Sharp Conflict Expected in League Assembly Over Economic Commission. MANDATES QUESTION

Geneva, Nov. 28.—The question whether countries shall be allowed to control and dispose at will of their natural resources is the subject of a sharp conflict in a committee of the assembly. The contest arose over a resolution by Gustav Ador, Switzerland, setting up a permanent economic and financial commission, one of the duties of which would be to examine measures for preventing monopolies in raw materials and the means of controlling their distribution.

One of the strongest opponents of the resolution is Sir George E. Foster, Canada, who has taken the same attitude as the Hon. N. W. Rowell, also of Canada, who served notice on the assembly in an impressive speech recently, that any attempt to exercise such control would be regarded as interference in international affairs, to which Canada would never submit.

The question of mandates is another difficult subject coming up this week. The council has on the agenda for tomorrow the nomination of a permanent mandate commission, and another committee at the same time will take up the general question in the form of terms and control of mandates. This committee, which is known as No. 6, has recommended that the United States be invited to co-operate unofficially in the study of the question of a mandate.

Still another important matter on the program of the council for tomorrow, is the election of a successor to Sir Reinhold Tower as high commissioner at Danzig. The council may also finally decide on a reply to be made to the German protest against approval of the results of the Eupen-Malmedy plebiscite. Germany contends that the Belgian troops occupying the area exerted pressure on the population.

SLIP IN APPROACH TO BLOOR VIADUCT

Landslide Occurs Between Sherbourne Street and Glen Road Bridge.

GAP SIXTY FEET LONG

A big landslide, caused by the recent rains, occurred on East Bloor street between Sherbourne street and Glen Road bridge shortly after midnight Saturday when hundreds of tons of earth fell into the roadway, leaving a gap in the road way of about 60 feet in length and about 13 feet in width.

The huge mass of earth carried in its fall the fence along sidewalk, a dozen trees, some of which were nearly six feet in circumference and were snapped off like a candle. A few Hydro poles and wires were torn down, putting the lights out of commission and the end staunchins of the old Rosedale bridge were badly bent. The wooden stairway from Bloor street to Glen Road was swept away and partly buried under the pile of earth.

A repair gang from the works department were shortly on the scene and barricades were rapidly erected. The lower bridge on Glen Road was closed to wheeled traffic and that portion of East Bloor street from Sherbourne street to the wooden bridge spanning Glen Road. Street-car traffic continued uninterrupted during yesterday.

The roadway, which is the section between Sherbourne and Parliament streets in connection with the Bloor street viaduct, has been in process of widening for several years and earth has been steadily dumped on the north side. From indications of the loosening of earth yesterday a further landslide is feared.

Works Commissioner R. C. Harris, in a statement yesterday, thought there had not been a sufficient foundation at this point.

TO STUDY EFFECT IN EGYPT. Cairo, Nov. 28.—The government has appointed a commission consisting of three Egyptians and three British subjects to study the economic effect on Egypt of the world-wide fall in the price of cotton and possible measures of alleviation.

LIVERPOOL SCENE OF INCENDIARISM BY SINN FEINERS

Fifteen Warehouses, Principally Containing Cotton, Are Simultaneously Fired—Well Planned Plot to Destroy Buildings in Dock Area—Several Fatalities Occur Thru Shooting After Outbreak of Flames.

Liverpool, Nov. 28.—Fifteen warehouses in Liverpool and Bootle, a suburb, principally cotton warehouses, were set on fire last night. Two of the cotton warehouses in Liverpool were burned out. Gasoline cans and paraffin were found about the premises, but none were injured. One civilian was killed and several others were injured.

Some shooting occurred after the outbreak of the flames. Constables on the scene were fired at and bullets passed thru the clothing of some of them, but none were injured. One civilian was killed and several others were injured.

An Orgy of Destruction. The Liverpool correspondent of The Evening Telegram in an untimed message today says:

"An orgy of outrage and destruction, believed to have been engineered by Sinn Feiners, was carried out on twelve cotton warehouses and several timber yards here. Several fires were burning at once, necessitating a call for assistance of outlying fire brigades. Many of the fires are still burning."

The newspaper says a suspected man, believed to have been connected with one of the fires, was seized by the police and shot dead. The man later was arrested.

A despatch to the Press Association from Liverpool says: "An alarming outbreak of Sinn Fein violence occurred Saturday night, shortly before 9 o'clock. Fires broke out simultaneously, both in the south and north ends of Liverpool, and also in Bootle."

"There were seven fires in Bootle and eleven in various parts of Liverpool. Subsequent discoveries revealed a well-planned Sinn Fein plot to spread a holocaust of fire among the warehouses in the dock area. The fires were spread over almost all of the dock area. Three youths, watching the suspicious movements of two men at the cotton warehouse, called the police, who warned the police, and he fell dead."

"It appears that for each building marked for destruction there were at least five men, some of whom were armed, one of whom stood sentry while the others cut the locks and applied the inflammables. Many fires were suppressed in this evening."

It is the most difficult problem to the government. The recent rumors regarding Quebec representation were without any real foundation. The names mentioned would not solve the problem. The government must secure Quebec representation among leaders of thought and action in that province or let matters remain as they are. In economic policy the leaders in Quebec are in harmony with the government. It is now a question if that province is to unite on past issues as against its present economic situation.

Has Stabilized Administration, Won Three Out of Four By-Elections and Solidified Party—Ready for Reconstructive Measures—Five Changes in Government Are Declared Necessary.

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—(Special).—Cabinet reorganization so essential and so long deferred, will be faced by the new administration without any great delay. Premier Meighen succeeded to the office of a cabinet and a troublesome. His first care was to stabilize the administration. Of four bye elections he won substantial victories in three. His western tour consolidated his support into an enthusiastic, aggressive party and stabilized his administration. He succeeded to a factional cabinet which has within four months made himself chief of the most powerful political force in Canada. He can now devote himself to reorganization of his cabinet and initiation of constructive measures.

Reorganization Essential. It cannot be denied that reorganization is essential to the further success of the new administration. Some members of the government thru age or ill health, desire to retire, others perhaps should be retired. There should be at least five changes in the government. There is a long, stern fight ahead of the administration and in the fight success can only be obtained by men of strong physique and mentality who have confidence in themselves and in whom the people have confidence. In English Canada the prime minister has ample material for reconstruction purposes.

Quebec is Problem. It is the most difficult problem to the government. The recent rumors regarding Quebec representation were without any real foundation. The names mentioned would not solve the problem. The government must secure Quebec representation among leaders of thought and action in that province or let matters remain as they are. In economic policy the leaders in Quebec are in harmony with the government. It is now a question if that province is to unite on past issues as against its present economic situation.

TORONTO UNIVERSITY GETS COOL IN FRONT OF ROCKEFELLER

Money to Be Used Exclusively to Extend Work of Medical Faculty.

NO NEW BUILDINGS

New York, Nov. 28.—The Rockefeller Foundation tonight announced the preliminary apportionment of $3,000,000 in aid of medical education in Canada out of the $5,000,000 previously set aside for this purpose. The appropriations now made are of two classes: First, contributions toward increasing the permanent resources in buildings and endowment of schools already well established; second, contributions to annual income of institutions which are undergoing reorganization. These allotments have been made: McGill University, Montreal, $1,000,000. University of Toronto, $1,000,000. Dalhousie University, Halifax, $500,000. University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, $500,000.

Schools in process of reorganization to receive aid from the income of the $2,000,000 reserve are: University of Alberta, Edmonton, for the year 1920-21, $25,000. University of Montreal, 1920-21, $25,000.

Applications from these schools for further aid will be considered. Of the $2,000,000 reserved for future distribution, the income is to be used toward current expenses, fellowships and other forms of aid to medical education.

In each of the appointments now announced represent contributions to plans of development, worked out by the institutions concerned, which involve substantial sums from other sources.

President Falconer's Statement. So far as the Toronto University request is concerned, President Falconer, who interviewed last evening, stated that it would be impossible to grant the extension and increased efficiency of the medical faculty. Conditions of the grant, he stated, included its use for erection of buildings or relief of present difficulties in matters of finance. It could not, accordingly, be applied to the raising of salaries, but might be used to fund full-time professorships where only part-time lecturers are at present available.

"It must be used entirely for new work," he stated, adding "it will enable us to do all that we wish to do."

THREE YOUTHS HELD FOR BURGLARY

Caught by Police While Leaving House With Arms Full of Plunder.

Caught, it is alleged, while leaving the house at 4 Graham place with their arms full of loot at 11:30 on Saturday night Roy Stevenson 119 Pape avenue; Lawrence Hurlbut 595 Logan avenue, and Robert Wilson, 438 Logan avenue, all of whom are under 20 years of age, were arrested by Inspector Guthrie of Pape avenue division, and Plainclothesmen Robertson and Sunderland on a charge of housebreaking.

The police received a telephone message that someone was breaking into the house at 4 Graham place, which is owned by George Lee, and Inspector Guthrie and the two detectives hurried there in the police auto. Arriving on the scene they went around to the rear of the house, where they came face to face with the three youths. So surprised were the trio that they dropped their loot and threw up their hands.

Entry was made to the house by the front door which was opened by one of the men with a key. Lee was at work at the time the alleged burglary took place.

Suit Started to Quash Action Nullifying Pickford Divorce

Minden, Nevada, Nov. 28.—Arguments began in the district court here yesterday to quash the suit the state filed to set aside the divorce granted Mark Pickford from Owen Moore. Miss Pickford has married Douglas Fairbanks since her divorce was granted, March 2, and in the state's petition was referred to as "Gladys M. Moore, known as Gladys M. Fairbanks."

DOUGHTY FORMALLY ARRESTED ON HIS ARRIVAL AT WINDSOR MAINTAINS HIS INNOCENCE

"De Luxe" Traveling For John Doughty

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 28.—(Special).—John Doughty traveled in luxurious style all the way from Oregon City to Windsor. It was learned from the prisoner of Detective Mitchell tonight. The pair avoided visiting police headquarters in the cities at which they stopped en route, were quartered at the best hotels and had the finest service the Pullman cars could afford.

DOUGHTY TO REACH TORONTO IN TIME FOR HIS BREAKFAST

Train Is Due to Pull Into Union Station Soon After Eight o'Clock.

TO DRAW A CORDON

At a certain hour late yesterday afternoon it is probable that Detective-Sergeant Austin P. Mitchell heaved a prodigious sigh of relief. This was because at that hour John Doughty, wanted in Toronto in connection with the Ambrose J. Small mystery, crossed the international boundary onto the good old Canadian soil. Gone was the fear that Doughty might fight extradition; he was then Mitchell's captive.

Late in the afternoon Toronto detective headquarters received a telegram from Mitchell to the effect that he had crossed the river at Detroit and was resting in Windsor, Ont., and was resting there preparatory to catching the 1:45 train this morning in order to arrive at the Union Station at 8:10 a.m. today. He sent a similar despatch to Mrs. A. J. Small, wife of the missing millionaire, at her home in Glen road.

Inspector of Detectives William Wallace was also ready to sell out lock, stock and barrel; power plant, transmission lines, power customers, radials out of Hamilton, street railway in Hamilton. It has a proposal now before its financial agents to issue new securities. It may have heard the news of the early production of energy by the Chippewa plant of Sir Adam Beck.

Smuggled Thru Chicago. Chicago, Nov. 28.—Jack Doughty, formerly private secretary to Ambrose J. Small, Toronto millionaire, who disappeared a year ago, was secretly smuggled thru Chicago last night by police who are taking him back to Canada. It is believed that an attempt might be made to intercept him here, according to the Chicago Herald and Examiner, this morning.

Doughty was in the custody of Detective Austin Mitchell of the Toronto police, who went to Portland, Ore. to get him. While the police refuse to comment on their information that an attempt might be made to intercept him, it is believed that he will be taken to the Chicago Herald and Examiner, this morning.

Doughty was in the custody of Detective Austin Mitchell of the Toronto police, who went to Portland, Ore. to get him. While the police refuse to comment on their information that an attempt might be made to intercept him, it is believed that he will be taken to the Chicago Herald and Examiner, this morning.

He was taken off the incoming train at the outskirts of the city, and rushed across to a suburban station on the opposite side of Chicago, and put on a train for Windsor, Ont.

Doughty's Denials. Doughty, in the few minutes he was in the city, changed his previous stories somewhat, according to the police. He denied that he had stolen any bonds from Mr. Small's safety deposit box after the millionaire had disappeared. He said he took the bonds out of the box and gave them to Mr. Small.

Previously, he had been quoted as saying that he had $100,000 worth of bonds in Chicago and that he would find them when brought here.

The police also said they had received information that a woman now in Minneapolis was implicated in the disappearance of Mr. Small.

Doughty again denied that he was in any way implicated in the disappearance of Mr. Small. He said he was with Mr. Small two hours before the theatrical magnate disappeared, but that he could prove an alibi for that length of time. "I'm going back to Canada voluntarily and I will prove my innocence," he said.

In Interview in Hotel He Disclaims Any Knowledge of Missing Victory Bonds and Whereabouts of Small—Detective Mitchell Smuggles His Prisoner Thru Chicago to Foil Attempt to Intercept Prisoner.

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 28.—(Canadian Press).—John Doughty, former secretary to Ambrose J. Small, Toronto theatre magnate, whose mysterious disappearance on December 2, 1919, has baffled the police of both Canada and the United States, crossed to Canadian territory this morning thru the Michigan Central tunnel and was immediately placed under arrest upon arrival at Windsor station by Detective-Sergeant Austin Mitchell on charges of stealing $100,000 worth of Victory bonds and conspiring to kidnap his millionaire employer.

Doughty, in an interview this evening, granted in his room at the Crawford House, strenuously denied all knowledge of the missing bonds, and their missing owner. He declared that he was unaware that the bonds had been stolen until he was arrested at Oregon City, and declared that the last time that he had seen Ambrose J. Small was at his theatre in Toronto on the evening of December 2. Further knowledge of the case was absolutely disclaimed by the former secretary, who stated that he would give convincing explanation when he was arraigned in Toronto for his departure to the United States last December.

Awaited Toronto Detective. He refused to make public his reasons for crossing the border, but declared that private business had forced him to take such action.

Doughty, for some reason or another, was surreptitiously smuggled thru Chicago, although Sergt. Mitchell refused to discuss his reasons for such action. Mitchell and his prisoner arrived in Canada about 11 o'clock this morning. Following his formal arrest at the station, Doughty was brought into the city by the detective and was taken to the Crawford House, where they have remained throughout the day.

The stop-over here is believed to have been made to permit another member of Toronto's detective force, who was left in Chicago, to overtake the party. This officer missed his fellow-officer, and the prisoner, it was stated last evening, thru the hurried departure which was made from that city.

Doughty and other members of the party, which numbers two detectives and several reporters from Toronto papers, will, it is expected, leave this city at 1:55 o'clock tomorrow morning. The train probably will arrive in Toronto about 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Price Was Stabilized. The committee's work has been very efficient. Many subscriptions were made in the national interest and by persons whose circumstances did not permit them to hold their bonds. The price of the bonds have not been subject to violent fluctuations, but stabilization of price has been effective. The committee has sold bonds which have come upon the market and placed them in the hands of permanent investors to the extent of $270,000,000.

Stabilization has now continued for more than a year since the last loan and full opportunity has therefore, been given those whose circumstances compel them to liquidate.

Are Best Securities. The Dominion Government securities are the best in the market and no price fluctuations affect the quality of the investment and the liability of Canada to redeem at par. Undoubtedly in the comparative near future the selling prices of the bonds will appreciate. It is very much to be hoped that the people of Canada will continue to hold the securities of the best country in the world to their great personal advantage. The stabilization has served a very useful purpose, but it is felt in view of the fact that the methods of control so general during the war period have been abandoned in so many countries and generally in Canada, that the control of the sale of government securities should also cease.

Contracts Closed and Easing of Industrial Demand Cause Relief, But Nevertheless Some Kind of Clean-Up May Be Made This Week. Sir Adam Beck, of the Hydro-Electric Commission, has closed for an additional supply of 10,000 h.p. delivery this week from the Canadian Niagara Power Co. from which organization he is now receiving 50,000 h.p., making 60,000 h.p. out of a total output of 125,000 h.p., or practically one half. He is also getting 15,000 h.p. from the Mackenzie plant, the Ontario Electrical Development Co. Quite a number of factories are closing down, so that Sir Adam has now lots of power to sell. And there is no doubt that Sir Adam has received assurances from his engineers that the big new Chippewa plant will be turning out power next July. It is even said that he has an option of the whole outfit of the Canadian Niagara Power Co. above mentioned, and that it will rest on terms similar to those given to the Ontario

LETTER BY MEIGHEN ABOUT HANNA ORDER

Reiterates Views on G.W.V.A. Secretary—Moore Intimates Governmental Action.

AWAIT MEETING'S OUTCOME

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—(By Can. Press.)—The prime minister has written to C. Grant MacNeill, Dominion secretary of the G. W. V. A., regarding the now famous order of D. B. Hanna, director of the Canadian National Railways, forbidding employees to hold office.

Hon. Mr. Meighen was asked to make a statement on the question in view of a strongly worded resolution passed by the Manitoba Command of the G. W. V. A., protesting against the dismissal of H. Moore, M. L. A., because at the time of his nomination he was unaware of the order.

Statement of Meighen. The premier reiterates that it is a matter for the directors of the National Railways and not the government.

He says: "I have your letter of the 29th inst. The action taken by the directors of the Canadian National Railways in no sense taken at the instance of or by any information from the government. The directors took the view that this was a matter within their purview only as directors."

"Satisfactory," Says Moore. A discussion which Tom Moore, president of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, described as "generally satisfactory," took place on Saturday between Hon. Arthur Meighen, prime minister, and Mr. Moore.

Moore stated that the prime minister had taken up several matters, among them the order of D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railways, forbidding employees of the government lines participating in politics.

Premier Awaits Outcome. With regard to the Hanna order Mr. Moore said that the prime minister preferred waiting to ascertain the result of the meeting between Mr. Hanna and representatives of railway shopmen, division No. 4, before taking action or making any statement.

POCKETFUL OF BILLS AND CAR OF SCOTCH

Allege Arrest of Wholesale Whiskey Runner in Guelph—Toronto Man Aboard.

Guelph, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—The local police think that in the arrest of a man who gave his name as Frank Jifkins, they have made an important capture. While he was his name as Jifkins there were papers found on his person which show that his real name is Frederick W. Hale, and that his home is at Havre De Grace, Maryland. When he was arrested he was in possession of a 1918 coupe, and when searched the car contained 320 bottles of imported Scotch whiskey. It was all securely locked in the back of the car, and had to be pried open.

Had $2,000 in Currency

He also had in his possession the sum of $2,000 in currency. He told the police that he was on his way from Montreal to Windsor, but there are papers which go to show that this is far from being the truth and the police are confident that he is a whiskey runner operating on a large scale, as he had there was $20,000 more where he came from. He had receipts showing that he had made purchases at a number of garages in various parts of the country, as well as other documents which are of importance to the police.

Toronto Man Passenger

In company with him when arrested was a man named John E. Hall, who says he is a potato produce dealer at 60 Colborne street, Toronto, and he also says that he knows nothing of the whiskey or that there was any in the car. Both men will be arraigned in the police court tomorrow morning.

PREPARING CAMPS FOR INTERNMENT

Sinn Fein Leaders Have Been Taken for Present to Mount Joy Prison.

Dublin, Nov. 28.—What is described as the first of many internment camps for the Irish republican army, is being prepared at Mount Joy, near Ballykinnear, in Dundrum Bay, County Down, and is capable of accommodating 1,000 prisoners. Other camps are in the course of preparation in various parts of the country.

Arthur Griffith, head of the Sinn Fein, and E. J. Duggan, Sinn Fein member of parliament, have been taken to Mount Joy prison. It has not yet been decided whether they will be among those selected for internment in this camp, according to the authorities, would be a "concession" to the prisoners. Several prisoners have been held merely as "common criminals."

SAYS SHIPBUILDING OUTLOOK IS GLOOMY

Manager of Vickers, Limited, Sees Prospect of Firm Closing Next Year.

Montreal, Nov. 28.—(By Can. Press.)—The Canadian Leader, 3,540 net tonnage, twelfth ship built for the Canadian Government by the Vickers, Limited, and the sixth in this season by the Canadian Vickers, Limited, was successfully launched on Saturday. At the managing director of Vickers, Limited, stated that his firm had launched over 50,000 tons of shipping during the current year.

He painted a gloomy picture of the conditions that now confronted his company and the Canadian Shipbuilding industry in general. Over 40 per cent of Canadian shipyards had sunk their swan song, he said, and unless government aid were forthcoming, the same fate confronted the Vickers company. "The sorry fact is," said Mr. Gillham, "that we have no orders for next year. We have two boats now on the stocks which we hope to launch next April, and if there are no further orders by that time the yards will be forced to close."

DRAWN DISMAL PICTURE OF HERMIT OF WEIRINGEN

The Hague, Nov. 28.—"The German Weekly for the Netherlands" prints details of the financial condition of the former Crown Prince Frederick William, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the alleged smuggling of fortunes from Germany to Holland.

Characterizing the story as false, the paper says that Frederick William came to Holland in 1918, poverty-stricken and decided to pawn his watch, rings, scarf pins and jeweled decorations. In addition he was treasurer of the banking firm of Gruesser, Philippson and Co., loaned him five thousand guilders.

From then on the ex-crown prince, says the paper, lived on an allowance from his father and from the former crown prince's most of whose fortune was invested in the valueless Russian securities. She had a few thousand free, which she deposited in an Amsterdam bank, subject to her husband's check. The paper draws a dismal picture of the life of Frederick William, calling him "the hermit of Weiringen."

Each party will not be permitted. Each party must deal with separately, and a declaration of policy on the part of the government, machinery, boots and shoes, sugar, and indeed, every item imported or produced must be discussed in its relation to the necessity of protection or as the source of revenue. The tariff revision will be the most important of the economic theories of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, and it is believed that this is equally true of the government direct taxation methods.

There is no doubt that the business profits tax will be dropped, and many believe the luxury tax should also be discarded, the government depending on customs, income and sales taxation for federal revenue. It is believed that would be sufficient to meet the requirements, and, with the elimination of the business profits tax and luxury tax, industry would thrive, and the difficulty of collecting federal revenue be lessened.

He had been privileged to associate with them under all conditions, in action and at rest. He had known their sufferings, their sacrifices and admired their courage. The speaker then referred to the episode related in the second book of Maccabees, where Judas Maccabees, after battle, had encouraged the Jews to have sacrifices offered for the souls of their slain warriors, saying: "It is a holy and wholesome thing to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins."

THIS WEEK'S BILLS AT LOCAL THEATRES

"My Lady Friends" for Royal — "Mary" Comes to the Princess.

Tonight at the Princess Theatre, Miss Colman's comedians will begin an engagement here in the biggest musical comedy success of the present season. The title of the piece is "My Lady Friends," which was written by Otto Harbach, who wrote the book, Frank Mendel, whose lyrics are delightfully refreshing, and Lou Hirsch, who wrote the music. The success of the piece has been gained thru its pretty love story, its catchy songs and the speed of the performance, together with its beautiful costuming and scenic investiture. Among the song hits, and they are hits, may be mentioned "The Love Nest," "Waiting for Mary," "Which Girl Exit Laughing?" and "Tom, Tom, Toddlie." The cast includes Edna Moran, Guy Robertson, Arthur Lapan, Margaret Dumont, Sherman Wade, Lois Josephine, Leo Henning, George E. Slack and others, together with the best singing and dancing chorus to be seen here this season. In the presentation of "Mary," Toronto theatregoers are promised an unusual treat, and it is said to be the last word in musical comedy.

"The Son Daughter." The appearance of Miss Lenore Ulric in "The Son Daughter," at the Princess Theatre, has attracted the most attention from theatre-goers. This is said to be the most massive production that has been staged here, and it is in the way of scenic effects. Miss Ulric will be remembered for her clever performance here last season in "My Lady Friends," a new comedy.

which ran all last season at the Comedy Theatre, New York, and is now being played with huge success in London by Sir Charles Hawtrey, will be the Royal Alexandra attraction for the week ending this evening. Jack Norworth, well and favorably known locally, is the star, and H. H. Franzen, the producer, has given him an excellent supporting company, while the production is the original one used in the Comedy, New York. "My Lady Friends," the work of Emil Nystrom and Frank Mandel, is an unusually cleverly woven affair, and is carried to a happy ending after three mirth provoking acts. It deals with the adventure of a young business man who, with the help of a loving and saving wife, becomes suddenly rich thru the publication of a book. Becoming possessed of a young fortune his desire is to enjoy himself spending this money and making others around him happy. In "My Lady Friends" the authors prove that a man can lavish money on other women without harboring wrong thoughts, with the result that it is unusual in that it does not resort to the off color to produce laughs. The dialog is exceptionally bright, pointed and witty. The cast supporting Mr. Norworth includes Janet Horton, Rae Bowlin, Marguerite McNulty, Helen Carow, Frances Richards, Clara Verdara, Gerald Brinkman and Everett Butterfield.

"Floradora" Announced. At the Royal Alexandra Theatre, week commencing Monday evening, Dec. 6, the Messrs. Lee and J. J. Shubert will present for one week only their stupendous and colorful revival of "Floradora," which has just completed a run of six weeks at the Century Theatre, New York. "Floradora" as presented at the present time is a positively different production from its famous predecessor twenty years ago. In those days the theatrical producers did not care for the facilities for making gorgeous and lavish displays of scenery and costumes as they have at the present time, but "Floradora" with or without these present day trappings is more than a revival, it is a zippy musical show for this generation. Seats will be placed on sale Monday, three days in advance of the regular sale, in order that all may be accommodated.

Madonnas and Men" at Strand. It is a mighty spectacle that has thrilled thousands of Toronto spectators during the week at the Strand Theatre for never before has the presentation of a photoplay been attempted on as large and spectacular a scale as is to be seen in the city of Toronto. The production of "Madonnas and Men" is the first of its kind in the city, and it is a zippy musical show for this generation. Seats will be placed on sale Monday, three days in advance of the regular sale, in order that all may be accommodated.

comes when the four dashing horses respond to the trading whips and race across the stage at break-neck speed. That such an array of effects should be carried for the perfect presentation of a photodrama is quite unusual, to say the least. Snowball, Anne and Kate, the four white Arabian horses, have certainly made a host of friends since last Monday. "Madonnas and Men" will be continued at the Strand Theatre for another week.

"Twin Beds" at the Grand. "Twin Beds" is a distinct departure from the usual fare of the Grand Theatre. It is a comedy of three parts, and it is a zippy musical show for this generation. Seats will be placed on sale Monday, three days in advance of the regular sale, in order that all may be accommodated.

"The Dumbbells" Coming. "The Dumbbells" are now presenting a new edition of their brilliant overseas revue, "Buff, Bing, Bang," which embraces all of the desirable features of last season's show, together with several added features, including a condensed version of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pinafore." They are coming to the Grand Theatre on Wednesday, Dec. 8. He is an illustrious pianist, a noted composer and a famous conductor. His recital will range from the preludes and other short fancy pieces thru the exacting works of large dimensions in which he arranges all his pianistic powers. Scarcely a composer of high rank so fortunate as to be asked, like Rachmaninoff, to set forth as a pianist his own music in his own way. Hardly another musician, coming hither in recent years, has been so quickly, generally and variously applauded. The seat sale opens Thursday, Dec. 2.

Grand Opera Again at Regent. In the light of modern entertainment, the pictures and the manner of their presentation at the Regent Theatre stand out in bold relief, and when, on occasion, a special attention is made to add to the picture, the brilliance and the fascination of the Regent program, the public of Toronto is not slow to show its appreciation. For the forthcoming week a score of "Tom, Tom, Tom" will be staged, with "Holly Gills" and "Victor Edwards" and Blake Lister, the last-named artists alternating in the part, as the assisting artists. This will be given under the personal direction of John Arthur and Signor Morando, accompanied by the Fingert Grand Opera Orchestra. The feature picture is no less an attraction, as it brings a genuinely popular star once more to the Regent screen in the appearance of Thomas Meighan. The story is "Conrad in Quest of His Youth," and in it Mr. Meighan is supported by Mabel Van Buren, as well as other actors of high standing. The richest sort of humor pervades the experiences of Conrad as he tries to reclaim "old time."

Star's Attractive Bill. Excellent comedians, charming comedienne, beautiful girls in the chorus, stunning costumes and fine scenic effects, are but a few of the good things which Kule Bernstein's "Bothing Boats" will offer to the patrons of the Star all this week. The cast includes a superb list of sterling artists, headed by the popular tramp comedian, Jack Hunt, who is known wherever he goes, and this season he has the greatest opportunity of his career. He is also supported by Fay King, Jack LaMont, Fred McGee, Eddie Lloyd, Louis Mercurio, Charlot Baker and Helen Lloyd. "The Hot Melon" is a two-act farce, and from start to finish Hunt and his co-workers compel the audience to bend with glee and laughter. A script is used, and the complications, and they are many, are unraveled in a clean and interesting manner.

The Anti-Dumping Clause.

Sir Henry Drayton the other day foreshadowed a re-writing of the anti-dumping clause. The law as it now stands forbids the importer selling goods in Canada below the price for which they are sold in his own country.

Will somebody please tell the packers that there has been a slump in hops. Evidently they don't read the papers. "Irish assassins on the run. Now they have their backs to the wall," says a Mail heading. Isn't this somewhat a mixing of metaphors?

Anybody who thinks the city is not going clean to the dogs should listen to the speeches which will shortly be pouring from the throats of new candidates for aldermanic honors. The weather continues mild, but many prospective candidates fear there will come a killing frost on January 1.

It ought to be explained that the "clean-up" mentioned in the press does not refer to certain streets where boxes and trucks take precedence over the humble wayfarer. An earthquake started in Portland, Ore., and spread to Spokane. This man Doughty is certainly making his presence felt in the world.

Anti-Jap Legislation in Canada. British Columbia general elections occur next Wednesday. The Oliver government will probably be returned to power, but Mr. Oliver finds himself embarrassed by a demand for legislation prohibiting Japanese owning or leasing real estate along the lines of the much-discussed statute of California.

THE PAPER STOCKS. There is no cheerful note in the Montreal papers, and a financial weeklies, about newspaper prices. They are a drop away below five cents a pound. European competition, a falling off in consumption, a great increase in the output of the enlarged mills, and several new mills being in operation, the government at Ottawa in its tariff inquiry is being pressed to hold their hand in wiping out the duty, if the mills are to remain in business at a lower price for paper which they privately estimate is near at hand.

THE OIL RUSH

therefore, Mr. Meighen ran up against it in the Yale by-election, at almost every point during his recent tour in British Columbia. He quite properly told the British Columbia electors that by section 92 of the British North America act, the provincial government was given exclusive jurisdiction over property and civil rights. The province of British Columbia has therefore the same power to pass this anti-Jap legislation as had the state of California, subject only to the power of disallowance vested in the Dominion government.

EDUCATION EQUALS NATIONAL WEALTH

Expert Favors Toronto Effort to Throw Off City Council Control.

Education was referred to as the one changeable co-efficient in the equation of wealth by Hon. P. P. Claxton, commissioner of education of the United States, and who on Saturday evening in Convocation Hall addressed the first of the propaganda meetings arranged by the local board of education. Natural resources, native ability and education equal the national wealth, the speaker told his audience, and he emphasized the practical fixity of the first two factors and the consequent cumulative effect which attended any multiplication of the third.

Mr. Claxton, in the opening sentences of his address, remarked upon the representative character of the audience which faced him, declaring that it assured well for local education that the citizens generally should interest themselves in the educational board's fight to free itself financially from the domination of the city council. The motto which he suggested for Toronto people in guiding their educational policy towards the children was the wish of the Trojan Hector for his son, Astyanax: "May this child be greater than his father."

In the United States, Mr. Claxton said, the attitude of the government towards education was that it was a co-operative enterprise, towards which the citizens contributed in proportion to their wealth and in which they shared equally, irrespective of their wealth. But, he continued, also in the United States there had been seceders, who questioned the advisability of the yearly appropriation for education and had wondered whether the country was not possibly exceeding its obligations in this matter and succeeding with the dissemination of a little learning, merely to arouse the discontent of the masses. To these factions his answer was, the speaker stated, that it would be a tragedy if the children of the nation should grow to manhood and womanhood and finally die without experiencing that divine discontent which is satisfied only with perfection.

Confidence of Legislators.

Mr. Claxton quoted the following figures as expressive of the confidence with which the legislators of the United States had finally regarded educational projects: In 1870, 63 millions had been spent on public schools, $20,000 on normal schools, five millions on universities and technical schools; in 1919, had been spent one billion and fifteen million on public schools, 27 millions on normal schools, and one billion, two hundred millions on universities and technical schools.

The justification for this expenditure, Mr. Claxton declared, had been in the legislators' realization that ultimately upon education depended all improvements, whether of public works, political reform, social purity, strength and safety of the nation, or individual culture and refinement.

In dealing with this cost side of education, Mr. Claxton declared that he had been led to consider the factor which finally determined the wealth of a nation. He had examined the theory that it depended upon natural resources and had seen that doctrine confounded in the cases of Russia and India, and other richly endowed parts of the world. He had then studied Switzerland and Denmark, two of the most barren of Europe's nations and yet possessing high per capita wealth. Thus he had come upon his formula that natural resources, native ability, and education, equals wealth.

Aids Wealth of Country.

The first two factors of this expression were fixed, or nearly so, Mr. Claxton stated, pointing out that, as the third one multiplied into them, it therefore has produced a higher ratio of effect. Thus, if education is multiplied five times, the increase in the total wealth of the country will not be five, but many fold, according to the numerical quantities which are assigned to the factors of natural resources and native ability. In both these factors, the speaker considered Canada stand far above mere unity and he argued that benefits to be gained by improvements in education would be correspondingly high.

The speaker concluded by applying his arguments to practical affairs. He supposed all knowledge to be swept away, and in a graphic picture, showed how great a portion of our wealth would go with it. Only rude comforts of animal skill and cunning would remain for the refinement of the world.

Dr. J. L. Hughes, the chairman of the evening, announced briefly that the object of the meeting was to open an educational campaign designed to create public opinion favoring the controlling by the board of education of its own expenditures. The city council, he stated, had always been parsimonious in its grants and as a result of its policy between five and six thousand children were inadequately accommodated in basement, portable building, or rented room.

Dr. Noble moved and ex-controller Sam McBride seconded the vote of thanks to Mr. Claxton.

AWAITING RESULTS FOR RHODES SCHOLARSHIP

Eighteen candidates are anxiously awaiting the decision of the committee which has the awarding of the Rhodes Scholarship, one only being given for the whole province of Ontario. The results, it is understood, will be made public some time this week.

The Rhodes Scholarship is given for the highest all-round efficiency in both studies and sports and entitles the holder to three years at Oxford with a gratuity of $200 a year. The committee, which also awarded the last two scholarships, is composed of: Judge Duff, chairman; Mr. Vincent Massey, Rev. George R. Sherman, Professor George Smith, of Toronto University, and Major M. MacDonald, J.C. secretary.

Morning

$450,000 is needed to protect Toronto's Aged and Poor People from starvation and want—to guide and help Toronto's hundreds of boys and girls who have no parents of their own—and to build a bulwark that will prevent the spread of contagious diseases in our fair city.

Will you Help?
Will you get behind Federation?
You can. And you are needed.

To-morrow morning, voluntary workers will begin their canvass of the city's workshops, offices and homes. They will want your sympathy and support. And remember, they only ask it once a year for the 47 Toronto Charities that are united by The Federation. No separate campaign for funds will be conducted by any of these institutions for another twelve months at least.

Show them that you are with them. Let them know that you have some feeling for those less fortunate than yourself. Subscribe early—make your subscription as large as you can. And if you want it to go to any particular Institution or Institution, just indicate it. Or, you can leave it to Budget Committee of the Federation, just as you please.

But don't let a canvasser miss you. Don't slip up on this opportunity to be generous. Make sure you've done your part—call, or send in your cheque to Campaign Headquarters now—right now—while it's uppermost in your mind.

FAVORITES SWEEP NEW ORLEANS CARD

Rapid Traveler Easily Defeats His Field in the Main Feature Race.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 27.—A succession of favorites trooping down in advance of their fields spelled repeated loss for the layers at Jefferson Park, and the windup of the afternoon found bankrolls depleted to an alarming extent. Luckily for the price-takers there was an absence of the expected half-yielder pattern, primarily due to the adverse weather that raged at the beginning, but the business dispelled as the afternoon progressed, and the final numbers found the sun completely successful in its effort to penetrate the lowering clouds.

The heavy rains during the night conspired the going to favor pronounced mud performers, and additionally it required a sturdy-built wacer to negotiate the going with any degree of success. As a result of the changed conditions, there were numerous scratches from the different dashes, leaving small fields to contest for the purses.

The fifth race, at a mile, for a purse of $1200, was easily the headliner, and it brought to the barrier some smartly-regarded ones, with Rapid Traveler enjoying favoritism over Redmon, and the Wig coming in for substantial support.

Chief, also supported to a considerable extent. Colletti, on the favorite, made use of his advantage at the first turn, and sent Rapid Traveler into a long lead, from which he was never displaced, ultimately winning well in hand over Redmon with Dancing Spray following.

Trooper showed by his good effort that he had the benefit of a strong, competent rider he would have been troublesome. The Wig proved a sad failure, and he was always far back in the running.

FIRST RACE—Purse $700, for maiden fillies, 2-year-olds, 5 furlongs: 1. Rolo, 108 (Barrett), 3 to 5, 1 to 4, out. 2. Dora W., 108 (Garner), 4 to 1, even, 1 to 3. 3. Mary Head, 108 (Walls), 7 to 1, 3 to 2, 1 to 2.

Time 1:10 flat. Miss Kruter, Midian, Guy Fortune, Susan M., Madam Byne also ran.

FIFTH RACE—Purse $1200, for 3-year-olds and up, one mile: 1. Rapid Traveler, 100 (Colletti), 2 to 1, 4 to 5, 1 to 2. 2. Redmon, 111 (Lunsford), 3 to 1, even, 1 to 2. 3. Dancing Spray (Murray), 10 to 1, 4 to 1, 2 to 1.

LONG SHOT WINS BOWIE FEATURE

Bowie, Md., Nov. 27.—There was some fine racing at the Bowie course this afternoon. Tho' the weather was damp and thick, it did not affect the going of the racing, which was marked by but one form somewhat, that of Antilles, which had been patiently waiting for some time and at last chose to slip over to drive Antilles home. The Rapid Water filly was the extreme outsider of the party of five.

There was another fall of some weight when Super came along and tipped over the 2-300 shot Jada, in the fifth race, at a mile. Folks had got so used to Jada winning that they forgot the other horses. Super resented such treatment and when he got to the much-used Jada in the stretch, he wore him down and beat him in a nice looking sort of way, which did not assuage the pain of the Jada backers.

Four favorites won during the afternoon. Spirene had a tough time of it just later to win. Then Yellow Hand, in a softer spot than usual and at an astonishing price of 4 to 5, had a mere stroll to beat My Dear, the elderly and sedate Leochares and some sort of a filly named War Cry. Summary:

FIRST RACE—Claiming, for all ages, purse $1,000, mile and 70 yards: 1. Favour, 119 (Mooney), $11.70, $4.90, $2.50. 2. KXingling II, 108 (Jarvis), $3.20, $2.50.

GO FOR CALEYS KICKS HAT TRICK

And Defeats Swifts by One Goal in Bridgen Cup, Third Round.

A good crowd was in attendance at Broadview Field Saturday to witness the replay in the third round Bridgen Cup games. Two third league division teams clashed in the first game, Caledonians and Swifts. These teams had met on four previous occasions this season, when three game had ended in draws, with the Swifts having one victory over the Caledonians. The ground was a bit heavy, and the abattoir men adapted themselves to the footing earlier than their lighter opponents, the Caileys. The first half ended with no scoring, but after the restart Gow, the inside left, scored early for the Swifts. Swifts replied by tying the score. Gow again scored by tying the score. Gow again scored by tying the score. Gow again scored by tying the score.

The second game, between All Scots and Davenport, was looked for to create more interest, more so than the first half found the teams on even terms and a penalty kick given against Davenport drew all the spirits from the players and from then Scots were the masters of the situation, but after "Red" Moir had brought Taggart to his assistance. The inside left of All Scots gave a brilliant display, Davenport had to play the entire second half without "Red" Walker, who received an injury to his knee.

Willis and Old Country played before a crowd of over one thousand spectators on the new Parkcourt grounds, Willis winning by the score of 3 to 2. Shamrocks qualified for the final of the Guy Long Cup when they defeated the D.S.C.R. team 3 to 1.

The city, intimating the price the Mackenzie interests have placed on a clean-up sale of their power plant and radials, disassociated from the Toronto Railway Co.
Sir Adam, it is said, will recommend no line of action to the city; there are others who say that if a sale cannot be effected at the price named by Sir William Mackenzie's associates the city may go up a couple of millions for the sake of ending the discordance. The Mackenzie offer is supposed to be about thirty million dollars. Sir William is in London now, in touch with the British and Imperial Trust Co., who represent the share and bondholders of the Toronto Power Co. and its interlocking companies.

SMALL IS DEAD, VIEW OF POLICE

Three Men and Woman Said to Be Sought by the Authorities.
(From The Sunday World.)
St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 27.—Detective Mitchell, who is returning to Toronto with his prisoner, Jack Doughty, wanted in connection with the theft of bonds and the disappearance of his employer, Ambrose Small, has not spent four days with his man without gleaming important information bearing on the mystery. Some of this information Doughty gave voluntarily and some of it unconsciously, and it has enabled the officer to fill in the missing links of the case, and make revisions where necessary. The story as pieced together is that Small was a hand in the killing of Small, and that he was murdered, according to the rough-handling he received. As a result of the latest disclosures the police will try to effect four arrests at once, one of those sought being a woman, and the other three, men of the underworld in the United States. There is no evidence that Doughty had a hand in the killing of Small. It is even suggested that when he left Toronto Doughty did not know Small was dead. One of the big questions confronting Doughty is that if he did not know Small was to be kidnapped on the evening of December 2, would he have ventured to take the Victory bonds from Small's box on the morning of that day?
Jack Doughty has been ready enough to discuss his life from February 22 last when he arrived in Oregon City, but he avoids enquiring about how he spent the two months following his departure from Toronto. Detective Mitchell now believes that the crude attempts to extract a ransom from Mrs. Small which emanated from New York state months after the disappearance of her husband were made by the men who kidnapped Small. At the time it was believed these messengers were an attempted hoax. Whether Doughty was in touch with these men in the States is still a mystery to the police.

Pro-Ireland Demonstration Held by Milan Catholics

Milan, Italy, Nov. 28.—Milan Catholics held a great pro-Ireland demonstration yesterday. Deputy Marini in a speech, reviewed the history of Ireland, telling of her struggles for over seven centuries and the sacrifice of blood which had been made for her cause. He strongly stigmatized the present policy of Britain. Other speakers were all enthusiastically applauded and there were cries of "Viva Ireland."
A telegram was sent to the president of the Irish Republican Parliament, expressing sympathy with the Irish cause and hope for the triumph of liberty and justice. Another telegram was sent to Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland.

OAKOAL, THE NEW FUEL, MAKES GOOD IN TORONTO

Big Business Men, As Well As Men and Women of All Classes, Should Read This Most Important Announcement.

Citizens of Toronto and other parts of the Province will read with pleasure that the OAKOAL plant has turned out sufficient fuel to substantiate every claim we have made for our new fuel product.

This wonderful substitute for anthracite coal has more than met our most sanguine expectations. The burning, heating and economical qualities are astounding. No soot, no clinkers, no disintegration while burning—it is a perfect fuel for all domestic purposes, and burns wherever coal burns.

Delivery of this product will start in a few days. Already we have orders for thousands of tons, and as we have some 20,000 tons of anthracite screenings in our yards, and as some 20,000 tons of wastes will be added to these to make OAKOAL we will be able to deliver some $600,000 worth of fuel during the next six months.

NOW YOU PURCHASED BONDS DURING THE WAR to save Canada from the enemy, and to show what Canada could do when emergency made demand. Why not help now to save thousands of citizens from another enemy—Winter—since emergency makes demand, and since your money will multiply?

The following communication speaks for itself:—

FUEL ADMINISTRATION,
Province of Ontario,
Toronto Harbor Commissioners' Building,
Foot of Bay Street,
Oakoal Co., Limited, Toronto, November 19th. 1920.
Gentlemen:—
The alarming increase in shortage of anthracite coal in Ontario, now 165,000 tons, calls for prompt action on your part. While I am satisfied you are doing well, I am equally satisfied that extra efforts will result in greater production.
The public have been warned of the danger, and urged to avail themselves of your commodity, and I feel assured that you will do your share in averting any danger of suffering, consequent to shortage of coal.
Yours very truly,
H. A. HARRINGTON,
Fuel Administrator for Ontario.
