EVERY BRANCH OF ORGANIZED LABOR IN CANADA REPRESENTED AT CONVENTION IN HAMILTON

Nearly 900 Delegates Are Pre sent At Opening of Thirty-Fifth Annual Gathering of Trades and Labor Congress-Many Women Present-I mportant Questions To Be Discussed.

Hamilton, Sept. 22.—Welcomed by Sir William Hearst, premier of Ontario; Hon. G. D. Robertson. minister of labor. and Mayor C. G. Booker, of Hamilton, nearly 900 delegates, representing practically every organized craft in the Dominion, commenced the inaugural session of the 35th annual Trades and Labor Congress of Canada This morning.

All delegates agree that the congress i ust started will be the most important in the history of Canadian organized labor. Matters of vital importance to workingmen throughout the country are on the agenda and discussions on the congress of the Canadian could develop a country which would be worthy of the blood shed by the manhood of the Dominion.

Government Will Co-operate,
Hon. Gideon Robertson was given a vocifierous welcome, and at the outset of his address referred to the tremend-ous strides made by organized labor during the ten years which have elapsed since he first attended a labor continue the placed his resignation in the hands of the premier in order that views might be interchanged for the betterment of industrial conditions and social happiness. Men Determined To Work Are Given Protection by Armed Guards-Number of Persons Injured in Clash Between Strikers and State Police At McKeesport.

The preliminary skirmish in the great industrial struggle which opened today between the labor unions and the United States Steel Corporation, which directly or indirectly affects half a million wage earners, produced the usual conflicting claims by the generals on both sides. In the great strategic centres of the struggle the Chicago and Pittsburg districts, many thousands of workers obeyed the strike order, but early reports stated that comparatively few plants had been compelled to close. At a large number of the outlying points officials of the smaller plants reported they were operating as usual.

Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, refused to make any comment on the situation. Secretary Foster, of the Steel Workers' Union, issued a statement expressing satisfaction with the outlook, and claiming that reports from outside the Pittsburg district showed that the shutdown was general. An important feature of the situation was the announcemen by representatives of the 35,000 workers employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company, that these men would not now join the strike pending an attempt to obtain a conference with the company officials.

Some of the blast furnaces in the Pittsburg district were banked, but the majority of the plants were in operation, although admittedly with forces reduced from 15 to 66 per cent. In the Chicago district, including Gary and Hammond, where 90,000 steel workers are employed, similar conons were reported. At Cleveland the union leaders claimed that 15,000 men were out, and that 16 mills of the American Steel and Wire Company employing 9,000 men, were closed down. At Ohio's second greatest steel centre, Youngstown, the strike leaders also claimed that the great majority of the workers had struck, and at Steubenville, where three plants of the Carnegie Steel Company are located, it was asserted that all three had been forced to suspend operations.

At the less important points in Ohlo and Pennsylvania, Portsmouth, Warren, Canton, Toledo, Columbus, Lorralne, Pottsville, Reading and Harrisburg, officials of the various plants announced that their men had remained loyal, and that operations were in full swing. One notable exception was Johnstown, Pa., where 12,000 men were report-

Outside the great pivotal states of Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania conditions were reported nearly normal, with a few important exceptions. At Buffalo, where the great independent plants of the Lackawanna Steel Company are located, the Union officials claim that 70 per cent of the workers had obeyed the strike call. At Wheeling, W. Va., It was asserted that 8,000 men were idle, and the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company's plant at Pueblo, Colo., was closed down, when its 2,000 employees walked The mills of the Illinois Steel Company at South Chicago were closed

Mr. Snyder's statement was made in the course of a sermon at the Askin Street Methodist Church on Sunday morning.

The speaker outlined during his sermon, the work carried on in Ontario by the Lord's Day Alliance. He dealt with breaches of the law and cited cases where the Lord's Day Alliance had instituted prosecution with success. He stated that the Liberty League was a direct offshoot of the opposition to the Lord's Day Alliance created in Windsor, to further the introduction of American Sunday papers to Canada, or, in his opinion, to combat the law.

Continuing, the speaker asserted that the present Liberty League was in opposition to prohibition. In citing the Elgin County milk case he said that the case came before the county magistrate about 2 p.m. After the prosecution had taken up three hours court adjourned for one hour, after which more prosecuting evidence was heard.

Patriotism can be carried too far. Londoners as a whole are proud of the nation's fiag, but some of them think that when it has been displayed on most of the public buildings, house-tend the court of appeal, this would be a great little world."

Such is the song today of the eighty returned soldiers and other citizens who were assigned the work of compiling the voters' lists for the referendum.

Although they completed their work in July they have not been pald for their services, and those who relied on the money to buy them bread and a few of the other necessities of life are now becoming a little anxious. Of course they realize that the Government is perfectly solvent, but if that treatment is perfectly solvent.

The public utilities commission truck was among the offenders. General Manager E. V. Buchanan said that he hadn't noticed the fact, but that orders would be issued to the effect that the

"What argument have those not in favor of prohibition for the sale of alcohol? It is a medicine. Well, put it in the doctor's hands, but it does not stay there simply for the medicinal purposes. Again they say it is a very good beverage. Yes, we all know the benefit of it as a beverage—its destruction and demoralization of the human race. Any one can see what a poor argument it is. Not even for medicinal purposes is it necessary, so claim some of the foremost physicians and scientists on the American continent," continued the speaker.

"Not only for the sake of this generation, but for those that are to coma, must we put prohibition over with a sweeping victory. We have simply got to do this thing, and it will not be our opponents that will beat us, but our friends who are indifferent, who think to themselves that 'of course we will get prohibition.' It is those whom we have to contend with on October 20th."

Mr. Macgregor acquainted the congregation with the very complicated clauses in the referendum vote, and explained in a detailed way how the ballot should be marked.

This evening Major C. A. Williams, pastor of the Timothy Eaton Memorial Church, Toronto, will address the young people on "Prohibition," following which the election of officers will be held.

PRISONER REMANDED UNTIL PROVISION MADE

The boys represented the Y. M. C. A. membership, and all the church Sunday schools taking the Canadian standard efficiency program.

Supper was served at 6:30 by the ladies' auxiliary under the leadership of Mrs. R. W. Tage, Mrs. P. T. Robinson and Mrs. J. P. Finnegan.

Rev. W. R. McIntosh acted as chairman for program, which began with a hearty sing-song.

The prizes for the swimming and life-saving tests held in the summer were presented to the following boys by George F. Copeland: Walter Robberts, H. B. Keenleyside, C. J. Fitzgerald, Harold Newell, A. Madeley, Thornton Fitzgerald, Gorman McConvry, Freeman Talbot, Arthur Eadie, Lorrle Best, Stanley Denham and Jack Smith. The recipients made little speeches, in which they acknowledged their indebtedness to Chris Butterworth for their ability to swim.

Willard C. Beamer, as mayor of boys' council, presented a farewell gift to Mr. Davis. "Bill" made a very happy speech, in which he eulogized the work accomplished by Mr. Davis for the boy life of London he presented Mr. Davis with a beautiful ivory traveling toflet set.

Mr. Davis, though taken somewhat by surprise, replied in his own inimitable way, thanking the boys for their remembrance of him and expressing his regrets at leaving.

Lloyd M. Houlding, the new boys' work secretary, was then introduced. Mr. Houlding is a graduate of McMaster University, and has seen service verseas, both in the trenches and in Y. M. C. A. work, and comes here highly recommended.

Display of New Fall House Dresses

Percale and Gingham, $2.29 to $3.75

The house dress comes into its own at this season. It is the pride of every woman to be quietly but neatly dressed in going about her household duties, and that is why these gingham and percale wash dresses are so attractive and smartly designed.

It is a great joy to find such a variety of these dresses so reasonably priced. Considering the cost of manufacture and the present prices for such materials, it is amazing that such dresses can be sold for above prices, and to buy them ready to put on surely saves a lot of fussing in having them made after you have secured the material. A number of the new house dresses are described in detail below. These will be mailed postage paid to out-oftown customers.

Crown Attorney J. B. McKillop then read the list of Barrow's convictions. The first was in 1901, in Hamilton, for theft, and seven more followed. Mr. McKillop asked the man why he had changed his name a few years ago. The prisoner explained that he had experienced some trouble with his wife—she had not been acting as a wife should act, he said, so he adopted the name of Barrow.

Dan McCullough also asked the magistrate for another chance to make good, explaining that he was under the influence of liquor at the time he had made the assault, and that he did not know what he was doing. "I am suffering from a broken finger, and I have had time to realize the seriousness of fering from a broken finger, and I have had time to realize the seriousness of my past actions. I swear that I shall never cause any more trouble."

"Well, you will be given some more time in which to consider your vicious assault," the magistrate replied.

DEATH OF W. N. SPENCE.

William N. Spence, aged 80 years, a very well known citizen, died on Sunday morning in Grimsby at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. Nattleship, with whom he had been staying for the past three years.

For many years Mr. Spence conducted a hardware and tinsmith store on the market, where his friends knew him as "Bill," from which he retired about fifteen years ago. It will be remembered by many of the older citizens that Mr. Spence was instrumental in getting the West London breakwater, which only a few years ago was replaced by a cement one. He was also a councillor and reeve of West London for a number of years.

At the time of the big flood in 1881 Mr. Spence will be remembered for his gallant work in saving a great many lives and rescuing tenants from the marooned houses in West London, making many trips in his boat.

When in the city Mr. Spence was an active worker in the Empress Avenue Methodist Church. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Nattleship of Grimsby, Miss Ethel Spence, a teacher in St. George's school, and three sons, William and Percy of this city, and George of Detroit. The funeral will be held from his residence, 13 Napier street, on Tuesday afternoon to Woodland Cemetery. Rev. George Dewey will conduct the services at the house and grave.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS SHOULD BE PROVIDED, DECLARES TOLMIE

there would not have been such an organization as the United Farmers of tontario.

Hardly any difference existed between the Liberal policy and that of the United Farmers. Personally, Major Tolmie was of the opinion that no class should organize for political purposes. However, he admired the independence of the farmer. Nevertheless the country was dependent on the town, but at the same time the town was dependent on the country.

Old Time Liberals.

Major Tolmie declared that he was not going to speak of agricultural questions as another speaker, who was a practical farmer, would do that. This farmer was one of the old-time Liberals. "Why shouldn't we talk of the old Liberals?" asked the speaker. Some of them had shed their blood for Liberal principles. In a certain Conservative riding a Liberal who was 83 years of age, had been casting his vote for the Liberal candidates almost all his life, although his choice had never won. Not upon its past record was the Liberal party going to ask for support, but upon its future policy. The Conservatives were asking that the public look at their record. The Liberals had been fighting for the abolition of the bars some years ago, and the Tories were on the side of the liquor interests. Lately they turned completely round and went back on the men whose money they had accepted five years ago.

Bar is Gone.

Ontario was in sight of the referendum and the people had to say what they were going to do with temperance. The speaker declared that he had yet who was not in favor

We know there are some members against the Government, but the only ones appear to be Col. Pratt and Col. Machin. I know of no others."

The Nickel Question.

2. The nickel question:

Col. Pratt stated that five times after his billets in France were shelled by the Germans he had gone outside and picked up steel-nosed bullets, which he believed had been made from Canadian nickel. "We overseas knew that the nickel was coming from Canada, because Canada produced 95 per cent of the nickel of the world." he said. "At that time I said to myself, solemnly, that I would have to make my protest to the Ontario Government. I do not want to stir up hard feelings, but my protest had to be made. The nickel people are, beyond doubt, ready to put up funds to support the Hearst campaign, but they will never induce me to support them, because I saw what went on in France."

Hon. Mr. Lucas: "Do you people believe that the Ontario Government, every member of which who had a son had him overseas, were in league with or wanted to favor the German Government? Do you believe we would let our nickel go out of Canada, knowing that it would be used to shoot the Canadaen boys?" (Cries of "No, No!")

Toronto, September 16th, 1919. Ho 402 A PERMANENT COMPANY Receipt is hereby acknowledged from the ONTARIO BREWERS! ASSOCIATION of the sum of sished with THOUSAND DOLLARS deposited with us under a Challenge agreement made this day to the ONTARIO REFERENDUM COMMITTEE to prove that Beer containing 2.514 CANADA TRUST alcohol by weight is intoxicating. Manager, Ontario Branch.

REFERENDUM COMMITTEE

The Ontario Brewers' Association can no longer disregard the attempts of the Ontario Referendum Committee to mislead the people of this Province in the forthcoming Referendum.

In its campaign literature the Referendum Committee has corrupted the statutory ballot as set out below, and its advertising positively asserts that the light beer to be voted on is intoxicating.

The Referendum Committee is either misinformed or is deliberately misguiding the people for a purpose.

The purpose is to make the voters believe that they are voting for or against intoxicating beer.

Examine carefully the two ballots reproduced below.

GOVERNMENT STATUTORY BALLOT PAPER

Question 2.

ARE you in favor of the sale of light beer containing not more than two and fifty-one one hundredths per cent. alcohol weight measure through Government Agencies and amendments to the Ontario Temperance Act to permit such sale?

Question 3.

ARE you in favor of the sale of light beer containing not more than two and fifty-one one hundredths per cent. alcohol weight measure in Standard Hotels in local municipalities that by a majority vote favor such sale and amendments to the Ontario Temperance Act to permit such sale?

Question 4.

2. ARE you in favor of the SALE OF INTOXICATING BEER in Government Agencies?

3. ARE you in favor of the SALE OF INTOXICATING BEER in Standard Hotels?

4. ARE you in favor of the sale of all kinds of spirituous and malt liquor in Government agencies?

The Government Ballot clearly shows that the public is only to vote for or against the sale of beer containing not more than 2.51 per cent. alcohol by weight.

Beer Containing 2.51 per cent. Alcohol by Weight is Non-intoxicating

To establish that the 2.51 per cent. beer to be voted on is not intoxicating, the Ontario Brewers' Association have deposited $5,000 with the Canada Permanent Trust Company, and they hereby challenge the Ontario Referendum Committee to deposit an equal amount with the same Trust Company to prove that beer containing 2.51 per cent. alcohol by weight is intoxicating, or admit that their literature is deceiving the electorate.

Upon the investigation, the losers are to forfeit their deposit to a charity or charities to be named by the Investigating Board. The investigation is to take place before a nominee of the Ontario Referendum Committee, a nominee of the Ontario Brewers' Association, and the third nominee to be agreed on by the two persons so chosen -- and if they fail to agree, to be named by the Lieutenant Govenor of Ontario.

This Challenge to be answered immediately by the Ontario Referendum Committee.

The Problem

Count the circles in the Puzzle Chart. Every circle is complete and the chart is entirely free from tricks and illusions. However, to pick out every circle and count it requires patience and care. Those who do this the best will win the valuable cash prizes offered for solving the puzzle.

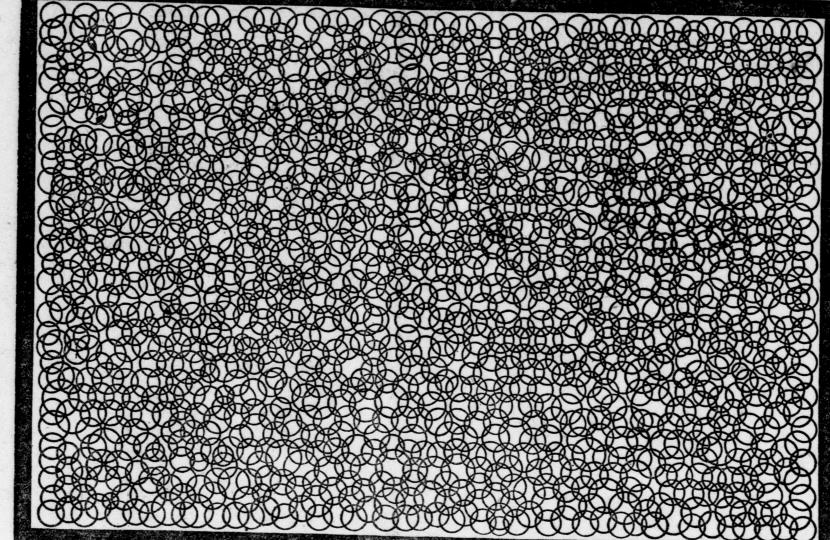

Any method which contestants hit upon that seems to be best adapted to making the count may be adopted. The Advertiser will be glad to receive short notes explaining how the results were obtained. As many different solutions may be submitted as contestants wish. Before sending in a solution, however, read the general rules carefully.

This contest will not only prove profitable to the winners of the prizes, but solving the puzzle will also prove to be a pleasant and fascinating pastime. Taking advantage of this opportunity may net you as much as $864. The plan of this contest permits everyone to work out his own results. He will not only know what he has done himself, but will also have an opportunity to check up the work of his competitors.

Read carefully all the rules, then make up your mind to enter this very interesting contest. It is open to all present subscribers, as well as to those who wish to become

How To Enter

This contest is open to present bona fide residents of Ontario.

Anyone in this territory may enter the contest upon payment of not less than $2.00 or more than $12.48. This amount will be applied to subscription to The London Advertiser at regular subscription rates. It may be applied on either the morning or evening edition, or both.

You may submit just one solution or as many different ones as you wish. With each solution you must pay not less than $2.00 or more than $12.48. The total amount paid, whether you send one or more than one solution, will be applied to one continuous subscription, unless you otherwise direct., If you are already a subscriber the amount, or amounts, you pay will be applied to extending the time you are paid to. If you are a new subscriber the amount paid will be credited to you and your subscription started at once. Present subscribers, wherever located, will continue to receive the paper through the same channels as now. No change whatsoever will be made in carriers where subscribers receive the paper through carrier service. All carriers will receive notice that the subscription has been paid and be instructed to collect the amount from The Advertiser office. The same will be done where the paper is being received through an authorized newsdealer. If you send more than one solution at one time send a separate blank with each one and state in each blank the amount you are paying with that solution.

This contest is open to both men and women. You may order the paper sent to someone else if you wish, names and addresses being subject to any changes that later may be desired.

The sooner you send in your first solution the longer time you will have to go over your figures and send in another solution if you find you can do better.

Important Features

The attention of contestants is called to two important features in connection with the prizes,

1. While the amount you pay for subscription to The Advertiser has no effect on your winning a prize, it does affect the value of the first five prizes should you win one of them. For lestance, each of the first five prizes has a fixed value, to which is added from five to fifty times what the winners pay when they register their solutions. This is explained further in the prize list,

2. The first five prizes may also be increased ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS each by your interesting five persons who are not now regular subscribers to become subscribers, You will receive twenty dollars for each one, whether you secure one or five. Each one of these new subscribers must pay not less than the minimum amount ($2.00) required

If they desire, and they may also become competitors for the prizes if they wish to submit one or more solutions of the puzzle. That is, they may enter the contest under the same conditions exactly as any other contestant, the payment they make entitling them to entry.

The name of each one of these new subscribers must be sent in on one of the accompanying blanks, whether he becomes a contestant or not. The fact that he was secured by you must also be indicated in the proper place provided in the blank, so you will receive credit. You may send in any or all of these five names whenever you wish, either when you send in your own solution or later. Just use one of the blanks for each one, and then there will be no mistake made in regard to your getting due credit.

"If for any reason you want to go a line on a man's true character, find out how he treats his mother." Julia couldn't remember where she had heard the foregoing bit of wisdom; neither could she see how it might be brought to bear on the present difficulty. Gilbert Downing had no mother. To be sure, he treated Julia's with perfect courtesy; but so he did every woman; that was no criterion. There were so many things that could be said for this man who was awaiting her answer to the all-important question—and after all, the girl who was sharing the couch maintain.

had often been the objective of Julia's walks, ever since the day when she had stopped there to beg a drink of water and noted their obvious pleasure when she tarried and chatted with them. Toward the farm she now bent her steps.

The girl's heart was at war with her judgment and a sleepless night had not helped to reconcile the two. In the dewy freshness of the fragrant pines to be happy without that man!" But reason replied, "Neither will you happy with any man who fritters his life away." Julia's sense of fairness told her she must reach a decision of some kind before she returned to the hotel.

"Did Miss Benton send ye?" he asked. "She sure did; that is.—" but he got no further, for the old man interrupted: "You're a godsend, young man. Mirandy's just put the last stick on the fire, an' she's cookin' beans. I'll give ye forty cents an hour. Seems powerful high, but that's what they're a chargin' nowadays."

Downing's gaze wandered from the old man to the woodpile—and his mind from Julia's answer, which must surely await him not far away—to the story of the Good Samaritan. And the better impulse won out.

Julia found the Gardners in trouble. There was a pile of six foot birch logs in the yard, potential firewood. But old Mr. Gardner had a splinter in his right hand and it had become infected; he couldn't handle axe or saw. Mrs. Gardner hadn't the necessary strength.

Their hired man had left the week before. Even during "reconstruction" farm help was almost impossible to get. The old man turned helplessly to Julia in his perlexity. She didn't just happen—did she?—to know anyone he could get to saw the wood into stove lengths?

What is the trouble? Not the high loes, because even they should be ghtly lower on a live market, and ire should still be a chance for fluctuion in prices. The whole trouble ems to lie with the cold storage man and the automobile. Poor things, they're blamed for a lot, but still there's some reason for it, too.

Why should the market vendor worry about getting rid of his goods? If he doesn't sell them at his price he has only to hand the whole lot over to the cold storage man at but a slightly lower rate.

WHY MRS. ANT'S HOUSE IS SELDOM DISTURBED.

One day as Mrs. Black Ant was on her way to market sne heard someone crying softly over in a tuft of grass by the side of the road.

Mrs. Black Ant, who couldn't bear to hear anyone cry, hurried over to see who it was. There, lying on the ground under the grass, was her friend and neishbor. Mrs. Earth Worm.

"Why, Mrs. Earth Worm!" exclaimed Mrs. Black Ant. "What in the world can be the trouble? Lost your children?" "Children!" cried Mrs. Earth Worm, mopping her eyes with a blade of grass. "They're the least of my troubles!"

"Then what in the world could have happened? Can I help you in any way?" and Mrs. Black Ant set her basket down and tried to help Mrs. Earth Worm up from the ground, "Have you hurt your legs?"

"Oh, I don't think so!" laughed Mrs. Black Ant. "It's too bad you're introuble, but sometimes we bring trouble on ourselves. Now, no one ever disturbs my house. I've even heard folks say: 'Oh, there's an ant house! Don't step on it!"

We pile our dirt which we carry from the inside of the house all around our doorways so folks can't help but see it, and we're very seldom bothered. Why don't you try building that way?" and she tried to ow Mrs. Earth Worm how to build

But Mrs. Earth Worm, who was very azy and stubborn, just wouldn't learn, and finally Mrs. Black Ant gathered up her basket and went home, shaking her head sadly. And to this day Mrs. Earth Worm and her relatives still leave their doorways unprotected, and to this day they disappear in tin cans and their folks never see them again.

But busy little Black Ant piles her sand around her door, and is seldom disturbed except by accident.

1. When a bride is receiving callers is it proper for her to serve a piece of water and seasoning. Bake 30 to 40 her wedding cake? And if so, what is, the best method of serving the same? 2. When she returns the calls is it proper for her to leave one of her husband's cards as well as her own when she lives on the farm?

3. Is it compulsory for an engagement to be announced before a wedding? Thanking you in advance, I will sign myself, A COUNTRY BRIDE-ELECT. Ans.-1. Yes, quite proper. Serve as ou would any other cake. on a fancy you would any other cake, on a fancy plate, basket, or tray, and accompanied by tea or any preferred beverage.

2. Calling cards and kindred formalities are used considerably less in the country than in town, and quite possibly those who call upon you will not leave cards at all. Such being the case, ft would be better to follow suit, don't you think? But if you wish to be conventional, the proper thing is to leave one of your own and two of your husband's cards (one for the lady called on and one for her husband). At a spinster's home (or that of a widow) leave but one card of each.

CANADIAN HORSES HAD FIELD DAY IN GRAND CIRCUIT FEATURES

Lillian T. and Lou Todd Win, But Canuck Plungers Lose on Lou Gratton.

COLUMBUS. Ohio.. Sept. 26. — The first week of the Grand Circuit inseting at the driving park ended today with the racing of five events, including the races started yesterday and unfinished on account of rain. Canadian horses had a field day, the 2:03 pace, feature race of the program and the 2:13 trot going to nags from across the border, and in each of these events a big killing was made in the auctions.

This was especially true in the 2:03 pace, in which Lillian T. sold for $400. Roy Gratton, $250 and the field $100 and Roy Gratton, the Canadian candidate, beat the field easily with something to spare each time.

Lou Todd, the Canadian mare which won the heat raced in the 2:13 trot raced yesterday, broke in the first heat today, and Black Diamond cashed, but in the final round the mare from across the border was on a trot all the time and won handily. Dan J., which won the only heat raced in the 2:15 pace raced yesterday, had no trouble in beating the field in the next two today.

One of the largest fields of the year started in the 2:11 pace, and in this the Canadian plungers got a set-back for Louic Gratton was backed beavily, but proved unsteady while Baroness Egan, driven by Fred Eagan, who brought the star pacer Braden Direct out a few years ago, showed the way to the wire with Baroness Edgewood in fast time, giving her a record of 2:03 1-4 in the second heat. Baron Cegantle, the favorite in the 2:20 trot. won his second race of the week.

Main Bout of G. A. C. Show Friday Night - Scotty Mc-Donald and Kennedy in Return Bout on Splendid Card.

Definite arrangements completed over the week-end assure the appearance of Michigan fight circles. The way the boy has been taking them on this last month and his program for the next few weeks on by the G. A. C. in the armories on Friday night. Kennedy and Scotty Mc. Donaid, the local lad who lost a decision to the former on their last appearance, have been matched for the second bout of the evening. The prefiminaries have not been announced yet, but Gaillagher will be on the card.

The main bout will be for ten rounds, and fans who saw the last fight on Labor Day will be glad to see the pair in action again. It is sitogether probable that arrangements will be completed for an exhibition ruzby game between the locals and some other team two weeks from Saturday. Sarnia or Petrolea are the main possibilities in this connection, and a game with either would give the fans an opportunity of sizing up the London O. R. F. U. entry.

The return of Petrolea to the game, and their entry in the O. R. F. U. was unexpected, as reports from there early in the seakson intimated that Hard Olishad wandered too far and too long for a good season looks much better, and will add more interest to the district battle.

While the engineers at Gary, Indiana Harbor, Hammond and Joliet have voted to strike in sympathy with the steel workers, it was said such action was in contradiction to orders from their international offices. At Joliet, union officers said 900 men out of 4,000 employed at the Illinois Steel Company's plant there walked out during the night, and that before the day was would be out.

No disorders, beyond the jeering in a few instances by strike sympathizers of men on their way to work, had been reported early today. Six hundred patrolmen of the Chicago police department were detailed on strike duty, 200 of whom were distributed at various plants around the city, the remainder being held in reserve.

John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the national committee in charge of the organization of the steel workers of the country, went to Gary today, where he will open headquarters from which to conduct the strike in this district.

OHIO MILLS CRIPPLED.

Youngstown, O., Sept. 22.—Early reports from the various steel mill centres at 8 a.m. today indicated that men had obeyed the strike orders generally, and that practically all mills in the Mahoning Valley either were bady crippled or may be forced to suspend operation altogether. At union headquarters it was declared that the strike is a complete success and that every mill is closed.

1 15,000 OUT AT CLEVELAND. Cleveland, O., Sept. 22.—Union leaders claimed that at least 15,000 steel workers are on strike this morning, and that plants of some of the independent will a ware cleared. Company. officials Company officials would make no statement.

The sixteen mills of the American Steel and Wire Company, a steel corpor-ation subsidiary employing 9,000 men, were completely closed down. The Bourne Fuller Company plant, another independent plant employing 2,000 men, OFFICIALS SATISFIED.

Pittsburg, Sept. 22.—"We got away in good shape at most of our plants in and about Pittsburg this morning," said a representative of the Carnegie Steel representative of the Carnegie Steel Company, when asked for a statement of the effect of the steel workers' strike, which went into effect today.

"We are agreeably surprised at the showing made," was the announcement by William Z. Foster, secretary of the national committee for organizing iron and steel workers, who is in charge of the Pittsburg district.

SAILORS JOIN STRIKE. Cleveland, O., Sept. 22.—According to n official of the lake seamen's union here, union sailors at this port this morning quit several steel corporation freighters at the docks, refusing to work on the boats. He would give no estimate of the number of men out.

EASTERN NOT AFFECTED. Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 22.—The Eastern Steel Company, employing about a thousand men, was not affected by the strike order. All the men reported for work as usual.

READING PLANTS UNAFFECTED.

Bowers, 621

SOUTH CHICAGO MILLS CLOSE. Chicago, Sept. 22.—The steel mills at South Chicago of the Illinois Steel Company closed this morning, only a few foremen remaining to draw the fires in the furnaces. It was estimated by union officials that 95 per cent of the four thousand men on the day shift in the plant falled to report for work.

No official figures were given out by the company. At the Illinois Steel Company plant, a Milwaukee subsidiary of the United States Steel Company, 800 of the 1,800 day workers failed to report, say union officials.

BUFFALO EMPLOYEES OUT. BUFFALO EMPLOYEES OUT.

Buffalo, N.Y. Sept. 22.—Union men claimed that 70 per cent of the workmen in the plants of the Lackawanna Steel Co., the Rogers Brown Steel Compaeny and the Donner Steel Company, obeyed the strike call today. No statement was forthcoming from the companies. There was no disorder.

One of the conditions cited by the union leaders to sustain their claims of a 70 per cent walkout was that street cars from Buffalo usually carrying a capacity crowd, were running almost empty this morning.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Opening: Corn—December, $1 23\%; May, $1 21\%.
Oats—December, 69c: May, 70\%c.
Chicago, Sept. 22.—Corn prices moved upward today as a result of covering by shorts, who took the position that the bearish effects of the steel strike had been discounted beforehand. The strength of prices in the hog market and in Wall Street tended also to lift corn values. Trade was not large. Opening figures, which ranged from the same as Saturday's close to 1\%c higher, with December at $1 23\%c 123, and May at $1 21\%c 121\%c. were followed by a slight reaction and then by a substantial upturn all around.

New York, Sept. 22-Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Industrials were among the strongest issues at the irregular opening of today's stock market, dealings reflecting only in moderate degree the ushering in of the steel strike. United States Steel opened with running sales of 500 to 3,000 shares at a maximum gain of half a point, but this was soon cancelled. Bethlehem advanced a point and Crucible Steel 3 points, the latter immediately adding 2 more, followed by a 4-point reaction. Shares closely related to the steel group, notably American and Baldwin Locomotives, advanced 1 to 2 points, and tobaccos and oils also recorded substantial gains.

Citizens' Liberty League

The Citizens' Liberty League is not dominated by selfish interests, nor has it any undisclosed purpose to serve.

The League is composed solely of men and women throughout Ontario who believe that the Ontario Temperance Act is unsatisfactory and that new legislation more in keeping with the wishes and needs of all classes should be enacted.

The Citizens' Liberty League is in accord with the Ontario Temperance Act in so far as it prohibits the unrestricted sale of spirituous liquors. The League is absolutely opposed to the return of the old license system.

What the League wants is:-That the Ontario Temperance Act be repealed and a new act passed which would make provision for the general sale of more palatable, non-intoxicating beer (containing 2.51% alcohol by weight), light wine; and the sale of pure spirituous liquors under proper Government restrictions.

You are asked to vote for the repeal of the Ontario Temperance Act because the repeal of the Ontario Temperance Act does not mean a return to the general sale of spirituous liquors, as the Premier, in his speech of April 7th, said: "Now, practically no one suggests a return to old conditions. The distillers, in a recent manifesto, say that they themselves are opposed to it. Many hotel-keepers say they are opposed to it. The brewers say they are opposed to it. Honorable gentlemen in the House and the people out of the House who are opposed to the present Act, say they are equally opposed to the old order. The labor men who ask for stronger beer, say they don't want the sale of hard liquor."

The Premier and the Government, realizing this, would not be parties to a continuance of the general sale of spirits as under the old license system, but would amend the License Act in accord with public sentiment. This would be in keeping with the policy of the Provincial Governments of the past fourteen years, which have from time to time amended the License Act to conform to the wishes of the people. To vote "YES" to question number one would enable the Government to provide for the sale of beer and light wine in the hotels, and beer and spirits in Government stores for home consumption.

Therefore the only thing to be done is to wipe out the unsatisfactory Ontario Temperance Act and thus enable the Government to bring in new legislation more in keeping with the wishes of the people.

Be sure to vote "YES" to Question No. 1, for that will be your guarantee that proper consideration will be given to your vote in Questions 2, 3,

Vote "YES" to all Four Questions

Remember:—Every voter must vote on every question or his ballot will be spoiled.

with discretion and care, and avoid risk of money. A child born on this day will be active, intelligent and suc-cessful.

I had stolen down to get the newspaper. In the first year of my marriage, such a decision upon his part would have bowed me to the earth with grief and humiliation. But time has brought me sanity, tinged more or less with whimsical, humorous comprehension of my husband's vagaries—I think marriage, happy marriage, usually brings that blessing to wives, and I was reasonably sure that Dicky's action was only a that—I haven't one bit of objection to her—indeed, I'm very fond of her, and if Alf has to marry, I'd rather it would be she than any one else. But I don't want him to leave me yet."

She pouted, wiped her eyes, then shot a poser at me.

"Alf tells me that Dicky is living in town for a few weeks. Says he sees a lot of him over at the Fairfax apartment. I don't think you ought to stand for that Madge."

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND

June loafed its lazy length along, and somehow—neither of us ever knew just cause he had taken it so vehemently, how—Alice Holcombe and I managed to pull the Bayview high school pupils through the trying ordeals of "Regents" (the final examinations prescribed by the state board), and to wind up the business of the year in fairly creditable fashion.

A Poser for Madge.

And I had a very special and sentimental reason for believing that his Kenneth Stockbridge, behind jail bars, return would not be delayed beyond the Kenneth Stockbridge, behind jail bars, still retained his dogged, incomprehensible silence. From Alice, who, of course, was in a position to know all the gossip of the village, I learned that the principal's uncle—his parents, fortunately, were both dead—had arrived in the village, bringing with him an eminent attorney for the defence of his nephew. tunately, were both dead—had arrived in the village, bringing with him an eminent attorney for the defence of his pelpew.

The uncle was rich, Alice said, and head never treated his nephew decently, but his family pride would not permit to leave any stone unturned that might prevent a smirch upon the family name. But it was rumored that the eminent legal light had had no better success in getting Kenneth Stockbridge to talk than had the principal's opponents.

Trying Days.

Milly Stockbridge's body had been laid to rest in the village cemetery after a garish public funeral, which all of the teachers except myself attended. I leave our set in the village cemetery after a beautiful cluster of flowers with my card and Dicky's attached. I knew, our card and Dicky's attached. I knew of the Bayview school, but not even if my livelihood had depended upon it took all the courage I could muster to make the formal brief call at the home that courtesy demanded.

I shall always look back upon those closing weeks of school as among the most irksome of my life. I always begrudge every moment of June that it spend indoors, anyway, and when to the discomfort of spending the long, the beautiful summer days in the stuffy schoolrooms was added the unpleasant ness of the queer conditions surrounding my work and the irritation of Dicky's behavior. I felt that my favorite month had turned anything but smilling face to me.

Not that I spent much time fretting over Dicky's persistence in his plan of Picky's persistence in his plan of the first year of my marriage, such a decision upon his part would have been the hone had distolen down to get the newspaper. In the first year of my marriage, such a decision upon his part would have been the hone of Dicky's persistence in his plan of emaining away from home until I should explain to him the emotion he had misinterpreted upon the morning I had stolen down to get the newspaper. little Old Man inside the building heard him and came out.

"What makes you laugh so hard" asked the Little Old Man.

"Because I see such funny pictures in the windows."

"You're the kind of a fellow I'm looking for," said the Little Old Man, "because you can see the peculiar shapes and laugh instead of frown."

"What do you have in this funny house?" asked Tinker Bob.

"Inside of my house there are large glass cases filled with the most beautiful stones of various colors. Behind tiful stones of various colors. these cases are many servants polishthese cases are many servants polishing these stones. In this house I also have large books as big as doors, and the leaves of these books open on hinges. My servants stand on large stepladders to write in these books and their writing is very small. Each day one page is filled."

Tinker Bob was very much interested in the story the Little Old Man was telling about his wonderful house, and he was very anxious to look in-

Charming indeed, is the story of "True Heart Susie," David W. Griffith's new Arteraft picture which will be shown at the Majestic Theatre today, Tuesday and Wednesday. It is one of those pastoral themes which rise to the dignity of screen classics by reason of the artistry of this master producer, and which invariably hold their own against criticism.

In this fascinating story of a little Hoosier girl who loves a boy with rare devotion, the heart interest is supreme and the suspense wonderfully compelling. Susie May Trueheart loves william Jenkins so well that when a politician fails to keep his promise to send William to school, she sells butter and eggs and even her cow to raise funds for the purpose. So it happens that when a love of the writes desultory letters. So it happens that this good angel is Susie to whom he writes desultory letters. So it happens that when he leaves college and is ordained a minister, he comes to his home as pastor of the village church. Then the tragedy of poor Susie's life is born. William weds a flighty beautiful girl who repays his love by accepting the attention of less worthy men. But she is punished by face. Susie, although she never has forgotten that she was the bearer of susie's great love and both find happiness.

Sweet Lillian Gish plays the part of Susie, and Robert Harron is William Jenkins. Clarine Seymour plays the role of Betty the butterfly wife. The support generally is of the finest grade.

Bible Sets Responsibility.

Deuternomy tells of a law of the ancients that compelled the building of parapets around the edge of the flat roofs of the eastern houses, to prevent the neighbors from falling off. Extend that law a little and it will be made to cover the present question. It recognizes the responsibility of one person for another. The New Testament upholds this law in the passage "There will always be offence, but woe unto him by whom the offence comes."

What is our responsibility on oning question? We can mark our ballots so that liquor will be banished from our midst forever, or we can bring the traffic, with all its curtailing personal liberty. Personal liberty is a great question of today, it may be all right in some things, but when it infringes on the rights of society, it must be curtained. That man should do all that he wishes is anarchy, it would make might right. In the indulging in strong drinks one will visit his sins on this children and his other dependents.

Bible Beer Intoxicating.

Light beers and wines mentioned on the ballots are over twice as strong as those now sold, and are intoxicating. If we vote yes on the first and third question, we bring back the bars. "Yes" on the second and fourth we will make ourselves partners in the traffic. Are we vote yes on the first and third question, we bring back the bars. "Yes" on the second and fourth we will make ourselves partners in the traffic. Are we vote yes on the first and third question, we bring back the bars. # FIVE BIG KEITH ACTS GIVEN ON

Today ushers in the second week of the new vaudeville season at the Grand, with a varied and all-feature bill of the same high standard that characterized the house during the opening week. The headline attracting on today's, Tuesday's and Wednesday's bill of ideal vaudeville will be Bostock's Riding School, a comedy act featuring five circus riders and horses. It is something new and absolutely different from anything ever seen in this city. With an attractive setting plus good riders, this offerings is a very pretty stage picture and a real novelty. But the punch comes where they show how circus riders are made. The offering as a whole is one of thrills and laughter, and as such is certain to score a tremendous hit with local audiences.

Zelaya, the eminent Spanish pianist, will be another big feature of the program. Zelaya is vaudeville's premier plano virtuoso, and his sparkling reperplano virtuoso

When a pretty Fifth avenue miss who speaks proper English attempts to reconcile herself, for a attempts to reconcile herself, for a while at least, in a most sordid neighborhood unusual events are destined to happen. This theme forms the basis of "The Hoodlum." It is essentially a comedy romance, picturing the distress of the fashionable Amy Burke, who decides to reside in the tenements in order to be with her father, whose life work depends upon a successful book on sociology. Amy makes a great friend of Dish Lowry, a tenement chap who is a pastmaster in the art of shooting craps, evading cops and helping the unfortunate old Peter Cooper, whom no one seems to know, and helping the unfortunate old Peter Cooper, whom no one seems to know, and a struggling artist who was wrongly sent to the penitentiary to cover up a crooked deal of Amy's rich grandfather. It is a fact, however, that the artist does steal Amy's heart. How Amy adjusts family matters by almost landing herself in jail makes a fast moving comical story. fast-moving, comical story.
