Armistice Terms Are Being Announced This Afternoon By the President of U. S.

CANADIANS CAPTURE MONS BEFORE WAR ENDS

PRESIDENT WILSON IS ANNOUNCING TERMS OF ARMISTICE AT A JOINT SESSION IN AFTERNOON

Premier Clemenceau Will At Same Hour Read the Conditions Which Germany Was Forced To Accept From the Allies.

Washington, Nov. 11.—President Wilson will read the terms of the armistice with Germany before a joint session of Congress today.

So few members had returned today from their election vacation that when word of the president's intention reached the Capitol there was some doubt whether enough could be mustered for a joint session.

All members here were hastily called together, however, and arrangements made for a joint session at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Word came by wireless that Premier Clemenceau would read the terms to the French Chamber of Deputies at about the same hour.

MONS IS CAPTURED BY THE CANADIANS JUST BEFORE THE WAR ENDS

Belgian Town, the Scent of Many Bitter Engagements, Falls To Curie's Forces After Much Violent Fighting.

London, Nov. 11.—Mons, the Belgian town near where British troops engaged in bitter fighting with the Germans at the beginning of the war, was captured early this morning by Canadian troops under General Horne, according to Field Marshal Haig's announcement today.

The official statement reads: "Shortly before dawn this morning, Canadian troops of the first army under General Horne captured Mons."

FRENCH REACH BELGIAN FRONTIER

Paris, Nov. 11.—The Belgian frontier east of the forest of Treton, east of Avesnes, has been reached by the French, according to the war office announcement today. Italian troops have entered the town of Roordi, less than two miles from the frontier.

Between Mezieres and Sedan, the French have forced their way to the east bank of the Meuse, between Lumes and Virgine.

PRUSSIAN MINISTER ARRESTED

Paris, Nov. 11.—The Prussian minister at Hamburg has been arrested at his home in that city, according to a Basel dispatch sent on Saturday, but delayed in transmission.

NO BUSINESS TODAY; LONDON WILL CLOSE THAT ALL MAY JOIN IN GRAND OUTBURST

"It's fine, there's no doubt about it; it's great. Today will be a public holiday and everything will go off with a bang," this was Mayor Somerville's greeting to the Advertiser when informed that the war was over.

This means that London as a business centre will be closed up tight today. Everyone will celebrate. The big parade will take place at 3 o'clock.

WILSON ORDERS CANCELLING OF CALLS TO ARMY

Movement of 252,000 Men in Next Five Days Is Stopped.

Washington, Nov. 11.—By order of President Wilson, Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder today directed the cancellation of all outstanding draft calls, stopping the movement during the next five days of 252,000 men, and setting aside all November calls for over 200,000 men.

CITIES OF SPAIN ARE FOR THE ALLIES NOW

Madrid, Nov. 11.—Manifestations have occurred in the larger cities of Spain on the announcement of the victory of the Allies over Germany. The news has occasioned a reawakening of sentiments favorable to the Entente.

It's "After the War," People!

Any city full of people who have faced the strain and suffering of more than four years of war as the people of London have, won a day of rejoicing such as the city never before experienced.

While we think of the past days as background during which the city faced its duty with seriousness and reverence, today is a day to make the welkin ring.

Let us celebrate, first of all, in the spirit of honoring the men of Canada who have done their part in the great war. They are the bravest of the brave. They and the other valiant men of the Allied races have made this celebration possible, this victory possible. It is because of them we live in peace and security today.

The city will do the occasion full justice. Let us be kindly and make the occasion one of the purest joy. For every citizen of Canada has a chance to express his and her feelings as never before.

For, don't you know, neighbor, today is the first day of which we may say it is "After the War."

RIGHTEOUSNESS AND TRUTH CERTAIN TO PREVAIL AT LAST

Mayor Reads the Lesson Gained From War and the Final Downfall of Germany.

In response to a request of the editor of the Winnipeg Telegram for an expression of his sentiments concerning the signing of the armistice, Mayor C. R. Somerville sent the following message this morning:

"Most momentous period in centuries. Sure indication that right and truth will eventually prevail in the world. Autocracy, arrogance, unrighteous diplomacy and military rule may flourish for a time, but democracy will surely come to the top.

"The world is free for a season, and it is a wise nation that takes these events to heart. Fighting as an objective destroys the spirit of true progress.

"Germany, with all her diabolical inventions in her war specialty as a nation, has been defeated by mostly civilian soldiers with short training and no previous warlike tendencies, showing that the spirit of freedom in the heart is more than a match for the most efficiently trained conscripts.

"Canadians have done their duty to the motherland and humanity and have had a glorious part in winning this war. Let us give God glory, honor, and thanksgiving."
C. R. SOMERVILLE, Mayor.

CROWD AT COLOGNE TRIED TO SMASH WILHELM'S STATUE

Paris, Nov. 11.—During revolutionary disorders at Cologne a crowd tried to demolish with machine gun fire a statue of William II, but finally contented itself by marring up the statue and placing upon it a card inscribed "A Good Journey." It is reported that Prince Henry of Prussia has fled to Denmark, taking with him his personal fortune.

Hostilities On All Fronts Ceased At 6 o'clock This Morning--Germany Envoys Attached Signatures At Midnight.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—The world war ended at 6 o'clock this morning, Washington time, with red revolution in Germany and with William Hohenzollern, former emperor, a fugitive from his native land.

Announcement that the armistice terms imposed by the Allied and American governments had been signed by the German envoys at midnight last night, 5 o'clock Paris time, and that hostilities would cease six hours later, was made at the state department 2:45 o'clock this morning.

Terms of the surrender of Germany were not made public coincident with this announcement, but they were to be given out later in the day. The momentous news of the ending of the war was given to newspaper correspondents verbally by an official of the state department. He said:

"The armistice has been signed. It was signed at 5 o'clock this morning, Paris time."

Information that the armistice has been signed was transmitted to the White House after it was received by the Government and President Wilson was expected to issue a statement to the American people today.

GERMANY'S DELEGATES.

Paris, Sunday, Nov. 10.—Besides the five principal German armistice delegates, the others in the German party are Major Dusterberg, Brinckmann, Kriebel and von Boettcher and Baron von Lersner.

The principal German delegates are Mathias Erzberger, Gen. H. K. A. Winterfeld, Count Alfred von Oberndorff, Gen. von Grunel and Naval Capt. von Salow.

Street Fighting of a Violent Nature in Warsaw.

Amsterdam, Nov. 11.—Street fighting is taking place in Warsaw, the capital of Poland. The railway station there has been captured by Polish forces, who have refused the German troops in the city permission to pass through Polish territory.

GERMAN GARRISONS HAVE ALSO REVOLTED.

Amsterdam, Nov. 11.—(By the Associated Press).—German garrisons along the Dutch frontier are reported in revolt. Officers are being disarmed and are being treated roughly in some instances. Many of the garrisons threw down their arms and have gone home. Thousands of Dutch workmen are streaming homeward from Krupp's, at Essen. Work in the Dutch Westphalian industrial regions is at a standstill in many places.

FORMER KAISER MAY SWING ON GALLOWS ON ENGLAND'S SO

Proceedings May Be Instituted to Extradite Him on Murder Charge.

[By Associated Press.]

New York, Nov. 11.—It is suggested that William Hohenzollern is not safe from the consequences of his deed, even though he has fled to Holland. After the sinking of the Lusitania, a during the early days of aerial raids on London he was the times indicted for murder in England. Under international law is said, requisition for his extradition may be made by England under the indictments still standing against him.

Bill Is Unwelcome Guest

London, Nov. 11.—The arrival of William Hohenzollern, the former German emperor, with his wife and eldest son, has caused excitement and much uneasiness among Dutch authorities and the public of that country, says a dispatch to the Telegraph from Rotterdam. It is unofficially stated that the refugees did not obtain authorization from Holland to enter the country and crossed the frontier in the neighborhood of Eysden because the Dutch neutrality guards were weak at that point.

It is said the Dutch Government faces difficulty as to its treatment of the unwelcome visitors. Many people contend that William Hohenzollern and his eldest son are still German soldiers and must be interned. Others urge that they should be sent back to Germany. Others argue that they cannot be prevented visiting their old friend, Count von Bentinck.

It is reported that the Dutch frontier is completely open, and many German officers are seeking refuge in Holland.

J. H. GRANT IS AGAIN ELECTED PRESIDENT OF C. T. ASSOCIATION

Travelers Have Had Prosperous, But Sad Year. MORTALITY LIST HEAVY

Nearly $100,000 Subscribed to Victory Loan, and Soldiers Are Carried.

J. H. Grant was re-elected president of the Ontario Commercial Travelers' Association at the 42nd annual meeting, held in the association's rooms on Saturday.

The gathering was well attended, and most enthusiastic. Reports read showed the year to have been prosperous and a handsome financial surplus was added to capital account.

One distressing feature was the long list of deaths among members, no less than 39 having passed away during the year, the second heaviest mortality list in the association's history.

On account of these deaths the association has paid out $22,500. Four of the fatalities occurred on the battle field, these being members having been listed as "killed in action."

The association has played its part in the great struggle, 74 members being members of the Red Cross.

POLICE FOIL CONTEMPLATED RAID ON LIQUOR STORE AND REFUSE TO BITE ON ANY COUNTER-ATTRACTION

A raid on the liquor store of E. B. Smith by twenty or more men in the wee sma' hours of the morning was frustrated by the headless police this morning. The riotous males unanimously decided a little "skye" would help out a hole lot in a proper and fitting celebration. However, the word was tipped off to the cops, and "skye" sent a strong squad down to the corner of Talbot and Carling, and it arrived before the men on firewater had...

WOODWILL TO MAN. IT IS A WONDERFUL THING TO BE ALIVE AT THE BEGINNING OF A GREAT NEW DAY FOR THE WORLD.

"It is really true," quipped Mrs. Alex. Henderson, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. "I have scarcely dared to believe it could be possible. One can hardly grasp the significance of it." Then, just like every other mother of sacrifice, she struck the note of high heroism, and she was unable to speak for a moment. When her next words came, they struck the note of high heroism, and she was unable to speak for a moment. When her next words came, they struck the note of high heroism, and she was unable to speak for a moment.

BONFIRES BLAZED AND HURRAHS RANG OUT AS LONDON HEARD GLAD NEWS OF FINAL VICTORY

Americans, Awaiting Flash Which Told of Armistice Signing, First on Streets—Firemen Out to Raise Populace With Siren, Which Did the Trick.

London is entering on the wildest, most joyous day of her history. If the enthusiasm of the later arrivals down-town equals that of the hundreds on the streets at 6 o'clock, a regular rip-tail-snorter of a celebration is in the offing—in fact, it has arrived. The town belongs to the citizens. They know it, and, oh, boy, what a time there's going to be!

"IT IS WORTH WHILE," SAY MOTHERS WHO HAVE GIVEN SONS TO FREEDOM'S CAUSE

Sacrifice of Best Loved Not Made in Vain, But Note of Sadness Creeps Into Voices on This Wonderful Day.

Through the shouts of victory and the paeons of joy for peace in the world, the greatest day the old world has known, comes a note of sadness, an echo of the ache in the heart of the mothers of sacrifice. Gallantly they did their duty, erect and staid, out in the world, the world for the freedom of which the blood of their loved ones has been shed.

DESERTER ADMITS STEALING CLOTHES Remanded for Week, While Past is Searched.

Robert McPherson, who admitted being a deserter from the 21st Battalion, pleaded guilty in police court today to having stolen a suit of clothes, an overcoat and a pair of shoes from James Murphy, a returned soldier. He was remanded over to the winter months, where he can be properly looked after.

REJOICE WITH OTHERS. JUST A FEW MONTHS AGO, THE NEWS BROUGHT SORROW TO THE CITY THAT LIEUT. KENNETH SOMERVILLE, SON OF MAYOR C. R. SOMERVILLE AND MRS. SOMERVILLE, HAD MADE THE SUPREME SACRIFICE.

"We rejoice with those who rejoice," said Mrs. Becher, "because much as the day means, it might have meant so much more to me. But, even if there is the note of sorrow mingled with the gladness, we rejoice with those who rejoice."

FIREMEN SHOWED SENSE. THE FIRE BRIGADE WAS CALLED OUT BY SOME CAREFUL SENSE, BUT THE FIREMEN GALLOPED UP, TOOK ONE LOOK, AND GALLOPED BACK TO THE FIRE HALL, AMID WILD CHEERS AND WHOOPS THAT WERE NOT BOUGHT AND PAID FOR AT E. B. SMITH'S.

Tom Noonan, who, rumor says, can smell a bottle of whiskey around the corner, stated confidentially that his nose would be elevated high upon the heavens today. In fact, the police gave the packing cases a boost onto the fire when they thought no one was looking.

STOP THIS TRICK! DUTCH CLEANSER WAS BEING USED FREELY BY THE INCARCERATED IN THE MORNING TO DECORATE PASSERSBY.

The first accident of the day occurred at 5 o'clock this morning, when Frank Dobson, 6 Rattle street, was thrown from his bicycle at the corner of Dundas and Adelaide streets, when an auto owned and driven by Jacob Fox, 298 King street, crashed into him.

HOT SPARKS FROM PEACE CRACKERS. MOTOR TRUCKS TODAY CARRIED THE HAPPIEST LOADS OF FREIGHT EVER KNOWN IN LONDON.

Motor trucks today carried the happiest loads of freight ever known in London. Gray's baggage transfer had some real "baggage," as did the trucks of Massey, London Engine Supplies Company and many others.

TEMPERATION! ONE COMELY YOUNG WOMAN PARADED THE STREETS WITH A UNION JACK DRAPED AROUND HER. THE OFFICE BOY DID HIS BEST TO KISS HER. WHO COULD BLAME HIM?

A real live chicken, poultry that is, made her appearance in front of "The Advertiser" this morning. The small boy owner let the lady go with two tiny flags tied around her legs, and disappeared into the alley after some Advertiser extras.

JOY WAGONS BUSY. THE JOY WAGONS HAD FULL POSSESSION OF DUNDAS STREET, JUST 23 OF THEM CHUGGED IMPETUOUSLY WAITING FOR A NORTH BELL TO TURN THE CORNER OF DUNDAS AND RICHMOND STREETS AS EARLY AS 8:30 O'CLOCK.

The Old Bull. The old bull, one of the past could be classed with the joys of a funeral after today's joyousness.

EVEN BABIES DOING IT. EVEN THE FAMILY BABY CARRIAGE WAS DECORATED FOR THE OCCASION AND BABY HAD A TINY FLAG IN HER HAND.

PROVIDENCE IS KIND. The Lord must be looking after the small boy today, over a dozen narrow escapes from bad accidents took place in front of "The Advertiser" office this morning in less than half an hour.

ONE GOOD, BIG BUILDUP PARADED THE STREETS DRAPED IN A UNION JACK. NOTE: NO ONE STOLE IT.

PITY THE HORSE. One black horse belonging to Catalano was dragging 26 men around a street. The one animal which will not rejoice over the peace.

BETS ALL OFF. A FEW YOUNG FELLOWS CAME TO THE MARKET EARLY THIS MORNING TO SEE WHAT THEY COULD FIND.

FISH STORY. The bonfire which was started at the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets was fed with 50 fish boxes politely removed from the real Anderson's Fish Market without permission.

TWO CLASSES ONLY. THERE WERE JUST TWO KINDS OF MEN TO BE SEEN THIS MORNING. ONE WAS A BOY BECAUSE HE DIDN'T LEAVE HIS WINDOWS OPEN LAST NIGHT, AND SO DIDN'T HEAR THE FIRST GLIMMERING BOMBS BY WHISTLES AND BELLS, AND THEN THERE WAS THE OTHER BUNCH THAT GOT UP AND CLOSED THE WINDOWS AND SWORE BECAUSE THEIR SLEEP HAD BEEN DISTURBED.

NOISE, NOISE, ALL WAS NOISE ON THE DOWN-TOWN STREETS

Happiness and Relief From St rain Noticeable on Most Faces—Old Folks Join in Thanks giving and Demonstration.

Flour, Dutch cleanser, talcum powder and confetti christened the crowds who, seething with excitement, have paraded Dundas and Richmond street since the early hours of the morning. Every known device that was capable of producing noise, and that so noisy noise, was brought into play. The mothers of London, who with pride boasted of their sons overseas, for the first time in many a long day were able to join in the merry-making without a thought of the danger their lads were in to mar the happiness of the day. Walking down the street, and observing the various expressions on the faces of the crowd, happiness and relief from worry were written in every eye.

How They Live! Huns! Suggestions were rife among the crowds as to what was the best punishment to bestow upon the Kaiser. The brilliant suggestion heard by an Advertiser reporter from one was that he should be tied to a tree upon an Ant-hill, and be slowly eaten from the feet upwards. The crowd for safety's sake, locked their doors, but one of the departmental stores of the city was mobbed by the crowd for the flags, etc., and it was with difficulty that they were moved out, sometimes being held in the midst of all the celebrating a funeral wended its way with difficulty through the noisy crowd.

FIRST ACCIDENT NOT VERY SERIOUS. FRANK DOBSON THROWN FROM BICYCLE BY CAR.

The first accident of the day occurred at 5 o'clock this morning, when Frank Dobson, 6 Rattle street, was thrown from his bicycle at the corner of Dundas and Adelaide streets, when an auto owned and driven by Jacob Fox, 298 King street, crashed into him.

Dobson was carried to the office of the Somerville Paper Box Company, and later removed to Victoria Hospital for treatment. The injuries sustained were reported as painful, but not serious. He sustained two badly wrenched ankles and many other aches. Dr. F. B. Clegh attended him.

SCRIPTURE MESSAGE MOST APPLICABLE IN SEASON OF VICTORY

Mrs. H. A. Boomer Quotes the Words of Miriam.

Mrs. H. A. Boomer, president of the Local Council of Women, delivered the following message to the women of London: "On this day of world-wide rejoicing, what message from the women of Canada could be more appropriate than the words of Miriam the prophetess, which followed in fitting sequence the song of their miraculous deliverance from the hosts of Pharaoh in the Red Sea? In the Bible, the prophetess, who was the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. And Miriam answered them: 'Sing we to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.' The Scripture story continues: 'So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea, and they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water, and threescore and seven palm trees, and they encamped there by the waters.'"

ALL IN READINESS FOR GREAT PARADE

Everything is in readiness for the greatest demonstration London has ever witnessed. City Clerk S. Baker has the program for the afternoon all planned out with the help of the special committee. In addition to Mayor C. R. Somerville and Eric, Gen. L. W. Shannon will address the gathering in Victoria Park. Rev. H. G. Peever of the First Methodist Church will, in a few words, express the thankfulness of the citizens for the victorious culmination of the war, and Rev. Dr. N. Tucker will offer a prayer of thanksgiving.

GIANT CRACKER CAUSES VETERAN TO FAINT AWAY. Memories of days on the battlefield were brought back very forcibly to one returned shell-shocked soldier. The veteran, who is said to have been a member of the 34th Battalion, was standing on the sidewalk opposite The Advertiser, when an exceptionally large firecracker exploded beside him. He fainted and fell to the pavement as though he had been shot. Within hands carried him into a store, where he was revived. Shaking like a leaf, he left the store by the rear entrance, accompanied by one of the men who had brought him into the store. Soon after he had been revived it was noticed that he lit a cigarette to steady his nerves. "I wonder what he would have done if he had depended on chocolate to steady his nerves?" remarked another soldier who had returned from overseas.

THE AVALANCHE OF DEMOCRACY.

WITH THE FORCE of a tremendous avalanche, formed in the upper reaches of the heights of liberty and made mighty in its accumulation of the weight of many nations, the cause of the Allied peoples has swept on to complete victory. The irresistible descent of the great mass carried away kings and empires and dynasties and established the brotherhood of man among the peoples. It cleared the earth of malodorous and malicious plague throwers, and it sent the God of Militarism hurtling to a bottomless pit of doom. In the terrific meeting of the avalanche and the foul black stream which forced its way through the world, the whole valley of civilization was torn asunder, littered with the bodies of the innocent and the guilty and transformed into a ghastly wreckage. But as the avalanche advanced it swept away the morasses and burning lands in which the good was submerged with the evil. War stalked upon the green valleys of peace, war that rode the horse of death over roadways paved with countless human bodies. War carried his hordes far into the land of the peace-loving, despoiling and desecrating the most sacred shrines of life, filling the earth with agony and relentlessly driving hoofs into the breasts of men and women and children.

Roused to the menace men sought to set free the keystones that would loose the avalanche upon the monster. Gradually the little band gathered strength and numbers. More men were called from the hills and the valleys and the plain. Women came into the fields and shops to grow the food and to shape the tools. Struggling ever against the crushing juggernaut force that marched on, they were yet able to cast obstacles that rolled in the pathway of the war makers. The bitter price was paid each day. The blood of the defenders rushed through the hills and sanguinary stains covered the earth. But always the fight was carried on, and as the new legions came into the fray, the giant that was determined to win and to slay was sent reeling back.

Great boulders stripped him of his thousands. His villainous allies were torn from his side, bruised and maimed, and crying for mercy. The men of the mountain girded themselves and buckled to the harder, as they strove to force the avalanche from its moorings. One day saw its mighty bulk commence to move down the valley. The movement was almost imperceptible at first. But as it gained momentum, its roar became audible over the land, and its conquests against the works of the enemy became a threat to his existence.

Suddenly the whole mass took action, smashing through the armies of the militarists with titanic impetus. Down the heights it rolled, sweeping obstructions from the path and licking up the hundreds of thousands who in puny strength assailed it. All the works of Krupp and hell could not prevail against it, this majestic, massive mountain suddenly struck to mobility by the wand of liberty and the soul light of millions. It was the avalanche of democracy.

The avalanche has crushed out the life of militarism. It has cleared the valleys of the spirits of evil and their work. It has left in its course a clean-swept pathway to peace for mankind, and beyond are the clear fields of world happiness, the very ground consecrated by the sacrifice and the soil enriched by the blood of thousands of thousands who have given their lives so that human kindness and honor among men may not perish and the world shall live in amity.

The great world war has ended. The forging of the bonds upon the German people will be a final act before the curtain falls, but the fires are flaming and the smith stands ready for his task. Delay in the matter of armistice terms could not affect the final issue. The practical fact to face even before the signing of the terms is that the German people, no matter upon what impulse of fear and false repentance, dethroned their monarch and his dynasty, and declared a general strike which will demoralize their fighting forces at the front.

While the German commanders continued to resist weakly, staggering under a succession of allied blows, they were given a thrust from behind. They were told by their own people that they were now fighting the Fatherland, and that home support had been withdrawn. Supplies could be quickly cut off and the fighters rendered impotent. The navy and the country were in the hands of revolutionists, but a different kind of revolutionists than those who set up chaos in Russia. These revolutionists were unable to proclaim a reign of anarchy because over the borders of Germany were millions of Allied soldiers, ready to establish sanity should the revolutionists attempt to develop a new resistance. And the head of Germany, if not her heart and soul, is crying for peace, and will have peace at any price.

That price has been set by the Allied nations. Their work has become less difficult in the march of events toward the climax of the war.

Today is a day for real rejoicing. It may be given over to an outpouring of Canada's thankfulness and gratitude without consideration for the moment of the material problems that are presented. The cataclysm of modern times, the Armageddon of history has broken in all its horror, and passed in all its frightfulness as a bloody, haunting spectre from the face of the earth. The last few hours have seen the Prince of Evil meet his just fate before men enlisted in the spirit of the Prince of Peace. The world has been set free, the religion of brutality has been torn from the books of Christendom, the false prophets and their monstrous partners have been steeped in the very brews of crime they prepared. God's in his heaven, all's right with the world.

THE KAISER'S ABDICATION.

THE ABDICTION of the German Emperor came as a scene rather than an act in the great drama of events. Seized of a hunger for the vital climax, the world saw him flash across the stage as Mr. Hohenzollern with only passing interest. The hisses of the world's multitude were in his ears, then he was numbered among the "down and out" monarchs who put their trust in the infallibility of divine right and despotism. The world felt that the bloody Prussian chief was safe in the hands of the international officers of the law, his punishment is certain to be decided and inflicted, and it gave him no more than a moment in the few decisive hours during which the world war was to come to an end.

The waves of revolt and Allied victory that swept the monarch from his throne rushed from a tremendous reservoir of manpower and munitions in the control of Marshal Foch. The German people have been under Wilhelm's thumb for more than four years with scarcely a symptom of revolt, and it was only after the military ascendancy had definitely passed to the Allied nations on all fronts that the domination of the kaiser was shattered.

But though his abdication was to a large extent set in eclipse by the more momentous possibility of peace, there are few who foresaw that his relinquishing of the throne would take place before the terms of the armistice had been delivered at the German military headquarters. One of the constant predictions of those who warned the peoples of the Allied nations against a peace offensive was that the population of Germany would not accept as one of the terms of armistice the abdication of the ruling dynasty. The statements of Prince Maximilian that a government which ruled by popular mandate held the reins of power in Germany was taken with skepticism in all the countries against which Germany was fighting. It was difficult to conceive of a German people robbed of its mainstay, the belief in the omnipotence of its king, and its submission in the doctrine of iron obedience.

But just as developments in the negotiations toward an armistice showed that the spirit of yielding had entered the German soul through its hard crust of arrogance and cruelty, even though the spirit of true and voluntary repentance has not been shown, so did the seemingly improbable renunciation of the kaiser become a fact.

When a document was handed to the kaiser as he sat in the German grand headquarters considering the demand that he should cast off his crown, it is said that the man of blood "shivered." Some ominous and dramatic message from the Socialist, Schiedemann, caused the frame of the despot to tremble, some suggestion of an ultimatum involving physical violence, such as has been suggested by authors who in painting every possibility had the imagination to forecast the circumstances under which a tyrant might fall. In front of the eyes of the monster made in the semblance of man must have come the film of his deeds and the plunge from the topmost pinnacle of his temple to the abyss of defeat and despair. Little more than a hundred days ago he showed his fangs in an awful grimace of pleasure as his hordes were hurling on toward Paris. His minion nations were standing by, eager for the spoils of war, yet hanging off at a safe distance like wolves that rush up after the killing. The kaiser was a valiant prince in his people then, a conquering super-king before whom all men and all nations must quail; today he is a vagrant king, grotesque in his downfall and without the pity of the world. The world regards him as a gory monster, impotent, like a serpent from which the deadly venom has been extracted, scarcely worth the effort to crush beneath the heel of the nations it sought to strike.

But even while the ex-monarch may writhe and tremble while the nations keep a safe hand upon him, there will come a demand that as a felon he should answer for his crimes. The world is not so eager for the blood of any man that it will revel in the sight of his execution, but it has seen the guilty punished in its courts of law, and it will demand that as an example to the world, he pay for his crimes insofar as it is possible with his life, that life to be disposed of as the international court of justice shall decide.

To the Advertiser it seems that the kaiser was the Goliath of a most terrible race of giants and that the Allied nations, individually and collectively, played the part of David. David was the shining youth of unconquerable spirit who went forth with his sling to meet the giant David was Belgium and France and Britain. David was each man of the armies that sprang into existence at the sight of crime. David was the young Canadian who dropped his plow or left his mining camp or closed his books, and rushed forward to confront the ogre and to die. David was the spirit of sacrifice which sent forward the millions of the free and the brave. After months of struggling, David came to the point of vantage from which he hurled his stone. Like the flash of a comet the stone struck the giant of militarism in the forehead and he crumpled before the eyes of the multitudes. Each man who fought in this great war to dethrone the kaiser and all his brood is the David of the cause. To him shall great glory be given!

A JEWEL'S SETTING. By Archie Cameron New.

An unwonted stir and bustle transformed the Crampton place. And the stirr and most bustling individual thereabouts was a little, so-called, laboriously loved, older son of the soil, Ole Hen Crampton. "Ole Hen" had a new dignity today. "Ole Hen" had upset all the railbirds' dope and annexed unto herself a fiance, soon to be led to the altar. Now, in the light of the setting sun, appeared over the crest of the hill the vanguard of the wedding guests. Automobiles, buggies, surreys, carry-alls and even freshly scoured produce wagons, burdened with the neighboring yeomanry and yeomanry of the countryside, hove into view in stately procession, and Ole Hen, transformed in a new Sunday-go-to-meeting, rushed forward, with horny hands outstretched, to greet his guests. "Great afternoon for th' wedding, Hen," was the average greeting. "How's Jen?" "Ole Hen, with a proud smile and satisfied smirk, vouchsafed the assurance to all that Jen was "fit as a fiddle." The porch was already crowded with a motley assemblage of chatty swains and their herbivorous sweethearts, all save one engaged in general chatter on matters of common interest. That one, who held slightly aloof from the rest, appearing ill at ease, was becomingly attired in a Palm Beach suit, immaculate white shoes and a dazzling silk tie, giving him the appearance of a "city feller," which he actually was. Unable longer to stand their mixed glances of curiosity and envy, he rose from a rocker, yawned and sallied forth onto the lawn.

He took heart as Joe Ruggles, station agent down in the valley, rushed up dejectedly with a warm handshake and inquired solicitously as to his "folks."

"They're all well," he answered politely, and then, grasping the other's arm, he pointed to a nearby group. "Who's who's that girl, Mr. Ruggles?" Ruggles looked and turned reprovingly to the inquirer.

"Why, Dick Todd, don't you remember her? That's little Marian Skillman." Dick whistled and stared at the girl in amazement. Marian Skillman dressed in a simple blue frock, her slender, graceful figure, outlined against the fresh green of the trees and grass, presented a picture of exquisite charm and beauty. She seemed to sense his stare, for she turned two dimpled eyes, slight with dancing fire, full upon him and then ran up to him.

"Dick," she cried, delightedly, and then, for some unaccountable reason, she checked herself. The same feeling of amazement that marked the other's attitude toward him came over her, and he noted the change in her tone, with disappointment as she added, "What brought you down from the city?"

"The wedding," he answered, with a grave smile, still holding her right hand. "I—I couldn't miss it. And then, too, I was hungry for a sight of the old place. Haven't seen it in six years."

They stood and chatted a moment on the porch, each self attention, until she came to the bank of a small stream, between the Crampton and Skillman farms, where, six years before, he had awkwardly held her hand and said "good-bye." Time and city life had wrought great changes in him, but, as he sat there, his face, with grace, on the handkerchief he had spread for her on the grass, she still seemed the same little Marian, whose tousled black mane he had once pulled down over her eyes, and whose arm he had thrown carelessly over a big bowler.

He caught the indefinable look in her eyes he had noted at her first greeting. With characteristic frankness, he said to the point.

"What's the matter with me, Marian?" he demanded, and she started. "Why—nothing, Dick," she stammered, guiltily.

"Yes, there's something wrong," he insisted, grimly. "I feel like a trespasser. You all make me feel it." "Dick," she remonstrated, gently. "I mean it," he insisted, stubbornly. "I don't seem to fit in. It's because I'm from the city, I suppose." He paused. "If—if you people came to town, we'd treat you better than that."

"Dick, please don't quarrel," she begged him. "Then I'll quarrel on another subject," he retorted with a smile. "You told me you were coming to the city once to study music. Why didn't you?"

"For two reasons," she answered. "One was the conditions home. Since mother died, Dad's been leaning on me. I couldn't bear to leave him alone." She wistfully pulled up several blades of grass. "And, besides, I like you, would not fit in in the city." "Nonsense!" he exclaimed, impatiently, then he patted her hand reassuringly. "They'd love you in the city. See here, Marian, I want you to visit us—for a month. Your father could get along without you that long, and my mother would be delighted to have you. And I want you to meet my friends. As for myself," leaning closer to her, "I want you, too. You've always been my sweet-heart. Now I want to have you in the city, to compare you with our girls there. I know you'll fit in—there can be no doubt of that."

She shook her head, and a long argument ensued, but in the end, as he rose to take her back to the house, he had won her promise to visit his mother. "A kiss, Marian, to bid the bargain," he urged, and shyly, she turned her lips to his.

One afternoon, a month later, a dusty figure strode up the path to the Skillman home, and pulled the old brass knocker. But he received no response, even after a loud "hello." Then he went to the edge of the orchard, and looking down the hill toward the brook he saw a figure in white sitting on the bank. A minute later Marian turned, then rose to her feet stiffly. "I've been looking for you, Marian," he announced, breathlessly. "Did you get my letter?" "Yes," she admitted briefly, her face averted. "Marian, dearest, what's the matter?" he cried, taken aback. "Aren't you glad to see me?" She gazed at him for an instant, then seating herself on a wide-topped rock, she motioned him to sit down. "Dick," she started, eyeing him strangely. "To see you, of course," he replied.

GERMAN MILITARY POWER CRUSHED IN JUST FOUR MONTHS OF OFFENSIVE

WILLIAM'S MAD DESIRE TO RULE WORLD TERMINATES WITH DRAMATIC SWIFTNES AND DEMOCRACY TRIUMPHS

Successful Revolution in Germany Has Changed the Allies' Problem ---It May Be Lot of Victors To Save Germany from Bolshevism.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Associated Press tonight issued the following:

The German people, for a generation the obedient and submissive servants of their war lords, for more than four years their pliant instruments in ravaging the world, have spoken a new word, and the old Germany is gone. From the confused, sometimes conflicting and often delayed advices from Germany in the last two days it has now become apparent that William, emperor and king, has been stripped of his power. He is now plain William Hohenzollern, a fugitive in Holland. With his fall topples into ruin William's mad desire to rule the world.

For the Allies the problem has changed. The countries which fought Germany and her vassals for more than four years have emerged from it completely triumphant, but within the borders of the countries which menaced the peace of the whole world stalks revolt, famine and anarchy. The world's next task may be to restore order in the desolated central empires.

May Have To Save Germany.

It may be the lot of the forces who have successfully contested Germany's greed for power to save her from the fate she Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey, whose ruin Germany wrought.

The German empire was the last of the great autocracies whose fall marks the real significance that in Russia, Austria-Hungary and finally in Germany irresponsible power gave way before the irresistible forces of democracy. Germany, holding on to the last, kept up the hopeless struggle until Field Marshal von Hindenburg's prophetic words, early in the war, came true. The side with the strongest nerves, said he, would win. It was the crumbling of the home front which made it impossible for Germany, notwithstanding her great armies in the field, to carry on any longer.

German Idea Crumbles.

The collapse of Germany brings the eclipse of the German idea of the state as opposed to the doctrine of individual rights, to which the nation clung with hardly a dissenting voice until recently. Under this regime there was developed a nation of which militarism was the embodiment, which murdered and plundered, heedless of the rights of the individual and made terrorism a matter of studied policy.

Four months ago today the German military power apparently was at its height. The unchecked forces of the enemy had battered their way through the French and British lines until Paris was in danger, and the British were fighting with their "backs to the wall" to prevent themselves from being forced to the sea. Late in July the world was thrilled with the news of an Allied counter-attack between the Aisne and the Marne. The Germans were hurled back along the whole sector, and since that day the victorious progress of the Allies has been maintained.

Turning of the Scale.

Various causes have been contributed to this reversal. The entrance of the United States into the struggle, with her vast resources of men and materials, is conceded by the Allies to have turned the scale. One of the most important effects of this country's act was the strengthening to an enormous extent of the wearied Allied nations and a corresponding deterioration of the German morale. Exhaustion of German raw material and years of semi-starvation assisted in the process of beating down the enemy to a submissive frame of mind.

It is also significant that the establishment of unquestioned Allied supremacy in the field almost synchronized with the unification of military control and the appointment of General, now Marshal, Foch to the post of supreme commander. Military commentators without exception lay stress on the importance of single leadership and the genius of Foch in stemming and finally turning the tide.

THE INDIVIDUAL HEROES.

Among the individual leaders, aside from Foch, whose names stand out most prominently, are Marshal Joffre, who saved France in her darkest days of the summer of 1914; Field Marshal Haig, the British commander; General Petain, at the head of the French forces; General Diaz, who on the Italian front beat back last summer's great Austrian offensive and later took the Austrian armies to pieces in a few weeks, and General Pershing.

It was late in June, 1914, that the world was stirred by the murder in Sarajevo, Bosnia, of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the Austrian heir-apparent, and his wife, Austria, backed by Germany, accused Serbia of instigation of the crime, and made demands which Serbia accepted in part. Austria would not agree to arbitrate the demands not accepted by Serbia, and the foreign offices in London, Paris and Petrograd failed to serve Austria from her course.

BEGUN JULY 27, 1914.

Austria-Hungary began hostilities on July 27, 1914, by attacking Serbia, and within a week Germany had joined her, while France, Britain and Russia had thrown their forces against Germany and Austria. As the war went on the number of nations involved increased until the conflict became the greatest in the history of the world. Declaring war on France, Germany on August 1, 1914, threw her armies toward France by way of Belgium. Fighting for the maintenance of their neutrality, the Belgians checked the oncoming hordes for a time, but within two months the Prussian armies were within a few miles of Paris, from which the French Government had fled.

One of the vital moments of the war had arrived. In a battle of dramatic changes the enemy hordes were thrown back to north of the Marne.

UNCLE SAM COMES IN.

Turkey soon entered the war on the side of Germany, and Italy joined the Allies. Bulgaria came in with Germany, and Serbia and Montenegro were overrun.

On April 6, 1917, the United States, unable to force Germany by peaceful means to conduct a more humane warfare in keeping with international law, threw her forces into the struggle.

At that time the Imperial Government of Russia had been overthrown, and a provisional democratic government instituted. In Italy the armies of King Victor Emmanuel were driving back the Austrians in the Trentino and on the Isonzo. In France, the French and British were hammering at the German lines with little apparent result.

The autumn of 1917 witnessed the defeat of the Italian armies and their retreat to the Piave line. Almost simultaneously American troops appeared on the western front for the first time, while the French and British armies were holding positions of strategic importance from the North Sea to Switzerland. During the winter of 1917-18 American aid became more effective, and Russia dropped out because of Bolsheviki coup.

GERMANY'S VAIN BOAST.

Germany, at the beginning of 1918, announced her purpose to end the war by an offensive in France. It was her last mighty effort, and for weeks the world wondered when the enemy hordes would be stopped. The turn in the fighting came on July 18, when Marshal Foch launched the Americans and French in an attack. Since that fateful day for Germany, the Allied armies on all fronts have met with continued success.

Germany's ultimate defeat became more certain as the summer advanced. The first break in the ranks of the central powers came with the defection of Bulgaria late in September. Turkey signed an armistice the last of October, and Austria-Hungary tendered the white flag to Italy on November 4. When hostilities ceased on the eastern fronts Germany attempted to bring about a negotiated peace, but how great was her failure is shown by the fact that her emissaries are now at Marshal Foch's headquarters for the last scene of the great world tragedy.

RED FLAG IS NOW WAVING FROM GERMAN ROYAL PALACE

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 10.—Dr. Liebknecht, the noted Socialist, who spent many months in prison for antagonizing the German Government, and who was recently released, has issued the following announcement at Berlin to the workmen and soldiers' council:

"The presidency of the police, as well as the chief command, is in your hands. Our comrades will be released." The red banner has been hoisted on the royal palace and the red flag is waving from the Brandenburg gate.

Among those killed fighting at the Communist barracks was one of the workmen's leaders, known as "Comrade" Habersroth.

EX-KAISER MAY BE EXTRADITED AND PUNISHED

Ex-President Taft Says Holland Would Probably Give Him Up.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 11.—International law in the form of extradition treaties still may be invoked to punish William Hohenzollern, ex-king of Germany, for his crimes. Holland will surrender him, former President Wm. Taft said tonight, when he came here to open the United war work campaign tomorrow. As to the status of Hohenzollern, the former president said:

"As long as there are extradition treaties in force between Holland and the chief nations among the Allies, she may be asked to give him up for punishment, and would probably do so, but that is for Holland to decide."

BOLSHEVIKI HAND IS SUSPECTED AS BIG FACTOR IN REVOLT

Russian Prisoners Prominent in Movement.

RED FLAG PROMINENT

The Cologne Garrison Sides With Workmen's Council.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—How far the example of the Russian Bolsheviki influenced the German upheaval is an interesting question. Some German newspapers as late as Friday declared the movement as Bolsheviki.

Red flags figured frequently in the risings, and in Chancellor Ebert's motor floats the national emblem, the shielded eagle, were torn from the uniforms of officers in numerous cities, and even the soldiers' insignia were stripped from them. Russian prisoners played a part in the demonstrations in two or three towns.

Among the latest towns to come under the control of the workmen's and soldiers' council are Aix Capelle, Nuremberg, Mannheim, Gladbach and Muenster. A general strike has been proclaimed in Nuremberg and Mannheim.

Order has been restored at Hamburg, where the police have been permitted to resume their duties under the direction of the workmen's and soldiers' council, and places of amusement have been reopened.

At Cologne the whole garrison sided with the workers' council, whose program included, according to all German dynasties, the armistice of war loans, with special consideration for the subscriptions from the poorer classes, the liberation of all political prisoners, and the abolition of saluting.

The Berlin Vossische Zeitung and Vorwaerts confirm the fact that the Imperial Government at Kiel was mistaken for the idea that a cruise had been ordered, and that it was intended to give battle to the British fleet.

SEIZED BY GERMAN REVOLUTIONISTS

Crown Prince's Palace, one of Berlin's finest structures, now in the hands of revolutionists, who occupied the City of Berlin on Thursday afternoon, and seized the building after a fight with Imperial Guards.

GERMAN ENVOYS RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS TO ACCEPT ARMISTICE VIA WIRELESS

This Is Generally Assumed at Washington—Order May Have Been Sent by New Government at Berlin.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—There was no information as to the circumstances under which the armistice was signed, but since the German courier did not reach German military headquarters until 10 o'clock yesterday morning, French time, it was generally assumed here that the German envoys within the French lines had been instructed by wireless to sign the terms.

Forty-seven hours had been required for the courier to reach German headquarters and unquestionably several hours were necessary for the examination of the terms and a decision. It was regarded as possible, however, that the decision may have been made at Berlin and instructions transmitted from there by the new German Government.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Premier Lloyd George and Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, were speakers tonight at a banquet which followed the lord mayor's "victory" show.

"The issue is settled. In the spring we were being sorely pressed. The channel ports were being threatened, and the steel of the enemy was pointed at our hearts. It is autumn. The capital of Turkey is now almost within gunfire of our Allied troops, and to their relentless pursuit, the German envoys have not been able to get through, and other means have had to be devised to enable them to cross the lines. (Owing to these circumstances I have nothing to say to you this evening as to the result of the armistice negotiations. But for all that, it does not matter.)"

GERMANY FINISHED; FALLS INTO RUIN, SAYS LLOYD GEORGE

Once Great Empire a Wreck Within and Without, Declares British Premier—Issue Ended, No Matter What Is Reply to Armistice Terms.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—British Wireless Service—Premier Lloyd George said tonight that the German empire has fallen into ruin, and that the British Empire will be able to keep its peace and all will be right with the world.

"The next few years are charged with fate for Britain and the Empire. It is British and the British Empire before. Let the British Empire keep its peace and all will be right with the world."

Plain William Hohenzollern Now in Holland

Is Proceeding to the Town of Desteeg, Near Utrecht.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—William Hohenzollern has arrived in Holland and is proceeding to the town of Desteeg, near Utrecht, according to a dispatch received by the American general staff today from The Hague.

The message said: "The Kaiser arrived this morning in Maastricht, Holland, and is proceeding to Maastricht Castle in the town of Desteeg, near Utrecht."

AND FREDDIE, TOO! LONDON, Nov. 10.—Midnight—Both the former German emperor and his eldest son, Frederick Wilhelm, crossed the Dutch frontier Sunday morning according to advices from The Hague.

GERMAN COURIER DELAYED EN ROUTE WITH HIS MESSAGE

Blowing Up of Ammunition by Boches Mistaken for Cannonade.

Washington, Nov. 10.—(Wireless.)—A wireless dispatch from the German Naval station, Yokohama, to the American naval towers, says it has been officially explained in Berlin that the courier bearing the armistice terms was delayed in crossing the lines by an explosion on the German side, but that the terms could be expected at any hour. The message follows:

It has been officially reported concerning the delay in transmission of the armistice terms that the courier commissioned to bring armistice conditions sent on the night of the 8th of November by wireless from Eiffel Tower, the statement that he could not pass the line since German had not ceased firing. He was probably led to this statement by circumstances that the German side an ammunition depot had caught on fire and was blown up with continuous detonations. The courier had the circumstances explained to him by wireless and received instructions to immediately cross the lines. Arrival of armistice terms in Berlin can be expected at any hour."

ACCEPT NEW ORDER. BERNE, Nov. 10.—The burgo-master of Berlin and the prefect of police have placed themselves and their staffs at the disposal of the new government.

FREDERICH EBERT, CHANCELLOR, FORMS PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT TO "QUICKLY" EFFECT PEACE

ZURICH, Switz., Nov. 10.—Because of the troubles in the interior of Germany Prince Maximilian of Baden and all the bourgeois ministers have resigned, says a dispatch from Berlin. Friedrich Ebert, the German Socialist leader, has been definitely recognized as chancellor.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Friedrich Ebert, upon assuming office yesterday as chancellor, announced a program announcing that the new Government of Berlin had taken charge of business to prevent civil war and famine in a manifesto addressed to the "citizens" of Germany. The chancellor said he was going to form a people's government to bring about peace "as quickly as possible" and to confirm the liberty which the Government had gained.

The text of the decree and the manifesto were sent out by the German wireless station at Neuen, and picked up today by naval radio stations in this country. In making them public the state department said it had no doubt as to the accuracy of the facts presented.

The publication said: "To Avoid Civil War. 'New Government' has taken charge of business in order to preserve Germany people from civil war and famine, and to bring about peace as quickly as possible. This task I can only accomplish if all authorities in all civil offices in towns in hanted districts lead to it helpful hands. I know it will be hard for many to co-operate with new men who have to lead business of the empire. But I apply to their love for our people. If necessary, I will use force."

Organization of public life steps in this serious hour, then Germany would be prey of anarchy and most terrible misery. "Therefore lend together with me your help to our country by continuing work in factories and freighting, making everybody in his position until hour has come that believes in our duty."

Ebert's Proclamation. The text of the manifesto follows: "Citizens—Former Chancellor Prince Max of Baden, with assent of all the secretaries, has charged me to carry on business of chancellor. "I am going to form new government, with parties, and shall report within brief delay and confirm the liberty which the Government has gained. "Citizens—I ask for the assistance of you all in heavy task which awaits us. You know how seriously war threatens approximation of people, which is first condition of freighting. Politics revolution ought not disturb approximation of people. Politics revolution ought not disturb production of food nor its transportation into towns, but to foster it. Security of workmen in all industries, plundering, with misery for all. The poorest would suffer in the most heavy burden. Workmen in all industries would be hit most severely. Whoever takes away food or other objects of necessity by means of transportation necessary for their distribution, heaviest sin against all. "Citizens—Lend together with me your help to our country by continuing work in factories and freighting, making everybody in his position until hour has come that believes in our duty." (Signed) "EBERT."

BERLIN OCCUPIED BY REBEL FORCES

Copenhagen, Nov. 10.—Berlin was occupied by forces of the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council late Thursday afternoon, according to a report received here.

Many persons were killed and wounded before the officers surrendered. The Red forces are in control and have restored order. Strong guards are marching through the streets.

The crown prince's palace has been seized by the revolutionists. The people are shouting "Long live the republic," and are singing the "Marseillaise."

When revolutionary soldiers attempted to enter a building in which they supposed a number of officers were concealed they were resisted, and then began shelling the building.

When the cannonade began the people thought the Reichbank was being bombed, and thousands rushed to the square in front of the crown prince's palace. It was later determined that other buildings were under fire.

REVOLUTION CARRIES CITIES, PROVINCES

LONDON, Nov. 10, 11:25 a.m.—Schleswig-Holstein, the Prussian province which formerly belonged to Denmark, is to be proclaimed an independent republic, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

Leipzig, the second city in Saxony, Stuttgart, the capital of Wurtemberg, and Cologne and Frankfurt, have joined the revolution, according to reports from the Danish frontier, telegraphed here by the Exchange Telegraph Company.

The soldiers' councils at Stuttgart, Cologne and Frankfurt have decided to proclaim a republic.

A train filled with soldiers has been sent from Berlin to the purpose of persuading other towns to join the revolution, says a dispatch from the Danish frontier, telegraphed here by the Exchange Telegraph Company.

MAKING CLEAN SWEEP. COPENHAGEN, Nov. 10.—The railway stations in the industrial districts of Germany from Dortmund to Duisburg have been occupied by the soldiers' councils, according to a dispatch from Essen. There were no disorders, and the railway stations were handed over to the official announcement at Berlin. These cities, however, are not only in the hands of the mutineers, the statement adds. At Magdeburg the situation resisted.

MEETING SOME RESISTANCE. COPENHAGEN, Nov. 10.—Rebellions have broken out in Cologne, Brunswick and Magdeburg, according to the official announcement at Berlin. These cities, however, are not only in the hands of the mutineers, the statement adds. At Magdeburg the situation resisted.

AND FREDDIE, TOO! LONDON, Nov. 10.—Midnight—Both the former German emperor and his eldest son, Frederick Wilhelm, crossed the Dutch frontier Sunday morning according to advices from The Hague.

ONLY ONE PORT IS OPEN TO LOYALISTS

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 10.—Six more cruisers flying the red flag arrived at Hamburg last night, says a Wolff news agency dispatch received here. The city of Hamburg generally is quiet.

MINE FIELDS UNGUARDED. COPENHAGEN, Saturday, Nov. 9.—(By The Associated Press.)—German guard vessels in the mine fields off the great belt and the left have left their stations. The crews forbade the officers to leave vessels and then hoisted the red flag.

PORTS BARRED TO "LOYALISTS." COPENHAGEN, Nov. 10.—The German training ship "Schlesien," with 400 men on board, which fled from Kiel when the rebellion broke out there, has arrived at Marstal in distress. The crew has been unable to obtain water at other Danish ports.

Two German cruisers, in control of Red forces, are watching outside of Marstal. The commander of the Schlesien says he believes Detzsig the only German port he can safely enter.

The Schlesien is a pre-dreadnought battleship. It is 413 feet long and displaces 13,000 tons. Marstal, where she took refuge, is a small port on the east coast of the island of Aroe, in the Baltic.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 8.—Sonderborg is in the hands of the revolutionists, and the red flag has been raised on ships there. Sonderborg is situated on the island of Als, Schleswig. It is thirteen miles northeast of Flensburg. It has a population of 5,000.

BALTIC GUARD SHIPS REVOLT. LONDON, Nov. 10.—British Wireless.—Three German destroyers have anchored outside of Stockholm and all the guard ships in the Baltic have joined the revolutionary movement.

BOLSHEVISM IN NAVY. AMSTERDAM, Nov. 3.—Bolshevism is extending rapidly in the German navy. The Soldiers' Councils, formed at several points, have been joined by striking dock workers and shipyard men, and are negotiating on an equal footing with the admirals and port commandants.

At Hamburg, sailors armed with machine guns, revolvers and bayonets besieged the Bundesrat's infantry barracks, which surrendered after a sharp exchange of volleys. COMMANDERS ARE SHOT. AMSTERDAM, Nov. 3.—The town commandant at Kiel now in command, while resisting arrest, according to a dispatch from that place to the Cologne Volks Zeitung. LOW-GRADE COTTON TO BE MORE COMMONLY USED. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—A special British mission is now in conference with the committee on cotton distribution here devising means of bringing about broader utilization of cotton in the lower grades by British spinners. CHARIE CHAPLIN WEDS. LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—Charles S. Chaplin, motion picture comedian, was married here on October 23 to Miss Mildred L. Harris of Los Angeles. The marriage has been kept secret at the urgent request of the groom.

The duke is reported to have abdicated along with Kaiser Wilhelm.

The reigning Duke of Brunswick whose abdication is announced in a telegram from Brunswick by way of Berlin, is Ernest Augustus, a son of the Duke of Cumberland. On May 24, 1913, he married Princess Victoria Louisa, the only daughter of Emperor William. They have three sons, the eldest, Ernest Augustus, whose right to the throne also has been renounced, being born March 18, 1914.

Great Britain in 1904 to help swell the fund for the big drive. This putter, which to him has been a priceless trophy, will be sold to the highest bidder just before the match begins or possibly on the ninth green, and there is no telling what price it will command. Frank Bacon, president of the Garden City Golf Club, will act as auctioneer. Travis sailed away from these shores in quest of the highest honors in golf. He practiced long and patiently over the English courses, and just before the championship he went off to the States. He borrowed a putter and with its use, as if by magic, his game came back. He played in the tournament and won it. In that tournament were some of the best players of England and Scotland, including Harold H. Hilton and Horace Hutchinson among others. A player named Robb gave Travis a hard battle in one of the early rounds, but after that he was no longer a threat. In the final round of 36 holes he faced the far-driving Edward J. Blackwell, and, thanks largely to his deadly putting, he beat the Englishman by 4 up and 3 to play. A special train will be run from the Pennsylvania station at 12:45 o'clock on Sunday to accommodate the golfers who want to see the match between Travis and Blackwell. The special train will arrive at Garden City at 1:20, ten minutes before the players drive off.

THREE HUNDRED GOLF CLUBS ENTER DRIVE. Great National Medal Handicap Competition at New York Saturday. NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Golfers of nearly three hundred clubs throughout the country will tee up on Saturday, November 16, in the great national medal play handicap competition arranged by Cornelius J. Sullivan, president of the Metropolitan Golf Association, as their contribution to the fund sought by the United War Work Campaign to carry on the program of the Y. M. C. A. The rights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare board, Salvation Army and other work service organizations. "They said we couldn't do it in three weeks," said Mr. Sullivan yesterday at his office, 61 Broadway, as he was superintending the distribution of the bronze Victory medals contributed by John D. Rockefeller, Sen., and the posters which have been designed to advertise the golf competition. "But in spite of the fact that hundreds of clubs have closed their links for the season, 246 clubs have entered in their enlistment in this great patriotic drive, and every man is bringing additions to the list. At the present rate we are assured of more than 275 competitions in all parts of the country. The plan of the golf campaign has been to have the contributions made by the players themselves rather than by spectators. Only one match has been arranged, that between Walter J. Travis of Garden City and Findlay S. Douglas of Apawamis. These players are ancient rivals, both have been amateur champions, and their match at Garden City day after tomorrow is expected to attract a large gallery. They will start at 10:30 o'clock. Travis has offered the putter with which he won the golf championship of

MIDDLESEX WILL TAKE ITS PLACE!

Every citizen of the County of Middlesex should face squarely now the duty he owes to the "boys over there"—the duty he owes to the Dominion of Canada—to his home folks and neighbors—and lastly, but by no means least, the important duty he owes to the County of Middlesex.

There is no citizen who does not in all sincerity want to see every possible boy from Middlesex return from the war and take his accustomed place.

Middlesex must retain its position as the banner county of the premier province of this rich and prosperous Dominion—that Dominion which is today asking from the citizens of her richest county (Middlesex) the loan of $2,750,000 toward finishing the war, toward bringing home "those boys" who are fighting for us—those boys who are the bravest and best of the county of Middlesex—those boys who prized honor greater than life.

That Middlesex will fall below its quota is not believed—that it will rally and come to the front is the confident belief of all its leading citizens. That Middlesex will do as well in Victory Bonds as in Red Cross and other patriotic work is expected—but to do it everyone must share. Then Middlesex will lead.

Conditions of health have prevented public meetings; we have not been able, as is our custom, to meet in halls—in neighborly meetings—and vie with one another as to which village or town or district would first surpass its quota. Now let us each face it squarely and do our part.

Every man, every woman, every boy, every girl should come forth at once, freely, without further persuasion, and subscribe to the limit to help us maintain our position as the banner county.

Middlesex has always led—and now in this great brotherhood movement of winning the war and feeding and clothing and bringing home "our boys," do not let it be said, "Middlesex was not first," but let it be said, "Every citizen of Middlesex loaned to the utmost; everyone gave all they could spare, and all they could borrow."

Let us examine closely, each for himself, and decide if he has given as the boys fight—given his all—if he has purchased every Victory Bond possible and maintained Middlesex in a proud position behind the Victory Loan.

Today, as this message is being penned, German commanders acknowledge defeat—acknowledge (through revolution) that it will never be possible for the kaiser to say to us, "Pay!" We owe this happy condition entirely to our soldiers—for whose support this Victory Loan is asked.

How proud we will all be when the home-coming days dawn if we can say, "We could not go, but we rallied in support of our boys—we own Victory Bonds."

Peace does not remove the necessity to loan this money to the Dominion of Canada. The business of the country must go on and be financed through the period of readjustment—through the space of time required to return every soldier boy to his home. If prosperity is to continue, unlimited credit must be behind the Dominion in order that it may hold and obtain greater world trade than ever before.

People of Middlesex, We Ask You To Go "Over the Top!"

"Leave No Tree In France Standing!"

(German Official Edict.)

Wherever the Hun has gone, there he has left wanton, needless desolation. Towns and villages have been sacked and burned, cathedrals destroyed, even the unoffending trees felled to earth in his diabolic purpose to create a desert where the labor of centuries had made the land to smile. This is not war, but the hellish instinct of barbaric vandalism!

We have pledged our men, our money and our resources to overwhelm this ruthless force that hates all progress other than its own. Come forward, Londoners, with your support! Enlist every dollar you can save and spare to this supremely necessary end! No man has done his duty until he has bought all the Victory Bonds he has the cash to pay for and all he can pay for in installments in the months to come.

ANXIETY IS EXPRESSED AS TO RESPONSIBILITY OF NEW GOVT.

London, Nov. 11.—In view of the irregular and uncertain position of the new German Government, anxiety is expressed by some London newspapers that difficulties arise to prevent acceptance and enforcement of the Allied armistice terms. The pleas of some German papers that the Allies ought not to crowd Germany to the wall so hard that she would be unable to establish herself under a democratic government tend to confirm suspicions in some quarters here that the transfer of power to the Socialists really is a subtle device by which the former emperor and the militarists hope to obtain easier terms. It is intended that if such a scheme

Mrs. J. A. Wallis.

Threw Away Her Crutches

MRS. WALLIS was cured of inflammatory rheumatism ten years ago, and tells in her very interesting letter how cure was discovered. The treatment used was so effective that her system was restored to good condition, and she has had exceptionally good health ever since.

In order that others may have the benefit of her experience she has kindly written this letter and allowed the use of her portrait. Any reader wishing further particulars of her cure will find Mrs. Wallis only too glad to do what she can to help them.

Mrs. J. A. Wallis, 17 House Avenue, Brantford, Ont., writes:

"About ten years ago I was troubled with inflammatory rheumatism, and my system was in a generally run-down condition. I tried several doctors here and many different medicines, but received no benefit from any of them. I kept getting worse, and became so bad that I had to use two crutches to get around the house. One day I felt 'all in' and completely discouraged. The baby was sitting on the floor playing with a newspaper. She tore a piece off, and I happened to pick it up. I glanced over it, and my attention was attracted by a letter from some one who had been cured by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I had never tried this remedy, but decided right then to see what it would do for me. While taking the first box I found them to be doing me good, as they seemed to put more life into me, so I continued the treatment, using box after box until I had taken 24 boxes. I felt so much better that I did not need any more medicine of any kind, and have not taken any for years. The Nerve Food relieved my rheumatism so I could do without the crutches, and I have enjoyed extra good health ever since. I can heartily recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to anyone suffering from either a run-down condition or inflammatory rheumatism."

This report should convince the most skeptical of the effectiveness of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in enriching the blood, building up the system, and thereby removing the cause of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, locomotor ataxia, paralysis and scores of other diseases which prey upon a run-down condition of the body.

You can obtain Dr. Chase's Nerve Food from any dealer or direct from Edmansson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. 50c a box, 6 for $2.75. The portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, are on every box.

LOYD GEORGE ANNOUNCES SIGNING OF ARMISTICE; ALL FIGHTING ENDED AT 6 O'CLOCK

London, Nov. 11.—It is officially announced that the armistice between the Allies and Germany has been signed. The announcement was made by Premier Lloyd George, who said: "The armistice was signed at 5 o'clock this morning, and hostilities are to cease on all fronts at 11 o'clock today."

London, Nov. 11.—The period given for the evacuation of the left bank of the Rhine by the German forces has been extended by 24 hours, according to a French wireless dispatch received here.

Premier Lloyd George spoke to the cheering and enthusiastic crowds in the streets, saying:

"The war will be over by 11 o'clock. This empire has done a great deal to end the war, and you are now entitled to shout."

A great roar of approval came from the crowd as they pushed each other eagerly to get within hearing distance of the premier, who spoke from the steps of his official residence in Downing street. The crowds had been called from their offices and the streets by the firing of the former air raid signals.

PROUDEST MONARCHS OF HISTORY STRIPPED OF POWER AND FORCED TO FLEE FROM THEIR COUNTRIES

Ten Million Lives Sacrificed in 1,567 Days of the Bloodiest Fighting Ever Known—Crowds in Berlin Rejoice and Sing the Marseillaise.

New York, Nov. 11.—The Associated Press this morning issues the following: After 1,567 days of horror, during which virtually the whole civilized world has been convulsed, the greatest war in history ended this morning at 6 o'clock, Washington time.

Announcement of the tremendous event was made at the state department at the capital at 2:45 o'clock this morning, and in a few seconds was flashed throughout the continent by the Associated Press.

Details of the terms dictated by Marshal Foch on Friday forenoon to the German armistice delegates have not as yet been given out, but it is believed that they are of such a nature as to protect the world from a resumption of the struggle by the Germans. It is assumed that they call for the demobilization of Germany's army, the surrender of part of her fleet and the dismantling of the rest, and the evacuation of occupied portions of France and Belgium and of Alsace-Lorraine. It is probable, also, that Germany has agreed to call home all her troops now in Russia and Rumania.

The terse announcement of the state department did not tell anything of the scene at Marshal Foch's headquarters at the time the armistice was signed. It was stated, however, that at 5 o'clock, Paris time, the signatures of German delegates were affixed to the documents which blasted forever the dream which embroiled the world in a struggle which has cost, at the very lowest estimate, 10,000,000 lives.

FALLEN MONARCHS.—When the war began the Teutonic alliance was headed by two of the proudest houses in history—the Hohenzollerns and the Hapsburgs. Today William II, of Germany is a fugitive in Holland and Charles I, of Austria, while he may be still in his country, has been stripped of power and has seen his empire shattered into pieces. Ferdinand of Bulgaria has fled from his country, and Mohammed V, of Turkey, who also joined in the attempt to dominate the world, is dead, slain, it is said, by the hands of an assassin. While the curtain was reeling down on the most stupendous tragedy in mankind's history, events were moving with terrible swiftness in Germany, the nation about which revolved the plot and counter-plot of the drama. Berlin, Leipzig, Stuttgart, Cologne, Hamburg and Frankfurt are in the hands of the revolutionists, who last week raised the red flag at Kiel.

Germany's navy is apparently scattered into disjointed units, each seeking sanctuary in Danish ports or waiting in German harbors for the latest turn of events.

CROWDS SING THE MARSEILLAISE.—Crowds singing the Marseillaise are marching through the streets of automatic Berlin, and a soldiers' and workmen's council has taken over the Government of the empire.

Wurttemberg, Schleswig-Holstein and Hesse Darmstadt have declared themselves independent republics, following the action taken by Bavaria last Friday. Wilhelm II of Wurttemberg is reported to have abdicated. Saxony is said to be near a like declaration, and the revolutionists are said to be in control at Dresden.

The republic of Poland has served official notice on Austria that Poland has annexed the crownland of Galicia. As the last hours of the mighty combat drew near, British, Belgian and American forces were rapidly pushing the last German troops from France and Belgium. Gen. Pershing's men attacked yesterday over a front of 71 miles from the Meuse southeastward.

ALL SINGERS INVITED TO JOIN MASSES CHOR IN CELEBRATION

All singers in London are requested by Mayor Somerville to join in forming a great masses choir to lead the peace celebration in Victoria Park today, if official news of the signing of the armistice is received. All those who attend the Community Chorus are expected to attend this, the first opportunity for a civic service of song. The directors and members of all the city church choirs are particularly invited to assist, also the members of any other singing society will be gladly welcomed. The National Anthem, "O Canada," "God Save the King," "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" and the Doxology will be sung. The military bands will accompany the great choir, and a song of praise and thanksgiving should resound to the very heavens as London pours out its soul in a mighty burst of song.

Space will be reserved adjoining the bandstand for singers, and all are asked to assemble in their respective parts under the banners printed soprano, alto, tenor or bass. It is hoped that those forming the choir will gather at the bandstand at 2:45 p.m., so that all will be in readiness when the procession arrives. London has the reputation of being the first Canadian city to inaugurate a community singing, and this time will be the first opportunity for the general participation in a civic choir by all the citizens. Let London still lead the way.

WOMEN MUNITION WORKERS ARE FIRST CELEBRATORS ON TORONTO STREETS

Sirens and Whistles Awakened the Queen City at 3 a.m.

Toronto, Nov. 11.—Toronto was awakened from its slumbers at 2:55 o'clock this morning. The first flash bulletin that armistice had been signed came through over the Associated Press wires to the newspapers at that hour. Within a few minutes, many whistles in all parts of the city were blowing full blast. Eaton's big "wild cat" siren awakened the whole city. Toronto citizens rubbed their eyes and could not believe their senses. The newspaper offices were swamped with the calls. At a little after three o'clock a procession, mostly of women munition workers, paraded Young street, cheering, wildly beating tin pans and blowing whistles. By this time a crowd began to gather all along Young street, motor cars came tearing down street, reckless of all the speed laws, tooting their horns and assisting in fairly stamping the telephone exchanges with work. The girls worked heroically without any let-up to help give the wonderful tidings to all parts of the waiting, anxious but sleeping province.

He gave them ordinary cultivation, and during the last week of October he dug them. He is well satisfied with his experiment.

THRONGS CROWD DUNDAS ST. AWAITING PEACE NEWS ARE ENTERTAINED BY ADVERTISER

Action of People of Germany in Throwing Off Yoke Loudly Cheered--Holiday Today if Armistice Is Signed.

Expectantly, and with the safety valves of their feelings in the open, Londoners experienced yesterday a Sunday such as they may never see through again. All day long, from early morning the people kept watch on the bulletin boards for any signs of peace. The armistice had been signed. It was confidently expected by a large proportion of citizens that the fatal message would arrive in the city before evening at least. All the telephones in the city were in demand. The day was kept busy during the day answering the queries of those who could not get down to read the bulletin.

When the military and the G. W. V. are proceeding west on Dundas street after leaving Queen's Park, the decorated autos and floats will fall in and follow down to Rectory street, when the autos and floats will stop until the members of the parade are waiting there. The parade will fall in, when the vehicles will fall in again. The autos and floats follow this arrangement at each street until the complete parade is formed, and thus the vehicles will always remain in the rear.

Read Tizer Bulletins.
There was just a note of sadness in another voice of one who has the dear relative in action a few days ago. The grief was all the greater because the end of the war is so near. Early in the evening such crowds began to gather in front of The Advertiser office to read the latest bulletin that traffic was all but blocked. When darkness had settled down on the city the news was thrown on a screen in a window of the office. A series of cartoons drawn by The Advertiser artist and the war was also shown, as well as several reels of moving pictures depicting war scenes. These released the large crowd that thronged the street.

Cheered the News.
As the news of the day was reviewed today, the cheering in Germany and the capture of Berlin and Essen by the revolutionaries the crowds gave vent to their feelings by prolonged cheering.

In accordance with the proclamation of Mayor C. R. Somerville and the fact that nothing is to be done to interfere with the services in the churches yesterday afternoon a great crowd had gathered for the celebration in the event of the big news being received. When at 11 o'clock no news had come through the crowd began to diminish.

In the event of the word being received this morning there will be a holiday and the celebration starting at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when the parade will leave Queen's Park and go down town. However, the news is not received until afternoon the demonstration will take place at 7 o'clock in the evening.

The citizens will be warned by whistles and bells, and the flashing of the street lights when the news is received.

Crowds on Saturday.
Thronging the streets on Saturday night the expectant crowd waited for the word that would tell the world that peace had been made. Up till the time of the issuing of the first extra on Saturday afternoon and the Duke of Brunswick it was the general opinion that the armistice would take the full time of 12 hours, which was allowed them by General Foch for the consideration of the terms on which hostilities would stop. Some even doubted that the terms would be accepted by the Germans, and thought that the fighting would continue.

When the news was issued that the Kaiser had abdicated a different view was taken, and they are fastened on the extra press the anxious bought the extras and devoured the latest dispatches with eagerness.

The news rapidly spread through the city and by 7 o'clock the Dundas street between Clarence and Richmond streets was crowded with people waiting for the latest bulletin. To enable the news to be read by the large throng The Advertiser prepared for the loan of a motion picture machine from T. Logan, the manager of the Majestic Theatre, and the news was received over the wire it was bulletined on slides and thrown on a screen which had been erected across the street. Interspersed with the news bulletins were cartoons, dealing with some phases of the war.

When the one picturing the German ex-eriter being assisted out of the way by a well-directed kick from one of Canada's sons, and hearing the message, "Good-bye, Kaiser Bill," was thrown on the screen the cheers that burst spontaneously from the hundreds of throats indicated the interest that the people were taking in the slides.

All through the evening the crowds thronged the street in the expectancy that the joyful message would be flashed on the screen, and not until well towards midnight did they show any disposition to leave for their homes. Disappointed were they that it had not been received, but hopeful that it would be received before long.

City Clerk S. Baker is working on the official program, which will be one worth keeping as a souvenir. He is including in it the names of the battles, where London's sons won lasting fame, and other outstanding events in the history of the city in connection with the war.

Thanksgiving Service.
A short service of thanksgiving will be included in the program which will be given at Victoria Park in connection with the celebration. An address by one of the ministers of the city, followed by a prayer from another preacher, and hymns suitable for the occasion will be features of the thanksgiving service. It was pointed out that this would be a long service. A. D. Jordan will have charge of the songfest, assisted by songsters who attended his auditions last week.

Order for Parade.
Following is the order of the parade which will be held. The military, with its bands, and the G. W. V. are accompanied by the Veterans' Band, will form at Queen's Park.

The decorated cars and floats will line up on Dundas street east of Ontario. The bicycle clubs will wait the procession at Rectory street and Dundas at English street, the fire department and the works department will fall in. The Mercantile Club and bands will form at Glebe street, while the Red Cross, Victory Loan committee, board of trade and the Mocha Patrol and trade band will await the parade at Adelaide street. At William street, the Motor Club, on foot and hand, and the Rotary and Canadian clubs will fall in. The Salvation Army and band, led by the city officers, public boards of the city, and the 7th Regiment Band will form up at Adelaide street.

Schools in Line.
The public and separate school children of the city will be with the "saves" Band, and the Macdonald and Henderson Kiltie Pipe Bands will wait for the parade on Dundas street, between Wellington and Wellington.

The inviolated soldiers will be stationed on the south side of Dundas street west of the east of Wellington street.

On arrival at the park, if it can be arranged with the military, the school bands will be with the parade.

Bands in Park.
The bands will be arranged in the park in the following order: Military, at the bandstand in the centre; Marconi, near the Central avenue and Clarence street entrance; the G. W. V., near the centre, Clarence street gate; the Hussars, near the entrance at Clarence street and Dufferin avenues; the 7th Regiment, near the Wellington and Dufferin entrance, and the Salvation Army at Central and Wellington entrances.

The city is purchasing 2,000 flags for the kiddies and souvenir programs are also being provided. In the event of the program not being ready for distribution the parade will be carried out at the office of City Clerk S. Baker.

Col. W. G. Coles and Controller J. M. Moore were appointed a committee to make arrangements for the transportation of the soldiers.

Mayor C. R. Somerville, City Clerk S. Baker and Ald. F. E. Harley have been named a committee to supervise all the arrangements.

When the military and the G. W. V. are proceeding west on Dundas street after leaving Queen's Park, the decorated autos and floats will fall in and follow down to Rectory street, when the autos and floats will stop until the members of the parade are waiting there. The parade will fall in, when the vehicles will fall in again. The autos and floats follow this arrangement at each street until the complete parade is formed, and thus the vehicles will always remain in the rear.

DORCHESTER OPENS DOORS.
The Imperial Order of the L. O. D. E. has purchased the property of Geo. Wade of this village, and is moving into it.

The influenza seems to be on the wane here, and the public school will reopen on Monday. Public services were held in the churches today, and it is hoped that no more cases will appear.

The Farmers' Club made a shipment of hogs on Tuesday at $17.25. They are also shipping wheat and oats quite extensively.

After some more discussion on the length of the celebration, Mayor Somerville, who occupied the chair, said that he would be satisfied whatever was done.

"You mean you do not care whether the store is open or closed?" asked A. A. Langford.

The chairman thought that the celebration would not suffer on account of the store being closed.

STOMACH SO BAD THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE CAN EAT ANYTHING NOW
But for indigestion and dyspepsia, many a life might be a pleasant one. The misery which stomach troubles cause the sufferer knows only too well, and any one who has suffered knows what joy it would give to be able to eat three good meals a day and not be punished for it after.

Nearly everything that enters a weak stomach acts as an irritant, and even the littlest bit is often causes such torture and is digested so imperfectly that it does little good.

Before you can eat heartily, and not pick at choice food, you must put your stomach right so that it will manufacture its own digestive ferments.

For forty years now Burdock Blood Bitters has been making men's stomachs strong, and permanently curing severe cases of indigestion and dyspepsia that other remedies were powerless to reach.

Mr. H. L. Fairweather, Cumberland Day, N. B., writes: "I was troubled with my stomach for two years, and sometimes was so bad I thought I would die. I tried everything I ever heard tell of, and had medicine from three doctors, but continued to grow worse. One day I read of some wonderful cures made with Burdock Blood Bitters. After taking two bottles, I could eat any kind of food without any bad effects, and by the time I had taken four I was in perfect health."

FLU SPREADS OVER CIVILIZED WORLD
Germ Eludes Bacteriologists and Health Authorities Are Baffled.

The influenza epidemic continues unabated. Its ravages are not confined to this city or province, or even to Canada, and cable reports indicate that it is rapidly spreading over the civilized world. It has baffled medical skill to an unusual extent, and has claimed more victims perhaps than any other epidemic in a score of years. The germ has eluded the bacteriologists, and medical men now agree that the best cure is prevention.

The surest prevention is to build up the bodily powers of resistance and to get the system in the best physical condition possible. It is now universally agreed that it is impossible to perfect the powers of resistance of the human system so that it can throw off almost any infection, not excepting Spanish influenza.

It has been discovered that persons who are weak and run down are the earliest victims, and if you find yourself tired or weak, as if you were, or if you are in a generally run-down condition and below your normal weight, this warning should be heeded promptly. If you are in this condition nothing on earth will build you up and strengthen you like Tanlac, which contains the most powerful tonic properties known to science. As a reconstructive tonic and system builder it is without an equal, and contains the very elements needed by the system to give you fighting strength to ward off the influenza germ. This is a statement of facts and is supported by the recognized authorities and reference works, including the United States Dispensary, the Encyclopedia Britannica and leading text books used in the school of medicine. This statement is further proven by the fact that millions of persons who have actually taken Tanlac have testified to its extraordinary merit as a medicine, and by the fact that Tanlac is today having the greatest sale of any tonic on the market, over seven million bottles having been sold within the past three years.

Tanlac is also the ideal strengthening tonic for persons who are suffering from the after-effects of influenza, Grip or Bronchial Troubles, and hundreds of thousands are using it daily with the most gratifying results.

67 YEARS OF GROWTH

IN the early days the founder of this business made a few gross of matches a day, and sold them himself, driving his horse and wagon as far as Toronto. Today, from automatic machines, 70,000,000 matches a day are turned out to keep Canada's home fires burning. And not matches alone: indurated fibreware, household helps, and a host of paper products have been added to this line.

The House of Eddy has become an institution which touches the daily life of the Canadian public in a thousand different ways.

There is a reason back of this steady and consistent progress. Business institutions do not grow to such proportions by accident. It takes real merit to accomplish such a result; merit in the goods themselves, and in the concern which is back of them.

When you buy matches, see that Eddy's name is on the box. When you are in need of some of the familiar household helps, such as a washtub, a pail, or a washboard, remember that there is an Eddy product which will fill your needs, made from light and durable Indurated Fibreware. Remember also that Eddy's Paper Specialties are standard.

Our Prestige is your Safeguard when you buy Eddy Products
