ANS.

JAMES ROWE NARRAWAY, A. M.,

whose death we mourn, and whose memory we lovingly revere to-day, was born in Biddeford, Devonshire, Eng., in the year 1819. His parents were Methodists and his childhood was spent amid the moral and religious influences distinctive of an English Methodist home. In 1829 the family came to this country, and a few years later James found his way to Charlottetown, P. E. I., where, with noble self-reliance, he entered upon his chosen secular calling. Boarding with his employer, who, with his wife, had recently emigrated from Ireland, where they had been recognized as intelligent and devoted Methodists, young Narraway, as a member of this Christian household, enjoyed associations of a morally healthful and elevating character. In 1837, under the ministry of the late Rev. Richard Knight, D. D., Charlottetown, was the scene of a remarkable revival of religion, when out of a population of 2,500, 200 persons professed conversion, of whom James R. Narraway was one. Under the impulse of grateful love for his newly-found Saviour, he at once gave himself to His service. Convinced of a divine call to the work of the ministry, he offered himself in due course as a candidate for that sacred office in the Methodist church. In 1841 he was admitted as a probationer by the committee of the British Conference, and in 1845 was received into full connection and ordained. During the term of his active ministry, embracing twenty-eight years, he was stationed on several of the most important circuits in Nova Scotia, P. E. Island and New Brunswick. Possessed of an uncommonly vigorous mind, his intellectual powers were developed, strengthened and enriched as the result of excessive reading and those habits of patient study and independent thinking for which, throughout life, he was characterized. As a pulpit and platform orator his fame soon became widely spread. By a style, masterly in exposition, logical in argument, flashing in outbursts of impassioned eloquence, and richly studded with those felicities of expression which have a charm for all, he easily captured and controlled the understanding and hearts of his hearers. On several of the circuits which he occupied his ministry was divinely honored by signal displays of soul-converting power, and perhaps in no place more than in Carleton, St. John, where hundreds were brought into the experience of the new life. Chastened from the beginning of his public career by the infirmity of increasing deafness, borne with exemplary fortitude, he courageously undertook and efficiently discharged the onerous duties of the active ministry, until, in 1869, the serious impairment of his voice compelled him to seek a supernumerary relation to the Conference. The years of his retirement were spent in St. John, where, keeping himself in sensible touch with the interests of the church and the welfare of the country, he did much by speech and pen to promote these laudable objects. Early in January, 1892, he was assailed by that disease to which he has finally succumbed. Informed of the nature of his trouble he at once apprehended its ultimate result, saying to her whom God had given to be his companion for so many years: "I must set my house in order." His last public appearance was at the public reception given in Centenary church to the newly arrived pastor, Rev. Mr. Teasdale. In the course of the following night Mrs. Narraway, hearing him talking in bed, went to his room and heard him giving an address to ministers, in which he particularly urged as the great secret of success in winning souls the expectation of success. This was the one point of the very eloquent and logical address which struck her most. Preceded by several hours of unconsciousness, the final moment came at nine o'clock on Sabbath morning, 12th of August, when, without the slightest physical struggle, the brave and beautiful, the gentle and grace-robed spirit of James Rowe Narraway escaped beyond all earthly limitations, to enjoy forever the supreme rest of heaven. Thus soothed and sustained by an unflinching trust, like one "who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams," he died in the seventy-fourth year of his age and the fifty-second year of his ministry.

CYRUS H. RICE, B. A.,

who was born in Peterboro, Ont., April 26th, 1872, and died in St. John, N. B., December 29th, 1893. He gave his heart to God when very young and was a most dutiful son and loving brother. When at Sackville, pursuing his university course, he consecrated himself more fully to the Saviour and became very active in all Christian work. He was a general favorite both with professors and students and his influence was always for good. At our last Conference he was received as a probationer for our ministry and was sent to labor on Grand Manan mission.

During the six months that he ministered to the people on that island he greatly endeared himself to all with whom he became acquainted. Our own people esteemed him highly for his work's sake, and both old and young regarded him as a most exemplary young man and as a minister of great promise. He threw himself earnestly into his work and did all he could to promote the interests of Christ's cause in the several places he was called to labor. He was admired and beloved by adherents of other churches as well as those of our own.

His health having failed, and acting upon the advice of some friends he went to St. John for change and rest, but while there the end came.

For a few years he labored well in his Master's cause, and then his career, which had been bright with promise, came to a close.

The Judge of all the earth doeth right, and what we know not now we shall know hereafter.

Sabbath School Committee met in the vestry of the Methodist Church, Sackville.

Rev. M. R. Knight was appointed to the chair, and Rev. N. McLauchlin, Secretary-Treasurer.

I. On motion, resolved, that this Committee recommend that a column be left in the Sunday School Schedules for the number of children of the Methodist Church attending Union Schools.

II. Resolved, that we ask for a column in our Sabbath School Schedules for "other periodicals published in our Book Room."

III. Whereas, your Committee regret to find that such a small percentage of those attending our Sabbath Schools are studying the Methodist Catechism; therefore

IV. Resolved, that this Committee would recommend that the Conference bring the matter before the ministers and superintendents of our schools.

Speakers for next year: Revs. W. J. Kirby, Edwin Turner, S. Howard.

For full returns of past year see Tables on pages 93-100.

N. McLAUCHLIN,

12. EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT.

The Epworth League Committee met in the Sackville church June 25th. Rev. A. D. McCully was elected chairman, and Louis E. Young secretary.

The committee presents the following report:

Districts	No. of Leagues.	Members.	Amount Raised.
Fredericton	5	223	$168 73
St. Stephen	2	113	28 00
St. John	10	453	135 00

Sackville	4	240	86 95
Summerside	12	358	160 21
Charlottetown	6	166	159 00
Total	43	1705	$817 67
Increase	10	167	Dec. $179 95

It is gratifying to your committee to be able to report this increase of 10 in the number of Leagues and 167 in the number of members.

Your committee recommends that two members of this Conference be appointed to act in conjunction with others appointed by the conferences or bodies in Canada to make arrangements for holding in each year of the General Conference a convention of the young people of the Methodist Church.

We endorse the recommendations included in last year's report, and would strongly urge the ministers and laymen of the church to make strenuous efforts to advance the work of this young people's society.

As there is to be a Maritime Province Christian Endeavour Convention held in Moncton, September 4-7 next, and as a special demonstrational session is to be a regular part of the programme, it is recommended that an earnest effort be made to make the Methodists rally as strong and influential as possible.

13. TEMPERANCE REPORT.

The Committee on Temperance begs to report the following recommendations :

The committee met and elected Rev. G. M. Campbell chairman, and F. A. Wightman secretary.

This Conference desires to express its gratification at the continued growth of public sentiment on the question of temperance, as evidenced by the result of the plebiscite in the various provinces of this Dominion where that test has been applied, and especially in the neighbouring province of Nova Scotia, and would here remind our people of, and place on record, the attitude of the Methodist Church as one of uncompromising hostility to the liquor traffic in all its forms.

We would also remind the electorate of this country of the obligations resting upon them in the exercising of this influence as citizens in the use of the sacred privileges of the franchise, deeming it as we do, one of the strongest factions in influencing political sentiment, and, in fact, the key to the coveted goal of prohibition.

This Conference would also recommend the continued observance of at least one Sabbath in the year to be known as "Temperance Sunday," on which temperance sermons shall be preached to all our congregations, and the recommendations of our church be set before our people. We would recommend that the first Sunday in December be set apart for that purpose.

The Conference desires to place on record its appreciation of the great work which is being done by the various temperance organizations in the country, and especially that of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. We wish them all God speed in their noble efforts and uncompromising battle against our common foe.

This committee is highly gratified at the substantial increase of males who have taken the pledges in our Sabbath Schools, and would still impress the importance of this matter on our Sabbath School Superintendents.

Your committee further recommends that the General Conference be memorialized to insert another pledge in conjunction with the one already provided in our Discipline (sec. 294), which will be simply a pledge against intoxicating beverages.

In answer to the request from the Dominion Alliance we desire that this Conference express its hearty sympathy with that body in its efforts for the promotion of temperance, and would nominate the brethren William Lawson, G. W. Fisher,

W. D. Baskin and Martin Lemont as delegates to attend the council meeting to be held in the city of Montreal the first week in July.

The secretary of the Conference is requested to make suitable reply to the communication from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Rev. G. M. Campbell and Thomas Marshall and one layman be the speakers at the next Conference.

F. A. WIGHTMAN, Secretary.

14. BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

The examination shall be conducted by the Secretary in St. John at some time in May. Time to be arranged by Secretary. The examination on Prince Edward Island shall be held at the same date under the superintendence of the Charlottetown minister, who shall forward the papers to the Secretary of the Board for the purpose of securing their valuation by the members of the Board who have prepared the questions.

H. POPE, D. D., Chairman.

CHARLES H. PAISLEY, M. A., Secretary.

15. COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE WORK.

Your committee met in the Sackville church on June 25th, 1894. Notwithstanding the large number of removals on many of our circuits, we are glad to be able to report a gratifying increase in the membership of our church and spiritual blessing upon our people and congregations.

Resolved, That the ministers be urged to co-operate with each other on adjacent circuits in evangelistic work whenever practicable, and in meetings for the promotion of Scriptural holiness, and also whole-hearted effort for the saving of souls.

W. E. JOHNSON, Secretary.

Pastoral Address.

To the Members of the Methodist Church within the bounds of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Conference.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN :

As your united pastorate, assembled in our Annual Conference at Sackville, where the first Methodist Church of the Maritime Provinces was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, and where are situated our great Educational Institutions, we extend to you words of peace and loving admonition.

We desire to convey our most cordial greetings unto you. Receive them as a renewed assurance of our deep love and interest in you and yours, and of our earnest prayer "that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that you may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Christ Jesus, unto the glory and praise of God." So, ministers of the Lord Jesus Christ, and laborers together with you, called by the Holy Spirit of God to marshal the army of the Lord of Hosts, we recognize the great responsibility resting upon us in the ministry, and we earnestly pray that "God, whose we are and whom we serve," will impart wisdom and grace according to our need. How sweet to us throughout another year has been your fellowship in the gospel, and how helpful have been your hearty co-operation and noble self-sacrifice in the work of God and humanity. Rest assured, dear brethren, that "we give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God."

In reviewing the history of the past year, the manifest goodness and mercies of God fill our hearts with loving gratitude. There have been no very extensive revivals, except in a few cases, yet, on most of our circuits, souls have been converted to God. The doctrine of scriptural holiness, which was the mission of Methodism from the beginning to spread throughout the land, has been expounded and enforced in all our pulpits. We rejoice to know that Christian perfection, as taught by Mr. Wesley, is no new doctrine in our congregation.

Sickness has been very prevalent in the homes of our people during the year, and we deeply sympathize with those families who have been called to mourn the loss of loved ones. For those whose translation has left affecting vacancies in pulpit and pew, we sorrow not "as others which have no hope."

"Our people die well" was the testimony of our venerable founder. The ranks of the ministry sustain the loss of two brethren. Father Narraway, who has been a supernumerary for some years, and the Rev. C. H. Rice, B. A., a probationer, have passed away. Their obituaries appear in their proper place in the Minutes. The workmen perish but the work goes grandly on. Year after year the Lord is raising up workers to fill the vacancies in the ranks.

Let us remind you of the importance of family worship. In every home let there be a family altar erected where God is worshipped morning and evening. For out of the home must come that which blesses or curses humanity. It may well be said, whatever are good and great in the State must begin in the home. See to it then that your homes are centres of religious influence and thus furnish examples to the irreligious around you. Be as frequent as possible in your attendance upon the services of God's house, and your presence, testimony and prayers will be made a blessing to others. Learn to prize the public ministry of the word, which will prove helpful to you and your families. Without regular attendance on the means of grace, family religion frequently declines and in some instances is utterly neglected. We beseech you to honor the Lord's day. Avoid everything in conversation, as well as deeds, which may tend to its violation. Allow no business or worldly enterprise to rob you of family and private prayer. Daily prayers and constant faith in the Lord will keep alive the spiritual life in your hearts and homes. Before your children go forth to fight life's battles make it your duty, as it is your privilege, to give them the best Christian training possible, so that they will prove a blessing to the church and to the State. The children of to-day are the hope and joy of the church to-morrow, and upon them in the near future will come vast responsibilities. Encourage them to carefully read and study the Holy Scriptures that they may have an intelligent view of Jesus and His claims upon mankind. It is very important to have your children thoroughly instructed in the doctrines of our church as presented in our catechism. In a reading age like this, we exhort you to provide them with pure, healthy literature that they may grow up to love and prize that which elevates and refines. As "books are the immortal part of men," it behooves you, as parents, to watch carefully who speak and instruct your children through their writings. Guard as a sacred trust the character of the reading matter that comes into your homes. In the selection of newspapers for your homes you need, as in the case of books, to exercise your best judgment and care. We deeply regret the wide publicity given to the sickening details of the prize fight, and such other matter of a vile and degrading tendency, by a part of the daily and weekly press. Against such demoralizing influences coming into your homes, which oppose the intellectual and spiritual development of your families, let your earnest protests be voiced in the most practical and effectual way.

To your most careful consideration and hearty support we cordially commend our Book Room at Halifax, which affords splendid facilities for obtaining such books as you need for yourselves and your children, for house and Sabbath School use. The Wesleyan, our excellent connectional paper, will fill a place in your families which no other paper can. We sincerely urge all our people to subscribe for it.

It affords us the highest gratification to see the continued increase in our Sabbath School prosperity. We believe this to be one of the most promising fields for the future growth of the church. We pray you, dear brethren, that your earnest co-operation may continue in this noble work. And we trust that those who are not actually engaged as officers and teachers will aid the advancement of this departure of Christian service by showing an interest and sympathy in attending the Bible classes as frequently as possible. We desire to record our high appreciation of the valuable labors of the devoted men and women who have given themselves so faithfully to this work.

During the past year much has been accomplished through the efforts of the Epworth League and Christian Endeavor Societies, and the reports are most gratifying. We bespeak for the future training and nurture of the young, in these departments of consecrated labor, your hearty support.

It is with pleasure we call your attention to the living, burning question of temperance, and the great enthusiasm with which the battle against this mighty evil is being pushed to the gates. No question of such importance occupies the attention of the Canadian people to-day. No other evil has such wealth and power, and none so effectually destroys the public virtue and peace and the happiness of home. It has been said of this, the greatest foe of the church and the most hateful curse of mankind, that "It knows itself as an ally of Satan; it recognizes the church as its natural enemy; it heaps curses upon the heads of a faithful ministry, and is doing its utmost to break down the restraints of religion, to abolish the observance of the Sabbath and uproot all moral legislation." Against this common enemy of God, of home and of native land, our church has sworn eternal hostility. In this battle between the kingdom of darkness and the kingdom of light there can be no compromise. In this instance the lion and the lamb cannot lie down together. Let us not cease the struggle until we obtain prohibition for the nation and total abstinence for the individual.

We hail with pleasure the magnificent majorities in favor of prohibition in the provinces of Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, Ontario and Manitoba, and we hope the morning of the day is breaking when the other provinces of our fair Dominion will have the privilege of declaring themselves by ballot in favor of the total suppression of this king of evils. When that time comes your duty as Christians and citizens is clear. We rejoice with you that our nation is waking up to the great fact that the rum traffic cannot be legalized without sin, and that nothing short of prohibition, pure and simple, will bring about the utter extermination of the traffic in strong drink. We appreciate the valuable work done by all the temperance organizations, and, while in earnest, sympathetic prayer, we wish them all God-speed in their noble work. We would remind you that our church is a temperance organization, affording a field for doing, above all others, the most effective temperance work. Long before any other temperance society existed, the rules of the Methodist Church prohibited our people from "buying, selling or drinking spiritual liquors, except in cases of extreme necessity." Every member should, therefore, consider himself sacredly committed to this work, and by all honorable means seek to promote its speedy success. Endeavor to elect only such men as your representatives as will throw their whole influence with the temperance movement.

In asking your continued support of our missionary work, we call your attention to the zeal and growing prosperity with which this department of our work is being prosecuted.

But we specially commend to your large liberality and sympathy our Sustentation Fund. We regard this as one of the most important of our funds, and with its objects and needs we are persuaded you are better acquainted year after year. The ministers of our home missions must not be neglected. Every year they have suffered deficiencies in their salaries, ranging from $200 to $250. Nor need we tell you that these large deficiencies are very distressing to many of our brethren toiling on these fields, and are discreditable to us as a great church. In stating these facts we hope to enlist a deeper interest and a larger liberality in support of this home mission fund, out of which the small salaries of our home missionaries were increased last year to the extent of $45 each.

The Supernumerary Fund has large claims upon you. Men who have faithfully labored among you in the days of their youth and vigor, through whose influences many of you have been led to a saving knowledge of Jesus, are compelled to retire from active service, year after year, and to this fund many of our brethren are looking with anxious concern as the chief source of support in the years of failing health and in old age. With those brethren, who have been compelled by ill health to seek a supernumerary relation, we deeply sympathize, but trust that they may soon be able to resume the active work of the ministry.

Our Educational Institutions have been well patronized throughout the year and have accomplished most satisfactory work. The new college building, drawing near completion, supplies a want long felt. In this age of culture, when there are great demands for well trained men and women in all departments of business and life, the education of our young people should be to all of us a matter of serious thought and intelligent action. What our educational institutions are will largely decide what the future of our church will be. We rejoice with you in knowing that a deep revival influence pervades these Sackville institutions, which are annually sending forth workers into the ministry, Sabbath school and home—in fact into all the vocations of life. To these magnificent schools of learning you can safely intrust the training of your sons and daughters, and we most strongly urge you to give them your most hearty support and patronage.

And now, brethren, in closing our address, we "commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified." Let each seek the baptism from above, that the year upon which we now enter may be one of praise and glory to the cause of the Blessed Master.

And, "Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you."

Signed by order and in behalf of the Conference,

REV. JOHN A. CLARK, A. M., President.

REV. JAMES CRISP, Secretary.
