CONSTITUTION,

As amended by the Annual Meeting of Subscribers, at Hamilton, Ont., June, 1868.

ART. I. That the Society be called "The Canada Congregational Missionary Society, in connection with the Colonial Missionary Society."

ART. II. That its object shall be, to aid feeble Congregational Churches in sustaining their Ministers; to spread the Gospel by means of Missionaries among all classes of inhabitants; and to promote other general missionary objects of the Congregational body.

ART. III. That all persons subscribing 5s. per annum shall become Members of this Society; and any person subscribing at one time £5 or upwards, shall be an Honorary or Life Member of this Society.

ART. IV. That the Missionary field shall be divided into such and so many Districts as the Society may from time to time determine; and that for each of these there shall be appointed by the Society from among its members after nomination, at each Annual Meeting, a District Committee of not more than ten members, with a Secretary-Treasurer; such Committee to consist, as far as practicable, of pastors and members of self-sustaining churches, and of Ministers and laymen in equal numbers.

ART. V. That from each of the several District Committees, there shall be chosen annually by the Society, after nomination, three members, such representatives to form together the General Committee: and that there shall also be appointed by the Society annually, after nomination, a General Secretary-Treasurer, who shall receive and distribute the missionary funds and conduct the correspondence with the Colonial Missionary Society; and a Home-Secretary, who shall correspond with the churches and the several District Committees.

ART. VI. That the Annual Meeting of this Society shall be held at the same time and place as that of the Congregational Union of Canada, and during such Annual Session the General Committee shall adjust all the appropriations for the ensuing year, so far as possible.

ART. VII. That each District Committee, within its own bounds, shall receive and report to the General Committee upon the Annual applications for aid; shall have power to make grants in special cases arising between the meetings of the General Committee, to such amounts and on such principles as the latter body may determine; shall attend to the collection of missionary contributions; shall explore unoccupied fields; shall superintend the labours of evangelists; and shall have a general supervision over the missionary work, visiting each missionary field, by deputation, at least once in every year. And that all its proceedings, as they are taken, shall be reported to the officers of the General Committee.

ART. VIII. That all Churches receiving aid from this Society to sustain their Minister, shall be required, as the condition of its continuance, faithfully to fulfil their own engagement towards his support.

ART. IX. A detailed statement of Missionary affairs shall be made annually to the Colonial Missionary Society.

ART. X. That this Constitution and the By-Laws may be altered by any Annual Meeting of the Society, one day's notice having been first given to the Society, in writing, of any proposal to that effect.

BY-LAWS.

1. All communications on the subject of grants shall be made by or to the financial representatives of the church or station seeking aid.

2. Applications for aid, in new cases, shall be made one month at least before the Annual Meeting.

3. Every Missionary of this Society shall be in full communion with a Congregational church.

4. All the Missionaries shall report once in six months to the District-Secretaries respectively, and make a full statistical return annually according to the prepared forms.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING

Was held in Zion Church Montreal, on Thursday June 10th, at 3.30 p.m., and at 7.30 p.m.

I. G. Robertson, Esq., M.P.P., in the Chair, and Rev. Evan, C. W. McColl, Secretary of the meeting.

After remarks by the Chairman, the General Secretary-Treasurer read the introductory part of the following Report and the Financial Statement. The Reports of the District Secretaries were presented, and on motion held as read, and the whole accepted, adopted and ordered to be printed.

The General and District Committees for the year 1869-70 were then appointed.

The following sketch of the evening meeting is taken from "The Canadian Independent," July 1869, pp. 21-2.

Rev. T. M. Reikie addressed the meeting. The report just read made him think of the Book of the Acts of the Apostles—the first missionary report ever published. Christianity was essentially a missionary cause and an aggressive principle. In order to secure the prosperity of a Church, three things were necessary. There must be a clear apprehension of truth, the spirit of love, and the missionary spirit.

Rev. Mr. Powis, of Quebec, referred to the voluntary principle in the support of religion, and to the progress it was making in Great Britain and this country. Many high church dignitaries show themselves ready to relinquish the places and honours and emoluments which they have heretofore enjoyed, and to rely entirely upon the voluntary support of the Church. As for themselves, they were not labouring so much for the promotion of Congregationalism as for the spread of Christian truth, and he rejoiced to think that the points of agreement between all the evangelical denominations were far more than the points of disagreement. These were times when all were called upon to do something to extend the Saviour's cause. The light of the Gospel was intended to shine abroad in every land, and the leaves of the Gospel tree were for the healing of all nations. It was the will of God that men, and not angels or any other instrumentality, should be the means of the propagation of the Gospel among men, and in every age those had been most successful in winning souls to Christ who were most deeply convinced that they were called to the work.

Rev. John Salmon gave many very interesting examples of the success of a faithful, earnest spirit in winning souls.

The Rev. J. G. Pike, Agent of the American Missionary Association, spoke on its behalf. The Association was organized in 1846 by the abolitionists of that day. It has done a great work in many places outside of the United States. In Jamaica, among the freedmen, it had expended over $100,000, and established five Congregational Churches. He related the successive steps taken by the Association in the Southern States, and said that it had now 167 mission stations, and was supporting 500 missionaries. Its disbursements were nearly $350,000 per year. He made some very interesting statements showing the intellectual capacity of the freedmen, and closed with an appeal for the prayers of Christians in this country, and their pecuniary aid if they felt disposed.

A collection was then taken up, and the meeting was brought to a close by the benediction.

REPORT.

WITH the increased consciousness of national life which is obviously felt by the more intelligent people of the Dominion of Canada, should be put forth augmented energy and self-sacrifice in fostering its religious institutions. A single year, the second of its existence, has so changed the aspect of its affairs, and so enlarged its boundaries, as to fill the mind of the Christian philanthropist with great thoughts regarding the future of the Dominion. Nova Scotia almost pacified and won; Newfoundland negotiating for admission; the maritime element of the nation will be largely developed and strengthened; and the vast regions in the Northwest having been placed in our hands, our people must devise large and liberal things. The almost helpless dependence of former days has given place to self-reliance, self-assertion, and increasing enterprise and energy, which must be shown in our religious as well as in our secular affairs. There is nothing so important to the healthful development of national life or to the growth of true power, as the self-wrought institutions of Christianity. The working of free churches not only purifies the moral atmosphere, but happily educates the people. It is otherwise with national establishments provided for and set over the people. Whatever they may have been and done in their generation and in former circumstances, they are now an encumbrance where they exist, and are not to be desired anywhere. Their days are obviously numbered in the old world; and it is an observable feature of the times in this new world, that from the only place in which the church establishment principle is recognized by law, and that exclusively over the church's own people, namely, the Province of Quebec, there is a constant and increasing migration to regions in which no such principle has existence. They hasten their escape from the burdens it involves. But the free churches oppress no one; they call forth spontaneous support, and the only difficulty is that the general training of the old church and state principle in the Mother Country interferes somewhat with the exhibition of that large-minded and comprehensive liberality in giving, which, it may be hoped, the next generation will manifest.

During sixteen years in its present form, though for thirty-three or more years in some form, the Congregational churches by their Missionary Society, have endeavoured to multiply and to sustain in the country the Christian institutions which they regard as scriptural, and as adapted to promote the highest interests of the people. Great importance is attached to the local church with its pastor, deacons, and numerous workers. Preaching stations are good, itinerant labours are of much value, but unless they lead to the church, they fail to accomplish the great end of the Gospel ministry. We rejoice in the widest proclamation of the Gospel by all men who can speak instructively of the things of the Kingdom; we bid God-speed to every servant of the Lord who declares to the people the unsearchable riches of Christ, and seeks to win immortal souls to Him; but we at the same time realize the need of disciples building themselves up on their most holy faith, and of their being organized into churches of believers, who, as such, will work in the Lord's vineyard. Dreary would be the day, and fatal to the best interests of the country, in which the churches should be weakened or deserted for the sake of spasmodic efforts at evangelization, however faithful and earnest they may be. The country needs their appropriate buildings as a standing reproof of irreligion, and sign of the God-fearing element among the people. Every such house of prayer is a protest against atheism, and a testimony for godliness. The country needs their enlightened scriptural teaching, their position as standing on the side of right and freedom, their Sunday schools, libraries, and uniform, widespread influence for good. The true churches of Christ are among the most prominent and important things which constitute the hope of our nation.

The year to which this Report specially refers has been one of peace and of average prosperity. One of the District-Secretaries, who has occupied his present field of labour a number of years, and who has knowledge of many of the churches and stations aided by us, remarks: "Greater hopefulness and cheerfulness among the Pastors and Churches than for many years past, and also slow but certain progress in almost every portion of the field." He notes the further fact of extended usefulness of our ministry among the people generally, because they are the representatives of a true catholicism, and are hence wanted by all parties to perform occasional work for them. Thus, he proceeds to say, "an estimate in figures and denominationally cannot be made."

The narrative of the state of the churches, issued by the Congregational Union will doubtless contain deeply interesting sketches of precious refreshing from the presence of the Lord, enjoyed by some of our Missionary Churches, as well as by those which are self-sustaining. Ottawa, Markham and Warwick have been much blessed, as well as the stronger churches at Brantford, Scotland, and London. Let us be instant in prayer that there may be enjoyed a wide-spread outpouring of this mighty Divine influence.

Places of worship are rising up in different parts of the country, some of them to supersede old and delapidated structures, and others to meet the requirements of new congregations. It is seldom that these can be erected without some outside assistance, and yet to have them is often a necessity of the case; there can be no growth or efficiency without them. The question how this outside help can be best obtained on the one hand, and ministered on the other, has become of much importance. Most objectionable, in every point of view, is the plan of laying the burden of collecting from town to town and from house to house upon the pastor, who has other and higher work to do, and who ought not to be subjected to the humiliations and annoyances often connected with such a mission. There is needed amongst us a "Chapel," or according to our nomenclature, a "Church Building Society," having funds to lend for a few years without interest, and also to afford occasionally a small grant in aid of local efforts. Friends who would create and sustain a society such as our English churches have found of so great value, would confer an inestimable benefit upon the Denomination.

While two or more of the fields which have been for some time vacant, have been re-occupied during the year, there are several others which are still vacant and demanding attention, and there are rising towns in several of our districts into which an entrance should be effected at an early date. There is much need of augmented agency in men and money to achieve the results for which we should aim.

The number of names on our year's roll is forty-five, most of whom have been engaged in preaching the Gospel in their respective spheres during the whole year, though a few were for a shorter period. During their vacation, three of the students, Messrs. Peacock, Hindley, and Wallace, laboured with acceptance in different fields, but being sustained by the respective churches, they were not a charge upon our funds, and they are not included in the forty-five.

Our correspondence with the Colonial Missionary Society has been throughout marked by affectionate consideration on their part, while we have kept them informed of all our movements. Their grant of £500 was cheerfully made to us, and they expend in our country, through other channels, upwards of £550; our College, Halifax, N. S., and St. John's, Newfoundland, enjoying directly the benefit of their liberality. The expenditure of this Society has been in excess of last year, by upwards of $500, while the contributions of the churches and stations have increased only to the extent of $300; leaving us in a less favourable position for our July quarter than we occupied a year since. Then we required a supplement from this year's income of $250, to make up the payments for the year, for which the Society was pledged. This year our balance in hand is between $400 and $500 less than will be required on the first of July, proximo. Besides this, there are five Theological Students occupying various fields during their vacation, for whose expenses $130 have already been advanced, and to whom a larger sum will probably have to be paid on their return in September next. It is manifest, therefore, that we cannot continue our present expenditure, much less enlarge it, without greatly augmented liberality on the part of the churches and friends of this good work.*

The following tabular statement, from which fractions are omitted, exhibits a comparison of receipts from the several Districts and expenditure in them for last year and this year respectively.

HENRY WILKES,

General Secretary-Treasurer.

MONTREAL, April, 1869.

* If all the contributors were animated by the spirit of one, who remitted to the District Treasurer $2 from a place out of his District, saying, "I neglected last winter to send my subscription to the Missionary Society, I fear now I am too late for this year; however, I send $2 as all the atonement I can make for past negligence," we should not lack funds. He says concerning this contributor, "Verily she hath done what she could, for if ever the widow's mite was thrown into the treasury in the spirit of it, here it is. Many a thrilling article has been penned with a theme much less touching than that afforded by the present offering. Glorious thought! the Father in heaven has seen this. He can and will reward it."

† The churches aided by the Society have raised about $10,000 in support of their pastors, which does not appear here.

ONTARIO WESTERN DISTRICT.

The field in this district has some things which appear discouraging, but much more to awaken hope and promise success for the future.

Warwick is a rural field, and has been wrought for many years, under many discouragements, by Rev. D. Macallum. During the previous summer, after prayerful thought and consultation, Mr. M. resigned his charge, hoping that a change might prove beneficial. There is no reason to regret this step, since the divine blessing has accompanied Rev. Mr. Macallum to his new field, and attended his successor, the Rev. J. Salmon, in the field he left. Mr. Salmon took charge in July of the church in Warwick, together with that of Forest, rendered vacant by the removal of Rev. J. Brown to Burford. Warwick has two outstations, Watford and Robinson's Schoolhouse. Under the impetus of a new pastorate, seed long sown began to grow. The people began to work. A house in a more convenient spot became a necessity. They built an elegant little structure of white brick, with gothic windows, 28 x 40, about a mile and a half north of the old one. This was nearly paid for by the time the opening services were ended. Since the opening of this church, 14 new members have been added, 13 of whom are by profession; congregations have improved, and the prayer meetings have been attended by about 40 persons. At Watford, in which vicinity we have had a preaching station more than twenty years, Mr. Salmon preaches once a fortnight; the need of a church building is much felt, and the preliminary steps taken; already they have some $400 subscribed towards it.

Some cases of awakening have taken place at Robinson's Schoolhouse, and one hopeful conversion. In this neighbourhood they are thinking seriously of building a small place in which to worship. The Forest church embraces two stations beside the village. At Forest, the congregations are reported good,—a house generally filled every second Lord's day, also one conversion is reported. Mr. S. reports that the Lake Shore station has been blessed with an addition of 10 members, as the result of special services; a prayer meeting has been well sustained since that time, in which some of those recently converted take a part.

Mr. Salmon writes in May: "On looking back on the ten months which I have laboured in this field, I can see the hand of the Lord in directing me here. May the Lord help me to be more faithful in the discharge of my duty."

Listowel and Molesworth.—The former is an incorporated village of 1000 inhabitants, the latter a hamlet of about a dozen houses.

Rev. W. W. Smith, the pastor, writes in December: "I have been walking by faith, and not by sight, and results are not so plain as I would wish to see." His reports indicate abundant labour, and disappointment in the result. Mr. Smith has taken up several outstations, with varied success. He preaches twice on Sabbath at Listowel, besides once in the country at Molesworth and other stations, in the afternoon; also at Molesworth every Wednesday evening. Things look hopeful here, while at Listowel Mr. S. complains of deadness. He regrets being unable to do any outside evangelizing, and fears the church will be weakened by the migration of some influential families who contemplate going away.

Turnberry, Howick, and Wroxeter are the extensive field wrought by the Rev. S. Snider. Mr. S. reports in January, increasing congregations, and an addition of four by profession. In Wroxeter, a growing interest, with peace and pleasantness among the people. Mr. S. preaches three times on each Sabbath, his work involves some fifty miles of travel each fortnight. He says: "This field is quite large enough for two men. I only wish some of those who go to the States, or look elsewhere for a good salary or a very pleasant settlement, were bound in spirit to look this way, and would come and take possession of the waste places."

In April, Mr. Snider writes somewhat despondingly of financial matters, as a result of light harvests and low prices. He speaks of improvements in church buildings, both as to the internal and external appearance. The church in Turnberry is being fitted up with seats. In Wroxeter, a building is in contemplation. Two Sabbath schools have been sustained doing well, but Mr. S. remarks that it is difficult to keep up prayer meetings and bible classes on account of the distance which parties live apart.

Garafraxa First Church is now under charge of our well-tried brother Barker, whom we welcome back again to Ontario. He has settled in Fergus, where, on the 17th of January last, he opened a preaching station, having a few members in that village.

The Rev. A. McGill supplied the Garafraxa church for a portion of the time before Mr. Barker came.

At the end of April, Mr. Barker writes: "In Fergus, we have had to hire a hall for our services, that which we have at present is central, but too small, the congregations are crowded very un comfortably; from a very few at the outset, the congregation averages now about 100. I had not been here two months, when the Lord sent a very gracious spiritual awakening to the village and vicinity, principally in connexion with the labours of Messrs. Carroll and Russell, evangelists. This remarkable movement—remarkable and unprecedented in this locality—is still continuing, with scarcely any abatement in interest, though these brethren are just leaving.” Mr. Barker thinks this movement will give the infant cause a temporary if not a permanent impetus.* A church is at once being formed, that converts to Christ, with our views, may have a nucleus around which to gather. Mr. B. says: “As in many other places our cause here will be a feeder to other churches to a large extent, and there will be a great disproportion between our membership and our congregation, many of the latter being composed of those who have already some ecclesiastical connection.” We agree with our brother as to the importance of our having a cause in this village, many of our own people will naturally be drawn thither. We also recognize the Lord’s hand in opening the station at the most favourable juncture.

The Report states: “The Garafraxa field and church have also been much blessed; 23 have been added to our membership, and unusual interest still continues, special services being held as often as practicable. The Sabbath congregations are excellent. The church is very harmonious and zealous.” The finances also are improving, the weekly offering plan being pretty generally adopted. A chapel debt of between $300 and $400 is pressing, but not embarrassing. Two Sabbath schools are in operation, small but growing under good management. The prayer meeting is well attended.

Douglas and Green Settlement.—The Douglas church was formed in June last, with 22 members, by letter from Garafraxa first church, Rev. Robert Brown going with them. They have since added eight others, and are encouraged to hope for further prosperity. They have proceeded to build of brick, a church 30 x 46, and have most of the material on the ground, and a good beginning on their subscription list. Some things at the Green Settlement have not been looking so well as at first, but are now improving. An Episcopalian service which for some time divided the congregation having ceased, Mr. Brown has, by request, opened a preaching station some three miles south of the Green Settlement chapel, here has been a large attendance when the roads were good. Mr. Brown received a surprise visit with a handsome present from this neighbourhood, with a request for his continued services among them. Rev. Mr. Brown has been suffering from want of health, and passed through some trouble which has prevented his doing all that he desired, but he writes hopefully, and, we think, occupies a very promising field. He prays for grace and strength, who will second his petition?

* Since the above was written, a church has been formed in Fergus with 27 members, about half new converts.

Stratford.—Rev. Mr. McColl's report is full of hope; there is increased attendance in the congregation, and he regards it as gratifying and hopeful that a large proportion of them consists of young men. He trusts, moreover, that by the removal of a financial difficulty, through the kindness of a friend, "whose praise is in all the churches," a material obstacle to comfort and usefulness is taken away. The pastor says, "As a church we address ourselves afresh to the Lord's work, and pray that he may here see of the travail of his soul and be satisfied."

New Durham, which has been supplied by Rev. J. Brown, pastor of the Burford church, has not in the year past been on the list of churches receiving aid. Things are there looking hopeful.

Kelvin, which was presenting a very hopeful aspect under the occasional labours of student Wallace, who spent his vacation in Scotland, last summer, has been without supply since. We regret this much, since hope was enkindled under the earnest and vigorous labours of the past summer, in a way it had not for a long time existed, and a fair prospect presented of a vigorous country church.

Sarnia is still vacant. O for the right man for this place, earnest, pious, self-denying, and the means to keep him there. It will not do to send occasional preachers to Sarnia; the people are tired of experiments. This place needs to be opened permanently. We have still a hope that Sarnia and Simcoe may be on our lists, when the Lord shall send us the right kind of men.

Barton church, which was represented by two delegates at the last Union meeting, for some mysterious reason, and in some informal way, was transferred during the time of the Union meeting or afterwards, to the Canada Presbyterian Church. A few of the church did not concur in the transfer. We are relieved from tendering that church further help. We must learn to submit gracefully to unavoidable changes.

On the whole we think that in a spiritual point of view, things in the Western District look encouraging and more hopeful than in any time past, for which we record our gratitude to the Great Head of the church, praying Him for men and means to spread His truth, as we view it, in every town in our district.

W. H. ALLWORTH, Paris,
Secretary.

ONTARIO MIDDLE DISTRICT.

During the past year, the total number of Missionary Pastors labouring in the Missionary Churches of this District were 14, three of whom were only employed each for a few months. One resigned his charge and removed to the United States; another, from the Western District in October last, received a call to the pastorate of one of the Churches in this District. The other, from the Congregational College, has settled as supply for a time over a Church made vacant by removal. Another, we are sorry to report, has notified the Committee of his intention to remove to the United States in June next. Many of the Churches are showing increased spiritual vigour and prosperity; while all are earnestly contending for the truth as it is in Jesus, and are endeavouring to sow it broadcast in their respective fields of labour.

The person employed as Itinerant Missionary has, by the advice of the Committee, made a thriving village an important centre of business, the place of his special labour, with another vacant Church, a number of miles distant, with hopes of success. The amount of money raised by these Mission Churches for the Society during the year was $533; towards the support of their Pastors about $3,100; besides contributing liberally to other, both denominational and general objects.

Two of the Churches are building respectable Church edifices, which will cost them each a large sum. The following narrative is an epitome of the reports sent to the Committee by the Pastors of the Mission Churches of the District.

Bowmanville.—Rev. T. M. Reekie, Pastor. Under date of May, he writes :

“Death and removals to other places have been depleting our numbers during the past year ; four or five families have thus passed from our influence.

“About the beginning of January, a number of persons, members of another denomination, who had been regular hearers with us in the evenings, withdrew to attend services commenced by their own Minister. The vacancy thus made in our pews has, however, been more than made up by the constant attendance at morning and evening services of a still greater number of individuals, members of another body, who prefer at present worshipping with us. An effort has been put forth to improve the service of song in the House of the Lord, by the introduction of an instrument: the expense thus incurred has been fully met.”

Colpoy's Bay.—Rev. L. Kribbs, Pastor. He writes under date of January :

“I am, one way or another, hard-worked, very hard, having scarcely time to take the necessary sleep. My health, thank a kind Providence, is much improved, and in proportion to that improvement labour presses itself upon me. I have never seen my mission here anything like so promising as it is at present. We have a new Church edifice at Wianton so far completed as to be able to worship in it, and have done so since October last. It will not be finished this winter. The funds we have collected thus far, fall short of completing it. My congregations there are good. At my own place (the Bay) there is a great increase of hearers and they are very attentive too. There are indications of hearts feeling the power of the truth. Our prayer meetings have never been so well crowded, since the revival three years ago.

“Satan is hard at work also. A tavern is just opening, not more than eighty rods from my own door. I can no longer boast that I never saw a drunken man on our side of the Bay. Still Satan finds himself checked in his course by the city set upon a hill. Thus the fight begins—may our strength be equal to the day.”

Kincardine.—Rev. N. McKinnon, Pastor (Gaelic.) He writes under date of January :

“My own strength is daily failing, and infirmities warn me that the hour of my departure is at hand and that the field will soon be open to another.”

Under date of May, he writes:

"I have continued to preach in four different places on the Sabbath, and in order to reach these it has been necessary for me to travel fourteen miles and five miles on alternate sabbaths. My field of labour is just as extensive as I choose to make it; all I need is grace and strength to cultivate it as I ought."

Manilla.—Rev. D. McGregor, Pastor (Gaelic and English). Under date of January, he writes:

"Sin, Providence and Death, never cease to do their work of depletion, whether the Lord is adding or not; hence the necessity of a constant work of grace in order to existence, vigour and usefulness. We are brought within reach of hearing the sound of rain, and Christians here, of all denominations, seem to be stirred up to more general pleading that God in his infinite mercy would shower down copiously His promised Spirit. Attendance on Sabbath and week days encouraging, and there are indications of more than usual interest among our young people, which make us hope to see greater things. Three Sabbath Schools are maintained in the field. We must exercise faith and hope in God. Pray and work. Give up, NEVER. The work is the Lord's. We are not labouring in vain. The Church here owe much to the Missionary Society, and feel keenly on the subject of self-support, although unable to accomplish that object as yet."

Under date of May, he writes:

"We have a good field of labour, and although we cannot calculate upon all who receive benefit to join with us, they will be gathered one day into the Lord's garner, when the Society shall receive its reward. We expect much from the building of the Nipissing Railway, in the way of keeping our young men at home and increasing the population, as well as bringing more money into the place. One great cause of our financial weakness is the fact that our young men were hitherto obliged to seek employment elsewhere. Another is, the necessity of keeping up services in the two languages, which only those who experience it can understand. There is one consolation, however, I have access to almost all the population, directly or indirectly. This year I have a weekly meeting for the youth of our families."

Markham and Unionville.—Rev. D. McCallum, Pastor. Since his settlement a series of special services have been held, which have resulted in good. He writes under date of April:

"Yesterday we held our quarterly Church meeting, and twelve were admitted to our fellowship, but this does not include all who profess to have been benefitted by these services. We trust to receive some others soon, and also our hope is that many who were impressed during the meeting may, at no distant day, be led to the Saviour.

"I think also the Church has been quickened, and that the older members will be able to walk nearer to the master and work more efficiently for him.

"The number admitted into fellowship since I came here in October is sixteen. Two by letter and fourteen by profession. The Sabbath Schools at both Markham and Unionville are conducted with efficiency, and it is pleasing to note that most of those lately admitted into the Church have been Sabbath School scholars and three are from the Sabbath School."

Oro and Vespra.—Rev. J. Sanderson, Pastor, who writes under date of January :

"We have received seventeen persons into fellowship during the year, thirteen of whom confessed Christ for the first time. The Sabbath School at Rugby is gradually assuming a most interesting character. There has been an increase of life and energy infused into it, which is very encouraging. The teachers have thrown themselves with increased earnestness into the work. Death has removed from our midst one who who was a bright and a shining light. Our loss was her gain.

"At Bethesda the congregation has outgrown the old Chapel, and they were compelled to build. The new edifice is not yet finished. It is enclosed and covered in, ready for plastering in the spring. It is 45 feet by 36, and 16 feet in height. We have made arrangements to have it finished early in the spring. We hope to enter it without debt. Every legitimate available means for raising funds have been employed. Our Sabbath School raised over $40, and some of our sister Churches assisted us."

Under date of May, he writes :

"The past winter, in some respects, has not been a very prosperous one. We had so many snow storms and such drifted roads, that our congregations have been much smaller than usual. For my own part I have laboured unusually hard, both in my study and out of it; but my labour has not been attended with that manifest success which I expected; perhaps the Master sees I need teaching that it is himself alone who giveth the increase."

Owen Sound.—Rev. R. Robinson, Pastor. Under date of December, he writes :

"Altogether the members of the Church are gathering up strength to resume building in the spring, and although it is seed time with some rather than harvest, I feel that I ought and will thank God and take courage."

Under date of May, he writes :

" Church building. We hope to get a loan without interest of $500 from England ; have about $300 on hand ; some $300 subscribed ; stone and sand on the ground, more stone being drawn ; contract let to mason for walls, to commence work next week. I must go out to collect to finish."

Osprey.—Rev. J. McGregor, Evangelist, (Gaelic and English). This station for a long time after the resignation of Rev. J. McLean, was without a Pastor, but the little band remained together, holding service themselves weekly, until they secured the oversight of their present Pastor. The field is truly missionary and the prospects are good. The brother settled among them is working most energetically and perseveringly. He writes under date of January :

" I came here in June last, found a few faithful friends, with their families worshipping together every Lord's day. They have a comfortable log chapel, capable of seating 150 persons, but as yet, they have not been able to do more than finish the body of the house. We use temporary seats, until we can furnish pews and a desk. As might be expected in a place destitute of regular preaching and supervision, I find sufficient work awaiting me: the young neglected, considerable indifference to hear the Gospel, habits needing a degree of firmness and prudence to root up, and a wide field of many miles open to preach the Gospel therein. Attendance at the Sabbath service was never so good. We have two Sabbath schools, averaging 39 and 15 scholars. One of them is held in the Chapel, the other five miles south of the Chapel. We have purchased two Sabbath school libraries with money raised at tea meetings held for the purpose. We collected some money to purchase tracts, both Gaelic and English ones, which we circulate. I preach three times every Lord's day, attend both Sabbath schools, and hold week night meetings as often as I have found it convenient, also have visited all the families for miles round as often as I could—the last work I believe to be the more effectual part of my work ; but without a horse, as I must necessarily be for some time, the field is not an easy one to work ; but what can our toil and self-denial amount to, compared to that of him, who, though rich became poor."

Stouffville.—Rev. B. W. Day, Pastor, who writes under date of January :

" The new brick parsonage commenced during the summer has been completed and is now occupied by the Pastor. With the exception of about $200, which will be paid in a short time, it is out of debt. We have in many ways been much encouraged, and are led to believe 'our labours are not in vain in the Lord.' "

Under date of May he writes :

" Since my last report, God has been pleased to give us times of refreshing from His presence. Nine persons have been added to the Church since the beginning of January, as the result of some special services held during the week of prayer and for a short time afterwards. It was to us all a precious season of revival, and will, we believe, bear fruit in the eternal salvation of many souls. We have also succeeded in obtaining an opening for another station about three miles distant, which at present promises well for future success."

Whitby.—Rev. S. T. Gibbs, Pastor. This Church, which has been under the cloud for some years past, is beginning to see the dawn of a brighter day. The Church, aided by the Committee, secured the services of their present Minister who, for many years, has been labouring in the United States, though formerly of, and educated in, England. The settlement has so far been a happy one, attended with some measure of success. Under date of April he writes :

" The casual attendance of the first few Sabbaths has resulted in the regular attendance of about the same number ; and some who have united with us in Church fellowship, have become useful teachers in the Sabbath School, and in other ways also. Six new members have been received, four on profession, two by letter.

" The Sabbath School has now 8 teachers and 34 scholars. The Union School at Hamer's Corners, under the superintendence of Mr. Lockhart, has 6 teachers and about 40 scholars. The pulpit has been lowered two steps. The alteration is both pleasant to the preacher and improves the general appearance of the interior. The aisles have had new matting. I regret to say, that the general attendance is not so satisfactory as I could wish. Our evening service is not so well sustained as it ought to be in a town of such a population. Our prayer meetings are held at the houses of members in various parts of the town. They are interesting and I trust prayer is heard."

Pine Grove and Thistleton.—Rev. R. Hay has just notified the Committee of his having resigned the charge of the Church of which he has been Pastor for the past ten years. The reason he assigns is, his inability to live upon his present salary. He writes in his report of May :

" Briefly, I may repeat, I am going because I cannot stay. I find that my salary of $460 does not enable me to provide for my family. I have struggled long and earnestly, hoping that things would mend, but I am no longer able to struggle. I feel I have no right to deprive my family of education, etc., while it is in my power to help it. I have supplemented my salary during the last year by taking the superintendence of the common schools in this township; but this has laid such an amount of work upon me, and exposed me during the past winter to such fatigue that I have barely escaped a severe illness. I would not undertake the same amount of duties again in addition to the great amount of labour and exposure consequent upon having such a large parish. When I had decided to give up my charge here, I knew that there was no vacant place in Canada, where I could be better supported. At the same time a favourable opening presented itself in Illinois, and I felt I had no choice in the matter, but go."

It is sad to think that we should lose first one and then another of our brethren to this land, when they are so much needed, and especially for lack of support. The Churches and Missionary Society must remedy it.

Newmarket.—Mr. E. S. Lyman, late student of Congregational College, Montreal, is supplying this Church for the present. After the resignation in July last of Rev. C. Spettigne, the services were kept up for a while among themselves by one of the brethren conducting a religious service. After which, until the pulpit was supplied by Mr. E. S. Lyman, brethren from the sister Churches kindly supplied them from Sabbath to Sabbath. Mr. Lyman's success and prospects among them are encouraging.

Meaford.—This little Church has been supplied since June last by the Rev. M. S. Gray, only once a month, the distance from his residence and other parts of his work, being over 70 miles, and the roads rendering it impossible, with his other work, to go any oftener. He writes under date of January :

" The appearance of everything connected with the Church has led me to conclude our work during the past year has not been in vain. The congregation is much larger, and the collection is twice the amount it was at first; but the charge is too much for me. To visit them only once a month for a year, requires me to travel near 1700 miles. The two extreme points of my field are over 90 miles apart."

The Committee have since given him instruction to confine his labours to Orangeville and South Caledon in the future, and have secured for the summer a student for Meaford and Thornbury.

May 26th, 1869.

ONTARIO EASTERN DISTRICT.

Belleville.—The Church here has again to be reported vacant. The settlement effected last year proved to be of short duration, as Mr. Hay felt it to be his duty, ere the expiry of the year, to resign his charge. Notwithstanding the necessarily depressing influence upon the Church, of the changes it has been called upon to undergo, there are not wanting elements of promise, which it is to be hoped, will prove sufficiently inviting to some servant of God, who will be ready there to endure hardness as a good soldier.

Coldsprings and Cobourg.—The Rev. Charles Pedley continues to minister here, and reports thus :

“The present aspect of the Church and congregation is one to be contemplated with mingled feelings. On the cheerful side there is the fact of peace within the Church and in the relations between pastor and people. There has been a manifest improvement in the attendance on the means of Grace. Our little Church is now fully taken up with regular seatholders and their families. On the discouraging side of the account is, the want of any large evidence of the work of conversion and a lack of system in the management of Church finances.

Of Cobourg he says :

“I have not to report much change since last year. On the whole, the congregations during the winter have shewn an increase on each of the two previous winters, in which I have ministered to the people, and there are one or two permanent additions of good useful material.”

Brockville.—The year, upon the whole, has been to this Church one of average success. With the month of March began a new system of financial management. A standing Committee, selected from among the young men of the congregation, was entrusted with the finances, and already has furnished such an earnest as augurs hopefully for the consolidation of the cause. The conviction was never stronger to the mind of Pastor and people than now, that in the interests of religion, it behoves them to be "steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch, as they know that their labour is not in vain in the Lord."

Lanark Village.—From the reports of the Rev. Richard Lewis, the Pastor, we give the following :

"Our congregation continues good, and attendance at the Sabbath School is encouraging. A sign of material prosperity is the liberal and energetic effort to build a parsonage that has been inaugurated. It is to be hoped that it will be ready for occupancy in August next. The Church is doing all that it is possible to do in money matters. The amount raised this last year being at the rate of $19.95 per resident member or about $4 per head for every adherent, men, women and children. I continue to conduct a Band of Hope in our village, and the interest increases. Altogether the year closes hopefully."

Ottawa.—Early in the year, the Rev. E. Ebbs was induced to come back from "The States," and assume the pastoral oversight of this Church, which was vacant when we last reported. Sanguine hopes are entertained by our whole brotherhood, as well as by the Church, that success will attend this settlement. The following interesting statement from his pen speaks for itself:

"Shortly after my settlement, novel attractions of a religious kind drew crowds to the theatre Sabbath after Sabbath. Of course our little meetings were unnoticed by the populace, who flocked in crowds to the theatre. Several Churches were for a while considerably thinned by this influence. Ours, I am glad to say, instead of losing, gradually gained attendants. It became evident that the Spirit of the Lord was moving some of the members of the Bible Class, which consists of from thirty to forty. One after another developed into clear cases of Divine illumination and joyous acceptance of Christ. As many as ten or twelve such instances of conversion have come to my knowledge. On New Year's Sabbath we joyfully welcomed six of these parties into church fellowship upon profession of their faith. The aspect of affairs is quite as promising as I ventured to anticipate, and the spiritual results much larger. The known presence of most dangerous errors in their midst constrained me to dwell more largely than ever on those grand fundamental truths of Redemption by the Blood of Jesus, and Regeneration by the Holy Ghost, which the Lord has applied with saving power to the conversion of one after another, rendering the whole period of my ministry, after the first two months, very cheering, notwithstanding the feebleness of the flock. About twenty apparent conversions have occurred. Fifteen have been added to our fellowship—ten upon profession. Perfect harmony has prevailed. The attendance on all the services has steadily improved."

Vankleek Hill and Indian Lands are soon to be under the pastoral care of Mr. W. W. Peacock, who has just completed his course of study in our College, whilst Martintown has for the summer months the services of another of our students, Mr. Duncan McGregor.

Lanark First still retains the services of its worthy pastor, the Rev. James Douglas, and we understand, in the absence of a report, holds the even tenor of its way.

ALEX. MCGREGOR,

Secretary.

QUEBEC DISTRICT.

"Wisdom is better than strength." We often think that Solomon's "poor wise man," who "by his wisdom delivered the city," and yet was not remembered, not seldom finds an apt illustration in the case of the Gospel missionary in a land like ours. Silently, humbly, faithfully he labours. His labours do not seem to attract much attention. Yet who can tell what weighty results may ere long show themselves in the future of our country. God alone knows it, and He smiles on it. Eternity only shall fully disclose it.

Another year of such labour has passed away. In looking over the reports of our Missionary Pastors we find there are several things in which their testimony is one. They have, all of them, been favored with health and strength, to attend to their Pastoral and Missionary duties. These duties have been regularly fulfilled, with some little interruption from impassable roads. And it is no ordinary obstacle that hinders them. Some have very extensive fields, all have out stations, some as many as six. Great harmony and peace prevail in all their churches, and all testify to the esteem and affection of their people. The attendance and interest at all the preaching appointments, central and outlying, continue undiminished, and in many cases are increasing. Nothing very eventful, nothing striking has occurred in connexion with any of the missions. Not many have been added to the Churches. Yet we agree with one of the Brethren when he says; "Time with patience is God's expounder." And with another; "A faithful ministry, properly sustained, must succeed." All are looking and longing for a baptism of the Holy Ghost.

Fitch Bay.—Our brother Adams writes :

"I have nothing eventful of a pleasing character to record, and I am not disposed to speak, nor would it be pleasant for you to hear, of winds and storms that have not been permitted to work disasters to the cause. I am well persuaded Satan hates Congregationalism, and I do not think he is very particular in his choice of means to injure it. 'But thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.'

"The cause is weak, and the local and moral condition of the place such that it is impossible to make great rapid advancement, but I am satisfied that the prospects and importance of the place are not without promise. I have pursued the usual course of duty without the usual result, for I have scarcely seen so long a time without some hopeful conversions, and some additions to the church. Two of our number have departed to be with Christ, and two have been added by profession, so our numbers remain about the same. We labour and hope, and yet the progress is slow, and I see not well how it can be otherwise. What great things can be expected from missions where four or five denominations struggle for life, and hardly means enough to support efficiently one. The wonder is how all can keep up an existence. I feel a great anxiety for the cause in this Province. It seems to me that our circumstances are important, and that it is very necessary that Congregationalism should be kept alive where there is so great a tendency to Priestly rule."

Waterville.—Our Missionary Pastor, settled here, has labored on steadily and faithfully and with much acceptance among the people during another year. He has endeavored to keep before the minds of the people the great truths of the gospel, and hopes that the blessing of God will not be in vain.

"With respect to our state as a church, although we have nothing to boast of, we have much for which to be thankful. During the year we have received fourteen members, being nine by letter, and five on profession. We expect two more shortly. Our number is now thirty. May the Master so direct and assist me, that I may faithfully obey His command, 'feed my lambs'; 'feed my sheep!'"

Brother was engaged, in Union Revival effort, with the Methodist and Baptist Brethren, in his neighbourhood; at the close of which the three Churches commemorated the Lord's death together, Brother Purkis, being the senior minister, presiding.

Mr. Purkis, was instructed by the Church and Congregation, to express their heartfelt thanks to the Missionary Society for their assistance during last year, and ever since their organization of the Church, and they are hereby tendered.

In finance, there has been progression. The debt on the Parsonage is now removed, so that our Brother will now enjoy a free house. The Out-Stations have begun to contribute to the support of the Gospel and have done well. The Donation visit yielded an increase on last year's amount, and the sum raised for the Missionary Society is nearly one hundred per cent. in advance.

Eaton—Brother Sherrill says truly:

"I was never an idler; and as every day bring work to be done, you might perhaps expect a folio. But a few lines shall chronicle the past.

"Much as I have enjoyed the past year's continuous labor, with assurance of God's presence with this people, and that good has been accomplished, yet pressed with what remains to be done, the stirring sentiment of my life is: 'This one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press &c. I know good seed has been sown, and it would have given me satisfaction to have reaped an abundant harvest. But it may better please the Master to prove His saying true, 'one soweth and another reapeth.'

"The interest manifested in the families at Learned Hill (Plain), continues unabated, as mine does in them. Of course all there is in an incipient estate, but there is progress, we think, in the right direction. Last Sabbath, week (April 25th) was my day to be there. With many misgivings, with a true horse, I started, p.m. and reaching there in time, safe, though the road was fearful for the horse. They did not expect me at all, thought I could not get there. But a Post, (Mr. Learned's boy) went through the neighbourhood, and they came promptly from every protestant family, parents and children. I had an exercise in the Sabbath School, then preached to attentive hearers, and returned in safety, thankful that I persevered, and that the Lord gave prosperity. There is not only a wish on the part of the people there, but encouragement for me to continue my labours among them. It costs additional labour, but hope to do it as long as I am able in hope of a coming harvest from the already whitening field. Lord increase our faith. Some ground of promise, taken up by others, seems to be falling back again into my hands. Time with patience is God's expounder."

Melbourne.—Of this field Brother Campbells writes, in December, 1868.

“On the whole there has been much to encourage me in the discharge of every duty because at all the stations, six in number, I found the people glad to see and hear me. At some of the stations the Congregations have been on the increase. The people appear to be serious and attentive while hearing the word, and though we have had not many members added to us, I have found of late that some young people among us cherish a hope in the Redeemer. Some, perhaps all of them may be led to seek a home among us in Church fellowship. From this Church, there have been constant removals either owing to circumstances, or choice, consequently it continues weak. At the same time there is work to be done in connexion with our denomination in this part of the country. The cause at Windsor has improved very much. There is there a very interesting Bible Class, once in two weeks, and also a prosperous Sabbath School, called, ‘an Evangelical Union School.’ There is every reason of gratitude, for what the Lord has done for us the last two years.”

In April, 1869, Mr. C. writes:

“Since my last report two families have moved away from this Church, and three have joined us lately, which, with one received in the earlier part of the year, make four additions. The removal of one of the families is a great loss to the cause in this place. Mr. Burnham was very useful as Superintendent of the Sabbath School, as leader of the choir, in the Prayer Meetings, and in the general management at the affairs of the Church. Financially the loss will be severely felt. Owing to these things some of the brethren have been discouraged. Yet there are other features which I consider encouraging and interesting, especially connected with Windsor, where our congregations still continue to increase. Several young people have hopefully been led to trust in the Saviour, and whom we expect in due time to unite with us. The Church has been labouring under very great disadvantages, owing to various circumstances for some time past. I trust it will be seen that the Lord will provide, so that there will be no ground for fears as to means of support. Let us have faith that God will carry on his own cause.”

NOVA SCOTIA AND NEW BRUNSWICK DISTRICT.

Pleasant River, N. S.—As mentioned in former reports, the field occupied by Mr. Sykes is large and of a missionary character. Our brother is "in labours more abundant;" and God graciously smiles upon his efforts. The late Mr. Poore, Dr. Wilkes and others who have visited this locality have agreed with the Committee, that another labourer could with great advantage be employed, but the want of men and money forbid at present the attempt. Mr. Sykes writes:

"At Baker's Settlement a good work is going on. Two persons have recently united with the Church and several others are in an anxious state about their souls. In October last, we met for the first time in this locality to observe the ordinance of the Lord's Supper. Sixteen sat down—twelve belonging to the place and four from Pleasant River. Two young females immediately after joining the Church, commenced a Sabbath School, which is attended by upwards of thirty scholars.

"Ohio is another of our out-stations. The people are principally of Dutch descent and have been trained in the deadly errors of Puseyism. They are ignorant—the larger portion of them cannot read at all, and of those who can, several cannot read English. I lately held amongst them a series of meetings for the preaching of the Gospel. The attendance was good and judging from their marked attention as well as from private intercourse which I had with several, there was undoubtedly some good effected. During the meetings four young persons remained for private conversation and two of them especially were under deep convictions of sin. Besides these, there are a few heads of families with whom I have conversed and I indulge the hope they have undergone a saving change. Owing to the people's previous training and ignorance we think it right to exercise great caution in receiving any of them into our fellowship. Two, however, were received at our last Church meeting and sat with us at the Lord's table on the first Sabbath of this year. They were both females. They left their homes in company to attend the Church meeting on Saturday morning last, soon after day-break, in the midst of a heavy snow storm. They travelled eight miles on foot and had to break their own path through drifts of snow, sometimes up to the waist. There are others at this station who received good at our meetings and who will, I trust, before long, have a decided stand on the side of Christ.

"Nothing special at Pleasant River at present. Our Sabbath services and Thursday evening prayer meeting are regularly kept up and our Monthly Sabbath School Missionary meeting is well attended. There is manifest improvement in the morals of the people generally and the community is strictly tempered. We have many things to cheer us and some to pain, but our encouragements greatly counterbalance our discouragements. We are gradually growing in numbers and I trust in grace also."

Milton, N. S.

"Our work," writes Mr. Black, "during the past six months has been mainly one of consolidation following a season of special religious interest which was in progress when our last report was written and which resulted in the reception of 18 to our fellowship. While we must confess that we have not derived all the help from this very considerable increase to our number, that we had anticipated; yet we are grateful to have to report that none of them have returned to the world or have given us cause to doubt their sincerity. The voices of most of them have been heard in our meetings for prayer and at least six new family altars have been erected. Our congregations are perceptibly growing. Our Sabbath school is also growing in number and interest, there being about 100 scholars on the roll. For the past few months I have held a Bible class on Sabbath afternoon for young and married men, the attendance on which has been very encouraging. Despite the great financial crisis, the contributions of the Church to minister's support and the cause of Missions, Home and Foreign, have not declined. Another hundred pounds of the Church debt has been paid off and our prospect becomes more cheering as the time of its entire liquidation draws near. We enjoy peace as a Church, but feel much the need of a more abundant outpouring of the Spirit both upon old professors and more recent converts."

Liverpool, N. S.—To those unacquainted with the history of this Church during the last 15 years, it is difficult to convey a correct idea of the position of Mr. Duff. If ever man was sent by God to a given locality, Mr. Duff was sent to Liverpool. His labours have been largely blessed, but unless a co-worker be speedily found we dread the results. What we specially want is, a devoted brother who will labour with a single eye to promote the interests of the Church and the salvation of souls. With this, all that is wrong may be speedily righted, without this, disaster is imminent. Mr. Duff in a recent report writes:

"My state of health imperatively demands that my labours and care be lessened. * * * It is in my opinion important that my connections and that of our friends in town be maintained with the Missionary Society until after the terms are arranged by which the assistant shall be governed in his preaching appointments in the new Church.* * This is now the point to be got over.

"Spiritually, I scarcely know how to speak of ourselves. So much more might be done if another man was in the field and matters in town well arranged on a satisfactory basis. Every station is losing much for the want of more attention to it than it is possible for me to give. In Liverpool our Sabbath school is getting along well. The Church, however, is not in quite as good a position as it was a year ago. In Brooklyn the Sabbath school numbers over 100 scholars; but its condition is far from being what it ought and might be. In the Congregation and Church there are features that are discouraging, but still much to make us grateful to God for his mercy towards us. At Beechmeadows, there is good and regular attendance upon the means of grace; but here as at Brooklyn, I thirst for the opportunity of getting at new converts and at the young in other ways than through the pulpit."

The church building in the town of Liverpool is progressing. The missionary collections are considerably in excess of those of last year.

"Death has made many inroads upon us lately. Five members of the Church and four of the Congregation. But it has been pleasant to see how the blood of Jesus extracts the sting of death. By it may we be enabled to triumph over every foe: even as we have seen others over the last great enemy."

Cornwallis, N.S.—Our brother Kean mourns over the death of his beloved wife. We feel much for him in view of this his sad bereavement and can only pray that it may result in great good to himself and his people, and that in the meantime he may richly experience the comforts of the Holy Ghost. We have had no report, but in a private letter received, Mr. Kean writes:

"Many harrassing cares press upon me very heavily. To tell the truth, I dont know sometimes what to do. Then I have a heavier care in the Church—God has been blessing us with a refreshing from his presence, but the enemy is at work, and vigilance, patience, forbearance and prayer are loudly called for. Our refuge is in God."

Margarie, Cape Breton.—God has at length, we trust, heard prayer in behalf of this interesting people. They are at present supplied by one of the Students from our College at Montreal; and there is a reasonable prospect of their being supplied with a pastor when the Student leaves in September. We have had cheering tidings concerning the people. God has been a wall of fire around them and he continues to be the Glory in the midst of them.

Keswick Ridge, N. B.—Our venerable father Stirling resigned his pastorate in autumn and now waits the action of the Committee to send a young brother to occupy his place. In a letter received a few days ago, he says :

“ Your letter was read to the Church at our monthly meeting, when the brethren acknowledged themselves grateful to you for the interest you are taking in their prosperity as a Church. If Mr.——should come they will do what they can to promote his comfort and usefulness ; although they seem to shrink at the thought of having to support a man with a family. Some have said that if a young man should come from the College during the summer, that they might find in him one that might become their future pastor. So you perceive nothing can be done on our behalf ‘ till,’ as you observe, ‘ more light be thrown upon the subject.’ At the present time God in mercy is quickening our Church. Souls are being born from above. Thank God. It will please you to hear that by God’s mercy I am able to attend to my three services on Lord’s day and also on Thursday evening, when we have, as the people say, ‘ good times now.’ ”

Mr. Stirling is getting rapidly on to his four-score years. Wonderfully vigorous, for his age ; but utterly unable to attend to the out-stations. There is a fine field for an active young man. Mr. Stirling is being assisted at present by one of our Students from College, the pleasure of the Lord is evidently prospered in their hands.

ROBERT WILSON,
Secretary.

MONTREAL, April, 1869.

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

OF THE

Congregational Ministers' Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

PRESENTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SOCIETY, HELD IN MONTREAL, 10TH JUNE, 1869.

Your directors beg to report as follows: The year now closed has passed, through the kindness of God, without leaving a blank among our beneficiary members, for which we desire to express our gratitude to our Heavenly Father.

The fund, having no new claims upon it, shews a most gratifying increase; your invested capital, now amounting to $9070, bearing interest at seven and eight per cent., while the increase in capital over 1868, is about eight hundred dollars.

We still regret to notice, however, that the collections from the Churches, although about the same in amount as last year, are considerably less than those of 1867; and we would again urge upon our beneficiary members the importance of bringing this subject regularly before their Churches, with a view to obtaining an annual collection.

During the year four meetings have been held, members present being respectively, 5, 7, 5, 7.

The membership of the Society is as follows:—
