LAI IN HIS LAST RESTING PLACE

All That Is Mortal of His Honor Lieut. Governor Fraser Laid Away without Pomp or Ceremonious Display in the Cemetery at New Glasgow, His Former Home.

Guysboro, Sept. 28.—At six o'clock this morning citizens of Guysboro, and others, began to gather about the summer home of the late governor, at Fort Point, and at seven o'clock, after religious services by the Rev. Dr. Morton, of the Methodist church, the casket, bearing the remains of the governor, was placed on the hearse. It was followed by a large procession, to the dock of the steamer, Malcolm Cann, three-quarters of a mile, Rev. Dr. Morton, Revs. Michael and Maurice Tompkins and Rev. A. F. Zentith walking at the head of the procession. The bells of the Methodist, the Catholic and Anglican churches tolled.

The casket was placed on the upper deck of the steamer and covered with the British ensign. The ship left at 7.30 for Mulgrave, the remains going by I. C. R. to New Glasgow.

Mrs. Fraser, the governor's widow, Mrs. Underwood, Miss Margaret Fraser, Miss Sadie Fraser, daughters of the deceased, Miss Graham and Miss Miller, Allister Fraser and Master Laurier Fraser, accompanied the remains to New Glasgow. J. H. Sinclair, M.P., B. H. Graham, of New Glasgow, William Graham, of Sydney Mines, also were of the party.

The body was met at the I.C.R. station in New Glasgow by Mayor Graham Fraser, Senator McGregor, R. M. McGregor, M.L.A., A. C. Bell, Thomas Cantley and others, and was taken to the residence of the late Harvey Graham.

New Glasgow, September 30.—Yesterday afternoon the people of the province of Nova Scotia paid a last tribute of respect to its departed governor, when the body of Hon. Duncan Cameron Fraser was committed to mother earth in the beautiful Riverside cemetery on the east bank of the East River. The obsequies were of the very simplest character. Neither pomp nor display, no fanfare of trumpets, military bands, booming minute guns, nor tolling bells marked his passing.

Nothing of an outward show to indicate that he who was being borne through the streets of his home town this bright September day was other than the humblest citizen, save only the assemblage of many of Nova Scotia's leading men, and the presence of official representatives of the government of the Dominion of Canada, and the governors of the sister provinces, and a vast concourse of mourning friends and admirers. Groups of reverent townspeople lined the route of procession, all those bearing testimony to the fact that a man among men had fallen and was being accorded the last honors. The very simplicity of it all, the absence of anything imposing or grand, made it all the more impressive.

The men of Pictou county came in great numbers to place a last token of respect upon the grave of him, who had been for forty years one of the great figures of the community.

They were reinforced by public and private leaders from all sections of the province.

From Halifax there came a special train which arrived at noon with a representative company of citizens of the capital. Among them were General Drury, representing the governor-general; Col. Pages, representing the lieutenant-governor of Quebec; Major Allan Duffus, representing the lieutenant-governor of New Brunswick; G. S. Campbell, chairman of the board of governors of Dalhousie University, President Forrest and Prof. Howard Murray, representing Dalhousie; J. A. Chisholm, K. C., Mayor of Halifax, and representatives from societies and institutions of all kinds.

Hon. A. K. MacLean, acting premier Hon. G. P. Chisholm and Hon. B. F. Pearson were the representatives of the provincial government. The legislature of Nova Scotia was represented by Hon. M. H. Goudge, president of the legislative council; Hon. Geo. E. Faulkner, speaker of the house of assembly; N. J. Gillis, M.P.P., Glace Bay; William Whitman, M.P.P., Guysboro; Hon. J. E. Corbett, Harbor auBouche; J. H. Livingstone, M.P.P., Cumberland; R. M. McGregor, M.P.P., R. H. McKay, M.P.P., and J. M. Bailie, M.P.P., of Pictou. The federal parliament were represented by Senator McGregor, New Glasgow, Senator McSweeney, Moncton; Senator Ross, Halifax; J. H. Sinclair, J. P., Guysboro; D. D. McKenzie, M.P., North Cape Breton; Wm. Chisholm, M.P., Antigonish; G. W. Kytte, M. P., Richmond. Other former members of parliament in attendance were A. J. Logan, K. C., Amherst, and Alex. Johnson, Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

The bench was represented by Chief Justice Townshend, Justice Meagher, Justice Drysdale, and Justice Lawrence, of the Supreme Court, and Judges Geo. Patterson, A. McGillivray, and W. B. Wallace, of the County Court.

The funeral services were held at the home of the Misses Graham, on Forbes street, and were conducted by Rev. J. W. McMillan, D.D., pastor of St. Matthew's church, Halifax, who was specially requested by Governor Fraser to conduct the last rites. They were in accordance with the unwritten ritual of the Presbyterian church. The services opened with the singing "O God of Bethel." Then followed prayer by Rev. E. A. McCurdy of Halifax, his former pastor, and the reading of the scriptures by Rev. Ernest Forbes, present pastor of the former lieutenant-governor's New Glasgow church. Dr. McMillan delivered an impressive address on the tragedy of death, concluding with a fine eulogy of the departed and after singing the hymn, Rev. Dr. Pollock gave the closing prayer and benediction.

When all had had an opportunity of taking a last look at the face of the dead governor, the funeral cortege was formed and proceeded to the cemetery. The pall bearers were Hon. A. K. MacLean, Thos. Cantley, Mayor Chisholm of Halifax, J. H. Sinclair, A. C. Bell, H. J. Logan, W. Whitman, M.P.P., J. C. McGregor, Judge McGillivray and H. T. Sutherland.

In compliance with the request of the deceased, friends refrained from sending floral tributes, but the casket bore one handsome wreath, the offering of Lord and Lady Strathcona. Mayor Chisholm with a peculiar fitness, presented on behalf of the citizens of Halifax, a handsome wreath of heather.

The funeral procession was one of the longest ever seen in Pictou county, probably close upon half a mile in length, and representative of the best citizenship of the county and province. The services at the grave was short. As the body was lowered into the tomb Rev. Dr. McMillan read the burial service and the lieutenant-governor of Nova Scotia was left to sleep his last sleep.

Mr. R. E. Feltus, of Digby, has purchased from Capt. L. D. Morton his fast stallion Kingbrother. We understand that the price paid was $2,000 cash.

Centennial Service at Paradise

The Paradise and Clarence United Baptist Church celebrated its one hundredth anniversary, Sept. 10th, to 12th. The services were all held in the Paradise church, which had just been painted outside, and was decorated beautifully inside for the occasion. The pulpit was banked with flowers, and a large frame, containing portraits of the former pastors, was hung in front of the desk. Over the pulpit, was a large banner, with the motto, "One Hundred Years for God," with 1810 and 1910 on either side. The music for the series of meetings was furnished by the choir, conducted by Miss Lesley who has served as organist for thirty-three years.

The opening service was held on Saturday evening. Former pastor, Rev. H. H. Saunders, preached and his message was helpful and inspiring. Sunday morning a special Sunday school service was held, in which all the schools united. Miss Longley's choir from the primary class furnished the music and Rev. J. H. Balcomb taught the lesson. At eleven o'clock the church was crowded to its utmost capacity to hear the Centennial Sermon, delivered by a former, much beloved pastor, Rev. A. Cohoon D. D. The preacher took for his text Ps. 145 and 7th verse. "They shall abundantly utter the memory of Thy great goodness and shall sing of Thy righteousness."

At 2.30 o'clock a mass meeting of the Ladies Aid Societies was held. Mrs. E. J. Elliott read the Scripture, and Mrs. Isa Wallace offered prayer. The music for this meeting was furnished by the choir of young people, completely filling the gallery in the south end of the church. Historical sketches of the Paradise and Clarence societies were read by Mrs. Harry Longley and Mrs. Ward, which were followed by an excellent paper by Mrs. Pearson on "One Hundred Years of Women's Work." The Mission Band of Clarence furnished a Flower Drill and the Paradise Mission Band a beautiful selection of music. The closing speaker of the afternoon was Rev. J. Glendening, just returned from India, who spoke with great enthusiasm of his work out there.

The evening service opened at 7.30 o'clock. After the preliminary exercises, Rev. D. Price a former pastor spoke on Home Missions, Rev. J. Glendening on Foreign Missions and Rev. H. G. Mellie on Western Missions. These excellent addresses were interspersed with good music. This service brought to a close a helpful day in the life of this old church.

Monday at two p.m. the people gathered from far and near for the Historical Service. The writing of the History was by unanimous consent of the committee put in the hands of the clerk, S. N. Jackson, who has served with such pains-taking care, in that capacity for many years. Seated on the platform was Clerk Jackson, former pastors Eaton, Price, Saunders and Dimock, also Miss Vidito, daughter of the Pastor who served the church with untiring zeal for forty years, the late Rev. Nathaniel Vidito, and Mr. N. V. Harasgronden. The music for the service was conducted by Prof. Morse of Boston and consisted of the old hymns and tunes sung by the fathers. When Clerk Jackson had finished reading the history of the church for the past one hundred years, Prof. Morse sang with great effect "One Hundred Years to Come." Then followed speeches from visitors and friends.

The first speaker was Mr. Nathaniel Vidito; Bars, Superintendent of the Vermont State Industrial School who is having phenomenal success in handling wayward boys. All who listened to his eloquent address were reminded of the speaker's noble grandfather. At the conclusion of his speech he very generously offered to print gratuitously five hundred copies of the Centennial proceedings in pamphlet form on the press at the Industrial School.

Clerk Jackson then called the roll of former pastors and Revs. J. T. Eaton, D. Price, A. V. Dimock and H. H. Saunders responded in an interesting manner. A resolution of appreciation of Rev. E. L. Steeves and Rev. Kinley was presented and ordered to be sent to them.

Rev. Alfred Chipman of Brunswick was present during the meetings and was called upon for a brief address. Among the interested listeners at each service, was Robert Marshall of Clarence, who has been a member of the church for seventy-one years and his friend Isaiah Clute of Boston. Both of these brethren testified to the goodness of God whom they had served for three quarters of a century.

Following this service so full of interest to all, was the social hour and tea in the vestry when an opportunity was offered for friends who had not met for years, to meet and exchange greetings. At 7.30 Prof. Morse led a praise service, which was greatly enjoyed. The speakers for the evening were Rev. Calvin Goodspeed D. D. and Rev. G. B. Cullen Ph. D. These speakers drew an audience crowding the church. Dr. Goodspeed had a big subject "One Hundred Years of Baptist History," and handled it in his usual able style. The new president of Acadia, Rev. Dr. Cullen, was the last speaker. He won his audience at the start, and the conclusion all present reached as they listened to him with so much interest, was that the future success and growth of Acadia is assured.

Votes of thanks were passed in favor of the speakers during the Centennial, the choir that so ably carried out the musical part of the program, Prof. Morse who so ably assisted by his beautiful solos, the ladies who had served such beautiful hospitality and the committee that furnished the decorations for the church.

This brought to a close a series of services which worthily celebrated the notable event for which they were planned. The audience joined with the choir in singing the closing hymn "Blest be the Tie that Binds" trusting that God will enable each member of this historic church to serve their own generation by God's will faithfully.

The House of L. W. Elliott

The residence of L. W. Elliott, of Clarence, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, the fire starting in the attic about half past one. The inmates were unharmed. The catastrophe occurring until a neighbor rushed in telling them their roof was in a blaze and the flames were coming out of the attic windows. Finding the house past saving they gave their attention to getting out the furniture and clothing, most of which was saved. With the greatest difficulty the barn and wagon-house were saved from the flames by the energetic work of the neighbors. There was an insurance of $1000 on the house, but the loss is heavy. The family comprising Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, a son and two daughters and Miss Freeman, a sister of Mrs. Elliott, have found a temporary home in a house in the neighborhood, belonging to Mr. Joseph Elliott.

ST. JAMES CHURCH ORGANIZED ADULT BIBLE CLASS, SEASON 1910-11.

The inaugural meeting of the above for the ensuing season was held in St. James' church school room last Friday evening, taking the form of an "At home," and was in every way a success. Dainty refreshments had been provided by various members of last year's class and these were served early in the evening, promoting conversation and good fellowship. Later those assembled gave themselves to business with Mr. A. Hiltz presiding, in the absence of Mr. J. B. Whitman, the retiring president. The report of last year's work was both interesting and encouraging. Election of officers then took place for the season now beginning, and resulted as follows:—President Mr. A. Hiltz; Vice-Pres. Mr. A. Morse; Secretary, Mr. B. Messenger; Teacher, The Rector; Assistant teacher, Hon. O. T. Daniels. Besides this several committees were appointed to see after various departments of the work. The class will meet on Friday evenings during the winter, in St. James' school-room, from 7.30 to 8.30, and study the gospel of St. Matthew, commencing next Friday with chapter XI.

A hearty welcome will be extended to any who may feel interested in Bible study, whether as members of the class or as visitors.

BRITISH COLUMBIA THE LAST WEST

Land of Big Mountains, Big Trees, and Big Possibilities, but Hampered by the Lack of Natural Moisture.—Apple Trees Cannot Grow Old, but Die from Lack of Deep Sub-soil.

British Columbia is a very mountainous country. It can boast of being the largest province in Canada, and also as having the most mountains. We entered it at Field, near the top of the Rockies with mountain peaks on all sides of us and throughout the whole five hundred miles of its territory crossed by the C.P.R., we never lost sight of mountains and peaks with their snow caps; they followed us or we followed them to the coast. We had been expecting to see in their fruit sections areas similar to our own valley, we watched in vain all the way to Vancouver. Everywhere the valleys are narrow and broken and over-shaded by great wooded peaks with head dresses of snow.

After coming down the western slopes of the Selkirk we continue our course by way of canyons and narrow valleys until we reach Revelstoke, population 3,500. This inland mountain town is nicely laid out and considering its position in this new and wild country and so far from other towns is quite a wonder.

It is a divisional point of the railroad therefore has quite a large population of railroad men. From here the Crow's Nest branch of the C.P.R. makes off to the south to Nelson. This lake lies wholly among irregular mountain ridges and its extent like an octopus in many directions occupying the whole of the intervening valleys. We follow or cross the arms and wind in and out our engine heading to every one of the thirty-two points of the compass in skirting around its shores for fifty miles.

It is always narrow and surrounded by high hills reminding one of our own Bras d'Or waters in Cape Breton, except that the latter has more hard wood, while here the forests are of soft wood largely. The settlements are small, an occasional saw-mill surrounded by a number of small shacks, where Chinese and Japs are seen in good numbers. Agricultural pursuits are still in the early stages. Toward evening, in this section we pass the first orchards we have seen since near Toronto. They are small areas and the trees all young of thirty and healthy growth, and on some of them the fruit is being picked (Aug. 13th.) Some dwarf species are also seen. There are no large orchards. The trees grow so rank that it seems they are quite at home here in these small protected spots, but the whole country seems so new and so heavily forested. Near the lakes are a number of large saw-mills and in this region we see our first great stumps and large trees. Spruce, cedar, hemlock and Douglas firs are noticeable and all very large. The Pass must have been very heavily timbered at one time but is now partially cleared. Near the end of the Valley, at a place called Craigellachie, we pass a granite pillar near the track that has been erected to mark the spot where the last spike was driven in the C. P. R. in November 1885; the contractors from the east and west meeting here. Fifteen miles more and we reach Sicamous Junction, a small village with a good sized C. P. R. hotel. From here a branch of the railroad runs south to Okanagan Lake, a distance of fifty miles. This district is well known on account of being largely exploited and advertised as a fruit raising section. It is near this lake that Lord Aberdeen has his great fruit farm and other holdings comprising 13,000 acres and employing a small army of men to operate. It is provided with irrigation to take the place of rain. Peachland and Summerland are also located in this direction further down Lake Okanagan. We regretted very much that our limited time did not admit of a trip to this location. Continuing our journey, our track now runs along the southern shore of Shuswap Lake.

Truth About 'Maine Will Now Be Learned

Fear That the Fisheries Will Be Depleted

Prominent Fish Dealers Say That the Industry is on Verge of Ruin. St. John, Sept. 25—The gravest fears are expressed by prominent fish dealers who reached the city today that the fishing industry in the vicinity of this port and in the Bay of Fundy waters in general is on the verge of ruin.

"There is no doubt that the whole industry is being depleted," said one man. All kinds of fish are very scarce and prices are higher than ever before. It is felt that the fishermen are themselves largely to blame, and they are charged with catching the smaller fish to make up for the scarcity of larger ones.

Mr. Hervey secured a patent on the inventor's idea and brought him to Mattland and fitted up a building with the necessary tanks and apparatus and has proved the success of the plan.

The young stepson of Mrs. Wilbur Lourey, of Cranwall, Lunenburg Co., has mysteriously disappeared, and all attempts to locate him have proven fruitless.

Sinking Spells Every Few Days

"At the time I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I was having sinking spells every few days. My hands and feet would get cold; I could scarcely breathe, and could feel myself gradually sinking away until I would be unconscious. Those about me could not tell there was life in me. After these spells I would be very weak and nervous, sleepless and without appetite; had neuralgia in my head and heart. After taking the remedy a short time all this disappeared and in a few weeks all the heart trouble was gone."

For twenty years we have been constantly receiving just such letters as these. There is scarcely a locality in the United States where there is not some one who can testify to the merits of this remarkably successful Heart Remedy.

At the exhibition last week the Dominion department of mines made a very successful demonstration of peat fuel from the government plant at Alfred, Ont. Several hundred tons of this fuel are being brought to Ottawa and sold at $2.25 per ton delivered, which makes it equivalent to hard coal at less than $6 per ton.

The interesting and instructive sketch by Dr. Armstrong of his trip to British Columbia, now running through several issues of the Monitor, should be not only enlightening as to the conditions and attractions of the west, but should also reveal to us the advantages we enjoy in our own little province down on the Atlantic sea-board.

The fruit growing possibilities of British Columbia have been pictured in most glowing terms, yet here we are informed that fruit-growers have to contend with conditions of soil and climate that the Nova Scotia fruit-growers know nothing of, while the problems that vex the Nova Scotia orchardist are also those of his brother in the Far West.

wooded that the lumber industry must be the main dependence for many years yet. The soil appears rich and in the small clearings the grain and grass are rank and healthy looking, as I remember them in our burnt lands years ago.

The whole country seems rich in lakes and mountains and great trees but very poor in nature's great boon—summer showers—with which we in the East are so wonderfully favored.

Gold and copper are mined not far away and with a fairly good agricultural district around it and a beautiful mountain peak, Mount St. Paul, not far distant to look up to and inspire them to higher thoughts, and rouse them from their content in the wealth of forests and mines—there is no reason they should not grow and succeed even if they are short in rain.

As we leave Kamloops the Thompson river, which has been much augmented here by the north branch, widens out once more and this time forms Kamloops Lake. Our way lies along its south shore for twenty miles or more of varied lake and mountain scenery.

Emerging again from the deep and dark ravine we leave the river and pass along on its high southern bank the river occupying the whole of the canyon, its pretty glacier fed waters green as emerald, rushing down the rock-bound channel in torrents.

Once upon a time disease was thought to be due to direct influence of evil spirits and magic was invoked to cast it out. Science has taught us wisdom. The evil spirits still exist we call them "disease germs" and they must also be cast out.

Electric Beans are the approved remedy for driving out disease germs. Their action is quick and thorough, they clear the intestines, rouse the torpid liver to new life, stimulate mucous membranes to healthy action and cleanse and invigorate the whole digestive tract.

C. P. R. In Nova Scotia
(Halifax Herald.)
Halifax is to have from the C. P. R., a through freight service with Montreal via Digby. This was the statement made yesterday at the luncheon in the Halifax hotel, given to Vice-Presidents McNicoll and Bosworth, by the board of trade.

Both Mr. McNicoll and Mr. Bosworth made addresses that were interesting to Halifax people and to the people of the whole province.

APPRECIATION OF D. A. R. RAILWAY AND MANAGEMENT.

Mr. McNicoll spoke appreciatively of the present management of the D. A. R., and of the quality of the property, which the C.P.R. was about acquiring. The D. A. R. roadbed was better than they had anticipated. The statement was made that there are splendid possibilities for expansion in Nova Scotia, that travel in this province could be made very much greater and that the C. P. R., having come to this province, were naturally interested in its development as well as of the west.

Mr. Bosworth spoke favorably of the present steamship service from Yarmouth to Boston and said that the boats could probably be enlarged and their accommodation made more adequate to the service.

THROUGH FREIGHT SERVICE MONTREAL AND HALIFAX.

The shipping facilities at Digby were regarded as good, especially in view of improvements under way, and Mr. Bosworth said the company would put on a through freight service. It is understood that the company's engineers will report or may already have reported in favor of a car ferry across the Bay of Fundy. Mr. Bosworth was non-committal regarding the steamship service from Halifax, but the inference was that when connections could be made and the freight secured Halifax would be the port. The possession of the D. A. R. by the C.P.R. will go a long way to bring this about.

GAVE THE VICE-PRESIDENTS BUSY AND PLEASANT TIME.

The board of trade gave Vice-Presidents McNicoll and Bosworth a busy and doubtless also a pleasant time in Halifax. President J. A. Johnson and members of the board's transportation committee met them at North street station. They were taken for a sail on the harbor and Arm, aboard of Mr. Glassey's handsome motor boat. At one o'clock they were the board's guests at a luncheon at the Halifax hotel. Mr. McNicoll having a seat on President Johnson's right and Mr. Bosworth on his left.

TWO PRACTICAL MEN WHO CAN SPEAK.

Both gentlemen made practical business-like addresses after the president's introduction. Mr. McNicoll speaks to the point, with a slight tinge of Scottish accent that betrays the land of his birth. Mr. Bosworth is a man of plain, but effective speech and was heard with keen interest.

After the luncheon Messrs McNicoll and Bosworth were taken for an automobile ride, necessarily short, for they left by the Maritime express en route for Montreal.

SPRAYING ORCHARDS.

The press of all the provinces during the present season has emphasized the fact that orchards which have been sprayed have produced much better crops than those which were neglected. This is a matter of great importance because it involves the question of profit. The federal department of agriculture has issued a bulletin dealing with the question. It states that where apple trees were sprayed with anti-microbe mixtures, ninety-five per cent of the fruit is first class, four per cent second class and one per cent culls, while on trees that are sprayed not more than fifteen per cent is first-class, and fifty per cent culls. The culls are worth forty-five cents a barrel, second class $1, and first class $1.75. An exchange points out that if we take an orchard producing a crop of one hundred barrels, the sprayed orchard would yield $175, and unsprayed about $37, or only half as much. It is added that what is true of apples refers to other fruit. The lesson is one which should not be overlooked by orchardists in the maritime provinces.—St. John Telegraph.

The Biggest Farm In Eastern Canada

Some Facts About Missisquoi Marsh Property—A Venture That is Proving Worth While—A Possible Scheme—Some Experts' Opinions.

Mr. W. A. Trueman, Point DeBute, was in Amherst on Saturday and the News talked to him about the biggest farm in Eastern Canada—the Missisquoi—of which he is superintendent. Mr. Trueman said the grass crop was splendid, while the grain was unusually stout and thrifty. A new departure in marsh culture had been made, he said, by creating a garden where celery, tomatoes, sugar beets, etc., are grown with sufficient success to show capabilities for other crops besides grass and grain. This is in black mud. The moss and fresh water vegetation which formerly grew on the marshes have rotted and formed a top layer on the marsh mud from three inches to three feet thick. This muck is a fertilizer itself and will grow enormous crops of nearly everything which will grow in this climate. Professor Andrews thinks it adds immensely to the value of the Missisquoi property. Principal Cummings, of the Nova Scotia College of Agriculture says the vegetable mould is of "enormous value," and "has no reason why the property should not become one vast, fertile area."

If the present policy be maintained for a year or two Mr. Trueman believes the property will be earning dividends on its capital.

Mr. Trueman was asked if the expenditure was a profitable venture. He answered that at the start most people, even marsh men, considered it a wild and risky venture. The large amount reclaimed and now in pasture and hay is sufficient to convince any one of its success.

A leading director who is an enterprising man, intends to visit Holland next month to pick up any ideas he can from the Dutch methods of dealing with clyke lands.

Replying to a News suggestion that the property is bonded to English parties Mr. Trueman said that he understood the property to be bonded for a large amount.

One scientific expert says the property ought to be divided into small holdings for market gardens, for dairying, pasturage and beef-raising; it would be an ideal property for this because it is surrounded by hills and many upland streams of water flow into it. The Conservation Commission has asked for facts concerning the property, as that body has considered it important enough to have it embraced in their report on the natural resources of Canada. All the big things are not west; some of them are in the Maritime Provinces.

A FRIEND WENT THERE

Hush! A friend went there:
Went with a tear of sorrow in his eye
A friend too old to lose, too young to die
Went with a heavy word of mine and not;
Graved in his inner heart and there was not;
He lives and speaks with me, but naught beside,
My friend has died.

Hush! A friend passed on;
Passed on in silence uncomplainingly;
Nor stopped to parry angry words with me;
Passed on, sore hurt, but keeping it will back his tears,
Passed on upon the stony way of years;
Well knowing me, but though he bows his head—
My friend is dead.

Hush! A friend is lost!
A sneer of mine, that cost me but a breath,
And fell my friend, more wounded unto death;
Nor made he any cry to tell the pain
He felt—just went and came not back again;
And though today again our pathways crossed,
My friend is lost.

Hush! A friend was slain;
Just then—struck down in the broad light of day;
As fell a crime, I know, as ever lay
At murder's door—it cost me but a tear
At him who craved but sympathy—a tear
I shed and bid him come to me in vain—
My friend is slain.

First Steel Steamer Built In Maritime Provinces

The new steel tug Canso built by the New Burrell-Johnson Iron Co. for the Dominion Government, went to sea 24th inst for her trial trip, having the Government inspectors aboard. The trip proved satisfactory in every way, both as to sea-worthiness and speed. The Canso is the first steel steamer to be built in the Maritime Provinces, and it gives the people of Yarmouth considerable pride to know that such a boat can be turned out here at home, every bit of work in her being of home production.

She is built under Lloyd's special inspection and to class 100 A. 1. in their register. Her dimensions are: Length over all 97.6; beam 22 feet and draught 8.6. She is built on the frame and reverse frame system, these being spaced two inches apart throughout her length. The deck is steel, sheathed with hard wood. The deckhouse on the main deck, contains the chief engineer's room, and store room; as well as providing entrances to the entrance room. An upper deck-house, built above the bridge provides the wheel-house, which contains steam steering gear, and the Captain's room.

WATERTIGHT BULKHEADS.

The quarters and mess room, for the men are located forward, the officers mess and state rooms are aft of the engine room, and the galley is adjoining. On deck are five powerful steam windlasses for handling of anchors and cables. Very heavy bits are provided for towing purposes. The vessel has five watertight bulkheads, dividing the vessel into six compartments. The fore and aft peaks are designed for water tanks. The engines are of the triple expansion type the cylinders being twelve inches, sixteen inches, and twenty inches diameter, with twenty inch stroke, developing about four hundred horsepower, making one hundred and sixty revolutions per minute.

The Doctor's Question

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Reckall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Reckall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. Sold only at out stores.—The Reckall Store, W. A. Warren.

SALE OF FIRE-ARMS SHOULD BE RESTRAINED.

This matter of the sale of firearms has been much discussed in Canada for some years past. Not that native Canadians are in the habit of carrying pistols or other concealed weapons; we have a law against it, and it has never been a Canadian habit. But Canada with the large influx of foreigners is changing, and the open sale of weapons is dangerous. All possible means should be adopted to prevent the growth of such a dangerous habit in this country.

"A Kingly Gift"
EARL GREY'S APPEAL
On behalf of Needy Consumptives,
Strong words of Canada's Governor-General

At the official opening of the King Edward Sanatorium for Consumptives, near Toronto, His Excellency delivered an address that must have an important bearing on the future of the sanatorium movement in Canada. We quote:—

"The proceedings this afternoon commenced with a beautiful and reverent prayer from your old friend, Dr. Potts. He prayed that the light of the Lord might shine upon us. That prayer is abundantly answered. He also prayed that the White Plague might be removed. Well, whether that prayer will be answered or not depends upon yourselves."

"Is it not a standing shame and reproach to the governments and individuals that there is not more care taken by the people of Canada to protect themselves against the curse of consumption?"

On his way out to the King Edward Sanatorium,—so named by permission of His Majesty King Edward VII—the Governor-General's car was stopped in its progress outside the Canada Cycle & Motor Co. by a large crowd of its employees. A contribution of one hundred dollars was handed the Governor-General, a donation to the Toronto Free Hospital for Consumptives.

"'Twas a kingly gift!" said His Excellency in making acknowledgment. "I will tell the King."

Addressing the large audience that attended these opening exercises, referring to this event, Earl Grey said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, when the workmen of Canada are setting an example of this character, I hope you will not be slow to follow, and I trust that the example of the Canada Cycle & Motor Co. may be followed, as I am sure it will, in every factory and manufacturing industry throughout the land."

We carry these words to the people of Canada in our appeal to-day on behalf of the

Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives

An institution that has never refused a single applicant admission, because of his or her inability to pay.

Seventy-five patients can be cared for to-day. Accommodation could be provided for three hundred if the required money were forthcoming.

To make this possible, our appeal is for $50,000, to be used in extension of buildings and maintenance of patients.

Where will your money do more good?
Every community and every individual is interested.

His Excellency Earl Grey has shown his interest and sympathy in the work at Muskoka for needy consumptives, by accepting the position of Honorary President of the National Sanitarium Association.

Contributions may be sent to Sir Wm. R. Meredith, Kt., Chief Justice, Osgoode Hall, Toronto, W. J. Gage, Esq., 84 Spadina Ave., or J. S. Robertson, Sec'y-Treas., National Sanitarium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, Canada.

"I FEEL IT MY DUTY

To Give You a Statement In Regard To 'Fruit-a-tives'"

HEARDWICKER, MIRA-MICHI, N.B., Jan. 17th, 1910.

"I feel it my duty to give to you and the world an unadorned statement in respect to the wonderful cure I received by taking 'Fruit-a-tives.' Chronic Constipation was the complaint I suffered with for years. My general health was miserable as a result of this disease, and I became depressed and alarmed. I was treated by physicians without the slightest permanent benefit, and I tried all kinds of pills and tablets but nothing did me any good.

I saw the strong testimonial in favor of 'Fruit-a-tives' by New Brunswick's 'Grand Old Man,' the Hon. John Costigan, and I knew that anything he stated was honest and true and given only to help his fellow-men. I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effects were most marvelous, and now I am entirely well from all my Chronic Constipation that I suffered from for so many years. My general health is once more excellent and I cannot say too much to express my thanks for the great benefits derived from taking 'Fruit-a-tives.'"

A. G. WILLISTON.

"'Fruit-a-tives' is not gotten up by druggists or chemists—who know nothing about disease and the needs of the human body—but is the scientific discovery of a well known physician, and is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices. A box, 6 for $2.00, or trial size, 30c. At all dealers, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

PAROLED MEN DO WELL

Only 65 Out of 3,100 Men Forfeit Their Liberty.

Dominion Parole Officer Archibald has just made an official visit to the penitentiary at Kingston. This is the first visit of Mr. Archibald since his severe illness last winter, and many friends in Kingston were delighted to see him on the road to recovery. When asked as to how the parole system was working, and as to the number of prisoners who had been paroled since the inception of the system in Canada eleven years ago, Mr. Archibald said that he was at the present time making out a report for the department, but could perhaps give approximate figures. Since the system was established in 1899, he said about 3,100 prisoners were released on parole, out of that number only about 65 had forfeited their liberty. That is a splendid record, Mr. Archibald said. Nearly 2,000 have won their full liberty and are in the enjoyment of good citizenship, having that they were not criminals, but had yielded to temptation in moments of weakness, and afterwards deeply regretted their acts and repented in sackcloth and ashes. One thousand prisoners are still reporting. Last year 420 prisoners completed their paroles. Of the 3,100 prisoners paroled in eleven years, 1,800 were from the penitentiaries and 1,300 from the jails and reformatories.

The number of paroles has been steadily increasing, but Mr. Archibald thinks that the limit has now been reached. He thinks the number totalled about 575, or about 100 more than in the previous year. In the prisons of Canada Mr. Archibald said that there were about one-third of the prisoners in whom the utmost confidence could be put if they were released on parole. There were probably from 15 to 20 per cent. who could be better incarcerated for life, as they were genuine criminals.

One year Mr. Archibald followed up the prisoners paroled, of whom there were 300, and found that they were turning a total of about $120,000. They had "made good," and were valuable citizens.

Not a minute should be lost when child shows symptoms of croup, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given, even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Sold by all dealers.

CRIPPEN FOUND GUILTY.

London, Sept. 26.—The coroner's jury day returned a verdict of wilful murder against Dr. H. Crippen, in connection with the finding in the upper residence paroled, of whom there was a total of about $120,000. They had "made good," and were valuable citizens.

DARE TO BE TRUE.

In everyday life the chief cause of lies is cowardice. The child commits an offence. He fears punishment; lying is such an easy way of escape. The merchant fears to lose a customer; a little equivocation on his part serves his turn. The wife fears the anger of the husband; the husband dreads hurting his wife's feelings. All lie to save themselves or others from suffering. In every instance the exercise of a little courage would have brought greater happiness, or if not happiness, blessedness, to use Carlyle's distinction. The world would be infinitely better and happier if men would follow George Herbert's advice: "Dare to be true, nothing can need a lie; A fault which needs it most grows two thereby."

In Memory of the Late R. R. McLeod

A handsome bronze tablet was placed in the Town Hall at Liverpool on Thursday last to the memory of the late R. R. McLeod. Appropriate speeches were delivered by Hon. J. M. Mack, A. W. Henry, W. L. Hall, M.P.P., and Fred T. Gardner, County Treasurer. William Dennis, of the Halifax Herald, replied on behalf of Mrs. McLeod, who was also present. The inscription on the tablet was as follows:

ROBERT RANDALL McLEOD 1841-1909.

A distinguished Nova Scotian, who through the press appealed with power to his generation. A student of public affairs, a graduate of Harvard, equipped with a varied experience, he became an effective and fearless reformer. He sought the truth and was not afraid to follow whatever it led.

As an interpreter of nature, he disclosed the wealth and wonder of his environment, and the supreme utility of a popular knowledge of its universal and eternal laws. As a moral and social reformer, he was the champion of humanitarianism as illuminated by the light of science.

In the public forum he always appeared in the advocacy of progress. He had the prophet's passion for justice and righteousness, and was a persistent and uncompromising opponent of wrong and an aggressive fighter for the common good.

The sage's dust now eloquently mutters Once held the feeling heart and fertile mind

Which wreathed of air virtue's flower With wisdom's fruit and inspire mankind.

This memorial was erected by his admiring friends and countrymen.

The successful man is invariably the one who sets a proper value upon time.

THE WRITTEN WORD

The helpless written word! The word begun What magic shall foretell the answering eye? Merriment may intrude upon a sigh, Or sober thought arrive to cloud a sun.

The spoken word! A thousand signs upon The listener's face shall guard fortunity Within the shaping, and the blundering cry.

Of impulse in an echo be undone.

Yet if the pen have tarried! How the mijes Go lengthening! The weary day but crawls To meet the day, the oriole unheard, The banks bereft of any flower that smiles. And in the shadow all remembrance calls

And all the heart: "O, for the written word!"

QUARANTINED.

Country Vicar (visiting a family where a child has scarlet fever)—I suppose you keep her well isolated? "Lor' bless you, sir, yes He keeps behind that clothes-horse, and don't come among us but for meals."

INCONSISTENT.

"Mother," asked little Ethel, "now that you're in mourning for Cousin Adelaide, will you wear black night-dresses, too?" "What an absurd question, child!" "O, I only thought you might be as sorry at night as you were during the day," ventured Ethel.—Harper's Bazar.

SCOUTS ON THE JOB.

Once more Their Value in Time of Trouble Was Demonstrated.

Once again the scout movement has been brought into the limelight. Last night, about eight o'clock, when Rex Insole, a well-known young draughtsman, of the south end of the city, who is changing his residence, was drawing a hand-wagon filled with household impediments, he had the misfortune to upset the cart near the Central school grounds. A cry of "Scouts to the rescue!" immediately rang out, and in a minute khaki-clad youths were running from all directions. They seemed to have grown from the ground, so rapid was their appearance. There stood Mr. Insole, clad in his winter overcoat and straw hat, too dumb-founded to speak, surrounded by twenty or thirty scouts. In a trice the scattered articles were back in the cart, and without waiting for thanks, the patrol melted away, as it were, into the darkness.

RHEUMATISM CURFD

Zam-Buck will give you relief! When you have any deep-seated pain in the joints, the back, the wrists or elsewhere, place a liberal supply of Zam-Buck on the fingers or on the palm of the hand and rub it in. The penetrating power of this "ambrocation balm" is very great. It kills pain and removes stiffness. Mrs. Frances Wyatt, of 22 Guy Ave., Montreal, says: "I have found Zam-Buck most soothing and valuable in a very bad case of rheumatism, and also for stiffness of joints and muscles. I suffered long and acutely from rheumatism, and tried one liniment after another in vain. I also took medicines internally, but it remained for Zam-Buck to effect a cure. I began applying this balm whenever I felt the aches and pains of rheumatism coming on or felt any of the stiffness. The result was truly wonderful. Zam-Buck seemed to penetrate to the very seat of the pains, driving them completely out, and I am now quite cured."

So many of the ordinary embrocations and liniments are imperfectly prepared and not sufficiently refined to penetrate even the skin—much less the underlying muscles. Zam-Buck is found, and its essence and juices are so concentrated, that when rubbed into the muscles for rheumatism, sciatica, sprain, etc., its effect is very quickly felt.

If rubbed on the chest and between the shoulders in cases of bad cold on the chest, Zam-Buck will give relief. Apart from its use as an embrocation, Zam-Buck will form a cure for all ordinary forms of skin disease and injury. It cures eczema, rashes, ringworm, cold sores, eczema, abscesses, chapped hands, piles, varicose veins, cuts, burns, bruises, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c., or post free from Zam-Buck Co., Toronto for price. Refuse harmful imitations.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

The Toronto World cites the case of Birmingham, as a city where municipal ownership yields benefit to the citizens. It quotes the Birmingham Post on the subject of the electric supply department of the city, and says:—

"A favorite objection to public ownership is that it lacks the enterprize of private management, but this is certainly not borne out by the record of British cities. Birmingham took over its electric service in 1900, the capital expenditure then amounting to $2,400,000. In ten years it has increased $7,000,000, or nearly treble. But the surplus profits have also continuously advanced, although the average price received per unit of electricity supplied has fallen from a fraction of eight cents to two and a half cents. The rates have been reduced several times, and the working cost per unit, these having fallen from four and a half cents to slightly over one cent. Last year, the surplus profit was over $100,000, half of which was contributed in rate relief. The reserve fund stands at $600,000, and $80,000 have been put to a renewal fund account. Municipal ownership and operation of public services has the great advantage of enabling the citizens to get their proper share of the benefits accruing from the success of the undertakings."

Hair Health

If You Have Scalp or Hair Trouble, Take Advantage of This Offer

We could not afford to so strongly endorse Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it as we do, if it did not do all we claim it will. Should enthusiasm carry us away, and we were drawing our breath, we would lose faith in us and our statements, and in consequence our business prestige would suffer.

We assure you, that if your hair is beginning to unnaturally fall out or if you have any scalp trouble, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will promptly eradicate dandruff, stimulate hair growth and prevent premature baldness.

Our faith in Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we ask you to try it on our positive guarantee that your money will be cheerfully refunded if it does not do as we claim. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. W. A. Warren.

British Columbia, the Last West

street sides and make them most handsome. The variegated oaks, maples, hollies of various kinds, bronzed leaved beeches and some sixty kinds of hedge making shrubs are all carefully trimmed and tested, and made a most interesting sight for two hours.

An automobile ride of five miles brought us to Harrison Lake, another beautiful spot, where are situated the Harrison Hot Springs. At the foot of a mountain upwards of one and a half miles high and at the lake margin, water springs up at a temperature of one hundred and fifty degrees. It is so hot that it can only be sipped as we would hot tea. It contains a large per centage of Glauber salts and common salt and sulphur, and is considered good for whatever is the matter with them by the hundreds of guests and patients and old drunks that come there to sober up at the hotel.

On a side-board on the hotel piazza are the mugs all properly labelled so as not to be mixed and when the going rings on the doctor's order, or at regular intervals, all hands are headed for the inexhaustible springs a few rods from the hotel and drink a larger or less amount of this soothing mixture, paying three dollars a day or seventeen dollars a week for the privilege, with extra charges for baths. Strangers drink from the dipper or accept the generosity of a patient for a sup. I think you have to learn to like it. I don't believe many of these taking it freely would care for it if mixed up at home and heated to this temperature, but the charm lies in its being mixed and heated by nature.

In some ways more wonderful to me than the hot springs and the hot springs are the great cedar forests through which we pass to reach the lake side. Our road leads between mountain peaks and through great cedars from six to twelve feet in diameter and from one hundred to one hundred and fifty feet high. They grow very straight with few limbs and are called "British Columbia tooth picks," being so straight and tapering. We had seen large firs, but were not prepared for such large cedars. Surely these must have been growing long before Hiram logged cedars for King Solomon on Lebanon to have attained this great size. A lumberman, a seat companion in this fine drive, told me he had recently made six thousand feet of lumber from one of these, and from another, forty-two cords of shingle wood.

Green vegetables of any kind will be found more tasty if they are taken out of the water with a collander while the water still boils.

An Absolutely Safe Paint

ENGLISH LIQUID PAINT

There should be no mystery about paint. No one, manufacturer or dealer, should ask you to take their judgment on paint and ask you to back their judgment with your own money. You don't run your farm or your business in that way.

Buy your paint on your own judgment. You are told frankly how "English" Liquid Paint is made and what it is made of.

There is a guarantee formula label on every can. You know that it is made of 70% pure white lead, 30% pure zinc white, pure linseed oil, pure turpentine and dryer. You know that it is free from adulterants. You know it is an absolutely safe paint.
