TWO WERE KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE SMASH

A Third Member of the Party Will Likely Die.

The Driver, Turning Suddenly to Avoid a Cab, Ran into Another Car—Was Speeding for Fun.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Tom Cooper, of Detroit, well known bicyclist and automobilist, was instantly killed in an automobile accident in Central Park today. Three companions were seriously injured, and one of them, it is believed, will die. The four were riding in Cooper's automobile when the machine collided with another automobile on the drive. Cooper was hurled twenty feet and struck upon his feet. He was lifeless when picked up. A man named Barlow, said to be a Wall Street broker, who was home at Paterson, N. J., was also thrown from the machine and sustained a fractured skull. At the hospital tonight it was said he would probably die.

Miss Virginia Vernon, of Jersey City, and Miss Helen Hall, of this city, the other occupants of the automobile, suffered severe injuries. The fourth member of the party, a young woman who gave her name as Virginia Vernon and said her home is in Jersey City, has a broken leg and is suffering from shock. It is believed she will recover. A new story of the accident was told today by Miss Lambert. She said that the collision was due to Cooper suddenly turning out to the left when he was driving a cab in the roadway. He was compelled to swing far to the left. He had safely passed the cab when the headlights of a stalled automobile loomed scarcely more than 10 feet away.

The speed of the automobile was so great that Cooper could not control it, and an instant later it crashed into the stalled automobile. The driver of the automobile party was returning from a visit to a Harlem Road house. Just before the accident occurred, the driver told his friends: "Now I'll give you the fastest ride of your life." Five minutes later Cooper was dead, his companions were lying unconscious in the park, and the machine in which they rode was a wreck.

THE SOUTHERN STORMS WERE QUITE SERIOUS

And Late Reports Show That Conditions Are Becoming Worse—Damage is $300,000.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 20.—As more detailed reports are received from those portions of Alabama north and central Mississippi and west Tennessee swept by wind and rain storm for 48 hours, the situation increases in seriousness. Following the wind storm of Saturday night rain has fallen almost continuously throughout the day, and practically the entire district is under water to a depth of several feet. Creeks on small streams are overflowing their banks and many persons have been forced from their homes. From Winona, Mabon and Matanzas more complete reports were received today. The total damage to these towns is estimated at $300,000. Miles of railway trackage and bridges have been washed away, telephones and telegraphic communication demoralized, and street car traffic blocked to such an extent that on several lines operations have been temporarily suspended.

THE ROOSEVELT IS SAILING VERY DELIBERATELY

She is Reported as Having Passed Point Armour in Labrador.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The following telegram was received by the Associated Press tonight, dated Point Armour, P. Q., Nov. 18, announcing the passing of Commander Peary's steamer The Roosevelt: "Roosevelt passing Point Armour three p. m. weather dull, strong east. (Signed) 'OPERATOR'."

Point Armour is a headland on the southeastern shore of the straits of Bellefleur. It is about 70 miles southwest of Chateau Bay, Labrador, and at the southwest extremity of the straits of Bellefleur. It is about 70 miles southwest of Chateau Bay, from which place the Roosevelt was reported as having sailed on Nov. 13.

MAGISTRATE RITCHE INTIMATES THAT CHIEF CLARK OUGHT TO BE WHIPPED.

Sensational Speech in Police Court in Which the Judge Without Mentioning Names Refers to the Reports Circulated to the Effect That Prisoners Belonging to His Church Got Off Easily.

Magistrate R. J. Ritchie in the police court this morning was in no mood for jokes and one thing that seemed to annoy him was the rumors that have reached his ears that reports anything but complimentary are in circulation about him originating from persons who occupy the section of the King street courthouse downstairs.

Matters between the magistrate and the chief of police have never been of the most friendly nature and the friction between the two heads of the department does not tend to make the work any more cheerful.

Among the persons reported to the court this morning by the police was D. Russell Jack, who was called to answer the charge of taking up more space on Union street than the law permits and also that a plank walk about some building material was in a dangerous state.

Mr. Jack was about to answer the charge when the magistrate poured forth his thoughts in a manner that showed he meant every word and intimated that such was the result of a heated argument which had occurred down town between persons who had been talking to blows. It was stated that Mr. Jack was of the wrong breed to be let go in the police court.

STILL TAKING BOULDERS FROM NO. 3 CRIB SITE

A Big One Removed Today—Mayes Says it Rolled in—Clark Says it Was Always There—Diver Finds Little Damage to the Crib.

When will No. 3 site be ready for the sinking of the crib? "This was the question asked by many persons who have visited this site," said Dredge Beaver, it was announced, finished his work on this site five days ago.

The soundings taken were not satisfactory, and the big digger was again put to work at cleaning up the site. This job was completed on Saturday and the site was then supposed to be ready. Such was not the case however, as a huge boulder was taken out this morning.

It will be remembered that it was stated by D. C. Clarke that a boulder still remained on the site. Mr. Mayes was confident that no obstacle existed with interest the sinking of the crib, when it would be ascertained which man was right.

HARRIMAN AND ROOT IN DEBATE

On the Subject of Government Regulation of Railroads

Root Thinks the Companies Themselves Are the Ones to Regulate Traffic if They Would Only Do It.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 20.—The most interesting feature of the commercial club banquet last night had not been announced beforehand, it being E. H. Harriman's criticism on government regulations of railroads and Secretary of State Root's vigorous reply. In the course of his address Mr. Harriman said:

"In his speech in Harrisburg, recently, President Roosevelt said that the executive and legislative departments should be given additional power to deal with public organizations. 'It is impossible for a railway company or large organization to carry on its business properly if the people are constantly criticizing and suspecting. In the Union Pacific Company no one may say what the company will or will not do. I am untiringly only because I must be on hand to hear conferences and try to bring a body of men to one conclusion. It is not always easy if you have to turn to the legal department to find out whether you may or may not.' Here Mr. Harriman paused and turning to Secretary Root said: 'It is often important to a city on country whether we do certain things, whether we develop a territory or leave it dormant, often we cannot give development a start because of the action of certain people for prestige. I believe there is to be a change of attitude which will soon be felt. The people are coming to believe in Americanism, and that means fair play.'"

Secretary Root accepted Mr. Harriman's challenge promptly, "before I begin to talk on the subject which has been assigned me," said he, "I desire to make a few remarks in answer to Mr. Harriman, who I believe would have us give more power to the railroads."

"The experience I gained from a knowledge of the railroad business in the state of Missouri at the time we were competing for business led me to believe that the just means of regulating traffic and railroads is to let the railroads themselves. A wise law would be one that would force the railroads to combine in knowing the law. The best regulation can be brought about by the railroads themselves if they will only do their power should be supplemented by such government control and prevent them from doing wrong. The object of the railroad in discriminating the matter of special rates and compensations is too often abused as we have seen. It is the common tendency of railroads to give advantage to the wealthy shipper against the weaker smaller one, a tendency to crush the weak, for this reason, I say, that it is necessary, it is essential to freedom should be held under control to prevent discrimination. The slight advantage that the railroads would gain by more power, the power that Mr. Harriman asks for would be so greatly offset by the evil that such a proposition would not be considered a moment."

ONLY ONE WOMAN ON STEAMER DIX WAS SAVED

Death List Numbers Forty Two—They Were Seventy Nine People on Board.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 19.—Forty-two lives were lost in last night's disaster off Alkali Point when the little steamer Dix was run down by the Alaskan liner Jeannette. There were 79 persons on the Dix when she went down. Of the five women aboard the Dix the only one to escape was Alice Simpson, an 18 year old girl. She could not swim, but her clothing kept her afloat until she was pulled aboard one of the two lifeboats lowered by the Jeannette.

SCHOONER FOUNDERED AFTER REACHING PORT

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 19.—After battling with a rising flood in the hold for 36 hours, Captain Wyman of the partly dismantled schooner Luis G. Rabal managed to get the vessel into Bull's Bay, where she foundered in four fathoms of water Sunday afternoon. The schooner sailed from Newport News Nov. 11 with a cargo of coal, bound for Mayport, Fla. On Nov. 14 she encountered a southwest gale and began to leak. Gales followed and the ship's sails were carried away. In Bull's Bay the crew took to the boats. The vessel was owned by the J. S. Winslow Company of Portland, Maine. Vessel and cargo are a total loss.

WARSAW, Nov. 20.—Through bribing a member of the gendarmes, the police have arrested another batch of participants in the train robbery at Rogow, November 18th, by which the revolutionists are said to have secured about $50,000 making altogether thirty-four persons arrested in this connection. They will all be immediately tried by a drum-head court-martial.

POLICEMAN DEAD EX-CONVICT DYING

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Policeman Luke Fitzpatrick is dying in St. Bernard's Hospital, as the result of a fight which took place in the city on Monday night. He was shot by a man named Hanson and a companion last night and blew open the safe and escaped with several hundred dollars in money and some negotiable paper. Officers of the Hammond police force pursued the robbers out of town, but they escaped after exchanging several revolver shots with the policemen. They boarded an electric car bound for Chicago and the conductor, who had heard of the robbery, became suspicious.

(Special to the Sun.) OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—The special de luxe train on the Intercolonial railway connecting with the steamship Virginia on Friday at Halifax and running through to Montreal, which carries first class cars, sleepers and dining car service, made the run, leaving Halifax at 11.50 o'clock on Friday, the 18th instant, reached Montreal in the record-breaking time of twenty hours and five minutes. This train made an average speed of 41.6 miles per hour.

REPORTS EXAGGERATED

HOPEWELL HILL, Nov. 18.—M. M. Tingley, who has been in Kent county for several months, superintending bridge construction for Contractor Brewer, returned to his home here on Friday. Mr. Tingley was located quite near where the recent smallpox outbreak was, but says the situation causes no apprehension whatever among the residents there, and he understands that the reports must have been greatly exaggerated. In fact, though he was himself only a few miles from the centre of the epidemic, he first heard of the disease through letters from home.

HOCKEY.

MONCTON ENDORSES SACKVILLE'S STAND.

MONCTON, Nov. 19.—Sackville's stand regarding amateur hockey was unanimously endorsed at a big meeting of local enthusiasts tonight when officers in connection with the local team were elected and general prospects discussed. Officers elected as follows: Hon. H. R. Emmerson, honorary president; F. W. Sumner, president; Dr. C. A. Murray, vice-president; A. S. Donald, secretary; Joseph Bourque, treasurer; Norman Baird, manager. The matter of delegates to the annual meeting was not settled, the choice being left in the hands of the managing committee, but as the local team was not by any means satisfied with the dates the Victoria were given the last season two delegates will be named before the meeting takes place. It was decided to recommend Irvine Malcolm of this city as the N. B. H. L. referee. A pleasant event took place in connection with the hockey meeting, when Charles B. Tritts, a former well known ball player, who umpired for a portion of last season, was presented by his admirers with a handsome silver tea service. E. W. Ferguson, secretary of the city league, made the presentation on behalf of the fans and players.

NEW YORK WOMAN TOOK AWFUL LEAP

Hurled Herself From Fifth-story Window

Held Umbrella Over Head—Made Excuse to Get Into Vacant Room.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Holding an umbrella over her head, a young woman hurled herself from the fifth-story window of a house in East 44th street yesterday. She had fallen on 20 feet. The umbrella turned inside out and she was crushed to death.

The police have been unable to identify the woman, who is about 20 years old, and wore good clothing and jewelry. She died before the eyes of several onlookers who were in the room from which she had leaped. A man was waiting for her. Last night the woman called on Mrs. Emma O. O'Neil, janitor of the house. She wanted to view apartments on the fifth floor which she had seen advertised in a newspaper. Her husband, who escorted the woman to the rooms, she said she would go to his home, 64 Main street.

"It's the usual thing here to ask for a deposit," said the janitor. "Oh, that's all right," answered the visitor. Then, according to the janitor, she added: "Would you mind getting me into another room and get the money?"

The man murmured an acquiescence. She went into the next room and closed the door tightly behind her.

A sound was heard by O'Neil. He waited. When five minutes had passed, he became worried. He did not go to the door until he had called to Mrs. G. Heintz, who lives across the hall.

TONIGHT

The Every Day Club held a very successful session last night. There was a large attendance of men and the programme, which was entirely informal, was much enjoyed. A number of short addresses were given. Among those speaking were Rev. W. C. Cohen, John Bond and A. M. Belding. During the evening songs were sung by John Bond, Mr. McMillan and others. The evening passed very pleasantly and a very successful season is looked forward to by all those connected with the club.

A number of their Carlton admirers presented smoking sets, consisting of handsome silver pipes and cigar holders, to "Bud" Nico and James Ross at the latter's home last evening. Joseph Murphy made the presentation. Wm. Kehler gave a step dance and Joe Murphy sang a solo. Many of the others also furnished the company with songs and dancing. The party broke up at midnight. The recipients were very much surprised, and thanked their friends most heartily. Quite a number were present, and all enjoyed themselves.

SUITABLE TEXT.

The choir of a large metropolitan church had sung a Te Deum of a very ornate description, the end of which was not only complicated, but required the exertions of the full lung power of the choristers. While the echoes of the last notes were still faintly sounding, the minister arose and in a clear but semi-approachful tone began to read the twentieth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles, of which the first words are "And after the uproar was ceased."

It takes nerve to advertise successfully, but the profitable results are certain, for the advertiser who has sufficient faith in printer's ink to wait till—Suffield Advertising, London.

A SIMPLE MORNING GOWN.

6417—Every woman needs a simple morning gown to slip on for breakfast with her Lordship or when she enjoys her "forty winks" in the afternoon and the very nature of the garment demands that it be unpretentious. Many women think that they cannot afford a gown of this kind because it must needs be expensive. On the contrary, as little may be expended as one wishes and a simple afternoon, challis gown or dainty may develop as pretty a gown of this kind because it must model shown in of pale blue silk with scallops of English embroidery at trimming. The round yoke is a becoming feature and the neck may be finished with or without the collar. One or two deep flounces on the bottom may be an addition to a tub gown of this size 71-2 yards of 38-inch material are needed.

6417—Sleeve, 22 to 44 inches bust measure.

HEARST SPENT OVER $250,000 IN RECENT ELECTION FIGHT.

Official Statement Filed by the Candidate Creates a Sensation in New York Political Circles.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Somewhat of a sensation was caused in political circles here today when William H. Hearst, who was candidate for Governor on the Independence League, and Democratic tickets, filed with the secretary of state at Albany a statement showing that he had spent the sum of $250,000 in his efforts to win the election. Not since the law requiring candidates for public office to file a list of their expenses went into effect a number of years ago has anyone seeking the favor of the voters admitted the spending of one-tenth that sum for election purposes. The sum, in magnitude, is far and away greater than any others recorded in the books of the state for that particular purpose. Of the amount expended, Mr. Hearst reported to the secretary of state that he had given to the Independence League, $188,870.22, and to William J. Comers, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, $57,000. The balance of $500 he spent in travelling expenses. As large as this sum appears to be for one man to spend on an attempt to gain an office which pays a salary of $10,000 a year for two years, it is reported to the secretary of state does not begin to compare with the actual amount that Mr. Hearst spent in his fight to get the nomination, and the law does not require that such expenditures should be included. Immediately after the election was declared defeated for mayor last fall he began through his managers, the organization of the Independence League. An organization was formed in every county of the state and in every assembly district in the Greater New York. In the latter city he had the old Municipal Ownership League as a nucleus, but the association being reorganized, and all together the establishment of the league must have cost him thousands of dollars. He had a great staff of paid agents out organizing the various branches of the league and their expenses must have been enormous, the vast bulk of which was paid by Mr. Hearst. Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for governor, who was elected, spent, according to his report, only $618.85, which would equal something like eight cents for every 100 votes cast for him, as against over thirty cents cost to Hearst for each individual vote he received.

THE BLACK HAND USING DYNAMITE Charge Exploded in the Store of a Prominent Butcher

No One Was Hurt But the Front of the Building Was Wrecked—It Happened in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 20.—Four men believed to be members of the "Black Hand Society" at 6 o'clock this morning exploded a stick of dynamite on 140 Canal street. No one was injured but the front of the brick building was badly shattered. The doors were blown into the interior of the store and all the glass in the front of the store, the concussion of the dynamite shattered the windows in several buildings adjoining and across the street from the Ballisto store. Angelo, the 18-year old daughter, was the first to wake. She looked out of the window and saw four men running away from the scene of the explosion. It was quite dark but the girl said she thought the men were Italians. About two weeks ago Ballisto received letters signed by the "Black Hand Society." In each a demand for money was made. The Italian was instructed to place the money in a certain place. The writers of the letters threatened him with death if he did not obey. Ballisto did not give up the money but notified the police who have since been trying to run down the members of the gang. Several other prominent Italian families have received letters from the Black Hand recently.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Miss Gertrude Cayvan, for years one of the most popular actresses in this city, died today in a sanitarium at Flushing, L. I., where she had been a patient about seven years. Miss Cayvan was about 65 years old.

NEW HYMN BOOK NEARS COMPLETION

Second Draft of Anglican Hymnal Has Been Issued.

Book Will Contain a Number of Compositions by Canadian Writers and Musicians.

The second draft of the "Book of Common Prayer," the new hymn book now being compiled for the use of the Anglican Church in Canada, has just been issued by Henry Procter, Oxford Press, under the signatures of the Bishops of Ottawa and Huron, chairman and vice-chairman of the Hymnal Committee, and Mr. James Edmund Jones, convener of the Compilation committee. It is a most interesting volume, containing among other things copies of the hymn book now being compiled for the use of the Anglican Church in Canada, has just been issued by Henry Procter, Oxford Press, under the signatures of the Bishops of Ottawa and Huron, chairman and vice-chairman of the Hymnal Committee, and Mr. James Edmund Jones, convener of the Compilation committee. It is a most interesting volume, containing among other things copies of the hymn book now being compiled for the use of the Anglican Church in Canada, has just been issued by Henry Procter, Oxford Press, under the signatures of the Bishops of Ottawa and Huron, chairman and vice-chairman of the Hymnal Committee, and Mr. James Edmund Jones, convener of the Compilation committee.

Though the number of general hymns was so greatly increased, care has been taken to prevent the impoverishment of the other sections. For every saint's day and season there are many special hymns, and not only the calendar, but the days in the Church's calendar, but suitable hymns have been selected for such occasions as special national days, men's meetings, dedications, or the many other gatherings which take place in the churches during the year. Of course, the book naturally contains the two most celebrated hymns written of late years. As the majority of the other publications which are largely used in the Anglican Church were compiled some years ago, they do not contain either Lord Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," or Kipling's "Recessional." These two poems, so fittingly composed by Canadians, have been placed in the new hymn book. Another hymn very generally used in the churches during Lent and Holy Week, which has been included in the new volume is, "The Story of the Cross." Although this has only been published before in the American hymn book and the last edition of the Hymnal Committee, many churches, where neither of these books are used have used it of late years.

As the book of common praise is used by the Canadian Church, the committee wished to have the composers of the hymns selected in its hymn book, which naturally suggested itself immediately, was "Lord, by Whose Might the Heavens Stand," by Frederick George Stand. It was included in the section, "for national occasions," with a setting by Canon E. P. Crawford. The committee also asked for original contributions by Canadians, which were to be sent in anonymously. From among those received two mission hymns were selected. Enquiry for the authorship disclosed that the first one, "Awake, Awake, O Christian," was from the pen of Mrs. Lennox Mills, wife of the Bishop of Ontario. The second hymn, by Cora B. Evans, seemed peculiarly appropriate of the Canadian book as it was founded upon the motto of the Woman's Auxiliary, "The Love of Christ Constraieth." There will be other Canadian writers represented as well as a number of composers.

ROME, Nov. 19.—The pope has kept one of the walls which formed the prison of St. Peter's as a souvenir of the explosion. Many messages expressing indignation at the outrage have been received by the pontiff. NAPLES, Nov. 19.—The anarchist, Saverio Laganà, who stabbed and killed Prof. Giovanni, of the University of Naples, in this city last Saturday night, has been arrested. The man had disguised himself and had shaved off his mustache, his eyebrows, and even his hair. When questioned Laganà showed no signs of repentance, declaring: "I am not guilty, for it was my arm that committed this crime." The funeral of Signor Rosè was held today and passed without incident.

KAISER WOOD BY SPIRITUALISTS Trying to Win Emperor Over to Their Cult

So Far the Clique of Statesmen Engineering the Scheme Have Not Been Successful. BERLIN, Nov. 19.—The Zukoff prints a remarkable story to the effect that a clique of statesmen, who are bound together in their political action by a common belief in Spiritualism, have been making efforts for several months to win over the Kaiser to their cult, submitting to him evidence in the shape of spirit messages to convince him of the wisdom of the advice. The head of the clique is Prince Philip Eulenberg, ex-Ambassador to Vienna. Among the other members are General von Motke, chief of the general staff, and an unnamed member of the Imperial government. When the Kaiser was visiting Prince von Eulenberg's castle at Liebenberg last week the Prince exhausted all his talents to convince His Majesty that the spirits had signalled that Chancellor von Bulow's retirement was urgently necessary for the Emperor's safety. The Kaiser has been for a long time the personal friend of Prince von Eulenberg, but he firmly rejected his persuasions and retained Prince von Bulow in office, emphasizing his confidence in the latter, and thereby intimating that he turned his back on the Zukoff. The Zukoff accuses Prince von Eulenberg of going to ridiculous extremes to induce the Kaiser to entertain a deeper belief in the principle of Divine right. Among other things he is said to have painted a picture glorifying the Kaiser as the appointed of Heaven. Prince von Eulenberg shortly afterwards received the order of the Black Eagle. It is also alleged that the Prince forced the appointment of Baron von Tschirsky as Minister of Foreign Affairs, but adds the writer, as the power of the spiritualist camarilla has now been broken, this will probably be its last success with the disillusioned monarch.

PRICE ON HEAD OF COUNT WITTE

Plot Against His Life Unearthed in Russia.

Post of Governor-General Has Been Created at Cronstadt, and Baku Has Been Made a Prefecture. ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—A plot is said to have been discovered in Russia against the life of Count Witte and seventeen of the leaders of the Constitutional Democratic party. It is reported that a price of 35,000 roubles ($17,500) has been placed on Witte's head. According to a decree just published the state of siege that has prevailed in Cronstadt has been replaced by a state of war, and the post of governor-general has been created there, temporarily. Baku has been made a prefecture, and the town and district of Yalta, in the Crimea, has been declared in a state of extraordinary defence. A state of reinforced defence has been declared in the provinces of Kursk, Danzig, and Samara. The St. Petersburg newspaper Russk, which was suppressed a year ago, and has been published since under the name of the Twentieth Century, Okta, and other names, was revived under its old name the other day, and has been suppressed again. It is reported that the senate has resolved on a sweeping disfranchisement of the peasants. Don't think because your first advertisement meets with no success, that you should drop it. Keep yourself continually before the public and soon the public will begin to patronize you, provided you give them what you advertise.—Geo. H. Flint, R. H. White Co., Boston.

FEDERATION OF LABOR

FAVOR CHILD LABOR LAW

That "Will Stop the Coining of Life-Blood into Dollars upon the Counters of Commercialism."

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 20.—The American Federation of Labor yesterday decided that a national child labor law would be unconstitutional and agreed to urge the passage of state laws that will "stop the crushing out of child life in the mills and factories and coming of life blood into dollars upon the counters of commercialism."

The resolutions adopted look with alarm upon the overloading of life boats, deplore the employment of inefficient seamen, causing disasters and condemn the employment of Chinese sailors on American vessels.

CHINESE LABOR.

The Transvaal labor question again a live issue in the British Parliament, an adjournment of a debate on this question which took place in the House of Commons last week, radical changes will be made in the method of securing and handling laborers. The Chinese, it would seem must go. No definite decision has as yet been announced, but the ministerial policy as outlined in the House would lead to this conclusion. The debate arose out of the publication of an accident of a confidential report received by the government on conditions existing in the compounds in which the Chinese laborers are kept. This revealed the prevalence of immorality so disgusting as to be almost beyond the bounds of belief, and a question was looked upon by several leading legislators as a moral disaster of national importance.

It is difficult to conceive how any conditions other than those described could be hoped for. At the gold and cold mines on the Rand each pit has its own gang of laborers. These men are quartered in compounds near the works, these compounds being very similar to horse sheds at exhibitions, arranged in a circle, the outer walls being high to prevent the escape of the inmates. In the open space in the centre are the cookhouses, and alongside of these a sort of turnstile arrangement through which the men pass in single file three times a day, when they are being fed. Each man is given a plate of food, rice or meal, as the case may be, and he is allowed to eat it in his own quarters or in the open. The plate must be cleaned and returned.

In each of the stables from four to ten Chinese are housed, the accommodation being such that they are crowded together even while sleeping. There is particularly no supervision which can be at all thorough, the attendance being almost altogether in the hands of the Chinese themselves. The men do the cooking and marching the men to and from work. The life is slavery in its worst form, there is nothing to do but work, and in the idle hours it is no wonder that men of such a race as the Chinese become morally bad. These creatures are of the lowest classes to begin with, they are frequently sent to Africa by relatives who hope to draw their pay, and from such crowds only the worst results may be expected.

The existing state of affairs is so unhealthy, and so unnatural in the British Empire, that Chinese labor will undoubtedly be done away with in the near future. South Africa is on the eve of responsible government, and if the Imperial Parliament does not settle this labor question soon the colony will be expected to do so.

A WAVE OF CRIME.

St. John is suffering from an epidemic of crime. It is many years since the police magistrate was called upon to deal with such a number of criminals as cases as have been brought before him in the past four or five months. It may be only one of those unaccountable periodic waves of immorality and crime which have from time to time been noticed in other places, but the frequency is more serious than this, that the arrests made indicate a regrettable prevalence of crime due to a lower standard of morality. All ages are seemingly affected, but the larger number of offenses are found among the boys and girls, the hardest class to deal with. Irresponsible children are brought before the court repeatedly, and in fact not a day passes without its stories of assaults or burglaries. The police have been able to discover the majority of the offenders, but neither they nor the courts appear able to prevent a continuance of crime.

THE NEW WHARF.

There seems to be now no reason for hope that the new berth on the West side will be ready in time to assist in the handling of this winter's traffic. In spite of all promises by contractors, civic officials and aldermen the work is so backward that completion before spring seems impossible.

If this is the case, there is no reason now for haste in the work. If the wharf cannot be finished by January it will make little difference if it is not finished until next fall. So that every care should be taken that the work is good, that no flaws exist which might have been excused by urgency. There are some who state that the crib which may be sunk tomorrow has been seriously damaged by the strain required to move it from its bed; the builder declares that the injuries are trivial. The aldermen should make themselves absolutely certain of the real facts.

Later on the citizens must consider who is to blame for the delay which has prevented the completion of the wharf; whether the aldermen can clear themselves of the charge that their carelessness and inaction and general inefficiency have placed the port of St. John under a serious handicap during what promised to be the best season it ever experienced.—Sun.

ST. JOHN BOY WRITES FROM WAY-OFF JAPAN

W. E. G. Hennigar, Missionary, Located There.

His of His Arrival in East, and Preparations for Campaign—Is Learning the Jap Language.

It will be interesting to St. John people of all denominations to read a letter from Rev. E. C. Hennigar of this city, who is now in Japan doing missionary work under the Methodist Board. Rev. Mr. Hennigar is son of Edw. S. Hennigar, Mason, of Orange and a graduate of the St. John High School as well Mount Allison University. He was married shortly before departing for the kingdom of the Mikado to Miss May Hart, daughter of Rev. Mr. Hart of Sackville, and together he will leave with him, The St. John boy's letter reads as follows:

Fuku, Japan, Sept. 22nd, 1906.

We arrived in Fuku, to which station we were appointed by our mission council, only this week. Our mission house, now in course of building, will not be finished for six weeks or more. Meanwhile we are living in a Japanese house though partly in foreign style. However, though we will introduce a few articles of foreign furniture we will have to conform to Japanese custom so far as to leave our boots and shoes at the entrance, for the floors are covered with Tatami, the thick straw mats of all Japanese houses. In this house our walls are mostly paper sliding doors, over which at night we slide wooden shutters. For the summer this is an admirable arrangement. All these things are broken down considerably. Many of the Japanese houses, being built on hillsides, are very attractive when so opened up. If we could adopt Japanese style of living altogether, we could sit on our feet on the floor, eat from little tables a foot or so high, and spread our bed on the floor at night. We hope to be able to get into the new mission house early in November and have every thing formal broken down considerably. Arriving in Fuku Tuesday night of this week we were met by the pastor and about 25 of the church members, who gave us a most cordial welcome. Again last evening the church people gathered at the pastor's residence for the formal welcome meeting. By this means we have already become acquainted with nearly all of the outsiders. Our members are few in numbers but are very earnest in spirit. Recently our pastor has broken down considerably and the Christians are taking heart and working with might and vigor to build the church a power for good in the city. Last month two persons were baptized, tomorrow morning two others are to be baptized (D. V.) while others are preparing, and the pastor hopes they will become candidates before winter.

October 3rd.

Since writing the above I have been so busy getting things settled and rearranging the building of the chimney of the mission house that I have really not had time to write more. The men who are building our house never before built a house on foreign plans. The chimney was something of a puzzle. You know Japanese houses have no roofs as a rule, they are heated by a few coils of charcoal placed on the tops of boxes of bricks here and there around the rooms. I had to watch the building of the chimney very carefully. Either the builder lacks in judgment or in honor, for I found poor work going on if I happened to be absent from the building more than two hours at a time. Today was rainy, so that the men could not work, and I was able to spend about three hours with my teacher in language study, the first for over a week. My chief work this week was to study with some English teachers in an occasional evangelistic trip (with an interpreter) through town. I began my English bible class last Sunday with five members. Last evening with five members.

HE PAID.

A guest who had just registered at the Shirley Hotel, Denver Post, was approached by a boy with a telegram. It had $1 charges on it.

"What's that for?" asked he, as he tried in vain to touch her toes to the floor. "And, John, I want a hassock!"

"One hassock?" asked the waiter, with what John thought more than ordinary interest. The waiter did not go, while his face got red. Then he came around to John's side, and speaking in a low voice said: "My mister, I haven't been here long, and I'm not to all these things. Will the lady have the hassock brought or paid?"

WAS NOT EXPERIENCED.

It was in a downtown restaurant that the short little woman and her tall husband went to dinner.

"Will you haveysters?" asked he. "Yes," said the short little woman, as she tried in vain to touch her toes to the floor. "And, John, I want a hassock!"

AIRSHIP WILL BE A WAR VESSEL
In a Few Years is the View of British Experts.

THE HARKINS COMPANY
Opening Play a Great Success—Large Audience Greeted the Old Favorites.

LONDON, Nov. 15. — Aerial navigation was the subject of discussion at the Royal Service Institution yesterday and the consensus of opinion was that airships will play an important part in future wars. Col. J. D. Pulerton, of the Royal Engineers, who lectured on the subject said:—

"There is no doubt whatever that aerial ships will play an important part in future wars. It is consequently most desirable that this country should take steps to ensure a suitable aerial force being ready when the time for the struggle arrives, and I suggest that a Royal Commission be appointed to report, after careful enquiry, as to whether there is now a reasonable chance of solving the problem of flight."

Sir Hiram Maxim, who opened the discussion, said: "My own experience tells me there cannot be any question of the future of the flying machine. It is coming, whether we like it or not."

Major B. F. G. Baden-Powell, who occupied the chair, said in another ten years' time they might have machines flying through the air which would be absolutely under control and of great practical use.

Directly that had been done every Government would obtain them and their navies would then be practically useless as the first line of defence. The dirigible balloon of the future would be a powerful factor in war, for their ships could not fight them with guns of the present day, while the occupants of an airship could drop projectiles on the decks of ships whenever they wished to do so.

Major Baden-Powell concluded:—"This may appear like a dream of the future. It is one that may be realized, and we must prepare against such a contingency by paying so much attention to the subject that we in England will have our airships with which to fight our battles."

This is ladies' night at St. Andrew's Rollaway. On Thursday night there were two races, the first open to boys under 14 years of age who have never won a race. Entries close at the box office Thursday noon. The second race will be between Alward and Wilson. These men have met three times already. Each has a race to his credit and the other was a dead heat.

Alward won his race Saturday night last in the fast time of 1:40 1/5, a 329 clip. Both men are very fast and evenly matched, and this should be the best race yet.

FRANCE DESIRES CLOSER FRIENDSHIP WITH GERMANY

Premier Clemenceau tells What His Country Has Done, and How the Vacillating Policy of Germany Has Upset All Plans.

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—The Tagblatt today printed a despatch from Paris detailing an interview which its correspondent at the French capital had with Premier Clemenceau and Foreign Minister Pichon the day before. The despatch stated that Clemenceau delivered his recent speech in the Reichstag on German foreign relations. M. Clemenceau after referring to the attacks of the German press on the new French ministry, is quoted as saying: "The Germans have one fault. They treat us on one moment with exquisite politeness and the next moment with exaggerated brusqueness. Before the Moroccan affair the feeling here had greatly improved and there were many people among us who regarded a rapprochement with Germany as very desirable and I readily admit that the Emperor personally played a large part in bringing this state of affairs about. Then, although we overthrew M. Delcasse, (as foreign minister) the German press attacked the papers even asserting that Germany could not meet the United States the milliards necessary for a German-French war. Thus the Moroccan affair resulted in the loss of the ground which had been gained in previous years. "I do not want war and no one else here wants war. We desire good relations with all foreign countries and if these relations are not satisfactory we are desirous of improving them. Of course we must always be strong and prepared for everything, but that does not mean that we want war. On the contrary, anyone who desires war would be regarded as demented and it was because we thought so that we overthrew M. Delcasse who did not want war but whose policy might have led to war. It would be impossible for us to pursue a warlike policy for Parliament would dismiss the ministers at once, as it did in the case of Delcasse. "The task which I have set myself is to continue the work of improving the relations between France and Germany. "M. Pichon fully endorsed M. Clemenceau's views, declaring that he, with M. Clemenceau, would do everything to improve the relations between the two countries."

Another List of More or Less Interesting Cases in the Police Court.

There was another busy session in the police court this morning and the cases were of various kinds. There were drunk, abusive language, damaging property and cruelty to animals. James West, who hails from Cambridge, Mass., pleaded guilty to profanity and was fined $8 or 20 days jail. Carl Johnson and John Moro were fined $8 each for drunkenness. Esther McAulay pleaded not guilty to using abusive language to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nealy in their house in West End. J. B. M. Baxter appeared for the prosecution. Mr. and Mrs. Nealy reacted to the court the language which Mrs. McAulay used and for a time the air was blue. The defendant was told that she was liable to $8 or two months. MORE BOYS. Five boys, Nichol, Peters, Goldsmith, Winters and McLaughlin, were in court on an adjourned case. They were charged with breaking glass that had been broken in the Howe factory. A boy named Robert Harris testified that he saw young Winters throw a stone and break a pane of glass. Robert Clayton, the little house breaker, was brought into court from jail and after winking at the other boys in court, he was told to remove awad of gum from his mouth. He testified that he and three other boys, Moore, Monahan and McLaughlin, threw the stones and broke the windows, but that Nichol, Peters, Goldsmith and Winters were not there. McLaughlin and Winters were held and told they were liable to a fine of $8 or two months' jail while the other boys were dismissed. CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. James Hudson, a west side butcher, was in the court charged by S. M. Westmore, secretary of the S. P. C. A., on

Rev. Madison Peters Will Preach in Theatres—Herrings Have Left His Fishing Grounds, and He Will Angle for Smells.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The Tribune today prints the following: The Rev. Dr. Madison C. Peters said yesterday that he would soon start a movement to reach the "unchurched masses." This departure will be made as soon as the Baptist Church of the Epiphany, of which he has been the pastor for the last year vacates its present site on December 9. Dr. Peters has leased the Majestic Theatre at Columbus Circle for preaching services, beginning the first Sunday in January. The building has a seating capacity of two thousand. He is also negotiating for a downtown theatre in Broadway for evening services. It is his purpose, he says, to become the "people's preacher," and the services, "while dignified, will be made as attractive as possible and unsectarian." Dr. Peters said he believed the time had come for the church to avail herself of the popularity of the theatre. Many of the most eloquent preachers, he said, pastors of fashionable churches, were preaching to less than fifty men on the fairest Sunday mornings. "The fact is, the churches have been serving Christianity on ice, and sinners are afraid of coming into our sacred refrigerators for fear of catching the chills," said Dr. Peters. "I do not believe that I was either by nature or by calling intended to be an apostle to the gentiles. I believe that the church must fit herself to new conditions. A preacher should be a father of men, and if a run of herrings goes away from his section of the sea, and in their place there comes a shoal of smells, he is not much of a fisherman if he does not change his net, instead of sticking to the old one, which has been a failure in the catching line. I am simply going to alter my machinery to the needs of the people."

MORE ENDOWMENT FOR OLD MCGILL

Movement Afoot to Raise $1,000,000—Mr. Robert Reford Promises $50,000.

(Montreal Star) A movement is on foot to increase the endowment of McGill University by $1,000,000. Mr. Robert Reford has already offered to contribute $50,000 of this amount, conditional on the whole sum being raised within a year by subscriptions from citizens or former citizens of Montreal. This was announced at a meeting of the Board of Governors of the University, held yesterday afternoon when it was decided to issue an appeal to the citizens of Montreal for additional funds. The formal appeal is a lengthy affair, and recites the reasons that have made such an effort necessary. McGill has not made a public appeal for financial aid for twenty-five years, in which period the growth of the university has been phenomenal. McGill cannot expect any assistance from the Provincial Government as has been received by Toronto University from Ontario. The province of Quebec is not in a position financially to make such grants. The educational enterprises of the university now represent about $6,000,000. Its annual expenditure is about $2,000,000. The full return from students last year was only $1,500,000, the balance having to be met by the income of benefactions and donations. It costs the university to educate each student three or four times as much as the student pays in fees. The rapid growth in the number of students in attendance has thus proven a great drain on the resources available, and for several years the income has been exceeded by expenditure. Gifts and endowments have as a general thing involved new obligations. As far as her general funds are concerned, the university is not rich, for example. The need now is for a fund that may be used to meet the increased working expenses of the university, and it is on the assumption that this is to be a million dollars that Mr. Robert Reford has come forward with his conditional offer of $50,000. McGill is only following in the footsteps of other universities in America when taking this measure. Queen's is at present endeavoring to raise a large endowment fund, while Columbia is asking the public for only $12,000,000. In connection with the appeal to the public for assistance a committee will be organized which will be known as the McGill University Endowment Committee. An honorary treasurer will be appointed. At the same meeting it was announced that the board had decided to make provision for the appointment of the principal as an ex-officio member of the board. This action is in line with the principles now acknowledged by the leading universities of this continent, as well as the leading universities of Great Britain, Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Johns Hopkins, Cornell, all contain a provision in their constitution for the president or principal of the university holding a seat on the Board of Trustees. Mr. J. J. Morin was appointed assistant professor of modern languages; Mr. R. E. Macdonald, assistant professor of classics; and Miss M. L. Millar, assistant professor of modern languages. Dr. J. H. Sprinkle was appointed lecturer on dental anatomy and surgery in the place of Dr. E. R. Barton. Resolutions were passed constituting the Macdonald College at St. Anne's, Que., and the McGill University College of British Columbia, at Vancouver, B. C., colleges of McGill University.
