HON. R. P. ROBLIN WELCOMED AT HIS OLD COUNTY HOME

WEDNESDAY, June 12.—(Special.)—The entire Bay of Quinte district, including the counties of Northumberland, Hastings, Lennox, Frontenac and Prince Edward, crowded the Town of Pictou to greet, welcome and applaud Hon. Mr. Roblin, Premier of Manitoba, the "favorite son" of the county.

Mr. Roblin and party, including Mrs. Roblin, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Forest, and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bryson, left Toronto at 7.45 this morning on a second-class train, that stopped at every station.

A hearty welcome.

At Pictou there was a multitude of enthusiastic admirers to greet him. There were bands, flags, carriages and a great procession, but what pleased Mr. Roblin most was to greet his venerable father, still hale and hearty at 83, who was at the station to meet him. The town was decorated with flags. A huge holiday had been proclaimed, and everybody was in a festive mood.

At the fair grounds the people assembled in such numbers that the grand stand overflowed with spectators, and the grounds themselves were taxed for capacity. The children sang "The Maple Leaf," and sang it well, and the premier listened to the address. One was from Warden Sallor, another from Mayor Farrington. The address from the school children was supplemented by the presentation of a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses by a pretty young belle of seven years.

There was an informal reception this evening at the Royal Hotel, where Mr. Roblin and his party are stopping. The addresses presented to Premier Roblin were all of a highly complimentary nature, but the sincerity of the many congratulations was evinced in the manner of the assemblage. The successful career which "R. P." had farmed for himself in the great west was subject for eulogy. It was moved entrance into federal politics also made the subject for remark.

Commencing at 9 o'clock to-night, there was a complimentary banquet tendered to Mr. Roblin by the people of Prince Edward County. Seats were reserved for tickets that P. H. Hepburn, proprietor of the Royal Hotel, was compelled to lease the Crystal Palace, a large auditorium in the county fair grounds, and fully 500 guests assembled.

The guest of honor naturally made the most of the occasion. It was punctuated by generous applause, and the feeling is universal that it is a day in Canada destined to mark an epoch in letters and telegrams of record were received from Hon. J. P. Whitney, E. R. B. Bunn, M.L.A., George P. Graham, M.L.A., leader of the opposition, Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, minister of justice, Irish Wilson, M.P., ex-Mayor of Toronto, F. J. Foster, M.P., A. T. G. Carswell, M.L.A., E. Guss Preter, M.P., Mayor Sulman of Belleville and Dr. J. Earl Halliwell of Stirling.

The Prince Edward County Old Boys of Winnipeg wired as follows: "All old boys and boys in the west regret sincerely inability to be with you today in doing honor to our premier, the boy we all adore."

Mr. Whitney in his public services, Mr. Roblin deserves any acknowledgment that may be afforded him on the part of the public, and such acknowledgment comes with peculiar propriety from the locality where he was born and brought up.

The Future of the West.

Because Canada to-day occupies the proud position of being the most important self-governing colony in the empire, no guarantee that the ties which have been sufficient to hold that allegiance and relation in the past will be considered enough to hold us in the future.

Without any doubt whatever, it is only a matter of five, certainly not more than ten, years with the same ratio of immigration that has characterized the last five years, when the foreign-born citizens of Western Canada can, if they choose, take all matters of government absolutely into their own hands.

A man's loyalty and his patriotism, under ordinary conditions, are largely made by the financial and material benefits that the country in which he lives provides. Now the people are flocking to Western Canada to-day from foreign countries because of the rich and inviting promises of our broad and fertile prairies.

The Western Canadian farmer has no preferences, gets no consideration in the markets of the United Kingdom, as against the products of foreign countries, and the intelligent men of this class will naturally ask, and they are already beginning to inquire, what purpose, what object, is being served by a continuation of the relations that exist between Canada and the United Kingdom, if we cannot get any consideration that a foreigner cannot get?

They are beginning to argue that if Canada had the power to make an absolute and independent treaty of her own, without regard to British interests, trade matters—matters of commerce and finance—could be developed along channels and in lines that at present appear to be blocked.

The United Kingdom appears to be as indifferent to interests of the colonies and her own interests to-day as she was when Grenville put his offensive and obnoxious stamp duties upon the British states. And the errors and mistakes that were made at that time, and were so costly, may be repeated; because the conditions in Canada to-day, to say nothing about the future, are not so favorable as they were at that time for British connection by virtue of the mixed population.

—HON. R. P. ROBLIN.

TOWN IS PILLAGED BY REVOLUTIONISTS

Custom House Robbed of $20,000—Entire Country in Favor of Government.

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, June 12.—A force of Nicaraguan filibusters landed at Acajutla and at once made their way to the Town of Sonsonate, where they plundered the custom house and stole $20,000 from the local agency of the Bank of Salvador.

Salvadoran troops then appeared upon the scene and defeated the invaders, who fled precipitately back to Acajutla, where they re-embarked upon some vessels lying in the Nicaraguan harbor and made their way out of the harbor.

The entire country is in favor of the government. Thousands of volunteers have offered their services in the fight for Salvador and President Figueroa is being generally acclaimed.

Defeated Invading Force. MEXICO CITY, June 12.—According to a cable despatch received late this afternoon the Salvadoran army has defeated the invading force, which captured Acajutla yesterday, and has driven it back to the coast.

POLITICS FORCE DUNDONALD TO QUIT

Since His Clash With Canadian Politicians He Has Never Had an Appointment.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable). LONDON, June 12.—Lord Dundonald, former commander-in-chief of the militia in Canada, has retired from the army. The announcement was made public to-day and has caused considerable comment.

Earl Dundonald has evidently not forgotten the circumstances under which he gave up command of the forces in Canada, and in an interview with The Daily News, he once again openly expresses his opinion as to the appointment of officers to the Canadian regiments.

Speaking to the representative of The News, Lord Dundonald says: "Since I called attention in Canada to the political jobbery in the appointment of officers, I have been offered no appointment by the British government. 'I therefore automatically retire.'"

Asked if he proposed to enter a political career, he said: "I do not intend to sit down and do nothing." Dundonald, to The Mail, said: "I have retired simply because the British authorities have offered me no employment since I was turned out. Yes, I prefer the words 'turned out' from Canadian militia for calling attention to political corruption in the appointment of officers, the corruptions that if not protested against by someone, would be bound to destroy the efficiency of that fine force, for I consider unfairness and favoritism bound to destroy the efficiency and take the heart out of any military force."

SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL PROBLEMS

With Agent to Devote Whole Time to It, Decision of Assembly.

MONTREAL, June 12.—(Special.)—Dr. John Somerville, D.D., was relieved of the governorship of the home mission committee to-day by the General Assembly, and in addition to his position as clerk, was appointed treasurer to the board of trustees.

Rev. Alfred Gendrier was appointed financial agent and secretary, whichever title may be chosen. Rev. G. A. Wilson, Vancouver, was appointed superintendent of the home mission field of British Columbia, with all the salary on a par with other superintendents. The assembly will possibly close to-morrow.

Rev. Dr. Gordon brought in the special report of the temperance and reform committee, recommending the appointment of a standing committee for the study of problems confronting the church in questions of labor, political and commercial corruption, gambling, the social evil and the liquor traffic, and to indicate lines of action for removing existing abuses, similar committees to be formed in the several synods; a special collection to be made as near Dominion Day as convenient; and the appointment of a special agent to give his full time to the work, the salary to be arranged by the committee. The report was adopted.

Dr. Gordon said that a man was contemplated by the committee whose work would justify their action if he were appointed, but he would not mention his name. It is understood Rev. Dr. Pidgeon was alluded to. Sir Thomas Taylor moved a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the government to make the gambling laws more strict and specially protesting against making betting on the race track legal. He had seen six hundred men and boys playing crap games on Sundays at Hamilton race track, and the police were powerless.

FUSHIMI WELCOMED IN TORONTO PLEASED WITH OUR HOSPITALITY

Japan's Imperial Prince Cheered by Large Crowds on Arrival and Feted at Government House.

ADMIRE THE QUEEN CITY AS SEEN FROM CARRIAGE

Prince Fushimi, cousin of the Emperor of Japan, and distinguished for his military genius, received the city's welcome yesterday. His arrival proved an event of interest to many thousands of Torontonians, as the crowds at the Union Station indicated, and the warmth of the hospitality extended left little to be desired and was manifestly gratifying to the prince. The civic drive around the city, followed by the garden party at government house and the state dinner in the evening, were functions that appeared to please the visitor's fancy. The prince, who with his A.D.C., spent the night as guests of the lieutenant-governor, leaves for the west at 11 a.m. to-day.

The Prince, who visited Niagara Falls during the morning, appeared much impressed, not alone by the grandeur of the cataract, but by the possibilities for electrical power development, and in his inspection of the power houses he displayed keen interest, asking many questions. The prince and party were guests of the Niagara Falls Park Commissioners. The fact that the mayor and civic authorities were not asked to participate in the reception caused some resentment on their part. The visitors left at 12.30 p.m. for Toronto.

Considerable excitement spread through the party accompanying Prince Fushimi when the prince's arrival was announced. The possibility of the indignity once offered a Chinese official traveling incognito being repeated in the case of the Japanese prince, and the possible complications arising from the detaining of the prince until he cleared the customs and pay the sidler unfairness and favoritism bound to destroy the efficiency and take the heart out of any military force."

"The Mail states the retirement has caused no little sensation in army circles. As the special came to a standstill, the Japanese minister of state, who represents the government in the arrangements for civic receptions to the prince on his itinerary, was seen on the train. The prince, who was seen in the train, was accompanied by Fushimi descended, and became at once, as action writers would say, the cynosure of all eyes. His companions, the lieutenant-governor and the mayor, were seen to shake hands and stand in front of the prince, while a British cheer arose from the remainder of the train.

Rank Not Made by Clothes. The prince did not appear to be the gaze of the curious spectators, but rather the admiration of the men and standing had prepared many to expect. His attire bore no proud insignia. In conventional frock coat and waistcoat, he was not noticeably different from the other guests. His appearance to single him out from his suite, who followed in his wake.

Rather above the average height of the Japanese, the prince was of a rather characteristic features of his race, with swarthy skin, and impassive features. His hair was grey, as is also his rather heavy mustache and chin beard. The thousands who later saw him as he emerged on Front-street from the Union Station were probably surprised to see in the visitor one of middle age, since the title of prince conveys an unconscious suggestion of youth and dash. Prince Fushimi's appearance was grave, almost stern, and he received the plaudits with countenance almost unmoved. Not that he was unappreciative, for his occasional smile was warm and cordial, and thru his interpreter, he more than once expressed the pleasure which the extended hospitality afforded him. While an able French linguist he has not yet essayed to travel the rocky paths of the English language.

Pictureque Welcome. There was little ceremony at the depot. The prince was conducted by the lieutenant-governor, and followed by the mayor, who was waiting with bared head and his honor bowed with deep respect. The prince, showing recognition of the honor by a gracious inclination of the head, while the assembly burst into cheers. Escorted by the lieutenant-governor, and followed by his suite, and the civic delegation, Prince Fushimi proceeded along the strip of crimson carpet upstairs to the waiting room and thence to the Front-street entrance. The station was lavishly and tastefully garnished throughout the route of procession with flags and bunting. The Japanese ensign being conspicuous, while scarlet tracings on white background, looking somewhat cryptic to the ordinary beholder, conveyed to the prince a greeting in his own language.

On Front-street, the presence of the prince, drawn up in one line on the right side with muskets at "present" and bayonets glistening, lent state and impressiveness to the ceremony. The detachment of 100 men was under the command of Capt. Porter, with Lieuts. C. H. Porter and Scandrett, and the scarlet tunics and bayonets caught the eye of the prince in a moment, his keen gaze following the line from end to end with puzzled interest. The background to the whole was the clusters of Japanese flags, mounted on white pedestals, while the business was going on. The windows bristling with scores of flags. At the corner of Simcoe-street, a conspicuous white steamship with "Banana" blazoned upon it caused the eye of the prince to lighten up as his eye traveled aloft.

Summing up this period of crime, poverty and want, the defence wanted to know why, if he was in Idaho on a mission of murder for Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone, and with whitened credit from them, he did not send to them for money instead of borrowing and stealing. Orchard replied that he did write to Moyer at Butte, and got $100, but that he did not send to Haywood for more because he was temporarily off the Steunenberg record, and away from where Steunenberg lived.

Lately it was shown that Orchard borrowed $300 from Paulson, on the strength of a fraudulent story that he was going to Los Angeles to see mining stocks for Coates, and that this was the money that actually paid his expenses when he went to Caldwell on the first mission of murder.

Swiftly reviewing his meetings with his old partner, who had meantime become rich, the defence asked the witness if, disappointed and angered

ORCHARD'S MEAN CRIMES DRAGGED OUT BY DEFENCE

Plotted to Kidnap the Child of a Man Whose Guest He Was.

BOISE, IDAHO, June 12.—The defence to-day brought the cross-examination of Harry Orchard down to the actual crime charged against Wm. D. Haywood, the murder of ex-governor Frank Steunenberg.

Probing into the crime was reached at midday and counsel for the defence directed their efforts to an attempt to prove the earlier purposes and movements of Orchard were uncertain and indefinite.

Then they emphasized the abandonment of all efforts at murder after Orchard first tracked Steunenberg to a hotel in Boise and with a skeleton key gained entrance to the room in which the ex-governor was staying, which the ex-governor was staying.

Here they stopped for a moment to prove that Orchard twice wrote and once telephoned to "Bill" Exarty at Silver City to urge him to come and join in the projected crime, the direct implication being that Orchard endeavored to induce Exarty to help him man into the crime which would discredit and dishonor the organization.

Plot to Kidnap. Then the witness was carried over this long journey into North Idaho, and his crimes there, including a plot to kidnap and hold for ransom Paulson's child.

Orchard swore that David Coates, formerly lieutenant-governor of Colorado and late a publisher in Wallace, Idaho, first moved the kidnapping to Pettibone, and himself at Denver, Paulson, once a poor miner, had made a fortune in the Hercules mine in which Orchard held an interest when the property was not paying; and it was believed that if his children were stolen he would pay $50,000 or $20,000 in ransom. Orchard said that when he went to North Idaho he got Jack Simpkins to enter the plot, and together they went to Coates to renew the scheme.

Coates was asked to stand up, and Orchard said he was the man, whom he was satisfied Orchard was then asked whether he himself did not propose the crime to Coates, who immediately refused him, and whether Jack Simpkins did not warn Paulson directly he heard of the plot. Orchard denied both suggestions, and insisted that Coates consented to stay in the plot and handle the money they hoped to get from Paulson.

Series of Thefts. Then the defence had the witness admit a series of mean crimes. When reduced to poverty he resorted to pawnbroking, borrowing and stealing. First he pawned jewelry and guns for $25 to $30. Then he accepted Paulson's hospitality, while he was plotting to steal Paulson's child. After that with Simpkins, he said, he broke into the Oregon Railway and Navigation Co. station. They were after a trunk full of jewelry samples, but instead got a trunk full of shoe samples. Next he topped a cash register at Burke for $30 and $10.

Summing up this period of crime, poverty and want, the defence wanted to know why, if he was in Idaho on a mission of murder for Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone, and with whitened credit from them, he did not send to them for money instead of borrowing and stealing. Orchard replied that he did write to Moyer at Butte, and got $100, but that he did not send to Haywood for more because he was temporarily off the Steunenberg record, and away from where Steunenberg lived.

Lately it was shown that Orchard borrowed $300 from Paulson, on the strength of a fraudulent story that he was going to Los Angeles to see mining stocks for Coates, and that this was the money that actually paid his expenses when he went to Caldwell on the first mission of murder.

JURY DECLARES NEGLIGENCE CRIMINAL

City and Ry. Authorities Jointly Slated for Dangerous Crossing on Esplanade at Inquest.

That Francis Hart came to his death as a result of injuries sustained on the Bay-street crossing on the night of May 24 thru being struck by Grand Trunk engine No. 894, going east, over the crossing.

The order for the proper protection of the said crossing, issued by the railway committee of the privy council, has not been carried out and that the corporation and officials of the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railway Companies were criminally negligent in not properly providing for the safety of pedestrians upon the said crossing.

And that the corporation and officials of the City of Toronto were negligent in not seeing that the railway companies carried out the said order.

This is the substance of the verdict returned by Coroner Johnson's jury last night after having enquired into the death of the steward of the steamer Corinna.

A number of officials of both companies were examined, telling of matters referring to the responsibility of the carrying out of orders of the railway committee and railway board.

City Engineer Rust said that he did not know whether the orders were carried out or not, but that if a complaint should be made to him he would notify the mayor.

At the opening of the session County Crown Attorney Drayton read letters and telegrams from the railway board showing that he had had difficulty in securing replies to letters asking for the report of the board's inspector, Lalonde, as to the accident.

Finally he had received a telegram saying that Lalonde had not ascertained the track upon which Hart had been struck nor the train responsible for the death and that it was not possible to determine that the report be laid before the jury.

Coroner Johnson in summing up said that the evidence had disclosed a mysterious state of affairs, in which the railway companies and the city were engaged in a game little likely to ensure the safety of the citizens.

It was a serious thing that occurred given by the railway commission, that a watchman be kept at the crossing, should later be with the with the railway board as doubtful as to covering nights.

The train blamed by the jury for the accident was the light taster engine running from Mimico to East Toronto.

ADRIFT AT SEA 14 DAYS

Fushimi Thru a Woman's Eyes.

The advent of Prince Fushimi yesterday was the signal for much enthusiasm on the part of the crowds gathered at the station and along the route of the procession. The women especially appeared enthusiastic, and when the stately little Jap marched down the hall of the Union station, followed by his suite, many a feminine neck was craned to catch a sight of him. No one was disappointed. Something in his intense dignity and the gallantry of his bearing makes an instant appeal to the feminine heart. Tho' not beyond middle height, his perfect carriage, his commanding erectness, with the subtle grace and litheness of every motion which distinguishes the "Oriental" won admiration universally.

While not actually handsome, the prince has a powerful, thoughtful face, more of the bulldog type of Englishman than Japanese in form, but decidedly alive in tint. His eyes are not narrow or small, but remarkably keen and penetrating. Something in his polished manner of response to the Frenchman, a suggestion carried out by his black mustache, in build he is strong and athletic-looking—the very picture one would wish of a soldier.

The advent of the prince draws attention to his country, and the customs of Japan are of particular interest to women of other lands, as they contain a remarkable example of how far on one generation to another. A hundred years ago Japanese women, while treated with respect in the house-

HOW FUSHIMI TRAVELS

ROYAL TRAIN A BEAUTY

And the First Real Government-Owned Train That Has Entered Toronto.

The royal train which created so much attention was composed of seven cars, occupied by a strict "stagn" party of about forty. It was the first real government owned train that ever arrived in Toronto, a fact which was remarked by railway officials. Since his imperial highness boarded this train at Quebec it has stuck to him like a faithful spaniel. Five of the cars of the Intercolonial Railway, which never saw Toronto before, are retaining this morning for the blue neck regions to resume their usual grind as a portion of the regular equipment and service on the Intercolonial Railway to which it may be said, by the way, that they are a distinct credit. They are the cars that have been ordinarily used on the Ocean Limited, and their general appearance was pleasing. The other two cars were those known as the Governor-General's. They are the "Cornwall" and the "York" and were occupied by Prince Fushimi and his suite, who were greatly pleased with the attention to their comfort, and expressed themselves accordingly. The prince, third his interpreters, loaded the railway service. He can't get away with the English language himself, but he can smile appreciation. His interpreter says our tongue at their tender end as it were, so far as understanding goes, can't exactly tell it, but it is evident that they mean it and that the imperial party was greatly pleased by the attention of the Kingston R.M.C. and the Ontario R.M.C. to Niagara Falls and back to Toronto, a railway service was given which would be considered a marvel by anyone who lives in this country, and his imperial highness and party saw what we can do in that respect if we want to. LONG SEARCH FOR MOTHER.

Brockville Man Successful After a Five Years' Hunt.

BROCKVILLE, June 12.—(Special).—After a search of nearly five years Jos. Paszperk, a Hungarian, 26 years of age, has been successful in finding his mother, and also she is demoted she fully recognized her boy, and it was a most pathetic reunion that occurred between mother and son at the St. Lawrence State Hospital.

Mrs. Paszperk left her home in Hungary 21 years ago. Her husband had died, leaving her with three children, Joseph, then five years of age, being the eldest. She sailed for America alone, the children remaining with relatives in their native land. Shortly after landing in New York she became ill, and was committed, unknown to her mother, to the St. Lawrence State Hospital. At first Marie Walle did not recognize him, but as he talked to her in her native tongue, he recounted scenes and incidents of their past life in the home in Hungary the mother seemed to remember and after a little recognized her son, and they were happily united in fond embraces. Paszperk has secured his mother's discharge and together they left for Quebec, where he is in the intention to take his mother back to her old home across the sea.

THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

A NECESSITY IN B.C.

Assembly Appoint Committee—Work Among the Mormon Colonies.

MONTREAL, June 12.—(Special).—This was the general Assembly's busy day. The tendency towards "infinite talk" was somewhat restrained by the formidable dock of business. The admirable spirit of the commissioners was exemplified by Principal Scribner's apology for hasty language used the day before. Dr. Sedgwick said that in the heat of debate such an occurrence was not remarkable. He always allowed such incidents to pass out of mind, but he was very glad, most cordially, to accept the reference made.

Dr. Wardlaw Taylor introduced the report of the committee on the theological college for British Columbia. In the report it was pointed out that one of the most serious handicaps under which the work of the church is prosecuted in the middle and far west is the lack of continuous home mission supply. The mission fields are diligently served during the summer months, but with the departure of the students for college in the autumn, they are left, in a lamentably large number of instances, without regular supply during the winter months.

The committee believe that this difficulty which is bound to become more acute as the rapid development of the country proceeds, might be overcome in large measure by the establishment of a course of theological teaching carried on during the summer months. The assembly decided to found the college, a committee, with Prof. Dyde as secretary, to be appointed to carry out the project.

Grants For Ottawa College.

Rev. Dr. Armstrong presented this report of the Ottawa Ladies' College, which was adopted.

The report asked for two expenditures necessary to the expansion of the college. One is extinguishing the long standing debt of the building. Another thing was the providing of additional accommodation, without which the growth of the college would be arrested, and its work in various departments crippled.

One way suggested in which the college might be helped, was by the establishment of a bureau for worthy pupils, especially for ministers and missionaries' daughters.

St. Andrew's College, Toronto, was commended by Principal Gordon.

In his closing address the report of a building in Northern Ontario was set apart. E. D. McLaren reported that 32 men from Britain were coming out for mission work in September, and 50 more were available. It was agreed to appoint a superintendent for British Columbia to leave Dr. Hendman free for Alberta.

More Damnation Than Salvation.

Rev. C. S. Eby, D.D., of the international reform bureau, addressed the assembly. He declared that the nations sent out more damnation than salvation to the heathen. One-third of China was rotted by opium intoxicants and vice was worse than war and pestilence.

An agent to meet immigrants at St. John during the winter was arranged.

Mormonism was discussed once more and Dr. Somerville discussed that he or Prof. Kilpatrick had made a statement on the assembly that the effect of polygamy was practiced in Canada. Rev. F. A. Watson, Thameston, contended that the Mormons had one doctrine, that of the public and another of their private teaching. It was generally held that no impression could be made upon Mormons by missionaries. The only way to affect them was by having non-Mormon settlers take up residence among them, but they should be clear-headed people.

A delegation from the Congregational Union, consisting of Charles Cushing, president of the union; Rev. Hugh Pedley and Rev. E. H. Tippet, addressed the assembly, and was accorded a resolution of greeting.

Mr. Pedley, in his remarks, said the issues at stake between the Congregationalists and the Presbyterians were greater than between the Presbyterians and Methodists. There was an old Scotch phrase about "the crowned rights of the Redeemer" that he wished to carry with them, the citizens' rights of the redeemed, and also what Jeremy Taylor called the liberty of prophesying.

FLAGMAN SAVES WOMAN.

She Was Just About to Step In Front of a Train.

Flagman Hugh Gallagher, stationed at the foot of Yonge-street, saved a woman from death on the railway crossing yesterday morning. An excursion train was pulling out for the east, and a freight was coming from the east, when a shunting engine, sawed a woman from the crossing. The woman was just about to step in front of it when Gallagher pulled her back.

Section Man Killed on Track.

St. Cerrille, Italian section man on the P.E.R., was instantly killed yesterday morning, near Port Credit. He stepped out of the way of a west-bound passenger train, and when it passed walked in front of an east-bound passenger train.

KING'S ATTENDANT DIES.

General Sir Arthur Ellis Expires While at the Opera.

LONDON, June 12.—The gaities attendant of the International Horse Show at Olympia were saddened by the sudden death from heart disease of Gen. Sir Arthur E. Ellis, who was in attendance upon King Edward at the opera. General Ellis was born in 1847.

Body Found in Creek.

CHATHAM, June 12.—Mrs. Hannah Withham, who disappeared Monday night, was found in McGregor's Creek this morning. She was feeble-minded, and it is supposed walked into the water during her sleep.

Railway Commission Goes North.

The members of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway commission left for North Bay, where a conference will be held today with the transcontinental commission. Both commissions will then go north as far as possible on a tour of inspection.

The tender for the stores building at North Bay has been awarded to Warren Bros.

Suffragists Hold Meeting.

A Young People's meeting of the Canadian Suffragist Association took place at the home of Mrs. Denison, 22 Carlton-street.

Besides the hostess and convener of the junior committee, Miss Cunningham, the following speakers addressed the meeting: Dr. Ayson from New Zealand, who quoted from the interview with Sir Joseph Ward, premier of that colony. He decidedly favors woman suffrage. Mrs. Denison pointed out that Stead argued that if woman is a human being at all, she has the rights and prerogatives of the race. Dr. Gordon objected to the opinions set forth by Miss McCully, that the women in England have gone too far. She pointed out that newspapers are now addressed to that sex, and Mrs. Denison added to this the instance of Mrs. Wells, formerly a moderate, who was driven from that standpoint by the fact that one of her daughters had married a man who was a radical. Mrs. Denison said that she was sure that the women in England have gone too far. She pointed out that newspapers are now addressed to that sex, and Mrs. Denison added to this the instance of Mrs. Wells, formerly a moderate, who was driven from that standpoint by the fact that one of her daughters had married a man who was a radical.

PERSONAL

At Wales, Ont., last evening the wedding was solemnized of Marie Kathleen, daughter of J. D. Colquhoun, postmaster and Garnet M., only son of Premier and Mrs. Whitney, being characteristic of both the bride and groom to have as little publicity as possible, the ceremony was very quiet, only the immediate relatives being present in attendance, and the couple being unattended. Rev. G. W. Mingle, Presbyterian minister of Wales, officiated. The groom is manager of the Molsons Bank at Wales, where he has made many friends. The bride is the only daughter of the late Colquhoun of Wales, and is very popular throughout the neighborhood. The happy couple immediately after the ceremony left for their honeymoon trip, after which they will take up their residence in Wales.

At St. George's Church yesterday, Miss Mary Kery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hume Kerr, and Frank Herbert Stark, son of John Stark, were married by Rev. Canon Chayley, W. J. Kery of New York gave the bride away.

The bride's dress of cream chiffon lace had embroidered in silk remembrance over ivory chignon. The gift from the bride's godmother. A veil of Brussels net, with coronet of pearls, was worn with this beautiful Paris creation. The groom's gift, a heart studded with whole pearls, was worn as ornament and a bouquet of white roses was carried. The maid of honor, Miss Bertina Kerr, the bride's sister, was gowned in sunset tulle, with a crown of white and blue flowers. The bridesmaids, Miss Gertrude O'Connor, daughter of John J. O'Connor, Mr. Holmes playing the wedding march, while Arthur Lettice sang two solos. The bride wore a graceful clinging gown of white embroidered with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. TO BE DYSPYPTIC IS TO BE MISERABLE

Hopeless, Confused and Depressed In Mind, Forgetful, Irritable, Drowsy, Languid and Useless.

This disease assumes so many forms that there is scarcely a complaint which it may not resemble in one way or another. Among the most prominent symptoms are constipation, sour stomach, variable appetite, heartburn, water-brash, gas in the stomach and bowels, distress after eating, etc.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS is a positive cure for dyspepsia, and all diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. It stimulates secretion of the salivary and gastric juices to facilitate digestion, removes acidity, purifies the blood and tones the entire system to full health and vigor.

Mrs. M. A. McNeil, Brock Village, N.S., writes: "I suffered from dyspepsia, loss of appetite and bad blood. I tried everything I could get to do to no purpose; then I finally started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. From the first day I felt the good effects of the medicine. I can eat anything now without any ill after effects and am strong and well again. Price $1.00 per bottle or 6 bottles for $5.00.

Wisdom King and Ian Bar Win London Harness Races. Mizzen First in Running Event—Three Thousand at Circuit Races on Third Day.

LONDON, June 12.—(Special)—Over 3000 people were on hand to see the third day's Canadian circuit races here. The day was fine and the track fast. Seven shifty pacers scored for the Westwood mare, Old Maid, sold in the early pools at $10, with the field bringing $5, but after finishing in the rack in the first heat and second in the next, she got the banner in the third. The Blenheim pacer, Sidney Mack, won the first heat in the slow time of 2:19, with all the others not trying very hard to get to the front. Wisdom King, who finished eighth in the first heat, overtook the field and landed the second, third and fourth, but had to do his best to beat Hazel Hunter in the third and Miss Casey in the final. For scoring ahead of the pole horse, Hodson, who drove Miss Casey, and Snyder, Jay County, who drove Hazel Hunter, the judges might well have gone further and fined Barrett, the driver of Wisdom King, who had the pole, for not trying to score up with the others. The stakes race for 3-year-olds was easy money for the Monbars youngster, Ian Bar, a grand-looking bay colt, owned by W. Franley of Stratford, who won handsily in straight heats, the time 1:07 1/2, 1:07 1/2, 1:07 1/2, being exceptionally good for a 3-year-old. The extra good match credit due Jordan and Bernstein of Toledo, O., who have the score card privileges, for the excellent cards supplied. They are complete in every way and are very much appreciated by the patrons. The 2 1/2 mile pace, purse $400.—Wisdom King, ch.g., by Wisdom King, W. Franley, Stratford, Ont. (Barrett) 8:11.1. GOVERNMENT MEN STRIKE. Freight Handlers at Halifax Want Higher Wages.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 12.—The freight handlers on the waterfront in the employ of the Dominion Government went on strike to-day.

They demand 20 cents an hour for day work and 25 cents for night. In the meantime goods are piled up in the big warehouses awaiting shipment.

At the final sessions of the Co-operative Fruit Growers of Ontario yesterday, the question of placing one or more men in the west to represent the associations was discussed.

A uniform brand, to be used by all affiliated associations that pack their fruit in accordance with the standard that is recognized by the central organization, will be adopted.

A resolution was passed regarding various features of the transportation of fruit, including demurrage of cars, and the use of special facilities for shipping.

A resolution was passed, also, regarding the appointment of inspectors to visit the associations and instruct them in methods of bringing about a more uniform pack of fruits among the co-operative associations affiliated.

A New Summer Resort. Bon Echo Inn, the summer hotel of beautiful Lake Massasauga, strikes a decidedly novel and charming note in its furnishing and decoration.

Robbed Yacht of Jewels. NEW YORK, June 12.—It has just been learned that the steam yacht Adroit, owned by Russell Hopkins of Atlanta and New York, has been robbed of jewels amounting to nearly ten thousand dollars.

Killed at Barr Raising. MEAFORD, June 12.—At a barr-raising on the farm of James Emery, 7th line, about five miles from here, a man by the name of Grant was struck by a rafter and killed.
