TWENTY-THIRD YEAR

BRITAIN TO AID BOERS WITH WEAPONS

A RESOLUTION TO BE PASSED IN PARLIAMENT

Announcement of Generous Terms in the House of Commons Greeted With Cheers—Burgers Acknowledge King Edward as Their Sovereign—Dual Language—Colonies Not to Be Taxed for War—Treatment of Colonial Rebels.

VOTE OF THANKS TO KITCHENER AND ARMY TO BE MOVED

London, June 2.—Not in years had the House of Commons been so thronged with a brilliant and enthusiastic audience as when the First Lord of the Treasury and government spokesman in the house, Mr. Balfour, announced this afternoon the peace terms concluded with the Boers.

An hour before the house met a large crowd in Whitehall vociferously cheered the notable politicians, particularly the Colonial Secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, who walked unconcernedly from the Colonial Office with a broad smile on his face.

Long before the customary prayer, the galleries of the house were packed. Joseph H. Choate, the United States ambassador, Henry White, the Secretary of the Embassy, Lord Rothschild and many members of the cabinet patiently waited through the answering of questions in the house for the momentous announcement. An unusually large number of peers sat in their galleries, and behind the ladies' grill aristocratic women were closely packed. Noticeable among them was Lady Sarah Wilson, who thus saw the end of the drama in which she played such an active part.

Ovation to Leaders. Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Balfour both received a great ovation as they walked to their seats. Mr. Chamberlain's ovation being by far the more enthusiastic of the two.

The period of waiting finally came to an end. Amid breathless silence, broken a few seconds later by applause such as the House of Commons seldom hears, Mr. Balfour rose and announced the terms on which the war in South Africa had been ended. The reference to King Edward as their sovereign was the hit of the day, being greeted with a salvo of "Hear, hear" and applause from the galleries, the occupants of which refused to be silenced.

Liberalism Cheered. As the liberality of the terms grew plainer, the cheers on the Liberal side of the house diminished, while the opposition's satisfaction was proportionately increased.

Thus all this the Irish members sat impassive, the earlier in the afternoon they had started the house by a demonstration which at first was thought to be in honor of peace. This, it was soon discovered, was caused by the reappearance in the house of William Redmond, who has just returned from the United States.

When Mr. Balfour's statement was concluded, every one seemed glad of the opportunity for a hearty laugh, caused by the government leaders' humorous quashing of the suggestion that the Commons adjourn in honor of peace.

Position of Liberals. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, on behalf of the opposition, felt through the empire at the conclusion of peace. They were unanimous in admiration of their late enemies, now their friends and fellow citizens, whose military qualities, tenacity of purpose and self-sacrificing devotion to liberty and country had won them the respect of the whole world, and, in respect of all the respect of their opponents. Every member would offer congratulations to the King and to the country, on three blessed restoration of peace.

Mr. Balfour announced the government would take an early opportunity of moving a vote of thanks to Lord Kitchener and the members of the House of Commons returned to their ordinary avocations. The First Lord of the Treasury and Government Leader, A. J. Balfour, announced the terms of peace in South Africa, as follows:

TEXT OF PEACE TERMS.

"His Excellency Lord Milner, in behalf of the British Government; His Excellency Mr. Steyn, General Bannerman, General C. B. Dewet, and Judge Herzog, acting in behalf of the Orange Free State, and General Schalkburg, General Reitz, General Louis Botha and General De la Rey, acting in behalf of their respective Burgers, desiring to terminate the present hostilities, agree to the following terms:

"First. The Burgers forces in the field will forthwith lay down their arms and hand over to the British Government all rifles and ammunition of war in their possession, or under their control, and desist from further resistance, and acknowledge King Edward VII. as their lawful sovereign. The manner and details of this surrender will be arranged between Lord Kitchener and Commandant-General Botha, assisted by General De la Rey and Chief Commandant Dewet.

"Second. All Burgers outside the limits of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony, and all prisoners of war at present outside South Africa, who are Burgers, will, on duly declaring their acceptance of the position of subjects of His Majesty, be brought back to their homes so soon as means of transportation can be provided and means of subsistence assured.

"Third. The Burgers returning will not be deprived of their personal liberty or property.

"Fourth. No proceedings, civil or criminal, will be taken against any Burgers surrendering, or so returning, for any acts in connection with the prosecution of the war.

"Fifth. The Dutch language will be taught in the Public Schools of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony, where the parents desire it, and will be allowed in the courts of law for the better and more effective administration of justice.

"Sixth. Possession of rifles will be allowed in the Transvaal and Orange River Colony to persons requiring them for their protection, on taking out a license, according to law.

"Seventh. The military administration of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony will, at the earliest possible date, be succeeded by a civil government, and, so soon as circumstances permit, representative institutions, leading up to self-government, will be introduced.

"Eighth. The question of granting the franchise to natives will not be decided until after the introduction of self-government.

"Ninth. No special tax will be imposed on the property in the Transvaal or Orange River Colony to defray the expenses of the war. So soon as the commission permit it, a commission, on which the local inhabitants will be represented, will be appointed to restore the property of the people to their homes, and supplying those who, owing to war losses, are unable to provide for themselves, with food and shelter, and the necessary means of subsistence, such as clothing, tools, implements, etc., indispensable to the resumption of the former occupants.

"Tenth. His Majesty's government will place at the disposal of these commissions the sum of three million pounds sterling, £1,000,000 of which will allow all the notes issued under the law of 1900 of the South African Republic to be redeemed, and the balance to be used by the government, which will be appointed by the government, and if such notes and receipts are found by this commission to have been validly issued in return for valuable considerations, they will be received in payment of the commissions as evidence of war losses suffered by the persons to whom they are issued.

"In addition to the above-named sum of three million pounds sterling, the government will be prepared to make advances, on loan, for the same purposes free of interest, and the same advances will be repaid over a period of years, with three per cent. interest, and will be secured by a mortgage on the land to be benefited under this clause."

The benefits of this clause do not extend to certain acts contrary to the usage of war, which had been notified by the commander-in-chief to the Boer generals, and which state of things in South Africa to an end, proceeded to read the terms of the agreement arrived at with the Boers.

Lord Rosebery expressed his hearty, unreserved and unqualified congratulations.

OLD LUNNON CELEBRATED.

Assistants at a Funeral Waved Union Jacks—Crowds Hilarious.

London, June 2.—The peace in South Africa and its very elastic terms were welcomed in London to-night with a mild repetition of the Mafeking celebration.

Hundreds of thousands of people surged thru the streets of London from Whitechapel to Buckingham Palace, but never at any time were the density of the crowds equal that of which created the verb, "to Mafeking." To-night there was a tremendous noise in the streets, composed of a pandemonium of horns and cheers and the coarse jests of costers, but the abandon which marked the announcement of the relief of Mafeking and Ladysmith was lacking. Women, many of them carrying babies, boys, drunken loafers and others, glad of any excuse to defy law and order, were the principal elements in the ragged processions which wended their ways through the city thru Pall Mall and up Piccadilly.

The crowds concentrated in Regent-street, and especially on the Strand and let themselves loose. Women of the lower class jabbed men in the face with feathers, indiscriminately flung an apology and a kiss, and in turn were hugged and kissed by any man who found time for such a diversion. A few helpful policemen stood around and watched the fun. One of the favorite decorations with the crowd was a cluster of red, white and blue around a tall hat.

An old soldier, who stood apart from the boisterous crowd, and in turn was a target for the jeers of the "Mafeking" crowd, said, bitterly, "Peace with honor. It seems to me we've got the peace, and the honor is all theirs."

This idea was echoed in more thinking quarters. The Liberal members of the House of Commons declared to-night that peace in South Africa might have been secured a year earlier and upon better terms, had not the British government been so obstinate.

A furious feature of the night's amusement was that hatpins were carried in several processions bearing the inscription, "Brave Buller."

There was general hilarity in St. James' Park. The large crowds which had assembled there and waited until a late hour for a chance to give vent to their feelings, found that the British government had not the honor.

An old soldier, who stood apart from the boisterous crowd, and in turn was a target for the jeers of the "Mafeking" crowd, said, bitterly, "Peace with honor. It seems to me we've got the peace, and the honor is all theirs."

ADDITIONAL POINTS.

After he had concluded reading the peace agreement, Mr. Balfour proceeded: "There are certain important points not dealt with in the document I have just read, and which was signed on Saturday night. Therefore, it may be convenient if I read a despatch from Lord Kitchener to the Secretary of State for War, dated May 30, as follows:

"After handing the Boer delegates a copy of the draft of the agreement, I read them a despatch from Lord Kitchener to the Secretary of State for War, dated May 30, as follows:

"His Majesty's government must insist on the return of the Cape and Natal colonies, which have been in rebellion, and who now surrender themselves, and their return to their colonies, be determined by the colonial courts, and in accordance with the laws of the colonies, and any British subjects who have joined the enemy will be liable to execution under the law of that part of the British empire to which they belong.

"His Majesty's government are informed by the Cape government that their views regarding the terms to be granted to the Boers, and who have surrendered or been captured, are as follows:

"With respect to the rank and file they should all after surrender, and giving up their arms, sign a document under the resident magistrate of the district in which they surrender, acknowledging themselves guilty of high treason, and the punishment to be accorded them, provided they are not guilty of the usage of civilized warfare, shall be that they are not entitled for life to any parliamentary or provincial council or municipal election.

"With respect to justices of the peace, field cornets and all others who held official positions under the government of the Cape Colony, or who have been occupying a position of authority or who have held commands in the rebel or Burger forces they shall be tried for high treason before the ordinary courts of the country. If such persons, as may hereafter be constituted, their punishment will be left to the discretion of such courts, and that in no case shall the penalty of death be inflicted.

"With respect to the Boers, the opinion that the rebels should be dealt with according to the law of that country, was concluded Mr. Balfour. "The government have approved."

PEACE IN THE LORDS.

London, June 2.—The Prince of Wales and the Duke of Cambridge went to the House of Lords to hear the peace statement of the Premier, Lord Salisbury. There was a large attendance of peers and pressmen.

Salisbury, before mentioning South Africa, referred to the great loss which the empire had sustained on the death of Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador at Washington, "who had done more than any one man to cement the union of the two great Anglo-Saxon races, which is one of the healthiest and most promising indications of the time."

Lord Tweedmouth (Liberal) and Lord

Rosebery associated themselves with the Premier's tributes to the Duke of Salisbury, then remarking that he hoped the agreed-on terms of surrender would bring the lamentable state of things in South Africa to an end, proceeded to read the terms of the agreement arrived at with the Boers.

Lord Rosebery expressed his hearty, unreserved and unqualified congratulations.

IMMENSE SALES OF N. W. LANDS

Increase in Canadian Pacific Holdings of 1500 Per Cent.

Canadian Pacific opened very strong here yesterday, at 140 1/8 and sold to 140 5/8. In Montreal at the opening it sold from 142 to 142 1/2. It looked as if it would have gone to 145 or 146, as London was strong, the price there being up to 144 3/4. The news of the Pennsylvania mines having quit work and gone out on strike caused general depression in Wall-street. It was reported that the mines would be filled with water and be destroyed. This was later contradicted, but it had a bad effect on the market. It appears that non-union men took the places of the strikers, and that the pumps are mostly all going. In the general decline, Canadian Pacific eased off to 138 5/8, but closed firmer at 138 7/8. As soon as the coal strike shows signs of coming to an end, and the Wall-street market stiffens, it is believed that C.P.R. will advance quickly. The earnings for the week will be reported this evening, and a large increase is expected. The total sales for the month were enormous, being no less than 207,133 acres for $736,021, as against 407,489 acres for $129,014 in May last year. This May's figures do not include 400,000 acres sold to the Northwest Colonization Company of St. Paul, for $1,000,000. The total sales for the month were, therefore, 607,133 acres for $2,336,021, or no less than an increase of over 1800 per cent. This is but one indication of the tremendous strides forward the Canadian Northwest is making.

BUT RAIN SPOILED THE FUN

Belated Peace Celebration Last Night Was Thwarted By the Elements.

TOWNS IN ONTARIO JUBILATING

A belated celebration in honor of the return of peace was held last night, but several circumstances conspired to put a damper on the proceedings. In anticipation of excitement, large crowds flocked to the downtown streets early, boys rigged out in clownish togs and possessing the requisites for a noise in the shape of tin cans and fog horns, gathered on convenient corners and made for the seat of war the quiet. Nine false alarms of fire were sent in, and a few blazes, but at the best the affair could hardly be dignified by the name of celebration.

Throughout Ontario the joy bells rang yesterday, and cheers were raised everywhere to the King in celebration of the occasion of peace.

Mayor Bevan declared a half-holiday in Waterloo. A band concert and fireworks display in the evening brought a happy day to a close.

Forest took a holiday. The band of the 21st Regiment played patriotic airs all day, and the din of bursting fire-crackers rent the air.

Business was shut down in the town of Berlin. The 24th Regiment, which sent in a salute to the town, using the name of celebration.

LEADER WHITNEY PLEASSED

Arrived in the City Yesterday and Speaks in a General Way of the Fight.

PUBLIC OPINION AGAINST MACHINE

Gratified By the Substantial Majority of 503 Given Him By Dundas.

Opposition Leader Whitney arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from his home in Morrisburg, and is registered at the Queen's where he will remain for several days. At the station he was met by a number of friends, and at his hotel was besieged by visitors, who came to congratulate him on his splendid run. He was unusually good spirits, and has almost entirely recovered from the strain of an arduous and trying campaign.

Pleased With the Fight.

To a World reporter Mr. Whitney said that he was pleased with the way the fight had gone, as far as had been heard from. "There is no doubt," he continued, "judging from the results, that public opinion is all on our side, and that the attitude of the opposition. The result in North Waterloo and the great turnout of the people of West Elgin in favor of Mr. McDermid, shows clearly that the people are determined to have honest elections in many constituencies, as shown by the very large majorities given in favor of the Conservatives, which, previously went in favor of the Liberals.

"To exemplify this," said Mr. Whitney, "I might mention with great satisfaction the fact that Hon. S. H. Blake, K.C., and other prominent Liberals, voted for the opposition candidates.

Machine is Not Dead.

"It is too early," the speaker went on, "to go into details, but the evidence that is being received every hour of the day shows that the machine was never so much in evidence as it was on polling day and several weeks before. To give some faint idea of what might be expected from it, I instance one case where the returning officer took the platform in favor of the government candidate."

"That was the returning officer's name?" Mr. Whitney was asked, but the reply came: "I know his name very well, but will not disclose it to-night."

Dundas Thanked.

The handsome majority that Dundas gave the opposition leader is much appreciated. Said he, apropos of it: "I should be very forgetful of what is due to the people of the province if I failed to express very thro' appreciation of their intentions, as shown by their votes, and I desire particularly to express my thanks to the people of the County of Dundas who returned me to the legislature by a majority of 503."

MONTEITH IS SAFE.

Stratford, June 2.—Sheriff Hossie, returning officer, this afternoon declared John C. Monteith, (Con.) elected for North Perth by a majority of 2, with 8255 votes in his favor, as against 3283 for Brown (Lib.) There were in all 42 spotted ballots, as compared with 82 at the last provincial election. Of these Stratford contributed 22, North Elmhurst, 6, Ellice 3, Elma 1, Wallace 7, Mornington 3, Listowel 4, Milverton 2.

It is significant that in North Elmhurst the Liberal ticket, where Brown is also entered up as spoiled. Of the 41 others, 6 were marked for more than one candidate, 13 had a mark by which they could be identified, 22 were rejected as uncertain in intention.

HOW "MACHINE" WORKED IN THE RECENT ELECTION

ASTOUNDING REVELATIONS OF IRREGULARITIES FROM WEST NORTHUMBERLAND, NORTH ONTARIO, SOUTH GREY AND NORTH PERTH—DEPUTIES CARRY BALLOTS IN PARCELS.

Cobourg, June 2.—(Special.)—Revelations of gross irregularities at the polling booths are said to have been made in West Northumberland, and public opinion is greatly aroused.

In number six division in Cobourg, for instance, two well-known Conservatives, A. Barber and S. G. Howbeck, were left off the poll book by the County Crown Attorney. Liberal agents endeavored to persuade Mr. Barber to put in a tendered ballot, but he learned that he could compel Crown Attorney Ker to put his name on, and was about to leave the polling place for that purpose, when the Liberal candidate's agent insisted that he had forfeited his right to a ballot. After considerable difficulty, the Crown Attorney was secured, and he made the matter right. Prior to this it turned out that a voter who had come from Toronto to vote also found that his name was left off the poll book, but at the suggestion of the Liberal agent he agreed to accept a tendered ballot. The deputy returning officer, it is claimed, gave him an ordinary ballot. This aroused the suspicion of the Conservative scrutineers, who drew the attention of the deputy returning officer to the matter before the ballot was put in the box. He thereupon put it in an envelope and put that in the ballot box, giving the voter a tendered ballot, and he then marked that one and voted a second time, and this last ballot was put in a tendered ballot envelope and then in the box. The Liberal agents are believed that this man was favorable to their candidate, and later on they induced the Crown Attorney to proceed with him to the polling place, where another ballot paper was demanded from the deputy returning officer. It was secured, marked, deposited in the box and counted against the protest of the Conservative scrutineers, thus making it the man's third vote.

In another polling place it is claimed that the Liberal agents persuaded an alien to apply for a ballot paper, notwithstanding that this is a violation of the law, which renders the applicant liable to a penalty of $200. The violation of Candidate Spence's agents, who asked that the man be sworn, chartered this attempt.

Other cases of unqualified voters swearing in their votes, some of them employed as Liberal-Conservatives, are on record. At the solicitation of Liberal workers, some of these men do doubt unaware of the $200 penalty for their unlawful act, cast their ballots. But others did so with full knowledge of the law. The Sunday and Monday at the Baltimore sub-division a high-handed proceeding took place. After several votes had been polled, the deputy returning officer opened the ballot box and took out all the ballots, in order, as he said, to see if he had put his initials on them. The Conservative scrutineers came against it, to no purpose, however.

According to information received it appears also that Edwin Guillet, brother of the ex-M.P., applied for a ballot paper in No. 2 polling sub-division in Cobourg, but he was told his name could not be found in the poll book. He learned that it was the duty of County Crown Attorney Kerr to prepare the lists, and that he could rectify the error. He at once sought out Mr. Kerr, and that official went with him to the polling booth and altered the poll book, and Mr. Guillet's vigilance saved his vote.

In No. 3 division the deputy returning officer, after receiving from a voter a ballot paper, was about to make a mark upon it. The Conservative scrutineers protested, and insisted that the officer put the ballot in the box just as it was received from the voter. He appeared to do this, during which the officer said that he noticed that the ballot did not have his initials on it, and that he wished to initial it before depositing it. Despite the objections, however, the deputy returning officer initialled the ballot and put it in the box. It is significant that in this polling place the number of votes secured by the Liberals exceeded their most sanguine expectations. The last voter who came to this place was objected to by the Conservative scrutineers, and on the oath being read to him he dropped the Bible and hurriedly left the place.

IN SOUTH GREY.

From South Grey also reports of fraud and corruption by the wholesale on the part of the Liberals have been received. The way the game was worked there is this: Two or three days before the elections a stranger appeared in the Township of Normanby and called on many respectable German citizens. After asking them how they voted, and when ascertaining they were supporters of Dr. Jamieson, the Conservative candidate, he would thrust into their hand, in some cases $2, and in others $5, saying at the same time: "Take out your teams on election day and vote yourself and do what you can to elect Dr. Jamieson." The man would then drive away without any further explanation. This nefarious work was done largely in Aytun and Neustadt, and the

FRED LEE RICE MUST HANG MEN WHO SIGNED THE PEACE TERMS.

Murderer of County Constable Boyd Sentenced to Die on July 18.

AN APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT

Will Be Taken, But the Trial Judge Holds Out No Hope for Remission.

Fred Lee Rice was removed last night from the hospital wing at the jail to cell No. 18 corridor, and the death watch placed over him has been continuing ever since.

Rice was sentenced yesterday in the Criminal Assizes by Chief Justice Falconbridge to be hanged on Friday, July 18.

Great precaution was taken in bringing Rice from the jail to the courtroom yesterday morning. He was accompanied by six constables. Two were with him in the back. One rode with the driver. Three others were behind in a separate hack. Rice was shackled, handcuffed and wore the ball and chain.

Just after the prisoner was seated in the dock Chief Justice Falconbridge entered, preceded by Sheriff Mowat. Hugh Guthrie, K.C., M.P., represented the Crown. The court clerk declared the court open and Clerk Nichol asked the prisoner if he had any reason to state why sentence should not be pronounced upon him for the murder of County Constable William Boyd on June 4 last. Rice's answer was a low but firm negative.

The sentence of death, then being passed, the chief justice asked Rice if he had any objection to the sentence at all. He said, "You have been convicted of the crime of murder."

Chief Justice Falconbridge then began passing sentence. "After as fair a trial as you give you have been convicted of the crime of murder," he said, "you have been convicted of the crime of murder."

He then continued passing sentence. "That you are properly convicted," he said, "no one can doubt. I personally have not the slightest doubt that you are guilty of the crime of murder."

His Lordship then sentenced Rice to be hanged on Friday, July 18, at the gallows in the prison. He pronounced the fatal words of the chief justice, and the words, "May God have mercy on your soul" were scarcely audible.

The judge was more affected when he pronounced the sentence. He said, "I have been very much affected by the case of Fred Lee Rice. He was a young man, and he was a good man. He was a good man, and he was a good man."

He then continued passing sentence. "That you are properly convicted," he said, "no one can doubt. I personally have not the slightest doubt that you are guilty of the crime of murder."

HOW LONDON CELEBRATES.

Crowds Cheer Hon. Joseph Chamberlain Wherever He Appeared.

London, June 2.—Practically all of the United Kingdom is holiday-making to-day, in celebration of the conclusion of peace in South Africa.

Everywhere are thronged with people, who indulge in cheering, or blowing penny trumpets. The tone of King Edward's message to the people, and the absence therein of any note of triumph, seems to have set a good example, and, while giving free vent to their satisfaction, the British are showing small desire to crow over their late enemies.

Flags and bunting are everywhere displayed, church bells are ringing, salutes are being fired, and there is general jubilation on all sides.

Crowds of suburbanites poured into London at an early hour and converged towards the usual centres, the Mansion House, Royal Exchange, Trafalgar Square, etc., and quickly bedecked themselves with tiny flags, buttons and badges. At intervals, some enthusiastic stars singing "God Save the King," which is taken up by the throngs, and in many instances thru the neighboring streets, from one end of the metropolis to the other.

The earliest demonstration on the Stock Exchange, where the members arrived an hour earlier than usual, began with the playing of "God Save the King" and the reading of the message of the king. The message was read by Lord Kitchener. The members of the House and senators from the Dominion of Wales, and afterwards resumed business, but without much enthusiasm.

Later in the day a levee at St. James' Palace and a cabinet meeting in Downing-street attracted immense crowds, who awaited the arrival of the cabinet ministers. The scenes which greeted the popular favorites have not been equalled in many years. Many of the ministers wore court dress, having been at the levee, which added to the attractiveness of the occasion. Joseph Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, came in for special attention from the masses. The police could not hold them in bounds, and crowds surged around his carriage, hurrahing and shouting congratulations until he escaped into the building.

On the adjournment of the cabinet meeting, the crowds repaired to Buckingham Palace and St. James' Palace, and cheered the King and other notabilities who attended the levee.

Telegrams received from all parts of the provinces testify to the extreme joy felt by all classes at the conclusion of the war. A similar fact is that peace was received at Windsor by telephone from Berlin and Paris.

The Boys to Entertain.

At the Broadview Boys' concert in Massey Hall tonight a "better" than ever program is announced. Over 200 boys will take part in choruses, drills, fancy gymnastics, vocal and instrumental solos.

They are a Powerful Nerve—Druggists are being told to minimize the danger of danger from a crush. The streets approaching the route of the procession will be closed off, not as heretofore by lines of cavalry, but by great gates, ten feet high, hung on posts, fixed in concrete sockets, and placed 20 feet back from the curb of the main thoroughfare. The gates can be opened in either way in case of emergency. The lower branches of trees will be lopped to prevent tree-climbing.

The present intention of the police is to regulate traffic during the night procession when countless thousands of people will have a view of the illumination, by dividing the living stream, one-half going in one direction and the other in another, and all under the guidance of the police.

Were inaugurated in Toronto yesterday—167 Men Affected.

Three new strikes were inaugurated in Toronto yesterday, but it is thought that they will be of short duration.

Some time ago the electrical workers asked for 30 cents an hour and an 8-hour day. Several of the employers refused, with the result that 100 men went out. Forty-seven members of the Marble Workers' Union laid down their tools and refused to work because their demands were not acceded to.

Champion Ugly Mug. Despite the protests and present-day action of the Anti-Gambling League, says an English paper, it is as positive that with racing, dog-fighting, betting would still prevail, as it is certain that in the eighteenth century the spirit of gambling was carried to such an extent that any excuse or subject was seized upon whereon to gamble.

Knocked Down by a Car. Joseph Donnelly of 103 Spadina-avenue was knocked down by a car at the corner of Church and Adelaide-streets last night, sustaining a severe scalp wound, with a slight concussion. He was removed to the Emergency Hospital.

Aged Woman Injured. Margaret McPhail, an aged woman, tripped and fell last night while stepping into an elevator at 912 East Adelaide-street. She sustained a fracture of the right leg and was removed to the General Hospital in the police ambulance.
