CHICKENS GO BACK TO OWNERS BUT MAGISTRATE RELEASES THE TWO MEN CHARGED

No Evidence to Convict the Two Foreigners With Theft of Plymouth Rocks and Rooster—Footprints in the Snow Showed Where They Were.

Charged with stealing nine Plymouth Rock hens, the property of Walter Bray, John Lohovicia and Nick Schwarz appeared in police court yesterday afternoon. They pleaded "not guilty" through their counsel, Clarence McCarron.

The men were traced to their home at Merritt by footprints in the snow, which led to their place of abode. The chickens were there, together with others.

Mr. Bray said he missed the chickens that morning at day-break.

There was a peculiarity about the footprints, which led from the henhouse to the Merritt house.

To Mr. McCarron he admitted there were nineteen Plymouth Rocks in all but his own nine were larger and he had no trouble picking them out.

Fred Caxton, Mr. Bray's partner, gave similar evidence, which concluded the evidence.

The magistrate ruled that there was no evidence against the two men.

Mr. Brennan admitted that their boots should have been examined and asked that an adjournment be made as there was a charge also in connection with a Black Giant rooster, belonging to Wm. Saxton.

The magistrate dismissed the case, but ordered the fowl returned, including the rooster which Saxton identified.

Local Concern Turns Down a $10,000 Order

Evidently there is no surplus of labor in St. Catharines. The Journal has learned on the best of authority that a St. Catharines factory, a branch of an American concern, this week turned down a ten thousand dollar order. The man who had the order to offer is the Journal's informant, and he says the excuse given was that the plant was short-handed and they would have to put in some new equipment in order to turn out the goods wanted.

Brotherhood to Fight Prices

300,000 Members Will Buy Tailored Clothing at Cost Through Agreement With Manufacturers—30 Per Cent. Saving.

DETROIT, Feb. 7.—Another gigantic drive against the high cost of living has been launched by the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers—a plan through which the over three hundred thousand members are buying tailored clothing practically at cost.

Announcement of the plan was made at the brotherhood's national headquarters here by O. C. Trask, assistant grand president, and heads of the industrial department.

"For several months we have been at work on a proposition to reduce the cost of clothing," said Mr. Trask "and we have now put in operation a plan by which our members can buy first quality, made-to-measure suits for at least thirty per cent. below the fair market price, and with an over saving in many instances."

"We have made arrangements with one of the largest tailoring concerns in the country to make suits for us. Our men deal through various agents of the concern, the agent receiving five dollars for his trouble, expressage, etc. Save for this fee the purchaser gets his suit at cost. We know just what kind of a deal the manufacturer is giving us for we audit his books."

Bandits Miss Diamond Hoard

Youthful Chicago Gunmen Get $1,500 Worth of Jewelry in Daylight Raid in Loop District—Overlook $20,000 Worth.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Somewhere in the dark corners of Chicago two bandits are probably kicking themselves, or what is more likely, kicking some defenseless woman or aged man because they overlooked a big bet here today.

They entered the jewelry offices in room number 704 of the Hepworth Building, in the heart of the city, held revolvers to the heads of the proprietors and made off with rings, small diamonds and other jewelry to the value of fifteen hundred dollars. In the vault where the bandits backed the proprietors within easy reach, were diamonds and unset rings worth twenty thousand dollars, and these the robbers overlooked entirely.

They took from the finger of one of their victims a diamond valued at $500, gave a final flourish of their revolvers in the face of their victims and ran down seven flights of stairs to the street. The thieves are described as youthful dope fiends. The hands of both were trembling violently and they had the nasty pallor of dope.

That the many light gray divy and peachbloom suits worn on Fifth avenue by smartly dressed women during the past week, bring up the question as to whether this color is a fall vogue will last throughout the spring season, replacing perhaps the tan and twine shades.

HUGH M. BELL ASSUMES MANAGEMENT OF THE CAMPAIGN HERE

Owing to the unfortunate illness of Mr. Robert Crosby, the campaign director of the Canadian City Bureau scheduled to be here today the management of the campaign has been assumed by Hugh M. Bell, the secretary of the Bureau. Crosby fell ill on his way here and is now in the Mount St. Mary's Hospital, Niagara Falls, with a slight attack of flu.

James Eestree, a prominent lecturer, with an Oxford training, and considerable experience of social and welfare work, now on the staff of the Bureau as an assistant director of campaigns, will arrive here on Sunday to assist Bell. The Bureau has been hit hard during the recent flu spell by sickness on the part of their field staff.

Esteemed before coming with the Bureau was with the John Wamamaker Company as an educator and lecturer on welfare subjects. He has also given considerable of his life to the problems of city growth and planning, and has a reputation as a lecturer that is likely to make him attractive to local gatherings.

A meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade is being held on Monday night at 7:30 prompt to discuss some matters regarding the campaign. This meeting will be held in the Chamber of Commerce headquarters in the new Union Bank Building. A big announcement of great interest to the community will be made in a few days.

The local friendly societies and clubs are being asked to take a part in this big city-wide get-together movement. Every organization in town, no matter what it represents, is likely to find that this field of civic commercial work has an interest that cannot be ignored. It is a movement whose force and character lies in development of civic consciousness.

Wife to Work For Husband's Defense Fund

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Bernard J. Donovan, will be the star witness for her husband who slew Henry T. Swegman, who had discharged Donovan three years ago for crooked work and refused to give him a recommendation. It is also pointed out that Swegman frequently called Mrs. Donovan over the telephone and urged her to get away from Donovan.

That a woman never "sees anything in" the man her sister marries. That the vogue for broadtail, not only as a trimming, but for entire suits is signified by Fifth avenue womenfolk.

Big Horse Was Ready to Run When Bolt Fell

This afternoon what would have proved a very serious runaway no doubt, was narrowly averted. As a farmer's sleigh was passing along at the corner of St. Paul and James streets, the king bolt fell out, allowing the shafts to drop down. The startled horse was just ready to make a bolt when some men seized his head. He was a big powerful horse and if he had got started the results might have been pretty serious on the busy thoroughfare.

Butcher Boy in Rose Romance Will and "Mona"

Sweetheart of Defaulting Cashier Goes to Winnipeg to Help Her Fight Against Extradition.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Romance and nemesis raced from Chicago to Winnipeg, where Rose Schweiburg, alias "Monda Rose" has fallen into the clutches of the law. Nemesis is represented in the person of Frederick Biehl of the firm of Biehl & Sifferman, while romance is depicted by Harry Berger, a butcher boy.

While Rosa Schwedburg was busy counting up her cash, making entries in her double entry ledger—and failing to make about $60,000 worth of entries, according to her employers—way down on the south side, Harry Berger, clothed in white butcher's apron, was occupied in dealing calves' liver and sausage across the counter.

Then after Rose closed her books and locked the front door of the harness factory, she hiked to her costly apartment on the north side and became "Monda Rose," chic equestrienne, accomplished dancer, linguist, daring automobile driver, lavish entertainer.

Harry, for his part, emerged from his ten-dollar-a-week room, having exchanged his butcher apron for swell imported English clothing and costly jewelry. Harry with his knife-edged trousers, yellow gloves and diamonds, would shortly thereafter appear at the apartment of "Monda Rose" and they would repair to some swell hotel to dine.

It was all very fine while it lasted. Now Rose is fighting extradition in Canada and Harry is chopping steaks and rib roasts at the south-side butcher shop again. He claims his riding outfit was second hand, and that he paid but eighty-five dollars for his riding horse. He also insists that Miss Monda Rose was merely a friend, and that he had no intentions of marrying her. At the same time there arrived for him a telegram from the girl, dated Winnipeg, and conveying this information:

"Arrived safe, will write later. Rose."

The girl has been indicted on a charge of embezzlement.

Arbitration Board On Wages of Men Will Make Report

The Board of Arbitration which considered the wage question of the men of the N. S. & T. R., has completed that taking of evidence, and will submit a report to Ottawa, from where it will be announced shortly, it is expected.

That grey and cafe au lait suede shoes with cut steel buckles and worn with hose of same shade will be Palm Beach's smartest footwear this season, and most women appear to find the short vamp French shoe too unbecoming.

UNION LODGE I. O. O. F. NO 16 HONOR THE MEN WHO FOUGHT FOR IT OVERSEAS

Pleasant Gathering Last Night Brought Together a Jovial Company of About 300—Inspiring Addresses Given—Good Words For Dead Heroes.

Union Lodge No. 16, I.O.O.F. last night entertained its returned men at a banquet in the hall on Queen street. It was an exceedingly happy gathering bringing together about three hundred members and guests.

The handsomely appointed hall set off the gathering very attractively. Caterer John Grant put up a splendid repast—in fact there were so many good things that many of the guests could not attend to all the courses on the menu.

The men honored were:— "Gr. John M. Addie, Pte. Fred W. Allen, Capt. Robert N. Adie, Pte. Edgar J. Blanshard, Lieut. Arthur F. M. Briggs, George Budd, George Lee Barley, James W. Boyce, Percy A. Bradshaw, Walter L. Carnie, Ellis Coates, xJohn Clark, William John Day, Corp. I. M. Eckhart, Band Sergt. W. J. Holden, Lt. Alfred H. Hubbard, Maj. Thomas Frank Jackson, Lt. John Howard Jarvis, Maj. Edwin J. Lovelace, Lt.-Col. W. H. Merritt, xCapt. W. W. Moors, Aubrey P. Morley, Lt.-Col. F. C. McCordick, xCapt. A. Frank McKinley, xArthur Parkhouse, Capt. Rev. A. H. Priest, James Dakers Low, John B. McKenzie, Capt. Len F. White M.C., Capt. C. D. Dawson, George T. Weston, Robert Kemode, Isidore Clavel, Joseph Milliken, Robert Dick, Howard Hudson, Norman E. Edwards, George N. Comb, Alex. S. Law, W. F. Moore, Richard Caward, Hy. P. C. Steidman, W. W. Helems, Allan Grass, Ernest Grass, J. C. R. Stanton, Edward McGovern, Harry Edmonston, Joseph Green, Dan G. Gilchrist, Albert Hais, Thomas McLanahan, xArthur E. Widdicombe, James W. Dakers, George M. Williams, Herbert E. Viney, Charles Doherty, James H. Buchanan, Thomas Mackay, Corbie D. Daniels, Alan J. S. Norman, Percy R. Spearman, F. Carl Schmidt, Richard D. Gallabher, Russel E. Boreham, Harold McGeachie, Henry A. Peirce, George W. Gillingham, Stanley Charlson, Walter D. Peterson, Malcolm McSparran, William Roy Hodgins, Andrew G. Shaw, xKilled in action. *Died of wounds.

Rev. Canon Broughall made a good presiding officer and in welcoming the gathering he said the members of Union Lodge who had fought and died had brought lasting honor to the Lodge and the Order. It would be a tremendous pity for our souls and our morality, said Canon Broughall, if we did not remember the great sacrifice our men freely made and the hardships they endured fighting off. He thought it well from time night entertained its returned men at a banquet in the hall on Queen street. It was an exceedingly happy gathering bringing together about three hundred members and guests.

If we maintain our idealism in peace as we had done in the war we felt that much friction and strife in life would be overcome.

Canon Broughall paid a fine tribute to the men who will not return, the great cloud of witnesses looking down and watching us to see how we are bearing ourselves.

The orchestra played a selection and then Lt.-Col. W. H. Merritt proposed "Our Empire," taking advantage of the opportunity to mention how the comforts sent to the boys at the front were a cheering element which helped to keep up their spirits on the dark days. There were dark days over there and it was perhaps the optimism of the men all knowing that it would come out all right that kept them going.

Dr. Merritt said the silken cords binding together the British Empire had been so sternly tried and have held, which seems absolute evidence that the British Empire is something which should be and always be an influence for the good of mankind.

The British Empire has made its mistakes but its benefits have been so many and so far outweigh the other that they are a negligible quantity. Some criticize our occupation of India, but consider the benefits we have given to that country in return India rendered great assistance in the great war. Egypt was another example of the splendid results of British occupation.

In summing up his remarks Colonel Merritt said Great Britain set up a standard of principles and has lived up to them—hence her brilliant and glorious success.

Capt. Rev. A. H. Priest in responding spoke of Britain's success in colonizing, instilling the spirit of old England in the lands across the sea she developed. Britain learned a lesson in the American War of Independence on how to treat her colonies—a lesson she never forgot, most outstandingly emphasized in the case of South Africa.

The bands which join our Empire are light as air, but strong as steel. The Germans were fooled. When the Empire was threatened the rush of her children to her aid was a revelation to the whole world.

Captain Priest said the men who went overseas got a broader outlook with regard to Canada and the Empire (Continued on page 2).

Benjamin Gitlow, Former Assemblyman and Editor Revolutionary Age, Convicted Criminal Anarchy by Supreme Court Jury

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Benjamin Gitlow, former Bronx assemblyman, was found guilty of criminal anarchy by a jury in the criminal branch of the state supreme court here yesterday afternoon. The jury was out two-and-one-half hours.

Gitlow was remanded to jail until February 11th for sentence. The law provides a maximum penalty of from five to ten years in state prison. He was indicted with James Larkin, Irish labor agitator.

Clarence S. Darrow of Chicago, Gitlow's counsel, indicated that an appeal would be asked, taking exception to many of the comments of the court to the jury during the charge. Darrow objected particularly to some of the definitions of Justice Weeks, including those of the words advocat, proletariat, bourgeoisie, manifest and expropriate, which recurred throughout the trial.

It took twelve days to complete the trial, seven in selecting the jurors, three in presenting the evidence and two in summing up and charging the Gitlow was arrested in a raid on Communist quarters here last November. He was charged with criminal anarchy in connection with reproduction of the Communist party manifesto in the Revolutionary Age, an extremist newspaper with which he was connected.

In a two-hours' charge to the jury, Justice Weeks stated that evidence had been produced to show that Gitlow paid for printing of the issue of the paper in which the manifesto was published, and that the defence had conceded that Gitlow was responsible for the publication. The test must come whether or not the manifesto came under the criminal anarchy statute in that an advocated overthrow of the Government by force, violence or unlawful means, he said, adding that the words in the manifesto must be read "with their ordinary meaning."

Gitlow, who is twenty-nine years old, said he was a clothing cutter until he became manager of the Revolutionary Age last June.

...N LODGE HONOR MEN... (Continued from page 1) ...and of other peoples, by rubbing shoulders with all conditions of men. Cook's sons, duke's sons, sons of a hundred earls, we will not lose and it will give us the impetus to do our duty as members of the British Empire.

...Mr. Sam Richardson sang "Dear Old Pal of Mine." "Our Lodge and Order" was proposed by Noble Grand F. E. Carly. He spoke of the steady progress of Union Lodge. Last year over a hundred new members were taken in.

...D. N. Walker, veteran oddfellow and veteran citizen and good fellow made a happy response. He said outside of the church oddfellowship is one of the best institutions they have in the country to-day. He didn't think there was a better class of men and he was not ashamed of Union Lodge representatives of oddfellowship.

...Mr. Walker made a special kindly reference to the late Captain Frank McKinley, one of the finest fellows who ever lived. Bro. A. C. Ferguson sang a solo after which Lt.-Col. F. C. McCordick proposed "Our Guests."

...Major Frank Jackson responded. Not being a speaker he used his time telling stories which he did very well. Bro. Stanley Switzer sang a song after which Mayor Lovelace responded to "Our City."

...Captain Lovelace added his word of appreciation of what Union Lodge did for the men fighting in France and in the other theatres of the war. St. Catharines generally did noble work for the boys over there. In his unit he had men from every province, but no men were so well remembered by the folks at home as were the St. Catharines men.

...The affairs of a city are quite as important as those of an Empire, said the Mayor, because it is in our city we began to build for empire. The people of St. Catharines are especially favored. Nature has favored us greatly and he believed that the administrators of the city had done much to make the lot of our citizens just a little better than those of other places.

...There were improvements needed, it is true. Our street railway service required extension and development. There are other things needed. He believed the city had selected a good set of aldermen all actuated by the business idea and inspired by a sense of duty to the city.

...Stanley Ker sang and after Messrs. Wilson and W. A. E. Moyer had responded to "The Press," the exceedingly pleasant affair closed with "Auld Lang Syne," the hour being then about midnight.

How to Treat Stomach Trouble

A Tonic Medicine is Needed to Build Up the Digestive Organs.

The old-fashioned methods of treating stomach diseases are being discarded. The trouble with the old-fashioned method was that when the treatment was stopped the trouble returned in an aggravated form. The modern method of treating indigestion and other forms of stomach trouble is to tone up the stomach and glands to their normal work. Every step toward recovery is a step gained not to be lost again. The recovery of the appetite, then disappearance of pain after eating, the absence of gas, are steps on the road to health that those who have tried the tonic treatment remember distinctly. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic every constituent of which is helpful in building up the digestive organs, and therefore the very best remedy for simple or chronic cases of stomach trouble. The success of the treatment is best shown by hundreds of cases like the following. Mrs. Chas. Comer, Picton, Ont., says: "For upwards of two years I was a great sufferer from indigestion. Food would ferment in my stomach, and I would belch gas with a burning sensation. Often I would be troubled with nausea, sick headache and dizziness. Notwithstanding that I was under medical treatment the trouble grew so bad, that I would only eat when absolutely forced to, and I was in constant misery. I was finally advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and had only been using them a few weeks when I found they were helping me. I very gladly continued their use and the result was that they have made me a well woman, every vestige of the trouble having disappeared. I am so grateful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me that I strongly advise any who may be suffering from stomach trouble to give them a fair trial, and I believe that, like myself they will find a sure cure."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company Brockville, Ont.

COLLEGIATE TEST EXAMINATIONS

The results of the January test examinations at the Collegiate Institute are given below. Owing to the small-pox and vaccination troubles chiefly, a large number of pupils were unable to take the examinations. This fact will not count against them on their mid-summer examinations if they are able to cover the work which they were compelled to miss during their absence from the school. Industrious habits, particularly with respect to the school work, are most desirable, and the principal and staff will appreciate the help of the parents in keeping the pupils' minds centred on school work during school days. The minds of the people should be occupied with school work. The school age will soon be gone. Let us have reasonable diversion, but lots of attention to school work.

In Class 1 names represent the order of merit. Class 2 contains the names of those who were not graded owing to absence from all or part of the examinations.

"Go Teach All Nations Beginning at Jerusalem"

"WHAT'S it," says a critic, "beginning at Jerusalem! You should correct paganism at home before going abroad to look for it. I do not believe in Foreign Missions."

Yet Jerusalem was not Christianized when the Apostles went to Antioch; when Philip was sent to the Ethiopians.

The Need of Africa Africa was first explored by a Missionary who lies in Westminster Abbey, honored by all nations. David Livingstone was succeeded by other devoted men, who gave themselves unreservedly to the people of the Dark Continent. Triumphant success in some districts—Uganda for instance—is balanced by dull failure in others. Yet the general prospect is encouraging. Through Congolese Missions in that land, men are raised out of slavery, women are civilized, children are cared for and educated.

The Missions Established Five Christian Communions in Canada—Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian—have an extensive mission work abroad. They have sent overseas many devoted men and women. By their work, barriers have been broken down and in every land there is an eager call for more missions, more teachers, more doctors, more hospitals. Now, owing to the declining value of the dollar, it is necessary to double the expenditure in order even to hold the ground won. Until that is done, an advanced Missionary programme can not be undertaken.

Mass Movements in India India is our brother-land, a loyal British dependency. Illiteracy is the rule. Caste imprisons the people and stifles all ambition. British administration has taught the folk the value of peace. English-speaking Missionaries from Canada are teaching them the value of education and the power of the Name which is above every name. Great masses of the people are asking for baptism, but there are not enough Missionaries to teach them.

A Mandate for Expansion

All men, who think honestly realize that the Gospel of Christ is unique in moral splendor, in spiritual force, in civilizing influence. It redeems the individual and exalts the nation. It has made the modern world of thought, of industry, of progress. It must go out over all the earth to ease international relationships, to put an end to cruelty and misery. There is free entry for the Gospel in every nation under Heaven. Lift up your heads, O ye Gates of India, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting Doors of China and Japan and Africa, and the King of Glory shall come in.

The Chance in China China is attempting to develop a democratic spirit before the nation is prepared for it. Many of the leaders got their first glimpse of true liberty in Christian Mission Schools. Now they talk of establishing one million Government primary schools. They look to Canadian Missionaries for help in the establishment of normal courses. Was ever such an opportunity before the Church—to help influence the school teachers of a great, new nation of four hundred million people?

The Call to Action

Canadians, Churchmen or non-Churchmen, you met the charges of the war with cheerfulness, since it was waged to establish righteousness in the earth. Now hear the call of the Churches for adequate means to continue by peaceful suasion the work which for four years was done by batteries and bayonets. Your Church appeals directly to you, civilized and educated by Foreign Missions of an ancient time, to meet your obligation to that same Great Cause today.

The Need of the World Japan, Formosa, Korea, the South Sea Islands, South America, and not least, the pagans in our own land, need the Gospel. The Missionary is welcomed in all lands. Men everywhere appreciate the spirit of those Canadians who forget themselves in order to serve the suffering and the weary. Idealism in action counts.

Lace Making In China

CHINESE women seemed to have had very good taste for fancy work even in very early times. Before they knew what laces were they began to make them, though not so fine and beautiful as those of to-day.

As every other thing progressed so did the art of lace-making. Finer and finer ones appeared, the best known of which were the Med-zz and Mu-li laces, named after their designers.

About twenty-five years ago in the city of Chefoo the starting of girls' school was established by a foreign missionary. It was in this little school that the art of hand-made lace was first taught to the Chinese by foreigners.

Hospital for Sick Children TORONTO

Upkeep of Big Charity Requires Fifty Cents a Minute.

Dear Mr. Editor:

The 44th annual report of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, shows a notable advance in every department of its service to the suffering and crippled youngsters of this province.

The daily average of out patients has increased during the year from 192 to 233, including children from practically every county in Ontario. Even had the cost of supplies and labor remained stationary, the substantial increase in the number of patients would alone account for the addition to the charity's debt.

The Hospital is in the forefront of all institutions upon this continent devoted to the care of sick children. It cost $335,339 to maintain last year. This great sum not only puts the service of the children of Ontario all the resources of medical science, but, in addition, provides for a training school for 120 nurses and for unsurpassed clinical facilities for the University students who are preparing to engage in their profession throughout the province.

The income which must be forthcoming to finance this absolutely essential work figures out at seven hundred dollars a day, and as there is no endowment fund, all but a fraction of that amount has to be derived from individual benevolence.

For churches, societies, lodges, etc., who have more ample funds wherewith to assist the youngsters to a fair start in life, the naming of coats is suggested. A number of memorial coats have been thus dedicated in honor of the overseas service of fellow-members.

Literature, illustrative of all branches of the past year's work, together with any other information desired, will be gladly furnished on application to the Secretary, the Hospital for Sick Children, College Street, Toronto.

The quite unethical performances of a small herd of goats at Fox Hills, on Staten Island, last fall, when they ate three of the balls in a foursome, has prompted other "animal" stories to go the rounds in the world of golf.

A correspondent to a British golfing paper avers he was present when several hard-to-believe catastrophes in golf occurred. Several years ago on the North Surrey course at Norbury a rook carried off a ball and lighted on a big tree close by. It was only by throwing stones at the rook that the ball was returned to the game.

USED BARBED WIRE TO MAKE FARM TOOLS

But Refugee Peasants Were Unable to Loosen the Earth Tramped by Soldiers.

Lack of even the crudest agricultural implements was one of the serious problems which confronted the refugee peasant of Ukraine when he crept back to his war-devastated lands. How he solved the problem was interestingly explained by Jacob Bashein, who has just returned from abroad following months of activity in the stricken region as head of Relief Unit No. 14 of the Joint Distribution Committee. The committee is the sole agency handling the funds collected by the Canadian Jewish War Relief Committee and other Jewish organizations for war sufferers. Not only was the country swept clean of its grain fields, herds of cattle and farming implements, said Mr. Bashein, but there were no materials available for manufacturing any sort of implements. In the heaps of coiled and rusted barbed wire scattered over the country when wire entanglements were abandoned, the farmer saw the raw products from which to make himself a tool for farming. With stones he laboriously battered the barbs from the wire and, notwithstanding the fact that even his soil-hardened hands were often painfully bruised and bleeding, he managed to weave a sort of spade-like implement with which he hoped to loosen the bare, brown earth. "This incident," said Mr. Bashein, "is especially significant as indicating the deplorable need of farming tools when it is remembered that the Ukraine once was considered the granary of Russia. "But with all the weary toil of weaving and hammering with bleeding hands the tough wire into an implement that might serve, the peasant's effort to cultivate the land was futile. The ground, trampled hard and bare by the feet of countless troops proved too unyielding for the poor instrument fashioned at such cost by the refugee."

ALL EASTERN EUROPE DEATH PROCESSION

Jewish Children Dying by Thousands of Starvation, Says Max Pine.

All Eastern Europe is one great funeral procession at present, with Jewish children as mourners, and Jewish children as the chief victims of disease and starvation, according to Max Pine of New York, who recently returned from Central and Eastern Europe, where he was sent as a commissioner of the Joint Distribution Committee of Canadian Funds for Jewish War Sufferers. In all the stricken countries there, little children without homes or family may be found in great numbers, living upon the streets, or wandering from one town to another, mourning their parents who died in the typhus epidemic, or of starvation. The youngsters themselves, their strength depleted by malnutrition, are dying on every hand. It is scarcely possible to go out upon the streets without meeting a funeral procession on its way to the graveyard with some small victim of hunger, Mr. Pine reported. Naked children, whose rags, after the five years of war, will no longer hold together enough to stay on their gaunt little bodies, hide themselves in cellars, from fear and shame, and weakness, and remain hidden until they die of starvation, he said.

Peniless and Without Food Jews Are Dying by Hundreds in Bessarabia.

The little town of Ungheul, in Bessarabia, through which hundreds of Jewish and Gentile refugees pass weekly on their way back to the homes from which war drove them, is to-day a centre of starvation and misery, according to reports received by the Canadian Jewish War Relief Committee from relief commissioners abroad. Bernard Zuckerman, of New York, a relief worker sent to Eastern Europe by the Joint Distribution Committee of American Funds for Jewish Sufferers from the War, reports that the town is on the cross-roads from Beltz to Jassy and from Jassy to Kishineff and Bender, so that a constant stream of travel goes through it. Most of these wayfarers journey by foot, entirely penniless and without food, and members of the family who die on the way are left unburied by the roadside. A great number of them are returning to devastated homes. In spite of the fact that the 300 Jewish families and the 100 Gentile families who live in Ungheul are themselves at the point of starvation they have not been able to see the misery of these refugees without making some effort to relieve it. "They have provided 15,608 meals for the Jews and 2,379 meals for the Christians who have passed through recently," Mr. Zuckerman reports. "Of these refugees, 1,302 were Jews and 154 Christians; the local Jewish organization treated them all alike in the matter of food. Some neighboring towns come to their assistance in the matter of clothing for the refugees. Yet all are themselves cold and hungry."

The farmers' executive in East Wellington decided to accept Albert Heglyer's resignation to open the riding for Hon. W. E. Rancy.

THE COWBOY OF ECUADOR.

He Loves to Ride Fully Dressed and Equipped.

It is a custom to celebrate the popular festival of San Pedro and San Pablo in the Sabana Grande with an equestrian frenzy, says Jose A. Canales in Inter-American, a magazine of equestrian frenzy, for it is now well known that this is the hippic festival par excellence; everyone who wishes to celebrate it and to contribute to the honor and glory of the holy apostles must go on horseback, or, lacking a horse, he must mount the first ass he chances upon and set out at a gallop like the Cossacks of the plains. The only ones who came off whole are our montuvios, who, to tell the truth, are not outdone by the Venezuelan llaneros or the Argentine gauchos. These montuvios are the heroes of the festival of San Pedro and San Pablo, the only ones who survive all the numbers on the program. Give a montuvio a half-broken mule; he is in his element and you will see him transfigured. He puts on him one of the great, broad-pomelled saddles of national manufacture, with long leathers from which hang enormous metal stirrups and brutal bits in his mouth and tightens the martingale until the neck of the animal is given a curve of 60 degrees; attaches the indispensable cotton saddlebags of the coast of vivid tint and finished with tassels and a fringe; coils at the head of the saddle 20 or 25 fathoms of rope; and then mounts, displaying wide areas of cloth, girded at the waist with a long belt, from which hangs a murderous machete, a starched shirt without a collar, a poncho as ample as a choir cloak, a wide-brimmed manabita hat, called "singing oven" by the common people, and finally the inevitable "snoring" spurs, bound tight, "as hard as a knot," to the bare feet. There you have the type. Add, to complete the figure, a bejucó de montana, two yards long, by way of a hunting crop in his right hand; a Doublet cigar between his teeth and a bottle of aguardiente in his stomach. These are the equipment of the man and his beast that from the moment they set out together form a single creature. The mule may caper and cut up to his heart's content; run away, kick, roll over on the ground. One of our countrymen hardly notices these details. "What you see is that he always stays on top. The only time he becomes disturbed is when his hat falls off. The montuvio has an infinite affection for his hat, however old or worthless it may be. He would expose his life a thousand times rather than run the risk of losing his hat. If it falls in the water he plunges into the most dangerous current to recover it; if he is pursued by justice and, during the flight his hat escapes him, he turns squarely around, seizes back, secures it and lets himself be captured. Finally, when he is drunk and goes to sleep outdoors a relation or a friend who thinks something of him takes charge of his hat and keeps it for him lest he lose it. If he drops his cigar or his machete he picks it up of the ground without dismounting—performing prodigies of horsemanship, to all appearance with the greatest ease—as if they were at his side on a table. Can't Fake Black Opals. There has been a great rush in New South Wales on account of the finding of black opals, and already several hundred "claims" have been pegged out by excited prospectors. They have reason to be excited, too, for if the discovery of a black opal field turns out to be as big as has been stated, many of them will become millionaires. The real black opal is not only one of the rarest of all stones, but, curiously enough, it is found hardly anywhere except in New South Wales. Most ordinary opals, which are usually semi-transparent, are of a bluish or yellowish white in color, and found in Hungary. In fact, the most famous opal ever discovered was found there, and forms part of the crown jewels of Austria-Hungary. This magnificent opal measures five inches by two and a half inches, and if it were sold in the open market would fetch several hundred thousand pounds. There is a kind of black opal which is fairly common and cheap, but it is not a real black opal. It is the ordinary opal that has become spoiled by earth and other things. Opals, by the way, are one of the few precious stones which cannot be artificially imitated like rubies and diamonds.—Pearson's Weekly.

The main entry to Venice from the railway station is by the celebrated Grand Canal by means of gondolas or omnibus steamers. The Japanese tourist bureau states that 15,341 travellers, representing twenty-five nationalities, visited the shores of Japan during the first half of 1919. SIX MILLION JEWS ARE FACING DEATH

Starvation and Disease Cause Indescribable Suffering in Eastern Europe.

The hardships of this winter will mean death to thousands of Jews in Poland unless outside aid intervenes at once according to Lieutenant Shelton Wright of the American Red Cross Commission to Poland, recently returned to the United States after months of relief work in eastern Europe. He painted a vivid picture of this half-starved people, clad in rags, who are now creeping back toward their devastated homes after months of refugee wandering, and dying of starvation and typhus along the roads, as they go. "Outside starvation, numerous diseases, attributed to malnutrition and typhus have killed men and women and children like flies," he said. "I remember a family trying to live under a tree a few yards away—she had been dead for days. The father was stretched upon the ground dying of typhus. He died that day. Under the wagon were two little children, both under five, sick with typhus. An older child sat stumpy on the ground—a girl driven out of her mind. Many of the people are driven to making "bread" out of leaves and bark, and "soup" out of grass and water. Lieutenant Wright reported: There was unspcakable joy among them when the American ships, loaded with relief supplies purchased with the funds raised by the American Jewish Relief Committee and other American Jewish agencies, and American and Canadian Red Cross supplies were unloaded at Danzig and other ports on the Baltic coast. The American Jewish Relief agencies are spending almost $2,000,000 a month now on their relief work in Poland, and that the Red Cross is doing its work on the vast scale, hundreds of thousands of Jews and Poles will die during the winter unless more aid comes. "Every box-car full of refugees returning to their homes has in those who die along the way, and those who have contracted typhus," Lieutenant Wright said. "The people try to avoid contact by keeping clean, but it is impossible to do so, under existing conditions. Even our nurses and doctors fall ill of typhus, a disease caused by filth and lice. "The Red Cross and the American Jewish Relief agencies are doing their utmost to keep both the Jews and the Gentiles in these stricken lands alive. Six million Jews in eastern Europe face death unless immediate shipments of food, clothing, and bedding from Canada and the United States reach them before the cold weather sets in. "An appeal for funds is to be made in Ontario and a generous response from this district is confidently expected.

MOBS OF CHILDREN CRAVING FOR BREAD

Gaze Into Bakeshop Windows for Hours at a Time, Hoping for Something to Eat.

"The saddest thing in all Eastern Europe at the present moment—worse than all the other instances of starvation and even of death and disease on every hand—are the child-mobs on sees outside of the few bakeries that are able to keep going in Warsaw," Shelton Wright reported. "Yiddish playwright and poet reported to the American Jewish Relief Committee upon his return from Eastern Europe, where he went as a commissioner of the Joint Distribution Committee of American Funds for Jewish Sufferers from the War. In the bakery windows are a few loaves of bread, sometimes cakes, that are sold at a simply prohibitive price," he explained, "and even if these were as cheap as in Canada and the United States, their taste would still be unpalatable to the hungry Jewish children, who live on the cup of soup a day they get from American Jewish relief agencies. But the youngsters' favorite game with the sight of food, when they cannot get the taste of it. "They press up to the window, and at first merely stare respectfully at the loaves of bread, and then they lean gaunt small folk with old faces and suffering unchildlike eyes. Perhaps it is raining, or the wind is blowing drifts out to the little ragamuffins, or they wear that little barefoot army, but they huddle together for warmth, and do not stir. The sight of the bread has fascinated them, it is so rarely seen. "A customer comes out, leaving the door ajar for a moment, and the warm fragrance of the bake-shop drifts out to the little ragamuffins, maddening them. They press closer to the window, their thin little faces against the glass. Those in front put out their tongues and lick the glass, as if, by so doing, they could taste the bread behind it. No poet could ever write into words the wistfulness of their faces as they do it. "One of the men from the bakery comes out and drives them away every few minutes, else they would break the glass. They are afraid of him, and for a few minutes they stand at a distance, their eyes still upon the bread. Then hunger overcomes their fear, and they press up to the bakery window again. Soon they are eagerly licking the glass once more. And this goes on all day every day in front of the bakery window."

Four Good Reasons for a National Forward Movement

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

DESPITE the four years' fury of War, and the year of uncertainty just ended, the people of Canada have prospered. Yet, spiritual glories revealed to us in the great Conflict are being clouded by drifts of class-hostility, mutual suspicion and cynical materialism.

The world is troubled. Old conceptions are giving place to new. Yet, the Kingdom of God remains, firmly grounded on the great principle of love. It has the one remedy for a world diseased:—"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."

Five Christian Communion—Anglican, Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian—call their various constituencies and the whole nation to a livelier and more sacrificial Christianity. They are making a great financial appeal. It is fitting that the public should know the reasons.

1 The Decline of the Dollar The sharp rise in prices the world over has affected injuriously the position of every man working for a fixed salary. Missionaries are in this category. Stipends that were ample in 1900, and nearly adequate in 1912, are utterly insufficient in 1920. There has been no general increase in these stipends. There cannot be, until the Canadian people scale-up their giving to balance the decline in purchasing-power of the Canadian dollar.

International exchange has been unstable. Money for export has been subject to heavy discounts. In view also of the increased cost of materials and of labor, any new building programme abroad has been out of the question. But the need for new buildings is imperative. Some missionaries are living in clay-floored huts.

New Standards are Necessary The Anglican Synods, the Baptist Conventions, the Congregational Union, the Methodist Conferences, and the Presbyterian General Assembly, have set new standards for the salaries of Clergymen actively engaged in Canada. But, for the Missionaries, and for the Supernannuated Ministers, no increases have been possible.

One of the aims of the Forward Movement is to show the fine-spirited, generous, Christian people of Canada that the old standards of giving for Missions must be revised. It is impossible to maintain existing stations, even on a pre-War basis, without more men and much more revenue.

2 The Call from Abroad Coincident with this financial difficulty, new and glorious opportunities for the extension of Christian teaching have appeared. In India, literally millions of "outcastes" are pleading for Missionary preachers and doctors. In China, a new National spirit has been born. Missionary teachers are urgently required to help formulate the National system of education. Hospitals, Missionary nurses, doctors and dentists, are heartily welcomed by the people. From Japan, Africa and the Islands of the Sea, comes the same story.

3 The Home Responsibility Here in Canada, the work of evangelizing Indians and Eskimos must now be undertaken wholly by the Canadian Church. The rapid growth of our cities, the expansion of the West, the great immigration of the last twenty years, and the depopulation of rural areas, make a four-fold problem which can be solved only by radical readjustments of policy and greatly increased resources of men and money.

4 The Pressure on the Colleges Finally, the decline of the dollar has created difficulties in financing the Colleges and Universities established and maintained for the training of the Clergy. Last year, one College which had been able before the War barely to subsist, faced an additional charge for coal alone of $1600. All other expenditures have risen in like proportion. Christianity has been the mother of Higher Education. A thoroughly trained Ministry is the great need of the times.

The men of faith, filled with the Holy Ghost, who proclaim the Gospel story by the frozen Coppermine, beneath the cone of Fujiyama, along the banks of the Yangtse and the Ganges are the product of our Canadian Colleges. There the Vision first appeared to them. The Church must stand behind these institutions.

The Unity of Faith and Prayer These are the facts. Faced with such conditions, the Church leaders, at first, were appalled. They went to their knees, first in separate denominational groups, then in company. Putting aside for the time being differences of religious temperament, considering only their common belief in the Everlasting Father, the Almighty Son, and the everpresent Holy Ghost, they prayed together. Then they arose, thrilled with a glimpse of the wonderful Missionary opportunity, to appeal together to the whole body of Christians in Canada.

The Greatest of All Gifts You are a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Gospel He proclaimed. Your country has become great through Christianity. The hope and love of the Gospel have warmed your heart and illumined your life. Next week you will be asked by the representatives of your Church to show practical proof of your convictions. Be prepared—not to give a trifle out of your abundance, but to taste the full sweetness of Sacrifice.

We have compared the above Balance Sheet with the books and accounts at the Chief Office of The Dominion Bank, and the certified returns received from its Branches, and after checking the cash and verified the statements at the Chief Office and the principal Branches on December 31st, 1919, we certify that in our opinion the Balance Sheet represents a true and correct view of the state of the Bank's affairs, according to the best of our information, the explanations given to us and as shown by the books of the Bank.
In addition to the examinations mentioned, the cash and securities at the Chief Office and certain of the principal Branches were checked and verified by us at another time during the year and found to be in accordance with the books of the Bank.
All information and explanations required have been given to us and all transactions of the Bank which have come under our notice have, in our opinion, been within the powers of the Bank.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

WINNIPEG KIDDIES
There will be a strange school in St. Catharines when the original Winnipeg Kiddies arrive for their engagement at the Grand for three days commencing Monday.
The school will be conducted in the parlor of a local hotel, and will be on stricter lines than any classroom in our public schools. Every one of the eleven pupils will be stage stars—the Winnipeg Kiddies themselves.
Just as soon as breakfast is over, school begins. Their teacher says there are no more industrious children in any school—they are veritable gluttons for learning. Their travels over this continent have sharpened their wits and they imbibe knowledge freely.
As for their stage work—that is their recreation, just as children play during recess. They have learned that quarrels destroy happiness, so they never quarrel. They are just one happy family. Do they get enough schooling when travelling about the country? Well, after their last American tour, they discovered when they went back to the public schools in Winnipeg that they all were further ahead than their classmates, and they passed their exams easily.
Outside of school hours they learn many things—a knowledge of geography at first hand; deportment in public places; self-confidence and self-reliance. They see people, meet people; see places; visit factories; learn how things are made, and learn to converse as though they were adults. And yet they retain their childish charm and simplicity.
How is it done? It's all in their handling—a carefully prescribed method being followed by the women adults who accompany them, at the head of whom is Mrs. R. G. Holmes, the wife of a prominent C.P.R. official.

No Housing Problem

Mongols Carry Their Houses With Them When They Move
(Luther Anderson in the Asia Magazine.)
At the entrance of the tent or yurt as the Mongols call it, was a wooden door fitted to a framework resembling a wooden sash. The door was so low that I had to stoop as I entered. The floor was about two feet below the level of the ground, giving the inside circular wall a height of about six and a half feet, and thus made it possible for even a tall man to move about freely in any part of it.
The framework of the tent consisted of a circular fence of watted staves supporting a superstructure of slender poles which came together in a truncated cone. At the top the poles fitted into a piece of wood shaped like a wheel. At the lower end the poles were lashed to the wicker work with stout thongs and bits of rope. Several sheets of gray felt about half an inch in thickness were stretched tightly over the framework. Altogether, the structure had the appearance of firmness rather more suggestive of a house than a tent.
This kind of habitation is admirably adapted to the needs of the Mongols, as they are only a semi-nomadic people and do not change their place of habitation as frequently as the nomads of the steppes. Even within the borders of tribes beyond which they do not migrate have their own distinct districts generally supposed. The various these allotted areas they move about but little. Most Mongols have only two camping places, one for the winter and another for the summer. Custom as well as expediency requires them to move twice a year—in the spring and in the autumn. These two migrations are necessary because they do not wish the labor of laying in a supply of winter hay. In the autumn they have to move to some place where the grass has been closely cropped, so that their herds may graze on the tall grass protruding through the snow. In the winter the animals do not require to be watered, as they eat enough snow with their grass to make up the deficiency. As soon as the snow disappears in the spring it is necessary to move the herds again, so that they may be near prairie lakes or wells.
This system of grazing usually requires a severe drought or heavy snowfall may compel them to move more often. Sometimes a favorable season may produce some locality suitable for grazing the whole year round, thus obviating the necessity for moving. In such a case the Mongols would satisfy the claims of superstition by moving their yurts only a few feet.
The camping grounds for the various families composing a tribe are fixed with so much certainty that it is possible for the casual thief to find a man whenever he is wanted.
The taffeta blouses in bright colors are to be seen in the spring blouses.

TORTURED BY TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Suffered Three Years Until She Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES"
Pointe St. Pierre, P. Q.
"I think it my duty to tell you how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered for three years with terrible Eczema. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good. Then, I used one box of 'Sootha-Salva' and two boxes of 'Fruit-a-Tives' and my hands are now clear. The pain is gone and there has been no return. I think it is a marvellous cure because no other medicine did me any good and I tried all the remedies I ever heard of, without benefit until I used 'Sootha-Salva' and 'Fruit-a-Tives'. 'Fruit-a-Tives' cooled the blood and removed the cause of the disease, and 'Sootha-Salva' completed the cure."

DOCTOR WARD, The Specialist

SPECIALIST IN THE TREATMENT OF NERVOUS CONDITIONS, NERVE EXHAUSTION, BACKACHE, LUMBAGO, RHEUMATISM, STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLES, ACNE, SKIN DISEASES, CATARRH, ASTHMA, RECTAL TROUBLES, PILES, FISTULA AND BLOOD CONDITIONS.
The knowledge gained from many years' experience in treating diseases just like yours is of much benefit to you and assures the ailing man of prompt relief. When a man knows that he is again feeling well—he is rid of his ailment—he feels that a heavy load has been lifted from his shoulders. I give every patient the benefit of the knowledge acquired through the long experience of a graduated, licensed and registered specialist, in order to bring about the most satisfactory results in the shortest possible time.

NERVE EXHAUSTION
A CONDITION AFFECTING MANY MEN—THE GREAT AMERICAN DISEASE—IT IS BROUGHT ON BY OUR MANNER OF LIVING—OUR WORRY AND HURRY—AMERICANS EXHAUST MORE NERVOUS ENERGY THAN ANY OTHER RACE OF PEOPLE.
There are a great many men who need treatment for their nervous system. These men do not know what is the reason they don't feel right—why they can't work like they used to—why they tire so easily and why they are irritable, nervous, despondent, weak, pale and lack ambition. These conditions require the expert knowledge and treatment of a specialist who has had many years' experience in just such ailments. A specialist learns by experience to know just the right treatment at the right time so that the patient can be dismissed at the earliest possible time. Men afflicted with nervous exhaustion have no endurance—no ambition—everything they attempt is an effort. Life to them appears as a long, gloomy future. Their appetite is poor and variable—they become irritable, cross and discouraged. They have pains and aches in various parts of the body and there is often indigestion and pains in the stomach. Sleepless, wakeful and restless nights follow.

RHEUMATIC ALIMENTS
SCIATICA AND OTHER FORMS OF RHEUMATISM, LUMBAGO, PAINS IN BACK, SWELLING, ACHING, PAINFUL CONDITIONS IN ANY PART OF THE BODY—INFLAMED AND SWOLLEN JOINTS OF LEGS AND ARMS—MANY OTHER SYMPTOMS.
Hundreds of men are suffering with some form of Rheumatism. Many of these men go from day to day suffering untold agonies thinking they cannot be cured. They have tried liniments, rubbing, massage, salts and other treatments without experiencing any relief, and they are now going through life thinking they are martyrs to that burden called Rheumatism. If these men could only know how easy it is to get rid of many rheumatic conditions I know they would not suffer another single day. Then all sufferers of rheumatism would be strong and healthy if they could get rid of the condition. Rheumatic patients are nearly all strong and robust before being attacked by this ailment, and therefore it is so hard for the man to understand why he should suffer the agonies of such a condition. When a man gets rid of such a condition he feels that a heavy burden has been lifted from his life, and he starts right out to make up for lost time both in money and pleasure. When a man comes to my office suffering with the above condition he is given a most careful examination, and he is given treatment that he feels is giving him great benefit.

Triangular Meeting of Soccer Men to Be Held In the Queen City To-day

Outcome Will Be Watched With Interest All Over Canada—Burnley Out.

A meeting is to be held in Toronto today that will be of interest to soccer fans all over the Dominion. It will be a three-cornered meeting. On the one hand will be Con Jones, the Western sports promoter, and, on the other hand, a deputation headed by Jack Russell, of the British Columbia P.A. The third party will be D.F.A. This is a very laudable object, and no doubt it will receive the consideration that it deserves from the D.F.A. Just what are the objections of the B.C.F.A. to Jones' proposition is not clear; this organization has not yet laid its cards on the table, and considerable curiosity has been aroused as to the nature of the Western Association's objections.

If it is opposed to Jones' proposal to bring out two teams at the same time, for the purpose of giving exhibition games from coast to coast, then it will find lots of supporters elsewhere. The general opinion is that one team would make a better drawing card than two teams. The fans want to see how the Canadian article compares with the home brew, and there is good reason to believe that the comparison would be favorable, even though victory were denied us in many cases.

Stormy Weather Hard on Baby

The stormy, blustery weather which we have during February and March is extremely hard on children. Conditions make it necessary for the mother to keep them in the house. They are often confined to over-heated, badly ventilated rooms and catch colds which rack their whole system. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and an occasional dose given the baby to keep his stomach and bowels working regularly. This will not fail to break up colds and keep the health of the baby in good condition till the brighter days come along. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Sleepless Nights Overcome by Safe Method

Suggestions Given Whereby Insomnia Can Be Safely and Quickly Cured.

Worry, overwork, overstudy and indigestion cause insomnia. Healthy, natural sleep can't be produced by drugs. First, the blood circulation must be improved. Congestion of blood in the head must be removed. Irritation in the brain must be relieved.

It's because Ferrozone equalizes circulation, because it soothes the irritation, because it removes congestion that it does cure insomnia. For building blood and nerve, for instilling force and life into over-worked organs, for establishing strength and vitality, where can you find anything so efficient as Ferrozone? Remember, sleep is just as important as food.

You must sleep or break down, but if you'll use Ferrozone and thereby remove the conditions which now keep you from sleep, you'll get well quickly. Ferrozone is not a narcotic, not a dope; it is a health-giving tonic that any child or delicate woman can use. Absolutely safe is Ferrozone. Take it for a month, take it for a year—no harm, but unmeasurable good will result. To sleep well, look well, feel well, to be free from depression, nervousness or blues—use Ferrozone. It's a food tonic, a healer to the weak and wretched, a boon to the sleepless—sold in 50 cent boxes, six for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct from The Catarrhzone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Announcing Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea

During our twenty-five years in business, Canada has made wonderful progress in education, refinement and wealth.

The scale of living and the tastes of the people are more luxurious than a quarter of a century ago.

Realizing this we have decided that in addition to our well-known standard brands of Red Rose Tea, the sales of which are increasing faster than ever before—the time is opportune to introduce a tea of extra quality. It is an Orange Pekoe Tea of very fine quality under the popular Red Rose brand, and called Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea—a special tea of extra quality for people who are willing to pay a little extra price. To ensure the quality and success of this new tea we have concentrated on it all the resources, the experience and the advantages possessed by our big organization. The Orange Pekoe Teas we use are selected with a knowledge born of long experience in buying teas abroad.

Red Rose Orange Pekoes are grown on the best plantations;—from tested seed;—on carefully cultivated soil;—at a high elevation (mountain grown teas are very superior to low-land teas.)

They are gathered at the time of the year when the flavor is most fully developed in the leaves.

The manufacture and final preparation are carefully and skillfully done.

When brewed, Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea has all the characteristics of fine quality tea.

It has a bright, sparkling amber color in the cup.

The aroma is delicate and delightful.

After the liquid is poured off, the leaves in the pot are a greenish copper color.

The flavor is of rare charm and distinction. The more cultivated your taste the more you will appreciate it.

The strength is rich, satisfying and invigorating.

Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea is sold only in our sealed waxed board cartons which fully protect its fine quality.

Ask for it by the full name: Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea. The words "Orange Pekoe" are in orange on our new waxed board cartons.

Our well-known Red Rose package, the sale of which is increasing faster than ever before. Red Rose consists chiefly of Assam teas, the richest and strongest in the world and therefore very economical. (The Red Rose Orange Pekoe package is a little different in design.)

To Grocers: Our travellers are on the road taking orders for the NEW tea. If our traveller hasn't reached you, letter phone or mail an order immediately to our nearest office. There is sure to be a considerable demand at once for this fine quality tea.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

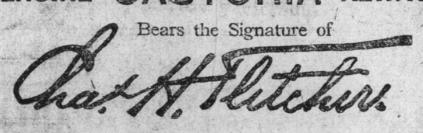

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. CITY AND DISTRICT

Some attain fame only by many years of heartbreaking work, during which they pass unappreciated, others never reach the first gates of the hall of fame, while others again by sheer merit get a fast through ticket to the highest shrine at once. Such are the Original Winnipeg Kiddies, who will open at the Grand Monday for a three days engagement in their funny, fast and peppery two-hour whirlwind of extraordinary vaudeville.

Organized first for patriotic purposes—a local troupe of entertainers who brought funds into various patriotic coffers—the future the kiddies caused in their home town developed into a demand that they keep up their organization when the need of patriotic things had ended. So the Kiddies were reorganized on commercial lines, and, after opening in Winnipeg, made a tour of the United States and Canada. One tour was enough to make the demand for them so great that bookings had to be refused right and left.

They played the Liberty theatres of the United States continents, at the request of the Washington authorities, they opened Red Cross drives throughout America, recruited and entertained. The actual cash they turned over to patriotic organizations would make the average millionaire Victory Bond buyer look like a piker.

Sir James Grant Died at Ottawa

OTTAWA, Feb. 7.—Sir Jas. Grant, the sole survivor of the first parliament of Canada, died yesterday afternoon in St. Luke's Hospital. Sir James fell outside the Russell House and broke his hip on the 20th of last month, and since that time has been confined in St. Luke's Hospital. He had been rapidly losing strength during the last week.

Sir James Alexander Grant was born in Invernesshire, Scotland, on August 11, 1831, and was descended from an able and distinguished family. His grandfather was Jas. Grant, advocate at Corrimony, among whose literary productions were essays on the Origin of Society and Thoughts on the Origin and Descent of the Gael.

Sir James' father was Dr. James Grant, who came to Canada from Edinburgh and practised for many years in Glenarry.

Sir James Grant was educated in Queen's and McGill Universities. He has practiced medicine in Ottawa since his graduation in 1854, and attended several governor-generals and distinguished visitors.

Sir James visited St. Catharines on several occasions, staying at the Welland, and was made a free citizen of the city on his last visit.

There are many people who dread the thought of wearing a plate. The very idea of having artificial teeth is repulsive to them and they go on in life suffering from the tortures of broken, decayed teeth and the ailments that are caused by improperly masticated food.

This is sheer folly, particularly when we are able to provide plates that defy detection, even upon the closest inspection.

Every plate made by us is manufactured in our own laboratory by men of unsurpassed skill in their profession. Accuracy, one of the most essential requisites to plate-making, is a point we pride ourselves on.

Lastly, the impression that a good plate is costly, beyond our means, will quickly be corrected by learning of our very moderate prices.

For careful examination and consultation, we make no charge, a service necessary to all who require plates.

DESTITUTION IN EUROPE TERRIBLE

Long Processions of Starving, Ill-Clad Children Seen Daily on the Streets.

Long processions of little Jewish children in Eastern Europe, bearing their tin cups in their hands, daily walk from their villages to the nearest town in which there is a Jewish relief station, according to relief workers in these stricken lands, sometimes journeying five or six miles in order to get the cup of soup with a piece of hardtack, or the mug of milk which is often their sole food of the day.

Those tin-cup processions emphasize, as nothing else could do, the terrible destitution of the Jews in Eastern Europe at present. The children in them are barefoot, and dressed in clothing made from the rags in which the relief supplies have come, or in the rags which they have worn during the five years of the war, their gaunt little bodies showing through the tatters. They do not walk as children usually do, without effort or restraint, but drag themselves along wearily and hopelessly. Like tired little ghosts condemned to move in hungry processions throughout eternity.

Arrived at the relief station, the children are so tired and so weak that they sit down upon the pavements to await their turn in line. On the faces of every one of them here is an expression of unchildlike anxiety. It has to do with the only real evil in the world, hunger, whether or not the soup or milk will hold out, until their turn comes. Every day some of them have to be turned away without food, since the numbers are so great that the funds at present on hand are not always sufficient to care for them all.

MILLION CHILDREN ARE CLAD IN RAGS

Their Wasted Bodies Show Thru Tatters, Result of Starvation and Misery.

The art of making two flowers bloom where only one bloomed before isn't half so hard as that of making two garments exist where only one existed before; yet even this can be accomplished, according to reports recently received by the Canadian Jewish War Relief Committee from relief workers abroad.

Cloth of any kind, either cotton or wool, is particularly impossible to obtain in Eastern Europe, except at prohibitive prices. A round million little Jewish children in these unhappy lands are clad in the rags that they have worn all through the war, their wasted little bodies showing through great tatters. Some of these children are still sleeping on the streets, since there are at present neither orphanages nor funds for all.

Miss Harriet B. Lowenstein, of New York, sent to Europe as a commissioner of the Joint Distribution Committee of American Funds for Jewish War Sufferers, was able to purchase more than a carload of pajamas from the salvage department of the American army in France. These were sent to Eastern Europe, and in the workrooms opened there were made over into clothing for children.

Each pair of pajamas made at least two Russian blouse suits for Jewish boys it was reported. The larger pieces left over in the cutting were used for the cloths that the children of Eastern Europe bind around their feet in lieu of shoes.

MILLION PAIRS OF SHOES ARE NEEDED

Destitute Jewish Children of Eastern Europe Use Rags to Protect Feet from the Cold.

A million pairs of shoes are needed by the destitute Jewish children of Eastern Europe to-day, according to reports received by the Canadian Jewish War Relief Committee from relief workers abroad.

At least that many of the helpless and hungry Jewish youngsters of Eastern Europe are absolutely without footwear of any kind, their relief agents say. Thousands of others have rags sewn around their feet in lieu of shoes.

Several carloads of shoes that formerly belonged to Allied soldiers in France were purchased there by the Joint Distribution Committee of Funds for Jewish Sufferers from the War, for the Jewish women of Eastern Europe. But it was impossible to buy the shoes in sizes that could be worn by the children, and all others sold in Europe are at a prohibitive price. So a million youngsters are barefoot during the hard winter of Eastern Europe.

There is a great lack of every conceivable kind of clothing, as well as shoes. In Serbia, a common child's costume just now consists of two sacks, with holes cut through for the head and feet. In Poland, four sacks and sugar sacks sent with supplies to the destitute Jews by Jewish relief agencies are all being made over into clothing, and even small suit sacks are pieced together, and used for this purpose.

CHARLES OVERHOLM

$200 FOR SALE TO AN INVESTOR

Charles Overholm reappeared in police court today on remand, on a charge of assaulting Mrs. Slough of the St. Catharines House, in connection with the burglary of window smashing.

Mrs. Slough said she thought that Charles had been drinking and she had told him if he had any liquor on him she would call the police. She replied that he had not, and some companions drank with him and then became abusive. She said she had called the police and Tommy Auburn tried to get him out whereupon he put Auburn and some business with a kick and also on Mrs. Slough twice.

When questioned by Mr. McCrae, counsel for Smith, Mrs. Slough said she had had drunk everything his name would buy for him. Smith, she said, didn't spend a nickel.

Mrs. Slough denied putting anything in the proxy. The three men, she said, Hilton and Riley got worse and longer they staid, though she had thought they had liquor because of their frequent visits to the bar—a suspicious action now.

Charles McPherson swore that he had seen Smith kick Auburn and Mrs. Slough. He helped to put Smith out of the box and questioned them regarding the amount. They said Smith was quite sober and they had not heard any abusive language. Riley, of the witnesses said he had witnessed the whole disturbance but did not see Smith kick Mrs. Slough. He admitted, however, that he had had two drinks and his mind was not clear at the time.

Smith, testifying for himself, said he had had no drink of any nature when he went to the Mansion House, where he met Riley and Hilton. They had about two hours and had perhaps fifteen or more drinks. He had never seen Mrs. Slough until she got sick and Mrs. Slough allowed her to be put into a rear room.

Auburn came in several times and went behind the bar.

Smith claimed that the stage had been set for a row with him. Auburn said, opened the ball with a kick and a punch with his fist. In other words he had been assaulted without reason.

Smith hadn't time to do anything to defend himself," said Smith. "I was passed and outnumbered and I was
