EMPRESS THEATRE ON WEDNESDAY

More than any other of the splendid pictures she has made, Marion Davies, Cosmopolitan star, likes "The Bride's Play," a Paramount picture, which will be seen at the Empress Theatre Wednesday. Miss Davies plays the part of a prankish Irish girl, bubbling over with good humor, but always ready to listen to the troubles of the villagers and to help them solve their difficulties.

The picture, while modern in its setting, carries the audience back to medieval days in the portraying of a romantic incident that took place centuries before. In this medieval story, Miss Davies again is seen as the fair-haired heroine of "The Bride's Play."

The popular actress finds this picture the most sympathetic of her career. "I veritably lived the role of Alison Barrett and also that of Esid," she said, when the production was completed.

Framed in a setting of ancient legend, romance and folklore, "The Bride's Play" is rich in magnificence of background, pageantry and color. The production was directed by Geo. W. Terwilliger from a scenario by Mildred Considine. In the cast with Miss Davies are Wyndham Standing, Carlton Miller, Jack O'Brien, Thea Talbot, Richard Cummings, John Hurley and Eleanor Middleton.

SAYS GERMANS PLAN TO WAR

That the Germans are actively planning a war of revenge chiefly against France, for which purpose they have concluded a secret military agreement with Russia is the main point of "a memorandum by a person in close touch with the best informed German circles in Berlin and Munich," communicated to the Daily Mail which displays it under big headlines.

The paper claims to have made exhaustive inquiries into the memorandum's accuracy in Germany, London and Paris, with the result, the Mail says, that it has been very largely supported thereby. Except for precise details, the Mail's story does not differ materially from similar statements printed from time to time in anti-German papers.

The memorandum particularizes with respect to alleged arrangements to enable Germany to utilize Russia's resources including complete international reorganization, which will make Russia capable of supporting both herself and Germany, so that Germany may ignore any sea blockade.

FIRST RULE OF ROAD ACCIDENT

The first accident due to the change in the rule of the road occurred on Charlotte Street, West St. John, at noon on Saturday, when an automobile and milk team came to grief, considerable damage being done to both.

The milk delivery, it is said, was on the right side of the street and the car, which was approaching the team was on the left, and a head-on collision was eminent. Both drivers thought of taking the other side of the road at the same time and the car sequence was they collided in the middle of the street, the car striking the wagon amid ships, breaking it up rather badly and dumping a full load of milk into the street. Neither of the drivers were injured.

BIG LUMBER CUT THIS WINTER

There is every indication of buoyancy in the lumber market and the optimism of the lumbermen is being expressed in the expansion of operations in the woods. In all sections of the province the original estimates of cuts are being expressed in the expansion of operations in the woods. In all sections of the province the original estimates of cuts are being exceeded and the total cut will be much larger than was anticipated but will not reach the total of three years ago.

The department of lands and mines has forty-two scalers and sixteen helpers at work on the various operations. The North Shore operations are going on with the total cut likely to be considered in excess of what was expected.

In other parts of the province there have been large increases. On the Big Cedar, a tributary of the Tobique the Stetson Cutler Company are cutting in an operation of 5,000,000 feet which they did not contemplate at all at the beginning of the logging season. In Madawaska a pulpwood operation of 10,000 cords for the Fraser Companies, Limited, at Edmundston has been enlarged to 15,000 cords.

Haig Not Foch Is Winner of Big War

Another book telling just who won the war is off the press. But this one by George A. B. Dewar, and Lieutenant Colonel Boraston, entitled "Sir Douglas Haig's Command," is of special interest to the British public because it makes the astonishing statement that it was Haig and not Foch who planned the counter-offensive that ended the war.

The fact that the book was written with the approval of Earl Haig from information supplied by him adds considerable weight to the arguments advanced in favor of the British commander. It is stated that Foch wanted Haig to attack the Germans on the Roye-Chaulnes line, but the British generalissimo refused and submitted a different plan of attack. There was a heated debate but Foch was finally persuaded to abandon an alternative scheme which he had prepared and to adopt Haig's plan.

Mr. Park was at one time a member of the legislature.

Report of Red Cross Society For 1922

The Newcastle Branch of the Red Cross Society advertised a meeting at the Hospital on Nov. 23rd, where by the courtesy of the Hospital Board the meetings will be held each month after that of the Hospital Aid. Unfortunately the first meeting was so poorly attended that the usual business of an Annual Meeting could not be carried out.

The Secretary's report of the year is as follows.

Four regular meetings were held and were attended chiefly by members of the Executive. At the request of Miss Marven, the Soldier's Settler's Board letters were sent to many of the soldier's wives—from overseas—the replies showing appreciation and the correspondence continuing in some instances for months.

The Branch also sent Christmas stockings to the invalid soldier's in hospital, valued at $20.00, and the same sum was sent as a gift to a patient at East St. John.

A carnival given by the I. O. D. E. and Red Cross provided means for our relief work. Mrs. B. F. Maltby, convener of the Emergency Committee, being a most energetic and tireless worker, and by sympathetic help much suffering and need was relieved during the winter and spring months.

The sum of $118.45 was expended on this relief work besides generous contributions of clothing and food. Milk was supplied to a tubercular patient maintained in hospital for twenty-one days. The St. John Division was most generous in sending cut-out garments and also money for our greater needs and the Pageant put on in October was most successful in every way, so that we are better equipped for emergency calls. The Treasurer reports $142.60 in the Bank. Miss Manny, Sec.-Treas., of the Membership Campaign, reports the books not all in but hopes to have the completed list by the next meeting in December, when a large attendance is earnestly desired in the interests of:

THE PROMOTION OF HEALTH

report of Convener of Pageant Com. The Committee looked after the staging of their own part of the program,—training of the children, tableaux, etc.

The performers were most obliging by their good attendance at rehearsals here and in going to Chatham. The committee is most grateful to Chatham for the stage fixtures and orchestra, and are also much indebted to people for the use of their cars. They also wish to thank those who sold tickets and one and all who in any way contributed to make the Pageant the great success it was, which was most gratifying to all concerned.

PASTOR PRESENTED WITH SILK GOWN

On Wednesday evening the ladies of St. James' Congregation gathered in the ladies' parlor, St. James' Hall, and presented their pastor Rev. L. H. MacLean with a beautiful silk pulpit gown and cassock to match, as a means of showing their appreciation of his good work in the parish.

The address was read and the presentation made by Mrs. E. A. MacMillan. Mr. MacLean was completely taken by surprise but replied in a few suitable and feeling remarks, thanking the ladies for their gift. Following this a very pleasant evening was spent in social intercourse.

The following is the address presented to the Rev. Mr. MacLean:—
The Reverend L. H. MacLean, M. A., B.D.

St. James' Church, Newcastle,

Reverend and Dear Sir:

It is with feelings of very great pleasure that we, the ladies of your congregation, present to you this cassock and gown to be your own personal property. We wish you to consider this as a testimony of our appreciation of your faithful and sincere efforts in the great work of our Lord and Master, as pastor of St. James' Church. Your interest in the welfare of the youth of our church, together with your zeal and untiring labors in promoting its various schemes, reveal to us a nobility of mind and heart well worthy of our admiration.

Our best wishes go out to you and to Mrs. MacLean in the hope that you may long be spared in the full enjoyment of health and strength to continue your noble work.

On behalf of the Ladies of St. James' Church.

350 DEATHS A MONTH IN PARIS FROM CANCER

London, Dec. 2—In Paris alone, capital of France, it is reported that there are 350 deaths a month from Cancer.

This grave state of affairs has resulted in the inauguration of an elaborate system of treatments at the Tenon Hospital and the Hotel Dieu, involving the use of Rontgen rays and radium emanations.

Dr. Hartmann expresses a conservative opinion of the prospects of success. He insists that not only must there be a long period before any definite conclusions can be drawn but he further declares that both radiotherapeutic and surgical treatments should be continued without bias or the exclusion of either.

THE NEW RULE

The law changing the rule of the road in New Brunswick from left to right went into force Friday and appears to be working out all right. It is a departure from an old established custom, but one that is decidedly in the interest of the province and will be certain to prove popular. It will take some time for people to become accustomed to the change and in the meantime to avoid accidents drivers of vehicles should proceed with caution.

RELEASED FROM DORCHESTER TO GO HOME TO DIE

St. John Telegraph: Released from Dorchester penitentiary only to come home to die, is the sad fate of a St. John young man, or rather boy, as he is still in his teens, who arrived in the city on Wednesday. His case is considered hopeless as he is suffering from tuberculosis, and through the efforts of the Salvation Army he was allowed to leave the institution in charge of his sister and return home.

The case is a sad one. The boy was just coming into manhood when he was sentenced to imprisonment because of a youthful escapade and while imprisoned he was afflicted with the dread disease which claims its victims by the thousands every year. Now he has been permitted to return from the penitentiary to die at home, so that his short remaining span of life may be spent among friends and relatives, who thus have the opportunity to make his days as comfortable as loving care can.

The boy was arrested in April, 1921 near Lepreaux, along with five other lads, after a long chase through the woods, on the charge of stealing a horse and carriage and also taking some goods from a store. He was taken before Judge Armstrong, and tried under the Speedy Trials Act and on June 1 was sentenced to six years in Dorchester penitentiary.

During his stay in penitentiary he became ill and tuberculosis developed. He received the best treatment which could be accorded him there, but he was longing for his home and family.

Major Burrows, of the Salvation Army, heard of his case and took the matter up with the authorities, with the result that the young prisoner was released. His family is not affluent and the Salvation Army advanced money to the boy's sister to go to Dorchester to accompany her brother home. The return journey was successfully accomplished and the lad is now resting in his old home.

HOW FAST DOES A BASEBALL GO?

As gauged by a motion picture machine, an expert pitcher throws a baseball 210.07 feet a second, or 2.25 miles a minute. It is faster than the fastest airplane. From the time one pitcher began his windup until the batter hit the ball, only .99 second elapsed. It took .38 second for the ball to leave the pitcher's hand and be struck by the bat. A film showed that a catcher recovered in .1317 second to throw the ball to second base, and that it required only .796 second to throw from the catcher to second base; 129 feet.

"Nearly Lost Baby With Croup"

Has Depended on Dr. Chase's Medicines for 25 Years

This letter from Mrs. Thompson gives you some idea of why so many thousands of people depend on Dr. Chase in the hour of sickness.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has a permanent place in the great majority of Canadian homes because it is the most certain relief from Croup, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough and Asthma.

Mrs. Alex. Thompson, Whita, Alta., writes:—"When my first baby was born, I think she would have died from croup before we could reach a doctor, if it had not been for a neighbor who had a bottle of Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine in the house. This relieved her almost immediately. That was 21 years ago, and Dr. Chase's Medicines have been friends of ours ever since."

Asthma

Mr. Thomas Bond, Sheldrake, North Shore, Que., writes:—"I suffered for years with asthma, sometimes being unable to lie in bed, but after a treatment of Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine, I am now quite well and thank this medicine for restoring me."

ALONG THE BANFF WINDERMERE ROAD

ONLY a few short years ago the noble Kootenay Columbia Valley was practically unknown except to its few inhabitants. But no longer will this great silent vale remain unknown and inaccessible, for blasted out of the rock and hewed through the great forests of pines there has been built a highway, a great motor road, which will be opened officially to the tourists next year. This will be known as the Banff Windermere Road. It follows a route from Banff, through the Vermillion and Sinclair passes to the Windermere district of the Columbia Valley, a distance of some eighty miles. On it the traveller will follow the most wonderful succession of peaks, ravines and valleys on the North American continent, rivaling in rugged splendor those seen along the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

In the late Summer, under the direction of L. O. Armstrong, the well-known Canadian lecturer, and under the auspices of the Canadian Pacific Railway, there started from Banff a party of writers and camera men. This was the first party privileged to traverse the new highway by the pack train method of transit, and probably the last as the road is practically completed.

Marble Canyon was the first side trip of the party, this being some two miles off the main road, and so named because of the grey marble rocks that form its sides. Looking into the abyssal depths of this narrow gorge, the presence of the mad torrent below could only be detected by a cloud of spray-mist and the rumbling of the rushing water.

In the vicinity of Marble Creek, a mile or so from the main road, on the mountain side, are the Vermillion paint pots.

These are three holes some seven or eight feet deep, filled with water of three colors, ochre, red (Vermillion) and green, the coloring being due probably to deposits of the soluble oxides of iron and copper. These combinations have formed natural pigments that are equal to the finest commercial paints. It is known that the Kootenays long before the advent of the white man used these colorings to decorate their tepees with weird designs and adorn their bodies with "War Paint" before attacking their enemies. The Indians, too, were the first to commercialize these valuable deposits, and bartered these pigments with southern tribes for corn and even for the shells of Mexico. The next bit of journey, some 15 miles, was through the Vermillion pass—still along the road. Many writers have essayed the description of mountain roads—long pine avenues with their lights and shadows; on either side snow capped peaks flung against the sky, these flanked by high foot hills topped with burnt forests, where dead pine twigs and intertwining their dead branches form a great drape of grey lace. Above and below are stream-tumbling torrents—water falls—springs that bubble from the rocky sides and send their silver streams to swell the volume of turbulent creek. And lingering over all is the odor of the pines and always the inspiration of Nature's sublimest creations—the mountains themselves.

At Vermillion crossing for the first time the party left the road, for it is in this vicinity that the last bit is being completed, some seven miles.

Resuming the journey next day, the pack train following the most direct route forded and deforded the tortuous river, then climbed up some hundreds of feet and was once again on the road.

Here the traveller realized just what an amazing piece of engineering building this highway was.

The party proceeded through the Vermillion pass into the Kootenay Valley and camp was pitched at Kootenay Crossing, already a well known and used camping ground that boasts the modern conveniences of a rustic table, poles for tents, nearness to water and all the facilities that make camping pleasant. Here, too, are the first traces of the incoming settler, the smoke of clearing, the little cabin, the transforming of bush into farm land.

The Kootenay Valley is connected to the Columbia via the Sinclair Pass, used for years by the Indians, who after incursions into the rich lands of the Vermillion and Kootenay, where moose, elk and other game still abound, crossed the Divide to visit the hot springs now known as the Radium Hot Springs.

For seven miles the pack train slowly ascended to the summit of the pass, the exact spot being marked by a little emerald lake known as Summit Lake. For the first time snows, already touched by mountain frosts and flaming by the road sides, were noticed. The scenery through this district is more imposing than ever. Chasms are deeper, peaks are higher, vegetation is more varied. Then followed the descent into the wonderful canyon itself enclosed by rugged redw alls, known as the Iron Gates, towering hundreds of feet on either side.

And in the heart of the canyon on the side of the mountain is a pool formed by a flow from springs, which pour out of the surrounding rocks at a temperature of 115 degrees. These springs are 2500 feet above the sea level, and have been valued for their medicinal qualities by the few who know them.

There are four Indian Reserves in the Valley—the homes of a remnant of the once powerful and warlike Kootenays and on the rock wall of the canyon are curious ancient Indian markings. These Indians are now peaceful and law-abiding, living by hunting, fishing, farming and stock raising.

From the Hot Springs to Lake Windermere the source of the Columbia River is only a distance of fourteen miles and there the party arrived eight days from the time it started, as scheduled.

Railway News

Winnipeg, Man.—Since the commencement of the crop year up to Oct. 1st, 85,598,574 bushels of wheat have been marketed by the Canadian Pacific Railway western lines, it was announced at the local office recently. During the same period the company handled 12,229,772 bushels of coarse grain and for the same period last year 56,164,115 bushels of wheat were marketed as well as 6,940,688 bushels of coarse grain. Total cars loaded to date amount to 52,773 as against last year figures of 38,257.

There is every indication that the volume of travel to Europe during November and December will this year be heavy. It is already apparent that the number of those who intend spending Christmas in the Old Country will be unusually large, and the Canadian Pacific Railway is making special arrangements to accommodate the traffic. A special through train will be run from Winnipeg to the west coast, "Montana", sailing from St. John, N.B., on December 12, and through tourist sleepers will run from Edmonton, Calgary, Saskatoon, Regina and other western points to catch other C. P. R. sailings from St. John, thus giving a through service from these cities to the Old Country.

Bow Island.—The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has a gang of men at work here on the improvements to their pumping plant, and when completed there will be quite an improvement to the volume of water that can be pumped from the river. The work includes the putting in of a new boiler and pump at the river, so that they can use natural gas as well as gasoline, and thus be sure of fuel at all times for pumping, and does away with water trouble and having engines run for water. It also increases the service here and practically does away with supply at other points.

H. R. Miles, division engineer, has charge of the work and has a crew of eighteen men working with him under Foreman W. J. Oliver. It will take at least three weeks for the work to be completed. When finished they will be able to fill the present water tank, which holds 16,000 barrels, in three hours. When it is considered that there will be at least twelve to sixteen trains daily taking water here it means there must be a supply of it on hand at all times. This new installation will meet the requirements.

Winnipeg.—Western Canada's export business in fruit, potatoes and other lines of produce has developed to such proportions that exporters are now arranging to establish big collecting warehouses in Winnipeg and other cities of the prairie provinces. The Canadian Pacific has granted special storage in transit privileges at Winnipeg, Regina, Moose Jaw, Lethbridge and Calgary on carload shipments of apples in boxes originating in British Columbia.

Under the new arrangement the shipper has the privilege of holding this produce at Winnipeg or any of the other western cities named for a period of six months and then on reshipment he gets the advantage of the through rate.

St. John, N.B.—The prize awards to section foremen on the New Brunswick district of the C. P. R., for the best sections of rails, roadbed, etc., have been announced recently by General Superintendent J. M. Woodman. His prize of $50 for the second best went to N. Mason on the Shogomoc sub-division. The first prize of $100, given by Manager J. J. Scully, was announced a few days ago. Of third prizes of $25 each, one given by Superintendent Boyles of Brownville, is awarded to W. E. Nason, on section 5, Mattewamkeag sub-division; and one given by Superintendent Gilliland of Woodstock, to T. Abbott for section 11 on the Shogomoc sub-division. The list of roadmaster prizes of $10, the sub-divisions and the winners, follow:—

Roadmaster, Telford, St. John; winner, W. B. Harris.

Roadmaster, Owens, Shore Line; winner, T. Gidden.

Roadmaster, Hodgeon, Moosehead; winner, B. Beadeau.

Roadmaster, Bird, Moosehead; winner, E. Flantz.

PRODUCT OF CANADA

BUY AT HOME

It is now less than four weeks from Christmas, and the advice given to their subscribers by all the newspapers is to shop early—and patronize the local merchants.

We know that money is not being freely circulated in this county, but, on the other hand, we are far better off than the people in many other parts of this province, and the prospect for better times is growing brighter day by day.

It is of course true that people have somehow got to have the necessities of life. How they are going to get them we do not know, but of course the storekeepers in general cannot be always held up and made to furnish them to people who perhaps will not pay or can not pay. The conditions are indeed hard and perplexing in many cases.

In regard to the prices of goods at local stores and those from mail order houses, that is of course an old and much argued question. We are not doubting the figures given in these cases but we do think that very often indeed there is a difference in quality between the goods that can be got at home and those that will be got from the mail order houses that will fully account for the difference in price, if not more than account for it. Then, we have noticed that people in comparing prices in this way nearly always forget the cost, bothers, delays and transportation expenses necessary to getting goods from a mail order house. These expenses are almost always much more than people figure on, if indeed they figure on them at all.

One of the biggest reasons of all for not patronizing the mail order houses is that the person buying from them is nearly always "buying a pig in a poke," as the saying is, that is buying something he does not see and can not really know the value of until after he has actually paid his money and the transaction is closed. If the goods are then unsatisfactory or prove to be a poor trade, the buyer is in an unprofitable position.

"But," says some mail order patron, "the houses I buy from are all reliable, and will exchange goods that are unsatisfactory." That may usually be true, but the transportation costs one way almost always have to be paid by the dissatisfied patron, often both ways, and he is even then not sure of getting what he wants, the way he could doubtless do at a local store. Which does a person think would be the most likely to wish to have a patron absolutely whom one has personally known for years and whom one will doubtless see about every week of his life, or the rather impersonal mail order house one thousand miles away?

Then perhaps the biggest reason of any why a person should spend his money as near home as possible even though in some cases the figures representing the cost of goods may not be quite so low as those marked on highly praised and supposedly similar goods in a mail order catalogue, is that when he spends his money at home he helps everybody and every institution at home, thereby actually helping himself directly, but when he sends his money to Moncton, St. John, Montreal or Toronto, he is not doing a hand's turn to help anything at home—not his church or any church, not the schools, not the hospitals, not the library, not the daily lives of any of his neighbors, no matter how near they are or how dear they ought to be to the person sending away the money.

While it may be true that, if a person doesn't reckon anything for his time or labor of writing and for the long and frequently vexatious delays experienced in getting from a distance, one may once in a while save a trifle by ordering goods in that way, it is a solid fact, we thoroughly believe, that, in the long run and in the main, the person who spends his money as nearly at home as possible prospers far better and has the satisfaction of knowing at the same time that he is much the most useful citizen to his community."

NOW DO MY WORK WITH EASE

Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored My Health

Hornell, N. Y.—"I was in bad health but there didn't seem to be any one thing the matter with me. I was tired out all over and it was an effort for me to move. I was irritable and could not sleep nights and had trouble with my bowels and at my periods. It seemed that nearly everyone around me knew of your medicine and wanted me to try it, so at last I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and improved every day. I do all my own work now except the washing and do it with ease. I can accomplish as much in a day now as it would have taken me a week to do last winter and I try to get every one I know to take your medicine to build them up. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial if you like."—Mrs. CHAS. BAKER, 21 Spencer Ave., Hornell, N. Y.

In almost every neighborhood there are women who know of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They know because they have taken it and have been helped. Why don't you give it a trial?

OUR TOWN

Let us be sure that we are either loyal to our town or absent from it; let us consider it all ours—ours to love, ours to protect, to serve and to keep prosperous; let us be broad of mind and reasonably considerate in its regard; but let us never forget that it is ours!

DO DIFFICULTIES

BRACE YOU UP?

Under the above caption, Forbes magazine very pertinently comments as follows:—"Do difficulties depress you or brace you up? Really if you will stop to think of it, wouldn't life become monotonous, colorless, deadening were we to cease to have to battle against obstacles and sweat and scheme to solve hard problems? Wouldn't such a position or condition be very much the same as being retired? Frankly haven't you noticed that you are inclined to slump, to become flabby, to become lackadaisical, to become rather purposeless when things move along ultra-smoothly for any length of time? To the healthy man, difficulties should act as a tonic. They should spur us to greater exertion. They should strengthen our will-power. They should steel our purpose.

Difficulties like work, are blessings in disguise, and if we study this subject through to the bottom, we would "Thank God for difficulties!"

LET'S HAVE MORE COURTESY

"Some day, let us hope, there will be a more general appreciation of the value of courtesy," says Thrift Magazine. "It requires no more effort to be polite over the telephone or across the counter than it does to affect the tone and mannerisms of the much maligned bear with a sore head. Business executives can hold no one but themselves responsible for lack of courtesy among their subordinates. Whenever policy is definitely fixed that courtesy will be rewarded, just as other types of merit, and that discourtesy will bring the same fate as incompetency, we shall begin to have more politeness in business.

The executive who allows the word will of his company to be kicked in contact with the general public is a round peg in a square hole."

Railway News

Winnipeg.—Claiming this year's record for an early shipment of grain, the Lake of the Woods Milling Company on August 3rd moved the first car of new wheat to the head of the lakes. The grain, which came from the farms of John Siemens and M. Wodlinger, of Rosenfeld, Man., graded No. 1 northern of fine quality. It was shipped from the Lake of the Woods elevator at Rosenfeld over the Canadian Pacific Railway to the Lake of the Woods mill at Keewatin.

August 3 is considered the earliest date in a number of years that grain has been moved east.

Carelessness by automobile drivers at railway crossings is still prevalent. On every occasion the motorists come off second best. The railways are doing all in their power to prevent accidents. If they were only met half way many fatalities would be avoided and many automobiles and limbs saved from the operating theatre.

A few days ago at Ayr, Ontario, a man named W. Zehr was driving south in a Grant automobile across Northumberland Street. He ran into the side of a train, striking it behind the locomotive. As a result of the impact Mr. Zehr's automobile was badly broken, but the injury to the train was slight. The train was switching at the time of the occurrence.

Prescott.—The Canadian Pacific Railway offers two scholarships per year for the faculty of applied science to minor sons of employees. This year there were 16 candidates in the contest, which was held last month, comprising: students from Halifax, N.S., to Victoria, B.C. George Harold Kingston of Prescott received the highest number of marks, winning one of the scholarships, which means free tuition at McGill College, Montreal, for five years. Mr. Cyril Norontzow, of Victoria, B.C. won second place.

Banishing of Red Tape Along Border

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—Reciprocity of good will in the postal relations between Canada and United States, the banishing of "red tape" and increased efficiency especially at the border were the keynotes for the international postal conference sounded here tonight by Hon. Hubert Work, postmaster-general of the United States. Mr. Work and his associates arrived here today and were greeted by Hon. Chas. Murphy, postmaster-general of Canada.

PASSENGERS FOR WEST

The Maritime Express from Halifax Saturday carried over sixty passengers landed at that point from the Cunard liner, Andania. All were enroute to Ontario and the West.

A special train consisting of eleven cars passed through Moncton early Sunday morning with overseas passengers from the White Star Liner Regina which docked at Halifax Saturday forenoon. Over 350 passengers were on the train, all bound for Upper Canada and the West. The train was in charge of Mr. John H. Cochran, G. T. P. A., C.N.R., who will accompany same to Montreal.

Moncton Men Allege C.N.R. Discrimination

Moncton, Dec. 3.—Discrimination against employees on part of the eastern section of the Canadian National Railway lines is alleged in resolutions passed Saturday night by the local federated trades, protesting against the laying off of men in the Moncton shops.

The protest further alleges that the demand for cars fit for use is far in excess of the number of cars available and that a large number of cars are now lying idle because of repairs needed to put them back into service.

The resolutions passed were ordered to be forwarded to Premier King, the minister of railways, minister of labor and Hon. A. B. Copp.

Falling Branch kills N.B. Woodman

Bathurst, N. B., Dec. 2—Sudden death came to Joseph D. Landry last Thursday while he was working at a lumber camp of the Gloucester and Trading Co. in the vicinity of Red Pine. He was sawing down a tree when a large branch broke off and fell striking him on the side of the head and killing him almost instantly. The body was immediately brought to town and on Friday was taken to his former home in Grand Anse. The funeral took place on Monday morning. The late Mr. Landry was well known throughout the parish and highly thought of by all. He leaves his wife and a family of twelve children, who have the sympathy of the community in their great and sudden loss.

Hunting Season In New Brunswick

The big game hunting season in New Brunswick which closed on Thursday has been marked by fewer fatalities and accidents than during similar periods in this province for many years. Only two fatalities have occurred since the hunting season opened on September 15th, while last year the hunting season was marked by the accidental fatal shooting of eleven persons, while two others were drowned while hunting. Both of the victims in the fatalities this year were youths who had been hunting partridge. Generally speaking the hunting season in New Brunswick can be classed as successful. There were, it is said, equally as many non-resident hunters as last year, but fewer licenses, it is understood, have been sold to resident hunters. The weather has been abnormally mild and conditions for hunting have not been advantageous in many districts. Included in the list of notables who hunted in New Brunswick during the season were Jack Dempsey, the world's champion pugilist; Billie Burke, the well-known actress, and Newton Newkirk, the American humorist.

OBITUARY

MRS. MARGARET MacLELLAN
Mrs. Margaret MacLellan, wife of the late Caius MacLellan, of Newcastle, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Bird, Camden, Maine, on October 11, 1922.

LOUIS PAOLI
(Charlottetown Guardian)
The death took place at an early hour Saturday morning of Mr. Louis Paoli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Paoli, of this city. The deceased has been in failing health for some time past and recently spent some time in Cuba in the hope that a change of climate would restore his wanted vigor.

Mr. Paoli was for some time a member of the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada here, and in Nova Scotia points. He had many friends in Newcastle who will learn with regret of his passing.

MISS SUSIE MURPHY
Friends in Newcastle were shocked to hear of the death of Miss Susie Murphy, which occurred very suddenly in Hallowell, Maine, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Nov. 28th. Miss Murphy had gone to her work as usual to the office of H. P. Clearwater Co., where she suffered an ill fit. A physician was summoned and she was placed in an ambulance but died on the way to Augusta General Hospital. Death was due to heart failure, following incipient pneumonia. Deceased who has been away from Newcastle for the past six or seven years, was very popular here as well as in Hallowell, and here will be many who will deeply regret her death at the early age of twenty-seven years.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Murphy, five sisters, Mrs. A. R. Keelec, Quebec, Cecilia, Florence, Delphine, and Josephine at home, and two brothers, Walter at home and Frank of Priest River, Idaho. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family in their great loss.

The remains, accompanied by Miss Hannah MacDonnell, of Gardiner, arrived on the Maritime Thursday night and the funeral was held at 8.45 o'clock Saturday morning, December 2nd.

We would esteem it a favor if our subscribers would notice the date of their subscription on their paper and if in arrears to kindly forward us the amount due.

ADENOIDS

Having passed through "Cancer Week" there is another vital health subject to which a week might also be dedicated. We hear some troubled parent talk about "this new disease, adenoids." It is just as well for us to know that adenoids are neither new nor a disease. Provided the adenoid tissue is normal as to its condition there is nothing to be disturbed about and it will help the child's health instead of harming it.

Right up in the back of the throat, well out of sight, every child has normally some adenoid tissue. It is there for the purpose of filtering impurities out of the air as the nose breathes it in. When this little cushion of tissue becomes diseased it grows abnormally large and obstructs proper nasal breathing. Then it is that we say the child "has adenoids" and if the obstruction is at all bad the chances are that a slight operation is necessary to clear away the growth.

The same condition that produces enlargement of adenoid tissue often works in the same way at the same time on the tonsils. So it is a very common thing for a child with "adenoids" to suffer also with enlarged tonsils.

When these conditions, shut off nasal breathing the child becomes a "mouth breather." This is bad because air breathed in by the mouth reaches the throat and lungs in a raw state. It is not warmed to proper temperature in cold weather, it has not had impurities sifted from it, and it has not been moistened. A child breathing after that fashion soon develops nasal catarrh, becomes pale, narrow-chested and puny, has a disagreeable voice, pinched facial expression, dropped jaw, protruding upper lip and teeth, defective hearing and becomes dull in school. These symptoms, fortunately, do not all appear in the same child and it depends upon the degree of obstruction as to how many of them will come, but the adenoid child will be sure to have some of them.

Adenoids may be suspected in a child who sleeps habitually with open mouth, snores, has much difficulty with throat and nose, is always taking cold or is affected with "snuffles."

We know of no medical treatment that will materially benefit a child with adenoids sufficiently enlarged to be an obstruction. If left alone they may eventually shrivel away, but meantime the child will suffer seriously in development and may become deaf. The operation for removal of adenoid tissue is very simple but should always be done with every precaution and by one having special skill. Under such conditions it is a very simple and safe operation.

CHANGES IN THE FISHERIES ACT

As the result of recommendations made at a conference of fishery officers and experts of the Maritime provinces, held last September in Shediac, new regulations have been put in force by the government of Ottawa. These regulations provide that the mesh of salmon gill nets shall not be less than five inches extension measure when in use, also that after the fishing season of 1924 the mesh of such gill nets and the mesh of the leader of traps shall not be less than six inches, extension measure, when in use.

It is further provided that the number of salmon that can be taken by one angler in any one week shall not exceed thirty.

Smelt grill nets and bag nets shall have a mesh of not less than one and one quarter inches extension measure, when in use. Smelt bag netting shall be permissible in the Bale Verte and Port Elgin rivers from Nov. 1 each year to Jan. 15 following, both days inclusive. The general smelt fishing season opened last Friday

BROADCASTING FOR MOOSE IN NOVA SCOTIA

Calling the Moose in the Early Morning.

"O-OU-OU-OU - OU-ERAKI
Ou-ou-ou-ou-ou-eraki Ugh!

Louie Harlow, Micmac Indian guide, stood up in the stern of the canoe with a birch bark horn pressed to his lips and sprayed the wilderness with this uncanny cry.

"Ou-ou-ou-ou-ou-eraki! Ou-ou-ou-ou-ou-eraki!" was the perfectly simulated call of a cow moose. "Ugh! Ugh!" was the imitation of the grunt of a little bull, and the combination was designed to fool a big male and cause him to appear without unnecessary delay.

Long before the radio was heard of, Nova Scotia guides were broadcasting a moose love song with intent to lure the lordly moose within range of the hunter's rifle. Louie Harlow, of South Milford, N.S., is the wizard of this wilderness wireless, and he uses no complicated apparatus. He cuts a likely scroll of bark from a white birch, rolls it into megaphone form, length about a foot, and then sews it together with a strong and slender spruce root resembling cat-gut. No seamstress could do better. There are smooth loops at intervals, the whole length on the outside of the horn. Every knot is tied inside, even at the small end.

"How do I do it?" says Louie. "I ain't sure. Nobody else knows how."

These guiding lugs their narrow tracks through the snow-covered woods to the moose. They have kill or lured to the rifle more moose than any other guide in Nova Scotia. Louie is a half-breed Micmac and opines that his other half is Scotch. He was born at Bear River on the Indian reservation, and has worked as a guide under A. D. Thomas of South Milford for 23 years. Swarthy of complexion, with a black moustache and straight black hair, he resembles an Indian less than his own son, but is master of Indian woodcraft. He can hear a moose moving in the woods when his companions hear nothing, and is the first to sight a moose or deer swimming the lake or standing on the shore. "A moose in ten days, or less" is Louie Harlow's motto, and it is said that he has never yet disappointed a sportsman who can shoot. Louie's siren song will fool the wisest old bull in the woods, but when he comes within range the hunter must do the rest.

Five of the most popular sporting writers of the United States this autumn spent ten days with Harlow and his brother guides in Nova Scotia. They had been reporting the world's most beautiful game, and welcomed the guide of the woods and the fact it brought. They were sure to the woods, but they came out with a fair share of sports heads, and proved the old story that they

Although there is a vast area of beautiful country in Nova Scotia along the western and southern shores, particularly including the famous Land of Evangeline, the interior is the moose hunter's paradise. There are miles upon miles of lakes, rivers, and forests well populated by moose, deer, bear, and smaller animals. A favorite approach to this region is through South Milford, easily reached via Annapolis Royal, N.S., by way of Boston and Yarmouth, N.S., or St. John, N.B., and Digby, N.S. The ride from Digby and Annapolis Royal on the Dominion Atlantic Railway to South Milford is by automobile, and from South Milford, the hunter or fisherman, with a few portages, can paddle in a canoe three-quarters of the way across Nova Scotia to the Atlantic Ocean. The moose season lasts from October 1 to November 15, starting with arrows calling and ending with still hunting. A day's ride, among these such celebrities as Louie Harlow and Bill Gibe, and a

Eclipses For 1923

Four eclipses will grace the year 1923—two of the moon and two of the sun. An annular eclipse of the sun, March 17, invisible in Maine need not specially concern us, but the three others are more or less visible to our people. A partial eclipse of the moon March 2 can be seen here and in most of this part of the world well indeed. The middle of the eclipse will be about 10.30 p.m. but the shadow will not much more than cover a third of the face of "the man in the moon."
Another partial eclipse of the moon
August 26, will also both be visible here. The middle of the eclipse occurs about 5.40 a.m. In this case the earth's shadow covers only a sixth of the moon's surface. A total eclipse of the sun, September 10, will be visible in this region as a partial eclipse.
It will begin at 3.43 p.m. ending at 5.20 p.m. The portion of the sun's surface apparently covered by the moon will be a little more than a third. The path of the total phase of this eclipse begins in the Pacific south of Kamchatka, and crosses the Pacific ocean and Central America, ending its length of over 8,000 miles in the Carribe-an Sea. The width of the path of totality will vary from 45 to nearly 80 miles.

A Woman's Right To Good Health

It Can be Her's if She Keeps
Her Blood in Good Condition.

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy active life. Yet nine out of ten suffer, often in silence from splitting headaches, torturing backaches or some other of the many evils that follow anaemia or bloodlessness.

That is why one sees so many women with pale, thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figure—all signs that the blood is out of order. These women should win the right to be well by refreshing their bodies with the new, rich blood of health that so promptly transforms them into healthy, attractive women.

There is no other medicine can supply this rich, red blood so speedily and so surely as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Through this medicine thousands of tired, suffering women have found new health. For example, Mrs.
F. Lane, Paris, Ont., says:—"A few years ago I was in a badly run down condition. My appetite was poor, I fell off in weight, and could with difficulty do my housework. Nothing I took seemed to do me any good until a neighbor advised me to try Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills. I had only taken a few boxes of the pills when I began to feel stronger and I continued using them until I had taken ten boxes, when I felt as well as ever I did, and had regained my lost weight. My husband and children have also used the pills with good results, and I would advise anyone who is rundown to give them a fair trial."

These pills are sold by all medicine dealers or will be sent by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Bill Sharon To Go On Auction Block

Much surprise is being occasioned by comment appearing in some of the New York and Boston newspapers regarding Bill Sharon, 2.04%, the Fredericton bred trotter, whose sale at $28,000 in Canadian funds two years ago to Thomas W. Murphy, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., wizard driver of the grand circuit, made him the highest priced trotter ever bred in Canada.
After reducing the record for Canadian bred trotters to 2.04% during the past season, he is now to be sold, and what he will bring on the auction block at the Old Glory sale in New York on Thursday is just now a matter of much speculation amongst horsemen. Locally the opinion seems to be that the chestnut's value has been chopped about in two by the fact that since he was sold he has been gelded. If he were still a stallion horsemen in Maritime Provinces would be willing to bid high for him, as his reputation is still undiminished in these parts.

One of the most surprising statements by turf writers recently about the chestnut is "Bill requires man handling of the severe sort at times, or at least has in the past."

Nothing was ever further from the truth, according to his breeder, S.J.
Boyle, of Fredericton, and his original trainer, Bill Sharen, after whom he was named.

"That kind of treatment and the disposition not to race him out in front, are we believe, the reasons Bill Sharon is not now listed among the two minute trotters," said one who knows as much as anybody about the horse.

WILL NEED TRAINING

Horsemen will find it hard to teach their steeds to turn to the right. The animals don't read the newspapers or road-signs, and will persist in keeping to the left if left to their own guidance.

A. Bonar Law And Lord Beaverbrook

A curious relationship between Bonnar Law and Lord Beaverbrook has been revealed, and which might go far to explain the intimate friendship between the two in British politics.
It is pointed out by T. M. Fraser in Saturday Night, Toronto, that the fathers of these two celebrities in British politics were intimate friends in New Brunswick.

"About the same time as Rev. Jas.
Law came to Canada," says Mr. Fraser, "there came another Presbyterian clergyman, whose circumstances and experiences were almost a duplicate of those of the father of Bonar Law. This was the Rev. William Aitken, who settled a little farther north in the Miramichi district of New Brunswick, but who was a neighbor, as neighbors went in that country of great empty spaces.

The two clergymen were bosom friends. Rev. William Aitken had a large family, one of whom was William Maxwell Aitken, now Lord Beaverbrook. When, after a spectacular career in Canada, in which, as a company promoter and financier, he laid the foundations of a large fortune, Max Aitken went to Great Britain in search of other worlds to conquer, what more natural that he should look up the son of his father's old friend, with whom the family had never wholly lost touch?

The subsequent career of these two sons of Presbyterian manes in the New Brunswick backwoods, which landed one in the peerage after a spectacular career as the "Bunty" who pulled the strings to make the Lloyd George government, and the other in the Prime Ministership of Great Britain, is current history.

BILL SHARON SOLD FOR $900.

New York, Nov. 30—The Canadian trotter Bill Sharon went under the hammer today at the Old Glory sales here and was sold for $900. He was bought by Dr. Edwin P. Farley, Ky.
The total horses sold today were 101
the aggregate price being $66,220.
Twenty one of them brought $1,000 or more. Walter Cox the famous trainer paid the high price of the day when he bought Peter Earl (2.04 1/2)
for $8,100.

Bill Sharon was bred in Fredericton by S. J. Boyle and with a mark of 2.04 1/2 is the fastest Canadian bred trotter. Mr. Boyle sold the horse to A. Alcorn of Blackville who with his business partner F. M. Murchie of St. Stephen sold him to Thomas W.
Murphy of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., several years ago for $25,000 in American funds then $28,000 in Canadian currency. On the grand circuit the horse failed.

BETTER ROADS
About 2 inches of snow fell yesterday, and as a consequence the roads are in a much better condition for travelling. People from outlying districts will now be able to come to town and business will be much better for the merchants. Before the fall of snow the roads were so icy that it was very dangerous for motors or horse drawn vehicles.

AT OPERA HOUSE
Next Monday "Excuse Me," will be presented in the Opera House by the Young Peoples Club of the Methodist Church. It is a musical comedy and one of the funniest musical plays ever produced by amateurs. An evening full of fun and frolic with all the season's latest song hits is in store for the large audience which is expected and arranged for. An exceptionally good orchestra has been rehearsing for some time, and a chorus of forty voices will be heard. The price of admission for any seat in the house is, Adults 50 cents, and Children 35 cents.

A KINDLY ACT
Word has been received from Mr. J. D. O'Connell, the Orphan's Friend that he has made provision for a yearly treat for the children of Newcastle. It will be remembered that Mr. O'Connell gave a Children's Picnic last summer at Renous, and he has now made it possible that the children of Newcastle will each year be given a treat, through the revenue derived from an amount of money, which he has contributed especially for that purpose. This kind act of Mr. O'Connell's will be much appreciated by the citizenship of Newcastle.

A NARROW ESCAPE
An automobile driven by Mr. Henry Way, of Wayerton, and occupied by other members of Mr. Edward Way's family, while coming into town yesterday morning, had a miraculous escape from a serious accident, at the C.N. Railway crossing near St. Mary's Church. The road leading into town which is a steep decline, was so icy that it was impossible to hold the car with the brakes, and the local train from Campbellton was just coming in over the crossing. A number of horses were on the side of the road, which made it impossible for Mr. Way to drive into the ditch. However he was successful in getting the car stopped just four feet from the railway track while the train was pulling past them into the station. The occupants doubtless would have been seriously injured, if not killed had the automobile not been brought to a standstill within such a short distance of the train.

OCEAN LIMITED DELAYED BY MINOR ACCIDENT
The Ocean Limited from Halifax on Sunday was two hours late in reaching here. The delay was due to the breaking of one of the engine's driving rods at Wellington, a point about 18 miles from Halifax and it was necessary to despatch an engine from Truro to bring the delayed train in. Attached to the Limited were three extra mail cars which contained overseas mails for Western points ex the S.S. Regina.

BADLY BURNED
Little Morrissey Doran, the four-year-old son of Deputy Sheriff Arthur and Mrs. Doran, was badly burned on Thursday morning. The little chap was in one of the bed-rooms, and it is supposed he lighted a match and accidentally set fire to himself, as he ran out to his mother with his clothes in a mass of flames. Mrs. Doran quickly tore the clothes off the child, but not before he was badly burned.

STANDARDIZATION OF HOSPITALS PLANNED
Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 1—Standardization of hospitals throughout Canada in conformity with a plan adopted by many of the hospitals in this country and the United States is being urged by the Dominion Council of Health. This proposal provides for inspection of hospitals by a committee of the American College of Surgeons, in which Canadian doctors are largely represented and for the maintenance of a standard of efficiency.
