

THE MIRROR

And Colchester County Advertiser.

VOL II

TRURO, N. S., SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1868.

NO 25

The Mirror
AND
Colchester County Advertiser
—Is Published—
ON SATURDAY MORNING,
AT THE OFFICE, TRURO, N.S.,
By RALPH PATRICK.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.—$1.50 in advance; $2.00 if not paid to the end of the year.
No paper discontinued until all arrears are paid up, unless at the option of the publisher.
All communications addressed to Isaac Baird Box 65 Truro, N.S., will receive due attention, as heretofore.

Rates of Advertising:
Business Cards $7.00
One Square, one year, (17 lines) 8.00
" 6 months 5.00
" 3 months 2.50
" 1 insertion 1.00
Each subsequent insertion 0.25
A liberal reduction made on larger advertisements.

AGENTS:
General Agent—Isaac Baird;
Travelling Agent—F. D. Simpson;
Halifax—W. G. Pender;
Acadian Mines—Isaac Hingley;
Old Bars—Ebon Archibald;
Folley Village—B. Davison;
New Annan—George Nelson;
North River—Robert Stewart;
Upper Stewiacke—R. C. Waddell;
Upper Economy—Robert McLeod;
Earleton—Wm. McKay;
Tatamagouche—J. Murphy;
Tatamagouche Village—Robert Purvis;
Tatamagouche Bay—Dobson;
New Annan—Gavin Bell;
Reveries—J. B. McCully;
Bonaventure—W. Prince;
Pictou—M. McPherson;
Dorchester—D. B. Graham;
North Sydney, C.B.—W. D. Dincock;
Logan's Tannery—D. W. McClellan.

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING EXECUTED WITH NEATNESS AND DESPATCH.

Miss C. Vincent

Wishes to inform the inhabitants of Truro and vicinity, that she has commenced receiving her supply of

SPRING AND SUMMER MILLINERY,
Straw, Hats and Bonnets,
BLEACHED AND SHAPED IN THE LATEST STYLE.
Truro, N.S., May 2, 1868.

M. McPherson,
BOOKSELLER & STATIONER,
PICTOU, N.S.
PLAIN AND ORNAMENTAL PRINTING.
Executed in the neatest style.
Pictou, April 23, 1868.

CARRIAGE PAINTING,
&c. &c. &c.

THE SUBSCRIBER has opened a Paint Shop in part of the building occupied by W. C. Smith, as a Carriage Shop, and is prepared to do Carriage, Sleigh, and Sign Painting.
In all its branches as heretofore, and in the best style.
Charges Moderate.—TERMS CASH
L. B. McELHENNY,
Truro, April 25, 1868.

GREAT ATTRACTION
AT THE
"BEK NIVE."
Cloths, Cassimeres, Tweeds,
(Scott and Canadian) Beavers and Pilots all of which we are making up in first class style, and at extremely low prices.—Fits guaranteed.
JAMES K. MUNNIS,
118 Upper Water Street
Halifax, Oct 19

CALEDONIA HOTEL.
LOWER WATER ST., HALIFAX, N.S.
JAMES CORDWELL,
PROPRIETOR.
(Successor to the late Thomas Hume)
This is one of the most centrally situated Hotels in Halifax, being within five minutes walk of all parts of the city, a great advantage to Country Merchants and others. It is also within two minutes walk of the wharf, at which the steamers of the Inman line call. Permanent and Transient Boarders accommodated on reasonable terms. Meals ready at all hours.
Halifax, Dec. 7, 1867.

Select Poetry.

THE OUTSIDE DOG IN THE FIGHT.

You may sing of your dog, your bottom dog,
Or of any dog you please;
I go for the dog, the wise old dog,
That knowingly takes his ease,
And, wagging his tail outside the ring—
Keeping always his bone in sight—
Cares not a pin in his sound old head
For either dog in the fight.

Not his is the bone they are fighting for;
And why should my dog sail in,
With nothing to gain but a certain chance
To lose his own precious skin?
There may be a few, perhaps, who fail
To see it quite in this light;
But when the fur flies I had rather be
The outside dog in the fight.

I know there are dogs—injudicious dogs—
Who think it quite the thing,
To take the part of one of the dogs,
And go yelping into the ring;
But I care not a pin what all may say
In regard to the wrong or the right,
My money goes, as well as my song,
For the dog that keeps out of the fight.

Miscellaneous.

ADVICE TO THE GIRLS.—Girls, do you want to get married and do you want good husbands? If so, care to not like fools. Don't take pride in saying you never did housework, never cooked a pair of chickens, never made a bed, and so on. Don't turn up your pretty nose at honest industry never tell your friends that you are not obliged to work. When you go shopping, never take your mother with you to "carry the bundle."

A Young Woman in New Zealand has given herself up to the police and confessed to having murdered her lover, William James Thomas, a travelling engineer, at Port Leven, parish of Breagne, in Cornwall, in March, 1867.

The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has released Mr. Sullivan, of the Nation, from prison, although that gentleman's sentence would not have expired until August next. Mr. Sullivan has given bail for his good behavior during two years. Mr. Pigott, of the Irishman, who is still in confinement will be released on giving the same bail.

Our musical young ladies have abandoned pianos and taken to brass bands. They carry them on their heads.

Angry man to cool opponent—"You'll come to the gallows some day." Cool one—"With pleasure, if you will let me know when you are to be hanged."

A heartless old bachelor says that if the first month after wedlock is the honeymoon of married life the second month is pretty sure to be the lunar caustic of it.

If women were allowed to vote it would make no practical difference, as they would be sure to be in favor of all parties.

PRINTER'S PUZZLE.

As nobody can understand this but the printer, and as people generally like things that are beyond their comprehension, we give place to the following, satisfied before hand that our readers will be delighted with it:

Wanted, by a young lady, some one to ~~~~~ her. [Post.]

Can't she get the man of the Post. [Ex.]

Our *! would't they cut a ~~~~~, was the 1 of all ~~~~~. [Chief.]

The case is without ~~~~~, and her don't live in this ~~~~~ of the country; and if he did, he would ~~~~~ himself to the hymnical altar in hall the time it has taken to write this ~~~~~, or put a ~~~~~ to his life. [Ex.]

The above needs no ~~~~~, and is not particularly inclined to any ~~~~~, it is prevalent in the first ~~~~~ everywhere, for the ladies like to talk of the ~~~~~ or fellow that won't give them ~~~~~ to their heart's content, ought to have his ~~~~~ put out & ~~~~~ besides. [American Sentinel.]

We are sure no ~~~~~ in this ~~~~~ would refuse ~~~~~ a lady when?

The above ~~~~~ are without a ~~~~~ in the history of typography, & the men who invented them should be drowned in CC of ~~~~~, and have their ~~~~~ thrown in the quoin box by the same ~~~~~ that exposed the No 6's, and attempted to put a ~~~~~ to their ~~~~~ [Jersey Sentinel.]

Our devil says: "If it was winter time and I could, she might call at my room, I'd like to take her till she saw ~~~~~, and then I should like to take her ~~~~~ and gaze into her ~~~~~, and I should prevent me from ~~~~~ into her arms." This I started us. Getting the greatest coon for making love and getting half CC over in this his ~~~~~ can't be found by several ~~~~~. We will bet a $ on that, and if we lose, will E his head for another ~~~~~.

WHISTLING GIRLS.—There is a proverb that "Whistling girls and crowing hens Always come to some bad ends."

But, notwithstanding the old proverb, a writer steps forward to defend whistling girls in this independent fashion: "Show me the girl who has the hardihood to whistle in these days, when every thing natural, even to the very hair of your head, is at a discount, and I will show you a girl who can be depended upon, one who will not fail you in time of need, and will give you the true hearty grasp, the cordial hand-shake, the warm genuine welcome; no tip of the lid glove, and a cold how do you do, who can brave danger, look toll in the face without shrinking, laugh with those that laugh, and weep with those that weep, as well as whistle with those that whistle; who can in short, take the world as she finds it, rough and rugged, and go through life as though she was walking on eggs, and afraid of cracking a shell; who deals in substance, not shadow."

Select Tale.

THREE ROMANCES.

ROMANCE NUMBER ONE.
About four years ago a young law student of a Western city, travelling with a party of friends, came to Boston, and during his stay there met once or twice a young lady who lived in the most aristocratic of our suburban towns. The acquaintance was casual, going hardly beyond an introduction of the parties and the exchange of the usual comments on the weather, &c. Time passed, as the novelists say, and last fall the young gentleman wrote to the friends with whom he had travelled, as above, to the following effect: "He had established himself well in his profession, with a fair prospect of pecuniary success, and he wanted to marry; but in the entire circle of his lady acquaintances he knew but one that filled his eye. The friend who received this letter—a lady—pitying his condition, replied instantly, reminding him of the maiden whom he had met in the aristocratic suburb four years ago, and suggesting that she would suit him admirably. He acted at once upon the hint, and wrote to the young lady; she replied: a correspondence followed. In December he wrote that he would come East in January to see her, but could stay only one day. He came; within the specified time he wooed and won; he returned to the West, and she went shopping. One week from to-day the twain will go before a minister and be made one."

ROMANCE NUMBER TWO.

Death laid his irresistible hand upon a young shoemaker during the year 1867, and the cordwainer of course "pepped out," as is said in the cheerful game of cribbage. He left a widow and a nice little property. I should have called him a manufacturer, and not a maker. The widow mourned long and loud, and draped her person in extensive weeds. She ne'er could look upon his like again; her grief could not be assuaged; as for her marrying again—commend her to a generous dose of strychnine as the alternative. She was a conscientious woman, and living in the country, she couldn't spend all her income on purple and fine linen, and the other traditional luxuries of wealth. So she resolved to invest some of her accumulating greenbacks in a "storied urn," or some such monumental monument, commemorative of her defunct husband's virtues. She called upon a marble worker of a neighboring town, and took counsel with him. He was a comely person, and plainly had a genius for sympathetic sculpture. The bargain was struck—for the monument, I mean. In due season it was finished, and the artist came to the village of the ladies' residence to superintend its erection. She was a constant attendant in the cemetery, watching the progress of the work. It was slow progress, for some reason. Day after day she put in an appearance at the melancholy enclosure and wept silently while the work went on, except sometimes when the deferential marble man ventured to beg for her advice on some doubtful point. Marble man though he was, he had a tender heart, and that organ was touched by the sight of her devotion. He pitied and anon he loved her, that Niobe in bombazine. One day as the two stood and contemplated the white memorial of the departed he spoke: she listened; her subs ceased; she placed her black kid glove in his muscular palm, and to make the story short, they are to be married soon.

ROMANCE NUMBER THREE.

I have reserved the strangest story for the last. In 1845 a young man and a young woman took upon themselves the sacred obligation of matrimony. They lived together in the enjoyment of what is known as conjugal bliss just one year. At the end of that time the husband disappeared. The wife waited and wept, but the husband came not. The mounted granger, a divorcee, resumed her maiden name, and addressed herself energetically to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" inquired Mr. S. "He is my brother." "And has anything been known of him since he disappeared, years ago?" "Yes, he returned very recently, and is trying to find his family." "Why, bless your soul," cried Mr. S., "I know his wife perfectly well; she visits at my house, and is now living at M." Of course she returned to work, finding in active employment the most potent reprieve for her sorrows. Success rewarded her; she accumulated a comfortable property, and after living in Boston and California many years she returned to her native village and lived at her ease. Once in a while she went down to Boston and visited the family of Mr. S. Since her husband left her on that memorable day in 1846 she had never heard of or from him. Beyond doubt he was dead. Last February Mr. S., residing near the city, took a stranger into his carriage. In the course of conversation he asked the stranger his name. "G.," replied the latter. "Did you ever hear of J. G.?" in marching past and saluting the Queen and Royal family, the troops gave a marching salute to the obelisk, in commemoration of the grand jubilee which took place in 1820, and then defiled over in poutoon bridges laid across the Thames by the Royal Engineers, where they were dismissed. The throng at Windsor Park was immense, and the Queen and Royal Family were greeted with marked enthusiasm. The day was concluded with festivities and reunions by both the Civil and Military organizations.

The Mirror AND Colchester County Advertiser.

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1868.

Alexander Kara Georgewick indignantly repels certain insinuations against him, and denies he had any connection or knowledge of the plot for assassination of the late Prince Michael.

LONDON, June 23.—In the House of Commons to-night the Bill for the purchase of telegraph lines by the Government was referred to a committee.

In the House of Lords this evening the Scotch Reform Bill was passed to a second reading.

George Francis Train has been again arrested and to-day brought before the Court of Bankruptcy in Basingale street. He vehemently protested against his arrest, declaring it proceeded from political motives, and appealed to the United States Army and navy for protection. He was obeyed by the spectators, and after a brief examination was remanded to prison by the Judge.

ROME, June 23.—A Consistory was held yesterday, at which many new Bishops were appointed. The Pope delivered two separate Allocutions in the consistory: one concerning the Papal Bull calling the council of the Roman Catholic Church, and the other on the present state of religion in Austria.

LONDON, June 23.—Last night a meeting was called by the Liberals at Guildhall, to consider the Irish Church question. The hall was crowded. The Lord Mayor presided, but it soon became evident that the majority of those present were Tories, for as soon as the proceedings commenced a great disturbance was created, and mingled cheers and hisses rendered the voices of the speakers on the platform inaudible to all except the reporters. Mr Lubberck moved the first resolve, declaring that the Irish Church should cease to exist, and opposing any amendment of suspensory Bill now pending in the House of Lords. Fights took place in various parts of the hall, and the disturbance threatened to become serious. At this juncture the Lord Mayor retired from the Chair, and, with a number of other gentlemen on the platform, left the hall. The Tories then rushed upon the platform and held it for a short time. They addressed the audience in an excited manner, declaring the bull of the English people were opposed to the Suspensory Bill. After comparative quiet had been restored, speeches were made in favor of the Bill by R. W. Crawford, M. P., Mr. Goehen, M. P., Wm. Lawrence, M. P., and Mr. Harcourt. They were repeatedly interrupted, and were unable to proceed with the voting of the other resolves. The meeting ended in disorder, without taking any vote on the resolves.

LONDON, June 19 (midnight).—In the House of Lords this evening the Earl of Ellenborough, in some remarks on the Abyssinian Expedition, suggested that on the unusual character of the service performed by the troops special honors be paid to them upon their return from the scene of their exploits. The Earl of Malmesbury, Lord Privy Seal, in reply said that the Ministry had not yet considered the point. The Duke of Cambridge, Commander-in-Chief of the Army, expressed the opinion that an award of unusual honors to the members of the Abyssinian Expedition would be a bad precedent. The subject was then dropped.

The London Telegraph has been condemned in £960 for the publication of a libel.

LONDON, June 24, (even).—Sunday next has been appointed a day of thanksgiving throughout Great Britain for the success of the Abyssinian expedition.

The United States Squadron under Farragut has arrived off Cowes.

It is reported in dispatches recently received from the Continent that the Italian Government has issued a circular note to the various representatives of that power in their countries, announcing that Italy will remain strictly neutral in the event of the war between France and Prussia.

WORMS, June 24.—Extensive preparations are being made for the celebration of the reformation and ceremonies attending the unveiling of the statue of Martin Luther. The principal streets, squares and historic places, are to be decorated with flags and triumphal arches. All the Protestant denominations unite in the celebration. Crowds of visitors from every part of Germany are pouring into the city, and a great number of foreigners, the majority of whom are Americans, arrive by every train. The Roman exiles at Perugia have sent their congratulations to the managers of the festival.

ACCIDENT.—At Long Lake, near Windsor Junction, on the 12th inst., Mr. William Letty, the Foreman of the Brick Yard, sent James Prentice, with two others, up the Lake for a scow load of sand, and on their return the scow suddenly sprang a leak, and before they could get her to the shore, she sunk, and Prentice, who could not swim, was drowned; the other two men swam ashore. Prentice's body was recovered the same evening by means of grappling. An inquest was held over the body by John Lingley, Esq., Justice of the Peace, and the Jury returned a verdict accordingly.—Chronicle.

TO PREVENT ANIMALS JUMPING FENCES.—Various devices have been resorted to in order to prevent such trespasses, and especially in regard to sheep, but none have succeeded, or only in a limited degree. Now, we have a new one, and if it is not cruel or painful, or will not greatly discommode the animal operated upon and is a remedy, we can see no objection to employ it. It is to "clip off the eyelashes of the under lids, with a pair of scissors, and the ability or disposition to jump is effectually destroyed, as Sampson was by the loss of his locks. The animal will not attempt a fence again until the eyelashes are grown." This fact has been promulgated by that distinguished breeder of cattle, Mr. Samuel Thorne, of Dutchess Co., N. Y., who states that he tested it upon a very breachy pair of oxen with entire success. He considers knowledge of the fact of great value to himself, and hopes it will prove so to others.

It is with feelings of more than ordinary sorrow that we chronicle the death of our esteemed fellow townsman, Mr. William Gormly, who died on Friday morning between two and three o'clock at Mr. Gratto's Hotel near the Station, where he received the injuries on Monday afternoon that have so fatally ended in his death. We have never before been called upon to notice an occurrence in this county of such a dastardly outrage, such a piece of malignant ruffianism, as the cowardly attack made on Mr. Gormly by the McNutts, resulting in his death. The facts are substantially as follows: Some time on Monday afternoon Mr. Gormly, who had been attending to the loading of some hay at the Station he was sending to Halifax, was in company of a friend coming out of Mr. Gratto's Hotel, when he met some persons at the door coming in, among whom were two men, brothers by the name of McNutt, from North River, near Earlstown, men with whom the deceased we believe had no acquaintance whatever. One of them, Abner McNutt, who rejoices in being somewhat of an ab-bodied rowdy, without any provocation or warning thrust out his hand, and with the end of his fingers gave Gormly a smart punch in the stomach. Gormly civilly requested him to desist from taking such liberties, and told him not to repeat it. Instead of obeying he punched him again in the same manner harder than before—hard enough to deprive him of breath for a short time. On recovering he immediately prepared to defend himself, and was at once violently assaulted by McNutt, in which it appears he used his feet quite freely. Mr. Gratto tried to put the McNutts out of his house, and while he was holding one of them from assisting the other to injure the deceased he contrived to reach over Gratto's shoulder and seize deceased by the hair and pull him backwards. This is supposed to be the time when the other gave him the fatal kick. He lingered in great pain until Friday morning when death put an end to his sufferings. A post mortem examination made by Drs D. H. Muir and J. H. McKay revealed the fact that death ensued from a rupture about the size of a half crown piece in the lower part of the intestine corresponding internally to the position of the injury received. An inquest by Coroner Muir was held yesterday afternoon, and the jury returned a verdict as follows: Deceased came to his death through injuries received at the hands of one Abner McNutt.

This tragedy has thrown a gloom over the village, Mr Gormly having gained since his coming to Truro, the good will and friendship of all classes with whom he came in contact, and from a personal acquaintance the writer can truly vouch for the character he had earned of being a man of sterling integrity and worth, a kind friend, and congenial companion. The country at large will long miss his kindly beaming countenance and familiar form. We desire most sincerely to sympathize with his disconsolate widow thus suddenly called to part with her dearest earthly friend. We shall endeavor in our next to lay before our readers the evidence given at the Coroner's inquest.

GRAND LODGE OF NOVA SCOTIA, N. S. R. OF F. AND A. M. The Annual Session of the above Grand Lodge met in Halifax, at "High Twelve," on Wednesday last. The officers were installed by Hiram Chase, Esq., Past Grand Master of Maine. A large number of the brethren were present. The next quarterly session of the Grand Lodge will be held in Truro in September, next. The following are the officers installed for the ensuing year:— S. J. Sircorn, Provincial Grand Master; A. C. Page, M. D., Deputy Grand Master; — White, Substitute Grand Master; J. B. Smithers, Grand Senior Warden; Isaac Melvin, Grand Junior Warden; A. K. McKinlay, Grand Treasurer; C. J. McDonald, Grand Secretary; W. S. McDonald, Grand Clerk; C. H. Piddalo, Grand Chaplain; — Nichol, Grand Senior Deacon; Albert Payne, Grand Junior Deacon; Jas Fortune, Grand Bible Bearer; Ralph Patrick Grand Sword Bearer; J. E. M. Taylor, Grand Tyler; and Stewards.

In the evening, a large gathering of the craft and their guests partook of a banquet at Masonic Hall.

—The Royal Gazette comes to hand this week with five columns of Promotions, Resignations, &c., from which we extract the following:— 2nd Regiment, Colchester County. Henry Sibly, Esq., to be Major; 1st Lieut. Baxter Hamilton, Samuel Moore, Esq., to be Captains; Charles Moore and James Fisher, to be 2nd Lieuts 3rd October, 1867.

5th Regiment, Colchester County. 2nd Lieut, H Frederick, to be 1st Lieut; and A McLaughlin, to be 2nd Lieut, 4th October, 1867.

6th Regiment, Colchester County. 1st Lieuts Welwood Currie and Washington Irvine, to be Captains; and Joshua Sled, J. T. B Henderson, James J. Johnson, J. D. McIntosh, Hugh Harris, George Nelson, James Porteous, and Abram Patterson, to be 2nd Lieutenants, 11th July, 1867.

8th Regiment, Colchester County. R. R. Stevenson, Esq., M. D., to be Surgeon, 2nd September, 1867.

—Our streets are beginning to exhibit symptoms of improvement. Hollows are being rapidly filled up, sidewalks, improved, &c.

—Our enterprising townsman, Mr Duncan McIntosh, is making preparations for the erection of a large building on Queen Street, on the ground where the Truro Book Store formerly stood. Judging from the plan of the building, when completed, it will be an ornament to the place.

—The trees planted on the Common a short time ago, do not look very promising at present.

—Miss Katzman of the Provincial Book Store, Granville Street, Halifax, has our thanks for files of late papers. Miss K. receives all the late periodicals and papers.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We have been called upon this week to record the death of Jane Clarke, of Clarkville, on Saturday morning last. The deceased was residing with Mr. Henry Johnson, and went as usual to the barn to milk the cows, and when discovered a few minutes after was dying. Death supposed to have been caused from disease of the heart.

—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. Wm. McKay, Proprietor of the Railway Hotel, wishes to dispose of that well known property.

—A Bazaar will be held in the Drill Shed under the auspices of the Truro Baptist Ladies' Benevolent Society, on Wednesday the 15th of July. See advt.

—The Rev. G. M. Grant preaches in St Paul's Kirk to-morrow, (Sunday) at 11 a. m., and 3 p. m.

—The Rev Mr Punshon is creating quite a sensation in St John, N. B.

—The Anniversary of the settlement of Halifax, was celebrated on Monday last, owing to the disagreeable state of the weather, very few went from Truro.

—There are some prospects of a union between the British Templars and the Independent Order of Good Templars.

We learn by the Eastern Chronicle, that a man named Daniel Fraser, collier, in the employ of the Pictou Coal Company, was severely injured on Wednesday last, by the falling of a tub into the pit in which he was working.

The Halifax Recorder says—"a young lady, wealthy, fashionable, accomplished, handsome, &c., has become desparately enamoured with one of the street car conductors, and wants to join her lot with his.—Of course, the old folks object, and thus the matter rests."

The Stipendiary Magistrate of Halifax, had his hands full on Tuesday last, the Recorder says that from eleven o'clock in the morning, to five in the evening, twenty-four cases in the Police Court, and ninety-four in the Civil Court were disposed of.

—Fresh Shad is selling in Truro at 8 cts a piece.

—The Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia, met at "High Twelve" on Wednesday last, in Halifax.

—We notice that the Stipendiary Magistrate of Halifax has directed the police to arrest all persons who, without any business, attend the Police Court three days in succession.

—The Recorder says that the Board of School Commissioners have intimated to the Government that in consequence of the refusal of the City Council to assess the citizens for School purposes, the School Houses of the city will have to be closed on the 31st of July ensuing.

Costiveness, or constipation, if allowed to continue, will entail a multitude of diseases. Use Parsons' Purgative Pills, in small doses, until you effect a complete cure.

During a ten minutes conversation recently with an officer who served with distinction in the Army of the Potomac, he took occasion to say that "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment" did more good than any or all other medicines dispensed to the soldiers.

—Another detachment of Canadian Zouaves leaves for the Pope's army on the 24th inst.

A correspondent from Baddeck, C. B., sends the Pictou Standard, a blade of grass 24 inches in length, grown in his field, as a proof of the rapid vegetation there this season.

—Josh Billings says, with a wisdom which surpasses that of Solomon—"Most every man will concede that it loox very foolish to see a boy draw a heavy slab up a steep hill for the fleetin pleshur of ridin' down agin, but it appears to me that that boy is a sage bi the side or the young man who works hard all week and drink his stumps up Satterda nite."

—The late Speaker of the New York State Legislature, C. T. Callcott, has just been sentenced to the Penitentiary for several years, for being, while a Collector of Excise, involved in whisky frauds on the revenue. He was a young man, and a lawyer, a resident of Brooklyn. A New York letter says—"Great sympathy is felt for Mr. C., not that he was not guilty, but that when everybody seemed to be stealing from the Government and lining their own pockets and big rascals escaped, it seemed hard, it was said, that Callcott with his paitry frauds, should be visited with the sternest penalty—a felon's doom with $10,000 to pay—while others escape."

The Colonist says that a man named Gillies, a native of Margaree, Inverness, was shot dead by a Constable at Sherbrooke Gold Diggings a few days ago.

Correspondence.

[No Communication will be taken notice of unless accompanied with the author's name.—We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of correspondents.]

Truro, June 26.

MR. EDITOR,—In your issue of the 13th, a writer, over the signature of "Garcon," designates ELM STREET as "Feather-bed lane." Where did he get the name? Was it from one of the residents of "Anvil St." or did he rise by "sunrise" and coin it? ELM.

From our Special Correspondent.

MR. EDITOR: Being at leisure this morning I will write you a few lines. It is not my object either to immortalize your paper or myself, but to give you a plain account of some things that met me by the way. It was my lot, among others, to leave your fair village by train on Monday afternoon, 18th May. The day was not all a tourist could desire. Rain fell in abundance, and the wind had a moaning sound—just such as was calculated to give a heavy heart "the blues." But this was not my lot. The smiles of surrounding friends gave sunshine and blue sky in the cars, while clouds and darkness were "the order of the day" without.

Every path of life is beset with "losses and crosses," and, as a matter of course, the railway has its share among the rest. Not long after leaving Truro the engine struck up an uncommon air. This told us that something was wrong. One continual quizzing arose from all quarters. You could hear parties on every side asking: "What's wrong?" "What's wrong?" "What's the matter?" "What's the matter?" At last we were told that a pair of cattle were on the track. After a few moments' delay the engine whistled them off without any damage. We got to Halifax about the usual hour. As a matter of course the usual amount of cabbies, loafers and stragglers were at the Depot—many of them to the great annoyance of passengers, who could scarcely get room to move. However, we got through, and managed to get to the city. Having several things to attend to, your correspondent did not get in till about half past ten p. m., or rather later. Worn and weary, I was glad to get to my bed, and promised myself a good night's rest. But alas, my disappointment! and strange to tell, the quarter from which it came! About two o'clock, or rather earlier, to my great annoyance a rooster, whose seed nest far away, began to crow in right good earnest. Were I to judge these claps by the amount of noise they make, I'd say that he excelled in his profession, and was "at the very top of the ladder." Looking at the creature's conduct, there are only two standpoints from which I could begin to excuse him, viz.: either that some parties hired him to waken them at that hour of the night, or that his "time piece" was really three hours too fast, and thus got deceived. I always opposed bribery; but really if I could have bribed chancier to hold his tongue that morning I'd have done so without any hesitation. The matter ended thus: he did his duty right well, and kept me without any sleep after two o'clock.

Next morning found me rushing from place to place. I was busily preparing for "a trip to the States." The Carlotta was to sail at 4 p. m., and all got orders to be aboard half an hour earlier. The appointed time found me in my place; but I did not enjoy it. The day was drizzly and wet—everything but pleasant to go on water. This went a long distance to put a top stone on the temple of misery that was brooding in my mind. As you'd look round a continual swell appeared on every side. There was a dead swell on the sea, just enough to rock the steamer and make a young sailor "squashy," and a living swell on the Dominion wharf in the shape of sable trails and auburn waterfalls. Friends came to bid friends farewell. The pressure was so great that for a time we were threatened with a popular deluge. In fact, some experienced more or less of this all the way to Portland. The boat was crowded. Under such circumstances the eleventh commandment ("Man mind thyself") gets an undue prominence in the case of many individuals. The fact of the matter is—if you don't look after your own affairs no other person will. We got to Portland at 6 a. m. Thursday morning. The place looked everything but inviting amidst torrents of falling rain; however, amidst all this the sea-sick were glad to get ashore.

The moment you step on the wharf a disgusting lot of fellows in the shape of cabbies present themselves. Now cabbies seem to be much the same the world over. They are related to each other by a two-fold tie, namely: that of practice and profession. They are a deplorable race! Get an honest cabby and you get (almost) a "white crow." But those in Portland are in wickedness a hundred per cent ahead of anything I ever saw or heard. Such wholesale swearing! You would think that the mouth of one of these creatures is the opening where the scum of hell in the shape of (I cannot say, however; for it was nothing of the kind but) infernal language. Though the gates of woe were thrown wide open, and the chains of fallen angels snapped asunder, they would not rush quicker out of the fire of God's wrath than what fiends (in the shape of words) were driving each other out of the mouths of these men. I was afraid that the place would either sink, or that a flash of the lightning which was playing above the horizon would come and burn them up amidst the sulphurous streams that came out of their mouths. But the train is just about to start for Boston, so I must step aboard and bid you farewell for the present. TARTAN.

MR. EDITOR.—

The present method of managing our County business I have always considered very defective, and I am strongly of opinion that the whole system is wrong, and that a much better one could easily be adopted. And I propose in this article to enumerate some of the evils of the present management, and also the reasons of some of the grievances complained of; which I think are inherent to the present system; and must follow as a matter of course from the present construction of our county courts. Every person understands that our county affairs are at present managed by the court of quarter sessions, comprising the grand jury and the magistrates of the county, making a kind of legislative assembly, consisting of a miniature upper and lower house, and here it will be necessary to glance at the manner of the appointment of this assembly, commencing with the grand jury, or lower house. They are drawn by an officer appointed for that purpose, from a panel previously prepared by a committee of the Bench, comprising all the male inhabitants of the county, (not otherwise disqualified by holding specified offices) having a certain amount of property, that being the qualification necessary—a man's purse—not brains or intellect, is the proper qualification required for a grand jury man. If men universally, or were even generally qualified by education or nature for transacting business of the character required, this might work very well, but such is not the case; in proof of which any person has but to glance at the personelle of any jury drawn in this way, and see how notoriously unfit a great number of them are to occupy so responsible a position; and just count how many of them he would be willing to select to do public business, or how many of them he would choose to represent him in any private business transaction, and he would at once see the absurdity of a system that makes it even possible for such men to be entrusted to take charge of public business, and what is the inevitable result? simply, that a small number, two or three, perhaps more, but often less, virtually do all the business, and so far as any services they render, the majority might as well be at home. When the accounts of the year are submitted to this body, sometimes a free and easy party who happens to be the directing spirit of the crowd, will pass any accounts handed in, no matter how absurd or extortionate the charges in such bill may be, thus saddling the tax payer with sums he never should be called to pay; perhaps the very next year a RETIREMENT man comes to the front, and then an equally absurd indiscriminate cutting down of accounts occur, no matter how just or correct a bill is, it must be docked, responsible county officers having arduous duties to perform must have their salaries cut down to the level of day laborers, so that the only chance of getting value for services rendered or goods furnished to the county, is by making an over-charge in the bill to cover shrinkage in the grand jury room. This of necessity disgusts a number of the most respectable class of persons who will have nothing to do with business conducted in this manner, greatly to the detriment of the public interest.

The Bench, as it is styled—or as we may here call it, the Upper House—although containing some of the most intelligent and best business men in the county, is not from the nature of the appointments made (particularly of late years), an eligible body to transact business, J. P.'s having lately been appointed, not on account of any particular fitness for duty, but as a reward for services rendered to some political party who happen to hold the reins of government in our Local Legislature; or it may be their appointment is simply a set off to some person similarly promoted by a party formerly in power. In fact, there is a growing disposition on the part of our best men to hold themselves aloof from the squabbles of the Bench in Court assembled. They seem to have become disgusted with the whole system, and earnestly call for a radical change. Others holding seats there do not care enough about anything except their own private interests to give public affairs any attention; and thus a comparative few who, from a private liking to that kind of thing, or perhaps a stronger personal reason, attend annually and do the legislating. Any person wanting any particular measure carried has only to take a little time and drum up his friends throughout the country quietly, and he can get anything he wishes voted. Any person can see at a glance how unsuitable a system such as I have but imperfectly sketched is to transact the necessary business of a county. This fact is patent to all observers taking any notice of our county affairs, and it is utterly impossible that our county can improve, or that we will ever have any public works creditable to us until this is all changed. With your permission I will return to the subject at an early day. Yours, PROGRESS.

The Supreme Court opened in Amhest on Tuesday last, Judge DesBarres presiding. There were no criminal cases.

Colchester County Advertiser.

Mr. A. McLeod's store in Amherst was entered through a back window on Saturday night, 13th inst., by burglars, who carried away a cheese, a quantity of maple sugar and other articles. In the hurry and darkness, a hat was left on the floor, which may lead to the identification of the parties.

The New York Herald's Kingston (Jamaica) special (18th inst.) says:—The rain has been falling here in torrents, and the injury done to the plantations is immense. A river that had been dried up was suddenly flooded, the water rising to a height of forty feet. An immense amount of property was dragged along by the torrent. We had a violent shock of earthquake here on the 7th inst.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE.—Dr. Maggell is the founder of a new Medical system. The quantities, whose internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite with from one to two of his ordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve. Those two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggell's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggell's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggell's Pills suffices to keep the bowels in perfect order, force the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant. There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored, and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorating. This last quality makes the medicine very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant use of Maggell's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that MAGGELL'S BILIOUS, DYSPEPTIC AND DIARRHEA PILLS cure when all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chills, Cuts, and all Abrasions of the Skin MAGGELL'S SALVE is infallible. Sold by J. HAYDOCK, 11 Pine-street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts per box. CONTRACTS!—Buy no Maggell Pills or Salve, with a little pamphlet inside the box. They are bogus. The genuine have the name of J. Haydock on box with name of J. Maggell. M. D. The genuine have the Pills surrounded with white powder. FRIGHTFUL BURNS! FEARFUL SCALDS!—Dr. Maggell's Salve stops the most violent pain of burns, scalds, etc.: it is unsurpassed. Sold by all druggists. Avery, Brown & Co, Agents for Halifax.

Deaths.

At Truro, yesterday morning, (Friday,) after a short but painful illness, Wm Gormly, in the 53rd year of his age.
At Brookfield, At Saturday morning last, Jane Clarke, in the 56th year of her age.

New Advertisements.

BAZAAR.

A BAZAAR is expected to be held on Wednesday the 15th of July, in the Drill Shed in Truro, under the auspices of the Truro Baptist Ladies' Benevolent Society. Doors open at 11 a.m., Dinner served at 1 p.m. Extensive sale of useful and fancy articles. Refreshments, Strawberries, &c., served in good style.
June 27, 1868.

Masonic Bazaar.

A BAZAAR will be held in Picton under the auspices of "New Caledonia Lodge," No. 565, R. E., in their New Temple, on Tuesday, 21st July next, for the purpose of raising funds to aid in the completion of the latter. Arrangements will be made to secure reduced fares for persons visiting Picton at that time, by Railway and Steamers from abroad.
RICHARD TANNER, Chairman of Building Committee.
June 27, 1868.

Repeal is LOST, AND THE Railway Hotel IS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber being about to retire from business, wishes to dispose of that well known property the RAILWAY HOTEL. The building is large, in good repair, and in every way convenient for a first class Hotel; being in close proximity with the Railway Station it offers superior inducements to any one purchasing it.

—ALSO—
Five Valuable Building Lots, and Three newly finished Cottages, with Out-house, &c. The above named Hotel, Building Lots, and Cottages, are all situated in the vicinity of the Railway Depot.
Truro, June 20, 1868. Wm. McKAY.

Sheriff's Sale.

TO BE SOLD AT Public Auction, By the Subscriber, at the store owned and occupied by W. S. Crowe, Prince Street, on Monday the 22nd inst., at 2 o'clock p.m., a large and varied assortment of DRY GOODS, Groceries, &c.

The sale will continue from day to day till the whole is sold off, and as the sale is positive great bargains may be expected. Terms made known at sale.
CHARLES BLANCHARD, Sheriff.
Truro, June 12, 1868.

Married.

At Onslow, on the 25th inst, by Rev D W C Dimock, Thomas Roach of Nappan to Susan L, daughter of the late John Bishop.

Fresh Drugs And Chemicals

AT THE TRURO DISPENSARY. The Subscriber has just received from London and Liverpool the following Goods, which he offers for sale at as low rates as articles can be had in the Province, viz:—
Pure Pow'd Cream Tartar,
" Italian and East India Castor Oil,
Spanish Annatto,
" Licorise—choice brands,
Flavoring Essences of Pear, Pine Apple, Lemon, Raspberry, Strawberry, V. nilla, and Bitter Almonds,
Pure Pow'd Tartaric Acid,
" Gum Arabic—picked,
" Tragacanth,
" Oxalic Acid,
" Fly Paper,
" Turkey and Mediterranean Sponge,
" Painter's Dry Colors and Asphaltum,
" Hall's Siccilian Hair Renewer,
And a variety of articles too numerous to mention. Orders solicited from Physicians and Country Merchants. Prescriptions accurately dispensed.
A choice lot of Timothy and Clover Seed for sale cheap for Cash. H. L. ATKINS, Truro Dispensary.
June 13, 1868 d ml

BUCKEYE MOWING AND REAPING MACHINES. JUST Imported from the United States, a large number of these celebrated Machines, manufactured by

BUCKEYE MOWING AND REAPING MACHINES.

Adriance, Platt & Co., of Poughkeepsie, State of New York, the original inventors of the Buckeye Machine; all others are but off-shoots from them, they having purchased the right from them for a certain number of States. The ADRIANCE PLATT & CO. MACHINE, manufactured by them is the only Machine of the Buckeye make which has taken all the great prizes at the National and State Fairs in the United States, and has taken the highest prizes in all those fairs, coming off victorious over all other machines which came in for competition. The Adriance Platt & Co. Machines now have the very enviable reputation of being the best Mowing Machines now made in the United States. These machines were manufactured by Special Contract for this Province, and are warranted perfect in every particular, and to work to the perfect satisfaction of purchasers, or the money refunded. These Machines have many improvements not used by other manufacturers of the Buckeye Machine; and we confidently state them to be the best machines ever imported into this Province, and would respectfully request all Farmers wishing to purchase Mowing Machines, to call at the store of ROBERT SMITH, Esq., in Truro, where the machines can be seen and examined before purchasing elsewhere. These machines will be sold at reduced prices for Cash.

We shall also have a Combined Self Raking Reaping Machine on exhibition at the same time and place, and also a few of the Celebrated WHITTICOMB'S PATENT WHEEL HORSE RAKER to sell.
ROBERT SMITH, Local Agent.
HENRY W. BOOTH, General Agent for the Province of Nova Scotia.
ADRIANCE, PLATT & Co., Manufacturers.
June 13, 1868.

COLCHESTER, SS: In the matter of the estate of Doratha Lynds, late of Onslow, in the County of Colchester, spinster, deceased, who died intestate, on application of John King, heir of deceased, for sale of certain undivided real estate.

TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION, by the Sheriff of the County of Colchester, in front of the Court House at Truro, on Monday the twentieth day of July next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, by virtue of an order of sale granted herein by His Honor Mr Justice Desbarres, at the late June term of the Supreme Court at Truro, on the Thirtieth day of June A D 1868, under chapter 16, of the Acts of 1866, in separate lots according to following description:—
All the right, title, interest, claim, property and demand, which the said Doratha Lynds, had in her life time, and her heirs at law had at her decease, and now have in, to and out of, over and upon, the following lots, pieces, and parcels of land, situate, lying and being in Onslow aforesaid, and described as follows:—
First,—All that certain Lot of Intervale land, situate, lying and being in Onslow aforesaid, and bounded on the south east by the main road leading up North River; on the south west by lands of Lemuel Lynds; on the north-west by North River; on the north-east by lands of Samuel Rottie, Esq., and containing Sixty Acres, more or less, being the lands on which the Dwelling House of the late Doratha Lynds is situate.

Also, that certain lot of upland and swamp land situate in Onslow aforesaid, and bounded on the south-west by the road leading to the mountain; on the north-west by the main road leading up North River; on the north-east by lands of G. G. McNutt; and on the south-east by lands now or lately owned by Rufus Lynds, containing

Twenty Acres, more or less.
Terms of Sale—Ten per cent deposit, the remainder on the delivery of the deeds.
CHARLES BLANCHARD, Sheriff of Colchester.
ISRAEL LONGWORTH, Attorney of Applicant.
Truro, June 15, 1868.

FOR THE TOILET.—We have great pleasure in most heartily recommending Publicover's celebrated KOMERJUVENESCENT ELIXIR of hair Invigorator and Restorer. We have now tried it for about two months and find that it is no humbug but a genuine article. Under its influence grey hairs are speedily restored to their original colour, and all the hair of the head is rendered soft and silky, presenting a most handsome and glossy appearance. It is not a dye, remember. Having had many grey hairs for years, we tried a great variety of remedies from cold water up to Mrs. Allens celebrated preparation but all failed us. This Elixir has done it. Try one bottle and prove it for yourself. Any amount of testimonials could be had in its favor. Sold by James Publicover, Truro, N. S.

Life in a Pill Box.

EXTRAORDINARY EFFECTS FROM

MAGGELL'S ANTI-BILLIOUS PILLS.

ONE PILL IN A DOSE,
ONE PILL IN A DOSE.
ONE PILL IN A DOSE.

What one hundred letters a day say from parents all over the habitable Globe:—
Dr Maggell, your pill has rid me of all billiousness.
No more noxious doses for me in five or ten pills taken at one time, one of your pills cured me; Thanks Doctor, My headache has left me—send another box to keep in the house;
After suffering torture from billious cholice, two of your pills cured me, and I have no return of the malady;
Our doctors treated me for chronic constipation as they called it, and at last said I was incurable—Your Pills cured me;
I had no appetite; [Maggell's Pills gave me a hearty one;
Your Pills are marvellous;
I send for another box, and keep them in the house;
Dr Maggell has cured my headache, that was chronic;
I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus, the dear young thing got well in a day;
My nausea of a morning is now cured;
Your box of Maggell's salve cured me of noise in my head, I rubbed some of your salve behind my ear, and the noise left;
Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family;
I enclose a dollar; your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar;
Send me five boxes of your pills;
Send me three boxes of your pills and pills by return mail.

For all Diseases of the Kidneys, Retention of Urine, &c.

Maggell's Pills are a perfect Cure. One will satisfy any one.

For Female Diseases.

Nervous Prostration.

Weakness, General Lassitude

and Want of Appetite.

Maggell's Pills will be found an effectual remedy.

Maggell's Pills and Salve, Are almost universal in their effects, and a cure can be almost guaranteed.

Each Box contains Twelve Pills, One Pill in a Dose.

COUNTERFEITS!—Buy no Maggell's Pills or Salve with a little pamphlet inside the box, they are bogus. The genuine have name of J. Haydock on box with J. Maggell, M. D. The genuine have the pill surrounded with white powder. Sold by all respectable dealers in medicine, throughout the United States and Canadas, at 25 cents a Box or Pot.

All orders must be addressed to J. Haydock, No 11 Pine Street, New York.

Patients can write freely about their complaints, and reply will be returned by the following mails.
Write for "Maggell's Treatment of Diseases," AVERY BROWN & Co., Agents Halifax.
June 13, 1868.

SPRING GOODS!

The Subscriber

HAS RECEIVED a portion of his SPRING STOCK of

English Goods,

per Steamer, the remainder daily expected per ships "Forest King," "Roseneath," "Zimre," and "Sarah L Hall."
THE DRY GOODS Department comprises Ladies' Fancy Dress Material, Black and Col'ed French Merinoes, Black, White, and Col'ed Lustres, and Alpaccas, Black Henrietta Cloth & Printed Cottons, Shirting, Grey Cottons, &c., &c., &c.
LADIES' STRAW HATS, MENS' AND BOYS' FELT AND STRAW HATS;
Broad Cloths, Cassimeres, Doeskins, &c., &c., &c.

A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF

Iron and Steel,

English Cut and Wrot. NAILS, Best Quality. Shelf Hardware in variety. Mill Saws of St John Manufacture, warranted. Best London PAINT AND OIL. WINDOW GLASS, &c., &c., &c.
J. F. BLANCHARD.
Truro, May 2, 1868.

THE QUEENS BOOK.

Price reduced to $1.25 per copy—
Harp's Edition may be had at the Agency of G. E. MORTON, & Co., Halifax, March 7, 1868. 185 Hollis Street.

Repeal. Repeal.

The Repeal Delegates are expected home next Steamer, when this vexed question will undoubtedly be set at rest whether successful or not we all want to look our best to welcome our countrymen home. To do this it is absolutely essential to give Mr Publicover a call and purchase what we require for beautifying and adorning our person, from his selection of Pomades, Hair Oils, Perfumes, Hair Restorers, and other requisites to be found in a gentleman's Out-fitting Warehouse, from the largest selection ever offered to the public in this or any other country town in Nova Scotia, received by late arrivals direct from Great Britain.
June 13, 1868.

P. J. CHISHOM & CO.

Opposite the Railway Station, Truro, N. S.

BEGS leave to thank their numerous customers for the liberal patronage extended to them during the short time they have been in Truro, and hopes by strict attention to merit a further continuance of patronage.

The Subscribers have just received

A Good Assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, &c.

Call and see. June 13

FLOUR and CORN MEAL

Magnificent Flour at Greatly reduced Prices.

THE Subscriber will sell as usual the very finest

FLOUR and CORN MEAL,

Cheaper than it can be bought in this market; Call and see before purchasing elsewhere.

THOS. MCKAY, Truro, June 6, 1868. 3 w.

NOTICE!

THE SUBSCRIBER wishes to inform the public that he has opened up in the shop formerly occupied by Duncan Campbell, at the Railway Depot, where he intends carrying on the Grocery Business, &c., &c.

Cash paid for Country Produce of all kinds, such as Butter, Eggs, Live Poultry, Calves, Lambs, &c.

ALFRED EDWARDS, Truro, June 6, 1868. 3m

Flour. Flour.

Just Received by Steamer Flambro, 200 Bbls. Extra Family Flour,

(Inspected in May by Young, Toronto) which is offered low either wholesale or retail.

FAULKNER & KING, June 6, 1868. 2 w p

To Sell or Let!

That Shop in Truro owned and occupied by the subscriber, as a DRY GOODS AND CLOTHING ESTABLISHMENT,

It is fitted up in a very Superior Style, for a FIRST CLASS

Dry Goods Shop,

The Size is 20 feet wide by 76 feet deep, is Cool in summer, and warm in winter, has a convenient Work Room Up Stairs, for tailoring or other purposes, 14 x 40 feet.

Also the DWELLING in connection therewith, which is convenient and very comfortable; all the rooms are well finished, has a good Frost Proof Cellar, a large Yard and Commodious Barn. They may be had separately or together. Apply on the premises or to ISRAEL LONGWORTH, Esq., Wm. CUNNINGHAM.

Truro, June 6, 1868.

ANDREWS!

LATE OF THE FIRM OF

CUNNINGHAM & ANDREWS,

HAS NOW OPENED A STOCK OF GOODS, which will compare favorably with Goods generally kept in Truro, in the Dry Goods Business.

The Stock is very much assorted, and suitable for every day use, chiefly comprising

Dress Goods, Shawls, Mantles, Staples, Hosiery, &c., Hats, Caps, Straw Goods in great variety.

Watches, Clocks and Jewelry of very many kinds. Plated and Solid Silver and Gold Goods, Almost every other article wanted in the trade for a household.

Watches, Clocks, and Jewelry carefully cleaned and repaired on the premises.

The most particular attention given to please every customer, and a decided determination to hold by and increase the large number of customers who have already given their kind patronage.

CALL AT ANDREWS' Store, Queen Street, Truro, N. S., May 30, 1868.

I, Richard Gratto, hereby certify that I was afflicted with Erysipelas for three years; it was the worst case that ever I saw. Eight months ago, I commenced using Mr. Gordon's medicine, and in four weeks I was a well man, and have been well ever since.
Truro, March, 1868. RICHARD GRATTO.

CORN MEAL.

Just arrived direct from Baltimore, per brig Dominion, One Hundred and Fifty Bbls. Superior Corn Meal, For sale low.

ROBERT SMITH, Truro, June 13

Farmers—Attention.

The subscriber has for sale a number of the

Patent Horse Pitchfork,

which he offers for sale low. Specimens can be seen at Mr Robert Smith's Store, Truro, or at the E O FITCH'S, Central Onslow.

May 30,

Dis solution of Copartnership.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned D. G. DICKSON and C. N. COCK, under the firm of D. G. DICKSON & Co., was this day dissolved by mutual consent, and all liabilities of the late firm are assumed by the said Charles N. Cock, who will pay and receive all debts owing from and to the said partnership.

DAVID G. DICKSON, CHARLES N. COCK. 3 ms

IMPORTATION OF DRY GOODS!

SPRING - - 1868.

G. READING

Respectfully invites the attention of the public to his supply of

DRY GOODS, among which will be found very cheap Grey, White and Printed Cottons, Broad Cloths, Doeskins, Tweeds, Ready-Made Clothing, Felt Hats, Cloth Caps, Shirts, Shirt Fronts, Ladies and Children's BOOTS and SHOES, Osnaburg, Grass Cloths, Hollands, Dress Materials in great variety; Ladies and Gents Lawn Handkerchiefs, Ladies and Gents Paper Collars of all sizes, Ladies Linen collars and cuffs, Shawls, Black cloth and Silk Jackets; Laces, Ribbons, Hats, Bonnets, Straw Ornaments, Embroideries, Flowers, Ribbons, Velvets, Ribbons, Dry and other Trimmings, Buttons and Small Wares; Silk, Cord, and Chenille Hair Nets. A good assortment of GLOVES and HOSIERY, Black Silk Lace Veils, Gossamer Veiling, Stays, Stay Fasteners, Hoop Skirts, &c. Truro, May 9, 1868.

O'Donnell's

Nova Scotia Photographic Studio,

167 Barrington Street—5 doors North of the MANSION HOUSE.—No stairs to ascend.

The Photograph business carried on in all its branches.

Special attention given to the copying of all kinds of old pictures, and also to enlarging the same, to cabinet or life size portraits finished in oils, pastels, Indian ink, &c., at unusually low prices.

Remember the place—167 Barrington Street, and no stairs to climb.

W. D. O'DONNELL, Halifax, May 16, 1868.

Valuable Family Medicine.

PENDLETON'S VEGETABLE PANACEA.

This valuable preparation has already been extensively circulated, and wherever it has been used it has met with entire approbation, and been installed as the Family Medicine. None should be without it, for so sure and speedy a relief as it affords in all cases of violent pains, cramps, colic, coughs and colds, cannot elsewhere be found. Especially as a cure for rheumatism it has proved, when faithfully applied, infallible. Being purely vegetable, no deleterious effects need be feared. Try it, for a single bottle will do more to establish its character than a hundred testimonials; but if any doubt its value, certificates from many prominent citizens of St. John and other towns may be seen in the manufacturer's possession, who will gladly exhibit them. Retail price 25 cents per bottle. For sale by E. M. Pendleton, General Agent and Manufacturer for the Provinces, Portland, St. John, N. B., by Druggists generally, and at village stores. H. E. Mayo, Travelling Agent. may 21

BUILDING LOTS.

VALUABLE BUILDING LOTS FOR SALE, owned by Dr. Walling, near the Railway Station, Truro. Apply to

CHARLES BLANCHARD, 1y pd.

STILES' PATENT Spinning Wheel

Archibald, Leaper, & Co

WISH to notify the Public that having purchased the Patent from Mr. Stiles they are prepared to supply all parties who may favor them with an order for the above at the shortest notice. This Wheel is calculated to spin double the quantity of an old fashioned wheel, with one-fifth of the labor, and has been pronounced by competent judges to be superior to anything of the kind ever introduced into the Provinces. Specimens can be seen at Mr Geo. McLeod's shop, Bible Hill; Wm Bell's New Annan; M Sibley's, St Andrews; and Robt Hamilton's, Upper Stewiacke.

Patent Spinning Wheel,

W. S. ARCHIBALD, ALEX. LEAPER. Truro, May 23, 1868. 3ms

Caleb McCully,

Watch and Clock-Maker,

At the Dry Goods and Grocery Store of Wm McCully, opposite the Post Office.

Chronometers, clocks and Watches of all kinds repaired in the most thorough manner.

ALSO, FOR SALE, Gold and Silver English, American, and Swiss Watches, Gold Chains, Finger Rings, &c.

Cheap for Cash and Warranted. Truro, May 16, 1868.

PRINCE OF WALES HOTEL!

THE SUBSCRIBER begs leave to return thanks to his friends and the travelling public, who have so kindly patronized him for the last 12 years, and would now beg to notify his friends and the public in general, that he has further improved his Hotel, and respectfully solicits a call from parties visiting the handsome Valley of Truro. Passengers conveyed to and from the Cars free of charge.

Truro, May 16, 1868. 1m. Proprietor.

The Hotel is still for sale on reasonable terms.

TRURO Livery Stables!

G. W. SMITH, Proprietor. The subscriber begs respectfully to inform the Travelling Public that he keeps constantly in readiness a good stock of Horses, carriages, and harness.

NOTICE.

ALL Persons indebted to the Firm of FARNHAM, COCK & LITTLE are requested to settle their Accounts with said Firm on or before the first day of May ensuing.

ENGLISH MAGAZINES.

Provincial Book Store, GRANVILLE STREET. Englishwoman's, London Society, Belgravia, Temple Bar, Tinsley's, Broadway, Once a Week, Young Ladies Journal, Cornhill, All the Year Round, Boys' Own, with the quarterly's and other Periodicals, Literary and Religious for January.

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT.

WHEREAS James McCurdy, of Old Barns, in the County of Colchester, Blacksmith, by Deed of Assignment duly executed, assigned to the Subscribers all his Property, consisting of Personal Estate, Goods and Effects, for the benefit of all his creditors without preference.

W. C. DELANEY, SURGEON DENTIST, Truro.

Painless Extraction of Teeth by the administration of Pure Ether. April 11.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

ALL that Lot of Land, situate, lying, and being occupied by William Lawson Welch, containing Seventy-Five Acres, more or less. There is on the farm about forty acres of clearing, part of which has been cultivated, but is now unoccupied.

Clearing Out Sale "BEE HIVE"

Preparatory to receiving the Spring Importations, Fall and Winter Clothing, and Gent's Furnishing Goods, will be sold at unprecedentedly low prices. Also a large lot of TWEEDS, CASSIMERES, CLOTHES, BEAVERS, &c.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICE, And General Advertising Agency.

21 George Street, Halifax. (Below the Grand Parade.) THE object of the office is to provide a central means by which parties requiring services and situations respectively may obtain the same.

Written communications, giving full particulars, and enclosing postage stamp and fee for return letter, will be as carefully attended to as a personal application.

Table with 2 columns: Category and Fee. Female Domestic Servants $6.50, Men and boys 1 per cent on salary, Persons requiring do 50 to 1.00, Letters to Correspondents 25.

The Register and Real Estate Record.

Is issued from this office on the 1st of every month for gratuitous distribution, and besides containing all the wants advertised, offers serious advantages to parties wishing to dispose of property, and also as a general advertising medium.

Miss B. Wood, Dress and Mantuamaker.

TAKES this opportunity of expressing her sincere thanks to the inhabitants of Truro and vicinity, for their liberal patronage since opening up business in Truro. A good and select assortment of Hats, Bonnets, and Ladies Dress Material of all kinds of the latest Styles and Fashion.

J. A. LEAMAN, Victualler, &c., Prince Street, - - - Truro, N. S.

Begs leave to thank his numerous Customers for the liberal patronage extended to him during the short time he has been in business in Truro, and hopes by strict attention to merit a further continuance of patronage.

Carriage, Sleigh, and Sign PAINTING

THE Subscriber having leased and thoroughly fitted up the Paint Shop in connection with Mr. Wm. Logan's Carriage Manufactory is prepared, with the best of stock and good help, to serve his customers faithfully, hoping by strict attention to business he may merit an equal share of public patronage.

HOUSE FOR SALE IN TRURO

THE premises owned and formerly occupied by the Subscriber now renting for £43 and upwards, will be sold for the very small sum of £300. Terms of payment easy.

The Subscriber's Marble Works is carried on in his shop on Prince street, abreast Depot. He will receive orders for all kinds of Fruit Trees, from Ferguson's Nursery, Burnside, Hants Co. Also orders for Spinning Wheel, Reed and Spools.

For Sale!

THAT Excellent and well known LOT OF LAND, containing One Hundred Acres of Land, more or less, situate and lying in the Lower part of Ouslow, now in possession of Reuben Vincent, if not previously disposed of at private sale, will be sold at Auction at the Court House, Truro, on the 2nd day of June next, at 4 o'clock, p. m.

Salt! Salt! Salt! Salt!

JUST Received 112 Bags Liverpool Salt. Low for Cash. Also, in store, a number of Bbls. of Coal Tar. J. W. KING & Co. Truro, May 16, 1868.

EDWIN D. KING, Barrister & Attorney-at-Law

SOLICITOR, NOTARY PUBLIC, &c. OFFICE - - NO. 49 BEDFORD ROW, HALIFAX, N. S. Jan 18.

Notice.

IS hereby given that the Partnership heretofore existing between William Cunningham and David Andrews as Dry Goods merchants, has been this day dissolved by mutual consent, and said business will in future be conducted by WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM, who will pay all debts and receive all monies due the late firm of Cunningham & Andrews.

Colford Bros., Wholesale Dealers in CIGARS, TOBACCO, PIPES, &c., No. 78 Granville Street, Halifax, N. S.

The Patent Elastic Horse Shoe Cushion.

Warranted to prevent Horses Balling up, picking up stones, or bruising the foot, is invaluable for a TENDER-FOOTED HORSE, OR A HORSE WITH COHNS. As it breaks the Concussion when driven over hard roads. Price 60 Cents a Pair. Liberal Discount to Dealers and Agents. COLFORD BROS. Halifax, N. S. N. B.—Prompt attention paid to orders from the country. Jan 11

BIRCH HILL, STEWACKE Seythe Stones,

Specimens can be seen at the Mirror Office, and at Mr. Eaton's store Truro. H. W. JOHNSON, Johnson's Crossing, Truro, April 25, 1868.

Notice!

The Subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has commenced the

Butchering BUSINESS.

at the stand lately occupied by Daniel Cox, and next door to J. L. Sutherland's Grocery store, where he hopes by strict attention to business, Good Meats and Reasonable Prices, to merit a share of the public patronage.

ROBERT Mc G. MOFFAT, BARRISTER & ATTORNEY AT LAW, Conveyancer, &c., TRURO, N. S.

RIVER PHILIP Freestone Quarry.

M. & P. McDONALD, Pugwash, Nova Scotia, beg to inform the public generally, that they have their Quarry known as The River Philip Freestone Quarry, in successful operation, and are prepared, promptly, to fill orders for Building Stone of Granitic Stone, which they will dispose of at reasonable terms, and at short notice.

Henry Dravis WATCH-MAKER AND JEWELLER, (Successor to Myer Moss.)

CHRONOMETER, HORIZONTAL AND VERTICAL WATCHES. Repaired and Cleaned with neatness and dispatch. ENGRAVING neatly executed. All Descriptions of Fine Machinery made to order and Repaired. NAUTICAL INSTRUMENTS adjusted. Jewels of all Kinds Made to order. Truro, Sep. 21, 1867. year

REMOVAL!

OPHIR HOUSE! E. L. & T. SPIKE, MANUFACTURING JEWELLERS & SILVERSMITHS.

Have Removed from No. 135 Granville Street, to their New Establishment, No. 161 Hollis Street, Opposite the "Club House," and two doors south of Z. S. Hall's Army and Navy Book Store. June 27, 1867

TRURO HOTEL, OPPOSITE THE RAILWAY DEPOT, Robt. Fisher - - Proprietor.

Of the above-mentioned House, begs leave to intimate to the Travelling Public that he is prepared to furnish PERMANENT and TRANSIENT BOARDERS at reasonable terms; and in connection with the above establishment he begs most respectfully to inform the public that he will keep a Stable for the special benefit of his customers. By strict attention to business he hopes to merit a share of public patronage. August 24, 1867. 1 year.

PIANOS! PIANOS!

M. R. E. C. SAFFERY, professor of Music, offers his services professionally, in the purchase and selection of new and second-hand Instruments. There is so great a difference even in New Pianos, in point of tone and touch, that parties would be consulting their own interest in availing themselves of his professional experience remembering, that without due discrimination and judgment, you often pay more for a worthless instrument than a superior one worth amount to, verifying the old adage, "That you have paid too dear for your whistle;" therefore the fee of $4.00 is absolutely money saved. Communications post paid directed Mr. Saffery, Dartmouth, Halifax, will be attended to. nov 30 3m

Flour! Flour!

THE Subscriber keeps constantly on hand a Superior Quality of FLOUR, which he will sell remarkably low for Cash, and see. ALSO A SUPERIOR Horse Power Hay Press, nearly new. THOS. McKAY. Truro, Nov 28. 2m.

CARD.

WAVERLEY HOUSE FREDERICTON, N. B. Wm. GRIEVES, Proprietor. Good accommodation for man and beast, and on moderate terms. Jan 23 1y

JUST RECEIVED.

At the Bee-hive A VERY LARGE STOCK OF EASY-MADE CLOTHING, COLLARS, UNDER CLOTHING, FANCY SHIRTS, TRUNKS, VALISES, &c. for the Fall Trade, all of which will be sold very low for cash. JAMES K. MUNNIS, Corner Jacob and Water Streets, Halifax, Oct 19.

CARD.

C. K. Morse, BARRISTER & ATTORNEY AT LAW, Notary Public, Conveyancer, &c. AMHERST, N. S. 1y.

Revere House,

OKVILLE STREET, HALIFAX. The above house, kept by Mrs. Cook Card, is most conveniently situated for business men visiting the city. Halifax, Dec. 21. 1m.

John Lewis, MANUFACTURER OF Lasts, Boot Trees and Pegs,

BEGS leave to return thanks to his numerous customers throughout the lower Provinces for the liberal support he has received from them for the last 25 years, and begs to acquaint them that he has moved to Truro, near the Depot, and continues to manufacture Lasts of the latest style with iron toes, iron heels and bottoms; also boot trees, cramps, screws, and shoe pegs of all sizes. Sold wholesale and retail; all orders punctually attended to. Nov 23

DOMINIO HOUSE!

WILLIAM SMITH TAILOR, BEGS leave to inform his friends and the public generally, that he has lately opened up the above establishment near the Railway Depot, where he has on hand a good assortment of ENGLISH AND DOMINION TWEEDS, &c. And hopes by strict attention to business receive a share of patronage. Sep. 14, 1867.

TRURO MARBLE WORKS,

Situate on Prince St., abreast the Depot. The Subscriber has constantly on hand a large assortment of best Italian and Vermont Marbles for Monuments, Tombs, Headstones, Hall and Centre Table Tops, &c. N. B.—The subscriber would take this opportunity of thanking the public for their liberal patronage, and would say that he has the largest stock on hand at present he ever had, and would invite them to call and examine specimens sold on reasonable terms and delivered free of charge. oct 26 A. J. WALKER.

Parish & Co's

Is the best place in the city to get a Photograph taken, a PICTURE FRAME, or to buy an Album—Finest assortment in the city. COUNTRY ARTISTS Supplied with Photographic Materials of all kinds, at low prices. RECEPTION ROOMS AND SHOW ROOMS On ground floor of this Establishment. 122 & 124 Hollis Street. May 2 1y

WALLACE HOTEL, Fronting the Gulf of St. Lawrence, WALLACE, N. S.

THE Proprietor begs leave to inform his friends and the travelling public generally that his House being commodious and in a healthy location, he is prepared to render it worthy of the patronage of all those who may favor him with their patronage. And having his Table supplied with the very best that the country can afford, he flatters himself he can give universal satisfaction to his customers. His Stable is of the first order, and his charges are moderate. oct 31 3m Proprietor THOMAS PAGE.

HENRY T. LAWRENCE, Saddler and Harness-Maker, TRUNK-MAKER, Truro, N. S.

RESPECTFULLY intimates to the inhabitants of Truro and its vicinity, that he has commenced the above business in the shop lately occupied by Mr. Henry Tupper, and will be prepared to make up and repair all kinds of Harness on reasonable terms at short notice, and in the best style of workmanship. In reference to the above, I beg to return thanks for the liberal share of patronage I have received since I commenced business in the above line, and have pleasure in recommending the above named Mr. T. Lawrence as my successor. Truro, Oct 17 HENRY TUPPER.

CHEESE HOUSE!

THE Subscribers beg leave to call attention to their Stock of GROCERIES; and expect, in a few days, to receive a splendid assortment of DRY GOODS, Having a thorough knowledge of the business, we hope by strict attention to the wants of our customers, to merit a large share of public patronage. ALSO—A large supply of JEWELRY, Cheap for Cash. POTTS, WARD & CO. Bridgewater, Aug. 24, 1867.

GAMUEL CALDWELL, VICTUALLER, No. 177 UPPER WATER ST.

HEAD of the second wharf south of Messrs. Chard & Co's. Warehouse, Halifax, N. S., where he keeps for sale at the lowest rates, Fresh Beef, Mutton, Veal, Corned Beef, Tongues, &c. of the best kinds. H. M. Ships, Merchant Vessels, Families, Hotel keepers and others supplied at the shortest notice. dec 9

Farm For Sale.

THE Subscriber is authorized to sell the farm at North River Bridge, Ouslow, owned by Charles L. Marsh. A perfect title will be given. There is a good House and Barn on the premises, and the place is admirably situated and adapted for any person wishing to engage in business or follow a trade in connection with farming. A bargain may be expected. ISRAEL LONGWORTH, nov 30 2m Solicitor, Truro.

W. C. SMITH, Carriage and Sleigh Maker, Opposite the residence of H. Hyde, Esq., TRURO, N. S.

THE Subscriber begs leave to tender his thanks to the public for the patronage bestowed on him since commencing business in Truro; and is prepared to build all kinds of work of his line. No pains will be spared in the execution of custom work.

All Kinds of Light Carriages, including Top Buggies, made to order. nov 30

TRURO PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY.

THE Subscriber having fitted up his Rooms with an enlarged Sky Light, is prepared to take FERROTYPES, AMBROTYPES, and PHOTOGRAPHS equal to any other Operator in this Province. Having recently purchased an improved Fancy Back Ground, which greatly improves the appearance of pictures. Ambrotypes, in frames, at one half the usual price. Children taken in from 3 to 5 seconds. N. B.—No person will be required to take a picture after sitting, unless perfectly satisfied with his expression. Rooms south side the Parade. oct 26 T. MAYO.

GORDON'S, RHEUMATIC REMEDY!

WARRANTED to remove the most severe attack of Rheumatism; a sure remedy for Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Cramp in the Stomach, Diarrhoea, Ague, Tooth Ache, Scalds, Burns, Fresh Cuts, Sprains, Cliffsblains, &c. Directions for use—For Rheumatism—A teaspoonful of the Remedy in warm water, sweetened, one hour before, or two after meals, and rub the part affected night and morning. If the pain is seated, the part should be well rubbed with the Liniment, mixed with a little sweet oil, and a flannel wet with the same worn on the part till the pain is removed. Sore Throat—Take inwardly, and mix with sweet oil and rub outwardly. Mixed with water makes an excellent gargle. Cramp in the Stomach—A teaspoonful in warm water and sugar. Diarrhoea—A teaspoonful on refined sugar; increase the dose if required. Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis—Take on linn sugar. Ague, Tooth Ache, &c.—Apply inwardly and outwardly. Fresh Cuts, Fresh Cuts, &c.—Apply a piece of flannel moistened with the Liniment to the part affected.

MEDICINAL ROOT PILLS

Purely Vegetable, for the cure of Bilious and other Fevers; Liver Complaint, Indigestion, Costiveness, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Chills, Headache, Giddiness, &c. Directions for use—For an Adult—From two to five Pills—Very delicate persons may begin with one Pill, and increase if they find necessary. Those of a costive habit, and more robust and strong, can commence with four, and increase to five. For Children—From a quarter of a Pill to two Pills. If the child is too young to swallow a pill, it may be broken into a powder and given in a little syrup.

GREAT INDIAN HEALING SALVE!

Warranted to heal Burns, Scalds, Ulcers, Cuts, Bruises, Frost Bites, Broken Breasts, Felons, Cliffsblains, Sore Eyes, Sore Lips, &c. Also—an excellent remedy for Piles, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Cracked Hands, or any roughness of the skin. Directions—Spread the Salve thin, on old Linn wet with the fire. If the complaint is very severe, the part should be changed every four to six hours. N. B.—While using this salve for any cutaneous disease, it is recommended to take the Eucalyptus Root Pills, as their prompt but gentle and safe action in cleansing the system, greatly aids the effects.

SEER-CLOTH PLASTER!

For Drawing, Healing and Strengthening, warranted a sure remedy for Rheumatism and other pains, Cuts, Cracked Joints, &c. Directions—Spread on Lin. Leather for pains or as a Strengthening Plaster, and on Linn for Sores. Sold in Halifax by Brown Brothers & Co., Ordinance Square; Cogswell & Forsyth, 105, Woodhill Brothers, 141, Hollis-street; H. A. Taylor, corner of Hollis and Sackville-sts.; Thomas Walsh, 188 Upper Water-st.; and by Druggists and Dealers in the City and throughout the Province. H. L. Atkins, agent, and for sale by P. J. Clisholm, S. S. Nelson & Sons, and Edwin McNair. nov 16

THE ORIGINAL "Weed" Sewing Machines,

With all the Latest Improvements. THE "WEED" TOOK the highest Prize at the Paris Exhibition for a SEWING MACHINE, as such, and is becoming generally popular. Adapted for all kinds of Sewing in Families and Manufactories. Lock Stitch, Shuttle, Straight Needle. Exceedingly simple in construction. Each machine warranted, and kept in order free of charge, and the Factory being in St. John, N. B., much time, expense, and customer's house trouble attending Foreign Machines is saved. CHAS. A. BOVEY, Nos. 10 and 12 Nelson Street, St. John, N. B. Agent for the Province.

P. S.—Do not be imposed upon by an imitation Machine called "Weed." The Original "Weed" is made only by the North American Manufacturing Company, at St. John, N. B.

In calling attention to the above advertisement the Subscriber begs to intimate to the inhabitants of Truro and vicinity that he has been appointed Agent for the "Weed" Sewing Machine, and is now prepared to supply parties who want a really good Sewing Machine for family use. A good Stock of Singer and other Needles constantly on hand. N. B.—Sewing Machine is carefully repaired & adjusted. J. W. SMITH, A Truro Boot and Shoe Factory. 2125

ASAPH G. BLAKSLEE, HOUSE, SIGN AND DECORATIVE PAINTER,

NO. 78 KING STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. Transparent Window Blinds manufactured to order. 1y dec 1