SCHOLARSHIP.

Mr. John McGillivray, has again succeeded in winning the 1st Scholarship ($60) in his year at Knox College, a result all the more creditable as he had had been engaged in the missionary field all summer. Our High School boys generally show to advantage at the college examinations.

OBITUARY.

Charles Hines, M. D., died at the residence of his father, Harry Hines, Esq. Rose Garden Cottage, Goderich Township, on Thursday morning. Although ailing for a long while, death was unexpected so soon; indeed, the deceased had driven into town and back home on Wednesday. He was suffering from an affection of the lungs and heart, and the immediate cause of death was the bursting of a blood vessel near the heart. Dr. Hines studied at Michigan Medical College, Detroit, where he obtained his degree last March. He gave promise of a life of usefulness, and was but 22 years of age. His parents and relatives have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The Winnipeg Free Press of a recent date refers to the very commendable action of a young man who is well-known to the pupils of Goderich high school and the people of Leeburn, in the following words: "Wm. H. Aborn came from Emerson, Minn., with typhoid fever, and was admitted to the general hospital here on August 26th, 1879, and was discharged on November 23rd of the same year, convalescent. Yesterday he called at the hospital and paid the house surgeon $100 on account of services rendered to him during the period of his sickness. This is a case of generosity that is worthy of note, and is, we believe, the first of the kind that has ever transpired in connection with the hospital."

THE SHORTHAND BOOM.

The business of Shorthand has now a recognised place in Canada. The demand for Shorthand penmanship is great, and constantly increasing. The interests of this young profession have been materially forwarded by Bengough's Cosmopolitan Shorthand Writer, the September No. of which has reached us. It contains a very interesting report of the Shorthand Convention held recently in Toronto, and quotes the expressions of various newspapers, all in favor of the movement. The Constitution of the newly given is full. The subscription price of this Manual is $1. Bengough's Shorthand Bureau, 11 King St. West, Toronto.

Mrs. Longworth and Miss Longworth, who for a long time taught in our public schools. The old gentleman has failed considerably during the last few years, his memory having almost deserted him. He is about 90 years old, and fought at Corunna. He was a resident of Goderich for about 45 years. His venerable partner in life is still active in both mind and body. In Miss Longworth Goderich loses a most estimable lady.

HYMNICAL.

On Wednesday last an interesting event took place at St. Peter's Church, in the matrimonial alliance of Mr. J. H. Nolan, formerly of Goderich, now of Milwaukee, and Miss Mary Sharkey, of this town. As is usual on occasions of the kind, there was a large attendance of Eve's fair daughters to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Father Waters. The bridegroom was assisted on the occasion by his brother, Mr. Frank Nolan, and Miss Etta Sharkey acted as bridesmaid. The bride and her sister were dressed in bronze green travelling dresses, trimmed with satin of the same shade, with hat and feathers to match. After the ceremony the bridal party took carriage for the station, when the happy couple left by train for their home in Milwaukee.

HIGH SCHOOL.

We are pleased to learn that the results of the annual July examination have been that Mr. Aquila Manning receives an intermediate certificate, and Mr. A. P. Sheppard has his standing raised to a 2nd A. This enhances the splendid record made by our High School at the late examination.

THE STEAMER QUEBEC.

The steamer Quebec which passed up on Saturday morning last did not call at Goderich, after the usual custom, and a number of passengers were therefore unable to take advantage of the lake passage. Mr. Harry Smith, wife and family and Miss Bertha Trainer were in readiness to embark, but were disappointed because of the boat failing to call. They were informed that the Sovereign would call on Sunday, and they could then take passage on that steamer; but when the S. Sovereign arrived at Goderich it was found that she had no Inspector's certificate to carry passengers. The consequence was another disappointment to the expectants. This is not as it should be. The Betty line of steamers are public carriers, and something should be done to make them carry out their advertised connections.

In a circular addressed to employees Mr. Spicer, Superintendent of the Grand Trunk, after referring to the dismissal of a number of employees for drunkenness, concludes:—"This kind of work would do; the habit of drinking had better be given up at once and altogether, or it will inevitably result in dismissal and trouble for all concerned. Your only safety lies in total abstinence. I strongly advise you to practise and adhere to it, and to use all your influence with others in the same direction. Save your money, benefit your families, ensure safe working, do not risk your own lives, or the public safety, by tolerating as fellow employees men who occasionally get into a muddle, or worse condition by indulging in drinking habits, which lead to carelessness, recklessness, accidents, and a sad list of troubles which we must all desire to prevent."

Clinton.

A. T. Salt has suddenly left town, leaving a number of unpaid accounts behind. He borrowed heavily from friends, using his mother's name as security. A fast horse and inattention to business caused the trouble.

Mr. Noble Whitley has rented his farm 100 acres, being lot 37, con. 3, to Mr. Michael Whitmore, his neighbor, for $250 a year. Mr. Whitley intends moving to Clinton to reside, providing he can obtain a house, which seems to be a difficult matter in that thriving town.

Mr. A. Y. Scott, B.A., formerly of this place, and a student of Clinton High School, has recently been appointed one of the masters in Upper Canada.

We understand that Mrs. Pettie has fully recovered from her injury and exposure.

HON. JOHN HIBBARD.

Death of the American Consul at Goderich.

It is our painful duty this week to chronicle the demise of Hon. John Hibbard, U. S. Consul at this port. For some months past Mr. Hibbard had been suffering from illness contracted while attending his son, Wm. B. Hibbard, during the final illness of the latter. But the illness developed into Bright's disease, and about two weeks ago he was compelled to take to his bed, from which it was decreed he should not again rise in life.

Mr. Hibbard was born in one of the Eastern States in 1826, and in early boyhood moved west to Wisconsin, where he grew up with the country. He afterwards moved to Michigan, where he was largely engaged in the lumbering trade, with his headquarters at Port Huron. For many years he was actively employed in business, and was heavily interested in lake vessels in addition to his lumber trade. He was an active Republican, and was first Mayor of Port Huron, and on his retirement from mercantile pursuits was awarded the position of consular agent at the port of Goderich, in acknowledgment of his past services to the interest of his party. He was in the fourth year of office when death severed the connection.

Mr. Hibbard is gone, and his many friends here and elsewhere mourn his loss. Unassuming in manner, and unobtrusive in action, he gained the good will of all with whom he came in contact. Firm in what he believed to be right, he could always allow others the liberty of differing from him in opinion. His kind heart is still forever, his sympathetic nature has ceased to be, his genial smile and kindly demeanor will no longer be observed, but the memory of John Hibbard will ever remain with the many friends who knew and thoroughly appreciated his true worth. He leaves a widow and two sons to mourn an irreparable loss. Peace to his ashes!

As we write, the flags at the U. S. Consulate, the custom's house and the British Exchange Hotel, are floating at half-mast in memory of the dead.

The body will be conveyed to the family vault at Port Huron on Saturday.

Goderich Township.

Messrs. T. J. Rutledge and G. Sheppard, failing after a week's endeavor to get passage by boat, left by train on Monday for the Sault. They combine business with pleasure, and may yet make that place their home.

Messrs. W. and J. Hillock, John Roberts and Wm. Blair left last week for Joliet, a Mich.

THE WAVES STILLED.

Pouring Oil upon the Troubled Waters.

Capt. Pettie saves the Lives of the Crew of the Jennie Rumball by Using the Ship's Oil.

The schooner Jennie Rumball, which went ashore a mile from Pike Bay last week, is a total wreck. Capt. Dancy (the owner) returned from the scene on Friday, and reports the vessel broken up. The crew had a terrible experience. The night was dark, a terrible sea was raging, the vessel was heavily freighted with lumber and hard to manage. She grounded on a large flat rock, and a heavy sea broke through her stern, deluging the cabin, and flinging Mrs. Pettie (wife of the captain) and a child across the room. The stove was upset and fell upon Mrs. Pettie, injuring her lower limbs. The vessel panted upon the rock, and the water which entered the stern broke through into the hold. The crew took to the rigging, and captain Pettie, assisted by the mate, rescued his wife and child with difficulty from their watery prison.

The night was raw, and it seemed as if all aboard would perish from the cold if they remained on the wreck. The boat had been injured, but was patched up with canvas, and the party, seven in all, embarked under the lee of the vessel, and made for the shore. The sea was running very high, and it was believed that the boat could not live in it, but the captain took with him a large can of oil, and seated in the stern, poured the pacifying liquid upon the turbulent waters. The effect was wonderful. The great billows as they advanced reared themselves as if they would spring upon and overwhelm the little boat and its devoted crew, but as they struck the oil they subsided and broke in a harmless, gentle upheaval. The pouring of "oil upon the troubled waters" saved the lives of the boat's crew.

Capt. Pettie has tried the casting of oil upon storm tossed waves before, and always with a large degree of success. On a previous occasion he broke the force of great waves by merely fastening a blanket soaked with oil to the stern of his boat. Another well-known lake captain, also adds his testimony to the efficacy of oil in calming troubled waves.

There was no insurance upon the Jennie Rumball, and the loss will fall very heavily upon Capt. Dancy. The treacherous waters of the Georgian Bay have been fatal to three vessels owned by him. Many years ago he lost The Brothers; later on the Lily Dancy, and now the Jennie Rumball. All three went ashore within forty miles of one another.

We understand that Mrs. Pettie has fully recovered from her injury and exposure.

FOR YOUNG MEN.

Special Sermon by Rev. John Wakefield.

Timely Words from the North Street Pastor—A Large Congregation of Young Men Hear the Message.

Last Sunday the Rev. John Wakefield, pastor of the Methodist Church of Canada in this town preached two special sermons. The one in the morning to the children of the Sabbath School, who were all seated with their teachers in the gallery of the church, and were very attentive to all that was said to them. The one in the evening to young men, a very large number of whom were present, and manifested the deepest interest in the whole service. The text was Psalm 119:9: "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way, etc." The young gentleman first dwelt upon the many encouragements held out to the young to forsake the paths of sin and to tread in the paths of virtue. He said that so many, and special were the promises made to this class of persons that the ministers of Christ might be well assured that their labors with them would not be in vain, in the Lord. It was hard to band the old gnarled oak whose shapeless trunk, and crooked limbs had defied a thousand wintry storms, and thrown off a thousand of the fiercest blasts of heaven, but the twig was easily bent. The text contained a question of much interest and importance, "How shall a young man make his way pure?" and indicated a distinction between this and the broad frequented way in which the ungodly millions walked. The language implied that the way of the young was not so well established, that their steps might not be retraced. He then warned the young against several pathways in life. 1. The way of the indolent. He uttered a solemn warning and protest against a young man, no matter what his social position, being brought up in idleness, claiming that a great many of the vices, and ruinous habits of life came from that source. 2. The way of the profane. This, he said, was an offence not so much against the rights of society and the peace of our fellow men, as against our Creator. For this reason public opinion had not so much set upon it the seal of disapprobation, nor the State enacted such severe penalties. They called it a venial transgression, and winked at it. The man who stole ever so little was branded as a thief, and carried the stain with him to the grave, but he who uttered blasphemous oaths was neither discarded by the polite, nor utterly rejected by the good. But which, in the light of God's eye, in the decision of heaven's chancery, was the greater sinner? In the Divine Law Book it was written, "Thou shalt not swear." In the same commandment God had written with His own finger, "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, and had added to this prohibition, and to no other, "for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain. There might be some excuse for other sins but none for this. 3. The way of the licentious. Do not, he said, accuse us of a want of delicacy or modesty because we dwell here for a moment. The very nature of the sin had often closed our lips when perhaps we ought to have spoken. Why would you enforce silence upon the public concerning that which is sapping the very foundation of our nation's strength, physically, intellectually and morally, which is filling our jails, penitentiaries, asylums, and hell itself? Over the entrance to this path was written in gilded letters, "The way of many delights." The preacher then depicted in fitting language, the life, death and eternity of the licentious profligate, solemnly warning all against entering upon that fearful path. 4. The way of the intemperate. He said the danger of entering this path was the greater because many whom the world had delighted to honor had walked in it.—men of intellect, social, accomplished, generous. Sometimes, too, the fair hand of woman had lifted the glass, and the young man thought there could surely be no harm in such company. All the terrible evils, he said, which flowed from drink had never yet been told, and the imagination had never painted them. The only safe way for young men was never to touch it, and avoid the mighty chain which habit weaves. The lion scorned the slender net, but once in it the net was enfolded about him, and he was helpless. 5. The way of the gambler. Gambling, he said, was playing for money, whether the game was one of skill or merely of chance. Buying and selling, giving and receiving, had been looked upon as honest ways of gaining or parting with money, but all gambling was dishonest, and all gambling was immoral in its influence. All betting was gambling, and though it might be said that some very respectable people indulged in it, he could say so much the worse for their respectability. Let all, and especially the young, beware of beginnings. No one has ever become suddenly corrupt. First the hook with the gilded bait, scented with the cologne of respectability and fashion, and then the naked hook and destruction. An earnest exhortation was given to all, especially young men, to avoid these paths of destruction by heeding God's word, and to walk in the path which was there clearly marked out.

At the close of the sermon the choir sang with excellent effect "Where is My Boy To-night?"

The Poet's Corner.

Baby's Curl. I found to-day amid some treasured things - Kept long with loving care...

The Number Seven.

Thinking that the frequent occurrence of the number seven in both sacred and profane usage would not prove altogether uninteresting to the readers of the Methodist, I send you the following...

There are seven days in creation, seven spirits before the throne of God, seven days in a week, seven ages in the life of man, and the just fall seven times a day...

SEVEN BODIES IN ALCHEMY.—Sun is gold, Moon is silver, Mars iron, Mercury quicksilver, Saturn lead, Jupiter tin, and Venus copper.

SEVEN CHAMPIONS OF CHRISTENDOM.—1. St. George, of England, was seven years imprisoned by the Almoravids, the black king of Morocco...

SEVEN CHURCHES OF ASIA.—1. Ephesus, founded by St. Paul, 57, A.D. 2. Smyrna, still an important sea port. 3. Pergamos, renowned for its library...

SEVEN DAYS' WAR.—The great conflict for German supremacy, between Prussia and Italy on one side and Austria on the other, in the spring of 1866.

SEVEN MONTHS' WAR.—This was the late Franco-Prussian conflict of 1870.

SEVEN DIALS, (LONDON).—A column raised in, stood at the ancient limits of St. Giles, and seven dials were affixed to it facing the seven streets which radiated from that centre.

SEVEN SORROWS OF THE VIRGIN.—Simeon's prophecy, the flight into Egypt, Christ's mission, the Betrayal, the Crucifixion, the taking down from the cross and the Ascension, when she was left alone.

SEVEN JOYS OF THE VIRGIN.—The Annunciation, Visitation, Nativity, Adoration of the Magi, Presentation in the Temple, finding Christ among the Doctors, and the Assumption.

SEVEN WISE MEN OF GREECE.—1. Solon, of Athens, whose motto was 'Know Thyself.' 2. Chilo, of Sparta, 'Consider the End.' 3. Thales, of Miletus, 'Who Hath Suretyship is Sure.' 4. Bias, of Prienne, 'Most Men are Bad.' 5. Cleobolus, of Lindus, 'Avoid Extremes.' 6. Pittacus, of Mitylene, 'Seize Time by the Forelock.' 7. Periander, of Corinth 'Nothing is Impossible to Industry.'

SEVEN SENSES.—According to very ancient teaching, the soul of man, or his inward holy body, is compounded of seven properties which are under the influence of the seven planets. Fire animates, earth gives the sense of feeling, water gives speech, air gives taste, mist gives sight, flowers give hearing and the south wind gives smelling. Hence, the seven senses are feeling, speech, taste, sight, hearing and smelling.

SEVEN SLEEPERS.—Seven noble youths of Ephesus, who fled from the Decian persecution to the cave in Mount Celian. After two hundred and thirty years they awoke but soon died, and their remains were taken to Marseilles in a large stone coffin, still shown in Victor's Church. Their names are Constantine, Dyonisius, John, Maximian, Malchus, and Scrapion.

SEVEN WONDERS OF ANTIQUITY.—1. The Pyramids of Egypt. 2. Hanging Gardens of Babylon. 3. The Tomb of Mausoleus. 4. The Temple of Diana at Ephesus. 5. The Colossus at Rhodes. 6. The Statue of Jupiter. 7. The Pharos of Egypt.

SEVEN WONDERS OF THE MIDDLE AGES.—1. Coliseum at Rome. 2. The coats of Alexandria. 3. The Great Wall of China. 4. Stone Henge. 5. The Leaning Tower at Pisa. 6. The Porcelain Tower of Nankin. 7. The Mosque of St. Sophia at Constantinople.

What's in a Name?

An observant person has noticed that the name of some great benefactor upon a child frequently inclines its new possessor to follow in the footsteps of its illustrious namesake, and he presents the name of Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock as one of several illustrations confirming his theory.

Napoleon Bonaparte Browne is now engaged in the oyster business, and recently wagered $100 that he could hulk more bivalves in one hour than any other artist in the profession.

George Washington Jones hurried off to Canada to see his Uncle Silas when a draft was ordered a score of years ago, and he is now an active member of the American Peace Society.

Horace Greeley Tompkins is the proprietor of a gin mill, thinks the Emancipation Proclamation was a national error, and all he knows about farming is ejecting "dead beats" from his saloon.

Robert Burns Smythe drives a street car, and abhors poetry.

Daniel Webster Wilkins parts his hair in the middle, wears a single barreled eye-glass, and a shallow crowned hat, and interperates his conversation with a protractility of "awa."

Miss Mary Walker Delancy was the most fashionably and expensively attired young lady at Saratoga last summer.

Many more illustrations might be given, but these are sufficient to show how a child's baptismal name has much to do with shaping the course of its future life.

A Common Bond of Flander.

Mr. John O'Donohoe has built himself up by abusing Orangemen and Orangemen. Mr. Mackenzie Bowell has won distinction by leading a crusade against the Catholic Church. But the two chiefs having reached the goal of their ambition, strike hands, vow perpetual friendship, and laugh at the gullibility of their dupes.

Mr. White, late proprietor of the Mansion Saloon, King Street, Toronto, writes as follows about Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters: "I have used Dr. Carson's Stomach Bitters for nearly two years, and I believe it to be the best medicine in the world."

Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters is a true history, and must be accepted as such by its readers; and Catholics will be present in school while Protestants read this true history of the crimes of Catholics in past centuries.

"MARMION."

Rev. Father Stafford's Opinion on the Subject.

To the Editor of THE SIGNAL. Sir,—The Rev. Mr. Laing, of Dundas, in an issue of your paper speaks of the high schools and collegiate institutes as "Protestant." They are no more Protestant than they are Catholic, and no more Catholic than they are Protestant.

Those institutions being insectarian and supported alike by all denominations, must be maintained on a footing of equality, and must be equally acceptable to all denominations.

It is not correct for Mr. Laing to say we (Roman Catholics) teach our religion as we please in the separate schools.

It is not correct to say we object to Protestants having children taught Protestantism in non-Catholic Schools.

Thousands bear witness to the positive curative powers of the GREAT GERMAN INVIGORATOR, the only remedy that has proved itself a specific for general debility, seminal weakness, impotency, etc.

Travellers will find the best remedy for Sea Sickness in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Never Give Up. If you are suffering with low and depressed spirits, loss of appetite, general debility, diarrhoeal blood, weak constitution, headache, or any disease of a bilious nature, by all means procure a bottle of Electric Bitters.

NOCTURNAL DYSPESIA MILD. In its character, and producing no actual suffering, often occasions persistent restlessness at night, sleep, the symptoms are mostly dryness of the mouth, occasional burning of the soles of the feet, heat and throbbing in the head, feverishness, rising commonly from a too acid condition of the stomach.

Rev. Dr. King on Marmion.

Rev. John M. King, an able Presbyterian minister, writes to the Canada Presbyterian, taking exception to the spirit in which the withdrawal of "Marmion" was criticised in that paper. The rev. gentleman points out that there are two sides to the question, and that if Archbishop Lynch found the work objectionable in some details, it was quite within his right to call attention to it, and that in deferring the Minister of Education was not necessarily obeying dictation.

LORD WOLSELEY OF EGYPT

To be Banqueted by the Londoners—The Difficulty with Arabi—English Council—A New Canal Projected.

Lord Wolseley of Egypt, as the new peer is styled, will be home in two weeks, and like all such British heroes, is to be feted in public by the corporation of London. It will be a very conservative banquet, however, for $2,500 only has been voted for it, which, according to the liberal eaters in the civic body, will afford nothing better to welcome him in than a glass of cold water.

The Sun's London special says the individual claims for damages incurred at Alexandria during the reign of terror amount to the sum of $30,000,000 up to date.

Sir Edward Malet announces that the trial of Arabi and his associates will not proceed unless they are defended by English counsel; while the Egyptian Ministry has informed Sir Edward Malet that it will not be responsible for the government of the country if the English counsel introduces a method of procedure unknown to the Egyptian courts.

The Times says: "Unless proper arrangements be made by the Egyptian authorities to secure a fair trial for Arabi and his leaders, it is possible that the British Government will require that they be handed back to English custody."

A Cairo despatch says the evidence of Arabi's complicity in the June massacre is possibly insufficient to secure his conviction, but there is little doubt that it is "not proven" rather than "not guilty." Eight hundred documents in the correspondence between Arabi and various persons which Gen. Wolseley captured after the battle of Tel-el-Kebir have reached the Foreign Office.

At the private investigation in the cases of the rebel prisoners, most of them objected to being questioned regarding the events prior to the outbreak. Arabi especially urged that they were covered by the Khedive's general pardon. Arabi denies that the June massacre were precipitated by the presence of the British fleet, and says he was in no way responsible for them. The Alexandria bombardment was done after a mere twenty-four hours' notice, which was entirely too short to allow the people to remove or to carry away their goods. Arabi alleges that he and his officers did all in their power to keep under control this dangerous feeling, and would have succeeded in preventing the outbreak if Admiral Seymour had not been in such haste. It was a common belief among his staff that the British were well informed of the dangerous temper of the populace, and knew that a bombardment under the circumstances would drive the Egyptians into frenzy. Arabi said all the bloodshed was caused by a Maltese stabbering an Arab who was denouncing Admiral Seymour's conduct. In contradiction of the charge of rebellion, Arabi produced evidence that he was acting in perfect fealty to the Sultan and Khedive.

Baker Pasha proposes to concentrate along the Cairo railway the war material spread over Egypt, and to select therefrom an equipment for the new army, and to sell the surplus. He recommends Riaz Pasha to undertake the organization of police.

A special cablegram to the New York Sunday Sun says the shareholders of the Suez Canal have evidently got to be coerced.

The Times has again, in all apparent seriousness, taken up the question of a new canal from Alexandria to Cairo, and from Cairo to Suez. This can be constructed for $50,000,000. It would be of incalculable benefit to the western region, now beyond the reach of irrigation, and would make Cairo a seaport. It would require only one day longer in transit than the present canal. The whole project is elaborately and plausibly set forth.

WILL YOU EXCHANGE a case of Dyspepsia or Biliousness for 75 cents? It is awfully unwise to agonize under the many ailments arising from Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Disordered Stomach and Liver, when this offer is made to you in your own home in all sincerity, with an absolute certainty of curing you.

ZOPESA (from Brazil) cures Dyspepsia and Biliousness. A single dose relieves; a sample bottle convinces; a 75 cent bottle cures.

It acts directly upon the Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys, Cleansing, Correcting, Regulating, Zopesa gives energy and vim to the Brain, and Muscle, simply by working wonders upon the Digestion, and giving activity to the Liver.

Get this out, take it to any dealer in medicines, and get at least one 75 cent bottle of Zopesa, and tell your neighbor how it acts. It is warranted to cure Dyspepsia and Biliousness.

THE PRIDE OF THE VALLEY MEDICINE. We can safely say that hundreds come to us for the great lung and blood purifier before going west. Read the following statement: We could give thousands of the same kind if it were necessary.

"I certify that I was troubled with Catarrh in the head, gathering of phlegm in the throat, choking and coughing at night for years, so I could not sleep, often troubled with dull, lifeless feelings, pains in the chest and back. After giving hundreds of dollars to doctors, and giving up all hopes, I tried the PRIDE OF THE VALLEY, and am now able to do my work after seven years' sickness."

The Funny Things We Do.

Have you reflected upon the very many funny things we do, for which we can give no particular reason? How is it that we do not give five cheers, four cheers, two cheers, one cheer? How is it we give three cheers and no more!

Why is it that a man cannot see a bundle of tooth-picks without helping himself to one when he does not need it? Why is it that the majority of people use the right hand instead of the left, and cannot help smiling at those who use the latter?

Why is it that when one asks us the number of days there are in a certain month, we always say to ourselves, "thirty days has September, April, June and November?"

Why is it that we turn to the right instead of to the left, when the left is far preferable, and if adopted would save many an accident on railroads and highways? The driver always sits upon the right of the vehicle; in turning to the right he is furthest away from the wagon he passes, and unless he is an expert cannot tell how close he comes to the wheels of the man who passes by him; whereas, if he turned to the left side, he could look straight down, see to a fraction how close he was approaching an obstacle and thus avoid it. The engineer runs upon the right hand track, and sits upon the right hand side of his cab. The long, narrow locomotive, with its sand tower, belfry and smoke-stack is in front of him, cutting off his observations. He can see only his own track, while the opposite, save at the distance, is almost entirely unseen by him.

Custom, owing to causes we know not of has established these curious precedents and from observation and education we unwittingly do thousands of things that are, to say the least, funny, and that we cannot explain.

A Saint at the Zoo. Capt. Harry Piper, Alderman and Superintendent of the Zoological Garden lately communicated the following facts to a reporter of one of Toronto's most influential papers: "Some time ago we purchased from the collection of animals at Central Park, New York, a monstrous Russian bear, which we have named 'Peter the Great,' on account of his tremendous size. Not long after 'Peter' arrived we found that he was suffering from the rheumatism, and in a pretty bad state. Pete was not the only one in the Zoo, which had a touch of that delicious torture; the lion likewise had it and in fact I was just being cured of a bad case of the rheumatism, myself, by the use of St. Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy. I found St. Jacobs Oil an excellent remedy, for it cured me in a short while, and my case was a very aggravated one. I argued that if it cured men it must be good for animals as well;

Why the Term "Commencement" is Used. A correspondent writes as follows to the Albany Times: "I have noticed that several of your readers are in perplexity as to the meaning of the word 'commencement,' as applied to collegiate exercises. I had occasion some years ago to study up the origin of this and other words of like character, in the sense used. The term is an Americanism, or more properly, a New Englandism, originating many years ago among the Yankees in Connecticut, whose vocation it was to direct the education of the young. With a shrewd business sense they determined that the then growing practice of distributing premiums might with advantage be adopted at the beginning instead of at the close of the term. All who expected prizes of distinction were thus tempted to continue at school after the close of the summer vacation, the prizes being awarded and bestowed at the commencement of the term following that in which they had been merited, and only given to those who had renewed their scholarship. The scheme became generally adopted, and was in vogue only a few years, when the former custom was renewed, but the exercises retained the name, and this piece of Yankee ingenuity is the real reason for the peculiar term in question.

D. of Boston, Mass., cures Pulmonary Consumption, Sick Headache, Nervous Attacks, Vertigo and Neuralgia, and all wasting diseases of the human system. They are pleasant to the taste, and only cost fifty cents a bottle. Sold by James Wilson.

Notes.

A CRACK SHOT.—Exeter can boast of having within its limits a large number of splendid shots, but we think by the time Robert Sandersy returns from the Northwest he will be able to claim the championship of the Exeter gun club. During his stay on the prairie Province he has killed all the game that came within his reach, so we are informed. He must have made it pretty scarce in some parts, for we hear of him killing in one day no less than 70 prairie chickens.

A DEAD BEAT.—A few days since a man who gave his name as McPherson, came to town, and called upon one of our medical men, and informed him that he had purchased a farm in the township of Osborne, near Farquhar, and wished to engage him as the family doctor. A few days having elapsed, McPherson came to town on Tuesday last, and informed the doctor that his presence was required, as Mrs. McPherson had taken sick. After having made the necessary arrangements with the doctor, McPherson started for a liquor store to purchase some brandy, and a quantity of tea. Having made the purchase he again returned to the doctor and inquired if he thought brandy would do for medical purposes. He was answered in the negative. McPherson was then supplied with some brandy which the doctor had in possession. Shortly after the doctor had left to visit the sick woman, the grocer's suspicions were aroused that McPherson was not to be relied on and started out in search of the rascal. He overtook him at the Sauble bridge but as he was going in the direction of Farquhar the grocer concluded to wait until the doctor returned. It was not long before the doctor arrived home again, when the grocer was informed that no such person has lived at Farquhar. The grocer again started in pursuit of McPherson, whom he caught in the vicinity of the station, but he had disposed of his tea to Mr. Reynolds in payment of a little account he was owing there. The grocer finding he could get no satisfaction out of his victimizer cut a small limb from one of the trees and administered it freely.—[Times.

Mr. Wm. Ranson, of South Norwich, says: For sixteen years I suffered from Biliousness, never had any medicine done me any permanent good until recommended by our druggists. (J. W. Law Fish & Co., Orterville.) to try Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters, which have done me more good than any medicine I have ever taken. I would, with the utmost confidence, recommend them to all suffering from Biliousness, etc. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cts. a bottle.

The License Question.

A queer muddle Mr. Meredith makes of the liquor license question. He says the Crooks Act has good features, but he believes "the improvement in the liquor traffic is due to the increasing temperance sentiment of the country." Here is an admission that the country is growing more temperate, in the face of the allegations of the Mail that more liquor is consumed than formerly. Mr. Meredith also says that a greater proportion of licenses are granted to Conservatives than Reformers, while the Mail is choking itself in the endeavor to yell out that Conservatives are refused licenses and Reformers favored. But Mr. Meredith says the Conservatives receive the licenses in order that their mouths may be muzzled during election times. This may be very good Gaelic in distant parts, but Mr. Meredith will scarcely repeat it in London, where some of his most active supporters are hotel-keepers.—[Advertiser.

Precept and Practice.

Here is a good thing on our paternal government: A convict says he was sent to prison for being dishonest, and yet he is compelled ever day to cut out pieces of pasteboard, which are put between the soles of the cheap shoes made there and palmed off on the innocent public as leather.

After some remarks relative to our educational periodical, the association adjourned until the afternoon.
FRIDAY AFTERNOON.
Mr. W. J. Freedland, of London, in the afternoon explained in a very clear and interesting manner the Tonic-Sol-Fa system of teaching vocal music, for which a cordial vote of thanks was given him.

Mr. Cameron then took up the subject of monthly reports, illustrating by diagram. A very interesting discussion followed. The association adjourned until the afternoon.
FRIDAY EVENING.
After the minutes of the morning and evening sittings had been read and confirmed, the following programme was carried out:
Song, "The Bridge," S. P. Hall; reading, "The Orange and Green," Miss Harries; reading, "Tom's Little Star," H. I. Strang; duet, "Whispering Hope," the Misses Trainer.

At this stage of the proceedings, in view of the early departure of Miss Bertha Trainer from among us, Mr. H. I. Strang moved, seconded by Mr. W. R. Miller, "That the thanks of this Institute be and is hereby given to the Misses Trainer for the prominent part they have taken in making our literary gatherings so pleasant by so cheerfully and so efficiently supplying the musical part of the programme, and that our best wishes attend Miss B. Trainer in her distant home." The resolution was carried by a standing vote. The Misses Trainer acknowledged the resolution, by very fittingly singing "Good Bye." The programme was then resumed as follows:
Reading, "Mrs. Caudle's Lecture," Mr. James Mitchell; reading, "The Station Agent's Story," Miss Bond; duet, "Hope Beyond," Messrs. Henderson and Hall; address, "Common Errors in Pronunciation," Mr. J. Elliott; song, "Good Bye, Sweetheart," A. Saunders; reading, "The Spirit Visitants," Miss Oliver; duet, "In the Starlight," Mrs. Moorhouse and Miss Cooke; reading, "Alone," T. McGillicuddy. The entertainment, which was a very successful one, closed with national anthem.

SATURDAY MORNING.
The President opened the session with prayer, after which the minutes of last session were read and confirmed.
Mr. Elliott continued the subject of "Pronunciation of words," which was the most interesting topic discussed at the convention, after which Mr. A. Cresswell read an excellent paper on "The Useful and the Useless in Public School Teaching." A lengthy and interesting discussion ensued on the many points brought out in the essay.
A committee for the nomination of officers was then appointed, consisting of Messrs. Brown, Moore and Leigh. Messrs. Elliott and Cameron were appointed auditors.

The Ryerson committee then presented the following resolution.
"That we, the members of the West Huron Teachers' Association, take this, the earliest opportunity afforded us of expressing our strong sense of the very great loss the country has sustained by the death of Rev. Dr. Ryerson, who for nearly a third of a century as ably and worthily filled the responsible position of Chief Superintendent of Education for Ontario, and who in that capacity rendered his native Province an almost invaluable service by establishing on a broad and firm basis an educational system which has commanded the admiration of the highest educational authorities alike of the Old and the New World; and we recognize the obligation resting upon us as teachers and friends of education to use our influence to assist in securing for his name a prominent and lasting place in the history of our country."
The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mr. D. D. Yule then proceeded to solve some of the more difficult problems of a recent intermediate Algebra paper, showing by his facility in operation that he was quite at home in his subject.
Mr. Stewart next proceeded with the subject "Geography, with more particular reference to Map Drawing." During the course of his remarks many valuable hints on the teaching of geography were given.
The audit committee then presented the report of the Treasurer, accompanied with their own certificate that the books were correctly kept, and that the total receipts for the year were $159.77, total expenditure $52.50, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of $107.27. The report was adopted.
The following was then presented by the resolution committee: Resolved that in the judgment of this association monthly reports are beneficial in the schools, and that some system of monthly report should be adopted in every school as a means of creating a greater interest among the pupils in their work, and of informing the parents, how their children are progressing. Adopted.

The committee on nomination of officers then presented the following report, which was adopted: We, your committee nominated to appoint officers for the year 1882-3, beg leave to report as follows:—President—G. Baird, sr.; 1st Vice-President, W. M. Leigh; 2nd Vice-President, Miss Trainer; Sec-Treas., F. Crasswell. Councilors—Messrs. Yule, P. Strang, Lawrence and Misses Jenkins and Oliver.

A circular with reference to the minutes of the provincial Teachers' Association was then read, and was motion the secretary was requested to furnish each member of this Association with a copy. The usual votes of thanks to retiring officers, to those reading papers and to all who had in any way taken part in the work of the Association, were then given.
A very pleasant, harmonious and profitable meeting of the association then closed, to meet again at Exeter at the call of the executive.

WEST HURON ROOTS.

The Judges Present a Very Interesting Report.

Having examined the root crops entered with the West Riding Agriculture Society for competition in accordance with their rules and prize list we beg to report as follows:—We examined in all ten fields of carrots, six of turnips, twelve of mangolds and three of potatoes, and each case gave a decided improvement from former years in many respects. Every field showed signs of cultivation and in most instances under-draining had been attended to as well as efficient subsoiling. Last year we advised growers to put more seed in the soil as we found the various crops were exceedingly thin in the drills, which convinced us that economy was being exercised in sowing seeds. This year we find our advice was taken very generally and the result is a much evener crop. Experience has also shown the majority of growers that some crops can be successfully grown much closer in drills than others. After our experience for the past years in judging these crops we find that carrots can be grown and properly cultivated in drills nine to the rod, manured from centre to centre, and with care in horse cultivating even ten can be worked in every rod, but unless the soil is rich and mellow nine is a rule enough. Turnips can be best grown with eight drills to the rod on ordinary soil, but with rich top soil they will give the best results to the acre by sowing nine drills to the rod. Mangolds require more room for cultivation when the crop is well up than any of the other roots and hence eight drills is usually enough to the rod, but where the soil is mellow and clean enough to need no after cultivation for weeding they can be sown nine drills to the rod. The great object to be gained in growing these crops is to obtain the largest yield of well matured food to the acre. To obtain this the farmer should secure thorough under-drainage in the first place, the soil should be subsoiled where it is stiff, especially when the crop is either Mangolds or carrots; as these roots feed deeper than the turnip, the rod should be sowed in drills as close as possible, together leaving only sufficient room for after cultivation. Many make a mistake in thinning out carrots too much, while in one or two instances we found them too thick considering the soil.

The following are the prize takers:—CARROTS.—John Varcoe of Colborne, 1st prize. The soil is a clay loam, free and well drained, from fall wheat last year, manured with twenty loads to the acre broadcast, and 400 lbs. salt to the acre; there were eight drills to the rod, but the carrots were double rowed in the drill, giving 69½ lbs. to the rod in a single drill, making 112½ bush to the acre. John Robertson, of Colborne, 2nd prize. Soil clay loam, worked from oats stubble, manured with eight loads to the acre; nine drills to the rod, giving 64 lbs. to the rod in a single drill, making 980 bush to the acre. Henry Curwin of the Huron road, Goderich Township, 3rd prize. Soil a stiff clay loam, worked from stubble last year, manured with 12 loads to the acre in the fall broadcast, nine drills to the rod giving 54½ lbs. to the rod in a single drill, making 974 bush to the acre.

TURNIPS.—C. L. McIntosh, of the 4th con. Goderich Township, 1st prize. Soil light sandy loam mixed with limestone gravel, worked from stubble, manured in spring 10 loads to the acre in the drills; nine drills to the rod giving 54½ lbs. to the rod in a single drill, making 981 1/8 bush to the acre. John Hunter, Huron road, Goderich Township, 2nd prize. Soil a free clay and limestone gravel topsoil, and stiff clay subsoil, worked from corn, manured 15 loads to the acre in the drills, 500 lbs. salt and 100 lbs. plaster applied to the plants in drills when well up, which completely destroyed the fly and gives the crop a clean, fresh, healthy appearance, eight drills to the rod, giving 59½ lbs. to the rod in single drill, making 964 bushels to the acre. This variety is Bruce's Improved, a nice shaped root, fine neck, and roots smooth and round. The others were all the Skirvin variety. Alexander Kirkpatrick, of the first concession, Ashfield, 3rd prize. Soil clay loam, stiff clay subsoil, worked from stubble, manured 20 loads to the acre broadcast in spring; eight drills to the rod, giving 56½ lbs. to the rod in single drill, making 911½ bush to the acre.

MANGOLDS.—Samuel Bisset, of Colborne, 1st prize. Soil clay loam, worked from roots, no manure. This piece of soil had been occupied as a barn yard and hence is rich with the yard runnings of years, showing how important it is to preserve the manure water and use judiciously for roots, especially in dry weather. Nine drills to the rod giving 165½ lbs. to the rod in single drill, making 3093½ bushels to the acre. Mr. Henry Curwin, of Goderich Township, 2nd prize; same soil as for carrots, manured in drills in spring 12 loads to the acre; nine drills to the rod giving 123 pounds to the rod in single drill making 2187 bushels to the acre. Mr. John Hunter, Goderich Township, 3rd prize; same soil as for turnips, manured 15 loads to the acre in drills, 500 lbs. salt to the acre in drills when seed sowed, and 500 lbs. again when the plants were well formed. Carter Intermediate variety, eight drill to the rod giving 123½ lbs. to the rod in single drill, making 1922½ bushels to the acre.

Mr. Henry Curwin, of Goderich township, no manure, best average of Turnips, Mangolds and Carrots grown from seed, purchased from Mr. James McNeil, of Goderich, we award him the prize offered specially by Mr. McNeil.
POTATOES.—Mr. Henry Curwin, 1st prize. Soil, clay, worked from sod, no manure; in hills nine rows to the rod, giving 23 lbs. to the single rod in a row, making 417½ bush. to the acre. Variety Beauty of Hebron, samples medium in large, clean and scarcely any small.

Mr. M. C. Gordon, of the 3rd Concession Goderich township, 2nd prize, still light loam worked from corn, manured 20 loads to the acre in drills, eight drills to the rod, giving 20½ lbs. to the rod in single drill, making 322½ bushels to the acre. Variety early Rose. Mr. John Hunter, Goderich Township, 3rd prize, soil clay and muck loam, worked from 17½ lbs. to the rod in single drill, making 247 bushels to the acre. Variety, Late Rose.

We are glad to observe the growing interest taken in root growing and the fact that while many feeders consider turnips better for beefing cattle and for sheep, mangolds are considered a more desirable crop for general feeding and keeping. We would recommend the Society hereafter to make the requisite acreage for showing more in the case of mangolds, say one acre.

ALEX. McD. ALLAN,
JAMES STEWART.

Colborne.

NEW IMPORTATIONS.—Mr. J. O. Stewart, of Colborne, has received an addition to his flock of Scotch sheep. It is the fine-bone "Osson" sire imported by Henry Marsh, and is "L. W. L." bred by H. B. B. the Prince of Wales.

Molesworth.

CALL ACCEPTED.—The Presbyterian congregation of Molesworth has given a call to the Rev. C. Bickell, of Bevelley, and the reverend gentleman has accepted the call. The stipend is $600 and a free manse. The induction services have been appointed to take place on the 17th inst. Mr. Bickell is a young man, having just finished his college course, and consequently, this is his first charge. He is an earnest and excellent preacher, and is likely to give the highest satisfaction to the people of Molesworth.

Hibbert.

AN OLD RESIDENT GONE.—There died at his residence on the 17th Concession of Hibbert, on the 21st ult., one of the oldest and most esteemed residents of this township, in the person of Mr. John McDonald. Mr. McDonald was a native of Invernesshire, Scotland, and came to Canada in 1847. He settled in Hibbert on the farm where he lived until his death, 35 years ago. When he came to this country he brought with him a large amount of stock, which he sold at the Rogersville Hotel for refreshments, and as he lived in this township and took up his farm, and he had not one cent. At the time of his death he owned two splendid farms, one in Hibbert and one in Tuckersmith, free from incumbrance, besides a lot of other property. This shows what industry has accomplished in Canada.

Leoburn.

Mrs. Rome and family will leave for Muskoka on Tuesday next, to join her husband, who has taken up land and gone into farming in that district.

Mr. Archie Strachan, of Bruce Mines, is at present the guest of his father Mr. James Strachan. He looks as if Superior's friends agreed with him.

Mrs. John Horton and daughter are home again after a pleasant visit to friends east.

THE COVER.—Some of our young lads and lasses have been getting up early to see the comet. We wonder some of them didn't think of "sitting up" until the celestial visitor made his appearance. It would be a grand excuse for them to make.

RUFFIANLY.—Some evil disposed person has ventured again to break some of the window panes of the Catholic church. If this sacrilegious conduct continues, strict methods will be made by the church authorities to find out the offender and bring him to justice.

Bennairlor.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Mr. Geo. Phorby, while returning home on Tuesday night of last week arriving along by Mr. Miller's, noticed a buggy in the dark standing at the side door of the Hotel. He backed his horses to get clear and suddenly went down the bank, the wagon and horses rolled over 2 or 3 times. Several went to the rescue and found the old gentleman lying under the box, with the end board across his throat, and the horses on top of the box he had a narrow escape from being choaked.

PERSONALS.—The Rev. W. N. Vollick, of Paris, will occupy the M. E. pulpit a week from Sunday. Mr. Vollick will be welcomed, having been pastor of this place last year. Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Pfammmer, of this place, have left to live with their daughter Mrs. Squires (better known as Miss Pfammmer).—Mr. J. K. Durst has been off attending the funeral of his father near Stratford.

ENTERPRISING.—Mr. J. R. Durst, blacksmith, has engaged Mr. Wm. Edwards, lately of D. K. Strachan's, Goderich.

Ashfield.

OBITUARY.—We regret to record the death of Mrs. Bisset, daughter of Mr. P. O'Connor of this township, which occurred at her father's residence on the 4th inst. Deceased had been suffering from consumption for about a year, and about eight months ago, came home to her father's residence from the States, in the hope that the change of air would prove beneficial. The hopes of her many friends were doomed to disappointment, however, for she gradually sank until death closed her eyes on the 4th inst. The funeral was largely attended by the residents of the section, by whom the deceased was well known and highly respected. Her surviving relatives have the sympathy of the entire community, in the loss she has sustained.
