MR. WHITNEY AT MARKHAM Great Liberal-Conservative Demonstration on Saturday.

Largest and Most Enthusiastic Gathering Held in Town—Drawing Speeches of the Leader of the Opposition, Col. Matheson and Mr. J. W. Hayes.

Markham, Feb. 6.—Never in the political history of East York was there a grander or more enthusiastic gathering than that which greeted J. P. Whitney, Q.C., leader of the Opposition in the Local Legislature.

Upon entering the hall the speakers were accorded a rousing reception, being loudly cheered by the large audience assembled.

The chair was occupied by President Alexander Baird, on the platform with him besides the speakers were the following: H. C. Carr, John Miller, ex-member, South Ontario; W. H. Hall, county councillor; James Chester, county councillor; T. McNeene, Captain, Royal William Silver, ex-president, Conservative Association of Markham.

The chairman, after a few well chosen remarks, introduced Mr. J. W. Hayes, the Conservative standard-bearer in the present contest, who was received with rounds of applause.

Mr. Hayes, on coming forward, thanked the meeting for the cordial reception it had given him, and at once proceeded to discuss the many important issues in the present contest.

Mr. Hayes, in speaking of Mr. Richardson, said in a singular manner, that his opponent had not even ambition enough to take into himself a wife.

Mr. Whitney then proceeded to speak in regard to Public Schools. He contended that the necessity of providing training schools for the High Schools.

Mr. Whitney scored Mr. Ross' one-man rule, and explained the Advisory Board of Education, which he was in favor of, and would introduce were returned to power.

Mr. Whitney was listened to with rapt attention, and many exhibitions
