ONE OF N. B.'S ABLEST MEN DIED TODAY.

Judge L. P. Fisher, K. C., of Woodstock. Aged 85.

End of a Distinguished Career--Judge of Probate Over Half a Century--Woodstock's Mayor 28 Years

(Special to the Star.)

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Oct. 9.—In spite of his advanced age, 85, the community was shocked to learn this morning of the death at his residence here, of Lewis Peter Fisher, Esq., K. C. Outside the circle of his relatives and friends it was not known that he was dangerously ill. It has transpired that he was confined to his bed for some time gradually lost strength until the end came, this morning. Mr. Fisher was a son of the late Mr. Peter Fisher, of Fredericton. He was a brother of the late Judge Fisher and William Fisher, Esq., of this place. Mrs. Charles Connell was his widow, who before her marriage, was Mrs. Charles Connell and Miss Ella Smith. He was a member of the Baptist church and a prominent member of the Woodstock Y. M. C. A. He was a member of the bar and had attained his 21st year in 1842. He was sworn in as a lawyer in 1842 and he was in the practice of his profession, which he maintained until his death. He was a man of great reputation and accumulating a large estate. He was easily the first member of the bar in the county and had few, if any, superiors in the province. He possessed wonderful forensic ability, an astonishing influence over the jury and, in the days of his prime, wielded an astonishing influence over the juried whom he addressed. He was engaged on one side in the county and had few, if any, superiors in the province. He possessed wonderful forensic ability, an astonishing influence over the juried whom he addressed. TRIPLE MURDER IS STILL A MYSTERY

Three Persons--Arrested in Olney Case All Discharged--Mothers of Murdered Children Fearfully Injured

(Special to the Star.)

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 9.—All attempts of the county and local police officials to clear up the mystery of the Olney household who escaped death and who was found fearfully injured and unconscious in the barn. After being kept in custody all day and closely examined, Graham conclusively proved his innocence and was discharged from custody. Mrs. Ingerick was employed by him as a housekeeper until two weeks ago when she returned to Middletown and afterwards went to live with the Olney brothers. This was said to have been resented by Graham, who is reported to have made efforts to induce her to return to him, and this, with stories told by Lulu Ingerick of alleged threats made by Graham against her mother, appear to have been the grounds on which the authorities decided to arrest Graham. Daniel Davis and his wife, who live near New Vernon, were taken to the police headquarters tonight and closely interrogated and later it was announced that there was apparently no evidence that would justify holding them and they would be honorably discharged.

REV. A. B. SIMPSON GOT ANOTHER BIG COLLECTION

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The Tribune says: At the annual missionary services of the Gospel Tabernacle here yesterday $20,265 was subscribed, of this $68,350 was pledged after the morning sermon of the Rev. Albert B. Simpson, pastor of the church, and the remainder was subscribed at an afternoon meeting, while only one of the gifts named was made public. It is said that more than half of the gifts were either in cash or checks. The half dozen largest subscriptions were simply promises written on cards, but the gifts were all wealthy men who annually contribute large sums to the fund.

QUARTER OF MILLION FIRE AT TRACADIE.

Lumber Mills and Several Dwellings Destroyed--Loss is Total Insurance Companies Hard Hit.

(Special to the Star.)

CHATHAM, N. B., Oct. 9.—By telephone from Tabusintac yesterday the news of the destruction of the mills of the Tracadie Lumber Company was received. Owing to the destruction of the telephone wires the news direct from Tracadie is very meagre.

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

THE big lumber property of the Tracadie Lumber Co., at Tracadie, N. B., has been completely wiped out by fire. This was the news received here this morning by the insurance people, who one and all are quite badly hit, as the property was a valuable one and consequently the insurance was quite large. It is difficult to get any definite information, but from all that can be learned the fire occurred yesterday afternoon, and the loss is total, only a few small dwellings and a few shingles being left of what was a flourishing community.

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

There were two mills, a box mill and the big saw mill. The Tracadie Lumber Co. is comprised principally of Bangor people, F. H. Wing being the manager.

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

As far as can be learned the property is insured for $182,000. Fifty odd thousand covers lumber not under cover and about $20,000 more in on lumber stored in sheds, etc. The balance is on the mill, buildings and machinery. The loss will be about a quarter of a million.

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

It is reported here that the company carried a large insurance, the amount being stated as two hundred thousand dollars, but this report has not been authenticated.

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

It is not likely that the plant will be rebuilt, as it was understood some time ago that the company intended to discontinue business at that point.

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—Carl Gill, a diamond salesman, who lives at No. 21 North Sixth street in this city, gave his automobile to a stranger at Millville, N. J., last Tuesday.

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

"Certainly, I gave away my auto," said Mr. Gill today, when seen at his home. "It was tired of it. A year ago I bought the car for $1,100. I used the thing regularly, consuming money by the bucketful for gasoline and repairs, especially repairs. Sometimes when I got away out in the country the thing would balk, or joggle a nut, or would refuse to move, until I got internally tired of it. The other day when I filled it, it stopped. For a long time I tinkered under the car, greasing my hands, face and clothes, and at last discovered a small leak in the boiler.

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

"I called for help to some boys who were standing among a crowd of fifty or more persons who were making funny remarks. Only one who said he was Charlie Bennett, responded. For an hour we worked together on the machine. Each minute I worked, I grew madder, until at last I felt like tearing the machine wheel from where."

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

"Then I got up and said to Charlie: 'How would you like to have one of these things?' I expected him to say he was thankful he didn't have one, but instead he said: 'It would be fine!'

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

"It's yours," I said, and walked away.

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

"I only hope Charlie gets more fun out of it than I did."

TWO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

MILLVILLE, N. J., Oct. 8.—Charles Bennett, the lad to whom Carl Gill gave his automobile, is already able to run the machine, and he and his chums today had a gala time.

INTERESTING REPORTS AT FREE BAPTIST CONFERENCE.

The afternoon session of the Free Baptist Conference on Saturday was largely attended. The services opened with the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee" and prayer by Rev. L. A. Fenwick. After roll call, the corresponding secretary's report was heard.

CO-RESPONDING SECRETARIES REPORT.

The report of Rev. Dr. McLeod, which was a very complete and elaborate one, contained the following information: The whole number of churches is one hundred and forty-five. Of these, one hundred and six reported to the district meetings of this year, and two since the meetings, being sixteen less than were heard from last year.

An analysis and tabulation of the information furnished by our secretary enabled him to present the following: The churches reported are situated as to districts thus: First district, 11; second, 16; third, 14; fourth, 15; fifth, 14; sixth, 25; seventh, 12.

Of the reported churches nearly all have had regular pastoral care. When it is known that they have been ministered to by thirty-two men, it will be understood that some of the pastors have had to cover much ground. Two ministers, Revs. J. N. Barnes and E. S. Parker, have been reported to have done so. Besides the churches having constant care, several others have been cared for during part of the year.

The additions to the churches during the year were three hundred and fifty-three, being an increase of one hundred and sixteen over those of last year. The additions were to thirty-five churches, and one is in course of construction at Deer Island.

The interest of the churches in home and foreign missions has not found the practical expression which is desirable. There has been but slight difference in the contributions for these departments for several years. Other matters seem to have engaged the attention of the churches to the hurt of these branches of the work. Your secretary would impress on pastors and churches the fact that the great business of the Church of Christ is to give the Gospel to the needy, both at home and abroad, and that there cannot be the best and truest spiritual growth in either individual or church if this be neglected.

The reports as to the spiritual condition of the churches is encouraging, more so than for several years.

The interest of the churches in home and foreign missions has not found the practical expression which is desirable. There has been but slight difference in the contributions for these departments for several years. Other matters seem to have engaged the attention of the churches to the hurt of these branches of the work. Your secretary would impress on pastors and churches the fact that the great business of the Church of Christ is to give the Gospel to the needy, both at home and abroad, and that there cannot be the best and truest spiritual growth in either individual or church if this be neglected.

The total contributions reported are $23,850.43. Paid by districts as follows: First district, $1,164.04; second, $6,072.14; third, $4,484.63; fourth, $2,411.29; fifth, $1,999.36; sixth, $4,523.17; seventh, $9,685.83.

The figures are not complete, many churches failing to report contributions which, later, are sent to the treasurers of the several branches of work. And yet the reports show an increase over last year of $1,876.25.

In two items—home missions and conference fund—there is a slight decrease, all the others being increased. The encouragements as shown in the figures of the reports may be stated thus:

Table with 2 columns: Churches reported, Baptisms, Net increase, Contributions reported.

When it is remembered that the reports this year are from fewer churches than in 1904, the larger number baptisms, the larger net increase of membership, and the larger contributions, are emphasized. At the close of the last year there were on the conference roll forty-six ordained ministers, and eight licentiates. Death has not visited the ministerial body during the year, for which let us be thankful to God. Five of the ordained ministers are pastors in the United States. One licentiate, G. D. Mithrey, took his dismission to unite with the Free Baptists of the United States, where he is now living. W. E. Kirkpatrick is still at the divinity school; and one, H. W. McCutcheon,

THE NOVA SCOTIA DELEGATE. Rev. Edwin Crowell, the delegate from the Nova Scotia conference, brought greetings from that body, and said that the general condition of their conference was satisfactory. The members were reported to be about the same. He referred to the separation of the Free Baptists of Nova Scotia from the N. B. conference and their connection with the triennial conference. The principal reason why they separated was the question of their connection with the triennial conference. It was only after the meeting had adjourned a month ago, the basis of union was unanimously passed, and the question referred to the different churches.

He referred to the fact that at Chequocton the Baptists and Free Baptists had already united on a common pastor. He thought the Nova Scotia churches are now ready for organic union.

On motion of Rev. Dr. McLeod, Rev. Dr. Gates, Rev. J. H. Hughes, Rev. C. W. Hamilton, Rev. J. C. Caldwell, and Rev. Mr. Cahill were given seats in the conference.

Rev. Abram Perry, the delegate to the Nova Scotia conference, then read his report.

Rev. A. J. Prosser stated that Rev. J. P. Floyd, pastor of the Coburg Christian church, had informed him that a standing committee had been appointed at their conference to look after the union with the Baptist conference. This matter, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Floyd, was referred to the delegates.

Rev. Dr. McLeod, who attended the world's Baptist conference as a representative from the N. B. Free Baptist conference, then read an interesting report of his visit.

Brief speeches were made by Rev. Dr. Gates (Baptist), Rev. C. W. Hamilton (Methodist), Rev. J. H. Hughes (Baptist), Rev. Mr. Cahill (Baptist) and Rev. I. B. Colwell of Nova Scotia (Baptist).

Rev. E. H. Cochrane of Fredericton was appointed official reporter of the proceedings for the Intelligence.

A nominating committee composed of the following gentlemen was then appointed: George McLeod, Rev. D. J. Ferguson, Rev. Dr. McLeod, Lt. Col. Alexander and J. E. Sillip.

THE CONFERENCE resumed its session at 7:30 in the church. The moderator occupied the chair, and the business of the evening commenced. The church was filled with delegates and members of the Free Baptist conference. In addition there were several clergymen present of other denominations.

THE NOMINATING COMMITTEE REPORT. The report of the nominating committee was given and passed section by section, there being sixteen sections in all.

The executive report was given by Rev. D. Patterson, corresponding secretary for Sunday schools, gave a report, in which he mentioned that there was some for improvement in the way reports were sent in to the committee. There were enrolled in the first district 273 scholars; in the second district there are 273 scholars; the third district reported an enrollment of 453 scholars; the fourth district, 483 scholars; the fifth district, 487 scholars; the sixth district, 528 scholars. There were no reports from the seventh district.

Rev. A. J. Prosser made a strong appeal for greater interest in the schools among the members of the church, and said that if the teachers stayed away the pupils would not be expected to come.

Rev. A. A. Riddout seconded this in a few choice words. The importance of the Sunday school cannot be over-estimated, said Mr. Riddout. He pointed out that the teaching indicated there puts an ideal before the child. Too many think Sunday schools are just for children, and drop out when they become fourteen or fifteen years of age. He instanced a class of his own, consisting of 40 or 50 members ranging in years from four to twenty. The greatest need was a knowledge of God and of Christ. Next they should know God's word. The Bible is an intensely interesting book if only taken up rightly. Mr. Riddout suggested that the relevancy of the subject should always be kept in mind. The teacher should always be natural, and should never attempt to imitate others.

Rev. A. J. Prosser submitted the report of the home mission board. He pointed out that the two Baptist bodies, especially in rural districts, have been competitive, and after a careful inspection of the work a saving has been made and results have improved. Rev. Dr. McIntyre was the interested in this work. There were eight missionaries in the home field during the past summer. Mr. Prosser made a detailed report on each district. The working of the two bodies has been perfectly harmonious, he said.

Rev. David Long claimed that the men in the home field were not getting enough for their labors, and that extra efforts should be made to provide them with a sufficient amount. He agreed with Rev. B. S. Parker that there were great opportunities in the west, and that the field should be enlarged.

Rev. A. J. Prosser said that one church in Winnipeg gives more for home missions than all the Free Baptist churches in this province. "Is not that true, Dr. McLeod?" he asked.

"It is, but don't mention it," said the reverend doctor, giving a jocular reply. The session was then adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

It was announced that the collections in the Free Baptist churches on Sunday would be given to the sick and disabled ministers' fund.

Following is the report of the treasurer, D. McLeod:

Assets on hand Dec. 29, 1904, $5,415.73. Sum borrowed Mrs. Jos. Parsons 100.00. Interest Gov. Sava's Bank 53.14. Treasurer of the executive 570.00. Paid salaries 150.00. Expressage 75.00. Home missions 60.00. Foreign missions 150.00. Balance, 1905, $4,177.82. Overdue interest, 150.00.

FALL RIVER WORKER'S DEMAND MORE PAY.

FALL RIVER, Oct. 8.—The Fall River Textile Council at a meeting today voted to request the Manufacturers' Association to restore the reduction of 12 1/2 per cent. in wages which was made on July 25, 1904. Secretary Thomas Taylor of the council, was instructed to ask the association to restore the advance on October 12. After the meeting Secretary Taylor said that the nearly expressed at the meeting was about 30,000 in the cotton mills of Fall River, had shared the same fate as that of the cotton cloth trade had reached a stage of prosperity the employees should have some share in the improved conditions.

The margin between the cost of manufacture and the selling price of cloth, it was stated, had now reached 51, where the margin fixed by Gov. Win. L. Douglas, when he acted as arbitrator, just before the close of the great strike last winter was 74.3, a basis which would be reached, the governor decided, before an advance of five per cent. in wages could be given.

KAEN ISLAND WILL BE THE TERMINUS OF OTTAWA RAILWAY.

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—The report from Detroit that Vancouver is to be the terminus of the Grand Pacific railway is, it is announced, not made out of the whole cloth. Kaen Island, in the Skeena River, has been chosen, and the company will not swerve from its decision to make a head point at that point at the junction of a few miles who may desire to speculate in Vancouver city lots.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the Grand Pacific railway, which was held at the Hotel Vancouver, it was decided to make a head point at Kaen Island, in the Skeena River, as a terminus for the line. The company will not swerve from its decision to make a head point at that point at the junction of a few miles who may desire to speculate in Vancouver city lots.

THOUSANDS ATTEND FUNERAL OF DEAD RUSSIAN HERO.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 8.—The arrival of the body of Major General Kondratenkoff, commander of the Seventh East Siberian Rifle, who was killed last December 4, here, was the latest event in the venerable Alexander Nevsky monastery today, were marked by the most impressive military and civil spectacle witnessed since the early days of the war. For once all classes of the population of the capital awakened from their slumber, and were attracted to the news of the battles of Mukden and the Sea of Japan, and the announcement of the conclusion of peace.

Thousands of spectators, standing silent and hushed in a drizzling rain, lined the sidewalks of the city, and the streets were filled with the noise of the funeral procession. The body of the hero was carried to the city hall, and then to the cemetery, where it was buried with the honors of a general.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—The Boston Canadian Club has outgrown its quarters at 15 Beacon street, and it is proposed to lease more commodious rooms at 3 Joy street, near the State House. The annual banquet of the organization, at which several leading Canadian public men are expected to speak, is to be held next month.

SALE BEGINS TOMORROW.

Tomorrow the sale of seats for the Irish Guards' band concert will commence, and in the first few hours there will be a great rush. People are now awakening to the importance of this big musical event and all are eager to secure good seats. To do this it will be necessary to go early and avoid the rush. The success of the band in the west still continues and reports from all points show that such music as is rendered by the Irishmen has never before been heard in Canada. The band is composed of forty-one pieces and the men are all splendidly trained.

ST. JOHN MAN BREAKS JAIL.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—Reuben Simmons of Cambridge, formerly of St. John, has escaped from the Concord, Mass., reformatory, where he had been placed for breaking and entering a building. The Simmons family, most of the members of which have been before the courts here, moved from Pictou, N. S., to St. John some years ago. The mother married George Jones and the pair kept a sailors boarding house of questionable character on Main street. One of the girls is Prudence May Simmons, the so-called "barfot girl," whose escapades have given her considerable notoriety.

MANY KILLED IN MOSCOW RIOTS.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Special dispatches to the London newspapers describe the desperate state of affairs in Moscow on Saturday and Sunday. Many persons were killed or wounded in the rioting on the Tversky Boulevard, at the site of the monument of the poet, Alexander Pushkin, a square fronting on the monastery, where the troops used sabres and rifles, firing point blank into the rioters.

COURT TAKES CHILD FROM CRIMINAL FOSTER MOTHER.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—Judge McKim of the probate court here has decided an interesting case by appointing Rev. Father Charles N. Field, rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist (Episcopal), guardian of a ten-year-old child, ten years ago Mrs. Clara Castel, a negro woman, accidentally met the mother of the little urchin in the street and the child was but 3 months old. Without any idea that her request would be complied with, she asked the mother to give her the child to keep.

The mother was a white woman who was born in Madras, India, but who had drifted to Halifax, N. S., where she met a colored man who became the father of the babe. The mother drifted to New York, where her child was being sent to the same institution a second time two years after her release, she was not allowed to see the child with her again. After serving 23 months she was given her liberty again.

She sought the child, but in the meantime one of the Sisters of Mercy connected with the Leislberg square convent (Episcopal) had discovered the girl, then 5 years old, in a deplorable condition, and had taken her to the farm of a principal of St. Augustine's farm, a place of 140 acres at Foxboro, which is a refuge for destitute children.

There it has been ever since, and the reverend father does not want the child to return to Mrs. Castel, Judge McKim, after a long hearing, gave the guardianship to Father Field, dismissing the petition of the foster mother.

DEER HUNTING IN MAINE.

KINNO, Me., Oct. 8.—The opening of the deer hunting season ended today and is pronounced as having been a highly successful one in the vicinity of Moosehead Lake. Few accidents resulted and same was found plentiful. No accurate figures are obtainable yet, however, owing to the fact that the hunters are so far into the forests that it will be another week before they begin to work out in any great numbers. The influx of sportsmen continues unabated each week bringing new and enthusiastic recruits for the army which has already assembled. Among the new comers are the moose hunters, who are anxious to work into the forests and get settled before the opening of the season, a week from tomorrow.

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]

we quickly agreed among ourselves that Mary and Queen Claude should within an hour go out in Claude's new coach for the ostentatious purpose of hearing mass. Brandon and I were to go to the same little chapel in which June and I had been married. Mary said the little priest could administer the sacrament of marriage and perform the ceremony as well as if he were three as large.

would not let go. "Well, what do you want? Out with it. I suppose I might as well give it up early; you will have a winner or later. Out with it and be done."

Notes by the Editor.—Sir Edwin Caskoden's history differs in some minor details from other authorities of the time. His chronicle says Sir William Brandon, husband of Charles, had the honor of being slain by the hand of Richard III. In the edition of that work, which is as follows: "Charles, created Viscount Lisle, made his escape to France, and was slain by the hand of Richard III. He was buried in the church of St. Dunstons, London."

BASE BALL NOTES.
Bob Dunbar in Boston Journal: Pitcher West, of the Napoleons, is a wonder in many ways. He never took part in a ball game up to two years ago, when his classmates at the Roosevelt, high school selected him for pitcher of their school nine because of his strength and speed. He made good with a vengeance, striking out 24 of another high school nine in one game and attracting the attention of the Knax College baseball manager. He also made good there, and after the college term went back to his family. Last August he pitched for the Gatesburg, Ill. team, and then went to the Burlington, Ia. team, and good head those teams made him seem a valuable man for Cleveland. Manager Larry thinks he will make good. He is a "Rube," and has been to only two theatrical shows, "The Wizard of Oz" and "Raffles." He saw Kyrie Bailey and his company play in "Rube" in this city, and evidently thought the play was really, for he remarked after the escape of "Raffles": "They never catch him now, I'll bet." He is built very strongly, but had no curves until he joined the Napoleons.

DAN PATCH LOWERS WORLD'S RECORD.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 7.—Dan Patch, king of pacers, completed three-quarters of a second from his own, the world's record, of 1:56, negotiating the mile in 1:50.24. A crowd of 10,000 persons were already in a high state of enthusiasm over the breaking of the 1905 race record and the new record was broken successfully, and when Dan Patch's time was hung out excitement approached frenzy.
The great son of Joe Patchen and Zilka appeared for his trial at 4 o'clock; the track was lightning fast, there was no wind and the weather conditions were ideal. Scott Hudson was behind the pace maker. A strip of cloth between the wheels of the forward sulky to prevent dirt being thrown behind, was the only suggestion of wind. Hecsey was behind Dan Patch. The books offered to five either way on the result of the effort. There were cheerers when 25:2 was hung out for the first quarter. Hope was sustained when 51 was posted for the half. In the stretch the pacer still keeping his even swinging stride, the runner at his sulky began to crawl up. Dan Patch made no last supreme effort. He just finished the mile as he had begun it. He had scarcely broken into a sweat when he led back to receive the blaudits of the crowd.
The three fastest heats ever paced marked the 1885 event and the average time for the total heats of the day was the fastest on record. In the initial heat of the 2:01 pace, Hazel Patch gave the Lexington track the 1905 race record of 2:03.4. The next was won by Loomis in 2:02 flat. He likewise claimed the third heat in 2:04.34. Nathan Strauss, the favorite, had to be content with third.
Scott Hudson was in the sulky for the first time this season behind Nervolo. Every favorite was beaten today. In the Wilson stakes, 2:20 class pace, Bolivar won in straight heats. Kid Shay won the 2:18 trot from the heavy favorite Harold Brooks in straight heats. He, Angolia likewise in straight heats. Harold Brooks was favorite in the 2:14 pace, but Grant drove him to a close, though the contest was close. Summary:

D. A. R. TAKES MIDLAND RAILWAY

The Transfer Was Completed on Saturday.

TRURO, N. S., Oct. 8.—Shortly after midnight Saturday a special train arrived from Kentville conveying General Manager Atkins of the Dominion Atlantic Railway, and party, consisting of William Yead, tech. superintendent, F. E. Armstrong, G. P. A., and R. Parker, chief clerk. In making the trip, Mr. Atkins took formal possession of the Midland Railway on behalf of the Dominion Atlantic. He was accompanied by the Midland, Mr. Harris, manager of the line, making the transfer on behalf of his company. At precisely ten o'clock the special, consisting of one first class coach and the private car "Sanspareil," passed on to the Midland tracks at Windsor and proceeded over the line. Stops were made at each station and the agents of the Midland appointed the agents of the new owners.
Effective Monday, 9th October, the line will be operated as the Midland Extension of the Dominion Atlantic Railway Company, over which the jurisdiction of the officers of that company is extended.
It is announced that for the present there will be no change in the train service, the Dominion Atlantic Railway having re-issued the present Midland time table.
Truro halls with satisfaction the conclusion of arrangements between the two companies and views it as one which will reciprocally benefit both eastern and western counties.
While the Midland company, through the personal personality of its manager, Mr. Harris, made warm friends, it is agreed the possession of this piece of road by the older company gives to John the business of the western part of the province owing to the establishment of through freight rates. A direct service to Boston and New York is opened up.
The price paid was a quarter of a million dollars.
MONTRÉAL, Oct. 8.—The transfer of the Midland railway to the Dominion Atlantic railway was officially made here last night.

TERRIBLE RESULTS OF TRAIN COLLISION.

MILLERSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 8.—Three men were killed, one man was injured, and a carload of race horses were either killed or so badly hurt that they had to be shot as the result of a collision at the junction of the Lykens Valley branch of the Pennsylvania railway near this place today.
The dead are: Theodore Scott, Northumberland, freeman.
Ralph Henderson, Northumberland, freight brakeman.
Charles E. Berry, Sunbury, freight conductor.
The injured man is Julius Lesh of Sunbury, engineer, whose leg was crushed and body bruised.
All the victims were married.
The collision was between the fast No. 3 Erie mail train, west bound, and a caboose and box car containing race horses. The mail train was bound from Harrisburg to Erie. It was preceded out of Harrisburg by a fast freight, which, owing to a heavy fog, lost some time. The caboose and box car accidentally uncoupled at the junction and the mail train overtook them. Berry and Henderson were in the caboose when the crash came and were killed instantly. Freeman Scott of the mail train was hurled into the wreckage and also killed. Engineer Lesh of the mail train was thrown from his engine. After the collision the wreckage took fire and the bodies of Berry and Henderson were burned almost beyond recognition.
There were 200 passengers on the mail express, but none was seriously hurt.
The horses were bound for the Bloomsburg, Pa., fair and belonged to several eastern horsemen.

THE DRAKE FORTUNE IS A MYTH.

Hundreds Banished by Former New Brunswick Man, Who Invented the Story and Made Money Out of It.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—Louis Stoughton Drake of Auburn, Mass., compiler of "The Drake Family in England and America from 1380 to 1885," says that the alleged fortune left by Dr. Francis Drake and to which many persons in Canada and the United States were said to be heirs, is a myth. The reported fortune is said to be the creation of one Charles Cory, formerly of New Brunswick. In an interview Mr. Drake says:
"As this wild scheme has broken out once or twice in each generation for the past 150 years, and people of the name all over the country have been swindled out of thousands of dollars by the sale of the will by which I have copies of all the wills by which it passed from one generation to another, which shows that it finally dwindled down to the ancient family house of Buckland Abbey, in the parish of Buckland Monachorum, and a mansion house at Nutwell court, in the parish of Nutwell, Devon, England, and various personal property of little value at the time that it passed out of the Drake family.
"In recent years the prime mover in these efforts to recover the vast Francis Drake fortune," he was said to be, "has been in serious trouble with the U. S. postal authorities in the past. A Boston paper of July 13, 1903, contains an account of his arrest at Nutwell, Devon, England, and his release from prison. He is believed to be the Chicago Cory that had been successful in getting some $40,000 advanced to him by the members of the Cory family on the pretense that he could place them in possession of an estate in England worth $400,000. In Patterson Cory announced that he was heir to large tracts of land in Devon, England, and that he was the great-grandfather, John Drake, and was threatening to enforce his claims unless bought off by the present occupants, and was said to have obtained considerable sums of money. The inspector claimed to find in Cory's possession at that time a satchel filled with copies of Drake and Cory estates in America and England."
"Cory was later heard of in Buffalo and various cities in the west, sending out circulars to the members of the Drake family and offering for a consideration to insure their proving their right to a share of the Francis Drake fortune."

Short Talks on Printing

In looking over the advertising pages of the leading magazines one invariably runs across a sentence something like this: "Illustrated booklet sent on request." "Catalogue Free," or "Send for Booklet!"
How many manufacturing industries, business houses, or business institutions in St. John have their advertising in this manner? Very few, and it's the few that are reaping the harvest.
Think this over, and if it interests you, call us upon Phone 25, and we will call on you with samples of our Catalogues and Booklets. We can print them—illustrated, and profitable business-bringing investments.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR A DECIDED SUCCESS.

MONCTON, Oct. 8.—The exhibition of the Moncton and Fox Creek Agricultural Society, which took place on the grounds of the Moncton Exhibition Association Company on Saturday, was a decided success in point of attendance, some 1,400 people being present. The show of horses was good, but the cattle were poor and other very numerous. Some good roots and vegetables were shown. Dr. McLaughlin's special prize for best driver horse, which was given by Frank Houghton, 32 years, son of Chas. V. Houghton, a wealthy physician, committed suicide today by inhaling gas. After the death of his mother, about 18 months ago, he became melancholy, and this added to brooding over his unrequited love for Mrs. Hood, his sister-in-law, is said to have prompted the deed. He was one time engaged to a young woman who married his brother, and he had several times threatened to end his life.

UNIQUE EXHIBIT OF HOMESPUN & HANDICRAFT

An exhibit and sale of homespun and handicraft work began this morning in the quarters of the Women's Association, in the second floor of the McLaughlin Carriage Co's building, Union street. The exhibit is a large quantity of homespun and is being continued during the week, the closing hour each day being six o'clock.

It is the intention of the St. John ladies to assist the women of this province in finding a ready market for their work on the same lines that are being followed in Quebec and Ontario. It is their ambition to have a permanent depot, but as yet no plans have been made, in fact the matter is very indefinite at present.

The present exhibit is a most creditable one, and to the uninitiated most surprising. It includes a large quantity of habitation homespun and draperies, Indian bead embroidery, Doukhobor and Galician embroideries, Irish lace, etc.

The room in which the exhibit is being made is hung with a variety of coverlets, some in linen, some in wool and all embroidered in original design, those from the Indian market particularly attractive. Of the Habitation's work the wool and flax was hand carded, home spun, hand spun and hand loomed. There are also shown hand spun dress goods.

An excellent display was of Irish point lace and Maltese lace, all made by immigrants, as well as a few specimens of Indian bead work. The Doukhobor exhibit is very attractive and is much admired. The display is so varied and excellent that one will be well repaid by making an inspection of it.

GIRL TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL. Miss Floeste Stubbs, of 204 St. James street, while on her way to the high school this morning, and at the corner of Union and Charlotte streets, was taken suddenly ill. She was picked up unconscious by Officer Ross and carried into Padlock's drug store, where she was attended by Dr. Acry and later sent to her home in a coach. The young lady is about fifteen years of age, and has been suffering very hard, which is supposed to be the cause of her illness.

WATER BOAT DISMASTED. James Knox's water boat was dismantled early Sunday morning. The water boat was moored near the outer end of Walker's slip when the Farmer Packet attempted to make the slip under her own sail. All seemed well, but the tide carried the schooner a little closer to the water boat than the captain planned, with the result that the claw of the schooner's anchor fouled the water boat, carrying away the mast of the smaller craft.

IN JAIL AND OUT. James Curran the ten year old boy who was arrested week before last on the charge of attempting to steal from the till in a Union street beer shop is still in jail awaiting trial and his crying can be daily heard from the cell where the little fellow is confined. Chester Jones who on Wednesday last was arrested for stealing $35 from his room mate Raymond McDougall, was sent to jail being remanded for three days. He was kept in jail until Friday evening when he was brought into the police court and given his liberty.

FORTIS STORIS MAY GO HOME. There are now good chances of Fortis Storis, the unfortunate Greek, being taken back to his native land. He is now in the care of Sheriff Ritchie, and will be there now for a few days, when it is expected that arrangements will be made to send him home. The government has intimated that they will give a small amount towards the case, then there is about $30 belonging to the Greek, and Sheriff Ritchie thinks that some of the charitable societies may help.

BLACKALL SENT UP FOR TRIAL On the Charge of Shooting Dan Taylor.

The Man Was Evidently Suffering From Alcoholism—Ten Saturday Night Prisoners Were Fined

There were ten arrests made by the police on Saturday and Sunday. Of this number eight were taken in for drunkenness, two of them on Sunday, Harry Brown, on the charge of profanity, and Robert Blackall for shooting John Daniel Taylor, were the other two prisoners.

Four of the drunks obtained their liberty before court opened, by making deposits of eight dollars each. The other four drunks were fined eight dollars each, and in dealing with these the magistrate said it was queer how they obtained liquor to get drunk on after hours, although all stated they had procured liquor before the bars closed Saturday evening.

Harry Brown pleaded guilty to using profane language on a street car, and was fined $5. The court room had about its visitors there to hear the trial of Robert Blackall, who, while under the influence of liquor, shot a colored man named John Dan Taylor in the foot.

E. S. Ritchie appeared as counsel for Blackall, and Taylor, who was held as a witness, gave evidence that he was employed by Mr. Jackson, and on Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock was on Union street, making his way towards Union Alley, to cut wood for a lady there. When passing the Opera House he met Blackall, who jumped out of a wagon and pulled out a revolver and shot him in the leg. The bullet hit between the foot. There had been no words between them, and he was sure Mr. Blackall would not hurt him if he knew it. He had never had a quarrel with the prisoner. They had been good friends for a long time.

Sergt. Campbell gave evidence of hearing the shot, and seeing a crowd gathering on Union street. Taylor ran towards him, saying, "Come quick, Mr. Blackall shot me." Blackall was placed under arrest, and after Taylor's wound had been examined in Mr. Hogan's office, on Union street, the two were taken to the police station, where Blackall was locked up and Dr. D. E. Berryman dressed Taylor's wound.

Policeman Marshall in giving evidence, told of hearing the shot and assisting Campbell in making the arrest, and when doing so Blackall was asked what he had done with the revolver, and he replied that he had done away with it. He had never seen Blackall under the influence of liquor before.

The witnesses were bound over to appear and give evidence before the setting of the county court, on the first of November.

The case was then adjourned until this afternoon at two o'clock, when the testimony of Dr. Berryman and a man named Patton will be taken.

E. S. Ritchie asked if his honor would accept bail for the prisoner, but bail was refused until after the hearing. The revolver which caused the trouble was a peculiar looking one. It is not only a shooting iron, but a hole in the butt allows a person to use it as a maul, or to strike with the gun's end, brass with the exception of the chamber, which is of gun metal. The barrel is only about half an inch long. Mr. Blackall said he obtained the gun from an army officer here in 1887. He is very sorry what has occurred and doesn't know why he did it.

Samuel Clifford, turnkey at the county jail, has a revolver which is an exact mate to the one Blackall used. Mr. Clifford took it from a lunatic that had been in jail under his care. The gun has an inscription on it: "My friend Pat, Dec. 1885."

Mr. Blackall is well known in the city, and there is a great amount of sympathy for the trouble he has gotten into. Messrs. W. E. Yroom and W. E. Raymond will probably go his bail for him this afternoon. (See also Page 1)

YACHTING SEASON ABOUT ENDED.

By the look of Millidgeville the yachting season is drawing to a close. Already several white-winged craft are hauled out of the water, and are high and dry in the rear of the club house. More yachts will be taken from their element this week.

Yesterday a small fleet left headquarters about 10 o'clock for a short cruise. After the waters of the Long Reach were journeyed the boats returned to Millidgeville. Several gun-line craft were out and about also, but they took longer trips as wind and tide have no terrors to them.

The marine railway belonging to the R. K. Y. C. has been put in excellent repair, preparatory to hauling-out operations. There is about 175 feet of it, and after the yachts are pulled up on shore, they are placed side by side to right and left of the rails.

While yachting is pretty nearly done for 1905, generally speaking, there are some enthusiasts who will doubtless continue in taking regular outings aboard their boats as late as the last of the month. A number of shooting parties are being planned, to invade marshy and secluded side waters of the St. John, where feathered game is known to be.
