across the Rockies by way of the Sinclair Canyon and the Kootenay River to the construction gangs of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Whiskey, of course, was contraband in those days, and the trail resulted in much profit to the

THE ROYAL ARMS OF CANADA

Canada entered the Great War a country of somewhat doubtful and uncertain standing. She emerged from the conflict a nation, secure in her independence, standing firmly upon her own feet, the equal in council of the bodies politic of the world.

This status she won by force of arms, by the glorious achievements of her sons upon the field of battle, where, from the outset, she played a nation's part. Her eople's gradual conception of this subtle change grew throughout the years of hostilities, and upon their termination Can-ada set her feet in the ways of peace-time progress, instigated by a new national oride and in a new consciousness of her

It is probable that out of this recognition of new birth sprang the desire for a new coat of arms, which should be dis-tinctly emblematic of the Dominion, and which has resulted in the new Royal Arms recently adopted. These are a variant upon the Royal Arms of England, the countries of England, Ireland, Scotland and France being represented on the shield, supported by a lion bearing the Union Jack and a unicorn, bearing the ancient arms of France. Beneath is the Motto "A mari usque ad mare."(From sea to sea.)

Thus the new insignia illustrates the relationship of the Dominion to the British Empire and perpetuates the two great aces which have formed the main sources of the origin of her people. Pithily the motto suggest Canada's vast extent. Writing on this subject, Prof. Percy

E. Nobbs, of McGill University, says: "Whilst the feeling of the Canadian people would appear to be decidedly against titular honors and the interest in personal coats of arms is slight, many Canadian cities and towns have adopted their own coats of arms, these in some instances being registered at the College of Heralds in London. All the provinces both new and old, have beautiful and appropriate coats of arms, duly granted, and used to the full by provincial governments both as decorations and on occasions as flags.
"The Federal authority has, however up till recently, been less well furnished, and the maple leaf, the beaver, the arms of the first four provinces to federate marshalled together on a quartered field, and, last but not least, a marshalled coat of arms of all the nine provinces have all been used as a symbol of sovereignty in a rather indiscriminate fashion."

Now, however, a uniform emblem is decided and granted for all time, to symbolize the confederated provinces of the Domnion of Canada wherever seen or encour

The democratic spirit which permeates the Canadian people does not favor private titles or the universal pomp of heraldry or any phase anomalous from that true democracy which is Canadian nat-ional life. But Canadians take pride in their country being so dignified in its possession of insignia which, at the one time symbolizes independent national status, the Empirical partitive, and the unifica-

VALLEY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION IN SESSION AT BRIDGETOWN

The first Regular Meeting of the Valley Medical Association for 1922 was held in Bridgetown on Friday, January 13th, 1922

The Membership of this Association is made up of the Doctors of Kings, Annapolis and Digby Counties. The Society has had a creditable record and has been of great value to the Public and to the Profession in these three Counties. The Doctors in attendance were:-L

SOMETHING FARMERS SHOULD READ.

The farmer being a business menseller of goods- he ought to advertise just as all other successful business man advertise. He too, will be successful in that little business matter o. winning bank accounts when he advertises lib-

But a first-class way to find out that 'advertising doesn't pay' is to adver-ise unintelligently. One of our justly noted farm magazines prints two advertisements that illustrate this point very clearly indeed.

John Smith having ten very fine Holstein cows, and being nearly out of feed, ran this ad in his nearby town paper: FOR SALE-Ten cows. Price reason le. John Smith, Plodtown. Then John sat down and waited. There was nothing arousing, or interesting, or attractive or appealing in that ad. Moreover, it didn't tell the facts that farmers wanting to buy cows whated to know. few letters came to John, every one m asking questions. Some even desired to know what was the matter with the cows that he was trying to sell "reason ably". John had to write back answers to all the questions and then a few more letters came back asking more questions. Meanwhile, the feed gave out and John had to sell in desperation for less than two thirds the value to a neighbor who knew his predicament.

Our magazine editor says that Tom Jones put the following ad in his country town paper:

FOR SALE—Ten heavy producing grade Holstein cows, five years old. Price $100 each. Fresh in September. Forced to sell on account of feed shortage. Tom Jones, Peptown.

read his ad didn't have to ask questions. The ad told all they wanted to know and they accepted when the appeal was fresh in their minds

Now Tom's ad cost twice as much as John's probably 50 cents more But Tom got $1000 for his cows and John

Don't be miserly with your words; in the long run they cost almost nothing. But don't waste them either, folks. Ton

TED STACKHOUSE MAKING GOOD AT TOTONTO.

TORONTO, Jan 13.-Commenting on the Ottawa-St. Patrick game on Wednesday night the Mail and Empire says:
"Stackhouse was given a chance in the ast five minutes of the game and while the Ottawa reports say that he did not show much the local club is satisfied with his performance. He was no sooner on the ice than he stepped into Broadbent with a sturdy but legitimate check just in front of the Governor-General's box and was promptly told by Cooper Smeaton that such an action was hardly the proper thing to do. In his attempt to please the first citizen of the Dominion the "Bluenose" then abtained possession of the rubber and stickhandled through the entire Ottawa team and was about to shoot on

Benedict when the final bell rang.

FLOWERS IN WINTER

Hyacinths, Narcissi, Tulips and Lilies can be Grown in the House.

Bulbs of various kinds, grown indoors during the winter months, add much to the attractiveness of home surroundings and their culture should be more general than it is. A bulletin dealing with the matter in detail, prepared by the Super-intendent of the Dominion Experimental Station on Vancouver Island, has recently been issued by the Department of Agri-culture, Ottawa, and is available upon request. Provided certain essentials are observed, success is easy. A glass house is not necessary, but only a good basement and sunny windows. The temperature must not be permitted at any time to re gister more than six degrees of frost. Roman hyacinths, Paper White narcissus and Freesias will supply all the winter bulb bloom desired, up to the end of Jan-uary. After the first of February, the Dutch Hyacinth, early varieties of nar-cissi, and early tulips, will provide a wealth of bloom as extensive and attractive as one can wish for. The writer says that he has prepared the bulletin chiefly with the view of aiding farm women to brighter their homes and door-yards during the dull season, but there is no reason why dwellers in town and country alike, should not do the same thing if they will follow the instructions that are set forth. Lists of suitable varieties are given. The requirements, besides care and attention, are a good quality of bulb, firm and of decent size, flower pots, pans or boxes and some fine garden loam, and sand. To know the treatment that must be followed. it is necessary to consult the bulletin, in which the methods are also given that should be apdoted for outdoor cultivation in colder districts. It would appear from the bat—providing the cows were as he represented, of course. The farmers who read his ad didn't have to call. and Albert.a

hone of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Eisenhauer, an, at 9 o'clock, Thursday evening, Edvard Clemeth Hennigar, of Wolfville

The bride looked charming in white organizations. Duchesse satin, trimed with fringe and wearing the conventional veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations with streamers of white ribbon. The bride entered the parlour or the arm of her father and took her place beside the groom, under a beautiful arch of evergreen and white from which was suspended a large bell.

Miss Erma Eisenhauer, sister of the bride, was dressed in pale blue crepe-de chene, and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations, was bridesmaid. The groot was supported by his brother, 'Norris The Lohengrin Wedding March was beautifully rendered by Mr. Harry Kinsman.

While the bride and groom were re ceiving congratulations from the relative and friends, Mrs. Harland sang "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden." After the service a dainty lunch was served to about eighty-five relatives and friends, The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful set of sable furs, to the bridesmaid a pendant, to the best man a set of cuff links.

The bride's going away suit was of navy blue serge with hat to match. The happy couple left Friday morning amid showers of confetti, by D. A. R., on their honeymoon, visiting riends in Maine, New Hampshire and Mass. On their return they will reside in Greenwich. Mr. Hennigar was a member o the 112th Battalion, having served three years overseas.

The presents were numerous and costly including silver, cut glass, china, linen cheques, etc., and a bedroom suite from parents of the bride.

Canada will shortly have the larges power generating station in the world, at the Queenston end of the Chippewa-Queenston hydro power canal.

Whatever difference of opinion may exist regarding the policy of the so-called Progressive party in Canada, we confess to a liking for the name which they have chosen. Progressiveness should be the policy of the present day. Indications are not wanting that the opposite is too often the policy of our civic, county, provincial and federal rulers. The tendency seems to be for the politician of every grade to keep his ear to the ground and remain passive until ample assurance is given as to what the public are willing to

WINDSOR DEFEATED CANNING

Centest was a Thriller, Windso Gaining the Victory by One Goal

CANNING, N. S., January 16—The fastest and most interestin game of hockey that has been played in the local rink for years was witnessed tonight by 700 en-thusiastic fans, when Windsor defeated the local aggregation be the close score of four goals to three. The game was played on a splendid sheet of ice and was hard fought all through. No penalties were handed out, the players seeming to realize that they were of more that they were of more assistance to their team on the ice than in the penalty box. From the outset the game had all the ear-marks of a championship fixture, and the pace was so tremendously fast that it seemed impossible for the players to keep seemed impossible for the players to keep it up, but both teams were out to win and the killing pace was maintained. Windsor was the first to break into the score sheet, and before the first period came to an end they had marked up two.

In the second period the visitors added two more, but the local boys gave their supporters a chance to shout by sagging the twine once.

supporters a chance to shout by sagging the twine once.

The third period will live long in the memory of those that were lucky enough to see the game. Canning, apparently hopelessly defeated, staged the greatest rally that has ever been seen in this town. From the first whistle they played the visitors to a standstill. Time after time shots were rained on Smith, but the visitor was a regular stonewall and turned them saide. Canning were not to be denied however, and before the end of the period they had sagged the draperies behind Smith for two of the cleanest goals of the game, and were trying desperately for the equiand were trying desperately for the equiser as the bell rang for the end of the game. The teams lined up as follows:

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING OF ST. JOHNS CHURCH.

The annual parish meeting of the Par-ish of Horton was held last Monday in the Parish Hall. There was a good attendance. The rector presided and opened the meeting with prayer and then read his annual report for the past year. All the services had been kept up and the parish had been systematically visited. The Sunday School is in a flourishing condition and at present has the largest membership in its history. It possesses a band of devoted and efficient teachers and its finances are in an excell-ent condition. The financial statement for the year presented by the Senior Warden, Mr. R. Creighton of the Royal Bank, showed a large increase in the pledged revenue, of the church and the payment in full of every liability, with a balance to the good, A special canvas of the parishioners for increased subscriptions recently made was most successful. The Parish Room has had a very prosperous year. The rector referred to its acquisition as creating an epoch in the history of the parish, by quickening and extending its activities in sers. R. Creighton and H. Troyte-Bullock were elected Wardens for the ensuing year, and Messrs. A. G.Cowie and Harry Brown, Lay-delegates to the Synod with Messrs, Percy Brown and W. C Milner as substitutes. Messrs, N. Evan and Lionel Pearman were added to the vestry. Hearty 'votes of thanks were passed to the retiring Wardens, the School teachers and Choir for their services and also on motion of Mr. R. Creighton to Mr. and Mrs. Dakin and family for their valuable services as caretakers of the Parish Hall. It was decided to dissolve the "Cent a Day Fund", in connection with which Mrs. T. L. Harvey has done a most useful work for the past few years a most useful work for the past few years and for which the thanks of the rector and congregation are herewith tendered. Mr. G. A. Prat reported argood deal of work on the graveyard and the collection of a considerable sum for that purpose. A most successful and harmonious meeting was brought to a close with the bedediction from the Chairman and used their heads. They became very hable in the business One day they both went to the head of the actory and sakedhowmuch he would sell He replied that his price was 50,000. The boysasked for a short option.

The next day they called at the office of the president of one of the banks in the town.

They said they wanted to borrow $50,000. It means being master of yourself and all The important man rather sat up in his chair at this request and asked what se-curity they could give. "We can give nothing "replied one of the boys, "ex-cept our word that we will pay it back. We mount of work. You lay out your own pro want to buy that shoe factory. We have gram. That means a lot of responsibility. Regured it all out, know where the leaks are and that we can make it a big

"See me tomorrow at 9 o'clock", replied the banker.

At ten minutes before nine the next day the two boys awaited their appointment. Soon the banker arrived and invited the boys into his private office,

"Boys" he said "I have decided to give you the money but it will not be the bank's money. It will be my own. I have watched you boys for a long time I have noticed that you have been workers, that you have always been in your seats on time at church and that you have made up your mind to win!"

Briefly this is the story of one of the reatest shoe factory successes in the world.

And it is a true story. I dare say that theuse to which that banker put his $50 000 was the best investment he ever made.

After all human beings are still the great-est investments in the world from the standpoint of big returns.

Perhaps no other Canadian industry shows the relative growth of the automo bile industry. Thecensus returns for 1900 did not recognise this as a separate industry In 1910 the production was a little over $6,000,000, but tenyears later this had risen to over $101,000,000, and since ther the industry has continued to develop. Capital invested in the past ten years rose from under five to over fifty-six million

ICE SUPPLY ON THE FARM

(Experimental Farms Note.)

One day last summer I met a farmer who had been to the station with his crea He had just received his cheque for July and showed his account with the Company for the same month. It credited him with 52 pounds butter fat at 47 cents from first 52 pounds butter lat at 47 cents from irst grade cream and 224 pounds butter fat at 37 cents from second grade cream. When I asked himhow he came to have so much sour cream he said he had no ice and that his well water wouldn't keep his cream sweet especially over Sunday. Then I asked him why he hadn't put up "Well" he said "It was too much bother."

A glance at the figures in this m count will show that he lost $22,40 that month by not having ice.

Outside of its use in the dairy, ice is es ential in the farm home for supplying the refrigerator in which meats, butter and other perishable foods can be kept fresh for a number of days.

To know how much ice to put up the following is a safe rule to follow:—If engaged in the city milk trade the farmer should put up two tons of ice per cow, if supplying cream one ton per cow is suffent, and four tons for household use

In putting up ice, one foot below the ice, one foot along each side and two feet above should be allowed for the sawdust. If the weather is cold it is a good plan to pack damp snow between the cakes This prevents the air from melting the ice.

Ice may be stored in the corner of a woodshed or outbuilding but it is better to bave a building especially built for the purpose because the dampness is apt to rot sills and walls.

In building two things are essential. drainage and ventilation. Unless the soil is sandy a few inches of gravel under the ice, with a drain to carry off the water is necessary. By having openings in the gables a draught can be secured which will carry away the warm air under the roof. Plans and suggestions for farm ice houses can be obtained free from the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, or from your nearest Experimental Station.

As ice often comes into direct contact with food and drink, it is important to secure it as clean as possible. It should never be taken form streams or ponds into which there is any drainage from houses or barns. Disease germs lying dormant in the ice may become very active if they get into man's food. Good clear ice, free from snow, har-vested before it begins to melt is the best. Ice is free for the taking and requires only a little labour in harvesting therefore why shouldn't it be used on every farm when it gives such good returns not only as cash but in convenience to the house

RECITAL AT BERWICK.

An unusually interesting progra in piano and voice was rendered by Miss Harriet Emily Gourlay one of Nova Scotia's most talented musicians, at the residence of Mrs. Ambrose Palmer, South Berwick, on Thursday evening, Dec. 29th.

The audience was necessarily limited a few friends of the artist. The proto a few friends of the artist.

gramme was as follows:
Piano: "Deutsche liebes-lieder Valses." band music arranged for piano by Hartmann.

'Chant du Paysan'', Rendano. 'Impromptu,' Schubert.

Voice: Scotch-English classics. Prelude, "Regimental march of the Argyle and Sutherland Highlanders-

'My Heart's in the Highlands," Burns-Gaelic melody.

'Flow gently, sweet Afton,' Burns-Robin Adair," (said to be a favorite of the late Queen Victoria.) Burns-Lady Albermarle-O'Daly.

Annie Laurie,'' Douglas-Lady John

(James Laurie owned a large farm in Dumfrieshire, called-Tragastown. Annie was seventeen years old, and loved by the foreman of the farm, for which he discharged. He went to his home in Maxwellton, and was taken very ill. Annie went to him, and waited upon him until his death.)

The pathetic experience of Douglas and Annie gave inspiration to the song: "'Douglas, tender and true,' by the same music composer.) Voice: Classics in English:

'Peace on Earth, Goodwill to men,' Sears-Sullivan

'Sleep, gentle mother,' (Trovatore.)

Verdi. 'The Bridge, 'Longfellow-Lady Carew "The old oaken bucket," Wordsworth Kiallmark, from "The Old Homestead. 'Rock-a-bye baby," Effie I. Canning. (The lullaby is taken from Indian lore.) God save the King. God save the Prince. Chorus, The Maple Leaf.

God save our gracious Prince; Long live our noble Prince; God save our Prince. God watch o'er all his ways;

Grant peace through all his days; To Thee we render praise, God save our Prince.—H. E. G. The entire programme was marked by faultless reading, accent, phrasing, crescendo and decrescendo, and an interpretation which would satisfy even the composers of both words and music

In the first number, in imagination the band could be heard in its different movements from the introduction onward, and as it passed in stately manner from song to song, increasing in tempo to the grand finale, a realization of the possibilities of the pianoforte were delightful satisfaction.

Following the brilliant German number came the sweet, flowing tones of the Chant of the French peasants, from baritone to soprano and return, as they wend their way home from their daily work.

The beautiful light and shade of the Chant, ending in the softest of pianissimo as the tones of the singers become distant, was given in skillful, soulful expression. One of the best of Schubert's Allegro Impromptus, was played with the free arm touch in fine accent and tone, bringing dience back from the dreamy mus of the Chant.

Again the piano became an imitator a pathos which could not be excelled. The true Scotch heart is revealed in "Robin Adair," almost in the same degree as in "Annie Laurie," thus:

"But now thou'rt cold to me, Robin Adair,

But now thou'rt cold to me, Robin Adair,
Yet he I loved so well
Still in my heart shall dwell,
Oh! I can ne'er forget
Robin Adair.''

It is easy to understand how a woman-like Queen Victoris, of England, would admire the song, and the admiration would have increased on hearing the present rendition by one of Canada's daughters. "We thought we had heard 'Annie Laurie' sung, and also had sung it our-selves; but this evening we have decided we were mistaken." Loyalty, tenderness, sorrow, joy, prideand a touch of piquance "We thought we had heard Annie Laurie' sung, and also had sung it our selves; but this evening we have decided we were mistaken." Loyaity, tenderness, sorrow, joy, prideand a touch of piquancy werz each a part of the beautiful tones—a lesson for parents in thoughtfulness for their children, and formen and misidensin permitting their heart to guide them instead on minor considerations.

"The Blue Bells of Scotland" relieved the tension, with its quaint, cheery words

Sears well-known hymn "It came upon the midnight clear," in Sullivan's setting, gives the angel's song, in realistic beauty above the pathetic needs of the weary warring world. "Peace on Earth, goodwill to men," and the Christ love renews hope and courage, as the song is repeated

Miss Gourlay possesses a clear, sweet resonant, mezzo-soprano voice of good which easily passes range and power, from soprano into the contralto register—
"The Bridge" affording an excellent example. Lady Carew's composition is not so often sung as is Miss Lindsay's, but, without a doubt, deserves much praise, especially when Miss Gourlay

"The old oaken bucket," and "Rocka-bye Baby "were well received, especially the latter, which caused hearty applaus

The audience was requested to unite in singing the anthems, including the stanza in honor of Prince Edward.

A fine picture of the Prince was given ace on the piano, which inspired After the programme a social hour was spent, during which a light lunch was served.

A nation is always better in cultivating and entertaining good music, and as divisions make the whole, improved attention in the cities, towns, and villages of our provinces wouldbe fraught with good result s.

"Not failure, but low aim is crime. Aim high, although the desired goal be never reached. "Music is a thing of the soul, a rose-lipped shell, singing the songs of another shore."-Contributed.

WHY THE MERCHANT?

Under the above heading one of our able exchanges says there are some things in life that pass human understanding and one of these is the habit people have then they want to build a church, erect a Y. M. C. A., pay an evangelist or do other things of a public nature which costs money in towns of this size, they expect the business men of that town, the mer-chants on the street, to bear the big end of the expense of it. No matter how many men there may be in the town not in bus ess and with oodles of money, the mer chant is the fellow who is bled the hardest because he happens to have a stock of goods and because, mainly, he seeks the patronage of the public, and the implication is at least, that if he does not "dough up," he will lose a portion of it—an im-plied blackmail. The merchant he pays the freight, and then the tight-wad, the follow with the money he is going to take with him, sits back and enjoys the benefit of the the other fellow's enterprise and liberality.

Why, will someone tell us, should the merchant always be milked? What is the side of the Fielding Road (so called) at ogic of it? It surely is not because he is rich, for that is seldom the case. He is harrassed from more rides than any other man in the business world. The mail order house takes some of the business that be keep his trade away, he has to carry on his books a lot of dead beats, often who wear good clothes, smale word by Beriamin Jackson and by lands owned by John Lucas to lands owned by Brenton good clothes, smale word by Brenton good clothes, smoke good cigars and gal-avant around while he has his nose to the avant around while he has his nose to the grindstone. AN INTERESTING ENTERTAINMENT

For dainty and fairy originality, fo oiquant and lovely imagery, and for picture of that rare combination of sturdy nergy with delicate grace which make human childhood, we commend the exhibition ot folk dancing by Miss Helen Starr's class on the afternoon of Friday January 13th. The audience in the Wolf ville Opera House was large, and mos appreciative of the charming entertainment. The programme included Swedish Norwegian. German, Bohemian, French Danish. Scotch and Irish dances, a mos delightful and amusing Mother Goos Drill, with some original dances of Miss Starr's own composition. The whole might be ensidered an idealization of the activities of life, with a very definite look at the various national and social influence which are brought to bear upon us continually. The costumes showed that the people of Wolfville need not go elsewhere week attending the annual meeting of to find an artist in design. With the beautiful woodland background, the dancing

Tuesday morning for Florida, where ies and loved to have their little one they will spend the winter visiting the lock like them. Perhaps the prettiest thing on the programme was the dance called "Butterfly", arranged by Miss Starr and danced by Ruth Russell and John Eaton, but for energy and verve we would assign the palm to the "Highland Fling", danced by Marian Eaton and Gertrude Phinney We are very glad the children of Wolfville may have instruction in the beautiful art of folk dancing, and by so competent teacher. Miss Starr was prepared for this work by study in Europe, and, as an add-
