German Government May Be Forced To Go To the Country

BRITISH ELECTION IN DECEMBER?

LONDON AGREEMENT MAY BE ISSUE IN GERMAN ELECTION

Feeling Grows That Reichstag May Now Have to be Dissolved.

LACK MAJORITY

Two-thirds Vote Needed—France Believes Elections Will Endorse Dawes

BY FREDERICK KUH.

(United Press Staff Cor.) Berlin, Aug. 28.—A wave of pessimism swept Government circles today as the Reichstag resumed its voting on the accords of the Pact of London, designed to effect a definite program for paying reparations.

Leaders were fearful lest three majority bills—those on banking, industrial obligations and the important railroad measure which passed the second reading yesterday—might not be able to command the necessary two-thirds vote required for passage on the third reading.

The Government is now said to be convinced that dissolution of the Reichstag is unavoidable and a new election inevitable, with the Pact of London the sole issue.

Every precaution was taken today to guard against a repetition of yesterday's scenes in the Reichstag, when pandemonium broke loose several times, necessitating police being called for the first time in the history of the Parliament, to remove obstreperous members.

France is Confident. Paris, Aug. 28.—(United Press)—Government circles are resigned to the German Reichstag's refusal to ratify the Pact of London, but believe new elections will return a majority overwhelmingly in favor of the executing of the Dawes reparations program.

As seen here, the expected fight at the German polls will be between the militarist and the new regime, similar to that waged before the last elections in France, when Raymond Poincaré lost the Premiership.

Members of the Reparations Commission have already discounted the Reichstag setback because the present Parliament was elected on the issue of French occupation of the Ruhr, whereas the next election will be purely on the Pact of London.

The action of the Reichstag, if ratification is refused, will delay execution of the reparations programme perhaps a month, but will not interfere seriously in the ultimate course to be pursued.

Will Sign Pact. London, Aug. 28.—(United Press)—Arrangements have been completed for the formal signing of the protocols comprising the Pact of London at noon Saturday. Whether or not the German Reichstag ratifies the agreement, Chancellor Marx has already announced that the German Government will sign the Pact, and the ceremony will take place with the ambassadors of the various interested parties for their Governments.

United States Ambassadors Kellogg and Colonel Logan will be present and witness the signing of the document, but will not affix their names to the Pact.

Outlook Is Worse. Paris, Aug. 28.—The outlook for ratification by Germany, of the Dawes plan, agreement, became worse today, according to latest news from the German capital. The Reichstag probably will vote on the pact late tonight.

Successful Trial Of The Big Dirigible. Friedrichshafen, Germany, Aug. 28.—The giant dirigible, Z. R. 8, which was built here for the United States and which is soon to start her trans-Atlantic flight to Lakeland, N. J., yesterday made her first flight successfully yesterday sailing for two hours and twenty minutes above the vicinity of Lake Constance, and returning to her base at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Youth Attempts to Poison His Parents

Edinburgh, Scotland, Aug. 28.—(United News)—A boyish love for the mysteries of chemistry and hatred of the parents, led a young man to murder his mother and attempt to poison his father, by King William. William is standing trial here for the crime, and the prosecution is seeking to prove that parental insistence that he adopt the profession of an accountant which had made his father wealthy even influenced the boy that he sprinkled arsenic in his parents' food.

"TOUCHING WOOD," SAID THE PRINCE

Another Day of Sport on The Berengaria—Lost Three Events.

On Board the Berengaria, Aug. 28.—"What will the Prince of Wales spring for his fellow passengers, as a treat on the last night aboard?" This was the question concerning the feminine as they anticipated, most of them, their last evening with the heir to the British throne. He had been a good fellow, and they wanted one more play with him before he left the boat tomorrow.

After all his careful preparations, encouragement and training, the Prince's team had lost in the heraldic tug-of-war with equally matched men of Yale and Harvard. As a matter of fact, just as they would, the Britishers, mostly members of the Prince's party, could not match the motive power of the American athletes on the polished deck. Scores of passengers looked on during the contest and today wondered if the Prince could get up another match to even up the score.

Much of the time yesterday the Prince devoted to the Berengaria's equipment. Accompanied by the captain of the ship he toured the engine room and the printing shop, and also visited the hospital room, where operating is done when necessary. When the physician in charge informed the royal visitors that an operation had been performed there two months before, the Prince rapped on a wooden door panel.

"I'm touching wood," he said. "Let's hope there will be none this trip."

A Day of Sport. S. S. Berengaria, Aug. 28.—(Canadian Press)—Notwithstanding a strenuous day of sport in which he emerged from three events on the losing end, the Prince of Wales again was among the persistent dancers aboard the Berengaria last evening.

After losing in the tug-of-war and also falling in the potato race, the Prince took part in the pillow fighting, his opponent being L. E. Bull, a graduate of Harvard. They exchanged spirited blows amid great hilarity, and it looked for a time as though the Prince would emerge the winner, but Bull finally put him out. The Prince accepted his defeat smilingly, as he did in the other events. Lord Louis Mountbatten also fell in the pillow fight.

This morning His Royal Highness is holding an investiture, presenting First Officer Walter H. Poole with a reserve decoration for his long service in the British Naval Reserve.

Ottawa May See Prince in October

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—(By Canadian Press)—The official visit of the Prince of Wales to Ottawa will not materialize until October, if present plans are carried out. Inquiries at various official sources elicit no information as to His Royal Highness' plans, but it is generally understood that he intends to go straight from Montreal to Toronto on the westward journey, and to visit the seat of government on the return journey in October.

The official itinerary is not available here, but it is supposed that his visits in the United States, including his official call in Washington, will be made before he begins at New London, Conn. on Sept. 13, his journey through Canada to his ranch in Alberta.

Wire Briefs

Athens, Aug. 28.—(United Press) A majority of the ammunition exploded this morning. There are many victims.

New York, Aug. 28.—(United Press)—Sir Charles Hyde's Game-shot won the Glamack Stakes race here today from a field of seven. E. W. Tate's Riders was second, with F. X. Gretton's Iceberg third.

Friedrichshafen, Germany, Aug. 28.—(United Press)—With the trial flight of the Z. R. 8, the new monster dirigible being built for the United States, pronounced a success except for one broken motor, both American and German engineers were busy making plans for installation of a new engine today.

FIVE LINERS WERE BATTERED BY THE TERRIFIC WAVES

ONLY ONE LIFE LOST

Arabic Had 150 Casualties and Fifty Required Treatment.

New York, Aug. 28.—Five liners, bearing copious evidence of a winning struggle against a hurricane which on Tuesday lashed the western Atlantic into a seething cauldron, steamed into harbor yesterday several hours late, with hulls intact, but their palatial fittings smashed and battered by the force of the waves.

Only one life was taken, the steamer Elish Walker reporting that Captain J. Madison had gone overboard from the bride of the Danish steamer Nordfarer while south of Cape Hatteras. The records of half a hundred injured passengers and sailors who required the care of surgeons on the Arabic and Homeric, White Star greyniggers; scores of others who suffered minor hurts; and innumerable stories of heroism and thrilling escapes provided material for the spinning of fresh yarns in every forecastle on the Atlantic.

Capt. Hickson of the Arabic, whose vessel and passengers were the major victims, said the wind at times attained an intensity of 120 miles an hour, and Captain Melick of the Homeric asserted it was the worst within his memory.

Were Stopped Dead. Both said that while firemen pushed the engines to capacity to keep the vessel's bow into the wind they were stopped dead in their tracks, with cross waves pounding at their sides. The Arabic on numerous occasions leaped dangerously close to the rocks, and she had an estimated casualty list of more than 150, with 92 persons who required treatment. Injuries ranged from fingers cut by broken port hole glass, an inch thick, crushed by the waves, to a broken back sustained by the man when he threw himself in front of a child who would otherwise have been hurled against a wall.

High tribute was paid by the passengers to the gallantry and fearlessness of the crew in restoring order after the storm. The Monarch, from San Pedro, arrived at quarantine last night, where a tug took up Captain Benjamin J. Smith, critically injured when a large piece of wood on the crest of a wave hit him in the face.

The Berengaria, whose passenger list bears the name of Edward, Prince of Wales, apparently was outside of the hurricane's borders, as dispatches received from the ship today made no mention of unusual weather.

A Franco-German Trade Agreement

Paris, Aug. 28.—The first Franco-German commercial agreement to be concluded since the war was signed yesterday. It regulates the sale of Franco-German potash to America.

The potash producers of Germany and France, instead of competing, agreed to divide the sales, France supplying 37½ and Germany 62½ per cent. The agreement runs for two years, and is based on the price of $27 per ton for the product. The Hague arbitration court is to settle any divergencies that may arise on the subject between the two countries.

House Blown Away As Family Sleeps

Brunswick, Ga., Aug. 28.—(United News)—A family of four, sleeping peacefully and unconscious of the fact that a 75-mile-an-hour gale was blowing through the city, were wakened by a terrific wind which when their home was lifted bodily from its foundations and things smashed and battered by the wind, carried some distance by the wind. They were awakened by the movement of their dwelling, though declared but before they had time to become alarmed, the house was down on a neighbor's lot. None of the four suffered any injury.

AMERICAN FLIERS STILL DETAINED

They Expect to Hop Off For Indian Harbor, Labrador, Tomorrow.

On Board S. S. Cruiser Richmond, Ice Tickle, Labrador, Aug. 28.—Further postponement of one day in the flight of the United States army world fliers from Iqviat, Greenland, to Indian Harbor, Labrador, has been ordered because of a storm which is reported moving north. Rear Admiral Thomas P. Magruder notified the vessels of the naval patrol that the flight was progressing rapidly and would be postponed until Friday at the earliest.

Meanwhile the Richmond has put in at Ice Tickle, a few miles from Indian Harbor. The destroyers Lawrence, Charles Auburn and McFarland are anchored at the latter place. Lieut. Lowell W. Smith, commander of the world flight, messaged Rear Admiral Magruder that the work of installing new engines in the army planes was progressing favorably, although hampered somewhat by the rain Monday. The work, the message stated, probably will be completed by late afternoon and the aviators were planning to hop off for Indian Harbor Friday.

A further message stated that the fliers expect to hop off from Indian Harbor the day after their arrival there.

A Terrible Storm. Aboard the U. S. S. Richmond, Aug. 28.—(United Press)—A terrific storm lashing the Arctic waters into a fury, is expected to hit the fliers en route to hop from Labrador, has delayed the flight. The trip from Iqviat to Indian Harbor has already been postponed at least until tomorrow.

The gale awing north from the Maine coast Tuesday and hit here late Wednesday afternoon. It was accompanied by a heavy rain storm. Reports from Iqviat are that rain is falling there.

Present plans call for the fliers to arrive at Ice Tickle Harbor, a wide, circular cove. During the flight the fliers expect to hop off from Indian Harbor. A conference aboard ship last night assigned the duties of the fliers and the coast was made. The Lawrence will leave a few hours after the arrival of the fliers and take up a position just off Halifax. After the fliers leave here the Richmond will go direct to Boston.

CANADA'S EXPORTS SHOW INCREASE

Purchases in British Empire Countries on the Decrease.

Ottawa, Aug. 27.—Canadian exports to all parts of the British Empire totalled $468,147,000 during the twelve months ended July, an increase of $10,000,000 over the previous year. Canadian purchases in British Empire countries during the same period were $191,681,000, a decrease of $4,000,000. The exports to the United Kingdom alone were $388,989,000 in the twelve months ending July, a decrease of $2,000,000 from the year before. Imports from the United Kingdom were $160,824,000, a decrease of $3,000,000.

OTTAWA EXPECTS A CONFERENCE ON ARMS LIMITATIONS

Believe It Will Follow Assembly of the League of Nations.

BRITAIN APPROVES

The Baldwin Proposal for Amendment of Article 16 Will be Considered.

Ottawa, Aug. 27.—Discussions at the forthcoming fifth assembly of the League of Nations, which opens at Geneva on Sept. 1, will be followed here with unusual interest, particularly in their bearing on disarmament. There is a strong feeling in official circles that another international conference to review limitation of armaments is a probable development of the discussions.

When the draft treaty for mutual assistance was under consideration between Great Britain and the dominions, correspondence, it is understood, indicated that the British government would welcome such a conference. At the last Imperial conference, in fact, Mr. Baldwin, then premier of Great Britain, intimated the willingness of the British government to participate in an international conference to limit aircraft construction such as the Washington conference had limited capital ships, and the present Labor government of Great Britain is understood to be, if possible, even more desirous of some international agreement to extend the scope of the Washington treaties.

Disarmament first comes before the assembly on a report from its temporary committee. Subsequently, a proposal submitted by the Baldwin government of Great Britain in July, 1923, will be considered. This came before the fourth assembly of the league last year but was referred to the fifth. It embodies another proposal which aims to prevent war and would amend article 16 of the league covenant so as to provide that:

"Should any member of the league resort to war in disregard of its covenants under articles 12, 13 or 15, it shall ipso facto be deemed to have committed an act of war against all members of the league which hereby undertake immediately to subject it to the severance of all trade relations and all financial intercourse, even if not breaking state, at least between persons resident within the territory of the covenant-breaking state, and to prevent all financial, commercial or personal intercourse, even if not between the nationals of the covenant-breaking state and the nationals of any other state whether a member of the league or not, at least in the territory of that state whether a member of the league or not."

His proposal seeks to amend article 16—which prohibits intercourse with a state declaring war in violation of its covenants—as in was amended by the second assembly of the league.

News despatches from Geneva indicating that the draft treaty of mutual assistance is to be withdrawn were rather expected here. The treaty of mutual assistance was merely circulated among members of the league and their opinion thereon was sought. The present Macdonald government of Great Britain strongly opposed it and in the British view the dominions concurred. The view taken by Premier Macdonald was that the treaty of mutual assistance might lead to an increase rather than a decrease in armaments.

DID NOT ENDORSE THE KU KLUX KLAN

Pilot Confirms Henry Ford's Reputation of Alleged Interview in Montreal.

Orleansburg, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Henry Ford's denial that he made a statement to a representative of a Canadian paper in support of the Ku Klux Klan yesterday substantiated by a river pilot aboard Ford's yacht at the time of the interview. The pilot, Captain George P. Fleming of Orleansburg, said he stood at the rail where he distinctly heard what was said between Ford and the reporter.

"The reporter, after asking Mr. Ford what he thought of President Coolidge's chances for re-election, questioned him on his attitude toward the Klan," said Captain Fleming. "Mr. Ford replied that he did not know enough about the Klan to make any statement concerning the organization, and this closed the interview."

Mother Sells Baby to Student for $50

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Forced by adversity, which has been increasing since the death of her husband several months ago, Mrs. Agnes Mack decided to sell her 10-month-old baby.

ERWIN DATHE AND CATHERINE FRANCES MACK FOR WHOM HE PAID $50

A bill of sale was drawn, a payment of $50 was made, and the baby changed hands. But there was some dissatisfaction about the price. The mother demanded $200 more, according to charges made by Dathé. Soon the matter reached the ears of the authorities.

They jailed both buyer and seller; and now have to look up the law to find out what disposition to make of the child.

Thief Caught in Ice Box Shivering As He Feasts on Roast Squab

New York, Aug. 28.—Roast chickens and duck that Harry Greenberg, owner of the Rumanian Casino, used to put in the ice box for the convenience of patrons had an unfortunate habit of disappearing in the night, and Harry several days ago decided to put roast squab there instead. The squab, however, disappeared as mysteriously as had the chickens and duck.

Harry employed Michael Cohen, a special policeman, to watch the premises, while the captain of the Clinton street station, who sometimes grants the invitation of the police, Furdyk said he was homeless and hungry. His lack of nourishment, however, should have been overcome by an early hour Cohen and Powell heard a definite crunching of bones issue from the ice box and they peeped in.

There stood Justin Furdyk, thirty-six years old, eating roast squab as he almost froze. His lips were blue and his teeth chattering, but neither Cohen nor Powell were deterred. Emerging at the invitation of the police, Furdyk said he was homeless and hungry. His lack of nourishment, however, should have been overcome by an early hour Cohen and Powell heard a definite crunching of bones issue from the ice box and they peeped in.

SEPT. 8 MAY BE THE DAY OF SENTENCE

Meantime Another Capital Charge is Made Against Loeb and Leopold.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Nathan Leopold, Jr. and Richard Loeb today faced another capital charge, when the judicial hearing to determine whether death or imprisonment is to be their fate for murdering Robert Franks, was finished.

Their arraignment on an indictment charging them with the kidnapping of their victim—punishable by death under Illinois laws—was scheduled to come when Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, ended his final argument and Judge Caverly took the murder case under advisement. The formality was expected to take only a few minutes. Judge Caverly has indicated he will take all of the next week to consider their plea carefully, the facts and theories brought out in the evidence and argument of the state and defense. Monday, Sept. 8, he has indicated, will most likely be the day of sentence.

Ferguson Succeeds Admiral Jellicoe

London, Aug. 28.—(Canadian Press Cable)—General Sir Charles Ferguson, who was in command of the British Fifth Division, and subsequently of the 2nd and 17th Army Corps during the Great War, will succeed Viscount Jellicoe as Governor General of New Zealand. Admiral Jellicoe's term expires shortly.

MACDONALD MAY GO TO THE COUNTRY IN EARLY DECEMBER

PARTY DIFFERENCES

BY H. N. MOORE (British United Press.) London, Aug. 28.—All agents of the Labor Party throughout Britain have been warned to prepare for a general election early next December. The chief factors which are inducing the Government to appeal to the country are the open differences between Phillip Snowden and Ramsay MacDonald over the Russian agreement, the growing assertiveness of the Communists, the attitude of the Trade Unions towards the Dawes plan, and the possibility that a special committee on trade which is investigating foreign competition will again raise the "protection issue."

There is abundant evidence that protection is by no means dead as a political issue, and the serious growth of unemployment, swelled by 70,000 during the last three weeks, is forcing the rank and file of Labor to consider seriously the threat to British labor of foreign competition.

Miners See Premier. Yesterday the British miners were granted their request for an interview by Premier MacDonald, and their delegates will lay before the Prime Minister their views regarding the danger to industry which would result in the adoption of the Dawes plan, and the importation of cheap German coal. This view openly expressed by the miners is merely another indication of the way in which the Labor mind is changing regarding free trade, and while it is unlikely that the Labor Government as at present constituted will take up the wholeheartedly for protection it is probable they will suggest certain readjustments in the British industrial system in order to meet changing conditions.

CHARLES B. GRAY WAS DISCHARGED

He and Two Other Liquor Inspectors Gave Evidence—Other Cases. Campbellton, N. B., Aug. 28.—(Special to Times-Star)—The adjourned hearing in the case of the King on the information of Abram Dugas vs. Chas. B. Gray was continued at this morning's session of the Hestigouic circuit court. Two witnesses were called this morning for the prosecution, after which the Crown closed its case.

Colin MacKenzie, counsel for the defendant, moved for the discharge of the prisoner, which was not allowed. The defence called three witnesses, all of them liquor inspectors, the accused being among them.

At the close of the case for the defence his honor Chief Justice McKeown withdrew the case from the jury and discharged the accused. The charge against the accused was that he did shoot at Abram Dugas with intent to do grievous bodily harm, and, on the second count, for wilfully damaging property at night to the value of over $250.

At the afternoon session the case of the King on the information of Wilfred Brown against George W. Cooke was presented. The offence charged is that of common assault and is now in progress. The Attorney General is also prosecuting in this matter and J. T. Hebert for the defence.

The whole of the civil docket, with the consent of counsel and his honor the Chief Justice, were stood over for hearing until Tuesday next, as it is expected that the criminal business will take up the time of the court for the remainder of the week.

HIS THIRD RESCUE
WITHIN LAST WEEK

Arthur Quigg Saves Little Girl From Drowning
at South Bay.

Within sight of a frantic and agonized mother, thirteen-year-old Mrs. Myles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Myles, 46 Guilford street, West St. John, struggled for her life yesterday at Raynes' Beach, near South Bay, when she stepped into a deep hole while bathing and only the timely and effective rescue work by two local boys on the beach at the time prevented a drowning fatality. They are Arthur ("Cappy") Quigg, son of Mrs. J. Quigg, West St. John and formerly of Fairville, and 12-year-old Weldon Fuller, son of W. H. Fuller, 233 Rodney street, West St. John.

Mrs. Myles, who was a witness of the occurrence, says that her little girl was in bathing at the time with Eva Blizard when both suddenly got beyond their depth. Neither could swim and their cries attracted Quigg and Fuller. The latter, Mrs. Myles says, was the first to reach Jean and held her up until the stronger Quigg was able to pull her to safety.

The Blizard girl managed to regain her footing and waded ashore. It was a very trying experience for Mrs. Myles and other watchers on the beach and they are loud in their praise of the brave rescue of the two boys. Mrs. Myles says that this is not the first time Quigg has figured in rescue work as she was told he rescued two other people last Monday at this beach.

GENE TIPPETS
GOES TO MONCTON

Gene Tippetts, star twirler and leading slugger of the Vets, left this morning to join the Moncton baseball team. He will be used on the mound as well as in the outer garden when not pitching. The Moncton management has expressed an opinion that with the addition of Gene to their line-up they will be well fortified to compete with Fredericton in a seven game series for the provincial championship. Local fans will regret to learn that Tippetts went to Moncton before the close of the local season, but feel that while his great hitting will be missed the remainder of the team will give a good account of themselves in the week-end and holiday games.

TWO BIG STORES JOIN IN A CO-OPERATIVE "DOLLAR DAY" TOMORROW.

The August "Dollar Day" has been so well appreciated in St. John's for the past three years, and as the merchants in general have decided not to hold dollar day, the two stores of F. W. Daniel & Co. and P. A. Dyckman & Co. have this season combined their efforts to make this a bigger and better "Dollar Day" than ever. Both these firms have remarkable offerings from manufacturers who were anxious to close out balances, as well as many lines selected from present stocks which will be disposed of at prices only possible for such quick turnover as dollar day. These factors all combine to make a most interesting "one day bargain festival" and Friday is the day. Extra salespeople have been provided to handle the crowds which are expected to continue up to closing hour, 10 p.m. All are welcome—tomorrow beginning 9 a.m.

WILL PROTEST GAME.
Manager Stinson, of the Fairville Canucks, said this morning he would protest last night's game with the Nationals. He claims unfair discrimination on the part of the umpire when the game was called at 8:15, while the Canucks were leading, 3 to 1. The agreement was that the game should go to 8:30 o'clock, he claims. He said it was not the Canucks who stalled, when two of them purposely struck out, but the Nationals, who tried to kill time when the Canucks assumed the lead.

LOST VESSEL IS WELL KNOWN HERE

The schooner Anna MacDonald, which was wrecked on the Kitty Witly Shoals about 20 miles from Halifax with the loss of the captain and crew of five men during the terrific storm morning, is well known in this port. The schooner was here this spring with a cargo of coal from a U. S. port and after discharging she sailed to St. Martins and loading at the wharf. Captain Miller was in charge of her at the time but it is not thought that the present crew was the same as when here.

ATTEMPT'S RESCUE, MAN DROWNED

Robert Roberts of Moncton lost his life at Sandy Bottom, Chatham, last evening while attempting to rescue his sister-in-law, Miss Winona Shields, from drowning. Miss Shields had swam out beyond her depth and getting into difficulties called for help. Mr. Roberts started to her aid, but sank before he reached her. He is supposed to have taken a cramp. Miss Shields was rescued by Miss Frances Ullock. The body of Mr. Roberts was recovered later in the evening. No inquest will be held.

For every wash-day method

RINSO is ideal for any wash-day method you use. You do not have to change any of your usual steps—just use Rinso where you used to use ordinary soap.

If you like to boil your white cottons, Rinso will give you just the safe cleansing suds you need in the boiler. If you use a washing machine, follow the advice of the big washing machine manufacturers—use Rinso.

Just soaking with this new kind of soap loosens all the dirt until a single rinsing leaves the clothes clean and spotless.

However you do your wash, make it easy by using Rinso.

If you use a Washing Machine, soak your clothes in the Rinso suds as usual. In the morning add more Rinso solution and work the machine. Then rinse and dry—you will have a clean sweet snow-white wash.

TO HELP THE FISHERIES.

At last week's meeting of the national executive of the Canadian Fisheries Association a resolution was adopted to request federal fishery authorities to convene a conference between representatives of the Biological Board of Canada and practical men in the fishing industry, for the purpose of exchanging views as to the vital practical problems of the industry seeking solution, and ascertain in what measure the efforts of science may be directed to solve them.

"A resolution to this effect is being forwarded to the fisheries branch, Department of Marine and Fisheries, Ottawa. It implies no criticism of the work accomplished under the direction of the Biological Board, but it is felt by the association that more effective results may be achieved by coming in direct contact with the scientific body, and explaining the practical everyday problems which are affecting the expansion of the industry, rather than continuing a vague association under which scientists select their own problems for study. The point is that, while all these investigations have material value, they should be taken up in order of importance. Furthermore, problems affecting the industry are not confined to the fish in the sea or near the sea, but spread through the whole system of merchandising—producer, jobber, wholesaler, retailer, to the consumer.

"It is anticipated that the request will be accepted to, in which event it is hoped that reasonable time will be allowed for discussion of the matter by mail with each individual in the association, so that the views ultimately advanced will be well considered and representative of all branches of the industry."

Since research work is constantly being carried on it should be so directed as to yield the most practical results in the development of industry, and if more practical work can be promoted by such a conference as is suggested the department should lose no time in bringing it about.

SOME GOOD TENETS.

The Democratic presidential candidate, Mr. John W. Davis, in some of his pithy platform tenets includes two or three that are of special interest to Canadians and those who still like to see the British flag floating overhead. They are as follows:
"One may be a very good American and still believe that all wisdom will not die with us and that other nations possess many virtues which we not only do not monopolize, but which we can still well afford to imitate.
"One may be a very good American without insisting that non-British Americans can flag shall be carried in patriotic parades.
"Even the pastime of twisting the lion's tail is not the final and ultimate test of devotion to American institutions."

In other words Mr. Davis believes that the Americans do not know it all; that there is some wisdom and learning and virtue, etc. in the other nations of the earth, some of which Americans can well afford to imitate.

It is a somewhat unusual proposition to find any leading citizen of the United States who seeks political honors hinting that it is not necessary, in order to be a good American, to protest against the flags of any other nations being carried in patriotic parades. Then his direct reference to antagonism to England in the statement that "even the pastime of twisting the lion's tail is not the final and ultimate test of devotion to American institutions" gives some evidence of Mr. Davis' broad knowledge, imbibed probably while he was American Ambassador to Great Britain for many years.

There are some other paragraphs in the Democratic candidate's philosophy that are well worth quoting. They include these:
"Who would sacrifice his independence to gain the Presidency would certainly not hope to regain it after he had entered on that office.
"Who would sacrifice his independence to gain the Presidency would certainly not hope to regain it after he had entered on that office."

"In the twilight of history let us learn to walk with humility that befits the great.
"Personal liberty is the doctrine of self-restraint.
"Who would sacrifice his independence to gain the Presidency would certainly not hope to regain it after he had entered on that office."

"For no one can be truly free who does not live within the circle of his rights, or who is unwilling to concede to others all that he can justly claim for himself.
"Who would sacrifice his independence to gain the Presidency would certainly not hope to regain it after he had entered on that office."

"In the meantime any compromise with the Bolshevik creed is but a league with death.
"Who would sacrifice his independence to gain the Presidency would certainly not hope to regain it after he had entered on that office."

BONUSES FOR SETTLERS.

The Ottawa Citizen gives this summary of the new settlement scheme agreed upon by the British and Dominion Governments:

"By the arrangement provision is made for the settlement of 3,000 British families on Canadian soil. The Dominion giving lands and buildings to the newcomers, while the capital for the stocking of their holdings is provided in open-handed manner by the British government. The amount which Britain will advance to each family is estimated at from $1,500 to $4,500, repayable in twenty-five years. So far as possible, families from the same neighborhood in the Old Country will be grouped together in the new."

There is a good deal of force in the Citizen's query: "Why not begin at home?" If such terms can be given to settlers from the Old Country, why not aid some of the landless in cities at home? The Citizen goes on:
"Cannot a few more bonuses be held out to Canadians who are willing to settle on the land? The belief that more population is the panacea for all Canada's economic ills is firmly imbedded in the thinking machinery of most of this country's commercial and political leaders. They seem to ignore the growing reserve of unemployed at home, members of which would eagerly seize such an opportunity as that offered to British settlers."

THE KLAN IN POLITICS.

A woman candidate, opposed to the Ku Klux Klan, has secured the Democratic nomination for the office of Governor of Texas, and her nomination is regarded as equivalent to election in that state. Her opponent in the contest, who endorsed the Klan, was a prominent citizen, but that did not save him. Texas has had enough of the Klan. We, in Canada, are interested spectators of the vagaries of our neighbors, but not influenced by them. The Ottawa Journal states our position very well when it says:
"Of obvious reason, the Ku Klux Klan has not gained a foothold in the Dominion. In both its original activities, following the civil war, and as a sudden revival three or four years ago, the entire Klan movement frankly expresses lack of confidence in the administration of the law. It could not exist under other conditions. We have our problems and troubles in Canada; but we ought to be thankful that we live in a land which affords no seed-bed for Klanism. It should be our united determination to keep it so."

During July the Montreal Society for the Protection of Women and Children had fifteen cases of wife-desertion reported to it, and in every case the deserter was found and returned. There were nineteen cases of non-support, and in fourteen instances the situation was remedied without recourse to court action. Free legal aid was given in eleven cases. So far this year the society has collected $2,220 from men on behalf of their wives and families. This includes alimentary allowances paid into the society office, and cases that have been settled at the request of similar organizations in Poland, England, the United States, and New Zealand. Such a society does a most valuable work.

Boston has a "Vimy Camp" made up of Canadian veterans, and there is an organization of similar nature in Cleveland. A great many good men who saw service overseas for Canada are now living in the United States. It is unfortunate that they could not be given the opportunity to do as well at home as many of them are doing south of the border. They are proud to be known as Canadians, and as in Boston and Cleveland have their own organization.

The latest reports indicate that the quantity of certified seed potatoes produced this year will be less than was anticipated, because disease has affected the tubers in some sections of the province. The growers had counted on an exceptionally good crop, free from disease, and it may be hoped the reduction in the estimate will not be large.

The Ottawa Journal says: "The office of Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island becomes vacant next month when the term of His Honor Mardock MacKinnon expires. James J. Hughes, member in the Federal House for Kings, is understood to be an aspirant for the post. Mr. Hughes was in Ottawa on Friday to see the Prime Minister."

"Australian Boys to Tour Dominion" is the headline over a Quebec despatch. The despatch under the heading says they will make "a trip through Canada." Then it explains that they landed at Quebec and left for Vancouver. They are not coming east. The Maritime Provinces are not included in Canada, in the view of the upper provinces.

ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION.

The Rockefeller Foundation was founded in 1913 (when it received a charter from the State of New York) by John D. Rockefeller, the great American capitalist, with the object of "promoting the well-being of mankind throughout the world." Its purpose, in other words, is "to promote the betterment and advance the civilization of the people of the United States and its territories and possessions, and of foreign lands, in the acquisition and dissemination of knowledge, in the prevention of suffering and the promotion of any and all the elements of human progress." Endowed by Mr. Rockefeller with more than $100,000,000, the Foundation in 1921 had been given by its founder the enormous sum of $180,000,000. Of this the income, as well as $10,000,000 of the original endowment, has been expended at various times by the trustees. The activities of the Rockefeller Foundation are very numerous, and its work has included: The support of a campaign against the hookworm disease; the organization of the Commission for Prevention of Tuberculosis in France (1917); war relief work in connection with the Red Cross Society, the Belgian Relief Commission, etc.; the organization (through the China Medical Board of the Peking Union Medical College, opened in 1919, and efforts toward the control of malaria in the United States, and of yellow fever in South America, and Central America. The Foundation has also conducted an investigation regarding the relations between labor and capital; has pledged large sums of money to promote the development of medical centres in London, England, and in various Canadian cities; has made grants to support certain schools of hygiene, and has provided fellowships for persons engaged in studies connected with public health and medical education. Much of the work has been conducted through its boards—including the International Health Board, and the China Medical Board.

FIND LIVE WIRE.

Sergeant O'Neill and Constable Blackwell, of the western division of the police force, found a live wire of the N. B. Power Company lying on Ludlow street early yesterday morning. It had been torn away from the pole by the high wind. Charles Clark, electrician for the company in the West End, was notified and made repairs.

HOW SLEEP THE BRAVE.

(By William Collins.)
How sleep the brave, who sink to rest
By all their country's wishes blessed!
Returns to deck their hallowed mould,
She there shall dress a sweeter sod
Than Fancy's feet have ever trod.
By fairy hands their knell is rung;
By forms unseen their dirge is sung;
There Honor comes, a pilgrim gray,
To bless the turf that wraps their clay;
And Freedom shall awhile repair,
To dwell a weeping hermit there.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Slight Mistake.
Speaking of railroads, here is this one.
A highbrow traveler at the St. Johnsbury station approached the Portland express, which was made up and ready to start.
"Is this train ready for occupancy?" he asked.
Trainman—"No, sir. This train goes to Concord, Whitefield and Portland."

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

THE MULE'S STORY

"Well, well, well!" cried Gipsy when he saw them. "There's another person I'd like to visit," said Weeny, the circus elephant...

"Why, they're as full of tricks as a magician," said Weeny in surprise. "Only Gipsy wasn't a trick mule. He was just a hard worker in the circus..."

"That's a fine story!" said the Twins. "I didn't know mules could do tricks," said Nick. "Let's ask him why he wasn't bally..."

"A very good idea, indeed," said Weeny. "We'll go at once. Have you got my satchel ready?" "Yes, here it is," said Nick.

"So away went Weeny loppily, lippily, loppily, until he came to the place where Gipsy lived. But no one was at home. "Look! There's a sign," said Nick. "It's over the door bell."

"The sign said, 'The key is under the mat! Walk in and help yourself!'" "I'll walk in and help myself to some hay," said Weeny. "But just then he heard a voice in the distance going, 'Hee haw! Hee haw! Hee haw!'"

"There's Gipsy now," said Weeny. "I do hope I left him enough hay for his supper." "Well, well, well!" cried Gipsy when he saw them. "This is a pleasant surprise. The committee received my letter. I've been out with my master working in the field."

"Don't you ever balk?" asked Nick curiously. Gipsy laughed till he showed his teeth. "Not any more!" he said. "I used to when I was young but I learned a lesson. Would you like to hear my story?" "Oh, yes, yes, yes!" cried everybody. "Weeny, too," said Gipsy. "When I was young I thought that I came first and the world came second—and everybody in it."

"The master I had then could do nothing with me. He'd twist my tail and under my hind legs and make me move. But it only made me worse. One day I moved away from the fire a few feet and it burned up his wagon. I wanted to show him that when I wished to do anything, I did it. And the other way round, too. "One day we were near the sea when I took a bally spill. "Wait!" called a fisherman. "I'll fix him!" So he took a sail off his boat and fixed it on my collar. The wind caught it and pulled me along. HOME FOR AGED MASONIC MEMBERS RECOMMENDED TO GRAND LODGE

Reports Show 42 Lodges in New Brunswick—Membership Increases.

The 57th annual communication of the Masonic Grand Lodge of New Brunswick opened today in Moncton and the reports submitted show that the past year had been a good one for the order. The grand master, Leif Wilson, in his report recommended the establishment of a Home for Aged Masons, and referred feelingly to the death of a large number of members of Grand Lodge during the year.

The report showed that at the end of last year there were 42 active lodges in the province with a membership of 5,739, an increase of 126 for the year. Grand Master's Address.

The Grand Master's address was in part as follows: We assemble today at the fifty-seventh annual communication of Grand Lodge in the City of Moncton, and our first desire and duty is to humbly render thanks to the Supreme Architect of the universe for the manifold blessings that He has conferred on our fraternity throughout the entire Masonic year.

During my two years as Grand Master of this jurisdiction I have been impressed with the fact that we are too much thought and time to the material things and not enough to the teachings of this great fraternal order. Masonry today is a greater exemplification of the Masonic teachings of brotherly love, relief and truth, and I desire to render service to our fellow man and the moral advancement of the world.

The teaching of Free Masonry must be full of burning fervor so as to create a desire in the heart of every member to express these feelings in action. We should not consider that Masonry is an institution from which we expect to receive, but we should put forth every effort towards the advancement and betterment of mankind, and thus make this world recognize that Masonry has that end in view.

On assuming the duties of the highest office that you could confer upon me, I realized that there was a great work to be done, and as one of the greatest working tools at the present time is financial strength, with the assistance of some of the members of the craft we formulated a plan to increase the funds of Grand Lodge. This plan has met with a generous response throughout the jurisdiction and will enable this jurisdiction to accomplish a great Masonic work. I also believe the time has arrived when we should consider a Masonic Home for aged Masons or some other work along these lines.

It is fitting that before entering upon the business of this session we pause and, for a few moments, turn our thoughts to the memory of the departed. During the past year the grand reaper has taken a grievous toll of the members of this Grand Lodge. Lemuel A. McAlpine, M. D., St. John's, No. 2. William Stevens, Sussex, No. 7. E. Kenneth Connell, Woodstock, No. 11. Donald C. Rollins, St. Marks, No. 8. Alex. Porter, Hibernia, No. 3. Edwin H. McAlpine, K. C. Hibernia, No. 3. John P. Burchill, Northumberland, No. 17. George M. Fairweather, Zion, No. 21. Charles H. Perry, Zion, No. 21. Thomas G. Scott, Restigouche, No. 23. Thomas H. Colter, Alexandria, No. 35. William H. Jewett, Carleton, No. 35. R. M. Goss, St. John, No. 37.

There is one simple, safe, and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them. To do this get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Blackheads are a mixture of dirt and dust and secretions that form in the pores of the skin. The peroxide powder and the water dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.

King street east. She will be the guest of honor at a pleasant bridge this afternoon.

William A. Paik, Northumberland, No. 17. Frank I. Blair, M. D., Sussex, No. 7. Lodges Visited. The report told of official visits made during the year to Woodstock, Carleton, and St. John's, Hibernia, Sunbury, New Brunswick and Corbin Lodges, Union Lodge of Portland, Zion Lodge, Alexandria, Salisbury, Steveston, Mananook, Alley, Victoria, St. Andrew, Lebanon Keith, Tweedie, Bethel, Colebrook, Benjamin, St. Martin, Albert Howard and Sussex Lodges. The report continued: I wish to thank all the lodges visited during the year and the officers of Grand Lodge for the kind reception and generous hospitality which has been extended by the craft throughout the jurisdiction.

It may be well to mention three rulings made by me in answer to letters of enquiry from Master of the Lodges concerned.

Physical Disqualification. In two cases, intending applicants for degrees had been found joint which prevented them from properly kneeling. They were otherwise very desirable candidates. As early as in 1875 it was stated by our then Grand Master "that a person is ineligible unless he is physically competent to fulfil the requirements of our ritual." This was followed a number of times since and approved by Grand Lodge, and I accordingly decided that inability to kneel is a disqualification.

Charter Members. In connection with the issuing of the Warrant to Fowles Lodge the question arose as to which members should be named in it as Charter Members. An impression prevailed that brethren joining the lodge when it was "set to work" under Dispensation would be so entitled. My direction was that those only who had signed the original petition for this lodge should be named in it. On August 27, 1923, I received a petition from a number of Master Masons living at Hartland, Carleton County, to form a Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons called Hartland Lodge. This lodge has been working for nearly a year with the assistance of members of Woodstock Lodge. I would recommend that a Warrant be issued to this lodge.

From observation during my two years as Grand Master I am convinced that my predecessor, R. W. Bro. Lt. Col. Jas. D. B. MacKenzie's idea is the right one, that the Grand Lodge should adopt some means whereby the lodges in the jurisdiction would be instructed in the work of the degrees. The work of the Lodges at a whole is not up to the standard, and I would strongly recommend that a Grand Lecturer be appointed to give the necessary instruction; not to give his full time to that duty but whenever requested by a lodge.

It is my belief that the form of application to the fund of benevolence be changed so that the lodge making the application state the amount of relief the said lodge had contributed to the applicant.

I wish to thank the members in the jurisdiction for their co-operation in every matter that I have requested of them, during my term in office, and especially the Grand Secretary, who has been untiring in his efforts to help and assist in every way; and the Grand Treasurer, who has made it possible by his great work in connection with the financial affairs of Grand Lodge, and also his management of the Masonic Temple; to him we are indebted for the building, paying the year a surplus over expenditure of more than $1,000, which, considering the conditions four years ago, is a wonderful improvement. To Wor. Bro. Stanley M. Wetmore, Grand Director of Ceremonies; Wor. Bro. Carl G. Fraser, Junior Grand Deacon and Wor. Bro. Dr. F. S. Sawaya and other members of Grand Lodge, I tender my sincere thanks for their assistance. The cheerfulness with which assistance has been rendered me has lightened my labors and made the performance of them pleasant.

In conclusion I ask the same assistance and co-operation for my successor as I have given me. LEBARON WILSON, Grand Master. Grand Secretary's Report. The report of the Grand Secretary contained the following: The revenue received during the past 12 months from the private lodges amounted to $5,621.98, viz.: Initiation fees $1,212.00. Affiliations, dispensations, sundries $4,409.98. 1887-3

The Value of Charcoal

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty and How It is Not a Drug

Pure willow charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature. And the more you take of it the better. It is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the poisonous gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking or eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectively clears and imparts a soft, pinkish glow to the teeth, disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh, and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best and most for the money is in Stuart's Absorbent Lozenges; composed of the finest quality willow charcoal powdered to extreme fineness, compressed in the form of large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, sweetened with smooth and palatable sorbitol Lozenges, but suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and the chest, mouth and throat. They are also believed to guard against diphtheria. These lozenges cost but thirty cents a box at drug stores. Write for free trial send your name and address to F. A. Stuart, 1111 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y. You will receive a better charcoal in Stuart's Absorbent Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets.

REPORT OF BREAK AN ERROR. Some employee of Robinson's Clothing, Ltd., 80 King street, on leaving the establishment on Monday evening, forgot to lock the front door with the result that the heavy wind during early yesterday morning caused the door to slam back, breaking a large pane of glass. The report that was about the city that a robber had made a break was unfounded.

REPORT OF DIRECTORS. The report of the directors was as follows: The directors submit the following as their annual report and would briefly state that the good hopes expressed a year ago have in the main been realized. With the audited statements of the Grand Treasurer before them, the members will surely be gratified at the sound financial position of the corporation. The committee received the Grand Lodge account and of the building account.

The committee would further report that the receipts from rents during the year have amounted to $9,246.63 and the expenses to $8,242.93, showing a surplus of $1,003.68 on building account. The Grand Treasurer's statement differs from this by the amount of the 1924 taxes, $1,684.40, which had to be paid before the closing of his accounts to secure the five per cent. discount.

In their report of last year the directors stated that, of the balance then in hand, it was intended to invest $5,000 in bonds of the Canadian National Railways, the same to serve as a beginning of the sinking fund to pay off the bonds of this corporation at maturity. This investment was duly made; to discharge the loaned debt, it was deemed advisable to secure, in lieu of the railway bonds $8,000 of our corporation bonds, and an exchange was made and the $8,000 secured bonds of the Grand Lodge were cancelled, increasing the bond holdings to $20,500.00.

The Board caused somewhat lengthy circulars to be sent to the private lodges containing the resolutions of Grand Lodge establishing a sinking fund for the redemption of the bonded debt and assessing each member the annual sum of one dollar for the ensuing five years. And in order that the brethren should clearly appreciate the situation and the motive of the sinking fund a succinct statement was included in the circular detailing the acquisition of the Masonic Hall by Grand Lodge, the amount of the bond issues and the annual interest, the rentals of the building and the normal annual expenditures. Direction was given that the circular be read in open lodge and inserted in the minutes.

It is the hope of the Board that the information conveyed has been useful and satisfactory. R. A. SNOWBALL, D.G.M., President. Your committee appointed to audit the books and accounts of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, report as follows: The books are neatly and properly kept and vouchers have been prepared to us for all expenses and payments.

Your committee are gratified to note the splendid financial standing of the Corporation. The finances are at present in a very healthy condition, and we are pleased to note that a Sinking Fund has been set aside to retire bonds of the Corporation falling due in 1929. We feel that the splendid financial standing is largely due to the very efficient manner in which the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary have fulfilled the duties of their offices, and the corporation is to be congratulated in having such efficient and painstaking officers in charge of the finances.

The bonds held in the Bank of Nova Scotia safety deposit box to credit of the fund of benevolence and sinking fund have been verified and found to be correct as per statement submitted by the Grand Treasurer. Respectfully submitted, JOHN THORNTON, JOHN R. HAYCOCK, F. A. GODSOE, Auditors. Regarding the balance of $1,844.00 on hand, the directors would state that they have not consulted together as to its disposition, it would be well for the corporation, at this annual meeting, to direct that a portion of the balance be transferred to either the fund of benevolence or to the sinking fund. R. A. SNOWBALL, D.G.M., President.

Board of General Purposes. The report of the board of general purposes was in part as follows: The Board of General Purposes presents its annual report in the full hope that the general meeting of the past year as indicated in the various reports and statements submitted today will be a cause of great gratulation to Grand Lodge. The conservation of Fowles Lodge, at Havelock, increases the number of active Lodges to 42. The committee received the annual year 11 applications for aid, and made grants amounting to $825.00. The income of the fund, including a premium on exchange of bonds, was $1,037.34. The exchange, referred to, was of $3,000.00 Victory Bonds five per cent. due 1925 for one act of Victory Bonds with like interest due 1943. Bonds of the town of St. Andrews par value $1,000.00 five per cent. were purchased at a slight discount, increasing the bond holdings to $20,500.00.

The Board caused somewhat lengthy circulars to be sent to the private lodges containing the resolutions of Grand Lodge establishing a sinking fund for the redemption of the bonded debt and assessing each member the annual sum of one dollar for the ensuing five years. And in order that the brethren should clearly appreciate the situation and the motive of the sinking fund a succinct statement was included in the circular detailing the acquisition of the Masonic Hall by Grand Lodge, the amount of the bond issues and the annual interest, the rentals of the building and the normal annual expenditures. Direction was given that the circular be read in open lodge and inserted in the minutes.

It is the hope of the Board that the information conveyed has been useful and satisfactory. R. A. SNOWBALL, D.G.M., President. Your committee appointed to audit the books and accounts of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, report as follows: The books are neatly and properly kept and vouchers have been prepared to us for all expenses and payments.

WOMAN SUFFERED FOR MONTHS

Weak and Nervous. Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Webwood, Ont.—"I was in a very weak and run-down nervous condition, always tired from the time I got up until I went to bed. Sleep did not rest me at all. My sister recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and others told me about it, but it was from my sister's advice that I took it. It did not take long until I felt stronger, headaches left me and my appetite came back to me. I am a farmer's wife and have many things to do outside the house, such as milking, looking after the poultry, and other chores. I heartily recommend the Vegetable Compound to all who have the same trouble I had, for it is a fine medicine for women."—Mrs. CHARLES BREWER, 501-14th St., Port Huron, Mich.

Another Nervous Woman Finds Relief. Port Huron, Mich.—"I suffered for two years with pains in my side, and I worked very much I was nervous and just as tired in the morning as when I went to bed. I was sleepy all the day and didn't feel like doing anything, and was so nervous I would hit my fingers with a hammer. One of my friends told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it helped me so much that I soon felt fine."—Mrs. CHARLES BREWER, 501-14th St., Port Huron, Mich.

ROMMEL FAVORS THE KNUCKLE BALL

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—In 1922 Ed Rommel, star pitcher of the Athletics, won 27 ball games with a seventh place team in the American League.

Last season, with a team that made a much better record, Rommel being no exception, he requested that Briggs, second string catcher, handle him rather than Cy Perkins, the club's star backstop.

This season Rommel again got away to a bad start. Since most ball players are superstitious, and Rommel being no exception, he requested that Briggs, second string catcher, handle him rather than Cy Perkins, the club's star backstop.

"My best bet is my knuckle ball. In 1922, when I won 27 games, I pitched it seven times out of ten.

"The knuckle ball is hard to catch. No one knows how much it is going to break. As a result it often makes the catcher look bad because of his inability to handle it cleanly.

"Last season my catcher called for my fast one and curve ball far more often than the knuckler. Neither is as effective a delivery. I had trouble breaking even.

"While I don't blame my catcher for not wanting to handle the knuckle ball I have taken the matter in to my own hands and have gone back to it almost exclusively. And I am winning regularly."

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—With opportunity knocking loudly, Washington failed to respond to the call and today the Senators are six points back of the league-leading Yankees, who split a double-header with the Indians, losing the first game, 1-0, and taking the second, 5-4, while the Capital City crew lost to the Browns in an 11-inning contest, 8-6.

Cobb's Detroit could do no better than split even with the Red Sox in Boston, getting the verdict in the opener, 5-4, and losing the second, 4-3.

The White Sox and the Athletics divided two games in Philadelphia, the first to the Sox, 12-9, the second to the Athletics, 3-1.

In the National League, with only two games scheduled, Pittsburgh lost to the Phillies, 6-6.

Allan Sothoron of the Cardinals held the Cubs to six well scattered hits in the Windy City and took the game, 3-0.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Stepping to the three-quarters post in 1:13 and to the mile in 1:42 4-5, Epinard, French thoroughbred, demonstrated to a small group of observers here Tuesday that the best of America's sprinters will have to show plenty of run to keep him astern.

It was the first time that Eugene Leigh, Epinard's trainer, has asked the horse for speed. He got it in abundance.

Epinard's response left no doubt in the minds of the few who witnessed the workout that the French runner is in excellent condition and able to withstand any strain on speed or endurance in the three international events in which he is entered.

Epinard ran with Idle Girl. The workout was on a private track, and the racer's time for the three-quarters was only a second slower than the record for the course.

A fire which assumed such threatening proportions that a second alarm from Box 29 was ordered by Chief Blake, was discovered about 8 o'clock last evening by the watchman in the T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd. brass works in Water street.

The fire was near the rear of the furnace which is situated in the moulding room adjoining the "snagging" or dressing department. The moulding shop is of brick and practically fireproof, but the wooden structure containing the dressing department was badly gutted.

George McAvity, president of the firm, said last night that the loss was covered by insurance, but he was unable to estimate the damage.

Ball Problems By Billy Evans

QUESTIONS

1. The other day in the summary of a big league game I noticed where a certain player had been used twice as a pinch runner. Was this a mistake in print or could such a thing happen?

2. Pitcher delivers a batted ball while not in his proper position on the rubber. No one was on base at the time. The ball was squarely over the plate, but since it was illegally delivered the umpire ruled it a ball as per the rules.

3. If the batter strikes at the ball and hits safely would it have counted?—D. P. G.

8. When a fielder throws his glove at a batted or thrown ball is it necessary that the glove come into contact with the ball for the fielder to be penalized? A claims the mere throwing of the glove calls for a penalty. B insists the glove must come into contact with the ball. Who is right and what is the penalty in each case?—S. A. W.

ANSWERS

1. The situation was made possible by the manager of a certain team permitting a player to run for the regular who was injured. Since the regular intended to resume play when his injury was dressed, the manager of the team in the field permitted a player to run for him without the status of either player being affected, so as to avoid a tedious delay. Later in the game the manager called the same player to act as substitute runner for a slow man who had hit safely.

2. If a batter elects to strike at an illegally delivered ball it counts as a strike or whatever happens. In the case cited the safe hit made was legal.

3. B is correct in his contention. The glove must come into contact with the ball for a penalty to be inflicted. It is two bases, if a thrown ball, three bases if a batted ball.

8. The chief supervisor of the grounds was Martin Dolan and he was aided by a committee of men of the parish. Those in charge of the booths were: Mrs. E. J. Ryan and Messrs. James J. Carleton, country store; Miss Kathleen Lundy, candy counter; Mr. and Mrs. William McMillin, ice cream, beer and fruit; Mr. Vincent McKillop, bowling alley; Messrs. B. Daley, William Crowley and Joseph Flory, candy whips; Joseph Butler, bean board.

Among those receiving prizes were Edwin Brien, gentlemen's bowling prize; Mrs. W. B. Daley, ladies' bowling prize; James Whelley, gentlemen's bean board; Miss Juliet Desmond, ladies' prize. Those winning prizes in the drawings were Mrs. Arthur Mallett, 206 Sydney street, thermos bottle; Mrs. D. McElghan, 284 Garnarthen street, table scarf; Rev. J. J. McDermott, baby's knitted jacket.

The fair is to be continued today.

COURT CASE RESULTS

Bert W. Best has started proceedings against Daniel McGuire to recover $450 damages which he claims resulted to his automobile in a collision which occurred on Monday morning in Pond street, when one of Mr. McGuire's horses was so seriously injured that it had to be shot. RUBE MARQUARD MENDING RAPIDLY

Former Sensational Pitcher Recovering From Operation for Appendicitis.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 27.—Rube Marquard, now of the Boston Braves, formerly a sensational pitcher of the Brooklyn and New York clubs, recuperating at a bungalow on the Magogly river, following an operation for appendicitis, expects to be able to get back to baseball next year.

Marquard, with his wife, who nursed him when he was at death's door, was an interested spectator at the game here between the Baltimore Orioles and the White Sox.

After the operation for appendicitis, Marquard apparently had recovered, and was about ready to don a baseball uniform, when his system became poisoned, and his life was despaired of.

Due to the careful nursing of his wife, he recovered, and he has been at the Magogly River bungalow for the last month.

Marquard will spend a week in this city, and then go to the New Jersey coast for a while. He has pitched ball 19 seasons, and while he is still thin, and not in possession of his complete activity, he is on the road to his complete recovery.

FIGHT A DRAW. "Young" Stribling, Georgia school boy, and Paul Berenbach, New York, fought a six-round draw last evening, in New York before a crowd of 25,000 people, who were satisfied with the verdict. They were closely matched physically, each weighing 167 1/2 pounds. Stribling outboxed his dangerous rival from start to finish, but Berenbach carried the fight in the last three rounds to Stribling.

WILL PLAY TONIGHT. The Water Dept. winners of the Civic and Civil Service League, will meet the Royals, of the South End League, in an exhibition game this evening on the South End diamond.

The Water Dept. will have their regular championship line-up on hand. Arbo and Johnson will probably be the battery for the Water Dept. Diggs or Nelson will hurt for the Royals.

NATIONALS TAKE FIRST. The North End Nationals took the first game of a series with the Fairville Canucks for the intermediate championship of the city, winning last night by 1 to 0 in a five-inning game. Leary pitched for the winners and Burgess and Nelson for the losers. The next game will take place on the Nashua diamond on Friday night.

A CHALLENGE. The Young Canucks wish to challenge the Grand Bay Juniors to a game of ball on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the Ketepec diamond. An answer is requested through the Telegraph-Journal.

DORY AND DEAD FISHERMAN PICKED UP BY PRINCE ARTHUR ON WAY HERE

Body is Turned Over to the U. S. Consul for Return to Boston.

The Eastern Steamship liner Prince Arthur, which arrived in port this morning, reported picking up a dory containing the dead body of a fisherman, while en route here from Boston. There were no marks on the boat or clothing of the unfortunate man to identify him, who is about 30 years of age and from appearance was judged to be an Italian or a Portuguese. Death had apparently been from exhaustion or exposure.

The body was picked up yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, when the liner was approximately 18 miles east of Cape Anne, on the Massachusetts coast. At that time Second Officer Nickerson, who was on duty on the bridge, noticed the dory floating some distance away and changed the course of the steamer to come up to it. As they approached the small craft he saw a body in it and immediately notified the captain.

When the liner came alongside, First Officer Charles Burke ordered the ladder put over the side and then went to make the dory secure so that it could be hoisted on board. After the violent storm of Tuesday night the seas were running high and choppy and as a result he had a hard task preventing himself from being dashed against the side of the steamer or having his hold torn from the rope. Before he succeeded in making all fast he was on the point of exhaustion.

Dead Six Hours.

When the dory was hoisted to the deck a wireless message was sent to the agent in Boston and instructions were received to proceed and turn over the body to the American consul. This port, Dr. Baxter, medical officer on the liner, examined the body and estimated that the man had been dead about six hours. There was no mark on the head or body and it was evident that death had resulted from either exhaustion or exposure, or both.

When the dory was picked up the body was in a position indicating that the man had fallen back from his seat, probably during the morning, and was wearing a cap over his face, presumably to protect it from the sun. His face was quite black, which was thought to have resulted from a severe sunburn. The lead white he was in that position. An examination of the clothing and dory failed to disclose any clue which would lead to his identity. He was wearing underclothing, two pair of pants, oil skins, high rubber boots and cap. In the dory was a quantity of fish, but nothing to identify the boat with any fishing fleet.

Believed Fisherman.

It is thought that he was either out alone from some American port fishing when he was caught in the storm, or carried to sea or else was a member of the crew of some fishing smack and was carried away from her during the storm. There was practically no water in the boat and it was taken for granted that the unfortunate man evidently kept steadily bailing during the terrific storm which raged along the Atlantic coast. It was thought that his long vigil fighting for his life against the raging sea and elements might have been such a strain on his heart that death resulted or else that he had been so weakened by a struggle that exposure was the cause of his death.

The body and dory were placed aft between decks and on the arrival of the steamer Edward H. Carter, vice-consul of the United States, who is acting consul, was notified and he made the necessary arrangements to have the body viewed by a coroner and then sent back to the U. S.

EVERY STATEROOM ON ARTHUR TAKEN

E. S. S. Liner Will Take Away a Large List—Brings 85 Today.

The Eastern Steamship liner Prince Arthur arrived in port this morning direct from Boston with 85 passengers and a fair sized general cargo. She will leave here tomorrow evening and will take away one of the largest passenger lists of the season. Every stateroom has been booked for and a number of people have already placed their names on the waiting list. She will make her last trip of the season from this port on Friday, September 5. Among the passengers who arrived this morning were Thomas Stack who spent a vacation in Boston; John Hannah, who returned from a visit to Boston; and Messrs. Harry and George Coleman who had been visiting in the U. S.

CHILDREN HAVE DONE GOOD WORK

Display of Articles Made is Feature of St. Peter's Playground Closing.

The official closing of St. Peter's playgrounds is being held this afternoon and evening. A special programme was arranged for the children, consisting of drills, basketball games, and a race. One of the features of the programme was to be a basketball game between the Roses and Shamrocks for the championship of the league. Each team had won five and lost one game, and speculation among the followers of both teams ran high as to the probable outcome. The teams are composed of the following players: Roses—Mary Kylin, captain; Bernice Henneberry, Dorothy O'Connor, Margaret McGuire and Kees Sullivan; the Shamrocks—Helen Butler, captain; Mary Hughes, Doris Garvin, Margaret Kylin, Helen Nugent and Mary Conlogue. Display of Work.

In addition to the sports there will be a display of the work done by the children during the summer months. It consists of some exceptionally fine crocheted and knitted work, well knit sweaters and small mats of all kinds. The boys also had some exhibits, consisting of miniature household effects, which showed clever workmanship. A number of health were also erected and refreshments were sold to many visitors who attended the closing. This evening there will be tennis matches and possibly a baseball game. The work of the children will be displayed in a booth at the exhibition. One of the features in connection with this will be a miniature house, which was built by the boys and fitted with chairs, a bed, chiffonier and a buffet. The girls have seen to it that there will be fancy work galore for the attention. Considering the age of the children who did this work, it is exceptionally good and will undoubtedly attract considerable attention.

ALL READY FOR MILK FUND GAME TONIGHT

Collins Will Pitch for Visitors and Ray Hansen for War Vets.

The Milk Fund game tonight on the East End grounds between the sailors from the U. S. S. Detroit now in port and the War Vets should draw a record crowd. The weather bids fair to be ideal. It will be the first game of the week on these grounds and the grounds of the grounds are most worthy of the occasion. There is keen interest also among the fans as to what kind of a game the sailors can put up and it is surprising the number of fans who believe the sailors can trim the locals. The price of admission, 25 cents, is small and when citizens realize that the contribution goes to helping save the lives of little babies there can be little excuse for not turning out in force. The game will be called at 7:30 o'clock. The admission price entitles purchaser to a grandstand seat and as these are limited, the fans are advised to come early. The game is called for 8:45 o'clock.

Lieut. George Russell, manager of the tax' team, announced this morning he would send Pete Collins to the mound against the Vets. Ray Hansen will twirl for the locals. The sailors will catch the 8:10 p.m. trip of the ferry and will be conveyed to the grounds in motor cars.

AUTOMOBILE TRUCK AND CAR COLLIDE

A collision occurred on Mill street shortly after 9 o'clock this morning between a truck owned by the Canadian Independent Oil Company and a street car. The truck started to turn in to the C. P. R. sheds and in so doing passed in front of the street car which was proceeding along the street towards Paradise row. The driver of the truck claimed to have put out his arm as a signal that he was about to make the turn, but the motorist of the street car said he saw no signal and was not aware that he was going to cut across the street until it was too late to prevent the collision. The car fender was broken and one of the wheels of the truck was demolished.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter, "I want you to shed a tear with me, in sympathy with all the boys and girls of the country." "I don't see what they got to cry about," said Hiram, called Hiram by the boys and girls. "Young folks never shed good times as they live these days." "Quite so," said the reporter, "but the schools are about to re-open. Did you think of that?" "Well, no—I didn't," said Hiram. "I guess that does make a difference."

"A difference?" said the reporter. "It changes the world. Keep your eyes open and you'll see. In the next few days the boys and girls will be going about saying good-bye to the days of happy days—and to new friends they have made—and sighing because it is all over." "Yes—that's so," said Hiram. "We got some little letters from town out to The Settlement—and they're on the rampage this week to get all the fun they can out of the next few days. Well—they've had a great summer—an' I hope they'll all live to come back to us again next year. They make a little trouble sometimes—but they wouldn't be with their salt if they didn't. Bless their little hearts—they hev my blessin' alwus—yes, sir."
