Reciprocity and Fish

A Maritime Province correspondent writes us to the effect that the fishermen which the American fishermen are to get practically for nothing. After some encouraging words about our fight against the pact, he says:

The answer to our correspondent's enquiry is very simple. The licenses which will be given the American fishermen for the nominal fee of a dollar a year, are the same licenses which are now granted them under the "modus vivendi" for $1.50 a ton.

But, talking of bonuses, what of the present Canadian bonus to our own fishermen? That is a very handsome one. It amounted in 1909 to $105,221 paid to some twenty-five thousand fishermen.

ANDREW BRODEUR IS CHOSEN IN DUNDAS

Winchester Springs, Ont., Aug. 21.—Andrew Brodeur, member in the late parliament, will again be the Conservative candidate in Dundas. The Conservative association of the riding held its annual meeting here today and so popular a Mr. Brodeur in the party that a convention was not deemed necessary.

THE BONUS SYSTEM

For this, we pay—what? First, we give our market. That amounts to at least $10,000,000 a year. They get a fighting chance for sixteen millions in exchange for less than six millions. Is that a good trade—for us? Secondly, we "pay" the opening of our market to the twelve most-favored nations, which export annually something like $200,000,000 worth of fish.

Now what do you think of that bargain? It looks to us as if the cute New Englander had beaten our representatives all along the line. And, on top of all this, we get no amelioration of the hard conditions under which our fishermen enter American ports, save that of the duty.

MR. SIFTON STARTS TOUR

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 21.—Hon. Clifford Sifton sets out on his anti-reciprocity campaign this week. He speaks at Ingersoll, St. Thomas and Tilburg before going to New Brunswick.

Continuing Mr. Copp made some further remarks on the arbitration treaty. He pointed out that the treaty was a declaration of war against the United States, and that it was a disgraceful thing to have signed such a treaty.

Conservatives have a great cause to fight for. Their opponents are disorganized and discredited, the inevitable result of too long a continuance in power. Everything is in readiness for a sweeping victory all along the line. All that is needed is determined effort. Laurier and a renewed lease for the grafters.

Special to The Standard. Newcastle Bridge, Queens Co., Aug. 21.—Ice cream has now been added to the bill of fare with which Col. McLean is seeking to beguile the electorate of Sunbury-Queens.

The delay in starting the construction of the road is recognized here as due to Col. McLean's lack of interest in affairs which generally concern his constituents and he is losing many supporters in consequence.

Organization and work should be the watchwords of the Conservative party until complete success crowns their efforts on September 21st.

Everything is in readiness for a sweeping victory all along the line. All that is needed is determined effort. Laurier and a renewed lease for the grafters.

THE LONDON DOCKS BUSY ONCE MORE

Work in Full Swing For First Time in Three Weeks—Strike in Industrial World Gradually Abating

London, Aug. 21.—The strike in the industrial world of the United Kingdom gradually is abating. With a truce in effect on all the railway lines except the London and North Eastern the Board of Trade was occupied all day in an endeavor to reach an amicable agreement between the employes of this line and the managers, and also in trying to settle the strike of the short sea traders. It was announced tonight that both these controversies are now in line for early adjustment.

There is still much friction on some of the railroads over the appointment of strikers returning to work to be accorded full reinstatement to their old positions, which have been given to men who remained loyal to the companies when the walkout was declared. As a result there were several instances of disorder today in various parts of the Kingdom and decisions of local bodies to remain on strike.

King George telegraphed his congratulations to Premier Asquith, Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, and Sydney Buxton, president of the board of trade, on the settlement of the railway strike. The King's message to Lloyd George said:

NORTON MEETING WAS NOT SUCCESS

SAINT JOHN, TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 22, 1911.

THE REVOLT IN QUEBEC.

Nothing more significant of the trend of events in the present campaign has appeared in the Liberal press than the candid admission of the waning influence of Laurierism in Quebec. Commenting on the recent meeting at St. Hyacinthe, the Ottawa Free Press frankly states that it was called for the purpose of advocating the Liberal cause and was turned into a nationalist anti-Laurier demonstration. It was with difficulty Mr. Lemieux obtained a hearing and the old time magic of the name of Laurier had so far lost its power that at times a reference to the Premier was being fully realized. The danger which threatens is being fully realized.

In its account of the meeting the Free Press says: "There is no use in beating about the bush. Henri Bourassa was the hero of the day. He and not Hon. Rodolph Lemieux had the sympathy of the crowd. Bourassa was able to prove that he is able to make the issue of the future of any meeting at which he is present, and what is more to the point, able to hold it so."

"The meeting simply goes to show that the Nationalist propaganda has become dangerous to the Liberal cause in Quebec, and there was ample proof at the meeting itself that the Conservatives will not be able to refrain from using Bourassa and his followers just as much as they will allow themselves to be used, no matter how much the principles of the two parties may differ."

"It was with the greatest possible difficulty that Mr. Lemieux got a hearing at all. There certainly was some exhortation for his losing temper; for five minutes at a time not a word could have been heard five feet away from the speaker and he wisely gave up the attempt until the turmoil had quieted down."

"Three special trains of about 15 cars each, and loaded to the last step of the platform, left Montreal in the course of the morning. There were dozens of automobiles, and hundreds of wagons and burlers. The Nationalists had the first of these trains and the Liberals the other two, but for some reason the Nationalists seemed to outnumber the straight Liberals by two to one in the meeting."

"It was a significant fact that the name of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, which is usually enough to awaken a tremendous ovation at a Quebec meeting, was passed by in silence a number of times in the course of the speeches."

Time brings its revenge. The Nationalist campaign, formerly carried on with such success against the Conservatives by Mr. Brodeur, Mr. Lemieux and Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself, is now working out its proper result on its authors and promoters. Hitherto Quebec has kept Sir Wilfrid Laurier in power. It may give the Government some majority in this election, but the margin is likely to be kept so small that the provinces will have their due weight in the scale. With Quebec in revolt Laurierism is dead. There should be few regrets."

KEEP THE MONEY HERE.

Discussing the pulp and paper clauses of the Reciprocity Agreement, the Canada Lumberman opposes the bargaining away of this country's vast natural resources for a whole inadequate consideration. A report issued by the Forestry Branch of the Department of the Interior at Ottawa shows that even under present conditions we are not securing the profit that we should from our vast pulpwood areas. The United States is securing too great a proportion of the benefit accruing from the manufacture of our pulpwood into the finished article of commerce.

The report says: "Unfortunately the tendency has been to export wood in the raw form of pulpwood rather than in the manufactured form of wood pulp." The tables given in the report confirm this statement. During 1909 1,337,762 cords of pulpwood were cut in Canada and of this 915,633 cords, or 59.5 per cent., were exported. The value of the exported article was $5,792,659. The amount of wood pulp exported during the year was 236,744 tons, valued at $4,898,812. This was about 63 per cent. of the production.

We suffer a severe loss by the export of the raw material. Exporting the wood to the United States brought in $5,792,659. Exporting the pulp which that wood made would have brought, at the average prices paid by the United States importers in 1909, $16,719,418. If the manufacture were completed and the pulp made into paper in its final form before exporting, the difference would be still greater. It would be folly in the face of figures like these to permit of any course being accepted in Canada which would prevent the paper mills of Canada from taking advantage, when the time is ripe, of the markets for paper which they are sure to find in the United States. Irrespective of any efforts of the United States to secure access to the pulpwood of Canada, the time is certain to come, in the near future, when the demand for paper on the other side of the line will be strong enough to make it possible for Canadian mills to dispose of large portions of their output to United States consumers. It is more than reasonable that in the meanwhile we should do whatever we are able to encourage the export of pulp rather than of pulp wood."

In 1906 Canada exported 46.4 per cent. of the raw pulpwood used by the ninety pulp mills of the United States; 10.3 per cent. of the raw material manufactured in the sixty-two pulp mills of New England, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont, and 6.1 per cent. of the raw material used by the sixteen pulp mills of Pennsylvania. The 915,633 cords of Canadian wood exported in 1909 were sufficient to keep sixty-nine of the two hundred and fifty-one American pulp mills running full blast all year. If this pulp wood had been reduced to pulp in Canada it would have supplied for the year seventy-three pulp mills of the average size of those already in Canada. The greater part of the pulpwood exported was cut in Quebec. If it had been manufactured in Quebec it would have kept running seventy-one mills of the same size as those now existing in Quebec.

This is the case against Reciprocity all along the line. The Agreement makes for the exhaustion of our natural resources as the United States has exhausted its resources, for the transfer to American pockets of the greater bulk of the profits that should go to enrich Canadians, for the advantage of American instead of Canadian industries, for the employment of American instead of Canadian workmen, for the enlargement of the American farmers' instead of the Canadian farmers' home market, and for the prosperity of American cities and merchants instead of the enrichment of Canadian cities and merchants.

Regardless of politics the Provincial Governments of New Brunswick, Ontario, Quebec, and British Columbia, are united against the export of pulpwood in its crude form. The Laurier Government has agreed with the Washington Administration to coerce the Provinces into removing their embargoes on the exportation of their raw materials, and the great mass of enlightened Canadians must resist such a suicidal policy to the utmost.

FEARS FOR ITS FATE.

The Detroit Free Press, which the other day said that in the event of war between England and an European power the United States would send troops to Canada for our protection, has another remarkable article. The Detroit newspaper, it will be remembered, made the following statement:

"We should have to send our troops into the country and our fleets into the waters of Canada. Where would they come back?"

President McKim, of the Detroit Board of Commerce, has returned from a ten days' holiday spent in Muskoka, and tells the Detroit Free Press that "he fears for the fate of Reciprocity in the approaching elections." But this alarming piece of news does not disturb our Detroit contemporary. Not at all. Mr. McKim has been going among the wrong people, that is all. Listen to this:

"The people who go to the Muskokas, even from this side of the border, are of one class, almost exclusively of English birth or descent, THE LATTER WITH AN INGROWING LOYALTY TO THE CROWN OF GREAT BRITAIN THAT IS POSITIVELY PAINFUL IN ITS MANIFESTATIONS—the lower or middle class, for the most part, whose chief claim to respectability and social standing is their devotion to the throne.

It is the lower or middle classes in Canada who are opposing Reciprocity and they oppose it because they are so painfully British, according to this United States reviewer of the situation, who proceeds to tell Mr. McKim that he has not taken account of the Western prairies, "where there are scarce Englishmen enough to find a dozen in a day's search" and "where the farmers, mostly Americans, are sold for Reciprocity." Neither has he allowed for Quebec, "where he will find the people who vote not for Reciprocity or against it, but for Laurier, by god, and for everything that Laurier wants."

However, it is quite possible that Mr. McKim, by reason of his ten-day visit to Canada, was quite as competent to size up the real situation in this country as is the anti-British newspaper which presumes to correct him. Mr. McKim allows for, while the Detroit Free Press discounts, the strong element of national feeling which has entered into the campaign and which is growing with great rapidity as the real meaning of the Tariff is exposed and understood.—London Free Press.

THEIR ULTIMATE AIM.

The Americans began with thirteen States along the Atlantic seaboard. They now occupy half a continent. How did they get it? By annexation. They "annexed" their own hinterland. They "annexed" Texas. They "annexed" Louisiana. They "annexed" California. They "annexed" Alaska. They "annexed" Hawaii. They "annexed" Panama. In their press and through the mouths of their public speakers, Reciprocity is hailed as the first step towards "annexing" Canada. "The bond," says President Taft, "uniting the Dominion with the Mother Country is light and almost imperceptible." Canada is at the parting of the ways. "In the face of these facts are you going to vote for Reciprocity and play into their hands? Isn't the British Empire good enough for you?"

PLAIN TRUTHS FOR CANADIANS.

(St. Paul Pioneer Press.)
A DEFEAT OF THE LAURIER GOVERNMENT WOULD SPELL THE DOOM OF RECIPROCIITY AND A PRACTICAL ENDORSEMENT OF THE IMPERIAL FEDERATION SCHEME WHICH WOULD GIVE ENGLAND A PREFERENTIAL IN TRADE MATTERS WITH ALL HER COLONIES AND RAISE THE TARIFF BARRIERS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA INSTEAD OF LOWERING THEM. THE QUESTION, THEREFORE, NOW BECOMES INTERNATIONAL, AFFECTING THE WHOLE PEOPLE OF TWO COUNTRIES AND IN A RATHER DIRECT WAY THE PEOPLE OF THE ENTIRE BRITISH EMPIRE.

Current Comment

(St. Thomas Times.)
Never before in the history of Canada has this part of the British Empire been face to face with a more serious crisis—not even in 1812—than was inaugurated when the Laurier cabinet hurriedly decided to dissolve the House of Commons and go before the people on the question of Reciprocity with the United States. The crisis lies not in the fact of going to the country, but in the fact that the Laurier Government will raise a battle of wheat from the hands of the government and United States means and influence, to deprive Canada of her fiscal independence forever, and to place in the hands of the government at Washington the power to dictate and regulate Canada's tariff laws for all time to come.

(Ottawa Journal.)
"I would rather have written that poem than won Quebec." General Wolfe is said to have remarked, as he advanced on the Canadian Capital of one hundred and fifty years ago. "I would rather win Quebec than have written all the blooming poems from Shakespeare to Ella Wheeler Wilcox," is probably Sir Wilfrid Laurier's way of putting it.

(Winnipeg Telegram.)
The United States, according to President Taft, is to buy a bushel of wheat from Canada, and then to sell it back to Canada for more than its wheat originally cost, and then go on to Canada's outside market with four made from the kernel and compete with her there.

(Ottawa Citizen.)
At Simcoe Sir Wilfrid Laurier mentioned that Sir John Macdonald was the Moses and that he was the Joshua of Canada. Sir Wilfrid is the Joshua all right, with the accent on the Josh.

(Hamilton Spectator.)
Laurier encountered a downpour of rain at Simcoe, and again at Three Rivers. But that is nothing to the deluge he'll run into on September 21.

POINTS ABOUT RECIPROCIITY

The Loss of Reciprocity, in 1866, Resulted in the Creation of Profitable Industries for Canada.

(By John V. Borne.)

It is true that both political parties in Canada formerly desired a measure of reciprocity with the United States. But that was when trade generally was small and depressed, and before proof had been given that, on the line of antagonism to Canadian prosperity, laid down by the United States, Canada could flourish as an exporter of farm and forest products and be essentially independent of the United States.

There was a reciprocity treaty between the two countries from 1854 to 1866, which advanced the price of Canadian farm produce. But the Crimean War in the first half and the United States Civil War in the second half of the reciprocity period raised prices everywhere. The Canadian farmer came to depend upon the United States for his market.

He received a severe lesson when reciprocity was withdrawn. But, instead of being ruined, he found a more stable market in Great Britain, which has persisted to this day. Instead of sending his crops across the border to the farmer's home market, he improved the fertility of the soil, and by selling dairy produce and cattle became more permanently prosperous than was possible under a delusively profitable market across the line.

In the time the National Policy expanded the farmer's home market. The gold he received for his produce, instead of going out of the country to purchase goods, was kept in Canada, conspicuous disadvantage—young Canadians left Canada by the thousands for the United States, where Canada was regarded as a poor relation.

RESERVE THEATRE SEAT BY WIRELESS

Oscar Hammerstein Installs Wireless Plant on His Theatre for Convenience of Ocean Voyagers.

London, Aug. 21.—It is now Oscar Hammerstein, M. P. No. he hasn't entered Parliament, he is simply a Member of Publicity. Everything that the one time American impresario does is daily chronicled by the English newspapers. In fact, he who was once New York's Oscar is so full of original ideas that all of the London dailies have assigned men to visit him night and morning as when the mænon's "think tank" is working it is dangerous to overlook him.

Mr. Hammerstein's latest is the installation of a wireless plant on the top of his new London opera house, by means of which it will be possible for those who go down to or come back from the sea in ships, to engage seats at the opera house while still on the ocean blue.

Of course, you have heard of Mr. Hammerstein's famous artesian well. He started a contractor digging this three months ago, but so far without result. However, Oscar says, it is for the contractor to dig or die, and he holds out the hope that if the digger does not strike water he may strike oil.

Mr. Hammerstein is determined to give England music. "If they will not accept grand opera from me," said the only one "they will have to hear my music, anyhow. I have purchased Dartmouth piano as a warning to England that if grand opera does not appeal to them I will emulate the example of Lord Chelton—that's close enough—and make them listen."

"Keep both hands on the Union Jack." The forefathers of the present generation of Canadians fought for it; the sons of the fathers will not forget.

KING'S CHILDREN ARE ALL GOOD SWIMMERS

King George is Enthusiastic Over the Sport and All His Children have Learned to Swim.

London, Aug. 21.—The announcement that the King and the Prince of Wales when at Cowes enjoyed a dip in the sea every morning recalls the fact that the King is an enthusiastic swimmer and that all the royal children were taught this art as soon as they were old enough. They learned the rudiments of swimming at the Bath Club, but they gained the larger part of their experience at Shetland, near Sandringham, on the shores of the Wash, where their grandfather, King Edward, had a bathing pavilion especially built for their use. The Prince of Wales and Prince Albert are expert swimmers and have competed upon several occasions against their fellow cadets at Osborn and Dartmoor. Little Princess Mary is a fine swimmer also. A short time ago the King had under consideration the building of a large indoor swimming tank at Windsor Castle, for the use of his children, and it is thought probable that this will be completed very shortly.

IN THE COURTS

Supreme Court.

There was a meeting of the Supreme Court judges in the Supreme Court chambers at noon yesterday. Matters relating to decisions which will be delivered at the approaching session of the court on banc were discussed. On Thursday in chambers Mr. Justice McKeown will deliver judgment in the matter of the application of the plaintiff for security for Supreme Court costs in the case of Johnson vs. Barclay Lumber Company. This matter was argued before His Honor on Friday last. J. Roy Campbell appears for the plaintiff and W. B. Wallace, K. C. for the defendant.

Fred R. Taylor and C. F. Inches, acting for the plaintiff in the case of Ira J. Hooper vs. the Bank of New Brunswick, will apply to His Honor for an order to sign summary judgment on the ground that there is no defence to the action. This is another case arising out of the operations carried on by Harry B. Clarke, late manager of the Charlotte street branch of the defendant bank. The plaintiff alleges that early in the summer he deposited the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars in the branch bank and has deposit slips to show this. W. A. Ewing, K. C., and M. G. Teed, K. C., appear for the bank and will resist the application.

County Court.

The August term of the County Court will open this morning at eleven o'clock at the court house with Judge Forbes presiding. One criminal case will come before the court. It is the King vs. Surage, charged with robbing D. Russell Jack's cottage at Duck Cove. This case was to be tried at the May session, but went over until this court. The accused is out on bail. A. A. Wilson, K. C., will appear for the crown.

BIBLE STUDENTS CONVENTION WAS SUCCESSFULLY OPENED

Services Yesterday in Connection with International Bible Students Convention were Largely Attended and Proved Most Interesting—Addresses by Notable Speakers.

This is the last day of the International Bible Students Convention. All the services yesterday were well attended. A baptismal service was held in the morning in which 15 were immersed. The first speaker of the day was Mr. Gleason, of Boston.

The speaker showed that the Apostle Paul was here presenting an aspect of the service and person of Christ Jesus that was very precious as viewed by the Heavenly Father.

In order that we might be able to see Jesus as He appears to the Divine mind, we must have the Word of God. Some of these pictures or types are found in the third book of Moses, the book of Leviticus.

This book abounding in details regarding the priestly service of the children of Israel seems very uninteresting until we learn its true significance. It points forward to the great sacrifice for sin which is accomplished by the Lord Jesus Christ.

The speaker mentioned the great assistance derived from a book entitled "Tabernacle Shadows," which is valuable to Bible students who desire to learn something concerning the meaning of the offerings which were a prominent part of Jewish worship.

We may view the sacrifice of Jesus from various view points, just as we may view a magnificent building from various places, each indicating new beauties of construction or architecture.

The sin offering of the great Day of Atonement was the basis for all subsequent offerings of the Jews. This great ceremonial finds its antitype or fulfillment in the sacrificial work of Christ in the Gospel Age which had its beginning at the baptism of Jesus and continues to his second advent.

The Scriptures teach that the true disciples of Jesus during this time may be sacrificed with Him (Rom. 8:17) suffering with Him that they may be glorified with Him. In the sin-offering Jesus is presented to our minds as one who, though He was not a sinner being "separate from sin, holy, harmless and undefiled," yet He is condemned for sin, not His own, but the sins of the world.

Another picture or type, the meat offering, reveals Jesus as fulfilling the whole duty of man toward man, which is to love his neighbor as himself. The speaker in closing his remarks called attention to the wonderful power of God's truth as illustrating the mighty current of a great river, and the rebellious resistance of men against the truth as illustrated by the tide forcing back the current of the river.

Dr. Morton Edgar, of Glasgow, Scotland, who has recently returned from Egypt, spoke upon "The Great Pyramid," using for his text Isa. 19: 19, and said in part: "The reason I speak of the Great Pyramid is that it is strengthening to Christian faith. The ancients reckoned seven wonders of the world."

The Grand Trunk Railway offers the exceptional low rate from St. John to Toronto of $18.50. Tickets issued at this rate are good going Aug. 26th, 31st and Sept. 5th, good for return until Sept. 12th.

President Taft has under consideration the case of Passed Assistant Surgeon A. H. Robnett, U. S. N., who with paymaster George E. Auld was ordered to court martial early last year following a dispute with Dr. E. S. Cowles, cousin of Rear Admiral Cowles, retired, a navy hon. leut. and Chaplain. Robnett lost two numbers as a result of the court martial proceedings.

Taft is a large man, but he should be told unmistakably that Canada is considerably larger.

(the Body) are considered also as suffering with their Head. If we suffer with Him we shall also reign with Him. So long, therefore, as there are any who are consecrated to the Lord and are suffering for righteousness' sake, just so long will the sufferings of this anointed One (Head and Body) be continued.

The glory has not followed as yet. Why? We answer that the sufferings of Christ and all His followers follow. Christ alone will be glorified before the glory could FOLLOW.

The end of this present age will see the very faithful ones out of each denomination glorified with the dear Head of the Church, His Body, then the GLORY will FOLLOW.

Not only will that glory be a glory of person to the overcomers, but also the glorifying of the great Jehovah's name—our Lord, as Jesus said, "Glorify Thy Son that Thy Son may also glorify Thee." That glory will be manifest when Christ and His faithful ones will swallow up death in victory. (1 Cor. 15: 55, 56), and when "Ransomed of the Lord" (those for whom He died) shall return, (come back from death) and come to Zion (the glorified Church) with songs and they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. (Isa. 35: 10). Then all those who will reject the everlasting life which will be offered them, will be destroyed from among the people." (Acts. 3: 19-22).

Jesus will never die again to pay the death penalty for those disobedient ones, hence they will never be resurrected—they will die and stay dead just as all would have done if Jesus had never suffered for them—they will die the Second Death. (Rev. 20: 14, 21, 5).

Let all of us who have given ourselves to the dear Lord, as Jesus said, will stand firm, let us earnestly strive to develop a character of love and obedience. Let us remember that all who have chosen to belong to the Lord, whether in their bedroom or elsewhere, and consecrated themselves to His will—all such of whatever denomination as belong, or if not a member of any denomination, all such are our Brethren in Christ. They need our sympathies in their trials for righteousness' sake. God bless them all. Amen.

The Canadian workingman has nothing to gain and his job to lose under Reciprocity. OBITUARY. Felix Hanratty. The death of Felix Hanratty occurred in this city Sunday after illness of about three months. He was a well known shoemaker and was for years employed with Rolston & Rolston here. He was in the 57th year of his age, and is survived by one brother, James of this city. The funeral will take place this morning at 8 o'clock from his late home, 10 Germantown street.

Miss Elizabeth McNamee, aunt of Policeman James McNamee, died on Sunday at her home in Golden Grove for her 85th year. She was a daughter of the late Michael and Catherine McNamee, and is survived by two brothers—Michael, in New Glasgow, and John at home—and one sister, Mrs. James English, of San Francisco. The funeral will be held this afternoon.

President Taft wants to put bloomers on Miss Canada and set her working in the Republican chain gang. No decent Canadian can stand for that.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER.
By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.
New York, Aug. 21.—Notwithstanding the development of heavy selling pressure during the day an upward trend was maintained. The market was generally buoyant, although damage reports were not so numerous as heretofore. The large Houston receipts of 22,000 bales against half that much last year tended to create considerable bearish sentiment, many people contending that an early movement of cotton on this scale did not reflect a belief in materially higher prices at the present time. The existence of a good sized speculative short interest tends to make the average sharp advances, but the preponderance of bearish sentiment sustains a large and abiding short interest.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY IN SACKVILLE STORE.
Sackville, Aug. 21.—The Sackville Hay and Feed Co.'s store was broken into last night and an attempt made to open the safe. The windows of the office was pried open by tools taken from a neighboring blacksmith shop. Two holes were bored part way into the safe and bags of feed were piled ready to be thrown into the store. The burglars evidently were scared away before the job was completed. Nothing was taken from the store but some crackers eaten as a lunch. The similarity of the method leads to a belief that the job was done by the same ones who robbed the freight shed a few weeks ago. There is no clue.

At present the Canadian farmer has a home market which takes 80 per cent. of his produce. Reciprocity would deprive him of his monopoly and let in the farm products of the United States and a dozen other agricultural countries.

MONTREAL CLOSING STOCK LETTER.
By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.

New York, Aug. 21.—For want of a better explanation the resumption of the decline in today's market was generally attributed to the less favorable advice regarding the British labor situation and the announcement that the Union Pacific had inaugurated a policy of drastic retrenchment. Neither explanation, however, could be accepted as satisfactory. Little attention was paid to the statements made in certain financial publications that the Union Pacific road was not carrying its dividend at the present time, nor was there anything in the English labor situation at this point to cause more than a sympathetic reaction in our market. Nevertheless the opening witnessed renewed pressure to sell U. P. and Steel stocks which continued through the morning with little or no support to counteract the natural effects of such selling. According to one story a large list of stocks was being cleared out for a large interest which had been tied over the recent decline, and while there was nothing to confirm this, it nevertheless seemed not unreasonable to the average observer. Reports of tornado and crop damage in the extreme northwest had some adverse sentimental effect, but as before suggested the selling seemed to be urgent and for some specific cause. This could not be found in the day's news developments. It would seem that if today's liquidation were part of a general clearing out, it was conducted during the first decline, the pressure from this source should be removed. The action of the market, however, is disappointing to many outsiders who were prepared to buy stocks and had had the effect of minimizing the efforts of support from this source which ordinarily would have brought a rally of normal proportions.

SMITH FALLS MAN COMMITTED SUICIDE AFTER MAKING ELABORATE PREPARATIONS—A WOMAN SAID TO BE CAUSE.
Smiths Falls, Ont., Aug. 21.—Harvey Wilton, aged 25 years, an employee of the Frost and Wood Company, was found dead in his room today, having hanged himself to his bedpost by means of an elaborate arrangement of straps. He was sitting on the verandah of his boarding house in conversation with a friend when he arose suddenly and went to his room. Some hours later he was called but gave no response. The chief of police was summoned and breaking into the room found the body. There is said to be a woman in the case.

LOWER TONE IN THE STOCK MARKET

New York, N. Y., Aug. 21.—The week in the stock market opened with a renewal in mid form of the downward movement which has played such havoc with prices of securities for almost a month. There was moderately heavy selling which again concentrated upon the leaders, Union Pacific Readings and U. S. Steel, in fact, dealing in these issues during the first three hours of the session and situated over 75 per cent. of the whole amount before closing. The decline today was more suggestive of profit taking by speculative interests which bought on last week's low price than of liquidation. Week end developments offered little incentive for activity on the bull side. Some hitch in the British labor situation was reported, even though no doubt improvement had set in. Another deterrent was the existing deadlock in the Moroccan situation which however, found little reflection on the continental bourse. Perhaps the most discouraging event was the announcement of the Harman system of its intention to embark on a comprehensive policy of retrenchment and other adverse conditions. No confirmation of the proposed curtailment will effect several thousand employees in the clerical departments of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific line and may later embrace the operating divisions. Incidentally this action on the part of the Harman roads was accepted as an indirect response to the recent demands of various employees for increased pay and shorter hours. It was again pronounced in fact more so than at any recent period; offerings of this stock, according to gossip, resulted in a heavy loss to the issuer. Another incident which militated against the stock was the persistence with which reports of price cutting were circulated. No confirmation was obtainable in official quarters, where it was asserted that many of the corporation's mills are now working at about their high capacity of the year. The coalers were heavy with sales from out of town interests, presumably Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Speculators were comparatively neglected in the day's operations, which hinged almost entirely upon the whims of capitalists for the greater part of the session after the first hour, with no material changes other than the intermittent changes of the speculative leaders from their low prices. In the very late business there was a moderate recovery of activity again, however, at the expense of values, with Union Pacific falling to its previous low point of the day. Final prices were only a fraction above the poorest and the market's tone at the close was distinctly heavy. According to reports of western railway officials, traffic in that section is holding steady with the general merchandise movement the morning after the most of last week compared with the corresponding period of last year, with smaller shipments of packing house produce. Money rates in the west show increasing firmness, but bankers manifest no uneasiness over crop requirements. London's activity again in this market were in no sense an influence even though a small balance was reported on the buying side. The bank of South Africa again secured the bulk of the South African gold laid down in London, where money was today plentiful with no change in discount. Bonds were heavy here with further weakness in American Tobacco, 4 per cent. Total sales par value were $1,507,600, unchanged on call.

Excursion to Brown's Flats. About 35 members of the Royal Arcanum went to Brown's Flats yesterday afternoon on the Geneva. The excursion which was arranged in honor of Rev. Dr. McFadden, supreme regent of the order, was an enjoyable one. The party was entertained at supper by Mr. Colwell at his summer home and returned to the city about 7 o'clock. In their rooms last evening Rev. Dr. McFadden delivered an interesting address to the members of the local council of the Royal Arcanum.

The Fisheries in Charlotte. John F. Calder, inspector of fisheries for Charlotte and St. John counties, was at the Victoria yesterday. Speaking to a reporter he said the sardine fishermen of Charlotte county had had a very good season, while the salmon fishermen operating with drift nets in the Bay had enjoyed an exceptionally good season. Hake have been plentiful also in many sections. The Grand Manan fishermen on the south side, however, had a very poor season.

She Missed Her Train. The Halifax train last evening brought a party of about 20 foreigners en route to the west. An old lady, one of the party, accompanied by three small children, became separated from the others and boarded the wrong car. When she found her mistake she left the train to go to the colonist car and before she reached the car the train pulled out of the depot leaving her behind. As she evidently was ignorant of the English tongue, considerable difficulty was experienced in directing her, but she was looked after by the railway authorities, and taken care of and will likely be sent to her destination today.

The Outlook for Carleton County. "Things look fine for the conservative party in Carleton county," said Hon. J. K. Fleming, who was at the Victoria yesterday. "The Conservatives have a good organization, and everybody is enthusiastic and working with a will. All the meetings are well attended and the speakers are followed with interest and applauded with questions. An interesting feature of the situation is that a large number of Liberals are taking part in the conservative campaign, having turned against their party on the reciprocity issue. The feeling against the reciprocity pact is very strong all over the country, and the more it is discussed the stronger is the opposition."

TEN GREAT MEETINGS.

Dates of meetings in New Brunswick to be addressed by R. L. Borden, Hon. G. E. Foster, and Hon. Clifford Sifton, in opposition to Reciprocity, have been arranged as follows:

DUFFERIN GRITS HAD LIVELY TIME

They Spent Last Evening Trying to Elect a Ward Chairman, but Meeting was a Failure.

The Liberals opened their fight in Dufferin ward last evening, and nobody can deny that it was a first class fight. Unhappily Mr. Pugsley was not present to pour oil on the troubled waters, and for a time it looked as if the famous battle of the Kilkenny Cats might be re-enacted.

Trades and Labor Council. A special meeting of the Trades and Labor Council will be held this evening.

Good Sardine Fishing. The large number of persons who walked along the Rockaway shores and the Courtenay Bay shores last evening saw a sight that was out of the ordinary as a number of fishermen were at work with their motor boats and seine, and the catch of the sardine herring was plentiful.

Mr. Cormier in the City. Max D. Cormier, Conservative candidate for the constituency of Victoria-Madawaska, was at the Victoria yesterday. He was feeling confident of victory in the coming contest.

Vandals at Work. The members of the police force are at all times on the alert for persons who destroy trees or flowers in the public parks, and yesterday it was reported in the central police station book that the wire protection around the trees on Erin street from the Marsh Road has been damaged. The damage to these wire protectors is mostly the work of boys.

A Case of Destitution. In the course of a policeman's walk about the city during the day and night he occasionally runs up against persons who are in need of assistance.

A LITTLE GRIT GAME WHICH DID NOT WORK

A Pro-Reciprocity Letter Faked for a Purpose, but in This Case it Fooled No One—May be Others.

A pre-election trick intended to lure the New Brunswick farmer into supporting Liberal candidates, and thereby approving of the reciprocity pact, has been exposed in Carleton county, while it has not yet made its appearance in the constituencies in the southern part of the province, it may be expected almost any day, provided that the people are not warned in time.

It is stated that a well known Carleton county farmer received a letter a few days before the Conservative convention in that county in which a resident of the United States offered him a high price for his farm, provided of course that the reciprocity pact was adopted.

The handwriting looked familiar to the man who received it and on making a little quiet investigation on his own account, he found that the writer was a Grit heeler in his own village. The same trick has been reported in other parts of Carleton county. As far as can be learned the idea is to have as many of this sort of letters as possible sent to farmers throughout the country in the hope that they may be influenced to support the Liberal candidate in their constituency.

Farmers of the lower counties need not be surprised to see in the greater press stories stating that Tom, Dick or Harry have been offered large prices for their farms by American farmers who are just waiting for the return of the Grit government to swoop into New Brunswick and buy all the farms available. It is all part of the game and the stories have no more foundation in fact than the promises which Mr. Pugsley is so fond of making about this season.

Canada's next premier, Robert Laird Borden.

WAS DELEGATE TO THE GATHERING OF CLANS

W. P. Grant Returns from Boston After Attending Convention of the Order of Scottish Clans.

W. P. Grant returned yesterday from Boston where he has been attending the biannual convention of the Order of Scottish Clans as a delegate from Clan Mackenzie of St. John.

The convention was one of the most successful in the history of the order, delegates being present from all over the continent.

The reports submitted by the general officers showed that the order was in a flourishing condition financially, and that there had been considerable increase in the membership during the year.

While the convention was in progress, and just as a committee was appointed to draw up resolutions of condolence in connection with the death of members during the year, news was received of the death of C. K. Cameron, a former chief of Clan Mackenzie, and his name was included among those mentioned in the resolutions of condolence and recorded in the reports of the convention.

The season of Liberal promises has arrived.

VICTORIA WARD ELECTORS

The electors of Victoria Ward who are opposed to reciprocity and annexation with the United States are invited to attend the Conservative ward meeting in Victoria Rink tonight at 8 o'clock.
