PORT STANLEY BOYS HAVE FIGHTING "SET"

And You Can't Enter It Until He Has Arranged to Have the You've Proved You're a Scrapper.

Port Stanley, Sept. 23.—Police Ma-gistrate Hunt, Crown Attorney Mc-Crimmon and W. J. Shaw, secretary of the Children's Aid Society, came to Port Stanley yesterday and heard a case against a young lad named Temple, aged 11 years, hitting another named Gordon, aged 12, with a club, knocking him insensible. The after-effects of the blow were not serious, and the magistrate dismissed the case. The evidence revealed a peculiar state of affairs among the youngsters at the Port. They have formed sort of exclusive society among themselves, and before any boy may become a member of their must prove himself physically able to take his own part. This has given rise to several bitter fights among juveniles, with varying results.

This society rule is said to be the result of the mix-up between Temple and Gordon. The latter was on his way to his parents' cottage with supplies from the store, when, it is alleged, he was set upon by a number of the boys. He took his part bravely against heavy odds for several min-utes, when, it is alleged, Temple knocked him insensible. He was taken a doctor's office and remained in that state for nearly an hour. When he revived sufficiently to leave the office he was allowed to go home unmolested.

Squire John Price is very indighant that such a state of affairs should exist in the village and he decase that comes under his notice.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Sept. 24.-It is now almos certain that George Caldwell, explorer, has perished in the Canadian North with the two natives who set out with him three years ago to cross Canada from Hudsons Bay to Great Slave Lake, and down to Edmonton and civilization. After Caldwell had been absent two years, and the news budget of the north contained no reference to him after the second winter, he was given up as lost. However, hope was revived last autumn by a report natives brought into Churchill that they had heard from other natives of a white man and two Esquimaux repairing a canoe on Baker's Lake to try and reach the refuge of the Northwest po-lice post at Fullerton before ice formed, and stopped travel by water. It was expected that the first news from ullerton this summer would announce that Caldwell and the two natives were safe and had spent the winter at Fullerton. However news has just come down from Fullerton, and there is no word of Caldwell there. The families of the two natives are living on the charity of the police. It is, there-fore, practically certain that the party this morning, and resulted in the pris-

SPAIN FORCES A GREATER WAR

Madrid Expects a Conflict With the Sultan of Morocco.

OVER STRIFE WITH RIFFS

Anarchists Again Active at Barcelona and Serious Crisis Has Arisen.

Madrid, Sept. 24.-It is generally believed here that the complications which have arisen between Spain and Mulai Hafid, the Sultan of Morocco, are likely to result in a Spanish-Moroccan war. Spain today has over 60,000 troops in Northern Africa, with 11,000 more mobilizing for service there, and the Government feels that only the brilliant completion of the work begun can defeat the plans of its political enemies at home. The sit-uation at Barcelona is causing renewed anxiety. Bomb explosions on the streets of Barcelona are almost of daily occurrence, and although the Alleged Tilbury Bank Robber newspapers that print even the rumors of such occurrences are seized by the authorities. The minister of the interior insists that the Government is not fighting its political enemies, but rather a widespread anarchistic plot. "The charge that we close the lay schools without Chatham, Sept. 24.—The long-delayed reason is false," an official said today. "The schools were closed be-cause of the preaching of anarchist doctrines against religion and social order that could not be tolerated by any Government. When the time any Government. comes we will vindicate ourselves before the courts." Melilla, Sept. 24.—The operation of station at 8:15 a.m. oner being committed for trial at the clearing and occupying the peninsula north of Melilla continues with little resistance. MISREPRESENTING CANADIAN

A defeat for tariff reform at this juncture in Great Britain might cause a feeling of impatience in outlying portions of the empire, which have been waiting for the Mother Country to adopt a policy of moderate protection and inter-imperial preferences. But should such a setback occur the over-sea dominions should not hastily abandon the dream of further strengthening the bonds of empire by means of firmer material ties. Even if defeated this time the tariff reformers may so far reduce the ministerial majority as necessary within a year or two with excellent prospects of a change of Government.-Toronto News.

OLD-AGE PENSION ROMANCE.

Old age pensions are responsible for pretty country romance. The bells of the little village church at Keevil, in Wiltshire, will ring next week for the to make another general election wedding of two old-age pensioners who were lovers fifty years ago, and met again only after each had married twice. It was in the village postoffice that they met once more when the old age pension act came into force. The old man could not sign his pension order, and a venerable dame who happened to be in the office came to his assistance. His name was familiar to her, and when next pen sion day came around the two old folks compared notes and discovered that they had been sweethearts half a century before. Each had married twice then, and now they are going to be married a third time-to each other

Save 25 Bars of Soap

Ordinarily you use at least one bar of laundry soap every week-more than fifty bars in a year. That's twice as many as you need, for Taylor's Borax Soap goes twice as far as any other soap.

Please prove this for yourself—we invite the test. Try one bar of this soap with one bar of any other. See which soap lasts the longest-learn which is the cheapest. We know what the result will be, for we have made this same test many times over-

Don't think that all soaps are alike-there is a won-our soap lasts twice as long.

derful difference in Taylor's Borax Soap. Let us show you some of the ways in which this soap differs from others. First we use only the purest cocoanut oil from the Isle of Ceylon. Then we boil it doubly long and mix in the borax. While boiling we run thousands of gallons of clean water through the soap which carries away all impurities. We require twenty-one days to make a single cake. The labor of more than 200 people is needed. We crush every bar under a weight of 30 tons to press out the moisture. We put every bar through an ageing process equal to standing six months in your pantry. So you don't have to age this soap.

When finished the bar is hard and firm, so it wears much longer. The borax softens the water which also reduces the amount of soap by almost half that ordinarily required. This pure soap is utterly harmless to the skin-it leaves the hands whiter and softer than ever before. If it is so harmless to the skin, then think how harmless it must be to the clothes. 5 Cents a Cake At All Dealers JOHN TAYLOR & CO., Limited, TORONTO, CAN.

DOPE ON WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

George L. Morland, the baseball dopester, sizes up the possible contenders George L. Morland, the baseball dopester, sizes up the possible contenders for the world's championship series this way:

Detroit and Pittsburg are about even ly matched in batting, the Tigers leading the Pirates by three points, while the A thletics are seven points behind the National Leaguers. Both American League clubs lead the Pirates in base-running, Detroit having stolen 102 more bases than the Pittsburgs. Philadelphia has used the sacrifice hit more than Detroit, while the Tigers have utilized that play sixteen more times than Pittsburg. On the bases the Tigers are about tied with Pittsburg has only three star base-run ners, Wagner, Leach and Clarke. Detroit.

McIntyre, Crawford, Davy Jones and Tom Jones possessing the right to be called good men on the bases. Outside of Collins, the Athletics have no phenom on the paths, although Hartsel, Baker, Barry and Ganley are fair. BATTING RECORDS OF THE POSSIBLE CONTENDERS.

MANAGER MAT M'INTYRE SIGNS FOR BIG TRIE

Detroit Club Will Go To Cuba at End of the Season for Series of Games.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23 .- Acting for his associates on the Detroit club, Matty McIntyre, manager of the expedition, today signed the contracts for the Cuban trip that is to be made after the close of the baseball season in the States. Victor Munoz, sporting editor of El Mundo, a Havana daily, brought the papers to Washington and explained some details of the trip 260 that McIntyre had not been informed on. All of the players who will go have posted with McIntyre and the Cuban people will place a big cash guarantee in a Havana bank on receipt of the signed articles. The team will be as named earlier, and will include Mullin, Summers and Willett, pitchers; Schmidt and Stanage, catchers; Moriarty, Delehanty, Bush and O'Leary, playing the infield as named, and McIntyre, Davey Jones and Beckenderf for the outfield. Schaefer and Killifer were to go, but the promoters made a condition that no player not with Detroit at the close of the season should be eligible. The trip goes whether or not the Tigers win

THE LANGUAGE OF THE FAN By Jack McKallip.

Oft have I sat and pendered o'er the gifted gab of Poe, To catch the sparkling gems that deal with hope or fancied woe Or piped Byronic eulogies in metre most superb, The which inspired with magnitude the pronoun and the verb, Aye, aye, these gems of English verse instil me with delight But, oh, they do not touch the spot or make me yearn to fight, For who can twist the liver, sir, with cold rhetoric spells Like he who jams an elbow in your pulsing ear and yells-

Get out, you ump; you toad-faced chump;

You banty-legged crane, Go fan your feet with a pickled beet; It's apt to cool your brain. You lie, you rube; you pie-faced boob

Oi, yoi, go get the hook,

I'm tired of strife with my dear wife, But, oh, you boozy crook.

Deep in the tomes of Chaucer and of Ibsen have I plowed, And o'er the shrine of Rubenstein abjectly scraped and bowed, Through many a skit of William Pitt and many a tale of Twain I've picked my way from day to day, but, oh, 'twas all in vain. Somehow they don't upset me, sir, or make my plexus swerve, Or trickle through my rigid spine and pneumogastric nerve; For who can vie with he who works in pyrotechnic spells And swings his neighbor's derby lid the while he madly yells-

Aw-take a drink, you cross-eyed gink, What are you lookin' at? Your thinkin' cone is solid bone;

Why you don't need a hat, Ow! zowie! help! You bloomin' whelp, You're sure a ghastly joke, With my dear mate to fight I hate,

But, oh, you woozy soak, Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 1, 1909.

Tigers' Rivals for Next Four Games Going Better Now Than Any Time This Season.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—With the Washington series ended, the Tigers tonight pulled out for New York where they have four games to dispose of in as many days. They are looking forward to these games with expressed confidence, but with much anxiety. It appears to be their fortune, just at the critical stage of the Trace, to catch the Yankees in their best form since early spring. The Gothamites have won eight in a row, and three out of four from them, which is an absolute necessity, unless Cleve, and the series and should be an absolute necessity, unless Cleve, and a series in the formation of the series in the first of the captain with the result that he will remain on Queen's Sundsyntant of the greatest power in not recommend the power is an absolute necessity, unless Cleve, and there out of four from them, which is an absolute necessity, unless Cleves and the captain will have to be selected, as Brewster is not returning this year.

JEROME'S DRAMA

"Passing of Third Floor Back" Proves Winner, Though

London, Sept. 23.-A great many many things concerning Jerome K. Jerome's play, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," probably will appear in the American newspapers before Johnstone Forbes-Robertson submits the piece to the judgment of a New York audience at the Maxine Elliott Theatre

the evening of Monday, Oct. 4. What very probably will not be said of it is that few plays in recent years have received such a severe roasting at the hands of the majority of the critics as the one in question. And it was not merely because of its mystical, nay, almost spiritual character, that the Solomons of the stalls returned to their judgment seats and passed sentence. They for the most part upbraided the amiable Jerome for all sorts of sins, venial and cardinal. He was charged with faulty characterization, maladroit construction and most every other offense in the code of play making. And the result? One of the greatest successes London had known—at least so far as serious plays are concerned The fact is especially worthy of mention since it but rarely happens in London that a play comes through the next morning fire not only unseathed but strengthened in its chances. Here the business of booming a loser or even a half-way winner into a moneymaking success is but little known, and the general practice is to "take the knock," as the local colloquilism has it, and try again.

What happened with "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" was the exception that proves the rule. The mention of the Christlike figure as the dominating personality of the play, set the church party thinking, and what was of more value, it set them talking; with the result that not only the clergy, but the laity determined to test the question of propriety for themselves, and, lo! the box office, slowly at first, and then more hurriedly, got busy, and the piece was estab-

Indeed, a more complete reversion of judgment as between that of the critics and the public rarely has been recorded, and this, as I say, without the aid of special booming. Now remains the interesting question as to how far the similarity between "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" and "The Servant in the House" will affect the chances of the former play in America and the latter in London. Charles Rann Kennedy's piece is scheduled for production at the Adelphi Theatre when "The Great Divide" shall have run its course.

MONKEY EATING EAGLE

Strange Bird From the Philippines Now at London Zoo.

London, Sept. 24. - A monkey-eat-Ing eagle from the Philippines, the first specimen ever captured alive, took up residence at the Zoological Gardens

As he sat on a stump in his large cage, blinking grey eyes at his new arroundings, and with the long crest of dirty brown feathers on the top of his head rumpled as though he had been running his fingers through his hair, he looked ridiculously like a rather worried human being. He has the largest beak in the eagle housea black, savage-looking hook an inch deep. His body is dark brown, with breast feathers of a dirty cream color. On the floor of his cage lay part of a pigeon, which had formed his first meal in the gardens.

His full name is Pithecophaga jeferyi, or Jeffery's monkey-eating eagle. He was captured by means of snares set round the body of a young pig. He will have to abandon his penchant for monkeys in favor of a diet of chickens

The price to be paid for him is not ret settled, but on account of his rarity it will be a high one. Several other zoological societies have done their best to secure so unique a specimen for

TRUE BILL RETURNED

Charged With Destroying the Infant of His Own Daughter.

Sudbury, Sept. 23.-In the assize court today the grand jury returned a true bill of murder against James Robinson for destroying the life of an infant born to his daughter, Ellen, on the 23rd day of March, 1908. No bill was found against Robinson for the murder of the infant of his daughter, Jessie, on the 27th day of March, 1903.

Justice Magee will hold a special sitting of the assize court on the 28th day of October, as the defense was not in a position to proceed, and the nine other indictments will also stand against him until that date.

The trial of Isadore Bourassa was then commenced. Bourassa is charged with attempting to murder F. F. Lemieux, recorder for the mining division of the district of Sudbury, and local registrar of the high court, by dynamiting his residence on the night of sive set in London society. PEFUTES CRITICS A Great British Industry To Invade Canada IS THE GREAT THIN

The Oxo and Lemco Company Ci London, Eng., To Establish Themselves In This Country

A new and striking example of British interest in Canada is the announcement that the historic Oxo and Lemco Company, whose head offices are in London, England, are to invade this country with their famous concentrated beef foods known as "OXO" and "LEMCO".

This great firm, the originators of concentrated beef foods, who have agencies and depots in all parts of the world, do things in a big way, and now that they have turned their attention to this country, they will not be satisfied until they have established a huge business here.

Already the firm has some of the most tremendous cattle farms on the face of the earth, their area running into millions of acres of nutritious pasturage.

The fact that this firm, long ago, adopted these unique and progressive measures to provide the richest, purest and most nourishing of beef foods will accentuate the importance of the step it is now taking to establish itself in Canada.

It seems almost like a fable to say that the extent of the Oxo and Lemco Company's grazing lands at the present time are so great that if stretched out into the width of a football

IS THE GREAT THING

Noted Clergyman at Toronto Deals With the Higher and Lower Criticisms.

Toronto, Sept. 23 .- "That a man is even suspected of being a higher critic would damn him with more people than the unsophisticated would imagine, while it is to be feared that the higher critic himself sometimes uses the word 'conservative" of his brother with just a little too much upturn of nose.

"An attitude toward Christ, and not an intellectual definition either of his teachings or the systems evolved from it, is the important thing.

"It is perhaps unfortunate that so much of what we may in a general way term theological literature is today born of a spirit of somewhat narrow controversy. To defend the great truths against the attacks of its enemies is one of the most important tasks to which the Great Head of the Church might call any man, but the defense of certain theories about that faith is not nearly so important a business; and it is to be feared that there are some people undertaking that task in our time who are hardly divinely called thereunto. At any rate, it is safe to say that some of the literature of religious discussion and controversy of today could well be spared."

These remarks were made by Rev. W. B. Creighton, B.A., D.D., who gave a masterful review of Dr. James Denney's theological work, entitled "Jesus Christ and the Gospel; Christianity Justified in the Mind of Christ," before the theological conference today in Victoria College. "The second title of Dr.Denney's book," said Dr. Creighton, "shows in a general way the argument and the trend thought. The questions raised by the modern historical study of the New Testament are faced, and the whole book is largely an answering of them. It will be a wholesome lesson to some who are finding time to contend over rather insignificant matters to learn how vital and pres-sing are the questions to be dealt with by those who would defend New Testament religion from the radical scholars who are attacking its very citadel with such adroitness and skill."

To the question, "Is the Christion re-ligion of today similar in all its essen-tials to that of the New Testament religion of the apostles?" Dr. Denney gives the answer that the disciples were believers in Christ, not mere followers after him; and to the second fundamental ques-tion, "Did Jesus Christ claim for himself the place Christianity has given him?" the author again replies that the real historical evidence for the resurrection is the fact that it was believed preached, propagated and produced its fruit long before any one of the New Testament books were written. The final portion of Dr. Denny's book brings out his belief that faith is not de-pendent on formula, for although he him-self adhered to the Westminster Confession, he did not consider it essential to any man's salvation. Chancellor Burwash, S.T.D., LL.D. occupied the chair during the meeting, and after Dr. Creighton's paper a brief discussion took place. Dr. Wallace considered that a great many ministers were

They have accepted the philosophical conception of the world, which rules out the supernatural," he said. In closing, he made a plea for the defense of the fundamentals in religion, and for less attention to the non-essentials Professor Bowles did not think that any man's faith should be attacked because and Dr. E. Why We Should Fill

We do a very large prescription business, which is a good reason why we should do more. A drug store favored with an unusual share of the prescription business of a community is certain to be the one where the service is best. It is a store that carries an adequate stock of prescription drugs, and one where the compounding is done by experienced, registered pharmacists. We give highgrade service, but our prices are always reasonable.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A C. P. R. CONDUCTOR

184 DUNDAS ST., LONDON.

Albert W. C. Ryan, Well-Known Local Shriner, Passed Away at Straffordville.

Albert W. C. Ryan, of Oxford street, conductor on the C. P. R., died suddenly early this morning at Straffordville, on the Tillsonburg and Port Burwell fine, Details of the manner of his death are lacking, but it is understood that he died as the result of a hemorrhage. "Paddy" Ryan, as he was commonly known, took a train out of the city last evening, going to Woodstock, and then down the line. At Straffordville he was taken ill, and died in twenty minutes. He was subject to nose-bleed. From what can be learned he was seized by one of these spasms,

A MIGHTY ARMADA ON THE HUDSON RIVER

Marine and Air Fleets Gathered for the Fulton Celebration.

New York, Sept. 24.-All the units which will compose the magnificent marine and aeronautic spectacles during the celebration of the 300th anniversary of the discovery of the Hudson River, and the 100th anniversary of Fulton's first trip up that river in a steamboat were gathered in and about New York today with the single exception of one of the aeroplanes. And a strange and wonderful fleet of marine and air craft they would have made if assembled in comparison. Here was the little Half Moon in which Hudson navigated the river three hundred years ago. Across the harbor was the reproduction of the Clermont, capable at the best of steaming seven miles an hour with ginning tomorrow was at its height, that Stelzle took a switch at too high Bridges Creek, Va., the birthplace of her uncovered paddle wheels in Every train swelled the numbers of a speed, striking contrast with the great tur- visitors from all over the country. Four German cruisers, the Victoria Louise, Hertha, Dresden killed early today when his car left and Bremen, came up the harbor this the rails and crashed through the morning amid salutes from the bat-teries, which they returned gun for gun and took their places in the long the car escaped injury. It is thought olumn of American, French and Mexican ships already at anchor in the Hudson. The Inflexible, with Admiral Sir Edward Hobart Seymour in command, joined the other British ships off Sandy Hoo ktoday, and anchored there at the head of the British olumn, awaiting a favorable opportunity to come up the bay. This ship with her splendid armament and high speed, is regarded as one of the most interesting sights of the great as-semblage. With her arrival the gathering of the fleet would be complete. for the harbor was already dotted with beautiful steam yachts in readiness for the naval parade tomorrow, when the Half Moon and the Cler-mont will be escorted around the harbor and up the Hudson River, to be saluted by the warships anchored The Aeroplanes.

Over on the flat land recently added to Governor's Island, two plain, homely wooden structures marked the presence of the latest and most re-markable development of the aviators -the aeroplanes of the Wright brothers, and Glenn H. LIVE STOCK.

TORONTO.
Toronto, Sept. 23Heavy runs all this week at the city cattle market tended to make business go a little slow today, and towards the close prices on the common est butcher cattle were off about 20c to 25c; for medium butchers, 10c to 15c; for choice butchers prices are steady and unchanged. The heavy runs of the pas two days produced a large proportion o poor quality, and it was this excess o inferior conditioned cattle which proved to be a bit of a drag on the market. For all the good stuff there was an active demand, and nothing at all desirable in quality was left over, some of the very choicest butchers holding the marke

THE BLYTHE CASE

Deaths in the Gulf Hurricane Will Approach Hundred and Fifty.

Toronto, Sept. 24.—The court appeal has refused to grant an order directing Mr. Justice Riddell to state a ease for the court in the matter of sentence to be hanged Oct. 1 for the murder of his wife at Agincourt, Ont., The application was made by Mr. T. C. Robinette, K. C., Wednesday morning, relying entirely on the ground that Blythe was so intoxicated at the time that he did not real ize the time that he did not realize the probable consequences of his Gus Merger Appeared in the act. This point, not, however, having been proved at the trial, as Mr. Robinette admitted, the court of appeal finds the question of the man's condition is not properly before it, and holds the case is one in which no irregularity should be permitted. The prisoner's counsel, however, is left the opportunity of making applica- ing. of appeals, but if Mr. Justice Rid- Clarence streets. pefore the court of appeal.

A GREAT MEETING OF TWO CONGREGATIONS

Laymen's Missionary Movement day. Laundhed in Westminster Last Night.

The Laymen's Missionary Movement End. vas launched in Westminister last night, when a great meeting of the two congregations was held in First Church. The ladies provided a splendid banquet in the lecture room of the church. An adjournment was then made to the large church, which was filled to the doors. Rev. Dr. McCrae presided, and the principal addresses were made by Mr. F. W. Anderson, M. A., and Mr. J. A. Paterson, K. C., both of Toronto. Mr. Anderson gave an able and convincing address, and Mr. Paterson's address was a masterpiece. The choir, under the leadership of Mr. R. Baty, was in charge of the musical service, and Mrs. T. H. Nichol rendered a solo. The music was appropriate and impressive, and was greatly appreciated by the large audience. Short addresses were delivered Emily Hayes, and the ceremony was by Messrs, J. H. Elliot, John W. Laidlaw, John Lawson, J. C. Nichol and ber of friends. W. S. Laidlaw. Altogether the meeting was pronounced one of the minster. Messrs. Anderson and Paterson returned to Toronto this morn-

A Large Audience Last Night Heard Rev. Mr. Golorth in St. Andrew's Hall

THE VALUE OF PRAYER A Stirring Sermon by the Eloquent

Preacher - Pray and Forgive.

That a strong spirit of revival beginning to touch the church members of London was amply evidenced by the gathering held in St. Andrew's Hall last night. The building was crowded to its utmost capacity, and in the audience that faced Rev. Mr. Goforth there was a very large representation of every Protestant denomination in the city. Mr. Goforth's appeal for the leaders in the churches to stand behind the movement, is not failing in its effect. In the congregation last night there was gathered the majority of the ministers of the city, and a large number of the prominent laymen from the different churches.

An Earnest Preacher. Rev. Mr. Goforth speaks very stmply, yet with an intense earnestness that must have the effect of giving his words a vital power in the lives of his

Last night Mr. Goforth spoke on the subject of prayer, taking as his text Luke xi., 1: "Lord, teach us to pray." "The greatest of all blessings," said the speaker. "Come through prayer, and perhaps we Christians are weaker here than anywhere else, so tonight we vill go into the school of prayer, to earn what prayer should mean to us. "The first thing we need to learn in prayer is reverence. Christ taught us hat no one was more reverent than He. And we must learn this if we ould have power. Abraham praying for Sodom spoke of himself as dust and ashes in God's sight. Moses must take off his shoes when he met God face to face in the burning bush. Job speaking to God abhorred himself in lust and ashes in God's sight. Daniel poke of Him as a great and dreadful God. Everywhere is reverence. So as we approach the Almighty we must do it carefully, more carefully than we ould approach any earthly sovereign.

Prayer and Sin. "No prayer can be effective without onfession of sin. The Pharisees prayed long and publicly, but they did not acknowledge their sin and so their progress was ineffectual. Pharoah spoke of his sin, but it was because musical services of last Sunday even- suffering had touched him, and there was no real repentance. But with Job, aon, will be repeated next Sunday the perfect man, it was far otherwise, night. The special preacher at the and he saw the sin in his life and con-

"Isaiah spoke of himself as a man nclean lips, and his lips were puri fied, and so it was with the great New England revival under Jonathan Edwards. He saw the same need and cried out for it, and in our own churches we must have the same thing. We must acknowledge our sins and confess them before God. It is impossible for God to use some of us because of the sin that is in us, and sin mut be got rid of if we are to be Pray and Forgive. "When we pray and pray with effect we must forgive. There are people hindering Gods work, and jeopardizing their own salvation because they wont forgive. You have your little these things are. We must forgive. We must have faith in prayer. David was the only one who could meet awarded the contract for $2,043. Goliath because he was the only one who had faith in in the living God, and we have lost ground terribly and have failed, often miserably, because we have not been like David with a strong belief in prayer. "There must be unity as well as Once the church becomes a of her sudden and unexpected death mighty united stream, they will sweep matters before them. And a great many churches fait for this very lack of unity. The devil gets in on that line and there is no power to pray. If all the churches were united in their friends. It was by this that Paul won We are so pitifully downcast that there is really nothing to appeal to those who are away for Christ. Let there be more praise and there will be more victory in London.

Submit to God's Will. "There must be submission to God's will. But we must guard this sub- Tunks, of Komoka, was held this afmission carefully. It is a devil's lie that God does not want us to pray for certain things.

"We accept the excuse often as matter of mere laziness. We must pray until we know what God wants of us and then submit to his will. Then there must be repetition. It might be the worst thing that could happen to us if our prayers were answered immediately. How near we come to getting the blessing, and fail because we do not persist in our petitions.

"The reason why the churches are so low down is that the intercessors have taken a holiday and have not been diligent in the Master's business. But only as we learn to pray as He taught us can we hope for great things

Mary Mannering Refuses to Be Interviewed on the Subject.

New York, Sept. 23 .- In spite of the fact that Mary Mannering Hackett, who was suing her husband, James K. Hackett, for a divorce, signed a consent to an order of discontinuance less than three weeks ago, and the suit was removed from the docket by Supreme Court Justice Amend, a new summons and complaint have been filed in the case, and the issues in the divorce case have again been joined. This became apparent today when Supreme Court Justice Guy appointed Maurice Deiches as referee to hear the case on two days' notice. When W. R. Wilder, counsel for Miss Mannering, was asked about the case today, he said he did not have time to discuss it because he was just going on his vacation. "When Miss Mannering was told that a referee had been appointed and asked for a statement, she said: "You must see Mr. Wilder. He called me me about it to refer them to him, and I must decline to discuss it with any Hackett several days later to send out
