PARLIAMENT. Blair Has to Produce the Information at Last.

It Took an All Night Session to Convince the Minister of Railways .:

That Canadian Commoners Are Made of Sterner Stuff Than His Old Time Followers in the New Brunswick Legislature.

OTTAWA, June 6.-The premier brought down today the correspondence concerning the claims of Prince Edward Island on the dominion. The demands presented this year are sub-stantially as stated by previous dele-gations, with an additional claim of a share of the farburght a share of the fishery award. The latter grows out of the privy council's decision on the jurisdiction of the provinces over coast fisheries, under date March 28, 1899. Mr. Laurier replies, taking up the claims one by one. As to the claim growing out of the failure to provide continuous steam navigation Mr. Laurier thinks that is met by the gurchase of the new steamship that is to go on the route next winter. The larger claim of over two million dollars growing out of underestimate at the time of confederation of the obligations of the rest of the dominion is met by Mr. Laurier's suggestion that the position would be changed if the federal government, would construct a railway from Charlottetown to Murray Harbor. This project, with that of a bridge over the Hillsboro river, is under consideration, and the premier hopes the federal government may be able to make some arrangement on this matter before the session closes. As to the division of the fishery award, Mr. Laurier gives Mr. Davies as his authority for the statement that various legal questions are involved, and that it will be necessary to make up a friendly case and submit it to a competent court. The premier does not see his way clear to take over any more piers' from the province, and does not hold out much hope of concessions on minor points involved in the claim.

The house was in committee this afternoon on Blair's bill giving effect to the agreement with the Grand Montizambert at Grosse Island, stat-ing that on account of disease among-the Doukhobors just arrived it would be necessary to letain the whole party of two thousand in guarantine. The nature of the disease is not stated. A Quebec report says five deaths oc-curred on the passage.

OTTAWA, June 7.—Replying to Mr. Gauvreau of Temiscouata, Hon. Mr. Blair stated that the summer time table of the Intercolonial railway will go into operation June 19. Sir Louis Davies informed Mr. Gan-ong that no one had been appointed special fishery guardian in place of the late C. E. Boardman of Milltown, N. B. Hon. Mr. Blair informed Mr. Bell of Pictou that W. H. Trueman, barrister, of St. John, has not been appointed to any position in the department of railways and canals.

railways and canals. Mr. Ganong moved the first reading of the bill to amend the Weights and Measures Act. He explained that the bill related to the sale of fish by the hogshead. Herring and sardine fish were sold in Charlotte county by this standard. The trouble was that fish so sold were not measured in the hogshead and there was no certainty as to the quantity of fish constituting a hogshead. The bill before the house provided that a hogshead of fish shall equal five parrels of twenty-five gallons each.

The Grand Trunk strike, brought up on a motion of Mr. McLean to adjourn, was discussed till six o'clock. Mr. Powell and Mr. Taylor gave an account of their interview with General Manager Hayes, both stating emphatically that Hayes agreed to take all the men back, and negotiate the subject of wages afterward. They regard the refusal of the company to take all the men back as a distinct violation of the agreement. The discussion was going on at dinner hour. Discussion of the Grand Trunk strike was resumed after recess and continued until 10 o'clock. The house went again into committee on the Grand, Trunk bill and made some progress with the several sections of the schedules.

NOTES. The minister of agriculture is .informed today that there are ten cases of smallpox among the Doukhobors at Grosse Isle.

COLLECTOR COSTIGAN'S CASE. Inspector Barrett of the Manitoba inland revenue district testified today concerning the affair of ex-Collector Costigan. He said that Mr. Costigan to the agreement with the Grand Trunk for extension co Montreal. The house remained in committee during the afternoon and evening, A large part of the time was devoted to a fruitless attempt to get the details and reports on which Mr. Blair had stated the cost of certain bridges and rights of way on the route. Mr. Blair had stated that he had this informa-tion from his engineer, but declared that he had no statement of the enginight came. Towards noon Sir Charles Tuppes came in, and the premier in the course of the morning succeeded Sir Louis Davies as leader of the house. A cabinet council was held in 'the afternoon, and shortly after Sir Wil-fred Laurier went over to Sir Charles Tupper and told him that Mr. Blair desired to make a statement. Mr. Gillies of Richmond, N. S. was then in the midst of a speech, but at a hint from Sir Charles he brought it to a close.

He had ob-tained from the Grank Trunk the re-turn asked for and would be glad to con municate it to the house. He did so, giving the figures in full as for so, giving the he had them. giving the figures in full, as far as Sir Charles Tupper expressed satisfaction that a way had been found out of the difficulty, and stated that though the dead-lock had arisen after though the dead-lock had arisen after he left the chamber last night, he was confident that the opposition had acted within its rights. Mr. Foster had stated to him privately that if the information asked for was given, the discussion could soon be closed. Sir Charles saw no reason why it should Charles saw no reason why it should now continue much longer.

Recess was then taken till three o'clock, when the committee again met, and after two hours' discussion reported the bill.

The house was in supply till six, passing the remainder of Sir Louis. Davies' estimates, when it adjourned for the night.

NOTES. The senate stands adjourned till next Tuesday.

The secretary of state announces that the government telegraph line to Dawson will be completed this year. Sir Mackenzie Bowell again asks for correspondence between the federal and provincial governments regarding amendments to provincial fran-chise acts, giving appeal to judges from the revisors.

Mr. Blair and Mr. Fielding do Not Agree Relative to Provincial Prosperity.

Mr. Powell and Mr. McLennan Dispute Some Conclusions Reached by the Minister of Railways.

OTTAWA, June 2 .- Mr. Blair gave the house another four hours' exposition of the Montreal extension scheme yesterday. The time was sufficient to cover pretty well the whole matter of the contract with the Grand Trunk, which was described in a recent letter. The minister of railways did not devote his four hours to this business The one thing that would have been new to the members and seemed most to require fresh explanation, was not touched. Two years ago Mr. Blair introduced this same resolution, but with variations. That resolution was not accepted by the senate. The chief difference between the first bargain and the second one is in relation to the adjustment of the maintenance expenses and the payment for betterments. The contract has been amended in these two respects as follows:

As to maintenance: By the original agreement the Intercolonial was to pay one half of the cost of the maintenance of the terminus, the bridge, and the 35 miles of railway from the bridge to Ste, Rosalie. According to Mr. Blair's statement the proportion of traffic handled by the two contracting parties is one to 25. So that by the first bargain the Intercolonial, though using the road one twenty-fifth part as much as the Grand Trunk, would pay an equal share for maintenance The present agreement divides the maintenance charges in proportion to traffic. It would have been interesting to learn from the minister of railways with the experience of one year's operation what the financial result of this change would be. Mr. Blair never mentioned it. He never even intimated that there was such a change.

As to betterments. The original bargain provided that if additions or new tracks or any other increase in permanent plant was required on the property used jointly, the Grand ately as large as the Intercolonial. The other roads have no Drummond company should make the im-ments and should charge the provements provements and should charge the Intercolonial five per cent. interest on half the cost. The present arrange-ment is that the cost shall be divided in proportion to use, and that the rate of interest shall be four per cent. in-stead of five. This is an essential increase if the extension had not been the contract never even mentioned ft. He was hampered by the reflection that if he boasted of the great improvement he had made in the bar-gain he would condemn the old out and justify the senate in defeating it. He defended the old measure two years ago as the best railway bargain ever made in Canada. He defends the present measure in precisely the same terms. If this bill is thrown out he will probably come down two years hence with a new bargain reducing the rental from five per cent, to a three per cent. basis, or from $140,000 a year to $84,000. Then he will tell us again that this was the greatest bargain ever made by any minister in Canada, and that he has achieved the proudest moment in his life. But no person who heard Mr. Blair speak yesterday would suppose that he ever made more than one Grand Trunk contract. The minister of railways devoted an hour and more to the condemnation of the present traffic arrangement made with the Canadian Pacific rail way by the late government He has been asserting that these arrangements forbade Intercolonial officers from canvassing for their own road as against the Canadian Pacific Rallway Co. Mr. Haggart has met this statement with a prompt and empha-tic contradiction. There is not a word in that agreement to prevent the In-tercolonial officers canvassing for their own road in their own territory; or any other territory. The clause which Mr. Blair condemned is an agreement that the officers of the Intercolonial in canvassing for traffic shall not favor either the Grand Trunk or the Canadian Pacific as against the other line. The Intercolonial delivers traffic to both railroads, one at St. John and the other at Quebec, and by the agreement the Intercolonial was to be neutral as between the two companies. Mr. Blair deliberately stated that the officers were compelled to be neutral as between the Intercolonial and the C. P. B. and this statment he undertook to defend yesterday. R He could only say that it was often to the advantage of the Intercolonial to send its traffic by the Grand Trunk, and therefore the neutrality clause was injurious. He might have gone on to say that it was sometimes to the advantage of the Intercolonial to us the Canadian Pacific instead of the Grand Trunk. On the whole, he did not seem to make much of a case, even when he said that the Intercol-onial officers at Moncton had been restrained from boarding the train at that point and canvassing travellers who had tickets for Montreal by way of St. John to exchange their tickets for others by way of Quebec. Of course this would be a violation of neutrality and of the agreement, and Mr. Haggart emphatically declared that the Intercolonial people had nd business to do it, any more than they would have to board a train at Camp-bellton and induce the passengers to go around by St. John and the C. Now this gain, Mr. Blair with an idea. The collision was so says, cannot be accounted for in any serious and unexpected that it caused other way than by reason of the undue excitement on the part of the man who was hit. The force of the blow drove Col. Mr. Blair meets this with the separated him from these more im-portant affairs and made it possible claim that while the Canadian Pacific, the Grand Trunk and other failroads for him to attend to such trivial mat- as was shown by the great deliberahad gained traffic by reason of the activity of business and the growing ters as his own character.

singular that this bill should have been allowed to run five years with-out being collected. It also struck him as a singular fact that the money was raid to Col. Domville and not to Milton Barnes, and further that the cheque given to the colonel for Mr. Barnes was cashed by the colonel himbridges on the three price system sup- self in Ottawa the same day or the posed to be the exclusive copyright day after he got it. Another remarkof Mr. Emmerson. Another, bridge able fact was that Mr. Barnes did not give a receipt for the amount until attention was called to the matter and Col. Domville had returned from his jubilee trip to England, which he was about to take when the cheque was issued. With this record in the auditor general's report the public accounts committee, whose business it is to examine the accounts mentioned in the report, naturally proceeded to look into the matter.

It will be remembered that Col. Panet, the deputy minister, testified that the payment of money to one person when it was due to another was unusual, and further stated that he was not disposed to pay this bill, but 'was made to feel the force of a member of parliament." Subsequent evidence given by Mr. Barnes showed that no money was due him at the time the payment was made, and that he never got the money at all. The rent for the armory had been paid him by the officer in charge of the arms as the rent accrued. This officer testified that he had paid the rent out of his care of arms allowance, as is the custom, and which justified the shrewd guess of the auditor general. Major Wedderburn, the officer in charge of the arms, it will be remembered, testified before the public accounts committee last year that he and Colonel Domville had talked over ways and means for Col. Domville's jubilee trip, and that he told the colonel that if he could get the $500 he might have the use of it and welcome. The claim, nowever, was made in the name of J. Milton Barnes, and the money was paid to Col. Domville direct. Foor Col. Panet supposed in his innocence that he was paying the long deferred claim of the owner of the building. When these facts were brought out with some testimony to show the basis of the claim made for the $60 a year for the rent, the matter was ready to be reported. But it was held over, as mentioned above, in order to give Col. Domville an opportunity to justify his course. His statement that the matter was not brought up in the public accounts committee until he had gone is only partly correct, Col. Domville was hovering around this side of the continent when the investigation began, and it began not very long after the public accounts committee had been called by its chairman and set to work. It would have been very difficult to catch Col. Domville in Ottawa last session after Mr. McMullen had got his committee down to business. But that circumstance is neither here nor there. The colonel is now at hand. The business is not concluded, and though he had not shown any undue precipitancy until struck by yesterday's cyclone, he is still in the position to state his case in his tempest uous fashion to a listening and ex-

To my mind these suggestions that Mr. Greenshlelds might discover an opportunity from the remarks made in the house is rather entertaining. So far as is known, Mr. Greenspields has been quite equal to the discovery of any opportunity there might be and if any member of parliament can find out a point of advantage that Mr. Greenshields has not seen, he deserves to be decorated with many medals.

feature in the case. The senate has a claim on the country not hitherto to the Drummond company of $6,000 a year, which that company was under obligation to pay the Grand Trunk for the use of the junction at Chaudiere. By the new deal the government escapes this payment altogether. Mr. Blair made no boast of this achievement. He could not do it, because every improvement on the old bargain is a rebuke to himself and a praise to the senate for rejecting the old agreement. But this little item, time, the Intercolonial had no such advantage. He asserted that there was no improvement in business in the maritime provinces, which were in no etter condition as to trade than any time in the last ten years. As the Intercolonial runs through Quebec provnce to Montreal, he would have to make the same statement in regard to that part of the country in order to justify his position

Now here is where Mr. Blair comes in conflict with the finance minister. A few weeks ago Mr. Fielding declarcd that there was a great revival of business and wonderful prosperity in every part of the dominion from Cape Breton to Vancouver. Mr. Fielding admitted that the maritime provinces had not their full share of this prosperity, but claimed that they had a good deal of it. Mr. Blair says they have had none. On this point Mr. Powell agrees with Mr. Fielding, insofar as the latter's observations have a bearing on Intercolonial traffic. Mr. Powell says that he could himself mention several elements which have gone to increase the traffic on the Intercolonial in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. He spoke of trade in coal between Springhill and St. John and in goods between St. John and Parrsboro which had diverted from the Basin of Minas route. He told of the large development of traffic towards Cape Breton on account of the completion of the Newfoundland railroad and the estabishment of better steamboat connections between that island and Sydney. He mentioned the increased operations of the Dominion Coal Company and the enormous traffic in supplies forwarded from other points to Cape Breton in that connection. He told of the change in the operations of the iron works at Ferrona, which were hauling coal from Cape Breton. Fin-ally, he reminded Mr. Blair of the increase in local rates on the Intercolonial made under the Harris dispensation, all of them retained for a time and some of them still in force in whole or in part.

But to return to Mr. Blair. Having proved, if we accept his proof, that the Montreal extension brought this additional traffic, he went on to show that the property acquired was cheap at the price. There is a wider divergence of opinion between Mr. Blair and some other members as to the cost of providing the link between Ste. salle, which is the western end of the Drummond railroad, and Mont-real. This 35 miles of line Rory Mc-Lennan, an old contractor, says he could build for a half million dollars. Mr. Blair says it would cost $1,685,000 He had it over two millions one tim last evening, but discovered when Mr. Foster had asked him a few questions that he had made a mistake of $500,000 in his calculation. This trifling error did not disconcert the minister very much, but it seemed to 'hrow a little doubt upon his skill as a calculator.

Mr. Blair figures out $15,000 a mile

It was in the interest of Col. Domville himself that the committee postponed the discussion and the report on this armory transaction. Sir Louis Davies, who on one occasion in London rushed to the support of Col. Domville with the assurance that he was a reliable and capable administrator of capital, urged last year that Col. Domville should have a hearing before his case was judged. Mr. Foster supported the proposition. Everybody was anxious that the colonel should be heard from, and so the mat-ter stood over. It was supposed that at the beginning of this session the colonel would be more than ready to appear and tell his story. He has, however, continued to possess his soul in patience until the idea struck him yesterday. When he did come, he came suddenly and wanted to get right to work. It was pointed out, however, that an order from must first be procured, and houge Colonel Domville postponed till the afternoon the continuation of his remarks.

Then he appeared to be rather more impetuous than he was earlier in the day. He informed the house, which had begun to be amused, that some member whom he had driven out of Kings county had been making charges against him. This member had waited until he was gone last year before making the charges. He was evidently afraid to meet Colonel Domville. But now the member in cuestion had got to face the music. The colonel would make him take the responsibility of his charges. Mr. Foster would not be allowed to hide behind anybody. Not only must he back up the charges made by himself but also the allegations made by the Sun newspaper. Colonel Domville inimated that Mr. Foster was the editor of the Sun, which spoke of the affair as the "Domville scandal." Col. Domville would not allow Mr. Foster the offer. to hide behind Col. Markham. The member for Kings seems to have discovered Mr. Foster in the st of so concealing himself and therefore auled him out. He also appears to some sort of idea that Col. have Markham had been making charge in the public accounts committee. There was a refreshing air of bravado in the attitude and utterances of the gallant colonel, who made repeate attacks in his dashing cavalry fashon. When it was over everybody miled and nobody made a sp Mr. Foster cheerfully remarked "earried," and the order of reference was ed. Col. Domville withdraw with DASS a wild dash under cover of the smake and proceeded to deliver the balance of his oration to such friends in the corridors as could not get away. Col. Domville appears to be strug-gling under a series of delusions. Any charges that are made against him are implied in the correspondence in the auditor general's report for 1897. Mr. McDougall got his eagle eye on a bill for $500 for five years' armory rent, presented in the name of J. Milton Barnes, and gaid by cheque

the impetuosity of Col. Domville's charge that took the breath out of the house of commons, but his departure to be seen no more in the chamber was followed by an awful pause in public business. Mr. Blair got his Drummond railway bill a stage advanced, and his Grand Trunk bill was moved a little further along the road. Mr. Kaulbach in a short but forcible speech called attention to the serious responsibilities which the government was undertaking, while Mr. Fore projected a scheme which rather took the minister by surprise. Mr. Pope will be remembered as one of the conservatives who supported the purchase of the Drummond railway. He says now that he is not quite satisfied with the way in which Mr. Blair has managed affairs, and he cannot understand why the minister has failed to keep his undertaking to give the result of the first year's operation of the extension to Montreal. Mr. Pope has an idea that there has always been too much politics in the Intercolonial management. He approves of Mr. Harris, the late traffic manager, wherein he differs from Mr. Blair, who deemed him an unprofitable or at least an unsuitable servant, and paid him an extra $2,500 to depart from the government employ. But Mr. Pope says that Mr. Harris would have got along all right if the people who live along the line had not been accustomed to get favors in the way of low freight. Finally Mr. Pope made a proposition that he would lease the whole Intercolonial system himself. He would run it in good shape, keep it well equipped. and pay a net rental of $200,000 a year to start with, increasing it to $400,000 after 20 years. At the rate which Mr. Blair paid to the Grand Trunk Mr. Pope ought to contribute several millions a year. This is probably the reason why Mr. Blair did not accept

The minister of railways, while the bill was before the committee, was asked whether he intended to buy the brummond County rolling stock. He said he had no such idea. A snow plough and some tools had been bought, and that was all. Mr. Foster ointed out that 'he agreement seemed to provide for such a purchase, but Mr. Blair did not think the company were pressing that feature of the con-tract. He could not say that they would not do so in the future. Mr. Foster appeared to have some apprension that Mr. Greenshields would not allow this opportunity to pass, and Mr. Blair suggested that perhaps the claim would be made now that Mr. Foster had suggested it. Sir Charles Tupper asked the minister whether he really meant to say that a member of parliament should not call attention to any feature of a contract for fear the contractor should take advantage of the suggestion, and Mr. Foster observed that there was no way that he knew of to discuss a public contract without discussing it.

Mr. Blair took back the intimation, Mr. Blair figures out $15,000 a mile for land damages over this 35 miles, col. Domville for Mr. Barnes. It struck the auditor general as a little admitting that the opposition mem-try comes out of it with a loss of $1,-000 largely paid to "the liberal and recommended to conduct the friend" prosecution which did not prosecute.

OTTAWA, June 5.-The position of the Alaska boundary question is somewhat explained by the cable this morning. It appears that the situation is more involved than was supposed, but the disposition of parlia-ment on both sides of the house will be to support the Canadian government in the position that it has taken So far as can be learned the British foreign office has not suggested that the Canadian contention is an ex-treme one, and there is no evidence to show that Salisbury would have gone any farther in the way of conc to the United States than Sir Wilfrid Laurier was willing to go. The Unit-ed States demand, so far as can be understood, is nothing more nor less than the proposition that the question of the boundary shall be submitted to arbitration with the preliminary understanding that the United States shall have all the disputed territory on the coast. Some of these settle ments which the United States claims by right of occupation are very recent, and were made after the dispute as to ownership had arisen. It will appear that the British government and the Canadian commissioners went pretty far when they offered to allow occupation of 50 years to be regarded as possession.

One lesson this ministry has learned at this stage will probably be useful For some eighteen years Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his friends have been de nouncing the conservative government for not making a success of their negotiations with the United States. They have told the country that a change of government would result in a satisfactory reciprocity treaty and the settlement of all disputes between the two countries. Sin Wilfrid Laurier himself, not only in Canada but in the United States, indermined the position of the Canadian government by asserting that our construction of treaties and our regulations as to fisheries and other matters was harsh and unneighborly. Sir Wilfrid in opposition held out to the United States the hope that when he came in power they would have no trouble in their dealings with this ountry. Now that he has the responsibility of government and stands in terror of a Canadian people who will not allow their rights to be sacrificed, he understands the position of pre-vious governments. Sir Wilfrid began in a bad way. He gave the United States all the tariff concessions that country could possibly ask, and got nothing in return. Since then he and his colleagues have been hovering around Washington trying in vain to negotiate. Now that Sir Wilfrid has joined issue on one question he has shown that he could not depart from the position of the late ministry. The one agreeable feature in his present circumstances is the fact that the opposition of today is doing all that it can to help him out, whereas Sir Wilfrid as an opposition leader did all 'he

The recent boom in the molasse market is likely to be revived shortly The reason given is that there is only about six thousand puncheons of this year's molasses product left in Barbados. A Montreal firm has had a re-presentative in the islands for some time, and his report is that if the remaining nolasses in Barbados can be purchased at the present slump from sixteen cents to fourteen, the market in Canada will be controlled from three points, namely, St. Johns, Nfid., Halifax and Montreal. Two more sailing boats have just left Barbados for this port, the bark Stranger, a 600 ton craft, the largest yet sailed and the schooner Alert, both with cargoes of molasses

WOLFVILLE, June 5 .- The eighth annual business meeting of the Alumnae society of Acadia seminary took place in class room "A" of the seminary on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Otis Reddin, vice-president, occupied the chair in the absence of the president, Miss Laura Sawyer, The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $92, which was appropriated towards the debt on the furnishings. In view of the fact that Miss Winifred Crowell, our esteemed teacher of some years, has tendered her resignation and will sever her connection with the seminary, Mrs. Trotter moved that Miss Crowell be made a life member of the society by the association. This passed unanimousy. Mrs. Ralph Eaton announced that the sum of $40 had been raised by the Kentville Baptist church and old students, the money to be used to furnish a room in the seminary to be called "Kentville." Also that the sum of $40 had been raised by the class of 1883 to furnish a room to be called "Class of '83." CLASS DAY. Class day exercises are becoming one of the marked features of the anniversary at Wolfville. On Tuesday morning the class of '99 held their last session as a class in college hall, which was crowded with an expectant audience. The students, in their gowns, occupied the platform, above which was draped the class flag with the motto, "Palmam qui Meruit Ferat." The opening address by the president, A. B. Webster of Coldbrook welcomed the visitors and thanked the people of Wolfville and others for kindness and hospitality tendered to them during the four years.

The roll call by Miss Clarke gav chance for witty remarks by the different members of the class when answering to the names of those who had failed to complete their course. A tribute of respect was paid to Sandford Doleman, a classmate who had died, suddenly, at Acadia during his sophomore year.

The class history was a humorous account of the joys and sorrows, adventures and doings of the class of '99 from the green freshman to the stately senior. This paper was thoroughly witty and much enjoyed. The prophecy by Charles Crandall, Wolfville, was a peep into the future 20 years hence, of his class mates. He began by saying that "He died," and in spirit he beheld his old class mates in different walks of life. This was very original and contaired local hits which elicited much applause. Dr. Sawyer then made an eloquent address, giving much information as to the high class grade of work done in the seminary. He gave a history of the struggles for existence of an in-stitution for the higher education of women, and made a strong appeal for organized effort by the women of the province for assistance in the grand work of giving to our girls equal advantages with their brothers.

A piano solo by Miss Bessie Triles of Sussex, and one by Miss Lidia Munroe were much enjoyed.

The names of the graduating class are: Mabel McLaughlin, Lower Econemy; Winifred Robbins, Yarmouth; Mary Kinlay, Port Hilford; Mary Schurman, Truro; Sarah Calhoun, Calhoun's Mills, N. B.; Bessie Mc-Mann, Moser River; Emily Christie, River Hebert; Alice Bates, St. Stephen, N. B.; Edith Shand, Windsor; M. Grace Esterbrook, Sackville, N. WOLFVILLE, N. S., June 7 .- On Wednesday morning assembly hall was crowded to the doors with an expectant throng to witness the graduation of the class of '99. The class flag was draped above the platform with "Acadia, Palmam qui Meruit Ferat." The flags of the preceding classes were draped about the hall. The long procession of governors, nembers of the senate, alumni, faculty and the graduating class was an im pressive sight as they filed into the hall, clad in cap and gown. The members of the seminary, the friends of the faculty and of the graduating class filled the galleries, while the class of '99 occupied the front seats in the main hall.

The following programme was suc cessfully carried out:

ARTS

The annual exhibition of the art department of Acadia Seminary took partment of Acadia Seminary took place on Wednesday p. m. The decoration of the room, the walls of which were draped in soft folds of pale green and white bunt-ing, wreathed with apple blossoms, presented a highly artistic appearance. The work of the department consisted of freehand drawing from type models, still and life, and casts charcoal, pencil and pen and ink; charcoal drawings from antique; oil and water color painting and china painting.

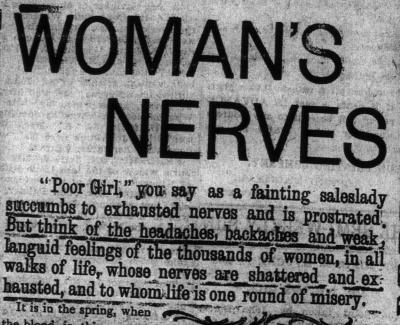

In freehand drawing, the work of Miss Irene Rand deserves special: mention. In cast drawing, a Slave's Head, by Miss Elnor Smith; Dog's Head, by Miss Cunnabel, and Monk. by Miss Helen Crawley.

In oils, a Study of Lilacs, by Miss Elnor Smith. The work of Miss Ella Atkinson was also very creditable. The exhibit of water colors was especially, attractive, consisting of copies artistically rendered and stud-Study of cyclamen and copy of yellow study of cyclamen and copy of yellow roses by Miss Elnor Smith; also mar-ine and landscape studies by Miss! A large tray of roses and handsome berry dish, by Miss Annie Glennie; a dainty tea set in mild flowers, by Miss Elliot Smith; an exquisite lemonade pitcher in grapes and leaves, by Miss Roberta Christie; a plate of roses and vase of oak leaf decoration, by Miss Lillie Webster; a vase with poppy de-sign, by Miss Lillie Harris, and a celery dish, by Miss Bessie Trites, were among the most attractive pieces in the china exhibit. A fine new kiln for firing china has this year been added to the studio equipment.

CONVERSAZIONE. The conversazione in College Hall on Wednesday evening was a brilliant and enjoyable function. The hall was lilled with distinguished visitors from the blood is thin, watery, and diseased, that the nerves are starved and exhausted for want of proper nourishment. Every spring the majority of women struggle against the weakness of exhausted nerves, gradually growing more nervous and irritable, gradually growing paler; thinner and weaker, as the days go by. Energy, appetite and vigour disappear. One is too nervous to sleep. The nerves of the delicate female organism are powerless to control the natural functions, and menstruation is either profuse or suppressed and painful, causing a further loss of vital force and weakness of the system. Is it any wonder that women become irritable? Is it any wonder that they worry over trifles and become pale, thin, and weak?

is it any wonder that beauty fades and they lose interest in life and become despondent ?

TAR AND FEATHERS.

How Evangelists Are Treated Just Across the Border.

Evangelist Geo. W. Higgins, who since March last has been preaching at Levant, Maine, a crusade of self-denial, fasting, humiliation, and utter dependence on faith for salvation, has een warned several times to leave the place. It was charged against him that he had induly influenced a family named Clement, whose members became converts, and got them to divert their fine property to the church with Higgins as manager. Both he and the Clements deny this, but Mr. Higgins admits his ability to cast out devils, and the claracter of some of the meetings held by him and his fey adherents has led the other people of Levant to declare that his converts are fit subjects for the lunatic asy lum. So they warned him to leave the place. He assured them that he would not go until God told him. To hasten matters a mob of about two hundred went to the Clement house, took Mr. Higgins away, tarred and feathered him, and gave him a long ride on a fence rail. After they left him, he went back and the Clement household spent the hight picking off the feathers and removing the tar. Mr. Higgins says he will stay. Another evangelist who served 18

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 10, 1899.

MR. WHITE'S BILL.

The point taken by John Black, ex-M. P. P., with reference to the recent Revisors' Act is ridiculed by Attorney general White in one breath, while in the next one he practically admits that there may be a good deal in it. Mr. Black's contention is that owing to a defect in the bill it will not become operative until next year, and that therefore the revisors appointed by the county councils will continue in office for this year. When asked what the effect would be if the lists were revised by the revisors appointed by the councils, Mr. White declined to express an opinion, and in so doing he gives away his case. Mr, Black is by no means alone among legal men in the opinion he has expressed. Naturally Mr. White and his colleagues would like to overawe the county councils into accepting their views, but in that they will meet with difficulty.

In connection with this matter, it would be interesting to know the re-lation to the Revisors' Act of an occurrence at Hampton just prior to the last election. A number of names presented on Mr. White's behalf to be added to the lists were thrown out by the judge. A sheriff, being at the mercy of the government, might be much more likely to overlook objections in such a case. Possibly this occurred to Mr. White at the time, and possibly it had some bearing on the legislation which followed.

THE TRANSVAAL.

From the tenor of the despatches it appears that President Kruger of the Transvaal is not disposed to grant ustice to the Uitlanders. They ask a easonable measure of repre in the government of the country, and the purpose of Sir Alfred Milner at the conference just closed was to prevail upon Kruger, if possible, to grant them some concessions. This the old gentleman appears to have declined to do. He was not disposed to discuss this matter apart, from some others relating to the affairs of the Transvaal, with which it was in no way connected. Oom Paul has had things pretty much his own way in recent years, and the ill-advised Jameson Raid strengthened his position. He probably believes that the British government will not go to extremes and possibly hopes for German intervention should a crisis be reached But Germany has no just ground for interference, and would hardly care to involve herself in war to uphold the arrogance of a people who are denving to a section of their fellow citizens the right to a share in the government of a country to whose welfare and prosperity they contribute so much. It may be necessary to teach the Boer chieftain and his people a salutory lesson, and in the event of trouble there is little likelihood of a repetition of the mistakes of 1880-81. either in the conduct of the British campaign or the subsequent proceedings. Paul Kruger is an able man, But he cannot stand forever in the way of that progress which British enterprise has given and is giving to his country.

occurred near here on Monday moraing about six o'clock. The steamer Bustler started from Newcastle for the South West to bring a raft down. When shout a mile above the bridge, the young fire-man, William Dunnett, while reaching over the side of the boat to bring up a pail of vater, lost his balance and fell overboard. When the alarm was sounded Captain Travis reversed the engine and lowered a boat, which im-mediately filled, and therefore had to be abandoned, cutting off all help from that quarter. A raft's boat which was near at hand might have save the drowning lad if they had rendered timely assistance. By the time Captain Travis had secured a boat and reached the spot the man had disappeared.

News was sent his mother, and friends and relatives went in search of his body, which was found on Tuesday and taken to his home in Whitney ville. The funeral, which was the lar-gest ever seen in this place, took place Wednesday at two o'clock, His gest ever seen in this place, took place Wednesday at two o'clock. His remains were interred in the Presby-terian cemetery at Whitneyville. Ser-vice was held at the house up his pastor, Rev. J. D. Murray, assisted by Rev. E. C. Baker, Newcastle. The procession was about three quarters of a mile in length. If was headed by the Foresters, of which order he was a member. The ball bearers were taken from among his young friends: Messrs. E. Adams, D. McTavish, W. Sherard Allison, H. Allison and E. Allison. The Foresters conducted the service at the grave, which was very impressive. William Durnett was a young man who was loved and respected by all with whom he came in contact. The ad event has cast a gloom over the whole community of Newcastle. Great sympathy is felt for his sorrowing mother, brother and sisters. He was the son of the late David Dunnettis a Amily highly respected. A Market Street, A Market A Market Street, Str Dr. M. H. HOPEWELL HILL, June 5 .- The last Methodist quarterly meeting of the fiscal year was held in the church at the Hill on Saturday, 3rd inst. Very little business was transacted. It is said that the conference will be pe titioned to allow Rev. Mr. Comben to remain on the circuit another year. During his three years' occupancy, Mr. Comben has won the esteem of all classes of citizens.

SUSSEX, N. B., June 7 .- Marshall Price, previously mentioned in these notes as being seriously ill, died yesterday afternoon. The deceased was a son of the late M. Price of Havelock, Kings Co., and leaves a wife, six sone and one daughter to mourn. Three sons and one daughter died some time ago. The sons living are: Street Price of Still Water, Minnesota; John J. and Frank of Atlantic Highlands, New Jersey; Walter of Boston. H. B. and his sister Ella reside in Sussex and Mrs. Beverly Cusack in Havelock. The deceased, though belonging to Have-lock, did nuch business in Sussex and adjoining parishes, and was very much respected. He was a member of the Baptist church, and in politics a staunch liberal. He was in the sixtyfourth year of his age.

Judging from preparations being made for the exhibition to be held here in October next, it will be the inest ever held in Sussen. The Exhibition and Driving Park Association are inviting tenders for the construction of a race track, half a mile lorg, oval shaped; on lands own-

BORDER TROUBLES.

BOSTON, June's.-Captain Lurchin of the schooner Good Templar, seized on May 11 by the United States authorities on a charge of carrying smuggled fish from Maine to Boston, has filed an answer to the information filed by District Attorney Jones in the United States court, and also a bond, the sureties being F. J. Kimball and W. D. Rudd. The captain admits that he unloaded the fish in Boston and sold it, but asserts that he bought herring at Lubec. Me., and pollock at Eastport, Me., of responsible packers and dealers in open market, paying full market value, and without knowledge that they had been smuggled. Some 20 quintals of the pollock he says he bought from G. M. Hanson, collector of customs for the district of Passamaquoddy, Maine, at a public auction of smuggled goods which had been seized.

theatre, and within hearing distance is a Chinese concert hall, the music which would put one to sleep especially if one were to occupy the hall, which is densely filled with opium smoke. This section of New York is known to be one of the worst in the city, a veritable cesspool of iniguity into which hundreds of unfortunate and abandoned women plunge every week, and whose rescue is humanly speaking only possible through the efforts of the New York Rescue band, under whose auspices the Chinatown mission 's operated. The Hope Mission school has called together from the slums of Chinatown and the dirty curbstones of "Shinbone alley" into its Sunday school the ragamuffins of that wretch ed quarter; there are Italians, Chinese, Irish, Americans, Jews, Ger mans and negroes; some are halfbreeds, some have never known a parent's love or care, some indeed did not know who their parents were and had scarcely come under any training or discipline other han that enforced by kicks cuffs and curses. Several of the children have brothers in reformatories and parents in prison, and the cunning of the street gamin is everywhere in evidence, while on al-most every little face is the impress of hardness. Many are forbidden to come to the Sunday school, but unknown to their Jewish or Catholic parents they come and help sing the songs of redeeming grace and listen to the sweet story of Jesus and ilis love. In his annual report for 1896 the secretary of the mission reports the average attendance at the Sunday school 150. while in 1897 there was a slight decrease from these figures 'It is also stated that a profound impression for good has been made in this community, where vagrants and outcasts abound. One feature of this work deserving mention is a sewing school for the girls, who in certain cases received the garments each had made from materials furnished by the mission as an inspiration to progress. The Sunday school work in this mission is conducted much the same as in church Sunday schools of a similar size. A large number of the children are given a vacation in the country in the summer, and special attention is shown the school at Thanksgiving and Christmas. In these ways are a few of Christ's disciples endeavoring to guide to the Saviour the little feet that wander aimlessly amid the scenes of vice and degradation of Chinatown.

It was with considerable pleasure that 1 visited last fall the Five Points House of Industry on Worth street .: New York, an institution gathering under its roof more than 400 adults and children daily, having among its objects the following, which I copy from their printed report: "It provides a temporary home for children who are orphans or whose parents are unable to care for them."

"It offers a cheap boarding place for day are what they are because of the House of Industry. Passing to mission work in St. John. where it has been my privilege .D labor for upwards of nine years in a on known now as Murray Street Raptist Mission, I can bear witness to the need of mission work even in our own city, where such unfavorable circumstances as those cited above do not 'appear, but where, nevertheless, good and effective Sunday school work may be done among some who otherwise might not have the Gospel message presented to them. In the Murray street mission it has been found that it is next to impossible to reach the Roman Catholic element in the neighborhood of the work. It is quite evident that the parents of Roman Catholic children prohibit them from attending any of the services held in the mission building, and it has even been intimated by some of the children that their priests have also had voice in the matter. During its existence a marked hange has taken place in the complexion of this mission, so that at the present day the air of respectability noted in the Sunday school is such as one expects to find in those connected with our churches. I am satisfied that the mission is responsible for the change within the school, but whether or not it has been a factor in the improvement of the community without I do not say. However, the fact remains that a good work has been done in the locality where the mission is estabished, so that what was once known as the "Home of the Forty Thieves" is now a comparatively respectable neighborhood.

What was once a hindrance to our work and a cause of much annovance. namely, the disturbance raised by the so called "tough" element, is now a thing of the past, and the work of the mission presents no obstacles other than those occurring in the Sunday school elsewhere.

Mission workers find in their Sunday schools that success depends largely on the faithfulness with which certain principles of Sunday school work are carried out; every teacher and officer in his place on time, every time with a knowledge of his class and his lesson defles failure. The teacher's meeting; visiting scholars in their homes; providing a good substitute in sase of enforced absence from the class, and personal contact as much as possible with the scholar add still more to the success of any school. In a mission school where scholars come so largely from poor families the teacher will find it greatly to his or her advantage to observe the "eternal fitness of things" in the matter of dress, as nothing is so repellant to a child as to be reminded even unconsciously that a difference exists in the station of life to which each belongs. The mission teacher should know his scholars by name, and never fail to recognize them by name on meeting. A ragged, dirty-faced newsboy will be given a great incentive to climb up the ladder of respectability and success because the teacher of the mission class to which he belongs has given him a hearty "Good morning, Jim," as he rushes by with his bundle of papers. Any little attention that can be shown a scholar which leads him to believe one is really interested in his welfare goes a long way towards winning his allegiance to both ter. ia will ini his attendance at the mission services as nothing else can. Having secured the confidence of the scholar his co-operation in the work will naturally follow. If he feels that his interests are at one with the teacher he will act as a missionary among other boys and girls in extending the work. To encourage this cooperation the management should as far as possible furnish opportunity for service among the scholars, who may be detailed to perform many of the duties that generally fall to the lot of the secretary or some other officer of the school. Of course it will be understood that what has been here outlined is secondary to the one great object in all religious work, that of bringing into vital touch with the Christ all who can be reached through earnest consecrated service. The joy of service is the salvation of souls; the hire of the laborer is the power of the Holy Ghost infilling again and again the lives of those whom he seeks to win for active service in the Redeemer's Fingdom; and this joy, this reward, is the reflex influence upon the hearts and in the lives of those who labor in the various departments of Christian endeavor to present the gospel in its simplicity and beauty, whether in the crowded city, the busy town, the scattered rural districts of our own home land or among the benighted on the foreign field. "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, unmovable, always ve abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."-1 Cor., 15-58.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Resolutions Favoring the Construction of the All-British Cable, Deal Cargoes and Insurance-New Members Elected-Proceedings of the Council.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of trade was held yesterday af-The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and the secretary read the following summary of proceedings of the council of the board:

The council of the St. John board of trade have dealt with the following matters since the last monthly meeting of the board:

In response to a request from the Ottawa board of trade asking the St. John board to appoint delegates to attend a convention at Ottawa of the boards of trade throughout Canada in the interests of technical education, John V. Ellis has been requested to represent the St. John ward of trade on that occ imittee appointed to ob-The sub-con tain statistics of wrecks on the Canadian shores is still engaged in that work, and hope soon to have full information on the subject. The council has decided to accept the invitation of the Philadelphia Commercial Museum to attend a congress to be held there in October next, and also to accept the invitation to permanent membership on the advisory board of that institution.

A committee has been appointed to draft a resolution in response to the proposed cable between Canada and Australia, which resolution will be submitted for the consideration of this meeting. The president has written to Elder Dempster & Co. in regard to a business deputation from Bristol to Canada, with a view to seeing it those gentlemen could not be induced to visit St. John.

The following papers have been added to the files at the reading room: The Portland Eastern Argus, The Yarmouth Times, The Fredericton Gleaner, and Sells' London Commercial Intelligence.

The committee to which was referred the communication of the Halifax board of trade in regard to shorter terrus of credit in the dry goods trade have reported "that dating in advance is a great evil, but the larger centres of trade in Canada and the English jobbing houses are chargeable with the responsibility. The St. John merchants favor shorter (redits, yet believe the terms stated by the llulifax board of trade are too revolutionary to be seriously considered at the present time." This report has been adopted by the council.

It having appeared from the report of the delegation of the Common Council that no additional wharf accommodation is likely to be made Sand Point this year, the president and S. Schofield have been appointed a committee to interview the Common Council in regard to this mat-cable project, and to show the hope that Canadians have that these great colonies may be more closely united to the Mother Land by means of the proposed cable. Mr. Jarvis briefly set forth the history of the cable negotiations and the opposition to it by existing cable monopolies, and referred also to the resolutions introduced in parliament by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in April. He also spoke of the value and importance of an all-British cable. While the greatest advantage to Canada would be to the west, yet the east also would be benefited. The resolution passed unanimously Thos. R. Jones, Jones & Schoffeld, and E. T. Sturdee were elected to membership. The secretary stated that the membership was now between one hundred and fifty and one hundred and sixty, and there was a snug bank balance.

Mr. Jarvis spoke of the meeting of the maritime board to be held here next fall and the subjects that might be profitably brought before that body. There was some informal discussion on various matters, after which the board adjourned.

DANGER IN SODA. Serious Results Sometimes Follow

Its Excessive Use.

Common soda is all right in its place and indispensable in the kitchen and for cook-ing and washing purposes, but it was never intended as a medicine, and people who use it as such will some day regret it. We refer to the common use of soda to re-lieve heartburn or sour stomach, a habit which thousands of people practice and one which is frught with danger: more-over the soda only gives temporary relief and in the end the stomach, trouble gets worse and worse. The soda acts as a mechanical irritant to the walls of the stomach and bowels and cases are on re-ord where it has accumulat-ed in the intestines, causing death by in-dammation or peritonitis.

druggists under the name of Stuart's Dys-pepsia Tablets. These tablets are large 20-grain lozenges, very pleasant to taste and contain the natural acids, peptones and di-gestive elements essential to good digetiton, and when taken after meals they digest the food perfectly and promptly before it has time to ferment, sour and poison the blood and nervous system. Dr. Wuerth states that he invariably uses Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in all cases of stomach derangements and finds them a cortain cure not only for sour stomach, but by promptly, digesting the food, they create fieth and strengthen the action of the heart and liver. They are not a cathartic, but in-tended only for stomach diseases and weak-ness and will be found reliable in all stomach troubles except cancer of the stom-ach. VIENNA, June 4 .- Johann Strauss the famous composer, is dead.

Johann Strauss, known as "The Waltz King," and composer of the Gypsy Baron, The Beautiful Blue Danube, and many other popular waltz melodies, was Lorn in Vienua in 1825. His father was a well known oser of dance music. Strauss made his debut as an orchestra conductor when nineteen years old. selecting his fathers Lorelei and a composition of his own. On the death of his father he assumed the direction of his sire's orchestra, and continued giving concerts in Vienna until 1853. He then travelled in Russia, Germany, Italy, France, Great Britain and the United States, and became orchestra leader of the court balls at Vienna, giving up this position to his brother Edward in 1870. From that time on Johann Strauss devoted his time exclusively to composition, and produced the works that made hira famous.

W. S. Harkins Turning People Away-An Enterprising Church-Progressive Street Railway Company.

(Special to The Sun.) MUNCTON, N. B., June 7.- H. L Brittain, of the Moncton high school staff, has tendered his resignation, to take effect at the close of the present term. Mr. Brittain was recently awarded a scholarship in Columbia university, New York, and goes there to take advantage of it. He is one of the cleverest young men in the teaching profession in New Brunswick, and won golden opinions during his has stay in Moncton, having taken an active part in establishing Aberdeen school library. He will doubtless be heard from in future. Harold Brown of Sussex has been

ST. STEPHEN.

Business of Canadian Pacific Railway is Rapidly Increasing.

ST. STEPHEN, June 7. - F. S. Sharpe of St. John and Miss Sharpe arrived in Lown today, and are guests of Mrs. W. B. Wetmore.

D. F. Sheehey, recently messenger of the Dominion Express company between St. Stephen and Presque Isle. hus been transferred to the run between Montreal and Quebec. His place has been filled by F. W. Carr. Mr. Sheehey made many friends during his temporary residence here.

The freight business of the C. P. R. at the St. Stephen station for the month of May amounted to fifteen thousand dollars, an increase of nine hundred and ninety dollars over the same month last year. For the same month the sale of passenger tickets amounted to thirty-two hundred dollars, the increase in this department over May of last year being one hundred and fifty dollars. The month of May, 1838, included in its receipts a large amount for nauling sleepers and other supplies for the Washington County railroad. The favorable showing, in view of the increased opposi-tion which the company now encouncounters, is most creditable and should influence the C. P. R. company to give even more careful attention to the requirements of this station.

Miss Anale Moore has resigned her position as night operator at telephone central and has entered the employ of the wrapper factory. Mrs. C. R. Maxwell has filled the vacancy at central. Miss Moore was very effieient and courteous in the discharge of her exacting duties with the teleplione company and carries with her the good will of its patrons.

Out of the Frying Pan Into the Fire-Inspector !on'es Gets in His Work.

DIGBY, June 7 .- Schs. Chas. Haskell, Annie M. Sproull and Ernest F. Norwood have been placed under surveillance by Customs Inspector Jones for violation of regulations, by having failed to report at Yarmouth, where they had .ntered with dutiable cargoes. Their cargoes consisted of pork, cheese, etc., from Castilian, and are now inder the control of the customs here, pending investigations. The Parnell, O'Hara, which arrived yesterday from Yarmouth, also came under the watchful eye of Mr. Jones, under suspicion of similar violation, and while he was seeking means of getting off to examine her some friends gave the captain the tip and the vessel was quietly towed off, ostensibly to wait the rise of the tide. She came into dock at the Racquette about midnight, and not having sufficient list when the tide left her, fell over, injuring her bilge and side and straining badly. The damage is estimated at $1,000. The moral is obvious.

The Yarmouth tug Freddie V., on her way from Annapolis home, was obliged to put in here for repairs to boiler. She will go on today.

As indicated by the name, this mission becomes a "home" to the children, where they are clothed, fed and instructed until they can be provided for elsewhere. They have day school each week day except Saturday, and on Sunday afternoons regular sessions of their Sunday school. The public are welcomed to a service of song by the children at the close of the Sunday school lesson, an impressive ser-vice, in which about 300 children between the ages of 5 and 12 take part. The service consists of responsive re-citations of Scripture, prayer, hymns and Sunday school songs, during all of which the most marked decorum and attention is shown by the miss children. Many exceedingly bright rfaces appear among the little ones, who have been gathered into the mission from the slums of the great city. Their deportment and intelligence reflect great credit on their teachers, while the impression left on one's mind after a visit to their Sunday service is that of the great value and lasting benefit of the work of the institution.

Wisitors who wish may inspect the building, which is admirably adapted to the work being carried on. The dormitories, the wash rooms and play rooms and dining halls are well lighted and ventilated and most scrupa-lously clean; every convenience is furmished the children and every pro-vision made for their health and happiness. Those under five years, known as the infants, are cared for in a sep-arate part of the building by their own teachers. I had the privilege of visiting them while at their Sunday evening tea; the little ones in neat white pinafores and each with a bow of colored ribbon fastened on the left shoulder, were seated at a long, low table, and provided with howls of milk and plates containing two slices of bread, two ginger sraps and an apple. There were platters of bread on the table, and any child wanting more raised its little hand, at which signal one of the teachers saw that another piece was provided. During the entire meal, at which between thirty-five and forty children were present, net a word was spoken, nor was there a cry nor a murmur 'rom any of the little ones. The decorum observed while at their meals is a part of the training of the children, and rarely is there any rebellion on their part. It must not be understood, however, that this restraint is kept on the children at all times. They have their play hours, and life with them is as happy as the day is long. The relig-ious education of the children is carefully looked after, the spirit of the Master pervades the institution, and many respectable men and women to-

Rev. A. T. Dykeman left Wednesday morning for Wolfville, N. S., where he will atend the convocation of Acadia College and the closing exercises of Acadia Seminary, at which institu-tion his daughter is studying. Miss Dykeman will accompany her father home late in the week.

Death has again visited the Lowery family at South Bay. On Monday afterncon Miss Lettle Lowery, who has been ill for many months, passed peacefully away. Six months ago there were seven children in the family-four brothers and three sisters. Today only one son and one daughter are left to the bereaved mother. Universal sympathy is expressed throughout the community for the griefstricken family. The funeral will be id this afternoon from the Fairville held this alternoon from the Miss Lowery was before her illness a constant and active member.

A quiet wedding will take place at Milford on Tuesday next, wher Geo. Currey, late of St. John and now of New York, will be united in matri-mony with Miss Martha Harrington, daughter of Charles Harrington of Milford.

Rev. J. E. Flewelling will preach his farewell sermon at Centreville on Sunday, July 2nd, and will take his first services at Canterbury Station and at Benton on July 16th. Mr. Flewelling has been at Centreville for 24 years.

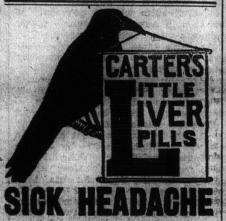

The secretary read a letter from Gen. Laurie, chairman of the Canadian trade section of the London chamber of commerce, dealing with the charge that deal vessels from St. John carry inordinate deck cargoes, and with the no-British North America clause in insurance policies, excluding Canada from the ordinary insurance rules, resulting therefrom. Mr. Jarvis, in moving that the matter be referred to the council, stated that the council was already at work on the subject, and he expressed his personal belief that large deckloads of deals had nothing to do with the no-British North America clause referred to. He knew of no case where the insurance had been increased this year because of such deckloads. The motion passed. Mr. Jarvis, seconded by W. F.

Fine Saturday Until October.

The monthly meeting of the Natu ral History Society, held last night, closed the season until next October. In the meantime field meetings will be held every fine Saturday afternoon throughout the summer months.

The list of donations to the museum was very large and ran as follows: From the Field Mussum, Chicago, a case of feather, shell and nut orna ments, pipes, articles of Indian dress and adornment, and other valuable curiosities; from S. W. Kain, a flower pot of native manufacture from one of the Pacific islands; from Dr. Matthew, a number of fossils from Newfoundland; from Thos. H. Lawton, Quaco, a curiously knotted root: from Capt. E. C. Elkin, a specimen of ore from the Gold King mines. Captain Aikman's donations, consisting of a mummied foot of a daughter of Rameses the Great, a large mounted lizard from the Third Cataract of the Nile, lots of Roman coin, a rose of Jericho and a reed flute as used in the time of Moses, attracted much atten-tion from the members, and will probably form the nucleus of an Egypt-

Commodore Giffard is pursuing a policy altogether different from that of his predecessor, Commodore Bourke. He refused to adjudicate upon local civil cases arising along the coast, and turns them over for consideration to the colonial magistrates.

Commodore Giffard also declines to recognize the status of petits pechurs or boat fishermen from St. Pierre who squat along the coast, and he will only recognize such deep sea fishing vessels as prosecute their industry in the aner prescribed by ancient treaties. His attitude is regarded as evidencing a change of policy on the part of the board of ministry and and foreshadowing a speedy adjustment of the difficulty. It is hailed with gen-

THE MAN FOR YORK.

(Fredericton Herald.)

A Canadian gentleman who resides in New York and attended the Canadian society dinner in that city. May 24th, at which Mr. Foster was one of the principal guests, in a private let-ter to the editor of the Herald, says: "The Canadian society dinner held the 24th of May was a great success. The principal speaker of the evening was your friend, Hon. Geo. E. Foster. I had never heard him before, but if ever I have another opportunity I shall certainly take advantage of it. He spoke for nearly an hour, and I do not think anyone in the room would have wished him to curtail his speech, and that is saying a good deal, for it is not easy to hold an after dinner audience for that length of time."

Then the Olympia's band played Auld Less Syne, and the band of the Powerful played Home, Sweet Home. Admiral Dewey is apparently anxlous to avoid all demonstrations.

CONDON CAUGHT,

A Flash of Lightning Gave Him Away to the Authorities.

PORTLAND, Me., June 6 .- United States Deputy Marshal Norton arrived here, having in custody Ben. Condon, who was arrested near Fort Kent, in Aroostook county, charged with smuggling liquor across the New Brunswick line. The officers spent several days following Condon from several days following Condon from place to place before they succeeded in capturing him. Once they met him in the night, his presence being revealed to them by a flash of lightning, which lit the road. Condon escaped on that occasion, but was later captured at a time when he was driving a wagon laden with liquor. Condon has been indicted by the grand jury.

Yesterday he was put under arrest on his commander's order. This morning another officer called to see him, when he suddenly pulled a re-volver from under his pillow and shot himself through the head. His friends say his mind was affected by a recent sunstroke.

THE TURF.

CHEVENNE, Wyo., June 6.—Sheriff Hazen of Converse county and the posse in pursuit of the Union Pacific robhers had another fight with the bandits late yesterday, news of which has just been brought in. The rob-bers were surrounded in a gulch, when they were forced to abandon their horses, which were captured. They hid behind rocks and made a desper-ate fight. Sheriff Hazen was shot through the body and died at 5.30 to-day. Reinforcements for the posse are going out from Casper as fast as the men can be mounted and armed. The entire county is aroused, and the prospects are good for capturing the trein robkers. The races to take place on the North Syd-ney driving park during the first week in July are open to all trotting herses in the maritime provinces. The classes and pre-miums are as follows: 2.28 class, purse $260: 2.35 class, purse $260: three minute class, nurse $155. Entries class June 2ith with R. Hickoy.

SHEFFIELD

Frost Does Damage to Early Crops-Lumber Operations-They Want a Railway.

SHEFFIELD. Sunbury Co., June There was quite a heavy frost in these parts last week. Farmers about Lakeville Corner and the lakes complain of injury being done their early crops and green stuff. French Lake and our back waters are alive this week with tugs and lumbermen. As the back water is getting low, much anxiety is felt about getting their lumber down into deep water and to St. John.

John F. Bridges has more work for his boat in Queens Co. than he can do, and proposes to charter a boat to do his towing, largely for the estate of the late Hugh McLean, Salmon River.

John Randall, a young man who returned to the home of his parents at French Lake, Sheffield, a few weeks since, on a visit from the United States after seven years' absence, was stricken down last week with violent pains, and it was thought he would die. The family physician attended him, and Dr. Atherton of Fredericton was sent for and performed an operation. The young man is now said to be improving under the care of a good nurse and the two medical attendants.

John McKay, a farmer of Lakeville Corner, is very ill. The Rev. Dr. McLeod occupied the pulpit yesterday in the F. C. Baptist church, and the Rev. E. R. Ganong in the Baptist church.

Much has been said in parliament and out of it about the government buying or taking over the Canada Eastern railway. Parties in these parts are not satisfied and say it will not give our county a mile more of railway, and a portion of the country back of here is suffering for the build-ing of a few miles of road. And it is the minister of railways' constituency too. There are men in these parts who voted for the liberal party at the last two general elections for a consideration, who have not got in sight of a good fat office yet.

PAPER MONEY FOOD FOR ANTS.

PAPER MONEY FOOD FOR ANTS. Only Coin Will Heraafter be Sent to U. S. Troops in Philippines. A Washington despatch says: Paper money connot be used in the Philippines, for there is a variety of ants in this island which eat almost everything and ner particularly fond of paper. In a recent shipment of money for the troops was $1,000,000 in paper money of small denominations. Preparations were be-ing made to send more paper in the next shipment when a warning was given that hereafter nothing but gold and silver coin must be sent to the islands. It was stated that ants got into the boxes and attacked the packages of bills, which were saved from destruction only by the greatest car. As far as the officials here know, none of the money was actually destroyed, the iam-page done being probably no more serious than the eating away of the edgas of notes of perhaps making holes through some of them.

AUGUSTIN DALY DEAD.

PARIS, June 7.-Augustin Daly died suddenly this afternoon.

Mr. Daly, who was one of the best known theatrical managers in the world, was 61 years of age. He began his literary career as dramatic critic of the New York Sunday Courier, and discharged similar functions on the Times, Sun, and Mail and Express until 1869, when he opened the Fifth Avenue theatre, New York. In 1879 he established Daly's theatre, and sevmen were specialists in their line. He eral years ago he opened in London a thoroughly equipped house under the same name. Mr. Daly has been identified with a great many well known actors and actresses, but undoubtedly the one who has achieved the greatest success under his management is Miss Ada Rhean.

The Tobique Pulp Mill Expected to be Erected This Summer.

ANDOVER, Victoria Co., June 3.— There is a good prospect that the water power of the Tohique is about to be utilized at last. Last week Mr. Craig of London, England, and A. H. Since the Americano-Hispanic war is concluded and the United States ambassador is on the way to Madrid and the Spanish ambassador is on the way to Washington the people of our country are divided into expansionists and anti-expansionists. From a different standpoint from that usually taken discuss this all absorbing theme. I leave the political aspect of this subject to statesmen and warriors, and pray Almighty God that they may be enabled to rightly settle the question whether the islands in controversy shall be finally annexed, or held under protectorate, or resigned to themselves while I call attention to the fact that a campaign of moral and religious expansion ought to be immediately opened on widest and grandest scale. At the close of this war God has put into the hands of this country the key to the world's redemption. Heretofore the religious movement in pagan lands had to precede the ducational. After in China and India and the islands of the sea the missionaries have labored over 50 or 75 years the printing press and the secular school came in. Now to better advantage than ever before religious and secular enlightenment may go side by side, and so the work be accomplished in "short time" and more thoroughly. 'Starting' with the fact that in Cuba and Porto Rico and the Phillipine Islands at teast threefourths of the people can neither read nor write, what an opportunity for school and printing press? Within five years every man in those islands may be taught to read not only the Bible but the Declaration of Independence and the constitution of the United States and the biography of George Washington and of Abraham Lincoln.

It seens to me that the government of the United States ought by vote of congress afford "common schools and printing presses to those benighted regions. Our national legislature by one vote al proprinted, $59,000,000 to give bread and medicine to Cuba. Why not by a similar generosity give $50,000,000 for feeding and healing the minds and souls of those ignorant and besotted archipelagoes. In the name of God, I nominate a school for every neighbor-hood of Cuba, Jorto Rico and the Philippines. As soon as the gavel falls at table of the senate and house of representatives and theroil has been called and the preliminaries observed, let some member of our national legis-lature with mind and soul and voice strong enough to be heard not only through those nalls, but through Christendom, propose a measure for the mental and moral, disenthraliment of the islands in controversy.

HIGHER CIVILIZATION.

What has made American civilization the highest civilization the world has ever seen? Next to the Bible and the church, schools, common schools, schools reaching from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from British America to the Gulf of Mexico. Five years un-der such educational advantages and the whole subject that keeps our publie men agitated, some of them to frothing at the mouth, will settle it self. Give those islands readers, spellers. arithmetics, histories, biacapoards. maps, geographies, glob's. Let the state legislatures at their next meeting, some of them assembling in early autumn, take parts of those islands under their especial educational patronage. What is needed is state and anational action in this matter of schools.

Then let the editorial : ssociations of the United States, as many of such organizations as there are states, resolve. at the next convocation to establish in every region of those islands a printing press, to be supported by people of this country intil it can become selfsupporting." Each of these state editorial associations sending out to those islands at least one editor and two reporters and enough typesetters, down ill go the ignorance and superstition f those islands as certainly as the of the Spanish fleet under Cervera sank under the pounding of our American bathips, and into every port will go ligence and love of free institutions as certainly as into the harbor of Manila went Admiral Dewey on that famous night when he was not expected. Hoe's printing press! Nothing can stand before its bombardment.

When Cubans and Porto Ricans and Filipinos see the morning and evening newspapers thrown into the doorways, and hawked about the streets of Havana and Santiago and Manila, th who cannot read by the force of curiosity will learn to read so that they may know what information is being scattered and that which may be missionary effort at the start and carried on by Americans sent forth to do the work will soon be done by educated natives. Porto Rican editors! Porto Rican reporters! Porto Rican type-setters! Porto Rican publishers. It was a great mercy to take those islands from under the heels of despot-ism, but if will be a mightier mercy to emancipate them from ignorance and degradation. The expansion of the knowledge and intellectual qualification of all those island regions is the desire of all intelligent Americans. Awake all you schools and colleges and universities and printing presses to our opportunity!

OPEN DOOR FOR CHRISTIANITY. Still further, here is a wide open door for Christianity. First of all, we have

between the improvement of agricul-ture among all nations and the im-provements of 75 acres put under one's especial care and industry. By all eans let the general work go on. But here is the specific field for religious consecration and development. T read this morning that the American Missionary association of the Congregational church has already begun their work at San Juan. Utuado and Albo nito, and all denominations of Christians in six months, will be in those island fields, and we all need with our travers and contributions to chee them on to take for God and righteous ness those regions which our American navy has captured from Spanish perfldy

It has been estimated that this Am. erico-Spanish war cost us $300,000,000. It would not cost half of that to proclaim and carry on and consummate a holy war that will rescue those archi-pelagoes from satanic domination. Who will enlist under the one starred blood striped banner of Immanuel? Cuba and Porto Rico and the Philippines are stepping stones for our American Christianity to cross over and take the round world for God. We need a new evangelical alliance organized for this one purpose. In all denominations there are those with large enough hearts and who have been thoroughly enough converted to join in such an advanced movement; men who, putting aside all minor differences of opinion, "believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son," and would march shoulder to shoulder to such a gospel campaign. The result would be that those islands, after a scene of gospelization, would assort themselves into denominations to suit themselves, and some would be sprinkled in holy baptism, and others would be immersed in those warm rivers, and some would worship in religious assemblage silent as the Quaker meeting house, and others would have as many jubilant ejaculations as a backwoods camp meeting, and some of those who presched would be gowned and surpliced for the work, and others would stand in citizens' apparel or in their shirt sleeves preaching that gospel which is to save the world.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

Mark you well that statesmanship. however, grand it is, and wise men of the world, nowever noble, cannot do this work. Mere secular education doe not moralize. Some of the most thoroughly educated men in all the would have been the worst men. Quicken a man's intellect, while at the time you do not make his morals good, and you only augment his power for evil. Geography and mathematics and metaphysics and philosophy will never qualify a people to govern themselves. A corrupt printing press is worse than no printing press at all. but let loose an open Bible upon those islands and let the apocalyptic angel once fly over them and you will prepare them to become either colonies of the United States government or, as I hope will be the case, independent republics.

God did not exhaust Himself when He built this nation. Those islands will yet have their Thomas Jeffersons, qualified to write for their declara-tions of independence; and George quakes, allowing the ocean to: take mastery over them? Each mother continent has around it a whole family of little continents. If the continents are being so rapidly evangelized, why not the islands? If America, why not Cuba and the Bahamas? If Asia, why nct the Philippines and the Moluccas? If Europe, why not the Azores and the Orkneys? If Africa, why not Mada-gascar and St. Helena? The same power that broke them off the mainland can lift them into evangelization. In the old book, which has become a new book by reason of modern discoveries, especial attention is called to the islands, "Declare the Lord's praise in the islands," commands Isaiah. "Let the multitudes of the islands iah. "Let the multitudes of the islands be glad thereof," says the Psalmist. "All the islands of the heathen shall worship Him." writes Zephaniah. "He shall turn His face to the islands," prophesies Daniel. "The inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at the fortells Ezekiel. "Hear it and declare it to the islands afar of," exclaims Jeremiah. You see from this the is-lands are not to be neglected. Per-haps they are the Lord's favorites, as in households if there is any favorites, as is all and weak, for they sare omni-potently defended. They may not be able to marshal large armies or to send out navies to sweep the sea, but better than that, they have the chari-ots of heaven on their side, and the drawn swords of the Almighty. I have as much faith in the salvation of the semillest isherd of the Withere is any favorites is here is and of be glad thereof," says the Psalmist. have as much faith in the salvation of the smallest island of the Falklands, of the Canaries, of the Ladrones, of the Carolines, of the Fijis, of the Bar-badoes, of the Cape Verdes, of the So-olety islands as I have in the salvation of America.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY.

WASHINGTON, June 8.-It is learned at the state department that while a sensible advance is making towards the arrangement of a modus vivendi for the regulation of the Canadian for the regulation of the Canadian boundary question, a conclusion has not yet been reached. Expert geo-graphers are being consulted on the exact location of some of the boun-dary points, though as far as the Dal-ton trail is concerned, the definite neight has not been beented point has not been located. LONDON, June 8.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns upon high authority that the Alaskan modus vivendi does not imply that the boundary question has been settled or compromised, but simply that a tem-porary boundary has been arranged, and will be preserved for two years, which interval will be available for the settlement of the main question at

NEWFOUNDLAND.

ST. JOHNS, Nfid., June 8 .- The Newfoundland government will decline to recognize the French claim for indemnity for the burned lobster factory, on the ground that no direct evidence is forthcoming as to how, when or by whom the factory was destroyed, although Ingram Taylor, now under arrest at Bonne Bay on the charge of burning the factory, boasts that he did it. There is really no evidence, however, apart from this state-ment to connect him with the case.
