THE RATS DOOMED

Germany Orders Official Cats for South African Colony.

London, Nov. 24.—With the advent of the official cat, rats will find life hardly worth living in Togoland. The governor of that German colony has decreed that in public buildings where natives congregate, such as schools, hospitals or prisons, cats are to be kept officially.

The governor explains that the decree is issued in consequence of the reports of the bacteriologist, Dr. Koch, dealing with the successful experiments made with cats for the eradication of rats in plague-infected and plague-menaced harbors of China. In Hong Kong orders also have been given providing for the maintenance of at least one cat in every home, and three cats in large houses.

Statistics show that the use of rat skins in the manufacture of fancy articles is increasing. Last year the trade in Great Britain alone amounted to $250,000, and supplies of brown rat skins are being sought in lots of from 100 to 10,000.

It is proposed to start a business in Calcutta for securing and preparing the skins of the brown rat, to be used among a variety of purposes in

THE LATE THOS. S. SCOTT

Death of a Well-Known Westminster Boy in Winnipeg.

The late Thomas S. Scott, whose death (already referred to by The Advertiser) occurred at the General Hospital in Winnipeg on the 13th inst., was a well-known Westminster boy. He was born on the second concession of that township, near Pond Mills, some 32 years ago. His father, the late Robert Scott, died April 14, 1895. About seven years ago Thomas and Mrs. Scott removed to Winnipeg, where he prospered in the real estate, grain and insurance business. Mr. Scott lived an upright Christian life, esteemed and loved by all who knew him.

Besides the bereaved wife, he leaves to mourn his loss his mother and brother Fred J., on the old homestead, and one sister, Mrs. John Morrison, of Guelph. The remains were laid to rest in Pond Mills Cemetery, the cause being borne by six old schoolmates of deceased, viz.: George E. Elliott, Oliver W. Elliott, Dr. A. V. Beattie and Alonzo J. Scott. The floral offerings were lovely, expressive of the sympathy of many friends. They included a beautiful casket, a wreath from the family; a wreath from Mr. and Mrs. J. Merritt, Winnipeg; wreath from the Guelph school workers, Winnipeg; spray from Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Shaw, Winnipeg; a former partner, and a spray from the trustees of Salem Methodist Church, Derwent.

The services were conducted by Rev. James Rollins, of King Street Presbyterian Church, London, and Rev. Mr. Barnby, of the Methodist Church, Belmont.

A WIFE ASSAILS HER OWN MARRIAGE

Mrs. William May Wedded Her First Husband's Brother and Is Sorry.

Toronto, Nov. 24.—For the first time in Canada a wife is asking for the annulment of marriage on the ground that she married her deceased husband's brother.

Mrs. Mary May, aged 58, of Sherbourne street, Toronto, is the plaintiff, and the defendant is Robert May, who when last heard of was in Rochester, Louisiana. Mrs. May has been retained by Mrs. May.

Mr. Justice, quoting from Levitical, English and Canadian law, maintains that the marriage was illegal, because the parties were within the prohibited degrees of affinity.

The change in 1881, until 1881 it was illegal in Canada for a man to marry his deceased wife's sister, in that year that particular barrier was removed, but the prohibition as to the marriage of a woman to a deceased husband's brother remained.

Mrs. May says that her deceased husband's brother, Robert May, persuaded her to marry him, and they were married in July, 1893, by the Rev. Alexander Williams, of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Toronto. Mrs. May now says that Robert May represented her as a spinster, instead of a widow, and gave her maiden name, Mary Pollard, in order to obtain the marriage license, and that she did not discover the truth until later.

Habits and Conscience. Dissatisfied with his habits, she eventually left him, and about the same time learned the incident of the marriage license.

Her conscience is also a factor, as at the time she married Robert May she did not know that the union of a woman with her deceased husband's brother was permitted by neither secular nor sacred law.

She has supported herself since the separation, and owns some property, so from a material standpoint, too, she thinks she ought to have the second marriage annulled.

There are no children by either marriage.

Robert May is a shoemaker by trade, but is said to have followed the races. His present whereabouts are unknown, but it is thought that he is still alive. As it may be difficult to establish to serve him with the writ, service by publication will be asked for. A high court judge at Osgoode Hall will hear Mrs. May's action, and Mr. Williams will be submitted in support of the application.

SAW THE DEAD GIRL IN FRITCH'S OFFICE

Woman, Who Refuses to Give Name, to Testify in Millman Case.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 24.—Interest in the Maybelle Millman tragedy of last summer was revived here last night by the detention of another witness in the case, the woman who is alleged to have written the anonymous letters to Sheriff Gaston soon after the discovery of the girl's dismembered body in Ecorse Creek. Dr. George A. Fritch is now released on bail pending his trial on the charge of causing the death of Miss Millman. The woman, who was seen by Deputy Sheriff Stark late yesterday afternoon to enter the Millman home, his curiosity aroused, the officer followed her and claims to have heard a conversation between the strange woman and Mrs. Millman in which the former admitted writing the anonymous letters and said that when the case comes to trial she will appear voluntarily and tell the court all she knows about the case.

According to Stark, the woman was in Dr. Fritch's office with Maybelle the afternoon the girl disappeared. She asserts that it was some time before either gained access to the private office, and in the meanwhile Miss Millman told her her name and her home. The latter was the first to consult the doctor, and as she entered the private office she dropped her handkerchief on which were the initials M. M. and a finger ring tied in the corner.

The alleged writer of the anonymous letters, who she waited some time for Maybelle to return, finally becoming restless and stepping to the door. Soon Dr. Fritch left the office and she went to the private room to give the girl her handkerchief and ring and found the door locked.

A few days later she read of the case in the newspaper and notified the handkerchief and ring to Gaston. Before leaving for Detroit the sheriff said that the woman still refuses to reveal her identity.

INDORSED BY THE CANADIAN PARLIAMENT

There has just been sold to the Dominion Government, to be placed in the official residence of the Speaker of the Senate, a beautiful miniature Grand Piano, made by the old firm of Heintzman & Co., and simultaneously a similar Heintzman & Co. Piano goes into the residence of the Speaker of the House of Commons. This is another of the many and repeated tributes of praise that have been paid to this very successful Canadian firm of piano builders.

The beauty in construction and the high musical qualities of this piano have given it a first place among the pianos of the world. Fac-simile of above pianos, in addition to the largest assortment of pianos in London can be seen and examined in Heintzman & Co. Piano Parlors, 242 Dundas street, London.

THE BARRIE INQUEST. Barrie, Nov. 23.—The music hall fire inquest was adjourned until 10 o'clock Friday morning. Mrs. J. Guthrie, whose husband's moving picture show was destroyed by fire at the same time his house, three-quarters of a mile away was burned, maintained she did not know the whereabouts of the now famous Miss Meeks. Guthrie also was unable to say where Miss Meeks was now.

What a Riddance These Prices Will Make

Tomorrow, Thursday Morning

A $12 Ladies' or Misses' Winter Coat for $2.75

Is an illustration of what will be doing tomorrow. All Odd Coats and Suits, many representing good selling lines of this season's buying, others are what are left from two previous sales this season, which have been so reduced in price as to appear ridiculous. But while the price is almost gone, all the style and all the quality still remains. It's just a case of having 194 odd garments, including Suits and Coats for ladies and misses that belong to nowhere in particular; odd lines and broken ranges. The prices have gone and the goods must go. We have made special preparation for this sale tomorrow morning. The garments will be conveniently laid out and assorted in sizes and prices to enable buyers to make choice and find the wanted suit or coat quickly. IN THE MORNING for your pick of these.

$5 to $12 Coats 106 for $2.75 Each

Winter Coats in Tweed, Beaver and Frieze, in navy, brown, green and a few black. All long lengths and semi-fitted styles. ## ENGLISH RULE IN AFRICA A BENEFIT Mistakes Have Been, Like Those of America, in Too Much Leniency.

New York, Nov. 24.—Theodore Roosevelt is unstinted in his praise of the results of British dominion over large portions of Africa, which he has had opportunity to observe closely during his present hunting expedition about the jungle end of the Uganda railway.

"The English rule in Africa has been of incalculable benefit to Africans themselves, and indeed this is true of the rule of most European nations," he writes in the December Scribner's. "Mistakes have been made, of course, but they have proceeded at least as often from an unwise effort to accomplish too much in the way of beneficence, as from a desire to exploit the natives."

Each of the civilized nations that has taken possession of any part of Africa has had its own peculiar good qualities and its own peculiar defects. Some of them have done too much in supervising and ordering the lives of the natives, and interfering with their practices and customs. Too Much Leniency. "The English error, like our own under similar conditions, has, if anything, been in the other direction. The effort has been to avoid wherever possible all interference with tribal customs, even when of an immoral and repulsive character, and to do no more than what is obviously necessary, such as insisting upon keeping the peace, and preventing the spread of cattle disease."

"Excellent reasons can be advanced in favor of this policy, and it must always be remembered that a fussy and ill-considered benevolence is more sure to awaken resentment than cruelty itself, while the natives are apt to resent deeply even things that are obviously for their ultimate welfare. Yet I cannot help thinking it would be possible to proceed somewhat farther than has yet been the case in the direction of pushing upward some at least of the East African tribes; and this though I recognize fully that many of these tribes are of a low and brutalized type. "Having said this much in the way of criticism, I wish to add my tribute of unstinted admiration for the disinterested and efficient work being done, alike in the interest of the white man and the black, by the government officials whom I met in East Africa. They are men in whom their country has every reason to feel a just pride."

ONE KILLED, ANOTHER DYING FROM TILLSBURG ACCIDENT

Milton Brown, Bus Driver, Meets Instant Death When Vehicle Is Hit By an M. C. R. Freight—Two Laborers Injured, One of Them Fatally.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Tillsburg, Nov. 24.—Milton Brown, driver for Tillsburg, was killed, Harry Round probably fatally injured, and Charles Bowman slightly hurt, as the result of an accident about 9 o'clock at the M. C. R. crossing here last evening. Brown was dead when picked up, and it is feared that Round will not live through the day. Bowman's injuries were slight.

Brown drove Pierce's bus to the M. C. R. depot. He was hurrying to meet the 9:07 train, as he was a little late. Bowman and Round were with him.

As he neared the tracks an M. C. R. freight train was approaching, and Brown thought he could cross before the train arrived.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 24.
A QUESTION OF HONOR.

Perhaps the majority of the Conservative members of the House of Commons were misrepresented on the French treaty question the other day by Messrs. Monk and Foster, who professed to speak for the Opposition during the absence of Mr. Borden. A portion of the Conservative press is plainly chagrined, and has let Messrs. Monk and Foster know that their "looking to Washington" attitude is repugnant to public sentiment.

The American maximum tariff becomes operative on March 31 against those countries which "unfairly" discriminate against the United States. What constitutes "unfair" discrimination is left to the decision of President Taft, who will be governed by the report of a commission of inquiry. Mr. Monk, Mr. Foster and other Opposition members took the ground that the treaty with France should not be ratified until the policy of the United States had been ascertained.

The view of the Government, as voiced by Hon. Mr. Fielding, is that Canada has no need to be governed in her commercial policy by that of the United States. We must play our own part fairly, open and above-board. After having entered into negotiations with France, after having persuaded the French Government to accept this treaty after having become in honor bound to present it to the Canadian Parliament, the Government of Canada cannot with self-respect wait until April next in order to find out whether it will be acceptable to our neighbors to the south.

There is no reason to assume that the United States Government will approach the matter in an unfriendly spirit. On the contrary, Mr. Fielding says we have every reason to believe that it will be the desire of that Government to interpret the tariff favorably toward Canada, Canada wants no tariff war with the United States, but cannot betray a commercially friendly country like France out of fear of reprisals from Washington.

THE LIFE ASSURANCE BILL.

The question how life assurance directors shall be appointed is one of the most important still left to be settled. The objections to the manner in which they are to be elected by the bill as it has been sent to the Senate, are real, not imaginary. The bill provides that in stock companies three-fifths shall be elected by the stockholders, and two-fifths by the policyholders. The number shall not be more than sixteen, or less than ten. A policyholder cannot be a shareholder, director, or a shareholder a policyholder's director.

The principal objections may be shortly stated as follows:

1. The capital invested in stock companies was so invested under the terms of the charters as granted by Parliament. The proposal violates the terms of these charters.

2. Policyholders do not take any part in the management of a company. They do not need to do so. They have the protection of the contract supported by the reserve, the capital stock, and the supervision of the department of insurance.

3. Policyholders resemble depositors in a bank to a large extent, and if the proposal of the bill to compel companies to lend 95 per cent of the reserve to the policyholder becomes law, they will resemble depositors to a greater extent than ever. Some companies consider it unsound in principle to lend to their own policyholders. The proposal in the bill goes too far. It is here the value of a large paid-up capital becomes apparent. If the law demands that 95 per cent of the reserve shall be available, the necessity for a large paid-up capital becomes greater. In times of stress, borrowing will increase, and the greater the paid-up capital the better able will the company be to meet these extraordinary demands. It will be readily admitted that a depositor should not be given representation on the board of directors in a bank. In view of these facts has a policyholder a greater claim? If the 95 per cent clause stands, the safe company of the future will be the company possessing the largest paid-up capital stock in proportion to the amount of insurance carried.

4. It weakens the safety of the company. The only one in touch with the policyholders is the manager. The manager could elect all the policyholders' directors, and instead of being subject to the control of the directors he could make and unmake them at will. This is not in the interest of the policyholders.

5. The director should have the power. He has the responsibilities. The shareholders and the directors elected in a stock company all have a direct interest in the management. The policyholder takes no part in the management. All experience shows this.

6. The proposal turns upside down the boards of directors of companies operated under their charters without objection from any source for many years. All interests have been perfectly satisfied.

7. Under the proposed law a purely mutual company could not be organized. It would be very difficult to organize a stock company.
8. If differences of opinion exist, let those having faith in each view be free to work out the way they believe to be right. No policyholder would be prejudiced by this course because he can select either a purely mutual, a stock or a mixed company, or, if none of these, fraternal insurance.

9. The law that is freest is best. The proposal is unjust to stock companies and should not be forced on them.

MISS PANKHURST AND HER VOICE.

The Toronto newspapers agree that Mrs. Pankhurst is master, or mistress, of the art of elocution. They are quite enthusiastic on the subject. She is a slender woman, but her voice is wonderful. It is powerful and musical; it "falls upon the ear in clear, well-modulated accents."

Mrs. Pankhurst has had years of training in public speaking; but her accomplishment is not at all rare among English women. As a rule, they are gifted by nature with good voices. No doubt this is in part the effect of peculiar climatic conditions, like the nasal twang of their American sisters, but among the educated classes more attention is paid to voice cultivation than in the United States or Canada. A great deal of the public speaking in Great Britain is in the open-air, which is good exercise for the vocal organs. Women like Mrs. Pankhurst who are interested themselves in politics and public affairs frequently harangue thousands of people out-of-doors. In London alone there are hundreds of demonstrations yearly at Hyde Park or Trafalgar Square, in which women address vast crowds.

An English newspaper recently expressed the opinion that no person who had not a voice for open-air speaking could hope to be elected to the British House of Commons. In the Bermuda by-election a few weeks ago as many as 50 meetings were held out-of-doors in one day. Lung power is a poor test of a candidate's fitness, but he has to take conditions as he finds them. These conditions certainly make for powerful speaking in one sense. Mrs. Pankhurst has probably had as much experience in this line as any public man in the land.

"Tin-pot," "tin-can," "baby" and "dinky" are some of the epithets hurled at the proposed Canadian navy. Some day it will shame its detractors.

The Ontario Legislature will revise the assessment act. Strange to say, every interest is asking for a decrease of taxation.

The Detroit Free Press thinks Canada should be punished if she ratifies the French treaty. But the American tariff has already done its worst to Canada. It holds no more terrors.

Germany and Britain will co-operate to put matters right in the Congo. Why not put matters right between Germany and Great Britain at the same time? It holds no more terrors.

Mr. P. M. Coates, head of the world-wide thread trust, says the British budget is a disgrace. He will get no sympathy from the average housewife on either side of the Atlantic. The price of thread has soared in recent years, and so has the dividend of the thread trust.

Some contemporaries are trying to straddle the fence on the naval question by advocating a gift of one or two Dreadnoughts to Great Britain at once, and the building of a Canadian navy at the same time. A Dreadnought costs more than $12,000,000, which would lay the foundation of a Canadian naval service. There is no crisis to justify such an expenditure by this country at the outset of its career as a naval power. To say that British naval supremacy will be menaced in the near future by Germany is to ignore the facts. Germany is not accelerating her programme and is a long way behind.

RATHER PARTIAL.

The Paris Gaulois has been asking its readers to name the 25 greatest writers in the world up to the present day. The list which resulted from the votes given by 11,247 readers runs: Victor Hugo, Shakespeare, Racine, Corneille, Virgil, Moliere, Homer, Dante, Goethe, Boswell, La Fontaine, Lamartine, "Chateaubriand, Voltaire, Cicero, Pascal, Musset, Balzac, Sophocles, Horace, Schiller, Plato, Cervantes, J. J. Rousseau and Milton. Votes were given for 42 other authors.

It will be noticed that the list contains the name of no living writer, and that 14 of the 25 are French, 3 Latin, 2 Greek, 2 English, 2 German, 1 Italian and 1 Spanish.

HE MAY KEEP RIGHT ON.

A young fellow who makes his mark in the laboratories of Toronto, Montreal or Winnipeg may pursue his inquiries as far as he pleases in Oxford or Cambridge, Edinburgh or London, without changing his flag. There he will be not simply free but welcome to receive the guidance of as good teachers as the world can show, of as good explorers as ever added new pages to the book of life.

NO COLDS IN ANTARCTIC REGION

Lieut. Shackleton tells of a curious phenomenon of life in the Antarctic regions. The daily journey is, of course, taken under atmospheric conditions involving the extreme cold. The danger of what is called "catching cold" is increased by the fact that the toll of dragging sledges over miles of snow and broken ice lands the workers at the end of the day in a condition of profuse perspiration. Nevertheless, during the whole of their stay in the Antarctic regions not a single one of the adventurers suffered from bodily infirmity ordinarily following on exposure of extreme cold. The peculiarity was the more marked in view of the fact that at the first port their vessel touched on the homeward voyage, nearly every man, including the commander, had catarrh.

DEATH'S NEW TERROR.

Whatever may be thought of Mr. Stead's interview, his habit of least adding another terror to death. Interviews are often enough terrible on this terrestrial sphere, but if they are to follow us to the regions beyond, heaven help us!

WHERE WELSHMEN ARE WEL-COME.

Canada owes a good deal to Wales, and we are glad to learn of the efforts now being made to attract more Welshmen to the Dominion. The Canadian Government are getting a new handbook printed in Welsh for the benefit of the Welsh people.

A PARTY OF MANY VIEWS.

It must be conceded that the Opposition are looking at all sides of the navy question. If there is anything left unsaid after Mr. Borden, his speech and Mr. Monk are through it cannot be very much. Combined they are for Dreadnought contributions, no contributions, a Canadian navy and no navy. The combination cannot be exceeded for variety.

The Queen of Holland has invented an improved baby carriage. Over in Holland the best people continue to regard it as worth while to raise babies.

AND SHE WOULD BETTER NOT.

Only a very beautiful woman can afford to be sarcastic.

OBSERVATION.

The majority of men go through the world without cultivating the faculty of observation. How many of them, for instance, have ever taken the trouble to find out the number of buttons there are on the backs of waist worn by their wives?

FOR LUCK.

Boarding Mistress—Is there anything wrong with that egg, Mr. Fourpence? I see you according it a very critical examination.
Mr. Fourpence—Oh, not anything wrong with the egg, Mrs. Skimpem. I was just looking for the wishbone, that's all.

CONTINUED LESSON.

Mamma—I am delighted at the interest my boy is taking in his writing. He spends two hours a day at it.
Visitor—Really? How strange? How did you get him to do it?
Mamma—Oh, I told him to write me out a list of names of the saints for his birthday, and he's still at it.

CHEAP GAS IN TORONTO.

The interesting news is given out in a letter from the city auditor that during the coming year the price of gas in Toronto will probably be reduced another 5 cents.
The present price is 75 cents per thousand feet, a reduction having been made from 80 cents a little more than two years ago.

HER TASK.

Little Minna was saying her prayers. When she had finished her usual petitions her mother said:
"You have forgotten, dear, 'Make Minna a good girl, you know.'"
"Oh, mother," she answered, reproachfully, "don't let's bother God about that; that's your lookout."

THE REASON WHY.

"Ethel is not very handsome. Why do you call her a belle?"
"She's waiting for some man to ring her."

LIBERALISM MUST ADVANCE.

There is no such thing as old Liberalism; at least, there is no such thing as stationary Liberalism. Liberalism must keep pace with the progress of thought and the needs of humanity.

WILL THEY?

Owing to her refusal to don prison garb, the authorities are now considering whether Winston Churchill is sitting sans petticoat, sans chemise, sans everything, in a cell, where she is said to be trying, with indifferent success, to "The Marseillaise." Let us hope the prison authorities are gentlemanly enough to keep the steam turned on.

HOTEL LABELS ON TRUNKS.

There is a secret code hidden in the hotel labels with which travellers' trunks on the Continent are so profusely decorated. Globe-trotters are aware that in Switzerland and in other tourist countries porters or waiters stick bills or labels with the name of the hotel on the luggage when one leaves.

For the newspapers, broke in one of the juryman.

"I have been listening to all the evidence," said H. J. Gould, one of the juryman, "and so far I haven't heard anything that causes me to know how this woman met her death."

"Some witnesses, whose names have been mentioned, have practically insisted on giving their evidence," said the crown attorney.

"But they have no legal status before the court," objected Mr. Phelan.

The crown attorney finally had his way, and the inquiry was accordingly adjourned till Wednesday. There are one or two facts that may be brought out, he mentioned, and the coroner added that a coroner's court is principally a court of inquiry. To make the matter certain, however, a show of hands was asked, and every juryman voted in favor of adjourning.

The preliminary hearing was then gone on with.

McLachlan Arraigned.

Exbridge, Ont., Nov. 24.—Archie McLachlan was formally arraigned before Magistrate Hamilton yesterday for preliminary hearing in connection with the death of his wife on Oct. 22.

McLachlan, who is a native of Scotland, represented by Mr. Phelan, a Hamilton lawyer, appeared before the court.

Before he was asked to plead, Mr. Phelan, his counsel, took objection to the rights of the court to hear the case.

"Will you state your objections," asked Crown Attorney J. E. Farewell.

"I am not making any objections," said Mr. Phelan.

"The thing is, I don't waive my rights I may have to object."

The charge was then read.

"How do you plead," asked the magistrate.

"Not guilty," answered the prisoner.

Mr. Phelan broke in: "We neither plead nor elect."

Dr. W. C. Shier was then called and gave the same testimony as before.

Prof. Ellis, provincial analyst, gave evidence amplifying his report read at the preliminary hearing. He said he had found about a grain of strychnine in the stomach, and that quantity would have absorbed in the system, and would have killed in less than two hours. There was nothing to indicate in what form it was taken.

Martha McLachlan, the 7-year-old daughter, was today given into the care of Mrs. Watson, of Sarnia, sister of the dead woman, at McLachlan's own request, at an interview between the two, and he seems to be suffering mentally anguish, and in court sat with head bowed in his hands, seldom looking up.

McLachlan is a medium-sized, sharp-featured, thin-faced man, about 35 years of age. He was very nervous, and while talking he kept his hands before the magistrate said that he will die before the winter is over if he is to remain in the jail at Whiteby much longer.

TO CALL CONFERENCE ON ALL-RED ROUTE

Representatives of the Various Governments Interested to Meet in the Spring.

Ottawa, Nov. 23.—It is probable that a conference of representatives of Canada, Australia, New Zealand and Great Britain will be held soon after the close of the present session to make arrangements for the consummation of the all-red route project. As a result of Dr. Coulter's mission and of the negotiations which have since been conducted by the various governments, it is understood that all parties to the project are now practically agreed on the feasibility of the scheme and on the conditions under which it can be carried out. The present Government in Australia is understood to be in favour of the project but at first appeared, and is quite willing to co-operate with the other governments concerned in carrying out the scheme to a successful fruition.

Form Definite Scheme.

The chief deterrent, which has hitherto operated to prevent Australia from actively entering into the scheme, has been the limitation of expenditure imposed for the early years of the Commonwealth's existence. This limitation, however, expires in about a year, and as no large expenditure can be made in carrying out the project for some years, pending the completion of the necessary arrangements for a fast service, the Government of Australia now realizes that this is no bar to their joining at once with the Canadian, New Zealand and British Governments in taking the initial steps. The conference next summer will probably eventuate in the formation of a definite scheme for the carrying out of the project during the next three years.

MIGRATION NORTHWARDS

Attempt to Stay Influx to Canada Is Futile, Says J. A. Macdonald.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—In connection with the "Why go to Canada campaign," and land expositions which are being held at the Coliseum in this city under the auspices of the Chicago Tribune and supported by Government and other interests, an attempt was made Saturday night at which one of the speakers was Mr. J. A. Macdonald, of Toronto. In the course of his remarks he said: "I tell you frankly, you cannot bring back to your American States those who have crossed the boundary and settled by the hundreds of thousands in Western Canada. No inducements can be offered, no land schemes you may devise, no educational proposals or irrigation enterprises, nothing you can do will avail to bring back to your semi-arid states in the west and north-west the thousands who have answered the call of the northern zone. They are now good Canadians, as good as any under the flag. They sing 'God Save the King' as loyally as the native-born and they teach their children to honor the Union Jack. And I tell you more. You cannot completely or for long block the way of those who are still in your country, but upon whom has been laid the spell of 'No. 1' land. You may keep them today, but tomorrow they will yearn beyond the northern sky line, and under the stars they will pitch their tents under the northern lights."

TEACHERS' PROTEST

Attitude of the Lady Teachers Supported by the Alliance.

Toronto, Nov. 23.—At a meeting of the local members of the executive of the Ontario Teachers' Alliance the following resolution was passed: "Whereas it has been brought to the notice of the executive of the Ontario Teachers' Alliance that certain ladies on the teaching staff of Toronto preferred to give the information as to their ages, etc., required by the actuary engaged on the superannuation scheme of the board of education, in a form different from that provided by the officials of the board, the lady teachers of the city have been held up to ridicule, and it has been intimated that when the information given by the ladies is complete it will become public property. "The executive of the alliance hereby protests against such action, and submits that, because these ladies are employed in the public service of the city, they should not receive less courtesy than is shown to other public employees, and that in cultured communities."

IRELAND PROSPERS

Growing Thrift of Irish People Shows Fine Results.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Ireland is entering upon an era of prosperity which can be attributed almost directly to the growing thrift of the Irish people, according to the United States vice-consul at Cork. He reported today that a statement from the Irish department of agriculture, just issued, declares that in June of this year, as compared with the corresponding month of 1908, there was an increase of approximately $2,000,000 in the Irish joint stock banks and of about $2,000,000 in savings bank deposits. The increase in postoffice deposits on Dec. 31 last compared with Dec. 31, 1907, was $10,000,000, while the increase in Government stock investments, etc., on which dividends are payable at the Bank of Ireland, amounted to $6,000,000. In the same connection the vice-consul calls attention to the fact that Ireland exported about $42,000,000 worth of linen products in 1908, and that the sales of Irish lace are greater than ever before.

Hydro-Electric Errors.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Error No. 1.—How much fairer would have been a plan that would have given a level price to the consumer per horsepower. Had the zone been the property of the Niagara power company, the price would have been no opportunity for any one place to take advantage because of its lower rate.

Error No. 2.—Would not the right-of-way have created less friction if all the farmers, the villagers and all the towns in the Niagara zone been let into the union, by giving all of them the privilege of getting both power and light in return for their concession of right-of-way? It would have been an easy matter to have convinced any farmer along the right-of-way that his gain would be greater than his loss that his farm would be of much greater value because of getting power and light at cost, as compared to the farm out of which the right-of-way was taken. The village and the towns would have been able to share in the benefit and help lessen the construction load. Niagara is nature's unlimited; hence, there was plenty of it. The same high-tension line would have cost no more, in so far as the trunk system was concerned; as, like a railway, it would serve the whole of the territory through.

Error No. 3.—The proposed plan of charges to the consumer: Could anyone picture a more senseless way? Measuring the room, the floor space of every building using light. What has a floor or the size of a room got to do with a natural commodity? Like water, it should be sold as near cost as practical, and the consumer pay for what he gets, and that only.

Niagara comes from nature similar to our water supply. Municipal ownership should mean all to be served alike, and at as little cost as possible. The best illustration is given in the postage stamp. No person in the zone of the stamp has any advantage over any other person; they are the same price to all, no matter how great the quantity.

The rich man can afford to have more rooms and very much more floor space than the poor man. He can also afford to have very much more light, and he usually does have it. The meter can do all the measuring for both rich and poor. The community is not selling room floor space, simply light, and the quantity is all taken by the meter.

As every citizen is interested in this problem, because every home is taxed, whether by light or not, to pay for the introduction of the system, the law he should follow for protection is to get as large a consumption as possible, because he must pay for it. (1) From other electric lighting companies, (2) the gas company, (3) the Standard Oil Company. Hence every encouragement should be given Niagara in order to get the price low, and to prevent competition, otherwise competition will cripple or kill Niagara.

Re the Kindergarten.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I have been reading over the correspondence and reports from the meetings of the board of school trustees re the kindergarten trouble. I am not in a position to judge the action of the trustees, in wanting to make changes in the method of conducting the schools. The inspector should be the judge of that, as I understand that is his business. I do not suppose any of the trustees have time to devote to go into the details. This double shift may be right, or it may be wrong. I notice by reports in the press that there was in London one of the best-conducted kindergarten systems in the Dominion. That is very creditable to the person responsible, whoever that may be. The method proposed by the trustees may result in dissatisfaction and disorganization of the staff to the great detriment of the system. There was a great change made in the management of our high school some time ago, and, according to reports, the school was at the head of the list. Where is it now? I read in The Advertiser of Saturday, Nov. 12, figures of interest to the people. They do not look at all encouraging. One man has been singled out, and, if he is the cause, it is all right, but why did not the trustees call for the resignation of the whole high school staff, and then in re-organizing they could weed out the deadwood, as they are intending to do with the kindergartens? Trustee Graham's remarks about deadwood in the kindergarten staff is a sort of a slur on the whole staff. If there is any deadwood, why not single it out, and dispose of it, instead of disorganizing the whole department? It seems to the writer that this is a reflection on the management, who would allow inefficient teachers to remain on the staff. If it is so, and not on the teachers themselves. Why is it that until a short time ago they were paid to pay the kindergarten staff and increasing the expense thereby? Evidently they do not see very far ahead. I do not admire the idea of Trustee Graham in making a suggestion that when an investigation was to be held in Mr. Lane's case, there is surely no hole-and-corner business to be done by the board. They are men, and ought to do their business in a manly way, without fear or favor, and as was done in the high school, so should they do with the kindergarten—not discharge the whole staff, but pick out those who are inefficient. If there are any, and not destroy the organization. The trustees have a perfect right to make a double shift, or do anything they think in their wisdom would be in the interests of the public, but I do not think they went about this work in a business-like way. There is an old saying that the worm will turn when trodden upon. Would you wonder if the kindergartners have a grievance in this case, and feel like turning? Is it any wonder women are clamoring for votes?

The teachers that may not be taken on, are branded publicly as useless, or, in the language of one of the trustees, "make it impossible to secure efficient anywhere else, because if they were in London why the inference is they will be no use anywhere else, and after putting in six or seven years of study, the best portion of their lives, it is pretty hard to be thus stigmatized. Trustee Weekes has just published a letter in which he stated that the object of the change was not to reduce the taxes. Now in Trustee Graham's speech he said the kindergartners were costing too much, and the change would mean a saving of $7,000 per annum to the taxpayers, and he was heartily commended by the R. C. M. P. A. for this move. Now, what is it? Are they dodging the real issue? If their intention was to make changes, there was no need of a discharge. He goes on to say also that in re-organizing the teachers, the influence of friends, not the needs of the applicants are to have any weight in appointment. One would think that this statement that such has been the case in the past, is a disavowal of it. It does seem strange that all this talk about inefficiency has sprung up now. Surely the board have had knowledge of the works of the department all along, and it cannot have dawned on them at once. Trustee Graham says they want to do the work in a business-like way. I could ask, where is the businessman who would discharge all his employees, because some were deadwood? Would he not single out the deadwood, or useless ones, and discharge them, rather than disorganize his business? I think so. If Trustee Graham has among his clerks one or two that are not satisfactory, does he give them all notice of dismissal in order to get rid of the useless ones? He goes at it in a manly way, picks out the deadwood and gets rid of it, and keeps his staff intact. Any employer who would do tactics like that would soon lose his best help, for who would put up with it? (Evidently this has happened at the press, there are a good many weak spots in the curriculum.) Why should the young women teachers be picked out for such treatment?

The best thing the trustees can do is to withdraw their request for the resignation of the whole of the kindergarten teachers, make any changes in the conduct of the schools they wish, and let them go, but do not make a public slur upon them, which will hurt them, and prevent them securing positions elsewhere. All these teachers, we presume, have passed the regular examination, and in the opinion of the examiner are quite competent for their work. Their work, as we know, as it is their business. Hoping this matter will not result in the complete disorganization of our splendid kindergarten system. I am, very truly, Sincerely, R. H. RAYNER.

NICARAGUA'S WAR

Great Movement of Troops in Salvadorean Ports Reported.

New Orleans, Nov. 23.—A dispatch from Port Limon, Costa Rica, says that passengers arriving at Punta Arenas report the great movement of troops in Salvadorean ports. It is said that General Alfaro is at the head of 1,000 Nicaraguans. This expedition is said to be well equipped. The arrival of Don Luis Alonzo Barahona, the ex-candidate for the presidency of Salvador, is momentarily expected, and he will join with Alfaro and Figueroa as one of the revolutionary chiefs. The revolutionists are said to be in possession of Castillo Viejo. Following is the situation as seen in Salvador: "If Alfaro is beaten the troops of Salvador and Guatemala will march through Honduras to attack Yelapa. If Alfaro succeeds a revolution in Guatemala will be assured."

TWO TO ATTACK.

SHIRTWAIST STRIKE

Forty Thousand Will Be Out by End of the Week.

New York, Nov. 23.—A total halt in the shirtwaist-making industry in this city was promised today, when operators in shops all over the city went on strike.

Men, women, girls and boys, to the number of several thousand, obeyed the strike summons, and it is stated, before the difficulty develops its full extent, all the shops in the city, employing 40,000 persons all told, will be involved.

The operators demand a working week of 52 hours, in place of the nine and a half hour day now in force, and an advance from 25 to 30 per cent in the rates for piecework.

NO REST FOR TERRIBLE ITCH

Till Oil of Wintergreen Compound Made His Skin as Pure as Ever.

Mr. James Lullooh, of Iron Bridge, Ont., consents to D. D. D. Prescription of oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., a wonderful cure for skin troubles. He has good reason to think so, too, according to his letter of March 27, 1909.

"I have suffered for years," he says, "with eczema, and now through using two bottles of your wonderful cure, my skin is as pure as it ever was. My face was so bad I could not see. I could not sleep. I could not rest at all for the terrible itch."

Thanks to your wonderful medicine I am cured! As eczema is a germ disease, and as the germs are right in the skin, blood medicines will not cure it. The only effective way is to treat the itch where the itch is. D. D. D. Prescription penetrates the pores of the skin, kills the germs which cause the eczema, gives instant relief from the awful itch and permanently cures.

For free sample bottle of D. D. D. Prescription write to the D. D. D. Laboratory Department L.A., 23 Jordan street, Toronto.

A large attendance of mothers is desired.

Dance and Social.
The members of Victory Camp, of the Woodmen of the World, are to give a dance and box social in the city hall Friday evening, 26th inst. An excellent programme of music will be furnished by Tony Corbese's Orchestra for dancing. The ladies are expected to bring a box containing luncheon for two which will be auctioned off in the evening. Lady members of the Woodmen of the World will be in attendance as a committee.

An Indian Uprising.
Mrs. Moses Antone appeared before Squire Chittick yesterday afternoon and laid a charge of assault against her husband, Mrs. Antone was reluctant to give any information of events leading up to the assault, but it appears that all has not been running smoothly in the Antone household for some time. Antone was summoned to appear on the 20th for hearing. Both the parties reside on the Ononda Indian reservation.

D. D. G. M. Coming.

An event of much interest to local Oddfellows will be the official visit to Dominion Lodge this evening of District Deputy Grand Master S. Kiser, of Strathroy. It is expected that there will be a large turnout of brethren from all the local lodges. The degree team of Dominion Lodge will exemplify the work, and in addition there will be a number of addresses of a fraternal character. It is expected that Senator Dan Derbyshire, grand master of Ontario, will pay his official visit to the lodges of London on Dec. 15.

A Successful Sale.

The sale of work held in St. Andrew's Church parlors yesterday afternoon from 4 till 7, under the auspices of the Junior Branch of the Mc-All Mission, was a very decided success. Every one was delighted with the articles offered for sale, and there was no difficulty in disposing of them;
indeed, a large number of orders were taken for future work. The receipts of the sale were very satisfactory—$50.
The young ladies in charge of the different tables were as follows: The tea
table, Misses Mathewson, Henderson and McLeod; the cake table, Misses Underwood and Simcox; the apron
table, Misses Trevelan, Strongman, Clayton and McMechan; the fancy work table, Misses Armstrong, Garvey, Johnston and Miller. The reception committee was composed of Miss S.
Sade and Miss Mitchell.

Lecture on Birds.
In Methodist Street Baptist Church a very pleasing lecture was given Monday by Mr. J. M. Calvert, M.A., of the Collegiate Institute staff, on "Birds." Mr. Calvert illustrated the lecture by showing numerous species of stuffed birds, his special thought being the value of birds to the life of trees and also to the success of a season's crop, as most of the feathered tribe live on the insects and grub.
Miss Holt sang a solo in excellent voice; Miss Chamberlain, a young but promising elocutionist, gave a couple of splendid recitations; and Master Grant Milligan rendered a violin selection in artistic style.

A Service of Praise.
Thursday evening next the choir and soloists of St. Andrew's Church, under the direction of the leader, will give their semi-annual service of praise.

Mr. Meredith's many friends will wish him every success in the insurance field.

Death of Miss Geoghegan.

Miss Eliza Geoghegan, daughter of the late John and Elizabeth Geoghegan, died at her home, 24 Pictou street, last night, after an illness extending over several months. Miss Geoghegan was 50 years old and had lived in London all her life. She is survived by four sisters—Mrs. Harry Merritt, Mrs.
Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Joseph Smith, of this city, and Mrs. Michael Lamp, of Alpena. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon to Woodland Cemtery and Rev. Canon Dunn, of St.
Paul's Cathedral, will conduct the services.

A Pie Social.

A pie social was given by the Ladies'
Aid of the Richmond Street Mission, last evening, and it attracted a large crowd. A fine programme had been prepared by Mrs. Cockrell, and it proved to be of great interest. Among the numbers were a violin solo by Grant Milligan; solo, Miss Gibson; recitation, Miss Chamberlain; solo, Miss Brook; reading, Mr. Gibson; solo, Miss Cockrell; solo, Mr. Gibson, and an address by the chairman, Mr. C. M. R.
Graham. Mrs. Cockrell was complimented highly upon the fine programme. After the completion of this part of the evening's entertainment, pie
and refreshments were served.

One of Originals.

Patrick McCue, one of the original Indian liars, who was up two weeks ago twice in succession, and was allowed to go with a fine, on condition that he see his spiritual adviser and take the pledge, fell off the water-wagon again last night and was gathered in. The police state that McCue went to his spiritual adviser all right, but that he had been there so many times before and had broken so many vows that the reverend gentleman declined to take any more pledges from McCue. The court also had no leniency to show this morning, and the prisoner was remanded for three weeks to jail.

QUEBEC TRICENTENARY THROWN ON CANVAS

Great Pageants Shown and Explained by Mrs. Fitzgibbon of Historical Society.

A very large and appreciative audience gathered in the assembly room of the Normal School to listen to the lecture delivered by Miss Agnes Fitzgibbon, of Toronto, the corresponding secretary of the Ontario Historical Society and the subject of "The Quebec Tricentenary." The lecture was given under the auspices of the London and Middlesex Historical Society. Mr.
Henry Macdonald presided.
Miss Fitzgibbon gave a very graphic description of the great pageants that were created to revivify the events that stood out strongly on the pages of Canadian history.
"I went," said Miss Fitzgibbon, "to see a show; I saw a national event."
The speaker also told of the way the French-Canadians who participated in the pageants wore their costumes in the streets.
"You would meet in the streets," she said, "courtiers, in gay cloaks and rings, wearing knee breeches, and with their rapiers dangling at their side, yet they never seemed out of place, and would bow to you with all the grace of Louis XIV. or France. In the little French peasant girls ran around the streets in their wooden sabots, as though they had been used to them
all their lives."

The Pageants.
Miss Fitzgibbon then went on to describe the different pageants, speaking of the immense pains that had been taken, to make everything historically accurate, and of the magnificence with which the project was carried out.
The views with which Miss Fitzgibbon illustrated her lecture were unusually excellent, and served to give point to her descriptions.
At the close of the lecture, a very hearty vote of thanks was moved by Mr. M. D. Prosser and seconded by Mr.
T. J. Murray, expressing the great appreciation of her audience. Miss Fitzgibbon, in reply, mentioned the likelihood of a somewhat similar pageant being held in Niagara in the near future to commemorate the historic events of Upper Canada.
During the evening solos were rendered by Miss Armstrong and Mr.
Martin, which were very heartily appreciated.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

Regular Meeting Was Held Yesterday Afternoon.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held its regular semi-monthly session yesterday with a good attendance of members. The president, Mrs.
Hubert Ashplant, was in charge.
After opening exercises, it was announced that the tea for the honorary members was to be given in Dundas Centre Church on Dec. 2 at 7 p.m.
Arrangements were completed for making and filling with necessary supplies six comfort bags for the benefit of the sick soldier boys.
Reports were received from members regarding the amounts collected towards the building fund; there were in small sums and counted up very nicely.
Each member spoke of the very kind manner shown towards them by all whom they had solicited for aid in the matter.

CAVE-BERRY

Wedding of a Popular Couple in South London.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Berry, 110 Worthing road, was the scene of one of the prettiest weddings of the season last evening at 8:30, when their dearest daughter, Miss Blossom Berry, was married to Mr. Alfred Cave, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cave, of Marley Place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. K. Birks, of Assheton Street Methodist Church, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away by her father, was beautifully gowned in cream tulle, and carried white chrysanthemums. She entered the drawing-room on her father's arm, while Miss Mabel Rowan played the wedding march from Lohengrin. The bride was attended only by her sister, Miss Bessie Berry, who was very pretty in a dress of pink silk,
and carried pink chrysanthemums.
Among the guests who were present were Mr. Charles Cave, of Windsor, Miss Jean Coughlin, of Port Dover;
Mr. R. Evans, of St. Thomas; Mrs. E.
Cave, of Gowan, Saskatchewan; Mr.
and Mrs. May and Mrs. Nell, of Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. Cave left last evening on a honeymoon trip, and on their return will reside on Central avenue.

DRAYMEN WERE

ALLOWED TO GO

Drove on Boulevard, But Roadway Was in a Very Bad Condition.

W. H. Dean and William Court, two draymen, appeared before Magistrate Love this morning on a charge of driving a heavy-loaded dray on the boulevard in front of the Normal School.
The draymen explained that the road was in a very bad condition in the locality mentioned, and as they had some very valuable furniture on their wagons, and were afraid of breaking it, if they took the road, they had driven on the boulevard. The court decided that as no great harm was done to let the men go with a warning.
A woman Thompson, who has been appearing very frequently of late for drunkenness, was remanded for a week, and will be dealt with later.

DEAD AT CALGARY

W. A. Grigg, Graduate of McMaster, Dies Very Suddenly.

Calgary, Nov. 23.—W. A. Grigg, aged 31, a graduate of McMaster, and employed on the Herald editorial staff, died suddenly here today of heart disease. His parents live at Chatham, Ont., and he was formerly a Baptist minister at Thessalon and Vancouver.
He attended the London Collegiate Institute.

Why not take a cup of hot Bovril every morning through the fall and winter? It will give you strength and vigor. Keep a bottle in your home.
A comforting and nutritious drink is easily made. All you need is just a cup of hot water and a spoonful of Bovril.

A Toulon workman named Brouder went out shooting in the woods. For a joke he hid behind the foliage and im-

Mr. Edmund Assels, New Carlisle, Que., writes:—"I feel it my duty to let you know of the great cure I have obtained by using Doan's Kidney Pills. I was troubled with my kidneys for two years.
I tried a doctor, but he failed to help me.
I read in the B.B.B. Almanac about Doan's Kidney Pills, and began using them, and after the first box began to feel better. I only used four boxes and they completely cured me. I am very thankful to have found so speedy a cure, and would advise everyone suffering from kidney disease to try them."

Perhaps no other organs work harder than the kidneys to preserve the general health of the body and most people are troubled with some kind of kidney complaint, but do not suspect it. It may have been in the system for some time.
There may have been backache, swelling of the feet and ankles, disturbances of the urinary organs, such as brick dust deposit in the urine, highly colored,
scanty or cloudy urine, bladder pains, frequent or suppressed urination, burning sensation when urinating, etc.

Do not neglect any of these symptoms,
for, if neglected they will eventually lead to Bright's Disease, Dropsy and Diabetes.
Price 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto.
In ordering specify "Doan's."
