D. W. STOTHART.

Town Council Regular Session Thursday Night Delegation From the Town Improvement League Present and Discussed Scott Act Matters

The regular monthly meeting of the Newcastle Town Council, was postponed from the 20th to the 27th on account of many of the members attending the Recruiting meeting on the former date. The recruiting meeting lasting till after 9 o'clock, it was then too late to legally hold a Council meeting. So the Councilors met in Committee of the Whole and discussed matters pertaining to Finance, including assessment.

The Council met in regular session on the 27th, Mayor Stothart in the chair and full Board present. Mayor Stothart reported from the Committee of the Whole, the following recommendations, which had there been carried by a majority vote:

1. That a committee of the Town Improvement League be heard at 9 o'clock.
 2. That both policemen be employed as collectors of Default taxes, each on a commission of 10 per cent.
 3. That a special man be employed to distribute the tax notices.
- Ald. Craghan, seconded by Ald. McGrath, moved that the recommendations be adopted.
- Ald. Hayward thought one policeman should be the collector and responsible, and the other his assistant.
- Ald. Doyle thought that if one collector had shown good results, two would show still better. It was up to the Council to get better results.
- Ald. McKay said that the lists could be divided, to prevent any eluding. It was merely a matter of detail to be worked out by the committee.
- The Mayor thought it could be handled by the Finance Committee.
- Ald. Craghan said, give each collector certain bills for which he'd be responsible.
- Motion carried.
- Ald. McGrath submitted following bills of Finance Committee:
- | | |
|--------------------------------|-----------------|
| N. S. Leeder, advt. and pte. | $42.75 |
| Union Advocate, advt. and pte. | 13.95 |
| Newsome & Gilbert, stationery | 4.80 |
| Assessors | 322.84 |
| Total | $384.34 |

Adoption of report was moved by Ald. McGrath and Craghan.

Ald. Stuart, who had raised the same question in Committee of the Whole before the tax bills were issued and the tax collectors decided upon, objected to the payment of the assessors' bill until they should have prepared an assessment correct and complete according to law, that is, that all real estate, personal property and income (allowing for legal exemptions) be valued and assessed at their full value. He claimed again that this had not been done, and that the Tax Bills should not have been issued until the necessary corrections had been made. For instance, The Universal Radio Syndicate's property was assessed for school purposes at only $15,000, when it should have been assessed for at least $115,000. Thus, supposing the other real estate were properly assessed, the town, in this one case, was losing the school tax on $100,000, which would amount to more than $1,000.

Ald. Stuart went on to point out what he claimed were mistakes in assessment of income, when His Worship the Mayor ruled any further objection to the assessment as out of order, on the following grounds:

1. That Ald. Stuart had not made to the assessors a statement of his own property and income; and
2. That the time for objecting to the assessment had gone by.

per month, payable at the end of each month, current for said lamps to be furnished from dark to daylight every day.

"Should the Militia Department instal more lamps or lamps of a greater capacity than stated above, the amount paid per month shall be increased proportionately.

"All material and labor necessary for installation of above service shall be furnished by the Militia Department, and the installation shall be open to inspection by the Town Authorities at any time.

"This agreement may be terminated at any time by one week's notice in writing being given by either party thereto."

Ald. McKay also reported that the Water & Light Committee had agreed to furnish water to Crandall & Harrison for $50 for the season, exclusive of the $8 paid for their cook-house tap.

On motion of Ald. McGrath and Doyle, both agreements were ratified by the Council.

Following Water & Light bills were passed:

Inverness Ry. & Coal Co.	$73.36
Inverness Ry. & Coal Co.	75.44
H. A. Russell	10.35
Canadian Oil Co.	50.40
Garlock Pecking Co.	52.53
Imperial Oil Co.	5.34
Eastern Electric Co.	6.93
Can. Gen. Elec. Co.	15.13
T. McAvity & Sons	152.84
John Abrams Sons Ltd.	15.22
Total	$457.54

The Scott Act Inspector, W. O. Chamberlain reported as follows for April:

Scott Act violations four, 3 fines paid: 1 fine standing. Amount of fines paid $150.00. Magistrate's costs $12.00; Constable's fees $3.25.

Police Court—4 cases for drunkenness; 3 fines paid, $24.00; one fine standing. Magistrate's fees $8.00; balance $16.00.

T. I. L. Delegation Heard

On motion, it was resolved to hear a delegation from the Town Improvement League consisting of President J. M. Troy and Revs. P. W. Dixon, S. J. MacArthur and M. S. Richardson.

The delegation presented to the Council the three recommendations adopted by the League, on May 18th, as follows:

1. That this Town Improvement League request the Town Council to authorize the policemen to arrest or send home children found on the streets after 9 o'clock at night without good excuse.
2. That the T. I. L. request the Council to appoint a Trustee Officer whose duty it shall be to enforce regular attendance at school as required by the Compulsory Education Act.
3. That Council be requested, to endeavor to have measures adopted whereby drunkards and liquor sellers shall be sentenced to imprisonment rather than fines.

Rev. P. W. Dixon spoke in favor of recommendation No. 3. He said in part, as follows: The Legislature gave Police Magistrates the option of imposing fine, or imprisonment for first offences. It was evidently the intention of the law to restrict the sale of liquor. But we found that offenders have generally been fined only, thus defeating the law's intention. When judges find that the sale, it was their duty to change their methods. The T. I. L. wished to see its work effectively done, and it asked the Mayor and Council to use their influence to bring about the imprisonment rather than the fining of liquor sellers. If this were done the C. T. A. would be a blessing to the public. Most of the Council had been elected to carry out the C. T. A. With their help

HAD HAND BADLY TORN IN EDGER

Joseph Joncas Caught Hand in Edger—Amputation Necessary

A regrettable accident occurred at the W. A. Hickson mill about nine o'clock yesterday morning, when Joseph Joncas, while working at one of the double edgers, had his left hand caught in the saws, tearing his hand in a frightful manner.

When the accident was learned by near-by employees, the unfortunate man was at once hastened to the office of Dr. McGrath, who immediately made preparations to have him removed to the Hotel Dieu hospital at Chatham.

How the accident actually happened is not known, but it is supposed he put his hand down in under to remove a piece of bark from the saws. This, it is claimed was unnecessary. These edgers are so protected by a box-work that accidents are next to impossible, and how he got his arm down far enough to come in contact with the saws is a puzzle.

However, the back of his left hand came in contact with them, cutting through the middle of the hand, leaving the four fingers hanging by a tissue of skin on the palm. Upon examination at the hospital it was found that the hand would have to be amputated at the wrist.

Two Fingers and Thumb Blown Off

Was Picking Dynamite Cartridge With Hatpin When it Exploded

A distressing accident occurred at Eel Ground about twelve o'clock noon on Sunday, when the twelve year old adopted daughter of Thomas Ward, an Indian on that reserve, had the thumb and first and second fingers of the left hand blown off, as a result of picking at a dynamite cartridge, that had been foolishly left lying around, with a hatpin.

Dr. Desmond was immediately sent for and went with all haste to the unfortunate girl. The right hand was also injured, but not so seriously as the left, and her face was badly scratched and torn. After the wounded hand had been washed it was found the fingers and thumb had been taken off close to the hand, which was bad enough, and causing serious pain, but in order to get sufficient tissue for a flap, it was necessary to cut further back on the bone. This accident is a most regrettable one, and should serve as a lesson to those who have cause to use these high explosive cartridges, to be more careful in leaving them lying around where they may be handled by persons ignorant of the danger they are placing themselves in.

Funeral of the Late Col. Maltby Held on Sunday

The Casket Was Draped With the Union Jack and Remains Laid to Rest With Military Honors

The funeral of the late Colonel Richard L. Maltby was held on Sunday afternoon from his late residence at three o'clock, and was one of the largest and most impressive funerals ever held in Newcastle.

The funeral was held under the auspices of the Masonic order, who marched in regalia, and a large delegation of Masons and others from Chatham and other points were present as a last tribute to a departed Brother and citizen.

Before leaving the house, the soldiers of the Wireless Garrison, under command of Sergt. Major Duncan, of Chatham, were formed up on either side of the entrance, and stood at reversed arms while the casket was being brought out. They were then marched to take up their position at the head, followed by the band. The Masons followed, and then behind the hearse and mourners, came the members of the Town Council and about fifty teams.

Upon arrival at the Church the body was met by the rector of the parish, the Rev. W. J. Bate and the Venerable Archdeacon Forsyth of Chatham. Going into the Church the opening sentences of the Burial Office were repeated by the rector and when the mourners were assembled the ninetieth psalm "Lord, Thou hast been our refuge" was chanted by the choir.

Hymn "Blessed are the dead" was then sung, followed by the Lesson 1 Corinthians 15th-20th read by the Archdeacon. Then followed the hymn "On the Resurrection morning" and after the prayers the "Nunc Dimittis" was sung as a recessional.

From the Church the long procession then slowly wended its way to the cemetery where the final part of the Burial Service including the committal "In sure and certain hope of the Resurrection" was said by the rector.

The Masonic burial service was then held, W. A. Park reading the service and Rev. R. G. Fulton, of Chatham, the prayers. At the close the soldiers fired three volleys over the grave.

The funeral was held under the direction of John McDonald & Co., of Chatham, and Messrs. Maher Brothers, also of Chatham, were present as the representatives of the Maritime Funeral Directors' Association, they having been requested by the Secretary of the Association to attend.

The pallbearers were: Hon. John Morley, Hon. John P. Burchill, A. A. Davidson, K. C.; R. H. Armstrong, R. H. Grenley, and J. D. Craghan. The floral tributes were most beautiful, including: Wreath—Family; Broken Pillar—Mayor and Town Council; Cross—Rector, Church Wardens and Corporation of St. Andrew's Church.

The late Col. Maltby died at his home here, after only two weeks' illness, of pneumonia, contracted while on a recruiting tour in the northern part of the province. For upwards of forty years he had been a member of the 12th Newcastle Field Battery, rising from the rank of gunner to that of its commanding officer.

At the outbreak of the present European war, the spirit of patriotism and loyalty which ran high in his blood, made strong his desire to

SPECIAL MEETING OF T. I. LEAGUE

Held Saturday Morning to Consider Appointment of New P. M.

A special meeting of Newcastle Town Improvement League Executive met in Council Chamber Saturday forenoon to consider appointment of new Police Magistrate. There were present: J. M. Troy, Pres.; Mayor Stothart, 2nd V. P.; Ald. H. H. Stuart, Sec-Treas.; Aids. Stables, Doyle, Ritchie, Craghan and Hayward; Revs. P. W. Dixon, S. J. MacArthur, Wm. Harrison, M. S. Richardson and Capt. F. G. Forbes; and Messrs. C. E. Fish, J. J. Ander, F. E. Locke, J. R. Allison, J. H. Ashford, A. McCabe, E. O'Donnell, G. F. McWilliam, J. R. Lawlor, T. W. Crocker.

The matter of Scott Act enforcement and a new Police Magistrate was discussed.

Warm tributes were paid the late Col. R. L. Maltby as to his efficiency as a magistrate.

It was very important that his successor should be friendly to the strict enforcement of the Scott Act. The Mayor said the Town Council had intended to meet the previous night to discuss the same question but had deferred till they had heard from the League.

Ald. Stuart suggested that a ballot be taken as to preference for new Magistrate. T. W. Crocker also wished candidate to be selected then.

C. E. Fish wanted more time to look around for candidates, and a bigger meeting. He understood the government would wait for a recommendation before they made appointment.

Pres. Troy saw no reason why Justices Clark and Lawlor could not fill the bill quite well for a few days. He suggested asking Government to defer appointment till they had heard from the T. I. L. and Town Council.

A motion to this effect was moved by Rev. Mr. Richardson and seconded by Ald. Stuart, and carried.

Mr. McWilliam said that that was just what the Minister of Public Works intended to do—wait for a recommendation.

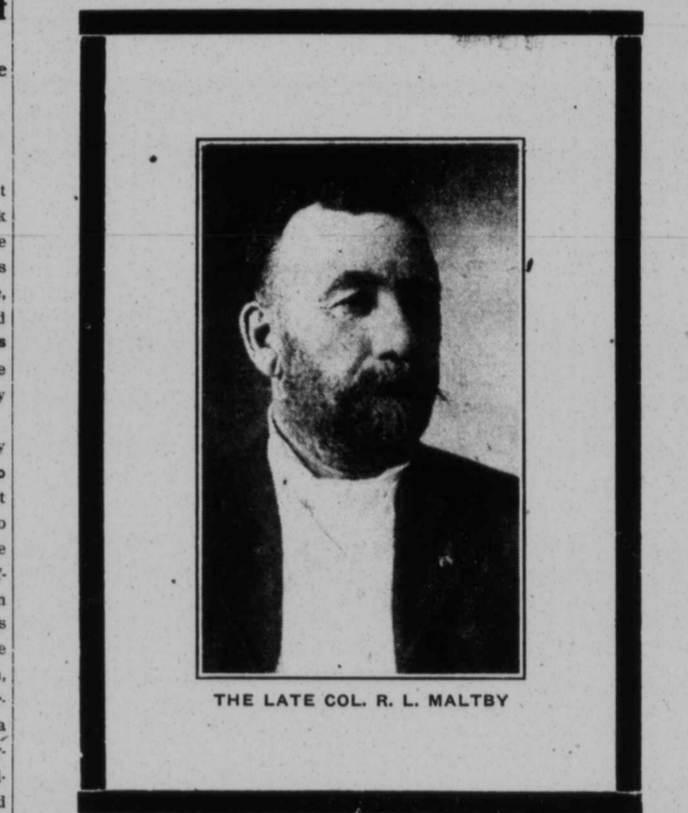

Rev. P. W. Dixon and others insisted that new P. M. must be favorable to Scott Act, and willing to discuss matters.

Several were mentioned as being understood to be candidates.

J. R. Lawlor announced that he was in the field.

On motion of C. E. Fish the Council was asked to also defer action until after hearing from the T. I. L.

It was decided to call a general public meeting to consider the appointment of a Police Magistrate, on Wednesday June 2, at 8.30 p. m.

Lieutenant Aitken Wounded at Front

Lieut Allan Aitken, Brother of Sir Max Aitken Reported Wounded

Word has been received here that Lieutenant Allan Aitken, of the Royal Naval Division, now operating on the Gallipoli Peninsula, has been wounded. Lieut. Aitken is a native of Newcastle, and a brother of Sir Max W. Aitken, the eye-witness for the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Letter From Gunner Bate.

The following is an extract of a letter sent by Gunner George Bate to one of his sisters:

1st Can. Contingent, B. E. F. 8th Field Battery, 2nd Brigade. May 15, 1915.

I suppose you have heard all about the battle around Ypres. We certainly had a wild time of it there for a few days. How so many of us came out alive and unharmed I don't know, for shells from the German heavies kept bursting on all sides.

We lost a good many horses during the battle which made it rather difficult to move the battery. Our guns got so hot from such heavy firing that the oil on the buffers was actually boiling and at every shot the gun would leap clear of the ground. At last they became so hot that we had to stop firing for awhile to permit them to cool down.

They talk of the retreat from Mons and the battle of Neuve Chapelle, but they cannot compare with the battle of Ypres. George McInerney was wounded in the leg and has been sent to England.

A Difference to be Considered

The difference in cost between a pure, wholesome cream of tartar baking powder and one made of alum is a mere trifle, perhaps one cent for a whole cake or pan of biscuits.

But there is a vast difference in healthfulness in favor of food made with Royal Baking Powder.

Read the label on your can of baking powder and see what it is made of. There is which is made from Cream of Tartar, derived from grapes.

The members of the crew of the Nebraska were agreed that the explosion was undoubtedly caused by a torpedo. The forward part of the ship is completely wrecked.

"The Maple Leaf Forever" Cry as Trench Caves In

Graphic Account of N. B. Artillery Boys in Ypres Battle, and Death of Fred Gunn of Chatham

One of the most graphic descriptions possible of the tremendous work at the battle of Langemarck by the artillery arm comes from F. L. Wellington, 5th battery, C. F. A., a Moncton boy. He writes a letter, a portion of which, as given in the Moncton Transcript, says:

"Over the Yper canal and three more kilometers covered, we reached our position. "The French artillery from whom we took over, received us with undisguised interest and pleasure. They had been there forty-three days and had not, up to that time, been spotted by the 'Boches.' "In this unenviable position of mixed batteries, the confounded Germans started on Thursday afternoon what seemed to be one of their usual little flurries. It proved, however, the commencement of the fight which caused the war office to issue the statement that our 'gallantry and determination undoubtedly saved the situation. Their conduct has been magnificent throughout.' "Lieutenants Tingley and Evans were the 'forward' observing officers and I can verify say that they 'had their work cut out' observing. "We had not been 'pumping lead' many minutes before the hasty stride and fearful glance of the Algerians from the trenches in front of us, swarming through our guns, made us puzzle our already tingling 'think boxes' as to what was happening. "I was at the battery 'phone, and presently the major and the gunners already 'perspiring under necessary pressure, began to grow dim, tears involuntarily rushed to my eyes and although scarcely able to see I could hear the boys giving vent to ejaculations of a peculiar tone, which I myself a few moments later was compelled to utter. "Driven Back by Gas

"The gas," which we heard of and suffered under for the first time, showed us clearly why the attack was so hot and why the Algerians were 'beating it.' "It was becoming serious. Our guns were hot—so were our heads. "The Germans have broken through," was the cry (censored here). "Cultured vesper," "melenite," with such will and courage that today we are proud to raise our hats and salute them. "Horseshoe formations in the 'Allies' line are many, but this was 'war.' It was an acute angle that we were in. The Germans were closing in on our left flank. To save the guns the order was to retire. Bullets were already spitting around the guns, and when rifle bullets are that close to the artillery, the infantry are surely endangered and hard pressed. "The 6th and 7th covered our orderly retirement, and when rounding the bend by the 2nd brigade headquarters, the bullets whistled around our heads like hail, we thought, "Now's the time to show our mettle." (Censored here). "From that moment, up to the time when we pulled out of action on the 6th, we were in a perfect inferno. "Words cannot describe the intense pent-up feelings of excitement and 'enough' determination to prove ourselves worthy of the country we represented. "After the space of fifteen minutes, seeming hours, our infantry, making a strong attack, succeeded in thrusting the Germans back far enough from the road to allow us to continue our orderly retirement. "Over dead horses, past riderless guns, we took our New Brunswick guns out of reach of the 'Allemands,' and took up a position as rear guard to allow the 6th and 7th to retire in the same orderly manner. "Daylight was fast approaching as we, taking advantage of the success of our gallant infantry, galloped back to our old dangerous 'acute angle' position, where, on the morning, we made our name and fame. "Firing all morning, at times rapid gun fire but mostly 'battery fire' 10 section," our ammunition began to run short. It was a critical time. Ypres, through which our ammunition had to come, was being shelled with 15-inch shells. Our ammunition column, the night before, had lost pretty nearly all their horses, thus adding to the difficulty. "Nothing but V. C.'s could have awarded our drivers as, when the game seemed well nigh played, on the horizon a cloud of dust from a ploughed field, with shells bursting about it, came nearer. "Saved the Situation

"Our wagons. Go to it boys! Already exhausted and already shelled, the teams with their precious burdens thundered across country, over ditches, skirting Jack Johnson pits, straining over ploughed fields, some reached us, but not all. It was a glorious sight. They arrived at the guns—the situation was saved. At the same time Cook Sewell (J. W.) saved another situation, for he came along under the heavy shell fire with hot tea and 'hard tea.' "I do not think the French 75's could have fired with much more rapidity than we did then. 'Pumping lead' was no adequate description."

Going on, the letter says: George Leamon, doing his duty, was shot through the leg, Fred Gunn (who afterwards died), and Gordon Turner, who were close chums were wounded with the same shell. We miss Gunn very much, for wherever he was, there was always a good old song. Losing these two left one of our guns' crew in a deplorable position. Gunner Wellington adds: "Coming back to the F. O. O., neither Tingley or Comeau were there, but in their places several fragments of shell, a fallen tree and the front of the house blown to pieces. "The floor of which he observed was 'non est.' That is all I know of what happened until reporting at the 2nd Brigade Headquarters the Adjutant has seen Mr. Tingley being borne on a stretcher to the dressing station, but nothing of Comeau has as yet been heard. I feel as if it was no mere coincidence that there should be a break in the line at that moment."

Rupert Taylor, of Taylor Brothers has received an interesting letter from the Earl of Buckingham from his home, Hampden House, Great Missenden, Bucks, England. After sympathizing with Mr. Taylor in the death of his father, the writer goes on to express his pleasure that the St. John man is again in the service, though as a soldier this time and not as a sailor, as you used to be. "The old country and her colonies, too," he wrote, "are in a tight place and it will take us all our time to pull through. Every man is needed to do all that he can. We shall win, but it may take a long time and it must cost a terrible lot of lives and suffering. The Canadian troops have done magnificent work to the north of Ypres. The whole country is proud of them."

Maple Leaf Forever

"We're on deck yet, the Maple Leaf forever." "That was the triumphant shout of Private Louis Gorman, a St. John boy of 22, who left here with Major Sturdee but who has since transferred to the Scottish Highlanders, when he emerged from four feet of earth that had been thrown over him by a German shell. He has written to his parents at 80 Broad street leaving out this part of his pluck and only reassuring his mother that he is all right. But a letter from a friend tells another story. Several of Private Gorman's comrades were wounded but he escaped shouting "The Maple Leaf Forever."

He was through some at least of the fighting at Hill 60 and then at Langemarck where the incident occurred. He writes that his cousin, Charles O'Brien, also a St. John boy, was well, but was later sent to hospital. Bobby Evans and Eddie Welsh, he says, were well. He had been eighteen days in the trenches. But he writes to his mother, "Don't worry, I am all right," and to prove it he adds, "I received the packets of cigarettes and chocolates." Louis Gorman was a well known umpire in the South End baseball games.

Alfred Martin, a brother of Mrs. Charles Westwood, of 214 Queen street, St. John, had raced through five countries to re-enlist in his old regiment. When about 18 years of age, Alfred Martin enlisted in the Royal West Surrey and served for seven years. He then came to Canada, and after a time joined the United States army. He was bought out, but when trouble arose over the Philippines he rejoined, served through the campaign, and later went with his regiment to Tientsin. He was made a corporal. When the war broke out he decided to return to his old British regiment, and after a time was able to leave Tientsin. He spent three weeks in a train bound for Russia, and from Petrograd he travelled through Finland, Sweden and Norway, and landed at Newcastle on March 12. Spending a few days at home at Herve Hill, he met a sweetheart who had refused his offer of marriage before he went to Canada. He proposed again, was accepted, got married, and after a very brief honeymoon journeyed to Guilford and rejoined his old regiment.

Sergeant Ernest O. Thompson, of the Signalling Corps under Major Thomas Powers, sends an interesting letter to his mother, Mrs. F. S. Thompson, 160 German street, St. John, in which he says: "We arrived at our des'ination at daybreak. It was a small house not far from the firing line and which was used as brigade headquarters. The first thing we did on arrival was to lay a telephone line from there to divisional headquarters, about two miles away. While I was on this line the other boys laid lines to the trenches. While we were out on this work the fun started. I never heard such a row, just a continuous scream and roar of firing guns, shells going overhead and bursting all around. "After the German trenches had been shelled for some time, the commanding officer and our boys made the charge of which you have already heard. They would go ahead a short distance then drop, then up again for another sprint. At last they reached the German trenches and went right to it with a vengeance. The boys drove them there, and as General French says, 'saved the situation.' After holding the line there for two days we moved over about two miles to the right, our boys holding the reserve trenches."

Petrograd, May 28—Though forced to remain on the defensive in Galicia, the Russians are inflicting tremendous losses on the Austro-German Armies, according to the latest official reports received by the war office. The Austro-Germans have paid heavily for their successes in Galicia. According to estimates made here today the Germans alone lost 100,000 in Western Galicia. The Austrian losses are believed to have been much heavier.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Bradley's Health—Her Own Statement.

Winnipeg, Canada.—"Eleven years ago I went to the Victoria Hospital, Montreal, suffering with a growth. The doctors said it was a tumor and could not be removed as it would cause instant death. They found that my organs were affected, and said I could not live more than six months in the condition I was in. "After I came home I saw your advertisement in the paper, and commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it constantly for two years, and still take it at times, and both my husband and myself claim that it was the means of saving my life. I highly recommend it to suffering women."—Mrs. ORILLA BRADLEY, 284 Johnson Ave., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Can.

Why will women take chances or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacement, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

FIRST DOSE ENDS INDIGESTION, HEARTBURN, OR GAS ON STOMACH

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Tonaline Tablets. People with weak stomachs should take Tonaline Tablets occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, gas on stomach, or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach; and besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with noxious odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after taking Tonaline Tablets.

Go to your druggist and get a $1 box of Tonaline Tablets and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. Tonaline tabs freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living. Tonaline Tablets cost $1.00 for a 50 days' treatment. At druggists or mailed by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

Target Tips and Hunting Helps

PULLING THE TRIGGER

The earliest form of what we call the "trigger" on a rifle or other firearm was simply a little lever which when pulled brought a lighted fuse or "slow match" into contact with a small charge of powder in the priming cup of the firearm and in due course of events the charge behind the bullet exploded—at least half the time!

In those days triggers didn't have any of the modern devices such as "creep" and "drag" and a trigger which didn't break the finger of the user was perfectly satisfactory.

The trigger on a modern firearm has but one object—to release the hammer at the exact time desired by the shooter. There are two faults which will defeat this result—a trigger which requires excessive pressure or one which does not release positively and entirely at a uniform pressure. Trigger pulls are apt to vary all the way from the perfect pull which releases clean at about four pounds, to a pull which is so heavy that it puts a permanent kink in the shooter's finger and lets go like a miser parting from his coin.

As stated above, the proper weight for a trigger-pull is four pounds by actual weight on a trigger, not guess-work. A trigger-pull having a weight much in excess of this will cause flinching, while a lighter one is dangerous.

It is rather an interesting fact that the majority of women require a rather heavier trigger pull than men do, owing to their more nervous temperament.

B. T. W., Elkton, Mich.

1. What are the best all round sights for a .22 calibre rifle?

Ans. The great majority of hunters of course use the regular sights fitted on rifles, which are of the plain open variety. In some sections of the country the flat top or the straight bar rear sight with the small "U" notch is most popular, while in other sections, the old type of sight known as the "buckhorn" is most popular. The general tendency is, however, to get away from the buckhorn style, and from a scientific point of view it has little to recommend it. The ivory front sight is very popular as is the gold bead front sight. There is little choice between these two. The most accurate shooting can, of course, be done with the tung peep sight. Either of the two tanks now on the market give excellent satisfaction.

2. What kind of front sight is best to use with a Lyman combination rear sight?

Ans. As stated above, choice of sights is so much a matter of individual preference that it is very hard to advise any particular one. The regular sights supplied on a rifle will give good results, or you can select ivory or gold bead sight, or another good one is the combination globe and ivory front sight.

3. How should sights be removed from a rifle barrel?

Ans. If the rifle is held at the shoulder in shooting position, the sight should be driven out from the left side toward the right side. The sights should be put on by being driven in from the right towards the left.

4. Would a 32-40 cal. rifle be heavy enough for large game, such as bear.

Ans. A number of these rifles are used for such work, but a heavier power rifle would probably be advisable.

E. L. F., Okmulgee, Okla.

1. I have a .22 model 1890. The butt end where the shell fits is all torn up and shells swell until the ejector will not pull them. Please advise as to whether or not there is any way for it to be fixed or will I have to get a new barrel for it.

Ans. There is only one remedy for a badly pitted and rusty barrel, and that is—a new barrel. A barrel in which the chamber of the barrel is badly rusted or pitted is absolutely useless. There is no method by which it can be made available for its regular ammunition.

2. As to the gun referred to above could I have the whole barrel drilled down to make a .22, .20, or .25-20?

Ans. It would be of course possible to re-bore the barrel for a slightly larger cartridge, but the action would not handle it and it would not be worth while.

Ed. W., Thinsville, Wis.

1. What is the muzzle energy of the 38-40 calibre black powder cartridge, and high velocity at muzzle and at 100 yds.?

Ans. The muzzle energy of the 38-40 cartridge, black powder, is 701 ft. lbs.; the high velocity type gives 1,159 ft. lbs. At 100 yds. the muzzle energy of the 38-40 black powder is 460 ft. lbs. and of the high velocity 663 ft. lbs.

2. Is the 38-40 large enough for such game as deer, moose, bear and elk, and at what ranges is it effective on such game?

Ans. While a large number of rifles of this calibre are used for bear and deer, I would recommend a more powerful cartridge.

3. What is the muzzle energy of the 44-40 black and high velocity, and the velocity of the 38-40 and 44-40?

Ans. As stated above, choice of sights is so much a matter of individual preference that it is very hard to advise any particular one. The

Editorial Comment

LET US BE FAIR

While we rightly anathematize the war lords of Berlin, we should remember that there are many loyal citizens of this empire who are of German origin and that it is British to be fair. The sinking of the Lusitania was followed by hostile demonstrations at many points and in some cases injustice may have been done. This was probably the case at Victoria, B. C., where, as described by a correspondent of The Times, the property of German-Canadians was destroyed, though there was no reason to suppose that the owners sympathized in the slightest degree with the pirates in the North Sea. It is also related that during the anti-German riots in Cape Town, South Africa, the crowd came to one storekeeper of a German name whose shop it was about to destroy, who stood in front of his door, and facing the mob, told them that he had three sons fighting for the allies. It is horrible, says the Montreal Witness, to think that even for a moment such a man should have the terrible sensation of being looked on as a traitor. An additional of the British navy who lost his son and heir fighting for the allies had such taunts and insinuations of distrust thrown at him that he was forced to resign. Two of the most important financial men in London, as patriotic citizens as there are in the British empire, have been so hounded by that section of the press that cannot print a German name without an anathema that one of them, Sir Edward Speyer, has resigned his proud position as a member of the Privy Council, and requested the government to cancel his baronetcy. Sir Edward was chairman of the London Underground Electric Railways Company which controls most of the city's subways and omnibus lines. From this and many other of his directorates he has retired. The German-haters have done all they could do to make of this powerful man, who has long been a British subject, an enemy. The other financier referred to is Sir Ernest Cassels, who was the financial adviser of King Edward during a considerable period when he was Prince of Wales, and during the whole period when he was King of England. These are only a few examples of the many British subjects, whose faith in their fellow-citizens is being seared by the unprovoked dislike for anything German that is rampant. Even suppose, as the Witness says, we have lost our respect for Germans, have we lost altogether our respect for British citizenship, and if we lose our respect for British citizenship, how can we possibly expect anybody else to have any? We have made laws which give to certain people the right by following a certain procedure to become British citizens after a set term of years of residence. We have pledged our word to these people that if they take up British citizenship and swear loyalty to the crown we would accept them as of ourselves. In not doing this we are violating our own honor and are giving to a great mass of our fellow subjects, especially of the colonies, who are not British born, a feeling that at any time they too may be traitorously turned down by a people who do not respect their own laws.—Moncton Times.

THE GOLDEN EGG AND THE GOOSE

Old Fable Applies to "Made-in-Canada"—How Merchants Often Stand in Their Own Light

The following statement has been circulated in connection with the "Made-in-Canada" movement, and is well worthy of the attention not only of merchants to whom it is particularly addressed, but also of the average consumer who often sends his money away from his own town and outside of Canada when he could spend it just as advantageously in his own town for goods "Made-in-Canada."

"The Goose That Lays the Golden Eggs"

Don't kill her!

Don't do anything that will lessen her laying power!

On the contrary, feed her and nourish her so that you'll get more eggs from her! She needs your help and your good-will.

Did it ever occur to you that, out of every dollar's worth of Canadian-made goods you buy, about 50 cents goes to the Canadian workman living in some Canadian town or city, and enables him to buy about 50 cents worth more goods from his tradesmen?

Did it ever occur to you that, out of every dollar's worth of foreign-made goods you sell, about 75 cents or more disappears from Canada forever, and the buying capacity of the Canadian workman is correspondingly reduced. The wages that should be in his pocket have been paid to the foreign workman.

In 1913, over $92,000,000 of Canadian money was spent for foreign goods. Think of it—six hundred and ninety-two millions! Half of these goods could have been made in Canada, and Canadian workmen and Canadian retailers would then have been $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 better off than they are to-day.

This tremendous leak of nearly $2,000,000 per day is still going on! You can help to stop some of it, and, moreover, you owe it to yourself and your own business to do all you can to check this drain on the country's resources.

So, decide now, to help feed the goose! Decide now to increase the sale of Canadian-made goods! Decide now to keep more money in Canada.

"How Gas is Used By The Germans"

A great deal has appeared on the use of asphyxiating gases by the Germans. Many statements have been made as to exactly what gas is used, how it is used, and what are its effects.

There are two essentials to the use of gas by the Germans. First, the gas must be of such a character that it will stick close to the surface of the ground and sink into all trenches and excavations—not rise in the air. Secondly, it must at least, temporarily stupefy the intended victims. Now, this being the case, it is obvious that gas may be resorted to successfully under certain conditions only. There must be only a very moderate or light wind blowing, and that must be regular or even, otherwise the gas would become too disseminated and diluted with air. It can be used only when the enemy's trenches are but a short way off. The battle front of the user must be either a straight line or convex toward the enemy. Otherwise the gas, when liberated, would cross at least some portion of the users lines before reaching the enemy's lines, with considerable damage to the users as well as to the intended victims.

Chlorine gas seems to fill all the requirements. It is a heavy greenish yellow, suffocating irritating, poisonous gas. When liberated in a moderate wind (two to six miles per hour) it will travel pretty compactly along the surface of the ground filling the air for a depth of about three feet above the surface and sinking into all depressions. It suffocates and irritates the victim and produces acute bronchitis and strangulation. In many cases the effect is temporary but complete unconsciousness and in many others death. Its color gives it the properties of a cloud which greatly conceals the advance of the enemy who follow close behind whenever possible. Needless to say, great quantities are required to be of real effect against a battle front of considerable length. So, it is chiefly used to attack certain selected points in the enemy's lines, with the sole idea of forcing a passage which might enable the breaking up and flanking movements so frequently attempted but never accomplished.

The Germans manufacture this treacherous gas in great quantities and force it into small cylinders under very high compression. These cylinders are shipped to the trenches, put in place, and when conditions are favorable, are opened and turned toward the lines of the allies. The prevailing wind does the rest. Quite a number of other gases could be used almost equally well, but the symptoms all clearly and unmistakably indicate the use of chlorine gas by the German army in all cases so far.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDEUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scourge robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it!

If the Minister is coming to dinner on Sunday you'll want everything you bake to be particularly good. This is your opportunity to prove the quality of "Beaver" Flour. This famous blended flour never varies in strength, quality and flavor—it is the same today, next week, next month, next year—because the wheats, from which it is ground, are always blended in exactly the same proportions. Try it—your grocer should have it.

THE CONFLICT IN THE DARDANELLES

The sinking of two British battleships, the Triumph and the Majestic, in one week, by the allied German-Turkish forces, cannot have other than a very heartening effect on the aggressors. The fact that the ships were of an old type—the Majestic being as a matter of fact, the oldest battleship in the navy—is of little account; the fact remains that two vessels that were doing good work against the enemy, have been gotten rid of, and their place must be taken by others. The destruction of these vessels is generally credited to a German submarine, but while this "unterseeboote" is running amuck among the fleet of the Allies, the British submarine E-11 has been carrying destruction into the fleet of the enemy. During a trip through the Straits, the submarine sank a Turkish vessel loaded with troops and ammunition, chased and sank a supply ship in the Sea of Marmora, forced another ship to run ashore and entering the harbor of Constantinople heard the torpedo that she launched against a transport lying at the arsenal, strike the mark before she withdrew to join the fleet. No German submarine has yet piled up such a record as that.

Naval victories, such as the Germans celebrate with so much enthusiasm, are the easiest thing in the world to obtain. German submarines go out to sea and shoot at the first floating object that crosses their path. They could not have a bigger target. The British task is very different. British sailors have to "dig out" their prey before they can shoot at it. Exploits like that of the E-11 show very clearly that the German submarine campaign is not a manifestation of superior ability. Indeed they show that British naval efficiency is superior to that of Germany.

The German naval hunter finds the "woods" always full of game. Such being the case, it is not difficult for him to get a "bag." The British hunter has to stalk his prey, otherwise he would show infinitely better results than the German.

According to a military correspondent the present method of attack and counter attack is so strange to the Turks in the Dardanelles, that they have become terrorized by it, and were not the German officers behind them pushing them forward at the point of the revolver, they would show these unmistakable signs of terror more plainly than they are now allowed to do. The Turks had been given the vain hope that by stemming the advancing tide of the Allies along the Gallipoli peninsula, the straits might still be closed to the Allied fleets. That is now being proved to be a vain hope, and the artillery is making their positions untenable by a rain of shells that would cause better men than those composing the Turkish army to quake before it.

THE BRITISH CENSORSHIP

In view of the savage attacks that the Northcliffe group of papers have latterly been making upon Lord Kitchener, and his conduct of the War Office, the complaints regarding the manner in which the British Censors perform their duties are certainly not without foundation. These officials in their wisdom ruthlessly delete references to events that have happened days before, from letters written by soldiers at the front, which can do no possible harm, and cannot help the enemy so long after the event. On the other hand, they permit newspapers, which the enemy can get hold of at once, to criticize and find shortcomings on the part of the leading officials having charge of the war arrangements.

German papers are seizing with avidity upon the ammunition scarcity scare of the Northcliffe press and at a period when from the achievements in the field Germany can create little enthusiasm in the fatherland, they are more than grateful for the attacks on Lord Kitchener, declaring these vehement discussions show better than anything else how the real situation is tending. Extracts from the Northcliffe press are freely quoted, the most vehement portions being dished up with great relish, while Count Reventlow finds in them the inspiration for a long article on "British worry."

Doubtless this sort of thing bolsters up German courage, even if it does not do Britain any serious harm; but the spectacle, from the British standpoint, is not inspiring, and should be stopped.

Since the foregoing was put in type, the British authorities have decided to regulate more strictly than heretofore the conduct of the press. This decision is probably the outcome of the recent experiences with the Northcliffe group of papers. It will be readily seen that when the public mind is in a rather excited state, the publication of sensational statements has the maximum of effect, and the effect of such publication is generally undesirable, even dangerous. Great Britain has many brilliant journalists, and in recent times, some of these seem to have assumed a prerogative to direct the affairs of the nation in the manner they wish affairs to go. In its savage attacks on Lord Kitchener, the Northcliffe press has furnished the worst example of this bad habit.

Great Britain has never granted to the press of the country the license it has taken in some other countries. More distinctly than in most other countries, the line has been drawn in Great Britain between "liberty" and "license." And, however far the British press has gone in one direction, the press of Germany has gone further in the other. To-day, the Government-muzzled press of Germany is keeping the German people in a state of gross ignorance while the country rushes to its doom. In many respects, this is the most pathetic feature of the German position, as well as one of the most discreditable.

One of our contemporaries referring to the unemployment in the West, wants to know why these men are not taken on as recruits for the overseas contingents. The fact is that there are already more men offering in the Western provinces than the recruiting officers can find room for; and there are now hundreds of young men eager to be taken "on the strength," if there were only places for them.

ROD AND GUN

"The Glittering Lure" is the title given by Bonnycastle Dale to a story of before-the-season fishing in the opening pages of June Rod and Gun which is published at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Taylor, Limited. "Honest Weight" is an amusing tale of two rival fishermen as related by one of the French Canadian guides who accompanied them on their outing after "de beeg wan."

A TOUCHING INCIDENT

The Amherst Guardian has the following in connection with sad news in Amherst. "A moving incident took place at a local restaurant soon after word of Private Chapman's death had come to Amherst, a group of eight or ten members of the 22nd Battalion were standing at the restaurant counter when an Amherst man came in and said to the restaurant proprietor: 'Capt. Chapman just got word that his son has been killed at the front—an Amherst boy,' he said, turning to the French-Canadian in explanation. On that instant every soldier's hat came off and every soldier bowed his head while he murmured a prayer of the church to which all the group belonged. They did not know Private Chapman, had never heard of him, but they stopped to do reverent honor to the man who had died for his country."

Your King and Country Want You

More, more men—is Lord Kitchener's appeal to the Empire. men! Yes, that is it. Clean men, men of iron, firm, determined, hard as granite, filled with a patriotic desire to do something for their country. To that quality of manhood, there is opportunity to do something large in a practical way. Canada stands well in the present crisis, the heroic deeds of the overseas contingents have stirred the Empire to its heart's core, and we are getting the glory of it. It is well, however, to look at the facts, the majority of those who so far have made Canada famous are English born, the spirit of loyalty came with them to Canada, and at the call of the Empire they volunteered without hesitation to face war's hardships for God and the King. Old soldiers some of them, carrying medals and scars which tell of their fighting. Who had found it against a militarism which would crush the world. It is true that Canada has not been found wanting, her roll of heroes grows, nobly they have stood the test. As in the South African war there has been a loyal response to the call to arms, but not in proportion to the population. We want more native blood in the heroic battalions at the front.

What have we done to show our regard for England, who has made Canada what it is, guarding our shores, preserving our peace and prosperity, ungrudgingly all the compensation for which is, that we do not forget. And England is grateful. We must remember that to the navy we owe the fact that New Brunswick is not today suffering the fate of Belgium. It would not be pleasant for German shells to batter St. John, we must give to England the same unstinting loyalty she serves to us.

Let us not flatter ourselves that because the Empire is right, therefore we must win. We can only conquer with the vigorous manhood which leaps to defend it, thus it is the country wants you.

Here is your opportunity: Ruskin says: "Somehow I feel as if it were grander and worthier in a man, to have made his bread by sword play rather than any other play. I had rather that he had made it by thrusting than by batting, much rather than by betting, much rather than he should ride war horses than back race horses."

If that was Ruskin's thought in times of peace, what now? Face the issue, your King and country call you, you young men with no homes, or with them; stalwart, strong, full blooded, your place is in the ranks with those who are fighting for freedom, country and home. The 55th wants you; New Brunswick wants you, to sustain her honor while the bugle summons the Dominion to arms.

Let deeds prove to be better than words. Enlist now. Put on the uniform, swell the number who will help to stem the tide of German aggression and prove to the world that Canada stands shoulder to shoulder with Australia, New Zealand and India in service and sacrifice.

If you are over twenty-one years of age, be a man, wear khaki, if married ask your wife to let you go, if under twenty-one, get your parents' consent, and report yourselves to Lt. Col. B. B. Armstrong, and to Capt. J. R. Miller at the army, and let them see that you are anxious to be on the honor roll of those who want to save the Empire.

W. G. Lane, Hon. Major, Chaplain to the 93rd Cumberland Rgt.

HIGH TRIBUTE PAID CANADA

"You're a Canadian" Means High Praise

London, May 29—A new phrase has been born in the British Army since Ypres. It is: "You're a Canadian."

The phrase has been passed from trench to trench in Flanders, until now to do anything of unusual merit brings the tribute of being known as a Canadian. No higher tribute than this could be paid Canada.

Town Council Regular Session Thursday Night

Ald. Stuart heartily endorsed the recommendation submitted. Ald. Stables said that as a member of the Police Committee he assured the Council and League that the Committee were going to do their best to stop the sale and the drinking of liquor. He would use every effort to enforce the C. T. A., would allow nothing to hinder him as an alderman in carrying out his views.

Ald. Mackay said that while he agreed with Rev. Father Dixon's view, yet he thought it would be treading on dangerous ground to approach the P. M. with suggestions. It was for the P. M. to judge as to which penalty he would apply.

Ald. Mackay moved that this matter be referred to the Police Committee to see what powers they had and to act with the Committee of the T. I. L.

Ald. Ritchie seconded this. Ald. Mackay said he was elected to enforce the C. T. A., and would do all he could to carry it out.

Ald. McGrath said that the presence of this delegation appeared to be to get an expression of sympathy for Temperance and Social and Moral Reform. All aldermen for at least the last four years had done all in their power to enforce all laws, C. T. A. included. They had done their duty as far as their power extended. It might be wise to commission the Police Committee to interview the magistrate, but he thought that the delegation rather sought the council's sympathy. They were all supposed to be in Council to enforce the law.

Ald. Doyle did not see the wisdom of Ald. Mackay's motion. The Police Committee had already expressed their determination to enforce all laws. They had appointed two Scott Act Inspectors and they wanted them to enforce the C. T. A. as best they can. The Police Committee do their duty or others would be got to take their places.

Ald. Creighton agreed with Ald. Doyle, also with Rev. Father Dixon. He would do all he could to enforce the law.

Ald. Hayward was in sympathy with Rev. Father Dixon's plea. It was a knotty problem. The Committee had ordered the Inspectors to enforce the law. But the illness of the P. M. had interfered up to the present. Two justices had reluctantly consented to take his place. They naturally were diffident about imposing jail at first. The P. M. should be on salary, same as a Supreme Court judge. Affairs were improving. In April, 1914, there had been 7 cases of drunkenness in the Police Court. In April 1915, four. In May 1914, six; this month, so far, only 2.

Ald. Stables said that a leading lawyer had told him that to approach a P. M. with suggestions was a grievous crime.

Ald. Ritchie understood that the Police Committee were up against a hard problem in enforcing the C. T. A.

Ald. Doyle said that it was already decided that the Council and Police Committee would carry out the C. T. A. and all laws. They were only too anxious to take suggestions. Offences against C. T. A. should be first, second and third. He did not approve of charging 1st every time. It was out of place to dictate to the P. M.

Mr. J. M. Troy said it was not the intention to dictate to the P. M. but to encourage him and to suggest that it would be better to imprison than fine. Many P. M.'s imprisonment. If men continue selling, they should be sent to jail.

Ald. Doyle—Magistrate should use his discretion with 1st offence. Second should follow, then third.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur said that Ald. Doyle's view appealed to all. But what the T. I. L. sought arose from the fact that what Ald. Doyle said should be done was not done. He understood that a series of first offences had been inaugurated as the best means of enforcing the C. T. A. In cases where conviction papers had been lost, we had a right to ask for jail sentence for subsequent first offences. He hoped the present P. M. would soon recover from his illness.

Ald. McGrath pointed out that the information laid has much to do with the judgment passed. When informations are laid for 1st, second and third in succession, the judgments will follow in like order.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur—When there is a miscarriage of law, whose fault is it? When an actual second offence is made a "first," either the Inspector has failed to lay, or the Magistrate to ask for, a charge of second. Either the Inspector has failed to lay a second when he should, or some influence has been brought to bear upon him.

Ald. Hayward—After there has been a first offence it is the privilege of the Inspector to bring a second charge and then a third.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur and Rev. M. S. Richardson further urged the carrying out of the spirit of the law.

Mr. Troy thought it easy enough to bring second charges against anyone now selling. The magistrate should stop the Inspector laying too many "first" charges.

Ald. Stuart asked why it was that the Inspector had during last council year laid only charges for first offence. Would the Mayor ask Mr. Chamberlain to explain?

Ald. Stuart said that Ald. Stuart had just heard the Police Committee say that they have asked the Scott Act Inspectors to carry out the law. Why go into the past?

Ald. Stuart repeated his request to have Mr. Chamberlain speak for last year.

Ald. Doyle said he did not think the Mayor had the right to ask why the Chief did so and so in the past. It was all right for the future.

Mayor—You are right, Ald. Doyle. But the Chairman of Police Committee may be asked what he intends for the future.

Ald. Stuart—May I ask Ald. Doyle why in the past year nothing but charges of first offences were laid?

The Mayor ruled out of order all questions about last year's work, but said that Ald. Stuart might ask the Chief of Police what the latter intended to do in the future.

Ald. McGrath said it was not justice to the officer to try him in public. While he is an officer, it should be assumed he would do his duty.

Ald. Hayward—He will enforce the act. If he doesn't do it someone else will do the work. We don't want fines. We will assess for expenses.

Ald. Stuart said that Ald. Hayward's statement was perfectly satisfactory. He would help him in his work all he could.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur—We have confidence in the Police Com. in the officers, and in the Police Magistrate. No use going back to the past. Confirmed inebriates should be confined rather than fined. Montreal gives them option of taking a cure. He would be satisfied if cases went regularly from 1st to 2nd and 3rd.

Rev. P. W. Dixon—Yes.

On motion of Ald. Creighton and Stuart, the Council expressed sympathy with the Resolution No. 3.

Resolution No. 2 was advocated by Rev. S. J. MacArthur. A mere declaration of the authorities' intention to enforce law against truancy would have a great effect. The Truant officer might be one of the Police. There would not be very much to do. He knew of boys who had never in his stay here been at school.

Ald. Doyle had heard Ald. McGrath (a trustee) before meeting suggest that the Janitor be truant officer, and he agreed.

Ald. Mackay said it was the duty of the Trustees to appoint the Truant officer, and suggested that the T. I. L. be referred to the Trustees.

Ald. McGrath said the Trustees last year referred it to the Council. Ald. Stuart moved, seconded by Ald. McGrath, that this Council take action to appoint a Truant officer to take office next term.

On motion of Ald. Doyle and Creighton a committee was asked for to talk the appointment over with the Trustees.

People of Miramichi, Think The Matter Over

PERSONAL

Following were chosen committee: Ald. McKay, Stuart and Doyle.

The Mayor said that he understood from the Chairman of Trustees that only one extra department would be needed after compulsory attendance.

Resolution No. 1 was supported by Rev. Father Dixon. It would check bad habits, and help the schools. Policemen should be given disciplinary powers.

Ald. Doyle said he often met children out at express time (midnight).

Ald. McGrath said enforcement would be difficult, as the territory from Sinclair's to Buckley's would have to be patrolled. He heard that children of all ages were allowed in the dime. A curfew law would be good to remedy this.

Ald. Hayward said that this matter had been discussed in Police Committee before it had been mentioned in the T. I. L. He would refer it to Bye Law Committee.

Rev. S. J. MacArthur thus favored a 9 o'clock bell. When a bylaw should be ready the parents would be appealed to from the pulpits.

On motion of Ald. McGrath and Creighton, it was referred to Bye-Law Com. to prepare a bylaw on it.

After Rev. Father Dixon had thanked the Council in the name of the delegation, Council adjourned.

Shower of Bombs Dropped on London

Several Zeppelins Took Part in the Air Raid But Damage Was Comparatively Light.

London, June 1—The long expected Zeppelin raid on London became a reality early today.

German dirigibles passed over the East End and over other districts of London, showering bombs.

Two young women were seriously hurt and a number of other persons are reported to have been wounded. Many buildings were set afire.

The only victims whose names the Press Bureau permitted to be made public were two young German tailresses named Schrader, living in the East End. They were removed to a hospital.

Several sections of London are reported to have been attacked, the dirigibles showering both explosive and incendiary bombs. The Government notified the newspapers and press associations shortly after midnight that no reports stating what sections of the city had been attacked or detailing the number of victims would pass the censor until an official statement on the raid had been issued by the Press Bureau.

The first official statement did not mention the number of attacking dirigibles, but it said Zeppelins had been sighted near Raingate, 65 miles southeast of London; in Brentwood, sixteen miles northeast, and in certain "outlying districts of London," and that many fires had been reported. This indicated that several airships composed the attacking squadron.

A supplementary statement from the Press Bureau said that bombs had been hurled in the East End and named the two German victims. Other particulars, the Press Bureau said, would be given out later in the day.

Tomorrow, June 3rd, is a public holiday in Newcastle.

Major Percy A. Guthrie, of Fredericton, was wounded on the 25th of May while leading the 10th Battalion in action.

The spen of the Ennisfield bridge, now being rebuilt by Mr. W. R. Fawcett of Temperance Vale, collapsed on Wednesday afternoon and a pair of horses attached to a sloven wagon, fell a distance of eighteen feet. Three men who were on the wagon had a miraculous escape from being killed.

Mr. J. O. Gallant, editor and proprietor of L'Acadie, the French Liberal paper published in Moncton, recently made an assignment to Sheriff Willett for the benefit of his creditors. Senator Choquette, of Quebec, who it is understood is the heaviest creditor, is trying to arrange a settlement and reorganize with a view to continuing the publication of the paper. Mr. Gallant, it is understood has gone to Montreal.

A FINE COMPLEXION

Maybe Had Through the Rich, Red Blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Actually Make

A girl's complexion is something more than a matter to concern her vanity. It is an indication of the state of her health. Proliferating in a growing girl means a thinning of the blood. Parents should be watchful of their daughters' complexions and should see to it that these danger signs are corrected. When a girl in her teens becomes pale and sallow, if she shows an inclination to tire easily, is listless and inattentive to her work or studies, she needs Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, a tonic which directly and specifically corrects the condition from which she is suffering. A chemical analysis of the blood of such a girl would show it to be deficient in just the elements that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can supply, and which restore brightness to the eyes and color to the cheeks. Miss Dolina Arsenault, Urbainville, P. E. I., is one of the thousands of anemic girls restored to health by

CANADIANS FOREIGN BUYERS

Canadians buy more goods outside their own country than the citizens of any other important nation in the world. Here is the average amount which each citizen of the following countries bought abroad in 1911, the latest year for which comparative statistics are available.

Canada	$70.24
Great Britain	61.55
Argentina	47.39
France	39.30
Germany	35.17
United States	16.63
Austria	12.61
Russia	3.40

It seems incredible that every Canadian annually spends $70.24 for foreign goods while Russians only spend $3.40 each abroad. Canadians must cut down their foreign purchases and buy more goods produced in their own country: face national bankruptcy.—Industrial Canada.

Keep Canadian Money at home where you can share in the good business it will create. Buy goods "Made-in-Canada."

Rev. Thomas S. Roy, of Campbellton, who will be graduated from Newton in June, has accepted a call to the Lincoln Park Baptist church of West Newton, Mass. He will not take up his work there until the first of September. Rev. Mr. Roy is a Newcastle boy and a son of Mr. Jerome Roy.

Gunner George Telbot, a native of Tipperary, Ireland, who enlisted with Major Anderson, at Moncton, and who was killed in action, received word from his mother just after his arrival at Salisbury Plains, that his four other brothers had been killed in action. This is only one instance of the tremendous sacrifices that are being made throughout the Empire.

The "St. John Standard" has the following about a gentleman well-known in Moncton:—"J. D. Creaghan of Newcastle, is in the city for a few days. Mr. Creaghan is one of the leading merchants of the North Shore, and has a son Gerald with the Construction Corps, and another son Cyril, a Lieutenant with the 55th at Sussex, who is now conducting a recruiting campaign on the North Shore."

the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says: "I was attacked with anemia, and was in such a miserable condition that I had to consult a doctor, and was under his care for several months, but without getting better. I was growing thinner every day, had dark circles around the eyes. I could hardly sleep at night, but tossed restlessly and got up in the morning with black anticipation of the day's miseries before me. I was always bothered with headaches and pains in the back and limbs. My appetite was poor and I frequently vomited what I did eat. My friends feared that I would not recover. I had often seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised, and finally decided to try them. I used altogether nine boxes and they made me as well as ever I was in my life. All the pains and aches disappeared; my appetite returned. I could sleep soundly at night, and the color returned to my cheeks. I also gained seventeen pounds in weight. I am now always well, and for this happy condition I have to thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get these Pills from any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WHY BUY AT HOME?

The following reasons for purchasing at home were features in a campaign recently put on by Peterborough retailers and manufacturers to encourage Peterborough citizens to buy in their own town. What Peterborough has done can be followed to good advantage by practically every town and city in Canada.

Because our interests are here.
Because the community that is good enough for us to live in is good enough for us to buy in.
Because we believe in transacting business with our friends.
Because we want to see the goods we are buying.
Because we want to get what we buy when we pay for it.
Because some part of every dollar we spend at home stays at home, and helps work for the welfare of our home town.
Because the home man we buy from stands back of the goods, thus always giving value received.
Because the man we buy from pays his share of the taxes.
Because the man we buy from helps to support our poor and needy, our schools, our churches, and our homes.
Because when luck, misfortune or bereavement comes, the man we buy from is here with his kindly expressions of greeting, his words of cheer, and, if need be, his pocketbook.
Let us make Peterborough a good place in which to work and live.

Example of Plant Mimicry.
A most curious example of mimicry is supplied by a newly discovered South Africa plant, Mesembryanthemum lapidiforme. In summer the plant consists only of two half-buried leaves, each an inch or a little more long and wide, and these, shaped like a tetrahedron with blunt edges and angles and brownish red in color, are so like the surroundings it is hard to detect the plant.

Two flowers, one at each side, are borne in spring, their stems being so thin that the ripe seed vessels are easily carried away by the wind.

Hotel Improvements

Other improvements along this line will shortly be made, which will not only add to the beauty of the house, but to the locality as well. It requires one to go through the house to know the vast improvement that has been made to the interior since Mr. Willis has become its proprietor, and the Advocate will have the pleasure in the near future of giving his work a write-up. A decidedly increased commercial trade is now being enjoyed by Mr. Willis, and Newcastle is reaping a benefit by such a thoroughly man being at its head.

Well Attended Meetings at Millerton, Blackville and Redbank

A very successful Patriotic meeting was held in Millerton Hall on Thursday, at which $175.00 was raised for the Patriotic Fund. Councillor John Vanderbeck and an efficient committee had charge of the arrangements.

In spite of bad weather, a very large audience was present. The meeting was addressed by Hon. L. J. Tweedie of Chatham, Ex-Mayor Morrissey of Newcastle, and Lieut. H. S. Murray, recruiting officer. Their speeches were listened to with deep attention and received with enthusiasm.

A fine program was provided. The orchestra comprised: violin, Miss G. O. Russell, Mr. E. N. Betts and Mr. A. Vanderbeck; clarinet, Mr. L. Mather; cello, Councillor J. W. Vanderbeck; piano, Mrs. W. A. Much credit is due to the ladies of the parish of Derby for the interest they took in making the evening a success.

Chorus—Red, White and Blue—Choir.
God Save the King.

A very enthusiastic Recruiting meeting was held in Redbank Monday night. The hall was filled. Rev. J. F. McCurdy presided. Strong addresses were given by Mayor G. G. Stothart, Lieut. H. S. Murray, and Rev. S. J. MacArthur.
Lieut. Smith goes to Redbank today to recruit. A large number of the men of Redbank have already volunteered. Stanley Parks is missing after the battle of Langemarck; and among the others serving are: Warren Gulliver (Boom Road) at the front; Garvie Rae with the 26th Mounted Infantry, Amherst, and Lorne Powers, with the 3rd Contingent.

Rev. Mr. Beaton of Blackville, Rev. W. J. Bate of Newcastle, and Lieut. H. S. Murray and Capt. L. Jones of the Wireless garrison, were the speakers at the Blackville recruiting meeting on Friday night. Councillor D. G. Schofield presided and introduced the speakers with appropriate remarks. Private Kingston of the Wireless, provided good music on his violin. The hall was packed, and the audience listened with interest. Many young men were present. One enlisted.

CARD OF THANKS
Mrs. R. L. Maltby and family wish to thank their friends for the many acts of kindness, and sympathy shown them in their recent bereavement.

Recommendations
Superintendent—What we want is a night watchman that'll watch, alert and ready for the slightest noise or indication of burglars—somebody who can sleep with one eye and both ears open, and is not afraid to tackle anything. See?
Applicant—I see, sir. I'll send my wife around.—Judge.

Keeping Busy
"Does your family approve of your dancing?"
"No," replied Mr. Cumrox, gloomily. "They say I'm too old-fashioned. The dances I know are at least six weeks behind the times."

Wants to Capitalize His Prospects
Mr. Rocks—So you want to marry my daughter. Well, young man, what are your prospects?
Young Man—Excellent—if you don't spoil them.—Judge.

PERHAPS you do not realize how many lines of "Made-in-Canada" goods are better than the imported, or how often it is profitable as well as patriotic to buy things made by your own countrymen.
