The Railway Resolutions carried by a large Majority. (From our own Correspon

Twenty-five Thousand Dollars Voted for a New Departmental Building.

Sessional Notes. The longest section of the Assembly held for a long time was that of last Thursday hight, when the railway resolutions moved by Hon. Mr. Blair came up for discussion. The resolutions, as our readers already understand, were to authorize the Government to grant subsidies to the Fredericton and Woodstock railway, and three other short lines. There was a sharp discussion lasting from 7.30 Thursday evening until 1 o'clock the next morning, but the resolutions were finally carried by a large majority, Mesers. Hanington, Tweedie, Phinney, Young, Humphrey, Atkinson and Baird only voting against them. These gentlemen were not opposed to railway subsidies at all, but they were disastisfied because their counties were not included in the resolutions, and hence their opposition. Hon. Mr. Blair, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Bellamy, Dr. Moore, Dr. Stockton, Dr. Alward, Mr. LeBlanc, Mr. Hibbard and others spoke in support of the resolutions and Maser. Halbard and others spoke in support of the

Nays—Blair, McLellan, Ritchie, Hannington, Black, Tweedie, Alward, Young, Wilson, Leblanc, Glasier, Harrison, White, Quinton, Stockton, Berryman—16

The chairman gave the casting vote against the amendment. The section was adopted and the bill was agreed to with some amendments.

On mother that the House further resolve itself into Committee of Supply.

Dr. Atkinese called attention to a newspaper report in which the Attorney General was reported to have said in connection with the railway subsidies resolution that he (Atkineso), Baird and Phinney were not in earnest in their endeavors to secure aid for the reads in which they seemed to be interested.

Hon, Mr. Blair said he had never used any such language.

any such language.

Dr. Atkinson said he had letters from the Attorney General to show that he had pressed upon the Government the claims of lines of railread in his county for provincial aid. He read one of these letters.

The News and Gossip of the Commercial Metropolis.

(From our correspondent.)

Sr. Jorn, April 2nd, 1888.

"Nothing has surprised me so much in the commercial world for a long time as the decided rise in Provincial four per cents" said a prominent city broker a few days ago. "Looking back but a month or two ago I can remember having $20,000 worth of bonds for sale and I disposed of them with some exertion at 90. Now I could not buy them far 95. What is the cause? I can hardly say, unless cheap English money is at the bottom of it. You can borrow as much money as you want in the old country for 2 per cent per annum and the market rate te-day is only I and three-eighths per cents. Just think of it. Large English capitalists are making investments abroad and in this way I account for the increased value of Provincial bonds. It is a fact that the saving's bank limit which was lately decreased from $1,000 to $300 has some effect upon the value of civic, municipal and provincial bonds, but that appears to be the case across the line as well as in Canada. You see every day in the American papers, that money is tight, that the stock market is depressed and interest is high, but if you will look at the sale of city bonds you won't find them as you would expect, going below par, but actually being anatched up at a hundred yards of me. The first one died of consumption leaving her affectionate husband a legacy of twelve or fourteen bright eyes, which, however, proved too much for Mistress No. 2, who was buried in less than a year after her predecessor. Shortly after his second marriage, the gentleman in question excused himself from a friend on the street and attending malastefane office. If You'ver exceed nimeelf from a friend on the street and entered an undertakers office. "You're a nice bridegroom" said his friend, "what were you doing in there?" "Paying for my first wife's coffin" was the cool reply. He is to be married again in a few days and he de-clares that he hean't got any consumptive this time. The nature and severity of this man's punishment I leave to the unmarried ladies who read this.

One of the Rester sights which attracted much attention last Saturday, where the handsomely dressed windows of Meers. Macaulay Bros., & Co's dry goods establishment, on King street. This firm is always and is ever to the front with something new attractive, inviting. No wonder Halifa z ladies exclaim that when they want a piece of dress good they have to send to St. John; but it is more of a surprise to learn that fashionable residents of this city who used to personally select their goods in Boston, no ton selecting her elaborate trousseau declares that she can procure as elegant and fashionable goods in this emporium of St. John fashion. Their silk dress department and in fact all kinds of dress goods are especially complete, and their stock being in early has been arranged in their sommodious new store. to the best advantage. The ladies declare that Macaulay Bros., great advantage is in the fast that when they sell a dress they can farnish every hit of trimming that is needed. They go into assistice over Ponges silks and special lines of satin Khadame in all of the leading colors and say that no stock in this city can compare with theirs. I do not know anything about dry goods. They are out of my line; but I do know that the marvelous progress of this firm has attracted much at-

Tragedy at a Boston Party-Nellie

A tragedy occurred at the Waverly House, Charlestown district, Bosten, last Wednesday avening, day a ballneam floor, the victim being an accomplished young lady, who axpired in the passance of 400 or 500 ladies and gentlemen in fall evening drass. It was the occasion of the anunal house party, for which 500 invitations were sent out. After an antertainment in Abbotsford Hall, the large diffuse room of Landlord Highs was thrown dining room of Landlord Hicks was thrown open for dancing. The young lady referred to was Miss Nellie McLood, about 20 years of age; daughter of Mr. George H. McLood, a well known resident of the Charlestown district, who lives at No. 39 Harvard Square. Miss McLood was attired in a party dress, and had just finished, the first walts, having as a partner Mr. Charles Stacey, son of Mr. B. F. Stacey, the well known druggiet. Mr. Stacey says the the young lady, with whom he was well acquainted, appeared to be in The amendment was lost, Mesers. Hauington, Tweedie, Young, Humphrey and Atkinson, 5, alone supporting it.

Hop. Mr. Mitchell's bill to protect certain birds and animals has passed the Legislature. It forbids the destruction or hunting of moose for five years all over the province, and the decatruction of deer for the same pariod east and north of the St. John river. Sabbath observance is provided for. Ducks and their nests are protected from May lat to Sapt. 1st, and snipe from March lat to Sapt. 1st, and snipe from March lat to Sapt. 1st, and snipe from March lat to Sapt. 1st. The father's condition was a pitiable one. He was scarcely able to bear up under the shock. Later the remains of the daughte were conveyed to her home. The event cast a gloom over the party, and those pre-sent will not forget it. The young lady was

THE PRIZE FIGHT. A straight forward opinion of Sullivan.

(From the Mirror and Farmer.) Boston is in mourning and the Americ Eagle has the pip. A mass of blood and broken hone which emits a sickly smell is being rocked to and fro in the cradle of Liberty and the stars and stripes hang at half, mast from Maine to California. The glovy of Bunker Hill has departed and the pages of history on which were written the story of Bennington, Yorktown and New Orleans have been torn out. Astoniahment appointment, chagrin and griss saussesses soul of every lover of the American republic, soul of every lover of the American republic, for Sullivan, the original and only Sullivan, the pet of Boston and the pride of the prize ring, the immense, the unconquerable, the magnificent the perices slugger, the incarnation of Irish prowes and Yankee skill, has been pounded into the mud and out of the ring and into jail by a despised fittle Englishman whom he had advertised to mail into a fally in air minutes.
