Pettitodiac, October 22—(Special)—The Reverend Mr. Carey, who poses as a Captain in Khaki, but who has not unadvisedly used powder yet, but reserves his fighting qualities to attack in New Brunswick the French of Quebec, held a political meeting here this week. His speech was entirely a political one. That non-partisan O. B. Price, of Moncton, was present. A great many Liberals attended under the impression that the meeting was entirely non-political, but were so disgusted that they left.

The typesetter got so disgusted with this ralling at Mr. Carey that he took a spasm and never finished the sentence.

PETROGRAD STRONGLY DEFENDED.

Petrograd, Oct. 29.—Premier Kerensky speaking Saturday in the Preliminary Parliament said that the government never had debated the possibility of surrendering Petrograd to the enemy, as alleged by some newspapers. On the contrary the defence of the capital to the uttermost had been the constant care of the government, which, as a result of its deliberations, decided not to leave Petrograd until the highest interests of the country demanded such a course.

Kerensky added that the present situation was sure and that it was unnecessary for the Preliminary Parliament to discuss the question of emergency. If the Petrograd were decided on, it would not be due to military events, but to the difficulties of obtaining supplies of food and fuel. All steps taken had for their object the strengthening of their defence.

October 30.—The Germans have been driven back in places to a distance of nearly 1000 yards in today's fighting on the Ypres front, Headquarters at British headquarters report. The principal fighting is taking place towards the outskirts of Passchendaele and in the region of Poelcapelle. The British are reported to have fought their way along several important spurs of the great system of ridges. The Canadians quickly gained a great part of their objectives.

The fighting today was on a more limited front than the battle of last Friday. The weather was fine.

ASSISTANCE FOR ITALY WITHOUT DELAY

LONDON, October 30.—Satisfaction with the decision of Great Britain and France to help the Italians is expressed by most of the morning newspapers, which again urge that whatever assistance is possible must be given without delay. There is, of course, no certain indication of the exact form this help will take, but the general assumption seems to be that concert reinforcements contributed by Great Britain and France will appear on the Italian front.

those internal organs essential to life of which we are unconscious until something goes wrong. In this way, said the Premier, the navy had been the anchor of the Allied cause. If it lost its hold the hopes of the Alliance would be shattered.

The Premier told how the Navy had guaranteed supplies to the army abroad and material which it had enabled the Allies to get from abroad, adding: "But for the navy, disaster would have fallen upon the Allied cause, Prussia would be mistress of Europe, and through Europe, of the world."

IN SPITE OF THE KAISER

(1) C. P. O. S. Pacific Liner which made a speed record a few weeks ago.
(2) C. P. O. S. Atlantic liner.

The claim made by Kaiser Wilhelm and his satellites that the British merchantile fleets are disappearing from the ocean seems particularly ludicrous in the case of the fleet most closely associated with Canada, namely that of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, which so far from diminishing has actually increased its tonnage since the beginning of the war by nearly 30%. No fewer than 15,000 men are employed with approximately 50,000 dependents, and the numbers are steadily increasing.

Taking the Atlantic fleets first. At the outbreak of the war the steamships of the Allan Line and Canadian Pacific Co. (now known as the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services) numbered 35, with a gross tonnage of 313,000 tons. The value of these fleets to the British Empire in war transport work has been incalculable, and the earliest possible advantage was taken of it by the British Government. Almost from the moment of declaration of war on the 4th August, 1914 a large proportion of the joint fleet was requisitioned, including the larger and newer vessels then in service. Two of the newest and largest of the Allan Line steamers were immediately put into commission as armed merchant cruisers. "The Empress of Russia," "Empress of Asia," "Empress of Japan" were immediately fitted out as armed cruisers. Many of the other vessels of the joint complex previously engaged on the passenger trade between Europe and Canada were brought into Trooping Service or employed in transporting supplies and ammunitions, not only across the Atlantic but all over the oceans of the world from the Far West to the Far East. Notwithstanding this great call on the Canadian Pacific and Allan Lines' resources, these companies have been able without break to carry on regular passenger and freight business, maintaining an uninterrupted service of mails and passenger and freight traffic westbound as carrying home eastbound large supplies of troops, stores, ammunitions of war. From the outbreak of war down to the present day the Canadian Pacific and Allan vessels engaged on trooping and similar work have transported no fewer than 700,000 troops and passengers from or to Canada, the Mediterranean, India, China, Egypt, Gallipoli, Mesopotamia, or across Channel, or on the Pacific. Up to the same moment the companies' vessels, since the outbreak of war have steamed over 1,236,000 miles and have carried eastbound and westbound over three million tons of cargo, munitions, supplies, etc. These figures indicate no mean contribution to the "carrying on" of the war, and constitute a splendid tribute to what Canada—Britain's Nearest Dominion—has tried to do to help the Mother Country in her hour of need. Add to this the fact that these ships have been carrying in practically every case large quantities of munitions made in the Canadian Pacific Aucus Shops, the value of the contribution of the companies under notice and of the great parent company—the C. P. R.—received still greater emphasis. The Canadian Pacific Fleet, although suffering but a slight diminution of tonnage by the act of the King's enemies, has been gradually increasing by purchase or building so that to-day the combined fleets of the Allan Line and Canadian Pacific number 40 steamers, with a gross tonnage of 411,000 tons, whilst further orders have been placed for four more of still greater tonnage. Services are being steadily maintained carrying mails for the different parts of the Dominions and the entire European ports of the Allied countries. Every means within the power of the Canadian Pacific is being used to maintain export trade and the importation of necessities alike for the use of the armies in the field, and for the people at home.

The recent assumption by the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services of the entire management in control of the operations of the Allan Line recalls the fact that the Allan Line was one of the first companies, if not actually the first, to effect a direct service between Great Britain and Canada. The founder of the Allan Line was Captain Alexander Allan, who in 1822 sailed from Glasgow to Quebec in the brig "Jean," in search of cargo for his vessel. In 1832 the sailing vessels of the Allan Line were replaced by steamships in the Canada-British trade. As showing the progressive tendencies of these hard-headed and tenacious Scottish founders of the line, it is worthy of note that the Allan Line has been pioneer (A) in the adoption of steel in the construction of its vessels; (B) in the adoption of the turbine as a mode of propulsion; (C) in the adoption of twin screws on its steamers; and (D) in the use of keels as a means of checking oscillation.

The founder's family, now headed by Col. Sir Montague Allan, C.V.O., and his cousin, Mr. H. A. Allan, always adopted a progressive policy, with the result that steady increase in the size and speed of steamers has been witnessed whenever additions to the fleet were made, and these advances have done much to stimulate the demand for passenger and cargo accommodation on the Atlantic service to Canada.

Mantia in the Philippines has also been of late brought into the service as one of the numerous parts of the fleet in the East, and the company is steadily but surely working up a strong and useful service on the Pacific which cannot be of the greatest advantage to the Pacific trade in general. On the Atlantic, the C. P. R. instituted its own directly owned and controlled fleet of steamers in 1903 by the purchase of the Atlantic vessels of the Elder Dempster Beaver Line, a service which has grown to its present proportions and which now includes some of the finest passenger and cargo carrying vessels plying between Canada and the Mother Country.

While some commentators today take a somewhat gloomy view of the situation others believe that the Italians will recover and that the Germans will not gain any permanent advantage.

AMSTERDAM, October 30.—The Austro-German offensive against Italy, according to the Vorwarts, of Berlin, was not undertaken in an aggressive spirit with the object of conquest, but solely to bring peace nearer.

SALONIKI POSITION STRONG

New York, Oct. 29

In a lengthy mail story the associated press correspondent, under date of October 4, quotes General Sarrail, the commander-in-chief of the army of the Orient, as expressing great satisfaction with the condition of his command, and reiterating that there is would be no retreat from Saloniki.

General Sarrail's army according to the correspondent, consists of about twenty five Divisions, made up of representatives of seven nations and holds 350 miles of front.

ITALIANS ARE NOW MAKING STAND.

ROME, October 30.—The Italian retreat continued yesterday, the War Office announces. The Italian cavalry is in contact with the vanguards of the advancing enemy.

The Italians destroyed bridges over the Isonzo, and fought rear-guard actions, by which means they checked the Austro-German advance. The statement follows:

"During yesterday the withdrawal of continued. Destruction of the bridges over the Isonzo, effected by our troops, and the successful action of our covering units, have detained the advances of the enemy."

"Our cavalry is in contact with the hostile vanguards."

Berlin, October 30.—The retirement of the defeated Italian army is being stemmed at the few crossings of the river, which is greatly swollen.

BRITAIN'S PREMIER PAYS TRIBUTE TO THE MEN OF THE ARMY AND NAVY FOR THEIR SERVICES IN THE WAR.

LONDON, October 29.—Parliament today adopted a resolution presented by Premier Lloyd George, expressing the thanks of Parliament to the Army and the Navy including the overseas troops and the mercantile marine, for their services in the war and to the women in the medical and other auxiliary services, and further expressing sympathy to the relatives and friends of those who have given their lives for their country.

A Great Theme.

Premier Lloyd George, in moving the resolution said that even if he had leisure in these terrible times, especially the anxiety of the last two or three days, he felt he could not do justice to this great theme.

The British Navy was like one of

He paid a tribute to the work of the smaller craft, which were to be found in all seas, being numbered by the thousands. The hardships and dangers were barely realized, yet the fruits of their action were enjoyed by the people of these islands.

The British Expeditionary Force continued Mr. Lloyd George, now numbered more than three million. It was a great triumph of organization, it was only rendered possible by the heroism of the old army—"the finest fighting troops in the world."

He saved France and Europe but hardly a man of that army was left.

Seventy-five percent of the contribution in men said the Premier had come from England, and seventy-five percent of the loss had fallen upon England, Scotland had done its share, Ireland had made a distinguished contribution, and in voluntary recruiting Wales had beaten the record by a shade. The Dominions had contributed between 700,000 and 800,000 men.

He praised the work of the Canadians on the western front, and Anzac in Gallipoli and France, and the South Africans. The memory of the powerful aid given by India would never be forgotten. "Never has the British Empire shown greater or more effective union" exclaimed the Premier. "It had been regarded as a dream, it is now a fact; a powerful fact, in fashioning the history of the world."

FOURTEEN PER CENT WAIVE EXEMPTION

(Halifax Chronicle)

Things appear to be working as smoothly as is possible for such a big machine as the Military Service Act and the staff of Mr. Nicholls, the Registrar for Nova Scotia, are going full time and occasionally over time, keeping up with the requirements of the department but no delay what ever is permitted in the carrying out of the Act and the work is being carried out in this district satisfactorily.

Two weeks of registration were completed with Saturday's work and showed a total of 2,687 reports, of which 796—or 14 per cent—were for service and 1,891—or 86 per cent—were exemptions.

According to reports from other districts there are many amusing experiences around about the registration offices and the medical board examination quarters. In Halifax such occurrences are not made public by the Registrar, but occasionally tales are told by parties aware of the happenings. In one case it is stated the Registrar received an exemption letter claim that was an oddity. The writer of the letter said he had heard that there was a great deal of mumps and scarlet fever in the trenches not properly cared for. Hence his hesitation.

All France, in fact, all the world, is ringing with the praise of a 21 year old French airman, who single handed forced to French soil the big Zeppelin L-49 and at the point of his revolver captured the crew of 20 men before they could destroy their great dread-nought of the air.

Referring to the disfranchisement of men of alien enemy origin, Dr. Clark said if his views had been accepted and the election was postponed there would have been no disfranchisements. But while liberty and property were threatened he was not very much concerned about the liberty of the Germans and Austrians in this country.

NOT A GOOD SECOND

Timid Suitor—I suppose when you recall what a handsome man your first husband was you wouldn't consider me for a minute?

Pretty Widow—Oh, yes, I would—but I wouldn't consider you for a second.—Boston Transcript.

Mrs. (Prof.) Desbarres is spending a few days in Hantsport visiting her brother, Captain Randolph Churchill, who arrived home last Saturday from England. Captain Churchill landed at Quebec and has been granted leave of absence until November 17th, when he is to report in London. He was wounded June 8th by shrapnel, which entered below the elbow and came out further up the arm. The nerves were cut and the muscles badly lacerated. Captain Churchill's many friends are hoping he does not have to return to the front.

BIG ACHIEVEMENT OF CANADIAN TROOPS

LONDON, October 29.—(Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency)—Telegraphing from British headquarters in France, Reuter's correspondent says:

The story of how the Canadians captured the important vantage point on Passchendaele Ridge adds another epic to the Canadian great records. Their objective was a little moss-colored spur curving around U-shaped from the main ridge. Its capture was the principal achievement in a day of struggling and overpowering elements.

The Canadians attacked from two directions, their right pressing along the main ridge and the left working round towards the Bellevue Spur. These positions lay in a broad gully which heavy rains had made impassable, preventing the attackers from attacking frontally. Progress was slow, as the whole face of the spur was thick with blockhouses spitting forth deadly fire. Prisoners taken are unanimous in the belief that the defences were regarded as the strongest organ of resistance on this front. It had been ordered that the place must be held until the entire garrison was killed, because the enemy regarded it as a vital link in the ridge system.

The right struggled forward, gradually overwhelming obstacles. The left was frequently checked by fire from the work from blockhouses. While pressing up the slope, the men were frequently hip deep in the squalid wire. With their rifles balanced on their shoulders they struggled onwards thus for six hours, until in view of the impossibility of the task, they were ordered to withdraw and return to their original assembly line, where they were refreshed with hot stimulants.

Reinforcements were brought up and the Canadians advanced again in face of the driving rain. Yard by yard the semi-liquid slope was breached, "pill box" after "pill box" was cleared until the crest of the spur was reached and passed. Illustrating the strength of the opposition overcome, the troops found flanking the roadway along the crest, a whole line of blockhouses within three hundred, eighteen machine guns were taken there. Later the Canadians repulsed a violent counter-attack.

The National Interest

IN their enthusiasm to serve Canada, a number of men in Class One—bachelors and widowers without children (not otherwise excepted) who were 20 years old on the 13th October, 1917, and whose 34th birthday did not occur before January 1st, 1917—will desire to report for service, when in fact it is in the national interest that such men should continue in their habitual occupations.

The purpose of the Military Service Act is to select the authorized 100,000 reinforcements in such a way that the industries essential in the national interest will not be handicapped unnecessarily. With this in view, the privilege is extended to employers to claim exemption for men referred to in the first paragraph.

This course obviates the possibility of requiring that men be returned to civilian employment after months of military training—a waste of time and money for all concerned.

The grounds upon which exemption may be claimed, of special interest to employers, are:

- (A) That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should, instead of being employed in Military Service, be engaged in other work in which he is habitually engaged.
- (B) That it is expedient in the national interest that the man should, instead of being employed in Military Service, be engaged in other work in which he wishes to be engaged and for which he has special qualifications.
- (C) That it is expedient in the national interest that, instead of being employed in Military Service, he should continue to be educated or trained for any work for which he is then being educated and trained.

The Employer's Statement

Where an employer claims exemption for an employee on the ground that it is expedient in the national interest that the man should continue in the work in which he is habitually engaged, he should prepare for the tribunal a statement and a schedule as follows:

Total number of employees, grouping them according to their respective occupations and qualifications, and stating the number in each group. Indicate the possibility or otherwise of replacing the labour of Class One men with the labour of those not in the statutory class called up; also the extent to which the withdrawal of men in the statutory class would affect the business, the reasons for considering that the carrying on of the business is in the national interest; and such other facts and circumstances as may appear to be relevant.

The Employer's Schedule

This should state the names, ages and occupations of all Class One men employed, and the medical category in which those who have been medically examined have been placed. There should also be noted against each name whether or not claim for exemption is being made and whether in the employer's opinion exemption, if granted, should be conditional on the man's continuing his present occupation, or whether it would suffice if exemption were granted for one, two, or more months, as the case may be.

Provincial Entomologist Here—
Professor W. H. Brittain is here from Truro. He is fixing up a film on apple tree spraying, which is to be exhibited in various parts of the last spring. Professor Brittain's department devoted much attention to the spraying of potatoes during the past season, and he says the results have been very gratifying. On farms where the Bordeaux mixture was consistently used there is practically no evidence of blight and the crop is excellent. Professor Brittain has recently returned from that the blight did much damage in last week potatoes in that county

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

Recommended
My case was very serious and I was not what everybody expected my death any day. I could feel at first the gravel passing through my bladder but now I am as strong as ever. I weigh about 150 lbs. more than I did when I started to take Gin Pills. I beg you to publish my letter so that you may know what Gin Pills had done for me. The first box relieved me a good deal, the second box was sufficient to cure me and bring me back to perfect health.

GROW ROOT SEED

(Experimental Farm Note)
If you set aside a few choice roots at harvest time this autumn and then make up your mind to grow a supply of mangel, turnip and carrot seed, at least sufficient for your needs, you will save yourself a number of disappointments in 1919 and future years. All signs point to a serious root seed shortage, a shortage, that can only be remedied by the growing of these seeds on the home farm. Select two dozen smooth well shaped mangels, turnips or carrots of your own favorite variety. Put these carefully away in cellar or pit to await the coming of spring. In April when the soil is in condition to plow, bring the stock seed roots out of storage and set them in position that they may produce a seed crop. In soil well prepared by ploughing or cultivating, plow a deep furrow or dig holes sufficiently deep to plant the seed root, so that the crown will be the only part exposed at the level of the ground surface. Cultivate the soil about these plants as you would cultivate potatoes. The seed bearing stalks will appear very soon after the roots are set; these will continue to develop during the season and in July will blossom and set seed. The ripening process will continue through August and in September the seed will be ripened and ready to harvest. With mangels, beets or turnips when ripe the entire plant may be cut at base of the stalks; these may be threshed with the aid of a flail or a rubbing board or a threshing machine as soon as dry or the crop may be put away in a dry place to await a convenient time. After threshing, the seed may be cleaned with the ordinary sieves or fanning mill used for grain. With carrots the seed heads are gathered as they ripen and stored until ready to thresh and clean. Where small quantities of seed are grown the seeds may be threshed and freed from the stalks by simply rubbing the seed heads on a wire sieve of suitable size. With a sieve 24 x 30 inches, a large box and a stout pair of leather gloves a capable person can thresh and clean in a few hours more field root seeds than the average farm will require in two years. The home grown seed will give you a better crop than anything you can buy it will save you money, it will save you disappointment, it will assure you of the supply. Grow but one kind of mangel, but one kind of turnip and but one kind of carrot. If you grow more than you require and aid in preventing the evils of a seed shortage in your district, you will then be performing a National Service.

FIRST AIDS IN THE FARM HOME

A farmer cannot make a trip to the druggist every day, therefore it is essential that in the farm home the medicine chest should be well stocked. Before the last of anything is used a new supply should be purchased. In case of serious illness or accident, a doctor should of course be called, yet very often it is almost impossible to get a doctor and often for those living far from a city it takes some little time for a doctor to arrive.
To remain calm in the face of the unusual or the unexpected is a test of character, et in case of an accident it is most important that we remain calm. We will do harm if we do not keep our nerves steady. A mother once jerked a crochet hook which had caught in the flesh of a child's mouth. The flesh was torn and bled profusely. It might have resulted seriously had it become infected. The child (unknown to the mother) had got down some crocheting and began playing with the hook. Child-like she had put it in her mouth. When it became fast in her gum she ran crying to her mother. The idea that came to the mother was that the hook must be removed at once. Had she wiggled it around carefully and pushed the other way just a little, it might have come out easily. Instead she became alarmed. The first thought that occurred to her was to jerk it out and jerk it she did.
If we were to write out a list of remedies and place it where we knew we could find it quickly we might do much toward making the sufferer more comfortable. In case of burns, soda, vaseline or lard is good. Never attempt to tear clothing from burned flesh, but rather cut around it and then bathe. We can do little at home to help broken bones but we can get the sufferer into a comfortable position to await the doctor's visit. For sprains a comfortable position and ice is essential. The application of very hot cloths will help reduce the pain. For bruises apply either arnica or witch hazel. In cases of poison a list of antidotes will be found in a physiology. Wine of ipecac is good to produce vomiting. Grapes tarts should be taken to keep bottles containing poison away from children. When a foreign particle lodges in the eye tears will often wash it out. Some are quite skillful in laying the eyelid back and with the aid of a match or toothpick removing the speck. In case of fainting the person can be revived by sprinkling the face and neck with cold water. Wounds demand the greatest of care for they may become very serious. Apply iodine and keep the patient quiet. Wounds which break the skin may result in blood poisoning unless care is taken to keep them from becoming infected. Nothing should touch the wound excepting that which has been sterilized.
The following fourteen articles are necessary in the home medicine chest: Absorbent cotton, adhesive plaster, ammonia, bandages, castor oil, gauze, iodine, listerine, mustard, turpentine, vaseline, wine of ipecac, witch-hazel and peroxide.

WHO CAUSED THE ELECTION

Some political writers allege that a winter election was decided upon by the Government with the object of making it impossible for Sir Wilfrid to take an active part in it or perhaps killing him if he does. A silly enough story but deserving of some attention.
There would have been no election at all were it not for Sir Wilfrid. Yielding to his Quebec followers who wanted an election on the conscription issue he refused an extension of the parliamentary term.
That meant certain legislation with respect to a wartime election, which had to be put through with the aid of closure. Sir Wilfrid Laurier never attempted to facilitate business in the House. Indeed many of his friends believe he is lonely when the House is not sitting, and consequently does not mind how long the session lasts.
If he had foreseen present conditions there would have been no election. He forced an election because he thought he could win with a solid French and alien vote. The props have been knocked from under him, and he would gladly agree to an extension of the term were it not now to late.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT
NEAR BRIDGETOWN
BRIDGETOWN, N. S., October 29 — What might yet prove a serious shooting accident took place about ten o'clock this morning in Beaconsfield, a small village near the North Mountain. Gordon, DeBlois and Kenneth, three sons of Kenneth Hebb, of Upper Grandville, were returning from a porcupine trap when in some way a 22 rifle carried by one of the boys, who was about twelve years of age, was accidentally discharged the bullet lodging in the left leg of Gordon, aged 21. Medical aid was immediately summoned from Bridgetown and although the bullet has not yet been removed it is thought that the wounded man will recover.

SILVER WEDDING

Wednesday's Fredericton Gleaner contains an interesting account of the 25th wedding anniversary of the Rev. F. Clark Hartley and Mrs. Hartley, of Truro, N. S. After the young people's meeting of the Baptist church, a reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Hartley, and a presentation made to them of two cases of solid silver initiated tea spoons and a silver plate containing one hundred and forty-two new twenty-five cent pieces. Although they were taken by surprise the gifts were suitably responded to by the happy pastor and his wife.

HELPFUL HINTS

Washing in cold water when overheated is a frequent cause of pimples.
It is said a wart can be removed by touching it several times a day with castor oil.
Cover raisins with water when stoning them. This prevents stickiness, and cleanses the raisins.
It is good economy to take time to keep the hands in good condition. Use small mops, brushes and paddles for every possible kind of work.
Cut the old table linen into small pieces and keep it in some handy place in the kitchen to use in greasing cake and bread pans, then burn. This saves time and greasy fingers.
Lemon juice is good to remove stains, and pumice stone for scouring grime off the hands. It is always the part of wisdom to take the very best care of these, our bodies.
People troubled with chronic sick headache will be glad to know that sleep, if taken at the psychological moment, will prevent the attack. If the subject of sick headaches will watch the symptoms they will note that it begins with a feeling of weariness and heaviness. This is the time to sleep an hour, or even two, and it will eventually prevent the headache. When the attack is fairly under way, sleep will not prevent it.

in Ottawa That B. C. Premier

Join the Borden Government to the Morning Chronicle.

Ottawa, October 30—While nothing has been decided, pending further negotiations, it is understood in government circles here that the Union Government may be rounded out, as British Columbia is considered and also in regard to the balance of Liberals in the Cabinet, by the inclusion of Premier Brewster. The British Columbia Premier was a party to the union negotiations at the Capital three weeks ago, and it was reported then that he had been offered a portfolio as the representative of his Province in the Government.
At the time Mr. Brewster did not see his way clear to leaving his post at the head of the Provincial Administration, although he intimated that he would support the new Government. Hon. Martin Burrell, the present representative of British Columbia, is said to be anxious to retire from politics to accept a permanent Government position.
Mr. Brewster was in Ottawa a few days ago conferring with Sir Robert Borden. He left for British Columbia to confer with his friends there in regard to the proposal that he should give his services to the new Government here. As far as can be learned no definite word has since been received from him, but the impression here is that as soon as he can complete arrangements in his own Province, he will announce his acceptance of the Prime Minister's offer.

GOVERNMENT ACTS TO BRING VETERANS HOME

But 3,000 of First Contingent Left and, If Necessary Arrangements Can be Made, They May Be Home Before Christmas—Survivors of British First Army Now to Be Given Aest

Ottawa, Oct. 29—If arrangements can be carried out without unduly interfering with military organization and efficiency at the front the 3000 or so Canadians who have survived the dangers and withstood the hardships of three years of the war will be given a long furlough this winter with permission to go back to Canada.
The survivors of the first Canadian division have won the right to a long rest and a chance to revisit their families at home. The government fully recognizes this and is sympathetically considering the proposal.
It is understood that the imperial authorities and Sir Arthur Currie have been communicated with in regard to it. A similar long furlough at home is to be given this winter to the heroic remnant of Britain's first army which fought from Mons to Marne.
According to private advices received by The Telegraph some time ago but withheld from publication pending receipt of news from Ottawa, it is considered very probable that the boys who went overseas with the first contingent may be allowed to return to Canada on leave in time to eat their Christmas dinner at home.
While no official word has come to Canada to that effect so far as is known, letters received from the boys by their friends would indicate that the military authorities are preparing to send them home. It is said that the members of the first contingent who survive are being given honor stripes at the rate of one for every six months which they have served overseas with a view to getting them together for the return.
It is estimated that, allowing for those who have already returned, whose names remain forever beneath the fields of France and Flanders, and those who are prisoners in German camps, that about 3,000 men will be the number of the first contingent who survive are be-

HAIG PRAISES GALLANTRY OF THE CANADIANS

BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, October 29—(By the Associated Press)—In congratulating Lieutenant General Sir Herbert Plumer, commander of the second army corps, for the victory won on Friday on the Ypres front, Field Marshal Haig said the performance of the Canadians was remarkably fine.
CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, via London, October 27—(By W. A. Williams, special correspondent of the Canadian Press)—For the last twenty-four hours persistent fighting has been going on on the Canadian front. To the left of our advance the splendid success gained yesterday morning in the capture of Bellevue spur has been followed by the final defeat of the enemy forces at Laanbeek. Very heavy resistance was encountered at both of these points, the enemy machine gun and artillery fire being particularly severe, but the Germans were finally driven out, after hand-to-hand fighting, in which our infantry stormed their positions and captured their formidable "Pill Box" stronghold defences.

BELIEVE ITALY WILL YET WIN

London, Oct. 29.
That Great Britain and France must go promptly to Italy's help is the view expressed by several morning newspapers. While all the newspapers recognize the gravity of Italy's army, with the conviction that they ultimately will emerge victorious. Italian perseverance and successes of the past are called with warm admiration and the weakness of some links in the defensive chain is condoned.

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered with... I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, it is not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

NO BEEF BY NEXT SPRING

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 25—Dr. J. W. Robertson, chief adviser to Food Controller Hanna, speaking in the Central Methodist church last night, predicted that by next spring the consumption of beef would be prohibited.

He gave as a reason why the killing of young animals was not forbidden that it takes two years for them to grow and it will not affect the quantity of meat now adding that if dairymen were forbidden to sell young beef cattle they would kill them on the quiet and bury them.

Dr. Robertson also repeated his declaration that as a food producer, there was less waste in turning barley into beer than in feeding it to animals to produce milk, pork and beef.

Fully stocked, everything in A1 order. For further particulars apply at ADVERTISER OFFICE

LETTER FROM SCOTLAND

Portions of two letters recently received at his home in Greenwich from Pte. Kenneth G. Fraser, 185th Battalion.

Edinburgh, Scotland, Sept. 25, '17

Dear Homefolk— Here I am in Bonny Scotland. This is my second day in Edinburgh, and I must tell you something about my trip. Monday morning I was paraded as usual, and was going on again just after dinner, when the orderly corporal came to the hut door and told me there was a pass at Co's office for me starting at 5 o'clock that morning.

When we took the tube (underground) to Kings Cross and had only gone a short distance when some person came into the car and said there was an air-raid on. From that on every station was simply packed with people. The tube is so far underground, that they are perfectly safe there, when we got to Kings Cross I could hardly make my way in to the elevator.

In dealing with the campaign now in progress in the interests of Union Government the Montreal Gazette says, it was fitting that the Union Government should begin its electoral campaign in Winnipeg, and that it should present its programme through the mouths of three Cabinet ministers who typify in an especial sense the composition of that Government.

lying around sleeping I stayed there until 10 o'clock, then as they told me there would be no train going until morning, I went out to a Y. M. C. A. and got a bed. I took the first train in the morning, leaving there at 8.35.

A Canadian Highlander certainly takes well with the Scotch people, I did enjoy my trip to Edinburgh, that is after I reached there. I seen a number of places of historical interest. Was all thru the old castle which is situated on a high rocky cliff the centre of the city. It was built in 1432 and it was very interesting to be in a building that was built before America was known.

I have not time to describe the various places I seen, but I made good use of my time and took in all the principal sights, it is impossible to make you see them in a letter anyway. There were Holyrood Palace, the Museum, the zoological garden, Cathedrals, a lot of monuments etc. etc.

You asked about my socks mother; I will be very glad to get those that were given you by the Port Williams Red Cross to send me, it is very kind of them to remember me and all the boys.

We all appreciate it. You spoke of sending home legs to be refooted, I have none to send at present but may have later on. We get issued with socks and when they get badly worn we can exchange them for new ones, but they are not nearly as good as the home knit ones.

I am pretty good at darned socks for a bachelor, I think I get that from watching you mother. They have to be darned and worn pretty well before we can get them exchanged. Some of the fellows send them out to women around here to mend, but I can do a better job myself then they do. I seen a bunch a fellow got in from a woman the other day, she had missed holes in some of them and those she had fixed know about how she would do it.

Well it is nearly time for "lights out" and my bed is not made yet so "rust close."

Hoping this finds you all well and happy, as ever your loving son and brother. Ken.

THE UNION GOVERNMENT

In dealing with the campaign now in progress in the interests of Union Government the Montreal Gazette says, it was fitting that the Union Government should begin its electoral campaign in Winnipeg, and that it should present its programme through the mouths of three Cabinet ministers who typify in an especial sense the composition of that Government.

Those who really want to win the war and don't get together and pull together don't know what the war is. We cannot fight our best fight divided. If there had not been union among the people, the spirit of union where-ever there was the spirit of war, there never could have been union at Ottawa.

There is just the one slogan—WIN THE WAR.

THE REASON Parson—I was glad to see you at prayer meeting last night, brother. Village Souse—Was that where I was? Well, I'm jiggered.

RUSSIA'S STAND

New York, Oct. 29—A London cable to the New York Tribune says that Russia has made no separate peace offers to Germany since the fall of Riga, and will not make any. The Kaiser's attempt to force Russia to peace terms has failed.

Russia will also follow the lead of America at the coming Allies' conference in Paris, and by spring she will be able to meet the most powerful attack of the Teutons, becoming, once more, a tremendous factor in the war.

British Air Defences Turn Raiders Back

London, Oct. 29—Hostile airplanes endeavored to carry out a raid tonight on the southeast counties of England, but none of them was able to pass the outer defence according to an official communication issued late tonight by Field Marshal Viscount French, commander in chief of the home forces.

350,000 TESTAMENTS PRESENTED DURING WAR TO CANADIAN SOLDIERS

Toronto, Oct. 26—Three hundred and fifty thousand New Testaments have been presented to Canadian soldiers going overseas, according to the report of General Secretary Cooper, of the Canadian Bible Society.

SHIPBUILDING IN DIGBY COUNTY

J. W. Lawrence, Hantsport, in a short trip observed in the course of forty-two miles, the distance between Digby and Meteghan, thirteen vessels under construction. He says: "I saw three buildings at Meteghan, one at Meteghan River, one at Saunierville, one at Little Brook, one at Church Point, one at Grosses Coques, two at Bellevean Cove, one at Weymouth and one at Gilbert's Cove, the later just launched. I was informed that one of those on the stocks at Meteghan (Dr. H. D. MacDonald's,) was to be a four master and to register about 950 tons, and that all the others were to be three masters.

Besides this number some half dozen more were either commenced or in contemplation. These are certainly a day when vessel building is booming.

EDITOR FACING CHARGE OF SEDITIOUS LIBEL

TORONTO, Oct. 26—Isaac Bainbridge, the Editor of Canada Forward, was today committed for trial on a charge of seditious libel. A charge laid under the order-in-council, governing the circulation of seditious literature was withdrawn. Bail was fixed at $1,000.

GERMANY ENTERS COUNTERFEITING GAME ON BIG SCALE

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—A despatch to the Herald from Paris says well authenticated reports have reached there that Germany has gone into the business of counterfeiting on a big scale. She is flooding Russia with counterfeit Russian bank notes issued to the amount of three billion roubles (one billion five hundred million dollars). The notes are marvelously engraved and only the most experienced experts can detect the forged from the real.

PRICE NOT FIXED

The impression seems general that the food controller has fixed the price of potatoes at $1.25 per ninety-pound bag. This is not the case. Information from the food controller's department states that the controller has merely announced his intention of requiring regularly information from all wholesale dealers and the difference between the original cost and the wholesaler's selling price will not be allowed to exceed a reasonable percentage.

At twelve hundred milk depots and stores in Boston milk is selling at 10 cents a quart. In New York the price is the same.

The old D. A. R. station at Annapolis Royal is being converted by B. B. Hardwick into an evaporator for fruit and vegetables. General Manager Graham has expressed his desire to co-operator in this new business.

While warping into her dock at Boston on Wednesday afternoon, the steamer North Star punched a hole in her port bow just below the guard, which was also smashed in when the anchor was caught between the vessel and the pier. The anchor stock went well into the hull, and repairs will be necessary before she can leave on her usual trip.

PROTEST CEREAL BAN

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 28—The Secretary of the board of trade has registered, on behalf of wholesalers and retailers, a protest to the food controller regarding the proposed package law referring to cereals in cartons and packages.

PLOT DEFEATED

LONDON, Oct. 29—La Mestropole, a Belgian newspaper published here, says a German attempt to separate the Allies has been defeated by Baron Boqueville, Belgian Foreign Minister.

According to this newspaper, Germany recently made a peace offer to Belgium.

VALLEY VISITED BY WORST GALE IN YEARS

Trees Uprooted, Wharves Carried Away and Ferry Boat Landed in a Field.

ANNAPOLIS, N. S., October 31 — A terrific southwesterly gale passed over the Annapolis Valley last evening continuing until an early hour this morning and doing a large amount of damage. The wind blew with great velocity, making it hard for pedestrians to get along.

The houses rocked, trees were uprooted, fences and chimneys blown down, a large quantity of apples blown from the trees, wharf property carried away and a warehouse razed, and other damages.

The ferry boat broke from its moorings and was carried up the river and left high and dry in a field and a considerable part of the D. A. R. track washed out. The storm of last night was the worst experienced here for many years.

Lunenburg News—The Lunenburg Gas Co. have had a great deal to contend with lately. Eels in great quantities are collecting in the water wheel and almost stopping the power. The wheel crushes them, but their skins get entwined like straps in the sogs which give a powerful resistance, and have to be removed by disconnecting the pipes.

Pictou is to have a double hanging, Carmello Sofie Marabito and Natali Neri, who were convicted of killing Pietro Marabito, the husband of Carmello, were sentenced by Mr. Justice Russell on Friday to be hanged on Jan. 18, 1918.

KINGS COLLEGE RAISING $100,000

The supporters of Kings College are rallying toward raising a fund of $100,000 as an additional endowment. About one half has been raised. Three or more have given sums of $5000. Good for Kings.

The Outlook For the Union - Victory Government is New Brunswick is Satisfactory

ST. JOHN, October 30 — Hon. F. B. Carvell, minister of public works, was in the city today and met in conference with representatives of the two political parties from various parts of the province. Mr. Carvell said afterwards that he was well satisfied with the progress made. "The idea is," said he, "that as many Union candidates as possible shall be elected by acclamation. The conferences are being held with that end in view. So far they have been successful, and the situation is satisfactory."

ITALIANS NOW HOLDING AUSTRo-GERMANS IN CHECK

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy November 1—Normal conditions are rapidly being restored. The inevitable confusion which accompanies the gigantic movement of troops and material to a stronger position further back is fast disappearing. Any reports of a wholesale stampede reaching the outside world should be accepted with reserve.

The fact is that there was a methodical retirement on a huge scale, but the hugeness of such an operation, involving the movement of upwards of a million men and their stores within three days was naturally accompanied by extreme hardships and many detached instances of unavoidable confusion. These darker phases naturally stand out more prominently and it will be these which doubtless will reach the outer world in exaggerated form, whereas the outstanding fact is that a huge army has been withdrawn in the face of overwhelming odds, and has come out of the ordeal scarred, but still intact and with colors flying.

ALL BRITISH GUNS WITH ITALIANS WERE SAVED

London, November 1—All British guns with the Italian army were saved, according to a British correspondent at Italian headquarters, who says that the spirits of the British gunners are good. Lack of transports, which could not be allotted to them, was the whole trouble. One gun was so near to having to be abandoned that the breech mechanism was destroyed. However, the gun was saved eventually.
