SQUIBOGRAPHS.

The indictment of the Toronto Jail as a nuisance meets with the hearty endorsement of the inmates.

When Commander Peary learned that Manitoba claimed the North Pole as its Arctic boundary he clapped on full sail and struck for home.

There is another crisis in Morocco, and it is predicted that Christmas slippers will be dearer than ever.

The Queen of Sweden is visiting her mother, the Queen of England, and the royal ladies are kept busy copying each other's favorite cooking recipes.

Weep and you weep alone, say "Smile?" and your friends all step to the front.

His ulster coat hung on the rack
Its seams were torn and rent
He bought his wife a sealskin sacque
It took his last red cent.

The old tariff game will be played in Ottawa for the next few weeks for all there is in it. High and low are both after the count.

Things are in a bad way in Hamilton, the street car won't go to the mountain, and the mountain won't come to the street car.

You can talk about your Latin roots
Science and bugology
But when the roads are sloppy
You want something not too foppo
And you owe no apology
If you wear gum boots.

There is no fear of French domination in Canada as long as there is a kick left in a Hamilton Tiger.

In the great inter-collegiate football match between Michigan and Pennsylvania it was again demonstrated that the Dutch Compane is the best compinee.

The English schoolma'ams visiting in Toronto expressed a desire to view some of the historic ruins in the city, and Inspector Hughes escorted them out to see the relics of the exhibition grand stand.

WHEN you want an overcoat that will look right, fit right and price right, hunt up Swift's.

COUNTRY boys report the annual fall harvest of coons quite up to that of former seasons. The animals are fat and sassy, as usual, and quite a number of removed skins adorn the granary doors.

A YOUNG man employed as a painter with the G. T. R. paint gang got obstreperous Monday evening and fell into the clutches of Chief Shaw. Squire Taylor assessed him a dollar and costs for his trespass.

IN transporting a heavy piece of machinery from the G. T. R. to the wire works on Wednesday morning, the load upset in the mud and it was necessary to take the machine apart before it could be re-loaded.

THOS. MOLOY and W. S. ROGERS received 3 live alligators the other day from Pensacola, Florida, sent to them by Chas. Cole. It is reported that they are going to start a Zoological garden in Thedford.

We got word to-day from our Xmas shipment of Irish handkerchiefs and fancy linens. They will be here soon.—SWIFT BROS.

THE local plug on the G. T. R., when going out to Wyoming at 4.40 Monday, struck a couple of cows which had wandered onto the track just this side of the 12th line. One was unhurt, but the other had one of its hind legs broken, and had to be killed. They belonged to Wm. Kedwell.

The ratpayers of Alvinston are asked to vote on Nov. 30, for or against a bond to loan Mr. Smith, of Rodney, $3,000 for ten years without interest and exemption from taxes (excepting school tax), to aid in establishing a basket and nail keg factory.

LAST Saturday was one of the biggest days in the shoe line since McDonnell & Son started the clearing sale. Prices fell.

OWING to inability to secure some special high class talent for the St. Andrew's concert, announced for Wednesday evening next, the ladies of the Presbyterian church have decided to postpone the entertainment for the present. The date will be announced later.

A TEACHER in an east side school in New York asked Johnnie Smithers to mention the different parts of the body. Johnnie—"Well, there are the trunk, head and legs. Teacher—"Is that all? What do you throw a ball with?" Johnnie—"Oh, yes, me wing."

To keep you warm that's our business. All wool underwear that does not shrink, ask for Watson's.—SWIFT BROS.

REV. A. MCKIBBIN, of Wyoming, formerly of Ailsa Craig, has just had issued from the press another book, the product of his own pen, entitled "The Pancake Preacher." Mr. McKibbin, under the nom de plume of MacCloie, published a similar religious work a couple of years ago.

THE fellow who claims to know says that it takes a man with a bank account to draw a check; a pretty woman to draw attention; a horse to draw a cart; a porous plaster to draw the skin; a toper to draw a cork; a free lunch to draw a crowd, and an advertisement in the papers to draw trade.

No need to send out of town for your "At Home" cards. We have some of the latest designs, beautifully engraved, at this office.

LEAVE your order for celery with McDonnell & Son.

OFFICIAL notices have been received in Sarnia by those concerned that an order in council has been passed appointing A. E. Sarvis Provincial constable at Sarnia, in the room and stead of Andrew Murray at a salary of $750 per annum, the appointment to take effect from the first day of December, 1906.

THE Rev. A. P. Stirrett, a returned missionary from Nigeria, gave a very interesting address in the Methodist Church on Sunday evening on mission work in that distant land. Mr. Stirrett exhibited a number of articles illustrating the customs of the natives, and the productions of the country. The missionary is an old Lambton boy and purposes returning to Africa to resume his work.

FIFTH avenue, New York, is to be widened to accommodate two more lines of vehicles, and any buildings encroaching on this line will have to have the protruding part removed so that the sidewalk may be moved back. It is said this will affect many of the finest buildings on the avenue.

The killing of the unfortunate Sarnia boy Mike Ward in the sparring contest at Grand Rapids on Thursday night seems to have aroused the people of the State to the scandal of permitting these encounters, and will probably have the effect of putting an end to prize fighting in Michigan.

It has been decided by the Department of Education that for the year 1907 no questions will be set in section B of synthetic geometry in the course prescribed for senior teachers' non-professional examinations. After next year the course as outlined in the appendix to the regulations will be adhered to.

We should have your special Xmas copies as soon as possible.—SWIFT BROS.

WHEN the work of electrification of the tunnel is completed, the tunnel section will present a busy appearance. Nearly seventy-five large steel bridges will be erected to span the tracks through the yards. Over a hundred incandescent lights and forty large arc lamps will be scattered about the yards to illuminate the vicinity of the tracks.

THE Rev. R. D. Hamilton gave his popular and entertaining lecture, "Home from California," before the Epworth League on Tuesday evening. Owing to the disagreeable weather the attendance was not large. Mr. Hamilton is a pleasing speaker and gave an interesting description of his trip to the coast.

THE induction of the Reverend J. W. Jones to the united parish of Adelaide and Kerwood, will take place in St. Anne's church, Adelaide, on Tuesday, November, 27th at 2.30 p.m. The ceremony will be performed and the sermon preached by the venerable Archdeacon Richardson D. C. L., of London, assisted by other clergy.

A special meeting of the Watford Junior Hockey club held on Tuesday evening, W. Ferguson, of the Sterling Bank, was elected secretary-treasurer of the club succeeding R. A. Baird, removed to Berlin. There is little prospect of the proposed western group being arranged and Ingersoll is likely to be Watford's nearest opponent. London will not have a team in the O.H.A. this year as will be announced in this issue and Mr. Cantine, the promoter, was in town Wednesday in the interests of the proposition.

HERE is a puzzle that puzzles everybody; Take the number of your living brothers, double the amount, add to it three, multiply by five, add to it the number of your living sisters, multiply the result by ten add the number of deaths of brothers and subtract the 150 from the result. The right figure will be the number of living sisters, the middle the number of living brothers. Try it and see.

MR. E. T. MILES, surveyor of the C. P. R. was in Stratford for a few days this week taking levels and getting a geographical map of the surrounding country for the proposed C.P.R. road which no doubt in time will pass through Stratford. He left Wednesday and will make his report to his divisional engineer, when it will finally reach Sir Thos. Shaughnessy, with whom the deputation took up the subject some time ago. A representative of the C. P. R. was in Watford this week looking over the ground, and it seems quite probable that the line will go through.

THAT there are many farm sales of implements and pure-bred stock in every township this fall need not depress prices. There are plenty of people wanting stock and implements, and if they know about the sale, the stuff generally sells for its full value. Too often sellers are afraid to publish their sales in such away as to attract buyers for their goods. Nothing pays like printer's ink if the man tries to live up to what he advertises, and most advertisers do. The times change and ideas and methods also fluctuate from the old ones our fathers had. The wide-awake business man gets the cake every time.

ELIZABETH was asked to tell all she knew about the horse, relates the Philadelphia Record. She wrote: "The horse is an oblong animal with a head at the beginning and a tail at the other end and two legs before and two afterward. Horses are of three kinds—those with large feet, thick bodies and short necks are for hauling and working. The kind with medium big feet, long legs and slender bodies, that have long, thin necks, are for racing each other. And the nicest kind are not so long-legged have archy necks and plump bodies like our Nance, are just to ride on back of and have pleasure. If you give our Nance an apple she will know you next time she is at the curb and come on the pavement after you. She is very lovingly."

BISSETT's carpet sweeper is the best. T. Dodds sells them.

THE evangelistic services in Caldwell's Hall, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Stephens, are being well attended. Mr. Stephens is an earnest and forcible revivalist and his meetings will be continued through the week.

A SEVERE shock was given to a host of friends of Mike Ward, the Sarnia boxer, when word was received Friday morning that his fight at Grand Rapids with Harry Lewis, of Philadelphia, had ended with severe injury to him, followed by news of his death. The funeral in Sarnia on Monday was one of the largest and most imposing ever seen in that town.

We make to order heavy tweed pants, the kind that wears, $2.75.—SWIFT BROS.

It makes us very tired, indeed to have merchants urge on us to ask the people to trade at home and not send away to mail order houses or big city stores for their goods, and when we go around to settle our accounts have presented to us a bill head printed away from home or receive copy for an ad. written on a letter head which never "trade at home." Yes we believe in it, but those who cry out so loudly and so persistently should certainly be first to set the example.—Ex.

THE motion picture views of the San Francisco earthquake given in the Music Hall on Wednesday evening attracted a large audience, despite the extremely inclement weather. In addition to the earthquake views the great bank robbery was illustrated, and a talented young lady contributed a number of pleasing musical selections. The entertainment gave excellent satisfaction, and would be greeted by a crowded house should it return. The Co. appears in Arkona this (Thursday) night, and will no doubt be well patronized.

THE Grand Trunk employees residing in the tunnel section are daily becoming more excited over the action of the company in discharging eight of the passenger conductors, says the Port Huron Times and the statement has been made that the conductors will not be the only ones to suffer, and that the work of all employees is being investigated. On nearly every train that arrives and departs from Port Huron it is claimed there are Grand Trunk detectives or Pinkerton men. It is also said that two detectives are stationed at one of the hotels at the tunnel to watch the men.

T. DODDS is headquarters for hardware and tinware, stoves, etc. Everything you require, and the prices right.

MR. JONES is in the habit of giving Henry a large piece of chocolate cake whenever he came to see her, says the Youth's Companion; but one day, when she was expecting company, she left the cake uncut, and did not offer him any. For a time Henry waited, and then remarked: "Mrs. Jones, it seems to me I smell chocolate cake?" Mrs. Jones laughed, and going into the cupboard, cut him a tiny slice. "That's all there is for you to-day, Henry," she declared, as she returned with it. "Thank you, Mrs. Jones," said the child, politely disappointed, and then added, with a great sigh, "Seems strange that I could smell so small a piece."

THE resignation of Mr. Alex Kelly as a superintendent of the House of Refuge is said to be due to a trifling difference on a question of salary. It is to be hoped that the county council will not allow a false spirit of economy to cost the county the services of a practical and experienced man, who has saved many times his salary in the efficient and business-like way in which he has attended to every detail of his duties.—Sarnia Canadian.

MR. KELLY is well-known throughout the county as an efficient and painstaking official, whom it would be hard to replace. The County of Lambton can well afford to pay its employees decent compensation and it would be a big mistake to let Mr. Kelly go for the sake of a few dollars.

TURKEY DAY.

Tuesday was turkey day in town and the scene at the G. T. R. freight sheds was a busy one. Over two hundred rigs were lined up each having from half a dozen to forty birds. The total delivery amounted to 3778 turkeys, 50 geese and 100 ducks, weighing about twenty tons, probably the largest poultry shipment that ever left town. Several individual cheques amounted to over a hundred dollars. The total money paid out was in the neighborhood of $5,000. R. E. Johnston did the buying for J. Ivor & Son, of Stratford, the shipment being consigned to Vancouver.

CURLEES ORGANIZE.

The annual meeting of the Watford Curling Club was held in the Fire Hall on Wednesday evening of last week. The President, J. H. Hume, in the chair. The following officers were elected: Hon. President—Rev. S. W. Muxworthy. President—D. G. Parker. Vice-Pres.—J. Livingstone. Sec'y.—Treas.—G. L. Bryce. Auditors—D. Alexander, W. T. Fuller. Chaplain—Rev. E. B. Horne. Ice Committee—P. J. Dodds, J. W. McLaren, J. McKeercher. Finance Committee—J. H. Hume, Dr. Gibson, J. McKeercher.

The Presidents of the Petrolia, Sarnia and Stratford clubs were made honorary members.

The membership fee was left at $3, and several new members were added.

An adjourned meeting will be held at the same place on Friday evening.

PRESENTATION.

On Wednesday evening the officers and teachers of the Watford Methodist church called upon Mrs. Fred Williams and presented her with the following address accompanied by a well filled purse:—

To Mrs. FRED WILLIAMS, We, the members of the Watford Methodist Sabbath school, having learned that you, one of our beloved infant class teachers, are about to remove from our midst, take this opportunity to express our high appreciation of you personally, and of your work. We have found you a true friend, a faithful Christian and an earnest worker in the cause of our Master, and we do assure you that you will be followed to your new home with our prayers and best wishes. We ask you to accept this slight token in remembrance of us, and we pray that you and your family may be safely kept in your new home so that at last we may all meet in our Father's home above.

Signed on behalf of the school: G. HICKS, I. FORTUNE, M. THOMPSON.

Mrs. Williams acknowledged the kindly sentiments expressed in a few appreciative words.

NAPIER.

Mr. David McNally had a rib broken on Friday.

Mr. Sidney Sutherland, Chatham, spent the week end with his sister.

Miss Nellie Brock, Stratford, is visiting her many old friends in the village.

Mr. Ezekiel Mackey has accepted a position with Mr. F. Hancey, Stratford, and will commence work at once.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church is arranging for its annual S. S. Xmas. tree on Friday, Dec. 21st.

Rev. and Mrs. Bell, Miss McNally, Miss Bailey, Miss Field, Miss F. McPhail, Miss Dunlop and Miss Annie McRae attended the Sunday school institute in Alvinston on Friday last.

Rev. Jones and family have moved from Milverton and taken up their residence at St. Anne's rectory, Adelaide Village.

Rural Schools.

Complaint is made that in the more remote parts of the province the standard of education is woefully deficient and that a practically illiterate section of the population is being created to its own detriment and that of the community at large. No doubt the conditions found in sparsely districts do not lend themselves to the provision of good educational facilities, and it is evident that the system hitherto in force has failed to produce the results expected. Somewhat the same difficulty has been experienced in the United States and the department of agriculture is now engaged on a plan for the "establishment of a complete educational ladder on which the farmer boy can climb from the rural school up to the agricultural high school and then on up to the agricultural college."

The main object of this plan is to check the drift citywards, but incidentally, it touches on the point which at the present moment particularly concerns Ontario. About a month ago The Boston Evening Transcript published a letter from its Washington correspondent explaining the position of the movement and the attitude of the department, which, he wrote, was "friendly to the movement through the United States for consolidated rural schools intended to take the place of the little district schools. One consolidated rural school can be established in a township and the children hauled thereto in covered wagons. They are housed in better buildings and given better teachers and better instruction than under the system of one small school for each school district of a few square miles."

The educational advantages attending the erection of consolidated rural schools are obvious and an adaptation of the system to the special circumstances of Ontario might go far to solve the problem presented by the increase in illiteracy. The effort now being made by the United States department of agriculture to provide an educational system that will build up the country life of the people should be carefully watched, since the tendency to move citywards is as noticeable here as elsewhere.

Bicycles Now Autos.

Nine years ago, by actual observation, there were 1,247 bicycles around the junction of Broadway and Seventy-second street, New York, between sunrise and sunset on a late September day, and not one automobile; while, according to a careful record made one day last week, four bicycles passed the same point and 243 automobiles.

My Hair is Extra Long

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only genuine hair-food you can buy. It gives new life to the hair-bulbs. You save what hair you have, and get more, too. And it keeps the scalp clean and healthy.

PROOF THAT BILEANS CURE

RESULT OF A SCIENTIFIC INQUIRY.
ONTARIO LADY'S EVIDENCE

The leading scientific journal, "Science Sitings," recently made an exhaustive analysis and examination of Bileans for Biliousness, and says:

"We have satisfied ourselves that Bileans are of purely vegetable origin. Our laboratory experiments and practical tests have disclosed to us a valuable preparation . . . excellent for constipation . . . and as a regulator of the liver and bile. Bileans increase secretion in the whole of the digestive tract. When employed to relieve constipation they do not—as is the case with so many purgatives—cause after constipation. There is no gripping. They relieve flatulence, sick headache, and biliousness. Bileans are an excellent family medicine."

Miss E. Reed, of Kingston, (Ont.), says:—"I suffered terrible with acute indigestion and ailments arising from it. All last winter and well into the spring I endured terrible agony until I found a cure in Bileans. Soon after eating I found an unfortunate fullness in the stomach, a steady pain in the region of the heart, accompanied by retching and belching of gas. I was hardly ever free from this retching and belching night or day, and the result was that my sleep was much broken into. I tried first one thing and then another, but nothing seemed to do me any good and I grew very nervous and discouraged. My strength ebbed away so that I could not work, and I have walked the floor for hours at a time in pain. This was my state when I first tried Bileans. They proved most satisfactory from the first. I persevered with them until all the symptoms of indigestion had been completely removed. My illness had been completely run down, but since taking Bileans I am like a different person. I have gained in flesh considerably and feel much stronger."

Bileans are a certain cure for headache, constipation, piles, liver trouble, indigestion and all digestive disorders, female ailments, skin eruptions, biliousness, sick headache, bad taste in the mouth, foul breath, dizziness, fainting, buzzing noises in the head, feelings of uncomfortable fullness even after a light meal, wind pains, anaemia, debility and etc. They also act as a general tonic, and by improving the tone of the whole system enable it to throw off colds, chills, rheumatism, etc. They improve the general circulation, and are a boon to pale, faced girls and weak women. For all purposes to which a household remedy is put, Bileans will be found of excellent service. Obtainable from all druggists and stores at 50 cents per box, or direct from the Bilean, Co., Colborne Street, Toronto, upon receipt of price, 6 boxes for $2.50.

TROUBLE FOR JOHN BULL.

Prophet Reads in Stars Signs of Disaster During 1907.

London, Nov. 11.—The modern prophet, Zedkiel, a rival to Old Moore in the prophetic almanack business, issues some ominous warnings of disasters which he sees in the movements of the planets for 1907.

Zedkiel foretells perils for about half the crowned heads of Europe, and also grave trouble for the British Government and Empire.

His catalog of disasters for the year may be summarized as follows:

January—Plenty of shipwrecks, earthquake and famine.

February—British Government in a quandary.

March—Frequent and destructive railroad accidents; "Snows dyed with human blood."

April—Great Indian crisis at hand.

May—More trouble for the British Government.

June—Religious strife and fanaticism in the east.

July—Strange sights in the heavens.

August—Nothing doing.

September—Floods and earthquakes.

October—Lawyers and doctors get busy. Religious revival.

November—Nothing doing.

December—Cabinet's position awkward and somewhat unsafe.

All these terrors to come are promised in a little book that is sold for sixpence.

Overtaken by Nausea.

You don't know whether it's going to stay down or come up. You feel like thirty cents and look even worse. If one thing is quicker than another, it's "Nerviline." Ten drops in sweetened water gives relief instantly. Almost like magic is the change you experience. The cause of the nausea is removable, every symptom of vomiting and indigestion is cured within ten minutes. When Polson's Nerviline is so trusted and economical, a bottle at home wouldn't be amiss. Large ones for a quarter at all dealers.

Newspaper Men Not So Bad.

Phoenix: A printing office is usually considered a rather tough place and the newspaper worker a mighty bad man. Statistics, however, do not bear out that idea. Of 3,800 in the Texas penitentiary, there is not a printer, or a newspaper man, while there are ministers, lawyers, music teachers, doctors, bankers, cooks, photographers, barbers, and members of other professions and callings. The printer gets a bad name because the nature of the business teaches him to detect shams and so-called hypocrites.

Women as Wheelwrights.

The last United States census reports ten women working as wheelwrights in the country.

Hemp From Banana.

South Africa has a new and profitable industry—the manufacturing of hemp from olive and banana fibers. It realizes from $100 to $167 a ton in London.

Forget It.

If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd,
A leader of men marching fearless and proud,
And you know of a tale whose mere telling
Would cause his proud head to be in anguish be bowed,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.
If you know of a skeleton hidden away
In a closet, and guarded, and kept from the day
In the dark, and whose showing, whose sudden display,
Would cause grief and sorrow and lifelong dismay,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.
If you know of a thing that will darken the joy
Of a man or a woman, a girl or a boy,
That will wipe out a smile, or the least
way annoy
A fellow, or cause any gladness to cloy,
It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

Our Dairy Trade.

Montreal, Nov. 20.—In many respects the season which is fast drawing to a close has been the most important in the history of the Canadian dairy industry. Taken on the whole, it has not been a profitable season for the exporter, but for the farmer it has certainly been a banner year.

Prices during the entire season have been unusually high, the amount that has gone into the farmers' hands is the largest in the history of the trade.

A conservative estimate shows that the Canadian dairy farmers have, or will have, by the end of the season, received considerably over thirty-two million dollars for their produce during the past seven months, which constitutes the dairy season of 1906.

Mr. R. M. Ballantyne, Canadian manager of Lovell and Christmas Co., Limited, estimates the value of the cheese and butter exports as follows:

Cheese	$25,156,000
Butter	7,392,000
Total	$32,548,000

The total output of cheese is estimated at 2,620,000 boxes. The exports of butter was 601,298, at an average price of 22 cents a pound.

Dozen Caribou on Track Stop Express on I. C. R.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 14.—A herd of a dozen caribou on the I. C. R. track, near Kingston, stopped the Northbound express. The animals were feeding alongside the track when the engineer first noticed them. As the train drew near they walked on the track and stood there, apparently too bewildered to move. The train had to be stopped and the whistle tooted several minutes before the line could be cleared.

A DISCOVERY OF GREAT VALUE

Because a Cure was Found for Inflammatory Rheumatism.

There are many types of rheumatism, but none worse than inflammatory. It was this kind that almost killed Mrs. Edw. Warman, of Kent, Ont., N. B.

Every known remedy she tried, different doctors gave her advice, but the disease increased.

Weak and despairing, she was at her wife's end when the remarkable cure of Thos. Cullen was published. This gentleman was cured of rheumatism by "Ferrozone." Consequently Mrs. Warman used the same remedy. Here is her statement:

"For years I have been rheumatic. I tried various forms of relief without success. The disease increased, settled in my joints and muscles; these swelled, caused excruciating pain and kept me from sleeping. My limbs and arms stiffened, my shoulders were lame and prevented me from working. Week by week I was losing strength and despaired of finding a cure. It was a happy day I heard of Ferrozone. Every day I took Ferrozone I felt better; it eased the painful joints, gave me energy and a feeling of new life. Ferrozone cured my rheumatism, cured it so that not an ache has ever returned. Even damp weather no longer affects me."

Ferrozone has power to destroy Uric Acid, neutralize and enrich the blood, and therefore does cure the worst cases. Mrs. Warman's statement proves this.

It is removing the cause of the disease and building up a reserve of energy. Ferrozone is certain to cure. Sufferer, isn't it about time to stop experimenting? Ferrozone is a CURE. We guarantee this. Sold by all dealers, 50c. per box or six boxes for $2.50. Remember the name—"Ferrozone."

Girlhood and Scott's Emulsion are linked together.

The girl who takes Scott's Emulsion has plenty of rich, red blood; she is plump, active and energetic.

The reason is that at a period when a girl's digestion is weak, Scott's Emulsion provides her with powerful nourishment in easily digested form.

It is a food that builds and keeps up a girl's strength.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

In Case of Emergency.

Lamp Accidents.—If a lamp should be overturned, don't attempt to put out the flames with water, for it will simply spread it. Instead, throw flour, sand, garden earth, or salt, any of which will have the desired effect.

Fainting.—Place flat on back; allow fresh air and sprinkle with water. Place head lower than rest of body.

Cinders in the Eye.—Roll soft paper up like a lamp lighter, and wet the tip to remove, or use a medicine dropper to draw it out. Rub the other eye.

Fire in One's Clothing.—Don't run, especially not downstairs or outdoors. Roll on the carpet, or wrap in woolen rug or blanket. Keep the head down, so as not to inhale flame.

Fire From Kerosene.—Don't use water; it will spread the flame. Dirt, sand or flour is the best extinguisher, or smother with woolen rug, table cloth or carpet.

Suffocation from Gas.—Get person into the fresh air as soon as possible and keep them warm. Give ammonia, twenty drops to a tumbler of water, at frequent intervals; also two to four drops tincture of nuxvomica every hour or two for five or six hours.

Burns and scalds.—Cover with cooking soda and lay wet cloths over it. Olive oil or linned oil, plain, or mixed with chalk or whitening. Sweet or olive oil and lime water.

Lightning.—Dash cold water over a person struck.

Sunstroke.—Loosen clothing. Get patient into shade and apply ice-cold water to head. Keep head in elevated position.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it to be incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's catarrh cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Making Vinegar From Cider.

Woman Editor of The Star:

Can you tell me the quickest way of making vinegar from a barrel of new cider?

Collingwood, Ont. Subscriber.

Answer: To the barrel of cider add about a gallon of molasses and two cups of yeast, or else the "mother" of vinegar. Keep covered in a warm place where the temperature is about 70 degrees. When it becomes vinegar draw off from the dregs and put into a clean barrel or into jugs or bottles.

A short time ago Albert Williams, assistant master in the Forest High School, sent a piece of a Kettle Point kettle to the Geological Survey at Ottawa for analysis. The reply stated that it consists of siderite (carbonate of iron), and that the origin of these Kettles may be either due to water action or to the decomposition of the iron contained in the rock.

Do NOT DELAY.—When, through debilitated digestive organs, poison finds its way into the blood, the prime consideration is to get the poison out as rapidly and as thoroughly as possible. Delay may mean disaster. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a most valuable and effective medicine to assail the intruder with. They never fail. They go at once to the seat of the trouble and work a permanent cure.

Rev. Jas. McLennan Campbell, D. D., eldest son of the late Jas. F. Campbell, formerly of Forest, died at his home in Aberdeen, South Dakota, last Sunday morning. Deceased was in his 47th year. He is survived by one brother, John, of St. Louis, Mo., and two sisters, Mrs. Jas. Anderson, of London, formerly of Forest, and Mrs. Wilson, of London.

Miss Ella Hallisay, who went to St. Joseph's Hospital, London, last Thursday, underwent an operation there on Saturday. Her condition became so serious on Monday, that her parents were sent for, but she died at 8 o'clock that evening, three hours before their arrival, only her sister Minnie, being with her. The remains were brought to Forest Wednesday evening on the 6.20 express.

There passed away on Tuesday morning one of the oldest settlers in these parts, in the person of William Robertson, who for the past year made his home with Mrs. Jas. G. Anderson, Wyoming. Mr. Robertson was a native of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and came to Plympton and settled near Camlachie about 50 years ago. He was a cousin of Mrs. Jas. Y. and Mrs. D. D. Anderson. The remains were interred in Camlachie Cemetery last week beside his wife who died a year ago.

It WILL PROLONG LIFE.—De Sota, the Spaniard, lost his life in the wilds of Florida, whither he went for the purpose of discovering the legendary "Fountain of perpetual youth," said to exist in that then unknown country. While Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will not perpetuate youth, it will remove the bodily pains which make the young old before their time and harass the aged into untimely graves.

Myra Ruth, second daughter of John A. and Helma Gibson, "Pine Hill," Kitteridge Ave., passed away rather suddenly Strathroy, Thursday evening after an illness extending a little over a week. Her untimely death was due to an acute attack of jaundice. She leaves beside her sorrowing parents, five brothers and two sisters; Maynard in Alberta, and Golden, Ralph, Bruce, Irvine, Grace and Eva all at home. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was largely attended, especially by young people including her friends and companions from the public and Sunday schools. Rev. M. L. Pearson officiated and Stanley and Merville Nichols, W. Avery and Robt. McKenzie acted as pall-bearers. The Methodist Sunday school attended in a body and sang several hymns during the service at the house. The casket was completely covered with tokens of respect, the following floral offerings being noticed: Cross, Methodist Sabbath School; wreath, her Sunday school class; wreath, class mates of Miss Armstrong's room.

DEATH OF THE SMALLEST MAN.

Four Inches Shorter Than Tom Thumb—Lived 53 Years.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 12.—Reese Wiggles, who declared that he was the smallest man in the world, died at a retreat near here yesterday, aged 53 years. He was but 37 inches tall, four inches shorter than Gen. Tom Thumb. Wiggles was born in Wales, and in his youth exhibited a great deal. He had stood on the same platform with Gen. Tom Thumb in Wales and was exhibited alone in this country. His last appearance was at the Bloomsburg Fair, a short time ago. He had been looked after for the last 25 years by William H. Thomas, of Plymouth, his parents having died when he was quite young.

A Suggestion of Rare Value.

A diseased condition of the surfaces of the air passages causes bad breath, but more commonly emanates from indigestion or any impure condition of the blood. Thousands of cases prove that Dr. Hamilton's Pills through their specific action on the secretory and eliminative organs, not only cure bad breath, but so thoroughly purify the system that anything suggestive of the blood or digestive troubles is impossible. Through Dr. Hamilton's Pills the skin grows rosy and clear, activity of the body and mind increases, and bounding health is established, sold everywhere in 25¢ boxes.

The Lady Jockey.

At the recent races in Tokio, three of the best horses were ridden by girls. One of them, the daughter of a riding master, won a big race, and the other two gained "places." It seems strange that Japan should lead the way, says Home Notes, in the very latest development of feminine emancipation.

Danger in Corn Salves.

HARRIS & CO. PROPRIETORS

WATFORD, NOV. 23, 1906.

The Late Senator Vidal.

In the death of the late Senator Vidal, Sarnia loses one of the last links which connects the present era with the days of the pioneers. To few has it been given to witness such changes as those which have occurred in the lifetime of the deceased. Coming here in early boyhood, at a time when Sarnia was a collection of a few log huts without even a name, and when the whole western part of the peninsula of Ontario was a stretch of unbroken forest, he had witnessed the evolution of the district to be the home of a wealthy and prosperous community, and had himself been during the whole period a leading figure in the history of the time. Personally, in the relation of life, the late senator was a model, and the community in which his life was spent had always accorded him its highest admiration and its completest respect. Sarnia has had many notable figures in its history, but it has never had any who stood higher in the esteem of the whole community than the scholar, statesman and gentleman to whose memory the citizens will pay their last respects to-day.—Sarnia Canadian.

WARWICK.

Tax collector Edwards will be at the Roche House on Saturday of this week.

Bethel church has decided to hold their annual S. S. entertainment on Xmas eve.

Mr. E. Hilborn, of British Columbia, visited his sister, Mrs. Chas. Richardson, 15 sr., last week.

Mrs. James Harper and little son, Blake, are making a two week's visit with friends in Mich.

The Seminary school has been closed for a month on account of the illness of the teacher, Miss Campbell.

We are glad to know that Miss Gertie Campbell, who has been ill for some time with typhoid fever, is improving.

Misses Maude Marwick and Sadie Johnston, Watford, spent Sunday with their friend, Miss Grace Luckham.

Mr. Henry Vance and son William have gone to Lakeport, Minnesota, where they will work in the lumber woods this winter.

Miss Ada McPherson, teacher in S. S. No. 6, has resigned and Miss Lizzie McKenzie, of Keyser's Corners, has been engaged to teach for 1907.

Mrs. Jean Laws, 2nd line, Warwick, reached her 93rd birthday, Monday, and is as bright and active as many half her age, being still able to get a meal and do fancy work.

Rev. S. W. Muxworthy, of Watford, chairman of the Strathroy District, will preach, S. S. Anniversary services in the Warwick Methodist church on Sunday Nov. 25th. Services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Mary, beloved wife of Wm. Styles, con. 6, S. E. R., departed this life on Wednesday, after an illness of several weeks, in her 59th year. The funeral takes place on Friday at 1 p.m., interment in the Alvinston cemetery.

S. Birchall, 4th line, has sold his handsome matched prize winning team of agricultural horses to Wes McIlmurray for a fancy price. Mr. B. has also disposed of his fine driver to the same buyer. It pays to raise the good kind.

The death took place at her home near Kingscourt on Wednesday morning of Florence Alberta, youngest daughter of the late Wm. Hume, in her 22nd year. Deceased had only been seriously ill for a few days and her early passing away is deeply regretted by many friends. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at the Methodist cemetery, Warwick Village.

Municipal matters are beginning to develop in the township, and prospective candidates are beginning to feel the pulse of the electors. Reeve Brandon will be a candidate for re-election, and it is stated that Ex-Councillor Benj. Parker will enter the contest. Ex-Councillors Crawford and Pike may also figure in the struggle.

For deputy reeve Councillors Blain and Fitzsimons, and Ex-Councillor R. Auld are probable candidates, and the other councillors have no objection to another term. In No. 5 Walter Wilson and W. G. Hall are spoken of as candidates.

KERTCH.

The Kertch Literary Society convened last Thursday evening 15th inst. for the purpose of re-organization when the following officers were appointed for the winter's entertainment:

President—Albert Thompson.
Vice-President—Leslie Minniely.
Hon. President—Robt. Hart.
Treas.—Miss Nettie McLean.
Sec.—Miss Mamie Dewar.

A committee for programme was appointed, also a management committee.

His Lordship, Bishop Williams, held confirmation service in St. James church, Wanstead, last Sunday 18th inst. at 11 a.m., when ten candidates were presented by the Rector for confirmation. His Lordship chose for his text, "Ye are My Friends," etc., and delivered one of the best addresses ever listened here and the congregation were more than pleased with his eloquent discourse, the church was crowded on the occasion over 200 being present. From Wanstead His Lordship went to Wisbeach for the afternoon and in the evening to Forest, and on Monday to Sarnia, holding confirmation in both places.

Lambton Possesses the Best Horses.

Messrs. Wm. Smith, Columbus, and J. D. Graham, Toronto, the commissioners appointed by the Ontario Government to investigate the horse industry of the province, held a well attended meeting in Petrolia on Monday night, and wound up their series of meetings in the counties of Middlesex, Lambton, Elgin, Essex and Kent. The meeting was held in the sitting room of the Fletcher House there, and was presided over by Mr. W. J. Macalpine, of Warwick, secretary of the East Lambton Farmers' Institute. Mr. Smith was the first speaker, and in his remarks he stated that this was the largest meeting they had yet held. Lambton had the best class of horses of the five counties inspected. Their inspection had not been as complete as they would have liked to make it, on account of lack of time. The speaker then stated the object of the meeting, namely, to get the opinions of those present as to whether it was in the best interests of the horse industry to have a stallion inspection and license act.

In the discussion which followed, the commissioners expressed the opinion that only a nominal license fee should be charged. Grade stallions would probably get a license for a year or so. Before a horse should get a license, it must show that it possesses individual merit, as well as a pedigree.

After the question had been thoroughly discussed a resolution was passed in favor of a licensing and inspection act, and also declaring in favor of compulsory registration after the lapse of a reasonable time.

The discussion brought out many points of interest and benefit to horse owners, and had an educative value to the present which should be remunerative in the future. Had the roads been in better condition we are sure there would have been twice the number in attendance.

Townships Occupied.

The three townships in the districts of Algoma, Carleton Place and Murphy, which were set aside a short time ago for occupation under the land grants to veterans, have been entirely taken up to the number of 440. The other three townships in Rainy River, Hartman, Revell and Bucke, set aside at the same time are nearly fully allotted, and applications are coming in so rapidly that a few days will fill them likewise.

The appropriation of $50,000 for the redemption of land grant certificates having been exhausted, an interim appropriation of $25,000 more has been made, and this also is well on the way to being exhausted.

Niagara Successfully Harnessed.

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 20.—Propelled by a portion of the mighty Niagara cataract rushing thro the tunnels of the Electric Development Co. at Niagara Falls, the big turbines revolved, the enormous fly-wheels whirled around, the generators turned, and every cog of the machinery in the great 13,000-horsepower electrical unit was found correctly adjusted to a hair's breadth. The first test of the machinery that is to send the first power from the Canadian side of the falls was pronounced a great success.

A dispatch from Ottawa says that two farmers were found in East Williams township, who were found in possession of illicit whiskey stills, have been fined to the extent of $100 each by the department of internal revenue, of Ottawa. The stills were confiscated.

Owing to the dispute between the township council and the Club Medcoff contractor, regarding the Shawana drain contract, the council had Mr. Goda make a survey of the drain this week to strengthen their case. Mr. Medcoff is suing the township we understand, for extras to the amount of $505.00, which they claim he is not entitled to.

It is expected that the Glencoe knitting factory will be in operation in about two weeks. Two experts from Germany will be there next week to superintend the manufacture of goods. The building is completed and the installing of the necessary machinery is now being proceeded with. An inspection of the factory on behalf of the municipal council, who are loaning the company $8,500, was made recently, and the reports was quite satisfactory. Mr. Hogg, the manager, is anxious to get the mill in operation, as he has orders that will keep the mill running for a good many months.

The second anniversary of St. James church, 6th line, will be held on Sunday morning next. Service at 10.30 conducted by the Rev. J. M. Gunhe, of Wyoming.

The news, already referred to in last week's issue, of the death of W. W. Harrison, on the morning of Nov. 13th came to us with a great shock. After a lingering illness, borne with great patience and resignation, a few months ago, God in His mercy revealed Himself to him as the Great Physician of Souls and Wellington was led to accept Salvation through Christ. From this time the peace of God, promised to all who trust Him, was his and the promises of his Word were precious to him. He was often heard by the members of the family holding sweet communion with his Father. As the end drew near he was heard to say, "Come Lord Jesus and receive this poor sinner." Early in the morning of Nov. 13th Wellington heard the call and his happy spirit winged its flight to God who gave it. On Nov. 15th we laid all that was mortal to rest in the Watford Cemetery in sure and certain hope of a glorious resurrection. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Irwin. A Friend.

OLD BOYS AND GIRLS WILL ALL BE HOME FOR THE RE-UNION.

August the 19th and 20th the Dates.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Fair Board held on Monday evening preliminary arrangements were made for the holding of an Old Boy's Re-union in Watford in August next. President Farrell presided and the event was launched under circumstances that spell success.

After adopting articles of organization the following officers were appointed:—

HONORARY PATRONS.

Hon. W. J. Hanna, Provincial Secretary; W. S. Calvert, M.P., D. W. Bole, M.P., I. B. Lucas, M.P., P.

Honorary President—R. Gibson, M. D. President—John Farrell.

Vice-President—T. B. Taylor. Secretary—H. F. Williams.

Treasurer—Col. J. F. Kenward.

COMMITTEES.

Executive—D. G. Parker, Dr. McGillivuddy, J. H. Hume, H. A. Cook, C. A. Class, G. Chambers, W. H. Shrapnell.

Transportation—W. E. Fitzgerald, A. G. Brown, D. O'Neill.

Zam-Buk wins Worker's Praise.

MARVELLOUS CURE OF BURNS.

Zam-Buk has been called "the worker's friend" because it brings such relief and healing to workers who suffer from cuts, burns, bruises or any skin injury or disease. Mr. Alf J. Clark, of Cavendish street, London, (Ont.), tells how Zam-Buk cured him of severe burns. He says:—"I got my hands very severely burned with lime. The burns were so deep that as I pried my shovel the blood actually ran down the handle. The agony I suffered you may well imagine. I tried several different kinds of salves but the burns were too severe for these preparations to heal.

"I obtained a supply of Zam-Buk and the very first application gave me ease. This pleased me, you may guess, but as I applied the balm each day I was more and more pleased with the effect. The pain was relieved completely.

"I had often heard of Zam-Buk, but thought before I tried it that it was similar to the ordinary salves you see advertised. In a very short time Zam-Buk healed my burns completely, and my hands actually felt better—their muscles more firm and the skin in better condition than before I was burned."

Not only for burns, but for cuts, bruises, sprains, etc., Zam-Buk is the best and surest cure. It also cures eczema, ulcers, abscesses, ringworm, boils, eruptions, poisoned wounds, chapped or cracked hands, cold sores, chilblains, bad leg piles, etc. All druggists sell at 50c. a box or most free from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, on receipt of price, 6 boxes for $2.50.

MOTHER, SISTER AND BROTHER

Died of Consumption, but this Linden lady used Psychine and is strong and well

"My mother, brother and sister died of consumption," says Ella M. Cove, of Linden, N.S., "and I myself suffered for two years from a distressing cough and weak lungs. I suppose I inherited a tendency in this direction?"

"But thank God I used Psychine and it built me right up. My lungs are now strong. I enjoy splendid health, and I owe it all to Psychine."

Consumption, whether hereditary or contracted, cannot stand before Psychine. Psychine kills the germ, no matter how it attacks the lungs. Psychine builds up the body and makes it strong, and able to resist disease. Psychine is an aid to digestion and a maker of pure, rich blood. The greatest giver of general health is

The Real Trouble.

The other afternoon a man rushed into the Reading terminal, galloped up the stairs and dashed for the train shed just as the gates were closed against him.

He looked as if he wanted to swear most vociferously, but he was out of wind, and all that he could do was to lean against the fence and soulfully sigh. It was then that the grumpy idiot, who is always on hand, paced over and butted in.

"Did you miss your train, old boy?" he queried, with a smiling glance at the panting one.

"No," was the grouchy rejoinder. "I chase myself up here that way every five minutes to see them shut the gates."

"What made you so late?" queried the other, not at all abashed. "Is your watch out of order?"

"No, my watch is all to the good," replied the man who missed the train, "but I think that my feet are about two minutes slow."

His Lesson.

A woman who had divorced her husband met him after many years. "Have you married again?" she asked.

The man shook his head. "Ah!" sighed the woman. "You still love me."

"No," said the man. "I love myself."

He was asked to explain. "Bondage taught me the value of freedom," he replied. "I am answerable now only to myself. I come when I please, go when I please, do what I please and need not make explanation. I no longer divide my pleasures by two or multiply my worries by the same number. What I earn is mine and, when I contemplate its possible reduction, I need fear for myself alone."

"And love?" inquired the woman. "I have been married," answered the man.—Channing Pollock in Show.

The Bird's Bill Was Locked.

A curious bird tragedy is told about in the London Field. A man found a yellow hammer dead in his yard at the foot of a wall. The bird had flown against it with such force as to be stunned. Not only that, but the upper mandible had been bent back, and in the straightening out the sharp point was driven down through the lower bill and locked, thus dooming the bird to death by starvation. The man sent the head to the Field. A good many similar accidents have been recorded, but it was always a heavier bird, whose weight made the springing of the bill easier. A good many of the birds were found in a starved condition, showing that they died lingering deaths from want of food. Birds that fly against the lighthouses have the skull bones crushed and die instantly, but others are stunned only.

State Laws.

"If you should have your choice whether to die in the Empire State or in good old New Jersey, don't fail to select Jersey," remarked a Hoboken lawyer the other day. "Over there," said he, "we still do business on lines laid out by the common law. For example, under the laws of New Jersey a husband is entitled to all the personal property left by his deceased wife. Across the river the case is quite different, because under the laws of the state of New York half of a deceased wife's personal estate goes to her children and the residue reverts to her husband. Only where there are no children is the hubby the whole thing."

He Was Drugged.

An ambulance surgeon had a curious experience the other night. He was summoned to a police station to examine an unconscious prisoner. The prisoner, very muddy and disheveled, lay on the floor of the cell rooms. The physician bent over and examined him and then, rising, said in a loud stern voice:

"This man's condition is not due to drink. He has been drugged."

A policeman turned pale and said in a timid, hesitating voice:

"I'm afraid yer right, sir. I drugged him all the way from Carney's saloon, a matter of a hundred yards or more."—Argonaut.

When to Eat Cotton.

When one by accident swallows an object not intended for eating it is a wise precaution to send after it a quantity of absorbent cotton which has been picked into fine threads and mixed in bread and milk. The button, safety pin or whatever it may be gathers the cotton about it, thus covering up any rough edge or sharp point and allowing it to pass through the stomach and intestines without causing injury.

The Simple Bride.

Bride (after the return from the bridal tour)—I see by this medical work that a man requires eight hours' sleep and a woman ten. Bridegroom—Yes, I've read that somewhere myself. Bride—How nice! Why They Preach.

The distinction between a good preacher and a bad preacher has not changed much since Archbishop Whately declared that "a good preacher preached because he had something to say and a bad preacher because he had to say something."

GET ON TO THE TRAIL OF NINETY-NINE OF EVERY HUNDRED OF OUR EARTHLY ILLS AND YOU CAN TRACE THEM BACK TO THE STOMACH.—YOU CAN BANISH STOMACH TROUBLES FOREVER WITH

Dr. Von Stan's Pine-apple Tablets

Doesn't it stand to reason that nature herself has in herself a cure for our ills—and doesn't it stand to reason that nature rebels at many of the nauseous so-called remedies, that pass as cures for stomach ailments?—Dr. Von Stan's Pine-apple Tablets are nature's cure in very deed, because they're purely vegetable and are extracted from one of the most luscious fruits that grows—and what a boon they have proved themselves to be. is best expressed in the hundreds of unsolicited testimonials that could be printed here—and which will be produced if you're a bit credulous.

How is your stomach affected?—Do you have sour stomach—distress after eating—weight on the stomach—wind on the stomach—Loss of appetite—dizziness—nausea—sick headache and other uncomfortable derangements?—the first tablet will give you relief and persistence will cure—and there's no case of stomach trouble so stubborn as to baffle Dr. Von Stan's Pine-apple Tablets.

A Glimpse of Carlyle.

One day Carlyle suddenly stopped at a street crossing and, stooping, picked up something out of the mud, even at the risk of being knocked down and run over by passing vehicles. With his bare hands he gently rubbed the mud from it. He then took it to the pavement and laid it down on a clean spot on the curbstone. "That," said the old man in a tone of tenderness he rarely used, "is only a crust of bread. Yet I was taught by my mother never to waste anything—above all, bread, more precious than gold. I am sure that the little sparrows or a hungry dog will get nourishment from this bit of bread."

The Kingfisher.

Many and curious are the legends of the kingfisher. One of these is to the effect that the bird was originally a plain gray in color, but upon being let loose from the ark flew toward the setting sun and had its back stained blue by the sky and its lower plumage scorched by the sun to gorgeous hues. The dried body of the kingfisher was once used as a charm against thunderbolts and moths, and it was hung up so that it might point with its bill to the wind's quarter.

The Evil of a Good Name.

"Mammy," said Pickaninny Jim, "why didn't you name me George Washington?" "Sonny," was the answer, "I isn' gwine to name no mo' chillen George Washington. As soon as dey hyahs dat story 'bout not bein' able to tell a lie dey 'pears to git curious to find out whether it's so or not, an' dey stahs in sperimentin' as soon as dey kin talk."

Two Epochs.

In the Honeymoon—Let me sit by you, darling, while you pour the tea. I love to watch your white hands toying with the cups.

Too Busy to Whistle.

It is said the art of whistling will soon be counted among the lost unless there is a revival of the cheery spirit that seems to be forsaking men. Nobody whistles as he works in these strenuous days. He has too much on his mind to pucker his lips in a whistle. Nor does he hum or sing to himself for that matter. Life is, if not downright sad, too busy for that joyous and unconscious expression of contentment.

AN ANGEL ELEPHANT

By GRETCHEN GRAYDON
Copyright, 1906, by E. C. Parcells

"I wonder if you dream how adorable you are in that blue gown," Hetherington said, trying to possess himself of Philomena's hand.

She drew it away, pursed her lips daintily, and flung back at him, "Oh! It's the gown, is it? Thank you for telling me. I shall be sure to wear it the next time the MacCarty comes to see us."

"Confound the MacCarty!" Hetherington ejaculated. "I'd like to break his head for him, the presumptuous oaf. What business has he even to admire you?"

"Mayn't a cat look at a king?" Philomena interrupted demurely, her eyes dancing in the screen of their long lashes.

She had the charm of infinite variety. Some days she was positively ugly, others ravishingly beautiful. This was one of the beautiful days. She knew it, and acted upon the knowledge. She owed Hetherington for several things, chiefly Miss Mannering. He should be paid in full. He had never proposed to her outright, but all along assumed gaily that she would marry him, speaking openly, in a light comedy manner that might mean everything or nothing. She had not resented the light comedy manner, being by no means sure of her own mind.

Still it had been distinctly aggravating to have him run off after the Mannering girl the same as the other men. For two whole days he had kept in the new beauty's train; worse still, he had come back to Philomena not merely repentant, but with the air of one who feels that he has discharged the duty of a proper man.

"A cat may look at a king; the proverb is silent as to queens," Hetherington retorted. "Moreover, you can scarcely stretch it to fit an elephant, which is the MacCarty's animal prototype."

"Now I know how I came to promise him two dances—I adore elephants—always did," Philomena murmured, reflectively, as if aside.

Hetherington caught both her hands and drew her to her feet. "Do you mean to keep the promise?" he asked, his face darkening. She smiled up at him audaciously as she answered:

"Who knows? He may prefer to sit them out. But if he should, you needn't mind, we will take care to keep out of earshot of you and Miss Mannering."

"Oh I see," Hetherington laughed, not quite easily, but with a magical lightening of countenance. "I must say that will be handsome of you," he went on; then, his hands slipping up to her shoulders, "Sweetheart, let's run away from everything—the grand ball, the elephant, the Mannering—run away and get married. Listen! It will be so easy; only a spin across country to that dear little stone church we saw last week—we'll take along witnesses—and telegraph for our traps to follow us. 'If 'twere done, when 'twere done then 'twere well 'twere done quickly.' Think how much we shall escape, all the fuss and frills and upsets of a big wedding. And this is the only way to escape them. I know your aunt has her heart set on St. Thomas', with twelve bridesmaids, and all the rest of it. Say yes, there's a darling. I will live just to keep you from being sorry for it, even one time."

"It sounds enticing," Philomena said, then with a reflective sigh: "But it can't be done. You see if I ran off with you, the Mannering would inevitably get the MacCarty and his millions. That's what she is here for, and that's what I'm bound not to let her do."

"Have your joke," Hetherington grumbled, trying to draw her to his breast. She put him away with gentle dignity, saying: "But it is not a joke. That's why I am so provoked with you; you let yourself be one of her bait gudgeons. Oh, she's a shrewd piece—she knows a man like the MacCarty means to pick a wife as he has picked a racing stable, from among those other men want very much."

"How do you know?" Hetherington demanded.

Philomena opened her eyes very wide. "Why, he told me so," she said. "You know we are great friends and talk of many things. And he is really vastly entertaining—such a big bulk of raw human nature, with streaks of wit and other streaks of understanding through its honest ignorance."

"H-m! You are somewhat a belle. How many times has he proposed to you?" Hetherington asked.

"Only once, the first day," Philomena said, smiling wickily. "I asked time for consideration, but he wouldn't give it. He wanted a straight yes or no, but consoled me by telling me that if after awhile he was not engaged he would give me another chance. So I must be sure and make up my mind. I know he is not engaged, not unless Miss Mannering has landed him since morning."

"Is your mind made up?" Hetherington asked teasingly.

Philomena shook her head, but said brightly: "Not yet. Still, there's no telling what may happen between dances."

"Then you refuse—my plan and everything?" Hetherington said, paling visibly.

Philomena shot a glance at him and shivered faintly, but said, with an accent of gentle surprise, "Why, I did that some time ago."

"You will fight the Mannering woman for the MacCarty. You would not even raise a finger for me," Hetherington began bitterly.

Philomena laughed a soft, malicious laugh. "One saves a novice from drowning. A swimmer who knows the waters is apt to regard help as an impertinence," she said.

Hetherington set his teeth. "Goodby," he said, hardly above his breath, holding out his hand. Philomena looked at him doubtfully and asked, "Where are you going?"

"I don't know—to the devil most likely," he answered recklessly.

"Beg pardon, telegram for you, sir," a footman said, coming to the pair with a yellow envelope on his tray.

Hetherington tore it open, glanced at its contents, then stood twisting it between his fingers and smiling an odd, dazed smile. After a long breath he took Philomena in his arms and kissed her, saying in her ear:

"Luck has stood your friend. I'm a beggar, or shall be in two hours more. That was a call for margins I can no more put up than I can fly. I've been speculating wildly. I wanted you so badly I thought I must offer you millions no less than myself. Until today they seemed in my grasp. That was why I dared. But I'm losing everything at once."

"Not quite," she said, clinging to him, her eyes shining up at him through a mist of tears. "You may have me, if you lose everything else. I'm not afraid of poverty if I may have love."

"Seems like it's time I took a hand in this game," a throaty voice said behind them, and there stood the MacCarty, very red, and all over perspiration. He had been ambushed all the while in the summer house outside which the lovers stood. "You folks think list'nin' ain't the right thing," he went on. "No more it ain't, but I waked from a nap as you were in the midst o' talkin', and it didn't take ten words to show me the lay o' the land. I like the lay of it. The little lady thar," nodding toward Philomena, "has got me doped out fine and pat, but she didn't make sport of the old galoot. She said it in sport, but she has looked out fer me. And more'n that, she's made me understand that was at least one woman money couldn't buy. You ain't half good enough fer her," this to Hetherington with a chuckle. "But since it appears she likes the looks o' ye, be hanged if you're a-goin' to take her and try love in a cottage. At least, not unless the cottage's got all the fixin's. No need to tell me how you stand. I ain't quite out o' the market if I am up here in the mountains, courtin' and rusticatin'. If you need margins, I know the reason why. Go right straight to the telephone. I'll be along o' ye; together we'll get the straight o' things down to a dot over my private wire. I'm goin' to see you through if it takes one million of even two. But when you are through you git married and keep out of sech messes."

"I will," Hetherington said, holding out his hand.

Before the MacCarty could take it, Philomena flung herself between them, threw her arms about his thick neck and kissed him on both cheeks. "You're an angel elephant," she murmured. "I shall love you always, no matter what he says," with a nod toward Hetherington.

"He says, 'Amendment accepted,'" Hetherington said, wringing the MacCarty's hand.

That gentleman laughed apologetically, but returned the grip heartily, and said as he puffed away with Hetherington at his elbow:

"It takes just an angel elephant to skeer the bulls and bears good and hard."

Almost Dead of Bronchitis

Few people have suffered more than Jno. P. Taylor, of Dymont, P. O., Ont. To-day he is well and writes,—"I must tell you how much Catarrhoxone has been to me. I was so bad with bronchitis sometimes I thought it would soon be over with me. A spell of choking would come on that left me prostrated and weak. Since using Catarrhoxone I have had no trouble at all. It strengthened my throat, stopped the cough, gave me free breathing and entirely cured." Just the usual experience. Catarrhoxone invariably cures cough whether Bronchitis, Asthma or Catarrh. Two sizes, 25c and $1.00 at all dealers.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—
Interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.

Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in the back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers, expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mrs. Pinkham, which will be read with interest:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First Letter.)

"I am but fifteen years of age, am depressed, have dizzy spells, chills, headache and backache, and as I have heard that you can give helpful advice in my condition, I am writing you."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Makes Sick Women Well.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second Letter.)

"It is with the feeling of utmost gratitude that I write to you to tell you what your valuable medicine has done for me. When I wrote you in regard to my condition I had consulted several doctors, but they failed to understand my case and I did not receive any benefit from their treatment. I followed your advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now healthy and well, and all the distressing symptoms which I had at that time have disappeared."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Miss Matilda Borman writes Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my periods were irregular and painful, and I always had such dreadful headaches.

"But since taking the Compound my headaches have entirely left me, my periods are regular and I am getting strong and well. I am telling all my girl friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Matilda Borman, Farmington, Iowa.

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her every detail of her symptoms, and to keep nothing back. She will receive advice absolutely free, from a source that has no rival in the experience of woman's ills, and it will, if followed, put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of cures of female ills of any medicine that the world has ever known. Why don't you try it?

Twenty Minutes Time Enough?

To Cure the Worst Headache From Any Cause—New Reduction Method.

Most headaches and pains yield instantly to the new Reduction Method—Dr. Shoop's Twenty Minute Headache Cure. The cause for these pains is congestion—a rushing of blood to the nerve centers—which distends the veins to nearly the bursting point. Swollen and enlarged, these veins and capillaries exert an irritating pressure on the myriads of nerve branches and fibres. Then, there's a pain, and finally that excruciating, cease less ache. This new Reduction Method disperses the blood, distributes the pressure evenly, and directs it to the proper centers from all pressure and irritation—the aches disappear because their cause has been removed. You may try a thousand remedies—you may drug and stupefy the nerves—but the remedy which brings prompt relief and a permanent cure will be successful because it reduces the congestion—it must embody the Reduction Method. Medicine has thus found a way—simple and sure, yet the only way—to thoroughly overcome those attacks of Headache and Neuralgia. The effect of Dr. Shoop's Twenty Minute Headache Cure is prompt—perfectly suited to all forms of Headache and absolutely positive in every temperament. For sale and recommended by

A CRIPPLE CURED

Helpless and Bent with Rheumatism—Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"I was a helpless cripple. I was bent in form and could not straighten up. Crutches were my only means of moving about. I tried many medicines, but they all failed until I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—they cured me." George Schaw, of Short Beach, N. S., made the above almost startling statement to a reporter a few days ago. Mr. Schaw is now a well built man, strong and broad shouldered. Like thousands of other Nova Scotians, he is a fisherman, and is consequently exposed to all kinds of weather, just the conditions to set the rheumatic person in the blood at work. Mr. Schaw adds: "It is impossible to overstate the severity of the attack. The trouble was located in my back and right hip. I had to quit work and was mostly indoors. There was a time when I never expected to stand erect again, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills straightened me up again, not only that, but they made me the strong hearty man you see me today. I can never describe the awful pain I suffered before I used these pills. I tried many medicines and had treatment from several doctors, but to no avail. My legs became so stiff that in order to move at all I had to use crutches. Finally the doctors decided that I was incurable, and told me they could render no further assistance. I continued to suffer day and night, and then came the turning point of my life. A friend from a distance came to see me and it was from him I learned that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were a great cure for rheumatism. At once I got a supply and began to use them. The first indication that they were helping me was when the pain grew less severe. In a few weeks more the swelling in my legs and hips began to leave, then my joints seemed to loosen up, and then it was not long until my crutches were thrown aside and I could straighten up. Then I began to go out doors and soon was able to resume my work as well as ever. Since that time I have never been troubled with rheumatism or lame back. I can tell you my neighbors were astonished at my cure, they had all thought I always would be a cripple."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure rheumatism by going straight to the root of the trouble in the blood. They make new rich blood that sweeps out the poisonous acid and soothes the jangled nerves. That is how they cure all troubles rooted in the blood, such as anaemia, indigestion, neuralgia, St. Vitus dance, general weakness and the special ailments that only girls and women folk know. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Derailed at Woodstock.

Woodstock, Nov. 17.—With three-quarters of an hour lost time to make up, the Chicago New York express on the Grand Trunk, bowling along at 50 miles or more an hour, was derailed at one and one-quarter miles west of Woodstock at 4:45 o'clock yesterday morning.

The locomotive did not leave the tracks but the coaches did. A day coach and a Pullman went over the embankment into a ditch, and the former turned over, yet not a single fatality has to be recorded, not even a very serious injury. The escape of the passengers, when the possibilities of the wreck are realized borders on the miraculous.

The derailment occurred just west of the C. P. R. diamond. The cause is not yet ascertained.

THE INJURED.

Death of Senator Vidal.

Sarnia, Nov. 18.—Hon. Senator Vidal died to-day at 2 o'clock at the residence of his son-in-law, T. W. Nisbett.

Senator Vidal has been ill nearly a year and death was not unexpected. He was in his 88th year, and is survived by two sons and two daughters.

The funeral was on Wednesday at 3 o'clock from St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

Senator Vidal was one of Sarnia's oldest and most highly respected residents. Hon. Alexander Vidal was born in Berkshire, England, Aug. 4, 1819, being the eldest surviving son of Captain R. R. Vidal, R. N. The Vidal family came originally from Spain, removing to England in the seventeenth century. He was educated at the Royal Mathematical school, Christ's Hospital, London, accompanied his father to Canada in 1834, settling in Sarnia, Ont., the following year. Married, December, 1847, Catherine, eldest daughter of Captain W. E. Wright, R. N., of Moore, Lambton County. He practiced the profession of civil engineering from 1843 to 1852, and was manager of Sarnia branch of the Bank of Upper Canada from 1852 till the failure of that institution in 1866. He held the same position in the service of the Bank of Montreal from that time until 1875, when he resigned. At the first general election following Confederation in 1867, he was an unsuccessful candidate against Hon. Alex. Mackenzie for the house of commons; again in 1872 he was defeated. He represented the St. Clair division in the legislative council from September, 1865, until the union. He became a senator at the call of Sir John A. Macdonald, Jan. 15, 1873. He was a man who took a general interest in the affairs of his community. He had been lieutenant-colonel in the Canadian militia, county treasurer of Lambton, president of the Y.M.C.A. at Sarnia in 1878. The temperance cause claimed a great deal of his energies in late years, and he was a central figure in the Dominion Alliance for the total suppression of the liquor traffic, of which organization he was a past president. Senator Vidal was a member of the Church of England till 1843, when he joined the Presbyterian Church, and has represented the Sarnia Church in the General Assembly. He is survived by four sons and two daughters.
