Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Burs that stick.

Next Sunday Afternoon Rev. L. D. Morse, our returned Missionary, speaks at our Mission Band. We expect the Vestry to be packed. Bro. Morse will receive a hearty welcome.

The Ladies hope to have Mrs. Morse with them Friday afternoon and evening of this week. What a grand Missionary Rally we shall have with these two consecrated and successful workers to lead us.

The Paper read last Wednesday evening by our Brother Sydney P. Dumaesq gave a concise and interesting account of the American Baptist's Telugu Mission. It is a marvellous story of the providence of God, and was well told by the writer.

Another Successful "Social" was held in the Vestry Thursday evening last. This time the B. V. P. U. had the honor of entertaining their friends, and they did it well. These Socials are a good thing.

This World. "This world that we're a-livin' in
Is mighty hard to beat;
You get a thorn with every rose,
But ain't the roses sweet."

It was sage advice an old gentleman gave his daughter:—"Be sure that you never marry a poor man; but remember, that the poorest man in the world is the one that has money and nothing else." That is a most suggestive inscription on the tombstone of Thomas Raven-
ite croft—

"What I gave, I have;
What I spent, I had;
What I kept, I lost."

If you will show me the books you love best to read, and that you choose as companions, between the title I can read your character and the tendencies of your life.

Our Choir should have a large house on Thursday Evening next. Read programme on back page.

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson. The seats are assigned, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.

THIS CHURCH IS SUPPORTED by the voluntary contributions of the people. Every member of this church is expected voluntarily to subscribe towards the expenses of the church whatever sum it is in his or her power to give. Expenses are provided and can be had from the Financial Secretary. All bills, accounts and monies contributed, donated or raised by and for the church, are to be handed to C. R. Hoben, Fin. Sec'y.

Finally, having cases of sickness or distress will please send word at once to the pastor or one of the Deacons. You are urged to use the information cards in persons you see as a regular member of some other city congregation, you are cordially invited to come with us and find a permanent home.

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God."—Matt. 6: 33.

The Cantata, From Cross to Crown which is, in preparation by the Choir for THURSDAY EVENING, promises to be quite an attraction. The work well arranged, consisting of Recitations, Solos, Quartets, Chorals and Choruses. The Soloists are Miss Butler, Mr. Burgoyne, and Mr. Walker. During the interval between the first and second parts, there will be a varied program to which Miss Hobbes and Mr. Wood will contribute Vocal Solos, Miss Butler and Mr. Burgoyne a Duet, and two Vocal Selections from DeBeriot and Bazzini, by Miss Susie Weir Silver Collection.
