A Magnificent Reception for McEvoy in East London

DR. J. A. MACDONALD ARRAIGNS BORDEN-BOURASSA ALLIANCE

Slashing Speech of Famous Canadian in Which the Anti-British Pact of Conservative Leader Is Exposed.

RECIPROCITY AGREEMENT EXPLAINED: THE PEOPLE AGAINST BIG INTERESTS

The Present Election Is the Fight of the Common Man Against the Trusts for a Square Deal in a Free Country—A Big Audience in Jubilee Rink.

Dr. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, delivered a slashing speech in the Jubilee Rink last night on behalf of reciprocity. There was a good attendance in spite of the storm, the rink being fully three-quarters full. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed throughout the evening. Dr. Macdonald arousing the audience to a high pitch. Mr. J. M. McEvoy, the Liberal candidate, made a strong speech, replete with facts and figures, which were marshalled and driven home with the skill of an experienced platform speaker. Dr. G. A. Routhledge, Liberal candidate for East Middlesex, spoke briefly, and added to the excellent reputation he has made as a candidate. Mr. F. G. Rumball, president of the Liberal Association, presided. Mr. Newton Rowell, of Toronto, had accepted an invitation to address the meeting, contingent upon other engagements, but found at the last moment he could not get away.

agreement to substantiate his position. Mr. McEvoy had considerable fun with the Free Press on the lumber schedule, declaring that the Conservative organ wilfully and ignorantly endeavored to deceive the voters of London. The Liberal candidate quoted statistics to show that the pact would be of great benefit to the producer as well as the consumer. Competition would improve conditions generally.

Pact and the World. Dr. Macdonald took up reciprocity from the standpoint of world politics, and showed most conclusively that it was part of a world-wide movement among the common people to assert their rights. There was no question, he declared, but that the farmer would be greatly benefited by giving him an other market for his products. The vast development in agriculture in Canada made it necessary for him to seek wider markets and the natural market was that of the United States. The competition in foodstuffs would benefit the workingman, as it would give him cheaper food. Dr. Macdonald could not understand how the people of Canada were receiving square treatment when Canadian bacon could be purchased in London, Eng., for 16 cents a pound, when it cost 25 cents on this side.

The Unholy Alliance. Most effective was his arraignment of the unholy alliance between Borden and Bourassa. The manifest intention of the Nationalists was to raise the tricolor in Quebec, and to this Mr. Borden had subscribed. At least, he made no effort to condemn the tactics of Bourassa and Laverne. He asked the Liberals and Conservative voters of London to vote for Sir Wilfrid.

AN EARLY MORNING BLAZE THREATENED GRANTON VILLAGE

Ten Thousand Dollars Damage Done by a Fire of Mysterious Origin—Two Elevators Destroyed.

A $10,000 fire which threatened for a time to wipe out an entire section of the village of Granton, broke out at an early hour Thursday morning from some unknown cause. The elevator belonging to the McCloud Milling Company, of Stratford, was discovered to be on fire about 1:30 o'clock and the fire had by this time gathered such headway that not only was the property entirely destroyed, but the fire spread to an adjacent elevator, owned by the Granton Elevator Company, and to the coal yards of W. W. Baker and J. Clatworthy, also destroying these buildings. This morning the coal in the sheds was still burning.

ende with buckets and wet blankets to protect the stores and other places of business nearby. Several times the roof of the Ontario House was ignited by sparks, but was put out before doing any serious damage. Nothing is known for certain as to the origin of the fire, but it has been thought that possibly it might have been caused by an overheated pulley in the elevator which had been in use during the day. Although it was at first thought that the blaze might be due to incendiary causes, suspicion does not attach to anyone.

A MASS MEETING FOR McEVoy IN TECUMSEH PARK ON MONDAY

There will be a mass meeting in the interests of Mr. J. M. McEvoy, the Liberal candidate in Tecumseh Park on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock.

Reciprocity will be discussed at length, and those wishing to hear the issue explained should be present.

Major Beattie, the Conservative candidate, will be given one hour, if he chooses to accept, in which to explain his views of the pact.

Addresses will be delivered by Mr. McEvoy, Mr. Geo. S. Gibbons, and Dr. W. J. Stevenson.

FARMERS' BANK MAN ARRESTED AT COAST

Clark H. Smith One of the Promoters Located at Vancouver.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—The police are not through with the Farmers' Bank case yet. This morning a telegram was received by Inspector Duncan that Clark H. Smith, who has been wanted for some time, had been arrested in Vancouver, and was being held there till the local police were heard from.

DENNIS IRON WORKERS ADDRESSED BY McEVoy

The Reciprocity Agreement Explained by the Liberal Candidate.

Mr. J. M. McEvoy, the Liberal candidate, addressed the workmen of the Dennis Wire and Iron Works at 2:30 this afternoon on the question of reciprocity. He was given a most attentive hearing, the workmen present taking a great deal of interest in the explanation of the pact. It was shown that the agreement would be of especial benefit to them, as it would reduce the cost of living, while at the same time the farmers throughout the country would have a freer market and better prices would prevail for their goods.

The Fair Tonight

The programme in front of the grandstand at the Western Fair will be given in full this evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. The directors feel assured that there will be a very large crowd present, and they will give them the best entertainment of the week.

FAIR PATRONIZED DESPITE THE RAIN

A Large Crowd Are Taking in the Sights of the Last Day. THOUSANDS ON GROUNDS

Sale of Cheese and Butter in the Dairy Building This Morning.

Owing to the tremendous rain last night, there was not much of a crowd at the Western Fair this morning, but when it cleared up towards noon, a large number went out to see the last day's exhibition. Some 5,000 people were present at 2 o'clock and the directors expect twice that number before 4 o'clock. They are looking for the best Friday in the history of the Fair. "The visitors are in the city," said President Reid. "Many of those who had to go from the grounds last night have remained in the city, and with good weather we anticipate a large attendance. Unquestionably the rain cost us a lot of money, but then we have no complaints. We expect that the citizens will come out today and this evening to swell the attendance totals equal if not better than last year. There are many on the grounds now, but we expect thousands more. We are not at all discouraged, but are quite hopeful that we will quit the year with a balance."

The full programme is being given this afternoon, including the races and the live stock parade. The track was muddy early in the day, but the directors had a large staff of men engaged in getting it ready for the performance.

Little business came up for discussion at the directors' meeting at noon. Some routine work was disposed of, but nothing new came up for settlement. President W. J. Reid was in the chair, and among the directors present were W. M. Spencer, Ald. J. H. Saunders, Ald. R. W. Bennett, Ald. W. J. Stevenson, Col. R. McEwan, Col. W. M. Gartshore, William McNeil, W. W. Gammarie, Dr. Geo. A. Routhledge, William Moore, W. E. Robinson, R. A. Carrothers, James Murray, Ed. Douglas, Secretary A. M. Hunt and others.

The annual sale of dairy produce took place this morning in the Dairy Building, with many bidders on hand. The cheese sold well. A. M. Smith purchasing the whole exhibit for 14 1/2 cents a pound. The butter was in great demand, some fifty purchasers getting small lots. It went from 24 to 28 cents a pound. Chairman William Moore, of that committee, informed The Advertiser that the sale was the most successful ever held, and the prices realized were very satisfactory.

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN CITY HALL CASE

Mr. Parsons Wants Attorney-General Made a Party in the Suit.

Toronto, Sept. 15.—Master in Chambers Cartwright has reserved judgment on the application of John M. Parsons, a London ratepayer, for an order adding the attorney-general as a party in his suit against the city of London.

CANADIAN HAM SOLD ABROAD CHEAPER THAN IN CANADA

How the Canadian Consumer Is Pinched—The Canadian Product Can Be Shipped to England and Back to Canada and Sold Lower Than the Canadian Prices.

If you wish to buy a Canadian smoked ham weighing about 11 pounds in this city, you must pay 19 cents per pound for it. This is the price at Davies' retail store. Bought by the pound the price of the best ham at this store runs up to 25 cents.

Now, supposing one of these anti-reciprocity mag-nates, in his anxiety to do good to the workingman, proposed to import Canadian hams from Liverpool and sell them at a fair profit in this city, would he be thought sane?

Supposing, furthermore, he insisted on having them packed in the best possible way, each ham sewn carefully in canvas with a couple of handfuls of oaths thrown on the back of the ham—and on the bone—making it a sort of cushion, almost impossible to damage. Medical experts would be called, and much would be said about "brain-storms." But let the workingman go over these figures.

Our hero (and he need not necessarily be a hero, there is money in it) can buy wholesale hams in Liverpool averaging 11 pounds each from the Davies Company at never more than 68 shillings (about $17) per cwt. (of 112 pounds) and more often than not at nearer 50 shillings than 68 shillings. His hams will cost him further, 2 pence (4 cents) each to smoke, and thus he can get (say) 240 hams weighing in all 2,600 pounds, costing him as near as possible 70 shillings (about $17 50) per cwt., smoked. Any export ham packer in England will pack them for him, charging him as under:

Table with 3 columns: Description, £, s., d. 15 cwt. salt (1,680 pounds) at 2s. per cwt. 1 10 0 20 cases at 2s. each. 2 0 0 15 cwt. salt (1,680 pounds) at 2s. per cwt. 1 10 0 Canvas (5d. per ham). 5 0 0 The hams, 2,600 (23 cwt. 24 pounds) cost him at 70s. cwt. 81 5 0 And freight on 2 1/2 tons, say. 4 0 0 Total. £93 15s. 0d.

Or, reckoning $4 86 to the pound, sterling, $455 63, just about 17 1/2 cents per pound laid down in Canada.

If he can sell all this at 18 1/2 cents per pound within two months, he makes 16 1/3 per cent. per annum, which is a fair profit on an investment, even if he has to deduct a commission. Remember, the above are all outside top-most prices.

Now, in addition to this he has about 1,600 pounds of best dairy salt, and each of his hams is sewn in canvas. His stock will keep indefinitely. Do not these figures make one think furiously? They are not juggled. Hundreds of thousands of hams are packed in this way every month at this cost, and exported to points all over the world, from England. The competition of American, Danish and Old Country ham forces the Canadian packers to be content with a reasonable profit on the British market.

This, then, is the great Bacon joke. Mr. Flavell, Lord High Muck-a-Muck of the William Davies Company, IS ABLE TO BUY HAMS IN LIVERPOOL FROM HIS OWN FIRM AT A FAIR PROFIT TO HIS FIRM, EXPORT THEM TO HIMSELF IN CANADA, MAKING A FAIR PROFIT TO HIMSELF ON THE PACKING, AND UNDERSELL HIS OWN FIRM'S RETAIL STORES, AGAIN MAKING FOR HIMSELF A FAIR PROFIT.

In other words, Canadian ham is not only shipped to England and sold cheaper there than in Canada, but it can be shipped to England, shipped back to Canada, and sold profitably at a lower price than is now charged the Canadian people.

And the workingman of Canada is asked to vote that the Canadian packers be protected from competition, i.e., that the packers shall have no hindrance from putting up the prices of the necessities of life as high as the tariff permits them.

The Canadian packers are opposing reciprocity because it lowers the duties on meat, and will force them to cut down their exorbitant profits.

WOOD--ROSS

A Popular Couple Wedded in the St. Andrew's Church.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church this morning by Rev. Dr. Ross, when Miss Mary Ross, a daughter of Senator J. W. Ross, of Ottawa, became the bride of Mr. Lerne Wood, son of Dr. Fred L. Wood, of 485 King street.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few relatives and friends of the couple only, and was followed by a delay breakfast at the home of Dr. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood left on the 11:30 express for western points, and after a short trip will leave for Minneapolis, where the groom is employed as travelling salesman by the National Biscuit Company.

GREAT BUFFALO DEALER WANTS CANADIAN HORSES ABOVE ALL WILL PAY MORE FOR THEM

A. D. Cronk Tells Advertiser They Are the Best in the World and Command Highest Prices in the United States.

ADAM BECK HAS GROWN RICH SELLING HORSES ACROSS THE LINE

Mr. Cronk Rebukes the London Man and Says His Statements Are From Selfish Motives—Reciprocity a Boon to Canadian Horse Breeders.

Mr. Cronk Rebukes the London Man and Says His Statements Are From Selfish Motives—Reciprocity a Boon to Canadian Horse Breeders.

By Our Own Man. Buffalo, Sept. 14.—The Advertiser representative, who is seeking, and finding, the truth about the American markets as they apply to the Canadian farmer and customer, spent a large part of today among the leading horse dealers of Buffalo.

It would have been fine to have had Hon. Adam Beck along. Hon. Adam said there would be no demand for Ontario horses in Buffalo, and that reciprocity would ruin the horse business of the Ontario farmer, because it would take away his western market. Hon. Mr. Beck would have discovered, had he listened to the horsemen of Buffalo as The Advertiser man did, that the Buffalo dealer is ready to buy every Canadian horse that can be brought across the border AT THE HIGHEST PRICES PAID ON THE CONTINENT.

The supremacy of the Canadian horse is firmly established in Buffalo. The Buffalo dealer wants all the horses he can get, and he would be glad to displace the western horse that is shipped in at present in favor of the Canadian horse. But there will be room for both, because the demand was never greater than it is at the present time.

What Buffalo's Largest Horse Dealer Says. A. D. Cronk, proprietor of the Cran-

DON AND TEUTON IN SECRET TREATY

Compact Between Spain and Germany London Reports.

London, Sept. 15.—In well-informed circles for some days past has been a secret treaty between Madrid and Berlin. If such a compact exists, says the Graphic, it would not only explain the dangerous hardhood of the Spaniards, but would throw light on the difficulties of the Franco-German negotiations.

WILL CAST HIS VOTE FOR RECIPROCITY PACT

Mr. Benj. Burgess Is a Conservative, But Puts Canada's Interests Above Politics.

Mr. Benj. Burgess, a well-known railway engineer, who resides at 74 King street, has returned to the city after an extensive holiday trip through the Canadian west. Mr. Burgess paid particular attention to the reciprocity question, and after discussing the matter with gentlemen of both sides, has arrived at the conclusion that the pact will help that part of the country. "I got this impression from a general talk with businessmen of all classes," says Mr. Burgess, "and there can be no doubt that all Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba will go pretty nearly solidly Liberal."

STOLYPIN SHOT IN CZAR'S PRESENCE

Attempted Assassination of Russian Premier in Theatre.

IS LIKELY TO RECOVER

The Emperor Prevents a Panic by Ordering Orchestra to Play.

[Canadian Press.] Kiev, Russia, Sept. 15.—There appears to be ground for the hope today that R. A. Stolypin, the Russian premier since July, 1906, and one of the strongest officials that the Government of the empire has developed in recent years, will survive the attack of an assassin.

Fired upon at close range, as he sat in his chair at the Municipal Theatre last night, the premier escaped with two wounds, neither of which, it is said, were necessarily fatal. A detailed statement from the physicians was awaited with anxiety this afternoon, but a dispatch sent to the premier's brother, Alexander Stolypin, at St. Petersburg, in the early morning stated that the patient's condition was "very satisfactory" and the surgeons had not deemed an operation necessary. The tentative judgment was that the bullets had wounded the picture and grazed the liver.

A Dramatic Scene. The assassination was attempted under circumstances that lent themselves to a most dramatic scene. The would-be murderer, who described himself as a son of a well-known attorney and wealthy house-owner, M. Bogrot, chose a moment when attention had been withdrawn from the stage and centred rapidly upon his first unexpected move.

Witnessed by Czar. The clock in the auditorium pointed to 11:30, when a young man in evening dress moved down the centre aisle quietly, and attracting attention only because he approached the row of ministers, and appeared to accost M. Stolypin. There was a momentary hush in the immediate vicinity, as curious eyes were turned toward the intruder. It was but seconds later when, like a flash, he drew a revolver from his coat and emptied it seemingly point-blank at Mr. Stolypin. As the reports of the shots crashed through the house there was a wild cry from the spectators, who rose to their feet simultaneously, many of the women sinking into their chairs fainting. The vast crowd seemed panic-stricken.

Emperor Nicholas, at the sound of the first report, sprang from his chair, and, stopping to the front of the Imperial box, stared in the direction of the wounded premier. With the quick recognition of what had occurred his majesty with difficulty controlled his emotions. Turning to the orchestra, the Emperor demanded that the National Anthem be played.

LONDON, FRIDAY, SEPT. 15.

THE BORDEN-BOURASSA ALLIANCE.

Our local contemporary says that reciprocity is the issue before the Canadian people. All Liberals will certainly agree to this, but the trouble is that the Opposition refuses to fight on this ground alone.

Conservative candidates in Quebec, both French and English, cannot be distinguished from the Nationalists in their attempt to sidetrack reciprocity and to snatch a verdict against the Government on naval and imperial matters.

So far does the unholy alliance go that the Quebec Conservatives are out against every whit of imperialism that their leader or party ever pretended to.

The Free Press has the goodness to quote from a speech of Mr. Borden, delivered last November, to prove that he is not a "no-navy-at-all" man though allied with Mr. Bourassa.

Here is the conclusion of the passage cited: "We will retract no part of our policy because Liberal or Nationalist agrees or disagrees with it. We will stand by it. We laid it down last year, and we will not swerve from it by any statement, whether Nationalist or Liberal, that we are in alliance with some other party in Canada."

Mr. Borden has given himself the lie. His "policy" has taken another somersault since last November. His election manifesto a month ago manifestly abandoned the plan of contribution, and though nobody on earth may know what his "policy" is now, it is significant that the French Conservative press went wild with joy while the Imperialist Montreal Star and Hamilton Herald showed themselves disconcerted or even disgusted at the leader's change of front.

What did L'Evenech say, this time-honored French-Canadian organ of the Conservative party? Read: "Mr. Borden seems to have understood, and he denounces the naval measure energetically. THIS BRINGS HIM MATERIALLY NEARER TO A GROUP OF FRENCH CANADIAN ELECTORS WHO WERE DISTRICTS OF HIS INMOST THOUGHTS ON THE QUESTION OF CANADIAN CONTRIBUTION TO THE PROBLEMS OF DEFENCE OF THE EMPIRE. The Montreal Star does not appear absolutely satisfied with the attitude of Mr. Borden on this question, but this is to us another proof that he has decided no longer to consider this problem except from the Canadian and national point of view, and that he expects to have a well-defined mandate before committing Canada to the dangerous path of military imperialism."

What did Mr. Bourassa's organ, Le Devoir, say of the Borden manifesto and London speech? "There was evidenced the politician who guesses the unpopularity of the law who wishes to take advantage of this unpopularity without too much committing himself. There was evidenced the man WHO HAS DISCOVERED THAT THE APPEAL TO IMPERIALIST SENTIMENT HAS LITTLE FORCE. Mr. Borden spoke no more of German peril or of direct contribution to the admiralty budget. He did not even risk formulating any plan whatsoever for the future. Does not this attitude prove that if public opinion will assert itself, we can crush the imperialist movement?"

And again:—"In the most recent declaration of the Opposition leader HE ALL BUT APOLOGIZES FOR HAVING PROPOSED A CONTRIBUTION, and insists, above all, on the importance of an appeal to the people before adopting a new policy."

As Mr. Bourassa knows, and as Mr. Borden knows, an "appeal to the people" on such a question is synonymous with a "no-navy-at-all" policy.

Consider the attitude of the Conservative candidates in Quebec, Le Devoir said on Sept. 2nd:—"Now, the majority of these (Nationalist and Conservative) candidates have taken a formal engagement to oppose the contribution of Dreadnoughts to the middle country, as well as the continuance of the naval policy of Mr. Laurier. Mr. Fauteux has made this declaration in Two Mountains, and Mr. Achim has made it in Labelle. They are not the only ones. A score at least of Opposition candidates have followed this example, among others Messrs. Pickle and Davidson, two Englishmen. These gentlemen, once deputies at Ottawa, will have to keep their word."

Mr. Borden has publicly indorsed the candidatures of Messrs. Davidson and Pickle. He is identified hand and heart with the anti-imperialist and even anti-British movement in Quebec. The "unholy alliance" is no election fancy, but an ugly fact, an election compact of iniquity.

It goes any lengths. The Kingston Standard (Con.) says:—"Bourassa is fighting Laurierism on wholly different lines than those followed by Mr. Borden, but THE CONSERVATIVES ARE NOT FOOLS ENOUGH TO STEEP IN AND BY OPPOSITING BOURASSA HELP TO PULL THE LAURIER CHESTNUTS OUT OF THE FIRE ANYTHING THAT WILL DOWN LAURIERISM IS WELCOME TO THEM AND ALWAYS WILL BE."

"Anything?" even to indorsing the action of Hon. Jean Prevost at St. Jerome, Quebec, Denouncing England and the navy, he waved aloft the tricolor of France, and said: "This is the flag which we are going to place on high on the 21st of September."

Our local contemporary praises the alliance of Mr. Borden, the ex-imperialist and Dreadnought specialist, with such people as these.

A CRUSHING RETORT ON MR. SIFTON.

Mr. Sifton's questions seemed as though they had come from some stripping hecker of the back rows before Dr. Macdonald got through with them at the Jubilee Rink. He simply tore the abject of the anti-reciprocity special pleaders to pieces. It was a lionine performance which left no doubt in the audience's mind as to who was monarch in the trade jungle.

Mr. Sifton's question about the detriment to Canadian milling interests received the obvious reply in a crushing fashion. Dr. Macdonald showed that the American millers can now, as things are, use Manitoba wheat in their manufacture, passing it off as American product, because the American Government grants a drawback of 99 per cent. of the duty paid on such wheat. So this and other questions of the Liberal cast-off were shown up in all their naked puerility.

Most interesting was the sensational reply to Mr. Sifton's charge that the Canadian Government had been bullied and coerced into the reciprocity pact. Dr. Macdonald showed convincingly that any coercion in the matter was the other way about. He set forth facts of startling interest which have not been generally grasped, but which came home to him in his stay at Washington and through his close acquaintance with President Taft and other leading politicians of the United States.

When the Canadian treaty with France was negotiated, it was found to the consternation of the Taft regime that under the Payne-Aldrich tariff it would be necessary to put a surtax of 25 per cent upon Canadian products entering the United States.

The Payne-Aldrich tariff had already plunged President Taft into unpopularity enough, and he dared not face the added odium that would come as soon as the country realized that because of some Canadian favors to France the already irksome tariff against Canadian products must be increased. President Taft, therefore, asked Canada for some small concessions which would enable him to save his face in refusing to apply a maximum tariff against Canada. He was in a bad fix.

The Canadian Government made trifling concessions in the duty on cotton-seed oil and some other insignificant items, but first they insisted, Mr. Taft, what are you going to do for us in return? He promised to open up the whole question again of reciprocity in natural products. This was, of course, just what Canada wanted, what both Canadian parties had always striven for, what our farmers in particular have prayed for year in and year out. This is what the United States had steadily refused to agree to, because her farmers were and are opposed. So the American farmer has now become less important to the politician than the city-dweller, the rural population of the United States numbering only one-third of the whole, as against a two-thirds rural population in Canada; (2) the American people has become sympathetic in the last twelve years toward Great Britain and Canada, and more willing to deal with us in a fair and generous spirit.

THE RAILWAY HAUL. Considerable anxiety has been expressed by Opposition journals with reference to the prospects of railways under reciprocity. Will not, it is asked, the products of the Canadian West be diverted into the United States, the long haul west and east be abandoned, and the long lines become mere streaks of rust?

The fact is that our western wheat can now, without any reciprocity pact, be imported by American millers for grinding at the nominal duty of a quarter of a cent a bushel. But are our transcontinental railways suffering? At the present time any goods can be carried west and east or east and west in bond through one country or the other. Canadian lines make probably more than they lose in that way. Canadian goods may go by way of Chicago and American goods go across Ontario without let or hindrance, and nobody objects. Quite the contrary. Long heavy Chicago beef trains run through here, and Canadian wheat traverses American states on its way to England, and yet the "long haul" is doing its own work and the rails are not getting rusty.

Under the pact there will be no loss of business to those rails. The Opposition press lacks imagination to conceive the enormous expansion that is taking place faster and faster in Canada. Great Britain will never take one-fourth the grain that will soon be raised here. The rest that is not needed for home use will go southward and westward. So while the central east and west lines will still be prosperous, and probably another transcontinental railway will soon be required, there will be a great expansion of railway activity southward and farther west. And in this southern peninsula of Canada there is bound to be an incalculable development of the American traffic passing through in bond, as well as of Canadian transportation to the United States.

This country has the best routes and has nothing to fear from the competition of American roads. The Grand Trunk, C. P. R., and Canadian Northern will take care of themselves, and reciprocity will help them. What they need as much as anything is feeders in the shape of cross-routes. Reciprocity will help that.

Beattie, Borden and Bourassa. The Opposition's naval policy is still under water. Mr. Beattie has not yet explained his opposition to the British preference.

The only real use the lip-loyalists have for the old flag is to line their trousers' pockets. This is the nineteenth day since The Advertiser asked the Free Press to tell the truth about the lumber duties.

It's no use quoting what Mr. Borden said about the Nationalists or the navy a year ago. None of Mr. Borden's policies lasts that long. Mr. Borden stands on the platform of Quebec candidates who have pledged themselves not to give a cent or send a man to the mother country's aid.

Mr. Foster will run again in North Toronto. If his integrity had been equal to his impudence and his cleverness, Mr. Foster would today be the leader of his party.

The devilish attempt to create bad blood between Canada and the United States, and, therefore, between Great Britain and the United States, should be rebuked by every true lover of the mother country. The cornerstone of British foreign policy is friendship with the United States.

The patent supplement furnished free of charge by the Montreal Star to anti-reciprocity papers, has made its appearance. In scarce headlines it says: "The Pact To Be Turned Into a Treaty." This is rather cruel, seeing that nearly all the Opposition papers have been saying that the pact is a treaty already.

Adam Beck has made a fortune by buying horses from the farmers, training them, and selling them in the United States at fancy prices. This is a praiseworthy business; no fault can be found with it. But when Mr. Beck stands up and tells the farmers that the United States horse market is of no benefit, he is simply not telling the truth. His own experience belies his words.

The following placard, printed in Toronto and shipped broadcast to anti-reciprocity manufacturers by an organization with headquarters in that city, adorns the walls of several local factories: "This firm is opposed to reciprocity, or any other measure that will injure the British connection of the industries and farming interests of Canada."

If the word reciprocity had been omitted there would have been no objection to the rest of it from any quarter. But to represent reciprocity as opposed to British connection, or the industrial and farming interests of Canada is illogical and untruthful. Workmen have a right to resent such tactics.

BUFFALO DEALER WANTS

"Here," he directed, "show this man from our books what prices have been paid for average horses by the big firms of the east."

The office man produced the ledgers and showed a number of the company's sales to single buyers within the next few weeks.

One order of nine horses shipped in from Ohio, had been sold at the following prices: $242.50, $232.50, $300, $410, $385, $385, $220, $444, $265.

Each of these sums represents the price paid for a single horse. Mr. Cronk said nine average Canadian horses would stand up and excel those nine Ohio horses. And the very name "Canadian," he declared, would make them worth at least $20 each more. This consignment of horses was sent to New York city for general sale.

On Aug. 21, according to the ledger before The Advertiser man, at the Cronk barns twenty-four Ohio horses were sold at auction and brought the following prices: $387.50, $322.50, $377, $250.

Under the pact there will be no loss of business to those rails. The Opposition press lacks imagination to conceive the enormous expansion that is taking place faster and faster in Canada. Great Britain will never take one-fourth the grain that will soon be raised here. The rest that is not needed for home use will go southward and westward. So while the central east and west lines will still be prosperous, and probably another transcontinental railway will soon be required, there will be a great expansion of railway activity southward and farther west. Tuan Fang, the director-general of the Hankow-Canton and Hankow-Sze Chuan Railway, is instructed to devise measures for raising the siege of Cheng Tu, the capital of Sze Chuan, at once. According to Chinese reports 2,000 modern troops who are outside Cheng Tu refuse to join either side.

TRAVERS PUT OUT OF PLAY FOR TITLE

Hilton, of England, Wins by Three Up and Two to Play.

INSLEE'S TURN NEXT

But It is Recognized That It is Up to Evans to Stop Invader.

Rye, N. Y., Sept. 14.—At the close of the fourth day of play in the amateur golf championship, the American defense against British golfing supremacy, as represented by Harold H. Hilton, of the Royal Liverpool Club, rests on Chan. W. Inslee, of the Wykeham Club, of New Rochelle, N. Y., and the winner of the Toronto contest, Frederick Herreshoff, of Manchester, Vt., and Charles Evans, Jun., of the Edgewater club, Chicago. Hilton will play Inslee tomorrow.

James D. Travers, twice a national champion, made a gallant effort in the third round today to stop the British champion, but went down on the 24th green by a score of 3 up and 2 to play. More than 3,000 golf enthusiasts thronged the 6,200 yards of the Apawamis course twice and what was probably the greatest golfing struggle ever waged in this country.

Liverpool, won from Jerome D. Travers, 1 up and 2 to play. Wykeham, won from P. W. Whittemore, the Country Club, Boston, 1 up and 2 to play. Herreshoff, 1 up and 2 to play. THE BIBLE IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

General Synod Thursday Morning Devoted Much Time to the Subject.

MATTER WAS LAID OVER

Resolution Was Thrown Out So That Matter May Be More Effectively Dealt With by Provincial Synods.

At the General Synod yesterday morning considerable discussion arose over a message from the Upper House expressing regret at the absence of religious instruction in the public schools, and recommending that the clergy and others from all the several dioceses of all present facilities for the remedying of the present condition, and to co-operate wherever possible with the other religious bodies in order to secure Biblical instruction and the teaching of Christian principles in the schools of the various provinces.

Mr. L. H. Baldwin declared it would be absolutely useless to pass such a resolution. "It means absolutely nothing," he said, "and we are constantly weakening our position by sending out resolutions which are absolutely unworkable. The question is one for the provincial synods to take up."

Chancellor Worral moved non-concurrence in the resolution, with the recommendation that the matter might be more effectively dealt with at the provincial synods. This motion carried.

Archdeacon Beer introduced a resolution in favor of reciprocity in beneficiary funds in all dioceses throughout Canada. It was referred to the committee on beneficiary funds.

The message from the Upper House in regard to the securing of a competent stenographer and a press committee to furnish reports to the newspapers, was discussed at length.

Archdeacon Fortin complained that important deliberations of the synod had been passed over by the local press.

Rev. Dr. Sage pointed out that at this synod meeting the newspapers were largely crowded with political and exhibition news. It would require a staff of stenographers and typewriters to prepare full reports of the synod's proceedings.

Chancellor Conbeare thought the expense would be too great.

Rev. C. W. Vernon favored the appointment of an official reporter. The house voted non-concurrence in the message.

A resolution was carried to appoint a committee to furnish reports to the press. Later a deputa-tion of the Upper House visited the Lower House in regard to the appointment of a press committee and stenographer.

Bishop Richardson, of Ontario, stated the aim was twofold—to secure a wide publicity, and also to secure accuracy. Bishop Du Penier also urged the matter.

Mr. Donald objected to a Toronto paper having two pages of sporting news and only a small part of a column for the American Synod.

The house at length agreed to employ a stenographer to assist the press committee. In connection with the presentation of a report on the Lord's Day observance, Chancellor Davidson took occasion to refer favorably to the closing of the Lord's Day in London. No other Canadian city, he said, had more reason to be proud of the manner in which Sunday was kept.

CHINESE TROOPS FOR PROTECTORS

Rev. F. A. Steven Does Not Feel Any Anxiety for the Safety of Missionaries.

CUSTOMS OVERRIDDEN

This is the Reason Why the Chinese Are in Rebellion in Affected District.

Rev. F. A. Steven, of the China Inland Mission, does not think that any great anxiety need be felt for the safety of the Canadian missionaries in the rebellion zone of Szechuan. Troops are stationed constantly at cities not far distant from Chengtu, and are more easily transported than in previous times.

The China Inland Mission has a Bible training school here, and a number of missionaries, most of whom have come from England. They are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hampson, Dr. and Mrs. W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Vale, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Grainger, and Mr. J. D. Cunningham. At Paoan, the centre of the Church of England section of the China Inland Mission, a large number of missionaries are located under Bishop Caspary. The southwest of the province of Szechuan is the territory of the American Baptists, and the Church Missionary Society is active in the north-west. In the centre of the province, where the city of Chengtu is situated, all the extension work is left to the Canadian Methodist Church.

"The people of Szechuan are a peculiarly sturdy and independent class," said Rev. Mr. Steven to The Advertiser. "They have a heavy population, some 67,000,000, and they very often strongly resent the interference of officials from other parts of the country. It is the policy of the Chinese Government to move officials about, and a man is never appointed to a high office in his own province. Hence the people naturally resist the heavy taxation which is levied by these officials either at the command of the Emperor or for their own purposes. The building of the railroad from Hankow to Chengtu is perhaps the chief cause of the present rebellion. About 150 miles of rapids will be avoided above the city of Hankow, which rapids make it impossible for large steamers to proceed farther up the river."

"The building of the road will entail largely increased taxes, and, furthermore, it is an overriding of old customs. The Chinese also fear that it will increase the cost of transportation, and that it will turn out of employment thousands of boatmen now employed on the river. Then, too, a foreign loan has been negotiated for the railway, and naturally allows to the foreign countries involved a certain measure of control in the operation of the railway, which is a direct opposition to the cry of 'China for the Chinese.'"

Intercepted with the report of that trouble is all over, and have returned to Chengtu.

"I spent the winter of 1883-84 in Chungking, and it is a very large and important city," said Mr. Steven. "There is always an element of unrest among the people. They are heavily taxed, and although in Szechuan there is no famine, yet they are affected by reports of famine and flood in other provinces. The flooding of the Yangtze Valley will result in a famine which will last until next May. This is the second famine in one year."

"However, I think the missionaries in Szechuan will be safe enough. Tuan Fang, who has been appointed commissioner for the building of the new railroad, is an extremely enlightened and able official, and he is very friendly to the foreigners. He was formerly a vicar, and at the time of the Boxer troubles saved the lives of a great many missionaries."

"Reciprocity in farm products is an unquestionable advantage to Canadian agriculture."—Farmers' Advocate, London.

The Abilene Morning News, of Abilene, Texas, states in the issue of Sept. 3, that John E. Bonser, an employee of that paper, has just patented a process of removing printer's ink from old newspapers. This discovery will mean a vast saving to the paper-making industries of the world, and will be one of the most valuable since newspapers have been printed.

We have crowded our space at the Fair to the limit because we court comparison

Were it possible, in the space allotted us at the Western Fair, to show any more models, we would do so, because we are more than anxious to place our cars where they will make comparison an easy matter.

Why do we invite comparison?

Because we have a car that will stand up under any comparison, whether it be of body or mechanism. But better than either, it will show a record of past achievement of which we are very, very proud.

We were unable to show all of our splendid range of models, however, and will be obliged to make the cars displayed serve as a suggestion of what we have in our salesrooms and factory.

To be exact, only about one-third of our line is on exhibition. This is by no means a small exhibit. In fact, it is the largest and most comprehensive display of motor cars on the grounds. We have outgrown the Fair. That is all. A complete list of our cars comprises a model for every conceivable purpose.

See this splendid exhibit. Inspect the engine. See it working. Ask questions. Compare the McLaughlin-Buick with other cars. If you are interested ask for a demonstration.

OLD CHUMS MEET AFTER SIXTY YEARS

Inspector Sanders this morning met an old chum of his whom he has not seen in sixty years—Mr. Joe. A. Philip, of New York.

They were young men together in Bodmin, Cornwall, England, but both left their homes to come to Canada. They had not met in six decades, but when Inspector Sanders went to his office yesterday morning, Mr. Philip was waiting for him.

They soon met and spent an hour or more telling stories of their boyhood together. Mr. Philip is now 81 years of age, while Inspector Sanders is 78.

"I had not seen you since you were drilling the pupils at Bodmin, Cornwall," said Mr. Philip to Mr. Sanders.

They figured it out that this was just sixty years ago. They had a jolly time together.

APPEAL FROM BISHOPS FOR CLEAN ELECTION

Plea Is Made to All Canadians to Guard the Country's Honor.

The closing session of the general synod yesterday afternoon was marked by an appeal of the house of bishops to the people of Canada to set their faces against all practices that threaten the foundations of truth and righteousness during the coming election and to go to the polls with a full and sensitive understanding of the importance of the occasion. The appeal was brought in, the synod was brought to a close with silent prayer, and the benediction pronounced by Archbishop Matheson, primate of Canada.

The Manifesto.

"The system of the near approach of election day, the bishops of the Church of England in Canada hereby appeal to the Christian public throughout the Dominion to promote, at this time, by every means at its command, a high standard of political morality and a great sensitiveness of conscience, respecting the exercise of a voter's responsibility. If this Dominion is to attain true and lasting greatness and to achieve the position of a great nation, which would be offered it by Divine Providence, it must set its face against all practices that threaten the foundations of truth and righteousness amongst us.

"The bishops, therefore, desire at this time to remind men of all political views and parties that political purity is one of the essential foundation stones upon which national greatness and prosperity must rest, and in particular that to buy or sell a vote is to act the part of a traitor to our country, to violate a first principle of righteousness, and to invite the just contempt and condemnation of all good men.
