IMPROVING THE BIBLE.

The world is full of people who believe that an improvement upon Nature, who prefer the life painted and the butterfly gilded, says the Montreal Star.

"One feels sorry for their advertised imagination, and indignant against their colossal egotism. But the individual who invites the strongest censure is he who elects himself the world's arbiter as to the English of the world's greatest literary masterpiece—the Bible. From time to time we hear charlatans proclaiming that the day has come to throw aside the Bible of King James and substitute for it something modern, colloquial, snappy, up-to-date. These deluded facturers claim that the public of today is tired of the Old Version, and would prefer its Bible worded like its advertisements and its daily conversation on the street. And of all people in the world, from all places in the world, a Scotsman, of Glasgow, Dr. James Moffatt, has now come forward with a modern Old Testament, translated from the original into modern colloquial English."

The samples already to hand indicate that the new version will be most effectively robbed of the dignity, beauty and majesty of the old. Such cheap truckling to colloquialism as calling the City of David "Bethsburg" is a fair sample of the spirit behind the work. The new generation is expected to talk about "a barge of cypress wood" instead of the Ark that has stood for thousands of years as the symbol of a new world. And so on.

One hardly knows whether to laugh at this pitiful exhibition of vulgarity—or to frown upon it. Certainly it would be laughable, were it not so pitifully pitiable. The use of archaic words in the Bible is sanctified by such authority as even a blatant exponent of modern "pep" in literature hardly dare to challenge, were it possible to bring him face to face with the sober reality for a moment. Moreover, the most impressive and most beautiful passages of all literature are to be found in the Old Testament, and it is in part their archaic form that lends them their wondrous charm.

It seems incredible that anybody could be found with the scholarship to translate the Bible from the original and get such a distorted sense of literary decency as to pretend to improve upon the Version followed by long centuries of usage all over the world. The whole thing is an appalling example of that lack of balance and absence of elemental good taste that marks so much of the modern world. It will doubtless create a nine-days wonder, but it is assuredly destined to find its way ultimately to the scrap heap of foolish things best forgotten. There is a purse at the end of Revolutions Dr. Moffatt and his publishers would do well to mark, learn and inwardly revere.

THE MEXICAN DICTATORSHIP.

Springfield Republican: It is not likely that, in spite of Mexican sympathy for Russia and its dictatorial statesmen, anything like a dictatorship of the proletariat, even a nominal one, will be tolerated by the new president. Mexico has no such group of "intellectuals" as Russia has and its wise leaders will not expect to carry idealism farther than Lenin.

TORONTO AND THE LEAGUE.

London Daily News: His (Lord Cecil's) moral and material worth to the nation as an exponent of League ideals is indisputable. He has done more than any other man to make the League intelligible to the people of this country and to give it actuality. He knows the work of the League from the inside as few others know it. He is an enthusiast about the League, but he is also a realist with a shrewd understanding of the situation in the States at the present moment that such a man is a member of a Tory government.

CANADA IS PLANNING FOR THEM.

Singapore Free Press: One aspect of the matter appears to have lacked development—juvenile migration. There is not enough work in Great Britain to provide a career for all the young people who are leaving school every year, and the surplus had much better go where they have a good chance of success than remain in their own country with practically no prospects excepting that as long as they are adequately safeguarded, these young people would be afforded the best start in life which they could be given.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYMENT.

London Morning Post: Mr. Sidney Webb and others who believe that men can be made virtuous by Act of Parliament, especially if it carries out some scheme of nationalization, can find nothing in the world's experience of state-owned railways to warrant their dreams. In 1919, when the railways of the island were temporarily taken over by the Ministry of Transport—there was a working model of State ownership—the railway workers, under the leadership of a Privy Councillor, seized the occasion to engage in a strike to the immense injury of the community as a whole for reasons of self-interest. There is absolutely no reason to believe that anybody comprised, least of all, the railway employees themselves, would derive the slightest benefit from the nationalization of railways.

THE WIRELESS BEAM.

Manchester Guardian: It looks as though before long the "beam" system will have brought about the direct communication of commercial messages and the Dominion which has for many years now been the province of Dominion, President and Imperial Conference. The world moves rapidly and the distances between the different parts of the Empire are so great that the mailed letter is too slow and the aeroplane and the wireless beam, which in time, but not in space, are fully come. The Dominion and the Mother Country are now in touch with each other as easily and cheaply as a telephone is essential, otherwise there is always the likelihood of imperfect understanding. We shall not always be able to agree together even in the light of full knowledge, but at all events we shall avoid the dangers that spring from partial or obscure information.

THE MEXICAN DICTATORSHIP.

Springfield Republican: It is not likely that, in spite of Mexican sympathy for Russia and its dictatorial statesmen, anything like a dictatorship of the proletariat, even a nominal one, will be tolerated by the new president. Mexico has no such group of "intellectuals" as Russia has and its wise leaders will not expect to carry idealism farther than Lenin.

OUTRAM.

It is the friends of this plan who are to learn of the illness of Dr. Brown of Port George, who is now in the hospital at Westport. An interesting case is reported in the paper of Mr. and Mrs. James Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bell, and Mrs. John Bell, who were at the hospital on Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, Port George.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, Port George, spent the 25th guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Shannon, who were at the hospital on Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, Port George.

Here and There

A recent survey of prospective expansion among the mines of Northern Ontario shows that many millions of dollars will be spent on mills and mill supplies in 1925. According to this survey, mill expenditures totalling $7,350,000 are contemplated.

Hunters patronizing territories in the Algoma district of the Canadian Pacific Railway had a very successful season in 1924, according to a report recently issued. Moose numbering 173, deer numbering 2,183 and approximately 7,050 partridges were secured. The number of hunters can into several thousand. The figures quoted include those for Kipawa, Temiskaming, Mattawa, Sturgeon Falls, Pakeney, Sault Ste. Marie, Chapleau, Sudbury, Schreiber and Nipigon, all exceptionally good game areas.

More Christmas trees were shipped from Nova Scotia for the 1924 festive season than ever before, according to figures just compiled. Twenty-two carloads from territory bordering the Dominion Atlantic Railway alone were shipped to outside points and approximately 150 carloads left the province generally.

A splendid season of winter sports is expected at Quebec this year as more and more people are becoming interested in these winter recreations in Canada and the United States. In fact, the winter sports of the Dominion are attracting a number of American tourists, and a number of new features will add to the attraction. Quebec will offer, these include inter-club competitions and international competitions. The winter sports to be held during the auspices of the recently formed International Winter Sports Club, which will award the successful participants with trophies of various kinds and attractive gold, silver and bronze medals.

The names of the winners of the David prizes for literature, awarded to the writers of the best French and English books entered in the competition for these prizes, have just been announced by the committee of judges. In the French section the first prize, $1,500, went to Abbe Camille Roy for his book "A Humber des Erables," while in the English section Marjorie Graff Cook won first prize with her book "Another Way of Love."

MRS. B. H. HART SICK FOR YEARS

Wants Women to Know How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cornwall, Ontario. "I am now giving your medicine a fair trial and it surely is doing me good and I am going to keep on taking it. I used to feel so tired in the morning that I didn't want to get up, but that feeling is leaving me now. I also sleep better and feel like working. For seven or eight years I have had headaches, tired feelings, pains in my back and across my body. I read letters in the newspapers saying that good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done about them. My husband says I quit too soon, but I am not going to stop taking the Vegetable Compound until I am better and haven't an ache or a pain. Isn't that the right way? I have great faith in your medicine. They must be good when those who take them speak so highly of them. I am recommending them to my friends and I will gladly answer letters from women asking about them."—Mrs. BURT H. HART, Box 1081, Cornwall, Ontario.

Mrs. Hart wants to help other women and is willing to answer letters from sick women asking about the Vegetable Compound.

PRESENTED WITH GIFT BY SISTER REBEKAH.

Middleton.—An interesting social event took place on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Elliott, when a number of local Rebekahs met as a farewell to Miss Nina Kelly, who has been a faithful member of Myrtle Lodge. After a social time had been enjoyed, Mrs. A. M. Reed, on behalf of the sister Rebekahs, presented a cut glass bowl to Miss Kelly, who Monday was one of the principals at an interesting ceremony, and is leaving for Port William, where she will reside. Miss Kelly was formerly a teacher on the staff of Macdonald School and has many friends in this vicinity who wish her well in her new home.

THE PLACE OF THE EXTENSION SCHOOL IN THE AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION SYSTEM.

W. H. Brittain, Professor of Entomology, College of Agriculture, Toronto, N. S.

Professor J. M. Trueman has developed the idea of a "Farm Course" adapted chiefly to the needs of the average farm boy who aims subsequently to return to the farm. The development of such a course, sound lines would undoubtedly be a step in advance of anything the Agricultural College has done for the farm boy, but I am concerned, at present, in explaining how it is proposed to relate the work of this course to the other activities of the institution and more especially to that of the Agricultural Extension School and to the regular degree course. With a little intelligent effort it should be quite possible to make our two or three day short courses, the extension school, the farm course and the regular course, all definite parts of a definite educational policy, and to weave our, at present, scattered efforts into one continuous fabric. The two or three day short courses should be made to advertise the extension course, the latter to feed the farm course and it, in turn, to nourish the regular or degree course.

The Agricultural Extension School, providing as it does four weeks of intensive training along lines best adapted to the needs of the district in which it is held, carried out in a strictly rural setting, without the distractions incidental to an urban environment and with an extensive equipment of buildings or elaborate machinery of instruction, appears to offer for constructive effort upon the part of Departments of Agriculture. It may be said that these have been tried with success in the past, but that they too have failed to meet the present emergency. There are several good reasons for this. One of the most important of these is that in some cases, at least, the courses have been too long and that too much has been attempted. The function of these schools should be to arouse an interest in better farming among the young men and to encourage them to study their own business on their own farms. To attempt to duplicate the work of a college course without suitable laboratories, equipment or instructors, or to prolong such a course beyond four or five weeks, is, in the opinion of the writer, to invite failure. Longer courses should be offered only at the central institution. Another difficulty is to secure teachers of the right type for the work. Such a man who makes a hobby of his district representative is not necessarily of the type to succeed as a teacher. In a recent article on the subject of extension schools it was stated that the attendance was poor even though the boys and their fathers were pleaded with in an effort to secure attendance. This also indicates a possible reason for the non-success.

CANADIAN VS. U. S. RAIL RATES ON WHEAT.

The largest and one of the most valuable shipments of wheat ever to pass through Montreal, Quebec, by the Dominion Express Company, was headed by the company's fleet recently. There were 100,000 bushels in the shipment, valued at $170,000, 30 being six-year-old wheat and the rest hard red winter wheat.

Three moose and one deer was the total bag of W. B. Leeds, Jr., young American multi-millionaire, and his friends, Mrs. Norman, Albert Hopkins, Paul Smith and Mortimer Davis, Jr., as the result of their recent hunting trip into the Kinawa district. The leader of the party expressed himself as delighted with the results, as he had not hoped for such luck. Great quantities of game of all kinds were seen.

That the Land of Evangeline (Nova Scotia) now ships over 2,000,000 bushels of apples abroad annually was the recent statement of F. G. J. Comeau, general freight and passenger agent, Dominion Atlantic Railway. A number of British apple growers and buyers are at present putting large tracts of land under fruit. With the apple growing industry increasing from year to year, at the rate of two to three hundred per cent per decade, only twenty per cent of the orchard land available in the province is yet under fruit.

MARRIED.

Fowler Perry.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Perry, Main Street was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Ellen Beryl Perry, became the bride of Louis de St. Croix Fowler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fowler of Bridgetown, N. S.

The house had been decorated with white crepe paper and pine. The marriage was solemnized in the parlor of the home, beneath a white arch from the center of which was suspended a big white bell with a large bow of white material, and with a cedar canopy in front of the arch. The effect was pretty indeed, the decorating scheme being very dainty. Rev. O. A. Price, pastor of the Congregational church, was the officiating clergyman, the double ring service being used. Miss Margaret Perry, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid while Mrs. Altra Burns acted as maid of honor. Alfred S. Burns was best man. Monday's wedding march was played by Miss Annie French.

The two little ring-bearers were Dorothy Perry and Alma Wallace, niece and cousin of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of tan silk crepe and carried a bride's bouquet of sweet peas. The bridesmaid also wore a dress of tan silk.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Some very nice wedding presents were received including money, linen, cut glass and silverware. The guests present at the wedding were the immediate friends of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Haycock, Mrs. William Perry and three children, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Wallace, Mrs. Abbie S. Knight, Rev. and Mrs. O. A. Price and those who participated in the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will make their home in the R. P. Libby house, Main Street, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Preston Libby.

The groom came here over a year ago and has since been a valued employee of Hopkins Brothers Company where he has been a courteous and painstaking salesman. He has made numerous friends during his stay here. Mrs. Fowler is a Fort Fairfield girl, having received her education in our schools and also attending the Boston Conservatory of Music. She is a young woman of sterling qualities and has a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler have the very kindest wishes of all for their happiness.—(Bangor Daily News.)

WEST CLARENCE.

Monday evening, Dec. 29th, 1924, was spent very pleasantly in the schoolroom, when the Sunday School put on a very interesting program, consisting of drills, exercises, readings and songs. At the last old Santa appeared, who assisted by some of the pupils unloaded the tree. The school room was prettily decorated by four of the girls who felt well repaid when they saw such a large audience before them.

Mrs. A. J. Wheelock has returned after spending a short time with her daughter, Mrs. John Hutchinson, Centreton.

Mr. Wylie Stronach has been spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Stronach, returned to New York last Saturday with his bride. Their many friends wish them a happy and prosperous future.

School opens Monday with everyone ready for study.

Miss Lillian Saunders has resumed her teaching duties in Beausoleil, spending the week-ends at home.

MOUNT ROSE.

Mrs. Sarah Grant went to New Germany on Friday, where she plans to spend the winter.

Miss Mary Marshall entertained a number of her young friends very pleasantly at a birthday party on Thursday afternoon and evening.

About sixteen guests were present from Fort Lorne and Millington. Perhaps some enjoyed the occasion more than Mary herself did, owing to ill-health has been confined to the house for the past two years, and appreciated very much the presence of her young friends again, also the visit again in which they remembered her birthday.

Paradise. A delightful church social was enjoyed in the vestry on the evening of New Years. The program was arranged for by the Acadia committee. A roll call of the Acadia students present furnished variety as some responded by relating outstanding reminiscences, others by repeating a class "ode" and yet others by giving their class veil.

Short sketches were read from the lives of Paradise's sons and daughters of Acadia, some of whom have passed into the school of Eternal truth, others of whom are now scattered abroad in this our world of time, race to face with life's opportunities.

A paper entitled "My Impressions of Acadia," was beautifully written and read by Miss Louise Morse, of West Paradise. Miss Morse received her B. A. from Acadia College last June, graduating with special honor in English. She also served the Atholensis as editor-in-chief during her senior year.

Miss Eleanor Lonley, a Seminary student of some two years past placed her ostentations with one of her humorous readings, Mrs. Ralph Beard, otherwise known as Miss Marion Bishop during her Seminary days, sang in her delightful way an improvised solo entitled "Acadia."

A number of cultured songs were sung by the Acadia students assisted by a quartet.

A quiet social was held at the school in the P. M. which was well attended and showed not only an embroiled pattern but the names of seventy men and women of the past and present who have lived in Paradise and have studied at Acadia or as in a few particular instances, while not themselves students, have been closely associated with the student life of Acadia as the names of Dr. Calvin Goodspeed and Hon. Avard Lonley, both of the past.

The above spread on completion will become the property of the Missionary Home in Wolfville.

Light refreshments were served at the close of the entertainment. The hostess for the evening was Mrs. J. S. Lonley, convener for the local Acadia committee.

The Acadia committee for Paradise congratulates the Acadia committee for clearance on so successful and enjoyable a social.

Paradise. A quiet time raising on behalf of the Acadia Proposition, its allocation of $275.00. Almost if not all of the above amount, we understand, has been forwarded to the Provincial Treas.

Paradise has forwarded $1200.00. The balance of the $255.00 asked for has been almost all subscribed, while some have done better, we have done well. Let us continue our well doing by paying to Mrs. J. E. Lonley our subscriptions at the earliest possible date.

Mr. Roy L. Balcom of Halifax spent a few days of the Christmas vacation at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. Hadden Balcom.

Mrs. Dodge is ill with pneumonia at time of writing. Her many friends are hoping she may see a speedy recovery.

The long, long wished for and waited for electric light for the church will soon have become a reality. A short wait for fixtures and then lights.

The vestry illumination was celebrated and much enjoyed on New Years night.

The proposed Poetry Show in connection with the Winter Sport Council to be held at Demonstration Hall in the near future, sounds good to those who have a heart for the local Acadia committee.

REVIEW OF PAST YEAR BY MAYOR HICKS.

As we come to the end of another year, our thoughts naturally turn to a backward glance and we view retrospectively the days, weeks and months through which we have passed and wonder what progress we have made as a Town, a Province, or a Nation and it seems wise to pause for a while at this milestone of our journey and allow ourselves time for retrospection. The mistakes of the year, the failures to accomplish, the efforts to perform duties that have perhaps been clearly defined, may be the very instruments to spur us on to welcome the New Year and from the dead ashes of our past failures arise and achieve greater and better things. As a Dominion, I believe, we have experienced a year of fair prosperity with conditions steadily improving and that we may with confidence look forward to another year of greatly improved conditions and greater prosperity.

As a Province, and speaking as one who has spent thirty years in business, I feel very strongly the need of a greater spirit of optimism of a greater faith in our Nova Scotia, in its resources and in our ability to place it at the very forefront of our Canadian provinces.

We speak of the lack of capital, we talk of not having markets. Let us give some fair inducements—capital is ever seeking investments. Let us, too, by our own sheer will and energy make our own markets. Nova Scotia has enough young blood, it thrives freely, that can obtain whatever it goes after. Let us have some big objective for 1925.

A Normal Year. And now to come to my own fair town of Bridgetown, situated in the centre of the vineyard of Nova Scotia, Bridgetown has experienced what might be termed a normal year, without any marked changes in business activities. We are naturally proud of our manufacturing houses which we believe hold first rank among the towns throughout the Valley. They all report a good average year. Retail business conditions have somewhat improved over last year, and collections are coming in more freely.

A comparatively new industry, yet one that has become quite prominent and very successful, is the raising of the silver fox. Within a five mile radius of town are to be found upwards of one hundred ranches. A ready sale has been made of all pups for breeding purposes, and it looks as if this industry were just in its infancy.

Social reform work and the activities of the various churches have gone on apace throughout the year. No better schools can be found in the Valley. Bridgetown is indeed fortunate in respect to its public school and present staff of teachers.

At least financially, civic affairs are in good condition. Taxes are well collected, all bills paid and a substantial balance at credit.

The town has plans for some further permanent street work next spring which is much needed.

Let us glean "the wheat from the year that is closing—forgetting the chaff of failures and disappointments—and step into the New Year full of hope, ambition and determination.

HENRY B. HICKS, Mayor of Bridgetown.

MARRIED. Lantz-Harding.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Harding on Wednesday evening, Dec. 31st, at eight o'clock when their eldest daughter Irene Edith was united in marriage to Haber A. Lantz of Papperville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. R. Hanson in the presence of immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. To the strains of Lohegrin's wedding march played by Mrs. A. R. H. the bride attired in white satin and ruffled lace with the conventional veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of carnations, entered the parlor on the arm of her father. She was preceded by two bridesmaids, Miss Maida Chute, dressed in white silk and Patricia Harding, sister of the bride, in pale blue, arranged in a wreath of flowers before her and stood under an arch of green and white fern which was supported by a white bell. Mr. Gordon Lantz supported the groom. After the ceremony a delightful buffet luncheon was served.

The bride was a popular nurse at the St. John County Hospital and was the recipient of many beautiful letters from Doctors, nurses and staff. The choir of Tabernacle Baptist Church, St. John, presented her with a silver and pyrex casserole. The wedding presents were numerous, consisting of linen, silver, china and cheques. The happy couple will reside in Granville.

UPPER GRANVILLE. The Borden family who have been residents here for a season have removed to Iowa, leaving the farm and house purchased from Mr. Ralph Berry, vacant. New neighbors will be expected in the near future.

The good old Christmas season passed away quietly and pleasantly in this vicinity. Social gatherings and good cheer prevailed, notwithstanding inclement weather.

Everything is jogging on as usual, teachers returned to daily duty. The ice harvest is close at hand.

The Christmas school concert given by Miss Armstrong's pupils on Dec. 19th, was pronounced a great success. The New Year comes to us with joys and sorrows wisely hidden, how will we meet them? Fear facing the New Year 1925, is dumb—fearing the hidden ways, Faith looking upward saith, Good is in everything, let it come, God ordereth the days. This is the New Year Bless—He is mine and I am His, all the ways, all the days, lead us home, Let us pray tetus praise.
